FIRST, THE BONN GOVERNMENT HAS ONLY WEST GERMANY UNDER ITS RULE. THE ALLIES ACCORDINGLY HAVE WORKED OUT A FORMULA WHICH WILL BIND IT TO PAY ONLY A PROPORTION OF CERTAIN DEBTS INCURRED BY THE LARGER PREWAR REICH.

SECOND, THE ALLIES THEMSELVES ARE READY TO WAIVE THE PRIORITY RE-SERVED TO THEM FOR REDEMPTION OF THE POSTWAR HELP THEY HAVE GIVEN GERMANY.

ONE BIG PROBLEM YET TO BE SETTLED:

THE GERMANS WOULD LIKE TO SET THEIR FOREIGN ASSETS--FROZEN WHEN WAR BROKE OUT IN ALLIED AND NEUTRAL COUNTRIES--AGAINST THE DEBTS.

MANY ALLIED NATIONS VERY LIKE WILL RESIST THIS BECAUSE THEY FEEL THEY ARE ENTITLED TO MORE WAR DAMAGE COMPENSATION FROM THE GERMANS THAN THEY HAVE RECEIVED.

ASIDE FROM VARIOUS FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS, GERMANY IS INDEBTED TO MANY PRIVATE GROUPS LIKE BANKS. THESE GROUPS WILL BE REPRESENTED AT THE LONDON TALK TOO, THE OFFICIALS SAID.

LONDON, MAY 22-(AP)-A CABINET MINISTER INDICATED TODAY THE UNITED STATES WILL ALLOCATE MORE SCARCE SULPHUR AND COTTON TO HARD-PRESSED BRITISH INDUSTRY.

RICHARD R.STOKES, LORD PRIVY SEAL, FLEW BACK TO LONDON AFTER VISITING UNITED STATES AND CANADA TO TALK OVER THE PROBLEM OF SCARCE RAW MATERIALS.

BRITAIN GETS THE BULK OF ITS SULPHUR FROM THE UNITED STATES, AND MUCH OF ITS COTTON. THERE RECENTLY HAVE BEEN COMPLAINTS THAT AMERICAN ALLOCATIONS OF BOTH WERE SHORT OF BRITISH NEEDS.

"THE UNITED STATES IS THOROUGHLY APPRECIATIVE OF OUR PROBLEMS, PARTICULARLY IN REGARD TO SULPHUR SUPPLIES," STOKES TOLD NEWSMEN UPON HIS ARRIVAL HERE.

"I THINK OUR ALLOTMENT FOR THE SECOND HALF OF THIS YEAR WILL BE BETTER THAN OF LATE. I EXPECT AN ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT SULPHUR WILL BE MADE IN PARLIAMENT IN ABOUT TWO WEEKS AND I THINK IT WILL BE GOOD NEWS."

STOKES ADDED THAT A FORECAST OF A HIGHER COTTON CROP IN THE UNITED STATES THIS YEAR THAN LAST MADE "MUCH BRIGHTER" BRITISH PROSPECTS OF GETTING MORE COTTON.

STOKES MADE NO ESTIMATE, HOWEVER, OF THE AMOUNT OF COTTON OR SULPHUR WHICH BRITAIN SOUGHT FROM THE UNITED STATES.

Frankfurt, Germany, May 22--(AP)---U.S. high commissioner John J. McCloy bristled under questioning today by German reporters about allied-requisitioned property in West Germany.

Asked when the allies plan to turn back hotels and swimming pools used by the occupation forces, he said:

"I have just read a German newspaper article on the 'evil dismantling' of Wiesbaden. I defy you to go any place in Europe and find a more prosperous town. I imagine that, as long as we have one swimming pool under requisition, there will be such articles in the German press."

McCloy said he will not overrule U.S. army authorities on questions of requisitioned property "when their demands are just and related to the security and morale of their troops." He referred to the fact fresh American soldiers are headed here to reinforce western defenses.

"I get a little fed up with this criticism," he said. "The fourth division is coming to Germany soon and it will need some recreation."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, MAY 22-(AP)-CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAS PROTESTED TO THE U.S. EMBASSY HERE THAT "HOSTILE ACTIVITIES" HAVE BEEN CARRIED ON AGAINST THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT BY AMERICANS, PARTICULARLY THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR BROADCASTS OF "RADIO FREE EUROPE."
THE GOVERNMENT RADIO, ANNOUNCING THIS TODAY, ALSO CHARGED THAT A GROUP OF "SIX OR SEVEN ARMED AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN TWO MOTOR CARS" CROSSED THE BORDER FROM BAVARIA INTO CZECHOSLOVAKIA, AND LOOKED AROUND WITH FIELD GLASSES.
(RADIO FREE EUROPE IS OPERATED BY A GROUP OF PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS. IT BEAMS ANTI-COMMUNIST PROGRAMS TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN THE CZECH LANGUAGE.)
THE CZECH GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENT SAID RADIO FREE EUROPE WAS ENGAGED IN WARMONGERING FOR WHICH IT EMPLOYED "CZECHOSLOVAK TRAITORS." THE NOTE HANDED TO THE U.S. AMBASSADOR IN PRAGUE, ELLIS O.BRIGGS, SAID FURTHER THAT RADIO FREE EUROPE USED AN UNAUTHORIZED WAVELENGTH.
THE U.S., SAID THE NOTE, COULD NOT ESCAPE RESPONSIBILITY FOR RADIO FREE EUROPE'S ACTIVITIES BY CONTENDING IT WAS PRIVATELY MANAGED.
THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT, SAID THE NOTE, "PROTESTS MOST STRONGLY ALL THE FORMS OF THIS HOSTILE ACTIVITY, AND EXPECTS TO BE INFORMED OF THE MEASURES THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES TAKES."
THE NOTE SAID REPEATED PROTESTS HAD BEEN MADE TO THE UNITED STATES, AND ADDED:
"IN SPITE OF THESE PROTESTS, THESE ACTIVITIES HAVE NOT ONLY NOT CEASED, BUT ARE INCREASING MORE AND MORE. THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES IS PREPARING, ORGANIZING AND CARRYING OUT CONSISTENTLY HOSTILE ACTIVITIES AGAINST THE CZECHOSLOVAK REPUBLIC."
CONCERNING THE ALLEGED BORDER VIOLATION BY U.S. SOLDIERS, IT SAID THAT "THESE PERSONS PENETRATED DEEP INTO CZECHOSLOVAK TERRITORY, INSPECTED BORDER INSTALLATIONS, MADE OBSERVATIONS THROUGH TELESCOPES AND PHOTOGRAPHED THEM, AND LEFT THE SAME WAY THEY CAME."
"THIS NOT AN ISOLATED CASE OF ARMED AMERICAN VIOLATIONS OF CZECHOSLOVAK TERRITORIAL SOVERIGNTY," IT SAID. "THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT HAS PROOFS OF ACTIVE AMERICAN LEADERSHIP IN THE ORGANIZATION OF ESPIONAGE, SABOTAGE AND OTHER HOSTILE ACTIVITIES X X X."

CONCERNING THE UNAUTHORIZED WAVELENGTH CHARGE, JACKSON SAID RFE OPERATED ON 719 KILOCYCLES BY ARRANGEMENT WITH THE U.S.STATE DEPARTMENT.
THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR A FREE EUROPE IS THE PARENT ORGANIZATION FOR SEVERAL ACTIVITIES, IN ADDITION TO RADIO FREE EUROPE.
ONE OF THESE DIVISIONS IS THE CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM, HEADED BY GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY, FORMER AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR IN GERMANY. THE CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM IS THE FUND-RAISING BRANCH OF THE ORGANIZATION. IT SPONSORED THE "FREEDOM BELL" WHICH WAS INSTALLED IN THE TOWER OF THE WEST BERLIN CITY HALL.

IT OBTAINS ITS FUNDS BY POPULAR SUBSCRIPTION, AS DUR G A TOUR OF THE FREEDOM BELL, AND FROM VARIOUS FOUNDATIONS, JACKSON SAID.

"WE ARE INDEED A PRIVATE ORGANIZATION," HE ADDED.

OTHER SUB-DIVISIONS OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE ARE THE MID-EUROPEAN STUDY CENTER IN NEW YORK AND THE NATIONAL COUNCILS DIVISION.

JACKSON SAID THE STUDY CENTER GAVE ASYLUM TO EXILE SCHOLARS AND PROVIDED FACILITIES FOR THEIR STUDIES.

"WE GIVE THEM MONEY AND A PLACE TO WORK," HE SAID.

HE SAID THE NATIONAL COUNCILS DIVISION WORKS WITH THE NATIONAL COUNCILS OF EXILES TO HELP THEM RETAIN THEIR NATIONAL IDENTITIES.

JACKSON SAID THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE HAD NOT YET RECEIVED FORMAL NOTICE OF THE CZECH PROTEST, BUT THAT HE PRESUMED THE STATE DEPARTMENT WOULD INFORM IT OF THE CONTENTS OF THE NOTE HANDED TO AMBASSADOR BRIGGS.

PRECEDE WARSAW DAY (280)

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, MAY 22-(AP)-POLAND AND RUSSIA HAVE EXCHANGED BITS OF TERRITORY ALONG THEIR COMMON FRONTIER BY AN AGREEMENT CONCLUDED RECENTLY, IT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

THE AGREEMENT MARKED THE RETURN TO DUTY OF SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY, WHO WAS TAKEN ILL LATE IN THE WINTER. HE SIGNED THE AGREEMENT FOR RUSSIA.

(THE CONTROLLED WARSAW PRESS PRESENTED THE TERRITORIAL EXCHANGE AS A GOOD DEAL FOR POLAND. THE TWO TERRITORIES TOTAL ABOUT 260 SQUARE MILES. INFORMANTS IN WARSAW SAID POLAND GAINED A RICH INDUSTRIAL AREA OF OIL AND GAS WELLS IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF DROGOBYCH (DROHOBYCZ) IN THE CARPATHIAN FOOTHILLS WHILE RUSSIA GAINED A TIP OF FARMING TERRITORY EAST OF LUBLIN THAT JUTS INTO THE SOVIET UKRAINE ACROSS A SECONDARY NORTH-SOUTH RAILWAY LINKING LWOW (LEMBERG) AND KOVEL (KOWEL). RUSSIA THUS GAINS FULL CONTROL OF THE SECTION OF RAILROAD.)

BOTH TERRITORIES INVOLVED IN THE EXCHANGE WERE POLISH BETWEEN THE TWO WORLD WARS. RUSSIA OCCUPIED THE EASTERN PART OF POLAND IN 1939, WHEN POLISH RESISTANCE TO GERMANY WAS IN ITS DYING STAGE.

DROGOBYCH IS IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CORNER OF POLAND CLOSE TO THE FORMER TERRITORY OF CARPATHO-UKRAINE (RUTHENIA) WHICH CZECHOSLOVAKIA CEDED TO RUSSIA IN JUNE, 1945.

THE CITY IS THE CENTER OF A SMALL BUT FAIRLY IMPORTANT OIL AND NATURAL GAS AREA. THE POPULATION IS PREDOMINANTLY UKRAINIAN. THE LUBLIN REGION IS A HIGHLY FERTILE AGRICULTURAL AREA.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE TRADE WAS MADE AT THE REQUEST OF POLAND AND THAT MAJ. GEN. ALEXANDER ZAWADSKI. FIRST VICE-PREMIER. SIGNED THE ACCORD FOR THE WARSAW GOVERNMENT.

IT WAS STATED HERE THAT THE EXCHANGE WAS MADE FOR ECONOMIC REASONS AND THAT BOTH REGIONS WOULD BE BETTER OFF.

THE AGREEMENT PROVIDES FOR RESETTLEMENT OF THE POLISH AND UKRAINIAN POPULATIONS OF THE TWO TERRITORIES. THE RESIDENTS MAY TAKE THEIR PORTABLE PROPERTY WITH THEM, BUT LEAVE REAL ESTATE, FARMING EQUIPMENT AND COMMUNICATION FACILITIES INTACT.

WARSAW, POLAND, MAY 22-(AP)-POLAND AND THE SOVIET UNION HAVE AGREED ON AN EXCHANGE OF SMALL PARCELS OF TERRITORY ON POLAND'S EASTERN FRONTIER, GIVING THE U.S.S.R. A LINK IN A RAIL LINE IN EXCHANGE FOR A PIECE OF UKRAINIAN TERRITORY INCLUDING AN OIL AND NATURAL GAS AREA.

THE AGREEMENT, ANNOUNCED HERE TODAY, WAS SIGNED RECENTLY IN MOSCOW BY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY AND MAJ.GEN. ALEXANDER ZAWADSKI, FIRST VICE PREMIER OF COMMUNIST POLAND.

THE ACCORD CALLS FOR THE RESETTLEMENT OF SOME POPULATION. IT PROVIDES THAT IN THE RESETTLEMENT OF THE POLES AN UKRAINIANS INVOLVED, PORTABLE PROPERTY MAY BE TAKEN WITH THEM, BUT REAL ESTATE EQUIPMENT AND COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES MUST BE LEFT INTACT.

THE WHOLE AGREEMENT WAS SAID TO INVOLVE ABOUT 260 SQUARE MILES OF TERRITORY. THE STRIP TO BE TAKEN OVER BY THE U.S.S.R. JUTS OUT FROM THE PRESENT POLISH FRONTIER EAST OF LUBLIN. THIS AREA IS CROSSED BY A RAILROAD WHICH LINKS LVOV (LEMBERG) AND KOWEL. BOTH THESE CITIES ARE IN THE TERRITORY TAKEN FROM POLAND BY THE U.S.S.R. AT THE OUTSET OF WORLD WAR II.

POLAND IS GIVEN A STRIP OF TERRITORY NEAR HER PRESENT SOUTHEAST FRONTIER IN THE REGION OF DROGOBYCH, WHICH ALSO WAS POLISH BEFORE THE SOVIETS MARCHED IN 1939. THE EXACT SIZE OF THE TWO AREAS INVOLVED IN THE TERRITORY EXCHANGE WAS NOT GIVEN.

INSPIRED EDITORIALS IN THE POLISH PRESS HAILED THE AGREEMENT AS A GAIN FOR POLAND. THESE EDITORIALS SAID THE LAND TURNED OVER TO THE SOVIET UNION WERE CHIEFLY AGRICULTURAL, BUT THAT POLAND GAINED AN INDUSTRIALLY RICH AREA.

(AN INCOMPLETE MOSCOW DISPATCH, PASSED THROUGH SOVIET CENSORSHIP, SAID THE EXCHANGE WAS AT POLAND'S REQUEST AND BROUGHT ABOUT FOR ECONOMIC REASONS SO THAT THE AREAS AFFECTED WOULD BE BETTER OFF.)

THE POPULATION OF THE DROGOBYCH AREA IS PREDOMINANTLY UKRAINIAN. IT LIES AT THE FOOTHILLS OF THE BESKIDS RANGE IN THE CARPATHIAN MOUNTAINS, SOUTHEAST OF THE POLISH RAIL CENTER OF PRZEMYSL. THE AREA CEDED TO THE U.S.S.R. ALSO IS ON THE UKRAINIAN FRONTIER, EAST OF LUBLIN AND IN THE GENERAL AREA OF THAT CITY. THE REGION IS A HIGHLY FERTILE AGRICULTURAL AREA.

BY ROBERT B. HEWETT

MAY 23 1951

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 22-(AP)-ABOUT 30,000 IRANIANS, WAVING MOSELEM RELIGIOUS BANNERS, BOOED THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN TODAY AT A DEMONSTRATION THREATENING A HOLY WAR IF NECESSARY TO NATIONALIZE OIL.

SWEATING UNDER THE SUN, THE CROWD WENT INTO A FRENZY WHEN THE BLACK-BEARDED, BLACK-TURBANED CHAMS GHANATABADI, LEADER OF THE MILITANT MUJAHEDDIN ISLAM (FIGHTERS FOR ISLAM) DECLARED:

"ALL LOYAL MOSLEMS WILL THROW THE BRITISH BANDITS INTO THE PERSIAN GULF IF THEY DO NOT LEAVE THE COUNTRY."

ANOTHER SPEAKER, HOSSEIN MAKKI, DECLARED A RECENT STATEMENT BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT WHICH THE IRANIANS REGARD AS BACKING THE BRITISH STAND AGAINST NATIONALIZATION, WAS "A STAB IN THE BACK OF THE IRANIAN NATION."

AT AN EARLIER RALLY, LEFTISTS CALLED FOR THE DEATH OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, WHO HAS LOCKED HIMSELF IN HIS PARLIAMENT BUILDING CHAMBERS SINCE MAY 14. THE LEFTISTS ENGAGED IN A FLURRY OF FIST

FIGHTS WITH MOSSADEGH SUPPORTERS.
THERE WAS AN AIR OF CRISIS IN THE CAPITAL. POLICE AND ARMY OFFICIALS WERE ON 24-HOUR ALERT. FLYING SQUADS OF TRUCK-BORNE POLICE AND MOUNTED POLICE PATROLLED THE STREETS. A DOZEN TANKS RUMBLED INTO THE CITY THIS MORNING.
THE MASS MEETING CALLED BY MOSLEM LEADERS AND MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL BLOC CHEERED A RESOLUTION WHICH DECLARED "STRONG HATRED" OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN.
THIS WAS THE LATEST MOVE TO BUILD UP PRESSURE TO OVERRIDE ANY BRITISH RESISTANCE TO GOVERNMENT SEIZURE OF THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, ITS ABADAN REFINERY, THE BIGGEST IN THE WORLD, AND THE OIL FIELDS WHERE IT OPERATES.
BECAUSE THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAS URGED MODERATION ON BOTH SIDES, THE UNITED STATES, TOO, HAS BEEN ACCUSED OF INTERFERING.
ALTHOUGH THE LAW NATIONALIZING THE COMPANY WAS ENACTED MORE THAN THREE WEEKS AGO, THE GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN NO PRACTICAL HINT OF HOW IT PLANS TO CARRY IT OUT.

THE PREMIER, THE AGED AND AILING FATHER OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW WAS SAID BY AN OFFICIAL TO HAVE LEFT HIS BARRED OFFICE AND LISTENED FROM THE PARLIAMENT STEPS TO THE "DEATH TO MOSSADEGH" SHOUTS RAILED AT THE RALLY OF 4,000 COMMUNIST-BACKED TRADE UNIONISTS.
FIGHTS BROKE OUT WHEN MOSSADEGH'S FRIENDS BURST INTO PARLIAMENT SQUARE, SHOUTING "LONG LIVE MOSSADEGH."
ALTHOUGH POLICE QUICKLY THREW A CORDON BETWEEN THE STRUGGLING GROUPS AND SEPARATED THEM, THE INCIDENT GRAPHICALLY EMPHASIZED THE CONFUSED POLITICAL SITUATION IN THIS COUNTRY, SOUTHERN NEIGHBOR OF SOVIET RUSSIA.
SHAH MOHAMMED REZA PAHLEVI IS REPORTED TO HAVE WARNED MOSSADEGH SATURDAY THAT HIS EXTREME NATIONALISTIC SPEECHES WERE CREATING A SITUATION THAT MIGHT RIPEN THE COUNTRY FOR COMMUNISM.
(IN LONDON, INFORMED SOURCES SAID BRITAIN HAS YIELDED TO AMERICAN PRESSURE AND DROPPED ANY IMMEDIATE THREAT OF USING FORCE IN THE OIL DISPUTE. IT WAS REPORTED BRITAIN ALSO HAS PROMISED TO CONSULT FULLY WITH THE UNITED STATES BEFORE DECIDING TO SEND TROOPS TO IRAN EVEN TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY. GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY TOLD A SENATE COMMITTEE IN WASHINGTON ON MONDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS NO COMMITMENTS TO GO INTO IRAN WITH THE BRITISH IN EVENT OF TROUBLE THERE.)
(MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS AND RADIO SAID BRITAIN'S LATEST NOTE TO IRAN CONTAINED A DIRECT THREAT. A MOSCOW DISPATCH SAID SOME DIPLOMATS FEARED A REAL DANGER TO WORLD PEACE WAS DEVELOPING. RUSSIA HAS A TREATY WITH IRAN WHICH SHE COULD INTERPRET AS ALLOWING HER TO SEND FORCES INTO THE COUNTRY IN THE EVENT OF A THREAT TO THE SOVIET UNION.

THE LEFTIST DEMONSTRATION WAS THE FIRST PUBLIC ATTACK ON MOSSADEGH, WHO FAINTED AND PLUNGED HEADLONG FROM THE ROSTRUM 10 DAYS AGO AFTER AN EMOTIONAL APPEAL TO PARLIAMENT FOR SPEEDY NATIONALIZATION OF IRAN'S OIL WEALTH.
SKEPTICAL DEPUTIES LAUGHED THEN WHEN HE SAID "RASCALS" HAD THREATENED HIS LIFE. HE HINTED THE FANATIC MOSLEM SECT OF FEDAYAN ISLAM, AS WELL AS THE COMMUNISTS, WERE THREATENING HIM.
THE LEFTIST RALLY POINTED UP THE RED OPPOSITION TO THE PREMIER WHO, IRONICALLY, HAS BEEN CALLED PRO-COMMUNIST BY SOME AMERICANS AND BRITISH. SPEAKERS ACCUSED MOSSADEGH, ONE OF THE COUNTRY'S WEALTHIEST MEN, OF KEEPING CORRUPT POLITICIANS IN OFFICE AND DRAGGING HIS FEET ON REFORMS, INCLUDING THE OIL SEIZURE.

THAT MEETING DREW ONLY 3,000 OR 4,000 PERSONS.
THE CHARGE OF BACK-STABBING AGAINST THE UNITED STATES BY MAKKI AT THE RELIGIOUS RALLY WAS ALONG LINES OF HIS RECENT DECLARATIONS ON THE POSSIBILITY OF A HOLY WAR. MAKKI IS MOSSADEGH'S RIGHT HAND MAN IN PARLIAMENT AND SECRETARY OF THE JOINT SENATE-MAJLIS OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD.

THE RALLY WAS CALLED BY AYATULLAH SEYED ABOLGHASSEM KASHANI, ONE OF IRAN'S LEADING PRIESTS. FOLLOWING CUSTOM, HE DID NOT ATTEND, BUT SENT THIS RECORDED MESSAGE:
"ALL OF US EXPRESS OUR HATRED AGAINST INTERFERENCES OF AMERICA AND BRITAIN IN THIS COUNTRY WHICH VIOLATE OUR INDEPENDENCE. IT IS BETTER FOR THOSE WHO PRETEND TO BE FRIENDS NOT TO OPEN THE WORLD TO A BURNING WAR WHICH WILL DESTROY THE WORLD. X X X
"BRITAIN, WHO HAS BEEN SUCKING THE BLOOD OF THE INNOCENT IRANIAN PEOPLE FOR 50 YEARS X X X HAS BROUGHT BLACK DAYS TO THIS NATION. NOW, SEEING THAT THEIR ERA OF CRUELTY AND LOOTING IS COMING TO AN END, THEY HAVE STARTED PROPAGANDA AGAINST US IN THE WORLD WITH THE MILLIONS LOOTED FROM OUR NATIONAL RESOURCES."
THE RESOLUTION WHICH DREW APPROVING SHOUTS CONTAINED THESE POINTS:
1--"WE HEREBY DECLARE TO THE WHOLE WORLD THE UNBREAKABLE WILL OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO TAKE OVER THE FORMER OIL COMPANY WITHOUT ANY CONDITIONS."
2--THE BRITISH NOTE PROTESTING NATIONALIZATION IS INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS AND "WE HEREBY DECLARE IT REJECTED."
3--PARLIAMENT HAD THE RIGHT UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER TO NATIONALIZE OIL AND "THE FORMER OIL COMPANY, WHICH IS ONLY A BUSINESS CONCERN, MUST SURRENDER TO THE WILL OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE."
4--"RUMORS OF DISPATCHING PARATROOPS FROM BRITAIN ARE CONSIDERED BY THE IRANIAN PEOPLE AS WILD AGGRESSION."
5--"THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT IS CONSIDERED AS CLEAR INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF IRAN AND HAS AWAKEND IN THE IRANIAN PEOPLE A STRONG HATRED REGARDING SUCH A STATEMENT."

FIRST LEAD IRAN
BY ROBERT B.HEWETT
MAY 23 1951
TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 22-(AP)-SUPPORTERS OF NATIONALIST PREMIER F.MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH CLASHED TODAY WITH DEMONSTRATORS AT A COMMUNIST-BACKED RAILWAY UNION RALLY CALLED TO DENOUNCE MOSSADEGH'S GOVERNMENT.
FISTS FLEW IN PARLIAMENT SQUARE AS THE ANGRY UNIONISTS ATTACKED A SMALL GROUP WHO INVADED THE AREA SHOUTING "LONG LIVE MOSSADEGH!"
THE CRY OF "DEATH TO MOSSADEGH!" WENT UP FROM THE RANKS OF THE UNION, WHICH IS REGARDED AS CONTROLLED BY THE UNDERGROUND COMMUNISTS.
THE AGED, AILING PREMIER, SWEPT INTO OFFICE THREE WEEKS AGO BY THE POPULAR CLAMOR FOR NATIONALIZATION OF THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, MAY HAVE HEARD THE DENUNCIATION OF HIS GOVERNMENT. HE IS BARRICADED BEHIND LOCKED DOORS AND BOARDED WINDOWS IN AN IMPROVISED OFFICE IN THE REAR OF THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING, CLAIMING THREATS HAVE BEEN MADE AGAINST HIS LIFE.
THE DEMONSTRATION WAS THE FIRST PUBLIC ATTACK ON MOSSADEGH, AND POINTED UP COMMUNIST OPPOSITION TO THE NATIONALIST PREMIER, WHO IS JUST AS INTENT, APPARENTLY, AS THE COMMUNISTS, TO DRIVE BRITONS AND AMERICANS OUT OF THIS COUNTRY. HE IS BEHIND THE NATIONALIZATION MOVE.

A153

SPEAKERS AT THE RALLY ACCUSED THE PREMIER, ONE OF THIS COUNTRY'S WEALTHIEST MEN, OF CONTINUING THE REIGN OF CORRUPT POLITICIANS AND DRAGGING HIS FEET ON REFORMS, INCLUDING NATIONALIZATION.
THE OUTBURST UNDERSCORED THE TURBULENT SITUATION IN THIS COUNTRY, ASTRIDE THE SOVIET UNION'S SOUTHERN BORDER. THE SHAH IS REPORTED TO HAVE WARNED MOSSADEGH SATURDAY THAT HIS EXTREME NATIONALISTIC SPEECHES WERE CREATING A DANGEROUS SITUATION WHICH MIGHT DRIVE IRAN INTO THE ARMS OF COMMUNISM.

THE MOSLEMS, WHO THREATEN HOLY WAR IF THE BRITISH RESIST NATIONALIZATION OF THEIR GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, CALLED A DEMONSTRATION TO "EXPRESS HATRED AGAINST INTERFERENCES WHICH VIOLATE OUR INDEPENDENCE." THE RALLY ALSO IS AIMED AGAINST AMERICA TAKING ANY HAND.

THERE IS AN ATMOSPHERE OF CRISIS IN THIS CAPITAL. ALL HIGH POLICE ARMY OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN PLACED ON 24-HOUR ALERT, AND UNUSUALLY HEAVY POLICE REINFORCEMENTS HAVE BEEN PLACED AT STRATEGIC POINTS IN THE AREA OF PARLIAMENT. FLYING SQUADS OF POLICE, 30 TO A TRUCKLOAD, AND OTHER POLICE DETACHMENTS HAVE BEEN STATIONED NEARBY. TANKS HAVE RUMBLED INTO THE CITY FROM AN OUTLYING MILITARY ENCAMPMENT, BUT THEY HAD NOT, TOWARD NOON, MOVED IN NEAR THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING.

ONLY 4,000 OR LESS LEFTISTS TURNED OUT TO THE DEMONSTRATION, ?75 9 ?8&&34

ONLY 4,000 OR LESS LEFTISTS TURNED OUT TO THE DEMONSTRATION, BUT A BIGGER ONE WAS EXPECTED LATER, CALLED BY RELIGIOUS LEADERS WHO, SUPPORTING MOSSADEGH, ALSO ARE SWORN TO DRIVE OUT FOREIGN INFLUENCES.

ANTI-BRITISH AND ANTI-AMERICAN SENTIMENT GREW IN BOTH PRESS AND PARLIAMENT FOLLOWING LAST NIGHT'S DIPLOMATIC PROTEST IN WHICH IRAN'S NATIONALISTIC GOVERNMENT ACCUSED THE U.S. OF INTERFERENCE IN ITS INTERNAL AFFAIRS BY SIDING WITH THE BRITISH IN THE CRITICAL OIL DISPUTE.

IRAN'S FOREIGN MINISTER BAGHER KAZEMI HANDED TO U.S.AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY A FORMAL PROTEST AGAINST THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S DECLARATION OF LAST FRIDAY, WHICH THE IRANIANS VIEW AS A SUPPORT OF THE BRITISH.

THE AMERICAN STATEMENT HAD SAID THE U.S. WOULD "STRONGLY OPPOSE" ARBITRARY IRANIAN ACTION TO CANCEL THE ANGLO-IRANIAN CONCESSION BY NATIONALIZING IRAN'S OIL RESOURCES.

THE IRANIAN PROTEST DECLARED U.S. "INTERFERENCE" HAD "CREATED A VERY UNDESIRABLE AND UNEXPECTED IMPRESSION IN COMPETENT IRANIAN CIRCLES."

IT ADDED THE HOPE THE UNITED STATES WOULD ADOPT A "FRIENDLY AND IMPARTIAL ATTITUDE."

AN AIR OF CRISIS HUNG OVER IRAN'S CAPITAL, INCREASED BY UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT SHAH MOHAMMED REZA PAHLEVI HAD TOLD MOSSADEGH THAT NATIONALISTIC UNREST WAS ENDANGERING THE COUNTRY.

THUS FAR THE DRIVE TO KICK THE BRITISH OIL COMPANY OUT OF IRAN HAS BEEN INSPIRED MOSTLY BY NATIONALISTIC ELEMENTS LED BY THE PREMIER. BUT THE TUDEH PARTY, WHICH HAS BEEN OUTLAWED SINCE AN ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE THE SHAH IN 1949, HAS BECOME MORE ACTIVE UNDER THE CLOAK OF VARIOUS FRONT ORGANIZATIONS.

IN ATTACKS ON THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS, MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL FRONT HAS BEEN WAVING THE THREAT THAT IRAN MIGHT GO COMMUNIST IF NATIONALIZATION IS BLOCKED.

MOSSADEGH STILL WAS HOLED UP IN HIS OFFICE IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING. HE HAS SAID THREATS WERE MADE AGAINST HIS LIFE BY RELIGIOUS FANATICS.

WESTERN DIPLOMATS ARE FRANKLY ALARMED BY THE RISING STORM OF RESENTMENT WHIPPED UP BY THE NATIONAL FRONT. ONE VETERAN WESTERN OBSERVER COMMENTED THAT NATIONALISM HAS PLACED IRAN ON THE CREST OF A TOBOGGAN SLIDE.

"THE DANGER IS MOSSADEGH WON'T BE ABLE TO CONTROL IT," HE SAID, "AND THE COUNTRY WILL SLIDE RIGHT INTO THE HANDS OF THE COMMUNISTS."

A FEW MODERATE VOICES HAVE BEEN RAISED IN WARNING AGAINST THE DANGER OF IRAN'S NORTHERN NEIGHBOR--RUSSIA--BUT THEY HAVE SCARCELY BEEN HEARD IN THE LOUD CLAMOR AGAINST BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES OVER THE PAST FEW DAYS.

NIGHT LEAD IRANIAN (WITH TEHRAN) (300)

BY EDWARD CURTIS

LONDON, MAY 22-(AP)-UNDER PRESSURE FROM THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN HAS DROPPED ANY IMMEDIATE THREAT OF USING FORCE IN THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL DISPUTE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID TONIGHT BRITAINALSO HAS PROMISED TO CONSULT FULLY WITH THE UNITED STATES BEFORE DECIDING TO SEND TROOPS TO IRAN EVEN TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY.

THE CHANGE IN TACTICS WAS MADE AFTER ANGLO-AMERICAN TALKS HERE AND IN WASHINGTON. IT WAS NOTED BRITAIN GAVE NO HINT OF THE USE OF FORCE IN HER LATEST NOTE TO IRAN, DELIVERED SATURDAY.

INSTEAD THE NOTE SAID ONLY THAT IRAN FACED "THE MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" UNLESS SOME COMPROMISE COULD BE REACHED.

THE ALERTING OF 4,000 BRITISH PARACHUTE TROOPS MORE THAN A WEEK AGO IS SAID TO HAVE DISTURBED AMERICAN OFFICIALS. IT ALSO CAUSED SHARP REACTION IN TEHRAN, WHERE SOME EXTREMISTS CRIED FOR A HOLY WAR TO OUST THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY FROM THE RICH SOUTHERN IRANIAN OIL FIELDS.

BRITAIN OFFICIALLY NEVER HAS SAID WHY THE TROOPS WERE ALERTED. HOWEVER, A QUALIFIED INFORMANT SAID BRITAIN DID ASSURE THE UNITED STATES THAT THE ALERT WAS UNCONNECTED WITH THE IRANIAN OIL DISPUTE. THE UNITED STATES IS SAID TO HAVE ADVISED BRITAIN TO TONE DOWN THE FURORE.

BRITISH SOURCES NOW SAY THAT ONLY IF THE 8,000 BRITONS WORKING IN THE IRANIAN OIL FIELDS WERE THREATENED BY VIOLENCE WOULD THE USE OF TROOPS TO PROTECT THEM BE CONSIDERED.

PUTTING BRITISH TROOPS INTO IRAN MIGHT TOUCH OFF A CLASH WITH RUSSIA. UNDER A 1921 SOVIET-IRANIAN PACT, RUSSIA CLAIMS THE RIGHT TO SEND FORCES INTO IRAN TO COMBAT FOREIGN INTERVENTION THERE.

MEANWHILE, THE CHIEF OF THE IMPERIAL GENERAL STAFF, FIELD MARSHAL SIR WILLIAM SLIM, WAS CALLED INTO CABINET MEETING TODAY. IT WAS NOT KNOWN, HOWEVER, WHETHER IRAN WAS DISCUSSED WHILE HE WAS THERE. AIR FORCE AND NAVAL ADVISORS ALSO ATTENDED. PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE CALLED ANOTHER CABINET MEETING FOR THURSDAY.

WITH TEHRAN (190)

LONDON, MAY 22-(AP)-AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID TODAY BRITAIN HAS TOLD WASHINGTON SHE WILL NOT USE FORCE UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES IN THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY DISPUTE WITH IRAN, UNLESS THERE HAS BEEN CONSULTATION FIRST WITH THE UNITED STATES.

ANOTHER QUALIFIED SOURCE SAID BRITAIN WOULD NOT USE FORCE IN ANY CASE EXCEPT AS A LAST RESORT, AND THEN ONLY IF BRITISH SUBJECTS AND BRITISH PROPERTY IN IRAN WERE ATTACKED FIRST. CONTROLLING INTEREST IN THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, WHICH IRAN IS NATIONLIZING, IS OWNED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

THE PROMISE TO CONSULT THE U.S. WAS MADE IN THE COURSE OF TALKS BETWEEN AMERICANS AND BRITISH IN WASHINGTON AND LONDON, THE INFORMANT SAID.

A WEEK AGO BRITAIN ALERTED HER TROUBLE-SHOOTING 16TH PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP AT ALDERSHOT, BUT GAVE NO REASON. A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN INSISTED TODAY THAT THE ALERT ORDER HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE IRANIAN CRISIS, ALTHOUGH IT WAS INTERPRETED THAT WAY IN IRAN. RUSSIA HAS A TREATY WITH IRAN UNDER WHICH SHE CAN SEND FORCES TO FIGHT OFF FOREIGN INTERVENTION.

THE U.S. ASKED BOTH IRAN AND BRITAIN TO SHOW MODERATION AND SEEK A SETTLEMENT OF THE DISPUTE OVER THE OILFIELDS, WHOSE NATIONALIZATION THE BRITISH CLAIM IS ILLEGAL.

THE DISPUTE WAS CONSIDERED AT A CABINET MEETING TODAY.
PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE CALLED IN THE CHIEF OF THE IMPERIAL GENERAL STAFF, FIELD MARSHAL SIR WILLIAM SLIM, BUT IT WAS NOT KNOWN WHETHER IRAN WAS THE TOPIC UNDER DISCUSSION WHILE HE WAS THERE.
ONE REPORT SAID HE LEFT BEFORE THE OIL DISPUTE WAS MENTIONED. THERE WAS SPECULATION HE WAS THERE TO DISCUSS THE IMPLICATIONS OF EXTENDING THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT TO INCLUDE GREECE AND TURKEY. TOP AIR AND NAVAL ADVISORS ALSO WERE PRESENT.
THE OIL DISPUTE FLARED UP WHEN IRAN ENACTED A LAW TO NATIONALIZE THE RICH ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS MORE THAN HALF OF THE COMPANY'S STOCK. BRITAIN GETS ABOUT 30 PER CENT OF ITS DOMESTIC OIL FROM IRAN. THE FIELDS ALSO ARE THE MAIN SOURCE OF FUEL FOR THE BRITISH NAVY.
BRITAIN TOLD IRAN OVER THE WEEKEND SHE MUST FACE "THE MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" IF SHE REFUSES TO NEGOTIATE A NEW OIL DEAL. IRAN HAS NOT REPLIED.
OFFICIALS HERE STILL BELIEVE PRIME MINISTER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH WILL NOT REJECT ENTIRELY BRITAIN'S TWO ALTERNATIVE PROPOSALS: THAT BRITAIN AND IRAN SHOULD NEGOTIATE A NEW OIL AGREEMENT, OR FAILING THIS, THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE BE CALLED UPON TO DECIDE THE DISPUTE.
BRITAIN, WHICH HAS NATIONALIZED MANY OF HER OWN BASIC INDUSTRIES, DOES NOT DISPUTE IRAN'S RIGHT TO TAKE THE SAME ACTION.
SHE IS RESISTING, HOWEVER, WHAT SHE SAYS IS IRAN'S ONE-SIDED VIOLATION OF A 1933 AGREEMENT WHICH GIVES THE MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY EXPLOITATION RIGHTS UNTIL 1993.

RANGOON, BURMA, MAY 22-(AP)-A MINISTRY OF COMMERCE OFFICIAL SAID TODAY BURMA'S TRADE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA HAS SLACKENED WITHIN RECENT MONTHS DUE TO THE GOVERNMENT'S INSISTENCE THAT PAYMENTS BE MADE IN AN INTERNATIONAL CURRENCY--SUCH AS POUND STERLING OR DOLLARS.
THE OFFICIAL SAID THIS HAD NO CONNECTION WITH THE U.N. EMBARGO AGAINST WAR MATERIALS FOR CHINA. AS TO BURMA'S COURSE, HIS ONLY COMMENT WAS "WE ARE WATCHING THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION MOST CAREFULLY AND WILL NOT DO ANYTHING TO JEOPARDIZE OUR POSITION."
HE SAID CHINESE TRADERS NORMALLY PAID FOR THEIR PURCHASES IN GOLD BECAUSE CHINA DOES NOT HAVE A RECOGNIZED CURRENCY.
TRADERS USE THE BURMA ROAD TO CHUNGKING, BUILT DURING THE WAR TO AID CHINA AGAINST JAPAN. THE ROAD HAS NOT BEEN CLOSED BECAUSE THIS WOULD BE AGAINST INTERNATIONAL CONVENTIONS, THE OFFICIAL DECLARED. THE 1,110-MILE ROAD IS NOT IN THE BEST CONDITION "BUT MEETS THE NEED OF TRADERS," HE ADDED.
HE SAID MOST OF THE COMMERCE WITH RED CHINA REPRESENTS TRANSIT -- COMMODITIES PURCHASED IN THAILAND, MALAYA AND INDIA AND SHIPPED HERE TO BE TRANSPORTED OVERLAND TO CHINA. TIRES AND SIMILAR MOTOR ACCESSORIES ONCE FIGURED PROMINENTLY IN THESE SHIPMENTS, BUT THEY ARE NOW OFF THE LIST BECAUSE BURMA NEEDS SUCH ITEMS HERSELF, THE OFFICIAL SAID
LAST YEAR BURMA BANNED SHIPPING OF OIL VIA THE LAND ROUTE BECAUSE TO DO SO CARRIED THE RISK OF "OUR OWN SUPPLIERS BEING CUT OFF," HE SAID.

TEL AVIV, MAY 22-(AP)-ISRAEL WILL HALT WORK ON THE DRAINAGE PROJECT IN THE DISPUTED HULEH SWAMP AREA ALONG THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI BORDER. FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARRET SO INFORMED MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM RILEY, UNITED NATIONS CHIEF OF STAFF, TONIGHT.
SHARRETT'S LETTER TO RILEY SAID ORDERS HAD BEEN GIVEN TO THE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY TO STOP WORK AS OF WEDNESDAY IN THAT PART OF THE DISPUTED AREA CONTAINING LAND OWNED BY ARABS.
BUT WORK IN OTHER PARTS OF THE SWAMP, OUTSIDE THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE, WILL BE RESUMED AGAIN ON THURSDAY. THE PROJECT IN THESE AREAS, THE LETTER EXPLAINED, DOES NOT AFFECT TERRITORY INVOLVED IN THE DISPUTE WITH SYRIA.
SHARRETT'S LETTER FOLLOWED RECEIPT BY THE ISRAELI CABINET TODAY OF THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION ORDERING SUSPENSION OF THE PROJECT UNTIL ISRAEL AND SYRIA CAN REACH A SETTLEMENT OF THEIR DISPUTE OVER THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE.
THE DECISION TO COMPLY WITH THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S ORDER WAS TAKEN AT A SPECIAL CABINET MEETING TONIGHT.
IN HIS LETTER TO RILEY, SHARETT SAID THE WORK WAS BEING HALTED TO FACILITATE THE TASK OF THE U.N. STAFF IN TRYING TO BRING ABOUT AGREEMENT WITH THE ARAB OWNERS OF SEVEN ACRES IN THE AREA.
HE STRESSED THAT THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT "RESERVES FULLY WHAT IT HOLDS TO BE ISRAEL'S INALIENABLE RIGHT TO BRING THE HULEH DRAINAGE PROJECT TO A SUCCESSFUL CLOSE IN THE INTERESTS OF ISRAEL AND THE INHABITANTS OF THE WHOLE AREA."
THE PROJECT INCITED A SERIES OF BORDER CLASHES BETWEEN ISRAELIS AND SYRIANS. SYRIA DECLARED THE DRAINAGE OF THE DEMILITARIZED AREA WAS A VIOLATION OF THE ARMISTICE AGREEMENT IT MADE WITH ISRAEL AND A DELIBERATE PROVOCATION BY ISRAEL.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MAY 22-(AP)-A UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION ORDERING SUSPENSION OF DRAINAGE OPERATIONS IN THE DEMILITARIZED HULEH SWAMP AREA WAS RECEIVED TODAY BY THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT. THE CABINET WILL CONSIDER THE ORDER LATER TODAY.
THE ORDER WOULD HALT WORK UNTIL ISRAEL AND SYRIA REACH AGREEMENT ON THE DISPUTE BORDER AREA.
IT IS ASSUMED HERE THAT THE GOVERNMENT WILL HEED THE U.N. ORDER, BUT THAT IT WILL CONTINUE RECLAMATION WORK IN THE NON-DEMILITARIZED PART OF THE AREA. THAT IS THE SWAMP REGION OWNED BY THE ISRAELI PALESTINE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY AND WHERE THERE IS NO QUESTION OF PRIVATE ARAB OWNERSHIP.
A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN DECLARED SUNDAY NIGHT THAT ISRAEL IS "DETERMINED TO BRING THE DRAINAGE OF THE HULEH SWAMP TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION DESPITE ALL OBSTACLES."
SYRIA CONTENDS THAT THE DRAINAGE WORK VIOLATES THE TRUCE AGREEMENT WITH ISRAEL.

TEL AVIV, MAY 22-(AP)-ISRAEL'S CARETAKER CABINET, HEADED BY PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION, WAS DEFEATED IN THE KNESSET (PARLIAMENT) TODAY IN AN ATTEMPT TO RETAIN EMERGENCY SECURITY REGULATIONS FIRST IMPOSED BY THE BRITISH ADMINISTRATION OF PALESTINE.
THE RELIGIOUS BLOC, WHICH NOMINALLY TAKES PART IN BEN-GURION'S COALITION CABINET, VOTED WITH THE OPPOSITIN FOR REMOVAL OF THE REGULATIONS WITHIN TWO WEEKS.
THE ISSUE AROSE AFTER THE GOVERNMENT USED THE EMERGENCY MEASURES STILL ON THE BOOKS TO DETAIN 26 MEN SUSPECTED OF TAKING PART IN A PLOT TO SET THE KNESSET BUILDING ON FIRE LAST WEEK.
A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN PROMISED TODAY THAT THE FIRST OF THE SUSPECTS WOULD BE BROUGHT BEFORE ORDINARY COURTS, BUT HIS PROMISE FAILED TO SWAY THE KNESSET MAJORITY.

New Delhi, India, May 22-(ap)-Food Minister k/ m. munshi said tod[redacted] india will "be able to meet the situation in the summer months which we dreaded so much last december." he was referring to india's food supply. The minister told a meeting of the food committee of the congress party that india is now assured of a regular influx of [redacted] 500,000 tons of food grains a month between may and august. but he added:

"we cannot afford to relax our efforts. we still are not out of the woods, while the immediate position of the (food) scarcity is being looked after , the position from august to january next is still uncertain and adequate provision has still to be made.

"we expected arrivals of american wheat by the beginning of may, but despite the best efforts of the american government, that was not to be, and that added to our worries."

Munshi expressed thanks to the nations which helped india achieve the 500,000-ton monthly influx of grains. he extended special thanks to u.s. citizen groups who responded to india's appeals with gifts of grain and cash. He indicated, without commenting directly, that india now is banking on the arrival of u.s. food grains to tide the nation over the august-january period.

OTTAWA, MAY 22-(AP)-REPORTS OF KOREA "PEACE FEELERS" CANNOT BE VERIFIED IN ANY OFFICIAL INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO HIS DEPARTMENT, EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER L.B.PEARSON TOLD A CANADIAN PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEE TODAY.
"WE HAVE NO INFORMATION TO SUPPORT ANY CONCLUSION OF THAT KIND," THE MINISTER SAID DURING A REVIEW OF THE WORLD'S TROUBLE SPOTS.

IT WAS POSSIBLE THE RUMORS AROSE BECAUSE OF THE SUCCESS OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN RESISTING THE CURRENT COMMUNIST DRIVE IN KOREA. AT THE MOMENT THE EFFORTS OF UNITED NATIONS DIPLOMACY TO END THE KOREAN CONFLICT BY NEGOTIATION WAS SUBMERGED BY THE EFFORTS TO END IT BY MILITARY FORCE.

BUT THAT, PEARSON SAID, DID NOT MEAN THERE WAS ANY LESSENING OF THE DESIRE TO END THE CONFLICT BY NEGOTIATION. THAT DESIRE WAS ALWAYS PRESENT.

COMMUNIST CHINA HAD "REBUFFED US IN NO UNCERTAIN TERMS" WHEN PEACE EFFORTS WERE MADE LAST DECEMBER. BUT THE DOOR ALWAYS WAS OPEN FOR A PEACE THAT WOULD BE HONORABLE AND "NOT A REWARD FOR AGGRESSION."

PEARSON SAID HIS BEST INFORMATION WAS THAT THE AGGRESSORS COULD NOT HOPE TO WIN IN KOREA WITH THE FORCES AT PRESENT EMPLOYED

OR WITHOUT =OUTSIDE HELP.=

THE HOPE WAS THAT THE SPONSORS OF AGGRESSION WOULD SOON REALIZE THIS AND BE PREPARED TO NEGOTIATE.

THE SITUATION WOULD BE MORE ADVANTAGEOUS TO THE UNITED NATIONS NOW THAN LAST DECEMBER. THEN THE EFFORT TO NEGOTIATE WAS LAUNCHED FROM A POSITION OF RELATIVE WEAKNESS. IF CURRENT SUCCESSES IN KOREA ARE MAINTAINED THE NEGOTIATIONS COULD BE STARTED BY THE UNITED NATIONS FROM A POSITION OF STRENGTH.

OTTAWA, MAY 22=(AP)=CANADIAN-AMERICAN RELATIONS HAVE BECOME THOSE OF TWO IMPORTANT MEMBERS OF A FREE-WORLD COALITION RATHER THAN SIMPLY THE BACK-FENCE RELATIONS OF TWO GOOD NEIGHBORS, LESTER B. PEARSON, CANADIAN EXTERNAL AFFAIR MINISTER, SAID TODAY.

IN CAUTIOUS PHRASES, THE MINISTER GAVE THE HOUSE OF COMMONS EXTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AN ELABORATION OF WHAT HE MEANT WHEN HE SAID RECENTLY IN TORONTO THAT THE DAYS OF RELATIVELY EASY AND AUTOMATIC POLITICAL RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES ARE FINISHED.

THE TORONTO SPEECH BROUGHT CRITICISMS IN PARLIAMENT AND COMMENT FROM THE U.S.

PEARSON SAID THAT IN THE PRE-WAR YEARS CANADA'S PROBLEMS WITH THE U.S. WERE OFTEN OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO BOTH COUNTRIES BUT THEY WERE BILATERAL.

=THEY WERE LINE-FENCE PROBLEMS, BORDER PROBLEMS, SMUGGLING PROBLEMS, COMMERCIAL AND WATERWAYS,= HE SAID. =THEY WERE IMPORTANT, BUT THEY NEVER INVOLVED THE QUESTION OF PEACE OR WAR.=

BUT NOW, IN ADDITION, THERE ARE THE BIG PROBLEMS ARISING FROM CANADA'S RELATIONS WITH A U.S. WHICH HAS BECOME THE LEADER OF A FREE WORLD COALITION AND WHOSE POLICIES COULD DECIDE THE QUESTION OF PEACE OR WAR, HE SAID.

IT IS NO LONGER A QUESTION OF WHETHER THE U.S. WOULD UNDERTAKE GLOBAL OBLIGATIONS, BUT NOW SHE WOULD HANDLE THEM AND WHETHER, IN HANDLING THEM, WASHINGTON MIGHT INVOLVE CANADA IN WAR, PEARSON CONTINUED.

=I'M NOT SUGGESTING WE CAN'T WORK THESE PROBLEMS OUT WITHIN OUR NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE,= HE SAID, =BECAUSE, OF COURSE, WE CAN. BUT IT IS NOT EASY. . . IT REQUIRES MORE ATTENTION, MORE GIVE AND TAKE THAN THE OLD PRE-WAR PROBLEMS EVER DID.=

NIGHT LEAD ILLEGAL TRADE

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MAY 22-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES CRACKED DOWN TODAY ON WEST GERMAN FIRMS ILLEGALLY TRADING THROUGH THE IRON CURTAIN.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED A BAN ON EXPORTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS TO SUCH FIRMS, THE NAMES OF WHICH ARE NOW BEING PLACED ON A VIRTUAL BLACK LIST.

THE ACTION FOLLOWED PROTESTS ON CAPITOL HILL AGAINST ALLEGED ILLEGAL TRADING ON A LARGE SCALE BETWEEN GERMANY AND COMMUNIST COUNTRIES. SENATOR O'CONOR (D-MD) SAID ONLY SATURDAY THAT A RED CHINESE PURCHASING MISSION WAS IN BERLIN TRYING TO BUY STRATEGIC MATERIALS FROM WESTERN GERMANY.

AN EXPORT CONTROLS INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE HEADED BY O'CONOR RECENTLY HEARD TESTIMONY THAT $1,000,000,000 WORTH OF ILLEGAL SHIPMENTS HAD BEEN MADE FROM WESTERN GERMANY TO IRON CURTAIN DESTINATIONS SINCE WORLD WAR II.

OFFICIALS EXPRESSED HOPE THAT TODAY'S ACTION, ALONG WITH OTHERS, WOULD DISRUPT SUCH TRADE.

FIRMS KNOWN TO BE ENGAGING IN IT WILL, UNDER THE ORDER BE UNABLE TO OBTAIN AMERICAN GOODS WHICH IN MANY CASES ARE EXTREMELY IMPORTANT TO THEIR OPERATIONS.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE, THE OTHER WESTERN GERMAN OCCUPATION POWERS ARE COOPERATING, STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID, TO THE EXTENT THAT THEY TRY TO MAKE CERTAIN THAT GOODS WHICH THEY SHIP INTO WEST GERMANY WILL NOT BE ILLEGALLY PASSED THROUGH TO EASTERN GERMANY OR OTHER LANDS IN THE SOVIET BLOC.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVE, OFFICIALS SAID, IS TO DRY UP LEAKS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS TO THE COMMUNIST NATIONS, INCLUDING RED CHINA. STRATEGIC MATERIALS ARE THINGS LIKE STEEL OR MACHINERY WHICH CONTRIBUTE TO A COUNTRY'S WAR-MAKING POTENTIAL. BUT ALL ILLEGAL TRADE IN GERMANY IS NOT IN STRATEGIC GOODS. IT INCLUDES SUCH THINGS AS COFFEE AND TOBACCO WHICH ARE SMUGGLED INTO WEST GERMANY WITHOUT PAYMENT OF DUTY.

OFFICIALS SAID THAT THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT WOULD OPERATE A "SUS-PENSION LIST" ON INFORMATION SUPPLIED FROM GERMANY BY U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J.MCCLOY. EXPORT LICENSES WILL BE DENIED FOR GOODS DESTINED TO FIRMS ON THIS LIST.

DURING WORLD WAR II COMPANIES AND INDIVIDUALS IN NEUTRAL COUNTRIES WHO WERE ALLEGED TO BE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY WERE PUT ON A BLACKLIST AND ALL DEALING WITH THEM WAS PROHIBITED. DISTINGUISHING BETWEEN A REGULAR BLACK LIST AND THE SO-CALLED SUSPENSION LIST, INFORMANTS QUESTIONED WHETHER THE PRESENT LIST WOULD BE MADE PUBLIC; THEY ALSO TOLD REPORTERS THAT IN THE WORLD WAR II SENSE THERE IS NO "ENEMY."

A35WX

MCCLOY RECOMMENDED THE BANNING OF EXPORTS TO WEST GERMAN COMPANIES OR PERSONS "ENGAGING IN ILLEGAL TRADE WITH THE SOVIET ORBIT." THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THE RECOMMENDATION HAD BEEN APPROVED AND ADOPTED EFFECTIVE AT ONCE.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT ALSO CONTAINED THE TEXT OF A LETTER FROM MCCLOY TO GERMAN CHANCELLOR CONRAD ADENAUER WHICH MENTIONED OTHER STEPS TO BE TAKEN.

ONE OF THESE IS DENIAL OF MARSHALL PLAN AID TO COMPANIES ENGAGING IN ILLEGAL TRADE.

ANOTHER IS THE DENIAL BY THE ADENAUER GOVERNMENT OF SCARCE RAW MATERIALS TO VIOLATORS.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR-BRADLEY

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-GEN. OMAR BRADLEY WARNED SENATORS TODAY THE INQUIRY INTO GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OUSTER MAY INCITE RUSSIA TO WAR BUT HE ALSO HINTED PEACE MAY COME TO KOREA IF THE ALLIES SMASH THE BIG RED OFFENSIVE NOW UNDERWAY.

THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL CONCEDED THE POSSIBILITY THE WAR MIGHT JUST PETER OUT WITHOUT A NEGOTIATED PEACE OR THAT THE CHINESE MIGHT AGREE TO PEACE TERMS WITH OR WITHOUT RUSSIA'S APPROVAL.

BRADLEY GAVE THESE MIXED VIEWS TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES ON THE 15TH DAY OF HEARINGS INTO THE REASONS BEHIND THE DISMISSAL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR.

BRADLEY SAID OF THE INQUIRY: "I THINK IT IS VERY HARMFUL TO OUR SECURITY AND TO OUR COUNTRY AND TO OUR FUTURE SECURITY TO HAVE TO PASS ON TO RUSSIA ALL OF OUR INTENTIONS, ALL OF OUR THOUGHTS, ALL OF OUR CAPABILITIES."

SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) SUGGESTED THE HEARINGS ARE INFORMING RUSSIA THAT THE FREE NATIONS WILL RESIST AGGRESSION "ONLY TO A POINT SHORT OF RISKING WAR WITH RUSSIA." AND HE ASSKED IF THIS MIGHT NOT ENCOURAGE RUSSIA TO START "LIMITED BUT VERY DESTRUCTIVE AGGRESSION" IN AREAS OTHER THAN KOREA.

BRADLEY REPLIED: "I THINK THAT WHAT YOU SAY IS PROBABLY VERY TRUE, THAT WE ARE UNNECESSARILY INCITING RUSSIA TO WAR--MAYBE NOT UNNECESSARILY-- BUT IT BECOMES NECESSARY BECAUSE OF THE NATURE OF THESE HEARINGS X X X.

"I AM SORRY WE HAVE HAD TO DO THIS, BUT SINCE IT IS DEMANDED BY THE PEOPLE, AND IS INHERENT IN OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT, HERE IT IS AND I JUST HOPE IT DOESN'T CAUSE TOO MUCH TROUBLE IN THE FUTURE."

BRADLEY DECLARED THE PRESENT U. N. OBJECTIVE IS NOT TO DRIVE THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN RED ARMIES "CLEAR OUT OF NORTH KOREA" ALTHOUGH THE LONG RANGE POLITICAL AIM STILL IS A FREE AND UNIFIED KOREA.

HE ADDED: "AS FAR AS THE MILITARY, IMMEDIATE MILITARY OBJECTIVE, IS CONCERNED, I THINK WE WOULD CONSIDER IT A VICTORY WITH SOMETHING LESS THAN THAT."

PRODDED BY SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK), BRADLEY REPORTED THAT THE PENTAGON WAS "WORRIED" LAST NOVEMBER OVER THE WAY MACARTHUR SPLIT HIS 8TH ARMY AND 10TH CORPS IN THEIR DRIVES TOWARD THE MANCHURIAN BORDER.

THE GENERAL HAS BEEN CRITICIZED FOR THIS MANEUVER ON THE GROUNDS THAT HE LEFT A GAP BETWEEN THE FORCES DOWN WHICH THE CHINESE REDS STRUCK IN THEIR OFFENSIVE WHICH ROLLED THE U.N. TROOPS BACK. BUT MACARTHUR CALLED SUCH CRITICISM "POPPYCOCK" AND INSISTED HE WOULD USE THE SAME TACTICS IF HE HAD IT TO DO AGAIN.

BRADLEY SAID FROM WASHINGTON IT LOOKED AS THOUGH THE FLANKS OF BOTH 8TH ARMY AND 10TH CORPS HAD BEEN LEFT EXPOSED.

FULBRIGHT ASKED IF A DIFFERENT DEPLOYMENT OF THE FORCES MIGHT HAVE LIMITED OR PREVENTED THE REVERSE THAT WAS SUFFERED.

BRADLEY WOULD NOT CRITICIZE THE MACARTHUR FIELD TACTICS. HE SAID: "GENERAL MACARTHUR IS A MAN OF LONG, DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AND EXPERIENCE AND I THINK IT WOULD BE QUITE IMPROPER TO TRY TO TELL HIM FROM HERE HOW EXACTLY TO DISPOSE HIS DIVISIONS AND SO WE DID NOT DO SO."

HE ADDED: "I THINK A LOT OF PEOPLE WERE WORRIED ABOUT THE FACT THAT THE 10TH CORPS WAS ISOLATED FROM THE REST OF THE 8TH ARMY AND THAT THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE 8TH ARMY WAS EXPOSED. IN LOOKING AT IT ON A MAP, I THINK A LOT OF PEOPLE WERE CONCERNED ABOUT THAT."

"MILITARY PEOPLE WERE?" FULBRIGHT ASKED.

"YES," BRADLEY REPLIED. HE WENT ON TO SAY THERE WAS A "DIFFERENCE OF OPINION" AMONG MILITARY MEN OVER THE MACARTHUR TACTICS AT THIS TIME.

"BUT WE REFRAINED FROM TELLING HIM HOW TO DO IT FROM HERE," HE SAID.

FULBRIGHT: "THAT IS RIGHT, ON THE PRINCIPLE YOU DO NOT UNDERTAKE TO DIRECT THE TACTICS OF A BATTLE, BUT YOU DID DIFFER AS A MATTER OF OPINION AS TO WHAT WAS THE MOST FAVORABLE DISPOSITION."

BRADLEY: "YES."

SENATOR LONG (D-LA) DREW FROM BRADLEY HIS VIEWS ON THE POSSIBLE ENDINGS TO THE KOREAN CONFLICT.

LONG SAID: "DO YOU THINK THERE IS SOME POSSIBILITY OF THIS WAR SIMPLY PETERING OUT AROUND THE 38TH PARALLEL EVEN WITHOUT NEGOTIATING A PEACE? IN OTHER WORDS, OUR FORCES GETTING BACK TO THE 38TH PARALLEL, A LITTLE BELOW, AND THE COMMUNISTS SIMPLY CEASING TO COME DOWN AND ATTACK OUR TROOPS?"

BRADLEY REPLIED: "THAT IS A POSSIBILITY WHICH WE HAVE TO CONSIDER. IT PETERED OUT IN GREECE, AND THAT IS ONE WAY IT COULD END HERE."

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS), BRADLEY SAID HE BELIEVED IT WOULD BE EASIER TO NEGOTIATE PEACE TERMS WITH THE CHINESE THAN THE RUSSIANS SINCE THE CHINESE "ARE BEING HURT MORE THAN THE RUSSIANS." AND HE ADDED HE WOULD TRUST THE CHINESE MORE THAN THE RUSSIANS.

DISCUSSING THE U. N. MILITARY AIMS IN KOREA, BRADLEY SAID: "WE ARE TRYING TO INFLICT MAXIMUM CASUALTIES WITH A MINIMUM TO OURSELVES SO THAT WE CAN GET SOME KIND OF A NEGOTIATION."

BRADLEY CONCEDED THAT AT THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR HE AND OTHER TOP MILITARY ADVISERS TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN UNDERESTIMATED THE STRENGTH AND FIGHTING SKILL OF THE NORTH KOREAN REDS.

HE ALSO SAID THE POSSIBLE ENTRY OF RED CHINA AND RUSSIA INTO THE WAR WAS CONSIDERED--BUT NO ONE THOUGHT EITHER WOULD INTERVENE.

"NO ONE BELIEVED THE NORTH KOREANS WERE AS STRONG AS THEY TURNED OUT TO BE," BRADLEY SAID. "IN OTHER WORDS, FROM THE INFORMATION WE HAD, YOU MIGHT SAY WE UNDERESTIMATED THEIR NUMBERS, AND THEIR EQUIPMENT AND THEIR ABILITY TO FIGHT--AT LEAST TO START WITH."

BRADLEY ALSO TESTIFIED THAT THE UNITED STATES LAST OCTOBER "POSSIBLY DISCOURAGED" OTHER U.N. ALLIES FROM SENDING MORE TROOPS INTO KOREA BECAUSE IT LOOKED AT THAT TIME THAT THE WAR WAS NEAR AN END.

BUT HE ADDED THE STATE DEPARTMENT NOW IS DISCUSSING WITH THESE ALLIES THE SENDING OF MORE TROOPS TO KOREA. TESTIMONY HAS INDICATED THE U.N. ALLIES HAVE SOME 30,000 TROOPS THERE WHILE THIS COUNTRY HAS ABOUT 250,000 IN THE COMBAT ZONE.

IN THE MIDST OF THIS TESTIMONY, SENATOR TOBEY (R-NH) PLEADED WITH HIS COLLEAGUES TO "RING THE CURTAIN DOWN" ON THE INQUIRY. HE DECLARED "I AM IMPRESSED WITH THE FUTILITY OF MUCH THAT IS GOING ON HERE XXX" AND HE ALSO VOICED CONCERN THE TESTIMONY IS AIDING THE RUSSIANS.

BUT CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP SAID LATER TOBEY'S PROPOSAL WAS "PREMATURE" AND HE DID NOT BELIEVE THE HEARINGS WERE

"INCREASING THE DANGER THAT THE RUSSIANS MIGHT MOVE."
"I DON'T THINK WE CAN AFFORD TO EVEN CONSIDER CLOSING THE HEARINGS AT THIS STAGE." RUSSELL SAID.

TOBEY SAID: "WHEN WE GET ALL THROUGH, MR.MACARTHUR WILL STILL BE DEPOSED FROM HIS POSITION, MR.MARSHALL (SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL) WILL STILL BE THE MAN IN CHARGE OF THE DEFENSE OF THIS COUNTRY, THE JOINT CHIEFS WILL STILL BE THE SAME AS THEY ARE NOW.
"BUT SOME MEN WILL HAVE GRATIFIED THEIR PASSION AND DESIRE TO ASK POINTED QUESTIONS TO TRY TO STIR THE ANIMALS UP."
HE ADDED THAT "WHILE THE SITUATION GOES ON FROM BAD TO WORSE, MEN ARE DYING IN KOREA."
THIS OUTBURST CAME AS THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES THAT U.N. POLICY SINCE FEBRUARY HAS BEEN PINNED ON THE OUTCOME OF BATTLES NOW UNDERWAY IN KOREA.
"AT THAT TIME," BRADLEY SAID, "WE WERE REASONABLY SURE A NEW ATTACK WOULD COME SOME TIME IN THE SPRING, AND IF YOU CAN BUMP THAT OFF X X X YOU ARE IN A MUCH BETTER POSITION TO NEGOTIATE THAN YOU WOULD BE IF YOU COULDN'T CONTAIN IT X X X."
U.N. FORCES NOW ARE BATTLING TO CRACK THIS OFFENSIVE AND ALREADY HAVE REPORTED TERRIBLE CASUALTIES INFLICTED ON THE ATTACKING RED HORDES. BRADLEY SAID U.S. CASUALTIES BETWEEN MAY 16-20 TOTALED 882 KILLED AND WOUNDED.
SPEAKING OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, BRADLEY SAID:
"WE STILL HOPE THAT WE WILL BE IN A POSITION TO AGAIN PROPOSE SOMETHING THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS WHICH WOULD END UP IN NEGOTIATIONS AND CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES."
SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) DECLARED A POLICY SHOULD BE ADOPTED THAT WOULD "HAVE MORE CHANCE OF ENDING THIS THING" AND HE COMPLAINED OF AN "INDECISIVE POLICY WHICH LEADS ONLY TO THE HOPE THE CHINESE REDS WILL GET TIRED."

MAY 23 1951

BRADLEY REPORTED THE PROGRAM HAS THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AND THEIR STAFFS.
"NOW IF WE ARE FOLLOWING THE WRONG TACTICS IN TRYING TO GET A DECISION," HE SAID, "THEN ALL OF OUR MILITARY PEOPLE, ALL OF OUR TOP PEOPLE, THAT ARE HERE AND WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR WORLDWIDE STRATEGY X X X ARE ALL WRONG, AND YOU ARE RIGHT.
"AND I AM SORRY IF WE DON'T AGREE ON IT X X X."
BRADLEY GAVE THIS REPORT DURING THE FOURTH DAY OF HIS TESTIMONY IN THE INQUIRY CENTERING ON THE REASONS WHY GEN.MACARTHUR WAS OUSTED FROM HIS FAR EAST COMMANDS.
BRADLEY SAID HE HAD BEEN CONCERNED "OVER A PERIOD OF TIME" ABOUT STATEMENTS MADE BY MACARTHUR WHO PROPOSES BOMBING AND BLOCKADING RED CHINA AND USING CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS. MACARTHUR HAS SAID THE PRESENT POLICY IN KOREA CAN END ONLY IN A "BLOODY STALEMATE."
BUT BRADLEY INSISTED THE MACARTHUR PLAN MIGHT LENGTHEN, RATHER THAN SHORTEN, THE WAR IN KOREA--AND WOULD RISK WORLD WAR III BY POSSIBLY DRAWING RUSSIA INTO THE CONFLICT.
AT ONE POINT, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) PRESSED BRADLEY TO TELL THE CONCLUSIONS WHICH WERE REACHED AT A BLAIR HOUSE MEETING LAST JUNE 25 WHICH LED TO THE ENTRY OF U.S. FORCES INTO THE WAR.
THE GENERAL REFUSED, INSISTING HE COULD NOT REMEMBER WHAT CONCLUSIONS WERE REACHED INDIVIDUALLY BY THOSE PRESENT WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN. BUT HE SAID THE FINAL DECISION WAS "THAT WE WOULD FURNISH AIR AND NAVAL POWER TO TRY TO GET OUR NATIONALS OUT OF KOREA."
THEN, BRADLEY SAID, DECISIONS WERE MADE IN A SERIES OF MEETINGS TO:
1. PERMIT THE AIR FORCE TO HELP THE SOUTH KOREANS "IN STOPPING THE AGGRESSION."
2. PERMIT THE AIR FORCE TO OPERATE NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL IN HITTING AT THE NORTH KOREAN REDS.
3. PERMIT GROUND FORCES TO PROTECT BASES FROM WHICH AMERICAN CITIZENS WERE BEING EVACUATED.
4. THROW GROUND TROOPS INTO BATTLE TO HELP THE SOUTH KOREANS HALT THE NORTH KOREANS IN THEIR DRIVE SOUTH.
"THAT WAS A SERIES OF MEETINGS," THE GENERAL SAID. "I DON'T REMEMBER THE DATES OF EACH ONE OF THEM."
EARLIER, KNOWLAND HAD ASKED BRADLEY TO "GIVE THE CONCLUSIONS AS EXPRESSED AT THE BLAIR HOUSE MEETING OF JUNE 25" BY THE THEN SECRETARY OF DEFENSE LOUIS JOHNSON AND OTHERS.

BRADLEY REPLIED: "I DO NOT HONESTLY REMEMBER THE CONCLUSIONS REACHED BY ANY OF US." HE SAID HE WOULDN'T ATTEMPT TO STATE THE CONCLUSIONS REACHED BY ANY SINGLE PERSON "UNLESS I COULD REMEMBER THEM."
KNOWLAND SAID HE WOULD ASK ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, IF HE KEPT ANY PERSONAL NOTES ON THE JUNE 25 BLAIR HOUSE MEETING. SHERMAN IS SCHEDULED AS ONE OF THE WITNESSES WHO WILL FOLLOW BRADLEY.
KNOWLAND LATER TOLD REPORTERS HE ONLY WANTED "CONCLUSIONS" FROM BRADLEY AND NOT ACTUAL CONVERSATIONS IN THE BLAIR HOUSE MEETING.
REFERRING TO BRADLEY'S REFUSAL, THE SENATOR SAID: "THIS CLOSES ANOTHER DOOR AND MAKES IT VERY DIFFICULT FOR US TO LEARN THE FACTS."
AT THE START OF THE HEARING, SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) ANGRILY LABELED AS A "DAMNED LIE" REPORTS THAT HE AND OTHER REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEMBERS WERE OUT TO "GET" SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IN THE HEARINGS.
WILEY DID NOT NAME ACHESON BUT HIS REMARK WAS AN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO REPORTS WHICH HAVE REFERRED TO GOP ATTACKS ON THE SECRETARY.
THE SENATOR SAID HE IS NOT ENGAGED IN "SMEARING INDIVIDUALS" BUT IS ONLY TRYING TO GET THE FACTS IN THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL.
IN A LETTER LAST WEEK TO CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP WILEY PROTESTED THE INQUIRY WOULD BE A "WHITE-WASH AND A WASH-OUT" UNLESS THE COMMITTEE GOT ALL THE FACTS. AND HE PROTESTED WHAT HE CALLED A "COVER-UP" BY A MAJORITY OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE.
HE WAS REFERRING TO BRADLEY'S REFUSAL TO DISCLOSE THE CONVERSATIONS PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD WITH HIS ADVISERS AT AN APRIL 6 MEETING WHICH LED TO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL. THIS REFUSAL LATER WAS UPHELD IN THE COMMITTEE BY AN 18 TO 8 VOTE.
RUSSELL TOLD WILEY HE WOULD NOT FORWARD THE LETTER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN AS WILEY HAD ASKED. HE SAID THE LETTER INVOLVED "A RATHER SERIOU REFLECTION UPON THE INTEGRITY AND MOTIVES OF A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THIS COMMITTEE."
AND HE ADDED THE WILEY LETTER "DOES NOT FALL WITHIN THE PROCEDURES WE HAVE OUTLINED" FOR REQUESTING INFORMATION FROM THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH.
WILEY RETORTED THAT WAS "OKAY" WITH HIM. LATER, HE TOLD REPORTERS HE HAD NOT DECIDED WHAT COURSE OF ACTION HE WOULD TAKE IN THE MATTER.

(450) BRADLEY HIGHLIGHTS
WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-HIGHLIGHTS OF TESTIMONY BY GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, IN HIS FOURTH DAY AS A WITNESS BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING THE FIRING OF GENERAL MACARTHUR.
(TAKEN FROM A CENSORED VERSION OF THE TRANSCRIPT MADE AVAILABLE TO THE PRESS):

SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS): X X X WHAT IT COMES DOWN TO IS THAT WE HOPE THROUGH AN AGGRESSIVE RESISTANCE TO THE CHINESE ATTACKS THAT ULTIMATELY THERE WILL BE AN EFFORT OR OPPORTUNITY TO END THESE OPERATIONS IN KOREA?

GEN. BRADLEY: YES, SIR. WE HAD THOUGHT HERE IN MARCH WAS ONE CHANCE AND WERE PROPOSING SUCH AND GETTING A CLEARANCE FROM OTHER NATIONS ON IT, AND THAT WAS THEN ABANDONED. WE STILL HOPE THAT WE WILL BE IN A POSITION TO AGAIN PROPOSE SOMETHING THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS WHICH WOULD END UP IN NEGOTIATIONS AND CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES.
SALTONSTALL: X X X ISN'T IT EASIER TO BOMB THE WESTERN PART OF THE UNITED STATES FROM THE FAR EASTERN PARTS OF ASIA AND SIBERIA THAN IT IS FOR RUSSIA TO BOMB OVER THE OTHER WAY?
BRADLEY: NO, SIR, I DON'T THINK SO. I THINK YOU CAN BEST

FOR RUSSIA TO BOMB OVER THE OTHER WAY?
BRADLEY: NO, SIR, I DON'T THINK SO. I THINK YOU CAN BEST ANSWER THAT BY TAKING A GLOBE AND MEASURING DISTANCES OVER THE TOP, AND I DON'T THINK YOU WILL FIND THAT THE DISTANCES FROM THE FAR EAST, AS YOU CALL IT, VLADIVOSTOK, FOR EXAMPLE TO SAN FRANCISCO OR LOS ANGELES, I DON'T THINK THOSE ARE AS SHORT AS SOME OTHER POSSIBLE ROUTES OF APPROACH.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA): WHAT ARE WE ATTEMPTING TO DO IN KOREA? WE WANT TO DEFEAT THE ENEMY, YES, BUT HOW ARE WE GOING TO DO IT, WHAT IS OUR OBJECTIVE AND WHAT DO WE CONSIDER A VICTORY OR A DEFEAT OF THE ENEMY?
BRADLEY: FROM THE MILITARY POINT OF VIEW WE HOPE THAT BY INFLICTING SEVERE CASUALTIES ON THE ENEMY AND PROVING TO THEM THAT THEY ARE NOT INVINCIBLE, THAT THEY CANNOT GAIN ANYTHING BY AGGRESSIVE ACTION, THAT IT IS TOO COSTLY A MATTER, THAT THEY HAVE BEEN LET DOWN BY RUSSIA IN GETTING IN IT, THAT THEY WILL BE WILLING TO NEGOTIATE A PEACE WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.

HICKENLOOPER: DO YOU BELIEVE THAT THE SOVIET WILL START A THIRD WORLD WAR MERELY BECAUSE IT HAS A TREATY TO DEFEND RED CHINA AGAINST JAPAN?

A66WX
BRADLEY: I T WOULD BE PRETTY HARD TO GUESS WHAT THE MEN IN THE KREMLIN ARE THINKING. THEY HAVE A TIMETABLE; THEY MAY BE WILLING TO STEP UP THAT TIMETABLE TO MEET CERTAIN CONDITIONS; AND MY OPINION IS THE FACT THAT THEY STARTED THIS -- AND I SAY, I THINK THEY STARTED IN KOREA -- THE NORTH KOREANS STARTED IT AT THEIR INSTIGATION -- I THINK THE FACT THAT THEY STARTED THIS IS AN INDICATION THAT THEY WERE IN A POSITION NOW WHERE THEY WERE WILLING TO RISK WAR AND, THEREFORE, THEY MUST BE WILLING TO ACCEPT IT.

SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH): GEN. BRADLEY X X X WHY HAVE 50-ODD FREE NATIONS CONTRIBUTED ONLY APPROXIMATELY 20,000 GROUND TROOPS TO KOREA IN ALMOST A YEAR OF WAR?
BRADLEY: WELL, I WISH THEY WERE FURNISHING MORE, TOO, SENATOR CAIN. X X X WE HAVE BEEN WANTING JUST AS MANY TROOPS AS CAN BE FURNISHED

BRADLEY: WELL, I WISH THEY WERE FURNISHING MORE, TOO, SENATOR CAIN. X X X WE HAVE BEEN WANTING JUST AS MANY TROOPS AS CAN BE FURNISHED EFFECTIVELY. I SAY EFFECTIVELY BECAUSE SOME OF THESE PEOPLE HAVE OFFERED TO FURNISH TROOPS IF WE FURNISH ALL THE EQUIPMENT, ALL THE TRAINING, ALL THE TRANSPORTATION OVER AND BACK, AND ALL THE LOGISTICAL SUPPORT. THEY WERE NOT EVEN TRAINED TO START WITH.
CAIN: DOES THAT MEAN, SIR, IF WE GET INTO WORLD WAR III IN DUE TIME THAT THOSE SAME NATIONS ARE GOING AS OUR ALLIES (TO EXPECT US) TO TRAIN THEM, TO FEED THEM, TO CLOTHE THEM, TO AMMUNITION THEM, TO TAKE CARE OF THEM FROM START TO FINISH?
BRADLEY: I THINK THE TROUBLE IS THEY MADE THE SAME MISTAKE WE DID-- THEY DEMOBILIZED AFTER WORLD WAR II AND GOT DOWN TO A VERY LOW STATE OF TRAINING AND EQUIPMENT, AND THEY DON'T HAVE THE CAPABILITY OF DOING IT AS QUICKLY AS WE HAVE.

CAIN: GEN. BRADLEY, ON YESTERDAY YOU STATED, AS DID GEN. MARSHALL A FEW DAYS AGO, THAT YOU WERE AGAINST TAKING THE WAR TO RED CHINA BECAUSE OF YOUR FEAR THAT RUSSIA WOULD ENTER THE CONFLICT. X X X X IF THE RUSSIANS BELIEVE WHAT YOU AND OTHERS IN AUTHORITY HAVE REPEATEDLY SAID, WOULD YOU TELL ME WHY SUCH A STATEMENT WILL NOT ENCOURAGE RUSSIA TO INITIATE LIMITED BUT VERY DESTRUCTIVE AGGRESSION IN AREAS OTHER THAN KOREA?
BRADLEY: I DON'T THINK ANY OF US CAN BE SURE BUT WHAT RUSSIA WILL CONTINUE THESE THINGS AND BE ENCOURAGED BY THE STATEMENTS THAT WE HAVE HAD TO MAKE HERE. XXXX I THINK IT IS VERY HARMFUL TO OUR SECURITY AND TO OUR COUNTRY AND TO OUR FUTURE SECURITY TO HAVE TO PASS ON TO RUSSIA ALL OF OUR INTENTIONS, ALL OF OUR THOUGHTS, ALL OF OUR CAPABILITIES.
CAIN: MAY I ASK YOU, SIR, IF YOU BELIEVE IN A PREVENTIVE WAR?
BRADLEY: I DO NOT, BECAUSE I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IS A SOLUTION.
CAIN: GEN. BRADLEY, MAY I ASK YOU IF THE KOREAN WAR XXX HAS NOT BECOME A PREVENTIVE WAR?
BRADLEY: WELL, IN A WAY, IT MAY HAVE.

(125) WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-GEN.OMAR BRADLEY ACKNOWLEDGED TODAY THAT AT THE TIME THE UNITED STATES ENTERED THE KOREAN STRUGGLE HE DID NOT FIGURE THE CHINESE REDS WOULD TAKE PART IN IT.
AT TODAY'S MACARTHUR HEARING SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) ASKED WHETHER THE HIGH COMMAND, BEFORE COMMITTING TROOPS TO KOREAN LAST JUNE, CONSIDERED THE POSSIBILITY THAT RUSSIA OR CHINA MIGHT INTERVENE.
BRADLEY SAID:
"YES, I THINK BOTH OF THOSE POSSIBILITIES WERE CONSIDERED AT THAT TIME IN MEETING THE NORTH KOREAN THRUST ONLY AS THEY ADVANCED TOWARD THE SOUTH OF KOREA.
"I KNOW MY OWN OPINION WAS--AND I THINK IT WAS PRETTY GENERALLY HELD--THAT THE CHANCE OF RUSSIA OR CHINA COMING INTO THE WAR IN SOUTHERN KOREA WAS RATHER REMOTE. THERE WAS THAT POSSIBILITY, AND IT WAS CONSIDERED, BUT WE DID NOT THINK THEY WOULD COME INTO THE FIGHTING IN SOUTH KOREA."

BRADLEY TOLD A SENATE INQUIRY INTO THE REMOVAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR THAT "WE MUST ALL REALIZE THAT RUSSIA HAS THE BOMB" AND THE PLANES TO DELIVER THEM IN EVENT OF WAR.
"I WISH WE COULD FEEL SURE THAT RUSSIA REALIZED THE DESTRUCTIVENESS OF THESE BOMBS, AS WELL AS WE DO, AND WOULD CONSENT TO A PERIOD OF PEACE," HE SAID.
"APPARENTLY THEY ARE NOT WILLING TO DO SO, AND THEIR ANNOUNCED INTENTION TODAY IS TO SOME DAY RULE THE WORLD. THEY HAVE ANNOUNCED THAT CAPITALISM AND COMMUNISM CANNOT EXIST IN THE WORLD TOGETHER."

AT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE FIRING OF GENERAL MACARTHUR, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) CALLED IT "UNUSUAL" THAT SUCH A HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL MEETING SHOULD HAVE BEEN REPORTED BY A STENOGRAPHER "EAVESDROPPING" IN THE NEXT ROOM.

BRADLEY SAID HE SAW "NOTHING UNUSUAL" ABOUT THE FACT A WOMAN SECRETARY TO AMBASSADOR PHILIP JESSUP HAD TAKEN NOTES ON THE TALKS EVEN IF HE AND OTHERS DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT IT AT THE TIME.

THE FACT THAT SHE HAD WAS MADE KNOWN WHEN THE ADMINISTRATION RELEASED ITS WAKE ISLAND DOCUMENTS AT THE OPENING OF THE PRESENT HEARINGS ON MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE LAST WEEK, THE PRESIDENT SAID HE HAD BEEN CONSIDERING MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL OFF AND ON FOR A YEAR.

THE WHITE HOUSE LATER SAID THE PRESIDENT HAD HAD IT IN MIND EVER SINCE MACARTHUR WROTE A LETTER ABOUT FORMOSA TO THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS LAST AUGUST.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) ASKED BRADLEY AT SENATE HEARINGS TODAY WHETHER MR.TRUMAN HAD GIVEN ANY SUCH INDICATION IN HIS CONFERENCES WITH BRADLEY IN AUGUST.

BRADLEY: "I DON'T RECALL ANY SUCH. I DON'T THINK THAT HE WOULD HAVE STATED THAT."

BRADLEY-CASUALTIES

MAY 23 1951

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, SAID TODAY "MORE THAN 4,000" U.S. TROOPS HAVE BEEN CAPTURED IN KOREA AND "SOMETHING LIKE 1,400" OF THEM RECAPTURED.

"THE REST OF THEM ARE STILL MISSING," THE GENERAL SAID.

"THAT IS JUST APPROXIMATELY, AND IT IS ONLY FROM MEMORY," HE TOLD THE JOINT SENATE ARMED SERVICES-FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AT HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

THE GENERAL'S PERSONAL TESTIMONY FOLLOWED INTRODUCTION OF DEFENSE DEPARTMENT REPORTS SAYING UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA ARE EXACTING A TOLL OF THREE ENEMY COMBAT CASUALTIES FOR EVERY ONE THEY SUFFER.

THE ENEMY LOSSES, THE REPORT SAID, ARE 12 FOR EVERY U.S. CASUALTY, BUT MANY OF THEM ARE INFLICTED BY REPUBLIC OF KOREA AND OTHER U.N. FORCES AND CANNOT BE CREDITED TO AMERICAN ARMS.

A COMPANION REPORT SAID THE RATIO OF ALLIED LOSSES TO THOSE OF HITLER'S LEGIONS IN WESTERN EUROPE WAS ONE TO FIVE.

THAT REPORT SAID BATTLE CASUALTIES OF THE FIRST SIX U.S. DIVISIONS ENGAGED IN EUROPE IN THE JUNE 6, 1944- MAY 11, 1945 PERIOD AVERAGED THREE PER CENT OF STRENGTH A WEEK.

"IN KOREA," THE REPORT CONTINUED, "ARMY BATTLE CASUALTIES HAVE AVERAGED NINE-TENTHS OF ONE PER CENT (OF MANPOWER ENGAGED) A WEEK SINCE JUNE 25. FOR THE FIRST FOUR MONTHS OF THIS YEAR THESE ARMY KOREAN (CAMPAIGN) CASUALTIES HAVE AVERAGED FIVE-TENTHS OF ONE PER CENT.

"IT WILL BE SEEN FROM THIS THAT IN THE FIGHTING IN EUROPE AGAINST HITLER'S FORCES THE WEEKLY LOSSES OF OUR TROOPS WERE AT A RATE APPROXIMATELY THREE TIMES AS GREAT AS THOSE EXPERIENCED BY OUR TROOPS IN KOREA SINCE JUNE 25, AND APPROXIMATELY SIX TIMES AS GREAT AS LOSSES EXPERIENCED IN THE LAST FOUR MONTHS."

TOBEY-MACARTHUR

WASHINGTON,MAY 22-(AP)-SENATOR TOBEY (R-NH) URGED TODAY THAT SENATORS "RING THE CURTAIN DOWN" ON THE INVESTIGATION OF THE FIRING OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

HE TOLD OTHER MEMBERS OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES THEY SHOULD "FORGET THE LITTLE PIDDLING STUFF" AND CLOSE THEIR HEARINGS.

TOBEY'S OUTBURST CAME DURING THE FOURTH DAY OF QUESTIONING OF GEN. OMAR BRADLEY. IT APPEARED IN THE CENSORED TRANSCRIPT OF THE CLOSED-DOOR HEARINGS.

HE SAID HE WAS "IMPRESSED WITH THE FUTILITY" OF MUCH THAT WAS GOING ON, AND ADDED:

"HERE ARE A LOT OF MEN, WELL INTENTIONED MEN, WITH ABSOLUTELY NO MILITARY TRAINING OR GUMPTION OR COMMON SENSE COMING IN HERE TO POSE QUESTIONS TO MEN WHOSE LIFE-LONG SERVICE HAS BEEN IN THE MILITARY AND NAVAL ESTABLISHMENTS AND THE AIR FORCE OF THIS COUNTRY."

TOBEY SAID ALL THE SENATORS WERE GETTING WAS "OPINIONS" AND THEY HAD "THE WHOLE COUNTRY BY THE EARS PUTTING OUT BULLETINS."

"MR.STALIN SUBSCRIBES TO IT DAY AFTER DAY," HE ADDED.

TOBEY INDICATED HIS BELIEF THAT LITTLE CAN RESULT FROM THE INQUIRY NOW IN ANY CASE.

"WHEN WE GET ALL THROUGH MR.MACARTHUR WILL STILL BE DEPOSED FROM HIS POSITION, MR.MARSHALL WILL STILL BE THE MAN IN CHARGE OF THE DEFENSE OF THIS COUNTRY, THE JOINT CHIEFS WILL STILL BE THE SAME AS THEY ARE NOW," HE SAID.

Transcript of Fourth Day of Bradley's Testimony in Opposition to the MacArthur Thesis

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Following is the complete, censored transcript of today's session of the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees inquiring into the Administration foreign policy (censorship deletions noted parenthetically):

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL — All right, gentlemen.

There are two matters I desire to call to the attention of the committee before we start the examination of General Bradley this morning.

I have been in almost constant contact with the Department of Defense with respect to the material that has been requested by the committee.

SENATOR WILEY—Might I suggest, Mr. Chairman, you are talking to those down that table. If you turn around the other way, we can get the benefit of it, too.

THE CHAIRMAN—I have received a letter this morning from Mr. Larkin in accordance with my request that he furnish a summarization of the status of requests that have been made to him showing the information requested that has been furnished, and the status of the request of that which has not been supplied yet.

General Mudge has the copy of that letter and that summarization and if any Senator wishes to see the status of his requests, he is at liberty to do so. If he has any further suggestions as to any action that might be taken by the Chair or by the committee to secure the information requested, I shall be glad to have him submit it to the Chair.

Now, gentlemen, there is another matter before we proceed that I wish to bring to your attention. On Friday afternoon rather late as I was emerging from the conference with the House on the Military Manpower Bill, I was met by a group of reporters.

They brought to my attention a publicity release by the senior Senator from Wisconsin, Mr. Wiley. It is headed "For Release 8 A. M. Saturday" and bears the headline that "Wiley Protests to Russell Against Whitewash and Washout Tendency of Joint Hearings Thus Far."

I went on up to my office, of course, without any comment and found there the letter from the senior Senator from Wisconsin. I wish to read this letter to the committee at this time. It is addressed to me.

Letter by Wiley Charges Whitewash

"Hon. Richard Russell, Chairman
Senate Armed Services Committee
Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

"Re: Whitewash on Washout Hearings.

"My Dear Mr. Chairman:

"On Thursday, May 17, in the joint hearings of our two committees, I stated:

"'Will the chairman ascertain from the Chief Executive whether he would be willing that the participants in those conversations or gatherings give us what was said and if no (that is, if Mr. Truman refuses) is his refusal based upon the general thesis, that it would be damaging to the public (interest) if the information were given.'

"You stated in reply that if a letter were addressed to you, asking for such information, you would transmit it 'to the proper authority.'

"Then I commented: 'You shall receive the letter, sir.'

"However, yesterday afternoon, the President stated in effect to his press conference that his conversations with his advisors before coming to decisions were his business and his business alone.

"This pronouncement of the President answers quite clearly albeit very unsatisfactorily, one of the questions I was going to ask him in my letter, namely, whether the President would release his staff from any pledge, open or implied, to keep their conversations with him confidential. The President apparently will not release his staff from such a pledge—going on the theory that neither the public nor the Senate has any right to get such detailed information relating to the recall of General MacArthur or for that matter, any subsequent question which we will raise in committee.

"It is my contention that circumstances which led up to a decision affecting the whole future peace of the world definitely are the people's business and must be revealed to the people's representatives. If the President is allowed to maintain his 'Iron Curtain' over this information regarding events leading to MacArthur's dismissal we will never be able to lift the 'Iron Curtain' over other events which led to the downfall of Nationalist China, the blunders at Yalta, Teheran, Potsdam, and any other critical issues which our committees may want to export.

"Now Mr. Chairman, no one has fought harder than I to preserve the system of checks and balances between three separate and co-equal branches of Government. But I ask now how can the Congress check and balance abuses of Presidential power, errors of Presidential commission or omission, if it cannot even get the facts? Are we to legislate in the dark; is the past to be shrouded in secrecy; is our policy in the future to be based on severely limited information?

"We ninety-six Senators were elected to represent 154,000,000 people. We cannot go back to those people and tell them that decisions affecting the lives of 150,000 American boys fighting in Korea that such decisions and their origins are the 'President's business and his alone.'

"I want to point out that the President has not stated that the disclosure of the facts as to his conversations, consultations and conversations—that such disclosures would be harmful to the public interest. He has simply stated an arbitrary edict that whether his conversations affect the national security or not, they are nobody else's business but his.

"I hesitate to conclude at this early stage, but I must say that from the way the joint hearings have proceeded thus far they may end up being considered not only a whitewash but a washout. I hope that future events may not justify such a conclusion. I am not making these remarks on the basis of any individuals or personalities involved but solely on the basis of objection to the 'cover-up' tactics thus far condoned by the joint committee majority.

"Let me also state that as one who has supported bipartisan foreign policy in Europe in every single one of its stages since the end of the second World War, I deeply resent any charge or any innuendo to the effect that my own or my minority colleagues' approach is partisan in its goal or in its motivation.

"We are simply trying to get the facts, letting the chips fall where they may, because we feel that a country which has suffered some 66,000 casualties, including over 11,000 dead, is entitled to know everything that led up to such losses and worse losses to come so long as such information does not violate national security. It is the committee majority which has been partisan in its frantic desire to cover-up and whitewash.

"I would appreciate your courtesy in transmitting this respectful message.

"Sincerely yours,
"ALEXANDER WILEY."

Russell Demurs At Transmitting Letter

Now, gentlemen, when this committee met for its organization on April 30, I made a statement to the committee with respect to procedure, and it was approved by the committee without objection.

I stated that where any member of the committee desired any document, information or fact that was in the custody of the executive branch of the Government, if the member of the committee would address to me a letter briefly describing the information sought, that I would be glad, as the agent of the committee, in my capacity as chairman, to use every resource available to me, to undertake to get the committee the information.

I read this communication three or four times.

In my opinion, it does not comply with the procedure outlined, and is vague and indefinite as to any fact it might seek.

It is, instead, as I regard it, a rather serious reflection upon the integrity and motives of a majority of the members of this committee.

Now, as chairman of this committee, and its agent, I have not thought it was proper for me to transact the business of the committee in the press. I have, however, decided in my own mind that this communication does not fall within the procedure which we have outlined.

Unless I am instructed by the committee to the contrary, I do not propose to forward it to any branch of the executive branch of the Government.

Of course if the committee sees fit to instruct me to forward it to any portion of the executive branch of the Government, I shall comply with those instructions, as the representative of the committee.

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Wiley.

SENATOR WILEY—Certain individuals haven't bothered to read the various statements I have made, and I am very grateful to you that you have read them, because they have attempted to put words into my mouth. They tried to impute to me things I never said.

I wish they would read my comments, therefore, before judging and coming to conclusions. For those comments I refer individuals to the May 21 Congressional Record, where, beginning on Page 5844, I reproduced the text of my releases thus far.

The first release related to my letter to the distinguished chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Senator Russell, which he just read.

In that letter I made certain observations against the President's contention at the White House conference which preceded General MacArthur's dismissal, that it was his business and his business alone.

I make no formal request on the President, I make that clear, because he had made that statement after I had made the previous statement in the record here. Then he talked. That is the sequence of events.

Then he said it was his business. I implied, however, that I felt that the nation would applaud a reversal of the decision on his part that the nation would applaud if the President were to announce, "I do not intend to hide anything. I release General Bradley and all other individuals to participate in such conferences from any pledge, open or implied, to keep those conversations confidential."

I repeat I made no formal request on the President, and I told you why. I merely submitted observations to him through the chairman of the joint committee. I asked that the chairman of the joint committee transmit those observations to the President. He says now he doesn't think he should. That is okay with me.

I will present some personally to him myself. I pressed my case, in effect, before the bar of public opinion, just as I have been presenting what I feel to be constructive suggestions for a long time before that bar.

The second release consisted of my statement to the effect that consideration might be given to inviting the President to testify before our joint committee.

I am sure if some of you people were President, you wouldn't hesitate in the public interest, and it surely is a matter of public interest. I am just back from the state, wasn't here yesterday morning, and I know what I am talking about in the Middle West.

I further state if the President does not choose to testify, consideration might be given to having the joint committee subpoena. I said "consideration," I didn't say "subpoena him."

Justice Marshall's Decision In Burr Case Is Cited

I pointed out that some individuals who had not thought the issue out or had not consulted constitutional law might think that the idea of subpoenaing the President is absolutely absurd. Nothing of the sort. I have quoted Chief Justice Marshall in the '08 decision in the Aaron Burr case. If you want to read something that would be stimulating to all of us, read what the counsel, Botts, said on that occasion, what he said were the rights of the public, and it was his argument that brought about John Marshall's decision that issued the subpoena to the President of the United States.

If anyone here thinks that John Marshall's decision can be lightly dismissed, I suggest they look up the biography of that great jurist. I want to point out, however, that I very definitely did not state that I was going to request the committee to subpoena the President or that I was going to request the committee to invite the President to testify.

I merely made a suggestion before the bar of public opinion. I stated when asked by reporters that if members of the joint committee see any merit in my proposal, I hope they might follow through on it.

If, on the other hand, they did not like the proposal that was their prerogative and I for one would not press the issue because I believe that to the greatest extent possible there should be united action in a joint committee.

I might stop here and ask, Mr. Chairman, what we are here for. We are here to get the facts; we are here to develop the truth. And why was the committee brought into being? Was it to get just part of the picture?

I should just like to present one futher thought. There have been various inspired newspaper reports to the effect that the Senator from Wisconsin was a party to a strategy of getting some Administration witness. I say that is a damned lie. I never talked with any of my associates until just a few minutes before I saw the chairman and that was after the matter had broken here in committee.

There was not strategy of any kind nor any thought, and I want to say if you look through my record you will not find that I have attacked personally one individual. I would like to reiterate that it has been my intention neither in this hearing nor any other proceeding in the twelve years I rave been in the Senate to get anyone. I do not believe in attacking personalities. I do not believe in smearing individuals.

I believe in getting at the issue and fighting for principles, and whether you people believe it or not, I say that one of the most vital principles is involved in this case that has ever come before any committee or before the Senate.

I also believe in securing the facts. I haven't been a trial lawyer for thirty odd years without knowing some of the tactics, the psychological tactics that go on, and go on in government too. I want to know why MacArthur was fired and so does the public. Have we got the answer?

SENATOR McMAHON—Yes.

SENATOR WILEY — We will see about that later. Is there anything wrong with the approach? I would like someone to tell me.

The gentleman says yes, we have got the answer already. The case isn't closed. I say you have become advocates instead of investigators. In this committee you are supposed to investigate, you are not supposed to arrive at your conclusion after one witneess has told you conclusion.

I have never sought to embarrass any individual. I have never sought to belittle any individual and I challenge someone in the Senate here to say that.

I am not interested in individuals or personalities, as such, except in so far as they convey facts and in so far as they stand for or lack certain like principles.

In summary, let me say my whole aim has been to make what I feel to be respectfully constructive suggestions to this joint committee and to the American people. As a minority member, leader of the minority party on the Foreign Relations Committee, I ask you what Vandenberg would have done in a case like that. I know what he thought of MacArthur. He is gone. I know what he would do. He would get up on his feet like I think I have and stand for principle.

Wiley Reports Support In Letters and Wires

I have received a great many telegrams and letters endorsing my effort to try to get the facts for the public. I intend to persist in that endeavor, but I am not aiming at getting anyone or sparing anyone. Fundamentally I have been seeking to strengthen the legislative branch rather than to see it further undermined and weakened.

I respect the right of my colleagues to differ with me as they see fit, but I will not back down one iota in my personal contention that the legislative branch is entitled to the facts and that an investigating committee is supposed to investigate rather than to become a rubber stamp or arrive before the thing is all through at conclusions.

Now I know how the news has gone out. One newspaper man came to me just yesterday after I got back from Wisconsin and he said, "Well, you notice what happens. The minute you dare to oppose anyone in Government or stand for a principle, see what happens?

"All I have to do is to send word to the hounds and the hounds will bay."

Look at the cartoons; look at the noted columnists. Not having studied the legal principle involved at all, they don't argue that. They just sort of smear ironically, sort of indulge in light-headed statements. Why? They don't want the public to get the issue.

Aren't they interested in the facts? Well, I never said that the committee is a whitewash. I want that straight. I see the gentleman from Arkansas has just come into the room. What a beautiful statement he made after someone had said that I said the committee had whitewashed.

I said if we don't get the facts, it will be a whitewash or a washout. Can anyone deny that if we do not get the facts?

I saw several other of my brethren who thought that they had to go off the deep end and indulge in personalities. That is no argument. Lincoln said—and I have used it a hundred times and won lawsuits with it—"that when I notice a man is always damning the opposition, indulging in personalities, it is sure evidence he has got a damn poor case of his own."

We argue the facts and we argue the principles that are involved here. That is what Senator George did, too. He did a grand job.

SENATOR JOHNSON—Will the Senator yield, Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN — Will the Senator yield?

SENATOR WILEY—He said there was no immunity, but he said there was the privilege; and many questions arise as to who can exercise the privilege in a case like this. Is it a governmental privilege? The courts have held it was the privilege of government and not the witness.

There is also the question—if there was a privilege, which I deny here, is there a waiver?

There is also the question whether or not the President of the United States will say that it is against the public interest. If he does, that closes it. But he has not said that. He said it is up to him personally.

Now I will yield.

SENATOR JOHNSON — To whom does the Senator——

SENATOR WILEY — I can't hear you.

SENATOR JOHNSON — To whom does the Senator from Wisconsin refer in the next to last sentence of his letter to the chairman of this committee when he says, and I quote, "it is the committee majority which has been partisan in its frantic desire to cover up and whitewash"?

SENATOR WILEY—The majority is the majority party.

Chairman Seeks To Avoid Dispute

SENATOR JOHNSON — Well, the Senator from Texas has been sitting here next to the Senator from Massachusetts and we have been voting alike on the matter. I should think if because I am a Democrat I am to be charged with covering up and whitewash and my vote is identical with the Senator from Massachusetts, that he would be subject to the accusation of "covering up and whitewash."

SENATOR WILEY—Well, you are entitled, of course, to your conclusions here. On the contrary, I have pointed out very clearly that it would be wholly premature to judge a committee at this stage, but I have said that if it persists in its present policies, it will end up by being considered a whitewash and a washout.

I repeat, I suggest that those who are so quick to criticize take a little time out and read what they think they are criticizing before committing themselves against something they may not quite understand.

Now I felt in view of what I read in the papers coming in, in view of what continues to go on in cartoons, I as a member of this committee would just express myself in that way, and I call your attention I am not indulging in personalities. I am simply claiming definitely and clearly, gentlemen, that we should have the facts.

THE CHAIRMAN—The Chair has stated his position with respect to this communication. If there is no motion, the Chair will recognize the Senator from Massachusetts.

On page 1976 of the Record of May 15 we found that the Senator from Massachusetts protected his position, and I will read a brief statement so that there can be no confusion, or charges or acrimony:

"SENATOR SALTONSTALL—

Would the Senator yield for a question of procedure, Mr. Chairman?

"SENATOR WILEY — Without losing any of my time.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — I have a matter on which I would like to be over on the floor at 12 o'clock, and I would not like to lose my place in asking my questions.

"THE CHAIRMAN—I will have to submit that to the committee. We have a request from Senator Saltonstall that he not lose his place in the questioning. Is there any objection to the Senator from Massachusetts not losing his place? The Chair hears none."

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — You are recognized.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT — Mr. Chairman—a parliamentary inquiry.

Has this other matter been disposed of? Are we going forward with the regular questioning?

THE CHAIRMAN—That is my intention, sir.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT — I apologize. I had set a hearing of the R. F. C. and was chairman and wasn't here. I didn't realize this was coming up this morning. If I may be permitted two or three minutes, I would like to comment on the observations, part of which I heard, made by the Senator from Wisconsin.

THE CHAIRMAN—The Chair is very loath to carry this matter any further. However, inasmuch as the Senator from Arkansas was mentioned by name, I think he should be recognized.

SENATOR STENNIS — Mr. Chairman, with all due deference to the Senator from Arkansas, are we not going to proceed in regular order here, since we have General Bradley here, and everybody is here to hear his testimony? I make that observation, Mr. Chairman——

THE CHAIRMAN — The Chair will permit the committee to settle the matter. The Chair had to make a disposition of the communication from a member of the committee. I thought the Senator from Wisconsin was entitled to be heard. I was leaving it to the committee; and the Senator from Wisconsin was heard at some length.

He mentioned particularly the Senator from Arkansas, by name, and in view of that fact, I thought it was appropriate that the Chair would allow the Senator from Arkansas an opportunity to speak.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT — It won't take long. I have no written statement.

THE CHAIRMAN—I hope that the committee won't get off into a prolonged debate on a matter of this kind, unless the committee desires to take some action on it. If the committee desires to take action, that is another thing.

SENATOR BREWSTER—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN—The Senator from Maine.

SENATOR BREWSTER—I think the Senator from Arkansas should understand that before he came in the chairman did state that he did not intend to submit this to the President.

THE CHAIRMAN—Nor to any other agency.

SENATOR BREWSTER—The Senator from Wisconsin said it was all right with him.

I think the Senator should understand that so far as the committee is concerned, it is disposed of, but I think the courtesy should be extended to the Senator from Arkansas to make his observations.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will recognize the Senator if he wishes to be heard on a point of personal privilege, but I hope he will pardon me in saying so, but I hope he does not invoke any lengthy discussion.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT — I would like to say, particularly to the Senator from Wisconsin, that whatever I may have said was not intended as a personal reference at all.

The observation that I made the other day—that I originally made—bearing on this general subject was apropos of a remark made by the Senator from California.

My concern has been—it is not a matter of personality at all—that this hearing be so conducted that the people of this country would feel that they had the truth of the matter, and that it was not a whitewash, and I was really seeking to try to persuade the Senator from California, particularly, and the Senator from Wisconsin, secondarily, after he entered the matter, that we should be extremely careful not to use the word "whitewash," which is a word that gained great currency last year with regard to the Tydings Committee.

Now, we know the effect of it on that committee. All I am seeking, and sought then, to do was to minimize any such implications that might arise out of this hearing.

I think that it is extremely important that both parties and the people begin to have confidence in what our purposes are, and in their Government.

I have been greatly concerned with it in another connection, the R. F. C. I think we have gone a good way, and with the full cooperation of the Republican party, I might say, in re-establishing some confidence in that agency.

I feel the same way about this matter. I felt it was very dangerous when the attacks were made upon the integrity of the leading military people of our Government, and particularly in wartime, and all I am seeking to do is to see that we come out of this hearing without its being partisan or without either side feeling that they had been mistreated in the matter.

Now, the vote that I cast the otherday, I have been criticized for in somewhat the same way everybody is, I guess, when they do those things, but I was seeking merely to minimize this whole business of its being partisan.

Inquiry Not Entitled To Data, He Feels

There were two elements in it: I voted with the Republican side, with the Senator from Wisconsin, partly for that reason, and partly because I felt that there should be no excuse for saying that anything was held back.

I happened to feel that what was being held back was something to which we were not entitled, on the one hand, and the next is that it is not particularly germane or important to this inquiry.

We differ on that substantive matter. I do, with the Senator from Wisconsin, but I certainly want to say now that I had no intention of having a question of personality arise in this. I thought it was the principle, and I regret that the Senator from Wisconsin has interpreted my remarks in a personal way, because I have nothing but the highest regard for him, as he well knows, having, I believe, as I have evidenced it, in the association on the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Chairman, that is about all I have to say on it.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL—Senator Saltonstall.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Testimony of General of the Army Omar N. Bradley—resumed—accompanied by Lieut. Col Chester V. Clifton.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — General Bradley, I have just these three or four questions. I was not here yesterday, but I read the record of what you said yesterday. There is one question that appeals to me.

You stated that the first you heard of this matter of the release of General MacArthur came from a telephone call from someone, you did not remember who it was.

My question is: If you heard of the telephone call, and as a result, cautioned the Chiefs of Staff to be ready, the criticism of General MacArthur did not come from the Joint Chiefs of Staff, it came from somebody up above the Joint Chiefs of Staff, or from some other department to the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Is that a fair interpretation?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Senator, as I have said several times, I am sorry I can not remember where the information came from that caused me to call this meeting. As I stated in answer to a later question in here, it may have come from someone in my own office who brought me a ticker announcement of the thing.

It is my business to try to keep the Chiefs informed of what may come up and whether it was a telephone call or this ticker, I am sorry, I cannot remember.

Q.—What my point was—the Joint Chiefs of Staff as such under your chairmanship were not at that time, on April 4, considering the dismissal or relief of General MacArthur.

A.—No, except that we had been concerned over a period of time, as I stated yesterday, about various statements made by General MacArthur, which more or less indicated his unwillingness to carry out the war in Korea according to our ideas of trying to confine it to Korea, and his many statements which worried us as jeopardizing civilian control over the military.

It wasn't just a brand new thing, this thing had been going on for sexeral months, as was illustrated by the fact that we sent him this directive on Dec. 6.

Q.—Now, I would like to ask two or three questions on the policy regarding Korea. I refer to this Joint Chiefs of Staff report for Senate committees on Korean operations.

SENATOR WILEY—Will the Senator yield there? He used the date, the fourth. Wat it the fourth or the fifth?

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — I thought the telephone call came on the Thursday, which was April 4. Is that correct?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I believe Thursday—April 5, I believe. It was Thursday.

Q.—Thursday, April 5, because you had your first message after the Security Council meeting on Friday, April 6. A.—The first meeting with the President was on Friday, April 6.

Q.—So it was Thursday, April 5, when you received this telephone call.

Now, in the Joint Chiefs of Staff report for the Senate committees on Korean operations, Page 93, Paragraph Numbered 17, you state—and I won't read it all:

"In their meeting on 6 February 1951 the Joint Chiefs of Staff and conferees from the Department of State considered five possible lines of action as outlined by representatives of the State Department: * * * (seven lines deleted).

Then on Feb. 13 in Paragraph 23, it states, and I quote:

"During the course of the discussion it became apparent to the Joint Chiefs of Staff that the Department of State would prefer not to express political objectives with respect to Korea until military capabilities there were established. On the other hand, the consensus of the opinions of the Joint Chiefs of Staff was that a political decision was required before there could be suitable determination of military courses of action."

Therefore, on Feb. 13 there was no specific policy with relation to Korea. Is that a fair statement?

A.—I don't think you could take it in that very form, Senator. The question of what your policy should be with relation to the Thirty-eighth Parallel or whether or not you should get out or whether or not you should reinforce the troops in Korea hinged to a great extent on what success we had against the Communists.

At that time we were reasonably sure a new attack would come some time in the spring, and if you can bump that off, as it were, you are in a much better position to negotiate than you would be if you couldn't contain it, or actually you would be in a better position than you were on Feb. 6 when we discussed this matter.

So that while the military would like to have some political guidance, which will help them formulate military policies in Korea, we can understand that until the situation is a little better known as to whether or not we can contain it, that the United Nations would have some trouble formulating policy.

You might accept one thing under one condition and you wouldn't accept such conditions under another.

I believe that is, in substance, what this discussion was about in here—as to whether or not you could get a political decision out of the United Nations at this time, while it looked pretty black up to that time, but it was beginning to look better—whether or not you wanted them to make a political decision under those conditions or whether you wanted them to wait and make a political decision and furnish political guidance after things looked better.

Saltonstall Reviews Report on Conference

Q.—There was an agreement on affirmative policy—more a wait and see what is going to happen? A.—That is correct. More wait and see and see whether or not we couldn't be in a better position to formulate a political policy.

Q.—Now, I refer to Paragraph 38 on Page 99:

"On 15 March, 1951"—Now, that is just a month after Feb 15—"the Joint Chiefs of Staff held an informal conference with representatives of the Department of State and among other things discussed the Korean situation. It appeared to be generally agreed that at some future meeting an agreement should be reached on the objectives in Korea. It was suggested that the Secretary of State talk to the Secretary of Defense and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. If this question was not settled before the next meeting, the question would be discussed at the Joint Chiefs of Staff-State Department meeting on that date."

That would confirm the meeting of Feb. 13. Still, a month later there was no definite military, political or diplomatic policy with relation to Korea. Is that a fair statement?

A.—That pertained primarily to whether or not we crossed the Thirtieth-eighth Parallel in the spring, and at this time it was pretty much understood that we would not be able to get any political-military policy until we had been able to see what would happen to this next offensive. It is a fact, of course, that this is still a wait-and-see proposition.

Q.—And then that wait-and-see proposition—what was important, it seems to me, and interesting, certainly, that wait-and-see proposition developed into what I would call a negative policy, the negative policy of trying to stop the will of the Chinese to be aggressors by killing them off or by stopping them in any other way.

A.—Well, that and the fact that this all added up to the proposed armistice terms, if you want to call it that, which our Government was discussing with the other governments involved in Korea, and which was sent over to General MacArthur for comment. These discussions all led up to that proposal which was being submitted to the countries involved.

This being a United Nations action, the political guidance more or less has to come from the United Nations.. Of course, we show the leadership in it. But these discussions all led up to this proposal which we submitted to the other nations and submitted to General MacArthur for comment, and which he later announced himself and voided any chance of submitting it as a United Nations proposition.

Q.—What it comes down to then, General Bradley, and from listening to General Marshall would be my reaction—what it comes down to is that we hope through an aggressive resistance to the Chinese attacks that ultimately there will be an effort or an opportunity to end these operations in Korea?

A.—Yes, sir. We had thought here in March was one chance and were proposing such and getting a clearance from other nations on it, and that was then abandoned. We still hope that we will be in a position to again propose something through the United Nations which would end up in negotiations and cessation of hostilities.

Q.—But as a result of these hearings there has been a more definite affirmative policy established—for instance, with relation to Formosa, with relation to the economic blockade and with relation to the Nationalist troops of Chiang Kai-shek. That is a fair statement is it not? A.—No, sir, I——

Q.—A more affirmative policy has been established? A.—I don't know that I would admit that. As far as the military is concerned, our policy has always been on Formosa that we should improve their equipment and their ability to hold Formosa. We do not want it to fall into hostile hands, and as far as the military point of view on Formosa, it has not changed. As far as our military view on economic sanctions, that has not changed. We have argued economic sanctions ever since China got into the Korean situation.

Q.—So that you feel from the military point of view that these hearings have brought out or certainly made public the policy on the diplomatic side, on the political side, along the lines that the military had hoped they would make them clear?

A.—Well, I think somebody on the political side would be much better able to answer than myself. My answer is entirely a military one in that I say we have always felt this way about the Nationalist troops on Formosa, about rearming them, and we have felt this way about economic sanctions. We have not changed our attitude toward the use of Nationalists.

Q.—Now may I ask you just one more question? I read yesterday your testimony with relation to the reason that the Joint Chiefs of Staff felt from a military point of view that MacArthur should be relieved. Did you read Mr. Pearson's column this morning with relation to the J. C. S. role in the MacArthur firing?

A.—Yes, sir, but I would recommend that you take it out of the Record and let me read it again rather than reading the statement there.

Q.—I will not ask you to repeat the reasons. You stand by your reasons that were given yesterday and do not agree with the reasons given in this article? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And you say there is no basis for the statement given in the article? A.—Well, I think he has part of them right, the same as I read the Record yesterday. I do not remember. I glanced through it rather hurriedly, but I know some of them are not in accordance with the reasons I have given yesterday.

Bradley Says It Is Not Question of 2 Against 1

Q.—Now it is true, is it not, and a fair statement that your position as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is really one of guiding the meetings and calling the meetings of the Joint Chiefs of Staff? Their decision under the law is final as regards to strategy, military strategy. Your relation with the President and with the Joint Chiefs of Staff and your influence is really an influence from a personal point of view rather than a legal point of view. Is that correct?

A.—No, sir, I don't think that is entirely correct. I have a legal position which you gave me as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff when you amended the National Security Act in 1949.

It is true that you put into the bill that I have no vote, but voting does not play too big a part anyway. We have discussions, and if there is one of the three Chiefs that dissents, then we try to find some solution which is satisfactory to all of them. It is not a question of two aganist one in the voting. We usually end up with a solution which is satisfactory, or acceptable at least, to all three of the Chiefs.

I help guide those discussions, present the argument sometimes on both sides so as to bring out all the points before a decision is reached. I should not say that my influence was entirely just acting as a conductor of meetings.

Q.—I did not mean that. I said that a lot of the importance of the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is the personal reputation in which he is held, not only by the other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff but also by the President and by the poeple of the country. I would say most respectfully that you had great influence. Because of your personal reputation and personality.

What I am trying to bring out is that it is a personality and a reputation that give the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff his influence. Is that not right?

A.—That is a big factor, yes; and I hope always whoever is sitting in the chair of chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff will have the confidence of Congress and of the people and of the President.

It should not be any other way, and I hope that you will always see to it that when someone is appointed, that he does have your confidence, and that he does have such ability and reputation as you call it that he will exercise that influence and his arguments will carry some weight and he will be able to represent the Joint Chiefs of Staff at various meetings and present their views for them.

Q.—There is just one final question, General. I am not sure whether this has been brought out through you or not. Is it not more dangerous from the point of view of the security of the United States and the bombing of the United States to make sure of our defenses in the Far East even than it is in Europe? In other words, isn't it easier to bomb the western part of the United States from the far eastern parts of Asia and Siberia than it is for Russia to bomb over the other way?

A.—No, sir, I don't think so. I think you can best answer that by taking a globe and measuring distances over the top, and I don't think you will find that the distances from the Far East, as you call it, Vladivostok, for example, to San Francisco or Los Angeles, I don't think those are as short as some other possible routes of approach.

Q.—But Japan and Okinawa and Formosa and the Philippines are important bulwarks of defense to keep any possible enemy from getting any closer to the United States. A.—Yes, indeed.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Green.

SENATOR GREEN—I would like to ask a couple of questions which I think have already been answered several times, but not directly, and they relate to the proposal to establish a naval blockade along the Chinese coast and to bomb the coastal cities or military establishments. I think it has been brought out clearly that that is waging war, is it not?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, sir, I believe that a blockade is normally taken as an act of war. It certainly could be one anyway, and a blockade in this case would not only affect China but it would affect Port Arthur which is a Russian port, and Hong Kong which is a British port, and our view, that is the Joint Chiefs of Staff view, has been that for a blockade to be effective, a naval blockade, it should be a United Nations blockade and not a United States blockade.

Q.—That is not just the point that I wanted to bring out. It is this. If that is waging war against China and possibly against Russia, since I understand the treaty calls for mutual action in case of attack on either one, would it shorten the fighting in the Far East or would the fighting be over earlier, that is if you took this action in China, than it would if we confined it to Korea alone, because the argument has been made for this action, that it would shorten the fighting in Korea.

A.—Well, there is a possibility that you might affect the fighting in Korea and thus shorten the campaign there by extending your bombardment into Manchuria, your attack on coastal cities, and your blockade.

You certainly would cut down the supplies, both strategic and otherwise going into China, and it might have the shortening effect on the operations in Korea.

However, it has been our experience heretofore that air action in itself is not decisive and, therefore, you are taking steps which while they might affect the operations in Korea, there is no assurance that they will be decisive and, at the same time, what worries us most is you are running a risk of starting World War III, and extending the conflict rather than shortening the one you have now.

Witness Doubts Wisdom Of Risking Wider War

Q.—In other words, it would be more likely to prolong it than to shorten the fighting, in general, even if the fighting in Korea were terminated?

A.—When you consider the possibility of getting Russia into it, and weigh that against the effect it might have on the operations in Korea only, and also take into consideration the fact that taking this action might also cause our bases to be attacked, it is pretty hard to say that it would shorten it. In fact, it might very much prolong it and go into a World War III.

Nobody knows. The fact remains that we, at this time, do not think we should take that chance.

Q.—But you say it might develop into World War III. In that case would it not be more likely to do it in case we provoked a war with China than if we limited it to Korea?

A.—We think it would, because of certain provisions of the Chinese-Russian Treaty. They have a mutual defense pact, and so forth. We have not attacked China itself. We have attacked Chinese troops in Korea, yes, but we have not attacked China itself; and the provisions of that treaty then do not necessarily have to come into effect.

But if you attack China itself, then they might claim that they had been attacked and, therefore, Russia must come to their aid. Whether she would or not, no one knows.

Q.—Thank you. That is what I wanted to bring out; that there was more likelihood that it would develop into a third World War if we did that, than if we pursued our present policy. A.—We think it would be more apt to.

SENATOR GREEN—Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN — Senator Knowland.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—General, did you prepare the notes of the Wake Island Conference?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes.

Q.—Did you classify them as top secret? A.—Yes.

Q.—How many copies were made of the Wake Island report? A.—Fifty, I believe.

Q.—Have you furnished the list of names of those to whom those Wake Island notes were furnished? We requested that prior to the opening of the hearings. A.—When they asked me yesterday, I told them to go ahead and furnish it. I don't know where they are right now.

COLONEL CLIFTON — They were being sent to Mr. Larkin's office, to be transmitted to the committee.

GENERAL BRADLEY—We sent them to Mr. Larkin yesterday, to be transmitted to the committee here.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — I want to thank you. It has been somewhat delayed, but I wanted to make some inquiries about that phase of the matter.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I may be able to answer your specific questions, because I remember where quite a number of them went.

Q.—How many went to the defense establishment? A.—Five went to each member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff,—or, to the Chief of Staff of the three services, that is, fifteen; some went to Mr. Pace, I think five; and some went to the White House——

Q.—How many? A.—Well, you are taxing my memory a little too much right now. I think it was five. The list will be up here——

THE CHAIRMAN—I might say, I have just sent out to find out whether it is available.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — We will pursue that in the second round of questions, if necessary.

THE CHAIRMAN — We will know, in just a minute.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—General, at the time the Wake Island conference was being held, the actual conference was under way, did you know that Ambassador Jessup's secretary was taking notes behind the partition? A.—No. May I explain that fully, because——

Q.—Yes. I think that explanation is needed. A.—At the time the conference at Wake Island was proposed, the President first said he wanted to take all of the Chiefs of Staff; we thought it would be very bad for all four of the Chiefs to be out of Washington at one time, in one place, with a war going on in Korea; so, after we called this to the President's attention, he agreed to let me go along as the representative of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and let me report back to them.

Consequently, I took notes during the conference. My executive, Colonel Matthews, took notes. Colonel Hamblen, representing the Defense Department, in the office of—he carries on the occupation duties, took notes. Various people took notes, around the table, because this was an historic and important conference and I had to report back to the Joint Chiefs.

After the meeting was all over, and we went into the next room, I was very surprised to find that Miss Anderson had been taking down these notes, as she said afterwards, I believe, it was just more or less automatically.

I was very surprised to find that she had taken down quite a bit of conversation, and was able to fill in some of the notes that Mr. Jessup had taken, Mr. Rusk, Colonel Matthews of my office, and myself; so we took all of those notes that each of us had taken, and we compiled what we called or thought was a rather complete report of the meeting.

Q.—Well, General, I find it a little difficult, and have some incredulity to understand how, on an island where there are other civilians located, and where the President of the United States is very closely guarded by the Secret Service, and I understand there were Secret Service men along on this trip—how someone could be placed behind a partition, without the responsible people in this conference knowing about it.

Suppose it had been an assassin behind the partition? Do you mean to tell me that, as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staffs, and as the chief military adviser of the President of the United States, that someone was surreptitiously taking notes behind the partition, and you had no knowledge of it at the time?

A.—It was not behind a partition. There were two rooms in the building. The door was open between the two rooms.

True, the building was guarded. It was a building set way out on the island, nowhere near any other building.

Miss Anderson was part of the party. She was Mr. Jessup's secretary and accompanied him to help on stenographic work while they were on the trip, and no one ever questioned her being in the building because she was a Government employe, and a trusted one, and, I suppose cleared for very top secret matters, otherwise she wouldn't be working in Mr. Jessup's office.

Doesn't Consider Presence Of Stenographer Too Unusual

Q.—General, to your personal knowledge, did the President of the United States know that there was a stenographer in the next room? A.—Not that I know of. We went to the building first, while he and General MacArthur were having their private conference; and then he came into the building, and whether he saw her there or not, I do not know.

Q.—General, doesn't it strike you as being a rather audacious thing, when we are talking about the confidential communications and privileged communications of a President, that there should be someone eavesdropping in the next room, taking a verbatim report of what the President of the United States said, what the Supreme Commander in the Far East said, what the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff said, in a meeting which was so important that you personally classified the document as top secret, without you, or presumably the President, or—certainly General MacArthur testified, without his knowledge, were being taken by someone in the next room?

Doesn't that strike you as being a rather unusual procedure; and if that meeting was so important, it was a very important meeting in which top secret information was being requested, wouldn't it have been far more fitting to have had a stenotype operator in the room so that each of the participants of the conference would know that the notes were being taken?

A.—It doesn't strike me as being too unusual that she was there.

As I have said, we would have had practically as full notes without hers. It was very helpful to have them checked from hers, but we had made notes ourselves, in longhand. Everybody saw us making the notes. We all had pads, around the table, as you have, here. We all took notes at the time, and we would have been able to put them together in about the same way.

Q.—Outside of Mr. Jessup, to your own knowledge, did anyone know that there was someone in the next room surreptitiously taking the notes? A.—Not that I know of. Maybe someone else did; I didn't.

Q.—Was there a wire recording made of the conversations at Wake Island? A.—No.

Q.—What was your interpretation of the President's remarks that he and MacArthur were in complete agreement relative to Formosa at the time he made that statement, at the big meeting at Wake Island? A.—I just assumed that in their hour's conversation together, that they had reached an understanding between the two.

Q.—When did you first learn that the strategic importance of Formosa and the general situation on Formosa was not even discussed at Wake Island? A.—I don't know that yet; because I don't know what was discussed between the President and General MacArthur.

Q.—General MacArthur testified here that the strategic importance of Formosa was not discussed; that, in effect, what the situation was—that the President indicated he had his views, that General MacArthur had his views, and therefore the matter was not placed on the agenda and the matter was not discussed. A.—The matter was not discussed at the big meeting which I attended. What was said between the two, I don't know.

Q.—But your impression was, at that time, that Formosa had been fairly thoroughly discussed, and the general and the President had come to a complete agreement? Is that what you understand from the President's statement? A.—I assumed that they had discussed it.

Q.—If, as the President now states, he first decided to fire General MacArthur as a result of the Veterans of Foreign Wars letter, which dealt with the strategic importance of Formosa, and that issue alone; and the President states that he went to Wake Island to try and bring about an understanding, how would you account for the fact that Formosa was not the subject of widespread conversation on Wake Island?

A.—I have said, I don't know what was said about Formosa on Wake Island.

Q.—Now, the President, in his press conference of last Thursday, indicated that for about a year, he had had in mind the necessity of changing generals. That was modified on the following day by Mr. Short, the Presidential secretary, saying that he was speaking in general terms regarding a year, but that the exact date that set off the chain reaction was the letter of General MacArthur to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which came in late August, as you might recall.

Now if that is correct, did you attend the meeting at the White House attended by Secretary Johnson when the President first received word of the Veterans of Foreign Wars letter?

A.—I don't remember. I remember some discussions about the letter but I don't remember just what conferences are connected with it.

Q.—Well, do you recall the incident, General, when the Supreme Commander in the Far East in late August of 1950—— A.—Yes, I recall the letter.

Q.—Sent a letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars? A.—And I recall the fact that the President let it be known at that time that he was displeased with it and I believe directed General MacArthur to recall it. What conferences were held on it back last August, I am sorry, I don't remember.

Q.—General, weren't you called to the White House along with Secretary Johnson at the time that the President directed that the letter be withdrawn? A.—I don't know. I might have been because I think the message finally went out through the Joint Chiefs of Staff message center.

Q.—Could you check your records, General? You keep fairly good records, on the fact whether or not on the 26th day of August or the 25th day of August of last year that you and Secretary Johnson were called to the White House or to the Blair House at the time the President first received a copy of this Veterans of Foreign Wars letter, and at which time the President directed either you or Secretary Johnson, or both, to send a message to General MacArthur directing him to withdraw his communication to the Veterans of Foreign wars?

A.—I will check that. I know that the matter came up for discussion and that a message finally went out to withdraw the letter but, I am sorry, I can't remember offhand any conferences in connection with it. I just remember that the President indicated his displeasure and ordered its withdrawal.

Q.—So far as you know, and based on your present recollections, did the President at these conferences indicate that he was annoyed enough to be thinking of the removal of General MacArthur at that time?

A.—I don't recall any such. I don't think that he would have stated that.

As a matter of fact, the only time that I heard him say that he had made up his mind was when he made his decision on Monday, April 8 or 9, whichever it was, that is when he made his decision known and that is the first time that I had heard he made the decision.

Q.—Now as I recall your testimony, General, you have previously testified that you did not remember who called you on the phone on April 5 with the first information relative to possible action against General MacArthur, am I correct in that? A.—That is correct.

Q.—Now isn't it normal procedure to keep a log in the office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff so that there is a record of all telephone conversations with the exception of telephone conversations from the White House?

A.—It wouldn't come through the Joint Staff. It would come into my office. There is a record kept there, but the record is not kept of those coming in over the White House phone. No record is kept of notes brought in to me from any member of my staff or of any message given me, oral message given me, by the Secretary of Defense.

Q.—If the call came over the White House phone no record would be kept—A.—That is right.

Q.—(Continuing.)—In your log. Would you recall if Mr. Harriman called you? A.—Beg pardon?

Q.—Do you think you would recall if the call had come in from Mr. Harriman over the White House phone? A.—I think I would, because I seldom talk to Mr. Harriman over the phone.

Q.—Now, General, in November-December of 1949 did the Defense Department or the Joint Chiefs advise the State Department that Formosa had no strategic value? A.—No, sir. We have always had the view that Formosa had very considerable strategic value, if held by the enemy. We have always said it did not have sufficient strategic value to justify our occupying it by our own troops.

Q.—That was the same general position you took regarding Korea, that Korea was not a place you would pick to fight a major war. Is that generally correct? A.—We have said that about Koea, yes, sir.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—I call your attention to the fact that on Dec. 23, 1949, the Department of State put out a confidential bulletin to its representatives overseas which held, and I quote, "Formosa has no special military significance," and again—

SENATOR WILEY—What date?

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Dec. 23, 1949. This was a confidential memo put out by the Department of State.

It also said in that same communication, "largely because of the mistaken popular conception of its strategic importance to the U. S. defense in the Pacific."

Now, I understand from your testimony that the Joint Chiefs have always felt that Formosa had a strategic importance. You have testified that you believed that it would be detrimental to our national interest to have Formosa in unfriendly hands. General Douglas MacArthur has testified to the same thing. He has also testified that in so far as he knows there was no responsible naval or air or military commander in the Far Pacific who did not agree with that point of view, and Secretary Marshall has testified that in his judgment it would be detrimental to the national defense of this country to have Formosa fall into unfriendly hands.

Would you know, General, of your own knowledge, who was advising the State Department as to the strategic importance of Formosa when they issued such a statement?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I would not know. I have stated the military point of view.

Roll Is Called On Blair House Meeting

Q.—General, going to the Blair House conference of June 25, on Sunday, did you attend that meeting? A.— Yes.

Q.—Could you indicate to the committee who else attended the meeting on the 25th of June? A.—I doubt if my memory would permit me to give all of them. I can tell you some.

Q.—Well, could I call the roll and see if you can recall any of them? A.—I know the chiefs——

Q.—Secretary Acheson? A.—Yes.

Q.—Secretary Johnson? A.—Yes.

Q.—Secretary Pace? A.—I think so, but I am not certain.

Q.—Secretary Matthews? A.—Navy, you mean?

Q.—Secretary Symington? A.—I don't know, sir. I think we can look that up for you and have a record of it.

Q.—Vice President Barkley? A.—I don't remember that he was there.

Q.—General Bradley? A.—Yes.

Q.—General Collins? A.—Yes.

Q.—General Vandenberg? A.—I think so. I think he and Admiral Sherman were both there. I think the three service chiefs were there.

Q.—Admiral Sherman. Who else attended that you can recall at this moment? A.—I think there were two or three other people from the State Department, assistant secretaries.

Q.—Dean Rusk? A.—I don't remember who they were.

Q.—But you thought there were two or three other people. A.—Two or three other people from the State Department.

Q.—I see. Would your notes show who attended that meeting? A.—I don't think so, but I think Admiral Sherman kept a note of who was there.

Q.—Could you secure that information for the committee? A.—I think I could.

Q.—All right. Now, at that meeting, at which time this country was placed into the Korean war, could you indicate what the conclusions of the spokesmen for the State Department were at that time? A.—No, sir; no, sir. I don't remember them, in the first place.

Q.—And in the second place? A.—I wouldn't attempt to state them here unless I could remember them, and then we would get right back into the same question.

Q.—Not even the conclusions? A.—No, sir; I don't remember the conclusions of any individual at that time.

Q.—Now, General, had it not been the policy of the Department of Defense, prior to the 24th day of June, that Korea was not the most desirable place to become involved in a war? A.—We had said it was not the place to fight a major war.

Q.—Could you give the conclusions as expressed at the Blair House meeting of June 25 of the spokesman of the Defense Department, Secretary Johnson? A.—No, sir; I don't remember what was said by any individual at that time, Senator.

Q.—Would Admiral Sherman's notes indicate the conclusions? I am not asking for the personal conversations now; I am just asking for the conclusions—— A.—I don't know.

Q. (Continuing)—of the several departments. A.—I don't know whether he has such notes or note.

Q.—Could you inquire of Admiral Sherman? A.—I think he will be before your committee, and you might ask him that question.

Q.—Well, I thought, perhaps, you might inquire before he gets before us. A.—Well, anything that he would——

Q.—Because you are the chief military adviser to the President, and the chairman of the Joint Chiefs. A.—Yes, but any notes he kept would be his own, and he would be better qualified to testify to their accuracy than I would.

Q.—And could you give your own conclusions, as expressed at the Blari House meeting of June 25? A.—No, sir.

Conclusions Forgotten, Bradley Declares

Q.—I suppose—on what basis? A.—In the first place, I don't remember them verbatim. There was a considerable discussion, the pros and cons.

Q.—General, I am not asking for your conversations. I am only asking for your conclusions as the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of this Government at a conference on the 25th of June, wherein these people believe this country was involved in a war, entirely regardless of the desirability or lack of desirability of going in and without a declaration of war by the Congress or a resolution by the Congress stating that a state of war already exists.

All I am trying to find out is that in as much as apparently the prior decision of the military authorities was reversed, and the country was placed into a war in which there have already been over 65,000 casualties, which is the fourth largest war in our history, with more casualties than those combined in the War of the Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War and the Spanish-American War; and I merely am now requesting, not your personal conversations, but the conclusions you expressed as the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff that placed us in the Korean war.

A.—Well, in the first place, I want to assure you I am just as much concerned about casualties as anybody else in this United States. I went through the last war and suffered with a lot of casualties in my command. I always tried to fight the battles so I would have a minimum of casualties.

I would like to make it plain I am just as much concerned about casualties of American boys as anybody else in this United States.

In the second place, I honestly do not remember the conclusions reached by any of us. I know the decision reached at that meeting was that we would furnish air and naval power to try to get our nationals out of Korea.

With that decision I was in full accord.

Q.—That was a meeting of the 25th and the over-all conclusion reached was we would furnish air and naval power to get our civilians out of Korea. There was a meeting at the White House the following day, was there not? A.—I believe there was one on the 26th.

Q.—Did you attend that meeting? A.—Yes.

Q.—Can you recall who else attended that meeting on the 26th? A.—No, sir; and in general it was the same group as before—the Joint Chiefs of Staff, representatives of the State Department, including the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of Defense.

Q.—Now, can you give first the over-all conclusion of that meeting, as to how far we should go? The previous day, we having determined to use our air and naval power to get the American civilian personnel out of Korea, what were the general conclusions of the meeting of the 26th?

A.—I cannot remember specific dates. There were various steps. The first step was to help get our nationals out of Korea.

The second step was to let the Air try to give support to the South Koreans in stopping the aggression.

A still later decision was made to let them operate north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel as well as south of the Thirty-eighth Parallel.

At a still later date the decision was made to commit ground troops, first to protect the bases from which we were trying to evacuate our nationals and later on to let those troops—the decision was made to let those troops participate in trying to stop the aggression.

That was a series of meetings, I don't remember the dates of each one of them.

Q.—Well, would your records show or would Admiral Sherman's records show the dates on which this series of meetings took place, which step by step involved us deeper into the Korean War, and would they show who attended each of those meetings? A.—I have no record of it, I don't know whether he has or not.

Record Usually Made Of Those at Meeting

Q.—It is customary, is it not, for somebody in the Military Establishment when they attend a meeting of this importance to indicate and have a memo as to who attended? A.—Yes, normally we do, particularly if it is one of our regular meetings around our own building.

Q.—Well, do you know of any meetings since V-J Day that have been any more important then the Blair House meeting of June 25 and the subsequent meetings which put this country into war? A.—Probably not. We did not know it at the time, however.

Q.—Now going back to the letter that General MacArthur wrote to the Veterans of Foreign Wars in late August of 1950, which on Aug. 26 the President through either Secretary Johnson or yourself directed General MacArthur to withdraw, had substantially that same information been made available to the Defense Department prior to that time, relative to General MacArthur's views on the strategic importance of Formosa? A.—I believe so. I think that we knew that General MacArthur and the Chiefs of Staff had the same general view about the importance of Formosa. But that was not the question. It was a question that our Government had made a clear decision. As I stated in my opening remarks before this committee, we provide the military point of view. We realize that may not be the Government's decision, and when the Government makes a decision we abide by that decision, realizing that there are considerations other than military involved in making the decision.

Q.—Now, General, let's go back to this letter that General MacArthur wrote to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. I have read the letter and I have re-read the letter, and I hope to during the noon hour, so if we get into a second round of questioning we can examine this situation a little further—as I read the letter it deals with nothing except the strategic importance of Formosa.

Now you have testified that you believe it is strategically important; the Joint Chiefs, you have said, believe it is strategically important; the Secretary of National Defense, Mr. Marshall, has testified that it is strategically important; the President of the United States apparently on June 26 or 27 thought it was strategically important enough to put the Seventh Fleet in there to prevent it from being attacked and to neutralize it, as they say.

Now in August, after all of those things had taken place, the Supreme Commander in the Far East write to a veterans' organization and all he says in the letter is that the island is strategically important and in the interests of this country it should not be allowed to pass into Communist hands. Now what in the letter of General MacArthur, in view of the testimony before this committee, do you believe violated either American policy or sound military strategy?

A.—I haven't read the letter for a long time and I don't know, but I didn't make the decision in the first place. The President made the decision that he didn't like the letter and directed it withdrawn.

Q.—Now either you or Secretary Johnson—and I was under the impression that both you and Secretary Johnson went to the White House—did Secretary Johnson indicate to the President that these views that General MacArthur expressed in his letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars had theretofore been known to the Defense Department? A.—Will you restate your question?

Q.—I said, did Secretary Johnson when he went to the White House indicate to the President that the views which General MacArthur expressed in his letter had previously been made known in substantially the same form to the defense establishment? A.—Whether he did or not I don't remember.

Q.—Mr. Chairman, I do ask, though I realize it cannot be printed at this point, that in the appendix of the record, even though it is in our side booklet, that the full text of General MacArthur's letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars be printed in the appendix of the record.

THE CHAIRMAN—The matter referred to by the Senator from California will appear in the appendix.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — I hope, General, if you have time over the noon hour, that you will read the letter because frankly I think that General MacArthur thought he was expressing the policy of the Government and the military authorities of this country when he said that Formosa should not be allowed to fall into unfriendly hands, and I have not been able to find out anything in the letter, unless somewhere in the Government there was a desire to let Formosa be turned over to the Communists; that is the only possible explanation you could have as to why the letter of General MacArthur to the V. F. W. should have set off this chain reaction which the President now says led to his ultimate dismissal, and if you would read the letter and be prepared to comment on it I would appreciate it very much.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I will read the letter. I don't know what my opinion would be worth on it, because as I say, the President made the decision, it was against his policy, not myself making that decision.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Knowland, I am afraid your time is up.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — All right, we will pick this up on the second round.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Hickenlooper.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—General Bradley, General Marshall testified the other day that he was very much distressed each morning when the latest up-to-the-minute casualty lists were put on his desk. I take it you see the casualty list every day, the numbers?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, practically every day.

Q.—Composite reports. What is the sum total of all casualties up to this particular date, regardless of whether the next of kin have been notified or not?

I noticed in Sunday's paper that the list as of May 11 of those whose next of kin had been notified, according to the newspaper dispatch, was 65,000. I am asking you what is the total complete up to this morning's number of American casualties in Korea regardless of whether the next of kin have been notified or not?

A. —I don't know them, Senator. I was told that General Marshall had made arrangements to furnish your committee with a statement each week bringing them up to uate during the time you were in session, and I saw the last one he sent up here, and I do not remember the particular ones, in fact I haven't seen them this morning——

Hickenlooper Seeks Up-to-Date Figure

Q.—What were they yesterday, General, the total up to yesterday morning's report? A.—I didn't see the total yesterday. I saw the total for the last several days, but I was interested more in the fighting at this particular time than the totals up to date.

Q.—What I am trying to get at is a round figure as nearly as possible of the up-to-date list. The casualty lists have always been two to three weeks late and then they say that those are only the ones whose next of kin have been notified.

I think this committee—whether it desires to make it public or not is a totally different thing—has a right to know what the casualty lists are up to this date regardless of notification of next of kin.

A.—I can get those for you tomorrow morning, but I do not have them with me today.

Q.—I understood General Marshall to say that the lists were laid on his desk exery morning, and I know we all feel the same way about seeing those lists every morning. A.—I do not get the totals every morning. I get those about once a week. I get the reports on the casualties of the last few days during this heavy fighting which I am interested in, to see how the fighting is going.

Q.—How many casualties have we suffered in total in the last ten days? A.—The total American casualties from the 16th to the 20th of this offensive, the 16th of May to the 20th, a total of 882 killed and wounded. It does not include missing which we do not have a full report on yet because some of those keep coming back.

Q.—And the dispatches in the paper say that casualties of that small number, we killed 70 to 80,000 of the assaulting forces.

SENATOR CONNALLY — Not killed. Casualties.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Well, the headlines say 70 to 80,000. I do not have the headlines here, but you do not have the list of the missing?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir, I do not have. It varies from day to day. Ones reported missing one day will probably be very much in use the next as they work their way back through.

Q.—Well, the last report I saw in the papers was for May 11 as I recall it, in Sunday's paper, and I feel that the casualty lists as reported to the public are continuously misleading, that is they report two or three weeks back and they say that these are the ones where the next of kin have been notified and so on.

There may be a sound reason for not releasing names until the next of kin have been notified.

General Bradley, we have had a great deal of discussion about this action in Korea, and I thoroughly realize that our general objective is peace, peace and victory, but just specifically what is our objective in Korea?

What are we attempting to do in Korea? We want to defeat the enemy, yes, but how are we going to do it, what is our objective and what do we consider a victory or a defeat of the enemy?

A.—Well, I think that is a very fair question, and I think it is one that has bothered the people. We have tried to stop this aggression and not appease in the matter, and in doing so we have gotten mixed up in a pretty good fight.

From the military point of view we hope that by inflicting severe casualties on the enemy and proving to them that they are not invincible, that they cannot gain anything by aggressive action, that it is too costly a matter, that they have been let down by Russia in getting in it, that they will be willing to negotiate a peace with the United Nations.

Q.—All right, what will that peace consist of? What will the negotiations, what will the basis for the negotiations be? A.—Well, that I don't know.

Q.—Do we expect to drive, is it a part of our objective to drive the Red Chinese and the North Korean armies clear out of North Korea? A.—At the present time that is not our objective.

Q.—What is our objective? How far do we go? Are we going to the Thirty-eighth Parallel and stop or are we coming back and stop, are we going half way to the Yalu and the border and stop? What is the military and even the diplomatic objective if that is in the military program? What is our objective?

A.—We are fighting an action without regard to the Thirty-eighth Parallel if necessary. In other words, we are not at the present time contained at the Thirty-Eighth Parallel from the military point of view, we are trying to inflict maximum casualties with a minimum to ourselves, so that we can get some kind of a negotiation.

That may take place where we are now, north of it or south of it, but in any case we hope to get a negotiation and a settlement out of it.

Q.—All right, what is it from a military standpoint, in as much as we have emphasized that considerably here? What will be victory and a satisfactory settlement in Korea? * * *

(Eight lines deleted).

A.—That is a political decision and eventually will be a United Nations political decision.

Q.—Well, let's see, one of the military objectives of a military action is to destroy the enemy, is it not, that is to destroy his fighting capability? A.—Yes, one of your objectives.

Three Courses of Action In Korea Held Open

Q.—As far as I can get it, the only program we have is to keep fighting and shooting and suffering casualties in the hope that these fellows in the north, the Chinese, will get tired and pick up their ball and bat and go home and end the game.

Now it still appears to me that we have no objectives that I know of except this indeterminate operation with the hope that they will get exhausted, and I am concerned and I think the public is concerned, where are we going? What is our purpose?

A.—As I stated, I believe, once before, it has been stated here, we have three possible lines of action.

Either to get out and forsake South Korea, try to fight it out in general where we are now without committing too great forces, or going to all out war and committing sufficient forces to drive these people out of Korea.

At the present time we are following the second course.

Q.—Now, General, you were in on the conferences where the decision was made to send our forces into action in Korea. I believe that has been testified here, first to support the Navy and air, the additional protection, as much as we could, to those of our own people; secondly, to support the United Nations activities to send a ground army in there.

At the time the decision was made to support the sending of a ground army under the command of General MacArthur, was it considered in these conferences leading up to this decision that the Chinese Communists might come in?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Was it known at that time that there was a military alliance between the Chinese Reds and Russia? A.—Yes.

Q.—Was it considered that ground action in event of the defeat or the pushing back of the North Korean Reds and the intervention of the Chinese Communists, that it might bring Russia into this war? A.—It was realized that they might eventually get in, yes.

Q.—There was a risk? A.—Yes.

Q.—You accepted that calculated risk at the time you committed our ground forces—that is, by "you" I mean those who made the decision — accepted the calculated risk. First, that the Chinese Reds might come in—and they did come in—and that if the Chinese Reds came in, the Russians might come in.

So that that was all taken into consideration when we committed our resources to Korea; isn't that true?

A.—Yes.

Q.—But we nevertheless took the risk? A.—Yes, and I believe it received the approval of all the United Nations except Russia and her satellites, and I think it received the approval of the majority of the United States, because they realize that one appeasement leads to another, which eventually makes war necessary.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Why don't we take the calculated risk and destroy the potential resupplying ability of the Chinese Reds in Manchuria? Is there an arsenal at Mukden? A.—Yes, there are supply bases at Mukden and some of the others; but that in itself we don't think will be decisive, and as I have stated here before, we think we should try to get a decision otherwise (nineteen and one-half lines deleted).

SENATOR McMAHON—Mr. Chairman.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I am perfectly willing——

SENATOR McMAHON—I have a unanimous consent request. I have an appointment with the President at 12 o'clock. I will be back here, I assume, at 12:25, and I would like to not lose my place. I would like unanimous consent for that.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—I certainly would have no objection as long as it is understood that he wouldn't interrupt whoever is then in the process of——

THE CHAIRMAN—The Chair will not permit a member to be interrupted in his examination. Without objection, the Senator is granted that privilege.

SENATOR McMAHON—Thank you.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—General Bradley, it has been testified to here, I believe, by you and General Marshall, that the Red Chinese have a very substantial number of military aircraft in Manchuria, for instance. Why haven't they used that aircraft?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I would not know, sir. (One and a half lines deleted.) I wouldn't even try to guess other than just what I would do in their case.

Q.—Aren't the Red Chinese more adept at using ground forces than they are at using aircraft in military action, so far as our evidence indicates? A.—I don't think they are doing very well in either one right now.

Use of Aircraft By Reds Discussed

Q.—Well, we have suffered a great many casualties as a result of their action. So they must have been doing something. In other words, isn't it reasonable to think that they are not using aircraft because they are not adept either with sufficient pilots or sufficient operational facilities, to make the use of aircraft a successful operation, but that they can furnish unlimited amounts of manpower, subject only to their ability to equip them?

A.—I wouldn't know, they certainly have had soldiers over a longer period of time than they have had aircraft.

Q.—And is there any reason to believe that they would be much more active with their aircraft if we destroyed a bunch of them on the ground than at the present time? In other words, is there any military reason why they are not using aircraft to attempt to win a victory for themselves? The theory of that is there must be some reason why they are not using aircraft in order to advance their own positions.

A.—Possibly they have some reason for it.

Q. — You stated, I believe, on Tuesday that it was our objective to inflict maximum punishment on the Communist aggressors. We are not inflicting maximum punishment when we don't destroy their concentrations in Manchuria, across the Yalu, are we, or when we don't destroy their supplies with the strategic air or the bombers that we have?

A.—I also said that we did not want to extend the war beyond Korea, and thereby increase the risk of a world war. I think that was understood in my answer, that we were trying to inflict maximum casualties without extending the war outside of Korea and increasing the chance of war.

Q.—Now, in the Joint Chiefs of Staff so-called study—I realize it was not in the form of a directive—but in the Joint Chiefs of Staff, at least, recommendations of Jan. 12 last, as testified to in General Marshall's testimony, I believe, the four points, were: Continue and intensify now an economic blockade of trade with China.

A.—That has been pushed by the military at all times. As you know, the United Nations have been taking action in it.

Q.—That has been done. Prepare now to impose a naval blockade of China and place it into effect as soon as our position in Korea is stabilized or when we have evacuated Korea and depending upon circumstances then obtaining.

Now, I call your attention to the fact that on May 11 you stated that the Joint Chiefs or some of them went over there to Korea on Jan. 12. We have not evacuated Korea and did not evacuate Korea and you stated that shortly after Jan. 12 the situation became stabilized in Korea.

Your words are from the record on Page 1315 at the top of the page:

"Now, the situation became stabilized, in fact, some time after that, did it not?"

I beg your pardon. This is Marshall's statement on stabilization, in which he said technically no, but I believe you stated affirmatively the other day that the situation did become stabilized in Korea. I think those are the exact words you used.

A.—I may have, but may I remind you that I stated here before that this Jan. 12 study was a study, it was not a directive.

Q.—I understand.

A.—It was based on a directive sent to part of our staff on the 28th of November to make such a study of objectives and lines of action which should be taken in case we find ourselves in an all-out war with China, declared or undeclared.

As far as we are concerned, when we take up one of these studies we consider all the papers in connection with it, and that paper said these are tentative agreements and——

Q.—Has that paper been put in the record in full, Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN—It has with the exception of some two or three items that Secretary Marshall thought involved the national security. He gave most of them for the record, I think. Those are available, Senator, if you wish to see them, I understand, in the security room.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Now, General Bradley, you said we want to confine this war to Korea. Is there any question but what we are at war with the North Chinese Reds? Are they not committing acts of war against us?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, sir, but they are fighting the war in Korea also, and so are we.

Q.—They are, then, of course, picking the theater of operations. A.—No, not necessarily. I think the United Nations took action in Korea, and they came in and met us in Korea, and we were there first.

Q.—But someone elected to start this business in Korea. A.—I think we all decided that.

Q.—The North Koreans started it first, we met it, and then the Chinese Reds came in. Now is there any question but what the North Chinese Reds are being supported by the Soviet, by Russia? A.—I don't think anyone doubts that they are getting equipment from them.

Q.—So that the Russians are backing the North Chinese Reds at least to the extent of vast amounts of equipment; is that not true? A.—I think they are, yes.

Russia Called Nation Causing Most Trouble

Q.—And who do you consider our main enemy in the world today, potentially? A.—I don't know that you could say enemy, but the nation which is causing the most trouble, in fact the one causing the great deal of it or all the trouble, is, of course, Soviet Russia.

Q.—I meant to use the word "potential enemy," that is, the greatest potential enemy we have in the world today. A.—And if we get into World War III, she is the nation which must be defeated.

Q.—Yes. Now with the Soviet backing the North Chinese Reds and the North Chinese Reds being our enemy in this war that we are in, have not in effect the Soviets elected at least at this time to make an issue out of this situation in Korea? A.—Apparently, yes.

Q.—And so by that reasoning we are actually resisting and opposing, although it is not in active military forces necessarily—we are actually opposing the Soviet ambitions in that area, are we not? A.—Yes. It is another point in which we chose to try to stop their aggressive tactics. We did it in the Berlin blockade; we have helped in Greece; we have helped in Europe to keep it from going Communist; and this is another one of those instances in which we are trying to stop the Soviet from gaining control over more manpower and more resources and getting more people under their domination.

Q.—Do you believe that the Soviet will start a third World War merely because it has a treaty to defend Red China against Japan? Do you think they will start it merely because of a treaty or will it start a third World War, if it does, if, as and when Red Russia feels that the time is propitious?

A.—It would be pretty hard to try to guess what the men in the Kremlin are thinking. They have a timetable; they may be willing to step up that timetable to meet certain conditions; and my opinion is the fact that they started this—and I say, I think they started in Korea—the North Koreans started it at their instigation—I think the fact that they started this is an indication that they were in a position now where they were willing to risk war and, therefore, they must be willing to accept it.

Q.—Well, they started the Berlin blockade. A.—Yes, but this is a little bit more than——

Q.—Two years ago.

A. — (Continuing) — The Berlin blockade. I think that is an incident, and this is another one. I wouldn't know, and wouldn't profess to know, what the men in the Kremlin will do under any circumstances. They don't think like we do. Whether or not they would start it only on a timetable or to be induced to step up such timetable, if they had one, no one knows.

Q.—General, if they do not think like we do, then they are probably not going to start a third World War, because we think it is very dangerous that they may start a third World War, if we bomb the supply lines in Manchuria, or if they differ with us—— A.—If they thought like us they would be perfectly willing to have world peace, and would not be doing any of this.

Q.—But in the light of the fact that Red Russia is in this thing, through supplies and equipment, and backing the Red Chinese, and the Red Chinese are at war with us, I fail to understand your statement the other day, or the comment that "It is the wrong war at the wrong place at the wrong time and with the wrong enemy."

It seems to me that the enemy is involved, and it might be the wrong place. Certainly war at any time is the wrong time, so far as I am concerned, but where do we expect to fight this war; where is the right time, the right place; and what is the right enemy?

A.—I made that remark in connection with going into an all-out war with China. In my opinion, we do not want to get mixed up, devote all our resources to trying to defeat China. If we did, and went to war with China, and sent all our resources there, I think we would be fighting the wrong enemy. I think it would be better to keep some of our resources in case we are jumped by an all-out war, world war, and not have them all committed against China. I think we would be fighting the wrong nation in the wrong war and in the wrong place.

Q.—I know of no one, General, military or civilian who is of any importance at all who advocates an all-out war with China, and that has been talked about a great deal—an all-out war in China—but I don't know that anyone is advocating an invasion of the Chinese mainland, but it seems to me that we should adopt some policy which will have more chance of ending this thing than an indecisive policy which leads only to the hope that the Chinese Reds will get tired.

They have not tired of revolution in the last ten years, and I do not know that they will be tired at this time.

A.—Senator, the Chiefs of Staff are unanimous in believing that we should fight this war as we are now fighting it, and try to run it this way.

I have full confidence in those three Chiefs, and in addition to the three Chiefs believe that way, their staffs believe that way.

Now, if we are following the wrong tactics in trying to get a decision, then all of our military people, all of our top people, that are here and who are responsible for world-wide strategy and who have knowledge of our capability are all wrong, and you are right; and I am sorry if we don't agree on it; but we would like to try to make it this way.

Vandenberg's Opposition To Wider Raids Cited

Q.—Has not General Vandenberg advocated the bombing of Manchurian bases and supply lines? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Sir? A.—No, sir. He does not believe that it would be decisive. If you could go after the centers of production, they then would have something.

Q.—But the question of decisiveness—there is no particular arm of the services that can be absolutely calculated to be decisive. It is the ground forces, the artillery and the naval forces that we are using now which have not been decisive up to this point. A.—No, sir.

Q.—But there are weapons which we are not using to disrupt their supply, and to hurt them, that we are not using. I do not thing it is a question that any weapon must be absolutely probably decisive in order to warrant its use.

A.—I think it boils down, too, to the fact that the military people do not think we should bomb bases in Manchuria. The people who are responsible for making our military policy, none of us, think we should. The fact remains, though, that we would prefer to try to win it this way.

Q.—General Bradley, yesterday for the first time was read into the record the request of General MacArthur for clarification, and I would like, if possible, to put in the full Chiefs of Staff reply of Jan. 12 to General MacArthur's inquiry. I do not believe this has been put in the appendix yet, has it? A.—It was put in yesterday.

THE CHAIRMAN—It has been put in the record. General Bradley read it on yesterday. I am sorry, Senator Hickenlooper, your time has expired.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Hunt.

SENATOR HUNT — General Bradley, it would be, I am sure, a repetition for me to attempt to even remotely touch on a few of the many questions that have already been answered so many times.

I think, for all practical purposes in this hearing, certainly for anybody who cares to read, they can see, and I think if anybody cares to listen, they could certainly hear, and they should now have a very clear understanding of the differences of opinion with reference to the conduct of the Korean war, that exist between General MacArthur, on the one hand, and the present field generals and the Chiefs of Staff and yourself and the Secretary of Defense and the Secretaries of the three branches, on the other hand.

However, I think—and I do think this is important, General—that the effects, the results, of a third world war on this country have not as yet been completely explored. They have not been explained in detail, or have not been discussed, and I do not think they are in the record so far in this hearing—only in a very meager way.

Now, General, in the event we should start World War III, we must expect, for we would be inviting, an immediate offense against this country on the part of Russia, and I want to ask you some questions with reference to what we should anticipate, and expect, with special reference to one phase of modern warfare, and that is, namely, the bombing of the United States by Russian air forces.

I have before me here a report of proceedings of a hearing that was held before the Armed Services Committee on April 16, and as a basis for the questions I want to read briefly from the statement of General Cabell. He said:

"Mr. Chairman, there is no single development in the postwar period that has been more charged with significance for the security of the United States than steps taken by the Soviet Union to build a stockpile of atomic bombs and an air arm capable of delivering them against the United States."

Now, General, at this hearing, we were briefed by General Cabell, who is director of intelligence for the United States Air Force, and a gentleman by the name of Lester Kullenberg, who is director of the Operational Research Division of the Civilian Defense Administration, and Mr. James J. Wadsworth, who spoke very briefly. I believe he is a deputy to General Cabell.

Now, this testimony on their part is highly classified, and I mention that for the reason that the censor of these hearings, if he wishes to do so, will delete the questions and answers that I am going to ask you, from the record, if he thinks they should be deleted.

To refresh the memory of some of the gentlemen seated around the table here, present were our chairman, Senator Russell; Senator Stennis; Senators Long, Saltonstall, Knowland, Flanders and myself; and also present were Senator Carl Hayden and Col. James F. Pinkney, I believe, United States Air Force. * * * (Ten lines and four full pages deleted.)

GENERAL BRADLEY — Well, again, Senator, I have never made a detailed study. These people in the civil defense have, and the people here interested in the effects of bombs and development of the sizes of them certainly go into that. Whether or not those figures are accurate within 1 per cent or 10 per cent, I wouldn't know.

But I think we must all realize that Russia has the bomb. How many we can only estimate from certain sources of information. She has the ability to deliver them. She has planes with the necessary range to deliver them. We do not have the ability to stop all of them. In fact, it is almost impossible that any sized defense air force can stop all bombing. They couldn't do it in Germany, they couldn't do it in England when Germany bombed London. So I think we must admit they have the bomb, they can deliver it, and some of them would get through.

We also know that the bomb is very destructive, will kill a lot of people, will be very destructive to industry.

We also must concede that they have every means of finding out where our industries are. They must have a very fine target folder for each one of them, and that should enable them to deliver the bombs on the target.

So I think all of us will concede that with these facts a third World War in which the A-bomb is used extensively will be more severe, more destructive, and more terrible and awful, if you want to use that word, than any previous war has been. I think we can get some examples of that by the two that we dropped during the war and even by comparing the results of some of our conventional bombing, which you can get in terms of kilotons, also just how destructive bombing can be.

Russia's Aim Is Held To Rule the World

I wish we could feel sure that Russia realized the destructiveness of these bombs, as well as we do, and would consent to a period of peace.

Apparently they are not willing to do so, and their announced intention today is to some day rule the world. They have announced that capitalism and communism cannot exist in the world together.

Now, whether or not we can avoid a war by a deterrent like the A bomb, and by building up our strength long enough to let them change their minds and get in a new regime, maybe the man following Stalin will have a falling-out with somebody else and by some kind of turnover we will have a condition where they will abandon their presently announced intention.

And that is one reason I am of the opinion we should always try to avoid war as long as possible, with the hope that in the end we will avoid it altogether.

(Two pages and fifteen lines deleted.)

SENATOR HUNT—A few minutes ago the Senator from Iowa, Senator Hickenlooper, asked you, I think, the question. The wording may not be quite the same. He said why don't we take the calculated risk of going into Manchuria.

I think what I have just given you with reference to what might happen in a bombing attack would probably be a good answer to why we do not take the calculated risk of going in and bombing Manchuria at the present time. Would that be an answer to the Senator's question?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think in a way yes, because, as I have stated here several times, we are trying to fight this war in such a way as to avoid a World War III, and of course if you don't avoid World War III and actually have it come upon you, you must look forward to destructive attacks on the United States.

Q.—Now, General Bradley, one more question. You mentioned this morning about the blockading of China ports, and I think from your testimony that you feel that might start a third World War. Whether it would start a third World War or not, it would certainly call for retaliation of the bombing of our ships in that area as well as making them a prey for Chinese submarines. Would that be a true statement?

A.—Well, that is a possibility, yes. Whether or not they would actually do it no one knows. We do know that China has certain air forces and certain submarines.

I think it is reasonable to assume that she would certainly give consideration at least to using them against any of your ships if you tried to blockade the coast of China. Whether she would or not, she would have to decide.

SENATOR HUNT—That is all, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Tobey.

SENATOR TOBEY—Mr. Chairman, I have no questions. I have an observation I would like to make, if it is in order.

I have not attended as many of these meetings as most of you have, but I am impressed with the futility of much that is going on here and very definitely some here are a lot of men, well intentioned men, with absolutely no military training or gumption or common sense, coming in here to pose questions to men whose life-long service has been in the military and naval establishments and the Air Force of this country.

We have got the whole country by the ears putting out bulletins. Mr. Stalin subscribes to it day after day. We are wisely holding closed hearings over open hearings, against the ill-advisement of some members of this committee who insisted upon the hearings being opened.

And so what are we doing? We are getting opinions. We are asking questions, many of them being very, very pittering, if I can use that word, and here we have the country looking upon us a little askance of what is going to come over the Congress of the United States and the nation.

When we get all through Mr. MacArthur will still be deposed from his position, Mr. Marshall will still be the man in charge of the defense of this country, the Joint Chiefs will still be the same as they are now, but some men will have gratified their passion and desire to ask pointed questions to try to stir the animals up, and men, while the situation goes on from bad to worse and men are dying in Korea.

I fail to see the value of holding the test tube up to the light of day, and I would like to have somebody point it out for the good of the country and the good of the Congress and the good of the service.

I listened to my friend, Mr. Hunt, a few minutes ago give his statement about the eminent authority, and before God the picture he drew makes me stand aghast. Tomorrow or the next day, the month after that this thing may descend on this country and what will we look like then in the face of all these things that may happen?

Let us get on to ourselves and be strong and forget the little piddling stuff and the gratification of asking questions and mixing up the gears and throwing sand in the gear box.

And I want to say also as a Republican that in my honest judgment we may not realize it ourselves, we Republicans and we Democrats, but there is a very distinct political trend in a lot of these hearings, subconsciously at least.

I think the whole thing is unfortunate.

I wish we could ring the curtain down, for the good of the country, and the men in the service in Korea, for generations to come.

That is all I have to say. I speak frankly; I feel that way.

THE CHAIRMAN—I do not think anyone will challenge your frankness, Senator.

Cain Gives the Reasons For His "Impatience"

SENATOR CAIN—General Bradley, I am one of those impatient persons to whom you made reference in your opening statement, and I believe your reference was valid.

My impatience, however, I believe to be justified and legitimate, for it has resulted from four developing convictions, and I wish to state them in order that I may ask you some questions.

Again, may I hope that you can change those convictions of mine?

The first of these convictions is that on the basis of its conduct in recent years, and in Korea, I individually am convinced that the free world is full of fear, which I believe to be unjustified, and is much less determined to save itself than the aggressor is determined to destroy our free world.

Secondly, from what you, and others, and the record tells me, I am becoming convinced that the United Nations, which includes the United States, entered the Korean conflict without giving any reasonable consideration to the risks, hazards and likely consequences which were obvious and recognizable last June.

Thirdly, I am convinced that the free nations of the world are on the defensive everywhere, and that the power of decision, choice and initiative has been defaulted by the free nations to Russia; and,

Fourthly, because of what you and General Marshall have testified, and because of what the Administration constantly repeats, I am convinced that we are unnecessarily inciting Russia to wage war against us by notifying Russia that the free nations will not be prepared for a showdown until 1953, or later.

Against that background, sir, I offer some questions.

May I ask if the President of the United States requested an estimate of the situation from the J. C. S., or from the National Security Council, before our air, navy and ground forces were committed in Korea last June?

GENERAL BRADLEY—As to a formal estimate of the situation, no.

Q.—May I ask, General Bradley, if the President requested a recommendation from the Joint Chiefs of Staff, or did he merely seek information concerning the capabilities of our forces to accomplish the mission which the President and the United Nations were to give those forces?

A.—As I remember, we gave the capabilities of our forces, as to what they could do.

Q.—General Bradley, did the President request, from the J. C. S., or from the National Security Council, an estimate of the requirements to be demanded by the colds, a man going back for one day to the hospital, he is carried as a non-battle casualty even though he is out of the line just one day, a man hurt in a jeep accident goes in the hospital for a day or two or any length of time and then goes back—they are all included.

A rather large percentage of those eventually go back. Some of them last summer were merely heat prostrations where a man would have to be taken back and given a rest for a short time. I can get those.

Q.—But many non-battle casualties are quite serious, are they not, resulting in amputations, from frostbite, trench foot, etc? A.—Yes.

Q.—What is the general rule of thumb concerning the ratio of non-battle to battle casualties? A.—I don't believe I know of any ratio. It varies as to the time of year, nature of the fighting, nature of the roads, and so on. I don't know of any ratio that would hold.

Q.—I personally will be grateful for those figures because the American people generally know only that we have suffered some sixty-five thousand-odd casualties, when the fact of the matter must be that in the field of non-battle casualties that figure is far above sixty-five thousand.

From your earlier testimony today did I understand you correctly to testify that you and others in authority took particular pains to take very careful notes of the Wake Island conference in October while you and others in authority took no notes of the Blair House conferences which involved the United States in war last June?

A.—That is correct. In one case I was representing the Joint Chiefs of Staff and I took notes so I could report to them when I got back. In the other case they were all present.

Q.—But history will not be able to relate the circumstances surrounding the beginning of the war because the Joint Chiefs of Staff have no notes on the subject. Thank you, sir.

General Bradley, give me your best answer concerning this question, please, why have fifty-odd free nations contributed only approximately 20,000 ground troops to Korea in almost a year of war?

I ask that question, sir, because you have no prophecy as to how long that war is going to continue, and we are awfully anxious to get as many more contributions from our friends as we can; so we have got to understand why they have done so little up to this time.

A.—Well, I wish they were furnishing more, too, Senator Cain. At one time, last October, we possibly even discouraged their sending some over at that time because we thought the war was going to be over, and I think everyone thought it was, and then at that time some of them were held up. But since then, as far as we are concerned, we have been wanting just as many troops as can be furnished effectively. I say effectively because some of these people have offered to furnish troops if we furnish all the equipment, all the training, all the transportation over and back, and all the logistical support. They were not trained to start with.

Canadian Experience Is Given as Example

Q.—Does that mean, sir, that if we get into World War III in due time that those same nations are going as our allies to train them, to feed them, to clothe them, to ammunition them, to take care of them from start to finish?

A.—I think the trouble is they made the same mistake we did—they demobilized after World War II and got down to a very low state of training and equipment, and they do not have the capability of doing it as quickly as we have.

Now as time goes on we hope they are aroused by these present happenings and they will start to build up those defenses the same as we have. It is true they were all pretty low in their defenses and so were we. But we are improving ourselves and we hope they are going to improve theirs. I am hoping since this has turned out this way that more of these people can raise troops and send them over.

You take Canada, for example. Canada, as you know, has practically no army in being. They have some air, some army, but not a very large one. They had to raise, equip and train the units which they have sent to Korea. They originally started in to send a complete brigade, or regiment as we call it, and then when things got better in the fall, they sent only one battalion, and now they have finished training the rest of them and sent them over.

I hope that some of the rest of them will do the same.

What the status of those negotiations are with the State Department with the various countries, I don't know at this particular time. I know they are negotiating with various countries to furnish additional troops.

Q.—And you have, as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, a very deep-seated interest in the success of those negotiations, do you not, sir? A.—That is correct.

Q.—Here is an example that puzzles me a little bit, General Bradley, and perhaps you can satisfy that curiosity. How does it happen that Greece and Turkey, who are not members of the Atlantic pact and might be therefore called minor allies of ours, contribute many more ground forces proportionately than do the United Kingdom and France, who are members of the Atlantic pact and commonly and properly known as our major allies?

A.—Because of various conditions and because of our help, Greece and Turkey are much better prepared than Great Britain. T use the number of divisions they have—as I remember it, Greece has some nine divisions of trained troops. In fact they had about as many as we had to start with in this operation. Turkey has something like twenty-five or thirty divisions of well-trained troops. Surely they are not equiped quite as well as ours, but are fairly well equipped because we have been helping them with your assistance in the last three or four years; so that Greece and Turkey are much better prepared proportionately

Korean mission in those Blair House conferences?

What I am endeavoring to find out, sir, and you are a highly qualified and respected witness, is—what were we thinking about when we entered that conflict so rapidly in June; and therefore, I wish to find out whether or not the President requested of his chief military advisers, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, what forces, in the opinion of the J. C. S., would be required to carry out the Korean mission?

A.—I think I answered that once before, in a way; and that is—that we did not try to estimate the total required to start with, because we didn't know what was involved. No one believed that the North Koreans were as strong as they turned out to be.

In other words, from the information we had, you might say we underestimated their numbers, and their equipment and their ability to fight—at least to start with.

Q.—Yes, sir?

A.—When we made the Inchon landing and cracked their defenses open, why, then, they were pretty much the way we thought they would be at first, and possibly our first estimate was wrong only in the fact that they had such numbers they would swarm around our flanks; so that I don't think you can say that any of us knew, to start, when we went into this thing, what would be involved.

It was a piecemeal commitment, because that was the only way we could commit them. We had to take them out of Japan. The units were under strength, and so we had to send them in as we could get those units ready and get them over to Korea.

Q.—Thank you, sir. General Bradley, I understood you to say, in answer to my first question, that the President did not, in late June, request a formal estimate of the Korean situation from the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

A.—That is right—a formal statement, you know, where you sit down and write out and consider all the pros and cons, and come up with a very formal estimate.

Q.—Is that to say, General Bradley, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the principal military advisers to the President, were not provided with an opportunity to discuss the situation, which had involved in it the possible entry into the conflict of Red China, and then, of Russia?

A.—Senator, you are asking about a formal estimate. We certainly did discuss, orally, what troops we had available, how quickly they could be used, what supplies were available to them—that was all discussed orally. Your question was about a formal statement.

Both Possibilities Considered, General Says

Q.—Yes, sir; but I am very curious as to whether or not any consideration was given in June to the problems which are of such great concern to you, the J. C. S., to the President, to the Congress, and to the people today.

We are faced today from your testimony and that of other qualified witnesses with the possibility of entry into the conflict of Russia. We know that Red China has been in that conflict for a number of months, and I ask the question as to whether or not consideration was given to those possibilities before we committed ourselves to Korea last June.

A.—Yes, I think both of those possibilities were considered at that time in meeting the North Korean thrust only as they advanced toward the south of Korea. I know my own opinion was—and I think it was pretty generally held—that the chance of Russia or China coming into the war in Southern Korea was rather remote. There was that possibility, and it was considered, but we did not think they would come into the fighting in South Korea.

Q.—But the possibility of Red China and Russia becoming our enemies was considered at those Blair House conferences before American and Allied forces were committed in Korea? A.—I think so. I know right from the start we considered that possibility. How much it was discussed that night I can't recall.

Q.—General Bradley, you and others have only offered figures covering battle casualties. How many non-battle casualties have we suffered, and if those figures are not presently available to you, I would appreciate your sending them along. A.—We can include those. I think they are being furnished the chairman weekly, are they not?

THE CHAIRMAN—I think they are coming up on a weekly basis.

GENERAL BRADLEY—May I ask if those include non-battle?

THE CHAIRMAN—Is that correct, General Mudge? Have we started receiving battle casualties, all casualties?

GENERAL MUDGE—I am not sure whether they include that.

SENATOR CAIN—General Bradley, would you have an approximation of the total of our non-battle casualties since last June?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I don't remember seeing those figures totaled recently, because they include than England or France or even ourselves.

Q.—That is interesting to bear in mind as, perhaps, we are facing a third World War. General Bradley, I have heard it said—I do not know it to be so—that both Greece and Turkey have offered additional contributions of ground forces to the Korean conflict and that those offers have been turned down. Do you know anything whatsoever of such a report?

A.—No, sir, I don't.

Q.—I want the record to show what appears to me to be interesting as we seek to understand and study this war, that the United Kingdom today has sixteen men per 100,000 of population in the Korean war; France has two men per 100,000: Greece has twelve men per 100,000. Fortunately, and I would say thank God, Turkey has twenty-seven men per 100,000, and the United States has 135 men per 100,000.

A.—May I comment on part of that statement, sir?

Q.—On any part of anything I say, sir. A.—I think in comparing the contributions of Great Britain and France we must also realize that they have commitments elsewhere. France has something like 140,000 soldiers in Indo-China.

Q.—I understand that, sir.

A.—I believe all of us admit that is a rather important place to hold against communism also. So that I think we ought to give them some credit for their contribution to Indo-China. The United Kingdom has got a problem in Hong Kong, and at the same time they are fighting communism in Malaya, the Malay Peninsula, so that they also contribute something. I am not saying they are contributing as much as we are or Greece or Turkey, but I think we ought to make the record clear that they are also helping contain communism in other places.

Those Receiving Report On Wake Island Listed

Q.—As we both understand, sir, ground forces, or any other sort of military forces, come out of the resources of the nation involved, and for that reason I would only point out that the United Kingdom has a population of 50,000,000-plus, France a population of 44,500,000, Greece, which has twelve men per 100,000 of its population in Korea today, has only 7,780,000 for a population, and Turkey, which has twenty-seven men per 100,000 committed in Korea, has only a population of 19,500,000.

Now, General Bradley, I would like to make this observation, sir: The top secret Wake Island Conference report which was compiled by yourself as Chairman of the J. C. S. was made available to a part of the public press before a deleted report was made available to this committee and to the public. So far as I know, no explanation has yet been offered by anyone in authority concerning how a top secret document was stolen or given away.

I think the record ought to carry the Wake Island distribution list. Somebody in that list is responsible for this disclosure. I personally hope that we find him and publicly charge him with violating and betraying our nation's security. The distribution list is as follows:

The President—one copy

Mr. Murphy at the White House—five copies.

General Bradley, on yesterday you stated, as did General Marshall, a few days ago, that you were against taking the war to Red China because of your fear that Russia would enter the conflict.

This, to my mind, advises Russia that the free nations intend to resist aggression in Korea and anywhere else, but only to a point short of risking war with Russia.

If the Russians believe what you and others in authority have repeatedly said, would you tell me why such statement will not encourage Russia to initiate limited but very destructive aggression in areas other than Korea?

A.—I don't think any of us can be sure but what Russia will continue these things and be encouraged by the statements that we have had to make here.

I would like to supplement what General Marshall said when he was here. I think it is very harmful to our security and to our country and to our future security to have to pass on to Russia all of our intentions, all of our thoughts, all of our capabilities.

I would be perfectly willing to come up here before your appropriations Committee and advocate a very large appropriation to buy similar information on Russia; and I think that what you say is probably very true, that we are unnecessarily inciting Russia to war—maybe not unnecessarily—but it becomes necessary because of the nature of these hearings very largely. In a way it is inherent in our form of government. We must educate 154 million people instead of trying to get a decision out of fourteen. I am sorry we have had to do this, but since it is demanded by the people, and is inherent in our form of government, here it is, and I just hope it doesn't cause too much trouble in the future.

Q.—General Bradley, before these hearings began, sir, the President of the United States on the evening of April 11 notified Red China and Russia of what our intentions were going to be, namely that we were not going to take the war to Red China regardless of what it might do by way of destroying our force on the ground.

I thought at that time that was a very serious mistake.

I asked General Marshall that question; he was necessarily indifferent in his reply. * * * (17 lines deleted.)

SENATOR CAIN—General Bradley, on Aug. 25, 1950, the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Francis P. Matthews, spoke out strongly in Boston in favor of a preventive war. His superiors rebuked him but did not remove the Secretary from his office. May I ask, sir, if you believe in a preventive war?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I do not, because I do not believe that is a solution.

Q.—General Bradley, may I ask if the Korean war, which began in June, 1950, has not become a preventive war?

A.—Well, in a way it may have; not a preventive all-out war, but I believe that by taking this action in Korea we may have postponed or avoided a third world war, because, as I stated here before, one appeasement leads to another until eventually war in inevitable.

Furthermore, I believe in my mind that Russia was surprised by the action we took in Korea. I think that this was one of several actions they may have had in mind.

(Five lines deleted.)

In my opinion they evidently are postponed or abandoned because of the fact that China is completely tied down in Korea, and that a lot of Russian equipment is being used up in Korea. So, in a way, if we can avoid World War III with the millions of casualties by taking casualties in Korea, and that actually works out that way, we may decide five years, ten years or whatever time it takes for history to prove it, it was well worth while in avoiding World War III.

Q.—Then, you agree with the President that we are trying to prevent World War III by fighting a limited war in Korea at this time? A.—Well, I don't know whether I would state it quite that way or not. I think that could be stated that way, yes.

Aims in Korea Are Redefined

Q.—Thank you, sir.

General Bradley, will you please tell me what the United States and the United Nations set out to accomplish in Korea? I know that you and others have given definitions from time to time, but I just wish to burden you a little bit by asking you to define our objectives in terms of the mission which was given to the Supreme Commander when the conflict began in June.

A.—The mission given him at that time was to repel this aggression and drive the North Koreans back north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel. In substance that is what it was.

Q.—General Marshall testified that our mission in Korea was to make Korea a free, independent and democratic nation, General MacArthur testified, as I recall that our mission in Korea was to make of Korea a free united and self-controlled nation.

A.—That has always been our Government's political objective and it has never abandoned that as I understand it since 1945. In fact, when arrangements were first made in 1945 that was set forth as an objective.

Russia prevented it by putting down a curtain along the Thirty-eighth Parallel. When we went in originally it was to repel the aggression and then as we went farther north and the United Nations again came out with a resolution to establish a unified Korea, united and free Korea, that was the mission then given to General MacArthur in late September.

Q.—And yet to carry out that mission from a military point of view or that objective from a political point of view, it will, before we are through, if we do not change that mission, be required to defeat the enemy and to repel him, not from South Korea, but we must repel the enemy from Korea, or otherwise, sir, how can we make Korea a free, independent and democratic nation?

A.—Well, I think we could have an intermediate military objective without abandoning the long range political objective which we agreed with the Russians on in 1945.

Q.—General Bradley, on Saturday last I asked General Marshall this question, or this was now ten days ago, I think. Have we reason to believe that the allied mission in Korea is a different mission today than it was for several months after the war began last June, and General Marshall replied, "I am sorry, I can't answer that off-hand. I should be able to, but I can't."

General Bradley, will you give us your opinion concerning whether or not our mission in Korea is a different one today from what that mission was in the early months of the Korean war?

A.—I doubt if there is any change. I think our long range political objective is still that we would like to see a free and united Korea.

Q.—But at the present time——

A.—As far as the military, immediate military objective, is concerned, I think we would consider it a victory with something less than that (9 lines deleted).

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Cain, your time has expired.

SENATOR CAIN—I appreciate your time, General Bradley, very much, and I have a sequence of questions which I would like to complete asking you at a later date.

THE CHAIRMAN — I wish to state here that there was furnished the committee from the department:

1. Complete set of cumulative weekly reports on battle casualties by services for the period Aug. 25, 1950, covering the period since June 25 to May 11, 1951;

2. A complete set of weekly increases in battle casualties for the period Aug. 25, 1950, to May 11, 1951;

3. A statement of the relative percentage losses of our troops in Western Europe in World War II and in Korea;

4. Statement of ratio of United States casualties to Communist casualties in Korea;

5. Statement of the ratio of the Allied and German casualties in Western Germany.

This letter indicates that the Korean casualty figures presented for United States troops in each case do not include frostbite cases.

SENATOR CAIN—Yes, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN—Now, I have not yet ordered that this be printed in the record. It is quite a lengthy statement here. I had assumed that matters that were brief could be properly printed in the appendix each day, and then if it was thought wise when we conclude the hearings, we would have one volume printed of these more lengthy exhibits, and have all of them in one volume, but I am perfectly willing to be guided by the committee.

Now, these statements of the latter three that I read, the ratio of United States casualties to Communist casualties, are very brief, less than two pages; so I think it might be well to have those printed in the record and I am perfectly willing to have all of them.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — Are they United States casualties versus the Communist casualties?

Casualty Ratio Put At 1 to 12 in Korea

THE CHAIRMAN — I will read the four lines, and we will get it in the record that way:

"Ratio of U. S. casualties to total Communist casualties in Korea.

"The ratio of U. S. casualties to total Communist casualties in Korea is about 1 to 12. Many of the Communist losses have been inflicted by our allies, including R. O. K. troops, and, therefore, cannot be entirely credited to American forces. If R. O. K. and other United Nations losses are included, the ratio is only 1 to 3."

SENATOR CAIN — My question ran to the noncombat casualties.

THE CHAIRMAN—That is the reason I read the last phrase showing it did not include frostbite cases, so all members of the committee would be aware that these were battle casualties, these figures we have.

SENATOR CAIN—I and others would like to know the total suffering we are going through so we can do a better job in the future.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will have these three printed in the record.

(One of the three documents was read by the chairman immediately above; remaining two read as follows:)

"Relative percentage losses of U. S. troops in Western Europe in World War II and in Korea.

"The battle casualties of the first six American divisions engaged in Europe averaged 3 per cent a week of strength 6 June, 1944, through 11 May, 1945. In Korea Army battle casualties have averaged nine-tenths of 1 per cent a week since June 25. For the first four months of this year (1951) these Army Korean casualties have averaged five-tenths of 1 per cent.

"It will be seen from this that in the fighting in Europe against Hitler's forces the weekly losses of our troops were at a rate approximately three times as great as those experienced by our troops in Korea since June 25 and approximately six times as great as losses experienced in the last four months."

"Ratio of Allied casualties to German casualties in Western Europe.

"The ratio of Allied and German casualties in Western Europe was about 1 to 5, according to estimates of enemy losses in General Marshall's biennial report. Figures of German casualties compiled from German documents for the period from 1 June 1944 to February, 1945, provide a ratio of only 1 to 1.2, but it should be remembered that these are incomplete. It is impossible to separate German casualties inflicted by United States troops from those attributable to our Allies."

SENATOR CAIN—I would like to say this off the record.

(A discussion was had off the record.)

THE CHAIRMAN—It doesn't seem very likely that we are to have a vote on the floor of the Senate this afternoon and in the hope that we can carry on these hearings, I call a session for 2:30 this afternoon in this room.

(Whereupon, at 12:57, the committees recessed to reconvene at 2:30 P. M. in the same room.)

Afternoon

THE CHAIRMAN—The committee will come to order. Senator McMahon?

SENATOR McMAHON — General, our policy in the world is to develop all of the collective security that we can, is that not so?

GENERAL BRADLEY—That is correct; and that is why we, in my opinion, joined the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and why we have made certain other bilateral arrangements in the nature of mutual defense.

Q.—I appreciate as well as, I suppose, everybody does, that we can pay—we could pay—too high a price for having allies; but within that limitation, certainly, the tighter we can keep our allies bound to us, the better off we are going to be mobilizing our strength. Wouldn't you agree with that? A.—I agree with that, yes.

Q.—Now, General, you were asked today on a couple of occasions about what our objectives were in Korea. It might be useful at this point simply to review some fairly recent history, as history goes, and I recall to your mind the Japanese aggression in Manchuria. You are, of course, familiar with that Japanese aggression when Secretary of State Stimson in Mr. Hoover's cabinet advocated that we take collective measures to stop that aggression?

A.—Yes, I believe that was in about 1932 if I remember correctly.

Q.—Yes. Then, you remember, I think, General, in 1936 that Hitler in defiance of the Versailles Treaty marched into the Ruhr? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And there was touch and go for about forty-eight hours. The French wanted to punish him, and the British got weak-kneed about it, and he got away with that aggression.

Then, you remember, General, that in the case of Mussolini's aggression upon Ethiopia in 1938, although there were conferences at the League of Nations, there was no action taken by the nations in the League of Nations to put down that aggression on Ethiopia?

A.—That is correct.

Past Failures to Act In Aggression Weighed

Q.—I presume, General, that it was these events that certainly had some bearing upon the thinking of our Government and its responsible officials in backing up the United Nations' policy not to repeat Ethiopia, Hitler's aggression of the Ruhr, and the Japanese aggression upon Manchuria, China? Am I not right about that?

A.—I imagine it was. It has always been in my mind in studying these cases, because it has been my firm conviction that had positive action been taken in some of those instances like Manchuria, Ethiopia, I believe Hitler has said that had he been opposed when he marched into the Ruhr that he would have had to withdraw.

Whether or not everybody had those things in mind when they were thinking about stopping this aggression and avoiding appeasement I don't know. There are further examples, of course, of Prime Minister Chamberlain when he gave away certain things to Germany when they started further aggression in 1938 and '39.

All of those things I think were in our minds. Whether or not they were mentioned, I don't remember, but certainly they were in the back of our minds.

Q.—And, General, I thought that everyone was pretty much agreed that it was a wise thing for this country to engage in company with its allies under the United Nations Charter, in an effort to see to it that the sad history that we have had over the past twenty-five years was not repeated due to the failure of the nations of the world to take action and put down aggression immediately upon its occurrence.

I thought there was unanimity upon that, but apparently there is now some difference of opinion and I am glad that you still believe in that principle.

General, I think it is worth developing if we can just briefly the situation that Japan faced in China in the thirties after she made her invasion of China. I think it is important that we should review it so that those who think that there is some magic to be accomplished by making an unlimited war on the mainland of China should well take pause and take heed of what happened to the Japs in China.

Now as I recollect it, I think you said they had the third greatest navy in the world, they had the second greatest land army in the world, and they had entire control of Manchuria which was the best industrial area of China, and they put great forces into China and yet they never did accomplish the domination and the pacification of China, is that not correct?

A.—The figures you used on the size of the Navy and Army are somebody else's, but I would agree that it is correct they had the third largest navy and large land forces and so on. And I stated in my opening remarks that in spite of some five years of effort, even after the World War started, they never controlled more than just a portion of China and were never able to get a decision over China.

Q.—General, General MacArthur occupied a most unique place in our history in that he was the first commander of U. S. forces who also was a commander of the United Nations forces in actual battle. That was an honor that went to him; is that not correct? A.—That is correct.

Q.—I would ask your opinion, General, of the effect that General MacArthur's statements on policy in the East had with relation to his duties as a United Nations commander rather than in his capacity as a United States commander.

A.—Well, of course, we had furnished a larger proportion of the troops than any other country. South Korea, of course, was next. But even though the total forces furnished by the other United Nations was considerably less than our own, the fact remained that he was a United Nations commander and, as such, had dual responsibility—one to the United States Government and one to the United Nations.

In fact, as you know, he was required to render reports to the United Nations on the accomplishments and the state of affairs in Korea.

With that responsibility, in my opinion, I should have tried to carry out the policies of the United States, and of the United Nations, in so far as possible; and I don't believe in any case the military policies laid down by the United States, as executive for the United Nations, differed from the opinion of the United Nations, at least those involved in the effort.

An example was that one time when we preferred to do something else, and they didn't go along, we followed the United Nations wishes and did not accord hot pursuit; and as the United Nations commander, I think he did have a certain responsibility to carry out the wishes of the United Nations, particularly in so far as they didn't conflict with the policies laid down by his own Government.

Accuracy of Report Declared Unchallenged

Q.—General, to refer, for just a brief reference, to the conference at Wake Island, as I recollect it, five copies of that report, of the fifty copies that were made, were sent to General MacArthur in Tokyo. Do you know whether they were receipted for by him personally, or by one of his deputies? A.—They were receipted for by one of his aides.

Q.—One of his aides? A.—And I believe the receipt is dated 27 October. I saw it a few days ago, and I think I remember correctly.

May I say something more about that, since it has been brought up here; and—I went back and checked, and this information can be given first-hand, by the witness, if you want it, but Colonel Matthews, who was my executive officer, said that before this conference started, and before any notes were taken at the conference, in other words, during the hour we were waiting for General MacArthur and the President to join us, that General MacArthur's aide, Colonel Storey, and his adviser, General Whitney, both saw Miss Anderson there and talked to her.

In fact, it seems that Miss Anderson had been in Japan in connection with the Japanese peace treaty once before and so they were both talking to her before this thing started, and they apparently knew she was in the building.

I think that is something that might be worth knowing.

SENATOR WILEY—Where did they see her?

GENERAL BRADLEY — In Wake Island, in the two rooms, and it was in the room that had the table in it, until General MacArthur and the President came over, and Miss Anderson went out in the other room.

SENATOR McMAHON—But I think it is important to emphasize for the record here now, General, that as far as I can recollect, General MacArthur or no one on his behalf, including his press agent, General Whitney, operating up at the Waldorf-Astoria, has ever challenged the accuracy of that report that was sent to him, whether it was made by a stenographer or by notes or simply from recollection. Is that not correct? A.—No one has ever challenged the accuracy of it, no, sir.

Q.—Let's get that really straight in the record, that the accuracy of that report has never been challenged. Not a single word of it, not a single statement of it?

General, there was some reference made this morning about what our military objectives are in Korea and there has been some discussion of both our military objectives and our political objectives.

As I understand it, the military objective is to repulse the aggression. Is that correct?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—The political objective is to accomplish the unification of all of Korea? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—General, in the course of our history I believe there have been a number of instances in which we accomplished our objectives without what might be called a final and complete defeat of the enemy, such as was visited on Germany. Certainly in the War of 1812 we fought the British on the sea and on our own mainland to maintain the security of our commerce and the safety of our nationals.

We didn't insist on a military victory over England as essential, did we?

A.—No. We accomplished certain defeats of their forces in this country, but we did not have to carry it all the way to them and defeat them on their own ground.

Q.—And the treaty that we signed accomplished the objectives for which that war was fought, as I recollect. A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Now, in the Spanish-American War, when we accomplished the liberation of Cuba, we didn't proceed to Madrid to capture Madrid, did we? A.—No.

MAY 23 1951

Definition of Victory Is Held Necessary

Q.—We negotiated a treaty after accomplishing our objectives.

I am reminded of one war, and one perhaps less well known, in 1798 to 1800, when we fought a limited naval war against France to protect our commerce and our shipping.

It is recorded that the Secretary of State, Timothy Pickering, who had insisted on an all-out war with France at that time, was retired as the Secretary of State, and the President, Mr. John Adams, accomplished a settlement of that thing through negotiation and by treaty.

The point that I want to make, general, to find out if you are in agreement with me, is that when you say that the object of war is victory, you must have a definition of what constitutes victory, don't you?

A.—I think you must, and you vary from being willing to accept a rather small thing that you start out to correct up to an objective which we set in World War II of unconditional surrender.

There are many variations in between the two.

Q.—Right. General, has our military policy in the Far East shifted—and that includes, of course, Korea—due to General MacArthur's statement and his testimony? A.—It made no change in the last month or two that I can recall.

Q.—General, when was it that General MacArthur first recommended bombing in Manchuria? A.—Well, I had looked up here the whole series of messages on this bombing. It is a rather long list, and I don't know whether you want to put all of it into the record or not.

SENATOR McMAHON — Mr. Chairman, what is the chairman's disposition on that?

THE CHAIRMAN—I was not paying close atention. I understood the Senator's question to be when did General MacArthur first recommend bombing in Manchuria.

SENATOR McMAHON—Bombing in Manchuria.

THE CHAIRMAN—It seems to me that that would be embraced in one document, and if the general wants to offer it for the appendix —wants to offer such compilation

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Mr. Ch irman, without impinging on the Senator's time, with respect to the question of does anybody want this list of things or messages in the record, rather than to have my silence indicate I do not want them in the record, I would like to say I think they ought to go into the appendix or the compilation.

THE CHAIRMAN—They will go into the record in accordance with the procedures of this committee up until now.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Senator McMahon is questioning the witness, and I do not mean to take over and request anything, but just for my own personal opinion, in answer to the question.

THE CHAIRMAN—Yes. I had ruled that the question asked the first time that the recommendation was made.

SENATOR McMAHON — General, is it so complex that it is not easy to give an answer to that question?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I cannot find it right now. All of these are first messages, and had to do with restrictions on movements and bombing in the vicinity of the border.

While we are going on, I will ask Colonel Clifton to look through this summary here and see if we can find the date on which he first asked for permission to bomb across the border.

Q.—Well, perhaps I will ask another question while he is looking that up. I assume that General MacArthur knew all the factors of risk since he was a theatre commander and since the risks were being taken in his theatre, when he advised going into Korea as he did——. Well, perhaps it is unfair to say that he advised going into Korea, but that he approved going into Korea very forthrightly.

I would like to ask you if he recommended after we got in there that we put in ground troops in Korea?

A.—Yes, he asked for authority to move ground troops in there, I believe, and the first movement was in to protect the bases, and then he asked for authority to employ ground troops in stopping the aggression.

Q.—And that authority was given to him? A.—And that was approved and I think everyone concurred in it.

Q.—Now I am still somewhat confused, General Bradley, about General MacArthur's position. Some reference was made yesterday or the day before to the fact that he had not recommended that Chiang be used in any specific place, but that that be left to the Generalissimo. Is that your recollection of his position with relation to Chiang?

A.—I think in all of his discussions of this with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, he specifically recommended only two things. One was in November when he recommended that certain of Chiang's troops be brought to Korea to reinforce his ground troops, and the other one, I believe, the only statement he makes is that any restrictions against the Nationalists on Formosa be removed, with no further explanation on that so far as I know.

Q.—But, of course, he in his testimony here has talked as he did, in his speech before the Congress about our giving logistical support to Chiang in any effort he wants to make.

Now I take it that the election, then, is to be with Chiang as to whether we should go to the mainland of China, but if Chiang says "that is what I want to do," then, according to General MacArthur, that is the thing that we should provide the logistical support for.

Am I unfair in stating that as his position as you recollect.

A.—Well, I don't remember his exact statement, but he could not go to the mainland without logistical support and furnishing of certain shipping and that would have to come from us.

Q.—Well, now they claim—I say they claim—there are more different figures concerning the number of effectives on Korea than I have fingers on both hands. A.—On Korea or Formosa?

Witness Is Questioned On Landing in China

Q.—Formosa, I mean. We have a military policy which I think is a wise one, namely, that we do not hand a handful of rice and rifle to a man and say, "Get up there and fight." We give him proper support. We give him all the firepower, all of the food that he can eat, we can get to him; hospitalization, and that is the way the American people, I think, want our armed forces treated, General.

I suppose, if we were to engage in the logistical support of Chiang that it would not be on quite as elaborate scale as for our own troops, but nevertheless we would have to make their firepower effective. That would take a tremendous effort on the sea and in the air, would it not?

A.—Yes, if you make any kind of an amphibious operation, it would take considerable sea power and air power to put them ashore. And you have to have well-trained, well-equipped troops with a lot of ammunition to do it.

Q.—Now I would like to ask this, and maybe it is an unfair question, General, but it is one that has disturbed me because I cannot find the answer to it.

Let us assume that we started in with Chiang and got him a beachhead through the use of our air and sea power, and then the Chinese Reds were to withdraw behind the Yalu and say to the United Nations and to us, "Now we are through and we want to make peace." What position do you think we could take with regard to Chiang? Would we abandon him at that point or would we have to proceed to carry on the war to put Chiang back in control of the mainland of China?

A.—Well, that poses a pretty hard question, but it would depend on the terms under which the Chinese would agree to fall back behind the Yalu. I cannot see that they would want to fall back of the Yalu and give up all of Korea and at the same time give up the beachhead. They would certainly proceed afterwards to take some kind of action, I should think.

Q.—General, there are, I am informed, about a million Chinamen, Red Chinamen, down on the coast opposite Formosa. Is that approximately accurate? A.—You mean soldiers?

Q.—Yes, troops. A.—I don't think you will find that many on the coast. You will find that many in South China, probably, but not necessarily all along the coast.

Q.—But you think there are approximately how many which would be available to repulse this adventure that we are to engage in with Chiang if General MacArthur was to have his way?

A.—There is a very large number in various parts of South China that could be moved to meet it. They are not right now on the coast, but they are in positions where they could be made available to meet such a movement.

Q.—I take it getting Chiang in there would be a terrific military operation, to say nothing of continuing him there in a continuing advance?

A.—To put him ashore with any considerable body of troops would be a very big effort. Now some may maintain that they are not talking about amphibious operations, they are talking about infiltration or something else. The * * * (ten and one-half lines deleted).

In fact there is nothing to keep him from going ashore in China now. He has some boats. If he wants to infiltrate himself and go over and lead them, he can do it. But to take an army with him requires more logistical support and better equipment and better trained troops and better air and naval power than he has.

Q.—I would like to advise the censor—of course my wishes on the next question are certainly not controlling, but I just call his attention to this question:

As far as your information goes, General, are the guerrilla forces now operating in South China in harmony and sympathy with Chiang?

A.—Well, as I understand it, some of them possibly are, but a very large part of them are not. They are just guerrillas. They are "antis," and anti-Communist or anti most anything that is in power. To that extent I don't think you can count on their supporting Chiang.

Reference to Return By Chiang Clarified

Q.—General Bradley——

A.—Maybe I didn't make myself clear about Chiang, going back. Of course, we have got a restriction on him going back with troops, but I mean as far as he, as an individual, going back, I doubt if anybody could stop him. That is what I meant—if he wants to go back himself and set himself up as a leader of this movement, I doubt if anybody could stop the movement of an individual. That is pretty hard to do. That is what I meant by nobody stopping him now.

There are restrictions on him him going back with a group, an armed force, yes, and that restriction is still in effect.

Q.—Now, General, have you been refreshed in your recollection by the colonel concerning the first appeal that was made by General MacArthur to bomb in Korea?

A.—The first message that we can find in which he mentioned the sanctuary at all is on the seventh of November in which he said, and his message indicated, "Hostile planes are operating from bases west of the Yalu using hit-and-run tactics and that present restrictions provided a sanctuary for hostile air force."

At that time he requested instructions for dealing with this new and threatening development and that was the time when we picked up the matter of "hot pursuit" and we turned it down.

On the thirtieth of December, his message stated or suggested that a large number of actions were included in this, and "under existing restrictions our naval and air potential are being only partially utilized. We could destroy Chinese industrial capacity to wage war through our bombardment and naval gunfire." It still was not a specific recommendation, but was suggested.

The only other ones—there is one of the eleventh of February in which he stated, "It is evident the enemy has lost his chance for achieving a decisive military decision in Korea, but it retains a potential as long as its base of operations in Manchuria is immune to air attack."

The Effects of Bombing Are Regarded as Limited

Q.—Of course, General, I suppose it can be emphasized that we could take out the industrial potential in Manchuria, and you can take out the industrial potential in China, but if Soviet Russia continued to supply the Chinamen then we would have to make the next election to and start bombing the Soviet Union itself.

A.—Well, that would be so; but even if you could take out the industrial potential of China, our experience with Germany during the last world war was that you cannot completely take it out. In fact, the last six months of '44, when we were hitting the Ruhr very hard, the Ruhr was producing more during those six months than it had any previous six months in the way of war materials; so that the air action in itself will not completely destroy the industrial production.

If you want to go into it with atomic bombs, why, yes, you can have a greater effect on it; but conventional bombing can have the effect of hampering it; it can slow it down, but when they get organized to repair it, they can get back into production discouragingly fast.

SENATOR McMAHON—Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator McMahon, your time is up.

SENATOR McMAHON—Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN—This is off the record.

(Discussion off the record.)

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Stennis.

SENATOR STENNIS — Mr. Chairman, I am not going to ask any questions.

I want to say that I have been very much impressed with the examination here, of General Bradley; and I have been very much impressed with his testimony, too, his very clear and forthright answers.

If I may, Mr. Chairman, let me observe that I question the wisdom of just a lot of repetitious questioning of General Bradley, or the other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The time of these gentlemen is valuable, and our time is valuable, too.

We have had General Bradley here now, for the second week; and three other members, three other Chiefs of Staff are coming in. I think we ought to well consider now, putting some kind of limitation on ourselves, Mr. Chairman, and to the duration of the questioning of these military men, the top military advisers of the nation.

I have been trying to think of some kind of proposal, not with reference to General Bradley's testimony, but with respect to the next three military men, the Chiefs of Staff; and it seems to me like it should be two hours of questioning of each one of the witnesses, to be handled by the two senior members of each committee would certainly be satisfactory.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — Mr. Chairman——

SENATOR STENNIS — I don't propose that now. I think we ought to be thinking about it; and that is not with any idea of trying to limit any individual, of course, but just as a reasonable limitation on our time, and their time.

I think they have other things that they should be doing, and I believe that will afford the information we need here. So with that sentiment, and again reiterating that all the matters I have had in mind have already been covered—otherwise, I would question General Bradley — but they have already been fully covered, and I therefore think it my duty not to repeat. Thank you very much.

THE CHAIRMAN—Thank you, sir. Senator Lodge.

SENATOR LODGE — General Bradley, do you know whether General MacArthur was consulted on the decision to enter Korea?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Prior to sending troops over, I don't believe he was asked his opinion on it. However, he stated he fully concurred in it.

SENATOR LODGE — On the question of troops—did he express any opinion on the question of sending troops into Korea?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, he requested that he be authorized to send troops into Korea.

Q.—He did? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Do you know whether he expressed any opinions on sending the Air Force or the Navy to operate in Korea?

A.—No, I don't remember that he made any statement on that. The plan that we had drawn up for Korea provided for the withdrawal of our nationals in case of trouble.

Due to the rapidity of this movement of the North Koreans south, it was thought necessary to cover part of that evacuation, which was done by air, with the use of our own air. Otherwise, the North Korean planes could have shot down our planes clearing out our nationals.

Power to End the Fight Said to Lie in Kremlin

Q.—You stated in your opening statement that the United States, and I quote, "is not in the best military position to have a showdown" and "not prepared to deliver an ultimatum."

I think I am quoting you correctly. This is just two questions. First, is it not true that the showdown, if there is to be one, must be with the Kremlin, since they could stop the war in Korea if they wanted to?

A.—Will you repeat your last question?

Q.—Is it not true that the showdown, if there is to be one, must be with the Kremlin, since they could stop the war in Korea if they wanted to? A.—Well, if they elect to carry it on for a long period of time or elect to spread it, the showdown eventually might have to be made with them. However, there is a possibility that they would be willing to call this thing off on the part of their satellites something short of a complete showdown with the Kremlin itself.

Q.—Well, let me phrase it another way. If we could put enough pressure, diplomatic pressure on the Kremlin, they have it within their power to call off this fight in Korea, have they not? A.—They have the power to call it off, I am sure, but under what conditions they would be induced to do that I don't know.

Q.—But we have not the pressure on them, have we? A.—I don't think we have.

Q.—Well, you have stated we did not have the wherewithal to launch an all-out war. A.—We are not in the best position to launch an all-out war, certainly.

Q.—Well, that leads me to the second question, which is, are we making the best use of our time to build up our military position as rapidly as possible so that we can put enough pressure on the Kremlin to stop this aggression?

A.—I answered that yesterday or a couple of days ago in answer to Senator Johnson's question, that in my opinion we probably were not doing everything we could do.

I would like to see us establish a firm long-range military policy as to use of manpower and training and the equipping of them. We haven't done that yet. It is in the process and I know that your committee is doing all it can to accomplish that, but that has not been accomplished yet.

Now so far as the progress of the industrial mobilization is concerned and production of war materials is concerned, I think you will find the Chiefs of the various services can answer that much better than I can. I did not have time to check on it during the noon hour to see just how it is progressing. I know that they are making very considerable progress.

Whether or not they are keeping up to the schedule they set six months ago I can't answer, because ,that is a rather detailed study with which the Chiefs should be able to furnish you when they come here, with which I am not familiar without going to them and getting a detailed report, and I did not have time to do that today.

Q.—So, if it is a question involving the size of the Air Force and the rapidity with which we are building that up, you would rather I asked that of General Vandenberg. A.—He can answer it much better than I can.

Q.—But you would agree, speaking now as a citizen and not as a military expert, that we have a moral obligation to the men who are fighting in Korea to make the maximum use of the time that they are gaining for us in order to get ready as quickly as possible, wouldn't you say that just as an American citizen?

A.—Yes, I do. I think that we must get ready to meet any eventuality because otherwise we are taking a chance with our security and our whole national set-up.

Q.—Haven't we got an obligation of honor to the men who are over there in combat to make the fullest possible use of the time that they are getting for us? A.—Well, unless we make full time—full use of the time they gain for us, certainly we are not taking full advantage of the time they are gaining for us and to that extent we are probably letting them down.

Q.—Now I have got two or three questions that keep popping up in my mail. I have some notions of my own as to what the answers are, but I would like to get the answers from you.

Is our mission in Korea to defeat enough Chinese so as to have a negotiated peace, or is it to clear Korea and keep it cleared?

A.—At the present time the military mission given to General Ridgway does not include the clearing of all of Korea. It includes the inflicting of maximum casualties on the Chinese with minimum losses to ourselves and with due regard to the safety of our troops in order to get into a position whereby we may negotiate some kind of a peace.

Q.—It is generally understood that we have practically come to the conclusion that it is impossible to negotiate with the Russians. Why do we think that the Chinese are any easier to negotiate with? A.—They are being hurt more than the Russians. They are the ones that are directly involved in this. Our relationship with China through the years has been much better than it has been with Russia, and I would think that you would have a better chance to talk with the Chinese than you would with the Russians.

Q.—You think there is a better chance of their word being good than the Russians? A.—I think I would, yes, sir.

Q.—If the Chinese are winning in Korea, the Russians are not expected to intervene, but if the Chinese are losing in Korea, it is said the Russians may intervene. Is it not true therefore that regardless of how you accomplish it, a Chinese defeat in Korea runs the risk of incurring Russian intervention?

A.—You always take that risk by any action you take in stopping these aggressive moves on the part of the Communists. Each one of them involves a certain risk of war and we don't deny that we are taking that risk now. We just say to extend the war into China itself would increase the risk. We don't say we are not running any now.

Proceeding Drags On Too Long, Lodge Says

Q.—Mr. Chairman, that concludes my questions, but before I yield the floor I would like to say that at the appropriate time I shall join with other Senators in seeking to limit the amount of time that Senators are taking on questions.

I think this proceeding is dragging on too long and that we ought to take steps to shorten it up.

Thank you, General Bradley.

THE CHAIRMAN — Gentlemen, I have here a list of questions that Senator Flanders requested me, or some member of the committee, to propound in his behalf if he were not present. He is next on the list.

I should like to have the authority to reserve those questions because Senator Flanders, I think, will return here tomorrow, and he naturally would much prefer to ask them himself, but in the event that we reach a stage where his questions would not be asked, I shall propound them in behalf of Senator Flanders at that time. Thus, we reach here Senator Long.

SENATOR LONG—General Bradley, if the Korean aggression had not broken out, isn't the probability that this nation would not have begun to arm at the rate that we are arming at the present time or to prepare ourselves for the danger of a third World War?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think that is a fair assumption. I think the aggression in Korea, the nature of it and the size of it, made us all realize that Russia had reached the point where she was willing to risk war, and that in order to meet that, or in order to try to prevent it by raising a great deterrent to war in the form of larger security forces that we had better get busy and increase our security forces; and I think it has not only had an effect on us to increase our own security forces, but it had a very marked effect on a lot of our friends in Europe with whom we are allied.

Q.—Now, prior to that time there were some of us who found it difficult to get our people in our home states to agree that we were justified in spending the amount that we were spending at that time on our armed services. I believe that was around $13,000,000,000, was it not? A.—Yes.

Q.—There were some of our people who felt that was too much and that was about the major portion of our budget. Since that aggression occurred, however, those people were some of the first to realize that we should spend much more. Now, we are spending about how much on our preparedness effort on an annual basis? A.—I believe the President's request has been submitted to the Congress and it is approximately $60,000,000,000 for defense.

Q.—So, roughly, you might say that dollar-wise we are making about five times the defense effort now that we were making at the time the Korean aggression broke out. Would that be a fair statement? A.—That is approximately so.

Q.—Now, it had always seemed to me that if the Communists hoped to destroy this country by aggression, their best chance would be to sit by and lull us into a sense of security for a few years, while they armed to the teeth, and then to strike us suddenly, with an all-out attack. Would that have seemed to you like a feasible plan for them in their idea for conquest?

A.—I should think that would be a reasonable deduction, but apparently that does not always hold because at various times, to my knowledge, during the last several years, about the time that we were having trouble getting certain appropriations they came through with some act that would make it quite easy to get appropriations for defense.

Q.—Such as the Berlin blockade. A.—It is rather hard to figure out just what their psychology is on it.

Q.—So that the Berlin blockade could have been a good example of them initiating an action that made it easier for you to get the necessary funds for the armed services? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Now, this Korean aggression has made it possible, probably, to get four or five times as much for the armed services as you might have had available otherwise, is that correct?

A.—Yes, sir. It made it possible, and it made it necessary, I think, because a large part, a considerable part, of this money is being used up in Korea, itself. It serves a dual purpose, however. The ammunition being used there makes it necessary, and requires us to set up certain ammunition procurement lines which were absolutely essential, and which had been worrying us very badly beforehand.

Q.—Looking at this thing from a point of world strategy, do you believe that the Russians expected us to call their hand in Korea? A.—I don't believe they did.

Q.—Why do you say that? A.—Well, I think that if they had expected us to move in, they would have either not started it at all, or else they would have started in on a larger scale to start with. I think they estimated they could accomplish what they had in mind, and that we would not intervene.

Difficulty in Gauging Red Reaction Noted

Q.—If they could have taken Korea without us intervening at all, do you think they might have anticipated that any great rearmament effort might not have started in the United States?

A.—I don't know. I have ceased trying to figure out what the people there would guess on.

I think it is a possible deduction that they might have thought that. I don't know. They are hard to figure, as to what they are thinking about, and whether or not they anticipate some of the results that come about from their actions.

I sometimes think we don't,—they don't figure quite the way they should.

Q.—From your own point of view, looking at it in terms of world strategy, take the whole Korean incident, do you believe that if Russia had in mind conquering the entire world, that she made a serious mistake in letting the aggression break out in Korea, looking at it from hindsight?

A.—Oh, I don't know. If you look at it, if Russia is trying to cause as much trouble in the world as possible, and is trying to conquer additional peoples and additional resources, by the use of her satellites, in which she doesn't lose very much, maybe it wasn't any mistake. She hasn't lost anything yet, in men.

True, it has cost her equipment, but she makes that under state-controlled industry, and it keeps her war industries going; and I wouldn't know whether she would think it was a mistake, from that angle, or not.

Certainly she hasn't lost any of her own forces yet. She has used up some equipment, and as long as she can get satellites to do these things for her, it would be hard to guess whether or not she feels that she has lost something, or has gained something.

I think possibly, in my opinion, she has had her timetable set back and the fact that we intervened in Korea has kept her from taking action elsewhere, and to that extent I think our intervention in Korea has been a considerable disadvantage to her. The fact that she started the Korean incident is just one of several she probably had planned; and I doubt if she would be sorry she started it.

I think she is probably sorry we intervened.

Q.—How do the number of combat-ready ground troops of this nation compare with what we had at the time the Korean aggression broke out?

A.—Well, we have considerably greater strength now than we had at that time. We had in numbers approximately a million and a half men under arms. At the present time we are approaching three and a half million.

Q.—Judging by the results we are seeing today of the tremendous casualties that our troops are inflicting, with light casualties to themselves, I take it also our troops have learned a lot about how to fight against Communist tactics; is that correct?

A.—We think we have improved the battle efficiency of our units very materially, and not only will it improve the battle efficiency of the troops in Korea, but by the rotation system and the information we are getting out of Korea otherwise we will very materially increase the combat efficiency of the units here at home.

Q.—How much do you think our allies have increased their readiness—I have particularly in mind our European allies—since the Korean fighting broke out?

A.—Well, they have all speeded up their preparedness efforts and have all increased—so far as I know, all, and I say "all" advisedly, I would have to check—I think all people in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization who have military obligations have increased their efforts by at least 50 per cent.

Q.—Will you express an opinion on this, general? Do you think there is some possibility of this war simply petering out around the Thirty-eighth Parallel even without negotiating a peace? In other words, our forces getting back to the Thirty-eighth Parallel, a little below, and the Communists simply ceasing to come down and attack our troops.

A.—That is a possibility which we have to consider. It petered out in Greece, and that is one way it could end here.

Q.—In other words, in Greece you finally had peace without ever agreeing at all. There was never any agreement there, it simply gradually passed away, and the guerrillas simply ceased to come down any longer. There is some possibility that type of thing might happen in Korea? A.—I think that is a possibility, yes.

SENATOR LONG—Thank you very much, General.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Fulbright.

Senator Queries General On Troop Deployment

SENATOR FULBRIGHT—General Bradley, I have had to conduct another hearing, and many of these questions—I have only two or three—if they are already answered, just say so and I can look in the record. I do not want to detain you any more than necessary.

There was one question that grew out of General MacArthur's testimony that interested me, and if you have not answered it, I wonder if you would comment on it. I believe he said if he had it to do over again he would deploy his troops exactly as he did, as they were deployed at the time the Chinese attacked in Korea, which I put sometime in November, I guess, or early December. I wondered if you would comment on that. Do you agree with that—that his troops were deployed in the best possible way under the existing conditions?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Well, Senator, we were a little bit worried, looking at the map from here, as to those dispositions, and we asked General MacArthur if he needed any additional or changed directives and he said he did not. We did not send him any message as to our worries about the disposition because you cannot fight a battle and conduct a battle from 7,000 miles away, which we were. You must let your field commander fight that battle.

General MacArthur is a man of long, distinguished service and experience, and I think it would be quite improper to try to tell him from here how exactly to dispose his divisions, and so we did not do so.

Q.—Well, I understood that you did not tell him to do it. But I was asking more specifically—were they deployed in a way that you consider now—and if it is hindsight, it is true—the best possible way? Looking at it from now, do you think in reviewing the situation that they were deployed in the best possible way?

A.—Well, I can only say that were I deploying them, I think I would do it a little bit differently. Maybe General MacArthur had some information which I did not have. Certainly I would have deployed them differently, if that is the answer to your question.

Q.—Could you indicate very briefly how you would have deployed them? I am not a military man, and, of course, it may not mean anything to me, but I ask in view of the disastrous series of defeats there, and his comment apparently was nothing could be done, that it was just done in the best possible way, and nevertheless we lost a very large number of casualties and a great deal of momentum, of course, and position.

A.—Well, on the 28th of November he informed the Joint Chiefs that he estimated the strength of the Chinese Communists in North Korea to be at 200,000 and the North Koreans at approximately 50,000. And he further reported that the strength of his own forces was not sufficient to meet this undeclared war by the Chinese. As a result he informed the Joint Chiefs of Staff that his strategic plan for the immediate future was to pass from the offensive to the defensive, with such local adjustments as might be required by the fluid situation.

The Joint Chiefs advised him on the 29th of November, then, of their approval of his plans to pass from the offensive to the defensive in the face of a large-scale Chinese Communist intervention in the Korean situation. They stated that strategic and tactical considerations were paramount. They also requested information concerning the coordination of operations between the X Corps and the Eighth Army and regarding the positioning of the X Corps, the units of which appeared to be exposed.

He replied on the 30th of November that the X Corps geographically threatens the main supply lines of the enemy forces bearing upon the right flank of the Eighth Army. The enemy's penetration southward could not be safely accomplished until this threat of the X Corps is contained or nullified. Any concept of actual physical combination of the forces of the Eighth Army and X Corps in a practically continuous line across the narrow neck of Korea is quite impracticable due to the length of that line, the numerical weakness of our forces, and the logistical problems due to the mountainous divide which splits such a front from north to south.

He further went on to state that the X Corps would contract its position as enemy pressure develops, into the Hamhung-Wonsan sector. The corps commander has been enjoined against any possibility of piecemeal isolation and trapping of his forces. While geographically his elements seem to be well extended, the actual conditions of terrain make it extremely difficult for an enemy to take any material advantage thereof.

I read that because it explains, I think, why he thought it was unnecessary to change those dispositions. I say, looking at it from here, it looked to us like the flank was exposed and the X Corps was exposed.

Q.—It looked that way at that time to you. A.—At that time. He was the commander, however, and this was his estimate of it.

MacArthur Estimate Held Not Borne Out

Q.—It looked that way at that time. Now the developments, would you say, confirmed his estimate of the situation or not? A.—Beg pardon?

Q.—The developments, what actually happened, did that confirm his estimate of the situation or not? A.—No, I doubt if you could say it did, because later we were able to join the two corps and form a continuous line which extended across the peninsula.

Q.—As I say, I am inexperienced in military matters, but in view of what actually happened, it seems quite incredible to me that nothing could have been done to have improved our situation as of Nov. 29. Maybe that happened, I don't know. But it would have seemed to me that some kind of deployment could have been effected that might have limited the reverses, or prevented the reverses that we suffered. Maybe I am naive in military matters.

Would you say that is a reasonable assumption that they might have been deployed in such a way that we would not have suffered as great losses as we did?

A.—I think a lot of people were worried about the fact that the Tenth Corps was isolated from the rest of the Eighth Army and that the right flank of the Eighth Army was exposed. In looking at it on a map, I think a lot of people were concerned about that.

Q.—Military people were? A.—Yes.

Q.—Well, is it fair to say then that on that point there was disagreement at the highest level on the military situation there? Is that right, there was disagreement? A.—Well, I don't know whether you would call it disagreement or not. It was a difference of opinion.

Q.—All right, difference of opinion. A.—But we refrained from trying to tell him how to do it from here.

Q.—That is right, on the principle you do not undertake to direct the tactics of a battle, but you did differ as a matter of opinion as to what was the most favorable disposition. A.—Yes.

Q.—One other question on that. Was there any lack of liaison between the Eighth Army and the Tenth Corps? A.—Well, General MacArthur says there was not. He says there was liaison by radio and by communications back through his headquarters in Japan.

Q.—Well, I understand what General MacArthur says. What do you say? What do you Joint Chiefs say? A.—I don't know whether there was that radio communication or not. I assume there was, but there was no physical contact between the two forces. In fact, there was quite a gap between the Tenth Corps on the east coast and the Eighth Army on the west coast.

Q.—Have you had any reports since that time to indicate whether or not there was adequate liaison between those two forces?

A.—No, and whether or not they were exchanging messages by radio, keeping in touch with each other, wasn't too important anyway considering the disposition because the Tenth Corps was scattered pretty much up into the northeast of Korea, part of the force due north around the reservoir, and the Eighth Army was on the other coast.

Their communication back and forth between them, while its liaison didn't mean too much, I never did look into it as to just how much of a radio communication liaison they had.

Q.—Well, then, is it fair to say that that particular point is not particularly important or relevant, that because of the disposition of the forces, they could not do much differently from what they did whether they had liaison or not? A.—Whether or not they had radio communication is not too important.

Q.—That would not make much difference? A.—No.

Q.—Due to that disposition they had to operate independently anyway? A.—Yes, they operated independently and the Tenth Corps was pulled out by water and brought back around the tip of the peninsula and put in action again through Pusan, while the Eighth Army withdrew on the west coast.

Q.—One further question. Maybe you have already developed that. I was not here if you had that particular point. One other question about the negotiated peace. I believe you said you looked forward—no—that you regarded it as a possibility that the losses of the Chinese would become so great that they might be willing to accept a negotiated peace.

I would take it from that that you do not feel that any kind of a peace, that is anything short of a complete victory, would be appeasement, is that correct?

A.—I think that something short of driving them out of Korea would be satisfactory and would not be considered as appeasement.

Shouldn't Abandon Hope In U. N., Bradley Thinks

Q.—Do you think that the United Nations organization — this probably is not a military question, but you, after all, are a citizen, too—do you think that it can be developed into an organization to preserve the peace? A.—The United Nations?

Q.—Yes. A.—I think so. I don't think we ought to give up on it, at least. It takes a long period of years to develop nations as big as the United States. A lot of nations take many, many years to develop into one nation; and I don't think we should become too discouraged just because the United Nations may not have accomplished some of the things we hoped to accomplish in six years. It is only organized six years.

Q.—What I was working up to was a line of questions or a thought here, and that is that it seems to me that this is the first great test of the United Nations—this campaign that is being conducted in the name of the United Nations, where we happen to be the largest contributor at the moment. If it is designed, reasonably designed, to accomplish this purpose—I mean it is not something fatally wrong — this approach which we have made through the United Nations—it seems to me that if we can succeed in this particular campaign with respect to the war in Korea that we will have taken a very great step toward the establishment of an effective system of collective security. Does that appeal to you?

A.—I think that is right, and I think, on the other hand, if we fail—

Q.—Yes. A.—(continuing)—That we have delivered very much of a setback blow to the United Nations.

Q.—I agree with you. It seems to me that that is, perhaps, the justification for it. I mean a lot of people have written me, you see it in the press, and they say, Why are we in Korea?

It seems to me that we are in Korea for that reason; that is, as an attempt to make effective the United Nations; that is, to meet the first great test. To use as an illustration the two instances when we did not do it, they are when we or the French or the British did not respond to the challenge of Hitler when he entered the Rhineland, and if we had, I have always thougnt that might have made a great difference. Do you feel that way about it?

A.—I feel that way, yes. I think if we had taken positive action against Hitler when he marched into the Ruhr that year, in the middle Thirties, that might well have stopped World War II.

Q.—I understood from my colleague that you have already developed that question. I say if any of these questions have been answered—I do not want to bore you or burden the record by going over that subject; but if that has been developed, I will desist, with the final word that while it is not perfected, I would gather from your point of view that we are on the right track, assuming we can follow it out and be effective in this and future tests, is that correct?

A.—I think that is quite important.

Q.—Well, it seems to me extremely important, and it is the one real hope in this situation. If that was not so, I would be at as much of a loss as many of my constituents are as to why we are in Korea. That is all, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Tobey, I believe he is next. Senator Sparkman?

SENATOR SPARKMAN — General Bradley, there are not many questions left that I care to ask, so I will be brief.

One thing I want to get at, and it has to do with these messages that were exchanged in January of this year with General MacArthur. Now, as I recall, first, there was a message from General MacArthur of Jan. 10 or 11—tenth here, eleventh over there.

GENERAL BRADLEY—Jan. 10.

Q.—Jan. 10. The next message that went out was the directive of Jan. 12, and the letter from the President of Jan. 13, and I am omitting this study of Jan. 12, which came in at the same time, but I am trying to confine it to that exchange of three messages. A.—Yes, sir.

MacArthur Spokesman Quoted by Sparkman

Q.—Now, you read the message from General MacArthur into the record a few days ago. You read the directive, as I recall, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff sent him. Previously I think General Marshall read into the record the letter that President Truman sent him. So they are all in the record.

I want to call your attention to a newspaper item from The Washington Post, United Press item, given on Page 1775 of our record, headlined New York, and it says this. I will not read all of it, but I want to read enough to form the basis of my question to you.

"General MacArthur's spokesman said today that until Jan. 13 of this year MacArthur believed the Washington officials wanted our forces evacuated from Korea and made a scapegoat for some political advantage."

Do you know of any fact or set of facts that would serve as the basis for any such statement as that?

A.—No, Sir.

Q.—Did the Joint Chiefs of Staff at any time communicate anything to General MacArthur from which he could correctly arrive at a conclusion that you wanted, first, him to evacuate Korea, and, second, that you wanted the Eighth Army made a scapegoat for political reasons?

A.—No, Sir. To answer the second part of your question first, the Joint Chiefs of Staff did not let any political considerations enter any of their military decisions, their military thinking.

As to the first one, the only time we mentioned withdrawal from Korea was in communication with him as a result of his messages there early in January in which he indicated that he thought he would have to withdraw from Korea because he was greatly outnumbered and could not hold.

At that time we queried him as to what time in his withdrawal he would feel it was necessary to make that decision. He later said, well, he would not have to make that decision until he got all the way back to the Pusan bridgehead.

The only times the Joint Chiefs discussed with him a withdrawal from Korea was as a result of his messages in early January which indicated that he felt we had to withdraw from Korea and could not hold.

Q.—In other words, the only suggestion as to a withdrawal from Korea was derived from his messages back here? A.—Yes, because he had—

SENATOR SPARKMAN—Then—

THE CHAIRMAN—Just a moment, Senator.

SENATOR SPARKMAN — Excuse me, if you had not fully answered.

GENERAL BRADLEY — Because he indicated, from those messages in early January, in his opinion he could not hold; and then we started making plans as to how we would get out, and studies as to what we would do if we had to get out.

Q.—And in his message of Jan. 10, which you read into the record, he drew a pretty gloomy picture and, as I recall, said that in his opinion it was going to be necessary to withdraw? A.—Well, he at least intimated that, and that is why two of the Chiefs of Staff went over to get first-hand information or knowledge of the situation in Korea at that time. They left here on the evening of Jan. 12.

Q.—That was General Collins, Chief of Staff of the Army, and General Vandenberg, Chief of Staff of the Air Force? A.—That is correct.

Q.—I believe both you and General Marshall have testified that they went to Korea, talked to the men, visited the various fronts, and—what am I trying to say?—headquarters, command posts, and came back with, and reported that they found the morale excellent, and that, in their opinion, they could hold. Am I correct in my recollection of that? A.—That is correct.

Q.—And it was as a result of this personal investigation by these two Chiefs of Staff that the Joint Chiefs of Staff were convinced that the situation in Korea was not hopeless, as presented in the message from General MacArthur of Jan. 10?

A.—Well, that contributed to their feeling.

About this time, also, the messages coming back from the front indicated a better situation, as we got daily reports; and by that time the line had stabilized pretty much, and in some cases, started moving back; and there was no indication that the Chinese were pushing down on us; and those daily reports, plus the reports from the Chiefs of Staff, I believe convinced us that the situation was not such that we would have to get out of Korea.

Q.—Now, I will quote further, General Bradley, from this newspaper article which is quoting Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, as General MacArthur's spokesman, and he says this: "* * * said a Jan. 13 message from President Truman was the Government's first clear statement to MacArthur to 'hold' in Korea.

"Before receiving the message, said Whitney, MacArthur and his command had been led to believe the Administration wanted to evacuate the Eighth Army from Korea, pretending the enemy forced an evacuation which would be used as an international political weapon."

I will ask you again, do you know of anything, any fact, or any factual situation that would justify any such conclusion as that?

A.—I don't know of any basis for General Whitney's statement of that nature.

Q.—Nor for the belief that General MacArthur provided his spokesman, General Whitney, was correctly stating his view? A.—I don't know how either the spokesman or General MacArthur, if he were being quoted correctly, could obtain the view that we thought we had to get out of Korea for any political reasons whatsoever.

Q.—As a matter of fact, in the letter from President Truman, which, of course, he says was the first clear message that he had to stay in there, it was made very clear, was it not, that for political purposes, international, to sustain our international relations, I will put it that way, it was essentian that we hold on in Korea?

A.—Well, in one place I believe it was mentioned that it was necessary for the preservation of the United Nations, or something to that effect, that we hold on in Korea, if at all possible.

General Queried Again On Wake Island Parley

Now, I will read further from General MacArthur's spokesman, Major General Whitney, as he is quoted directly:

"You must understand that prior to the receipt of this message it appeared to be the prevailing view in Washington that our forces should be evacuated from Korea as soon as diplomatic discussions then under way in the United Nations had been concluded.

"It seemed to be the prevailing view of the authorities in Washington that if the evacuation was conducted as the result of enemy pressure some political advantage would be served."

Did you ever communicate to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, or any one, as far as you know, communicate anything to General MacArthur that would justify any such conclusion as that?

A.—On the last part of it, I believe that we are all agreed that if we were driven out of Korea, that would be one thing; if you just got up and pulled out of Korea, and abandoned the United Nations' effort, that would be something else, and that certainly we would not get out of Korea unless we were driven out.

Q.—You never suggested to him that he pretend to be driven out, did you? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Now, General Bradley, I don't care to labor this Wake Island situation very much, but some of the other people seem to attach considerable importance to it.

You started to tell us, this morning, just how this building was constructed. Was there two rooms, separate and apart, or were the walls complete, or was it a partition, or just what?

I have seen somewhere a reference to a "slat partition." I don't know just what that means. I wonder if you would tell us?

A.—No. As I remember it, it was a solid wall, with one door through it, and the door was open; and, as I was reminded at noon today by my executive who was with me at that time, before the President and General MacArthur came over from their private conference, Miss Anderson was in this principal room talking to General MacArthur's aide, Colonel Storey, and to General Whitney, because she knew them from a previous trip to Japan with Mr. Jessup, and they were talking to each other there; and then, when General MacArthur and the President came, she stepped into the other room, and the door was left open.

That is what I was reminded of today by Colonel Matthews. He remembered their talking, and remembered the fact that Colonel Storey and Miss Anderson were on a first-name basis, and in fact they had been in contact before, apparently, in Japan. She was there a considerable time with Mr. Jessup; so, even if General MacArthur didn't know she was there, I don't know whether he did, or not, certainly General Whitney and Colonel Storey knew she was in this building.

Q.—No [illegible]

that she was "surreptitiously placed," and also used the term "eavesdropping." Do you think those terms are correctly descriptive? A.—I think it is a very improper use of the term "surreptitiously placed."

She had come there with Mr. Jessup; as I say, General Whitney and Colonel Storey knew she was in the next room, knew the door was open, so I think that is a rather poor use of the word.

I think evesdropping possibly is. I don't know why anyone should object to our making notes of this very important meeting. As a matter of fact we could have taken a stenographer along and taken the whole thing down and had it verbatim if anybody was going to question it, but we had to come back and make some reports, certainly I did, to the other chiefs, and that is why we kept these notes, so we could tell the chiefs what had been discussed.

Then when we found that we had all taken notes and they were so complete, they decided that I was the one that should compile them. Why, I don't remember, but I happened to be in the military, had the facilities for getting out a top secret message and we compiled Mr. Jessup's notes, Mr. Rusk's, mine, Colonel Matthews', Colonel Hamblen's and, I remember, Mr. Pace had a few.

We put them all together, put them all together on a plane coming back so that we could have one complete report which we could all use and it would be complete, and I never dreamed that anybody would question the method of it, the necessity for it or the purpose to which it would be put.

Q.—Now just one other question regarding that. I have read somewhere in the paper—I don't know whether it was a statement by the young lady or by whom it was—which said that she was in the room but there were not enough chairs or space to take care of the whole crowd, and that she went out. Do you recall whether there was anything to that effect?

A.—I don't remember under what circumstances she went out.

Q.—Now did you send five copies of this report immediately to General MacArthur. A.—Yes.

Q.—You have never heard any word of criticism from him regarding the accuracy of it, have you? A.—No.

Q.—Either after his aide receipted the copies that you sent him or even in his testimony before this committee? A.—No.

Q.—Now, General Bradley, some discussion was had here this morning with reference to troops being sent by other members of the United Nations, and you said that various nations had offered troops, that we found it not expedient to accept. Who had the authority to accept or not accept the troops?

A.—Well, we asked General MacArthur what criteria we should use in accepting troops from foreign countries, and he stated in his opinion to be of any military value they should be in groups of not less than 1,000 with ability to furnish their own replacements and as much logistical support as possible, and he thought that any group of less than 1,000 fully equipped and capable of being maintained approximately at that strength would be of questionable value, although he admitted that from a United Nations viewpoint that maybe we should accept some forces smaller than that, and some of the battalions over there do have less than 1,000 in them.

Figures Are Supplied On Korean Casualties

Q.—With reference to our casualties, approximately 65,000, there was some discussion here this morning as to just what that contained, and I believe it was admitted that it did not contain frostbite or non-battle casualties. I suppose that means it does not contain service people who just get sick from some reason or another?

Let me ask you this: Does it contain all battle wounds regardless of the degree of disability or whether or not they recover in a short time from them?

A.—Yes, and I think this might be an appropriate time to enter these figures which I looked up during the noon hour, because it is in answer to your qestion and one previously asked.

Q.—Yes.

A.—The United States Army non-battle casualties from the beginning up to the 20th of May were 41,668. I also have the South Koreans and the United Nations. If you are interested in them.

There is also a report dated 18 May from the director of the office of progress reports and statistics, which says:

"'Non-battle casualties'" — in quotation marks—"is apt to be a misleading term, for it ignores the fact that in any army there is always a certain incidence of disease and injury. For example, during the occupation of Korea the Army's average monthly rate of admissions to hospitals and quarters because of disease, rigors of weather, and other causes was 6 per cent. Since the conflict in Korea began, the average monthly rate in Korea has been 9.5 per cent. Medical records show that since the conflict started only 117 men have died in the Far East command from diseases contracted in Korea."

One other paragraph in this same report says:

"Approximately 70 per cent of those wounded in action since the beginning of the Korean conflict have been returned to duty. Service experts advise us there is no way of accurately determining the number of wounded who are now in action. Less than 3 per cent of our wounded have died of their wounds."

The reason you can't give the number of those who were wounded and who are now in action is because of the rotation policy and the Marines have a policy that any man who has been wounded twice in combat is automatically qualified for rotation.

Here is one other report. This is an old report. I hate to give it to you, but I couldn't find a later one. It is dated 2 February, and is on percentage of nonbattle casualties returned to duty.

The total up to that time from nonbattle casualties was listed returned to duty, 85 per cent.

SENATOR SPARKMAN Mr. Chairman, it seems to me it might be well if all of these might be set out in the appendix.

THE CHAIRMAN—It will only take a moment to read those R. O. K. and United Nations casualties.

SENATOR SPARKMAN — Is that all that is left off?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think that is all that is applicable. The R. O. K. army nonbattle casualties up to the period of 29 April—the other period for the U. S. Army was up to 20th of May—for the South Korean forces we had them only up to 29 April—total nonbattle casualties, 27,789.

The United Nations, other than U. S. and South Koreans, 4,458. And that is a report up to the 20th of May, the same as the U. S. forces.

I think it might be interesting to note that the nonbattle casualties of the South Koreans are lower than ours, because they are better acclimated, and I noticed that particularly last summer on the very hot days. We would have a lot of heat prostrations and they would have very few, because they were used to that heat. I think that possibly explains why they have fewer battle casualties than we have.

Furthermore, they may not have—

SENATOR FULBRIGHT—Fewer nonbattle casualties.

GENERAL BRADLEY—Fewer nonbattle casualties.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT—You said fewer battle casualties.

GENERAL BRADLEY—Fewer nonbattle casualties.

THE CHAIRMAN—Fewer battle casualties, too?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Fewer nonbattle casualties, because they are more used to the climate and can get along better with it.

SENATOR SPARKMAN—General Bradley, in reporting casualties, is everything, that is——

GENERAL BRADLEY—Everything that has to go to the hospital, yes; whether it is a wound or nonbattle, if it goes to the hospital and it requires medical attention.

Q.—Regardless of the degree? A.—Yes; whether or not they have to be evacuated. For example, even if you go to an aid station and you are wounded and get a wound dressed and go back in you are still carried as wounded in action.

Q.—If I got a scratch working around a gun and took an antitetanus shot, would that be listed as a casualty?

A.—I don't know whether that would be carried as a nonbattle casualty or not. I know it would if you had to go away from your organization some place to get it treated. Whether or not it is listed when you go to your own aid station, I am not too sure, whether it would be counted or not.

SENATOR SPARKMAN—How many prisoners—of our boys are held prisoners as prisoners of war?

SENATOR WILEY—Unaccounted for.

SENATOR SPARKMAN—How many prisoners of war?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I have seen that figure within the last few days, but I cannot put my hands on it right now. As I remember, it is approximately over 4,000, of which something like 1,400 have been recaptured, and the rest of them are still missing. That is just approximately, and it is only from memory. I saw the figures within the last two days and that is the way I remember it.

Memorandum Requested Defining a Casualty

Q.—General Bradley, I wonder if you would have someone prepare a very short memorandum which could be put into the record when you are next here describing what constitutes a casualty. I would like to know, because I am not clear in my mind how minor a wound or injury would cause one to be listed as a casualty.

A.—You want that both for battle casualties and non-battle?

Q.—And non-battle, yes. When did our heaviest casualties occur? Did they occur during the Chinese offensive last fall, and during the early days of the war when we were pushed down into the small beachhead or have they been fairly evenly distributed?

A.—I think our percentage of casualties ran higher last summer and last November when we were hit hard by the Chinese. Of course, they ran heavier in November than they did last summer because we had more people committed. I thought that General Marshall had presented those figures by months.

THE CHAIRMAN—He did, and they are available here.

SENATOR SPARKMAN—All right. I will not ask anything further on that then.

General Bradley, I want to talk to you a little about the question of Formosa.

I have just read General MacArthur's letter that he sent to the Veterans of Foreign Wars in which he discussed Formosa. There has been a great area of doubt in my mind or, should I say, curiosity, as to just what does constitute the real strategic value of Formosa.

General MacArthur explained it, as I recall, by showing that it would be a very dangerous thing to be in enemy hands because it would advance both the air bases and submarine bases by something like ninety to one hundred miles, I believe; but he said the effect of that would be virtually to push us back to our Western Coast.

What I have never been able to understand is what the position of Okinawa would be, with Japan on the north and the Philippines on the south—how pushing away eighty or ninety or a hundred miles from the Chinese mainland would break through that line.

GENERAL BRADLEY — Well, that is apparently his opinion. The Joint Chiefs do not go that far. We say that it would be bad if it were held by hostile forces. On the other hand, it is not of such importance and so located that we would want to occupy it ourselves because that would expose us sticking out. On the third hand, the Joint Chiefs of Staff do not believe that the mere loss of Formosa would jeopardize our whole Pacific position and force us back to the coast of California.

Q.—Well, I was going to ask you about that because, as I remember, we did not bother about taking Formosa during World War II, did we? A.—No, sir, we by-passed it.

Q.—General MacArthur's own command by-passed it? A.—That is right.

Q.—And at that time we had exactly the same line, did we not? We moved up to—well, did we first take the Philippines and then move to Okinawa? A.—Yes, we took the Philippines and then Okinawa, and then Japan.

Q.—All the way up to Japan. We had exactly the same line then, or would have had had we taken Japan, that we have now; is that right? A.—Yes. Of course——

Q.—And we did not consider Formosa then as such a threat that we felt that we had to take it before moving on toward Japan; is that not right?

A.—That is correct. Of course, you must realize the situation is a little bit different in that we were advancing from south to north and fighting a by-passing action. But certainly part of your deduction is correct, and that is what we ended up, holding the Philippines and Okinawa, and were willing to function and fight along that line from there on to Japan without taking Formosa.

Now we all admit that Formosa is important, but certainly we do not think that the loss of Formosa would jeopardize our whole Pacific position. It would be bad, yes, but not that bad.

Q.—Well, I am glad to hear you say that because I must confess that if our whole western defense must depend upon a little island that is just sixty or eighty-five miles off the coast of the mainland of China it seems to me it becomes rather precarious.

General MacArthur in his letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars indicates, and I think he did in his testimony before this committee, that were Formosa held by an enemy our whole line of communications from the Philippines through Okinawa up to Japan would be imperiled to the point that he didn't think it would be possible to hold. In fact he used the exact expression, if I remember it, that we would be pushed back to the Western Coast of this country. You do not share that feeling?

A.—No.

Q.—Nor do the Joint Chiefs of Staff? A.—No.

Q.—Do you feel, as I think we all do, that Formosa ought not to be allowed to fall into enemy hands?

A.—That is correct. We think from a military point of view that if it were in the hands of an enemy, a power which was at war with us, it would be a threat to our communications between the Philippines and Okinawa and make it necessary to by-pass or go considerable distance out to avoid being hit from Formosa.

There is another point about Formosa which I don't think has been brought out, however, in all this discussion, and that is that Formosa is occupied, as I remember, by some seven million Formosans and not Chinese, although they are Chinese extraction; and it seems to me that it is only fair that they be given some right in their final disposition rather than just to decide it on something that was said five or six years ago. I think that also enters into our thinking on Formosa from the United Nations angle.

Reference to Formosans Called Helpful Statement

Maybe I am getting out of my field just a little bit now, but I am speaking only as a citizen in this case, and I think it is possible that some of our people in talking about Formosa have forgotten the fact that maybe they should have something to say about their own disposition, too.

From the military point of view we think it is important it not be held by the enemy, and not important enough that we should go occupy it. We do not think that that its loss to an enemy would jeopardize our position to the extent that we would lose all of our other positions in the Pacific.

Q.—I am glad to hear you say that, General Bradley; I feel the same way.

THE CHAIRMAN — Your time has expired, Senator.

SENATOR SPARKMAN—I want to transgress twenty seconds, if I may. I feel that other members have.

I just want to say, General Bradley, I feel that you have made a very helpful statement with reference to the Formosans themselves having some say in this. As a matter of fact, more than half of the member nations of the United Nations have a smaller population than Formosa.

Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN — The chair wishes to clear the record before calling on the Senator from Iowa. Pardon me.

I evidently misunderstood General Bradley a few moments ago when he was reading the R. O. K. casualties and reading the figure of 27,000 non-battle casualties.

GENERAL BRADLEY — 27,789 up to the 29th of April.

THE CHAIRMAN — I thought you were reading the battle casualties. What were the battle casualties? Do you have them?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir, I do not have the battle casualties.

THE CHAIRMAN — They are perhaps in the matter submitted by Secretary Marshall, but I misunderstood you, General, and thought you said that was battle casualties.

GENERAL BRADLEY—If I did, I misstated myself.

THE CHAIRMAN—And I thank the Senator from California for calling it to my attention.

Senator Gillette.

SENATOR GILLETTE — Mr. Chairman. General Bradley, I will try not to use more than ten minutes of your time.

At the outset of these hearings I stated in my own mind there were two issues.

One was the justification for and the necessity for the recall of General MacArthur. So far as I, as a member of this joint group is concerned, that issue has been resolved in my own mind. I do not need to ask any more questions or hear any more testimony after listening to General MacArthur, General Marshall and yourself.

The second issue, however, as I see it has not been cleared up in my mind, and judging from the questions that are asked here, it has not been cleared up in the minds of a number of the Senators. That is represented by the questions asked by the Senator from Arkansas and the Senator from Massachusetts.

What are we doing in Korea?

What is the mission? What is the objective? What is the purpose? Yesterday when you put the statement of Jan. 10, I think it was, or 9th from General MacArthur in, I noticed this portion of his statement, that "I am supposed to continue to defend successively positions subject to my basic mission of protecting Japan."

Do you understand that that was the basic mission of General MacArthur and our troops there?

GENERAL BRADLEY — That wasn't his basic mission in Korea. That was considered by him as his basic mission as Commanding General of the Far East.

Q.—Not as commander in chief of the United Nations forces? A.—Yes, as commander in chief of the Far Eastern forces and the Allied powers before Korea, his primary mission was the security of Japan, but he was given another problem by the United Nations in Korea, and when he said that his primary mission was the security of Japan, I think he was thinking of his over-all position, not of his position in Korea. He certainly wouldn't fight in Korea to protect Japan, so we can safely assume, I think, that he was talking about his combined over-all mission.

Q.—Now I will refer again to the statement that General MacArthur made in his address to the joint session of Congress on his return, referring to the advance that had been made up in northern Korea. I quote:

"Our victory was complete and our objectives within reach when Red China intervened with numerically superior ground forces. This created a new war and an entirely new situation, a situation not contemplated when our forces were committed against North Korean invaders, a situation which called for new decision in the diplomatic sphere to permit the realistic adjustment of military strategy, and it urgently demanded a drastic revision of strategic planning if our political aim was to defeat this new enemy. These decisions were not forthcoming."

Do you want to comment on that?

A.—As far as military directive was concerned, I think he was given sufficient directives. He was told that he no longer should consider it his mission to clear all of North Korea of the enemy and that the safety of his troops was paramount, and that his mission should be to inflict as severe casualties as possible on the Chinese with minimum to himself, and, of course, later on, as was brought out, that he should stay in Korea if at all possible to hold.

Now as far as the political decision is concerned as to whether or not we intend to drive them entirely out of Korea or whether or not we are willing to stop at the Thirty-eighth Parallel or what other political decision is concerned, I think it is fair to say that he has not received that from the United Nations or from the United States.

Senator Gillette Quotes From U. N. Resolutions

Ten and one-half lines deleted.

Q.—Now, General Bradley, there were three resolutions adopted by the United Nations Security Council. The first one was on June 25, and I quote:

"They determined that the action of the North Koreans constituted a breach of the peace. They called for the immediate cessation of hostilities, called upon the authorities of North Korea to withdraw to the Thirty-eighth Parallel, and requested the United Nations Commission on Korea to communicate its fully considered recommendations with the least possible delay, and to observe the withdrawal of the North Korean forces to the Thirty-eighth Parallel."

On June 27, they passed a second resolution in which:

"The Security Council, having determined that the armed attack upon the Republic of Korea by forces from North Korea constitutes a breach of the peace, and having called for an immediate cessation of hostilities, and having called upon the authorities of North Korea to withdraw forthwith their armed forces to the Thirty-eighth Parallel, and having noted that this had not been done, recommends that the members of the United Nations furnish such assistance to the Republic of Korea as may be necessary to repel the armed attack and to restore international peace and security in the area."

Then, on June 30, the President of the United States made a statement, in which he said that:

"In keeping with the United Nations Security Council's request for support to the Republic of Korea in repelling the North Korean invaders and restoring peace in Korea, the President announced that he had authorized the United States Air Force to conduct missions on specific military targets in Northern Korea wherever militarily necessary, and had ordered a naval blockade of the entire Korean coast.

"General MacArthur has been authorized to use certain supporting ground units."

Now that action was taken pursuant to the second resolution before there had been any request for a United Nations army, and our President acted on that request, as he stated.

Now the third resolution with which you are fully familiar, but for the purpose of my question I want to call attention to it, was on July 7:

"Recommends that all members providing military forces and other assistance pursuant to the aforesaid Security Council resolutions make such forces and other assistance available to a unified command under the United States;

"Requests the United States to designate the commander;

"Authorizes the use of the flag and directs reports to be made."

Now, do you know of any other resolution or action on the part of the Security Council of the United Nations supplementary to or changing that in any way, that objective?

A.—I believe there was another one about the end of September, Senator.

Q.—To what effect?

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Oct. 7, wasn't it, general?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Somewhere around there, Oct. 7. My notes show that on October the 6th the Joint Chiefs of Staff transmitted to General MacArthur the text of the proposed United Nations General Assembly resolution on post-hostilities in Korea. He was informed that the General Assembly would probably vote on the resolution on the 6th of October, 1950, and that any textual changes would be immediately transmitted to him.

The Joint Chiefs further stated it was considered that the resolution provided support for operations north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel. After approval of the resolution by the General Assembly, General MacArthur was requested to transmit immediately the text of the resolution to the North Korean authorities and to call upon them to lay down their arms.

On October the 7th, 1950, the Joint Chiefs of Staff informed the Commander in Chief, Far East, that the General Assembly had passed a resolution on post-hostilities in Korea with certain minor textual changes of which he was informed, so that indicates there was another one on October the 7th.

SENATOR GILLETTE—Do you know of any directive or resolution passed by the Security Council of the United Nations which is the agency to which you reported, other than the three that I have quoted? This was the General Assembly you were just quoting from.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I don't know of any other than those three, and this one, all of which came out of United Nations.

Q.—Well, just a short time ago, this afternoon, I believe, you stated what was the mission now of General Ridgway. You stated that for the hearing here. When was that determined as his mission? Was it determined by our Joint Chiefs of Staff? A.—That was determined by us as the military executive agents in carrying out the United Nations resolution.

Q.—When was that decision made as to a new mission? A.—The latest one I believe was given to him, a directive—that is the one that changed that was January the 12th.

Q.—Was that reported to the Security Council? A.—I assume so. I don't remember, but as executive agents, military executive agents for carrying out the military actions for the United Nations, we have written those directives and the President has approved each one of them because he was charged with appointment of the commander in the carrying on of the operations.

Q.—Well, acting as agent, as you were an executive agent for the United Nations, you certainly would make a report of an entire change of policy and mission, would you not? A.—I assume that that report was made, yes, I don't know.

Q.—You don't know? A.—We have representatives at the United Nations and I assume that they made it. I don't know, frankly, if they did or not.

MacArthur Relations To U. N. Discussed

Q.—Well, that brings me to this question. You stated also this afternoon—and I believe this is your exact language—in referring to the contribution that had been made of the various allies to the enterprise in Korea:

"I believe that in most cases our policies were acceptable to the United Nations."

Don't you know?

A.—As to what policies was I talking about?

Q.—The general policies on the conduct of the war. A.—I assume they are, because we have not been informed to the contrary.

Q.—But, General, acting as an agent for the United Nations in the conduct of this enterprise, and under a directive to report to them regularly as to what was done, don't you believe you ought to be in a position to more than assume that reports had been made, and that the policies were approved? A.—General MacArthur, as the Field Commander, was rendering reports regularly to the United Nations.

Q.—Through the Joint Chiefs of Staff? A.—Originally they came through the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and later on he was informed that as long as he reported only military operations that he could report those directly to the United Nations.

SENATOR GILLETTE—That is all, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Byrd?

SENATOR BYRD—Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

General, yesterday you made the statement that there was no insubordination with respect to any official act, relating to military matters, of General MacArthur.

GENERAL BRADLEY—That is correct. I stated I did not know of any direct violation of the directive that had been given to him or insubordination on his part so far as the military matters were concerned.

Q.—Do you regard his letter to the convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars as being insubordinate? A.—From a military point of view, I would not. As I stated once before, various statements made on policy, without being cleared by the Government, were contrary to custom in the services, and in my opinion, if allowed to continue on indefinitely would jeopardize the civilian control of the military.

Q.—Well, would the letter to Speaker Martin be in that same category? A.—I think it would be, yes.

Q.—Isn't the peace proposal that he made without the approval of the President a different category or not?

A.—It might be considered a slightly different category, except that it was sort of the same attitude of moving independently of the policy of our Government, and I think the bad part about the offer of an armistice and threatening certain other actions if they did not accept it, the bad part of that was that here our Government was negotiating with other Governments who had furnished troops to Korea, to agree on terms to be offered the Chinese, and then when he spoke up, it placed us in a position of speaking with two heads really, the Government in Washington proposing one thing, being ready to propose something, and then General MacArthur in the field as United Nations Commander proposing it himself in the field in a slightly different form, or at least jumping the gun on an agreement by the nations concerned. So, it was a sort of divided authority which was not too good an example to set for the first United Nations Commander we ever had in action.

Q.—Do you regard that act without the approval of the President as being an act of insubordination by General MacArthur? A.—I doubt if General MacArthur intended it to be an act of insubordination. I don't know what prompted him to do it, but I would doubt that he would really do it intentionally as an act of insubordination.

Q.—Well, was there any act on the part of General MacArthur, either military or not military, that you would regard as insubordinate?

A.—Well, I don't think you would say that they were insubordinate from a military point of view. Maybe by stretching it some you could say the fact that he failed to comply with custom, and failing to comply with a specific directive on Dec. 6, to submit policy statements to the Government for approval, I suppose you might stretch it to say that those were insubordination acts in that he did not comply with custom and the order of Dec. 6. But I doubt if that—I say if he thought of it in those terms at all.

Q.—As a commander in the field, do you believe that General MacArthur had the right to state publicly his conception of military strategy even though he knew that that differed from the views of the President?

A.—No, sir, I don't believe he did. I think he has a perfect right to express his difference of views in strategy to the Joint Chiefs of Staff and to the President, but I do not believe that any commander who is on active duty and commanding troops has any right to carry the difference to the people.

Q.—But, so far as you are now willing to say, there is no specific act of his that you would regard as insubordinate, that is to say, an act that would justify his dismissal or recall?

A.—No, sir; I am not saying that. When you talk about insubordination, deliberate insubordination, you are accusing a man of something for which he might be tried, for example.

But a man may do many things short of that for which you would be justified in relieving him from command. And in my opinion the President has authority to relieve any of us from our duties, our command, at any time he ses fit.

If he loses confidence in us or he thinks that somebody else can do better, or any other reason, I think he has that right.

I know during the last war we found it necessary to relieve many commanders, even division commanders, and it was not because they failed to do something. It was just a question usually that we lost confidence in them, they didn't do as well as somebody else could in the job. Sometimes they lost confidence in themselves.

I think you must recognize the right of a senior commander or the Commander in Chief to relieve someone in whom he has lost confidence or does not have full confidence in being able to carry out his orders and directives.

General Questioned On Timing of U. S. Action

Q.—I don't think anybody could question that because the President is the Commander in Chief. What act, in your judgment, was most responsible for General MacArthur's recall?

A.—Well, as I understand it, it was rather an accumulation, Senator Byrd, and the President has stated that he has been worried about it ever since last summer, according to his statement to the press the other day.

As far as I know, he did not announce any decision until recently, and I think the last one that came up was the statement that was made to the editor of Freeman Magazine, when he was queried as to why he did not arm more South Koreans, and he replied that that was a political decision; whereas, as a matter of fact, when he had been queried about it, he had recommended against it himself on the Joint Chiefs of Staff proposal.

I think the start of it last summer was on the V. F. W. letter and the last statement up to the time the decision was announced by the President, so far as I know, was when he blamed Washington for not arming more South Koreans.

Q.—Yesterday you said in answer to a question from Senator George that when we went into Korea on a resolution of the United Nations—is it a fact or not a fact that the President ordered that our troops begin the action in Korea before the adoption of the resolution in the United Nations? A.—I don't believe we committed anything before the first one, which was on the 25th. Of course, that did not call for armed force. Our first action was to try to get our own nationals out of Korea and then after that these other two resolutions that were read by Senator Gillette followed that first one.

Q.—What resolution did you refer to? "We went into Korea on the resolution of the United Nations." A.—That is right.

Q.—You mean you went into the war or went in only to get the nationals of our country out? A.—The first movement was to get our nationals out. When we went in in force was in consonance with the resolution of the United Nations.

Q.—Is it correct or not that our troops actually went in in combat prior to the passage, or rather, they were ordered into combat prior to the passage of the resolution of the United Nations? A.—I would have to check those dates, but I don't think we went into action—

Q.—It is a very vital question. A.—According to this compilation of certain published information on the military situation in the Far East, it says that on June 27 at 12 noon President Truman revealed that pursuant to the Security Council's call upon U. N. members to render every assistance to execution of the June 25 resolution, he had ordered U. S. air and sea units to give the Korean Government troops cover and support. So apparently that was in consonance with the resolution of the United Nations.

Q.—Did you get a directive from him? Who would get that? Where would that be sent? A.—He would tell——

Q.—To whom would he give the direction, General MacArthur or who? Was General MacArthur appointed at that time? A.—He was the U. S. commander in the Far East. He was not the United Nations commander until after the resolution, I believe, of July 7; but he was the United States commander before that.

Q.—Did you get a copy of the order that the President gave to whomever it was given as to when and what our troops were directed to get in the war? A.—I will see if I can find it here.

Q.—What was the date of the action by the United Nations? A.—The first one, I believe, was on June 25. Second on June 27. And the third one on July 7.

Q.—What was the one on June 25? What was the character of it? A.—That one was the one that called upon the North Koreans to cease their offensive action and get behind the Thirty-eighth Parallel.

Q.—That was not an order to put our units into the war? A.—On June 26 the instructions were furnished General MacArthur by the Joint Chiefs of Staff providing for the employment of U. S. naval and air forces against North Korean units south of the Thirty-eighth Parallel only.

Q.—When was the resolution authorizing that passed by the United Nations, what date and what hour? A.—The first one calling upon them to desist was on the 25th. The next one was on the 27th. The use of ground forces——

Q.—Wait a minute. What was the second one, the 27th? A.—On June 27 the United Nations Security Council called upon the members of the United Nations to furnish such assistance to the Republic of Korea as might be necessary to repel armed attack.

Q.—As a matter of fact, then, our forces went in the day before the resolution of the United Nations authorized them to? A.—The air units went in the day before, and the naval forces went in the day before to help evacuate our nationals.

Q.—Well, that does not say that, though, in here. I have a copy of it. "Instructions furnished C. I. N. C. F. E by the Joint Chiefs of Staff 26 June provided for the employment of United States Naval and Air Forces against North Korean units south of the Thirty-eighth Parallel." That does not say anything about evacuating our nationals. That means they got right in the war. A.—That is correct.

Action Called Necessary To Cover Evacuation

Q.—And they did it twelve hours before they were authorized to do it by the United Nations. A.—That was considered necessary to help cover the evacuation of our nationals.

Q.—That may be all right, but it does not agree with your statement of yesterday when you said we entered Korea on resolution of the United Nations. A.—We did when we went in in strength. I think I made it very clear at various times that we first went in to help evacuate our nationals, and then went in in strength after June 27. Before June 27 we had not committed any ground forces.

Q.—But you had committed naval and air forces against North Korean units. A.—Yes, sir, to help cover evacuation of our nationals.

Q.—The record does not say that. A.—This is just a very brief statement of what was in those various messages.

Q.—Well, the fact is, then, that you were actually in conflict with the North Korean units one day before the resolution was passed by the United Nations. A.—By air and naval yes. Probably the naval had not reached there yet, but the orders had been given.

Q.—Now, General, I want to ask you, during the balance of my time, a question about Russian troops in the Manchurian area. Can you give the committee an estimate of those troops?

* * * (Three pages and thirty-one lines deleted.)

Q.—* * * On eother question. What do you know about the mutual defense pact between Red China and the Soviet?

A.—Well, I have read the pact as announced. One paragraph has particular application and that was the one that stated that if any one allied with Japan or joined with Japan should attack either one of the forces, China or Russia, that the other one would come to her assistance. I have forgotten what numbered article that is in the treaty, but to me that is a rather important one when we are operating out of Japan, if we attacked Manchuria. I think they might very well interpret that as our working with Japan because we would be operating out of Japan against one of the two signatory powers, and therefore the other would be bound by that article to come to their assistance.

Q.—If we bomb China, do you believe Russia would then use that in order to carry out this pact, that they would then get into war? A.—I think China might very well call upon Russia to carry out her part of the treaty.

Q.—Would the letter of the pact be such that Russia should do it if she keep her treaty or not?

A.—Well, it would be subject to interpretation, of course. But I think that it might very well do that. I think I have the article right here.

Article I says:

"Both high contracting parties undertake jointly to take all the necessary measures at their disposal for the purpose of preventing a repetition of aggression and violation of peace on the part of Japan or any other state which should unite with Japan, directly or indirectly, in acts of aggression. In the event of one of the high contracting parties being attacked by Japan or states allied with it, and thus being involved in a state of war, the other high contracting party will immediately render military and other assistance with all the means at its disposal.

"The high contracting parties also declare their readiness in the spirit of sincere cooperation to participate in all international actions aimed at insuring peace and security throughout the world, and will do all in their power to achieve the speediest implementation of these tasks."

Q.—What is the date of that? A.—This is official release by the U. S. S. R. Information Bulletin with reference to treaty between Soviet Russia and Red China and dated Feb. 14, 1950.

Q.—I have one other question, General. You stated in your testimony of yesterday that for the first few days we did not know how good these North Koreans were. I have been very much puzzled as to why the North Koreans, who are exactly the same type of people as the South Koreans, fought with the Communists with much greater zeal and effectiveness than the South Koreans that fought with us. What is your explanation of that?

A.—Well, in the first place, they are not much better when they are man for man. They may be a little bit. They are better led than the South Koreans, I would say is the principal reason.

When we withdrew from South Korea with our occupation forces and formed the South Korean forces, we were dependent upon leaders who had very little military experience, people who lived in South Korea. On the other hand, the North Koreans drew on some of the Koreans who had lived in Manchuria for several years and who had fought with both the Chinese and with the Russians during World War II.

So that the North Koreans were able to furnish leaders with many years of experience. Some of the men, the Manchurian Koreans. If I make myself clear—there were about seventy thousand of the troops that were in Manchuria—and some of those people, according to Mr. Stalin, at one of these conferences, I believe he told General Marshall, some of them were fighting at Stalingrad with the Russians, so that they were able to furnish leaders with a great amount of combat experience.

The South Koreans were not with that experience, and I personally think that that accounts for a large part of the difference.

At the same time, the ruthless methods used by the Communists do get better temporary results, at least when you are on the advance, than our more humane treatment of troops.

They will shoot anybody who steps out of ranks, for example, and violates march discipline. They shoot any one who starts to the rear. That is quite an incentive under certain circumstances, and the Communists do not hesitate to apply those methods.

North Koreans Held Better Armed at Start

Q.—They are both about equally equipped?

A.—They are now, I think. They were better equipped than the South Koreans to start with, because we had only equipped the South Koreans for security purposes and not for offensive purposes.

Some people thought that we should not arm them that well, because at one time, I believe, they had some idea that they would start something if they were properly equipped, and so when we pulled out, we left them only defensive equipment, and equipment sufficient for maintaining internal security.

The North Koreans were much better armed than that when they started the action. They were equipp d for offensive action.

Q.—Have you any evidence of Russian officers who were in charge of the North Korean troops? A.—Yes. When we first started the action they had Russian advisers with the North Korean units, and they had them with division headquarters and down to regiments, and in some cases battalion; they had Russian advisers with the North Korean units.

Q.—We had Americans. A.—We had Americans with South Korean units.

Q.—After the war broke out, have you had any evidence that Russian soldiers or Russian officers were with the North Koreans? A.—No. So far as we know the Russian advisers all went home about Oct. 1.

Q.—Any Russian airmen? A.—We have not shot any down back of our lines.

Q.—But they have used Russian planes? A.—They have used Russian planes. The planes which are used mostly to combat our approaches to the Yalu area are so-called MIG 15's, which are fast jet Russian-built planes.

Q.—They furnished Russian tanks, too? A.—The tanks are Russian.

Q.—And rifles and artillery? A.—I think most of the artillery is. I think the rifles are more or less of a mixture of some American weapons that we had furnished the Chinese Nationalists, and which were captured; some Chinese-made ones; some Japanese-captured ones. So I think their small arms have been more or less of a conglomeration of various national weapons.

SENATOR BYRD—That is all, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Gentlemen, I think I shall recess the committee at this time. I do not want you to take that as a precedent, though, for other afternoon sessions, because I think we should proceed to undertake to pursue these hearings with the greatest vigor of which we are capable.

General Bradley, several Senators have indicated their desire to propound further questions to you and, therefore, we must request you to be back here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

SENATOR MORSE — May I make one brief comment on a procedural matter?

THE CHAIRMAN—Yes, sir.

SENATOR MORSE—I was absent this morning because I was attending a departmental conference on behalf of a problem affecting some of my constituency, and I was not here at the time the chair ruled on Senator Wiley's letter.

I want to say to the chair that had I been present, I would have shared the chairman's view that because of the terminology of the letter, which in my opinion reflects upon the committee, and unintentionally, I am sure, but nevertheless it has that effect, that I would have shared the chairman's view that a letter of that type should not be transmitted by this committee to the President of the United States.

THE CHAIRMAN—I might state that no member of the committee made any motion. I appreciate the Senator's making that statement, but no member made a motion.

SENATOR STENNIS — Mr. Chairman, has the chair considered having night sessions in order to hasten these matters along?

THE CHAIRMAN — Well, I would not desire to have night sessions without taking it up with the members of the committee, but I do think we should carry on later here in the future when we have afternoon sessions. Of course, I shall be happy to have night sessions, if it meets with the approval of the committee, but I would not call a night session without submitting it to the committee.

If there is no further matter to come to our attention, we will recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon, at 5:05 P. M. [E. D. T.], the committee recessed to reconvene at 10 A. M. Wednesday, May 23, 1951.)

NIGHT LEAD INDIA GRAIN(450)

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-SPEAKER SAM RAYBURN MADE ONE OF HIS RARE HOUSE SPEECHES TODAY TO URGE PASSAGE OF THE GRAIN-FOR-INDIA BILL, OPPOSING REP. COX (D-GA) WHO CALLED THE MEASURE "A CHEAT AND A SWINDLE." "IN THE FAR EAST WE NEED FRIENDS," THE SPEAKER SAID, "AND SOMETIMES I WONDER IF SOME GENTLEMEN HAVE FORGOTTEN WE NEED FRIENDS THE WORLD AROUND."

"IF WE REFUSE TO EVEN CONSIDER THIS BREAD FOR THE STARVING PEOPLE OF THAT GREAT NATION, I DOUBT IF WE'LL HAVE ANY FRIENDS IN INDIA IN THE NEXT GENERATION."

REP. RIBICOFF (R-CONN) A MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE AND A BACKER OF THE BILL, JOINED COX IN CRITICISM OF THE ATTITUDE TAKEN BY INDIAN OFFICIALS TOWARD THIS COUNTRY AND RUSSIA BUT TOLD THE HOUSE THAT DELAY ALREADY HAS "GREATLY UNDERCUT THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THIS LEGISLATION."

"THE SOVIETS HAVE AGAIN STOLEN A CHEAP VICTORY BY MAKING SHIPMENTS OF WHEAT FOR PAY WHILE LEGISLATIVE RED TAPE HAS ENSNARLED OUR GOOD INTENTIONS," RIBICOFF SAID.

THE EXCHANGE OPENED DEBATE ON THE CONTROVERSIAL PROPOSAL TO LEND INDIA $190,000,000(M) TO ACQUIRE 2,000,000(M) TONS OF GRAIN TO AVERT A THREATENED FAMINE. THE BILL HAS BEEN STYMIED FOR MORE THAN A MONTH BUT THE SENATE PASSED A SIMILAR MEASURE LAST WEEK.

A FINAL HOUSE VOTE IS EXPECTED ABOUT THURSDAY BUT THE FINAL FORM OF THE MEASURE IS IN DOUBT. AS ORIGINALLY PROPOSED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN THE WHOLE 2,000,000(M) TONS OF GRAIN WOULD HAVE BEEN A GIFT. IN ADDITION TO THE OUTRIGHT OPPONENTS THERE ARE HOUSE MEMBERS WHO WANT TIGHT REQUIREMENTS WRITTEN INTO THE MEASURE FOR REPAYMENT IN STRATEGIC MATERIALS.

COX, A LEADER OF THE REPUBLICAN-SOUTHERN DEMOCRATIC COALITION WHICH FREQUENTLY RULES THE HOUSE, CALLED FOR DEFEAT OF THE BILL AS A REBUKE TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON. HE ALSO QUESTIONED WHETHER INDIA IS "OUR FRIEND."

"BY PASSING THIS BILL YOU WILL BE GIVING A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN DEAN ACHESON," COX SAID.

HE TOLD THE HOUSE THE BILL IS THE OPENING WEDGE FOR ANOTHER HUGE "GIVE-AWAY PROGRAM THAT WILL CALL FOR AN ADDITIONAL $7 BILLION." HE ADDI

"GIVE-AWAY PROGRAM THAT WILL CALL FOR AN ADDITIONAL $7 BILLION." HE ADDI
THAT THERE IS NO REQUIREMENT THAT INDIA OBTAIN THE GRAIN FROM THE UNITED STATES AFTER RECEIVING THE LOAN.

"SHE CAN SPEND THE MONEY FOR ANY KIND OF FOOD SHE MAY WANT AND NEED NOT SPEND ONE DIME FOR FOOD OBTAINED FROM THE UNITED STATES," HE SAID.

HE CRITICIZED THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA FOR REFUSING TO ALLOW THE SHIPMENT TO THE UNITED STATES OF MONAZITE SAND, SOURCE OF ATOMIC MATERIALS, AND OTHER STRATEGIC ITEMS.

ACCUSING INDIA OF FOLLOWING "THE PROMOTINGS OF RUSSIA," THE GEORGIAN ADDED:

"IS INDIA OUR FRIEND?"

HE DESCRIBED THE PRESS OF INDIA AS "VIOLENTLY ANTI-AMERICAN," AND SAID OFFICIALS THERE HAVE "UNIFORMLY TAKEN RUSSIA'S SIDE WHENEVER CONTROVERSY BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES HAS ARISEN."

HE QUESTIONED WHETHER THE 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN ARE NEEDED OR WILL AVERT STARVATION.

RIBOCOFF SAID HE WAS NOT HAPPY AT THE ROLE THE LEADERS OF INDIA HAVE PLAYED WHILE THE LEGISLATION WAS PENDING BUT URGED THE HOUSE NOT TO "LOSE OUR HEADS WITH HOT RETALIZATION AND RETORT."

"FRANKLY," HE SAID, "NEHRU (INDIAN LEADER) HAS PLAYED FAST AND LOOSE AT THIS GAME. HIS PUBLIC PRAISE OF THIS SMALL RUSSIAN SHIPMENT, WHILE IGNORING OUR LARGE SHIPMENTS TO DATE, IS UNWORTHY OF HIM. THERE IS LITTLE QUESTION BUT THAT SOME INDIA LEADERS DISLIKE, DISTRUST AND FEAR THE UNITED STATES."

BUT, HE ADDED, NEHRU'S INFLUENCE IN INDIA IS "WANING AND HIS PARTY WILL HAVE ITS TROUBLES IN THE COMING ELECTION."

TODAY, RIBICOFF SAID, "WE SHOULD BE THINKING OF THE STARVING MILLIONS OF INDIA, INSTEAD OF NEHRU."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD UN-AMERICAN

BY BARNEY LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-ACTOR JOSE FERRER TODAY CONFESSED HIMSELF A "CARELESS" MAN WITH HIS NAME AROUND COMMUNIST-FRONT MOVEMENTS, BUT VEHMENTLY DENIED HE WAS EITHER A COMMUNIST OR A COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZER.

THE 39-YEAR-OLD PUERTO RICAN-BORN ACTOR TOLD THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE THAT MANY OF HIS PUBLICIZED ASSOCIATIONS WITH RED FRONTS WERE COMPLETELY UNAUTHORIZED, OR THE RESULT OF HIS POLITICAL "IGNORANCE."

IN MOST CASES, HE TOLD THE COMMITTEE, HE BECAME ASSOCIATED WITH ALLEGED SUBVERSIVE GROUPS "THROUGH PLAIN STUPID CARELESSNESS OR MISUSE OF MY NAME."

FERRER SAID HE NEVER PUBLICLY REPUDIATED SOME UNSOUGHT OFFICES IN VARIOUS FRONT GROUPS "BECAUSE I DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS BAD TO BE THAT."

THE ACTOR, WINNER OF THE LATEST MOVIE "OSCAR," TESTIFIED IN THE COMMITTEE'S INVESTIGATION OF COMMUNIST INFLUENCES IN HOLLYWOOD.

FERRER SPENT A FULL DAY IN THE WITNESS CHAIR BEFORE BEING EXCUSED TO CATCH A PLANE BACK TO NEW YORK IN TIME TO GO ON STAGE TONIGHT IN HIS CURRENT PLAY "TWENTIETH CENTURY."

HE WAS ORDERED TO RETURN FOR FURTHER QUESTIONING FRIDAY MORNING.

TOMORROW, THE COMMITTEE WILL HEAR BUDD SCHULBERG. BEST-SELLER AUTHOR OF "THE DISENCHANTED" AND THE EARLIER SUCCESS "WHAT MAKES SAMMY RUN."

SCHULBERG APPEARS AS A VOLUNTARY WITNESS AFTER BEING IDENTIFIED AS A ONE-TIME COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBER IN HOLLYWOOD BY A PREVIOUS WITNESS.

EXPLAINING HOS HE HAPPENED TO ALLOW HIS NAME TO BE USED AS A SPONSOR OF VARIOUS MOVEMENTS, FERRER SAID REPEATEDLY:

"IF I HAD KNOW IT WAS A COMMUNIST ACTIVITY, I WOULD NEVER HAVE AUTHORIZED USE OF MY NAME."

HE SAID HE WAS A SPONSOR OF THE MAY DAY PARADE IN NEW YORK IN 1946 WITHOUT KNOWING, UNTIL VERY RECENTLY, IT WAS A COMMUNIST OCCASION.

AND HE SAID HE SENT GREETINGS TO THE MOSCOW ART THEATER ON ITS ANNIVERSARY IN 1948 BECAUSE HE CONSIDERS IT THE "CRADLE OF SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MODERN THEATER."

AT ANOTHER POINT, FERRER SAID:

"I CAN ASSUME THE RESPONSIBILITY OF IGNORANCE, BUT I CANNOT ASSUME THE RESPONSIBILITY OF KNOWLEDGABLE GUILT," HE ASSERTED.

FERRER SAID HE SIGNED A STATEMENT URGING ABOLITION OF THE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE IN 1948 BECAUSE HE DIDN'T AGREE WITH THE WAY IT WAS BEING RUN THEN. BUT HE HASTENED TO SAY HE DID NOT FAVOR ITS ABOLITION NOW.

AS A SUGGESTION, HE RECOMMENDED OUTLAWING THE COMMUNIST PARTY AS AN AGENT OF A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT, AND URGED THE COMMITTEE TO MAKE ITS FILES AVAILABLE TO THEATRICAL PEOPLE LIKE HIMSELF "TO KEEP US OUT OF TROUBLE" WITH COMMUNIST FRONTS.

THE STAGE AND SCREEN STAR DECLARED EARNESTLY:

"I AM NOT NOW, NEVER HAVE BEEN, OR EVER COULD BE, A COMMUNIST. I'M NOT A SYMPATHIZER WITH ANY COMMUNIST CAUSE."

FERRER, WHO WON THIS YEAR'S ACADEMY AWARD FOR HIS MOVIE ROLE IN "CYRANO DE BERGERAC," SAID IT HAD BEEN MADE "DRAMATICALLY CLEAR" TO HIM THAT PERSONS MIGHT BE SUSPECTED OF COMMUNIST SYMPATHIES IF THEY APPEARED IN COMMUNIST FRONT ACTIVITIES.

"IT IS ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT FROM MY POINT OF VIEW THE WAY INNOCENT PEOPLE HAVE BEEN LURED INTO CAUSES WHICH THEY THINK ARE WORTHY," HE SAID.

FERRER HAD BEEN NAMED IN A RECENT COMMITTEE REPORT AS A SPONSOR OF THE 1949 SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE. THE COMMITTEE SAID IT WAS A COMMUNIST FRONT.

FERRER'S PRETTY WIFE, ACCOMPANIED BY PRODUCER RICHARD CONDON, LISTENED INTENTLY IN A FRONT ROW CHAIR IN THE COMMITTEE ROOM AS HER HUSBAND TESTIFIED.

CHAIRMAN GEORGE (D-GA) QUESTIONED FERRER AT LENGTH ABOUT THE USE OF HIS NAME IN SUPPORT OF THE ELECTION OF BENJAMIN DAVIS TO THE NEW YORK CITY COUNCIL IN 1944 AND 1945.

"DIDN'T YOU KNOW DAVIS WAS ELECTED ON THE COMMUNIST TICKET?" WOOD ASKED.

"NO, SIR, I DID NOT," FERRER REPLIED. "I LINKED HIM IN MY MIND AS BEING ENDORSED BY THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY."

FERRER SAID HE WAS UNAWARE THAT THE DEMOCRATIC ENDORSEMENT OF DAVIS WAS LATER WITHDRAWN.

HE SAID THE NEXT TIME HE HEARD ABOUT DAVIS WAS IN CONNECTION WITH THE TRIAL OF THE 11 TOP COMMUNIST PARTY LEADERS IN NEW YORK FOR CONSPIRACY.

ACHESON-WILEY

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) DENOUNCED AS A "DAMNED LIE" TODAY REPORTS THAT HE AND OTHER REPUBLICANS ARE OUT TO "GET" SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IN THE MACARTHUR INQUIRY.

WILEY'S OUTBURST CAME WHEN THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES MET TO CONTINUE HEARINGS ON THE OUSTER OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

WILEY TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES THERE HAD BEEN "INSPIRED NEWSPAPER REPORTS" THAT HE AND OTHER REPUBLICANS WERE CONNIVING ON "A STRATEGY OF GETTING SOME ADMINISTRATION WITNESS."

"I SAY THAT IS A DAMNED LIE," HE DECLARED.

ALTHOUGH WILEY DID NOT NAME ACHESON, THE REPORTS HAD BEEN CONNECTED WITH REPUBLICAN ATTACKS ON THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

AFTER DENOUNCING THE REPORT, WILEY SAID:

"I WOULD LIKE TO REITERATE THAT IT HAS BEEN MY INTENTION NEITHER IN THIS HEARING NOR ANY OTHER PROCEEDING IN THE TWELVE YEARS I HAVE BEEN IN THE SENATE TO GET ANYONE. I DO NOT BELIEVE IN ATTACKING PERSONALITIES. I DO NOT BELIEVE IN SMEARING INDIVIDUALS."

JUST BEFORE THIS, WILEY HAD AN EXCHANGE WITH CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE COMBINED COMMITTEES.

RUSSELL SAID HE WOULD NOT FORWARD TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN OR ANY OTHER ADMINISTRATION OFFICIAL A LETTER WILEY SENT TO HIM COMPLAINING THAT IF THE SENATE COMMITTEES DO NOT GET THE FACTS THE INQUIRY WILL BE A "WHITE WASH" AND A "WASHOUT."

RUSSELL SAID WILEY'S LETTER DID NOT "FALL WITHIN THE PROCEDURES WE HAVE OUTLINED" FOR GETTING INFORMATION FROM GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES.

WILEY TOLD RUSSELL THAT WAS OKAY WITH HIM.

MAY 23 1951

WILEY'S LETTER WAS A FOLLOW UP TO LAST WEEK'S 18 TO 8 COMMITTEE VOTE AGAINST DEMANDING THAT GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, TESTIFY TO MR.TRUMAN'S PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS WITH HIS ADVISERS ON THE QUESTION OF FIRING MACARTHUR. WILEY HAD INSISTED THAT BRADLEY SHOULD TESTIFY ABOUT THEM.

PROTESTING THE VOTE, WILEY SUGGESTED LAST WEEK END THAT THE COMMITTEES CONSIDER SUBPOENAING MR.TRUMAN TO ASK HIM ABOUT WHAT WENT ON AT THE APRIL 6 WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE.

IN TODAY'S EXCHANGE, WILEY DEMANDED IN A RHETORICAL WAY TO KNOW IF THE COMMITTEE HAS FOUND OUT WHY MACARTHUR WAS FIRED. SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) SAID IT HAD.

THIS BROUGHT FROM WILEY A RETORT TO THE EFFECT THAT SOME COMMITTEE MEMBERS HAD BECOME "ADVOCATES INSTEAD OF INVESTIGATORS."

"IN THIS COMMITTEE YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO INVESTIGATE," HE SAID. "YOU ARE NOT SUPPOSED TO ARRIVE AT YOUR CONCLUSIONS AFTER ONE WITNESS HAS TOLD YOU CONCLUSIONS."

HE SAID IF THE LATE SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) STILL WERE A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE "HE WOULD GET UP ON HIS FEET LIKE I THINK I HAVE AND STAND FOR PRINCIPLE."

WILEY SUCCEEDED VANDENBERG AS THE TOP-RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX) TOOK EXCEPTION TO WHAT HE SAID WAS WILEY'S ATTEMPT TO PIN "WHITE WASH" CHARGES ON THE COMMITTEE DEMOCRATS.

JOHNSON SAID HE HAD BEEN VOTING JUST LIKE SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS), WHO SAT BESIDE HIM, AND IF HE, JOHNSON, WERE TO BE CHARGED WITH "WHITE WASH," SALTONSTALL SHOULD, TOO.

RUSSELL SAID HE THOUGHT WILEY'S CHARGES INVOLVED "A RATHER SERIOUS REFLECTION UPON THE INTEGRITY AND MOTIVES OF A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THIS COMMITTEE."

WASHINGTON,MAY 22-(AP)-A CONTRIBUTION FOR A FUND TO PAY THE SALARY OF SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IF CONGRESS CUTS IT OFF WAS RETURNED TODAY BY THE TREASURY OFFICIAL TO WHOM IT WAS SENT.

A $1 TELEGRAPHED MONEY ORDER WAS SENT TO ASSISTANT REGISTER (CQ) HARLAN T.THOMPSON BY CHARLES H.HUBBELL, OF CLEVELAND,O. HUBBELL SAID THERE WOULD BE OTHER "UNITY DOLLAR" CONTRIBUTIONS FROM OHIO AND THE OTHER 47 STATES TOWARD THE PROPOSED FUND.

SOME REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN HAVE INSTITUTED A MOVE TO FORBID USE OF STATE DEPARTMENT APPROPRIATIONS TO PAY ACHESON.

HUBBELL ASKED THOMPSON "AS AN INDIVIDUAL, NOT AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL" TO ADMINISTER THE FUND "IN YOUR ROLE AND ABSOLUTE DISCRETION TO PAY THE SALARY OF DEAN ACHESON AND OTHER EXPENSES OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT WHICH XXX THE OPPOSITION IN CONGRESS NOW THREATEN TO CUT OFF."

THOMPSON TELEGRAPHED HUBBELL THAT "IT IS AND WOULD BE ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE FOR ME TO ACT IN THE CAPACITY YOU SUGGEST REGARDLESS OF THE MERITS OR DEMERITS OF THE PROGRAM."

IN A FOLLOW-UP LETTER, THOMPSON ASKED THAT HUBBELL "PLEASE AT ONCE DESIST AND REFRAIN FROM USING MY NAME IN THIS CONNECTION" BECAUSE "THE RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES OF MY OFFICE PRECLUDE THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE ASSIGNMENT" AND BECAUSE HIS OFF-DUTY TIME IS TAKEN UP BY CIVIL DEFENSE ACTIVITIES.

HUBBEL HAS A CLERICAL JOB IN THE OFFICE AT THE CLEVELAND PUBLIC AUDITORIUM. IN THE PAST, HE HAS BEEN AN UNSUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE FOR SUCH PUBLIC OFFICES AS SHERIFF, MAYOR AND JUDGE.

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION IS EXPECTED TO ASK CONGRESS SHORTLY TO PERMIT DIRECT USE OF MARSHALL PLAN "COUNTERPART FUNDS" ON REARMAMENT IN WESTERN EUROPE.

FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS, THESE FUNDS HAVE BEEN SPENT ONLY TO COMBAT INFLATION AND PROMOTE ECONOMIC RECOVERY IN THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES.

LIFTING THE PRESENT RESTRICTIONS WOULD MAKE AVAILABLE A POOL OF MORE THAN ONE BILLION DOLLARS IN LOCAL CURRENCIES WHICH COULD BE SPENT TO HASTEN OUTPUT OF WEAPONS.

COUNTERPART FUNDS ARE SET UP BY MARSHALL PLAN GOVERNMENTS WHICH GET AID FROM THE UNITED STATES. THEY MUST SET ASIDE THE EQUIVALENT OF A DOLLAR IN THEIR LOCAL CURRENCY FOR EACH DOLLAR OF AMERICAN AID THEY RECEIVE UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN.

THIS POOL OF CURRENCIES CAN BE SPENT AFTER APPROVAL BY THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY NOMINATED LT. GEN. JAMES ALWARD VAN FLEET FOR APPOINTMENT AS COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE 8TH ARMY IN KOREA AND AS LIEUTENANT GENERAL IN THE ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES.

THE PRESIDENT ALSO NOMINATED LT. GEN.EDWARD HALE BROOKS FOR APPOINTMENT AS COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE SECOND ARMY;

MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM MORRIS HOGE FOR APPOINTMENT AS CORPS COMMANDER WITH THE RANK AS LIEUTENANT GENERAL;

MAJ.GEN.DOYLE OVERLTON HICKEY FOR APPOINTMENT AS CHIEF OF STAFF, FAR EAST COMMAND. WITH THE RANK OF LIEUTENANT GENERAL.

VAN FLEET, UNDER THE NEW NOMINATION, REALLY WOULD HOLD WHAT AMOUNTS TO TWO LIEUTENANT GENERALS RANKS, BOTH OF THEM TEMPORARY.

ONE IS THE RANK THAT GOES WITH HIS JOB AS EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER. THE OTHER IS SOMEWHAT OF AN "AT LARGE" APPOINTMENT, SO THAT IF HE SHOULD BE TRANSFERRED TO ANOTHER ASSIGNMENT REQUIRING A LIEUTENANT GENERAL'S RANK IT WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY TO GO THROUGH THE SAME NOMINATION AND SENATE CONFIRMATION PROCEDURE AGAIN.

HIS PERMANENT RANK IS MAJOR GENERAL,U.S.ARMY.

FIRST LEAD RUSK SPEECH (170)

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID TODAY "IT IS HIGH TIME OUR STATE DEPARTMENT DECIDES TO SAY WHAT IT MEANS AND MEAN WHAT IT SAYS."

BRIDGES CITED A CHINA POLICY SPEECH LAST FRIDAY BY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK AND WHAT BRIDGES CALLED A FOLLOW-UP EXPLANATION BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT. BRIDGES SAID IT IS "AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE OF WHY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE CANNOT UNDERSTAND OUR FOREIGN POLICY."

"APPARENTLY EVEN THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATES DOES NOT UNDERSTAND IT," BRIDGES SAID IN A STATEMENT. HE ADDED:

"ACCORDING TO THE 'EXPLANATION', DEAN RUSK FAILED TO CLEAR HIS SPEECH IN ADVANCE OF DELIVERY. THIS HAS BEEN GIVEN AS ONE OF THE REASONS WHY GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS DISMISSED. IT WILL BE INTERESTING TO NOTE WHETHER OR NOT THIS NEW DEVIATION FROM THE TRUMAN-ACHESON GOSPEL WILL BE PUNISHED BY A SUMMARY DISMISSAL."

MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS ABOUT THE BRIDGES STATEMENT THE DEPARTMENT HAD MADE NO EXPLANATION TO THE EFFECT RUSK HAD NOT CLEARED HIS SPEECH.

MCDERMOTT DID SAY YESTERDAY THE DEPARTMENT HAS NOT CHANGED ITS CHINA POLICY TO JIBE MORE CLOSELY WITH THAT ADVOCATED BY GENERAL MACARTHUR.

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE RECEIVED FINAL APPROVAL TODAY TO TRANSFER ITS BASE FOR A PROPOSED JET FIGHTER SQUADRON FROM ERIE, PA., TO YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO.

THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE APPROVED THE TRANSFER 21 TO 3.

REP.GAVIN (R-PA) TRIED TO PREVENT A FINAL VOTE BY SUGGESTING THAT A SUBCOMMITTEE BE APPOINTED TO INSPECT AIRPORTS AT ERIE, YOUNGSTOWN AND PITTSBURGH.

THE FULL COMMITTEE, HE SAID, COULD VOTE MORE INTELLIGENTLY IF IT HAD A SUBCOMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION TO STUDY.

GAVIN'S SUGGESTION WAS TURNED DOWN, AND THE COMMITTEE VOTED ITS APPROVAL. VOTING WITH GAVIN AGAINST THE TRANSFER WERE REPS. VAN ZANDT (R-PA) AND DEGRAFFENRIED (SMALL D, CAPITAL G) (D-ALA).

THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE VOTED ITS APPROVAL PREV-897')6. NO FURTHER ACTION IS REQUIRED. A TRANSFER OF SUCH OPERATIONS DOES NOT REQUIRE A VOTE OF THE HOUSE OR SENATE.

THE AIR FORCE SAID IN A LETTER TO CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE THAT ITS ORIGINAL CHOICE FOR THE JET FIGHTER SQUADRON WAS CLEVELAND MUNICIPAL AIRPORT.

HOWEVER, IT SAID, GENERAL MOTORS NEEDED THAT AIRPORT FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF ARMY TANKS.

IT SAID ERIE MUNICIPAL AIRPORT WAS CHOSEN AS AN ALTERNATE SITE, ALTHOUGH A COMPLETE SURVEY WAS NOT MADE AT THAT TIME.

A DETAILED SURVEY MADE LATER DISCLOSED THAT "THE ERIE AIRPORT IS LOCATED IN A BUILT UP, INHABITED AREA," THE LETTER SAID, AND ADDED:

"IN ADDITION TO THE DISRUPTION OF COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY, IT IS ESTIMATED THAT THE COST OF RELOCATION OF RAILROADS, HIGHWAYS, ETC. WOULD BE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF $5,000,000(M) BRINGING THE TOTAL REQUIRED TO ABOVE $9,500,000(M).

"THE REQUIREMENT FOR OVERRUN AND CLEARANCE AREAS FOR JET AIRCRAFT WOULD ENTAIL A FURTHER COST. CONSIDERATIONS OF DIFFICULTY OF OPERATION AND ECONOMY, THEREFORE, PRECLUDE THE USE OF ERIE FOR THE PURPOSE PROPOSED."

THE AIR FORCE SAID YOUNGSTOWN MUNICIPAL AIRPORT WAS FOUND TO MEET "ALL REQUIREMENTS AND IS MORE ECONOMICAL TO DEVELOP."

"THIS SITE," IT SAID, "HAS BEEN THOROUGHLY INVESTIGATED AND PROVIDES A READILY EXPANSIBLE AIRPORT WITH A TOTAL ESTIMATED COST OF APPROXIMATELY $6,000,000(M)."

(250) NIGHT LEAD TAXES

WASHINGTON,MAY 22-(AP)-SENATE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS STARTED A DRIVE TODAY FOR A SUMMER RECESS OF CONGRESS WHICH WOULD DEFER UNTIL AUTUMN FINAL ACTION ON A PROPOSED HUGE INCREASE IN TAXES.

SENATOR MCFARLAND (D-ARIZ), CHAIRMAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC POLICY COMMITTEE, SAID DECISION ON SUCH A MOVE WOULD BE LEFT, HOWEVER, TO THE TAX-WRITING SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

HE HAD IN MIND, HE SAID, A RECESS FROM ABOUT AUGUST 1 TO SOMETIME EARLY IN OCTOBER, WITH THE IDEA OF COMPLETING ACTION ON THE MEASURE BEFORE THE FIRST OF THE YEAR. HE MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT AFTER A CLOSED-DOOR MEETING WITH THE POLICY COMMITTEE.

THE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE, WITH WHICH TAX BILLS MUST ORIGINATE, IS WORKING ON A MEASURE WHICH WOULD BOOST TAXES BETWEEN $6,000,000,000 AND $7,000,000,000 A YEAR, IN CONTRAST TO A $10,000,000,-000 INCREASE REQUESTED BY THE ADMINISTRATION. THE HOUSE COMMITTEE IS WORKING TOWARD AN INCREASE IN PERSONAL INCOME TAXES EFFECTIVE AS OF SEPTEMBER 1, AND A RETROACTIVE INCREASE IN CORPORATION TAX RATES.

SENATOR WHERRY (R-NEB), THE REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER, PROMPTLY TOSSED COLD WATER AT THE IDEA OF DELAYING THE TAX BILL.

"IF WE'VE GOT THE EMERGENCY ON OUR HANDS THAT WE THINK WE HAVE," HE TOLD A REPORTER, "THEN WE'D BETTER GET THAT TAX BILL PASSED BEFORE WE WORRY ABOUT A RECESS. ACTUALLY THERE'S NO REASON WHY WE SHOULDN'T GET ALL THE IMPORTANT BILLS, INCLUDING TAXES, PASSED BY AUGUST 1, IF WE BUCKLE TO IT."

WHETHER A SUMMER RECESS WOULD AFFECT THE EFFECTIVE DATES OF THE TAXES WAS NOT CLEAR.

MCFARLAND EMPHASIZED THE RECESS PLAN WOULD HAVE TO BE CONTINGENT ON WINDING UP WORK ON ALL PENDING DEFENSE LEGISLATION.

MCFARLAND SAID HE STILL HOPES CONGRESS CAN COMPLETE ACTION ON A BILL DESIGNED TO EXTEND AND BROADEN HOME FRONT CONTROL POWERS BEFORE THE OLD LAW EXPIRES JUNE 30.

(400) NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS (ROUNDUP)

BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,MAY 22-(AP)-NEW BLASTS AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION'S MULTIPLE CONTROLS PROGRAM ECHOED AGAINST DEMANDS FOR EVEN STIFFER CURBS OVER PRICES, WAGES AND RENTS TODAY.

REP. HAROLD COOLEY (D-NC), CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE, DECLARED THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION'S BEEF PRICE ORDERS "WILL RESULT IN A BLACK MARKET."

HE SAID THE ORDERS, REDUCING PRICES TO CONSUMERS TEN CENTS A POUND BY OCTOBER, WILL NOT SAVE THE HOUSEWIFE ANYTHING. A SHORTAGE OF BEEF WILL FORCE CONSUMERS TO PAY HIGHER PRICES IN UNDER-THE-COUNTER DEALS, COOLEY CONTENDED.

HE WASINTERVIEWED OVER A RADIO NETWORK (CBS' CAPITAL CLOAKROOM).

WESTERN CATTLE RAISERS, ANGERED BY THE RECENT ROLLBACK ON BEEF PRICES, PREDICTED MEAT SHORTAGES AND A REVIVAL OF WORLD WAR II BLACK MARKETS, WITH RATIONING BY NEXT SPRING.

HOME BUILDERS FORECAST A SERIOUS HOUSING SHORTAGE AND A "DEPRESSION" WITHIN A YEAR. THEY CONTENDED THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD SOFTEN OR SCRAP ITS PRESENT RESTRICTIONS ON BUILDING.

WITH THE BATTLE OVER FEDERAL CONTROLS IN FULL SWING, THESE WERE THE MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS:

1. ERIC JOHNSTON, ECONOMIC STABILIZATION CHIEF, TOLD SENATORS THAT IF CONGRESS APPROVES THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR STRONGER CONTROLS, THE GOVERNMENT WILL HOLD DOWN WAGE BOOSTS TO LESS THAN 10 PER CENT A YEAR.

WAGES ARE NOW MORE OR LESS "FROZEN" TO 10 PER CENT ABOVE THE LEVELS OF JAN.15, 1950.

JOHNSTON MADE THE COMMENT WHEN SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO), SITTING IN AT A SENATE LABOR SUBCOMMITTEE HEARING, SAID HE THOUGHT JOHNSTON AND THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD WOULD BE "DOING A GOOD JOB IF THEY KEEP WAGE ADVANCES TO 10 PER CENT A YEAR."

JOHNSTON REPLIED HE COULD DO BETTER THAN THAT "IF YOU GIVE US THE CONTROLS WE NEED."

2. EVEN AS JOHNSTON SPOKE, AN OFFICIAL OF THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD DISCLOSED THAT A NEW FORMULA ALLOWING HIGHER WAGE BOOSTS IS IN THE WORKS.

HARRY WEISS, THE BOARD'S ACTING EXECUTIVE OFFICER, TOLD THE NATIONAL RETAIL DRY GOODS ASSOCIATION THAT THE FEDERAL AGENCY CAN BE EXPECTED TO SET HIGHER CEILINGS WITHIN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS.

UNION LEADERS ARE REPORTED ASKING AT LEAST A FIVE PER CENT INCREASE OVER THE PRESENT 10 PER CENT CEILING.

3. VINCENT P.AHEARN, FORMER MEMBER OF THE WORLD WAR II WAGE BOARD, NOW IN PRIVATE BUSINESS, TOLD THE ASSOCIATION THAT WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS SHOULD BE ABANDONED COMPLETELY.

AHEARN URGED OTHER ECONOMIC CONTROLS SUCH AS TIGHTENED CREDIT AND HEAVIER TAXES TO COMBAT INFLATION.

4. WESTERN CATTLEMEN, STILL BEATING THE DRUMS AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT'S CRACKDOWN ON BEEF PRICES, TALKED OF BLACK MARKETS AND RATIONING AS INEVITABLE UNLESS THE ROLLBACK ORDER IS RESCINDED.

HOUSE AND SENATE COMMITTEES ARE NOW CONDUCTING THE FINAL PHASES OF HEARINGS ON THE BEEF ORDER. THE HEARINGS ARE BEING HELD IN CONNECTION WITH THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT--THE BACKBONE OF THE WHOLE CONTROLS SETUP--WHICH EXPIRES JUNE 30.

RAY WILLOUGHBY OF SAN ANGELO,TEXAS, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT GOVERNMENT CEILINGS ON LIVESTOCK ARE BOUND TO CAUSE BLACK MARKETING.

"IT WOULD BE MY GUESS THAT NEXT SPRING IS WHEN THE HOUSEWIFE WILL FEET THE REAL PINCH AND RATIONING WILL RESULT," WILLOUGHBY SAID.

HOUSING

WASHINGTON,MAY 22-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY ASKED CONGRESS TO REMOVE WHAT HE CALLED A "CRIPPLING LIMITATION" ON THE PUBLIC HOUSING PROGRAM IN AN APPROPRIATION BILL.

THE PRESIDENT PROTESTED AN "ARBITRARY LIMIT OF 5,000 PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS WHICH CAN BE STARTED IN THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR AND AN EQUALLY ARBITRARY LIMIT OF 50,000 UNITS FOR EACH YEAR THEREAFTER" WRITTEN INTO THE SUPPLY BILL FOR VARIOUS GOVERNMENT INDEPENDENT OFFICES. THE BILL HAS PASSED THE HOUSE AND AWAITS SENATE ACTION.

"TO ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES THIS MEANS REPEALING THE PUBLIC HOUSING PROVISIONS OF THE HOUSING ACT OF 1949," THE PRESIDENT SAID IN A LETTER TO SENATOR MAYBANK (D-SC).

(280) PETROLEUM

BY JOHN A. SCALI

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES MAY PROPOSE THAT THE 12 ATLANTIC PACT COUNTRIES CREATE A PETROLEUM PLANNING BOARD TO MOBILIZE THE FREE WORLD'S OIL RESOURCES IN EVENT OF WAR.

SUCH A BOARD WOULD TRY TO MAKE CERTAIN THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT ARMIES, NAVIES, AND AIR FORCES HAD QUICK ACCESS TO ENOUGH OIL TO FIGHT A WAR IN ANY AREA.

INFORMED OFFICIALS TOLD A REPORTER PLANS FOR ESTABLISHING THE PETROLEUM BOARD NOW ARE BEING DISCUSSED BY THE STATE AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENTS AND OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCIES.

THE MOVE TOWARD ADVANCE PLANNING IN THE OIL FIELD COMES AT A TIME WHEN IRAN IS DEMANDING NATIONALIZATION OF THE RICH ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO. IT ALSO COINCIDES WITH UNREST AND INCREASED PRESSURE BY MIDDLE EASTERN GOVERNMENTS WHERE WESTERN NATIONS HAVE IMPORTANT OIL CONCESSIONS.

THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO. AND THE ARABIAN-AMERICAN OIL CO. IN SAUDI ARABIA ARE THE MAJOR SOURCES OF OIL FOR THE BRITISH NAVY, WESTERN EUROPE AND MUCH OF THE FREE WORLD.

UNDER PLANS NOW BEING DISCUSSED, AMERICAN OFFICIALS WOULD CREATE A BOARD OF AT LEAST FIVE COUNTRIES TO HANDLE THE JOB. THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, AND FRANCE WOULD BE THREE OF THE MEMBERS AND THE OTHER TWO WOULD BE SELECTED FROM THE REMAINING NINE COUNTRIES IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY.

THE BOARD WOULD BE A FULL-FLEDGED AGENCY OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT COUNCIL. THE ONLY SUBSIDIARY BOARDS NOW OPERATING UNDER ITS JURISDICTION ARE THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION BOARD AND THE FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC BOARD. COMPLETE PLANS ON HOW TO SPONSOR SUCH A MOVE HAVE NOT YET BEEN WORKED OUT. SOME OFFICIALS ARE REPORTED OPPOSED TO THE IDEA.

THESE OFFICIALS FEEL THE ATLANTIC PACT COUNTRIES SHOULD CONCENTRATE FIRST ON DAY TO DAY PROBLEMS INVOLVED IN BOOSTING MILITARY PRODUCTION RATHER THAN SPEND TOO MUCH TIME PLANNING FOR POSSIBLE FUTURE EMERGENCIES.

(530) SUPREME COURT

BY PAUL M. YOST

WASHINGTON, MAY 22-(AP)-A MERCHANT WHO WANTS TO CUT PRICES HAS THE BACKING OF THE SUPREME COURT UNLESS HE HAS SIGNED AN AGREEMENT NOT TO SELL AT CUT RATES.

DEALERS CANNOT BE COMPELLED TO RESPECT PRICE MINIMUMS SET UNDER STATE FAIR TRADE LAWS IF THEY HAVE NOT VOLUNTARILY AGREED TO DO SO, THE HIGHEST TRIBUNAL DECIDED YESTERDAY.

LAWYERS WHO ASKED THE COURT TO GIVE SUCH A DECISION SAID MILLIONS OF BUYERS IN THE 45 STATES WITH FAIR TRADE LAWS WOULD BE SAVED LARGE SUMS BY BEING PERMITTED TO BUY "IN A FREE COMPETITIVE MARKET."

THE EFFECT OF THE DECISION, THEY SAID, IS TO CRIPPLE OR KILL THE STATE FAIR TRADE LAWS. SUCH LAWS PERMIT THE FIXING OF MINIMUM RETAIL PRICES BY AGREEMENTS BETWEEN MANUFACTURERS AND MERCHANTS. VERMONT, TEXAS, MISSOURI AND THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA HAVE NO FAIR TRADE LAWS.

THE 45 STATE FAIR TRADE LAWS SAY THAT MINIMUMS FIXED BY SUCH AGREEMENTS APPLY TO ALL RETAILERS IN THE STATES -- EVEN THOSE WHO WOULD NOT SIGN.

THE COURT'S OPINION, BY JUSTICE DOUGLAS, SAID NON-SIGNING MERCHANTS CAN'T BE "DRAGGED IN BY THE HEELS AND COMPELLED TO SUBMIT TO PRICE FIXING." DISTRIBUTORS WHO WANT TO HOLD UP PRICES, DOUGLAS ADDED, CANNOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO USE BOTH AN AGREEMENT AND A "CLUB" TO FORCE NON-SIGNERS INTO LINE.

CONGRESS IN 1937 ADOPTED THE MILLER-TYDINGS ACT, AN AMENDMENT TO THE SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW, WHICH PERMITS STATES TO ADOPT FAIR TRADE LAWS.

DOUGLAS IN HIS OPINION DECLARED THE MILLER-TYDINGS ACT SANCTIONS ONLY CONTRACTS OR AGREEMENTS.

"IF A DISTRIBUTOR AND ONE OR MORE RETAILERS WANT TO AGREE, COMBINE, OR CONSPIRE TO FIX A MINIMUM PRICE, THEY CAN DO SO IF STATE LAW PERMITS," HE SAID.

"WHEN THEY SEEK, HOWEVER, TO IMPOSE PRICE FIXING ON PERSONS WHO HAVE NOT CONTRACTED OR AGREED TO THE SCHEME, THE SITUATION IS VASTLY DIFFERENT. THAT IS NOT PRICE FIXING BY CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT; THAT IS PRICE FIXING BY COMPULSION...RESORT TO COERCION."

B52WX
THE COURT'S VOTE WAS 6-3, WITH JUSTICES FRANKFURTER, BLACK AND BURTON DISSENTING.
THE REASONING OF THOSE WHO SAID THE DECISION WOULD CRIPPLE OR KILL STATE FAIR TRADE LAWS WAS THIS: IF THE NON-SIGNER CUTS PRICES, HIS COMPETITOR WILL LOSE BUSINESS AND WILL NOT WANT TO SIGN UP AGAIN. IF THE MANUFACTURER SEEKS TO ENFORCE PRICE MINIMUMS BY CUTTING OFF SUPPLIES TO THE NON-SIGNER, HE WILL RUN INTO TROUBLE AS A VIOLATOR OF THE SHERMAN ACT'S BAN ON RESTRAINT OF TRADE.
THE VALIDITY OF THE AGREEMENTS THEMSELVES WAS NOT CONTESTED IN THE CASE DECIDED YESTERDAY, ONLY THEIR EFFECT ON NON-SIGNERS.
ATTORNEYS WHO ASKED THE COURT TO RULE IN FAVOR OF THE DISTILLERS SAID THE TRIBUNAL OTHERWISE WOULD OPEN THE WAY TO MONOPOLIES AND THE FREEZING OUT OF SMALL MERCHANTS THROUGH CUT-THROAT COMPETITION.
THE DECISION UPHELD THE SCHWEGMANN BROTHERS, NEW ORLEANS OPERATORS OF A SUPER-MARKET. THEY SOLD CALVERT AND SEAGRAM WHISKIES AT $3.35 AND $3.51 A FIFTH WHEN THE LOUISIANA FAIR TRADE MINIMUM RETAIL PRICE WAS $4.24. THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT IN NEW ORLEANS, ON A REQUEST BY THE DISTILLERS, ORDERED THE SCHWEGMANNS TO CEASE PRICE SLASHING. THIS ORDER WAS THROWN OUT BY THE SUPREME COURT'S DECISION.
EARLIER THIS YEAR THE HIGH COURT RULED IN ANOTHER CASE THAT CALVERT AND SEAGRAM IMPROPERLY TRIED TO FIX MAXIMUM PRICES FOR AN INDIANAPOLIS WHOLESALER.
IN ANOTHER OPINION THE COURT RULED 8 TO 1 THAT INVESTIGATING LEGISLATORS WHO STICK TO PROPER FIELDS HAVE IMMUNITY FROM CIVIL RIGHTS SUITS.
THE COURT SAID LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEES MUST NOT BE DETERRED FROM "THE UNINHIBITED DISCHARGE OF THEIR LEGISLATIVE DUTY."
DISSENTING, JUSTICE DOUGLAS SAID THE MAJORITY GAVE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES A FREE REIGN TO INFRINGE UPON CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS.
THE QUESTION AROSE IN CALIFORNIA WHERE WILLIAM PATRICK BRANDHOVE SUED THE CALIFORNIA SENATE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES FOR $250,000. HE CHARGED THE COMMITTEE CALLED HIM IN FOR QUESTIONING TO TRY TO SUPRESS HIS FREE SPEECH. BRANDHOVE HAD BEEN OPPOSING FURTHER APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE COMMITTEE.
A FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT IN CALIFORNIA RULED THE LEGISLATORS WERE IMMUNE FROM SUCH SUITS. A COURT OF APPEALS REVERSED THAT DECISION AND SAID BRANDHOVE HAD THE RIGHT TO SUE. THE SUPREME COURT AGREED WITH THE DISTRICT COURT.

CHICAGO,MAY 22-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT PROGRAM TO CUT THE HOUSEWIFE'S BEEF BILL HASN'T CAUGHT UP YET WITH THE LIVE ANIMALS.
RECEIPTS OF CATTLE AT THE NATION'S STOCKYARDS RETURNED TO AVERAGE, AFTER A SLUMP YESTERDAY, BUT PRICES STILL ARE ABOVE GOVERNMENT CEILING AVERAGES THAT ARE BECOMING EFFECTIVE ON A STAGGERED BASIS.
PRIME STEERS BROUGHT A TOP OF $39.75 A HUNDRED POUNDS AT THE CHICAGO STOCKYARDS TODAY. THEY AVERAGED $38.41 LAST WEEK. THE MAXIMUM CHICAGO PACKERS CAN PAY UNDER GOVERNMENT CEILINGS IS AN AVERAGE OF $37 FOR DRESSED GRADES YIELDING 62 PERCENT--A 10 PER CENT CUT FROM APRIL (CQ) LEVELS.
HOWEVER, PRICES STILL ARE BELOW APRIL 26--THE LAST BUSY DAY AT THE STOCKYARDS BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED ITS PRICE ROLLBACK PROGRAM. ON THAT DAY PRIME BROUGHT $42.50, CHOICE $39.75 AND GOOD $36.25.
THE GOVERNMENT CEILINGS AT CHICAGO MUST AVERAGE NO HIGHER THAN $34.20 FOR CHOICE AND $31.50 FOR GOOD.
THE CEILING PRICES AFFECTING PACKERS ARE FOR ACCOUNTING PERIODS STARTING AFTER MAY 20. MOST CHICAGO PACKERS DO NOT START NEW ACCOUNTING PERIODS UNTIL JUNE 1, HOWEVER, AND ARE NOT DIRECTLY AFFECTED BY PRICE CONTROLS YET.

THE PRICE ROLLBACK IS DESIGNED TO CUT THE RETAIL CEILINGS ON BEEF EIGHT TO 10 CENTS A POUND AFTER OCT. 1.

RECEIPTS WERE 38,700 AT THE NATION'S 12 PRINCIPAL MARKETS TODAY COMPARED WITH 30,600 A WEEK AGO AND 38,300 A YEAR AGO. RECEIPTS WERE 41,000 AT THE SAME MARKETS YESTERDAY. HOWEVER, THIS WAS FAR BELOW THE PRECEDING MONDAY. RECEIPTS GENERALLY RUN MUCH HEAVIER ON MONDAY THAN ON TUESDAY.

CATTLE PRICES WERE GENERALLY STEADY OR A LITTLE HIGHER IN ALL MAJOR MARKETS TODAY.

CHICAGO, MAY 22-(AP)-AMERICA SHOULD FIGHT FOR CORRECTION OF CONDITIONS THAT BREED COMMUNISM, SAYS JUSTICE WILLIAM O. DOUGLAS.

"THE FACT IS," THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE SAID, "THAT AMERICA HAS BEEN SO ENGROSSED IN PROVIDING A DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM THAT WE HAVE LOST THE INITIATIVE. OUR GREAT WEAKNESS HAS BEEN OUR NEGATIVE ATTITUDE. XXX

"YET NO MATTER HOW FEVERISH OUR EFFORTS, THE RED TIDE OF COMMUNISM SEEMS TO SPREAD ABROAD. SO WE RUSH TO THE SUPPORT OF EVERY GROUP WHICH OPPOSES SOVIET COMMUNISM. THAT PUTS US IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CORRUPT AND REACTIONARY GROUPS WHOSE POLICIES BREED THE DISCONTENT ON WHICH SOVIET COMMUNISM FEEDS AND PROSPERS."

DOUGLAS WHO HAS MADE TWO TRIPS TO ASIA, SAID THE PEOPLE OF ASIA HAVE "SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS," INCLUDING ABSENCE OF MEDICAL CARE AND SCHOOLS, A NEED FOR LAND REFORM, A DESIRE TO LEARN MODERN FARMING METHODS, AND THE RIGHT TO VOTE. THEY ALSO HAVE A NEW SENSE OF NATIONALISM, HE SAID.

"WE CANNOT REMAKE THE WORLD IN OUR IMAGE," DOUGLAS SAID, "BUT WE CAN HELP THOSE WHO ARE SEEKING AN ESCAPE FROM SQUALOR TO FIND ALTERNATIVES TO COMMUNISM."

CHICAGO, MAY 22-(AP)-THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE SAID TONIGHT THAT SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE HAS URGED THE UNITED STATES TO REPLACE GIS WITH NEWLY TRAINED KOREAN TROOPS TO SAVE AMERICAN LIVES.

TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENT WALTER SIMMONS IN A DISPATCH FROM PUSAN, KOREA, DATED MAY 17, SAID RHEE ATTRIBUTED LOSS OF THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN LIVES TO "FAILURE TO USE ABUNDANT AND WILLING SOUTH KOREAN MANPOWER."

SIMMONS, IN WEDNESDAY EDITIONS OF THE TRIBUNE, REPORTED AN INTERVIEW FIVE DAYS AGO WITH THE SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT. A SEPARATE TRIBUNE STORY EROM TOKYO SAID THE PUSAN DISPATCH WAS HELD UP IN ITS ENTIRETY BY MILITARY CENSORSHIP UNTIL ITS RELEASE TODAY.

THE STORY SAID RHEE ADVOCATED REPLACING GIS WITH NEW KOREAN TROOPS "AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE."

IF ENOUGH SOUTH KOREANS WERE ARMED AND TRAINED, THE NEWSPAPER QUOTED RHEE, ALL AMERICAN INFANTRY COULD BE WITHDRAWN, LEAVING ONLY ARTILLERY AND WAR PLANES TO SUPPORT THE DEFENSE FORCES.

THE STORY SAID FURTHER:

THE SOUTH KOREAN REPUBLIC AT LAST REPORTS HAD AN ARMY OF ABOUT 200,000 TROOPS IN 10 DIVISIONS. RHEE HAS LONG URGED THAT IT BE INCREASED TO 500,000" TO FIGHT TODAY AND DEFEND OUR BORDERS TOMORROW."

AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAD MADE TWO PRIN

AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAD MADE TWO PRINCIPAL OBJECTIONS TO RHEE'S PROPOSALS: THAT SOUTH KOREA HASN'T ENOUGH MONEY TO SUPPORT A LARGE ARMY AND THAT IT LACKS SUFFICIENT TRAINED OFFICERS FOR SUCH AN EXPANSION OF ARMED FORCES.

TO THIS, THE TRIBUNE QUOTED RHEE:

"BUT LET US LOOK AT THESE OBJECTIONS REALISTICALLY. IT IS TRUE THAT WE ARE POOR. BUT WOULDN'T IT BE LESS EXPENSIVE FOR THE UNITED STATES TO GIVE US THE WEAPONS TO DEFEND OURSELVES THAN TO SEND THE SAME WEAPONS OVER HERE IN THE HANDS OF AMERICAN TROOPS."

THE STORY SAID RHEE ADMITTED A SHORTAGE OF TRAINED OFFICERS, BUT SAID HIS TROOPS WOULD BE PROUD TO SERVE UNDER AMERICAN OFFICERS UNTIL SOUTH KOREANS COULD BE TRAINED.

THE SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT WAS QUOTED AS SAYING HE HAS 300,000 TRAINED RESERVISTS NOW READY TO FIGHT IF WEAPONS AND OFFICERS COULD BE PROVIDED.

SIMMONS REPORTED "A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE PRESIDENT CHARGED THERE HAS BEEN A 'SELLOUT' IN UNITED HAD BEEN A 'SELLOUT' IN UNITED NATIONS COUNCILS TO PREVENT SOUTH KOREA FROM EXPANDING ITS ARMY.

"'THEY WANT TO KEEP US WEAK'", THIS SOURCE SAID. "'THEY ARE AFRAID THAT IF WE BECOME STRONG THEY CANNOT CONTROL US IN SUCH MATTERS AS CROSSING THE 38TH PARALLEL. THEY WANT US WEAK SO THAT IF AN APPEASEMENT DEAL IS MADE WITH THE COMMUNISTS WE SHALL BE FORCED TO AGREE.'"

CHICAGO, MAY 22-(AP)-A COMPLETE EMBARGO WOULD FORCE RED CHINA INTO ECONOMIC UNION WITH RUSSIA, THE FIRST SECRETARY OF THE BRITISH EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON SAID TODAY.

GEORGE PATRICK JOHN RUSHMORE JELLICOE (LORD JELLICOE) TOLD THE ENGLISH SPEAKING UNION IN CHICAGO THAT SUCH AN EMBARGO WOULD "KILL HONG KONG."

"TRADE WITH CHINA IS HONG KONG'S LIFE LINE," JELLICOE SAID. "WE MUST EXPORT TO CHINA TO PAY FOR HONG KONG'S FOOD WITHOUT WHICH THE POPULATION WOULD STARVE." IN THE DISCONTENT WHICH WOULD FOLLOW, HE ADDED, HONG KONG WOULD BE EASY PICKINGS FOR THE REDS.

JELLICOE SAID THERE ARE 1,000,000 (M) ANTI-COMMUNIST CHINESE REFUGEES IN HONG KONG WHOM THE BRITISH DID NOT WANT TO FALL INTO THE HANDS OF THE REDS.

JELLICOE SAID THE IDEA THAT BRITAIN HAD ANYTHING TO DO WITH GETTING GENERAL MACARTHUR FIRED WAS "PURE MYTH."

THE BRITISH DIPLOMAT ALSO DENIED THAT BRITAIN EVER HAD SUPPLIED ARMS OR AMMUNITION TO THE CHINESE REDS. HE NOTED THAT THE UNITED KINGDOM JOINED THE UNITED STATES IN RECOMMENDING AN UNITED NATIONS EMBARGO ON STRATEGIC MATERIALS TO RED CHINA AND SAID BRITISH CONTROLS ON EXPORTS TO THAT COUNTRY PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN MORE DRASTIC THAN THOSE OF ANY OTHER NATION EXCEPT THE UNITED STATES.

JELLICOE SAID BRITISH RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA IN NO WAY IMPLIES APPROVAL. HE DECLARED IT SIMPLY RECOGNIZED THE FACT THAT MAO TZE-TUNG CONTROLLED CHINA. HE ADDED THAT THE BRITISH FEEL THAT IT IS ILLOGICAL TO RECOGNIZE RED RUSSIA AND NOT RED CHINA.

CAPT. W.R. HUNT, THE PILOT, SAID HE SAW THE OBJECT ABOUT 100 MILES SOUTHWEST OF DODGE CITY, KANS., WHILE PILOTING A REGULAR AIRLINER FLIGHT FROM PHOENIX, ARIZ., TO CHICAGO.

HUNT SAID HE SIGHTED THE OBJECT AT 4:20 A.M. (EST) WHILE FLYING

ABOUT 270 TO 280 MILES AN HOUR AT 21,000 FEET.
"IT LOOKED LIKE A BLUISH WHITE STAR BUT IT DEFINITELY WAS SOMETHING THAT WAS PROPELLED," HUNT SAID. "IT TRAVELED AT ABOUT 500TO 1,000 MILES AN HOUR.
"THE STAR MOVED BACKWARD AND FORWARD, THEN UP AND DOWN, AND THEN SEEMED TO COME TO A STOP. THEN IT WOULD COMPLETE THE PATTERN OVER AGAIN."
HE SAID THE OBJECT DID NOT APPROACH CLOSER THAN FIVE MILES AWAY BUT THAT IT SEEMED TO "PLAY TAG WITH THE PLANE."
HUNT SAID HE WAS TALKING TO A RADIO OPERATOR AT GARDEN CITY, KANS., AT THE TIME AND THAT HE GAVE THE OPERATOR A "PLAY BY PLAY" ACCOUNT OF THE MYSTERIOUS OBJECT. HE SAID THE RADIO OPERATOR TIED IN SEVERAL OTHER OPERATORS WHO ALSO LISTENED TO THE DESCRIPTION.
HUNT SAID HE WATCHED THE OBJECT FOR ABOUT 20 MINUTES, AND THAT IT THEN DESCENDED TO ABOUT 3,000 TO 4,000 FEET BELOW THE PLANE. THEN IT DRIFTED AWAY TO THE SOUTHWEST, HE SAID.

WAKEFIELD, N.H., MAY 22-(AP)-THE FOLKS OF THIS 177-YEAR-OLD RURAL COMMUNITY--1,256 RESIDENTS--DON'T WANT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IMPEACHED.
THEY MADE THEIR VIEWS KNOWN AT A SPECIAL TOWN MEETING CALLED TONIGHT TO VOTE ON THE QUESTION:
"SHOULD HARRY TRUMAN BE IMPEACHED?"
THE ANSWER WAS 48 AGAINST; 17 IN FAVOR; 35 NOT VOTING.
ONLY 100 OF THE TOWN'S 795 VOTERS SHOWED UP FOR THE UNUSUAL MEETING CALLED IN TOW HALL BY A PETITION CIRCULATED BY A FORMER ARMY CAPTAIN, WILLIAM N.SPARHAWK, JR., 32-YEAR-OLD CHICKEN FARMER.
TEN SIGNATURES WERE NECESSARY TO CALL THE MEETING. SPARHAWK SAID 50 RESIDENTS SIGNED THE PETITION.
THE TOWN IS REPUBLICAN BY A WIDE MARGIN.
THE VOTE CAME AFTER SPEECHES BY SPARHAWK AND AN OPPONENT, EDWIN P. GEAUQUE, MERCHANDISING CONSULTANT.
SPARHAWK SUPPORTED HIS OPINION THAT TRUMAN SHOULD BE IMPEACHED ON THE CHARGE THAT "THE SHIP OF STATE IS BEING SCUTTLED AND THE PRESIDENT IS PURSUING A POLICY OF APPEASEMENT." HE SAID THE ADMINISTRATION IS "RAMPANT WITH CORRUPTION."
GEAUQUE TOLD THE ATTENTIVE AUDIENCE THAT THE "WORLD HAS ITS EYES ON OUR TOWN TONIGHT. THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION DEPENDS ON WHETHER WE WILL BE CALLED SCREWBALL OR THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE."
"I'VE JUST TRAVELED OVER 1,000 MILES SEEKING NEW INDUSTRY FOR WAKEFIELD," GEAUQUE WENT ON, "AND IF WE HOLD OURSELVES UP TO THE WORLD AS SCREWBALL, WE STAND TO LOSE OUT ON ATTRACTING INDUSTRIES WHICH WILL PAY TAXES AND EMPLOY OUR PEOPLE."
WHEN GEAUQUE FINISHED, TOWN MODERATOR GEORGE WENTWORTH CALLED FOR A SECRET BALLOT. EACH VOTER GOT A BALLOT CONTAINING ONLY THE WORDS "YES" AND "NO." THE CHOICE WAS CIRCLED BY THE VOTER.
SELECTMAN ALBERT W.WIGGIN, AFTER THE MEETING, COMMENTED THAT "THERE'S USUALLY ABOUT 400 AT TOWN MEETINGS." HE DIB'T OFFER ANY OPINION ON TONIGHT'S SMALL ATTENDANCE.

MIAMI BEACH,FLA., MAY 22-(AP)-IF ANOTHER WORLD WAR BREAKS OUT, THERE WILL BE FLAMING ATOMIC ATTACKS RIGHT IN AMERICA'S BACKYARD, DR. DWAYNE ORTON, OF THE U.S. CIVIL DEFENSE ADMINISTRATION, SAID TODAY.
WHETHER WE STAND OR FALL UNDER THESE ATTACKS, HE TOLD THE NATIONAL CONVENTION OF THE CONGRESS OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS, DEPENDS UPON WHETHER CIVILIANS HAVE THE GUTS TO TAKE IT.
IT'S HARD FOR AMERICANS TO REALIZE, DR. ORTON SAID, THAT THE HOME FRONT WILL BE A WAR FRONT THE NEXT TIME.
"WE MUST FACE THE FACT," HE SAID, "AND GENERATE THE NECESSARY FORTITUDE TO PLAN FOR EFFICIENT CIVIL DEFENSE.
"ATOMIC ATTACK WILL DESTROY PROPERTY, BUT IT'S GREATEST VALUE WILL BE IN BREAKING THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE. A DEMORALIZED PEOPLE ARE A DEFEATED PEOPLE.
"CAN WE TAKE IT?"
THE FORMER STOCKTON,CALIF., COLLEGE PRESIDENT, WHO IS ASSISTANT ADMINISTRATOR FOR TRAINING AND EDUCATION IN THE CIVIL DEFENSE SETUP, SAID AMERICA WAS "REALLY VULNERABLE" TO AERIAL ATTACK.
AND IF IT COMES, HE DECLARED, OUR CITIES CAN EXPECT TO BE HURT WORSE THAN HIROSHIMA WAS BY THE ATOM BOMB AND WORSE THAN HAMBURG WAS IN THE GREAT FIRE RAID.
AMERICAN CITIES, HE SAID, ARE MORE COMBUSTIBLE AND MORE SUSCEPTIBLE TO BOMB DAMAGE THAN GERMAN CITIES.
HE CALLED CIVIL DEFENSE "EDUCATION'S NEW OBLIGATION."
"IF A BOMB DROPS," HE SAID, "THE MOTHERS WILL BE THERE AND THE TEACHERS WILL BE THERE. IT WILL BE THEIR JOB TO SEE THAT NO CHILD IS LEFT SCREAMING IN THE STREETS TO SPREAD THE PSYCHOSIS OF FEAR."
DR. ORTON SAID AMERICA CAN BE BOMBED ON A LARGE SCALE--FIVE, TEN, TWENTY CITIES MAY BE HIT AT ONE TIME.
BRITAIN TRAINED FOR TWO YEARS, HE SAID, AND WAS BARELY ABLE TO WITHSTAND THE ATTACKS WITH CONVENTIONAL BOMBS.
"CAN WE TAKE THE ATOM BOMB? WE CAN IF WE TRAIN AND PREPARE. A TRAINED PEOPLE CAN BE A TRIUMPHANT PEOPLE."
HE SAID MUTUAL AID WAS THE KEY TO CIVIL DEFENSE.
"NO CITY UNDER ATOMIC ATTACK COULD POSSIBLY CARE FOR ITSELF. WE MUST HAVE MOBILE AID GROUPS THAT CAN MOVE SWIFTLY TO AREAS OF DISASTER--RESCUE SQUADS, DECONTAMINATION SQUADS, FIRE FIGHTERS, RADIOLOGICAL EXPERTS, DOCTORS AND NURSES."

HARTFORD, CONN., MAY 22-(AP)-SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID TONIGHT THAT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION, IN URGING UNITY, WAS ASKING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE "TO RALLY TO THE SUPPORT OF FAILURE."
UNITY IS ESSENTIAL, SAID BRIDGES IN A SPEECH PREPAR

UNITY IS ESSENTIAL, SAID BRIDGES IN A SPEECH BEFORE THE CONNECTICUT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, "BUT THERE CAN BE NO UNITY IN AMERICA UNTIL WE HAVE LEADERS WHO HAVE THE CONFIDENCE OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.
"THERE CAN BE NO UNITY UNTIL OUR LEADERSHIP WILL RECOGNIZE COMMUNISM IN ASIA, COMMUNISM IN IRAN, COMMUNISM IN EUROPE AND COMMUNISM IN HARTFORD AS THE ENEMY OF AMERICA.
"THERE CAN BE NO UNITY UNTIL WE RID AMERICA OF MINK COAT MORALITY, PEACE-AT-ANY-PRICE EXPEDIENCY AND LEADERS WHO CANNOT TELL A RED HERRING FROM A RED AGENT."
THE NEW HAMPSHIRE REPUBLICAN, A STRONG SUPPORTER OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR IN THE CURRENT DISPUTE OVER FOREIGN POLICY, SAID THAT DURING THE SENATE HEARINGS GENERALS MARSHALL AND BRADLEY OFFERED ONLY "A HOPE THAT THE WAR (IN KOREA) MAY END IF WE KILL ENOUGH CHINESE."
THE MORAL IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH A POLICY ARE OBVIOUS, SAID BRIDGES, ADDING:
"I DO WANT TO POINT OUT THE STUPIDITY OF EXPECTING TO KILL ENOUGH OF A POPULATION OF 450,000,000 (M) TO INDUCE THEM TO STOP FIGHTING. SUCH A POLICY IS ESPECIALLY NAIVE IF WE SAY THAT THE KREMLIN, WITH NO BELIEF IN THE DIGNITY OR VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE X X X CAN E EXPECTED TO BACK DOWN BECAUSE WE KILL A LOT OF CHINESE."

ARDEN, N.Y., MAY 22-(AP)-DELEGATES TO THE AMERICAN ASSEMBLY TODAY HEARD TWIN PLEAS FOR AT LEAST A PARTIAL RETURN TO THE OLD-FASHIONED SYSTEM OF SECRET DIPLOMACY.
AS THOUGH THE WISH WAS FATHER TO THE THOUGHT, THE ASEMBLY ITSELF WENT INTO SECRET SESSION.
AFTERWARDS, AT A PRESS CONFERENCE, DR. GRAYSON KIRK, VICE PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, WAS QUOTED AS SAYING IMPROVED COMMUNICATIONS HAVE HELPED CHANGE THE RELATIONS BETWEEN NATIONS.
NEWSMEN WERE TOLD THAT KIRK EXPRESSED TO THE ASSEMBLY A FEELING THAT THE UNITED NATIONS WAS AT A DISADVANTAGE BECAUSE OF PUBLICITY GIVEN TO ITS SESSIONS.
"SENSATIONAL DEMANDS (UPON THE U.N.) FOR PUBLICYT," KIRK WAS QUOTED, "IN ALMOST EVERY PHASE OF POLICY-MAKING HAS HELPED TO HAMSTRING THE UNITED NATIONS."
SOMEWHAT THE SAME THOUGHTS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO LEWIS W. DOUGLAS, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO GREAT BRITAIN.
DOUGLAS WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THERE WER CERTAIN ADVANTAGES IN THE OLD-FASHIONED DIPLOMATIC WAYS--PRIVATE NEGOTIATIONS THAT BECAME PUBLIC ONLY IN THE FINAL STAGES.
THE AMERICAN ASSEMBLY IS A GROUP OF PRIVATE CITIZENS MEETING THIS WEEK TO DISCUSS WORLD AFFAIRS. ITS PURPOSE IS TO TRY TO CLARIFY NATIONAL THINKING ON VITAL ISSUES.
YESTERDAY'S SESSIONS WERE OPEN TO THE PRESS. SO ARE FRIDAY'S. THE REST WILL BE SECRET.
THE ASSEMBLY IS SPONSORED BY COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY. #

DENVER, MAY 22-(AP)-SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR OSCAR CHAPMAN SAID TODAY THAT EVEN IF THE UNITED STATES LOST ITS OIL SUPPLIES FROM THE NEAR EAST AND THE WHOLE WORLD "WE COULD SUPPORT THE NATION'S NEEDS HERE AT HOME."
THE INTERIOR SECRETARY, HERE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC WESTERN AND MID-WESTERN REGIONAL CONFERENCES AND DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING, DENIED THAT THE NATION'S OIL SUPPLIES ARE RUNNING LOW.
HE POINTED OUT THAT TENS OF THOUSANDS OF NEW WELLS ARE BEING DRILLED EACH YEAR AND THAT EXISTING COMPANIES ARE EXPANDING OLD WELLS.
CHAPMAN ADMITTED THAT OIL MAY RUN OUT BUT DOUBTED IT WOULD BE DURING HIS LIFETIME.
BUT THE SECRETARY SAID THAT CONTINUING RESEARCH MUST PROVIDE FOR THE FUTURE.
HE NOTED THAT THE SHALE OIL PLANT AT RIFLE, COLO., IS NOW AT CAPACITY PRODUCING 400 BARRELS OF OIL DAILY AT THE SAME COST AS CRUDE OIL. IF NECESSARY, THE CABINET MEMBER SAID ADDITIONAL PLANTS COULD PRODUCE THE NATION'S NEEDS FROM SHALE AND COAL.
CHAPMAN SAID THE GROWTH OF THE WEST DEPENDED ON RECLAMATION

PROJECTS, MULTIPLE UNITS THAT PROVIDE BOTH WATER AND POWER. "NOT A DAM ON EVERY STREAM," CONTINUED THE SECRETARY, BUT PROJECTS WHICH WOULD PROVIDE NEEDED POWER AND WATER; POWER FOR DEFENSE NEEDS AND WATER TO RAISE THE FALLING WATER TABLE.

"THE NATION IS SHORT ON CERTAIN STRATEGIC METALS BUT ONE OF THE GREATEST PROBLEMS IS WATER," CHAPMAN SAID. FROM NEW YORK TO CALIFORNIA THE AVERAGE DROP IN THE WATER TABLE IS NINE INCHES AND IN SOME PLACES MEASURES NINE FEET. THE SECRETARY WOULD SET UP TWO DEMONSTRATION PLANTS FOR THE CONVERSION OF SEA WATER, ONE OF THEM BASED ON THE NAVY SYSTEM OF DISTILLATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 21-(AP)-AUSTRALIA IS TRIPLING THE SIZE OF ITS ARMY AND PREPARING TO MEET ITS ROLE IN DEFENSE OF THE FREE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES IF RUSSIA SHOULD STRIKE, SIR KEITH MURDOCH SAID TONIGHT.

AUSTRALIA'S FOREMOST NEWSPAPER EXECUTIVE AND CHAIRMAN OF THE AUSTRALIAN-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FLEW INTO SAN FRANCISCO. HE IS ENROUTE TO MONTREAL, WASHINGTON AND LONDON.

SIR KEITH SAID IN A PRESS CONFERENCE THAT THE AUSTRALIAN PEOPLE WOULD NOT LIKE TO FIGHT "AN IMPASSABLE WALL OF 450,000,000 CHINESE" UNLESS IT WERE VITAL IN THE INTERESTS OF WORLD PEACE.

HE SAID THE RECALL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS RECEIVED IN AUSTRALIA WITH "MIXED FEELINGS AND GENERAL REGRET" BUT THERE WAS "NOT GREAT SUPPORT FOR HIS MILITARY THEORIES."

"AUSTRALIANS REALIZE," HE CONTINUED, "RUSSIA IS THE REAL CAUSE OF TROUBLE IN THE WORLD."

HE SAID "WE ALSO REALIZE THAT THERE IS A NEW ASIA ARISING AND THINK ITS GOT A GOOD DEAL OF CLAIM TO SELECT ITS OWN GOVERNMENTS. WE DON'T THINK THEY ARE AGGRESSIVELY ANTI-WESTERN."

SIR KEITH POINTED OUT THAT WHILE AUSTRALIA IS A MEMBER OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS, IT STILL RECOGNIZES NATIONALIST CHINA WHILE BRITAIN DOES NOT. HE EMPHASIZED "WE ARE COMPLETELY IDENTIFIED WITH THE AMERICAN EFFORT."

HE SAID PEOPLE MAY WONDER WHY THERE ARE NOT MORE AUSTRALIANS FIGHTING IN KOREA. HE SAID IT WAS TRUE ONLY 1,000 MEN WERE ON THE FRONT BUT 4,000 FLIERS, SAILORS AND MEN BEHIND THE LINES WERE DIRECTLY ENGAGED IN THE KOREAN WAR EFFORT.

HE THEN INDICATED THAT AUSTRALIA'S ROLE IS "PRETTY WELL SET" IF RUSSIA SHOULD ATTACK. PART OF THE EFFORT, HE SAID, WAS IN BUILDING UP THE "ARMY SIDE OF THE DEFENSE FORCES" TO 120,000. THE PRESENT AUSTRALIAN ARMY TOTALS ABOUT 40,000.

SIR KEITH PRAISED THE RECENTLY ANNOUNCED PACIFIC DEFENSE PACT AS "ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENTS" IN THE PACIFIC. THE PACT--STILL IN THE DISCUSSION STAGE--WOULD LINK THE UNITED STATES, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, JAPAN.

HE DECLARED THAT PREPARATION FOR A SEPARATE PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN, EXCLUDING RUSSIA AND RED CHINA, WAS "VERY SOUND" BUT AUSTRALIANS STILL WERE TOUCHY ABOUT REARMING OF JAPAN AND HOPED THE PACIFIC DEFENSE PACT WOULD BE A SOLID ONE.

THE AUSTRALIAN NEWS EXECUTIVE, A TRUSTEE OF REUTERS NEWS AGENCY, WILL LEAVE WEDNESDAY FOR MONTREAL TO DISCUSS A LARGER NEWSPRINT ALLOTMENT FOR HIS PAPERS. HE WILL SEE DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IN WASHINGTON AND ATTEND ONE OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PRESS CONFERENCES.

AFTER A VISIT IN NEW YORK HE WILL PROCEED TO LONDON TO ATTEND AN ANNUAL MEETING OF REUTERS TRUSTEES AND DIRECTORS JULY 11-12.

SIR KEITH WAS ACCOMPANIED BY COLIN BEDNALL, CHIEF EXECUTIVE AND MANAGING EDITOR OF QUEENSLAND NEWSPAPERS, ONE OF MURDOCH'S GROUP OF PAPERS.

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER

UNITED NATIONS,N.Y.,MAY 22-(AP)-SOME UNITED NATIONS DIPLOMATS AND OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT COMMUNIST CHINESE MILITARY REVERSES IN KOREA HAVE CREATED A NEW SITUATION MORE FAVORABLE FOR PEACE TALKS.

THEY FEEL THE TIME IS RIPE FOR NEW ATTEMPTS AT PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH PEIPING AND THE SOVIET UNION TO HALT THE FIGHTING ALONG THE 38TH PARALLEL.

THESE U.N. PEOPLE, WHO WILL NOT TALK FOR ATTRIBUTION, SAID TODAY THE BIG PROBLEM IS TO FIND SOMEONE WHO WILL START THE BALL ROLLING AND PRODUCE A PLAN WHICH WILL SAVE FACE BOTH FOR THE COMMUNISTS AND FOR THE U.N. FORCES.

PEACE RUMORS HAVE BEEN DIME-A-DOZEN AT THE UNITED NATIONS FOR SEVERAL DAYS, BUT EVERY DIPLOMAT AND U.N. OFFICIAL QUICKLY DENIES HE KNOWS OF ANY CONCRETE STEPS.

GEN.OMAR BRADLEY. CHAIRMAN OF THE UNITED STATES JOINT CHIEFS OF

STAFF AND A KEY MAN IN RUNNING THE KOREAN WAR AS AN AGENT OF THE U.N., TOLD SENATORS IN WASHINGTON TODAY THAT THE U.S. MILITARY HIGH COMMAND HOPES A KOREAN PEACE CAN BE NEGOTIATED, WITH OR WITHOUT APPROVAL OF SOVIET RUSSIA, IF U.N. TROOPS "BUMP OFF" THE PRESENT COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

BRADLEY ALSO TESTIFIED THAT THE KOREAN CONFLICT MIGHT JUST PETER OUT WITHOUT A NEGOTIATED PEACE, BUT SIMPLY WITH A HALT OF THE COMMUNIST ATTACK.

HE THUS EXPRESSED VIEWS SIMILAR TO THOSE OF DIPLOMATS HERE. U.N. PEOPLE GENERALLY HAVE FELT THAT THE COMMUNISTS WOULD MAKE ONE MORE BIG TRY IN KOREA AND, IF THAT FAILED, THEN PEIPING MIGHT BE WILLING TO TALK.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY THERE HAS BEEN NO WORD RECENTLY FROM PEIPING THROUGH THE INDIAN GOVERNMENT CONTACT IN THE RED CHINESE CAPITAL. THIS WOULD BE ONE CHANNEL POSSIBLE TO THE COMMUNIST CHINESE.

SIR BENEGAL N.RAU, CHIEF INDIAN DELEGATE, LEFT TODAY FOR SAN FRANCISCO ON A SHORT VACATION. THE POSSIBILITIES WERE SO EVIDENT, HOWEVER, THAT SIR BENEGAL CALLED OFF PLANS TO GO TO GENEVA FOR A MEETING OF THE INTERNATIONAL LAW COMMISSION. HE CAN BE BACK IN THE U.N. QUICKLY IF A BREAK COMES.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 22-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS SEEKING TO COMBINE UNITED NATIONS TALKS ON ATOMIC CONTROL WITH THOSE UNDERWAY ON REGULATITN AND REDUCTION OF CONVENTIONAL TYPE ARMAMENTS.

THIS REPRESENTS A REVERSAL OF PREVIOUS U.S.POLICY, WHICH IN 1946 AND 1947 STRONGLY OPPOSED SUCH A RUSSIAN-ADVOCATED LINKING OF ATOMIC AND ARMS TALKS. THE U.S.VIEW PREVAILED AT THAT TIME AND THE U.N. CREATED TWO SEPARATE AGENCIES--THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND THE COMMISSION FOR CONVENTIONAL ARMAMENTS.

THE FIRST HINT OF A U.S.CHANGE CAME LAST OCTOBER, WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY HE FAVORED A REVIEW OF THE PROBLEM TO SEE WHETHER THE ATOMIC AND ARMS DISCUSSIONS SHOULD BE COMBINED. THE ASSEMBLY CREATED A SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF 12 TO MAKE THE STUDY.

THE FORMER U.S. COMMANDER IN CHINA, WHO PREDICTED THE COMMUNIST INVASION OF SOUTH KOREA A YEAR BEFORE THE EVENT, ADDS THAT "BILLIONS OF DOLLARS SHOULD BE EXPENDED IN THE PSYCHO-SOCIAL FIELD TO WIN PEOPLE'S HEARTS AND MINDS."

WEDEMEYER SAID THE FUNDS ALSO MIGHT BE USED TO "CREATE CONFUSION AND MISTRUST WITHIN THE SOVIET ORBIT AND TO CLARIFY AMERICAN PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTIVES."

LOOK MAGAZINE, IN ITS CURRENT ISSUE (DATED JUNE 5), SAYS WEDEMEYER'S VIEWS SUMMED UP THOSE OF NINE OTHER PROMINENT AMERICANS WHOM THE MAGAZINE POLLED ON THE QUESTION OF INTENSIFYING U.S. PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (400) SEE THIRD NITE LEAD
BY DON HUTH

TOKYO, THURSDAY, MAY 24-(AP)-THE REDS RETREATED ALL ACROSS THE 125-MILE KOREAN WARFRONT TODAY UNDER HOT PURSUIT OF ATTACKING ALLIED TANK COLUMNS.

TANKS IN THE WEST RUMBLED UP TO WITHIN SHELLING DISTANCE OF COMMUNIST NORTH KOREA ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL.

BLED BY LOSSES OF 70,000 OR MORE, THE REDS CEASED ATTACKS EVERY-WHERE AND WITHDREW FROM THE DEBACLE OF THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE. IT HAD LASTED ONLY SIX DAYS.

THE ALLIED PURSUIT WAS RESULTING IN RESCUE OF SCATTERED GROUPS OF AMERICANS WHO HAD BEEN TAKEN PRISONER DURING THE ILL-FATED RED OFFENSIVE OR WERE CUT OFF AND FORCED TO HIDE OUT.

THIRTEEN U. S. SECOND DIVISION MEN, BEARDED, WEAK AND HUNGRY, WERE FOUND BY ONE ADVANCING GROUP AND SENT BACK BY HELICOPTERS IIN THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR YESTERDAY. THEY HAD BEEN TAKEN PRISONER, THEN ABANDONED.

U. S. FIRST MARINE DIVISION TOOPS IN THE SAME SECTOR RESCUED SIX WOUNDED AMERICANS. THEY HAD BEEN CUT OFF FOR SIX DAYS.

EIGHT U. S. SECOND DIVISION MEN WERE PICKED UP BY AN ALLIED TANK FORCE TUESDAY AFTER FIVE DAYS BEHIND RED LINES.

THEIR RELEASE WAS MADE POSSIBLEM

THEIR RELEASE WAS MADE POSSIBLE BY THE RAPID REACTION OF ALLIED FORCES AFTER THE RED OFFENSIVE FIZZLED OUT.

A U. S. EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THE REDS SHOWED NO SIGN THEY WOULD STOP AT THE 38TH PARALLEL, THE OLD POLITICAL BOUNDARY FOR NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA.

A107KX

"THEY MIGHT GO UP ACROSS THE PARALLEL AND WAIT FOR US TO COME TO THEM," HE SAID, "BUT IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO TELL WHAT THE CHINESE ARE GOING TO DO."

NORTH OF SEOUL, TANK-LED SOUTH KOREANS APPROACHED KORANGPO, ONE MILE SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. THE TANKS REACHED POSITIONS WHERE THEY COULD SHELL REDS RETREATING INTO NORTH KOREA FROM AROUND KORANGPO AND ACROSS THE NEARBY IMJIN RIVER.

THE U. S. FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION ADVANCED MORE THAN FIVE MILES IN ANOTHER WESTERN SECTOR WITHOUT FINDING ANY REDS.

ALLIED FORCES WERE ON THE PROWL FOR REDS UP THE MAIN NORTH HIGHWAY FROM SEOUL FOR 16 MILES. THEY DISPERSED ONE GROUP FIVE MILES NORTH OF UIJONGBU.

IN WEST-CENTRAL KOREA, THE U. S. 25TH DIVISION ADVANCED NEARLY FOUR MILES INTO STRONG POSITIONS RINGING KAPYONG. WEDNESDAY, 25TH PATROLS ENTERED THE HIGHWAY HUB 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

A108KX

"ALL TRAILS AND ROADS IN THE VICINITY WEST AND SOUTHWEST OF KAPYONG WERE LOADED WITH ENEMY GOING NORTH," AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID.

IN CENTRAL KOREA, THE U. S. FIRST MARINE DIVISION HUNTED REDS TO FIGHT AND FOUND FEW.

THE ALLIES NOW CONTROL BOTH SIDES OF THE HONGCHON RIVER IN THE CENTRAL SECTOR.

IN EAST-CENTRAL KOREA, THE VALIANT U. S. SECOND DIVISION ROLLED NORTH. LESS THAN A WEEK AGO, THE SECOND WAS BATTLING FOR ITS LIFE AGAINST 96,000 REDS TRYING VAINLY TO DESTROY THE FAMED INDIAN-HEAD DIVISION AND AVENGE PAST DEFEATS AT ITS HANDS.

EVEN IN THE RUGGED EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR, EIGHTH ARMY SAID THAT A DEEP RED SALIENT NEAR SOKSA "IS CONSIDERED CONTAINED." SOKSA IS 18 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST.

THE ALLIES ADVANCED OVER ROADS STREWN WITH THE BODIES OF DEAD CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS.

IN MOST SECTORS, THE MOUNTAINOUS TERRAIN WAS THE CHIEF OBSTACLE F THE U. N. ADVANCE.

IT WAS THE FIRST TIME IN THE KOREAN WAR THAT THE EIGHTH ARMY HAD BEEN ABLE TO BOUNCE BACK IN A STRONG COUNTERATTACK IMMEDIATELY AFTER REPULSING A MASSIVE COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE, REPORTED AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW.

COMMUNIST LOSSES HAD EXCEEDED 60,000 MEN IN SIX DAYS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT ALONE. MANY MORE THOUSANDS FELL IN THE WEST OR WERE MOWED DOWN BY DEVASTATING AIR ATTACKS.

ALLIED GAINS RANGED UP TO 15 MILES OR MORE WEDNESDAY, AND RESULTED IN THE CAPTURE OF AT LEAST TWO IMPORTANT ROAD CENTERS AND A STRATEGIC TOWN CONTROLLING POWER DAMS FOR SEOUL.

AMERICAN-ROCKET-LAUNCHING SHIPS MOVED IN CLOSE TO THE COMMUNIST EAST COAST PORT OF WONSAN WEDNESDAY NIGHT AND RIPPED LOOSE WITH A STUNNING BARRAGE OF THOUSANDS OF ROCKETS.

FIRES WERE STILL BURNING AND SPREADING AT MIDNIGHT, A NAVY REPORT FROM THE LIGHT CRUISER MANCHESTER SAID TODAY.

WONSAN HAS BEEN BLASTED BY NAVAL SIEGE FORCES FOR THREE MONTHS BUT DURING THE LAST WEEK SHORE BATTERIES FIREJ BACK AT ALLIED WARCRAFT.

THE BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND DESTROYER BRINKLEY BASS, HIT EARLIER THIS WEEK BY SHORE FIRE BOTH WERE BACK IN ACTION, BOMBARDING RED POSITIONS ON THE EAST COAST, A FAR EAST NAVAL SUMMARY SAID.

SOUTH KOREAN UNITS ON THE WESTERN FRONT WERE WITHIN FOUR MILES OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, ABOVE MUNSAN, NORTHWEST OF SEOUL.

ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT, AMERICAN, BRITISH, CANADIAN AND AUSTRALIAN FORCES CRACKED THROUGH A COMMUNIST DEFENSE SHELL AND WERE WITHIN 12 MILES OF THE PRE-WAR BOUNDARY OF NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA. THE REDS FLED NORTHWARD AS THE ALLIES GAINED AT LEAST FIVE MILES.

A TANK-SUPPORTED UNITED NATIONS FORCE SECURED CHANGGONG, 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL TO REGAIN CONTROL OF THE APPROACHES TO THE KQANGPYONG DAM AND HYDROELECTRIC RESERVOIR. TANKERS THEN BRUSHED THROUGH LIGHT SNIPER FIRE 15 MILES NORTHWARD TO KAPYONG, ROAD HUB ON THE STRATEGIC SEOUL-CHUNCHON HIGHWAY.

U.S. MARINES AND U.S. SECOND DIVISION TROOPS PUSHED AHEAD FOUR MILES IN EAST-CENTRAL KOREA. IT WAS THE SECOND DIVISION WHICH BROKE THE BACK OF THE RED OFFENSIVE IN THE PAST WEEK.

THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS REELED BACKWARD ALL ALONG THAT FRONT. IT HAD BEEN THE MOST CRITICAL AREA SINCE THE ENEMY BEGAN HIS SOUTHWARD DRIVE.

A185KX

NORTH OF CHUNCHON, WHICH IS 45 AIR MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, THE ENEMY RETIRED ACROSS THE PUKHAN AND CHOYANG RIVERS. POWERFUL AMERICAN ARMORED FORCES STABBED AT THEIR HEELS.

HANGYE, ANOTHER IMPORTANT ROAD CENTER ON THE HONGCHON-INJE HIGHWAY, WAS REGAINED BY AN AMERICAN TANK-FORCE.

THE STRONG RED OPPOSITION WAS IN THE RUGGED MOUNTAINS SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST OF SOKSA IN AN AREA 18 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST.

ALLIED TROOPS, HOWEVER, CAPTURED AN IMPORTANT PASS NORTH OF SOKSA TO SLASH THE RED SUPPLY ROUTE AND CUT OFF THE SPEARHEAD OF A COLUMN

ATTEMPTING TO MAKE AN END-RUN DEEP BEHIND ALLIED LINES.
THE REDS HURLED TWO ATTACKS, EACH ABOUT 1,000-MEN STRONG, IN THE SECTOR SOUTHEAST OF SOKSA BUT EACH WAS TURNED BACK WITH HEAVY ENEMY LOSSES.
ON THE EAST COAST, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS MADE NO CONTACT WITH THE PHANTOM REDS, ACCORDING TO A U.S. EIGHTH ARMY COMMUNIQUE WEDNESDAY NIGHT.
LT.GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, COMMANDER OF THE TENTH CORPS, SAID THE COUNTERATTACK ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT "HAS MADE EXCELLENT PROGRESS."
ALMOND SAID, "THE ENEMY HAS TAKEN SUCH A BEATING ON OUR FRONT THAT HE IS UNABLE TO SUSTAIN HIS OFFENSIVE AND IS BEING FORCED TO WITHDRAW."
AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD SAID SOME ENEMY UNITS WERE FIGHTING A DELAYING ACTION BETWEEN HANGYE AND HABAE-JAE, NORTHEAST OF HONGCHON. HEAVY RED ASSAULTS PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN REPULSED IN THIS AREA.
HONGCHON IS 55 MILES EAST-NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
BETWEEN HANGYE AND PUNGAM TO THE EAST ALLIED UNITS GAINED MORE THAN ONE MILE. THEY MET STRONG OPPOSITION IN ISOLATED SPOTS.
SECOND DIVISION DOUGHBOYS STORMED BACK INTO HANGYE IN AN ADVANCE THAT CARRIED FOUR MILES IN THE FIRST 12 HOURS OF ATTACK.
FRONTLINE OFFICERS TOLD CORRESPONDENT BRADSHAW THE CHINESE RETREAT IN THE SECOND DIVISION SECTOR WAS "NOT YET A REAL ROUT, BUT THE ENEMY IS DEFINITELY TRYING TO PULL OUT."
THE DIVISION RAN INTO HOT OPPOSITION NORTHEAST OF PUNGAM, DUE EAST OF HONGCHON, BUT THE REDS WERE MAKING A FIGHTING WITHDRAWAL WHICH GAVE THEM NO TIME TO PLANT THEIR ANTI-PERSONNEL AND ANTI-TANK MINES.
CHINESE UNITS TRIED WITHOUT SUCCESS TO DAM THE SHALLOW HONGCHON RIVER ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT TO BLOCK THE ALLIES. ONE U.S. COMPANY WAS FORCED TO ABANDON A HILL DOMINATING THE RIVER WHEN THE COMMUNISTS RAKED IT WITH MACHINEGUN AND MORTAR FIRE.
THIS SETBACK WAS AN EXCEPTION IN WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTING. AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE MCARTHUR SAID BRITISH TOMMIES RAMMED UNOPPOSED OVER A 1,300-FOOT HILL THE CHINESE HAD PERSISTENTLY DEFENDED EARLIER.

A186KX
CANADIAN TROOPS MOVED INTO AN AREA WHERE 4,000 CHINESE WERE OBSERVED ONLY A DAY EARLIER. THEY FOUND FOXHOLES AND DUGOUTS EMPTY.
THERE WERE STILL SIGNS OF A HEAVY ENEMY CONCENTRATION ON THE FAR WESTERN FRONT AROUND KAESONG, 35 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL, AND DIRECTLY NORTH OF THE KIMPO PENINSULA, AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID.
SOUTH KOREAN PATROLS NORTH OF MUNSAN ADVANCES ON CHOKSONG -- ALMOST THE SAME POSITIONS THEY HELD WHEN THE CHINESE STRUCK APRIL 22 IN THEIR FIRST SPRING DRIVE. THE CHINESE NOW ARE REPORTED NORTH OF THE IMJIN RIVER.
ONE COMMUNIST FIGHTER PLANE STRAFED ALLIED POSITIONS SOUTH OF MUNSAN EARLY WEDNESDAY. IT WAS THE FIRST REPORT OF RED FRONTLINE STRAFING ACTIVITY IN WEEKS.
A BRIGHT SUN AND CLEAR SKIES ENABLED NAVY, MARINE AND U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE FIGHTERS AND LIGHT BOMBERS TO LEND FULL SUPPORT TO THE ALLIED DRIVE WEDNESDAY. FIFTH AIR FORCE PLANES ALONE FLEW 567 SORTIES BY DUSK. PILOTS CLAIMED ABOUT 150 ENEMY CASUALTIES.
NAVAL BLOCKADE AND BOMBARDMENT FORCES CONTINUED TO POUND BOTH KOREAN COASTS HELD BY RED TROOPS.

3RD LEAD..KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP
BY OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO, THURSDAY, MAY 24-(AP)-COMMUNIST TROOPS RETREATED ALL ALONG THE 100-MILE KOREAN FRONT WEDNESDAY, HOTLY PURSUED BY AGGRESSIVE ALLIED TANKS AND INFANTRY.

ALLIED GAINS OF MORE THAN 15 MILES WERE RACKED UP, SOME UNITS WERE A SCANT FOUR MILES FROM PARALLEL 38, AND AT LEAST TWO GOOD ROAD CENTERS WERE RECAPTURED.
THE ENTIRE U.S. TENTH CORPS WENT OVER TO THE ATTACK IN MOUNTAINOUS EAST-CENTRAL KOREA. HERE THE FIFTH RED OFFENSIVE EARLIER THIS WEEK WAS THREATENING TO BREAK THROUGH AND OUTFLANK THE ALLIED CENTER.
THE TENTH LOPPED OFF THE TIP OF THIS SPEARHEAD, GAINED UP TO THREE AND A HALF MILES, AND OVERRAN THE ROAD CENTER OF HANGYE. U.S. MARINES, THE SECOND INFANTRY DIVISION AND UNIDENTIFIED UNITS LOOSED THIS ATTACK.
IN WEST-CENTRAL KOREA, ONE U.S. TANK COLUMN IN A 15-MILE DASH RAMMED INTO KAPYONG, 35 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. AN ALLIED SPOKESMAN SAID THE ENEMY WAS MAKING A "HASTY BUT ORDERLY" WITHDRAWAL IN THIS SECTOR, WHERE THE REDS HAD BEEN EXPECTED TO MAKE THEIR SUPREME BID FOR A DECISION IN KOREA.
AMERICAN, BRITISH, CANADIAN AND AUSTRALIAN TROOPS WERE CLOSE ON THE HEELS OF THE CHINESE. A RED DIVISION IN FRONT OF THEM DISSOLVED INTO SMALL GROUPS AND FILTERED NORTH TO ESCAPE DEADLY AIR STRIKES.

ON THE EASTERN FRONT, ALLIED FORCES SLASHING THROUGH RUGGED MOUNTAINS CUT OFF THE SPEARHEAD OF THE LAST RED OFFENSIVE FORCE OF THEIR SECOND SPRING DRIVE. THE ALLIES SEIZED A KEY PASS ON THE COMMUNIST SUPPLY ROUTE TO CHINESE TROOPS FIGHTING 25 MILES SOUTH OF THE RED KOREAN BORDER FOR CONTROL OF THE MAIN TRANS-KOREAN HIGHWAY IN THAT AREA. SOME RED TROOPS WERE PULLING BACK IN THAT AREA.

IN THE FAR WEST, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS PUSHED WITHIN FOUR MILES OF THE RED KOREAN BORDER.
THE VALIANT U.S. SECOND DIVISION LED WEDNESDAY'S BIG U.N. COUNTERATTACK ACROSS 20 MILES OF THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.
TANKS LED AMERICAN INFANTRYMEN BACK INTO HANGYE, KEY HIGHWAY JUNCTION, 13 MILES SOUTH OF THE BORDER.
THE TANKS AND DOUGHBOYS DROVE INTO SHATTERED CHINESE REMNANTS AFTER PLANES AND MASSED ARTILLERY PAVED THE WAY WITH A TREE SHATTERING BOMBARDMENT. RED FORCES WITHDREW. SMALL COMMUNIST FORCES FOUGHT DELAYING ACTIONS TO COVER THE RETREAT.
LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, 10TH CORPS COMMANDER WHO ORDERED THE COUNTERATTACK, SAID IT "HAS MADE EXCELLENT PROGRESS." HE SAID THE CHINESE TOOK "SUCH A BEATING ON OUR FRONT" THEY ARE "BEING FORCED TO WITHDRAW."
THE RED RETREAT WAS MORE RAPID ON THE ADJOINING WEST-CENTRAL SECTOR. ADVANCING AMERICAN TANKS AND INFANTRYMEN REPORTED LITTLE OPPOSITION.
ATTACKING LEATHERNECKS RESCUED SIX WOUNDED AMERICANS WHO HAD LIVED THROUGH SIX NIGHTMARISH DAYS IN A PRETTY LITTLE VALLEY THAT CHINESE HAD TURNED INTO A SCENE OF DEATH.

MAY 23 1951

AMERICAN DEAD LAY THERE, TOO. THE BODY OF ONE DOUGHBOY LAY FACE DOWN IN A PADDY FIELD BESIDE A LARGE SHELL HOLE. BESIDE HIS BLOODY HAND WAS A SMALL BIBLE, SOAKED BY TUESDAY NIGHT'S RAIN. BESIDE HIS HEAD WERE PHOTOGRAPHS BLASTED FROM HIS BILLFOLD--OF A SMALL BABY AND A YOUNG WOMAN WITH LONG DARK HARI AND SMILING EYES.
SURVIVORS SAID THE CHI

BABY AND A YOUNG WOMAN WITH LONG DARK HAIR AND SMILING EYES.
SURVIVORS SAID THE CHINESE HAD TAKEN THE WALKING WOUNDED WITH THEM.
CHINESEHURRYING NORTHWARD ALREADY HAD PUSHED ACROSS THE PUKHAN AND CHOYANG RIVERS NORTH OF CHUNCHON. THIS REPRESENTED A 10 MILE PULL BACK IN TWO DAYS.
ALLIED TANK PATROLS APPROACHED CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, AND KAPYONG, 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
IN THE FAR WEST, AMERICAN ARMORED PATROLS WERE CATCHING UP WITH RAPID GAINS FORGED BY SOUTH KOREANS NORTH OF SEOUL. THERE WERE SIGNS

OF NEW RED BUILDUPS TO THE NORTHWEST.
BUT COMMUNISTS APPEARED TO BE LOSING THEIR OFFENSIVE DRIVE EVEN IN THE EASTERN SECTOR.

THERE ALLIES' FORCES BEAT OFF TWO STRONG ATTACKS DURING THE NIGHT. EACH ACTION WAS FOUGHT AGAINST 1,000 CHINESE SOUTHEAST OF SOKSA.
THE REDS HAD CUT THE MAIN LATERAL HIGHWAY NEAR THAT POINT 25 MILES SOUTH OF PARALLEL 38 AND 25 MILES INLAND FROM THE SEA OF JAPAN.
BUT ALLIES RUSHED IN TO CHECK THE RED ADVANCE IN TURN CUT THE COMMUNIST SUPPLY ROUTE TUESDAY BY SEIZING A KEY PASS.
ONE OFFICER SAID "A HELL OF A FIGHT" WAS RAGING AROUND SOKSA.
ACROSS THE WESTERN FRONT WARPLANES HARRIED CHINESE RETREATING NORTH AND EAST OF SEOUL. U.N. GROUND FORCES GAINED UP TO FOUR MILES WEDNESDAY MORNING. A TANK COLUMN RECAPTURED CHANGGONG, IMPORTANT HIGHWAY TOWN 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID ALLIED FORCES CLEANED OUT THE REDS FROM THEIR BRIDGEHEAD SOUTH OF THE PUKHAN AND HONGCHON RIVERS. THESE HAD STRETCHED FROM CHANGGONG TO HONGCHON, 50 MILES EAST OF SEOUL.
RECAPTURED HANGYE IS 10 MILES NORTHEAST OF HONGCHON ON THE ROAD TO INJE WHERE THE RED OFFENSIVE JUMPED OFF A WEEK AGO.
EXCEPT ON THE EXTREME FLANKS, THE STRONG U.N. COUNTERATTACK MOVED STEADILY AHEAD UNDER A BRIGHT SUN. TANKS AND INFANTRY UNITS DROVE THROUGH VALLEYS STREWN WITH CHINESE DEAD. THEY FOUND FEW LIVE CHINESE IN EARLY STAGES OF THE COUNTERATTACK.
FIELD DISPATCHES SAID HEAVY FIGHTING WAS CONFINED TO THE CONFUSED SOKSA SALIENT. ARMY SPOKESMAN DESCRIBED THE SITUATION AS VERY FLUID.
THE AREA WAS REPORTED SWARMING WITH CHINESE.
U.N. TROOPS WERE SHIFTED TO CHECK REDS STREAMING INTO THE AREA. THEY CUT OFF COMMUNIST SPEARHEADS BY CAPTURING A STRATEGIC PASS NORTH OF SOKSA. THE PASS RUNS THROUGH THE 5,000 FOOT HIGH KYEBANG RIDGE. IT IS THE KEY APPROACH INTO THE WILD AND RUGGED REGION AROUND SOKSA.

A47FX
THE PASS WAS TAKEN AGAINST RELATIVELY LIGHT OPPOSITION. U.N. OFFICERS SAID ITS CAPTURE WAS PERHAPS THE MOST IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENT ON THE FRONT TUESDAY.
ANOTHER U.N. TANK-INFANTRY FOCE RAN INTO STIFF OPPO

ANOTHER U.N. TANK-INFANTRY FORCE RAN INTO STIFF OPPOSITION IN A NORTHWARD COUNTERATTACK. THE ALLIES HACKED THEIR WAY THROUGH THE CHINESE AND THE MOUNTAINS FOR A GAIN OF NEARLY A MILE.
FIGHTER PLANES AIDED ARMORED FORCES IN HUNTING DOWN THE REDS.
ALTOGETHER U.N. PLANES FLEW APPROXIMATELY 1,000 SORTIES WEDNESDAY. PILOTS REPORTED KILLING 1,700 REDS IN FRONT LINE ATTACKS. IT WAS THEMHIGHEST TOLL REPORTED BY THE AIR FORCE IN DAYS.
THE REDS PUT ON A ONE PLANE ATTACK OF THEIR OWN. IT STRAFED ALLIED LINES ON THE WESTERN FRONT NEAR MUNSAN, 21 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL.
U.N. TROOPS PUSHED ON TUESDAY TO WITHIN FIVE MILES OF PARALLEL 38.
BIG ALLIED GUNS BLASTED CHINESE FLEEING OVER ROADS AND ACROSS RICE PADDIES ALONG THE BORDER NORTH OF SEOUL. SMALL REAR GUARD FORCES AND MINE FIELDS WERE LEFT BEHIND TO DELAY THE METHODICAL U.N. ADVANCE.
COMMUNIST SHORE GUNS ON THE EAST COAST HIT TWO AMERICAN WARSHIPS SUNDAY, KILLING THREE AND INJURING NINE SAILORS. THE NAVY SAID THE CASUALTIES WERE ABOARD THE BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND THE DESTROYER BRINKLRY BASS. BOTH WERE AT ANCHOR SHELLING BLOCKADED WONSAN.
U.S. EIGHTH ARMY OFFICERS ESTIMATED RED CASUALTIES IN THE COMMUNISTS' BLIGHTED OFFENSIVE AT BETWEEN 50,000 AND 60,000. THIS IS SOMEWHAT UNDER FIELD ESTIMATES.

TOKYO, THURSDAY, MAY 24-(AP)-THE FAR EAST AIR FORCE TODAY REPORTED IT HAD DESTROYED OR DAMAGED ABOUT ONE-SEVENTH OF THE PLANES THE COMMUNISTS HAVE PUT INTO THE AIR SINCE LAST JUNE---111 RUSSIAN-BUILT MIG-15 JET FIGHTERS.
DESPITE THESE BLOWS, THE FEAF WARNED IN AN INTERIM REPORT: "AN EVER-INCREASING ENEMY AIR THREAT HAS BEEN BUILDING UP IN KOREA SINCE THE FIRST OF THE YEAR."
ALL THE ENEMY PLANES WERE DESTROYED IN AIR COMBAT. THE FEAF ITSELF HAS LOST 299 PLANES OF ALL TYPES FROM ALL CAUSES, INCLUDING CRACKUPS.
THE REPORT ALSO CONFIRMED THAT TWO NEW JETS HAVE GONE INTO ACTION IN KOREA. THEY ARE THE F-94 ALL-WEATHER JET INTERCEPTOR, AND THE SWIFT B-45 JET BOMBER.
AN FEAF SOURCE SAID THE B-45, A SWIFT BOMBER WITH FOUR JET ENGINES, WAS IN THE THEATER ONLY FOR SERVICE TESTS. ONLY A FEW ARE IN SERVICE. THE AIR FORCE IN WASHINGTON SAID LAST MONTH THE B-45 WAS BEING USED FOR AERIAL RECONNAISSANCE.
THE F-94 IS A TWO-SEATER VERSION OF THE F-80 SHOOTING STAR, A JET FIGHTER LONG IN ACTION IN KOREA. THE F-94 CARRIES THE LATEST RADAR EQUIPMENT.
THE REPORT ESTIMATED THE AIR FORCE HAD INFLICTED MORE THAN 112,000 ENEMY CASUALTIES SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE WAR IN MAINTAINING "COMPLETE MASTERY OF THE AIR OVER KOREA."
AS FOR THE INCREASING ENEMY THREAT, THE REPORT SAID RECONNAISSANCE SHOWED "RUNWAYS ARE BEING LENGTHENED, REVETMENTS BUILT AND FUEL AND SUPPLY AREAS ARE BEING INSTALLED AT HERETOFORE DORMANT NORTH KOREAN FIELDS."
IT ADDED THAT ONE MAIN STREET IN THE NORTH KOREAN CAPITAL OF PYONGYANG HAD BEEN WIDENED BY BULLDOZING BUILDINGS AND HAS BEEN TURNED INTO A RUNWAY 7,000 FEET LONG.
THE REDS ALSO HAVE STRENGTHENED ANTIAIRCRAFT DEFENSES IN SUPPLY CENTERS. IT WAS ATTACKS ON THESE DEFENSES THAT COST THE FEAF 63 PLANES. ALL WERE LOST TO GROUND FIRE.
IN ALL, THE AIR FORCE HAS LOST 207 PILOTS AND CREWMEN KILLED SINCE JUNE 26. ANOTHER 301 WERE WOUNDED, 484 ARE MISSING AND THREE ARE KNOWN TO BE PRISONERS.
THE FEAF SAID IT FLEW ITS 200,000TH SORTIE OR INDIVIDUAL FLIGHT ON MAY 21, THE 330TH CONSECUTIVE DAY OF COMBAT OPERATIONS.
IN THE FEAF ARE THE U. S. FIFTH AIR FORCE, THE ROYAL AUSTRALIAN AIR FORCE, THE SOUTH AFRICAN AIR FORCE AND THE ROYAL HELLENIC AIR FORCE.

TOKYO, THURSDAY, MAY 24-(AP)- THE COMMUNIST RADIO AT PYONGYANG CLAIMED TODAY THAT RED ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS SHOT DOWN 23 AMERICAN PLANES AND DAMAGED ONE MORE ON THE EAST KOREAN FRONT IN THE PAST FOUR DAYS.
THE RED RADIO ASSERTED THAT IN THE EASTERN SECTOR NORTH KOREANS AND CHINESE CONTINUED TO TAKE A HEAVY TOLL OF ALLIED MEN AND SUPPLIES.
THE COMMUNIST SAID MORE THAN 7,000 ALLIED TROOPS WERE KILLED, INCLUDING AMERICANS, FRENCH AND SOUTH KOREANS; MORE THAN 6,000 CAPTURE, AND 31 TANKS, 800 VEHICLES AND A LARGE QUANTITY OF SMALL ARMS SEIZED.
THERE WAS NO ALLIED VERIFICATION OF ANY OF THESE ENEMY CLAIMS. THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON ANNOUNCED EARLIER THIS WEEK THAT U.N. DEAD AND WOUNDED WERE 1,618, OF WHICH 960 WERE AMERICAN, IN THE PERIOD OF MAY 16-21. THERE WAS NO REPORT ON MISSING PERSONNEL.

TOKYO,MAY 23-(AP)-COMMUNIST SHORE FIRE HIT THE 45,000 TON BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND THE DESTROYER BRINLEY BASS OFF THE NORTHEAST KOREAN PORT OF WONSAN, KILLING THREE AND INJURING NINE SAILORS.
VICE ADM.C.TURNER JOY SAID TODAY ONE MAN WAS KILLED AND THREE WERE INJURED SUNDAY WHEN A SHELL EXPLODED NEAR THE NEW JERSEY. THE MIGHTY BATTLEWAGON, SISTER SHIP OF THE MISSOURI AND JUST RECENTLY OUT OF MOTHBALLS, HAD FIRED HER FIRST SHOT IN THE KOREAN ACTION ONLY THE DAY BEFORE.
ONE MAN WAS KILLED OUTRIGHT ON THE DESTROYER AND SEVEN WERE WOUNDED. ONE OF THE WOUNDED DIED MONDAY. TWO OTHERS STILL WERE IN SERIOUS CONDITION.
IN WASHINGTON THE NAVY SAID THE TWO SHIPS WERE AT ANCHOR SHELLING SHORE INSTALLATIONS. A NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID SHIPS USUALLY KEEP MOVING WHILE FIRING ON GROUND TARGETS, BUT SOMETIMES ANCHOR WHERE THEY HAVE THE BEST FIELD OF FIRE ON FIXED POSITIONS.
JOY, U.S. FAR EAST NAVAL COMMANDER, SAID SHELLS BEGAN DROPPING AROUND THE TWO SHIPS AT 7 P.M. THE BRINKLEY BASS WAS STRUCK FIRST.
ONE RED SHELL SCORED A DIRECT HIT ON THE NO./ TURRET OF THE NEW JERSEY BUT DID NO DAMAGE TO THE HEAVILY-ARMORED SHIP.
THE FATAL NEAR-MISS LANDED NEXT. IT DID NO DAMAGE TO THE NEW JERSEY BUT TOOK A TOLL OF SEAMEN.
UNITED NATIONS WARSHIPS HAVE SHELLED WONSAN DAILY SINCE FEB. 16. DURING THE PAST FIVE DAYS COMMUNIST FIRE HAS INCREASED SHARPLY.
ALLIED SHIPS, INCLUDING THE MANCHESTER AND OTHER DESTROYERS, SILENCED THE SHORE GUNS. DIRECT HITS WERE OBSERVED ON GUNS AND AMMUNITION DUMPS ON THE KALMA PENINSULA.
THE NAVY IN WASHINGTON ANNOUNCED THE NAMES OF TWO OF THE MEN 'LLED AND THE NINE INJURED.

TOKYO, MAY 23-(AP)-THE ARMY ANNOUNCED TODAY DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSSES FOR EXTRAORDINARY HEROISM IN KOREA HAVE BEEN AWARDED TO CPL.GERALD L.DILLEY, LEWELLEN, NEB., AND SECOND LT.JAMES C. BARNES, JR., NORFOLK, VA.

DILLEY'S COMPANY WAS ATTACKING AN ENEMY POSITION NEAR HYBONG JAN. 30 WHEN HIS SQUAD LEADER WAS WOUNDED AND EVACUATED.
DILLEY, ALTHOUGH WOUNDED HIMSELF, TOOK COMMAND OF THE SQUAD AND CONTINUED THE ATTACK.
WHILE NEUTRALIZING TWO ENEMY POSITIONS, DILLEY WAS KNOCKED 100 FEET DOWN A NEARLY VERTICAL HILL BY AN ENEMY GRENADE WHICH FELL CLOSE TO HIM.
THE CITATION SAID DILLEY IGNORED HIS WOUNDS AND LED HIS SQUAD AHEAD AGAIN. WHEN TWO COMMUNIST MACHINEGUNS PINNED HIS COMPANY DOWN, DILLEY SINGLED OUT ONE OF THE ENEMY POSITIONS AND IN THE ATTACK KILLED FOUR REDS WITH HIS BAYONET AND RIFLE BUTT.
RED RESISTANCE CRUMBLED, AND DILLEY'S COMPANY MOVED FORWARD TO SECURE ITS OBJECTIVE.
BARNES WAS CITED FOR WIPING OUT AN ENEMY MACHINE GUN NEST WHILE IN A MOTOR CONVOY MOVING FROM HAGARU TO KOTO LAST DECEMBER ON THE NORTHEAST FRONT.
"A PORTION OF THE CONVOY WAS SERIOUSLY THREATENED BY A WELL-EMPLACED MACHINE GUN ON COMMANDING TERRAIN," THE CITATION SAID.
"REALIZING THE DANGER, LIEUTENANT BARNES ORDERED A PLATOON TO FOLLOW HIM AND MADE A RAPID CHARGE AGAINST THE ENEMY.
"LIEUTENANT BARNES DASHED ACROSS APPROXIMATELY 300 YARDS OF OPEN GROUND, RISKING NEARLY POINT-BLANK MACHINE GUN FIRE, AND DESTROYED THE MACHINE GUN WITH HAND GRENADES AND RIFLE FIRE. THIS ACTION ENABLED THE UNIT TO PROCEED AND PREVENTED HEAVY CASUALTIES AMONG THE CONVOY."

VALLEY OF DEAD (550)
BY ED JOHNSON
ASSOCIATED PRESS WAR PHOTOGRAPHER
EAST CENTRAL FRONT,KOREA,MAY 23-(AP)-FIRST MARINE DIVISION TROOPS ON THEIR WAY NORTH TODAY PASSED THE GRIM REMNANTS OF A U.S. BATTALION COMMAND POST IN THE "VALLEY OF THE DEAD."
THE VALLEY WAS OVERRUN BY CHINESE COMMUNISTS IN THE DARK MAY 17.
IT WAS ONCE A PEACEFUL LITTLE VALLEY WITH HIGH, FORRESTED HILLS ON EACH SIDE. IT WAS ONCE LIKE THE SPOT YOU MIGHT PICK FOR A PICNIC IN THE MOUNTAINS NEAR YOUR HOME.

BUT THERE WAS NO WAY OF KNOWING WHAT IT SEEMED LIKE TO THE HALF DOZEN WOUNDED MEN WHO WERE RESCUED TODAY AFTER BEING CUT OFF AND HELPLESS IN A SIX-DAY NIGHTMARE.

AS THEY WERE BROUGHT BACK THROUGH THE COMMAND POST BY A STREAM WHERE TENTS ONCE HAD STOOD THEY COULD SEE WHAT HAD HAPPENED.

THE CHINESE HAD SWARMED DOWN FROM THE HILLS. THEY HAD CUT OFF WHOLE ELEMENTS OF THE BATTALION AND SWOOPED UPON THE COMMAND POST FROM EVERY DIRECTION.

THEY HAD SHOT HOLES THROUGH EVERYTHING. TENTS WERE RIPPED APART BY BULLETS. TRUCKS WERE LIKE SIEVES. SOME WERE BURNED. OTHERS WERE BLOWN TO BITS. BURNED AND WRECKED VEHICLES WERE STREWN ALONG THE LITTLE VALLEY.

TWO LARGE TENTS REMAINED STANDING, ALTHOUGH THEY HAD BEEN RIPPED ALMOST TO SHREDS BY BULLETS. ONE TENT HAD BEEN THE BATTALION AID STATION.

INSIDE, MEDICINES AND PAPERS WERE STREWN ALL OVER THE GROUND. OUTSIDE, ONE BODY LAY ON A STRETCHER, AS IF THE MAN WAS BEING TREATED WHEN THE ENEMY STRUCK.

THE BODY OF ANOTHER U.S. SOLDIER LAY FACE DOWN IN A PILE OF BROKEN MEDICINE BOTTLES AND SCATTERED BANDAGES.

OUTSIDE THE DOORWAY OF THE OTHER TENT LAY THE BODY OF ANOTHER OFFICER, ONLY 10 FEET FROM HIS FOXHOLE.

THE INSIDE OF THE TENT WAS A MESS OF PAPERS, SOFT DRINK BOTTLES AND BROKEN FURNITURE. ALMOST UNTOUCHED AT ONE END OF THE TENT WAS A MAP BOARD STRIPPED OF ITS MAPS.

ONLY TWO THUMB TACKS REMAINED.

ALL AROUND THE TENT WERE THE PERSONAL EFFECTS OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS. EVERY PACK AND DUFFLE BAG HAD BEEN EMPTIED. THE CHINESE HAD GONE THROUGH THEM FOR VALUABLES, THROWING AWAY LETTERS, PICTURES OF SOLDIERS' LOVED ONES, SHAVING BRUSHES AND TOOTHPASTE.

ONE SOLDIER LAY FACE-DOWN IN A PADDY NEAR THE DEEP HOLE OF A SHELL BURST. BY HIS HEAD WAS AN EMPTY BILLFOLD. STREWN AROUND IT WERE CARDS WITH LITTLE NOTATIONS, TWO PICTURES OF A SMALL BABY AND ONE OF A YOUNG WOMAN WITH LONG DARK HAIR AND SMILING EYES.

BY HIS BLOODY HAND WAS A SMALL POCKET-SIZED BIBLE, HALF-COVERED WITH DIRT AND SOAKED WITH RAIN.

THERE WAS NO ONE THERE WHO COULD SAY EXACTLY WHAT HAD HAPPENED. HOW MANY AMERICANS WERE KILLED? HOW MANY WERE WOUNDED? HOW MANY WERE CAPTURED? HOW MANY ESCAPED? NO ONE KNEW.

BUT THE WOUNDED, ALL IN CRITICAL CONDITION WHEN THEY WERE FLOWN OUT BY HELICOPTER THIS MORNING, PIECED TOGETHER PART OF WHAT HAD HAPPENED.

THEY SAID THE CHINESE TOOK AWAY ALL THEIR WOUNDED AMERICAN COMRADES WHO COULD WALK. OTHERS WERE LEFT BEHIND TO DIE.

THE WOUNDED WERE FED A BOWL OF "SOMETHING LIKE MUSH" BY THE CHINESE.

THEN, AFTER THE ENEMY WENT AWAY, SOME KOREAN CIVILIANS FED THEM AND CARED FOR THEM THROUGH THE LONG DAYS AND THE LONGER NIGHTS IN THE VALLEY.

AS THE WOUNDED WERE CARRIED DOWN TO THE WAITING HELICOPTERS ONE TROOPER SAID:

"TAKE A LOOK. THIS IS WAR--THE DESTRUCTION IS ALL OVER THE JOINT--AND DEATH."

AND AS THE WOUNDED WERE FLOWN AWAY THE MARINES MOVED ON UP THE LITTLE VALLEY, PASSING MORE DESTRUCTION AND DEATH, CARRYING THE WAR TO THE CHINESE.

SURRENDER (680)

BY JOHN RANDOLPH

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, MAY 20-(DELAYED)-(AP)-"LOOK! LOOK! THERE'S ONE NOW. HE'S WAVING SOMETHING WHITE--A HANDKERCHIEF."

PFC WILLIAM LINHARD, 153 CHATEAU AVE., BALTIMORE, POINTS TO SOME GREEN SCRUB ACROSS THE WIDE DRAW IN THE HILLSIDE.

OTHER RIFLEMEN SWING AROUND IN THEIR FOXHOLES AND ROCKY DUGOUTS. SOME CUP HANDS OVER EYES, SHIELDING OUT THE SUN. OTHERS RAISE BINOCULARS.

LT.GENE C.KURCOB, 1134 WOLCOTT ST., CHICAGO, SHOUTS:

"BY GOD, IT IS ONE OF THEM. WE'VE GOT TO GET HIM. VOLUNTEERS!"

THERE HAD BEEN A SAVAGE FIGHT THAT MORNING.

A NORTH KOREAN BATTALION AT DAWN STORMED ACROSS THE JAGGED CREST, CROWNED BY A MEDIEVAL WALL.

EVEN WHEN THEY RAN INTO TRIPLE BARBED WIRE, MINE FIELDS AND A TORRENT OF AMERICAN MACHINEGUN AND MORTAR FIRE, THE REDS STILL TRIED. THEY STORMED WITHIN HAND GRENADE DISTANCE BEFORE THEIR ATTACK DISSOLVED INTO A BLOODY, BROKEN WRECK.

THE DEAD LAY WHERE THEY HAD FALLEN, STIFFENED IN ODD POSTURES.

THE WOUNDED WHIMPERED.

THERE WERE REDS UNHURT, TOO, HIDING ON THE BRUSH COVERED SLOPE OR IN DEEP RAVINES, AFRAID TO MOVE A MUSCLE UNDER THE WAITING GUNS.

THE MEN OF E COMPANY--FROM THE SECOND BATTALION OF A FAMOUS U.S. REGIMENT--DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THE REDS DOWN THERE WOULD SURRENDER OR TRY AGAIN TO KILL.

SO KURCOB TRIED HIS SCHEME. HE SENT OUT THE COMPANY'S BOY KOREAN INTERPRETER, JACKIE, WITH A RIFLE ESCORT.

JACKIE BELLOWED IN BRASSY KOREAN, OVER AND OVER:

"COME ON NOW ... SURRENDER! WE DO NOT SHOOT YOU! WE GIVE WATER AND PLENTY FOOD ... DOCTORS DRESS YOUR WOUNDS. SURRENDER! SURRENDER! DON'T BE FOOLS! COME OUT WITH HANDS UP ... WE DO NOT SHOOT!"

THEN THE WHITE HANDKERCHIEF WAVED. ANOTHER RED PUMPED HIS HAND.

"YOU OVER THERE GET THE ONE WITH THE RAG," KURCOB BARKS. "NOW, VOLUNTEERS FOR THE ONE AT THE BOTTOM."

"WHAT ABOUT THE MINES?" ASKS PFC MICHAEL J.KILLARNEY, 149 W.60TH ST., NEW YORK.

"GET GROSS TO SHOW YOU, HE KNOWS WHERE HE LAID THEM."

THE SQUAD STARTS DOWN THE BARE NOSE OF THE HILL, WORKS THROUGH THE BARBED WIRE AND TIPTOES SINGLE FILE THROUGH THE YELLOW SAND OF THE MINEFIELD.

KURCOB PICKS UP A WALKIE-TALKIE AND BELLOWS:

"HELL, MIKE, I'M GOING WITH YOU AND GIVE YOU SOME COVER."

THE MEN HOLD THEIR M-1S READY AT WAIST LEVEL AND SWEEP THE ROCKS AND BRUSH BELOW WITH SEARCHING EYES.

"HOLD IT," KILLARNEY RASPS. "THERE HE IS ... JACKIE, TELL HIM TO COME OUT WITH HANDS UP ... TELL HIM IF HE SCREWS UP WE'LL BLAST HIM."

MAY 23 1951

THE MOMENT IS TENSE. IS IT REAL, OR IS IT A TRAP? THE next NEW FEW SECONDS WILL TELL.

THE RED, IN BROWN WOOL UNIFORM WITH BAGGY PANTS, WALKS SLOWLY UP THE HILL TOWARD US, HANDS CLASPED ATOP HIS HEAD.

ON THE HILL, EVERY TRIGGER IS CRADLED BY A FINGER. ONE WRONG GESTURE, ONE NERVOUS MOTION AND THE RED KOREAN WILL DIE.

HE COMES ON IN. THE TENSION EASES.

SUDDENLY A SHOUT. "THERE'S ANOTHER. OVER THERE."

THEN ANOTHER ... SIX ... EIGHT, NINE ...

THAT FIRST RED WAS NOT A DECOY; HE WAS A GUINEA PIG.

IN AN INSTANT THE FLOOR OF THE LITTLE VALLEY IS FILLED WITH SURRENDERING NORTH KOREANS, SOME UNHURT, SOME HOBBLING, AND SOME ONLY MOANING LOUDER AMONG THE STILL FORMS OF THE DEAD.

THE LITTLE PATROL HAS BAGGED ONE OF THE BIGGEST PRISONER HAULS OF THE WAR.

BUT STILL, THE VALLEY IS NO EASY PLACE. THE PATROL IS FAR OUT, SWAMPED WITH PRISONERS AND NEAR THE ENEMY'S POSITIONS. THE GROUND

IS LITTERED WITH RIFLES, TOMMY GUNS AND HAND GRENADES. THERE ARE MORE WOUNDED REDS UP EVERY RAVINE AND DRAW.

IT WOULD TAKE ONLY ONE SHOT TO TOUCH OFF A MASSACRE.

THE PATROL CALLS FOR MORE MANPOWER--QUICK--GOES THE WORD.

SOME GIS START THE REDS UP THE HILL, HELPING OR CARRYING THEIR OWN WOUNDED. THE GIS CALL FOR AMERICAN MEDICS AND LITTERS FOR THE BAD CASES.

OTHERS FAN OUT TO COVER SIDE RAVINES.

"WE OUGHT TO KILL ALL THEM GAWD DAMN GOOKS," ONE GI SAYS. BUT THE GIS HANDLE THE GOOK LITTERS AS CAREFULLY AS THEIR OWN AND CURSE THE RED KOREAN BEARERS WHEN THEY STUMBLE OR BUMP. MANY OF THE REDS ARE YOUTHS NOT OUT OF THEIR 'TEENS.

THE ORDER COMES DOWN TO DESTROY ALL ENEMY FOOD AND BRING BACK HIS WEAPONS.

THE GIS AND REDS STAGGER UPHILL WITH THEIR BURDENS. IT IS A LONG, GASPING GRIND.

GI BANZAIS (650)

BY WILLIAM C.BARNARD

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, MAY 21-(DELAYED)-(AP)-BROAD-SHOULDERED CORPORAL TOLD TODAY HOW GIS MADE A NIGHT BANZAI CHARGE ON ATTACKING CHINESE REDS AND BROKE OUT OF A TRAP.

EARLIER IN THE NIGHT HE HAD CRAWLED FOR THREE HOURS THROUGH A RING OF CHINESE TO SAFETY, THEN RETURNED TO RESCUE WOUNDED.

CPL. PAUL ANDERSON OF 60 SAGAMORE ST., REVERE, MASS., LEANED ON A BORROWED RIFLE AS HE RELATED THE STORY. HIS OWN HAD BEEN WRECKED BY A CHINESE BULLET.

IT HAPPENED THE NIGHT OF MAY 17 WHEN HIS SECOND DIVISION COMPANY FOUGHT FROM RIDGE TO RIDGE TO GET AWAY FROM SWARMING CHINESE.

"THOSE CHINKS WOULD PLAY THEIR BUGLES AND BLOW THEIR WHISTLES AND CHARGE," ANDERSON SAID. "WE FOUGHT LIKE HELL BUT THEY GOT A LOT OF US UP ON THAT RIDGE.

"ME AND MY ASSISTANT SQUAD LEADER WERE TOGETHER AND WE STARTED UP ANOTHER HILL. IT WAS 9:30 P.M. CHINESE WERE ALL AROUND US. WE GOT DOWN ON HOUR HANDS AND KNEES AND CRAWLED.

"WE CRAWLED FOR THE NEXT THREE HOURS. ALL THE TIME WE COULD HEAR THE CHINAMEN TALKING."

ONCE THEY CRAWLED BETWEEN TWO CHINESE, SO CLOSE ANDERSON SAID "I'LL SEAR WE COULD SMELL THE GARLIC."

ABOUT 1 A.M. THEY FOUND SIX AMERICAN WOUNDED AND HELPED THEM UNTIL THEY MET SOUTH KOREANS WHO TOOK THE WOUNDED BACK TOWARD AMERICAN LINES.

THE CORPORAL AND HIS COMPANION JOINED A LIEUTENANT TO LOOK FOR MORE WOUNDED. OTHERS JOINED THEM.

"WE WERE GOING ALONG, VERY CAREFULLY," ANDERSON SAID, "WHEN CHINESE ON A HILL OPENED FIRE ON US. I DOVE INTO A CREEK BED AND FELT SOMETHING SNAG MY ARM AND HIT MY RIFLE. A BULLET HAD GONE THROUGH MY FIELD JACKET AND BROKEN THE STOCK ON MY RIFLE."

HE FOUND ANOTHER RIFLE.

"THERE WERE 18 OF US NOW AND WE DECIDED TO FIND A COMMAND POST SOUTH OF US," THE CORPORAL SAID. ANDERSON LED THE PARTY.

BUT AFTER GOING A MILE HE LOOKED AROUND AND FOUND "THE 17 OTHER GUYS HAD JUST PLAIN DISAPPEARED."

ANDERSON WENT ON ALONE. AS HE NEARED THE COMMAND POST HE CRAWLED UNTIL "ALL OF A SUDDEN SOMEONE POKED A RIFLE IN MY FACE AND I IDENTIFIED MYSELF RIGHT QUICK.

"'COME ON IN,' THE FELLOW SAID. 'WE ARE SURROUNDED AND WE ARE GLAD TO HAVE YOU WITH US.'

"I FOUND OUT RIGHT AWAY THAT THE CHINESE WERE GETTING READY TO ATTACK AND ANYBODY COULD TELL IT BY JUST LISTENING. THEY WERE BLOWING BUGLES AND I REMEMBER ONE BUGLE WAS PLAYING TAPS. IT WAS ABOUT 3 A.M.

"SOME KOREAN CARRIERS THAT WORKED FOR THE AMERICAN ARMY CAME DOWN A HILL TRYING TO GET TO THE COMMAND POST AND HOLLERING OUT THAT THEY WERE CARRIERS.

"THE CHINESE STARTED MOWING THEM DOWN WITH MACHINEGUNS AND THE GROANS OF THE WOUNDED WERE PRETTY TERRIBLE TO HEAR.

A98FX

"WE WERE HOLDING OUR FIRE, GETTING READY FOR THE ATTACK, WHEN A CAPTAIN SAID:

"'FELLOWS, I THINK WE HAD BETTER GIVE THE CHINKS A BANZAI CHARGE BEFORE THEY GIVE US ONE.'

"WE WAITED FOR A MINUTE WATCHING THE BLACK FIGURES OF THOSE DEVILS SWARMING AROUND OUT THERE IN THE DARK. THEN WE CHARGED.

"WE CHARGED TOWARD A ROAD THAT LED TO THE REAR. ALL OF US WERE HOLLERING AND WHOOPING AND SHOOTING. SOME OF THE CHINKS GOT SCARED AND THREW DOWN THEIR WEAPONS AND RAN.

"BUT THE REST OF THEM TURNED A HELL OF A LOT OF FIRE ON US AND A LOT OF OUR BOYS GOT IT. OUR BOYS WHO WENT DOWN, THOSE THAT WEREN'T KILLED, WERE SCREAMING FOR HELP.

"AND SOME OF THE SOLDIERS WERE HOLLERING, 'LET'S GO BACK. WE CAN'T GET OUT.'

"I KNEW WE COULD AND I YELLED, 'COME ON! THE HELL WITH IT! WE CAN GET THROUGH 'EM!'

"I FOUND THE ROAD AND WENT DOWN IT."

ABOUT DAWN ANDERSON MET FIVE AMERICAN TANKS, ACCOMPANIED BY DUTCH SOLDIERS. HE GUIDED THEM BACK TO THE COMMAND POST.

"WE STARTED PICKING UP THE WOUNDED AND THE BODIES AND A LOT OF UNWOUNDED GIS CAME OUT OF THE BRUSH WHERE THEY HAD BEEN HIDING," ANDERSON SAID. "WE DIDN'T SEE ANY CHINESE.

"BUT WHILE WE WERE STILL LOADING THE BODIES ON THE TANKS THE CHINESE OPENED UP ON US. THEY WERE ON THE HILLS ALL AROUND US.

"I CRAWLED UNDER A WRECKED JEEP AND BEGAN SHOOTING AND I'LL TELL YOU IT WAS A HELL OF A FIGHT. WE REALLY KNOCKED OFF THE CHINESE. THE FIGHT LASTED AN HOUR AND THEN THE CHINKS QUIT. THERE WERE CHINESE BODIES ALL OVER THE PLACE.

MP FOR FARGO (ASKED) (500)

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, MAY 23-(AP)-THE LAST FLIGHT OF TWO GREAT FLIERS WAS ONE THEY DID NOT HAVE TO MAKE.

IT WAS AN IMPORTANT FLIGHT. BUT NO ONE IN THE FIFTH AIRFORCE EXPECTS A COUPLE OF LIEUTENANT-COLONELS--EXECUTIVES AT THAT--TO CLIMB INTO A JET PLANE AT DAWN AND STREAK OFF INTO A MURKY SKY ON A WEATHER RECONNAISSANCE MISSION.

BUT THAT'S WHAT THEY DID.

THEIR SHATTERED PLANE AND BODIES LATER WERE FOUND ON A MOUNTAINSIDE.

LT.-COL. WALTER K. SELANGER HAD MORE HOURS IN JETS THAN ANY MAN IN THE U.S. AIRFORCE--2,041--AND WHEN YOU COUNT THE HOURS HE HAD FLOWN IN ALL KINDS OF AIRCRAFT, THEY STACKED UP TO MORE THAN 7,000.

LT.-COL. LELAND P. MOLLAND WAS A VETERAN, TOO. IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR HE FLEW AN AMAZING 167 MISSIONS OVER EUROPE AND DESTROYED 11 GERMAN PLANES.

WITH THEIR EASY ALERTNESS, NIMBLE INTELLIGENCE AND HIGH COURAGE, SELANGER AND MOLLAND WERE TYPICAL OF THE AIRFORCE'S BEST. SELANGER WAS GREY-HAIRED AT 34. MOLLAND WAS 31. THEY WERE GETTING UP IN YEARS AS JET PILOTS GO.

MOLLAND WAS FROM FARGO, N.D., AND HIS WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN LIVED AT 14 CANDLE LANE, LEVITTOWN, N.Y. HE JOINED THE AIRFORCE AS SOON AS HE GOT OUT OF NORTH DAKOTA STATE COLLEGE. ALMOST ALL OF HIS 551

HOURS OF COMBAT WERE ROLLED UP OVER EUROPE.
HE HAD THE SILVER STAR AND TWO DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSSES AND THE BRONZE STAR AND 38 AIR MEDALS. SELANGER'S COLLECTION INCLUDED TWO DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSSES AND 21 AIR MEDALS.
WHEN MOLLAND CAME TO KOREA LAST SUMMER, HE WAS MADE AN AIR LIAISON OFFICER OF THE U.S. FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION BUT LATER WAS TRANSFERRED TO THE 49TH FIGHTER BOMBER WING AT THE SAME FIELD WITH SELANGER. THEY WERE GOOD FRIENDS.
SELANGER WAS GROUP OPERATIONS OFFICER OF THE 49TH FIGHTER WING AND DEPUTY GROUP COMMANDER, AN ASSIGNMENT MOLLAND TOOK OVER WHEN SELANGER WAS PROMOTED TO HIS LAST POSITION WITH THE AIRFORCE. IT WAS A BRAND NEW JOB WITH A ~~TECHNICAL NAME. --SELANGER WAS CONSIDERED THE WISEST~~ BIRD IN KOREA WHEN IT CAME TO BATTLING THE ENEMY, AND THE AIRFORCE DECIDED TO PUT HIS KNOWLEDGE TO THE FULLEST POSSIBLE USE.

B40KX (Q)
"WHEN THESE YOUNGER PILOTS GO OUT AND FLY THEIR BATTLE MISSIONS," THE AIRFORCE TOLD HIM, "YOU FLY WITH THEM AND MAKE REPORTS ON HOW THEIR COMBAT EFFECTIVENESS CAN BE IMPROVED."
THIS SUITED SELANGER RIGHT DOWN TO HIS TOES--IT GAVE HIM A CHANCE TO DO PLENTY OF FLYING.
A MOUNTAIN VIEW, CALIF., BOY, HE WAS GRADUATED FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF SANTA CLARA IN 1939. HE TOOK A JOB AS A TEACHER AND COACH AT INGLEWOOD, CALIF., UNION HIGH SCHOOL. THREE MONTHS BEFORE PEARL HARBOR HE JOINED THE AIR FORCE.
OTHER PILOTS SAID HE HAD KILLED MORE CHINESE THAN ANY OTHER AIRMAN, AND THAT SEEMS LIKELY. HE ALWAYS WANTED THE FIRST CHANCE AT MACHINEGUNNING A RIDGELINE OR NAPALMING AN ENEMY TANK. IT NEVER BOTHERED HIM TO ZOOM TO THE VERY MOUTH OF AN ANTIAIRCRAFT GUN TO KNOCK IT OUT.
WHEN THE AIRFORCE ANNOUNCED THE NEWS OF THE FATAL FLIGHT, IT DIDN'T GIVE MANY DETAILS.
THEY HAD COMPLETED THE SWEEP TO NORTH KOREA AND WERE ON THE LAST LEG OF THEIR TRIP HOME WHEN SELANGER RADIOED THEY WERE FLYING AT 20,000 FEET AND WOULD NEED A RADAR LANDING AID TO DESCENT SAFELY THROUGH THE SOLID OVERCAST AND MAKE A LANDING.
THAT WAS THE LAST THE FIELD HEARD FROM SELANGER AND MOLLAND. SOMETHING WENT WRONG. THE SHATTERED PLANE AND THEIR BODIES WERE FOUNI ON THE SIDE OF A MOUNTAIN NEAR THE AIRFIELD.

PUSAN,KOREA,MAY 23-(AP)-APPROXIMATELY 40 PER CENT OF ALL SOUTH KOREAN BANK NOTES ISSUED IN THE PAST EIGHT MONTHS HAVE BEEN LENT TO UNITED NATIONS FORCES, A KOREAN GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID TODAY.
THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA RECENTLY REQUESTED THE REPAYMENT OF THE LOAN, ESTIMATED TO EQUAL $22,000,000. IT SAID THE MONEY WAS NEEDED TO MEET AN ECONOMIC CRISIS.
THE REPUBLIC ALSO HAS ASKED FOR ECONOMIC STABILIZATION AID. THE REQUESTS BOTH FOR AID AND FOR REPAYMENT OF THE LOAN WERE MADE THROUGH U.S. AMBASSADOR JOHN J. MUCCIO.
THE KOREANS MADE THE LOAN TO U.N. FORCES UNDER AN AGREEMENT CONCLUDED LAST JULY WITH THE UNITED STATES. INFLATION AND THE COSTS OF CARING FOR 5,000,000 WAR REFUGEES HAVE MULTIPLIED THE KOREAN GOVERNMENT'S PROBLEMS.

-0-(DASH)
IN WASHINGTON, OFFICIALS EXPLAINED THAT LOCAL CURRENCY OBTAINED UNDER THE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN USED BY THE MILITARY TO MEET CERTAIN TYPES OF LOCAL EXPENSES, SUCH AS PAYING COSTS OF RAIL TRANSPORTATION, AND TO PROVIDE THE TROOPS WITH A PORTION OF THEIR PAY IN KOREAN CURRENCY.
AGAINST THE SUMS RELEASED TO THE MILITARY BY THE KOREANS, THE U.S. DEFENSE DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN DEPOSITING MONEY IN A "SUSPENSE ACCOUNT" HELD BY THE U.S. TREASURY, TO MEET ANY BALANCE OF KOREAN CLAIMS OVER THOSE OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMMAND.
THE SOUTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT, THE OFFICIAL SAID, APPARENTLY IS SEEKING TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS DOLLAR FUND AT THE PRESENT TIME.
ECONOMIC EXPERTS IN WASHINGTON SAID THAT SOUTH KOREA HAS SUFFERED SOME INFLATION AS A RESULT OF THE WAR BUT THAT IT DOES NOT APPEAR TO HAVE REACHED THE POINT OF AN ECONOMIC CRISIS. IT WAS ALSO SAID THAT THE TOTAL OF THE SUSPENSE ACCOUNT FUNDS IS RELATIVELY SMALL IN COMPARISON WITH THE QUANTITY OF RELIEF ASSISTANCE WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAS FURNISHED IN KOREA.

SINGAPORE, MAY 23-(AP)-THE BRITISH FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER EDGED BACK INTO SINGAPORE'S FAMED OUTER ROADS TODAY WITH 3,700 TONS OF MALAYAN RUBBER, ORIGINALLY DESTINED FOR COMMUNIST CHINA, STILL PACKED IN HER HOLD.
A ROYAL NAVY MINESWEEPER ESCORTED THE NANCY MOLLER BACK TO THE GREAT PORT WHICH SHE HAD LEFT MAY 12--TWO DAYS AFTER BRITAIN ANNOUNCED A BAN ON RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA.
THE CROWN COLONY OF SINGAPORE AND THE COMPANION GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERATION OF MALAYA ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT ANY MORE RUBBER SHIPMENTS TO THE CHINESE REDS WOULD BE BANNED.
THE BRITISH DESTROYER COSSACK INTERCEPTED THE FREIGHTER AND A ROYAL AIR FORCE PLANE CIRCLED OVERHEAD UNTIL THE MINESWEEPER TOOK OVER THE ESCORT TASK.
WHETHER THE RUBBER WILL BE UNLOADED OR WHETHER THE NANCY MOLLER WILL MAKE THE TRIP DIRECT TO ENGLAND WITH THE RUBBER IS UNCERTAIN. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAS AGREED TO PURCHASE SUCH CARGO AT A FAIR PRICE.
MEANWHILE, THE GOVERNMENT ORDERED ANOTHER VESSEL--THE PANAMA-REGISTERED NORBAY, WHICH IS BEING HELD UNDER ARMED GUARD IN SINGAPORE HARBOR WITH 750 TONS OF RUBBER ALSO SLATED FOR RED CHINA--TO UNLOAD IMMEDIATELY. GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE NORBAY'S EXPORT LICENSE WAS CANCELLED BY THE RUBBER BAN.
AGENTS FOR THE SHIP SAID THEY WERE PUZZLED BY THE ORDER, DECLARING THAT THE RUBBER BELONGS TO CONSIGNEES IN HONG KONG. IT IS UNDERSTOOD THEY WILL UNLOAD THE CARGO, HOWEVER.
THE NANCY MOLLER'S SKIPPER, CAPTAIN ARTHUR WAITES OF COVENTRY, ENG., SAID HIS CREW WAS GLAD TO GET BACK TO SINGAPORE, BECAUSE THEY DIDN'T WANT TO TAKE THE RUBBER INTO A RED PORT.
HE SAID WHEN HE LEFT SINGAPORE HE KNEW OF THE BRITISH BAN ON EXPORTS AND WAS PREPARED FOR THE "REQUISITIONING."
WAITES SAID, "IN PEACE OR WAR IT IS A PLEASURE TO OBEY THE BRITISH NAVY."
THE 36-YEAR-OLD CAPTAIN SAID HIS VESSEL WAS FIRST CONTACTED BY A SUNDERLAND FLYING BOAT WHICH MESSAGED HIM TO PROCEED TOWARDS HONG KONG. THEN HE WAS MET BY THE COSSACK, WHICH TURNED ABOUT AND SET A COURSE FOR SINGAPORE. THE COSSACK TURNED THE MOLLER OVER TO THE MINESWEEPER MICHAEL 500 MILES OFF SINGAPORE.
THE MOLLER PULLED UP IN SINGAPORE ROADS NEAR THE NORBAY, WITH THE BRITISH NAVAL CRAFT, ALERT, LYING BETWEEN THEM.
WAITES SAID THE MOLLER ACTUALLY WAS NOT PROCEEDING ANYWHERE DURING THE TRIP, BUT WAS AWAITING INSTRUCTIONS, ALTHOUGH IT HAD BEEN CLEARED FOR HONG KONG AND CANTON.

A MOSCOW DISPATCH SAID DIPLOMATS THERE FEAR BRITAIN MAY HAVE TO USE ARMED FORCES IF SHE IS TO RETAIN THE INTERESTS OF HER ANGLO-AMERICAN OIL COMPANY IN IRAN AND THAT, IF SHE DOES, IRAN MAY REPLACE KOREA AS THE GREATEST DANGER TO WORLD PEACE. IRANIAN
HOWEVER, INFORMED LONDON SOURCES SAID TUESDAY THAT BRITAIN, UNDER AMERICAN PRESSURE, HAS DROPPED ANY IMMEDIATE THREAT OF USING ARMED FORCE.
THE BRITISH WAR OFFICE ANNOUNCED TONIGHT IT WILL DISCLOSE LATE THIS WEEK THE DESTINATION OF ITS ALERTED 16TH PARACHUTE TROOP BRIGADE.
THIS GROUP OF 4,000 MEN WAS CALLED BACK FROM MANEUVERS LAST WEEK AS A BRITISH NOTE TO IRAN WAS PREPARED WARNING OF "THE MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" IF THERE WAS FAILURE IN NEGOTIATING A SETTLEMENT OF THE OIL NATIONALIZATION ISSUE.
THE PURPOSE OF THE ALERT NEVER HAS BEEN OFFICIALLY DISCLOSED.

Paris, May 23--(AP)--The national assembly was scheduled to hold its last session today and make way for general elections on June 17, but got tangled up with the budget.

The 2,648,000,000,000 (f) franc budget ($7,560,000,000) was approved by the assembly last week, but came back for a second vote after action by the upper house. It needed 311 votes, but got only 306 when socialists abstained.

The socialists, who compete with communists for anti-church votes, objected to tax exemptions for private schools which would have benefitted catholic schools chiefly. The issue is an old one between the socialists and the strongly catholic popular republicans, two parties in the government. The tax exemptions amounted to about 200,000,000 francs ($600,000).

The government immediately brought in a new budget which removed the tax exemptions. The assembly passed it by the narrow margin of 183 to 182. Should the upper house, the council of the republic, reject the new budget 311 votes will be needed in the assembly to pass i reject it the assembly a second time.

MADRID, MAY 23-(AP)-SPANISH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID TODAYTHAT RELATIONS BETWEEN SPAIN AND FRANCE HAVE REACHED THEIR LOWEST EBB SINCE THE PYRENEES FRONTIER BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES WAS CLOSED IN FEBRUARY, 1946.

A SERIES OF INCIDENTS HAS PRODUCED THE ILL FEELING ON THE SPANISH SIDE. THE LATEST WAS THE DISCOVERY LAST NIGHT ON SPANISH TERRITORY OF A PORTABLE RADIO TRANSMITTER IN A FRENCH LICENSED TRUCK.

NEITHER FRENCH NOR SPANISH POLICE WOULD GIVE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT THE TRUCK OR ITS OCCUPANTS. IT HAS BEEN IMPOSSIBLE TO LEARN ANYTHING OF THE REASONS FOR ITS PRESENCE IN SPAIN.

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 10 A.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME THURSDAY, MAY 24 --------NOTE DATE)

(ADVANCE).....FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MAY 24-(AP)-U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J. MCCLOY SAID TODAY THAT COMMUNIST LEADERS IN WESTERN GERMANY ARE "INDICATING" TO THE PARTY'S INNER CIRCLE THAT A SOVIET ATTACK MAY COME ANY TIME "THIS YEAR OR NEXT OR THE YEAR AFTER".

"WHEN RED TROOPS MOVE WESTWARD, THE FAITHFUL ARE TOLD, PARTY WORKERS MUST BE READY TO PERFORM ALLOTTED TASKS OF SABOTAGE, ERECT ROAD BLOCKS, CONDUCT PARTISAN WARFARE AND SPOT TARGETS," MCCLOY SAID IN HIS QUARTERLY REPORT TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

"COMMUNIST PARTY LEADERS IN WESTERN GERMANY ARE INTENT UPON IMPARTING A SENSE OF IMMEDIACY TO TRUSTED PARTY WORKERS," HE ADDED.

MCCLOY SAID THAT IN RECENT MONTHS THE MAJOR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA EFFORT HAS COME INTO CLEAR FOCUS:

"IT IS TO UNDERMINE WEST GERMANS' WILL TO RESIST AGGRESSION FROM THE EAST AND PREDISPOSE THEM TO ACCEPT COMMUNIST RULE."

COMMUNIST PROPAGANDISTS, MCCLOY SAID, HAVE CHOSEN THREE THEMES UNDERSTANDABLY CLOSE TO THE HEARTS OF ALL GERMANS -- PEACE, GERMAN UNITY AND AN EARLY END TO THE OCCUPATION.

"THE THREAT IS MADE THAT GERMAN PARTICIPATION IN WESTERN SELF-DEFENSE MUST MEAN WAR, NOT PEACE, AND THE SPIRIT OF NEUTRALISM IS ACTIVELY FOSTERED TO IMPEDE SUCH PARTICIPATION ON THE ONE HAND AND ALLEGEDLY TO GUARANTEE PEACE ON THE OTHER," HE EXPLAINED.

THE REDS "ALSO MAINTAIN THAT THE (WEST GERMAN) FEDERAL REPUBLIC'S PARTICIPATION IN WEST EUROPEAN DEFENSE WOULD COST THE WEST GERMANS MONEY, WHICH IS TRUE, AND ALLEGE THAT THIS BURDEN WOULD CRUSH THE GERMAN ECONOMY AND STANDARD OF LIVING, WHICH IT WOULD NOT."

MCCLOY ADDED THAT IT APPEARS UNLIKELY THAT THESE PROPAGANDA TRICKS "WOULD FIND MANY BUYERS IN THE WESTERN ZONES AND LEAST OF ALL IN BERLIN, WHERE COMMUNIST HARASSMENT CONTINUED BUT FAILED TO SLOW DOWN THE GRADUAL REHABILITATION OF ITS COURAGEOUS PEOPLE."

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IS REJECTED BY THE BULK OF THE WEST GERMAN PEOPLE ANYWHERE IT CAN BE IDENTIFIED, HE SAID. BUT IN MANY CASES SOURCES ARE UNIDENTIFIED AND IN SOME CASES A COMMUNIST "LINE" MAY BE ADOPTED, "PARTICULARLY IF IT TAKES A NON-SYMPATHETIC ATTITUDE TOWARD THE OCCUPATION POWERS."

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER SAID THE SOVIET UNION IS "GRAVELY ALARMED" AT WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND "AT THE PROSPECT IT MIGHT BE ASSIMILATED TO THE WEST TO STRENGTHEN THE COMMUNITY OF FREE NATIONS NOW BANDED TOGETHER TO RESIST SOVIET AGGRESSION."

SOVIET STRATEGY, HE DECLARED, IS TO "MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO THWART THE INTEGRATION OF GERMANY INTO THE WEST."

A73

THE PRELIMINARY TALKS OF THE FOUR-POWER DEPUTIES AT PARIS, WHICH STILL ARE UNDER WAY, "MADE IT OBVIOUS THAT THE U.S.S.R. WAS INTENT UPON USING A FOUR-POWER CONFERENCE TO THWART FURTHER INTEGRATION OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC INTO THE WEST AND THUS PROMOTE COMMUNIST INTRIGUE AND INFLUENCE THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE OF GERMANY," MCCLOY SAID. HE WENT ON:

"IT IS CLEAR THAT THE PRESENT RULERS OF THE EAST ZONE GOVERNMENT AND THEIR SOVIET MASTERS ARE INTERESTED IN GERMAN UNIFICATION ONLY AS A DEVICE FOR STRENGTHENING SOVIET DOMINATION IN GERMANY AND EXTENDING IT TO THE WESTERN ZONES UNDER SPECIOUS PLEAS OF PEACE AND UNITY."

MCCLOY REPORTED THAT IN WEST GERMANY THE IDEA OF NEUTRALISM HAS LOST SOME OF ITS APPEAL.

ALTHOUGH ALLIED REINFORCEMENTS HAVE STARTED MOVING TO WEST GERMANY, THE GERMANS EXPRESS GREAT DISSATISFACTION WITH OCCUPATION COSTS WHICH HELP MEET THE EXPENSE OF BUILDING UP ALLIED STRENGTH, HE SAID.

MCCLOY STRESSED THAT WEST GERMANY'S DEFENSE BURDEN IS NOT EXCESSIVE AND GERMAN TAXPAYERS DO NOT BEAR HIGHER DEFENSE COSTS ALONE.

BY PAYMENT OF OCCUPATION COSTS DURING THE COMING YEAR, GERMANY WILL CONTRIBUTE ABOUT 6.2 PER CENT OF ITS GROSS NATIONAL PRODUCT TO THE SUPPORT OF WESTERN DEFENSE FORCES, HE SAID, ADDING:

"THIS DOES NOT SEEM AN EXAGGERATED BURDEN WHEN COMPARED WITH THE 7.9 PER CENT WHICH FRANCE ALLOTS TO MILITARY EXPENDITURES, THE 8.2 PER CENT WHICH THE UNITED KINGDOM CONTRIBUTES, AND THE 17 PER CENT WHICH THE UNITED STATES DEVOTES TO DEFENSE PURPOSES."

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, MAY 23-(AP)-YUGOSLAVIA SAID TODAY SHE HAS ASKED ARGENTINA TO SURRENDER ANTE PAVELIC, WHO RULED CROATIA AS A PUPPET FOR HITLER IN WORLD WAR II, FOR TRIAL ON WAR CRIMES CHARGES.
THE INFORMATION MINISTRY OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT MADE PUBLIC A STERN NOTE HANDED SATURDAY TO THE ARGENTINE MINISTER, FRANCISCO CANOSA. THE NOTE CHARGED THAT ARGENTINA HAD PROVIDED SANCTUARY FOR MANY OF PAVELIC'S WARTIME TERRORIST USTACHI ORGANIZATION "AND OTHER WAR CRIMINALS" AS WELL AS PAVELIC HIMSELF.
(THE ARGENTINE FOREIGN OFFICE IN BUENOS AIRES DECLINED COMMENT ON THE YUGOSLAV NOTE.)

THE USTACHIS HAVE BEEN ACCUSED OF KILLING 700,000 SERBS AND JEWS IN CROATIA, A NORTHERN SECTION OF YUGOSLAVIA. REGARDED AS THE MAJOR WORLD WAR II CRIMINAL STILL AT LARGE, PAVELIC IS UNDER INDICTMENT ON FORMAL INTERNATIONAL LISTS.
OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT SOURCES CONTEND THAT PAVELIC AND A HANDFUL OF HIS FOLLOWERS HAVE SET UP AN "ILLEGAL EXILED GOVERNMENT" IN ARGENTINA IN THE HOPE THAT A THIRD WORLD WAR WILL RESTORE HIM TO POWER IN CROATIA.
THE NOTE SAID A FORMER USTACHI POLICE GENERAL, IVAN HERENCI, IS NOW EMPLOYED BY THE ARGENTINE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC WORKS IN BUENOS AIRES UNDER THE ALIAS OF HUAN HORVAT AND THAT A FORMER CROATIAN MINISTER, JOSIP BALEN, IS EMPLOYED BY THE ARGENTINE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE NAME OF IVAN BARAC.
YUGOSLAVIA CHARGED THAT ARGENTINA'S FOREIGN MINISTRY HAS FAVORED THE USTACHI EMIGRES THROUGH AN ARRANGEMENT WITH A COMMISSION OF ST.FRANCISCO PRIESTS WHICH, IT SAID, PROVIDED FALSE DOCUMENTS OF BIRTH, NAMES, OCCUPATIONS AND NATIONALITIES.
PAVELIC, NOW 61, ESCAPED ALLIED AUTHORITIES AT THE WAR'S END. HE FORESAW THE END OF HIS POWER AND FLED YUGOSLAVIA IN MAY, 1945, JUST BEFORE GERMANY SURRENDERED.
YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAY HE TOOK WITH HIM A TREASURE OF LOOT.
SELDOM HAS THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV PRESS DRUMMED UP SUCH A HUE AND CRY OVER AN ISSUE AS IT HAS IN THE CASE OF PAVELIC, OR WITH MORE PUBLIC SUPPORT.
IN DEMANDING RETURN OF WHAT SHE CALLED THE "BLOODY HANGMAN" FOR TRIAL, YUGOSLAVIA PRESENTED A DOCUMENTED CASE SUPPORTED WITH PHOTOGRAPHS OF HIM SAID TO HAVE BEEN TAKEN IN BOTH YUGOSLAVIA AND SOUTH AMERICA.
PAVELIC IS MARRIED AND HAS THREE CHILDREN.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, MAY 23-(AP)-THE NEWSPAPER RUDE PRAVO TODAY QUOTED A HIGH COMMUNIST OFFICIAL AS SAYING THE MAJORITY OF RAILWAY ACCIDENTS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA ARE CAUSED BY "SABOTEURS AND ENEMIES."

THE NEWSPAPER SAID JOSEF FRANK, REPRESENTING THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY TOLD AN ALL-STATE CONFERENCE OF RAILWAY EMPLOYES THAT CZECHOSLOVAKIA ALSO SUFFERED FROM TOO MANY TRAINS BEING LATE.

HE SAID ACCIDENTS CAUSED BY OLD EQUIPMENT OR NATURAL CAUSES WERE RARE IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, MAY 23-(AP)-FOREIGN DIPLOMATS HERE FEAR THE IRANIAN SITUATION IS LOADED WITH DYNAMITE WHICH COULD BLOW UP WORLD PEACE.

SOME OBSERVERS ARE OF THE OPINION THERE IS A GROWING POSSIBILITY IRAN MAY TURN TO SOVIET RUSSIA FOR ADVICE, IF NOT AID, IN OPERATING THE BRITISH RUN OIL RESOURCES SHE HAS NATIONALIZED. THE HEART OF RUSSIA'S OIL BUSINESS IS AT BAKU, NEAR THE IRANIAN BORDER.

IF THE PRESENT CONFUSED SITUATION CONTINUES IN TEHRAN, SOME DIPLOMATS FEEL, BRITAIN MAY BE FORCED TO SEND IN ARMED FORCES OR RELINQUISH COMPLETELY HER IRANIAN OIL INTERESTS.

BUT SHE SHE ATTEMPT

BUT SHOULD SHE ATTEMPT TO USE TROOPS OR WARSHIPS, THESE DIPLOMATS SAY THEY BELIEVE IRAN WOULD QUICKLY REPLACE KOREA AS THE GREATEST DANGER TO WORLD PEACE.

UPPERMOST IN THE MIND OF EVERY DIPLOMAT IN MOSCOW IS THE OSVIET-IRANIANAN TREATY OF FEBRUARY, 1921 WHICH AUTHORIZES RUSSIA TO SEND ARMED FORCES INTO IRAN IF SHE CONSIDERS HER SECURITY IS MENACED.

SO FAR THE SOVIET UNION HAS NOT SUGGESTED SHE WOULD INVOKE THIS TREATY IF BRITAIN SENT TROOPS. IN FACT RUSSIA HAS NOT EVEN CALLED ATTENTION PUBLICLY TO THE TREATY SINCE THE DISPUTE OVER NATIONALIZATION DEVELOPED.

BUT ANYONE FAINTLY ACQUAINTED WITH RUSSIA FIGURES SHE WOULD NOT TOLERATE ANY MILITARY OPERATIONS BY BRITAIN OR THE UNITED STATES SO CLOSE TO HER SOUTHERN DOOR AND THE HEART OF THE BAKU OIL INDUSTRY.

ANY IRANIAN REQUEST TO RUSSIA FOR AID, IT IS BELIEVED HERE, WOULD RECEIVE SERIOUS CONSIDERATION IN MOSCOW.

(THIS DISPATCH PASSED THROUGH SOVIET CENSORSHIP. INFORMED LONDON SOURCES SAID TUESDAY BRITAIN HAD DROPPED ANY IMMEDIATE THREAT OF USING FORCE AND HAS PROMISED TO CONSULT FULLY WITH THE U.S. BEFORE ACTING.)

AN UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION OF ARTICLE SIX OF THE 30-YEAR-OLD TREATY, WHICH WAS CONCLUDED WHEN THE SOVIET REGIME STILL WAS GETTING ON ITS FEET, READ:

"BOTH THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES ARE AGREED THAT, IN EVENT OF AN ATTEMPT ON THE PART OF A THIRD COUNTRY BY MEANS OF ARMED INTERVENTION TO REALIZE A PREDATORY POLICY OR TO CONVERT THE TERRITORY OF PERSIA (IRAN) INTO A BASE FOR MILITARY ATTACKS AGAINST RUSSIA, AND IF BY THIS DANGER THE SECURITY OF THE FRONTIERS OF THE R.S.F.S.R. OR POWERS ALLIED WITH HER WILL BE THREATENED, AND IF THE PERSIAN GOVERNMENT AFTER A WARNING FROM THE RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT FINDS ITSELF UNABLE TO AVERT THIS DANGER, THE RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT TO INTRODUCE TROOPS INTO PERSIAN TERRITORY IN ORDER, IN THE INTERESTS OF SELF DEFENSE, TO TAKE NECESSARY MILITARY MEASURES. UPON REMOVAL OF SAID DANGER, THE RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT OBLIGES ITSELF IMMEDIATELY TO WITHDRAW ITS TROOPS FROM THE LIMITS OF PERSIA."

A7

THE R.S.F.S.R. (RUSSIAN SOVIET FEDERAL SOCIALIST REPUBLICAL) COMPRISES MORE THAN TWO-THIRDS OF THE AREA OF THE SOVIET UNION. ITS BORDER EXTENDS ALMOST TO IRAN, ONLY THE SMALL SOVIET REPUBLICS OF GEORGIA, AZERBAIJAN AND ARMENIA INTERVENING.

THE SOVIET PRESS HAS BEEN GIVING INCREASING ATTENTION TO THE IRANIAN SITUATION AS IT WORSENED. TODAY'S HEADLINES ACCUSED BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES OF MEDDLING AND "CRUDE INTERFERENCE" IN IRAN. NEWS STORIES TOLD OF MASS DEMONSTRATIONS AND PROTESTS IN TEHRAN AGAINST BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES.

SPEAKERS WERE QUOTED AS SAYING THE UNITED STATES HAD CHANGED ITS POSITION IN THE CONTROVERSY FROM ONE OF ALOOFNESS AND NON-INTERFERENCE TO SUPPORT OF BRITAIN. (THE UNITED STATES HAS URGED MODERATION ON BOTH SIDES, AND PARTICULARLY HAS URGED IRAN TO NEGOTIATE ON THE ISSUES).

MOSCOW, MAY 23-(AP)-THE MOSCOW PRESS DEVOTED MUCH ATTENTION TODAY TO THE SITUATION IN IRAN, AND FOREIGN DIPLOMATS HERE SAID THE BRITISH-IRANIAN DISPUTE IS PACKED WITH DYNAMITE.

SOME PERSONS IN MOSCOW EXPRESS THE BELIEF THAT BRITAIN MAY SEEK TO USE TROOPS OR BATTLESHIPS IN THE ARGUMENT OVER THE NATIONALIZATION OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT.

IF THIS SHOULD HAPPEN, THESE SOURCES SAID, IRAN WOULD PRESENT A THREAT TO WORLD PEACE GREATER THAN THE KOREAN WAR. RUSSIA HAS A 30-YEAR-OLD TREATY WITH IRAN, ARTICLE 6 OF WHICH GIVES THE SOVIET UNION THE RIGHT TO SEND TROOPS TO HER SOUTHERN NEIGHBOR IF FOREIGN FORCES INTERVENE THERE OR IF A THREAT TO U.S.S.R. SECURITY DEVELOPS THERE.

TODAY'S NEWSPAPERS CARRIED HEADLINES REFERRING TO "ANGLO-AMERICAN MEDDLING IN IRAN'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS," AND "PROTESTS AGAINST THE CRUDE INTERFERENCE OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IN IRAN'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS."

A TASS DISPATCH FROM TEHRAN SAID NEWSPAPER CIRCLES THERE EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT IRAN'S REJECTION OF THE BRITISH DEMAND FOR ARBITRATION WAS COMPOSED BY THE IRANIAN FINANCE MINISTER "AT THE ORDER OF PREMIER MOSSADEGH." IT SAID THE REJECTION WOULD "BE VIEWED NOT ONLY AS A DIRECT ANSWER TO THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, BUT ALSO AN INDIRECT ANSWER TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT" ON THE ENTIRE IRANIAN OIL QUESTION.

THE PRESS REPORTED THAT THE UNITED STATES ADVICE TO IRAN TO GO SLOWLY, REJECTED BY IRAN, REPRESENTED A CHANGE IN THE AMERICAN POSITION.

(THIS DISPATCH, WHICH PASSE THROUGH MOSCOW CENSORSHIP, DID NOT ELABORATE, BUT PREVIOUSLY THE SOVIET PRESS HAS TOLD ITS READERS THAT THERE WAS A CONFLICT OF INTERESTS IN IRAN BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN.)

IRANIAN

BY ROBERT B.HEWETT

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 23-(AP)-TENSION MOUNTED TODAY IN CRISIS-TORN TEHRAN AFTER SOME 30,000 MOSLEMS--BOOING THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN --VOWED YESTERDAY TO WAGE HOLY WAR IF NEED BE TO NATIONALIZE THE NATION'S RICH OIL RESOURCES.

AN AIR OF CRISIS GRIPPED THE IRANIAN CAPITAL AS POLICE AND TROOPS, ON A 24-HOUR ALERT, PATROLLED THE STREETS IN TRUCKS AND ON HORSEBACK. A DOZEN TANKS ROAMED THE CITY, READY FOR ACTION.

A RESOLUTION DECLARING "STRONG HATRED" OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WAS CHEERED WILDLY AT YESTERDAY'S MASS RALLY, CALLED BY MOSLEM RELIGIOUS LEADERS AND PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL BLOC.

THE CHEERING REACHED FEVER PITCH WHEN BLACK-BEARDED CHAMS GHANATABADI, LEADER OF THE MILITANT MUJAHEDDIN ISLAM (FIGHTERS FOR ISLAM), DECLARED:

"ALL LOYAL MOSLEMS WILL THROW THE BRITISH BANDITS INTO THE PERSIAN GULF, IF THEY DO NOT LEAVE THE COUNTRY."

THOUSANDS OF MOSLEM RELIGIOUS BANNERS WERE WAVED IN APPROVAL WHEN ANOTHER SPEAKER, PARLIAMENT MEMBER HOSSEIN MAKKI, DECLARED A RECENT STATEMENT BY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT WAS "A STAB IN THE BACK OF THE IRANIAN NATION."
THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHICH HAS URGED MODERATION ON BOTH SIDES OF THE DISPUTE, HAS BEEN ACCUSED BY IRANIANS OF BACKING THE BRITISH STAND AGAINST NATIONALIZATION.
MAKKI IS MOSSADEGH'S RIGHT HAND MAN IN PARLIAMENT AND SECRETARY OF THE JOINT SENATE-MAJLIS OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD.
THE RALLY--CALLED BY AYATULLAH SEYED ABOLGHASSEM KASHANI, ONE OF IRAN'S LEADING PRIESTS--WAS THE LATEST MOVE TO STEP UP PRESSURE AGAINST ANY BRITISH RESISTANCE TO GOVERNMENT SEIZURE OF THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.
THE LAW NATIONALIZING THE GIANT FIRM WAS ENACTED MORE THAN THREE WEEKS AGO, BUT THE GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN NO PRACTICAL HINT OF HOW IT INTENDS TO CARRY IT OUT.
THE RESOLUTION, WHICH DREW LOUD CHEERS, CONTAINED THESE POINTS:
1--"WE HEREBY DECLARE TO THE WHOLE WORLD THE UNBREAKABLE WILL OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO TAKE OVER THE FORMER OIL COMPANY WITHOUT ANY CONDITIONS."
2--THE BRITISH NOTE PROTESTING NATIONALIZATION IS INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS AND "WE HEREBY DECLARE IT REJECTED."

MAY 23 1951

A18
3--PARLIAMENT HAD THE RIGHT UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER TO NATIONALIZE OIL AND "THE FORMER OIL COMPANY, WHICH IS ONLY A BUSINESS CONCERN, MUST SURRENDER TO THE WILL OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE."
4--"RUMORS OF DISPATCHING PARATROOPS FROM BRITAIN ARE CONSIDERED BY THE IRANIAN PEOPLE AS WILD AGGRESSION."
5--"THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT IS CONSIDERED AS CLEAR INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF IRAN AND HAS AWAKENED IN THE IRANIAN PEOPLE A STRONG HATRED REGARDING SUCH A STATEMENT."
(MOSCOW PRESS AND RADIO SAID BRITAIN'S LATEST NOTE TO IRAN CONTAINED A DIRECT THREAT AND ADDED SOME DIPLOMATS FEARED WORLD PEACE WAS BEING ENDANGERED. RUSSIA HAS A TREATY WITH IRAN WHICH SHE COULD INTERPRET AS ALLOWING HER TO SEND FORCES INTO THE COUNTRY IN THE EVENT OF A THREAT TO THE SOVIET UNION.
(IN LONDON, INFORMED SOURCES SAID BRITAIN HAS PROMISED TO CONSULT FULLY WITH THE UNITED STATES BEFORE DECIDING TO SEND TROOPS TO IRAN EVEN TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY.)
AT AN EARLIER RALLY OF 4,000 COMMUNIST-BACKED TRADE UNIONISTS YESTERDAY, LEFTISTS CALLED FOR THE DEATH OF MOSSADEGH, WHO HAS KEPT HIMSELF LOCKED IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING SINCE THREATS MADE AGAINST HIS LIFE LAST WEEK. THE LEFTISTS GOT INTO A FIST FIGHT WITH MOSSADEGH SUPPORTERS.

MOSCOW, MAY 23-(AP)-FOR THE FIRST TIME THE MOSCOW PRESS TODAY PUBLISHED THE FULL TEXT OF ITS PROPOSALS CONCERNING A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THE U.S.S.R. PROPOSED MAY 7 A MEETING OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE SOVIET UNION, THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND COMMUNIST CHINA IN JUNE OR JULY TO CONSIDER THE QUESTION.
IT WAS THE FIRST PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT HERE OF THE PROPOSAL TO WHICH THE UNITED STATES REPLIED A FEW DAYS AGO. THE NEWSPAPERS CARRIED NO COMMENT.

THE PUBLICATION OF THE SOVIET NOTE ON JAPAN AT THIS TIME MAY INDICATE THAT THE U.S.S.R. IS ABOUT TO REPLY TO THE UNITED STATES' REJECTION OF THE PROPOSAL.
THE U.S., TURNING DOWN THE SOVIET PLAN, SAID SUCH A MEETING WOULD ONLY SUBJECT THE WEST TO A "DOUBLE VETO" OF COMMUNIST CHINA AND THE U.S.S.R. THE U.S. ACCUSED THE RUSSIANS OF TRYING TO STALL PREPARATIONS FOR AN EARLY JAPANESE TREATY.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 23-(AP)-REBUFFED BY PRIME MINISTER NEHRU, INDIAN NEWSPAPER EDITORS WILL MEET NEXT MONTH TO FORM A COMMON FRONT AGAINST A PROPOSED LAW NEHRU IS BACKING TO CURB FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION.
THE PRESIDENT OF THE ALL-INDIA NEWSPAPER EDITORS CONFERENCE, DESHABANDHU GUPTA, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW TONIGHT HE IS CALLING SUCH A MEETING. MORE THAN 200 EDITORS ARE MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE. GUPTA IS MANAGING EDITOR OF THE CONSERVATIVE INDIAN NEWS CHRONICLE OF NEW DELHI.
PARLIAMENT, HOWEVER, IS EXPECTED TO PASS THE AMENDMENT BEFORE THE EDITORS MEET. A COMMITTEE WHICH NEHRU HEADS IS TO PRESENT ITS REPORT ON NEHRU'S CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT FRIDAY. THAT WILL OPEN A 10-DAY DEBATE.
IN A LETTER TO GUPTA RELEASED TODAY, NEHRU SAID HE AND HIS GOVERNMENT WERE UNABLE TO DROP OR POSTPONE ACTION ON THE AMENDMENT FOR A VARIETY OF REASONS NOT CONNECTED WITH THE PRESS, BUT "AFFECTING LAW AND ORDER IN INDIA AND BOTH THE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL SITUATIONS."
NEHRU DID NOT GO INTO DETAIL. OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID HE HAD ESPECIALLY IN MIND THE TURMOIL THAT MIGHT BE CREATED BY VIOLENT SPEECHES OF COMMUNIST AND RELIGIOUS FANATICS, ESPECIALLY DURING THE GENERAL ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER.
THE PRIME MINISTER GAVE THESE ASSURANCES:
1--HE AND HIS GOVERNMENT WILL INSURE AND DIRECT ALL STATE GOVERNMENTS TO MAKE CERTAIN THE AMENDMENT PRODUCES NO ADVERSE EFFECT ON THE PRESS.
2--HE WILL MAKE A STATEMENT TO PARLIAMENT SO THE WHOLE COUNTRY MAY KNOW THE PRESS WILL NOT BE AFFECTED.
3--HE WILL PRESENT COMPREHENSIVE PRESS LEGISLATION IN PARLIAMENT, IN CONSULTATION WITH ALL RESPONSIBLE NEWSPAPERS OF INDIA, WHICH WOULD WIDEN AND NOT CURTAIL THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.
GUPTA SAID INDIAN EDITORS FELT "THESE ASSURANCES CAN HAVE NO CONSTITUTIONAL VALIDITY AND, AS SUCH, EXTEND NO PROTECTION TO THE PRESS AGAINST MISUSE OF ANY OF THE WIDE POWERS CONFERRED."
THE PRIME MINISTER TURNED DOWN A SUGGESTION BY GUPTA FOR INSERTION OF A SPECIFIC GUARANTEE FOR FREEDOM OF THE PRESS LIKE THAT IN THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.
"I REALLY DO NOT SEE THE NECESSITY FOR THIS," NEHRU WROTE, "BUT APART FROM NECESSITY IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO INTRODUCE A NEW ARTICLE IN THE COMMITTEE OR IN THE PRESENT BILL X X X ACCORDING TO OUR RULES OF PROCEDURE."

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 23-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER NEHRU TODAY INFORMED THE INDIA NEWSPAPER EDITORS CONFERENCE HIS GOVERNMENT IS UNABLE TO DROP OR POSTPONE AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION RELATING TO FREEDOM OF THE PRESS "FOR A VARIETY OF WEIGHTY REASONS."
IN A LETTER PUBLISHED TODAY, NEHRU SAID THE AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD RESTRICT PRESS FREEDOM IN INDIA WAS UNDERTAKEN FOR "A VARIETY OF REASONS UNCONNECTED WITH THE PRESS." "WE WOULD BE FAILING IN DISCHARGING OUR RESPONSIBILITY IF WE DID NOT PAY DUE REGARD TO THESE WEIGHTY REASONS," HE ADDED.

THE PRIME MINISTER ASSURED THE CONFERENCE, HOWEVER, THAT HE WOULD DO ALL IN HIS POWER TO PREVENT GOVERNMENT ABUSE OF PRESS FREEDOM, BUT ADDED "WE CANNOT OBVIOUSLY IGNORE A LARGE NUMBER OF OTHER CONSIDERATIONS."
OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID NEHRU POSSIBLY HAS IN MIND THE SITUATION WHICH MAY ARISE IF THE COMMUNISTS OR RELIGIOUS FACTIONS MAKE VIOLENT SPEECHES DURING THE GENERAL ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR NEXT NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER.
LAST MONDAY THE EDITORS CONFERENCE ADOPTED A RESOLUTION ATTACKING NEHRU'S PROPOSED AMENDMENT AS "UNWARRANTED AND UNCALLED FOR."
IN HIS LETTER, NEHRU SAID HE AND HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD DIRECT ALL STATE ORGANS TO TAKE CARE THAT NO ADVERSE EFFECTS BE SUFFERED BY THE PRESS BECAUSE OF THE AMENDMENT.
HE PROMISED TO GO ON RECORD BEFORE PARLIAMENT WITH HIS VIEWS, AND TO ADVANCE LEGISLATION THAT WOULD WIDEN FREEDOM OF THE PRESS IN INDIA.
BUT DESHABANDHU GUPTA, PRESIDENT OF THE NEWSPAPER EDITORS' CONFERENCE, REJECTED NEHRU'S ASSURANCES. HE SAID THEY HAVE NO CONSTITUTIONAL VALIDITY "AND AS SUCH EXTEND NO PROTECTION TO THE PRESS AGAINST MISUSE OF ANY WIDE POWERS CONFERRED AS A CONSEQUENCE OF THIS AMENDMENT."
HE SUGGESTED THAT SPECIFIC GUARANTEES FOR FREEDOM OF THE PRESS SIMILAR TO THOSE FOUND IN THE CONSTITUION OF THE UNITED STATES BE INSERTED IN INDIA'S CONSTITUTION.

ON THE ISRAELI-SYRIAN FRONTIER, MAY 23-(AP)-ISRAEL SHIFTED GEARS TODAY ON HER HULEH SWAMP DRAINAGE PROJECT IN RESPONSE TO A SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN TWO MONTHS, ALL WORK TEMPORARILY HALTED.

HOWEVER, THE DRAINAGE CREWS WERE ORDERED TO RESUME OPERATIONS TOMORROW OUTSIDE A DISPUTED SEVEN ACRES OF ARAB-OWNED LAND IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE, A PRIMARY POINT OF TENSION IN RECENT ARMED CLASHES BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL.

(THE SECURITY COUNCIL DIRECTED LAST WEEK THAT ISRAEL "CEASE ALL OPERATIONS IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE UNTIL SUCH TIME AS AN AGREEMENT IS ARRANGED THROUGH THE (U.N.) CHAIRMAN OF THE MIXED ARMISTICE COMMISSION FOR CONTINUANCE OF THIS PROJECT." IT ALSO CALLED FOR THE RETURN FORTHWITH OF ARAB CIVILIANS ISRAEL HAS REMOVED FROM THE AREA. THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WERE AMONG THE SPONSORS OF THE RESOLUTION).

THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE WAS SET UP IN NORTHEAST PALESTINE BY THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI ARMISTICE AFTER THE PALESTINE WAR OF 1948 TO BREAK CONTACT BETWEEN THE RIVAL ARMIES. THE HULEH SWAMPS, A NATURAL BARRIER NEAR THE FRONTIER, LIE WITHIN THE ZONE.

ISRAEL IS DRAINING THE SURPLUS WATER INTO THE RIVER JORDAN TO CONVERT THE AREA TO FARM LAND. SYRIA CHARGES THAT THIS WORK AND THE REMOVAL OF ARAB RESIDENTS VIOLATE THE ARMISTICE.

FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARETT NOTIFIED U.S. MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM RILEY, UNITED NATIONS CHIEF OF STAFF, IN TEL AVIV OF HIS GOVERNMENT'S ORDERS TO THE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.

SHARETT SAID THE GOVERNMENT DERIVED--FROM THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION AND AN EXPLANATION BY BRITAIN'S SIR GLADWYN JEBB--THE IDEA THAT THE POINT AT ISSUE IS SAFEGUARDING THE LEGITIMATE RIGHTS AND INTERESTS OF THE ARAB LAND OWNERS. HE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT'S IMPRESSION IS THAT THE WORK STOPPAGE WAS REQUESTED TO EXPLORE CHANCES OF AN AGREEMENT, EITHER BY PAYING THEM COMPENSATION OR GIVING THEM ALTERNATE TRACTS OF LAND, AND ISRAEL IS WILLING TO SATISFY THESE CLAIMS.

JERUSALEM, MAY 23-(AP)-THE JERUSALEM POST SAID TODAY CROWN PRINCE TALAL OF JORDAN RECENTLY SHOT AND WOUNDED BRIG.JOHN BAGGOT GLUBB PASHA, THE BRITON WHO HEADS JORDAN'S ARAB LEGION.

THE POST SAID GLUBB PASHA HAS BEEN CONFINED TO BED FOR MORE THAN A WEEK AFTER BEING SHOT IN THE ARM BY THE 40-YEAR-OLD CROWN PRINCE, ELDEST SON OF KING ABDULLAH. HE IS OUT OF DANGER.

A WEEK AGO YESTERDAY KING ABDULLAH LEFT FOR A STATE VISIT TO TURKEY AND THE CROWN PRINCE TOOK OVER AS ACTING KING. BUT ON THE FOLLOWING DAY A DISPATCH FROM AMMAN, JORDAN, SAID TALAL WAS TAKEN "SUDDENLY ILL" AND HAD TO LEAVE FOR BEIRUT, LEBANON, FOR TREATMENT PLACING PRINCE NAIF, SECOND SON OF THE KING, ON THE THRONE IN ABDULLAH'S ABSENCE. AMMAN DISPATCHES PASS THROUGH CENSORSHIP.

THE JERUSALEM POST SAYS TALAL WAS TAKEN TO BEIRUT TO A MENTAL INSTITUTION BECAUSE HE ACTED IN A MOMENT OF INSANITY WHEN HE SHOT AT GLUBB PASHA. KING ABDULLAH WAS INFORMED BY A SPECIAL ENVOY SENT TO TURKEY.

THE POST GAVE THIS ACCOUNT:

"THE SITUATION BECAME CRITICAL THE MOMENT ABDULLAH LEFT FOR ANKARA. TALAL WAS ANGERED ON RETURNING TO THE RAGHADAN PALACE, AFTER TAKING HIS REGENCY OATH, BY THE FACT THAT THE ROYAL FLAG HAD BEEN LOWERED AND THE GUARDS HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN.

"HE HURRIED TO THE PREMIER, DEMANDING AN EXPLANATION, AND WAS INFORMED THIS HAD BEEN DONE IN ACCORDANCE WITH HIS FATHER'S INSTRUCTIONS. .943 8,:3,'3$, HE WENT TO GLUBB PASHA'S RESIDENCE, WHERE HE CHARGED THE LEGION COMMANDER WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FAILURE OF JO

WASHINGTON, MAY 23-(AP)-GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY TOLD SENATORS TODAY SOUTH KOREA WOULD REMAIN UNDER CONSTANT THREAT OF NEW COMMUNIST ATTACKS IF A PEACE SETTLEMENT CALLED FOR THE WITHDRAWAL OF UNITED NATIONS FORCES WITHOUT ANY SAFEGUARDS.

THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL SAID CEASE-FIRE TERMS WILL HAVE TO CONTAIN "CERTAIN SAFEGUARDS" AGAINST A RENEWAL OF RED AGGRESSION--AND WILL INVOLVE MORE THAN JUST THE WITHDRAWAL OF CHINESE AND U.N. FORCES FROM KOREA.

"THE QUESTION OF DECISION THAT IS GOING TO HAVE TO BE REACHED," HE SAID, "X X X IS WHETHER OR NOT THAT (WITHDRAWAL) IS ACCEPTABLE FROM ALL ANGLES--POLITICAL, MILITARY AND SO FORTH--AND IT IS GOING TO INVOLVE MORE THAN JUST THE SIMPLE THINGS, THAT WE BOTH WITHDRAW.

"I THINK IT IS GOING TO HAVE TO HAVE CERTAIN OTHER SAFEGUARDS X X X BUT IT MAY BOIL DOWN TO A QUESTION OF WHETHER OR NOT YOU ACCEPT THAT OR NOTHING."

BRADLEY SAID FROM A MILITARY VIEWPOINT A WITHDRAWAL BY THE CHINESE-U.N. FORCES WOULD LEAVE THE COMMUNISTS "IN A MORE ADVANTAGEOUS POSITION TO RENEW THE CONFLICT."

BRADLEY GAVE THESE VIEWS TO THE SENATE INQUIRY GROUP STUDYING THE REASONS BEHIND THE OUSTER OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

EARLIER, HE DECLARED THAT MACARTHUR'S OWN FIELD INTELLIGENCE SHOULD HAVE SPOTTED THE BIG CHINESE RED BUILD-UP IN NORTH KOREA LAST FALL BEFORE IT DROVE HIS ARMY INTO RETREAT.

DURING THE DAY, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) DISCLOSED THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS ALREADY HAVE DRAFTED THE TERMS THAT WILL BE SATISFACTORY TO THE MILITARY IN ANY ARMISTICE OR NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE CHINESE REDS.

BUT THE SENATOR SAID IT APPEARED THE ADMINISTRATION HAS NOT YET REACHED ANY AGREEMENT ON POLITICAL OBJECTIVES IN KOREA.

HE BASED THESE STATEMENTS ON A DOCUMENT SUPPLIED TO THE COMMITTEES BY THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT AS A RESULT OF RESTIMONY GIVEN BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL.

KNOWLAND SAID HE COULD ONLY CONCLUDE FROM TH DOCUMENT "THAT AS LATE AS THE 15TH OF MARCH THERE HAD NOT BEEN ANY AGREEMENT ON THE OBJECTIVES IN KOREA AND THAT AT SOME FUTURE DATE IT WAS HOPED THAT THEY COULD AGREE ON THE OBJECTIVES."

BRADLEY DECLARED THE MILITARY CHIEFS STILL ARE TRYING TO GET A DECISION FROM THE UNITED NATIONS ON THE POLITICAL OBJECTIVE AND ITS RELATIONSHIP TO THE 38TH PARALLEL.

"I BELIEVE EVERYBODY RECOGNIZES," HE SAID, "THE LONG RANGE POLITICAL OBJECTIVE OF THE UNITED NATIONS IS A UNITED AND FREE KOREA, BUT THAT DOES NOT NECESSARILY FOLLOW THAT WE HAVE TO OBTAIN THAT MILITARILY AT THIS TIME."

BRADLEY DECLARED HE AND THE JOINT CHIEFS HAVE ASKED SEVERAL TIMES FOR POLITICAL GUIDANCE ON CROSSING THE 38TH PARALLEL--BUT THEY HAVE NOT RECEIVED ANY.

"FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW," HE SAID, "THE 38TH PARALLEL MEANS NOTHING, BUT WE REALIZE POLITICALLY IT MAY HAVE A LOT OF SIGNIFICANCE. THAT IS WHY WE WOULD HAVE LIKED TO HAVE SOME GUIDANCE ALONG THAT AREA, WHICH HAS NOT BEEN GIVEN TO US AS YET BY THE UNITED NATIONS."

PARALLEL 38 IS THE DIVIDING LINE SEPARATING RED NORTH KOREA FROM THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH KOREA. ORIGINALLY IT WAS DESIGNATED AS A MEETING PLACE FOR THE RUSSIAN AND AMERICAN FORCES OCCUPYING KOREA AT END OF WORLD WAR TWO. BUT IN THE "COLD WAR" IT DEVELOPED INTO A POLITICAL BARRIER.

BRADLEY, IN SAYING THAT FIELD INTELLIGENCE SHOULD HAVE SPOTTED THE RED CHINESE BUILDUP, OPENLY CHALLENGED THE MACARTHUR ARGUMENT THAT THIS INFORMATION WAS BEYOND THE LIMITS OF HIS COMMAND AND WAS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF HIGHER INTELLIGENCE IN WASHINGTON.

BUT BRADLEY ADDED THAT MACARTHUR COULD NOT BE BLAMED IF HIS FIELD COMMANDERS DID NOT GIVE HIM THE INFORMATION "WHICH COULD HAVE BEEN OBTAINED OR SHOULD HAVE BEEN OBTAINED BY AIR RECONNAISSANCE AND GROUND RECONNAISSANCE."

FOR THE FIFTH STRAIGHT DAY BRADLEY ALSO TURNED THUMBS DOWN ON MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL TO SEEK VICTORY IN KOREA BY BOMBING CHINA AND MANCHURIA, BLOCKADING THE RED-HELD COAST, AND USING CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS IN THE KOREAN FIGHT.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF STRONGLY SUGGESTED THAT MACARTHUR SHOULD HAVE RESIGNED HIS FAR EASTERN COMMANDS BEFORE HE BEGAN TAKING PUBLIC ISSUE WITH THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION OVER FAR EAST POLICY.

HAD HE BEEN IN THE SITUATION, BRADLEY SAID, HE WOULD HAVE ASKED TO BE RELIEVED FROM HIS COMMAND. HE ADDED: "WHETHER I WOULD HAVE CARRIED IT TO THE PUBLIC WOULD DEPEND UPON WHAT I CONSIDERED AT THE TIME THE VITAL IMPORTANCE OF THE ISSUE."

THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL DECLARED THE MACARTHUR PLAN TO BOMB RED CHINA'S SUPPLY BASES COULD NOT BE DONE EFFECTIVELY WITHOUT ATTACKING POINTS IN RUSSIA--AND SUCH ATTACKS WOULD MEAN ANOTHER BIG-SCALE WAR.

HE ALSO TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN THEIR STUDY OF THE MACARTHUR OUSTER THAT:

1. THERE IS DANGER THE RUSSIANS MIGHT MOVE INTO OIL RICH IRAN AND START ANOTHER WAR. HE NAMED YUGOSLAVIA AND INDO-CHINA AS OTHER DANGER POINTS. HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE FIGHTING IN KOREA LIMITS AMERICAN ABILITY TO CHECKMATE AGGRESSION AT THESE DANGER SPOTS, BUT HE INSISTED THAT THE MACARTHUR PLAN WOULD NOT END THE KOREAN WAR.

2. IT WAS GENERAL MACARTHUR WHO FIRST PROPOSED SENDING AMERICAN GROUND TROOPS INTO KOREA TO CHECK THE NORTH KOREAN INVASION LAST JULY.

A9WX

3. NONE OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S TOP ADVISERS, EITHER MILITARY OR CIVILIAN, PRESSED FOR MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL, ALTHOUGH ALL OF THEM AGREED THE OUSTER MOVE SHOULD BE MADE.

4. THE GOVERNMENT DECIDED LAST AUGUST TO SEND MILITARY HELP TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES ON FORMOSA--AND MOST OF THE $300,000,000 (M) IN AID RECOMMENDED ALREADY HAS BEEN SENT.

SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) BROUGHT UP THE DISPUTED QUESTION OF WHETHER MACARTHUR WAS TO BLAME "FOR THE APPARENTLY WRONG INTELLIGENCE" ABOUT THE CHINESE REDS ENTERING THE WAR.

BRADLEY SAID YESTERDAY THAT WHEN THE KOREAN WAR BEGAN HE DID NOT THINK--AND NO ONE ELSE IN AUTHORITY DID--THAT THE CHINESE WOULD INTERVENE. BUT IN DISCUSSING WHAT HAPPENED AFTER THE WAR BEGAN, BRADLEY RECALLED THAT ABOUT NOV. 6 MACARTHUR SENT A MESSAGE TO THE PENTAGON SAYING THE CHINESE WERE "POURING ACROSS" THE YALU RIVER FROM MANCHURIA INTO NORTH KOREA.

HE ADDED: "NOW, WHAT HAPPENED BETWEEN NOV. 6 AND THE TIME THAT HE WAS HIT BY THE CHINESE ATTACK (NOVEMBER 26) X X X IT IS HARD FOR US HERE TO KNOW BECAUSE A LOT OF THAT INTELLIGENCE SHOULD HAVE COME FROM HIS OWN FIELD COMMAND.

"THAT CONCENTRATION ON THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE 8TH ARMY SHOULD HAVE BEEN PICKED UP BY AIR RECONNAISSANCE AND GROUND RECONNAISSANCE; IN OTHER WORDS, BY PATROL AND AVIATION PUT IN THERE. (IT WAS FROM THIS RIGHT FLANK THAT THE CHINESE HIT THE 8TH ARMY AND DROVE IT BACK.)

"HOW MUCH OF THAT HE HAD, SENATOR, WE DON'T KNOW HERE, BECAUSE WE DON'T GET ALL THE FIELD INTELLIGENCE THAT A COMMANDER GETS IN THE FIELD AND ACTS ON. BUT CERTAINLY THERE WAS ENOUGH (INTELLIGENCE) COMING IN TO INDICATE THAT THERE WAS A CONSIDERABLE CHINESE BUILDUP SOMEWHERE IN NORTH KOREA."

MACARTHUR HAS SAID HE BELIEVED THERE WERE ONLY 50,000 TO 60,000 CHINESE IN FRONT OF HIS ARMY WHEN IT ATTACKED LAST NOV. 25 IN THE "END THE WAR BY CHRISTMAS" DRIVE. LATER REPORTS SHOWED THERE ACTUALLY WERE AROUND 250,000 OR MORE IN ACTION.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP BROUGHT UP THE QUESTION OF HOW SUPPLIES FOR THE CHINESE RED TROOPS IN KOREA COULD BE HALTED WITHOUT ATTACKS ON SOVIET-HELD SIBERIA. RUSSIA HAS BEEN NAMED BY BRADLEY, MACARTHUR AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AS THE MAIN SOURCE OF CHINESE WAR SUPPLIES.

RUSSELL SAID HE DIDN'T SEE HOW THE SUPPLY COULD BE CHOKED OFF WITHOUT BOMBING SIBERIA.

"THAT IS TRUE," BRADLEY SAID. "TO BE ENTIRELY EFFECTIVE, YOU SHOULD HIT THOSE (BASES) ALSO X X X."

RUSSELL SAID: "IS THERE ANY DOUBT IN YOUR MIND THAT BOMBING OF THE SOVIET TERRITORY WOULD INVOLVE GREAT EXTENSION OF THE WAR?"

BRADLEY REPLIED: "NO, SIR."

FOR THE SECOND TIME, BRADLEY REFUSED TO ANSWER A QUESTION PUT TO HIM BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) AND THIS STIRRED SOME SHARP EXCHANGES AMONG THE SENATORS.

LAST WEEK BRADLEY DECLINED TO DISCLOSE THE CONVERSATIONS THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD WITH HIS TOP ADVISERS AT AN APRIL 6 MEETING WHICH LED TO MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.

TODAY WILEY WANTED TO KNOW IF ANY OF THE ADVISERS WERE "DISTINCTLY DISTRESSED" BY THE DECISION TO FIRE MACARTHUR FROM HIS FAR EAST COMMANDS.

BRADLEY SAID AT FIRST HE DIDN'T CARE TO ANSWER. BUT THEN HE SAID: "I THINK I COULD ANSWER THAT THIS WAY: THAT I DON'T BELIEVE ANY OF THE PEOPLE CONCERNED IN THESE VARIOUS CONFERENCES WERE ADAMANT AND PUSHING FOR GENERAL MACARTHUR'S RELIEF X X X."

IN ANSWER TO ANOTHER QUESTION BY WILEY, BRADLEY SAID HE DIDN'T THINK ANYONE WANTS TO FIGHT A MAJOR WAR AGAINST CHINA.

"I THINK THE WHOLE DIFFERENCE (WITH MACARTHUR) WAS IN THE RISK RUN BY EXTENDING IT OUT OF KOREA," HE SAID.

WILEY PROTESTED AGAINST WITNESSES BEING ALLOWED "TO ARGUE" IN REPLYING TO QUESTIONS WHICH HE SAID COULD BE ANSWERED YES OR NO.

SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) BROKE IN TO SAY: "I HOPE WE WON'T ADOPT THE PROCEDURE THAT APPLIES IN COURT." RUSSELL SAID IT WOULD BE UNFAIR TO MAKE WITNESSES GIVE A CATEGORICAL ANSWER TO QUESTIONS.

BRADLEY INSISTED THAT SOME QUESTIONS COULD NOT BE ANSWERED WITH A YES OR NO "WITHOUT GIVING THE WRONG IMPRESSION."

BRADLEY HIGHLIGHTS (400)

WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, MADE HIS FIFTH APPEARANCE IN THE MACARTHUR HEARING TODAY.

HERE ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS OF HIS TESTIMONY, TAKEN FROM A CENSORED TRANSCRIPT OF THE PROCEEDINGS:

SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME): NOW, TO WHAT EXTENT ARE THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF X X X GIVING CONSIDERATION TO THE APPARENT IMMINENCE OF TROUBLE IN IRAN, AS MAKING MORE DESIRABLE THE LIQUIDATION OF OUR PROBLEM IN KOREA?

GEN.BRADLEY: WELL, OF COURSE, THE LONGER THE PROBLEM IN KOREA KEEPS UP, THE LESS WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET ANY MOVEMENT ANYWHERE ELSE. X X X THERE IS DANGER, OF COURSE, OF THE RUSSIANS MOVING INTO IRAN AND STARTING ANOTHER AGGRESSION. X X X

SENATOR FLANDERS (R-VT): I THINK THAT GEN.MACARTHUR'S STRONG APPEAL HAS BEEN BECAUSE HE HAD AN IDEA OF HOW TO END IT. HAVE YOU EVER BEEN IN A WAR BEFORE IN WHICH YOU WERE NOT SUPPOSED TO BE PURSUING THE ENEMY CLEAR TO THE LIMIT WITH ALL THE RESOURCES OF THE COUNTRY BACK OF YOU?

BRADLEY: WE ARE NOT PROLONGING THIS WAR JUST FOR THE FUN OF IT. THE ONLY DIFFERENCE IS GEN.MACARTHUR THINKS THAT TO DO CERTAIN ADDITIONAL OPERATIONS WOULD BE DECISIVE AND WE DO NOT THINK THEY WOULD BE DECISIVE. THEY MIGHT HELP A LITTLE BIT, BUT TO OFFSET THAT YOU WOULD RUN THE RISK OF WORLD WAR III.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA): HAVE WE LEARNED ANYTHING FROM THIS WAR THAT WOULD BE HELPFUL TO USE IN CASE OF A WORLDWIDE CONFLAGRATION FROM A MILITARY STANDPOINT?

BRADLEY: X X X I THINK WE HAVE IMPROVED THE COOPERATION OF OUR THREE SERVICES. I DON'T THINK WE HAVE EVER REACHED, BEFORE, THE PERFECTION, ALMOST, OF THE COOPERATION OF THE THREE SERVICES X X X

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS): WERE THERE ANY ONES, AMONG THE CHIEFS (OF STAFF) OR AMONG THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN NAMED, X X X WHO WERE DISTINCTLY DISTRESSED BY THE DISCHARGE OF GEN.MACARTHUR?

BRADLEY: I DON'T KNOW THAT I CARE TO ANSWER THAT.

WILEY: BUT DO YOU CLAIM YOUR REFUSAL AS A PERSONAL PRIVILEGE?

BRADLEY: I THINK I COULD ANSWER THAT THIS WAY: THAT I DON'T BELIEVE ANY OF THE PEOPLE CONCERNED IN THESE VARIOUS CONFERENCES WERE ADAMANT AND PUSHING FOR GEN.MACARTHUR'S RELIEF.

MAY 23 1951

SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH): X X X WILL YOU TELL ME WHAT FACTORS X X X MUST BE PRESENT BEFORE THE UNITED STATES SHOULD INTEREST BOTH THE EXECUTIVE AND THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCHES OF OUR GOVERNMENT AND ALL OF THE PEOPLE OF OUR REPUBLIC IN THE KOREAN WAR BY DECLARING WAR ON THE ENEMIES WHO SEEK TO DESTROY YOUR COUNTRY AND MINE?

BRADLEY: WELL, THE QUESTION OF WHEN YOU DECLARE WAR IN THIS CASE, HOW YOU DO IT, AND HOW YOU EXPLAIN TO THE PEOPLE THE EXACT NATURE OF IT, I DON'T KNOW. XXXX PERSONALLY, I THINK WE ARE DOING A GREAT DEAL TOWARD AVOIDING A THIRD WORLD WAR. XXX IF WE CAN GET OUT OF KOREA ENTIRELY

AND JUST PULL OUT AND COME HOME. I THINK IT IS WITHIN THE POWER OF OUR GOVERNMENT TO DO THAT, IF THAT IS THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE TO DO IT.

's Testimony on U. S. Policy in the Far East

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Following is the complete, censored transcript of today's session of the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees inquiring into the Administration foreign policy. (Censorship deletions noted parenthetically):

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL—I believe that this provides Senator Brewster with his first opportunity to examine a witness since he has become a member of this committee. Senator Brewster.

Testimony of General of the Army Omar N. Bradley—resumed—accompanied by Lieut Col. Chester V. Clifton.

SENATOR BREWSTER—I appreciate the chairman calling attention to the fact that we have reached Page 2,598, but up to the present time at any rate my questioning has not prolonged the hearings. I shall certainly try to cooperate with the chairman in his endeavor to expedite this just as far as practicable.

I wondered whether or not General Bradley took account of the calculated risk of these proceedings when he concurred in the relief of General MacArthur, or whether he underestimated the potential of the enemy

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir. And that part of the relief of General MacArthur was not a military question.

Q.—I quite concur, but as a civilian in the political field, the fact remains that you did, General, as I understand, base your chief feeling on the supremacy of civilian control. I remember you emphasized that.

A.—That was one of the three military reasons by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. I don't say we disregarded the political implications of this entirely. Naturally we realized that it had military implications and political implications, but we were called upon to express a point of view from the military side only.

Q.—I want to say for myself, as everybody has done a little self explaining, that I have always been a profound believer in the dangers implicit in Congressional committees on the conduct of the war. I became very firmly of that view in working with Senator Truman, as he then was, and the Truman committee, and we had that as our guiding light in the whole conduct of the Truman committee, and I think it worked out very well.

I recognize that here the situation is somewhat more complicated and difficult, and we seem to be verging somewhat onto the things, as Senator Fulbright, who is certainly one of the most devoted supporters of the military policies, went into disposition of the troops, which verges into the military certainly.

The only question I will ask on that is, you do concur, General Bradley, do you not, in the brilliance and success of the Inchon landing?

A.—Oh, yes, sir. As I have stated here a couple of times, I am not in any way trying to discredit the illustrious career of General MacArthur. He rendered a wonderful service to his country, and he has been a brilliant military leader. In answer to some of the questions here yesterday I tried to say that I felt that looking at it from here I might have made different dispositions. I think I would have. But I had different information from that General MacArthur had. He was on the field of battle. He had the feel of it. I hesitate very much to say that had I been there and had the same information he had I would have done differently. I think I would have.

Q.—Yes. A.—But you find that no two military leaders probably would do exactly the same thing under the same circumstances.

Progress in Objectives In Six Week Noted

Q.—Military men are like politicians—they do have different views? A.—That is correct.

Q.—And in the European operations you have had differences of viewpoint as to military procedures, and you have expressed yourself rather strongly about them, very properly. A.—Yes, and I admitted that I might have been wrong when I wrote it, too. I tried to write a book which would be helpful to future commanders, and wrote in sort of the vein of a critique afterwards. I admit that I was wrong in some of those cases.

Q.—That is the beginning of knowledge. A.—We are all human, we all make mistakes, and we all do it differently.

Q.—Yes. I know that is the spirit in which we are all trying to approach this matter.

In connection with the civilian aspect there is one other matter that I think should be clear in the record—that the overruling of the recommendation of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and of all the military and civilian authorities of this Government regarding "hot pursuit" was vetoed by thirteen anonymous diplomats at Lake Success, presumably civilians. That is the case as far as you know, is it not?

A.—Whether or not they consulted their military leaders, I don't know; because I think we would all admit that carrying the war in any form into Manchuria takes on political aspects as well as military.

Q.—Yes. A.—Now how many of those people consulted their military advisers and which ones didn't, I would have no way of knowing.

Q.—But the final votes were cast by the diplomatic representatives there at Lake Success against our Government proceeding, although we were in charge of the operation?

A.—Well, whether it was to the United Nations representative or to the State Department, I don't know, sir. The State Department handled it because it was primarily dealing with the foreign governments. That is always handled by the State Department and they handled it, and how they handled it I don't know.

Q.—The State Department were the ones that advised you that they did not approve. A.—That the other nations did not approve.

Q.—Yes; that the other nations did not approve. A.—Yes.

Q.—Would you agree, General Bradley, that, coincidentally, at least, with this episode here in the last six weeks we have made very material gains in achieving some of the objectives we had in mind in the operation there? I refer, for instance, to the matter of economic sanctions which we had long urged, but we did not achieve that in the United Nations until coincidentally with these hearings?

A.—Well, certainly, we have made progress in the last six weeks. Now, what effect these hearings had on England and France, I wouldn't venture to say.

Q.—I did not ask you that. A.—But certainly we have made progress.

Q.—It is coincidental, at any rate. It would seem they suddenly changed what had hitherto been a firm resistance to economic sanctions in London. A.—I would not say it was in opposition to it; we just had trouble getting them to go along with it.

Q.—Yes. A.—We had been advocating these economic sanctions for a long time.

Q.—Now, we have also provided a military mission to Formosa. A.—Yes. We furnished the first aid last fall. A decision was made in August, and the first deliveries on that were in November.

Q.—You refer now to military aid? A.—Military aid, yes, to the Nationalists on Formosa.

Q.—That was a decision last August? A.—Yes, sir. And since the report came in by General Fox's committee, which came in in September, we have outlined additional military aid for them, and have requested funds for it, and some of them are up for consideration at the present time, for additional funds for helping the Nationalists on Formosa.

Q.—Has there appeared in the record, do you know, as yet, the report of how much had been furnished prior to April 1, since the change of policy last August, of military aid? A.—I don't believe so. I think I stated, at one time, that about $10,000,000 worth of ammunition and key equipment was furnished last November; and the total which has been recommended to date is something over $300,000,000. But how much of that has actually been delivered, I don't know, sir.

Q.—Would there be any objection if either quarterly or monthly reports of those shipments could be provided—I mean, over the past six months? A.—Well, I am sure there would not be any objection to furnishing them to anyone interested, on a confidential basis; whether or not you would want to publish that, I would doubt.

Q.—I would say that would be something for our confidential record. It was announced, was it not, when the statement regarding the military mission to Formosa was announced here two weeks or so ago, that we were ending this aid for defensive purposes? A.—Yes, I believe so.

Q.—Has that been the policy up to the present? A.—Well, I don't know that you can distinguish entirely between defensive and offensive. Our principal aim has been to strengthen the Nationalists on Formosa so that they would have the defensive capabilities to hold the island themselves against any projected attack from the mainland. (four lines deleted).

Q.—Now, that August decision did represent a change in our policy that had heretofore prevailed against giving military aid to Formosa? A.—Yes, to the extent that we had not furnished any military aid to the Nationalists prior to that time for a year or two; so it was a change from one we had been following a year or two before that.

Rusk's Speech Is Put in Record

Q.—I have in my hand the President's statement of Jan. 5, 1950, when he said:

"Similarly, the United States Government will not provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa."

That was the position up to August of 1950?

A.—I would say that that was the policy up until June 25 or 26, when the President intimated that he would not permit an invasion of Formosa from the mainland.

It was the first time, of course, as you say, in August, when he actually okayed military equipment and ammunition for them. He had changed his policy to the extent that he had directed the Seventh Fleet to prevent any invasion of Formosa.

Q.—Were you or your associates in the Joint Chiefs consulted regarding the address by Dean Rusk, Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs, at the Chinese Institute dinner at the Waldorf Hotel, New York City, Friday evening, May 18, 1951? A.—Not to my knowledge.

Q.—So far as you were concerned, you have no knowledge whatsoever of that? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Have you since read the speech? A.—No, sir. I have seen it referred to in the papers, but I have not read the full text of his speech.

SENATOR BREWSTER—I will ask that his speech, of which I have a copy, shall go in the appendix of the record.

THE CHAIRMAN—Very well.

(The document referred to above is to be found in the appendix of the record as Appendix J.)

SENATOR BREWSTER—In that speech Secretary Rusk took a very clear and very strong position apparently as to Russian domination of the Communist Government of China. To what extent have you formed any opinion on that subject, General Bradley?

GENERAL BRADLEY—As to the Russian domination of the Chinese Government?

Q.—Yes.

A.—That is largely a State Department matter. I do have some views on it, of course, and have considered it. I think it is rather hard to know just what influence the Russians have on the Chinese Government.

According to some information available, Mao Tze-tung is a rather rabid Communist in his own right. Now whether or not the other people in the Government with him are as rabid Communists as Mao Tze-tung, I don't know.

I think we must admit that for the time being, while Russia is furnishing equipment, they must have some influence on their policies. On the other hand, no one has ever dominated China for very long. At some time in the future that might change, but right now it is very hard to know just how much is due to Russian influence and how much of it is due to the rabid communism, and he admits he is a Marxist Communist, of Mao Tze-tung himself.

Q.—General Bradley, do you know of any responsible person in America, at least, who is urging all-out war on Red China? A.—No, I don't know of anyone that is advocating an all-out war.

Q.—You, in answering questions by Senator Johnson, qualified your statement in this way. You said, "Well, if we were in all-out war, why, there are a great many things that would be required." But you do not know of anyone at present who is urging such a thing? A.—No, but I think that the American people might have demanded some such war had we been driven out of Korea. As it is, I don't know of anyone that is demanding it at the present time.

Q.—Now in the requirements for the more limited war proposed by General MacArthur, it would be quite different from the requirements of an all-out war to dominate and conquer the China mainland, would it not? A.—Yes, but to extend it beyond what we are doing now requires some additional forces, but would not require all the forces that an all-out war would require.

Q.—Would the analogy which has been repeatedly suggested here of the Japanese difficulties in the conquest of China apply to the far more limited program proposed by General MacArthur?

A.—It would apply in this way, I think, Senator Brewster, and that is that Japan went into this in a very big way and it was not decisive. To go into it some smaller way we doubt whether or not it would be decisive.

In other words, to extend the war beyond what we are doing now might have some effect, but it would not in our opinion be decisive, and at the same time you are running a greater risk of provoking a World War III.

In other words, if you were sure this would be decisive, then you might want to take that risk, but since something less than the Japanese did would be of doubtful decisiveness, then why take the risk at this time?

Q.—I can understand that. The original objective of the United Nations was to clear Korea of aggression? A.—Yes.

Q.—And if that limited objective could be pursued, aside from the hazard of Soviet involvement, as a military matter it would be far more practicable to follow the conventional methods of war and bomb the enemy communications and destroy their supply dumps and so on, would it not?

A.—Yes, there might be some advantages sometimes to extend your attack on something beyond the 200-mile line that we are working on now. To hit a lengthened line with the same intentness with which we are hitting this one would require additional forces.

Of course, you could hit a longer line with less intensity than we are hitting the present one possibly with the present forces.

Siberian Railway Considered Fundamental

Q.—General MacArthur made the point on logistics which gets somewhat away from battles, to supply, that the Siberian Railway was being taxed to its limit, he believed, to supply the present operations. Has that been given consideration?

A.—Yes, sir. Every intelligence estimate we make of the Far East must take into consideration the capacity of the Trans-Siberian Railroad and of the shipping which comes around during the summer, around the north; we also take into consideration the war industries which have been built up in the Far East in order to remove and relieve that road of some of its load in case of war. All of those things are taken into consideration.

Q.—Do I understand that you disagree with General MacArthur on that general proposition, that logistically it would be extremely difficult for the Russians to supply any very material increase in operations if they were confined to the Siberian Railway?

A—We—I think I would differ in degree, because they have built up certain depots of supplies; they have certain industries there that manufacture war materials.

The Trans-Siberian Railroad will handle about 17,000 tons a day in addition to its own tonnage maintenance requirements, and all of those taken into consideration still leaves the Russian in the Far

30.24- 23343

East with a considerable military capability.

Q.—Which they could supply over a period? A.—Yes.

Q.—He intimated that they would be progressively curtailed because of the choking of their transport on the Siberian Railway. A.—Well, certainly if you got into a war with them that would be a consideration in your planned campaign.

Q.—Yes. A.—But I think our difference is that I feel that they, in spite of the limitations of the Trans-Siberian Railroad, still have a very considerable military capability.

Q.—On the matter of attrition of the Chinese, their attitude toward life and death is quite different from ours, is it not? A.—Yes.

Q.—Had you taken into account the fact, I think they had reported last year that there were some 40,000,000 starving there in China, which is not unusual, apparently, as a result of their making grain available to Russia, and their organizing their military potential? A.—Well, I think just the subtraction of a few hundred thousand casualities from the total population of China does not mean so much; but when you subtract them from its trained manpower——

Q.—Yes. A.—(continuing)—And when you consider the effect on the morale of those that are left, and also the effect on the morale of the soldiers and of the civilian population, and the drain on the resources when all the wounded have to be taken back and taken care of, I don't think you can measure it just in terms of the subtraction of so may lives from 450,000,000 Chinamen.

Q.—Yes.

In the sixteen points that were discussed under your memorandum of the study of Jan. 12, Secretary Marshall stated on Page 846 of the testimony that, "Offhand, a glance at the document would say twelve or thirteen out of the sixteen had been put into effect."

Is that substantially your impression of them?

A.—I don't remember the exact number, but quite a number of them have been put into effect and have been in effect for a long period of time.

Q.—And on the imposition of the naval blockade, which was discussed there in all of the reports I have seen, apparently the qualification that the naval blockade would be considered if Korea were evacuated or if conditions in Korea were stabilized was a qualification on that item of the naval blockade alone, as I have seen all the reports. Is that correct, do you know? A.—No. You have to go back to the original reason for the study, which I believe has been stated here.

Q.—Yes, I am familiar with that.

A.—It was if we find ourselves in all-out war with China, a declared or undeclared war, then you would have certain objectives and certain lines of action, and that was the basis of the study. Unfortunately, as I have said, that phrase was dropped out in the final paper, which was about the third or fourth of a series.

Q.—In the estimates of the difficulty of detecting any air raids, to what extent is that based upon the possibilities of continual preparedness, not knowing what hour it may strike, or to what extent would it be modified if you were only compelled to keep alert for a week or a month? Would there be a difference in the alert which you were able to maintain for a limited period?

It means a good deal to us up in Maine because we're kind of stuck out there where they first come along, although we are not probably worth bombing.

A.—I am not so sure I get the significance of your question, but, in the first place, we feel that we must have an air-warning service which covers our whole northern approach.

Air-Raid Warning Declared Necessity

Q.—Yes. A.—So after we get that, get it installed and get people trained for it, I think that you must maintain it on a continuous basis. There may be times when you would step up the alert, and you don't step that up so much in the air warning service as you do in the readiness to meet something that is reported. For example, if you are in a period of tension, you might have a certain number of pilots sitting in their planes on the fields during a week or ten days or two weeks of alert.

Q.—Yes. A.—And then you might be satisfied to have them on the field and not sitting in the planes, a different kind of alert, but we might just require them to be on the base, and to that extent you might have various degrees of alertness. But, as far as warning service is concerned, when it is once installed, I think we should keep it in operation continuously.

Q.—That question of alertness was one of the problems at Pearl Harbor, as to what stage of the alert they might be, and how imminent might be the attack. A.—Yes; and unfortunately I believe they had only installed one radar station and it was going through a period of training and was not in full-time operation.

Q.—Now, to what extent are the Joint Chiefs of Staff, if you feel free to state, giving consideration to the apparent imminence of trouble in Iran, as making more desirable the liquidation of our problem in Korea? A.—Well, of course, the longer the problem in Korea keeps up, the less we are prepared to meet any movement anywhere else. I would prefer not to say as to Iran, because I am not too sure that has too much application in our case.

There is a danger, of course, of the Russians moving into Iran and starting another aggression. Whether or not that is any more dangerous than Jugoslavia or Indo-China or some other place, I am not prepared to state; but certainly it is a point of danger and we would like to be in a better position to meet any further aggression, if it occurred.

Q.—In the modification of our objective in Korea from the original objective of clearing Korea of aggression to the more moderate one of accepting some solution along the Thirty-eighth Parallel—that is modified not only by military considerations but also by the general world picture—so that if we should be required to move forces into Iran to support the British moves there, we would be compelled to call on some of our rather limited reserves, would we not? A.—Well, can I answer that in a general way, not confining it to Iran?

Q.—Yes. A.—I think that is true, that we would be better off if we could get through the situation in Korea and be in a better position to meet any movement anywhere else in the world. I think that is fully understandable. I would like to explain also that my answer here about being satisfied with something less than complete clearance of Korea is merely my own answer here. That is not a United Nations answer.

Q.—I understand. A.—You understand that what we finally do is a political decision and must be reached by the United Nations and by ourselves based upon the situation as it exists in Korea; and my answer of accepting something less than that certainly doesn't commit our Government to that. That is my own opinion as brought out here in this committee.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator, your thirty minutes has expired. Senator Flanders.

SENATOR FLANDERS — Mr. Chairman, I want to thank you for getting me in. I am somewhat out of turn. I was sorry I was not here yesterday.

THE CHAIRMAN—I am glad to protect the Senator from Vermont.

SENATOR FLANDERS — General, in your opening testimony I was struck by one of your remarks. You said:

"One of the great power potentials of this world is the United States of America and her allies. The other great power in this world is Soviet Russia and her satellites. As much as we desire peace, we must realize that we have two centers of power supporting opposing ideologies."

I would like to ask if this passage indicates that you and, perhaps military men in general, feel that this world-wide struggle is primarily a struggle for power.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think it is a struggle for power possibly on the part of one of these ideologies, because Russia has announced, I believe, on several occasions that she felt that capitalism and communism could not live in the world together, and by her acts over the last several years has indicated that she intends to spread by aggressive means and by threats, propaganda and other means her power—in other words, the spread of communism over more and more people and more and more nations.

I think that our country at the present time represents the leadership of the free nations which are opposed to that aggression and that spread of communism.

To that extent I think you might say Russia and her satellites represent one ideology and on our part a struggle for freedom and our way of life.

On our part our struggle is not for power, it is for peace. On the part of Russia it is a struggle for power and the spread of communism.

Q.—Now, that is a satisfactory answer, of course, from our standpoint, but if the idea gets firmly ingrained in the minds of neutral or half-hearted nations that this is primarily a struggle for power, it seems to me we should be very careful to avoid expressions which support that idea instead of its being a struggle between two ideologies, two sets of ideas.

I think we should be very cautious about giving any support in our words to, for instance, Nehru's assertion that this is an old-fashioned struggle for power between two powerful countries.

A.—I agree with you, Senator Flanders, that we should make it plain on every occasion that this is no imperialist move on our part, but I think at the same time we must increase our own strength so as to act as a deterrent to war and to further the provisions and the carrying out of peaceful intent.

Stabilization of Korea Or Evacuation?

Q.—General, I have been voting that way.

Now, according to the testimony that was sent to General MacArthur, or rather according to testimony there was sent to General MacArthur from the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Jan. 12 a series of proposals for study of which General MacArthur referred particularly to four.

It was said that these proposals, as I remember, were to be considered for practical application in case the situation became stabilized or in case it was deemed necessary to evacuate Korea.

Just why was practical consideration of these points made dependent on stabilization or evacuation?

A.—Senator, I have said here several times that the part of the paper which started this study unfortunately was omitted from the final edition of it. This Jan. 12 study was one of a series, and the series was started on a directive to a part of the Joint Staff to study objectives and lines of action to be taken in case the war in Korea became an all-out war with China either declared or undeclared.

That unfortunately was dropped in the final edition of the paper, but that was the purpose of the whole series of studies, and these were actions to be taken in case we found ourselves in all-out war with China. (Three and a half lines deleted.)

Q.—That word "stabilize" is what puzzled me. I have wondered how stabilization differed from stalemate, and whether we were not being stabilized and stalemated right now.

A.—Well, as long as we have certain powers of maneuver, which we have at the present time, I would say it is not entirely a stalemate. At that time, as has been brought out here, General MacArthur had sent in a rather gloomy message dated January the 10th indicating that we might be driven back to the Pusan beachhead which he might or might not be able to hold. (Three lines deleted.)

Q.—Now is not the official policy which the military arm is to support a policy of a stalemate? A.—No, not entirely. It all depends on your definition of a stalemate. If you get down to a stalemate where each of us is at one particular place and we sit there and look at each other for the next year, you might call that a stalemate, but as long as we have certain powers of maneuver, which we are carrying out right now and inflicting severe punishment, I would not say that that fulfilled all the requirements of a definition for a stalemate.

Q.—I suppose it would be a fact that you are not expected to go far north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel under present policies and present rulings, or is that something that you do not want to comment on?

A.—I think the question of whether or not we are or we go north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel right now is not too important, because we are fighting back and forth in that vicinity; but right now we are mostly south of it.

As long as we are going to fight there, the Thirty-eighth Parallel really means nothing. I mean, you might cross it a few miles or you might be a few miles south of it. It has no military significance.

Q.—But does it not have a political significance which determines military policy?

A.—It has a political significance, but until the United Nations gives us a political directive that we are not to cross it, I don't think it has military significance. It is, I think, more a policy right now of fight and negotiate under better conditions than we have been able to enjoy for some time.

Q.—You say "fighting and negotiating." It is, perhaps, unfair to ask you, but with whom are we to negotiate? Perhaps we ought to ask that of Dean Acheson. Have you any notion of your own with whom we are to negotiate? Is it whom some North Korean Government? Is it with the Chinese or is it with the Russians?

A.—Well, of course, that, as you say, is primarily a diplomatic one. Actually the field commander on one side is a Chinaman, and on our side it is an American.

Flanders Emphasizes "Peculiarity" of War

Q.—You do then definitely know who the field commander of the forces north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel is, and it is a Chinaman? A.—I don't know his name right now, because I think the last one has been relieved because of certain failures, and I don't know the name of the present one.

Q.—It has struck me, General, from the very first, that this is a most peculiar war; peculiar in its vagueness, peculiar in our being almost forbidden, either by circumstances or by instructions, to bring it to a conclusion, and I am hoping we are going to find out more about the possibility of ending it with succeeding witnesses than we are at the present time.

I think that General MacArthur's strong appeal has been because he had an idea of how to end it, General Bradley. Have you ever been in a war before in which you were not supposed to be pursuing the enemy clear to the limit with all the resources of the country back of you?

Q.—I don't know of any war we have fought up to the present time where that is the case, except the one in Greece, which we helped in, and the Berlin blockade. But I would like to point out, and I think it ought to be made clear in the record, that there is no one putting any restrictions on people with a design, with the purpose, of not ending this war. I think that is implied in your question, Senator, and no one wants to get this war over with any more than the military advisers.

We are not prolonging this war just for the fun of it. The only difference is General MacArthur thinks that to do certain additional operations would be decisive and we do not think they would be decisive. They might help a little bit, but to offset that you run the risk of opening up World War III.

I think the difference lies in the fact that he has said, and the people, some of them, believed him and jumped at this solution, that it would be decisive and end the war. We don't think it would. There is nothing in history or in military operations, or the study of military operations, which would prove that such actions on our part now would be decisive and end the war. In my opinion they would not end the war.

Q.—Well, thank you, General. I hope we will get a clearer idea perhaps from the State Department than we have had yet as to how you win a war of this kind. I am sure that I am in a state of confusion. Thank you.

Doubts That Cavalry Would Be Effective

THE CHAIRMAN — Gentlemen, that completes the first round of questions. I have just two or three questions I desire to propound on the second round.

General, on yesterday Senator Long was asking you about some of the good that has been derived from this war as contrasted with the loss of many valuable American lives. You touched upon the preparedness feature and the fact that we were in a much better position to resist aggression, and that our allies had likewise strengthened their military power.

Have we learned anything from this war that would be helpful to us in case of a world-wide conflagration from a military standpoint?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, I think we have learned a few lessons. We certainly have been up against one type of warfare which we never had before, and this was the guerrillo type, in which you have infiltration of your lines by large groups.

For example, last fall we found whole divisions had infiltrated through our lines and assembled in our rear; and I think this is the first time we ever experienced warfare of that nature, so I think we have gained some experience in the new type of warfare.

How helpful it will be in the future, no one knows, but certainly it is something that we should have experience in.

I think we have improved the cooperation of our three services. I don't think we have ever reached, before, the perfection, almost, of the cooperation of the three services in working together. We had fine cooperation in the last war, but I think it has been improved even more this time.

Q.—Well, due to the mechanization of armies everywhere, we have done away with our cavalry and pack animals. Would not cavalry nd pack trains have been helpful to us in this war, General Bradley?

A.—They might have, because in any mountainous country operation, you find horses and mules very advantageous. For example, in the operation in Sicily, with my two corps, I think when the campaign ended we had accumulated 1,500 mules and horses which we had rented from the Sicilians to help us out in that mountainous country.

However, I think they are using Koreans to carry loads, and as a matter of fact, from what they tell me, a Korean can almost carry as much of a load as a pack animal in the mountains. I think, too, they have been making extensive use of such carriers to help get their supplies in.

We are also making extensive use of air drops to supply units on top of hills. Every day shows from one to two hundred tons of supplies dropped from the air as being the most economical and efficient way of supplying those units; so that, instead of the pack mule, I will say we have substituted air drops and South Koreans who are helping us pack in the loads.

Q.—You don't think the lack of cavalry has anything to do with the successful infiltration of whole divisions into our lines?

A.—As I understand, some of those mountainous regions are too steep even for cavalry to operate in. They climb along the ridges and ledges and infiltrate that way, and I am not too sure that cavalry could be effective against it.

I think possibly General Collins, who has gone over the area on several occasions, might be better qualified to answer that question than I.

Q.—General, before we became involved in Korea, there had been, of course, a continuous debate on the effectiveness of air power, not only strategic but tactical. Do you think that our experience in Korea indicates that we had possibly overestimated the efficiency of air power against ground troops? A.—I don't know whether you could say whether or not we had overemphasized it——

Q.—Overestimated, I didn't say 'emphasized." A.—Overestimated, I stand corrected. I think that all of us realize that ground action without air support is much less effective.

On the other hand, I think that we have all felt that air action, by itself, is not decisive; and General Vandenberg will tell you that just as quickly as I will, and probably cite the fact that in Italy, where we had as good chance as any I ever heard of, of stopping a large hostile army by air, because much of their supplies came through Brenner Pass, they continued to supply about twenty-five German divisions, even though we bombed Brenner Pass practically every day.

So that air action, in itself, will not stop ground troops. It takes the combined action of ground troops and air to stop a hostile army.

Q.—I suppose we non-military men have not had too clear an idea about that. To keep from asking repetitive questions, General Bradley, North Korea touches both Manchuria and the Soviet Union, the territories, the boundary lines, is that correct? A.—That is correct.

Q.—You have stated that a large proportion of the supplies that are being used by our enemies in Korea is being supplied by the Soviet Union.

If we were to bomb out the bases in Manchuria and did not bomb those across the border from Rashin or whatever this town is, would we have any assurances that we would stop the flow of supplies from the Soviet to our enemies in Korea?

A.—I don't think you would stop them completely. You certainly could affect them, yes, but you can't ever stop the flow of supplies completely by air. That was illustrated last summer when the North Koreans continued to supply their armies way down in the south tip of Korea around Pusan beachhead; they continued to supply artillery, ammunition and other supplies in spite of the fact that we bombed all the bridges all the way up into North Korea and tried to keep them knocked out.

It is also illustrated by the fact now that we are working on a couple of hundred miles of Chinese supply line from the border down to the battle line, and you can't stop it entirely.

You certainly do affect it, and as a matter of fact our working on the supply lines last summer had a great deal to do with our final ability to break out of the Pusan beachhead and make the Inchon landing simultaneously more or less, so while it is very effective, I think the point is that it is not decisive.

Q.—Well, the question that has troubled me about it is that I could not see how, even if we knocked out the sanctuaries in Manchuria, that we would be completely successful without likewise assailing the sanctuary of supplies that exists in Soviet territory in Siberia.

A.—That is true. To be entirely effective, you should hit those also. The others would be effective some, but to be more effective, you would have to bomb both.

Q.—Is there any doubt in your mind that bombing of the Soviet territory would involve great extension of the war? A.—No, sir.

Q.—I do not want to get high up in the box score of repetitious questions, but did I understand you correctly yesterday that you testified that General MacArthur first suggested sending land troops into Korea?

A.—That is the way I remember it, yes, sir. His suggestion requested authority to use ground troops. I think we must remember that in all parts of the world we have plans for the evacuation of our nationals.

Those plans are in existence all over the world, and the first move in Korea was to evacuate our nationals. First we covered it by air and by navy and then we authorized General MacArthur to use ground troops in helping to protect the port in order to get them out, and as I remember it, and I think it is brought out in this summary here, his suggestion to use ground troops came late in June and was approved here, and I am sure he never did differ in that decision. I think he has said here he was in full accord with that decision.

Use of Troops Favored To Halt Aggressors

Q.—You undertook to differentiate yesterday in your tsetimony between the movement of our forces to protect the nationals, our nationals, American citizens in Korea, and those who went into Korea to stem the tide of Communist aggression.

Was General MacArthur's recommendation limited to sufficient troops to protect the American citizens and to assure that they would be able to be evacuated from Korea or did it relate in any wise to having land forces in Korea to stop the aggressor?

A.—I cannot remember the exact sequence, but I do know that he was in full accord with the use of ground troops to stop the aggressor, as well as get our nationals out.

Q.—You know he was consulted on that? A.—I am sorry, Mr. Chairman, I cannot answer that question off hand. I don't have the exact dates in front of me.

THE CHAIRMAN—I think it is likely to be important in the minds of some people.

General, if you can get that up I would appreciate it. I will not take any more time now. I have taken more than I had intended to.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — Will you repeat that question, sir?

THE CHAIRMAN—I don't know that I can repeat it verbatim, but I think I can get the text of it.

General Bradley on yesterday in his testimony differentiated between the use of our forces for the purpose of effecting the safe evacuation of American citizens in Korea as contrasted with the use of our forces to stem or to stop aggression in Korea.

He had stated that General MacArthur had recommended the landing of forces in Korea to protect our citizens, to see that they were safely removed from Korea.

I wished to find out if the subsequent action of sending land forces to Korea to stem aggression likewise originated with General MacArthur.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN—Or where it did originate, as a matter of fact?

GENERAL BRADLEY — On Page 11 of this compilation, Paragraph 23, it refers to this:

"On June 30, 1950, C. I. N. C. F. E. informed the Joint Chiefs of Staff, after a reconnaissance of the Korean battle area, that the South Korean army was in confusion. Supplies and equipment had been abandoned or lost. Without artillery, mortars and anti-tank guns, the most the South Koreans could hope to accomplish would be to retard the advance of the enemy. The South Korean army was incapable of united action, and there was grave danger of a further breakthrough. C. I. N. C. F. E. further stated that the only assurance of holding the Han River line and to regain lost ground would be through the commitment of United States ground combat forces into the Korean battle area. Accordingly, he stated, if authorized, it was his intention to move immediately a United States regimental combat team to the combat area in Korea as the nucleus of a possible build-up of two divisions from Japan for early offensive action in accordance with his mission of clearing South Korea of North Korean forces."

THE CHAIRMAN—Prior to that time had he received any instructions or directives or recommendations that the United States ground forces in Japan be used for the purpose of stemming this aggression?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Up to that time I believe the only discussion had been in connection with the evacuation of nationals.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Connally.

SENATOR CONNALLY — General Bradley, I don't want to take much of the time of the committee or your time. I want to congratulate you on the fine knowledge that you have revealed as to all of the military and other problems involved here.

I don't think this question is hardly necessary, but I want to ask it anyway.

In handling this matter from the start by the Joint Chiefs of Staff was there any prior disturbance or any prejudice or anything of that kind among any of the Joint Chiefs of Staff as against General MacArthur, or was it handled in an impartial way, purely from a military standpoint?

GENERAL BRADLEY — It was handled entirely in a military way. As I have stated here, we had been worried from time to time about his not clearing certain statements and realized that maybe he was jeopardizing the civilian control of the military.

But other than that, we had not been worried from a military point of view as to General MacArthur as the commander there. I think the answer to your question is that except for these things, it had not worried us too much.

Q.—I mean there was no personal animosity of any of the Chiefs of Staff against General MacArthur. A.—No, sir.

Q.—Or any disposition to be unfair to him. A.—So far as I know, all the Chiefs of Staff admire General MacArthur and his military record and what he has contributed to the country.

Q.—As I understand, really the crux of your testimony is that there is great danger of involving us with Russia if we adopted the suggestions and recommendations of General MacArthur to bomb the Manchurian bases and to send Chiang Kai-Shek into the mainland of China. A.—I think that you can sum up the difference in opinion here as being we don't think those additional steps would be decisive and they do increase the risk of war.

Q.—With Russia? A.—With Russia.

Chiang and Formosa Discussed at Length

Q.—Well, as a matter of fact, it has been urged here that we should equip Chiang's forces, we should supply them, and then when they have been trained and supplied we ought to turn them over to Chiang and let him do what he pleases with them. That would be a strange proceeding, would it not, for us to furnish the arms and the ammunition and the supplies and turn them all over to Chiang and let him go anywhere he wanted to with those troops?

A.—Well, I think there are two safeguards we would want to put on it, and that is that he does not get us involved by his operations; and the second thing is that he not dissipate the equipment we give him and the capability we give him to the point where he again exposes Formosa to being taken by the Communists.

Q.—Well, your caution about dissipating the supplies and equipment no doubt was suggested by the fact that when he was on the mainland in North China with our equipment, over $2,000,000,000 worth of it we gave him, those arms and equipments were dissipated either by voluntarily surrendering them or by capture by the Communists. Is that not true?

A.—Yes. Undoubtedly he did not make very effective use of the equipment we gave him. Whether or not it would be the same kind of dissipation would depend upon circumstances under which he tried to get to the mainland.

Q.—If Chiang were armed and equipped and turned loose, might not he do something that would involve us in a war with Russia by invading the Chinese mainland or doing some other act that was unwise? A.—I suppose that is a possibility, yes, sir. I don't know how immediate that would be if he confined his operations to South China.

Q.—Well, but whether it is immediate or a little farther off, the result would be the same, would it not—we would be in great danger of becoming involved in a war with Russia?

Would you regard it as a good military policy to become a partner by the furnishing of arms, ammunitions, supplies, equipments, without any control whatever over the general receiving them?

A.—Well, I think you always want to make sure that he uses them along—well, he uses them in such a way it improves the security of the United States and improves the chances for eventual peace.

Q.—Well, how could you guarantee that unless you had somebody standing right by his side controlling him and dictating to him what he should do and what he should not do? Just to turn him loose would, to my mind, be a very very dangerous thing—to arm and equip him and give him money and supplies and say, "Now, Mr. Chiang, you just do what you please." That is what has been advocated here by some men.

A.—I think the advisability of that is going to depend in very great measure on the circumstances at the time and actually what he does propose to do. I think it is rather hard to say in a categorical answer that what he did would endanger you because you don't know what that is. I think you have to wait and see what is his capability and what he proposes to do. Then, I think, as you say, certainly we would want to have something to say about it if it is going to involve us.

Q.—It would be a little too late to say something about it after we got involved in a war with Russia.

Now one other point and then I am going to let you go.

It seems to me it has been demonstrated clearly in the war in Korea that the Air Force alone cannot stop an invasion by masses of ground troops. Is that not true?

A.—That has been demonstrated there and it has been demonstrated before. I think we all admit that.

Q.—I read in Sunday's paper I think it was where our Air Force —and I am for the Air Force; I have always voted for it and expect to continue to vote for it. I think it is a very valuable arm of our service—I read, however, that in this last drive, where these North Koreans and Red Chinese came sweeping over, that our Air Force made over 600 sorties. That means 600 planes had gone over, and I suppose attacked the incoming army, and yet their casualties of those 600 planes attacking these masses of troops was about 500 and something, less than the number of sorties.

We did not even average one casualty to a sortie, so that demonstrates to my mind that just air force alone cannot stop the invasion of great hordes of hostile troops. You say that is true?

A.—Yes, sir.

SENATOR CONNALLY—I believe that is all.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Bridges? Senator Byrd? Senator Saltonstall?

SENATOR SALTONSTALL—General Bradley, I have just one question and I have written it out, and I will try to state it accurately.

From what you have just said to Senator Connally and to others, including myself, I gather the impression that the removal of General MacArthur was first not the suggestion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff because of the failure on MacArthur's part of any military operation, and second was not being considered by the Joint Chiefs of Staff because of the failure of MacArthur's part of any military operation, and, second, was not being considered by the Joint Chiefs of Staff until the message of April 5th—that was on a Thursday—to you and your alerting the Joint Chiefs of Staff. It that a fair statement?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, sir. I don't think it would be quite complete without saying again that we had been concerned about some of his statements, and you can appreciate the fact that it somewhat jeopardized the civilian control over the military.

We had been concerned about the action of General MacArthur on the armistice terms in March because we had thought that maybe we had something started which would end the conflict, and we were concerned that his independent action had voided any possibility of anyone presenting that at that time, but as far as coming up with any specific recommendation for his relief, you are correct. We had not proposed any such action.

Q.—And you were far enough from it that you felt you had to alert the Joint Chiefs of Staff on April 5th that it was a possibility? A.—Yes, that the President again was concerned. He had been concerned about other statements by General MacArthur and had shown concern again.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — Thank you, sir.

MAY 23 1951

Wiley Takes Over Questioning Again

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Wiley.

SENATOR WILEY — General Bradley, when this meeting opened, the session of this committee that one of the issues that was not defined by any resolution but probably defined by the facts was whether or not before the bar of public opinion there was justification by the facts for the dismissal of General MacArthur of his command.

Now the other day when my half-hour was up, you had replied to a question of mine that precipitated the argument which resulted in an eighteen-to-eight decision sustaining the chair.

Now, I didn't have a chance to pursue that course, so I am going to pursue it now.

How many meetings, including April 5 and subsequent thereto, did you attend where the subject of discussion was the recall or firing of MacArthur?

GENERAL BRADLEY. — There was a meeting on April 5 with the Joint Chiefs, which lasted about half an hour; there was a meeting on Friday morning at the White House; a meeting Friday afternoon in General Marshall's office.

Q.—Was that the sixth? A.—Yes.

Q.—Two meetings on the sixth? A.—In the morning and afternoon.

Q.—Yes. Was the President at both those meetings? A.—The first one, the one in the morning, was in the White House. The one in the afternoon was in General Marshall's office.

Q.—Yes. A.—There was a meeting Saturday morning at the White House; a meeting Sunday afternoon, first with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and then we all joined General Marshall——

Q.—Was the President at only one of those meetings? A.—(continuing) In General Marshall's office. The President was at neither of those meetings.

Q.—The President was— A.—The President was at neither of those meetings. The Joint Chiefs of Staff first met at my office at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and we went up to General Marshall's office at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. There was a meeting in the White House again Monday morning.

Q.—That is the ninth? A.—The ninth, yes, sir.

Q.—Yes. A.—At which time the President announced his decision.

Q.—Now, when the controversy was precipitated the other day, I understood you to say that you felt you couldn't say what was said because it was confidential. Does that apply to all these meetings? A.—Yes, sir, except the one with General Marshall in which the Chiefs of Staff stated to him the military reasons why they thought that General MacArthur should be relieved, and I have given you those.

Q.—What date was that?

THE CHAIRMAN — Let him answer.

GENERAL BRADLEY — That was Sunday afternoon, as I just stated there, in which the Joint Chiefs met with General Marshall at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 8.

SENATOR WILEY — Since I have interrogated you have you discussed with the President whether what was said and done was considered by him confidential and privileged?

GENERAL BRADLEY — I have not seen the President since you requested me last time. Neither have I talked to him over the telephone.

Q.—Then you don't know whether he claims that it is privileged, these conversations?

A.—Except from what I saw in the press, in which I believe he intimated he thought I was right in not answering, and I think he stated what was said there was his business. I think that was stated in the press. Other than that, I do not know.

Q.—In other words, you have no information from him personally that he claims that the conversations relating to the planning and the execution of this matter were privileged and confidential. You have nothing from him personally.

A.—Personally, no, sir.

Chairman Asks Senator To Let Witness Reply

Q.—All right. Now, let me ask this question: Was the sole purpose of these meetings or the main purpose there of the meetings you have talked about to discuss means and ways of removing MacArthur? A.—No, sir. The principal purpose was a discussion of whether or not he should be relieved.

Q.—Do you want to say in conclusion form what went on at the White House on the 6th? A.—A discussion was held of various aspects of the case, and no—.

SENATOR WILEY—Discussion of what?

THE CHAIRMAN—Let him answer. Let him finish his answer.

SENATOR WILEY — Just a minute Mr. Chairman. I have some rights as Senator to interrogate or to ask a question when I do not hear his words. I asked what was that.

THE CHAIRMAN — Yes, you have all your rights, and I am protecting you in all your rights, but I think the witness also has a right to answer a question. There is nothing personal about this. I have done it with other Senators here when they have interrupted the witness before he has concluded his answer.

SENATOR WILEY—If that was the chairman's purpose, I apologize That was my purpose; I did not understand, and I am sure General Bradley does not think I want to interrupt what he has to say, do you, General?

THE CHAIRMAN—I can understand the zeal of the questioner. I have done it myself on occasions. I have to restrain myself constantly, and other Senators when they have other questions in their minds to propound before the witness has had an opportunity to answer.

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman, when was it when I started in? I must keep track of my time.

THE CHAIRMAN—I put down 11:12.

SENATOR WILEY—There is no time limit on this.

THE CHAIRMAN—Thirty minutes.

SENATOR WILEY—To the second round?

THE CHAIRMAN—Yes, sir.

SENATOR WILEY—When did I start?

THE CHAIRMAN—11:12.

SENATOR WILEY—Well now, would you mind telling me who was present at the White House on April 6?

GENERAL BRADLEY—General Marshall, Secretary Acheson, Mr. Harriman, myself and the President.

Q.—All right. Who was present at the meeting with Marshall on April 6? A.—In the afternoon?

Q.—Yes. A.—General Marshall, Secretary Acheson, Mr. Harriman and myself, the four of us.

Q.—Who was present on April 7 at the White House? A.—It was in the President's office, and the same four people were present.

Q.—All right. There was only one meeting on April 7? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Who was present at the meeting of April 8, in Marshall's office? A.—General Marshall and the three Chiefs of Staff, General Vandenberg, General Collins, Admiral Sherman and myself.

Q.—And who was present at the Chiefs' meeting, there were two meetings on the eighth, weren't there? A.—At the chiefs' meeting?

Q.—Yes. A.—General Vandenberg, General Collins, Admiral Sherman and myself.

Q.—Who was present at the meeting of April 9 at the White House? A.—That was in the President's office. Secretary Acheson, General Marshall, Mr. Harriman and myself.

Q.—Was there, at this meeting, anyone else, at any of these meetings? A.—Up to and including the time the President announced his decision, no.

Q.—Were any communications from any of our allies in relation to MacArthur considered in any of these meetings? A.—Not that I know of.

Q.—Now, you claim to be one of the President's military advisors, do you not? A.—Yes.

Q.—Who constitutes his political advisers! A.—Well, I suppose his Cabinet, and Mr. Harriman; I suppose certain leaders of Congress. I wouldn't know of any others, but I would assume that all those might be classed as political advisers.

Q.—Were any of the political advisers called in? A.—I would say that you consider the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of State and Mr. Harriman all political advisers.

Q.—Has he any psychological adviser, that you know of? A.—No, sir.

Q.—What? A.—No, sir.

Wiley Questions Witness On Chiefs' Conversations

Q.—You, I assume, listened and participated in the conversation that took place relating to the procedure that resulted in MacArthur's discharge. Would you give me a summation of what took place on April 5, when the President was not present, and the Chiefs of Staff were present, with you?

A.—Well, as I have stated, I do not remember the substance of the conversation. I had gained the impression somewhere, as I said here, and I honestly do not remember where I got that, it may have come from the Secretary of Defense, it may have come from the deputy Secretary of Defense, it may have by means of ticker tape, which is brought to me from time to time. I don't remember; but in that the various angles of the relief of General MacArthur were discussed.

Q.—Yesterday you stated, in reply to a question, that the President, on a certain date, decided to remove MacArthur. That was what date? A.—The first time I heard any announcement on it was on Monday, April 9.

Q.—Were there any one, among the Chiefs or among those who have been named, who participated in the meetings, who were distinctly distressed by the discharge of General MacArthur? A.—I don't know that I care to answer that.

Q.—Do you claim that as a personal privilege? A.—To answer your question specifically, I would have to tell you what they said.

Q.—But do you claim your refusal as a personal privilege?

A.—I think I could answer that this way: that I don't believe any of the people concerned in these various conferences were adamant and pushing for General MacArthur's relief. I think it was more or less of a discussion of the various things involved, pros and the cons.

Q.—Well, now, I repeat the question: Do you claim your refusal to give the conversation as a personal privilege?

A.—If you are asking me to repeat the conversation of any individual—yes.

Q.—From certain questions asked yesterday I got the impression that the one who had asked the questions assumed that you contended that MacArthur was for unlimited war on the mainland of China. That is not correct, is it?

A.—I don't think that you could say that he is for unlimited war at this time. The actions he advocated are not, in themselves, unlimited war. They might lead to unlimited war.

Q.—Yesterday you said a plan was drawn up in relation to Korea. I didn't quite get when this plan was drawn up. Was it before we got into the Korean war?

A.—I am not sure what plan you are talking about.

Q.—Well, any plan. A.—There was a plan for the evacuation of our nationals from Korea, drawn up before the war started, yes.

Q.—How long before?

A.—I don't know. We have those plans for all the countries around the world, and they are modified from time to time. What the date of this one was, I don't remember; but it was certainly soon after we had evacuated our troops from Korea in June, '49, I guess.

Q.—Was MacArthur consulted about that plan? I mean, before the war started, the plan you are talking about now?

A.—I don't remember; but, as a matter of fact, I think it was his headquarters that was charged with the plan, because normally the theatre commander in the particular theatre is charged with making the plans and executing them, in case an emergency develops; and I believe General MacArthur's headquarters were the ones responsible for drawing up this plan.

Q.—Will you check that, and put it in the record, for our information? You know that at that time MacArthur had no jurisdiction over Japan.

A.—He had no jurisdiction over Korea.

Q.—Over Korea, I mean; I beg pardon. A.—Except that the same thing applies to, say, the Mediterranean theatre, where the theatre commander there does not have jurisdiction over some of the countries in the Mediterranean, but he has the responsibility of evacuating our nationals from those countries if anything happens.

Q.—Will you find out if he was consulted? A.—Yes.

Q.—You said, in reply to a question by Senator George, that it was not until December 6 you thought it was necessary to send all theater commanders the memorandum that was sent; that you knew MacArthur's view and viewpoint about the value of Formosa, and there was no difference between the opinion of General MacArthur and the Chiefs of Staff. Did you not say that yesterday?

A.—That is part of what I said. What I said was that we had not thought it necessary to send such a statement to General MacArthur or any other theatre commander prior to that time because that is custom, it is regulations that we do not say things about our Government's policy without making sure they are in accordance with the Government's policy at that time, so normally such directives are not necessary, and that is why we had not issued it prior to the sixth.

Senator Rebukes Bradley on Reply

Q.—I think we can get along better if you can answer the questions. If it is correct, I think you made those statements. I took them right from the record. You could have answered that "yes." A.—Some questions just can't be answered yes or no without giving the wrong impression.

Q.—You said in reply to Senator George's question that you know of no insubordination on the part of MacArthur with respect to military orders. He did not fail to carry them out, is that correct? A.—That is correct.

Q.—General, you brought out in response to questions that General MacArthur looked at the Korean war from the standpoint of his theatre, and yet you said that was not a fault and that he was not in a position to know the worldwide commitments. Now I want to know whether you meant to infer from that that he failed in any respect to comply with his military directives?

A.—No, sir. I thought I made that perfectly clear, that that was the natural thing for any theatre commander to do.

Q.—Then you mean that he did not fail in respect to any of his military directives?. A.—That is correct, and the purpose of the answer was to bring out that while General MacArthur was looking at this from a theatre point of view and did not have worldwide responsibilities, it doesn't mean that the people who do have those worldwide responsibilities are necessarily wrong when they fail to carry out his recommendations as to that theatre.

Q.—In a question that was asked you stated that the differences of opinion between MacArthur and the Joint Chiefs of Staff resulted from a difference of opinion between the theater commander and the Chiefs who have to look at all these theaters simultaneously and that that was the reason that you felt that you had to maintain that the war be conducted on a limited basis and that Korea was no place to fight a major war. Do you remember the substance of that? A.—Yes.

Q.—Have you any communications from the time MacArthur was put in the position of commander to the time he was fired that indicated that he wanted to fight a major war on Korea? I think you have answered that. A.—I take it you mean a major war against China?

Q.—Yes. A.—I don't think we did. I think the whole difference was in the risk run by extending it out of Korea.

Q.—Yesterday you testified and the day before I think, too, that a message had been sent to General MacArthur stating allegedly the terms and conditions under which our Government and thirteen other Governments were proposing a cease-fire. Now where is that message? A.—It is in the files certainly. It was dated about the 20th of March.

Q.—You mean the message from the Joint Chiefs of Staff to General MacArthur on March 20th, 1951, is that the message you mean? A.—Yes, it is on page 100 of the compilation of the message which reads:

"On March 20, 1951, the Joint Chiefs of Staff dispatched the following message which was approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Secretary of Defense to General MacArthur:

"'State planning a Presidential announcement shortly that, with clearing of bulk of South Korea of aggressors United Nations now preparing to discuss conditions of settlement in Korea.'"

Q.—Now you have answered that question— A.—Do you want the whole message?

Q.—No. I just asked you where that message is. Now you have answered that. A.—It is quoted in your book.

Q.—All right. I ask that that be placed in the record at this time.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL.—Without objection, it will appear in the appendix of the record.

GENERAL BRADLEY. — You will find it on Page 100, Paragraph forty.

SENATOR WILEY.—Have you got evidence that General MacArthur ever got it? A.—Well, I am sure he did. I can check the message for the acknowledgment of it, but I don't believe he has ever denied he received it.

Q.—Well, I have been reliably informed that no such message maybe ever went to General MacArthur; no one out there in Tokyo ever heard of such a message; the only document ever sent to General MacArthur was one given out on the night of April 11 when the President dismissed MacArthur. This document, it was stated, said that the State Department was planning Presidential announcement. Now to me the State Department is planning something every day. When you send a message to the United States commander you might give him something more definite than what you have testified to.

Now have you got any evidence to show that you showed what these Presidential announcements were that you sent to MacArthur?

A.—Shall I read the whole message?

Entire Message Read by Bradley

Q.—All right. A.—(Reading) "State planning a Presidential announcement shortly that with clearing of bulk of South Korea of aggressors United Nations now preparing to discuss conditions of settlement in Korea."

Q.—Well, that is—A.—(Continuing) "United Nations feeling exists that further diplomatic effort towards settlement should be made before any advance with major forces north of Thirty-eighth Parallel. Time will be required to determine diplomatic reactions and permit new negotiations that may develop. Recognizing that parallel has no military significance, State has asked Joint Chiefs of Staff what authority you should have to permit sufficient freedom of action for next few weeks to provide security for United Nations forces and maintain contact with enemy.

going to say it was quite probable that when we discussed all the pros and cons, all of the things involved in General MacArthur's having carried this to the public, and all the things that were involved in it and the implications, we probably did discuss that.

SENATOR WILEY—Were there any messages exposed at the meetings?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir. (Fifteen lines deleted.)

THE CHAIRMAN — Your time has expired, Senator Wiley. Senator Johnson.

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman, might I ask when this restriction on the second round was placed at a half hour?

THE CHAIRMAN — Colonel Galusha, will you see if you can find the record.

SENATOR WILEY—I just want to know approximately from the chairman. I wasn't here at the time.

THE CHAIRMAN—It was done just before General Bradley started his testimony, on the motion of the Senator from Oregon, Mr. Morse, that each Senator be limited to thirty minutes on each round of questioning.

SENATOR WILEY—Was it each round?

THE CHAIRMAN — It was agreed to unanimously by all the committee present.

SENATOR WILEY—That wasn't the understanding of my associates here or myself, that thought it was unlimited the second time. If so, that's all right with me.

THE CHAIRMAN—The time is limited, but the number of rounds is not limited. No member is being denied the right to ask questions. It is a matter of dispersal among the members of the committee.

A Little "Protection" For Senator Asked

SENATOR WILEY — Might I make just one suggestion? I think that while certain questions are asked definite and certain, that it is not the privilege of the witness to argue, it is the privilege of the witness to answer; and when he goes on and tries to justify when a question could be answered yes or no, if we are going to follow any procedure that applies to a court, he can't argue the case.

It is no criticism of General Bradley, but that is one of the reasons we go on interminably. We are trying to elicit the facts and that is all I try to do. I am sure that in spite of the newspaper comments and some of my associates, they have got to accept my word that I have no prejudice nor am I acting as an advocate in this case. I am trying to act as an investigator to get the facts.

SENATOR LODGE—Mr. Chairman, I hope we won't adopt the procedure that applies in court.

THE CHAIRMAN — Just a minute, Senator Lodge. I want to say, of course, these investigations have never been conducted in accordance with the rules of evidence which apply in a court.

I have never seen a committee hearing that was conducted in that manner. If that were true, we would have to have an official objector here to these questions. A great many of these questions are leading, they call for hearsay testimony, the witnesses are asked what did so and so say to you, which would be in most cases ruled out completely under the ordinary rules of evidence, and I don't think that we can confine ourselves to requiring the witnesses to make categorical answers to these questions. It is unfair to a witness.

Some Senators might devise some questions like that ancient and historic one when a witness was asked, "have you stopped beating you wife?" and demand that he answer it yes or no.

Well, that isn't fair, I don't think, to a witness. Under these rules every Senator will have a right to ask any questions that he desires. It may get down to an endurance contest between the witness and the committee, but in that case the witness is certainly handicapped, because he has got to contend with twenty-six questioners; whereas, there is only one witness at a time.

The witnesses, I think, in a hearing of this kind, particularly involving military matters and opinion, when we have wandered so far from the ordinary rules of evidence that obtain in a court of law, should have a right to state their reasons for their conclusions.

A witness is entitled to do that if he is an expert witness in a court of law. The Senator will have an opportunity to ask any of his questions, but unless the committee decides to the contrary, I intend to give the witness a little leeway as to his answers.

If the committee wishes to adopt some rule that each questioner shall be the judge of whether a witness shall be permitted to discuss his answers, why of course I will be bound by the majority vote of the committee, but until that does occur, I am going to give these witnesses an opportunity to explain their reasons for their testimony.

SENATOR CONNALLY — Mr. Chairman, when you get through I want to say a word.

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman, I am sure if you read what I say, I did not say you shall apply all the rules of evidence. I simply want to make it clear that in view of the fact it has already been stated over the radio, not by myself, that we are dragging along here and all that stuff, that I think that under the guidance of the distinguished Chairman, who is a good lawyer and who is also a man of great experience here, that there are times when perhaps under his guidance we can facilitate matters, if he sees that the witness himself—and there is no reference on the present witness—rambles off into a forty-acre lot when we have got a limitation of thirty minutes, I think his fellow Senators have a right to be protected a little bit, too.

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, the chief has never particularly liked the word "filibuster" but if any witness here indicates that he is filibustering against any time limit and not undertaking to answer questions, why the Chair will bring it to the attention of the committee.

Until that is very manifest, the Chair is not going to compel these witnesses to make categorical yes or no answers to the very lengthy

"Your recommendation desired."

Q.—All right, now that is in the record twice. There is no record in that message or any that I have seen of the Presidential announcements, or information of what the Presidential announcements were to be, with the State Department that was trying to persuade the President or foreign governments. On previous occasions the State Department did send through J. C. S. messages telling about resolutions pending in the U. N. Why was not this particular message sent? Why was General MacArthur deprived of an opportunity of knowing the facts about the war in which he was supposed to be Supreme Commander?

Now, Secretary of Defense Marshall testified that MacArthur's message to the Chinese commander upset these peace negotiations. What did it upset? Where are the documents that show that there were any peace negotiations? If there were any such peace documents in existence, where are they, and if so, who has them? Why have they not been proffered here? Do you know of any of these documents?

A.—Well, he was informed of this negotiation that was going on, and I would say from that message it indicates that we are consulting these other governments, and he replied to that the next day.

You say there is no acknowledgment that he received it. He replied to that message the next day, dated the 21st day of March.

Now, as to the terms of that, and just what negotiations were going on in the meantime, I think the State Department would be in a much better position to testify than I am. I don't know just what the status of these various negotiations were with these other governments when it was upset, according to them, in their opinion, by the fact that General MacArthur came out with his own announcement in Korea.

Q.—General, the President gave his reasons the other day. He said the reasons for dismissing MacArthur, and which were not contained in his message that he sent out at the time—he said, the first reason he gave in his press conference the other day was the message that went to the Veterans of Foreign Wars; and the other was the message MacArthur sent to the Chinese commander.

Now, in these meetings that were held with the people you mentioned, were these alleged reasons for his dismissal—

A.—You are talking about the—

Q.—The meetings from the 5th to the 9th. A.—All of the various things that had come up, the violation of the Dec. 6 directive, certainly was discussed with the Joint Chiefs of Staff; the fact that he had issued this ultimatum, an armistice proposal, was discussed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff; yes, those were discussed.

Q.—Then, he alleged that these were the reasons in these meetings—the President alleged that these two things were grounds for the dismissal, I take it? A.—If you are asking that I state what the President said about these, I am sorry; I can't give it; but I have told you all of these things certainly were considered at these various meetings.

Q.—That is, it is your position that it is a personal privilege and that you can go on and tell conclusions but can not tell what lead up to those conclusions. That is my understanding of your position. A.—I told you that these various things were considered, but I can not tell you what was said about each of them by each person present.

Q.—Now, putting the differences that have been brought up before between the Chief's concepts as they were and MacArthur's concepts as they were, it seems to resolve itself down to the following:

General MacArthur wanted authority to bomb north of the Yalu where the nests of the Chinese were, where they were breeding; you disagreed; he suggestd an economic blockade, which has now been put into effect; will be put into effect by the allies and you disagreed to that in the beginning, did you not?

A.—No, sir; I never did. We have always been in favor of economic sanctions.

MacArthur Not Relieved Because of Opinions

Q.—He wanted to blockade the China coast, which the Allies have not yet agreed to, but you did not agree to that. A.—I do not unless it is made a United Nations blockade.

Q.—Well, the United Nations haven't agreed to that.

And, yet, none of these suggestions that MacArthur made, in which he differed from you or the President—he didn't put his suggestions into operation, did he?

A.—No, I don't think that you can say that General MacArthur was relieved for having different opinions from those of here in Washington. I think you must realize that the basis for his relief—the Joint Chiefs of Staff from a military point of view—was that he carried this to the public, not that he had different views.

We all have different views and we settle them without carrying them to the public. I think the big point here is that he carried them to the public. And before our Allies and before the United Nations we found ourselves speaking with two voices—that of the Government in Washington and that of General MacArthur in Tokyo..

Q.—At any of these meeting that we have been discussing was anything said about the attitude and the position of our Allies?

A.—I don't remember. It may have, because I think we all know that our allies were concerned about spreading this war and taking additional risks and that was illustrated by the fact that they would not go along with us on this "hot pursuit."

It is quite possible——

SENATOR WILEY—Was there any communication——

SENATOR GREEN—Mr. Chairman, may the witness be permitted to finish his answer before another question is asked?

SENATOR WILEY—Were there any communications——

THE CHAIRMAN—Have you concluded, General?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I was

and involved questions that are being propounded.

Every Senator has a right here within the limits of thirty minutes to propound any questions that he sees fit, and if he does not get through that round, why he will be reached again on another round and have another thirty minutes in which to propound questions.

I think we are getting along very well here now and these witnesses are all professional witnesses, at least I think they are. There might be a difference of opinion as to that in some quarters, but I think all of the witnesses who appear certainly qualify as professional and experts in the field in which they are being examined, and I think they are entitled to state the reasons for their conclusions.

Senator CONNALLY — Mr. Chairman, just a word. Isn't it well established over a long period of years in the Senate and in the House that the ordinary rules of the courts do not obtain?

The CHAIRMAN—I have never heard any effort made to apply them, and I am not going to do it unless we have got some official objector here. We will have to get some skilled lawyer to object to the question before I will overrule the objections made to the answers.

SENATOR WILEY—I never contended that, Mr. Chairman. I made a suggestion, that was all.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Johnson.

SENATOR JOHNSON—General Bradley, when General MacArthur appeared before this committee, he was asked and answered in somewhat general terms his estimates of the initial requirements of the forces that would be necessary to inaugurate his program. He was asked and answered in somewhat general terms his estimates of the requirements on our forces that would be required to put into effect the program he recommended.

We have had many repetitious questions in these hearings, some repetitious answers, and although I have attempted to obtain some estimates from our own Defense Department, I do not think the record shows that they have made it.

In view of the fact that General MacArthur has recommended a positive program that specifies certain actions to be taken, I wonder if you are in a position at this time—and if you are not, if you would ask the Chiefs of Staff to be in a position when they come here—to tell this committee the requirements in terms of Army, Navy, Air, men, ships, planes, tanks, et cetera, that they should feel they would need to inaugurate and carry to a successful conclusion the program recommended by General MacArthur.

I understand on the basis of the course you are now following in Korea that you have general estimates of the seapower, the airpower, that you feel you will be called upon to use. You have estimates on the replacements that will be required, and so forth.

Now, do you have at this time or are you in a position to give the committee during your testimony any estimates on the requirements of the MacArthur recommendation?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir; I believe those could be furnished better by the individual Chiefs, and I will warn them that that question will be asked.

Of course, it applies primarily to the Air Force and to the Navy; the Navy, in what would be required to carry on an effective blockade of China; and of the Air Force, General Vandenberg, of what additional air forces should be used in order to make further bombardment of the supply lines up in Manchuria effective.

SENATOR JOHNSON — Will you ask them to be prepared to give us some estimates in that field because you realize, I assume, that one reading the record would gather there is a substantial difference of opinion on those estimates.

In other words, as I remember it, General MacArthur felt very little additional power would be required over what we have had there now, and, I believe, you testified yesterday or the day before that you felt it would be substantial.

So, in the light of the testimony that has taken place heretofore, I hope that you will ask the Chiefs of the services to be able to give us their specific estimates of what they will need, because on yesterday you testified that you felt it would result in stripping our forces, and taking away certain forces we had committed in other parts of the world; and if we should do that, obviously, we would have to increase our manpower requirements and step up our present production goals.

That is all, General Bradley.

Witness Questioned On MacArthur Message

SENATOR KNOWLAND — Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL — Senator Connally is presiding.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY—Who is next?

SENATOR RUSSELL—Senator Smith is next.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY—Senator Smith of New Jersey.

SENATOR SMITH—Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY — I have to identify you because there is such a large family of Smiths.

SENATOR SMITH — General Bradley, just a little further on one of the questions that Senator Wiley asked of you. I am still confused about this famous message of General MacArthur's of March 24, and I refer to the record of May 21, where Senator Morse asked you this questoin on Page 2328, where he said:

"Of your own knowledge, General Bradley, do you know whether or not that statement of General MacArthur's to the Chinese Communist leaders created difficulties with our Allies?

You answered:

"Yes, it happened that our Government had consulted certain other Governments who had troops in Korea as to certain negotiations which we should try to open for a peaceful settlement.

"These various"—I am still quoting your answer—"considerations and possible terms were sent to General MacArthur for his comments while they were being discussed with the other Governments.

"Before we had finished discussions with the other Governments, General MacArthur came out with his statement, offering a truce and stating that if they did not accept it, the war would be extended." I assume when you say "his statement," that refers to the statement of March 24 you are refering to.

"As a consequence, we had to drop our negotiations with the other powers without making negotiation proposals, and it caused our Government some embarrassment because while Washington was talking to them along one line General MacArthur came out along a little different line."

Senator Morse said, "General, when you read or heard that General MacArthur had made the statement to the Chinese Communist leaders that he made, were you surprised"?

You answered, "As a matter of fact, Senator Morse, I was away at the time and heard about the whole thing when I came back."

Now, my question—and it is very important in this testimony—is whether or not General MacArthur was ever sent this memorandum of these negotiation terms.

On Page 188 of the document which has been prepared by the staff, entitled "Compilation of certain published information on the military situation in the Far East," we note Item L, which is entitled "Message of General MacArthur to Newsweek magazine, published April 16, 1951."

This was the message that General MacArthur sent to Newsweek magazine apparently commenting on some article in the magazine having to do with this situation, and I quote General MacArthur's message: "The statement contained in your issue of April 2nd to the effect that prior to the issuance of my statement on March 24 of the military situation in Korea I had been furnished a copy of a policy statement by the President cleared by the governments having military forces in Korea is entirely without basis in fact. I have never seen such a statement and do not know if it even exists. Please publish this in the interest of truth."

Now, when General MacArthur was before us he said distinctly that he had not received any such statement of what these negotiations were, and therefore my question to you is with regard to your reply to Senator Morse where you said, "These various terms were sent General MacArthur." Can we have in the record definitely the terms that were sent to General MacArthur and which you claim he disregarded when he made this statement of March 24?

GENERAL BRADLEY — The only way to do that is to get the full message, Senator Smith. Of course, these in here are paraphrased and are not complete. If you like, I will take steps to get the full message that was sent him on March 20. Of course, it will have to possibly come out of the record because of cryptographic security, but if you want the whole message read, I will take steps to have it brought up here.

Q.—The reason I am pressing this is because here is a difference of testimony. You say it was sent to him. He said he never received any such thing and his testimony said he never received any such thing. The implication is that he ignored this thing, that he put our people in embarrassment in negotiations with other countries, and yet we have never had in the record any indication that he knew what those negotiations were. That is the thing that troubles me.

A.—He certainly knew they were going on.

Wording of Statement Sought for Record

Q.—What the terms were. Now that leads me to this further question, and let me say I do hope you will get that exact statement of the information he had in the record, if we are going to decide whether his statement of March 24 was really based on just an arbitrary action by him, which is implied, as though he was ignoring these other negotiations, which is hard for me to believe.

The suggestions in the President's recent statement to the press was that was this statement that made a great deal of the trouble. You suggested it was this statement. General Marshall suggested it was this statement that made a great deal of the trouble. that MacArthur knew—in fact, I asked General Marshall whether the implication was that he had sort of jumped the gun on the President in a wilful way, and General Marshall said that was a fact, he actually did jump the gun, whether he intended or not, he did. And I gathered from your testimony that he jumped the gun. Is that correct?

A.—That is the impression I obtained when I came back here and heard about this whole matter. Again, as you say, this testimony that I gave on that is hearsay if you get down to rules of evidence. But you asked me the question, and that is the way I was given to understand it as I came back. When I come back from a trip I have to catch up on what has gone on while I was gone, and that is the information or story told me when I came back.

Q.—Were there not two previous occasions when MacArthur, as field commander endeavored to deal with a leader of the enemy forces?

A.—Yes, sir; but both times on suggestion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. I noticed that General Whitney the other day said that on these two previous occasions he had not received ony communications from Washington. I am afraid General Whitney had forgotten about the dates of these things because on Sept. 27 the Joint Chiefs of Staff authorized General MacArthur to broadcast to the North Korean commander in chief calling upon the commander and the forces under his command to lay down their arms and cease hostilities, and the broadcast was made by General MacArthur on the 1st of October.

You notice that he was authorized from the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Again on Oct. 6 the Joint Chiefs of Staff requested General MacArthur to transmit to North Korean authorities the message which would include the United Nations resolution of Oct. 7, the message calling on the North Korean armed forces to lay down their arms in accordance with the broadcast message of Oct. 1.

We sent to him on the 6th of October the terms of the resolution then before the United Nations and told him we would tell him of any changes in it and would notify him as to when it was passed. These changes were transmitted to him, and this message to the North Koreans was transmitted by General MacArthur on Oct. 9.

As far as I know, those were the only two previous occasions upon which he issued such a call to the North Koreans to lay down their arms and both times they were suggested—in one case he was authorized to do it, and in the second case we requested him to do it.

Q.—Well, let me ask you this: At any time was he told not to do it? And is there any established regulation that a commander in field has no authority to deal with the commander of opposing forces with regard to an armistice? I understood that the commander in the field is expected to be in a position in light of circumstances to deal with the opposing commander on a question of peace terms and armistice terms.

A.—As long as his proposals to the opposing commander are in full accordance with the policy of his Government, I don't think anyone would object to his doing it. The bad part of this one, as I understand it, what caused this embarrassment, was that he certainly knew that this was up for consideration by our Government and Allied Governments, and his statement here as you read a minute ago, on Page 188—"The President, cleared by the governments"—it had not been cleared. That was slightly an error in timing. It was being cleared or trying to be cleared with these other governments at the time he made the announcement. That I think was the embarrassing part—Our Government was trying to deal with our Allies here in Washington on one set of proposals and he took action in the field on slightly different proposal. And whether or not he knew the exact proposals, the fact that he knew that our Government was considering it and was talking to other governments about it, that it was up before the United Nations, seems to me like I would have hesitated very much—in fact I would not have issued any such proclamation in the field, knowing that that was pending before our Governmnet and before the United Nations.

Q.—Well, I am still not clear what MacArthur did that was so wrong unless he did know exactly what these negotiation terms were and just tried to by-pass them.

Let's assume this, take this position now: assuming that MacArthur did not know, which is his statement, he did not know, what these terms were, what is there in his statement of the twenty-fourth of March that was contrary to our policy or that could be criticized in his making his appeal to the opposite commander?

A.—Primarily that is a State Department question, because the thing he included in that which is questionable is matters of policy and action toward the rest of China, which had not been included in any previous directives.

Q.—Well, the only thing I have heard criticized is one paragraph which appears on Page 184 of this same document, and that is this, and I quote:

"These basic facts being established, there should be no unsuperable difficulty arriving at decisions on the Korean problem if the issues are resolved on their own merits without being burdened by extraneous matters not directly related to Korea, such as Formosa and China's seat in the United Nations."

U. N. Representatives Reported in Agreement

I understand all the way along we were not going to involve Formosa and China's seat in the United Nations in these armistice negotiations. I have tried to check that with my visits to New York to discuss with our U. N. representatives there, and they have distinctly said we were not going to let these things come in, even though previously we had agreed to sort of a cease-fire where those things might have been considered.

I am confused as to what there is in this statement of MacArthur's that is contrary to policy. You would not say you disagree with that paragraph I just read?

Q.—No, sir, I don't disagree with that paragraph, but I think there is something in here about threatning to carry the war outside of Korea if he doesn't get the terms as I remember it.

Q.—All it says there—I will quote that—A.—the paragraph just above the one you read.

Q.—I will read that: "The enemy therefore must by now be painfully aware that the decision of the United Nations to depart from its tolerant effort to contain the war in the area of Korea through expansion of our military operations to its coastal areas and interior base would doom Red China to the risk of imminent military collapse.

Just a suggestion of where they would be in case we did not continue our present tolerant course. That might be open for criticism But I can't see it is the basis to just abruptly dismiss a man of MacArthur's standing in doing what apparently he thought was the thing to do in dealing with this.

I want to stress this because so much importance has been laid on the terrible action of MacArthur in this particular thing, and I am having difficulty in finding out just what the terrible sin was that was committed.

A.—I think from the military point of view the Chiefs thought this was one of many things which showed independent action—

Q.—That is what I am trying to get at and also with General Marshall. He said one of many things, and I cannot find in this record except for this, the Martin letter which was explosive but it vasn't really basic, and the other is the Veterans of Foreign Wars speech in which all I can find is a statement of the strategic importance of Formosa. Are you familiar with the Veterans of Foreign Wars speech yourself? A.—Yes.

Q.—Well, do you disagree with what General MacArthur said about Formosa then, its strategic importance? A.—As far as the strategic importance of Formosa is concerned, I do not. May I add one other thing to your last question?

Q.—Certainly. I want to get all the light I can.

A.—You asked about these various things. You named some of them. There were certain others like independent statements in interviews, and particularly the statement to Freeman magazine which blamed political decisions for not arming more South Koreans, and I think everyone that knows the details of that thinks that is a very unfair statement because back in early January the Chiefs had queried General MacArthur on the advisability of arming additional South Koreans, and he had recomenmded against it, and it seems to me that all he would have had to say to this query from Freeman magazine was "Yes, we have considered it but we don't think it advisable at this time," but instead of that he said it was a political decision and imand he was being hamstrung from plied that he would like to do it here, and I think that unfair statean unfair presentation of the case, ment, at least we thought it was was a rather important one in all these things.

Q.—Well, I will say, as I recall, General MacArthur answered questions about that and stated very clearly that he thought that the arms for the South Koreans might be better used in Japan in building up a constabulary there, something to that effect, at that particular time. A.—That was part of the answer.

Q.—I did not recall that any special stress had been laid on that particular thing as a cause for his dismissal, something he may have said to Freeman magazine. A.—It was just one more thing that came at about this time which indicated that——

General Is Questioned On Pre-Korean Relations

Q.—Now, General, the thing that I have been trying to get at from the beginning of these hearings, you keep saying there was one more thing, a lot of things, and yet we haven't got anywhere in the record a succession of things as to why this was done.

Were there any misunderstandings or disagreements between General MacArthur and the Department of Defense or the Department of State prior to the Korean aggression in June, 1950, or does everything date from the Korean aggression and the handling of the matter in Korea?

A.—There was no great difference of opinion that I know of prior to the Korean thing.

Q.—Now I know, from my experience in my trip to the Far East that MacArthur had a great many problems there that he wished he had more contact with Washington or somebody coming out to see him, and yet the testimony shows that prior to the Korean aggression of 1950 none of the following were out there: I take the Department of State first: Secretary Marshall, Under Secretary Lovett, Secretary Acheson, Under Secretary Webb, Assistant Secretary Dean Rusk, Ambassador Jessup.

None of those men had ever been to see him prior to the time that I was there in Forty-nine and prior to the Korean outbreak in Fifty. I am told that General Eisenhower was there in 1946.

I think that appeared in the testimony from yourself or General Marshall, and I think Secretary of the Army Royall went out in sort of a round-the-field study.

From the Department of Defense I can't find that either the Secretaries of War and Navy were there prior to unification, Secretary Marshall of Defense, of course, has not been there, Under Secretary Lovett of Defense has not been there, the Secretaries of the Army, Navy, Air, none of the Joint Chiefs of Staff or yourself were there prior to the Korean business.

Whatever policy MacArthur may have had in that area, he was left alone to deal with. I am only mentioning this because he seemed to feel that he was expected to make some of these decisions because they had not been taken up with him. If there were differences, he did not know about them.

A.—May I be permitted to correct one part of your statement?

Q.—I wish you would. A.—I was there twice before the Korean incident.

Q.—I am very glad to hear that. Were you there prior to 1949? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Not prior to that? A.—No, sir.

Q.—That was where I was misled, because when I was there in 1949 he told me he had no had the benefit of a visit from any of the Chiefs in Washington. He did not know how to act about certain matters.

He said he felt our interests were in Europe, he said the Chiefs had gone to Europe, they were discussing there, he understood that, but there were some Far Eastern problems he did not have a chance to clear.

A.—May I make a statement on that?

Q.—Yes, indeed.

A.—Twice I planned trips to Japan while I was Chief of Staff of the Army. One of them I had to call off because of some hearings before a committee of Congress, the other one because of a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Most of these commanders came home from time to time, in which case we always get them down with the Joint Chiefs of Staff and go over their problems very clearly. General MacArthur had never come home.

He thought it was necessary for him to stay there, so he was the one commander of a theater which had not been back and given us a chance to talk to him either, but I think it must be remembered that we have been over there, the various members of the Chiefs, since this thing started. I was over there twice before that happened.

Q.—Oh, yes. What I am trying to find out, General, is whether when you think back on this whole relationship, and apparently there has been friction between General MacArthur and the Department of State and the Department of Defense—did that exist prior to the Korean outbreak or can we locate the differences since June, 1950, when the Korea outbreak came?

A.—Well, speaking entirely from the defense point of view, the only difference that I know of came up when General MacArthur wanted to have some troops, and we would have liked to have given him more troops, but they just were not available.

Q.—You mean prior to Korea? A.—Prior to Korea, because as you remember at one time, the Army got down below 600,000 and you have your German occupation, Austria, Trieste, as well as Japan and the other stations, and we just couldn't increase his garrison to the point where he wanted it.

Q.—Well, that did not cause any real friction. That was the normal differences between regional responsibility and the head office in Washington. Now let me ask you this question, General. Did any of the Joint Chiefs of Staff or yourself ever go to Formosa? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Never went. Why didn't they? A.—Because it is not United States territory. We have no troops there. We had no mission there, and I think it would be a little bit awkward if we tried to go into a foreign country where we have no troops, no mission and no other connections. At that time we were not furnishing military aid. When we decided to send military aid, then we did send people from General MacArthur's staff, since he had the responsibility. In fact, he went down himself, and we now have a major general there heading a mission, but up until the time we sent that mission there, there really wasn't any requirement for us to go there. We really had no excuse to go there.

Truman-MacArthur Talk In Private Is Recalled

Q.—Well, now may I ask you this question. The Wake Island Conference as I recall it was about the middle of October? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Were there any disagreements with General MacArthur taken up with him at Wake Island? In this recent statement of the President, I think he used the language that he traveled under his own steam 14,000 miles to try and settle some of these differences, and yet this report of the Wake Island Conference implies that everything was agreed to and thoroughly understood. Were there to your knowledge actual differences with General MacArthur taken up at Wake Island, such as the Veterans of Foreign Wars speech?

A.—I don't know, because the President and General MacArthur had a private conversation of their own for about an hour prior to the big conference, and they then had a shorter conference after the big conference. At the big conference the matter of the V. F. W. letter was not discussed.

Q.—And at that time they complimented General MacArthur in many ways for his wonderful service, they decorated him, the President decorated him and the impression given in the United States was that there was the best accord and cooperation between Washington and General MacArthur in the Pacific.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—That is the impression I certainly got; and yet the President has stated in this last press statement that he had differences, and traveled hundreds of miles under his own steam, 14,000 miles, to straighten these troubles which were the background for abruptly dismissing General MacArthur. How can we reconcile those statements?

A.—They are not my statements, sir.

Q.—That is true. A.—I might point out that the Joint Chiefs of Staff sent a message of commendation and congratulation to General MacArthur on the success of the Inchon landing and the operation connected with it, because it was a very brilliant operation.

Q.—That is, of course, the impression we all had in this country, and I was surprised, the other day, when the President said he was upset over the differences, and the V. F. W. speech, and had traveled 14,000 miles to settle them; and you say, and General Marshall said, there was an accumulation of incidents; and I am trying to get at exactly what this incident of March 24 was, whether General MacArthur did or did not know what these negotiations were.

I think there is great danger here of our leaving a record that isn't very clear on just exactly what the charges were against MacArthur.

I understand the difference in strategy. I have no quarrel with that. I would not, as a layman, even get into that discussion of whether this strategy or that strategy was right. I assume you Chiefs of Staff know more about that than we do; and General MacArthur said here that had he been asked to withdraw and turn over his command, he would have done so.

So that isn't the reason for his abrupt dismissal. That abrupt dismissal is because of some prejudice somewhere, and I am trying to locate that; and the report came to me that the removal of General MacArthur had been planned by the Executive Department for a long time, even before General Marshall was made Secretary of Defense.

There was a determination to shift MacArthur at the first available opportunity. That is what is troubling so many of us about this whole thing. I am just asking you if you know anything about that. I assume your answer would be "no."

A.—No, sir; I do not.

Q.—Now, let me ask two more, and then I am through—one more especially.

MacArthur has been charged by some people with whom I have discussed this matter with falling down at the time the Chinese Communists came in; that he ought to have known they were coming; it was a terrible blunder on his part that he didn't know, and therefore he ought to get out for that one thing alone.

What I want to ask is: did our military intelligence fall down so that we were not adequately alerted to the aggression of the Chinese Communists in Korea?

If it fell down, was it MacArthur's Intelligence Staff, or was it the C. I. A. [Central Intelligence Agency] in Washington, or where was it?

Could you say, as a military man, whether MacArthur was to blame for the apparently wrong intelligence in the Chinese coming into North Korea?

A.—The intelligence on which he had to base his decision had to be primarily field intelligence.

Now, there were evidences from captured prisoners of from late October that Chinese had come in to some extent into the operation.

Then, on Nov. 6, General MacArthur sent in a message that the Chinese were pouring across the bridges across the Yalu, and they were coming across in great numbers. That was on about Nov. 6.

Now, what happened between Nov. 6 and the time that he was hit by the Chinese attack of about Nov. 26 or 28—the twenty-sixth, I guess—it is hard for us here to know, because a lot of that intelligence should have come from his own field command.

That concentration on the right flank of the Eighth Army should have been picked up by air reconnaissance and ground reconnaissance; in other words, by patrol and aviation put in there.

How much of that he had, Senator Smith, we don't know here, because we don't get all the field intelligence that a commander gets in the field and acts on. But certainly there was enough coming in to indicate that there was a considerable Chinese build-up somewhere in North Korea.

Need for Reconnaissance To Locate Chinese Cited

Q.—Was MacArthur prevented rom sending reconnaissance planes across the border in Manchuria to see whether there were accumulations there of troops?

A.—We knew all the time that there were concentrations in Manchuria. It was a question of how many of them had moved over into Korea, and that, as I say, could have been obtained or should have been obtained by air reconnaissance and ground reconnaissance.

Now, you must realize, of course, also, that that country in there is very heavily wooded by evergreens, and it is rather difficult to pick up troops and, as I say, it is very hard to sit here in Washington and say he should have known or just what he did know. That is up to the field commander, and I certainly would not blame him or G-2 or anyone else for the fact he did not get it, and the fact that he may have had certain information and may have evaluated it wrong.

Q.—Let me ask you this, General: what provision have we got here in Washington for getting in touch with world conditions, the situation in Peiping; what the policy of the Chinese Communists might have been? Do we get intelligence through our offices here about that that could have been or should have been transmitted to him?

A.—He is transmitted all the information we get in here. Of course, you have to evaluate it. We get a lot of reports out of China; some of them are absolutely wrong, some of them have a certain amount of truth in them; and we have to take all of them and evaluate them, and I believe all of these messages were sent to General MacArthur, and I have asked General Collins to be prepared to testify on that because he is the executive agent who passes on to General MacArthur's headquarters all the intelligence information, and he would be able to tell you this, and I know he has looked into it, and he will tell you exactly what he has sent.

SENATOR SMITH— I thank you, General. Have I more time?

THE CHAIRMAN—You have a half minute.

SENATOR SMITH—Let me ask you just one more question, if I may. Referring back now to the meeting at Blair House, on June 25, and to the meeting of the White House conference, on June 26, where, as I recall, I was present, I recall that on June 26, I think, Senator Connally and I were both present when the discussion of the Korean outbreak came up. I am just wondering what records, if any, were taken of the conversations of those meetings, do you recall?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I did not keep any, and whether or not anyone else kept any record of the meetings, I do not know, sir.

I might add just as I said the other day, I think Admiral Sherman took a few notes, but how extensive they are I don't know.

SENATOR SMITH—Could I make just one final observation there?

THE CHAIRMAN—It has got to be by unanimous consent. We have to follow the rules. I wish we did not have to enforce it. Dr. Wilcox is keeping time, and he informs me that your time is up.

SENATOR SMITH—I will abide by the chairman's ruling.

THE CHAIRMAN—Without objection, the Senator can make his observation.

SENATOR SMITH—I recall at the first meeting I was at when we were told about the Korean outbreak, the only thing discussed was sea and air support. We were going to give sea and air support.

The question was raised at that meeting of whether it meant any troops, and they said no, at that meeting.

At the second meeting of June 30, the President advised us that it would be deemed necessary to send some supporting ground troops, and I just wanted to get that clear, because that is my recollection. Do you recall that?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think that is correct, sir, because no ground troops were committed until about the 30th of June; yes, sir.

SENATOR SMITH—Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman, I have quite a few questions to ask. I am sure I cannot finish them in the first half hour period, but in view of the fact that I have so many questions to ask, I think it is only fair that I make a very friendly reply to the Senator from New Hampshire, Mr. Tobey, in view of certain remarks that he made in the record yesterday.

I did not happen to be here, as I explained yesterday; I was at a departmental meeting, taking care of some constituency problems, and did not get in until the afternoon session, so last night, when on the radio I heard various radio reports about what Senator Tobey was purported to have said, then when I picked up The Washington Post this morning and read what purported to be a quotation of Senator Tobey, I neither could believe my ears on the radio reports nor my eyes on the newspaper reports, so I came in this morning and got the record.

I read what he said, and I assume it is a correct transcription, because I felt I ought to make a little statement about what he said.

I had his office advised that I would respectfully reply to him this morning, because I do not share the Senator's views, and many of the observations he made yesterday, and so I make these following comments. He said:

"I have not attended as many of these meetings as most of you have"—and I read from Page 2460 of the transcript—and I think that is perfectly within the discretion of any Senator. We cannot always be here. I will not be able to be here at tomorrow afternoon's session or the Friday morning session.

The Senator from New Hampshire hasn't been able to be here for many sessions. There is no question of right. I think we have had twenty-one sessions up to this morning, and I think he has attended eleven of the twenty-one.

I know there are good reasons why he hasn't attended the ten that he was absent from. But he goes on to say:

"* * * but I am impressed with the futility of much that is going on here and very definitely so. Here are a lot of men, well intentioned men, with absolutely no military training or gumption or common sense, coming in here to pose questions to men whose lifelong service has been in the military and naval establishments and the Air Force of this country."

When he says that, I feel I must make an observation. I have no objection to the Senator from New Hampshire so characterizing himself if he cares to, but I do raise a polite word of protest in behalf of my colleagues on this committee to having such descriptive language inserted into the official record of these hearings in regard to them.

In the first place, it just isn't an accurate statement. We have a considerable number of men on this committee who not only have had military training, but who in my opinion have had such distinguished military service that I am inclined to think that some of them could be put on the witness stand themselves and qualify as experts on some military problems.

I think we can take judicial notice that members of the committee are not lacking in what the Senator from New Hampshire describes as gumption and certainly they are not lacking in common sense, even though the Senator from New Hampshire is privileged to have a contrary view if he wishes to.

Then he said:

"We are wrongly holding closed hearings over open hearings, against the ill-advisement of some members of this committee who insisted upon the hearings being opened."

MAY 23 1951

Affirms That Hearings Should Be Public

Now, Mr. Chairman, the Congressional Record will show that on some procedural votes in the Senate—and I assumed all of us knew when we were casting those votes that the fundamental issue was not the procedural matter before us at all, but whether or not the hearings would be open or closed—I note from The Record that the Senator from New Hampshire voted with those of us that voted procedure-wise in an attempt to get open hearings.

Again, he is entitled to his judgment as to whether or not those of us that advised open hearings gave ill advice or not. For the record let the junior from Oregon say that although I think these hearings have been conducted in as fine a fashion as executive hearings could possibly be conducted, I haven't changed my mind one iota from the basic principle that investigations of this type ought to be conducted in public hearings.

That is a difference of opinion, but I just didn't want that statement of the Senator from New Hampshire to remain in the record without my polite reply to it.

Then he goes on to say that he fails to see the value of holding up the test tube to the light of day, and "I would like to have somebody point it out for the good of the country and the good of the Congress and the good of the services."

I want to say, Mr. Chairman—and this is the last part of his comments that I shall reply to—I would prefer to dismiss them if they weren't having the effect I think they are on public opinion, as simply an emotional outburst, but I shall not dismiss them that way.

I want to say that I think these hearings are producing a tremendous effect of good on this country, because I think at the time these hearing stated public opinion was seriously split in this country—confusion, perplexity, doubt prevailed in America.

I think these hearings are having the effect of stabilizing public opinion. I think they are having a tremendous effect for good on this Administration in that I think they are resulting in a clarification of a great many objectives in regard to foreign and military policy.

Sure, I, along with the Senator from New Hampshire, would have preferred that the incident which gave rise to these hearings had never arisen—but once it arose and the public reaction to it was what it was, then I want to say, Mr. Chairman, that in my judgment, in the interests of national unity, trying to get us back pulling together again on a military and foreign policy that will give us the maximum of unity against the threat of communism, we have to go through with these hearings.

I think we must continue with these hearings until we get these issues clarified and let the record speak for itself.

Therefore, I shall make no apology to this committee or to the Senate or to the people of the United States for asking such questions as I have asked heretofore in these hearings and such questions as I intend to ask before the hearings are over. I intend to be my own judge as to the propriety and then again let the record speak for itself.

I want to say to my friend from New Hampshire that my personal feelings of love and affection for him haven't changed a bit just because of my strong feeling of opposition to what I think was a very indiscreet and unwise observation that he made yesterday afternoon on the record.

I think it is such observations as he made yesterday that cause disunity and disaffection in this country, not the orderly procedure of this hearing.

With that observation, Mr. Chairman, I now ask General Bradley these questions.

You were examined this morning by one of the Senators, General Bradley, about the early recommendation of General MacArthur concerning the sending of troops into Korea.

It is my recollection of General MacArthur's testimony — and he gave this testimony, I think, in answer to questions that I put to him, as the record will show—he testified that his first instructions were to proceed to protect our interests in Korea with air and naval forces and give such assistance to the South Koreans as he could with our air and naval forces.

As you have brought out, his first job was, of course, to help evacuate or to implement the evacuation of our nationals in Korea.

He then testified that he made a personal trip to Korea and as a result of his personal reconnaissance, he became satisfied that he could not carry out his mission in Korea with just naval and air forces, that he would need some ground forces, and that he recommended that he be allowed to take some troops then in Japan and send them to Korea for ground support.

I think that is all a matter of record, and I now ask you: Does that account of General MacArthur's recommendation in regard to ground troops square with your understanding of what happened?

A.—That is my remembrance of it, yes, sir.

Q.—Now the Senator from New Jersey in a question this morning made a comment that left the impression with me that he thought MacArthur had been left out in Japan and in Korea to deal with the Korean problems alone and he asked questions as to whether or not you had been to the theatre in Korea. I ask you this question:

Assuming that no one from the Joint Chiefs of Staff had gone out to Japan or to Korea personally, would it follow that MacArthur was left alone in the dealing with Japanese and Korean problems?

A.—No; I don't think that that follows in the sense that most people would take it, because there is constant communication back and forth.

In fact, the fact that a man is left alone to do a job is not an indication necessarily that you are not interested in him, but that you have confidence in his being able to carry it on without coming around, so that it works both ways. We were always in constant communication with General MacArthur and exchanged views back and forth.

Q.—I again hold in my hand, General Bradley, the secret exhibit, which is on the desk of each member of the committee, entitled "Joint Chiefs of Staff Report for Senate Committees on Korean Operations," which exhibit purports to set forth paraphrases of the various communications that were transmitted to MacArthur and that MacArthur transmitted to the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

I ask you this question about the exhibit: Does it now show that from June 25 on the Joint Chiefs of Staff kept in very frequent communication with General MacArthur and sent him a great many messages and communications in regard to American military and foreign policy?

A.—I think it does show that, and it also shows in here the various visits made by the chiefs since that time.

Q.—Do you know of any time, General Bradley, that General MacArthur was not given an answer to any request that he made of the Joint Chiefs of Staff?

I do not mean given an answer that he considered satisfactory in that he was able to always agree, but do you know of any time when the Joint Chiefs of Staff left him alone out in Asia by not communicating with him in reply to any request he made of the Joint Chiefs of Staff?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you know of any time when the Joint Chiefs of Staff failed to maintain a constant vigilance in accordance with their military duties as Joint Chiefs of Staff in respect to MacArthur's problems in Asia and kept him informed as to the conclusions that they reached in respect to those problems? A.—No, sir, I know of no instance.

MAR 28 1951

Military Procedure On Opinions Brought Out

Q—Now, the other day the senior Senator from New Hampshire, Mr. Bridges, examined you along this line: he said, "General Bradley, the firing occurred on a political level, is that true," and he asked you if you would speak out as MacArthur had spoken out to the public and you answered that you would not, but that you would go through your line of superior authority.

I ask you this in connection with the Bridges examination: if you spoke out, General, as Senator Bridges suggested, would not your military command soon become a babble of raucous conflicting voices and the line of command destroyed so as to produce a detrimental effect on military discipline?

A.—Well, if I may answer that a little bit in full——

Q.—Answer it in your own way.

A.—I think it can be illustrated by the fact that during the war the Chiefs of Staff had six theatre commanders, all of whom thought their theatre was all-important, and asked for additional means of carrying out their mission.

Had each one of these six carried their demands to the public over the heads of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, I think we would have had the condition which you picture, one in which an orderly conduct of the war would have been broken down, and that our Government, our military authorities, would have been unable to carry on a war with any efficiency whatsoever.

Q.—Is it not true that it is an historic custom and a long-established tradition in the American military systen that while men are on active duty in responsible positions as high officers, they do not take their disagreements with their superiors directly to the public for debate, but they try to iron out their differences through the channels of command?

A.—We are taught to argue and present all the reasons that we can think of with reference to any action until the decision is made, and we argue that with the man who is going to make the decision. After the decision is made we abide by that decision and do not carry it to the public.

Q.—Would it be accurate for me to say that it is very much of an unwritten law within American military tradition that if a high officer of the military finds himself in such complete disagreement with his superiors that he cannot, in his opinion, with intellectual honesty and good ethics execute their orders that he should resign his commission, and then as a civilian take the issue to the country?

A.—I think that is a general principle, and it doesn't apply only to the military. I think it applies to any civilian occupation. If a vice president of a company does not agree with the policy of the board. I think he normally gets out. I think we would follow the same principle.

Q.—Am I correct in my understanding of your testimony that if you had found yourself in General MacArthur's position and believed as he believed, as he appeared to believe, that the policies of his Government in some respects were wrong, that you would have resigned your commission and taken the issue to the country if you felt that you had to discuss the matter?

A.—I think, Senator Morse, that what I said was that I would have asked for relief from the job and whether or not I would have carried it to the public would depend upon what I considered at the time the vital importance of the issue.

Q.—Am I correct in my understanding that by that answer, you mean you would not have taken it to the public until you had been relieved from your job? A.—I would not have, no, sir.

Q.—Now, yesterday, Senator Byrd examined you on the insubordination issue; and if I understood your testimony correctly, my understanding is that you do not believe that General MacArthur was guilty of insubordination, as far as the legal definition of the term "insubordination," in military law, is concerned; because the term "insubordination" carries with it intent or willful act or deliberate purpose, and that you do not believe that he intentionally committed an act which would fall within the difinition of insubordination, as far as military law is concerned. Am I correct?

A.—That is correct. In other words, I do not say that General MacArthur was insubordinate.

Q.—Am I correct in my understanding that you do believe, however, that some of the acts of General MacArthur embarrassed his Commander in Chief? A.—I think that can be assumed, because the President has so stated, himself.

Legal Insubordination Held Not Involved

Q.—Am I correct in my understanding that you personally think that the notice, or ultimatum, that he issued to the Communist Chinese military leaders was most likely to embarrass his Commander in Chief? A.—Yes.

Q.—Am I correct, then, in view of that answer, General, to reach the conclusion that a military officer does not have to be insubordinate, in the legal sense, according to military justice, to commit acts that are embarrassing to his superiors and make the administration of their duties more difficult?

A.—I think that is a fair statement.

Q.—Is it likewise a fair statement to say that a Commander in Chief, finding himself in a position where the conduct of one of his commanders proves to be embarrassing to him, that he not only has the right, as you testified yesterday, to remove that commander but if he is to keep faith with his own obligations, responsibilities and duties as Commander in Chief, he has the duty to remove such a commander?

A.—Well, you are asking me to pass upon the President's idea of his own duties. I think that is a little bit beyond me.

Q.—Let me rephrase my question, because it has a principle involved in it that I think you are highly qualified to testify in regard to, and give me an answer to.

So, I will speak to you hypothetically, for a moment.

If Commander X follows a course of action, be that action by way of issuing public statements that are embarrassing to his Commander in Chief, or any other conduct that embarrasses his Commander in Chief, so as to make it more difficult for his Commander in Chief to carry out the duties, responsibilities and obligations of Commander in Chief; under those circumstances, then, does not the Commander in Chief not only have the right to remove the commander who is embarrassing him, but really has the duty to remove him, in the interest of the more efficient carrying out of his duties as Commander in Chief?

A.—Well, I think that if the Commander in Chief should decide that such actions were interfering with his functioning in his job as Commander in Chief, interfering with his carrying out the duties assigned to him as Commander in Chief, then it would probably be his duty to remove that restriction and that interference.

Q.—If a Commander in Chief did not relieve a subcommander who was interfering with the Commander in Chief's carrying out his duty, then the Commander in Chief, in turn, would be subject to criticism and censure, would he not? A.—He undoubtedly would, and he would become responsible for any actions that resulted from his not removing him.

Q.—Of course our discussion over these hypothetical questions is all based on the assumption that as a matter of fact it is true that the Commander in Chief is being embarrassed and interfered with in carrying out his duty by some act of a subcommander.

Now I will close this line of questioning with this additional one on the insubordination matter. I think you testified, but I want to have it crystal clear in the record, that there are many grounds for removing commanders in the field, such as a loss of confidence on the part of a superior commander in a lower commander, or a feeling that the lower commander lost confidence in himself, I think you testified to. There are many discretionary grounds that are exercised constantly in removing officers from command; is that not right?

A.—That is correct.

Q.—That no commander has a right to be left in command, does he? A.—No, sir.

Q.—He has no vested interest in a command? A.—No vested right, no, sir.

Q.—He serves at the pleasure of his superiors and the Commander in Chief in that particular post, does he not? A.—That is correct.

Q.—I think you testified that there are many, many instances in which men have been removed from command and given other assignments with no reason being given them as to why they have been removed and given other assignments; is that not true? A.—I expect that may have happened. When I relieved a man in battle I usually told him why I was relieving him, but I don't suppose it was inherent that I had to tell him.

Q.—Nothing in military law would require you to, is there? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Now yesterday Senator Byrd also examined you in regard to a procedure that was followed after the first meeting in the Blair House when it was decided that we ought to re-enter Korea based upon the first resolution of the Security Council, the one in which the Russians absented themselves, which, as I recall, was in effect a cease-fire resolution, was it not? A.—Yes. It called upon the North Koreans to desist and move back behind the Thirty-eighth Parallel.

Disagrees With Morse On Evacuation Plans

Q.—And it was that resolution, was it not, on which our Government based its authority as far as the United Nations was concerned to proceed with the evacuation of our nationals? A.—Will you read that question?

(The pending question was read by the reporter.)

A.—No, sir, I don't believe any such resolution would have been necessary for evacuation of our nations, because we have those plans in all countries, as I have stated, in case of an emergency, to get our nationals out. Every theatre commander has those plans and the transportation arranged for them.

Q.—Are you through? A.—Yes.

THE CHAIRMAN—Your time has expired, Senator.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Mr. Chairman, I have a procedural matter that I would like to call to the attention of the committee, not present at the moment, but I do feel for the interests of proper procedure that I should say that it relates to the document of Dec. 23, 1949, put out by the Department of State relative to the strategic importance of Formosa.

The State Department under date of May 22d finally supplied this document, which had been requested by the senior Senator from California, and the document is available to the committee. However, they indicate that it is only presented with the understanding that as a classified document—and I might say that the classification of it is confidential—that it shall not be made a part of the public record of the hearings.

I do not want to violate that injunction which they have indicated in their letter to the chairman, but I would like the opportunity—it is not too long a statement—to read it into the record with that foreground so that Admiral Davis can take due notice, and I have no objection if he strikes it from the record today, but I would like then to be able to ask in the normal committee procedures that we have set up that Senator McMahon and I should consult with the State Department and others with regard to this, because I personally do not feel that this in any would would violate national security, the security of our troops, any cryptographic situation or any other security for which I can at least see a valid reason.

Now the State Department has outlined their reasons, and at the proper time they, of course, could be discussed back and forth before this committee, but I would like to get the document into our classified record which will not be released to the public, and then, at the proper time when we have a full committee present, raise the point and ask that the procedural discussion be made.

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, we can do that, Senator, by having it appear in the appendix. I think that any matter in the appendix is subject to the scrutiny of Admiral Davis, as any matter that is in the main part of the record. It will conserve a little time.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—That is perfectly agreeable with me.

THE CHAIRMAN—My suggestion would be, if the Senator from California does not object to the suggestion, that if he would consult with the Senator from Connecticut and show him that matter, it might be that you could arrive at some kind of an agreement that would considerably shorten the procedure here.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Fine, but I merely in fairness to the State Department wanted to raise the point that they had requested that it not be made a part of the public record and said it was being furnished with the understanding it would not be made a part of the public record, so I think if General Mudge can indicate to Admiral Davis this conversation that we want a part of the appendix of the non-public record and then we can take it up with Senator McMahon.

THE CHAIRMAN—That course will be followed. Senator Green, you stated you had a few questions.

SENATOR GREEN—It will just take a few moments, General. From time to time during the questioning, reference has been made to a directive of clearance of public statements, and I think it would be a good idea to have for the record a statement from you as to how that clearance is effected and to whom it applies.

GENERAL BRADLEY—That directive was sent out on Dec. 6, and was sent to all theatre commanders.

Q.—To all what? A.—To all theatre commanders.

Q.—Yes.

A.—It was a directive from the President dated Dec. 5 to all officials in Government, high officials in Government, and then was sent out by us the next day to all theatre commanders, because the President's directive applied not only to Cabinet members and other high-ranking officials in Government, but applied also to high-ranking military, and this directive stated that all statements involving policy should be cleared by the Government. That applied to all the high-ranking people, as I say, in Washington and in the field.

Now, if somebody in the field had anything to say that he felt might be at variance with that, it was up to him to send it in here for clearance. I don't know whether that answers your question or not, sir.

Q.—No, not quite. How far down, to what levels does it go? A.—Well, it goes to the senior in the field, and it is up to him to enforce it for everybody under him.

Q.—Then it was up to General MacArthur to enforce it on everybody who was under him? A.—Yes.

Q.—Reference was made in some of the questions to magazine articles that had been published by General Stratemeyer and also by General Ridgway. Were they not under General MacArthur? A.—Yes, sir.

Duties of Senior Officer On Clearances Noted

Q.—Then they should have been cleared by General MacArthur? A.—Yes, sir; if there was anything in that statement that was contrary to policy that should have been cleared with him; if there was any question in his mind, then he should have forwarded it on to Washington.

Q.—Yes; but otherwise if there was no question in his mind he would not have it forwarded? A.—No, sir; he has the authority to clear it or not clear it.

Q.—Then, we may assume, they were cleared by him, if we didn't have any information to the contrary? A.—I assume so, sir, or else they thought they were in accordance with General MacArthur's policy and his statements.

SENATOR GREEN—Thank you very much; that is all.

THE CHAIRMAN — Gentlemen, the committee will now stand in recess until 2:30 this afternoon. General, we will have to ask you to be back with us again.

GENERAL BRADLEY — All right, sir.

(Whereupon, at 1 o'clock P. M. [E. D. T.] the committee recessed to reconvene at 2:30 o'clock P. M. the same afternoon.)

Afternoon Session

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL — The committee will be in order. Senator Knowland.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—General, I would like to go back and make some further inquiries relative to the meetings that led up to the dismissal of General MacArthur.

As I recall the testimony, you had first received either from the telephone call or from some other source the fact that something was in the wind on April 5. Then, as I recall, you had gone to the White House on April the 6th and at that meeting, presumably in addition to the President, was Secretary Acheson, Secretary Marshall and Mr. Harriman and yourself?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes.

Q.—At that meeting no specific decisions were made as to the time of his removal, the circumstances of his removal, or, in fact, not even a final decision, so far as you knew, that he was to be removed. Though, as I understood the testimony, it was suggested that thought might be given over the week-end and in the meantime you would meet with the Joint Chiefs. Am I substantially correct in my understanding?

A.—Almost. At the meeting on Friday morning in the White House, with those that you mentioned, the matter was discussed, no decision reached; but the President directed the four of us to further discuss the matter among ourselves before we came back to him, which we did that afternoon, and went back to him on Saturday, at which time we still did not make any specific recommendation except that we recommended he not make any decision until after the week-end.

Q.—Now, going over until the following Monday, on that day was the decision made to remove General MacArthur. A.—Yes, sir. It was at the meeting on Monday the decision was made by the President; at least it was announced by the President that he was going to remove him.

Q.—Remove him. Now, was the situation left at that time that the Joint Chiefs were to draft the necessary orders and directives accomplishing that order, or was that matter still left open? A.—No. At the meeting on Monday, when the decision was made, the President directed that the necessary implementing instructions be drawn up and presented to him on Tuesday, and various people participated in that—the State Department and General Marshall and the Joint Chiefs.

Q.—Well, now, in addition to these people that you have already testified participated in the meeting of April 6 could you indicate who else participated in the meetings? A.—No other than the five of us participated in the April 6 meeting.

Q.—No, no, I mean the subsequent meetings. A.—After the meeting on Saturday when he directed that I obtain or directed General Marshall, rather, that he obtain the military viewpoint of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, then the Joint Chiefs met on Sunday, the four of us, and then we went to General Marshall's office. That included three others at that time, three chiefs of service.

Q.—The three Chiefs did not meet with the President, as I understand it. A.—That is correct.

Q.—Now, what I am trying to find out, at the subsequent meetings with the President, you have already testified that at the first meeting you, Mr. Harriman, Secretary Acheson and Secretary Marshall met with him.

Now, the record so far as it stands at the moment is that there were subsequent meetings and presumably only those same four people met with him. Was the group enlarged?

A.—The group was the same, or at least when I was there up through Monday. When we met on Tuesday to discuss various drafts of instructions and so forth, there was one other added to it and that is Mr. Joe Short, the executive for press relations to the President.

Q.—Now was he the only one that was added to the group at any of the subsequent meetings? Didn't Mr. Dean Rusk attend one of the meetings?

A.—No with the President, no, sir. I think Mr. Rusk was probably present at a meeting, at a later meeting with Mr. Short, but not with the President that I know of.

Manner of Giving Orders Sought

Q.—Now do I understand you to say that the definite decision to remove General MacArthur was made on Monday the eighth, was it?

A.—I don't know when the President made up his mind.

Q.—No, but I mean so far as you were notified. A.—So far as I know, that is, when he first announced his decision was on Monday, the ninth.

Q.—At the time that he announced the decision, were his orders—and I assume they were verbal because you have previously testified you were not given a written order on it—were they sent to the Secretary of Defense or to yourself, giving you a special directive to remove General MacArthur forthwith?

A.—Well, his instructions were to prepare the necessary orders to remove him, and as I remember those were given to General Marshall, because they would have to go out through the Secretary of Defense's office, but he told all of us present to participate in the drawing up of the order.

Q.—What I am trying to get, General, I have never raised, and so far as I know no one else has raised, any question as to the President's legal opwer or constitutional authority to make the change. But the manner in which it was made, this order that went out, that he was relieved as soon as he read his order, without the customary turning over of the commnad to his successor, I am trying to find out, without too many questions here, as to how did that originate.

Was that a recommendation of the Chiefs of Staff? Was that the direct order of the President that it be done in that way? Was it the suggestion of someone else that it be handled in that way?

A.—I don't remember the exact wording. I think it was the general understanding that the President wanted it done right away.

Q.—Might I ask, General, was there a final meeting—in the Pentagon meeting—on the evening of the ninth—either the eighth or ninth of April—at which the final decision relative to his forthwith removal was considered?

A.—On the eighth, the meeting only pertained, as far as the Joint Chiefs of Staff were concernded, to the views that for certain military reasons they thought he should be relieved. There was nothing else done by the Chiefs in this connection, on the eighth.

There was a regular meeting on the ninth, Monday afternoon. We had a Joint Chiefs of Staff meeting all afternoon, and I don't remember just how much of this was discussed a that time. Probably it was discussed, because it was a very important part.

Q.—Did Secretary Acheson attend either of those meetings? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Calling your attention now to the questions of the other day, regarding the Blair House meeting of the 25th of June—you were to see if you could find out just who attended those meetings, and the subsequent one. Could you read that into the record at this time?

A.—Yes, sir. According to my diary, which is kept in my office and it is made out when I go back, I usually give the girl the names of the people present at the meetings, and of course while my memory may have been at fault, at the time I left the meeting until I gave it to the girl, I don't think so, and these are the names that it showed:

At the meeting on the 25th of June, from 7:45 P. M. until 11 P. M., the President, Secretary of State Acheson, Deputy Secretary Webb, Assistant Secretary Rusk, Jessup, Hickerson, Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of the Army Pace, Secretary of the Air Force Finletter, Secretary of the Navy Metthews; the three Chiefs of the services, Vandenberg, Collins and Admiral Sherman, and myself.

At the meeting on the 26th of June—

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Pardon me, Mr. Chairman. Can you give me the date of that list?

THE CHAIRMAN—The 25th of June—

GENERAL BRADLEY — The 25th of June. The time I show here is from 7:45 P. M. until 11 P. M.

At the meeting on the 26th of June, which lasted from 9 P. M. until 10 P. M. in addition to the President, Mr. Acheson, Mr. Jessup, Assistant Secretary Matthews, Hickerson, Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of the Army Pace, Secretary of the Air Force Finletter, General Vandenberg, General Collins and Admiral Sherman and myself.

Bradley Describes Another Meeting

SENATOR KNOWLAND—That completed the meetings leading up to the entrance into the Korean war?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Well, there was another meeting the morning of the 27th. I don't remember whether—this was at the White House, and whether or not it had to do with this, I don't remember; because at this particular time I was briefing the President every morning, so that it is rather hard for me to keep track of what was said each time.

But this time may have been a special occasion, because Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of the Army Pace, Secretary of the Air Force Finletter, Secretary of the Navy Matthews, General Vandenberg, General Collins and Admiral Sherman were there at the same time, and myself.

SENATOR SMITH—Would the Senator yield for a question to clarify this?

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Yes.

SENATOR SMITH — General, could you tell us what was the day that certain members of the House and Senate met with you all on the Korean crisis? I recall Senator Connally, and I know I was there, and Senator Wherry was there, and I think, the chairman was there, Senator Russell.

THE CHAIRMAN—No, I wasn't there.

SENATOR SMITH — Somebody from the armed services.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think this is the date, the 27th of June, but I only put down the ones from the Defense Department. I am not sure, but I think possibly it was this 27th of June meeting that you attended. It was right in there, I know, and it was about eleven o'clock in the morning.

SENATOR SMITH—That is right.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think that is the one you attended, but my notes don't show that. I only show the ones from the Defense Department.

SENATOR SMITH—I will check my diary on that.

THE CHAIRMAN—I would like to have the record show I didn't attend any of those meetings; at that time I was not chairman of the Armed Services Committee.

SENATOR SMITH—It was the chairman of the Armed Services Committee, I think, and I think Senator Bridges as the ranking Republican. Senator Wiley, I think, was on his campaign.

THE CHAIRMAN—I have heard that Senator Tydings was there. At the time he was chairman of the Armed Services Committee.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—General, you have testified this morning that the statement, so far as you believe, that was sent to General MacArthur regarding the so-called cease-fire negotiations was that which is paraphrased on Page 100 of the record. Am I correct?

A.—Yes, sir; and in answer to that query I looked up the complete message, which I will read in here, with the understanding, of course, that this is not a paraphrase and may suffer some change by the censor, because of cryptographic security.

Q.—I might say that if you will merely indicate that the paraphrase in your judgment is a full paraphrase of the message, I have no desire to have something that might jeopardize the cryptographic situation even read into the record.

The only point I am getting at, General, is: Was the general in Tokyo informed of any of the terms or was he merely informed, as the paraphrase indicates, that some time in the future, or shortly, that certain negotiations were going to take place, without any designation as to what the terms were?

A.—I find that the message sent him did not give the terms but it did very plainly state that it was being considered by us and by the United Nations, but did not state the terms to it.

Q.—The paraphrase says, "State planning a Presidential announcement." Does the message itself indicate that that is the situation? A.—It indicates the same sense.

Q.—I see. So that the terms are not given but the announcement that something was in the wind was sent, is that correct? A.—Yes, that is right.

Q.—Now, at that time, General, were you familiar with the terms that were under negotiation and presumably the other nations were being sounded out on? A.—No, sir, I didn't happen to be in town at that time, Senator, and I had to catch up on this when I came back.

Q.—To the best of your knowledge, were the Joint Chiefs familiar with the detailed terms that were under discussion? A.—That I could not answer with first-hand information.

Q.—Referring now, General, to the period of August 26th, when General MacArthur sent his letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, have you had an opportunity to review the letter and also to review your notes as to whether you were called to the White House at that time?

A.—I read over the message, but it is rather hard to tell from my notes just how much I participated because, as I say, I was going to the White House every day.

Conferences to Brief President Described

I have a vague recollection only of something being said about it while I was briefing the President and those around him.

When I would go over to brief the President every morning, usually a considerable number of his staff would come in, and I have a vague recollection of someone bringing this matter up. I did not bring it up.

As a matter of fact, it never did come through the Joint Chiefs of Staff and, as I remember it, any principal objection to it was not from a military point of view, but from a policy point of view, and it was not made by us.

Q.—I would like at this point, General, to ask if in your re-reading of the letter of that period, of Aug. 26, and in view of the testimony before this committee that Secretary Marshall believes that Formosa is of strategic value and should not be allowed to fall into the hands of the Communists, and you have so testified, and you have testified that is the position of the Joint Chiefs, General MacArthur has so testified, and indicated that in his judgment it was the view of Admiral Radford and other commanders, naval, military and air, just what in that letter of Aug. 26 do you believe violates either military, strategic concepts of this country or our policy? I am seeking information because, frankly, I read it again last night, and I cannot, in the light of the testimony, see how it violates in any way, and how General MacArthur could have considered anything other than that he was fully backing up the announced policy of the President of the United States; and I was wondering whether any explanation was given.

A.—Well, I can only answer, I think, as to the military part of it, and I don't believe there has ever been any difference of opinion between General MacArthur's views and the Joint Chiefs' views on the importance of Formosa and desirability of increasing their power to resist. I don't believe there has ever been any difference from a military point of view.

Now, as to what is in that speech that is objectionable from a policy point of view, I don't think I am qualified to answer and I think you are going to have a witness here who is much more qualified than I am and that would be the Secretary of State.

Q.—Now I would like to call your attention, General, to several paragraphs here. I believe in no case are they taken out of context, so I will cite the full reference so it will be available to you.

On the 1st of June, 1950, which was twenty-four days prior to the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, the President of the United States sent a message to Congress and in that message he has this to say, and I quote:

"The security of the Republic of Korea is under the constant menace of the Communist-dominated regime in North Korea, whose purpose is to destroy the new republic established after free elections held under the auspices of the United Nations."

This was twenty-four days before the invasion. General, if there was again created a North Korean Communist regime, don't you believe that the Republic of Korea would be under the same menace as indicated by President of the United States twenty-four days before the current aggression took place?

A.—Yes, I think that is correct.

Q.—I would like to call your attention to a statement issued by the American Ambassador to Korea, the Republic of Korea, issued on June 9, 1950, which was some fifteen or sixteen days before the aggression, and reading from an official State Department document, Bulletin of June 26—that is the date on the cover, though the publication came out a little before that—and I quote:

"Although the threat of North Korean aggression seems temporarily at least to have been successfully contained, the undeniable matériel superiority of North Korean forces would provide North Korea with a margin of victory in the event of a full-scale invasion of the Republic. Such superiority is particularly evident in the matter of heavy infantry support weapons, tanks, and combat aircraft, with which the U. S. S. R. had supplied and continues to supply its Korean puppet. It has been aggravated also by the recent Communist successes in China, which have increased considerably the military potential of the North, particularly by releasing undetermined numbers of Korean troops from the Chinese armies for service in Korea. The threat to the Republic will continue as long as their exists in the North an aggressive Communist regime desiring the conquest and domination of the South."

Would you not say that the Ambassador to Korea had made a very clear analysis of the dangers confronting the Republic of Korea? And that was made on the ninth day of June, 1950, some fifteen days before the aggression.

A.—I would agree that events proved his analysis very accurate.

Q.—Would you say, General, in the event of a re-creation of a North Korean Communist regime, with a common border with a Communist Russia, that those same dangers would be inherent in the situation as far as the Republic of Korea was concerned? A.—Yes, I think that is so.

Report of Commission On Divided Korea Cited

Q.—I call your attention next, General, to the bulletin of the Department of State issued Oct. 2, 1950, in which they give the report of the U. N. Commission on Korea, report to the Assembly, which was issued at approximately that time. I am reading from Page 541, and it says:

"The division of Korea by the Thirty-eighth Parallel, the commission declares, is artificial and unnatural and runs counter to the fervent desires of the whole Korean people for unification."

Would you say that that was a rather clear statement of the problems involved in a divided Korea as put out by the United Nations Commission?

A.—Yes, and I think that explains why our long-range policy and the long-range policy of the United Nations is to eventually have a unified and free Korea.

Q.—General, from the point of view of a competent military commander of wide experience, if a cease-fire proposal was entertained which permitted the Chinese Communists to merely withdraw to the Yalu River and re-establish, in effect, North Korea and its Communist regime, and at the same time the United States and the United Nations forces had to withdraw from South Korea, and, as far as our forces were concerned, back to the United States, would you feel that under those circumstances the Republic of Korea would be under constant threat of additional aggression?

A.—Well, in the first place, the final decision on that, of course, would be political and not military, as you understand.

Q.—I understand.

A.—Of course, from a military point of view, I think we all realize that the same threat, as visualized in these various documents which you read, will still exist. However, this won't be just an isolated instance where they exist. Threats exist in many parts of the world, and what we will accomplish, as I see it, we will go back to the same kind of a threat we had at that time. The question of decision that is going to have to be reached if this is put up to us is whether or not that is acceptable from all angles—political, military and so forth—and it is going to involve more than just the simple things, that we both withdraw. I think it is going to have to have certain other safeguards in at the time, but it may boil down to a question of whether or not you accept that or nothing.

Q.—I am merely asking, however, from a military point of view, who would be in the most advantageous position. If the North Korean regime was re-created north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel and the Chinese Communist forces, which have been in open aggression on their side, only withdraw to the Yalu River, are they not within a few days' march in the event they determine on aggression again, whereas, if the United Nations forces are pulled back to their respective countries and the United States forces are pulled back to the United States, from purely a military point of view, is not the Communist regime in a much more advantageous position?

A.—Yes, they are there; and they are in many other places. Just like in Europe, for example, they have many divisions within striking distance of the Iron Curtain, many more than we have, and can get there much quicker than we can. It is one of the disadvantages we labor under and one of the advantages they possess by operating on interior lines. I don't think there is any question but what from a military point of view they are in a more advantageous position to renew the conflict.

Q.—My time is rapidly drawing to a close here, General, but there is one thing that was raised by—I am not sure whether it was Senator Smith or someone else, earlier, I believe yesterday. Senator Saltonstall it was, I believe—relative to our policy as far as complete agreement between the Department of State and the Department of National Defense.

Now, as I read the documents which we have before us, as late as, I believe, April 5, there was an indication that there had not been a complete understanding on the situation as between the two departments.

There were other indications at an earlier period of time. Could you explain how it is that at least ten months after the outbreak of hostilities that the defense establishment and the State Department had not arrived at a common policy in regard to Korea?

A.—I assume that you are talking about the inability to get a political objective?

Q.—Yes, since you have testified that some of these major decisions are going to be political as well as military.

A.—Well, we have asked for political guidance several times with relation to the Thirty-eighth Parallel, for example, because unless there is some political reason for not crossing the Thirty-eighth Parallel, then from a military point of view it has no great significance, and it is in connection with that general area that we have been somewhat at a loss as to whether or not we should or should not pay any attention to the Thirty-eighth Parallel, and as I have brought out here before.

Q.—One final question. Wasn't the interpretation that General MacArthur and the Joint Chiefs of Staff placed on the October 7th resolution of the United Nations that it directed him to consolidate all of Korea so there would be a free and independent Korea? Wasn't that your understanding also? A.—Yes.

Q.—On the October 7th directive? A.—Yes.

Hickenlooper Takes Turn at Questioning

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Hickenlooper.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—General Bradley, there has been repeated mention here, and the expression has been used repeatedly, that bombing of bases in Manchuria by our Air Corps would not be decisive, and I understand the position to be that it would not necessarily be decisive. I ask you if our present operations in Korea are decisive.

GENERAL BRADLEY—No.

Q.—So that we are—well, to frame the question, and I am not trying to lead up to anything particularly that is to embarrass you in any way, but we are—therefore fighting or conducting an operation today that is not decisive and we justify that.

We fail to justify or our military and State Department and others fail to adopt a policy which would additionally hurt the Red Chinese but we say we fail to adopt it because it is not decisive.

A.—But we don't say that entirely because it is not decisive; we say we don't want to do it unless we have to because it increases the risks of World War III.

Q.—Any activity that we take along a military line has a tendency to increase the possibility of World War III, doesn't it? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Do you believe that Russia will come in to help Red China just because she has a treaty with her,—I mean,—from that sole moral standpoint of having this treaty to defend her against Japan? A.—Well, I don't think anyone can say positively that she will, because I think we all know that she has not always kept agreements; but, I guess that is the point you are trying to make, that she doesn't always keep her agreements; however, sometimes she does.

Q.—The point I am trying to make, which is my firm opinion, from what I have heard in the last several years, is that Russia will move according to Russia's own convenience and without regard to any moral considerations or relationships with any other country, and that she will either come into this conflict, if she thinks it is the proper course for her to pursue, or she will stay out, depending entirely on what Russia thinks is to her own interests, without regard to any morals or treaty.

A.—I think there is a lot of justification, Senator Hickenlooper; but also there is a question to which I have given considerable attention, and that is, when she gets ready, or approaches that time, or even gets in a position where she is willing to accept it, isn't she going to have to consider the value of world opinion to a certain extent?

She has certain Communist cells in all countries, and I think what she must do, if she goes into this war, she would like to create conditions under which it will make it look much more logical than she will keep these friendships among the Communist cells in other countries.

Q.—I can only judge the future by the past, and I call your attention to the fact that Russia was on both sides of the Nazi question. When she was in alliance with Hitler, the Communists all over the world whooped it up for us keeping out of the European thing; when Russia suddenly overnight confounded all of the Communists in the world and broke with Hitler, then the Communists immediately changed the party line that very next morning and advocated invasion and fighting Hitler.

Your argument may be valid, I don't say that it isn't, but I don't view it that way. I view it that Russia is utterly coldblooded, materialistic, lacking in any spiritual concepts, and that she will move when Russia's best interests in the idea of the Kremlin indicate that she should move and she won't move until she thinks her best interests are served.

A.—I don't like to be argumentative, but in answer to your question and in furtherance of my previous answer, as I remember it, Stalin made both of those decisions look plausible to his followers and tried to justify both of them. I think the more ammunition he can get, to get people to see his way of doing it, the stronger he is going to be, and I think he will try to create those conditions.

I don't think any of us knows under what conditions Russia will attack or what would bring them into the war. It is just the fact that we think it does increase that chance to a certain extent, and therefore we don't want to take it unless we have to.

Q.—I don't want to prolong an argument here, because I have some other questions, but Stalin personally approved the North Atlantic Charter, and yet he has no hesitancy in the world to go against it and defy it and violate all its terms from the moral standpoint.

When I say personally approved it, I mean he signed the document approving it. He was not present when it was drawn, but he later approved it.

Now, isn't it reasonable that if the collapse of Red China is inimical or dangerous to Russia's interests, they might consider it advisable to come into the war and start a third world war?

I mean if Russia considers that the defeat of Red China could be prejudicial to her interests in a major way, she might precipitate a third world war. It that reasonable to assume?

Defeat of Red China Called the Real Issue

A.—Yes, sir, under one of those conditions in which we might think they might depart from their time-table.

Q.—If we go into Manchuria, you feel that might step up that danger? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Well, if we defeat Red China in Korea—and it is Red China that we are fighting now—if Red China collapses in Korea, and they surrender or we defeat them seriously to the point where it endangers the collapse of Red China, isn't Russia coming in just as quickly because that is a matter of principle; that is, the defeat and the loss of face of Red China would be inimical or disadvantageous to the Russian interests?

A.—Yes, it would be disadvantageous to them, but I don't believe anybody would advocate that we call off and that we quit trying to defeat China in Korea.

Q.—No, but the point I am trying to make, General, in expressing my own thinking, is that we are doing the very thing now; we are saying that we are out to defeat the Red Chinese in Korea. If the Russians are coming in, they undoubtedly, according to my view of the matter at the moment, will come in when they think their interests are being prejudiced by the defeat of the Red Chinese.

If we defeat them in Korea, it would seem to me to be just as much reason for the Russians to precipitate a third world war, because of that defeat in Korea, as because of a defeat resulting partially from the bombing of supply bases in Manchuria; in other words, the matter of the broad theory and not the specific place where the attack takes place or the destruction takes place, so long as it is not on Russian territory.

A.—I agree with you there is that danger. I think the only place I disagree with you is that there is the same likelihood as in the other. I think the bombing of Manchuria adds something additional to the possibility.

Q.—I understand your position, and I do not want to labor it any further. I disagree with it because I think on the basic theory we are going, that we are out to defeat the Red Chinese, if we defeat them in Korea and they collapse, it will be a defeat for Red China. If we hasten their defeat by destroying their bases in Manchuria and thereby contribute to the defeat of Red China it is a defeat of the Red Chinese. It is the defeat of Red China that appeals to me as a possibly valid argument as to why the Russians might come in if they consider their interests to be destroyed or depreciated by their defeat; so it seems to me it makes no difference whether we defeat them in Korea or contribute to that defeat by certain limited action over the border north of the Yalu. That is the reasoning or that is the basis that is behind my question.

I want to correct something I said a moment ago. Someone just handed me a note. If I said a moment ago that Stalin had personally approved the North Atlantic pact, I did not mean that at all. I would like for the record to be corrected. It is the North Atlantic Charter which he expressed—he said specifically in so many words over his signature that he approved.

SENATOR LODGE—The Atlantic Charter.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Well, it was up in the—I did not mean to say the pact. It is a totally different thing. Now, mention has been made repeatedly of our action in Greece, that we were successful in Greece.

The fact of the matter is that the Greek guerrillas were coming over the border from Yugoslavia, and from certain other spots in Bulgaria, and they were retiring back to a sanctuary for a long period of time; isn't that true, General? That is, they were able to cross the border back and forth into Greece and Yugoslavia with comparative ease?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes.

Q.—And we spent a lot of time and money and a couple of years or so, trying to catch them in the mountains and trying to drive them out of Greece.

I happened to be there during that period. Now, it is my definite impression, as far as anything I can read about the matter, that we never began to successfully clean them out of Greece—or the Greek Army did not, even though they had some 90,000 men to about a maximum of 18,000 guerrillas at any one time—we never were able to defeat the guerrillas and clean them out of Greece until the sanctuary was closed to them, the points across the border where they could go and regroup and get new arms and come back over and fight.

Now, when Tito closed the border that put up the Iron Curtain for them, and then they were up against it; but their sanctuary was closed to them, so that they couldn't go to a rest camp and regroup, after resting up, and come back and fight another day. Now, am I wrong about that?

A.—Not completely. The sanctuary in Yugoslavia was taken away from them. As far as I know the sanctuary in Albania and Bulgaria was not taken away from them.

Greek Army Praised For Role in Victory

Q.—Yes, that is very true, but the main sanctuary where they had a big nation and they could get at least certain supplies and a certain haven was really Yugoslavia. When they closed that border to them, then we began to have success in driving them up against the wall and pocketing them and eventually they were cleaned out.

A.—But in all justice to the Greeks, I would like for the record to show that they had something to do with that, too, because by the time we got to that stage the Greek Army was in very fine shape, they had fine leadership, both junior leadership and senior leadership, and they had improved their weapons and the Greek Army did a much better job.

Q.—Yes, I understand; I do not mean to discredit the Greek Army, but I also think the record shows that there were some 90,000 in the Greek Army operating against a maximum of some 18,000 guerrillas, so that one might expect with even reasonable efficiency or moderate efficiency that 90,000 should eventually be able to do some damage to 18,000 even though the fighting was difficult and there was guerrilla warfare, but the point I was trying to make is that when the sanctuary was closed so that they could not recondition or so that they could not regroup, so that they could not go back and rearrange their strategy, so they could not re-establish their liaison with the various scattered groups and come back to the attack again, when that sanctuary was actually closed to them, we then began to make rapid progress and the Greek Army did a good job of cleaning them out.

Now, General, I had raised the question the other day about our losses, that is our casualties, battle area casualties, I am thinking of killed, wounded and missing, and eliminating the delayed statistics which I referred to the other day of May 11—I do not mean eliminating them but I mean eliminating them from the total question of delayed statistics—I wonder if you have our total battle area casualties, that is killed, wounded, missing and other battle area casualties as of this day, the twenty-third of May, 1951?

A.—I didn't understand that I was to get them up to this date. They are furnished to your chairman each week and if that was understood, that I was to get them up to this date, I am sorry.

Q.—Well, I asked about it the other day. I do not recall whether I specifically said will you furnish them, but I asked about it as of the day before yesterday on that date.

Now we got the nonbattle casualties yesterday, and as I say, I am not advocating that this be made [illegible] at this moment. A.—Do you want them furnished as of up to date?

Q.—I would like them furnished as of up to the date of the day they are furnished, if it is tomorrow morning, because I understand the reports come in every morning. A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And those lists are filed. Now as I say, I am not insisting that those be made public at this moment. I do not want to interfere with orderly procedure too much, but I think for the information of this committee it will be very helpful.

What I want is the total of all casualties. We have the nonbattle casualties. Then I would like the total broken into categories killed, wounded, missing and so on of the battle casualties or battle-area casualties.

A.—You want United States casualties?

Q.—Yes, United States casualties. Now have you ever seen the text of the proposed peaceful settlement negotiations which the State Department submitted to the various United Nations and which is the controversy surrounding General MacArthur's armistice proposal that we have talked about so much? Have you ever seen the text? A.—I don't remember whether I have or not. When I came back here about the 26th or 27th of March, I tried to catch up on what had been going on beforehand and whether or not I saw the terms of that I don't know. It was primarily a State Department paper and I can't remember whether I saw it.

Q.—Do you know whether the Department of Defense or the Joint Chiefs of Staff have a copy of that official paper in their files? A.—I don't know, sir. It is a State Department paper primarily. I don't know whether we have it or not.

Q.—Well, could you have it checked please, General, and see? I think it has been asked for perhaps, but in case it has not, I would specifically like to have the exact text, that is the full text of that proposal, what we proposed to the various other United Nations that we put in as terms of peace proposals to the Red Chinese.

A.—Begging your pardon, may I suggest that you ask that of Secretary Acheson since it is a State Department paper? Wouldn't that be more appropriate and he could explain it and discuss it. I wouldn't be in any position to discuss it.

Q.—I have no objection to that, General, except that I hope it will be in the record now. I would think that the State Department or whoever has it could furnish it immediately for the record. A.—It seems like it might be a little bit inappropriate for one department to introduce and discuss a paper of another department when that department is going to have a chance to present it and discuss it.

Terms of Statement Called Not at Issue

Q.—Except for this point, General: That it is a controversial matter in connection with the military action, in connection with General MacArthur, and certainly it was taken into consideration in the military decisions. A.—No, sir, not the terms of it.

Q.—No, but the fact that they claim that he embarrassed the Commander in Chief by speaking out on his own in this matter. A.—Yes, sir, but it wasn't the fact that he spoke out on the terms of the matter. It was the fact that he made a statement concerning this matter at a time when he must have known from the telegram we sent him that the Government and the United Nations had it under consideration. That was the point.

It wasn't the terms of the armistice that concerned us. It was the fact that he would come out with a pronouncement of his own while this was under consideration of his Government.

Q.—Now, General, let me ask you this question, and it is in the nature of a hypothetical question, but I think it is a real question.

Suppose that Mao Tse-tung had said in answer to General MacArthur's demand that he stop fighting and consider surrender or whatever he did, suppose he said, "All right, I will lay down my arms at this moment and we will have an armistice and talk this over," would that have disappointed the military establishment?

A.—I think if he had done all that, that would have come well within any terms which we were considering. However, if he had offered something less than that, then certainly General MacArthur would have had to come back for instructions.

Q.—General MacArthur, as it has been testified here, on two different occasions before that demanded a surrender or capitulation of some sort or a cease-fire or some other cessation of this business, did he not? That is, in October and September before that. A.—Yes.

Q.—Now, in each case it was suggested to him that he do that or he was directed or some other approval was given by this Government that he do that; is that correct? A.—That is correct.

Q.—And he did it on those two occasions. Was he ever thereafter instructed not to redemand a surrender of the enemy? That is, that our desire to have the enemy surrender or capitulate in some way, that we had withdrawn that desire and you mustn't offer that to them again? A.—No, I don't think it would have been necessary to issue any such instructions, and I don't think anyone would have objected had there been a complete surrender or unconditional surrender. No one would object to that, because that would come under the terms anybody had in mind, but when you take something else, then, of course, it would be questionable whether or not it was Government policy.

May I state again that the Joint Chiefs of Staff weren't concerned about the terms of this thing, whether or not he offered terms in Korea, so much as the fact that he jumped the gun, so to speak, and made an announcement to them at a time when it was under consideration here, not the terms. It is the fact that he did it at that time that it concerned the three Chiefs of Staff.

Q.—Has it been customary in battle from time immemorial that a commander who believes that he has the enemy in a disspirited state, to either broadcast or send messages or send a flag of truce, demanding that the other fellow surrender now or suffer heinous losses and catastrophe in the future?

Haven't they done that on the field of battle and in campaigns from time immemorial? A.—Well, they have done it under certain circumstances, yes.

Q.—And wasn't it a custom in World War II and World War I for the radios to broadcast back and forth that the commander of this theatre demanded that the enemy surrender? Were not our troops requested to surrender in Italy, repeatedly, with propaganda? Wasn't that done in Germany?

A.—Yes, sir, but that didn't come with authority from the commander, that came as a propaganda, over the radio, and Axis Sally and a few others, which I don't believe anyone recognized as an official demand from an opposing commander.

Q.—Well of course when we invaded North Africa, didn't we call on the French to surrender, that is, the Vichy French? Didn't our commanders, when we made the landing in North Africa, didn't we call on them to lay down their arms; and didn't we carry the American flag up over the landing field so that they would see that, and we sent messages to them to surrender, and not fight the Americans—didn't we do that there? A.—I expect we did.

Q.—Well, I read that we did. A.—I wasn't there, but I think that is what happened.

His Parallel Not Exact, Hickenlooper Is Told

Q.—I mean, my only point is that it seems to me that in military actions, from time immemorial, commanders have repeatedly, when they felt the time was auspicious, that they demanded that the other man surrender or that action would be taken.

A.—Senator, had this come on March 15, under favorable circumstances, I think your parallel would hold; but it doesn't quite hold in this case, because, in this case, he knew that this thing was being considered by the United Nations, and by our Government, and I don't believe it is quite a parallel case to going up and putting up a flag on a French field, and so forth, because at that time General Eisenhower or General Clark, or none of the rest of them had any knowledge that our Government was taking governmental action through other channels, so it is not a parallel, as I see it.

Q.—General Bradley, isn't it a fact that is well known that our airplanes had been repeatedly scattering leaflets over the opposing forces, calling on them to lay down their arms and surrender, and that they would get good treatment, and to come on in? Hadn't we been doing that routinely? A.—Yes.

Q.—With the knowledge of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and our Government? A.—Yes.

Q.—Well then, is it any different for the commanding general, in keeping with that propaganda which had been approved and okayed, is it any different for him merely to send his voice out, or send a message out, which is completely in keeping with the leaflet-dropping propaganda that we had been scattering over their troops with great regularity? A.—In my opinion, it certainly was, when he knew that this thing was pending on a governmental level and was being discussed with our Allies in the matter.

Q.—Now, in any of these meetings which you attended, General, beginning in the forepart of April, beginning, I believe, on the 5th of April, in connection with the relief of General MacArthur, was Secretary Pace of the Army there? A.—No, sir; because he was in Korea and Japan at that time.

Q.—Was Secretary Finletter of the Air Force there? A.—No, sir, I think I have stated the ones present.

Q.—Was Secretary Matthews of the Navy there? A.—No, sir.

Q.—They are the civilian heads of the three branches, are they not? A.—Yes.

Q.—You said great concern was expressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff about General MacArthur endangering the civilian control of our military forces.

It seems strange to me, then, that the civilian heads of the three branches were not present at these meetings, when this very vital decision to disrupt the situation, at least temporarily, in the Orient, was under discussion.

A.—I imagine that Secretary Marshall felt that he represented the civilian part of the Defense Department. In addition to that, the President might be classified as a civilian, and so might Secretary Acheson and Mr. Harriman. So that in the discussions at the White House I was the only man representing the military position; the other four were not.

Q.—Of course, the point I make is that these three men were actually the civilian heads of their various departments and they do not seem to have been present; and so far as I know, they were not formally consulted about this very serious thing. A.—I think there is one other point pertinent to the question, Senator, and that is that General MacArthur was not under the Army Secretary.

Q.—I understand that. A.—He is a unified commander under the Department of Defense.

Q.—Except that he received his directives from the Army Chief of Staff. A.—Well, only as executive agent for the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Excuse me. How much time do I have, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN—About a minute and a half, Senator.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—General Bradley, I was trying to go through some notes here rather quickly. General Bradley, authority was given to General MacArthur at one time to bomb Rashin. That has been testified to, has it not? A.—It has been testified to. I did testify that he was given permission twice.

Q.—Twice. A.—One of the bombings went through, the other one, because of weather, had to be diverted to a secondary target.

Q.—Let me ask you this, General Bradley: Do you know whether during—was that during the first couple of months of the Korean campaign? A.—I think it was somewhere around August or September.

Q.—Yes. Now, do you know or do you have any knowledge of whether or not the State Department wrote a most vigorous letter of protest, perhaps over the signature of Under Secretary Webb, to the military or to the Defense Department protesting certain of these bombings and, in effect, demanding that they cease?

A.—The State Department has always objected to the bombing of Rashin because of its being seventeen miles from the Russian border. Seventeen miles is not a very long space in which to turn around and get back out, and that was their principal objection to it. The objection to the bombing of Rashin naturally comes primarily from the State Department because you are bordering on a political issue of crossing the border into Russia.

Military Prohibited Bombing of Rashin

Q.—So that it was the State Department objection that caused the recall of that authorization to bomb Rashin, for instance?

A.—Well, the first time it was done, anyway, and thereafter, upon their continuous objection to it, the dangers run, we didn't order it—didn't authorize it more than two times.

Q.—You withdrew the authorization? A.—beg pardon?

Q.—You withdrew the authorization to bomb Rashin? A.—There were specific authorizations to bomb it on those two occasions, I believe. At least, your statement is correct in substance—we withdrew, in other words, prohibited the bombing of Rashin, if you want to put it that way.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Thank you. I have about two more questions but I shall wait my turn.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Hunt?

(No response.)

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Cain.

SENATOR CAIN — General Bradley, sir, you can answer this first question if you so wish in one word. Prior to April 5 had anyone in authority said to you as chairman of the J. C. S. or to the J. C. S. that consideration had been given or was likely to be given to the removal of General MacArthur from his Far Eastern command?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Not that I remember.

Q.—General Bradley, from what source did you write that completely fascinating and detailed series of stories that I have been reading each week in Life Magazine? A.—From what source?

Q.—Yes, sir. A.—From my memory, from notes kept by myself, by a diary kept by my aide who went through the war with me, by the daily records, and by the daily maps which were kept during the whole time.

Q.—I thank you, sir. Have I understood you to say that it has been your habit and is now your habit, to maintain a diary within your present headquarters?

A.—The girl just outside my office keeps a diary as to where I am at various times during the day, and if any telephone calls come through the regular line, a note is made of them as to whom the call was from.

Q.—Well, a few minutes ago you said that your diary included the names who were in attendance at the Blair House on those days just prior to and during the early part of the war.

A.—Yes. When I come back from a conference outside, if I remember it, I give her the names of the people present at that time.

Q.—Well, would that diary, sir, include your own impression and resume of what was discussed at the Blair House conference or other conferences? A.—No, sir, I do not attempt to dictate that.

Q.—Well, it is then fair for me to assume that if in the future you as J. C. S. Chairman, or a retired officer of distinction, at a later day writes a history of how America became involved in this war, you would have to do so largely out of your memory?

A.—I wouldn't have enough information in this case to write it.

Q.—General Bradley, however much all of us in this room may disagree on different methods, I just take it to be so that everyone of us shares the hope that the aggressors, Red China and North Korea, can be forced to stop their aggression, and that Red China will withdraw from Korea. Do we not all share that latter hope, sir?

A.—I think all of us share the hope that this matter in Korea may be solved as quickly as possible, and we get out of it.

30.24- 23353

Q.—General Bradley, late in June the President announced that American forces were undertaking a police action in Korea. Will you tell me, please, what is a police action, and with reference to Korea, when did that police action become a war?

I am trying to understand this problem, General Bradley, and these questions are directed by my very sincere curiosity.

A.—I think it might take a Mr. Webster to define the two and create a distinction between them.

We actually went into Korea originally to stop aggression. As far as any individual mixed up in that was concerned, it was war from the time he entered the conflict until he got out of it. So that so far as any individual is concerned, it has always been war.

From a national point of view, when it ceases to be recognized as a police action and becomes a war, I frankly don't know.

Q.—Is it proper to characterize the war in Korea as being a limited war, not because it does not involve hundreds of thousands of men, as it does, but because it thus far has been restricted to a limited fighting area known as Korea.

A.—I think you might define it in that way, as a limited war, in that it is limited to an area.

Q.—But a limited war which involves the fighting assets and resources of hundreds of thousands of Americans is, in fact, a war in every true sense of that word. That would be my impression. I merely ask your opinion of it, sir.

A.—Well, I think that someone might question whether technically or not it was a war, because normally Congress declares war, and I don't believe Congress has declared a war in this case.

Public Apathetic, Senator Asserts

Q.—That is a modest understatement, sir. I have a question to that point, and I ask it because I am a member of the Congress of the United States, and as such I am extremely and daily conscious that the general public is in part apathetic to the Korean conflict, in part it is uncertain about the meaning of that Korean conflict, and in part is still laboring under the misinformation that America is engaged in a police action.

As a member of the Senate, I should like to assume my full responsibilty for helping to conclude officially what was undertaken unofficially last June, and because of that feeling, sir, will you tell me what factors in this modern day in which we live must be present before the United States should interest both the executive and the legislative branches of our Government and all of the people of our Republic in the Korean war by declaring war on the enemies who seek to destroy your country and mine?

A.—Well, the question of when you declare war in this case, how you do it, and how you explain to the people the exact nature of it, I don't know.

I think that when we went into this everyone was agreed that it was a necessary action. I think that was explained to the people pretty much; but since China has entered into it, I think there is more confusion in their minds as to just what we are up against.

Now, if we are agreed that we should continue it, that is one thing; and I think it is up to the leaders of the people, the leaders of the community, to educate the people as to what we are up against. Maybe we are avoiding a third world war by being here.

Personally, I think we are doing a great deal toward avoiding a third world war. But whatever it is, I think it is up to the leaders of various communities and the country to explain what we are trying to do.

That is the only way the people will understand, and if we can get out of Korea entirely and just pull out and come home, I think it is within the power of our Government to do that, if that is the will of the people to do it.

Q.—Well, General Bradley, ever since I, for example, first understood the mission which took our forces and allied forces in Korea, I have been in support of that conflict. The only reason I ask questions is out of my deep concern and hope that we can find a course of action which is designed to conclude what all of us undertook so willingly last June.

Now, sir, if we were to declare war against our enemy Red China, it would not necessarily follow that American forces would automatically become involved on the mainland of China?

A.—Yes, sir. It might very well be a case similar to that of Spain, against which we declared war in order to win a victory, which certainly was won completely short of any attempt on the part of the United States to invade the mainland of Spain; that is correct, is it not, sir?

A.—That is correct; and if you would declare war on Communist China, I would assume and hope that you would allow the military authorities tofight it according to their best judgment and the facilities at hand.

Q.—And were we to declare war on Red China it would be, I presume, the thought of the military that their objective and their mission was to drive the aggressor out of Korea and restore Korea to a free independent self-controlled status, am I correct, sir?

A.—Yes; and I think they would probably then feel that you wanted them to take such additional risks as might be involved in some other actions to accomplish that end.

Q.—I thank you, sir. General Bradley, permit me to ask what is your relationship, as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to the National Security Council, and to the President of the United States.

A.—I sit in witth the National Security Council, not as a member of it, but am present at their meetings when I am available, and sit next to the Secretary of Defense, and help present the Defense Department's views to the National Security Council.

So far as the President is concerned, I usually carry to him the recommendations of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. I keep him informed of the military situation.

I used to go over every morning except Sunday, and sometimes on Sunday, to brief him on the situation, but as the thing became quieter to the extent that there were not so many great dangers of our being driven out, like there were in the old days of the Pusan beachhead, that was reduced to three times a week, and now I usually brief the President on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and if I have to miss it, as I am this afternoon, I send someone else to do it for me.

Q.—Do you go, may I ask, to the President and the National Security Council by invitation or by sufferance, call it what you will, or do you go by virtue of a statutory right? I ask that question partly, sir, because we designed the National Security Act in 1947, and if there are omissions in it, if there are weaknesses in it, should you care to reflect on them, this is a committee that would be sympathetic to your views.

A.—Frankly, I don't know whether I sit there by statutory right or by custom. I know I always go, and if I cannot go, someone else goes in my place, some other military man.

Outlines Procedure Of Security Council

Q.—Thank you, sir. A.—I am not too sure; I would have to look it up as to whether, as I say, it is by statute or by custom; I am not sure.

Q.—Well, this question will help a little bit. By what means would you, as the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, get to either the President or to the Security Council, if, by way of argument, the Secretary of Defense denied a recommendation which you and the Joint Chiefs of Staff believed to be fundamental to your nation's security?

A.—Any paper coming up before the National Security Council, which has military implications, is referred to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for remark.

We comment on the paper, and it goes back to the National Security Council. Whether or not the Secretary of Defense agrees with it, it goes to the council, and when it appears in the meeting, and is considered, the Secretary of Defense presumably could object to it, and state a different point of view, but I would be there to present the Joint Chiefs of Staff view, which is there in writing, and I could expand on the paper if necessary, and I have done so at various meetings.

Q.—I thank you, sir. Because we are addressing ourselves to both war and peace, would you briefly describe the major differences between the status of our American military establishment today in 1951, and what that comparable status was ten years ago in May of 1941, just a few months before Pearl Harbor?

I ask this question, sir, because it is my impression we have today the atom bomb; we didn't have that ten years ago; we have allies today we didn't have ten years ago; we have an organizational plan in Western Europe that we did not have ten years ago; we have facilities not at our disposal ten years ago, and yet today we are more frightened, I take it, than we were ten years ago; and I would like your view as to our status of preparedness today.

Q.—Well, as far as our own country is concerned, as you say, we have what I consider, in my opinion, a better organization; we have a Department of Defense; we have an organized legal Joint Chiefs of Staff where we do joint planning, which we did not have ten years ago, in the same sense, that it was more or less haphazard.

It is true we got together and planned with the Navy from time to time, but there was not that constant contact between the services.

At that time the Air Force was part of the Army, of course, and that was coordinated, but the coordination between those two and the Navy was not on the very firm basis that it is today.

As you say, we did not have allies, and we did not have the relationship already established, which we have today. For example, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the heads of the military establishments of these twelve countries or the eleven countries, because Iceland has no military, and the Ministers of Defense, are on understanding terms. We know what each of us is thinking about, so that relationship has been established.

We have troops in Europe so that we are working together not only on a planning level, but on a troop level, holding us together.

As you say, we have the atom bomb, and the ability to deliver it anywhere in the world.

As you well might understand, there is a difference, however, on the other side, and that is that ten years ago—maybe if you want to go back eleven or twelve years ago—but even ten years ago, the people who were our friends in Europe then, and are now, had a much stronger security force than they have today.

France, England and some of the other countries had a very considerable military capability, so that they furnished, in a way, an outline or an outpost of defense for us.

Today, because of the drain on them during the war, both militarily and industrially, they find themselves in a much worse condition, so that they do not furnish that first line of defense that they were capable of furnishing in those days, so to that extent we are very much worse off than we were ten years ago.

Q.—General Bradley, sir, I happen to believe that the time has come when America and her allies ought to defeat our enemies at this time.

I have believed for quite a long time, at least since we got into Korea, that we ought to assume and carry out any of the risks and hazards that were involved. Against that feeling and because of a question I have just asked you, I should like to say this:

In your opening statement in Page 1919 you said this, and I would quote it:

"They"—with reference to the Communists—"are apt students of military power and fully realize that although we"—I suppose you are referring to the United States and our allies—"are not prepared to deliver any ultimatum, we could hurt them badly if they attacked us or our friends."

Then you went on significantly to say—and this to me is the most pregnant comment of all I have heard in these last several weeks:

"They also know that with our potential and the strength of our allies, in the long run they could not win a war with a United States that is alert and continuously prepared."

Against that strong statement, made by you on the first day of your appearance, I want to ask this question: If you have sound reason to believe that the Communists feel as you have said they feel, why then, sir, do you and others seem to feel so strongly that Russia is likely to enter the Korean war if all we and our allies do is to attempt to defeat our principal enemies?

A.—Well, I think that might be a reasonable deduction. However, as I have said before, I don't think anyone can predict just what Russia will do, and if she sees she cannot attain her ends by other means, I think she is going, in my opinion she will eventually resort to war unless she is convinced that she can't have even moderate successes, that she wouldn't start it.

Now Stalin indicated on several occasions during the war that he realized the importance of industrial production, and I think that is one of the things that acts as a deterrent today. He realizes we have so much more production than he has.

However, I don't think that that precludes war at all. If it did, I don't think that they would be taking all the gestures toward war that they have, and they might be willing to risk defeat.

The trouble of it is, as I see it, in any war today whether you win it or lose it, you lose in the long run because of the terrible destructiveness of war.

MAR 28 1951

Efforts to Discourage Russians Are Reviewed

Q.—Well, that is what you said in this statement, that a war would result in an eventual victory on our side, but a total victory for no one at all.

General Bradley, we are all going on assumptions. Certainly I am among those who respect your views and give them deep thought and consideration. In the present question I feel a difference with some of your attitudes. My assumption is this: That if the allied nations will undertake to conclude and do it with vigor what they undertook last June, Russia is likely to be so convinced of its inability to win any total war with us that it will become much more reasonable in the future than it has been in the past. Is that among other assumptions which could be made validly?

A.—I think so and that is why we have come to you and advocated a military aid program, North Atlantic Treaty, because we hope that we can get so strong that we will do and accomplish just what you say. We will discourage her to the point where she will be more reasonable and not start a war.

Q.—The only difference at the moment between us for example—and you are a man of much greater experience than I—is that you don't think today we have the collective force necessary to accept the challenge which we did accept last June, or to carry out the challenge which we accepted last June.

A.—We accepted a limited challenge, it is true, with the hopes that it would be limited to Korea and would not develop into a world war. We did it so we wouldn't have one appeasement lead to another one and make war inevitable.

My statement here was that I didn't think we were in a position to issue an ultimatum, because to make an ultimatum good you must have the apparent power to carry out what you are going to threaten them with, and right now I doubt we have the power to carry out that in giving an ultimatum.

THE CHAIRMAN—Gentlemen, they are having a record vote over in the Senate. I would like to know what the pleasure of the committee is with respect to it.

SENATOR MORSE—Move we recess until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

SENATOR CAIN—Mr. Chairman, I, for example, will be through with my allotted time in just a few minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN—You have five minutes, Senator Cain.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—How about voting and coming back?

THE CHAIRMAN—That is rather difficult to do, but suppose I suggest, unless I hear objection, that we recess, vote, and reassemble here as quickly as possible so that Senator Cain at least can conclude his time.

SENATOR CAIN—And it was my understanding that the General was willing to remain for a longer time this afternoon in hopes that we could conclude with him.

THE CHAIRMAN—Yes, we probably will be able to have some other Senator question, but there are circumstances that we will have to recess at 5 o'clock.

(Short recess.)

THE CHAIRMAN—All right, gentlemen, we will resume. Senator Cain, you have five more minutes.

SENATOR CAIN — General Bradley, on yesterday you stated additional troops from our allies were badly needed in Korea.

May I ask if you have taken this question up officially with the National Security Council, or with the President, and how insistent has the J. C. S. been that our allies ought to make additional contributions to the Korean conflict?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I don't remember the last time we discussed this with the State Department.

These approaches to other Governments, of course, were made through the State Department, that being the normal channel of communication between Governments; so we have taken it up with them from time to time.

I don't remember the last date we discussed it. I suppose it has been some time now since we have discussed the various phases of the different nations that have troops in process of getting them ready.

Q.—You are teaching me something, General. I understand you to say that the channel, with reference to this question of additional troops from our allies, is between the Defense Department and the State Department? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—It does not go through the National Security Council, or the President? A.—No.

The Contributions Of Our Allies

Q.—General Bradley, on yesterday you said that General MacArthur had recommended, in mohths gone by, that any self-contained units of about a thousand men could be usefully employed in Korea.

We know that only a handful of nations, aside from the United States and South Korea, have made any ground force contributions to Korea, up to this time.

Do you happen to know, as a military man of great distinction, of any free member of the United Nations which is not able to equip, supply and maintain a thousand men in the field?

A.—Well, I don't know of any of them that couldn't maintain a thousand at home, but the equipping, transporting and supplying at a great distance from home, of a force of a thousand men, in addition to their other commitments—there may be some of them that are not able to do that.

For example, several of the South American countries offered forces in a strength of, say, a platoon or company; and it is pretty hard to set up a supply line for one platoon, or a company, over seven or eight thousand miles, as you can understand. It is a big problem, and that involves much more effort than maintaining a considerably larger number at home.

So, I think you would have to say—what countries are capable, rather, not capable, of supporting a thousand men, five or ten thousand miles from home, with the other thnigs involved in it; and there, you get into a little bit more effort.

Q.—I share a concern with many Americans as to what we can anticipate should we become engaged in a larger war at a later date, which we both hope never comes.

The other day, General Bradley, you mentioned that any Marine who has suffered two wounds is rotated back home.

What such standard, if any, does the Army and the Air Force have? Now that we have a rotation system, how long, on the average, are men required to remain in action before being returned to the United States?

A.—I hate to be unable to answer these questions, Senator, but that is so much more appropriate a question to General Collins or the people involved. They could answer it outright, and I don't know, because, you see, it comes outside my province.

Q.—Thank you, sir. The last question at the moment, if I may—you stated in no uncertain terms that the J. C. S. and the Unified Command, if I understood it, would deeply appreciate some political guidance from the United Nations.

I want to ask, General Bradley, what you meant by that, because I have assumed all along that you have had sufficient political guidance from the day we first entered Korea to satisfy anyone's requirements.

A.—Well, we have had political guidance, except that there has been some question as to whether or not politically we should cross the Thirty-eighth Parallel in these present operations.

From a military point of view, as I have said, the Thirty-eighth Parallel means nothing, but we realize politically it may have a lot of significance.

And that is why we would have liked to have some guidance along that area, which has not been given us as yet by the United Nations.

As I say, I think I can partly understand it, because that is mixed up in any armistice terms that you would propose. * * * (Five lines deleted.)

Q.—How do you reconcile that doubt to which you have just addressed yourself, concerning the Thirty-eighth Parallel, with the mission originally given our supreme commander to repel and force the enemy out of Korea?

A.—I believe most of us realize, and I know General MacArthur recognized, that he had a new situation on his hands when the Chinese came in.

So that we have changed his directive, his military directive, now so that it does not include the driving of the Chinese and North Koreans out of all of Korea. He does not have that military mission at the present time.

Q.—General Bradley, I have sixty seconds remaining, I have just been advised. I want to make my own feeling about General MacArthur clear and see to what extent with reference to the removal of General Douglas MacArthur, my own individual view is this:

Last June the free nations resolved to crush and repel the enemy from Korea. The free nations selected General MacArthur to undertake that assignment. Until the Red Chinese entered the war the free nations and General MacArthur, so far as I am able to determine, were in complete agreement that the mission should be carried out. After the Red Chinese entered the war, General MacArthur continued to believe in the United Nations mission and asked for authority to carry it out.

On the other hand, the United Nations decided to change the mission from repelling the enemy to resisting the enemy. General MacArthur, therefore, had to be removed for he did not believe that the U. N. change in plan was in the best interests of the United States.

Now, this happens to be my conclusion. Do you consider there is some validity in it, sir, in terms of complete frankness?

A.—Yes, but I wouldn't completely agree with it, if I may suggest, because I don't agree that General MacArthur was relieved because he disagreed on policy. He was relieved because he carried it to the people and not through the channels to the Commander in Chief.

SENATOR CAIN—Thank you, sir.

Senator McMahon Recounts Japanese Effort in China

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, we are getting down a little slim in our attendance, and I will have to check this list to see just where we go from here. Senator McMahon?

SENATOR FLANDERS—Here he is.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator McMahon, you just about lost your place.

SENATOR McMAHON—Well, I am very happy about that. I do not know how General Bradley feels about it.

General, I will make you feel as good as possible by telling you that I will take three or four minutes.

General, I have done a little research on the Japanese military effort in China, and I would like to read it in the record.

The magnitude of the Japanese military effort in China throws some light on what the United States might expect if called upon to fight on the Chinese mainland.

When the Shanghai expedition started on July 7, 1937, the Chinese Nationalists had 30,000 troops in the Shanghai area. The initial Japanese force numbered 10,000. By late autumn of 1937 the Nationalists had 450,000 troops in this area and the Japanese had 250,000 troops.

In the first seventy-seven days of the Shanghai expedition the Japanese suffered 73,000 casualties.

At the beginning of the year 1937 the Japanese had 250,000 troops in China. By 1940 they had 1,694,000 troops there. At the time of the Japanese surrender in 1945, their total armed forces in China were as follows:

Manchuria—700,000
North China—300,000
Central China—750,000
South China—123,000
Formosa—200,000.

Another thing, General, I would like to take advantage of my time for, is to read into the record a statement taken from the Washington Post editorial of today as follows:

"Even the dullest traveler knows why Chiang Kai-shek was kicked out. Colonel McCormick was reported as follows during his trip to the Far East, according to The Associated Press of Nov. 22, 1947:

"'The Chiang Kai-shek Government,' he said, 'cannot put down an insurrection which is falsely called a Communist insurrection. Although Communist-backed, it is still a bona fide insurrection against a government which is little more than an agency of the Soong family.'

"It was only later that for political or war-mongering purposes the Acheson-haters and anti-Trumanites discovered otherwise. We even find Colonel McCormick's Washington outlet last week discoursing on 'Why We Lost China,' not why Chiang Kai-shek lost it. Actually the American people are being made to think China must have been an American possession."

Now I wanted those two things in the record.

General, after all, this whole disagreement in policy between General MacArthur and the Government has a familiar ring to me. I was not in official life, but I remember that during the war years there was a great controversy over where our primary efforts should be made between the Far East war with Japan and the European conflict.

As I recollect—and I think it will be borne out by the facts—General MacArthur at that time as a theatre commander entreated the Defense Department, the War Department of that day, to make the Far East the primary theatre of conflict, and to make the European conflict the secondary center of interest, of our interest. Does that accord with your recollection?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I have been told that, Senator McMahon, but I was not in Washington at the time. I was in the European theatre, and my knowledge of that is only hearsay.

Q.—Would it be, General, an imposition for you to direct some research in the files of your department for the purpose of finding out whether what I have stated is a fact, that General MacArthur during that time naturally—and I am not criticizing him for it. He was the theater commander then, he never ceased to be a theater commander, and he naturally wanted the most that he could get in his theater. Would it be impossible to summarize that information?

A.—I do not think so; most of the information will have to come from General Marshall himself, I expect, because during that time he was on the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and was in a position to know what the recommendations were.

I say, he is the best source of information, but I will try to find anything in the records, which I can, we can do that.

Flanders Wishes Clearer Picture

Q.—I think a memorandum containing and combining the cables and the communications that came from General MacArthur during those years in which he insisted—and I think I am correct about this—insisted on the fact that the Far East should be the primary theatre of conflict would be useful as illustrating the fact that we are really now engaged in a discussion of the old controversy of which must have our primary interest, the East or the West.

There is just this one more thing. I do not think enough attention has been paid to a couple of sentences in General MacArthur's message of Jan. 10, which has been described as the gloomy message from the General, and I can understand why he should feel gloomy about the situation at that time, because, after all, he had had such high hopes to get the boys home by Christmas, and here he was talking about an evacuation, so his attitude is easy to understand.

In the course of this January 10th message, he said this:

"In the absence of overriding political considerations, under these conditions the command should be withdrawn from the peninsula just as rapidly as it is feasible tactically to do so. If, on the other hand, the primary political interests of the United States in the Far East lies in holding a position in Korea and thus pinning down a large segment of the Chinese military potential, the military course is implicit in political policy and we should be prepared to accept any attendant hazard to Japan's security and whatever casualties result."

I have just read that part of it for the background for this, which I want to emphasize:

"The issue involves a decision of highest national and international importance, far above the competence of a theatre commander guided largely by incidents affecting the tactical situation developing upon a very limited field of action, and really boils down to the question of whether or not the United States intends to evacuate Korea."

I call your attention particularly to that, general, because I think it is important, once again, to emphasize in this record what I think you have pointed out, and what General MacArthur himself has pointed out, that he was a theatre commander, with a theatre commander's viewpoint.

That bears that out, does it not?

A.—Yes, sir; I think it does, because he says on the other hand, if the over-all political considerations and the political interests of the United States in the Far East require it, then we would take a different view of it.

Q.—I just thought that we cannot emphasize that point too much. General, I think that concludes my questioning, and I want to thank you very much indeed for your courtesy.

I want to commend your testimony before this committee. It has been the reflection of your own inner character and your frankness and, in my opinion, and I want to take this opportunity to say it, although there may be some who have said that the Joint Chiefs of Staff and General Bradley have lost their confidence, I want to say to you, sir, that I believe that you have the confidence of the American people, which you merit as much as any American that ever lived. I thank you, sir.

A.—Thank you, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Stennis.

SENATOR STENNIS — Mr. Chairman, I just came in. May I be passed in favor of Senator Flanders?

THE CHAIRMAN—By unanimous consent that may be done.

SENATOR STENNIS—I will go before the docket then.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will be glad to submit it.

SENATOR STENNIS—Proceed.

SENATOR FLANDERS—Would I come normally next in line?

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Lodge would come next.

SENATOR LODGE—I have no more questions, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Flanders.

SENATOR FLANDERS — General, I feel it necessary to pursue a little bit further one of the thoughts that was in my mind this morning. I am making the assumption that the military plan is to fight back and forth somewhere near the border, somewhere near the Thirty-eighth Parallel, and to do it more or less indefinitely. Now, is that a reasonable assumption?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think, Senator, it would depend entirely on your definition of "indefinitely." We hope, as I have stated here many times before, that by these operations going on now—and by "now" we can't very well define it as to length of time, because it depends on how long it takes to convince the Chinese that they cannot be successful there—but as a result of these operations going on now, we should reach a state where some kind of negotiations and settlement would be possible.

Q.—Isn't the situation at least unusual, militarily speaking? Wouldn't normally we be expected, other things being equal and old-fashioned former conditions being duplicated to some extent, wouldn't we be expected to put in more men and more materials and work the thing through to a military conclusion, so far as Korea itself is concerned, the whole territory?

A.—That might be considered a normal way to do it, although we have done it differently in the past. We have fought wars where we did not commit our whole national effort. We might have another one here that would not require the whole national effort.

Q.—Although it is a little bit different, is it not, more or less, restraining ourselves from putting out our whole national effort?

This thing to my mind, General, has some serious connotations. It adds to our civil difficulties. You spoke a while back about our responsibility for educating the people of the country or taking leadership in their understanding it, but it is in itself an unusual thing to explain to people, particularly if it is a bit dubious to the teacher.

Now, I think that there is a great deal of importance to this unusualness, which shows up on the side of our controls, for instance. There is no question but what in the heat of an all-out war it is possible to submit to controls, to enthusiastically support them, as we did during most of the period when we had controls in the second World War.

But this is not the kind of climate, this kind of war does not produce the kind of climate which gives any vitality to the people in their acceptance of civilian hardships, and so on. I wish that we could have some clearer picture of what we are doing and why we are doing it that we could sell to people, make them support enough so that they could support controls heartily. They don't and, as I see it, can't in view of the vagueness of this war.

A.—May I comment on that, sir?

Q.—I made the observations in the hope that you would.

A.—Yes, sir. Well, as to the latter point—I think the people might be given to understand, if it is possible, that these controls and the materials that the Defense Department are having to buy, and the large forces we now have in being are not all to fight the war in Korea. They are primarily, as I see it, to strengthen our over-all security position. It is true that some of this is being used up in Korea and it was the aggression in Korea which waked us up to the fact that we had better get busy and raise these forces and buy this equipment and establish these industrial lines. But they are not just solely to fight the war in Korea.

As a matter of fact, a great portion of them are going to a state of preparedness to act as a deterrent to war elsewhere and to get ready and help us be ready to meet it if it does come. And I think if what you say is correct, maybe we have not explained it properly to the people. These sacrifices they are being asked to make are not solely to fight the war in Korea, but to better our security position and be able to deter war and defend our freedom.

Q.—I think what you are saying is pertinent and should be understood and should be talked and explained. But somehow this vague sort of an affair over in Korea does make people wonder, I judge from my correspondence, as to whether there is any decisiveness of the whole military and diplomatic picture anywhere. I think we are undergoing an unusual experience.

A.—Yes, sir. And, as I understand it, you are a believer in the United Nations.

On Formosa Discussed

Q.—I am decidedly so. And I supported it not only when we went in on June 25 or 26, or whenever it was, but I support our being there now with all my heart and soul.

A.—The point I was going to make is: I believe in the United Nations. I haven't lost faith in their being able to accomplish things in the future. I think it is too early to become discouraged with them. But, as you say, we are in there on United Nations action, and I think the actions we take in Korea must meet the approval of the other members of the United Nations and must not be taken on a unilateral basis.

This is the first time we have had a United Nations field command and a United Nations commander, and I think we should be very careful to preserve the set-up of such a command and the prerogatives of a commander, and make it as effective as possible and do anything we can to keep from breaking up a United Nations command and discouraging them from taking United Nations action in the future.

SENATOR FLANDERS — Let me say, General Bradley, that I think there is at least a modicum of wisdom in what you are saying. I am through, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Fulbright? Senator Tobey? Senator Sparkman.

SENATOR SPARKMAN — No questions, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Stennis.

SENATOR STENNIS — Well, Mr. Chairman, I will be very brief. * * *. (Thirty-four lines deleted). Now you have a military mission there, on Formosa, as I understand it.

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes.

Q.—And we are sending trained men in, officers to train them.

A.—Yes, sir, we are sending in men to supervise the distribution of supplies and to help them supervise the training.

Q.—Now you must have had some report on them then in addition to the September, 1950, report. Did you send a new mission back in there to look the situation over before you send these new men in there to train them? That is my point.

A.—Well, we strengthened the attaché's staff on Formosa as one means of getting information, and we did not have a mission, but we secured approval to strengthen the military attachés in numbers, and that was the only step we could take until this military mission was approved, and that has only been over there a month or two, and I have not seen any report from them yet as to what has been accomplished.

As a matter of fact, it is a little bit early for them to accomplish anything other than to get organized.

Q.—What is the size of that mission that is there now? A.—I don't remember the size of it. It is a considerable-sized mission, both officers and enlisted-men.

Q.—Of course it hasn't been there long enough to get any results—just thirty days. A.—Just from memory, I think the size of that, the total size of the mission is somewhere between four and five hundred, but that is not an accurate figure.

Q.—Now, did you cover the point as to whether or not you considered it safe for those troops to leave Formosa now, considering Formosa as on the defensive, do you consider it safe for them to leave Formosa and come over and do battle in Korea? A.—Well, that is a questionable matter; right at this minute, the concentration of Communist troops opposite Formosa is not too formidable. It was, a year ago. It has been increased at the present time, and there are still a lot of troops in South China, but not on the coast opposite Formosa.

It wouldn't take too long to assemble them there, but whether or not China could invade Formosa, with our fleet there, is questionable. It would take a bigger effort, in other words, than they have concentrated there right now.

I don't mean to say they couldn't invade Formosa. I think that under the present circumstances, they would have to make a considerable build-up of the Communists to invade Formosa successfully, with the troops that are there.

The trouble has been, heretofore, that a lot of the men on Formosa were not equipped, they did not have transporation to move around rapidly, so that their reserves were not mobile, and they did not have air. * * * (3½ lines deleted.) I think the stronger we make the people of Formosa, the greater confidence they will have, and the better they will be able to move their reserves, that will make Formosa that much more secure.

Q.—Well, there has been so much agitation about using the troops on Korea, and I suggested, myself, on the floor of the Senate, one time—

THE CHAIRMAN—You mean, Formosa?

SENATOR STENNIS—I mean, using them in Korea, on in the war, at least.

GENERAL BRADLEY—Using the troops from Formosa, in Korea?

Q.—Yes; and after I became better informed on it, why, I had more doubt about it; and as I understand, there is still doubt in your mind about the feasibility and advisability of using those troops, as of now, on the Korean peninsula? * * * (5 lines deleted). That is the point I wanted to get your opinion on. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, that is all.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Gillette?

(No response.)

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Brewster?

(No response.)

THE CHAIRMAN—General, that concludes the second round of questioning. It was my purpose to recess this committee not later than 5 o'clock. It is now twenty minutes to 5. I do not wish to ask any Senator to have his time of questioning interrupted.

For my part, I have no questions on my third round, so, I will ask again, what is the pleasure of the committee? I don't desire to interrupt any Senator—

SENATOR LODGE—Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Lodge.

SENATOR LODGE—I have no further question to ask, but I would like to say that at the appropriate time I would like to make a motion that when the next witness is heard that the time limit on questioning be fifteen minutes, but there be no limit on the number of rounds.

Senator Agrees To Postpone Issue

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator, I do not think we should undertake to pass upon that issue here. I take it that you do not object if we carry it over?

SENATOR LODGE — I simply bring that up so the members can be thinking about it, sir.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Hickenlooper.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I do not want to go ahead, out of my turn. I have about three questions that I did not complete with General Bradley, and I can easily finish them well before 5 o'clock. I can do that, if you are in a hiatus here, now; but I don't want to inject myself before anyone else's turn.

THE CHAIRMAN—I think that will be most cooperative in helping us to conclude. If there is no objection, I will recognize you to ask those questions.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—General Bradley, we have seen statements of the losses of the Red Chinese, and they have been in very staggering numbers, the Red Chinese and the North Koreans, way up in the hundreds of thousands, 700,000 or 800,000, as I recall the total number. How do we arrive at those figures? How do you know what their casualties are?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Well, in a lot of cases, they are estimates, Senator Hickenlooper.

For example, the casualties reported by the Air Force are usually reported as a result of pictures taken at the time. You know, when any plane, like a fighter plane, goes down and strafes, or gets in combat with hostile planes, and shoots it, they are automatically taking movies of the thing while it is happening; so when they analyze those pictures, they get a pretty good idea of what they hit; and the planes following take pictures also and get a pretty good idea of the number that are lying out in the snow.

Now, we must realize that those estimates are, in some cases, probably big, and in some cases, probably small. I would like to cite one example. I mean this as an extreme; but, last year they came in and reported, in one case, where they killed seventy-two, where they hit a column, we took that ground the next day and counted approximately one thousand. That was an extreme the other way. They have overestimated in some cases, and certainly I think that was one case in which it was underestimated.

Q.—The thing that bothers me is when we retreat, it is very difficult to count the number of casualties, because we are retreating away from the ground where the casualties exist; and how do you know how many wounded they have? What is our basis for estimating those casualties?

I am merely trying to test whether or not we are getting any kind of accurate information as to their casualties, based on any actual count, or whether it is merely guess-work.

A.—They are not altogether guesses. They come from these pictures we take, from prisoners, from agents who are back in behind them, some civilian informants. They are supposed to be a summation of all these sources of information.

Q.—Just one question about the use of Chinese troops, Formosan Chinese. (4 lines deleted) In other words, to say, well, we will go out and pick up 200,000 American boys out here from the farms and cities to send over to fight, they are not prepared to fight until they are equipped and trained; is that not true? A.—That is correct.

Q.—And we are about the only source of equipment and training that the Nationalist Chinese have and have had for a couple of years or so; is that not true? A.—Yes, sir, either as grant-in-aid or by purchase.

Q.—I mean, the fact is that we have not contributed any substantial amount to their training or their equipment over the past two years, and yet we now say we can not use them, never be able to use them, they are not equipped, they can not take the field. They could have taken the field had equipment and training been afforded to them substantially some time ago.

They would probably now be ready to take the field with more or less efficiency; I do not know about their ultimate efficiency at all. But the fact is we have not given the equipment or made it available; we have had appropriations that have been voted here and have been held in abeyance and have not been made available to them, so that it appears to me that we, while it may be true that they cannot fight, yet to put the onus of being able to and ready to fight on the Chinese, are being a little far-fetched because they do not have any place to get the equipment except from us.

Hickenlooper Bases Question on Rumor

Q.—Yes. Probably that is the fact, and I do not dispute that fact that they were not ready to fight in substantial numbers, but they are just not ready to fight like a lot of our American citizens are not yet ready to fight because they are not armed and equipped, and they canont fight until they are armed and equipped.

Now, I have been told—I cannot vouch for the accuracy of this, and I just do not know that it is too accurate, but I have been informed by, I think, a high degree of rumor, you just might put it that way, that about all we have done in connection with the resupplying of Chiang until very recently, which means almost recent weeks, that about all we did was to replenish the supply, the meager supply of ammunition and some equipment that Chiang had before he got into those island fights down there a year or so ago, about a year or so ago, where he shot up a lot of his equipment defending some of those—shot up a lot of his ammunition and used up a lot of his equipment, and about all we did was just merely to replenish that.

We did not augment his supply any. That has been about the limit of what we have done until very recently. Would you care to comment on that?

A.—I am sorry I don't know where the report came from or whate the report is, Senator, so I don't know the source of it.

Q.—I am not asking you to verify the source of that information; that I have been informed of that, and I am merely inquiring as to whether that general thesis is correct, that we did send in enough to sort of bring his supplies back up to the meager level that they were before he got into those island fights when they repulsed some of the Communist attempts to take his islands.

A.—I think we all realize that the equipment and ammunition and spare parts furnished him so far have been of a rather limited nature. We are trying to supply a lot of needs, including those in Korea, and I don't believe that we should give Formosa a priority higher than what we need in Korea.

As a consequence, I think it will probably take us some time to fulfill all these needs. I think I told you the first day that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had recommended a program of something in the nature of 300 million dollars.

Q.—Yes.

A.—And we hope we will provide him eventually with supplies. Now, just how much of that has been delivered up to the present time, I don't know; but I do know the first part of it, as you say, was ammunition, and badly needed spare parts for planes and other equipment.

Q.—Now this you may comment on if you care to. If you don't, that is all right.

I shan't press the issue, but do you know whether or not, or would you care to comment on whether or not the military department, that is I will say the national Defense Department, against the violent objections of the State Department and, at least originally concealed from the State Department, actually sent some ammunition and equipment to Chiang Kai-shek as a total independent thing and under an attempt to keep the State Department from knowing anything about it?

A.—Honestly, Senator, I don't know of any such shipment being done surreptitiously without the knowledge of the State Department. I don't say that it hasn't been done by somebody down the line, but certainly it is unknown to me as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Hickenlooper Questions Witness on Formosa

Q.—Now just one question and then I am through, Mr. Chairman.

Senator Connally, as I understood his questioning of you a while ago, said that it would be ill advised for us to put equipment into Formosa and to send people over there and to look after it and things of that kind. It is my understanding that that has now become the policy of the Government, to send equipment over there, and we are sending four or five hundred military personnel in a mission to supervise the application of that equipment such as we are sending.

A.—Well, that wasn't the way I understood Senator Connally's questions.

Q.—Let me then withdraw. I shall read the record in the morning on the matter. I don't want to in any way misinterpret, but it was my understanding at the time that Senator Connally was saying that such program would be not advisable and I merely wanted to call attention to the fact that it had become the program apparently, but I shall not comment nor draw any conclusions either way, and I will withdraw any conclusions that I may have indicated here, until I can actually read the record in the morning.

A.—I wonder if you want the record to stand this way over night.

Q.—As far as I am concerned, I am perfectly willing to have it just cut out of the record.

THE CHAIRMAN—I don't think that is necessary.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I don't say it is necessary. I don't draw any conclusions one way or the other.

THE CHAIRMAN—Now, gentlemen, without any effort whatever to restrict or limit any Senator, the chair is charged with the responsibility for getting witnesses here and the orderly conduct of these hearings, and it would be very helpful to me if the Senators would indicate just about how much more time they think it will require with General Bradley. I assume those who stay here are primarily those that have questions for him.

I am not trying to limit anyone, but just so I would know when to have another witness to be here before the committee.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — I would say, Mr. Chairman, as far as I am concerned, I think I could clear up a few loose ends that would not take me more than ten minutes on the situation as of tonight.

THE CHAIRMAN—I am not asking you to be bound strictly by it. The main thing is to know whether to have another witness here tomorrow.

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

SENATOR MORSE—It is my present intention to limit myself to not more than another thirty minutes of examination of General Bradley.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Connally?

SENATOR CONNALLY — I do not think I will interrogate the general any more unless some matter arises.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Smith?

SENATOR SMITH—I have one or two questions which would not take more than ten minutes.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I think Senator Wiley said at the close of his questioning he had a number of more questions that his thirty-minute time barred him from asking, that he would ask them the next round.

THE CHAIRMAN—I had assumed he would take at least thirty more minutes.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — I wondered, Mr. Chairman, if you are going to run to 5 o'clock. If you are, I might clear up all of these things. I do not want to again get out of turn but it might save some wear and tear on the general.

THE CHAIRMAN—Without objection, then, you may start, Senator Knowland.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—I understand in some of the questions raised either today or yesterday they brought up some other wars in which we had been, namely, the War of 1812 with the British, the Spanish-American War in Cuba and the Philippines, and the situation in Greece. But the fact of the matter is, is it not, General, that we did not settle the controversy with the Spaniards being left in control of half of Cuba; we did not settle the Greek war with the Greek Communists being left in control of a substantial part of Greece; and we did not finish the War of 1812 with the British being left in control of New Orleans. While it is true that we did not carry the war into their home countries, nevertheless, we did clean up the particular situation in which we were involved.

GENERAL BRADLEY—We restored it in some cases to the status quo when we started the war and won our point. That boils down then to the question of what our point is. As I say, I believe everybody recognizes the long-range political objective of the United Nations is a united and free

Korea, but that does not necessarily follow that we have to obtain that militarily at this time.

Senator Quotes Article From British Paper

Q.—Are you familiar, General, with the article which appeared in The Manchester Guardian Weekly of March 8? I want to read it to you, it is very brief.

"The Chinese armies, the principal instrument of these Russian tactics, have been beaten in Korea, and even their best troops have proved less dangerous than was feared. But Peking [Peiping] is not negotiating, nor does it seem very much disturbed at its military mishap.

"The military tradition of the Chinese Communists, ever since 1927 has been to lose army after army and then to raise new armies and continue to fight until fortune changes in their favor. They rely on two things: first, doctrine and ideas to insure continuity of action; second, a cadre of officers to train the fresh ones to replace those which are lost. The Chinese Communist leaders can conscript and train new ones in a few months. For this reason Peking is not likely to give up its hostility to the West because of the setback in Korea. Communist China is likely to continue to be at Russia's disposal for the Soviet-Asiatic strategy."

That is the end of the quotation. Would you say that was a reasonable interpretation of the situation in so far as it affects the Chinese Communists?

A.—I would say that that is one person's views and it might or might not be correct.

Q.—There has been considerable mention—and I think this needs to be cleared up—the fact that General MacArthur had originally indicated in June that he preferred not to have Chinese Nationalist troops. You will recall that the Republic of China delivered an aide memoire to the State Department on June 29 and again on June 30, offering 33,000 troops at that time.

Now, the fact of the matter is, isn't it, General, that the State Department through the Department of National Defense, advised General MacArthur not to accept that offer of troops? Isn't that correct?

A.—I believe that is correct.

Q.—And wasn't a message sent to General MacArthur in June in which he was specifically told that if an offer of troops should come to him from the Republic of China, that he was not to accept them?

A.—Yes. At that time there were both military and political reasons why we did not think they should be used and that was the political reason established by the State Department.

The political reasons were expressed by the Joint Chiefs and by General MacArthur. In spite of the fact that we thought from a political viewpoint they should not be used, General MacArthur was asked his views and expressed them to General Collins.

Q.—I am speaking of the message that went out to General MacArthur on June 30. Didn't that advice come from the State Department that if Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek should get in touch with him directly, he should turn down the offer.

A.—I think it probably went from the Joint Chiefs, but it was certainly on the advice of the State Department, that it would not be advisable to accept them, and I think at that time the Joint Chiefs fully agreed with that, and so did General MacArthur.

SENATOR MORSE—Would the Senator from California yield for what I think is a needed correction in the record?

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Yes.

SENATOR MORSE—I think, Mr. Chairman, the transcript will show General Bradley said in his preceding statement that the political reasons were expressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and by General MacArthur, when I think he meant the military reasons were expressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and General MacArthur and the political reasons by the State Department.

GENERAL BRADLEY—That is correct.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Finally, General, could you throw a little more light on Page 99 of the document which we have before us which says, and I quote, this is Number 38:

"On 15 March 1951 the Joint Chiefs of Staff held an informal conference with representatives of the Department of State and among other things, discussed the Korean situation.

"It appeared to be generally agreed that at some future meeting an agreement should be reached on the objectives in Korea. It was suggested that the Secretary of State talk to the Secretary of Defense and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. If this question was not settled before the next meeting, the question would be discussed at the Joint Chiefs of Staff-State Department meeting on that date."

In reading that paraphrase, unless there is material which is not included, I can only draw the conclusion that as late as the 15th of March there had not been an agreement on the objectives in Korea and that at some future date it was hoped that they could agree on the objectives.

Could you throw some light on that?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, I discussed that, I think, a few minutes ago. We were trying to get a decision, particularly with reference to the Thirty-eighth Parallel, and we did not get it and we haven't got it yet as far as the political objective and its relationship to the Thirty-eighth Parallel is concerned.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—But, General, isn't this far broader than merely the Thirty-eighth Parallel? You said the objectives in Korea. Since you have testified here that the political objectives deal with the Thirty-eighth Parallel, aren't there other factors which enter the picture?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Oh, yes, indeed.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Such as this issue as to whether Formosa and U. N. membership for Communist China should be negotiated, and haven't there been other issues raised by the Department of State on which the Defense Department apparently at that time did not necessarily see eye to eye?

GENERAL BRADLEY—There were other objectives concerned, yes, the long-range objective, and the terms under which we would accept an armistice, for example. We got up a special paper on that from a military point of view, what would be acceptable, what would be acceptable terms in arranging an armistice and negotiating with the Chinese.

Objectives of War Called Aim of Question

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Knowland, if you will pardon me, I have just received from the Department of Defense this afternoon and signed, a letter transmitting to you—I do not suppose it has been delivered to you more than the committee—in which they deal with that in response to some questions that you asked General Marshall. It is confidential and I told them to bring it to your attention.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Mr. Chairman, if you are going to close, with respect to the answer General Bradley just gave I was attempting to pursue that very thing yesterday, what are the objectives, what would be a satisfactory settlement in the Korean situation from a military standpoint.

Now I did not get any clear answer to that yesterday. If there is such a document, then I think by all means we ought to have it.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator, I perhaps made a mistake in undertaking to go into a letter that I scanned very hurriedly, but the letter will be available to you. Colonel Galusha, it is in the security room. Suppose you get it right now and let Senator Hickenlooper read it.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—No, I do not mean to hold this up except that letter may cover it. If it does, well and good. If it does not, then I earnestly hope that we can get the document which is the study of the objectives and the terms under which we would discuss a settlement from a military standpoint that General Bradley just mentioned.

THE CHAIRMAN—I think we are talking about two different things, Senator Hickenlooper. You are talking about the armistice they were trying to work out in March when General MacArthur made that statement. Senator Knowland's questions were not addressed to that.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—If we could refer to General Bradley's last statement. I understood him to say that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had put down a study or a recommendation as to what they thought would be the terms and the conditions for the discussion of an armistice or a settlement of this matter in Korea.

Now, I do not care about the letter. If it answers it, well and good. If not, I hope that we can get that study.

THE CHAIRMAN—If not, we will reopen tomorrow and let you ask more questions about it.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I have no more questions to ask about it if we can just get the study.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Mr. Chairman, I have some material to go into the appendix of the record, an article which appeared in The London Observer and The London Times of March——

THE CHAIRMAN—Do you object, Senator, to letting me precede that with an answer that was supplied by Secretary Marshall in response to a question that was asked him? I think that should precede that, and I therefore offer for the record the answer of the Secretary of Defense to the following question:

"General, can you supply for the record the directives and orders and memoranda sent to General MacArthur by the Department of Defense containing these restrictions or any restrictions that were imposed on him in the conduct of the campaign?"

I might say that I think the members of this committee will find that right interesting reading, because it contains each order imposing a restriction upon the conduct of the campaign in Korea. That will appear in the record. It will be followed by the newspaper article referred to by Senator Knowland.

(The documents above referred to will be found in the appendix of this record.)

THE CHAIRMAN—General Mudge, will you have General Collins on the stand for tomorrow around 11? We probably will not get to him much sooner. The committee will now stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon at 5:05 o'clock P. M. [D. T.] the hearing was adjourned, to reconvene on Thursday, May 24, 1951, at 10 o'clock A. M.)

BURNSIDE-MACARTHUR
WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-REP.BURNSIDE (D-WVA) TOLD THE HOUSE TODAY
GENERAL MACARTHUR ADVOCATED BOMBING CHINESE CITIES IN 1949 WHEN COMMUN-STS WERE CAPTURING CHINA.
BURNSIDE WAS ONE OF A GROUP OF CONGRESSMEN VISITING THE FAR EAST IN EPTEMBER AND OCTOBER, 1949.
MACARTHUR AT THAT TIME PROPOSED FOUR STEPS "THAT HE CONSIDERED NEC-SSARY TO SAVE THE SITUATION," BURNSIDE SAID.
THE WEST VIRGINIAN LISTED THESE AS:
1--DECLARE UNITED STATES SUPPORT IN THE FORM OF AN ULTIMATUM.
2--PLACE 500 PLANES IN THE HANDS OF SOME "WAR HORSE" SIMILAR TO GENERAL CHENAULT.
3--GIVE VOLUNTEERS THE RIGHT TO JOIN SUCH A FIGHTING FORCE.
4--ASSIGN SURPLUS SHIPS TO THE CHINESE NAVY SUFFICIENT TO BLOCKADE AND DESTROY CHINA COASTAL CITIES.
THE CONGRESSMAN RECALLED THAT MACARTHUR DID NOT THINK MUCH OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST CHINESE ARMY AT THE TIME.
HE QUOTED THE GENERAL AS SAYING:
"I CONSIDER CHIANG A HIGHLY INTELLIGENT LEADER BUT HE KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT THE ART OF WAR. HE IS SURROUNDED BY CORRUPT OFFICIALS AND GENERALS. HIS TROOPS ARE VERY INEFFECTIVE AND POORLY EQUIPPED."
MACARTHUR AND HIS INTELLIGENCE CHIEF, MAJ.GEN.CHARLES WILLOUGHBY, ASSURED THE GROUP THAT THERE WOULD BE NO WAR IN KOREA FOR TWO YEARS, BURNSIDE SAID.
BURNSIDE CONTENDED THAT LOGISTICAL SUPPORT FOR AN INVASION OF CHINA
NOW BY CHIANG'S TROOPS WOULD FORCE THE UNITED STATES INTO AN "ALL-OUT WAR TO REGAIN CHINA FOR CHIANG."

JENNER-KOREA
WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-SENATOR JENNER (R-IND) SAID TODAY THE ADMINISTRATION IS CONSIDERING "A PEACE ON THE ENEMY'S OWN TERMS" IN KOREA AND JAPAN.
JENNER TOLD THE SENATE GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR HAD EXPOSED THE ADMINISTRATION'S PLANS IN A RECENT STATEMENT.
THE STATEMENT WAS ISSUED AFTER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL HAD SAID THAT MACARTHUR'S OFFER OF A CEASE-FIRE TO CHINESE COMMUNISTS WRECKED PEACE NEGOTIATIONS PLANNED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN.
MACARTHUR'S STATEMENT SAID HIS CEASE-FIRE PROPOSAL COULD ONLY BE REGARDED AS "IN FULL SUPPORT OF ANY POLITICAL MOVE TOWARD PEACE UNLES AN AGREEMENT WAS IN CONTEMPLATION ON THE ENEMY'S OWN TERMS."
JENNER SHOUTED THAT "CONGRESS CANNOT IGNORE THIS CHARGE THAT THE ADMINISTRATION IS PLANNING A PEACE SETTLEMENT WHICH GIVES THE COMMUNISTS EVERYTHING THEY DESIRE."
THE INDIANAN SAID "THIS ADMINISTRATION MUST HAVE PEACE IN KOREA. IT CANNOT GO INTO THE NEXT CAMPAIGN WITHOUT AN END TO THE KOREAN FIGHTING."

WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) TOOK SHARP ISSUE TODAY WITH THE WAY SENATOR TOBEY (R-NH) DESCRIBED THE SENATORS WHO ARE INQUIRING INTO GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.
TOBEY SAID YESTERDAY HE WAS "IMPRESSED WITH THE FUTILITY OF MUCH THAT IS GOING ON" IN THE HEARINGS AND SUGGESTED THEY BE ENDED. HE ADDED:
"HERE ARE A LOT OF MEN, WELL-INTENTIONED MEN, WITH ABSOLUTELY NO MILITARY TRAINING OR GUMPTION OR COMMON SENSE, COMING IN HERE TO POSE QUESTIONS TO MEN WHOSE LIFE-LONG SERVICE HAS BEEN IN THE MILITARY AND NAVAL ESTABLISHMENTS AND THE AIR FORCE OF THIS COUNTRY."
MORSE SAID TODAY HE HAS NO OBJECTION TO "TOBEY SO CHARACTERIZING HIMSELF IF HE CARES TO." BUT HE SAID HE OBJECTED "ON BEHALF OF MY COLLEAGUES ON THIS COMMITTEE TO HAVING SUCH DESCRIPTIVE LANGUAGE INSERTED INTO THE OFFICIAL RECORD OF THESE HEARINGS IN REGARD TO THEM.'
IN THE FIRST PLACE," MORSE PROTESTED, "IT JUST ISN'T AN ACCURATE STATEMENT."

CLEVELAND, MAY 23-(AP)-SAID GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY TONIGHT, "HISTORY SHOWS ONE APPEASEMENT AFTER THE OTHER MAKES FINAL WAR INEVITABLE."
HE MADE THIS STATEMENT AS HE EXPLAINED TO A CONVENTION OF THE AMERICAN BOOKSELLERS ASSOCIATION WTY ITS WAS NECESSARY FOR THE UNITED NATIONS TO ENTER THE KOREAN CAMPAIGN.
"THE ALTERNATIVE OF TRYING TO OPPOSE AGGRESSION IN KOREA MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE THAN IF NO ACTION HAD BEEN TAKEN," HE SAID, AND ADDED THE CURRENT ACTION IN KOREA WAS NECESSARY BECAUSE WHEN APPEASEMENT IS USED "SOMETHING ELSE MAY START."
THE GENERAL DISCUSSED IN GENERAL TERMS, USING A MAP, THE MILITARY ASPECTS OF THE KOREAN CAMPAIGN FROM THE EARLY DAYS TO THE PRESENT TIME.
HE FLEW HERE FROM WASHINGTON FOR THE SPEECH, AFTER SPENDING HIS FIFTH DAY ON THE STAND AS A WITNESS BEFORE A SENATE GROUP STUDYING THE OUSTER OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MAC ARTHUR. SHORTLY AFTER HIS CONVENTION SPEECH HE RETURNED TO WASHINGTON.
BRADLEY DECLARED "NO ONE CAN VISUALIZE THE AWFULNESS OF WARS EXCEPT THOSE WHO HAVE FOUGHT" IN THEM.
IN A BRIEF NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER HIS SPEECH, HE DISCUSSED HIS NEW BOOK, "A SOLDIER'S STORY," WHICH WILL BE RELEASED JUNE 18.
"I INTENDED TO PUBLISH THE BOOK AFTER I RETIRED AND WAS OUT OF PUBLIC LIFE," BUT THE KOREAN CAMPAIGN ALTERED THESE PLANS, THE GENERAL SAID.
HE SAID HE DECIDED TO WRITE THE BOOK BECAUSE HE WAS ASKED SO MANY QUESTIONS ON VARIOUS BATTLE PLANS AND STRATEGY AFTER HE RETURNED FROM THE SECOND WORLD WAR.

NIGHT LEAD ACHESON
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, MAY 23-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TODAY DECLARED AMERICAN READINESS TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS FOR A SETTLEMENT OF THE WAR IN KOREA. BUT HE SAID HE KNEW OF NO OVERTURES FROM THE OTHER SIDE.
HIS DECLARATION WAS MADE AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS ABOUT A SPEECH MADE BY HIS CHIEF SUBORDINATE FOR FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATS DEAN RUSK.
RUSK HAD CALLED THE RED REGIME "A COLONIAL RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT." IN A SPEECH IN NEW YORK FRIDAY HE ALSO SAID THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT ON FORMOSA REPRESENTS THE VIEWS OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE "MORE AUTHENTICALLY" THAN DOES THE COMMUNIST ADMINISTRATION.
RUSK'S SPEECH HAS BEEN WIDELY INTERPRETED AS A CHANGE IN UNITED STATES POLICY TOWARD CHINA, BARRING KOREAN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE REDS AND FIRMLY ATTACHING THE UNITED STATES TO GENERALISSIMO CHIAN KAI SHEK ON FORMOSA.
MAY 23 1951
ACHESON DENIED IN DETAIL THAT RUS

KAI SHEK ON FORMOSA.
ACHESON DENIED IN DETAIL THAT RUSK HAD DECLARED ANY NEW POLICY, BUT WHEN IT CAME TO THE WORDS RUSK USED ACHESON REFRAINED FROM ENDORSI THEM AND LEFT THE IMPRESSION THAT HE DID NOT CONSIDER THEM IN ALL CASES WELL CHOSEN.
WHEN HE WAS ASKED SPECIFICALLY WHETHER THE DENUNCIATION BY RUSK OF THE PEIPING ADMINISTRATION AS A "COLONIAL RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT" INTERFERES WITH THE PROSPECT FOR A SETTLEMENT IN KOREA, ACHESON REPLIED SUBSTANTIALLY IN THIS WAY:
HE COULD NOT SAY JUST WHAT THE PROSPECT NOW IS. A WEEK AGO HE DI NOT KNOW OF ANY PEACE FEELERS AND HE STILL DOESN'T, BUT HE DOES NOT DESPAIR OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCCEEDING IN SOME FUTURE NEGOTIATION. IN THIS HE SPECIFICALLY ASSOCIATED HIMSELF WITH GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHO TESTIFIED ALONG THAT LINE AT THE MACARTHUR HEARING YESTERDAY.
ACHESON WAS ASKED WITH WHOM A SETTLEMENT WOULD BE NEGOTIATED IF THERE WAS TO BE ONE. HE SAID HE SUPPOSED IT WOULD BE WITH THOSE WHO CAUSED THE TROUBLE-- THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. IT COULD BE CONDUCTED WITH THEM THROUGH THE UNIFIED COMMAND OR THE UNITED NATIONS. THE UNIFIED COMMAND, HE NOTED, IS ACTUALLY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WHICH EXERCISES MILITARY AUTHORITY IN KOREA AS AGENT FOR THE U.N.

A181WX
AT ANOTHER POINT ACHESON SAID IF YOU'RE GOING TO STOP FIGHTING YOU'VE GOT TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE PEOPLE WHO ARE DOING IT.
AT THE OUTSET OF THE CONFERENCE A QUESTION WAS ASKED WHETHER RUSK'S SPEECH REFLECTED A POLICY CHANGE TOWARD CHINA. ACHESON SAID IT WAS NOT SUPPOSED TO--AND HE DID NOT THINK IT DID--ANNOUNCE, INDICATE OR SUGGEST ANY CHANGE IN POLICY. PEOPLE SHOULD REREAD THE SPEECH IN A LESS HEATED ATMOSPHERE, HE SAID, AND WOULD FIND THAT RUSK WAS MERELY RESTATING MATTERS OF POLICY INCLUDING THE LONG AMERICA FRIENDSHIP FOR THE CHINESE PEOPLE, NON-RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE

COMMUNISTS, RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS, ASSISTANCE TO CHIANG KAI SHEKD--ALL OF WHICH ARE WELL-KNOWN AND NOT NEW.

WERE THE WORDS WHICH RUSK USED WELL CHOSEN? ACHESON WAS ASKED. HE LAUGHED AND SAID THAT WASN'T A KIND QUESTION. HE ADDED MORE SERIOUSLY THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO CRITICIZE THE LITERARY COMPOSITION OF HIS COLLEAGUE. THE IMPRESSION OF HIS HEARERS WAS THAT HE DID NOT IN FACT LIKE RUSK'S CHOICE OF WORDS AND DID NOT WANT TO ENDORSE THEM.

SOME ONE WANTED TO KNOW WHETHER ACHESON THOUGHT RUSK HAS ISSUED A VEILED INVITATION TO THE CHINESE PEOPLE TO REVOLT AGAINST COMMUNISM WITH AMERICAN AID. HE REPLIED THAT THERE WAS NOTHING VEILED ABOUT IT BECAUSE RUSK INTENDED TO SAY JUST WHAT HE SAID. WHAT HE SAID WAS THAT IF THE CHINESE PEOPLE "ASSERT THEIR FREEDOM" THEY CAN COUNT ON "TREMENDOUS SUPPORT FROM FREE PEOPLES IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD."

VIRTUALLY THE ONLY OTHER SUBJECT DISCUSSED AT THE CONFERENCE WAS THAT OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CRISIS. ACHESON DENIED IRANIAN CHARGES OF AMERICAN INTERVENTION OR HOSTILITY AND REAFFIRMED THE OFFICIAL HOPE HERE FOR A FRIENDLY SETTLEMENT OF THE DISPUTE.

WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TODAY RENEWED HIS APPEAL TO BRITAIN AND IRAN TO "SIT DOWN AT A CONFERENCE TABLE" AND WORK OUT A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THEIR DISPUTE OVER IRANIAN OIL.

ACHESON DISCUSSED THE IRANIAN SITUATION AT A PRESS CONFERENCE, AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT SUBSEQUENTLY RELEASED HIS REMARKS AS A FORMAL STATEMENT, PERMITTING DIRECT QUOTATION.

HE EXPRESSED SURPRISE THAT THERE SHOULD HAVE BEEN PROTESTS IN IRAN THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS INTERVENING IN IRANIAN AFFAIRS OR WAS IN SOME WAY HOSTILE TO IRANIAN INTERESTS.

THE PROTESTS FOLLOWED A STATE DEPARTMENT STATEMENT OF LAST FRIDAY CALLING FOR ANGLO-IRANIAN NEGOTIATION.

"THERE IS NO INTENTION BY THE UNITED STATES OF CHALLENGING IRAN'S SOVEREIGNTY," ACHESON SAID. "A SERIOUS CONTROVERSY EXISTS, WHATEVER THE RIGHTS OR WRONGS OF THE MATTER MAY BE. SUCH CONTROVERSIES CANNOT BE SETTLED UNILATERLY.

"THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAS STATED ITS WILLINGNESS TO NEGOTIATE AND TO MAKE BROAD CONCESSIONS TO THE IRANIAN POINT OF VIEW. THE UNITED STATES, THEREFORE, PUBLICLY RECORDED ITS BELIEF THAT THE TWO PARTIES TO THE CONTROVERSY SHOULD SIT DOWN AT A CONFERENCE TABLE AND WORK THE MATTER OUT.

WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE TONIGHT ANNOUNCED THE REPLACEMENT OF ITS TWO TOP COMMANDERS IN THE FAR EAST.

LT.GEN.GEORGE E.STRATEMEYER, WHO WAS STRICKEN WITH A HEART ATTACK IN TOKYO LAST WEEK, WILL BE SUCCEEDED BY LT.GEN.O.P.WEYLAND AS COMMANDER OF THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES.

MAJ.GEN.FRANK F.EVEREST, ASSISTANT CHIEF OF STAFF FOR OPERATIONS AT AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, WAS NAMED TO SUCCEED LT.GEN.EARLE E. PARTRIDGE AS FIFTH AIR FORCE COMMANDER IN JAPAN.

ANNOUNCING THE REASSIGNMENTS, GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG, AIR CHIEF OF STAFF, SAID HE AND THE WHOLE AIR FORCE "DEEPLY REGRET THE ILLNESS WHICH HAS MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR GEN.STRATEMEYER TO CONTINUE IN COMMAND OF THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES.

"WE ARE FORTUNATE TO HAVE A MAN OF THE CALIBER OF GEN.WEYLAND TO SUCCEED HIM."

STRATEMEYER HAS HELD THE KEY FAR EAST COMMAND SINCE APRIL, 1949. PARTRIDGE HAS BEEN IN COMMAND OF THE FIFTH AIR FORCE IN JAPAN SINCE 1948.

THE TWO NEW COMMANDERS WILL LEAVE FOR JAPAN THIS WEEKEND.

STRATEMEYER HAS APPEARED TO SIDE WITH SOME OF THE VIEWS ADVOCATED BY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FOR STRONGER MEASURES AGAINST COMMUNIST CHINA, NOTABLY ON BOMBING RED CHINA.

HOWEVER, AN AIR FORCE SPOKESMAN DECLARED TONIGHT THIS HAD "ABSOLUTELY NOTHING AT ALL TO DO" WITH THE SHIFT. HE SAID THE SOLE REASON FOR SENDING A REPLACEMENT FOR STRATEMEYER WAS THAT HE WAS TOO ILL TO CARRY ON.

"THAT ISSUE HAS NOT BEEN BROUGHT UP WITH THE PRESIDENT."
MARSHALL WENT ON TO SAY: "WE HAD ENOUGH OF EXCITEMENT IN AIR AT THE MOMENT, AND HE WAS NOT A PERSON IN THE PROMINENT POSITION OF GENERAL MACARTHUR."

STRATEMEYER HAD TOLD THE U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT THAT HE WAS CONVINCED THE REDS WERE BUILDING UP THEIR AIR POWER IN MANCHURIA, AND DECLARED:

"YOU CAN'T STOP A DETERMINED AIR OFFENSIVE UNLESS YOU CAN GET AT THE FACILITY FROM WHICH IT ORIGINATES. AS YOU KNOW, GOING NORTH OF THE YALU RIVER (THE BOUNDARY BETWEEN KOREA AND MANCHURIA) IS NOT PERMISSIBLE, AND AS A CONSEQUENCE OUR STOPPING OF AIR ATTACKS CAN'T BE AIR RIGHT. HE CAN HIT ME WHERE I AM BASED, BUT I CAN'T HIT HIM."

STRATEMEYER'S COMMENTS WERE PUBLISHED ON APRIL 22. NINE DAYS EARLIER, HE HAD TOLD AN ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT IN TOKYO MUCH THE SAME THING ABOUT A RED AIR BUILDUP. HE ALSO TOLD THE AP:

"THE MILITARY SOLUTION TO SUCH AN AIR THREAT IS TO DESTROY THE ENEMY FIGHTER IN ITS NEST OR AT LEAST IN THE REAR AREAS."

PRESENT ADMINISTRATION POLICY, AS AIRED BY SECRETARY MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, IS TO RESTRICT ALLIED AIR ATTACKS TO KOREA.

LATEST DISPATCHES FROM TOKYO SAID GEN.STRATEMEYER WAS STILL SO ILL THAT THE ONLY PERSON ALLOWED TO VISIT HIM WAS GEN.MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, WHO SUCCEEDED GEN.MACARTHUR AS SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER IN THE FAR EAST.

NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON, MAY 23-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS EXPECTED TO ASK CONGRESS TOMORROW FOR ABOUT $8,500,000,000(B) TO STRENGTHEN NEARLY 50 FOREIGN COUNTRIES AGAINST WORLD COMMUNISM.

OFFICIALS SAID THE WHITE HOUSE PLANS TO SEND A MESSAGE TO THE CAPITOL SAYING THIS AMOUNT IS URGENTLY NEEDED TO SPEED UP THE FLOW OF AMERICAN ARMS AND ECONOMIC AID ABROAD.

A RECORD SUM OF $6,250,000,000 WOULD BE EARMARKED FOR GIFTS OF AMERICAN WEAPONS AND MILITARY EQUIPMENT TO 20 FOREIGN COUNTRIES IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC, MEDITERRANEAN AND FAR EASTERN AREAS.

THE BIGGEST CHUNK OF THIS WOULD GO TO CONTINUE THE LONG-RANGE TASK OF REARMING WESTERN EUROPE.

AN ADDITIONAL $1,650,000,000 WOULD BE SET ASIDE TO FINANCE ECONOMIC AID TO WESTERN EUROPE UNDER THE FOURTH AND LAST YEAR OF THE MARSHALL PLAN. MOST OF THESE FUNDS, HOWEVER, WOULD GO TO STEP UP LOCAL ARMS OUTPUT IN NINE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT COUNTRIES.

THE OVER-ALL $8,500,000,000 REQUEST HAS BEEN SHARPLY TRIMMED TO MEET THE SCRUTINY OF A CRITICAL CONGRESS.

FIVE MONTHS AGO, PRESIDENT TRUMAN ESTIMATED IN HIS BUDGET THAT IT WOULD COST NEARLY $10,000,000,000 TO ACCOMPLISH THE SAME PURPOSES. AN ADDITIONAL $1,000,000,000 WAS JUDGED TO BE NEEDED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S EXPORT-IMPORT BANK FOR LOAN AID TO FRIENDLY GOVERNMENTS.

THE FUNDS WOULD BE USED DURING THE 1952 FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1. APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, THE FOREIGN AID ARMS PROGRAM, TECHNICAL AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO EUROPE, THE MIDDLE EAST, THE FAR EAST AND LATIN AMERICA WOULD BE LUMPED INTO ONE "PACKAGE."

FOR THE FIRST TIME, CONGRESS WOULD BE ASKED TO APPROVE AN ECONOMIC AID PROGRAM FOR STRATEGIC NATIONS IN THE OIL-RICH MIDDLE EAST. A TOTAL OF $125,000,000 WOULD BE REQUESTED FOR HELP TO THE ARAB NATIONS AND ISRAEL DURING THE 12-MONTH PERIOD.

THE $6,250,000,000 REQUESTED FOR ARMS AID IS NEARLY $1,000,000,000 MORE THAN LAST YEAR'S FIGURE. OTHER REQUESTS CALL FOR:

1. "POINT FOUR" AND TECHNICAL AID TO SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST ASIA INCLUDING FORMOSA -- $375.000.000.

2. TECHNICAL AID TO 20 LATIN AMERICAN REPUBLICS -- $22,000,000.
3. ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES -- $78,000,000.

(250) NIGHT LEAD INDIA AID

WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-HOUSE REPUBLICANS OPENED A DRIVE TODAY TO WIN STRATEGIC ECONOMIC CONCESSIONS FROM INDIA IN RETURN FOR 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN.

REP.HALLECK (R-IND), A GOP LEADER, TOLD THE HOUSE HE THOUGHT MOST REPUBLICANS WOULD SUPPORT THE FOOD AID BILL IF IT OFFERED SOME HOPE OF STRENGTHENING AMERICAN SECURITY "BY BRINGING TO US MATERIALS THAT ARE VITAL TO US."

A COMPANION BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE LAST WEEK REQUIRES THE ECONOMIC ADMINISTRATION (ECA), IN WORKING OUT DETAILS OF A $190,000,000 LOAN TO INDIA TO BUY THE GRAIN, TO NEGOTIATE FOR REPAYMENT IN SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES OF MONAZITE SANDS AND MANGANESE.

THE SANDS ARE USEFUL IN ATOMIC RESEARCH, WHILE MANGANESE IS A SCARCE METAL USED IN HARDENING STEEL.

SOME MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE WANT TO AMEND THE MEASURE TO MAKE IT MANDATORY THAT THE UNITED STATES GET BADLY NEEDED RAW MATERIALS FOR ITS AID.

WITH THE DEBATE ENTERING ITS FINAL STAGE, ADMINISTRATION LEADERS EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO GET THE BILL THROUGH. PRESIDENT TRUMAN SUGGESTED ORIGINALLY THAT CONGRESS MAKE INDIA A GIFT OF THE GRAIN TO RELIEVE FAMINE CONDITIONS. SENTIMENT IN CONGRESS, HOWEVER, FAVORS A LOAN AGREEMENT.

PRIME MINISTER NEHRU HAS MADE IT CLEAR THAT HIS COUNTRY WILL NOT ACCEPT AID IF ANY POLITICAL STRINGS ARE ATTACHED TO IT. ADDITIONALLY, INDIAN LAW PROHIBITS THE EXPORT TO A FOREIGN COUNTRY OF SUCH STRATEGIC MATERIALS AS MONAZITE SANDS.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER MCCORMACK OF MASSACHUSETTS TOLD THE HOUSE THE BILL SHOULD BE PASSED "ON THE GROUNDS OF CHARITY."

"THE ISSUE IS STARVATION IN INDIA AND WHETHER WE WANT TO HELP," HE SAID.

REP.COX (D-GA), ONE OF THE BILL'S MAIN FOES, SAID "FIRST CLAIM" ON THE GRAIN SENT FROM THE UNITED STATES WOULD GO TO 180,000,000 SACRED COWS, 136,000,000 SACRED MONKEYS AND 10,000,000 SACRED BEGGARS.

COX INTERRUPTED REP.ALLEN (R-ILL), ANOTHER FOE OF THE BILL, TO ASK: "HOW MANY SOLDIERS DOES INDIA HAVE IN KOREA NOW?"

"NONE," REPLIED ALLEN.

COX HAS OFFERED AN AMENDMENT TO THE HOUSE BILL WHICH WOULD REQUIRE INDIA TO REPAY THE LOAN IN SIX YEARS AND ENTER INTO NEGOTIATIONS FOR SUPPLYING THIS COUNTRY WITH SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES OF MANGANESE, MONAZITE SANDS, RAW JUTE, INCLUDING BURLAP, AND OTHER SCARCE MINERALS.

REP.VORYS (R-OHIO) PROTESTED THAT NO SUCH CONDITIONS WERE ATTACHED TO MARSHALL PLAN AID TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES, AND THAT IF THEY WERE INCLUDED IN THE INDIA AID BILL "IT MIGHT BE CONSTRUED AS DRAWING AN INTERNATIONAL COLOR LINE AND IS NEEDLESSLY OFFENSIVE DIPLOMATICALLY."

THE ISSUE PROBABLY WILL BE VOTED ON TOMORROW.

USE OF THE SHELLS, BROOKS TOLD THE HOUSE, WOULD SHORTEN THE KOREAN WAR AND "SAVE THE LIVES OF THOUSANDS OF OUR SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND AIRMEN AND WILL RELIEVE THE STRAIN UPON OUR PEOPLE AT HOME."

BROOKS, SECOND RANKING DEMOCRAT ON THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, SAID RECENT TEST EXPLOSIONS HAVE SHOWN PROGRESS IN DEVELOPMENT OF THE SHELLS AND THE COUNTRY SHOULD TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS WEAPON.

NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS (ROUNDUP)

WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT'S COST-OF-LIVING INDEX CAME TO NEARLY A DEAD STOP IN ITS UPWARD SPIRAL TODAY FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR LAST JUNE 25.

FOOD PRICES WERE LOWER FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE FEBRUARY, 1950.

HOWEVER, THE INDEX HAD ALREADY RISEN ENOUGH SINCE JANUARY TO ASSURE 1,000,000 AUTO WORKERS A THREE-CENT HOURLY WAGE BOOST. THE INCREASE IS TIED TO RISE-AND-FALL "ESCALATOR CLAUSES" IN THE WORKERS' CONTRACTS, BASED ON THE FEDERAL COST-OF-LIVING BAROMETER.

THE LATEST INDEX IS BASED ON PRICES AS OF APRIL 15. THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS PUT OUT TWO SETS OF FIGURES--ONE AN "OLD STYLE" SET AND THE OTHER A NEW STYLE REVISED INDEX, BASED ON LATER BUYING HABITS.

THE OLD STYLE INDEX SHOWED THAT ON APRIL 15 AMERICANS WERE PAYING 184.5 PER CENT OF THE 1935-39 AVERAGE FOR THEIR NORMAL LIVING COSTS--THE SAME FIGURE AS ON MARCH 15. THAT IS THE INDEX FOLLOWED BY THE AUTO INDUSTRY'S CONTRACT.

THE NEW-STYLE INDEX EDGED UP TO 184.6 OR 0.1 PER CENT ABOVE THE MARCH 15 LEVEL.

FOOD PRICES DROPPED 0.2 PER CENT, WITH THE FOOD INDEX STANDING AT 225.7 PER CENT OF THE 1935-39 AVERAGE OR 11.1 PER CENT ABOVE LAST JUNE.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, THE INDEX BORE OUT PREDICTIONS OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS THAT PRICES ARE GRADUALLY LEVELLING OFF.

MEANWHILE, THE BATTLE OVER FEDERAL ANTI-INFLATION CONTROLS BROUGHT THESE DEVELOPMENTS:

1. SENATOR MOODY (D-MICH) SAID AFTER A WHITE HOUSE VISIT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS "GOING TO STAND FIRM" BEHIND PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE ON HIS ORDER FOR A ROLLBACK ON BEEF PRICES.

MOODY SAID MR.TRUMAN ASSURED HIM OF THAT.

2. DISALLE HIMSELF WENT ON THE GRIDDLE BEFORE A HOSTILE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE AND ROUNDLY DEFENDED HIS BEEF ORDER.

THE PRICE CHIEF SAID THE ORDER--HOTLY CHALLENGED BY WESTERN CATTLE RAISERS--WAS BASED ON COST FACTS AND WAS ISSUED TO HELP STABILIZE THE NATION'S WHOLE ECONOMY.

CHAIRMAN COOLEY (D-NC) DEMANDED THE FIGURES ON COSTS. DISALLE PROMISED TO GET THEM.

3. WILLIAM W.RUSSELL, SPEAKING FOR THE NATIONAL APARTMENT OWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC., TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT A BILL TO EXTEND FEDERAL RENT CONTROLS FOR TWO MORE YEARS WOULD GIVE "DICTATORIAL POWERS" TO LOCAL RENT DIRECTORS.

MAY 23 1951

A42WX

RUSSELL SAID FEDERAL RENT CONTROLS SHOULD BE ABOLISHED.

WILLIAM SCHMIDT, PRESIDENT OF THE PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, ALSO BLASTED THE RENT BILL. HE SAID IT WOULD WIPE OUT "WITH ONE STROKE OF THE LEGISLATIVE PEN" ALL PAST ACTIONS BY CONGRESS AIMED AT HELPING THE "MISTREATED PROPERTY OWNER."

OTHER WITNESSES HAVE URGED STRONG RENT CONTROLS TO CURB INFLATION.
PROFESSOR SEYMOUR E.HARRIS OF HARVARD, REPRESENTING AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION (ADA), TOLD THE SENATORS THAT ECONOMIC CONTROLS OVER RENTS, PRICES, WAGES AND PROFITS ARE NEEDED TO SUPPORT THE MOBILIZATION PROGRAM.
HARRIS, AN ECONOMIST, CALLED FOR "GREATER RESTRAINTS" ON THE RISE OF WORKERS', FARMERS' AND BUSINESSMEN'S INCOMES.
IN DISCUSSING HIS WHITE HOUSE VISIT, SENATOR MOODY TOLD NEWSMEN HE WAS PLEASED AT THE PRESIDENT'S "FIRM STAND" ON THE BEEF PRICE ROLLBACK.
THE SENATOR, HIMSELF A FORMER NEWSMAN, TOLD REPORTERS THAT BEEF PRICES ARE UP 52 PER CENT SINCE JANUARY, 1950, COMPARED WITH 10 PER CENT FOR WAGES AND 12 PER CENT FOR FOOD GENERALLY.

ALL THIS CAME UP AT A MEETING OF THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE. DISALLE, THE NATION'S PRICE BOSS, WAS THERE TO EXPLAIN A ROLLBACK HE HAS ORDERED ON MEAT PRICES.
MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE, CATTLE LOVERS ALL, DONT LIKE THE PRICE ROLLBACK AND SAID SO, AGAIN AND AGAIN AND AGAIN.
REP.AUGUST H.ANDRESEN (R-MINN) AT ONE POINT SAID, "NOW YOU TAKE THE MEAT YOU BUY--."
"I DON'T BUY IT GENERALLY," DISALLE SAID SADLY, "I'VE DEVELOPED AN ALLERGY TO IT LATELY."

BUT REP.HILL (R-COLO) APPARENTLY WASN'T CONVINCED.

PRICES (280)
WASHINGTON, MAY 23-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TONIGHT GAVE ABOUT 150,000 MANUFACTURERS ANOTHER 35 DAYS IN WHICH TO FILE CEILING PRICES UNDER NEW REGULATIONS OF THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION (OPS).
REPORTS WERE DUE MAY 28. ACTING UPON THE APPEALS OF BUSINESS MEN FOR MORE TIME TO MAKE THEIR COMPUTATIONS, OPS SET THE NEW DEADLINE AT JULY 2.
AFFECTED ARE ABOUT 75,000 FIRMS COVERED BY THE GENERAL MANUFACTURERS ORDER, 75,000 BY THE MACHINERY MAKERS ORDER, AND 1,200 MILLS COMING UNDER THE COTTON TEXTILE PRODUCERS ORDER. TOGETHER THEY DO A MULTI-BILLION DOLLAR BUSINESS ANNUALLY.
THE EXTENSION ORDER PROVIDES THAT MANUFACTURERS WHO HAVE ACTED TO MEET THE MAY 28 DEADLINE CAN USE THEIR NEW CEILING PRICES BEGINNING MAY 28 IF THEY WISH AND IF THEY DO NOT INVOLVE PRICE INCREASES.
IF INCREASES ARE INVOLVED, THE NEW PRICES CANNOT BE PUT INTO EFFECT UNTIL 15 DAYS AFTER THEY ARE FILED WITH THE OPS.
PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE SAID MANUFACTURERS WHO HELD THEIR PRICES DOWN FROM THE PRE-KOREAN PERIOD UNTIL THE GENERAL PRICE FREEZE IN JANUARY WOULD GENERALLY GET INCREASED PRICES UNDER THE NEW REGULATIONS.
THOSE WHO RAISED PRICES PROPORTIONATELY HIGHER THAN THEIR INCREASES IN COSTS, HE SAID, WOULD GENERALLY END UP WITH ROLL-BACKS.
DISALLE STATED THAT THE NEW DEADLINE "IS THE ONLY EXTENSION WHICH WILL BE GRANTED. WE HAVE GIVEN CONSIDERATION TO THE NEEDS OF VARIOUS MANUFACTURERS FOR MORE TIME, AND WE ARE CONVINCED THAT THEY CAN ALL MEET THE JULY 2 DATE."
THE NEW CEILING REGULATIONS PERMIT PRODUCERS TO DISCONTINUE PRICING UNDER THE GENERAL PRICE FREEZE REGULATION, WHICH SET TOP LEVELS AT THE HIGHEST PRICES CHARGED BETWEEN LAST DEC. 19 AND JAN. 25.
THE ORDERS ALLOW THE MANUFACTURERS TO COMPUTE NEW CEILINGS BASED ON PRE-KOREAN SELLING PRICES, PLUS ACTUAL INCREASES IN FACTORY LABOR AND MATERIAL COSTS BETWEEN THAT PERIOD AND CERTAIN SPECIFIED CUTOFF DATES.

NIGHT LEAD UN-AMERICAN

MAY 23 1951

BY ROGER D.GREENE
WASHINGTON,MAY 23-(AP)-NOVELIST BUDD SCHULBERG TESTIFIED TODAY HE QUIT THE COMMUNIST PARTY 12 YEARS AGO WHEN RED LEADERS IN HOLLYWOOD TRIED TO "DICTATE" TO HIM ON HIS LITERARY OUTPUT.
THE 37-YEAR-OLD AUTHOR, WHO WROTE THE BEST SELLERS "WHAT MAKES SAMMY RUN" AND "THE DISENCHANTED," TOLD THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE THAT UNDER THE COMMUNIST SYSTEM A WRITER IS REGARDED MUCH THE SAME AS A SOLDIER.
"HE IS GIVEN SOCIAL COMMANDS, AND IF HE FAILS TO CARRY THEM OUT HE IS SUBJECTED TO DISCIPLINE," SCHULBERG SAID.
THE WITNESS SAID HE GOT INTO SO MUCH HOT WATER OVER HIS DECISION TO WRITE "SAMMY" WITHOUT CONSULTING THE HOLLYWOOD COMMUNIST BOSSES THA HE WENT TO VERMONT TO COMPLETE THE NOVEL.

SCHULBERG SAID HE RETURNED TO HOLLYWOOD IN 1940 AND FOUGHT AGAINST CONTINUED EFFORTS BY WRITERS RICHARD COLLINS, JOHN HOWARD LAWSON AND V.J.JEROME WHEN THEY "TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO DRAW ME BACK INTO THE STRAIT JACKET OF THE COMMUNIST LINE MENTALITY."

COLLINS, LAWSON AND JEROME HAVE ALL BEEN DESCRIBED AS COMMUNIST PARTY FUNCTIONARIES AT THE TIME.

COLLINS HAS TESTIFIED THAT HE LEFT THE RED PARTY AFTER BEING DISILLUSIONED BY ONE OF ITS FREQUENT PARTY LINE SWITCHES. HE IDENTIFIED LAWSON AS THE REAL RULER OF THE PARTY IN THE WEST COAST MOVIE COLONY AND JEROME AS THE NATIONAL "CULTURAL COMMISSAR."

SCHULBERG SAID JEROME LECTURED HIM ABOUT WRITING "SAMMY" AND "TOLE ME MY ENTIRE ATTITUDE WAS WRONG ABOUT THE BOOK."

AMONG OTHER THINGS, HE SAID, THE PARTY CHIEFS CRITICIZED HIM FOR BEING "TOO INDIVIDUALISTIC."

"WHEN I CAME AWAY, I FELT FOR THE FIRST TIME THAT THIS WAS THE REAL FACE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY," SCHULBERG SAID. "JEROME WAS TELLING ME WHAT TO SAY AND HOW TO LIVE. I DIDN'T WANT TO HAVE ANYTHING MORE TO DO WITH IT."

SCHULBERG APPEARED AS A VOLUNTARY WITNESS IN THE HOUSE COMMITTEE'S INVESTIGATION OF RED INFLUENCES IN HOLLYWOOD. HE HAD WIRE THE COMMITTEE ASKING FOR A CHANCE TO TESTIFY AFTER COLLINS TOLD THE LAWMAKERS THAT SCHULBERG LED HIM INTO THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

SCHULBERG SAID HE DRIFTED INTO A MARX "STUDY GROUP" IN HOLLYWOOD IN 1937, AT THE AGE OF 23, AND BROKE WITH THE REDS TWO YEARS LATER.

A4WX

MAY 23 1951

"OVER THE PAST 10 YEARS, AT NO TIME HAVE I IN ANY WAY RENEWED MY ASSOCIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY," HE SAID.

SCHULBERG SAID REVIEWERS IN COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS DID COMPLETE ABOUT FACES IN WRITING ABOUT HIS HOLLYWOOD NOVEL.

HE SAID THE SAME REVIEWER, CHARLES GLENN, FIRST PRAISED "SAMMY" AS BEING "CLEAN, HEALTHY AND PROGRESSIVE," AND LATER WROTE ANOTHER REVIEW CALLING IT "FILTHY, DISEASED AND REACTIONARY."

"SOMEONE," HE COMMENTED, "MISSED THE PARTY SIGNAL."

SCHULBERG SAID HE VISITED RUSSIA IN 1934 AND AGAIN IN 1937 AND MET A GREAT MANY SOVIET WRITERS.

"THEY HAVE TO CONFORM WITH PRINCIPLES LAID DOWN BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY OR THEY ARE SILENCED OR SHOT," HE SAID. "ONLY THOSE WHO WRITE IN THE APPROVED STYLE STAYED AROUND AND MADE A LOT OF MONEY."

THE WITNESS SAID HE IS NOW ASSOCIATED WITH A GROUP OF OTHER SUCCESSFUL WRITERS KNOWN AS "FRIENDS OF INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM." THEIR GOAL, HE SAID, IS TO HELP SOVIET WRITERS GET OUT OF RUSSIA SO THEY CAN WRITE UNDER CONDITIONS OF FREEDOM.

ATOMIC TESTING

BY ELTON C.FAY

ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON, MAY 23-(AP)-HINTS OF STILL ANOTHER AND EVEN BIGGER ATOMIC EXPLOSION AT THE MID-PACIFIC NUCLEAR WEAPONS PROVING GROUNDS WERE CURRENT TODAY.

A NEWS CONFERENCE STATEMENT BY REP. JACKSON (D-WASH) MORE THAN TEN DAYS AGO SUGGESTED THAT A SERIES OF TESTS AT ENIWETOK IN THE MARSHALL ISLANDS HAD BEEN ENDED. BUT THERE WERE FRESH INDICATIONS TODAY THAT ANOTHER EXPLOSION REMAINED ON T

ANOTHER EXPLOSION REMAINED ON THS SCHEDULE AFTER JACKSON'S RETURN FROM THE PROVING GROUNDS.

FOR ONE THING, THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SO FAS HAD NOT ISSUED ITS CUSTOMARY BRIEF ANNOUNCEMENT ON THE CONCLUSION OF A SERIES OF TESTS. THE COMMISSION WAS STILL STANDING ON ITS ANNOUNCEMENT OF MORE THAN A WEEK AGO THAT "WE ARE ENGAGED IN A TEST PROGRAM". AT ENIWETOK.

THERE SEEMED REASON TO BELIEVE THAT THE FINAL SHOT OF THE CURRENT ENIWETOK EXPERIMENTS, WHENEVER MADE, WAS EXPECTED TO BE THE MOST POWERFUL SET OFF. NUCLEAR WEAPONS EXPERTS HAVE BEEN AIMING AT AN EXPLOSION ABOUT TEN TIMES THE MAGNITUDE OF THE ORIGINAL "MODEL T" BOMBS USED AT HIROSHIMA AND NAGASAKI IN WORLD WAR II.

THIS HAS LED TO SPECULATION THAT THERE HAS BEEN DEVELOPED A NEW TYPE OF BOMB CORE AND OF THE SYSTEM OF "LENSES" WHICH SURROUND IT AND CONTAIN THE NUCLEAR REACTION UNTIL A HIGH ORDER OF EXPLOSIVE FORCE IS BUILT UP. IN THIS WAY, THE EFFICIENCY OF THE BOMB COULD BE STEPPED UP WITHOUT A SUBSTANTIAL CHANGE IN SHAPE OR WEIGHT.

THE NEXT ATOMIC TEST SERIES IS LOOKED FOR, PERHAPS EARLY NEXT FALL, IN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS. THERE THE WEAPONEERS HOPE TO FIND WHAT HAPPENS WHEN AN ATOMIC BLAST IS SET OFF UNDERGROUND.

IN THAT TEST, THE BOMB MAKERS AND THE MILITARY WILL SEEK SOME ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS LIKE THESE:

HOW MUCH DESTRUCTION CAN BE PRODUCED AGAINST AN UNDERGROUND INSTALLATION SUCH AS A MILITARY COMMAND POST OF A SUBTERRANEAN FACTORY?

HOW FAR OUT WILL THE DAMAGING EFFECTS OF A MAN-MADE EARTHQUAKE REACH?

HOW POISONED BY RADIOACTIVITY WILL BE THE DEBRIS AND EARTH TOSSED UP BY THE EXPLOSION? HOW DEEP INTO THE GROUND WOULD AN ATOMIC BOMB OR GUIDED MISSILE WITH AN ATOMIC WARHEAD HAVE TO BE SENT TO BRING GOOD RESULTS?

ANOTHER QUESTION WHICH MAY BE POSED--ALTHOUGH NOT INTENTIONALLY--IS:

HOW WILL RUSSIA REACT TO AN ATOMIC EXPLOSION EXPERIMENT RUN OFF SO CLOSE TO HER SIBERIAN FRONTIER?

WHEN THE ATOMIC TESTING GROUND AT FRENCHMAN'S FLATS IN NEVADA MAY BE USED AGAIN IS NOT CLEAR. A SERIES OF FIVE EXPLOSIONS WERE MADE THERE EARLY THIS YEAR. THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HAS RETAINED ITS USE OF THE AREA, TRANSFERRED FROM THE AIR FORCE, APPARENTLY FOR FUTURE EXPERMENTS.

HE RETURNED MONDAY FROM A WEEK'S VISIT TO EUROPE AS A CONGRESSIONAL ADVISOR TO THE WORLD HEALTH CONFERENCE IN GENEVA, SWITZERLAND.
THE CALIFORNIAN SPENT FOUR DAYS IN GENEVA AND TWO DAYS IN PARIS TALKING TO AMERICAN OFFICIALS ADMINISTERING UNITED STATES PROGRAMS OF MILITARY AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IN EUROPE.
IN TALKS WITH THE OFFICIALS, INCLUDING GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, NIXON SAID HE FOUND THAT "DURING THE PAST SIX MONTHS THERE HAS BEEN A GENERAL STIFFENING OF THE WILL TO RESIST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN EUROPE."
JUST HOW MUCH PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE IN REDUCING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF COMMUNIST ELEMENTS WILL BE INDICATED IN THE FORTHCOMING FRENCH AND ITALIAN ELECTIONS, HE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW.
"OUR OWN PEOPLE ARE CAUTIOUSLY CONFIDENT, HE SAID, "THAT THE ELECTION RESULTS WILL SHOW COMMUNIST STRENGTH DIMINISHED TO A CONSIDERABLE EXTENT."

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, VA., MAY 23-(AP)-LT.GEN.OTTO P.WEYLAND, NEWLY-APPOINTED COMMANDER OF THE FAR EASTERN AIR FORCES, SAID TONIGHT HE HAS "NO CONCERN ABOUT OUR ABILITY TO KEEP THE SITUATION UNDER CONTROL" IN KOREA.
"I AM CONFIDENT," HE SAID, "THAT WITH THE CONTINUED TEAMWORK OF THE AIR FORCES, THE ARMY AND THE NAVY, THAT IT CAN BE KEPT WELL WITHIN BOUNDS AND THAT THE MILITARY FORCES WILL BE WELL ABLE TO CARRY OUT THE OBJECTIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN THAT AREA."
GEN.WEYLAND, 49 AND A NATIVE OF RIVERSIDE, CALIF., SAID HE ASSUMED HE WAS NAMED TO THE POST BECAUSE HE IS FAMILIAR WITH THE SITUATION "OVER THERE." HE CAME HERE FROM THE FAR EAST ONLY LAST MONTH TO BECOME DEPUTY COMMANDER OF THE TACTICAL AIR COMMAND UNDER LT.GEN. JOHN K.CANNON.
GEN.WEYLAND IS AN EXPERT IN TACTICAL SUPPORT OF GROUND FORCES. DURING WORLD WAR II, HE HEADED THE 19TH TACTICAL AIR COMMAND AND WAS COMMANDER OF THE 84TH FIGHTER WING IN EUROPE.
AFTER HIS RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES IN 1945, WEYLAND WAS ASSISTANT COMMANDANT OF THE COMMAND AND GENERAL STAFF SCHOOL, FORT LEAVENWORTH, KAN. HE BECAME ASSISTANT CHIEF OF AIR STAFF FOR PLANS IN JUNE, 1946, AND AFTER REORGANIZATION OF THE AIR FORCE IN 1947, HE BECAME DIRECTOR OF PLANS AND OPERATIONS IN THE OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF FOR OPERATIONS AT AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS. HE WAS APPOINTED DEPUTY COMMANDER OF THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, IN 1948. HE ASSUMED COMMAND OF THE TACTICAL AIR COMMAND IN JULY, 1950, AND SHORTLY THEREAFTER WAS TRANSFERRED TO THE FAR EAST.

DENVER, MAY 23-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN CONTENDED TODAY THAT THE NATION'S FOREIGN POLICY OFFERS THE BEST HOPE OF AVOIDING WAR IN THE WORLD.
"IF WE TRY TO FIND SECURITY BY GOING IT ALONE IN THE WORLD OR BY WITHDRAWING AND ISOLATING OURSELVES FROM THE REST OF THE WORLD, WE WOULD BE HEADED TOWARD DISASTER," HE SAID IN A LETTER TO WILLIAM M.BOYLE, NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN.
"WE MIGHT VERY WELL BRING ABOUT THE WORLD CONFLICT WE ARE TRYING TO PREVENT."
BOYLE ARRANGED TO READ THE LETTER TO THE OPENING SESSION OF THE WESTERN AND MID-WESTERN REGIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCES THIS MORNING. THE CONFERENCES CONTINUE THROUGH TOMORROW AND WILL BE FOLLOWED FRIDAY BY A MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE.
"IN SPITE OF THE CONFUSORS, IN SPITE OF THE MEN OF LITTLE FAITH, OUR COUNTRY HAS NEVER BEEN ENGAGED IN A MORE IMPORTANT STRUGGLE THAN THE PRESENT CONFLICT IN KOREA," THE PRESIDENT SAID IN HIS LETTER.
MR.TRUMAN SAID THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY "HAS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF HELPING TO GUIDE THIS GREAT NATION THROUGH ONE OF THE MOST DANGEROUS CRISES IN HISTORY," BUT HE INSISTED FOREIGN POLICY "IS NOT A POLITICAL MATTER. IT IS A MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH FOR OUR COUNTRY AND OUR WAY OF LIFE."
THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER DID NOT REFER SPECIFICALLY EITHER TO CRITICISMS OF ADMINISTRATION POLICY BY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR OR OF REPUBLICAN OBJECTIONS TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON.
A TALK ON FOREIGN RELATIONS IS SLATED FOR A LUNCHEON TOMORROW BY W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, SPECIAL PRESIDENTIAL ASSISTANT.

BY ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN

(ADVANCE)-CHICAGO, MAY 23-(AP)-AN ATOMIC SCIENTIST CONTENDED TODAY THAT AMERICAN POLITICAL AND MILITARY LEADERS UNKNOWINGLY MAY HAVE GIVEN RUSSIA'S ATOMIC STRENGTH A BIGGER BOOST THAN DID THE SPIES WHO GAVE OUT A-BOMB SECRETS.

DR.EUGENE RABINOWITCH, EDITOR OF THE BULLETIN OF THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS, SAID SPYING MAY HAVE HADVANCED THE SOVIET ATOMIC WEAPONS PROGRAM BY AT LEAST 18 MONTHS. THAT WAS THE STIMATE GIVEN BY A CONGRESSIONAL JOINT COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY.

SCIENTISTS, SAID SPYING MAY HAVE ADVANCED THE SOVIET ATOMIC WEAPONS PROGRAM BY AT LEAST 18 MONTHS. THAT WAS THE ESTIMATE GIVEN BY A CONGRESSIONAL JOINT COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY.

BUT THE BIGGEST FACTOR IN THE A-BOMB RACE, HE SAID, MIGHT WELL BE WHETHER URANIUM SUPPLIES AVAILABLE TO RUSSIA ARE EQUAL TO THOSE AVAILABLE TO THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA. HE ADDED:

"FROM THIS POINT OF VIEW, THE MOST FATEFUL STEP WHICH HAS PERMITTED THE SOVIET UNION TO ACHIEVE ITS PRESENT ATOMIC STRENGTH WAS NOT THE BETRAYAL OF OUR SECRETS X X X BUT THE DECISION OF AMERICAN POLITICAL AND MILITARY LEADERS IN 1945 TO GIVE TO THE SOVIET UNION CONTROL OVER THE PARTS OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND GERMANY IN WHICH IMPORTANT URANIUM ORE DEPOSITS WERE KNOWN TO EXIST.

"THESE REGIONS HAD BEEN REACHED BY AMERICAN TROOPS FIRST AND ABANDONED TO THE SOVIET UNION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE DEMARCATION AGREEMENT.

"PERHAPS IF THE ATOMIC BOMB DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES HAD NOT BEEN SURROUNDED BY SUCH EXTREME SECRECY, THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DRAWING OF THE DEMARCATION LINE WOULD HAVE KNOWN BETTER WHAT THEY WERE GIVING AWAY--OR AT LEAST WOULD HAVE BEEN EXPOSED TO THE ADVICE OF THOSE WHO KNEW."

HE SAID THAT LOOKING BACKWARDS, "IT SEEMS DOUBTFUL WHETHER AMERICA HAS GAINED ANYTHING AT ALL FROM THE IMMENSE EFFORT AND EXPENSE IT HAD INVESTED IN KEEPING THE ENTIRE WARTIME ATOMIC BOMB DEVELOPMENT SECRET."

IF INSTEAD, HE ADDED, STRICT SECRECY HAD BEEN LIMITED TO THE MECHANISM FOR EXPLODING THE BOMB, POSSIBLY NO SPIES WOULD HAVE SLIPPED THROUGH THE SECURITY PRECAUTIONS. HE SAID THE EXPLODING MECHANISM WAS "THE SUPPOSEDLY MOST IMPORTANT SECRET."

AS THINGS ARE NOW, HE SAID, THE FBI IS "OVERBURDENED WITH INVESTIGATION OF INNUMERABLE PEOPLE, MOST OF WHOM WILL NEVER HAVE ACCESS TO ANY CLASSIFIED INFORMATION NOT TO MENTION INFORMATION WHICH IS REALLY WORTH KEEPING SECRET--AND HAS ASKED TO BE RELIEVED OF IT IN ORDER TO BE ABLE TO CONCENTRATE ON GUARDING THE REALLY IMPORTANT AREAS."

RABINOWITCH SAID THE BOTTLENECKS AMERICA FACED IN TURNING OUT A-BOMBS WERE NOT IN SOLVING TECHNICAL PROBLEMS OR ESTABLISHING BASIC FACTS BUT IN ACTUAL CONSTRUCTION OF LARGE PRODUCTION PLANTS.

"THERE IS NO REASON TO ASSUME THAT THE SAME WAS NOT TRUE OF THE SOVIET PROGRESS AS WELL," HE SAID IN AN ARTICLE IN THE BULLETIN.

OCHICAGO, MAY 23-(AP)-NELSON ROCKEFELLER SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS "NOT SELF-SUFFICIENT WITHIN OUR OWN BORDERS TO MAINTAIN OUR STANDARD OF LIVING OR TO MAKE THE WEAPONS OF WAR."

ROCKEFELLER, CHAIRMAN OF THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY BOARD, THE IMPLEMENTING ORGANIZATION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR PROGRAM, ADDRESSED A JOINT MEETING OF THE CHICAGO ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY AND THE EXPORT MANAGERS CLUB OF CHICAGO.

"TODAY," HE STATED, "WITH ONE-SIXTH OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION, AND ONE-SEVENTH OF THE LAND OF THE WORLD, WE PRODUCE 50 PER CENT OF THE WORLD'S MANUFACTURED GOODS BUT ONLY ABOUT 33 1/3 PER CENT OF THE WORLD'S RAW MATERIALS.

"RIGHT THERE IS WHERE OUR DEPENDENCY ON THE REST OF THE WORLD STARTS. WE HAVE TO IMPORT TO MAINTAIN OUR PRESENT MANUFACTURING CAPACITY, LET ALONE INCREASE IT."

ROCKEFELLER SAID 73 PER CENT OF THE UNITED STATES' IMPORTS OF RAW MATERIALS COME FROM THE UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS. PRODUCTION IN THESE AREAS IS NOT INCREASING, HE STATED, WHILE THE U.S. HOPES TO INCREASE ITS OWN PRODUCTIVITY BY 20 PER CENT BY 1953.

ROCKEFELLER SAID "INCENTIVES IS THE ROUTE" BY WHICH THE FLOW OF PRIVATE CAPITAL FROM THE U.S. TO OTHER COUNTRIES CAN BE STIMULATED.

"THE ONLY SUBSTANTIAL INCENTIVE WOULD BE THE REMOVAL OF THE U.S. TAX ON EARNINGS FROM ABROAD," HE SAID.

HE SAID THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY BOARD HAD RECOMMENDED TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN THAT SUCH A TAX MOVE BE MADE; THAT AN INTERNATIONAL FINANCE CORPORATION BE FORMED TO HELP MOBILIZE LOCAL SAVINGS IN UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS; THAT U.S. AGENCIES DEALING WITH FOREIGN ECONOMIC AFFAIRS BE CONSOLIDATED INTO ONE CENTRALIZED AGENVY, AND THAT INTERNATIONAL FINANCE OF PUBLIC WORKS IN BACKWARD AREAS BE CONSIDERED.

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 23-(AP)-THE RIFLE AND THE BAYONET ARE STILL THE MOST IMPORTANT WEAPONS ANY ARMY HAS, BRIG. GEN. LEWIS B. (CHESTY) PULLER, ASSISTANT COMMANDER OF THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION, DECLARED HERE TODAY ON HIS RETURN FROM KOREA.

PULLER GAVE HIS OPINION OF THE EFFECTIVENESS OF FIGHTING WEAPONS AT A PRESS CONFERENCE BEFORE EMPLANING FOR WASHINGTON, D. C. AFTER LEAVE, PULLER IS TO ASSUME COMMAND OF THE THIRD MARINE BRIGADE, NOW TRAINING AT CAMP PENDLETON.

HIS IDEAS OF TRAINING INDICATE A TOUGH TIME AHEAD FOR THE BRIGADE, AND A TOUGH OUTFIT WHEN THEY HAVE SATISFIED THEIR GENERAL.

TARGET PRACTICE AND PHYSICAL TRAINING ARE PULLER'S FETISHES.

"A MARINE MUST BE QUALIFIED TO HIT THE BULLSEYE WITH WHATEVER WEAPON HE IS ARMED," THE GENERAL DECLARED. "HE MUST BE ABLE TO MAKE A FORCED MARCH OF 20 MILES, THE LAST FIVE AT DOUBLE TIME, AND ARRIVE ON A JUMP-OFF LINE IN SUCH PHYSICAL CONDITION THAT HE CAN GO INTO BATTLE IMMEDIATELY."

HE OFFERED THE IDEA, THAT INSOFAR AS EFFECTIVENESS IS CONCERNED, THE "IDEA OF PUSH-BUTTON WAR MIGHT AS WELL HAVE BEEN PROPOSED IN THE DAYS OF JULIUS CAESAR."

"THE BULLDOZER WAS THE SECRET WEAPON OF WORLD WAR II," HE SAID, "BUT THE TENT STOVE HAS BEEN THE SECRET WEAPON OF THE KOREAN WAR, AND IT WASN'T DEVELOPED BY A SCIENTIST, BUT A BLACKSMITH."

ASKED WHAT HE THOUGHT OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES, PULLER SAID:

"THE THREE-YEAR RETREAT OF THE COMMUNIST ARMY FROM THE EAST COAST SOUTH OF SHANGHAI TO THE NORTHWEST, DURING WHICH MORE THAN 100 BATTLES WERE FOUGHT, WAS ONE OF THE "GREAT MILITARY OPERATIONS" IN HISTORY.

"IT IS NOT FOR US AMERICAN OFFICERS TO UNDERESTIMATE ANY ASIATIC ARMY AND ITS GENERALS," HE DECLARED.

BUT IN A PITCHED BATTLE, THE GENERAL OBSERVER, THE CHINESE NOW ARE "GOOD FOR ABOUT THREE DAYS," BECAUSE THE INFANTRYMAN CARRIES ALL THE ARTILLERY SHELLS TO THE FRONT ON HIS BACK AND THREE DAYS SUPPLY IS ABOUT THE LIMIT WHICH CAN BE BROUGHT UP AT ONE TIME. THEN THE AMERICANS CAN KNOCK THEM OUT BEFORE MORE MEN AND MUNITIONS CAN ARRIVE.

PULLER, WHO PROUDLY NOTED THAT THE MARINES NEVER PULLED BACK WITHOUT ORDERS, COMPLIMENTED THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND TURKISH TROOPS OF THE ALLIES AS BEING THE "BEST I SAW."

"THE TURKS," HE SAID, "WERE JUST AS GOOD AS THE MARINES."

PULLER WENT IN WITH THE FIRST MARINES AT THE INCHON LANDING LAST SEPT. 15 AND WAS WITH THEM AT SEOUL, WONSAN LANDING AND CHOSIN RESERVOIR. HE HAS BEEN AWARDED FOUR NAVY CROSSES DURING HIS CAREER OF 33 YEARS WITH THE CORPS. HE LEFT KOREA UNDER THE MARINE CORPS ROTATION PLAN MAY 20 AND WILL REPORT TO CAMP PENDLETON IN ABOUT 30 DAYS.

ARDEN, N.Y., MAY 23-(AP)-THE OLD SYSTEM OF SECRET DIPLOMACY, SAYS FORMER AMBASSADOR LEWIS W.DOUGLAS, IS A "LOST ART" THAT THE WORLD MIGHT TRY TO REVIVE.

TOO MUCH PUBLICITY, ADDS DR.GRAYSON KIRK, VICE-PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, HAS "HELPED HAMSTRING THE UNITED NATIONS."

THESE REMARKS WERE ATTRIBUTED TO THE TWO MEN BY DEAN PHILIP YOUNG, OF COLUMBIA'S GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS. YOUNG TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE LAST NIGHT THAT DOUGLAS AND KIRK SPOKE AT A CLOSED PLENARY SESSION OF THE AMERICAN ASSEMBLY.

COLUMBIA IS SPONSORING THE ASSEMBLY WITH THE AIM OF TRYING TO CLARIFY NATIONAL THINKING ON VITAL ISSUES.

YOUNG SAID DOUGLAS DID NOT RECOMMEND SECRET PACTS BETWEEN NATIONS, BUT ONLY THAT NEGOTIATIONS TOWARDS AGREEMENTS BE CARRIED ON "PRIVATELY." THE DELIBERATIONS WOULD BECOME PUBLIC, SAID YOUNG, IN THE FINAL STAGES. DOUGLAS IS FORMER U.S. ENVOY TO BRITAIN.

KIRK WAS QUOTED BY YOUNG AS SAYING IMPROVED COMMUNICATIONS HAVE HELPED CHANGE THE RELATIONS BETWEEN NATIONS.

YOUNG REPORTED KIRK AS ALSO WARNING THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST CONSCDER WHETHER IT CAN AFFORD TO CONTINUE ITS POLICY-MAKING IN THE OPEN VIEW OF THE SOVIET UNION.

KIRK WAS QUOTED AS SAYING:

"IT'S MUCH HARDER TO MAKE DECISIONS IN THE MILITARY FIELD, FOR EXAMPLE, IF YOU FEEL THAT YOUR INNERMOST THOUGHTS ARE GOING TO BE MADE PUBLIC WITHIN A VERY SHORT TIME WITH A PARTISAN OR AT LEAST A SEARCHING SCRUTINY.

"THIS IS POLICY-MAKING UNDER ENORMOUS HANDICAPS AND THIS HAS COME ABOUT IN THIS COUNTRY BECAUSE OF THE REVOLUTION IN THE MEANS OF COMMUNICATIONS X X X."

YOUNG SAID KIRK THOUGHT AMERICANS MIGHT RE-EXAMINE "THE LIMITS, IF ANY, WHICH WE SHOULD SEEK TO IMPOSE UPON OURSELVES" IN POLICY MAKING.

THE AMERICAN ASSEMBLY, A GROUP OF PRIVATE CITIZENS, WILL CONTINUE TO MEET IN CLOSED SESSIONS UNTIL THE FINAL MEETING FRIDAY. THAT SESSION, LIKE MONDAY'S OPENING, WILL BE OPEN TO THE PRESS.

ARDEN, N.Y., MAY 23-(AP)-COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY CLAMPED ADDED SECRECY ON ITS FIRST AMERICAN ASSEMBLY TODAY AMID A DISAGREEMENT OVER HOW AMERICA SHOULD AID WESTERN EUROPE.

THE ASSEMBLY OF ABOUT 80 NATIONAL LEADERS OPENED MONDAY AND THE PRESS WAS ADMITTED.

HOWEVER, CLOSED-DOOR SESSIONS WERE HELD YESTERDAY AND TODAY AND A COLUMBIA SPOKESMAN SUMMARIZED PROGRESS FOR NEWSMEN. TOMORROW'S SESSIONS ALSO WILL BE SECRET AND NO PUBLIC REPORT WILL BE ISSUED.

THE ASSEMBLY UNDER SPONSORSHIP OF COLUMBIA, IS MEETING TO TRY TO CLARIFY IMPORTANT NATIONAL AND WORLD ISSUES FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

DEAN PHILIP YOUNG OF COLUMBIA, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE ASSEMBLY, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE OF THE PROBLEM OF AID TO EUROPE:

"INITIAL DISCUSSIONS REVEALED AREAS OF AGREEMENT AS WELL AS AREAS OF SHARP DISAGREEMENT WHICH ARE IN THE PROGRESS OF BEING THRESHED OUT."

HE DID NOT DETAIL THE SO-CALLED AREAS OF DISAGREEMENT.

HOWEVER, HE ADDED:

"THERE WAS ALMOST COMPLETE AGREEMENT THAT THE QUESTION WAS NOT WHETHER WE SHOULD HELP WESTERN EUROPE TO RESIST SOVIET AGGRESSION BUT WHERE AND HOW AND WHEN." X X X

"MANY PARTICIPANTS," YOUNG CONTINUED, "DECLARED THE TERM 'IMPERIALISM' TO BE THE MOST ACCURATE DESCRIPTION OF WHAT THE SOVIETS WERE UP TO GLOBALLY; THAT THIS SOVIET IMPERIALISM WAS MORE DANGEROUS THAN ANY IMPERIALISM OF THE PAST BECAUSE IT WAS REINFORCED WITH NEW MILITARY STRENGTHS AND TECHNIQUES, EMPLOYED NEW IDEOLOGICAL WEAPONS AND HAD ENORMOUS NEW MEANS OF MASS COMMUNICATIONS.

"NO PREVIOUS IMPERIALISM IN HISTORY HAS HAD SUCH EFFECTIVE WEAPONS."

YOUNG SAID A FEELING WAS EXPRESSED WITHIN THE ASSEMBLY THAT U. S. STRENGTH IN EUROPE SHOULD BE BUILT UP AS FAST AS POSSIBLE--EVEN THOUGH SUCH A SPEEDUP MIGHT REQUIRE "DRASTIC CHANGES IN AMERICAN ECONOMIC POLICY." X X X

YOUNG SAID NO PUBLIC REPORT WILL BE MADE ON TOMORROW'S SESSIONS "BECAUSE OF THE CONSTANTLY INCREASING TEMPO OF THE MEETINGS."

AFTER FRIDAY'S FINAL SESSIONS, YOUNG STATED HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK-LONG MEETINGS WILL BE MADE PUBLIC.

MAY 23 1951

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 23-(AP)-STRONGER MILITARY MEASURES AGAINST RED CHINA PLUS DIPLOMATIC SANCTIONS WERE REPORTED TODAY UNDER ACTIVE CONSIDERATION BY THE AMERICAN DELEGATION IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

BRITISH SOURCES MADE IT CLEAR LONDON WOULD OPPOSE SUCH STEPS VIGOROUSLY IF THE AMERICANS EVENTUALLY DECIDE TO ADVANCE THEM AS CONCRETE PROPOSALS FOR THE U.N. SANCTIONS COMMITTEE NEXT WEEK.

THE BRITISH FEEL THAT ECONOMIC SANCTIONS, APPROVED LAST FRIDAY BY THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY, ARE ENOUGH FOR THE PRESENT STAGE.

THE AMERICAN DELEGATION SO FAR HAS NOT RECEIVED THE APPROVAL OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR ANY IDEAS ON THE NEXT STEPS. BUT THE FOLLOWING POSSIBILITIES ARE EVIDENT:

1. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY COULD BE ASKED TO ISSUE A NEW APPEAL TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE U.N. TO CONTRIBUTE MORE TROOPS TO THE WAR IN KOREA.

2. U.N. MEMBERS COULD BE ASKED ALSO TO CHIP IN MORE SHIPS AND PLANES TO HELP REPEL THE AGGRESSION OF THE COMMUNISTS IN KOREA.

3. THE 17 U.N. MEMBERS WHICH SO FAR HAVE RECOGNIZED RED CHINA COULD BE ASKED TO BREAK OFF RECOGNITION, OR AT LEAST CUT DOWN THE DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATION TO A FEW MINOR OFFICIALS.

AMERICANS IN THE U.N. MAKE NO SECRET OF THE FACT THEY WOULD LIKE FOR OTHER NATIONS TO ASSIGN MORE SOLDIERS TO KOREA. THEY ARE NOT PRESSING HARD ON THIS POINT, BUT IT STILL IS A LIVE SUBJECT.

THE AMERICANS AND OTHERS WELCOMED THE NEWS THAT COLOMBIA IS SENDING A BATTALION OF 1,180 TROOPS. THIS IS THE FIRST MILITARY CONTINGENT TO GO FROM ANY LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRY TO THE KOREAN THEATER.

SOVIET BLOC OF FIVE COUNTRIES WILL NOT AID THE U.N. CAUSE AND SEVERAL OF THE ASIAN AND ARAB COUNTRIES ALSO ARE NOT EXPECTED TO SEND TROOPS. HOWEVER, INDIA HAS A MEDICAL UNIT IN THE KOREAN ZONE.

COMMUNIST CHINA REACTED STRONGLY TODAY AGAINST THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO. A SOVIET NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH FROM PEIPING CALLED THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO ILLEGAL, SLANDEROUS AND A "VIOLATION OF THE U.N. CHARTER." PEIPING

30.24- 23367

WARNED THAT U.N. MEMBERS WOULD BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CONSEQUENCES.

U.N. CIRCLES NOTED WITH INTEREST THAT PEIPING'S REACTION WAS STATED IN EXACTLY THE SAME WORDS SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JACOB A. MALIK USED LAST WEEK IN SPEAKING HERE AGAINST THE EMBARGO.

U.N. SOURCES STILL TALKED OF PEACE MOVES TODAY, BUT NO ACTUAL DEVELOPMENTS WERE REPORTED.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 23-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS WAS REPORTED TODAY STUDYING THE POSSIBILITY OF CALLING FOR DIPLOMATIC AND MORE MILITARY SANCTIONS AGAINST RED CHINA. THESE ARE CERTAIN TO BE OPPOSED AT THIS STAGE BY BRITAIN AND SOME OTHER U.N. MEMBERS.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED BY AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES AS PEIPING INFORMED THE WORLD OF ITS DISPLEASURE OVER THE ECONOMIC EMBARGO APPROVED LAST WEEK BY THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THERE IS A POSSIBILITY THAT THE U.N. SANCTIONS COMMITTEE WILL MEET NEXT WEEK TO HEAR AMERICAN PROPOSALS FOR NEW STEPS.

THESE POINTS COULD INCLUDE A PROPOSAL FOR AN APPEAL BY THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR MORE U.N. TROOPS FOR THE KOREAN WAR, OR POSSIBLY A CALL FOR A DIPLOMATIC BAN ON RED CHINA. ONLY 17 U.N. MEMBERS HAVE RECOGNIZED PEIPING, INCLUDING BRITAIN, AND DIPLOMATIC SANCTIONS WOULD MEAN THAT THE U.N. WOULD ASK THESE COUNTRIES TO CUT DIPLOMATIC TIES.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (120)

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO FRIDAY MAY 25-(AP)-THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY OPENED UP AN "ALL-OUT" OFFENSIVE IN KOREA TODAY. IT LUNGED NEARLY FOUR MILES BEYOND THE 38TH PARALLEL IN THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR IN PURSUIT OF BEATEN AND RETREATING REDS.

"THE EIGHTH ARMY IS IN AN ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE," SAID ITS COMMANDER, LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET.

YESTERDAY HE HAD CALLED THE PURSUIT ALONG A 125-MILE WAR FRONT A "COUNTER-OFFENSIVE."

VAN FLEET SAID CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN REDS WERE STRIVING TO ESCAPE ADVANCING ALLIES WHO "WOULD NOT BE LIMITED BY SUCH BARRIERS AS THE 38TH PARALLE IN CHASING THEM DOWN."

MORE ALLIED TANKS AND TROOPS CROSSED 38 IN THE EAST-CENTRAL AREA, BLOCKING A HIGHWAY OF RETREAT FOR THE REDS.

THE ALLIED REINFORCEMENTS INCREASED THE THREAT OF SPLITTING WITHDRAWING CHINESE RED ARMIES.

AN ALLIED TANK FORCE MADE A DARING THRUST YESTERDAY 13 MILES NORTH FROM HANGYE TO THE SOUTH BANK OF THE CHOYANG RIVER NEAR INJE. INJE IS FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AND 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ADVANCE ALLIED UNITS CROSSED THE CHOYANG AND ESTABLISHED A BRIDGEHEAD ON THE NORTH BANK.

MAY 25 1951

TODAY MORE ALLIED TROOPS RACED NORTH TO BLOCK THE HANGYE-INJE HIGHWAY FOR RED FORCES STILL SOUTH OF 38 IN THE EAST-CENTRAL AREA. THAT FORCED THE REDS TO RESORT TO TRAILS AND PATHS.

THE REDS WERE STILL RETREATING ALL ACROSS THE 125-MILE WAR FRONT BUT THEY SOWED HEAVY MINE FIELDS AND POUNDED BACK AT THE PURSUING ALLIES WITH ARTILLERY.

A U.S. EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID OTHER CROSSINGS OF THE 38TH PARALLEL SEEMED IMMINENT BUT SO FAR THE ONLY ONE WAS NEAR INJE.

THE GENERAL ALLIED COUNTEROFFENSIVE MET SCATTERED RESISTANCE NORTH AND NORTHEAST OF SEOUL IN THE WEST. BUT THE REDS OFFERED STIFF DELAYING ACTIONS IN THE CENTRAL AND EAST-CENTRAL SECTORS.

IN SOME INSTANCES THE REDS PUSHED THE ALLIES BACK FROM HIGH GROUND IN THE EAST. LAST NIGHT, THE COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE U.S. SEVENTH DIVISION, MAJ.GEN.CLAUDE B.FERENBAUGH, WAS PINNED DOWN BY A CHINESE RED AMBUSH FOR FOUR HOURS IN THE CENTRAL SECTOR BUT REACHED SAFETY.

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCED THAT ALLIED TANK FORCES RETURNED TO CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, TODAY AND OCCUPIED THE HIGHWAY HUB. THEY HAD FIRST ENTERED IT YESTERDAY.

THE DARING 13-MILE THRUST SMASHED TO THE BANKS OF THE CHOYANG RIVE THROUGH STREAMS OF REDS. FIELD DISPATCHES PROMPTLY LABELED IT ONE OF THE BOLDEST STROKES OF THE KOREAN WAR.

"WE EXPECT GREAT THINGS OF THIS EFFORT," MESSAGED LT.GEN.EDWARD M. ALMOND, U.S.10TH CORPS COMMANDER, WHO ORDERED THE SWIFT ATTACK.

THIS WAS THE ONLY CONFIRMED CROSSING OF THE 38TH PARALLEL ALONG THI ENTIRE 125-MILE FRONT. BUT THE RESURGENT U.S.EIGHTH ARMY CLOSED TO WITHIN ONE TO FOUR MILES OF THE OLD POLITICAL BOUNDARY ELSEWHERE ALONG THE FRONT AS THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS FELL BACK NORTH AT A DOG TROT PACE.

LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET, COMMANDER OF THE EIGHTH ARMY, SERVED NOTICE THAT THE CONTROVERSIAL BOUNDARY WOULD NOT PREVENT HIS VICTORIOUS TROOPS FROM MAINTAINING THE INITIATIVE AND INFLICTING THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF CASUALTIES ON THE COMMUNISTS.

THE REDS WITHDREW RAPIDLY WITH U.N.FORCES IN HOT PURSUIT.

ONE FRONTLINE OFFICER TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER IT WAS APPARENT THE CHINESE HAD ABANDONED THE OFFENSIVE AND WERE RAPIDLY WITHDRAWING THE MAIN BODY OF THEIR FORCES ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. HOWEVER HE CAUTIONED THE REDS WERE REINFORCING THEIR DEFENSE SCREEN--REAR GUARDS--ALL ALONG THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

MORE POWERFUL SCREENING FORCES WERE BEING RUSHED SOUTH BY THE REDS TOGETHER WITH SUPPLIES, TO KEEP THE ALLIES FROM CUTTING THE MAIN COMMUNIST WITHDRAWAL ROUTE.

THIS REPORT TALLIED WITH AIR OBSERVATIONS OF RED VEHICLES MOVING BY NIGHT FROM CHORWON TO HWACHON ACROSS THE CENTRAL FRONT AND WELL ABOVE THE 38TH PARALLEL. OTHER RED VEHICLES WERE AGAIN STREAMING SOUTHWARD FROM THE MANCHURIAN BORDER INTO NORTHWEST KOREA.

WHILE THE POWERFUL ARMADA OF TANKS AND VEHICLES CARRIED UNITED NATIONS TROOPS INTO RED KOREA FOR THE THIRD TIME IN THE WAR, ALLIED UNITS PUSHED BACK INTO CHUNCHON. IT WAS THE SEVENTH TIME THAT BATTERED ROAD CENTER CHANGED HANDS.

COMMUNIST POCKETS STILL RESISTED SOUTH OF STRATEGIC CHUNCHON WHICH IS ONLY EIGHT MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL AND 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

UNITS ENTERING CHUNCHON REPORTED CAPTURING "MORE ENEMY THAN WE COULD HANDLE." THE NUMBER OF PRISONERS WAS DELETED BY CENSORS.

OTHER ALLIED FORCES QUICKLY ADVANCED NORTH OF CHUNCHON AND CROSSED THE CHOYANG RIVER ABOVE THE CITY. THEY PROBED NORTHWARD WITHOUT CONTACT.

MAY 25 1951

THIS WAS NOT TO BE CONFUSED WITH THE ALLIED DRIVE TO THE SOUTH BANKS OF THE CHOYANG FARTHER EAST. CENSORSHIP DID NOT PERMIT LOCATING THIS LATTER PUSH.

WEST OF CHUNCHON U.S.SPEARHEADS SMASHED TO WITHIN FIVE MILES OF 38 NORTH OF UIJONGBU IN KOREA'S TRADITIONAL INVASION CORRIDOR. UIJONGBU IS 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.

FRONTLINE OFFICERS TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH THAT NO ALLIED TROOPS YET HAVE CROSSED THE 38TH PARALLEL ON THE FAR WESTERN FRONT, NORTHWEST OF SEOUL.

BUT SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS THERE PATROLED ON THE SOUTHERN BANKS OF THE IMJIN RIVER WHICH FLOWS ONE MILE OF THE PRE-WAR BOUNDARY NEAR KORANGPO. THIS HAS BEEEN A FAVORITE CROSSING POINT FOR THE REDS IN THEIR REPEATED THRUSTS INTO SOUTH KOREA FROM THE NORTHWEST.

VAN FLEET SAID THE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE BY HIS EIGHTH ARMY UNITS HAD "SEVERELY DEFEATED" THE SECOND ALL-OUT CHINESE-KOREAN RED SPRING OFFENSIVE. HE SAID THAT IN FIVE DAYS AND NIGHTS IT HAD CONVERTED INITIAL RED SUCCESSES INTO "A COMPLETE FAILURE."

THIS FAILURE, HE TOLD NEWSMEN WAS DUE TO THREE THINGS--(1) HEAVY CASUALTIES INFLICTED ON FIVE CHINESE AND THREE NORTH KOREAN ARMY CORPS; (2) UNEXPECTED ALLIED RESERVES IN THE EASTERN BATTLE AREA, AND (3) STRONG AND UNEXPECTED ALLIED COUNTER-ACTION IN WESTERN AND CENTRAL KOREA.

COMMUNIST CASUALTIES BETWEEN MAY 16 AND THE NIGHT OF MAY 22-23 WHEN THE REDS STARTED TO WITHDRAW EXCEEDED 60,000 AND MAY RUN AS HIGH AS 80,000. IN THE FIRST COMMUNIST SPRING OFFENSIVE LAUNCHED LAST APRIL 22, THE REDS LOST ANOTHER 65,000 TO 70,000 MEN DEAD, WOUNDED OR CAPTURED.

THUS THE REDS HAVE TAKEN CASUALTIES NEARING 150,000 IN LITTLE MORE THAN ONE MONTH, ACCORDING TO COMPILATIONS BY EIGHTH ARMY AND FRONTLINE OFFICERS.

THE URGENCY OF THE ALLIED PUSH INTO NORTH KOREA WAS SPELLED OUT BY ALMOND, WHO PERSONALLY DIRECTED IT.

"I AM TRYING TO SPLIT THE ENEMY IN TWO," HE TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD JUST BEFORE THE KICKOFF. "TWO DAYS FROM NOW MAY BE TOO LATE.

"THIS IS THE PSYCHOLOGICAL TIME TO GET IN THE BEST LICKS. THE ENEMY IS LIKE A BOXER REELING TO THE EDGE OF THE RING, AND WE WANT TO CLIP HIM AGAIN BEFORE HE BOUNCES OFF THE ROPES."

THE TENTH CORPS TASK FORCE INCLUDED ENGINEERS AND CARRIED ITS OWN ARTILLERY.

AS THE GREAT FORCE STARTED ROLLING NORTHWARD ALMOND DIRECTED THE TRAFFIC FROM A HELICOPTER. COMMUNIST MORTAR FIRE FELL NEARBY.

LATER ALMOND FLEW IN A LIGHT PLANE OVER THE COLUMN AS IT FIRED AT CHINESE COMMUNISTS IN THE HILLS TO THE NORTH. AMERICAN SOLDIERS TOOK SHELTER BEHIND THEIR TANKS, UNTIL THE REDS WERE SILENCED.

THE TENTH CORPS TASK FORCE SPEARHEAD BROKE INTO TWO PRONGS AS IT SLAMMED NORTH. THE PENETRATION INTO NORTH KOREA WAS NOT BELIEVED TO BE DEEP. BUT THERE WAS NO INDICATION THAT THE FORCE HAD WITHDRAWN AS ALLIED ARMORED TASK FORCES FREQUENTLY HAVE DONE IN THE PAST.

AMERICAN MARINES CHARGED AHEAD AS MUCH AS FOUR MILES ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.

BLOODY HAND TO HAND BAYONET AND HAND GRENADE BATTLES WERE FOUGHT WITH DIEHARD REDS TRYING VAINLY TO BLOCK THE ALLIED ADVANCE IN THE HILLS AND RIDGES SOUTH OF CHUNCHON.

A11KX

FARTHER WEST, U.S. BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AND SOUTH KOREAN FORCES GROUND OUT GAINS OF FOUR TO SEVEN MILES ON THE WEST CENTRAL FRONT BEYOND CAPTURED KAPYONG.

KAPYONG IS 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL ON THE SEOUL-CHUNCHON ROAD THAT LINKS THE U.N. WESTERN AND CENTRAL SECTORS.

THERE WERE FEW DETAILS OF THE SWIFT ALLIED ADVANCE IN EASTERN KOREA. THE FRONTLINE TROOPS IN THAT SECTOR RECEIVED AIR DROPS OF AMMUNITION AND SUPPLIES.

FIGHTERS AND LIGHT BOMBERS OF THE FIFTH AIR FORCE SLASHED ACROSS THE FRONT AT THE WITHDRAWING REDS. THEY SATURATED THE CHORWON-KUMHWA-HWACHON TRIANGLE WHERE THE HEAVIEST COMMUNIST CONCENTRATIONS NOW ARE BELIEVED LOCATED. FIFTH AIR FORCE PLANES FLEW 581 SORTIES BY DUSK. FLARE-DROPPING PLANES LIGHTED UP THE BATTLE FIELDS AND ASSEMBLY AREAS FOR MORE ATTACKS AT NIGHT.

THE FAR EAST AIR FORCE THURSDAY REPORTED LT.GEN.OTTO P. WEYLAND WAS NAMED COMMANDING GENERAL OF FEAF. HE SUCCEEDS LT.GEN.GEORGE E. STRATEMEYER WHO IS RECOVERING FROM A HEART ATTACK. LT.GEN.EARLE E. PARTRIDGE, COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE FIFTH AIR FORCE WAS REPLACED BY MAJ.GEN.FRANK F.EVEREST.

THIRD LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (300)

BY TOM STONE

TOKYO, MAY 24-(AP)-A GREAT ALLIED TANK-TASK FORCE SMASHED ACROSS KOREA'S 38TH PARALLEL TODAY IN A BOLD 13 MILE DRIVE THAT SPLIT RETREATING CHINESE ARMIES.

THE POWERFUL FORCE FOUGHT THROUGH RED SCREENING TROOPS AND SEIZED CHOYANG RIVER CROSSINGS IN RED KOREA. THE DARING MOVE CUT THE ESCAPE ROUTE FOR REDS STILL SOUTH OF 38 ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

"WE EXPECT GREAT THINGS OF THIS EFFORT," SAID LT.GEN.EDWARD M. ALMOND, WHO PLANNED AND DIRECTED THE OPERATION.

"THIS IS A TIME WHEN EVERY MINUTE COUNTS--EVERY SECOND COUNTS. TWO DAYS FROM NOW MAY BE TOO LATE. ONE DAY MAY BE TOO LATE. TODAY IS THE DAY."

~~SMALLER AMERICAN X X X X~~

TWO DAYS FROM NOW MAY BE TOO LATE. ONE DAY MAY BE TOO LATE. TODAY IS THE DAY."

SMALLER AMERICAN TASK FORCES RETOOK CHUNCHON, MOST IMPORTANT RAIL AND ROAD HUB IN CENTRAL KOREA, AND STABBED WITHIN LESS THAN FIVE MILES OF THE BORDER IN THE WEST.

BEHIND THEM THE ENTIRE EIGHTH ARMY WAS ON THE MARCH. LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET CALLED IT A RED-KILLING COUNTEROFFENSIVE.

ALMOND'S TASK FORCE WAS A SELF-SUSTAINING COLUMN OF TANKS, ARTILLERY, INFANTRYMEN AND ENGINEERS. WAR PLANES COVERED ITS OPERATIONS.

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C.BARNDARD, WHO WATCHED THE OPERATION, CALLED IT "A TREMENDOUS MOVE, PERHAPS THE BOLDEST STROKE OF THE KOREAN WAR."

"THE ENEMY HAS COMMITTED THE UNPARDONABLE SIN OF ELONGATING HIMSELF,' ALMOND TOLD ASSEMBLED TOP COMMANDERS OF HIS 10TH CORPS AS HE LAUNCHED THE STRIKE.

"THE ENEMY IS LIKE A BOXER REELING TO THE EDGE OF THE RING, AND WE WANT TO CLIP HIM AGAIN BEFORE HE BOUNCES OFF THE ROPES."

THE ARMORED COLUMN SHOVED OFF INTO A HAIL OF CHINESE FIRE EVEN AS THE REDS WERE RUSHING IN TROOPS TO REINFORCE THEIR REAR GUARDS. A U.N. OFFICER SAID THE REDS WERE TRYING TO SLOW UP THE HARD-HITTING ALLIED TASK FORCES TO KEEP THEM FROM CUTTING OFF THE RED LINE OF RETREAT.

ALL ALONG THE 125-MILE LINE ARMORED THRUSTS CAUGHT CHINESE AND RED KOREAN TROOPS BY SURPRISE. THE AMERICAN FORCE WHICH TOOK THE KEY ROAD-RAIL HUB OF CHUNCHON CAUGHT 500 REDS DOG-TROTTING TO THE NORTH. IT MOWED THEM DOWN.

BUT NO OTHER ACTION APPROACHED THE SCOPE OF THE GREAT COLUMN, STRETCHING AS FAR AS THE EYE COULD SEE. ALMOND DIRECTED ITS JUMPOFF FROM A HELICOPTER.

CHINESE TROOPS WERE FIRING ON THE LEAD TANK BEFORE THE FULL ARMORED AND INFANTRY COLUMN WAS ON ITS WAY.

ALMOND CHANGED TO A LIGHT PLANE TO WATCH THE TANKS BATTLE WITH A CHINESE HOLDING FORCE UP THE ROAD.

THE TASK FORCE PUSHED BACK UP THE LINE OF THE REDS' MOST POWERFUL OFFENSIVE THRUST, FIGHTING AS IT RUMBLED ALONG. IT REACHED THE BANKS OF THE CHOYANG RIVER IN NORTH KOREA. FIELD DISPATCHES DID NOT PIN-POINT IT, BUT PRESUMABLY THE TASK FORCE THRUST UP THE ROAD FROM HANGYE TO INJE.

MAY 25 1951

OTHER UNITS IN ALMOND'S COMMAND GAINED MORE THAN THREE MILES. OFTEN THEY FOUGHT STIFF ACTIONS WITH RED REAR GUARDS.

CHUNCHON IS ON THE WESTERN FLANK OF THIS SECTOR, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. AMERICANS DRIVING INTO THE TOWN REPORTED THEY CAPTURED "MORE ENEMY THAN WE COULD HANDLE." NEVERTHELESS THE TANK AND INFANTRY FORCE IN THAT SECTOR PUSHED ON ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER AND HEADED NORTH.

SOUTH KOREANS CLEANING UP THE AREA SOUTH OF CHUNCHON ADVANCED 6 1/2 MILES.

AMERICANS WHO HAD RECAPTURED KAPYONG, 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, STRUCK NORTH ALONG THE HIGHWAY TOWARD HWACHON IN RED KOREA. ON THEIR WESTERN FLANK BRITISH AND CANADIANS ADVANCED NEARLY SIX MILES WITHOUT FINDING ANY REDS.

U.N. FORCES SLOWED UP ON THE WESTERN FRONT WHERE THE SPREADING ALLIED ADVANCE BEGAN.

AMERICANS STRAIGHTENED THEIR LINES AROUND UIJONGBU, NORTH OF SEOUL. TANK FORCES PROBING NORTHWARD RAN INTO AN AMBUSH LESS THAN SIX MILES FROM THE BORDER. LONG TOM ARTILLERY AND 155 MILLIMETERS OPENED UP ON THE CHINESE.

SOUTH KOREANS FARTHER WEST, ONLY 1 1/2 MILES FROM THE BORDER, HUNTED DOWN HIDING REDS.

ALLIED BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS FLYING AHEAD OF THE ADVANCE BLASTED

THE CHORWON-KUMHWA-HWACHON TRIANGLE IN RED KOREA.
THIS WAS THE BUILDUP AREA FOR THE REDS' MAY 16 OFFENSIVE. VAN FLEET SAID THAT OFFENSIVE ENDED IN "COMPLETE FAILURE" BUT THE COMMUNISTS STILL HAVE POWER TO STRIKE AGAIN.
HE SAID HIS EIGHTH ARMY HAD SEIZED THE INITIATIVE AND WAS "ATTACKING ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT."
"THERE IS NO LIMITATION ON ITS OBJECTIVES," VAN FLEET SAID, ADDING: THE PURPOSE IS TO KILL AS MANY REDS AS POSSIBLE AND PERHAPS FORCE THEM INTO ANOTHER PREMATURE OFFENSIVE.
COMMUNISTS FELL BACK BEFORE THE ADVANCE EVEN IN THE EASTERN MOUNTAINS.
AN AMERICAN OFFICER REPORTED CHINESE WERE "REINFORCING THEIR SCREENING FORCES ALL ALONG THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT." AND VAN FLEET COMMENTED, "ITS IMPOSSIBLE TO TELL WHAT THE CHINESE ARE GOING TO DO."

BEFORE DAYLIGHT THURSDAY SOUTH KOREAN TANKS CLANKED WITHIN A MILE AND A HALF OF 38. THIS WAS ON THE WESTERN FRONT WHERE THE U.N. COUNTEROFFENSIVE STARTED.
U.N. FORCES SWEPT THE AREA CLEAN AS THEY MOVED ON KORANGPO, 28 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL AND ONLY ONE MILE FROM THE RED KOREAN BORDER.
STRONG TANK COLUMNS RUMBLED UP THE HIGHWAYS AND ACROSS THE CENTRAL HILLS STRETCHING EAST OF SEOUL. RETREATING REDS HURRIED NORTHWARD AHEAD OF THEM. SMALL GROUPS LEFT BEHIND FOUGHT SHARP, BRIEF AND LOSING BATTLES WITH THE TANK FORCES.
THE U.S. FIRST MARINE AND SECOND INFANTRY DIVISIONS SWEPT UP THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT VIRTUALLY UNOPPOSED. FOUR MILE GAINS WERE GENERAL WEDNESDAY. THE REDS HAD SIDESLIPPED EASTWARD AWAY FROM THE SECOND DIVISION WHICH STOPPED THEIR OFFENSIVE COLD.
RED UNITS WHICH HAD SWEPT 25 MILES BELOW THE BORDER AROUND SOKSA PULLED BACK BEFORE ATTACKING AMERICANS.

A40FX
THE COMMUNISTS THREW UP HEAVY ANTIAIRCRAFT FIRE AGAINST AMERICAN CARGO PLANES SUPPLYING TROOPS STRIKING THROUGH THE MOUNTAINS. THREE PLANES WERE HIT. THE AIR FORCE SAID THEIR CREWS WERE NOT HURT.
THE RED RADIO AT PYONGYANG ASSERTED 23 U.S. PLANES HAD BEEN SHOT DOWN IN EASTERN KOREA IN FOUR DAYS. THERE HAS BEEN NO SUCH REPORT FROM THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES (FEAF).
FEAF DISCLOSED IT HAS LOST 299 PLANES OF ALL TYPES FROM ALL CAUSES DURING THE KOREAN WAR. IT REPORTED 111 RUSSIAN-TYPE JETS HAVE BEEN SHOT DOWN OR DAMAGED SINCE THE MIG-15S BEGAN FLYING OVER KOREA FEB. 22.
THE AIR FORCE RESUME WAS ISSUED ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH A CHANGE IN TOP AIR COMMANDS. LT.GEN.O.P.WEYLAND, DEPUTY COMMANDER OF THE TACTICAL AIR COMMAND AT LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, VA., WAS NAMED TO HEAD FEAF. HE WILL SUCCEED LT.GEN.GEORGE E. STRATEMEYER WHO IS HOSPITALIZED WITH A HEART ATTACK.
LT.GEN.EARLE E. PARTRIDGE WAS SUCCEEDED AS COMMANDER OF THE FIFTH AIR FORCE BY MAJ.GEN. FRANK F. EVEREST, FORMERLY ASSISTANT DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF FOR OPERATIONS.
PARTRIDGE WILL RETURN TO THE U.S. AS COMMANDER OF THE AIR RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COMMAND.
THE FEAF SAID ALLIED PLANES HAVE INFLICTED MORE THAN 112,000 CASUALTIES SINCE THE WAR STARTED LAST JUNE. THAT IS ABOUT DOUBLE THE LOSSES THE EIGHTH ARMY SAYS THE REDS SUSTAINED IN THEIR LATEST OFFENSIVE.
PYONGYANG RADIO ASSERTED 7,000 U.N. TROOPS WERE KILLED AND 6,000 CAPTURED IN FOUR DAYS. THE U.S. DEFENSE DEPARTMENT HAS PLACED TOTAL U.N. LOSSES FOR THE FIVE DAY RED OFFENSIVE AT 1,619.
VAN FLEET DESCRIBED THE REDS' OFFENSIVE AS "A STRUGGLE BETWEEN MASS ATTACK AS OPPOSED TO QUALITY AND TROOPS DIRECTED BY INTELLIGENT LEADERSHIP."
MANY OF THE CHINESE OFFICERS, HE SAID, FORMERLY SERVED IN CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALIST ARMY. THE TROOPS INCLUDED "SOME BOYS, BUT VERY WELL EQUIPPED."
DESCRIBING THE U.N. COUNTEROFFENSIVE, VAN FLEET SAID, "THERE IS NO LIMITATION ON ITS OBJECTIVES.

A41FX
"THE EIGHTH ARMY IS AGAIN MOVING FORWARD TO MAINTAIN THE INITIATIVE, TO INFLICT MAXIMUM CASUALTIES ON THE ENEMY AGAIN, POSSIBLY TO PRECIPITATE PREMATURELY THE COUNTERATTACK OF WHICH THE ENEMY IS CAPABLE CONSIDERING HIS RESERVE FORCES.
"THE SITUATION, THEN, IS ONE TO INSPIRE FULL GRATIFICATION BUT NOT UNDUE OPTIMISM. THE ENEMY TACTICS OF PRECIPITOUS WITHDRAWAL FOLLOWED BY VIOLENT COUNTERACTION ARE TOO WELL KNOWN.
OFF THE EAST COAST U.S. ROCKET SHIPS OPENED UP ON BLOCKADED WONSAN WITH "A DEADLY DISPLAY OF FIREPOWER," THE NAVY SAID.
THEIR BOMBARDMENT FOLLOWED A DAYTIME DUEL BETWEEN SHORE BATTERIES AND U.S. WARSHIPS FOR THE SEVENTH CONSECUTIVE DAY. RED BATTERIES SUNDAY HIT TWO U.S. SHIPS, THE BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND THE DESTROYER BRINKLEY BASS. BOTH WERE BACK IN ACTION. THE NEW JERSEY'S TARGET WAS YANGYANG, JUST ABOVE THE 38TH PARALLEL. HER OFFICERS ESTIMATED THE NEW JERSEY'S SHELLING KILLED 200 REDS.

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 24-(AP)-IN PERHAPS THE BOLDEST STROKE OF THE KOREAN WAR, ALLIED FORCES SMASHED 13 MILES NORTHWARD TODAY, CROSSED THE 38TH PARALLEL AND SPLIT CHINESE ARMIES ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.
THE POWERFUL FORCE OF TANKS, INFANTRY, ENGINEERS AND ARTILLERY THRUST TO THE CHOYANG RIVER THROUGH REDS TRYING TO CHECK THE DARING SURPRISE ATTACK.
LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, TENTH CORPS COMMANDER, PERSONALLY DIRECTED TRAFFIC TO START THE GREAT FORCE ROLLING. MORTAR FIRE WAS FALLING IN THE VICINITY AS HE CALLED SIGNALS FROM A HELICOPTER.
"I FELT LIKE A CORPORAL," HE CHUCKLED LATER, "BUT I WANTED TO GET THE BOYS ROLLING."
LATER HE FLEW IN A LIGHT PLANE SWEEPING LOW OVER A FIGHT WHICH TEMPORARILY DELAYED THE TASK FORCE.
AT THE TIME, TANKS WERE FIRING AT CHINESE COMMUNISTS IN THE HILLS TO THE NORTH. AMERICAN SOLDIERS WERE CROUCHED BEHIND THE TANKS.
JUST BEFORE NOON EVERY COMMANDER IN THE TENTH CORPS ASSEMBLED AT A SMALL SUNLIT AIR STRIP ON THE FRONT. ALMOND HAD VISITED EACH EARLIER IN THE DAY DURING A FLYING INSPECTION OF HIS ENTIRE FRONT.
ALMOND SPREAD A MAP ON THE TAIL OF AN AIR PLANE AND JUBILANTLY SAID:
"THE ENEMY HAS COMMITTED THE UNPARDONABLE SIN OF ELONGATING HIMSELF."
THEN HE DICTATED A MESSAGE TO BE RADIOED TO LT. GEN. JAMES A. VAN FLEET, COMMANDER OF THE EIGHTH ARMY. IT READ:
"WE ARE ASSEMBLED (NAME OF TOWN DELETED BY CENSOR) IN A COMBINED EXERTION TO DRIVE FORWARD A TANK AND INFANTRY COLUMN TO SEIZE RIVER CROSSING TONIGHT. THE FORCE IS FULLY SUPPORTED BY AIR AND ARTILLERY.
"WE EXPECT GREAT THINGS OF THIS EFFORT. WE ARE ATTACKING AND DOING EVERYTHING POSSIBLE AS FAST AS POSSIBLE."
EARLIER HE TOLD ME:
"THIS IS A TIME WHEN EVERY MINUTE COUNTS--EVERY SECOND COUNTS. ITS

THE TIME TO MAKE A COMPELLING EFFORT.
"I AM TRYING TO SPLIT THE ENEMY IN TWO. TWO DAYS FROM NOW MAY BE TOO LATE. ONE DAY MAY BE TOO LATE.
"TODAY IS THE DAY AND THE WEATHER IS GOOD.
"TOMORROW, MAYBE TONIGHT, THAT ROAD MAY BE MINED. BUT RIGHT NOW THE CHINESE HAVEN'T HAD THE TIME TO DO MUCH FIGHTING AND IF WE PUSH OUT BOLDLY THEY WON'T GET THE CHANCE.
"WE'LL MOVE IN A HURRY AND IF A TANK GETS BLOWN BY A MINE, LET IT BLOW.
"THAT'S WHAT TANKS ARE FOR. THAT'S WHY THEY ARMOR THEM. THAT'S WHY WE ARE USING TANKS INSTEAD OF JEEPS."
WHEN THE TASK FORCE WAS WELL ON ITS WAY, ALMOND COMMENTED:
"THIS IS THE PSYCHOLOGICAL TIME TO GET IN THE BEST LICKS. THE ENEMY IS LIKE A BOXER REELING TO THE EDGE OF THE RING, AND WE WANT TO CLIP HIM AGAIN BEFORE HE BOUNCES OFF THE ROPES."

SECOND LEAD VAN FLEET (110)
U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 24-(AP)-LT. GEN. JAMES A VAN FLEET SAID TODAY THE EIGHTH ARMY "IS ATTACKING ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT AND THERE IS NO LIMITATION ON ITS OBJECTIVES."
THE ALLIED GROUND COMMANDER TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE REDS HAD BEEN SEVERELY DEFEATED. HE CALLED THE COMMUNIST SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE "A COMPLETE FAILURE."
BUT VAN FLEET WARNED THAT THE REDS STILL HAVE THE POWER TO LAUNCH NEW OFFENSIVES.
ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT WHERE THE COMMUNISTS LAST WEEK SLASHED DEEPLY INTO SOUTH KOREA, A STRONG UNITED NATIONS TASK FORCE CAPPED A 13 MILE ADVANCE TODAY BY THRUSTING ACROSS THE BORDER INTO RED KOREA.

MAY 25 1951

THE RED OFFENSIVE, WHICH BEGAN MAY 16, KNOCKED ALL ALLIED TROOPS OUT OF NORTH KOREA.
THE ENEMY BLOW, VAN FLEET SAID, "WAS ANTICPATED AND QUITE ACCURATELY TIMED" BY ALLIED FORCES.
"THE ATTACK WAS INITIATED BY A MAMMOTH ASSAULT AGAINST U.S. FORCES IN THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR.
"THE WEIGHT OF FIVE CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES ARMIES, AS WELL AS THREE NORTH KOREAN CORPS, WAS THROWN AGAINST ROK (REPUBLIC OF KOREA) UNITS AND ELEMENTS OF THE 10TH CORPS.
"THE ENEMY ACHIEVED AN INITIAL DEEP PENETRATION IN THE ROK SECTOR, WHICH CONSTITUTED A SERIOUS THREAT TO U.N. POSITIONS--AND RESERVES WERE RUSHED TO THE THREATENED AREAS."
VAN FLEET SAID THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION AND ITS ATTACHED FRENCH AND DUTCH BATTALIONS, COMMANDED BY MAJ. GEN. CLARK L. RUFFNER, "BORE THE BRUNT OF THE ASSAULT" AND "STOPPED THE ENEMY COLD."
"THE CAREFULLY PREPARED U.N. DEFENSIVE POSITIONS, EMPLOYING THREE DOUBLE APRON BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS, PROTECTED BY MINES AND COVERED BY THE HEAVIEST CONCENTRATION OF ARTILLERY YET ENCOUNTERED IN THE KOREAN WAR, INFLICTED CRIPPLING CASUALTIES ON THE ENEMY."
EIGHTH ARMY SOURCES ESTIMATED RED CASUALTIES AT 60,000.

A59FX
VAN FLEET SAID "PRISONER REPORTS HAVE ATTESTED TO THE EFFECTIVENESS OF BOTH EIGHTH ARMY ARTILLERY AND THE NIGHT-BOMBING ATTACKS OF THE AIR FORCE WHICH, IN MANY CASES, BROKE UP ATTACKS BEFORE THE ENEMY ASSAULT UNITS COULD LEAVE ASSEMBLY AREAS.
"THESE CASUALTIES WERE A MAJOR FACTOR IN THE (RED) WITHDRAWAL THAT BEGAN ALONG THE FRONT THE NIGHT OF MAY 22-23. IN ADDITION, HOWEVER, INITIAL REPORTS INDICATE THAT THE ENEMY RETREAT WAS ALSO CAUSED BY THE UNEXPECTED ENCOUNTERING OF U.S. RESERVE FORCES IN THE EAST AND THE EIGHTH ARMY'S STRONG AND APPARENTLY UNEXPECTED COUNTERACTION IN THE WEST AND CENTRAL SECTORS."
THE GENERAL SAID "OUTSTANDING AND MAGNIFICENT CHARACTERISTICS" OF THE EIGHTH ARMY ARE "FIRST, THE QUALITY OF ITS SOLDIERS, AND, SECOND, THEIR DETERMINED AND SKILLFUL USE OF FIREPOWER ON A SCALE UNHEARD OF IN THIS OR ANY OTHER BATTLE."

U.S.EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS,KOREA,THURSDAY,MAY 24-(AP)-LT.GEN. JAMES A.VAN FLEET, UNITED NATIONS GROUND FORCES COMMANDER IN KOREA, INDICATED TODAY THAT U.N. FORCES WILL ONCE AGAIN CROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL.
"THE EIGHTH ARMY IS ATTACKING ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT AND THERE IS NO LIMITATION ON ITS OBJECTIVES," HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE.
VAN FLEET DECLARED THE COMMUNISTS HAD BEEN "SEVERELY DEFEATED" IN THEIR RECENT OFFENSIVE AND ADDED THAT THE REDS' INITIAL SUCCESS TURNED INTO A "COMPLETE FAILURE."

VAN FLEET WARNED IN A STATEMENT, HOWEVER, THAT THE COMMUNISTS STILL HAVE ENOUGH RESOURCES AT THEIR COMMAND TO LAUNCH NEW OFFENSIVES.
"THE EIGHTH ARMY IS AGAIN MOVING FORWARD TO MAINTAIN THE INITIATIVE, TO INFLICT MAXIMUM CASUALTIES ON THE ENEMY AND AGAIN, POSSIBLY, TO PRECIPITATE PREMATURELY THE COUNTERATTACK OF WHICH THE ENEMY IS CAPABLE, CONSIDERING HIS RESERVE FORCES," VAN FLEET DECLARED.
"THE SITUATION, THEN, IS ONE TO INSPIRE FULL GRATIFICATION BUT NOT UNDUE OPTIMISM. THE ENEMY TACTICS OF PRECIPITOUS WITHDRAWAL FOLLOWED BY VIOLENT COUNTERACTION ARE TOO WELL KNOWN. BUT IT IS SUFFICIENT TO SAY THAT THE ENEMY HAS BEEN SEVERELY DEFEATED IN HIS SO-CALLED 'SECOND PHASE" OF ACTION AND HIS INITIAL SUCCESS WITH DEEP PENETRATION HAS TURNED INTO A COMPLETE FAILURE."
MUCH OF THE GENERAL'S TALK WITH WAR CORRESPONDENTS WAS OFF THE RECORD AT FIRST HE SEEMED RELUCTANT TO DISCUSS THE QUESTION OF THE 38TH PARALLEL WHEN ASKED FOR A DIRECT ON-THE-RECORD STATEMENT. THEN HE REMARKED THAT "NO LIMITATIONS" WERE BEING PLACED ON THE EIGHTH ARMY'S OBJECTIVES DURING THE PRESENT COUNTER-OFFENSIVE.

BY GEORGE A.MCARTHUR
CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 24-(AP)-ALLIED INFANTRY AND TANKS TODAY FOUGHT INTO BATTERED CHUNCHON.
THEY CAUGHT RETREATING REDS FLAT-FOOTED.
THE ALLIES THEN SWEPT NORTH OF CHUNCHON AND ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER AND TURNED THEIR GUNS ON 500 FLEEING CHINESE.
THE REDS WERE DOG-TROTTING IN COLUMNS OF TWOS. THEY WERE CUT DOWN BY WITHERING FIRE FROM TANK CANNON, MACHINE GUNS AND SMALL ARMS.
A "LARGE" NUMBER OF PRISONERS WAS REPORTED TAKEN.
F-80S AND F51S JOINED IN THE ASSAULT. A FLIGHT LEADER FOR THE JETS REPORTED HE AND HIS WINGMEN KILLED "AT LEAST 150."
THE DOUGHBOYS JUMPED OFF AT DAWN ALONG BOTH SIDES OF THE HONGCHON-CHUNCHON ROAD. WEST OF THE HIGHWAY A CHINESE REGIMENT FOUGHT BITTERLY ON THE RUGGED HILL APPROACHES TO CHUNCHON.
INFANTRYMEN SUPPORTED BY HEAVY ARTILLERY AND MORTAR BARRAGES CLOSED IN HAND-TO-HAND BAYONET AND HAND GRENADE BATTLES.
THEY FOUGHT THE REDS ON TWO HILLS DUE SOUTH OF CHUNCHON.
EAST OF THE ROAD OPPOSITION WAS SPOTTY AS GIS ADVANCED SOUTHEAST OF THE CITY.
THE ARMORED COLUMN COMMANDED BY CAPT.CHARLES E.HAZEL, 2960 CALDERWOOD LANE, SACRAMENTO, CALIF., WAS UNDER FIRE FROM THE TIME IT REACHED THE VILLAGE OF SINJOM, SEVEN MILES SOUTH OF CHUNCHON, UNTIL IT HIT THE CITY.

TOKYO, MAY 24-(AP)-MAJ.GEN.A.J.H.CASSELS, COMMANDER OF THE NEW BRITISH COMMONWEALTH DIVISION IN KOREA, WILL LEAVE FOR AUSTRALIA TOMORROW TO RESIGN HIS OLD JOB AS CHIEF LIAISON OFFICER FOR THE UNITED KINGDOM IN AUSTRALIA.

GENERAL CASSELS TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE HE PLANNED TO RETURN HERE IN MID-JUNE TO TAKE OVER HIS NEW COMMAND. HE DID NOT DISCLOSE WHEN FORMATION OF THE NEW COMMONWEALTH DIVISION--THE FIRST IN HISTORY--WOULD BE COMPLETED.

JUST BACK FROM A THREE-DAY VISIT WITH THE UNITS OF HIS NEW DIVISION IN KOREA, GENERAL CASSELS SAID HE FOUND THEM ALL "IN ABSOLUTELY FIRST CLASS FORM."

CASSELS SAID HE AND THE TROOPS UNDER HIS COMMAND WERE GETTING "MAGNIFICENT HELP" FROM THE AMERICAN 8TH ARMY AND OTHER UNITS OF THE UNITED NATIONS TEAM.

THE NEW COMMONWEALTH DIVISION WILL BE COMPOSED OF THREE BRIGADES--ONE CANADIAN, ONE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE THIRD MADE UP OF TWO U.K. BATTALIONS, ONE AUSTRALIAN, THE NEW ZEALAND FIELD ARTILLERY REGIMENT AND THE INDIAN FIELD AMBULANCE UNIT.

GENERAL CASSELS SAID SOME OF THE TROOPS WOULD BE ELIGIBLE SOON FOR RETURN TO THEIR HOMES UNDER A PLAN SIMILAR TO THE AMERICAN ROTATION PROGRAM.

TOKYO, MAY 24 (AP)-SGT.MAURICE MOSHER, GLEN LYON, PA., TODAY WAS RECOMMENDED FOR THE SILVER STAR FOR KILLING 300 CHINESE REDS IN 15 MINUTES IN KOREA. THE U.S.24TH DIVISION NON-COM ALREADY HOLDS THREE BRONZE STARS.

THE CITATION SAID MOSHER WAS IN A CONVOY AMBUSHED BY THOUSANDS OF CHINESE REDS. HE GRABBED A MACHINEGUN FROM A JEEP, SET IT UP ON A BAGGAGE TRAILER AND BEGAN FIRING.

THE REDS WERE STREAMING THROUGH A PASS. MOSHER BURNED OUT THE GUN FIRING AT THEM. HE FOUND ANOTHER MACHINEGUN AND CONTINUED SHOOTING.

THE CITATION DID NOT PINPOINT THE SECTOR.

WITH THE FIRST MARINE AIR WING IN KOREA, MAY 24-(AP)-I WENT TRUCK HUNTING FROM MIDNIGHT UNTIL DAWN TODAY ON A "FLYING LIGHTHOUSE." THE SHOOTING WAS SO GOOD WE OVERSTAYED OUR WELCOME AND WERE NEARLY HUNTED DOWN OURSELVES.

THE JOB OF THIS MARINE TRANSPORT PLANE WAS TO DROP HUGE FLARES SO ACCOMPANYING MARINE FIGHTER PLANES COULD FIND AND DESTROY CHINESE TRUCKS AND CONVOYS.

WE HAD ONE OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL SHOOTS OF THE KOREAN WAR. TRUCK AFTER TRUCK DISINTEGRATED INTO FLAMING PUFFS AS THE ROCKETS, NAPALM AND MACHINEGUN BULLETS ROLLED INTO THEIR RANKS.

SO MANY TRUCKS JAMMED THE ROADS EARLY TODAY THAT WE STAYED OVER ENEMY TERRITORY UNTIL THE EARLY DAWN LIGHT MADE IT EASY FOR CHINESE ANTI-AIRCRAFT BATTERIES TO SPOT US, AND THEY PUMPED DOZENS OF ROUNDS OF 90-MM. SHELLS INTO THE AIR AROUND OUR PLANE.

SHELL EXPLOSIONS ROCKED THE TRANSPORT LIKE AN OAK LEAF IN A MARCH WIND. ONE SLIGHTLY DAMAGED THE TAIL.

THE REDS PAID FOR THE TROUBLES THEY CAUSED US, HOWEVER. MARINE

FIGHTERS ALONE COUNTED 42 DESTROYED VEHICLES AND 23 DAMAGED IN THE AREA NORTH OF CHUNCHON.

THE FLARE PLANE HEADED FOR THE RED LINES SHORTLY AFTER MIDNIGHT. MAJ. A.R. CONANT, BURLINGAME, CALIF., WAS THE PILOT AND CAPT. DAVID MENZIES, LOWER LAKE, CALIF., THE CO-PILOT. LT. HENRY FINK, JR., SOMIS, CALIF., FLEW AS OBSERVER. SGT. KEITH MCLEOD OF BOSTON WAS CREW CHIEF AND T/SGT. DAVID SCHWITZER OF HACKENSACK, N.J. AND T/SGT. TOM COOVER OF EL PASO, TEXAS, WERE IN CHARGE OF TOSSING OUT THE FLARES.

AS SOON AS WE PASSED INTO THE COMMUNIST VOID WE BEGAN SPOTTING THE BLINKING LIGHTS OF TRUCKS. THE FIGHTER PLANES CHECKED IN WITH US BY RADIO.

"WE'VE GOT LOTS OF CUSTOMERS FOR YOU TONIGHT," SAID FINK.

THE COORDINATION BETWEEN THE PILOTS WAS AMAZING AS THEY TOOK TURNS DARTING DOWN OVER THE COLUMN. THE ROAD STOOD OUT BRIGHT AND CLEAR IN THE LIGHT OF THE FLARES.

SUDDENLY ONE TRUCK EXPLODED IN A BALL OF ORANGE FLAME.

"HE MUST BE CARRYING AMMO" SAID CONANT.

A SECOND AND THIRD RED TRUCK QUICKLY IGNITED.

THE FIGHTERS WORKED THE ROAD UNTIL THEIR AMMUNITION WAS EXHAUSTED, AND THEN A NEW BATCH OF PLANES CAME ON TO HUNT BY THE LIGHT OF OUR FLARES.

WE SOON SPOTTED NEW TARGETS--ANOTHER LONG CONVOY ON THE ROAD FROM CHORWON TO HWACHON.

WE HUNTED AND SHOT UP THE ROAD UNTIL THE DAWN LIGHT SENT US PACKING. THE MARINE PILOT SAID IT WAS THE SECOND HIGHEST TOTAL OF DAMAGED AND DESTROYED TRUCKS THAT WE HAD EVER COMPILED.

WITH TEHRAN
BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, MAY 24-(AP)-BRITISH DIPLOMATS TRIED ANXIOUSLY IN A DOZEN WORLD CAPITALS TODAY TO WET DOWN THE SPARKS OF A POSSIBLE WAR ARISING OUT OF THE EXPLOSIVE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL DISPUTE.

ENVOYS FROM ANKARA TO WASHINGTON CALLED ON NATIONS WITH SOME INFLUENCE IN TEHRAN TO CALM IRAN'S LEADERS AND SO HELP SETTLE THE CRISIS SWIFTLY AND PEACEFULLY.

BRITAIN HOPES THUS--AND IN OTHER WAYS, TOO--TO STAVE OFF IRANIAN SEIZURE OF HER OIL CONCESSIONS BEFORE ANY NEED MIGHT ARISE FOR RESORTING TO MILITARY FORCE.

PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE AND HIS COLLEAGUES ARE SAID TO REALIZE DISPATCH OF TROOPS TO GUARD BRITISH ASSETS IN IRAN COULD TOUCH OFF WAR--PERHAPS INVOLVING RUSSIA.

THEY KNOW, TOO, THERE IS A HEAVY RISK OF LOSING THE PRIZED OIL CONCESSION NOW BEING RUN BY THE BILLION-DOLLAR ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY (AIOC) IF IRAN REFUSES TO NEGOTIATE A NEW OIL DEAL.

THERE ARE SOME SIGNS THE GOVERNMENT INTENDS TO MOVE AS SOON AS IRAN ANSWERS BRITAIN'S SIX-DAY-OLD OFFER.

THE WAR OFFICE IS EXPECTED TO ANNOUNCE WITHIN THE NEXT 24 HOURS THAT A BRIGADE OF PARATROOPERS WILL FLY OUT TO THE MIDDLE EAST TO MEET ANY EMERGENCY. THE 4,000TOUGHENED SKYMEN WILL NOT OF COURSE, GO DIRECTLY TO IRAN. BUT THEY WILL BE POSTED WITHIN EASY REACH OF THE OILFIELDS--PROBABLY IN THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE OF EGYPT, WHERE THE BRITISH ALREADY HAVE A BIG GARRISON.

FROM THE WELTER OF ARGUMENT AND COUNTER-ARGUMENT IN THE PRESS AND AMONG THE POLICY-MAKERS OVER WHETHER TO SEND TROOPS TO IRAN, ONE THING HAS EMERGED CLEARLY: BRITAIN WILL NOT TAKE THE PLUNGE WITHOUT FIRST CONSULTING THE UNITED STATES.

SHE REALIZES THAT WITHOUT AMERICAN MORAL SUPPORT SHE COULD HARDLY SUSTAIN HERSELF AGAINST CHARGES OF AGGRESSION IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

LOSS OF THE AIOC CONCESSION WOULD MEAN LOSS OF THE BRITISH NAVY'S MAIN SOURCE OF FUEL; LOSS OF MORE THAN ONE BILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF ASSETS; LOSS OF THE SOURCE FOR ABOUT 30 PER CENT OF BRITAIN'S OWN DAY-TO-DAY OIL SUPPLIES.

BRITISH ENVOYS, MEANTIME, HAVE ASKED THE GOVERNMENTS OF INDIA, PAKISTAN, TURKEY, FRANCE, IRAQ--BESIDES OTHER MIDEASTERN NATIONS, THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES - TO USE WHATEVER MODERATING INFLUENCES THEY HAVE ON THE TEHRAN GOVERNMENT.

IN THESE TALKS THE BRITISH SAY THEY DO NOT OPPOSE OIL NATIONALIZATION AS SUCH--BUT DO RESIST WHAT THEY HOLD TO BE ONE-SIDED BREACHING OF THEIR 60-YEAR OIL PACT WITH IRAN.

HEARD TESTIMONY THIS WEEK

of former [illegible]concentration camp inmates has [illegible] evidence which they said today shows that conditions in russian labor camps are worse than those under which they lived at the hands of the [illegible] nazis.

The amateur [illegible]judges" have been carrying on a privately organized mock trial of charges that russia maintains concentration camps. the hearings, which started four days ago with the presentation of depositions from former russian camp inmates and testimony by some 40 witnesses, ends tomorrow.

the mock trial was set up by the "international committee against concentration camp regimes," whose membership ranges from spain to Bel[illegible]. the soviet embassy here [illegible] an invitation to send a defense attorney, as have a group of communist lawyers invited from brussels and paris.

mrs. elizabeth ingrand, [illegible] who spent three years in nazi death camps and [illegible] narrowly escaped execution, has supervised the gathering of documents. taking over the role of "investigating magistrate," she told the group the testimonies presented had been carefully checked and matched to avoid the possibility of mere hearsay getting into the evidence presiding "judge" a. s. balachowsky said the purpose of the hearings was to "examine the true character of soviet labor camps." he added that the group would NOT judge whether concentration camps actually exist in russia until all the testimony is heard and the evidence is weigh leaders of the group said earlier this month that the mock trial against russia was set up after the soviet union had repeatedly ignored requests by the international committee to be permitte to study the labor camp situation first hand.

although the committee lacks legal authority, it hopes by its hearings on russia and on similar complaints about other countries to mold public opinion against any regime which fosters concentration camps.

FIRST LEAD PRISONERS (470)
BY RICHARD K. O'MALLEY
LANDSBERG, GERMANY, MAY 24-(AP)-SEVEN CONDEMNED GERMAN WAR PRISONERS SITTING RED JACKETED AND GRIM IN DEATH ROW, RECEIVED WORD OF THEIR SECOND STA OF EXECUTION TONIGHT ONLY AN HOUR AND ONE MINUTE BEFORE THEY WERE TO HANG.
THE CHAPLAIN AT THE AMERICAN WAR CRIMES PRISON HERE INFORMED THE WIVES OF THE SEVEN PRISONERS, GATHERED AT A LITTLE HOTEL NOT FAR FROM THE PRISON, THAT U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE WALTER M. BASTIAN OF WASHINGTON, D.C., WAS HOLDING UP THE EXECUTIONS WHILE HE STUDIED THE CASE.
THE SEVEN WOMEN HAD COME AWAY FROM THE PR
SON RED-EYED AND WEEPING ONLY THIS AFTERNOON. BUT THERE WAS NO SIGN OF SADNESS TONIGHT. AFTER EXPRESSING THEIR HAPPINESS, THEY GATHERED IN THE HOTEL PARLOR WHILE THE CHAPLAIN LED A RAYER OF THANKS. NONE OF THEM COULD BELIEVE THEIR MEN WOULD TAKE THE STEPS TO THE GALLOWS A THIRD TIME.
THE FIRST STAY OF EXECUTION WAS GRANTED WHILE THE U.'. SUPREME COURT STUDIED A REQUEST FOR AN APPEAL IN THE CASE. THE SUPREME COURT REFUSED TO REVIEW IT.
IN BONN, WEST GERMAN CAPITAL, GERMAN OFFICIALS EXPRESSED THE HOPE THE NEW STAY MIGHT LED TO A REVISION OF THE DEATH SENTENCES. VICE-CNCELLOR FRANZ BLUECHER, WHO HAD SENT LAST-MINUTE APPEAL ON BEHAL OF THE CONDEMNED MEN TO THE U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J. MCCLOY, SAID THERE WERE "SERIOUS ERRORS" IN THE TRIAL PROCEEDINGS. HE ADDED:
"IF THESE ERRORS ARE NOT AT LEAST REVIEWED, THWN THEN WE WILL HAVE A NEW NATIONALISTIC LEGEND."
BY THIS HE CLEARLY MEANT THAT A FAILURE TO REVIEW THE DEATH SENTENCES WOULD FEED THE SPIRIT OF GERMAN NATIONALISM. MANY HIGH GERMAN OFFICIA AND MANY NEWSPAPERS HAVE COMPLAINED BITTERLY ABOUT THE DEATH SENTENCES.

THE SEVEN PRISONERS, CONVICTED BY A U.S. WAR CRIMES COURT IN 1946 AND 1947, ARE: FORMER S.S. GEN OSWALD POHL, CONVICTED OF DIRECTING THE DESTRUCTION OF THE WARSAW GHETTO AND OF BEING IN CHARGE OF NAZI CONCENTRATION CAMPS; GEORG SCHALLERMAIR, SENTENCED FOR CONCENTRATION CAMP ATROCITIES; S.S. COL. PAUL BLOBEL, CONVICTED OF HAVING ORDERED THE KILLING OF 60,000 PERSONS IN A KIEV MASSACRE; WERNER BRAUNE, CONVICTED OF A MASSACRE OF JEWS AND GYPSIES; ERIC NAUMANN, COMMANDER OF A UNIT WHICH EXTERMINATED 3,539 PERSONS IN THREE WEEKS; OTTO OHLENDORF, CHIEF OF AN EXTERMINATION TEAM CHARGED WITH HAVING KILLED 90,000 RUSSIANS; AND HANS SCHMIDT, FORMER ADJUTANT OF BUCHENWALD.
DESTRICTING HER REACTION WHEN SHE FIRST HEARD OF THE WASHINGTON JUDGE'S ACTION, FRAU OHLENDORF EXCLAIMED:
"AT THE MOMENT I HEARD IT, I DID NOT BELIEVE IT. IT WAS THE SECOND TIME. THEN I CALLED THE CHAPLAIN, AND HE TOLD ME IT WAS TRUE. THEY CANNOT DO THIS TO US A THIRD TIME."
THEN, AS SHE HURRIED UPSTAIRS TOWARD HER ROOM, SHE TURNED TO A REPORTER AND SAID:
"WHAT I THINK IS: IT IS A NUTE HOUSE."
SHE OBVIOUSLY WAS REFERRING TO THE ON-AGAIN, OFF-AGAIN ASPECTS OF THE TWICE DEFERRED EXECUTIONS.
FRAU NAUMANN, WIFE OF ANOTHER OF THE COMDENED MEN, SMILED AND SAID "I AM VERY HAPPY."
FRAU POHL, WHO HAD COME AWAY FROM WHAT HE THOUGHT WAS HER FINAL VISIT WITH HER HUSBAND, DID NOT RECEIVE THE NEWS IMMEDIATELY. THE OTHER WOMEN HURRIED TO PUT THROUGH TELEPHONE CALLS TO HER.
ALL THE WOMEN WERE OBVIOUSLY WRACKED BY THE STRAIN OF THEIR LATEST FAREWELLS. AND THEY ALSO WERE AWARE THAT THE LATEST REPRIEVI IS SCHEDULED TO LAST ONLY FIVE DAYS.
FREDERICK WIEHL, ATTORNEY FOR POHL, FIRST RECEIVED THE NEWS WITH A STUNNED SURPRISE. THEN HE GRINNED AND SAID:
"I THINK WE'RE ALL RIGHT NOW. I DON'T THINK THE MEN WILL EVER HANG."

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MAY 24-(AP)-WEST GERMAN COMMUNISTS ARE BEING GOADED BY THEIR LEADERS TO GET READY TO HELP IN CASE OF A POSSIBLE SOVIET ATTACK AT ANY TIME IN THE NEXT THREE YEARS, U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J. MCCLOY SAID TODAY.
MCCLOY'S QUARTERLY REPORT TO THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT DECLARED PARTY WORKERS ARE TOLD THEY MUST BE PREPARED FOR PARTISAN WARFARE AND SABOTAGE "WHEN RED TROOPS MOVE WESTWARD."
HIS REPORT WENT ON:
THE PARTY LEADERS "ARE INTENT UPON IMPARTING A SENSE OF IMMEDIACY TO TRUSTED PARTY WORKERS" AND ARE INDICATING THAT A SOVIET ATTACK MAY COME ANY TIME "THIS YEAR OR NEXT OR THE YEAR AFTER."
THE SOVIET UNION AND HER SATELLITES ARE USING RESOURCES AND DIRECTING EFFORTS IN COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA WHICH IS "COMPARABLE TO ACTIVE MILITARY AGGRESSION." THE CAMPAIGN IS BASED ON THE THEMES OF PEACE, GERMAN UNITY AND AN END TO THE OCCUPATION--THEMES "UNDERSTANDABLY CLOSE TO THE HEARTS OF ALL GERMANS."
BUT WHEREVER IT CAN BE IDENTIFIED, COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IS REJECTED BY THE BULK OF THE GERMANS IN THE WESTERN ZONES.
TALKS AMONG THE DEPUTIES OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND RUSSIA IN PARIS HAVE MADE IT OBVIOUS THAT RUSSIA IS INTENT UPON USING THE PROPOSED BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE TO KEEP GERMANY FROM JOINING THE WEST.
MCCLOY SAID:
"IT IS CLEAR THAT THE PRESENT RULERS OF THE EAST ZONE GOVERNMENT AND THEIR SOVIET MASTERS ARE INTERESTED IN GERMAN UNIFICATION ONLY AS A DEVICE FOR STRENGTHENING SOVIET DOMINATION IN GERMANY AND EXTENDING IT TO THE WESTERN ZONES UNDER SPECIOUS PLEAS OF PEACE AND UNITY."

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MAY 24-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL ISRAELI REPORT CHARGED TODAY THAT JORDAN NATIONAL GUARDSMEN TWICE INVADED ISRAEL THIS WEEK IN THE SOUTHERN JUDEAN MOUNTAINS. THEY WERE REPORTED DRIVEN BACK BY ISRAELI TROOPS.
IN THE SECOND ATTEMPTED INVASION YESTERDAY, THE REPORT SAID, TWO ISRAELI SOLDIERS WERE WOUNDED AND THE "ENEMY SUFFERED A NUMBER OF CASUALTIES." AN OFFICIAL SOURCE DENIED A BROADCAST BY THE ARAB RADIO THAT SIX ISRAELI SOLDIERS WERE KILLED.
ISRAELI DRAINAGE CREWS RESUMED WORK TODAY IN THE HULEH SWAMP AREA IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE OF NORTHEAST PALESTINE, WHICH SYRIA INSISTS SHOULD BE LEFT AS IT IS. THE CREWS AVOIDED SEVEN ACRES OWNED BY ARABS A U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER HAS CALLED FOR CESSATION OF WORK IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE UNTIL AN AGREEMENT WITH SYRIA CAN BE REACHED.

ISRAEL INTERPRETED THE U.N. ORDER AS APPLYING ONLY TO THE ARAB-OWNED LAND AND ANNOUNCED THAT WORK IN THE REST OF THE ZONE--WHERE THE QUESTION OF ISRAELI OWNERSHIP IS NOT DISPUTED--WOULD CONTINUE.
(IN DAMASCUS, A SYRIAN MILITARY SPOKESMAN SAID SYRIA HAD PROTESTED TO MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM E. RILEY, CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE U.N. PALESTINE TRUCE OBSERVERS, AGAINST THE PRESENCE OF ISRAELI TRACTORS IN THE DISPUTED AREA. SYRIA MAINTAINS THAT THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S STOP-WORK ORDER APPLIES TO ALL SECTIONS OF THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE--A STRIP BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES SET UP AS A BUFFER UNDER THE 1948 ARMISTICE ENDING THE PALESTINE WAR.)
THE ISRAELI REPORT ON THE JORDAN BORDER CLASHES SAID JORDAN NATIONAL GUARDSMEN ENTERED ISRAEL TERRITORY TUESDAY, TOOK UP POSITIONS NEAR THE VILLAGE OF DAWAYIMA AND OPENED FIRE ON ISRAELI FORCES WITH MORTARS AND SMALL ARMS. THEY WERE DRIVEN OUT, THE REPORT SAID, BUT RETURNED WEDNESDAY WITH REINFORCEMENTS AND THREE ARMORED CARS OF THE ARAB LEGION. AT THE SAME TIME, SAID THE REPORT, ARABS CROSSING INTO ISRAEL WITH THEIR FLOCKS FIRED ON AN ISRAELI PATROL IN THE SAME AREA.
(AN ARAB NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH FROM AMMAN, JORDAN, SAID A NUMBER OF ISRAELI SOLDIERS WERE KILLED AND WOUNDED IN AN ATTACK BY 60 ISRAELI TROOPS ON THE JORDAN FRONTIER VILLAGE OF EDNA. THE DISPATCH, RECEIVED IN CAIRO, SAID JORDAN GUARDSMEN DROVE THE ATTACKERS BACK AFTER A FIVE-HOUR BATTLE IN WHICH ONE ARAB WAS WOUNDED. THE ISRAELI ANNOUNCEMENT CHARGING THE BORDER CROSSINGS YESTERDAY AND TUESDAY DENIED AN ARAB RADIO REPORT THAT SIX ISRAELIS WERE KILLED IN YESTERDAY'S CLASH.
ISRAEL SAID THE BORDER CROSSINGS OCCURRED IN THE SOUTHERN SECTOR OF THE JUDEAN MOUNTAINS.
A PREVIOUS JORDAN ANNOUNCEMENT IN AMMAN CHARGED ISRAEL TROOPS WITH CROSSING INTO JORDAN TERRITORY AND SAID AN ARAB WAS WOUNDED BEFORE THE ISRAELIS WERE REPULSED.
(IN CAIRO, AN ARAB NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH FROM AMMAN, JORDAN, SAID SOME ISRAELI SOLDIERS -- THE NUMBER WAS NOT SPECIFIED -- WERE KILLED AND WOUNDED IN AN ATTACK BY 60 ISRAELI TROOPS ON THE FRONTIER VILLAGE OF EDNA IN JORDAN TERRITORY.
(THE ARAB NEWS AGENCY SAID JORDAN HOME GUARDSMEN DROVE THE ATTACKERS BACK INTO ISRAELI TERRITORY IN A FIVE HOUR BATTLE IN WHICH ONE ARAB WAS WOUNDED. IT SAID JORDAN HAS COMPLAINED TO THE UNITED NATIONS OF "NEW ISRAELI AGGRESSION.")
MEANWHILE, QUIET WAS REPORTED FROM THE HULEH SWAMP REGION ALONG THE SYRIAN FRONTIER, WHERE ISRAEL TODAY RESUMED RECLAMATION WORK ON JEWISH-OWNED LAND IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES
ISRAEL ORDERED THE PALESTINE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY TO HALT THE DRAINAGE PROJECT ON SEVEN ACRES OF ARAB-OWNED LAND IN THE DISPUTED REGION AFTER THE U.N. BY ROBERT B.HEWETT
TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 24-(AP)-IRAN FIXED A SEVEN-DAY DEADLINE FOR THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY TO START TALKS ON WAYS OF TURNING OVER TO THE GOVERNMENT ITS VAST HOLDINGS ON THE PERSIAN GULF.
A LETTER FROM FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH TO COMPANY OFFICIALS HERE DEMANDED THAT THE COMPANY SEND REPRESENTATIVES BY MAY 30 TO HELP WORK OUT THE OIL NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM. THE DEADLINE WAS SET AFTER THE COMPANY FAILED TO REPLY TO A SIMILAR DEMAND.
IF ANGLO-IRANIAN, WHICH HAS EXCLUSIVE PRODUCTION RIGHTS IN THE BIG SOUTHERN OIL FIELDS, FAILS TO COMPLY, THE LETTER SAID, "THE GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE NO CHOICE BUT TO ACT ACCORDING TO ITS LEGAL DUTIES."
TOP OFFICIALS DODGED QUESTIONS ABOUT HOW THE GOVERNMENT WOULD TAKE OVER THE COMPANY'S HOLDINGS IF ITS REPRESENTATIVES DID NOT SHOW UP.
BUT HOSSEIN MAKKI, SECRETARY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY NATIONALIZATION BOARD, TOLD REPORTERS:
"THERE ARE WAYS WE CAN TAKE OVER OUR OWN PROPERTY. WE HAVE DECIDED WHAT WE ARE GOING TO DO, BUT IT IS BEING KEPT A SECRET FOR THE TIME BEING."
(BRITAIN'S ENVOYS IN A DOZEN WORLD CAPITALS FROM ANKARA TO WASHINGTON TRIED ANXIOUSLY TO GET NATIONS WITH SOME INFLUENCE IN TEHRAN TO CALM THE NATIONALIST LEADERS THERE.
(AT THE SAME TIME, ANTHONY EDEN, DEPUTY CONSERVATIVE LEADER, CALLED IN A SPEECH IN LONDON FOR A FIRMER HAND IN MANAGING BRITAIN'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS--PARTICULARLY IN IRAN AND EGYPT. HE SAID BRITAIN HAS BEEN "PUSHED AROUND A LITTLE TOO MUCH OF LATE.")
IRAN HAS REJECTED COMPANY PROPOSALS THAT THE DISPUTE BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION. AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED ALSO TO REJECT THE LATEST PROPOSAL BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, WHICH OWNS

53 PER CENT OF THE COMPANY STOCK, TO SEND A TOP-LEVEL DIPLOMATIC MISSION TO NEGOTIATE THE DISPUTE.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS M.SHEPHERD LAST SATURDAY DELIVERED A STRONG PROTEST AND WARNED OF "SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" IF IRAN CARRIED OUT ITS NATIONALIZATION LAW WITHOUT FIRST NEGOTIATING.

ALLAHYAR SALEH, CHAIRMAN OF THE PARLIAMENTARY NATIONALIZATION BOARD, READ A STATEMENT TO REPORTERS DENYING THERE WAS ANY IRANIAN ENMITY TOWARD BRITAIN.

BUT WIDELY DIVERGENT GROUPS, RANGING FROM FANATICALLY NATIONALISTIC MOSLEM RELIGIOUS LEADERS TO THE COMMUNIST UNDERGROUND, HAVE JOINED HANDS AGAINST THE BRITISH ON THE OIL ISSUE.

IRANIAN OFFICIALS HAVE LASHED OUT BITTERLY AGAINST THE UNITED STATES FOR URGING BOTH SIDES TO USE MODERATION.

SALEH'S STATEMENT SAID THE GOVERNMENT HOPES THE TALKS WITH THE COMPANY REPRESENTATIVES WILL "END WELL." HE ADDED THAT IRAN HOPES TO RETAIN BRITISH AND OTHER FOREIGN TECHNICIANS NOW EMPLOYED BY THE COMPANY.

"THE REGULATIONS OF THE FORMER COMPANY WILL CONTINUE TO BE THE BASIS OF OPERATIONS," HE SAID, "SO LONG AS THEY DON'T CONFLICT WITH NATIONALIZATION."

SOME OBSERVERS SAW IN THIS THE POSSIBILITY THAT, IF THE COMPANY AGREES TO SEND ITS REPRESENTATIVES, SOME SORT OF NEGOTIATIONS TOWARD AN AGREEABLE SETTLEMENT MAY TAKE PLACE.

PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADAGH, WHO SPENDS MOST OF HIS TIME BEHIND THE LOCKED DOORS OF HIS OFFICE IN PARLIAMENT BECAUSE OF REPORTED THREATS ON HIS LIFE, IS SCHEDULED TO GIVE TOMORROW HIS FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE SINCE HE TOOK OFFICE MORE THAN THREE WEEKS AGO.

ONE OF MOSSADEGH'S RIGHT-HAND MEN, HUSSEIN HASSIBI, TOLD THE NEWSPAPER KEIHAN THAT IF AMERICAN AND BRITISH OIL EXPERTS REFUSE TO WORK FOR IRAN UNDER THE NATIONALIZED SETUP, "WE WILL EXPLOIT AND OPERATE THE OIL INSTALLATIONS AS MUCH AS WE CAN OURSELVES AND CLOSE DOWN THE REST."

BY ROBERT H.HEWETT

TEHRAN,IRAN,MAY 24-(AP)-THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT CALLED ON THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY TODAY TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES WITHIN SEVEN DAYS TO ASSIST IN NATIONALIZING THE NATION'S OIL RESOURCES.

HOSSEIN MAKKI, SECRETARY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY OIL BOARD, TOLD REPORTERS UNSPECIFIED "NECESSARY ACTION" WOULD BE TAKEN IF THE COMPANY FAILS TO COMPLY.

EARLIER TODAY THE GOVERNMENT GAVE THE FIRST HINTS AS TO HOW IT INTENDS TO ENFORCE NATIONALIZATION.

(IT WAS NOT DISCLOSED IMMEDIATELY WHETHER ANY CONFERENCE BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT AND ANGLO-IRANIAN WOULD DEAL WITH COMPENSATION FOR PROPERTIES TAKEN OVER BY IRAN. WHEN PLANS FOR OIL NATIONALIZATION WERE OUTLINED LAST MONTH BY A SPECIAL PARLIAMENTARY COMMISSION, A RESOLUTION PROPOSED BY THE COMMISSION DIRECTED THAT 25 PER CENT OF THE OPERATING PROFITS FROM THE COMPANY BE SET ASIDE TO MEET COMPENSATION CLAIMS BY ANGLO-IRANIAN, PENDING FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS. THIS RESOLUTION SUBSEQUENTLY WAS APPROVED BY PARLIAMENT ITSELF.)

CLEAR INDICATION THAT IRAN IS DETERMINED TO CARRY THROUGH HER PLAN, REGARDLESS OF FOREIGN REACTION, WAS GIVEN BY HUSSEIN HASSIBI, GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE ON THE JOINT SENATE-MAJLIS NATIONALIZATION BOARD AND ONE OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH'S RIGHT HAND MEN.

HASSIBI TOLD A CORRESPONDENT FOR THE NEWSPAPER KEIHAN THAT IF AMERICAN AND BRITISH OIL EXPERTS REFUSE TO WORK FOR IRAN UNDER THE NATIONALIZED SETUP, "WE WILL EXPLOIT AND OPERATE THE OIL INSTALLATIONS AS MUCH AS WE CAN OURSELVES AND CLOSE DOWN THE REST."

THE LAW NATIONALIZING THE RESOURCES--IN WHICH THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY HAS VAST HOLDINGS--WAS ENACTED MORE THAN THREE WEEKS AGO, BUT THIS WAS THE FIRST PRACTICAL HINT ON HOW THE GOVERNMENT PLANS TO CARRY IT OUT.

TENSION OVER THE EXPLOSIVE OIL ISSUE HAS FANNED IRANIAN RESENTMENT AGAINST BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES TO A HIGH PITCH.

WIDELY DIVERGENT GROUPS, RANGING FROM MOSLEM RELIGIOUS LEADERS TO THE COMMUNIST UNDERGROUND, HAVE BEEN EXERTING COMMON PRESSURE TO OVERRIDE ANY BRITISH RESISTANCE TO GOVERNMENT SEIZURE OF THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY'S OIL HOLDINGS. THE MOSLEMS THREATEN HOLY WAR IF THE PLAN IS OPPOSED. THE COMMUNISTS HINT AT REVOLUTION.

A BRITISH PROPOSAL TO ARBITRATE THE DISPUTE HAS BEEN FLATLY REJECTED BY MOSSADEGH WITH THE WARNING THAT BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES ARE PUSHING IRAN CLOSER TO RUSSIA AND A COMMUNIST REVOLUTION BY OPPOSING NATIONALIZATION.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, WHICH HAS URGED MODERATION ON BOTH SIDES OF THE SQUABBLE, HAS BEEN ACCUSED BY IRANIANS OF BACKING THE BRITISH STAND AGAINST NATIONALIZATION.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 24-(AP)-THE CAMPAIGN BY INDIA'S EDITORS AGAINST A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT CURBING FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION HAS RESULTED IN AT LEAST ONE CONCESSION TO THE EDITORS.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED TODAY BY HRIDAY NATH KUNZRU, A MEMBER OF A SELECT COMMITTEE STUDYING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

HE SAID THE COMMITTEE WILL RECOMMEND IN ITS REPORT TO PARLIAMENT TOMORROW A REVISED FREEDOM OF SPEECH CLAUSE EMPOWERING PARLIAMENT TO LEGISLATE "REASONABLE RESTRICTIONS" AGAINST FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION. THE ORIGINAL WORDING DID NOT CONTAIN THE WORD "REASONABLE."

KUNZRU HAS BEEN OPPOSING THE AMENDMENT ASKED BY PRIME MINISTER NEHRU, WHO SAYS IT IS NECESSARY TO SAFEGUARD LAW AND ORDER IN THE COUNTRY AND TO MAINTAIN STABILITY IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS.

"ALTHOUGH THIS IS NO VICTORY, AT LEAST ANY LEGISLATION PASSED WILL BE JUSTIFIABLE," HE ADDED. THERE WAS LITTLE DOUBT THAT THE AMENDMENT WILL OBTAIN THE TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY IT NEEDS FOR PASSAGE.

THE EDITORS SOUGHT A FREEDOM OF THE PRESS CLAUSE SIMILAR TO THAT FOUND IN THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION. THAT WAS THE REQUEST MADE BY DESHBANDHU GUPTA, PRESIDENT OF THE ALL INDIA NEWSPAPER EDITORS CONFERENCE.

BEIRUT, LEBANON, MAY 24--(AP)--OFFICIAL JORDAN AND LEBANESE SOURCES HAVE DENIED A REPORT PUBLISHED IN THE JERUSALEM POST THAT CROWN PRINCE TALAL OF JORDAN RECENTLY SHOT AND WOUNDED THE BRITISH HEAD OF HIS COUNTRY'S ARAB LEGION, BRIG. JOHN BAGGOT GLUBB PASHA.

THESE SOURCES SAID THE REPORT WAS UNTRUE. EMIR TALAL, THEY ADDED, IS RESTING AT A HOTEL 20 MILES FROM HERE FOLLOWING A MEDICAL EXAMINATION AT THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL HERE.

THE CROWN PRINCE TOOK THE OATH AS ACTING MONARCH OF JORDAN LAST WEEK AFTER HIS FATHER, KING ABDULLAH, LEFT FOR A STATE VISIT TO TURKEY. A DAY LATER, HOWEVER, A DISPATCH FROM AMMAN, THE JORDAN CAPITAL, REPORTED HE HAD BEEN TAKEN "SUDDENLY ILL" AND HAD GONE TO BEIRUT FOR TREATMENT. THE REPORTS SAID HIS YOUNGER BROTHER, PRINCE NAIF, ASSUMED THE ROYAL POWER.

THE ACCOUNT IN THE JERUSALEM POST SAID TALAL SHOT GLUBB PASHA IN THE ARM DURING AN ARGUMENT OVER JORDAN'S MILITARY POLICY TOWARD PALESTINE. THE NEXT MORNING THE PRINCE ATTEMPTED TO STAB HIS WIFE THE REPORT CONTINUED, AND JORDAN'S COUNCIL OF MINISTERS DECLARED HIM "DERANGED AND UNFIT FOR OFFICE" AND SENT HIM TO BEIRUT.

AMS BUDGET (450)
SECOND NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR INQUIRY
BY ED CREAGH

MAY 25 1951

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY SAID TODAY THAT THE PENTAGON TWICE WARNED GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR LAST FALL TO CLOSE THE WIDE GAP SEPARATING HIS FORCES IN NORTH KOREA.

IT WAS THROUGH THIS GAP--STRETCHING BETWEEN THE EIGHTH ARMY ON THE WEST AND THE 10TH CORPS IN THE NORTHEAST CORNER--THAT MANY OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS SURGED IN THEIR GREAT WINTER OFFENSIVE, INFLICTING THE HEAVIEST AMERICAN CASUALTIES OF THE WAR.

BRADLEY, WINDING UP HIS SIXTH AND LAST DAY OF TESTIMONY IN THE SENATE INVESTIGATION OF MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL, DECLINED TO ESTIMATE HOW MANY AMERICANS WERE LOST AS A RESULT OF THE FAR EASTERN COMMANDER'S DISPOSITION OF HIS TROOPS.

TO SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK), WHO SUGGESTED THAT MACARTHUR'S "MIDJUDGMENT" BROUGHT ABOUT "OUR HEAVIEST CASUALTIES," THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS SAID:

"IT IS HARD TO SIT BACK HERE AND SAY HOW MANY OF THOSE LOST WERE DUE TO THE FACT THAT THE RIGHT FLANK WAS EXPOSED OR HOW MANY OF THEM WERE DUE TO THE FACT THAT THE CHINESE HIT HIM HARDER THAN HE EXPECTED."

WITH BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY ENDED, SENATE INVESTIGATORS VOTED DOWN AFTER HEATED DEBATE A MOVE BY SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) TO CALL SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AS THE NEXT WITNESS.

THE 14 TO 11 VOTE TO GET FURTHER TESTIMONY FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS BEFORE HEARING ACHESON WAS ALMOST STRICTLY ON PARTY LINES. SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE), HOWEVER, VOTED WITH 13 DEMOCRATS, AND SENATOR GILLETTE (D-IA) DID NOT VOTE.

THE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES ARRANGED TO HEAR GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, TOMORROW.

BRADLEY WARNED IN HIS LATE TESTIMONY THAT THE U. S. AND ITS NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ALLIES COULD NOT STOP A RUSSIAN AGGRESSION AT THIS TIME.

"IT MAY BE," HE SAID, "THAT RIGHT AT THIS MOMENT WE DO HAVE MORE DIPLOMATIC COMMITMENTS THAN WE CAN CARRY OUT MILITARILY."

BUT HE ADDED QUICKLY THAT THIS IS NO REASON TO BACK AWAY FROM THE WESTERN DEFENSE ALLIANCE. INSTEAD, BRADLEY SAID, THIS COUNTRY SHOULD WORK FOR A BUILDUP OF WESTERN STRENGTH TO THE POINT WHERE IT COULD HALT A SOVIET ATTACK.

AND HE SAID THAT "FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW" THE JOINT CHIEFS WOULD LIKE TO HAVE THE ARMED FORCES OF SPAIN, TURKEY AND GREECE IN THE WESTERN DEFENSE FORCE.

THE LANKY, MILD-MANNERED BRADLEY SAID HE THOUGHT "FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW" THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS RIGHT IN FIRING MACARTHUR--THOUGH HE SAID HE THOUGHT THE GENERAL'S REMOVAL "PROBABLY COULD HAVE BEEN HANDLED BETTER."

A35WX

IT WAS NOT UNTIL FULBRIGHT TOOK OVER THE QUESTIONING THAT BRADLEY TOLD OF THE TWO WARNINGS SENT TO MACARTHUR.

HE TESTIFIED THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS BECAME ALARMED OVER THE WIDE, UNDEFENDED SPACE BETWEEN THE TWO ELEMENTS OF THE U.N. FORCES AND THE EXPOSED POSITION OF THE 10TH CORPS. FIRST, BRADLEY SAID, THEY SENT MACARTHUR A "SUGGESTION" ABOUT IT, AND LATER "A DIRECTIVE TO EXTRICATE

THE 10TH CORPS."

THE WITNESS QUOTED PARAPHRASES OF THE MESSAGE EXCHANGE, IN WHICH MACARTHUR INSISTED THAT ANY PHYSICAL LINKING OF THE SEPARATED FORCES WAS "QUITE IMPRACTICAL" AND THAT GROUND CONDITIONS WOULD MAKE IT HARD FOR THE ENEMY TO "TAKE ANY MATERIAL ADVANTAGE" OF THE 10TH CORPS' POSITION.

WHEN THE CHINESE REDS CAME SWARMING THROUGH IN OVERWHELMING NUMBERS, THE 10TH CORPS MADE A FIGHTING RETREAT TO THE PORT OF HUNGNAM FROM WHICH IT WAS REMOVED BY SEA. THE 10TH CORPS WAS MADE UP AT THAT TIME OF THE MARINE FIRST DIVISION AND VARIOUS ARMY ELEMENTS.

FULBRIGHT ASKED BRADLEY IF THE OUTCOME DIDN'T SHOW THERE HAD BEEN "A COMPLETE MISJUDGMENT OF THE SITUATION" ON MACARTHUR'S PART.

"AS IT TURNED OUT," THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS REPLIED, "THEY (THE COMMUNISTS) WERE ABLE TO OUTFLANK THE EIGHTH ARMY AND THE 10TH CORPS WAS NOT ABLE TO HAVE ANY EFFECT ON THE SUPPLY LINES OF THE ENEMY ATTACKING THE EIGHTH ARMY."

EARLIER, BRADLEY SAID HIS RELATIONS WITH MACARTHUR ALWAYS HAVE BEEN CORDIAL AND HE HOPES THEY WILL CONTINUE TO BE.

MAY 25 1951

AND HE CAME OUT IN AGREEMENT WITH MACARTHUR THAT THE QUESTION OF ADMITTING RED CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS SHOULD NOT EVEN BE CONSIDERED IN NEGOTIATING ANY SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN WAR.

BRADLEY DISCLOSED THAT CASUALTIES AMONG U.S. FORCES IN KOREA TOTAL 141,955, WHICH IS MORE THAN TWICE THE NUMBER REPORTED BY THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT ONLY THREE DAYS AGO. THE EARLIER FIGURE, HOWEVER, DID NOT INCLUDE NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES.

BRADLEY EXPLAINED THAT THE NON-BATTLE CASUALTY FIGURE INCLUDES MANY MEN HOSPITALIZED FOR ONLY SHORT PERIODS FOR MINOR AILMENTS, ALTHOUGH IT ALSO INCLUDES MORE SERIOUS CASES RESULTING IN DEATH. HE SAID EIGHTY-FIVE PER CENT OF THE NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES HAVE RETURNED TO DUTY.

BRADLEY SAID HE WAS "NOT TOO SURE THE RUSSIANS ARE GOING TO START SOMETHING IN IRAN BEFORE THEY START IT SOMEWHERE ELSE." HE TOLD THE SENATORS THERE HAVE BEEN NO MILITARY DISCUSSIONS WITH THE BRITISH ON THE QUESTION OF INTERVENING IN THE TURBULENT MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRY.

A207WX

AND HE MADE IT PLAIN, IN REPLYING TO QUESTIONS BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS), THAT HE'S FIRMLY OPPOSED TO LETTING THE KOREAN WAR "DRAG ON INDEFINITELY."

"WE ARE JUST AS ANXIOUS TO END THE WAR IN KOREA AS GENERAL MACARTHUR IS OR ANYONE ELSE IS," BRADLEY DECLARED. "THE DIFFERENCE IN OPINION COMES IN HOW MUCH ADDITIONAL RISK YOU SHOULD TAKE IN TRYING TO TAKE ADDITIONAL MEASURES."

REPEATEDLY, IN DAY-AFTER-DAY TESTIMONY, BRADLEY HAS OPPOSED MACARTHUR'S CHIEF WIN-THE-WAR PROPOSALS: USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS, PLUS AIR ACTION OVER MANCHURIA AND A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE CHINESE COAST.

ON THE QUESTION OF NEGOTIATING A SETTLEMENT IN KOREA, SENATOR H. ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) ASKED BRADLEY:

"WOULD THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF BE READY TO CONSIDER THE QUESTION OF THE ENTRANCE OF RED CHINA INTO THE UNITED NATIONS AS A BARGAINING POINT?"

BRADLEY REPLIED:

"NO, SIR. WE THINK IT HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THAT."

MACARTHUR HAS ASSERTED THAT THE PENTAGON ONCE OVERRULED HIM ON THAT POINT. SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL TOLD THE INVESTIGATORS LATER THAT WHILE HE'S FIRMLY AGAINST LETTING THE COMMUNIST CHINESE INTO THE U.N., IT MIGHT HAVE TO BE DISCUSSED IN CONNECTION WITH CEASE-FIRE TALKS IF OTHER U.N. MEMBERS BROUGHT IT UP.

BRADLEY DIDN'T INDICATE HOW HE THOUGHT MACARTNUR'S DISMISSAL COULD HAVE BEEN BETTER HANDLED.

MACARTHUR HAS TESTIFIED THAT HIS REMOVAL, WHICH HE CALLED ABRUPT, JEOPARDIZED THE SECURITY OF UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA.

MARSHALL TOLD THE SENATORS THAT A COMMUNICATIONS BREAKDOWN SPOILED PLANS TO HAVE THE NEWS BROKEN IN PERSON TO MACARTHUR BY SECRETARY OF THE ARMY PACE, WHO WAS IN JAPAN AT THE TIME.

AS IT TURNED OUT, MACARTHUR GOT THE NEWS FIRST FROM HIS WIFE, WHO HAD HEARD IT IN A RADIO BROADCAST.

QUESTIONED BY WILEY ABOUT IRAN, BRADLEY SAID:

"IRAN ALWAYS HAS BEEN ONE (DANGER POINT) AND RIGHT NOW IT IS IN THE LIMELIGHT BECAUSE OF THE DISPUTE OVER OIL BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN.

"SO FAR AS I AM CONCERNED, I THINK FROM A BRITISH POINT OF VIEW PROBABLY THEY LOOK ON THIS AS THE MOST DANGEROUS POINT OF VIEW RIGHT NOW. X X X I AM NOT SURE THE RUSSIANS ARE GOING TO START SOMETHING IN IRAN BEFORE THEY START IT SOMEWHERE ELSE."

A208WX

BRADLEY SAID THAT WHILE THERE HAVE BEEN NO ANGLO-AMERICAN MILITARY DISCUSSIONS ABOUT IRAN, "I DON'T KNOW WHETHER OR NOT ANYBODY ELSE HAS HAD ANY."

THERE HAVE BEEN DIPLOMATIC TALKS BETWEEN WASHINGTON AND LONDON. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT REPORTEDLY HAS BEEN ADVISING THE BRITISH TO PROCEED CAUTIOUSLY RATHER THAN RISK RUSSIAN INTERVENTION IN THE OIL-RICH COUNTRY.

BRADLEY'S EVALUATION OF WESTERN AS OPPOSED TO SOVIET STRENGTH CAME WHEN WILEY ASKED HIM IF IT WASN'T "DREADFULLY WRONG TO GIVE OUR ALLIES THE IDEA THAT WE CAN DEFEND MORE THAN WE ARE ACTUALLY CAPABLE OF DEFENDING."

"THE 12 NATIONS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY DO NOT HAVE THE CAPABILITY, RIGHT NOW, OF STOPPING AN AGGRESSION BY RUSSIA," BRADLEY REPLIED. "I DON'T SEE WHY THAT SHOULD IMPLY, HOWEVER, THAT WE SHOULDN' GO ON AND HAVE THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION, AND TRY TO ENCOURAGE THEM TO BUILD UP THEIR SECURITY FORCES, BECAUSE THAT IS THE WAY YOU GET BUILT UP TO THAT COMMITMENT X X X

"I AGREE

MAY 25 1951

CAUTIOUSLY
ENCOURAGE THEM TO BUILD UP THEIR SECURITY FORCES, BECAUSE THAT IS THE WAY YOU GET BUILT UP TO THAT COMMITMENT X X X

"I AGREE WITH YOU THAT WE SHOULD NOT JUST GO AROUND THE WORLD MAKING COMMITMENTS, MILITARY COMMITMENTS, WHICH WE CANNOT FULFILL; BUT I THINK IT IS PERFECTLY PROPER, ON THE OTHER HAND, TO MAKE SOME, PARTICULARLY WHERE YOU ARE TRYING TO BUILD UP A COLLECTIVE DEFENSE, AND THEN BUILD TO IT."

MEMBERS OF THE INVESTIGATING GROUP ALSO VOTED TODAY TO LIMIT EACH SENATOR TO 15 MINUTES AT A TIME IN THE QUESTIONING OF FUTURE WITNESS--WITH THE EXCEPTION OF ACHESON. WHEN HE APPEARS, THE LIMIT WILL GO BACK TO 30 MINUTES PER SENATOR.

REPUBLICANS HAVE BEEN PARTICULARLY ANXIOUS TO QUIZ ACHESON, A FAVORITE TARGET OF MOST OF THEM.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INVESTIGATORS SAID THE ARGUMENT OVER CALLING ACHESON NEXT, RATHER THAN PROCEEDING WITH THE CHIEFS OF STAFF AS SCHEDULED, HAD A "SLIGHT INNUENDO" OF POLITICS ABOUT IT.

UM(700)
(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 11:30 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TODAY, THURSDAY, MAY 24)
(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-HERE ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MESSAGE TODAY TO CONGRESS ON FOREIGN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1:

I AM NOW RECOMMENDING...A MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM AS FOLLOWS:
1. MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO OTHER FREE NATIONS IN THE AMOUNT OF $6,250,000,000 (B).
2. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IN THE AMOUNT OF $2,250,000,000 (B), PRIMARILY TO SUPPORT EXPANDED DEFENSE EFFORTS ABROAD.

THE PROGRAM FOR OUR OWN ARMED FORCES AND THIS MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM INTERLOCK...THE PURPOSE OF EACH IS THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES.

WE DO NOT AND WE SHOULD NOT STAND ALONE. WE CANNOT MAINTAIN OUR CIVILIZATION, IF THE REST OF THE WORLD IS SPLIT UP, SUBJUGATED, AND ORGANIZED AGAINST US BY THE KREMLIN.

--

THE DOLLARS SPENT UNDER THE MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM WILL BUILD MORE STRENGTH...THAN WE COULD BUILD AT HOME WITH THE SAME EXPENDITURE.

THIS PROGRAM WAS DESIGNED WITH THREE MAJOR CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SOVIET THREAT IN MIND:
FIRST, THE SOVIET THREAT IS WORLD-WIDE.
SECOND, THE SOVIET THREAT IS TOTAL...COMMUNIST ATTACK MAY COME IN THE FORM OF ARMIES MARCHING ACROSS FRONTIERS; OR IT MAY COME IN THE FORM OF INTERNAL SUBVERSION...
THIRD, THE SOVIET THREAT IS OF INDEFINITE DURATION.

THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN KOREA DISPELLED ANY LINGERING DOUBTS THAT THE KREMLIN IS WILLING TO THREATEN THE PEACE OF THE WORLD.

THE MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM...IS NOT A PROGRAM UNDER WHICH WE WILL CARRY THE REST OF THE FREE WORLD ON OUR BACKS..THE PROGRAM IS FOUNDED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL EFFORT...

THE BULK OF THE ASSISTANCE...WILL BE MILITARY EQUIPMENT. MOST OF THIS WILL GO TO OUR PARTNERS IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY...

ECONOMIC AID WILL ENABLE RECIPIENTS TO CARRY ON LARGER DEFENSE PROGRAMS...IN ASIA AND OTHER UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS, THIS PROGRAM WILL ENABLE THE PEOPLE TO MAKE HEADWAY AGAINST CONDITIONS OF POVERTY AND STAGNATION WHICH ARE THE PRINCIPAL ASSETS OF SOVIET INFILTRATION...
I HAVE LIMITED THE ASSISTANCE...TO WHAT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY... TO HELP THESE COUNTRIES BUILD ESSENTIAL MILITARY AND ECONOMIC STRENGTH.

THE ECONOMIC, AS WELL AS MILITARY AID RECOMMENDED, IS GRANT ASSISTANCE TO BE PROVIDED THROUGH APPROPRIATED FUNDS. LOANS BY THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK WILL ALSO CONTINUE TO PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE...I RECOMMEND THAT THE LENDING AUTHORITY OF THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK BE INCREASED BY $1,000,000,000 (B).

THE ONLY KIND OF WAR WE WEEK IS THE GOOD OLD FIGHT AGAINST MAN'S ANCIENT ENEMIES--POVERTY, DISEASE, HUNGER AND ILLITERACY.

WE HAVE NO DOUBT OF THE OUTCOME OF THIS FREE WORLD EFFORT... IT WILL NEVER BE USED FOR AGGRESSION. BUT IT WILL BE USED INSTANTLY FOR DEFENSE.

THE STRENGTHENING OF THE FREE WORLD ALONG THESE LINES IS THE BEST HOPE OF PRODUCING CHANGES IN THE POLICIES OF THE SOVIET UNION WITHOUT A WORLD WAR...

IT IS TOO EARLY TO PREDICT HOW OR WHEN...

FREE EUROPE IS A CRITICAL AREA THAT MUST BE DEFENDED...THE LOSS OF EUROPE TO THE SOVIET UNION WOULD NOT ONLY BE TRAGIC IN ITSELF; IT WOULD ALSO RESULT IN A TREMENDOUS SHIFT OF WORLD POWER. IT WOULD COMPEL US TO CONVERT THE UNITED STATES INTO AN ISOLATED GARRISON STATE.

THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY REFLECTS THE BASIC FACT OF INTERNATIONAL LIFE THAT THE FREEDOM OF WESTERN EUROPE AND THE FREEDOM OF NORTH AMERICA ARE INSEPARABLE.

THE KEY ELEMENT IN THE DEFENSE OF FREE EUROPE IS THE ABILITY TO HOLD ON THE GROUND.

CIVIL WAR IN GREECE; PRESSURE FOR TURKISH CONCESSIONS ON THE DARDANELLES; SPONSORSHIP OF THE REBELLIOUS TUDEH PARTY IN IRAN; FURTHERING OF FACTIONAL STRIFE IN THE ARAB STATES AND ISRAEL--ALL REFLECT A CONCERTED DESIGN FOR EXTENSION OF SOVIET DOMINATION (OF THE MIDDLE EAST).

IN THE ARAB STATES AND ISRAEL, THE FUNDAMENTAL REQUIREMENT IS A REGIONAL APPROACH TO THE BASIC PROBLEMS OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

SOVIET INTENTIONS WITH REGARD TO (ASIA AND THE PACIFIC) ARE UNMISTAKABLY CLEAR....THE KREMLIN HAS ALREADY REDUCED CHINA TO THE STATUS OF A SATELLITE...TURNED THEIR SATELLITE ARMIES LOOSE ON THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA. COMMUNIST REBELLION IS RAGING IN INDO-CHINA. IN BURMA, THE PHILIPPINES, AND OTHER PLACES, COMMUNIST-INSPIRED GROUPS ARE STIRRING UP INTERNAL DISORDER.

MILITARY ASSISTANCE UNDER THIS PROGRAM WILL GO TO THE THINESE ARMIES ON FORMOSA, TO HELP KEEP THAT ISLAND OUT OF THE HANDS OF COMMUNIST CHINA...TO INDO-CHINA...THE PHILIPPINES AND TO THAILAND...

THE ECONOMIC FUNDS FOR ASIA INCLUDE $112,500,000 FOR THE UNITED NATIONS KOREAN RECONSTRUCTION AGENCY.

I RECOMMEND THIS MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM TO THE CONGRESS AS ANOTHER VITAL STEP ALONG THE ROAD TO REAL SECURITY AND LASTING PEACE...WE CANNOT WIN PEACE THROUGH APPEASEMENT. WE CANNOT GAIN SECURITY IN ISOLATION. WE WILL NOT SURRENDER.

WE ARE READY, AS WE HAVE ALWAYS BEEN, TO FOLLOW THE ROAD OF PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES....

IF THE RULERS OF THE SOVIET UNION DID NOT DROWN THEIR WORDS OF PEACE WITH THE DRUMS OF WAR...THE CENTURY IN WHICH WE LIVE COULD BECOME THE BRIGHTEST MAN HAS KNOWN...IF PEACE COULD BE MADE SURE, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WOULD BE GLAD TO INVEST A PART OF THE RESOURCES WE MUST NOW ALLOCATE TO DEFENSE TO A LARGE SCALE PROGRAM OF WORLD-WIDE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT...

FIRST LEAD WITH MACARTHUR INQUIRY

NEW YORK, MAY 24-(AP)-AN AIDE TO GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR SAID TONIGHT "THERE WAS NO GAP" IN THE KOREAN BATTLE LINES LAST WINTER "IN THE SENSE REPORTEDLY DESCRIBED" BY GEN.OMAR BRADLEY IN HIS CLOSING TESTIMONY TODAY BEFORE THE SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

BRADLEY TOLD SENATORS, PROBING MACARTHUR'S OUSTER FROM THE FAR EAST COMMAND, THAT THE PENTAGON TWICE WARNED MACARTHUR LAST FALL TO CLOSE THE GAP SEPARATING THE EIGHTH ARMY AND THE 10TH CORPS IN KOREA. THE CHINESE TRAPPED THE 10TH CORPS IN THEIR WINTER OFFENSIVE. AFTER A DRAMATIC STRUGGLE, THE 10TH CORPS BROKE OUT OF THE ENCIRCLEMENT.

MACARTHUR'S AIDE, MAJ. GEN. COURTNEY WHITNEY, SAID IN A DICTATED STATEMENT IT WAS "APPARENT" THAT BRADLEY SPOKE WITHOUT "FIRST HAND KNOWLEDGE OF THE (KOREAN) TERRAIN AND OTHER EXISTING LOCAL CONDITIONS."

"DURING 11 MONTHS OF THE WAR HE (BRADLEY) HAS NEVER VISITED THE KOREAN BATTLE AREA, WHICH DIFFERS MATERIALLY FROM ANYTHING HE HAS PERSONALLY EXPERIENCED," WHITNEY SAID.

WHITNEY'S STATEMENT, IN FULL, FOLLOWS:

"IT IS QUITE APPARENT FROM GENERAL BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY AS REPORTED BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS THIS AFTERNOON THAT HE WAS NOT FAMILIAR WITH THE TACTICAL SITUATION EXISTING IN KOREA OR THAT HIS MEMORY HAS SADLY BETRAYED HIM.

"AT THE TIME THE CHINESE ENTERED THE WAR, THE TENTH CORPS WAS ACTING AS AN ENVELOPING FORCE AGAINST THE REMNANT OF THE NORTH KOREAN FORCES DEPLOYED IN FRONT OF THE EIGHTH ARMY. UPON DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHINESE ATTACK, THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE TENTH CORPS BECAME CLEARLY INDICATED AND SUCH OPERATION WAS UNDER WAY BY GENERAL MAC ARTHUR'S ORDERS LONG BEFORE THE DIRECTIVE OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TO WHICH GENERAL BRADLEY REFERS.

"PRIOR TO THE CHINESE ATTACK THE EIGHTH ARMY AND THE TENTH CORPS WERE INTEGRAL UNITS FUNCTIONING WITH THEIR OWN SUPPLY LINES BUT NOT FORMING A SINGLE LINE OF BATTLE.

A137

"ON THE RIGHT OF THE EIGHTH ARMY CONSTITUTING ITS RIGHT WING WERE OUR SOUTH KOREAN FORCES. THE CHINESE ARMIES SPLIT BECAUSE OF THE PRESENCE OF THE TENTH CORPS ON THEIR FLANK (AND) HIT THE EIGHTH ARMY AT THE JUNCTION BETWEEN THE AMERICAN AND SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS, ROUTING THE SOUTH KOREANS AND CAUSING THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE ENTIRE LINE.

"THERE WAS NO GAP IN THE SENSE REPORTEDLY DESCRIBED BY GENERAL BRADLEY AND NONE OF THE CHINESE FORCES OUTFLANKED OUR EIGHTH ARMY POSITIONS AS HE IS REPORTED TO HAVE STATED.

"THE WITHDRAWAL OPERATIONS FOLLOWING THE CHINESE ATTACK WERE AMONG THE MOST SKILLFULL EVER EXECUTED AND RECEIVED THE HIGHEST COMMENDATION FROM WASHINGTON. LOSSES WERE RELATIVELY LIGHT--LESS FOR INSTANCE THAN IN THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER DURING OUR VICTORIOUS ACTIONS AT INCHON AND (THE) PUSAN PERIMETER AS GENERAL MAC ARTHUR HAS PREVIOUSLY POINTED OUT.

"ANY OTHER DISPOSITION OF OUR FORCES IN A VAIN EFFORT TO HOLD A NECESSARILY THIN CONTIGUOUS LINE ACROSS THE PENINSULA WOULD HAVE THREATENED THE DESTRUCTION OF OUR ENTIRE ARMY AND UNQUESTIONABLY WOULD HAVE RESULTED IN MUCH HEAVIER CASUALTIES.

"GENERAL BRADLEY'S REPORTED COMMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE WITHOUT FIRST-HAND KNOWLEDGE OF THE TERRAIN AND OTHER EXISTING LOCAL CONDITIONS. DURING 11 MONTHS OF THE WAR HE HAS NEVER VISITED THE KOREAN BATTLE AREA WHICH DIFFERS MATERIALLY FROM ANYTHING HE HAS PERSONALLY EXPERIENCED.

"THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE FULLY AND DAILY INFORMED OF THE TACTICAL OPERATION AND THE BASIC PLANS, MOVEMENTS AND DISPOSITIONS AND I KNOW OF NO OBJECTION THEY SENT TO TOKYO CONCERNING THE SAME."

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-TWO HOUSE COLLEAGUES TODAY DISPUTED AN ASSERTION BY REP.BURNSIDE (D-WVA) THAT GEN.MACARTHUR ADVOCATED BOMBING AND AMERICAN OCCUPATION OF CHINA IN 1949 WHEN THE COMMUNISTS WERE DRIVING THE NATIONALIST TROOPS OUT OF THAT COUNTRY.

REP.LOVRE (R-SD) SAID HE WAS "AMAZED" BY BURNSIDE'S REMARKS, MADE IN THE HOUSE LATE YESTERDAY.

REP.RIEHLMAN (R-NY), WHO VISITED MACARTHUR IN TOKYO IN 1949 AS A MEMBER OF A SPECIAL COMMITTEE WHICH INCLUDED LOVRE AND BURNSIDE, BACKED UP LOVRE'S ASSERTION THAT AT NO TIME DURING THEIR CONFERENCE WITH THE GENERAL DID MACARTHUR ADVOCATE BOMBING CHINA OR STARTING A WAR IN THE FAR EAST.

"GEN.MACARTHUR IS NOT THAT KIND OF A MAN OR A WARMONGER," LOVRE TOLD THE HOUSE.

BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED FOR $8,500,000,000 (B) TODAY TO HELP FRIENDLY NATIONS THROW UP "A DEFENSIVE SHIELD" AGAINST COMMUNIST RUSSIA.

"THE SOVIET THREAT IS WORLD WIDE," HE SAID IN A MESSAGE TO CONGRESS OUTLINING A BROAD NEW FOREIGN AID PROGRAM. HE SAID THE COMMUNIST ATTACK MAY COME THROUGH "ARMIES MARCHING ACROSS FRONTIERS," OR BY SLYER MEANS SUCH AS INTERNAL SUBVERSION, POLITICAL INFILTRATION OR SABOTAGE.

IN ASKING NEW BILLIONS TO HELP PUNCTURE SOVIET RUSSIA'S "DREAMS OF WORLD CONQUEST," MR.TRUMAN SAID THE MONEY WILL GO TO SPEED SHIPMENTS OF AMERICAN ARMS AND ECONOMIC AID TO NEARLY 50 FRIENDLY COUNTRIES AROUND THE WORLD. THESE INCLUDE FORMOSA, IRAN AND OTHER POWDER KEG CENTERS IN THE GLOBAL PICTURE, BUT THE HEAVY ACCENT WAS ON EUROPE. NEARLY TWO-THIRDS OF THE TOTAL WAS SOUGHT FOR ARMING ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS.

SLIGHTLY OVER TWO-THIRDS OF THE TOTAL, $6,250,000,000 WOULD BE EARMARKED FOR MILITARY AID. THE BALANCE OF $2,250,000,000 WOULD GO FOR ECONOMIC HELP.

DECLARING THAT SOVIET RULERS "MAY SOON START ALL-OUT AGGRESSION," MR.TRUMAN TOLD CONGRESS:

"WITH THIS PROGRAM OF ASSISTANCE. WE WILL MOVE FORWARD RAPIDLY

TOWARD A SITUATION GIVING REASONABLE ASSURANCE AGAINST AGGRESSION. THE CREATION OF THIS STRENGTH WILL PROVIDE A DEFENSIVE SHIELD....FOR ALL THE FREE WORLD.

"THIS SHIELD THREATENS NO ONE. IT WILL NEVER BE USED FOR AGGRESSION. BUT IT WILL BE USED INSTANTLY FOR DEFENSE."

PERHAPS TAKING NOTE OF RECURRENT REPORTS OF SOVIET PEACE FEELERS, THE PRESIDENT SAID THIS COUNTRY IS READY, AS ALWAYS, TO "FOLLOW THE ROAD OF PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES."

BUT HE DECLARED:

"IF THE RULERS OF THE SOVIET UNION DID NOT DROWN THEIR WORDS OF PEACE WITH THE DRUMS OF WAR, IF THEIR PROFESSIONS OF PEACEFUL INTENT WERE MATCHED BY DEEDS, THE CENTURY IN WHICH WE LIVE COULD BECOME THE BRIGHTEST MAN HAS KNOWN UPON THIS EARTH.

"FOR OUR PART, IF PEACE COULD BE MADE SURE, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WOULD BE GLAD TO INVEST A PART OF THE RESOURCES WE MUST NOW ALLOCATE TO DEFENSE TO A LARGE SCALE PROGRAM OF WORLD-WIDE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT."

MAY 25 1951

MR.TRUMAN SAID IN HIS MESSAGE THAT THE NEW $8.5-BILLION FOREIGN PROGRAM--COVERING THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1952--IS NEEDED TO GO ALONG WITH THE $60-BILLION PROGRAM FOR AMERICAN DEFENSE WHICH HE HAS ALREADY TRANSMITTED TO CONGRESS.

"WE CANNOT MAINTAIN OUR CIVILIZATION IF THE REST OF THE WORLD IS SPLIT UP, SUBJUGATED, AND ORGANIZED AGAINST US BY THE KREMLIN," HE SAID.

"THIS IS A VERY REAL AND TERRIBLE DANGER.

"BUT IT CAN BE OVERCOME. TO DO SO WE MUST WORK WITH THE REST OF THE FREE WORLD. THIS IS HARD COMMON SENSE AND SOUND ECONOMY. THE DOLLARS SPENT (ABROAD) WILL BUILD MORE STRENGTH IN SUPPORT OF OUR SECURITY THAN WE COULD BUILD AT HOME WITH THE SAME EXPENDITURE OF FUNDS."

THE PRESIDENT SAID HE HAD LIMITED HIS RECOMMENDATIONS TO "WHAT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY," AND HE DECLARED:

"IT IS NOT A PROGRAM UNDER WHICH WE WILL CARRY THE REST OF THE FREE WORLD ON OUR BACKS. THE PROGRAM IS FOUNDED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF MUTUAL EFFORT."

FURTHERMORE, HE SAID, IT WILL BE SUBJECT TO CONTINUAL REVIEW "IN THE LIGHT OF EACH COUNTRY'S PERFORMANCE AND OF ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL CHANGES."

MR.TRUMAN MADE IT CLEAR THAT HE REGARDS EUROPE, WITH ITS VAST INDUSTRIAL CENTERS, AS OF PARAMOUNT IMPORTANCE IN THE WORLD STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

DESCRIBING THE WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS AS "THE MOST TEMPTING PRIZE FOR SOVIET AMBITIONS AND OUR STRONGEST ALLIES," MR.TRUMAN SAID:

"THE LOSS OF EUROPE TO THE SOVIET UNION WOULD NOT ONLY BE TRAGIC IN ITSELF; IT WOULD ALSO RESULT IN A TREMENDOUS SHIFT OF WORLD POWER. IT WOULD COMPEL US TO CONVERT THE UNITED STATES INTO AN ISOLATED GARRISON STATE."

UNDER THE PROGRAM, A RECORD SUM OF $6,590,000,000 WOULD BE ALLOTTED TO WESTERN EUROPE.

BUT MR.TRUMAN ALSO SHOWED GRAVE CONCERN OVER SOVIET THRUSTS IN THE FAR EAST, DECLARING:

"TO LOSE THESE (ASIATIC) COUNTRIES TO THE RULERS OF THE KREMLIN WOULD BE MORE THAN A BLOW TO OUR MILITARY SECURITY AND OUR ECONOMIC LIFE. IT WOULD BE A TERRIBLE DEFEAT FOR THE IDEALS OF FREEDOM--WITH GRAVE SPIRITUAL CONSEQUENCES FOR MEN EVERYWHERE WHO SHARE OUR FAITH IN FREEDOM."

A3WX

MR.TRUMAN PROPOSED A TOTAL OF $1,614,000,000 IN MILITARY-ECONOMIC AID TO BE SPREAD AMONG FRIENDLY NATIONS IN THE FAR EAST, SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST ASIA, THE MIDDLE EAST AND LATIN AMERICA.

THE SUM OF $930,000,000 WOULD BE SET ASIDE FOR ASIATIC COUNTRIES, INCLUDING FORMOSA, THE LAST-DITCH STRONGHOLD OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES.

MR.TRUMAN DID NOT SPECIFY HOW MUCH WOULD GO TO FORMOSA, BUT SAID THE MONEY WOULD BE DESIGNED "TO HELP KEEP THAT ISLAND OUT OF THE HANDS OF THE COMMUNISTS." HE SAID FORMOSA WOULD SHARE $555,000,000 WITH INDOCHINA AND THE PHILIPPINES.

THE PRESIDENT GAVE THE FOLLOWING BREAKDOWN ON THE OVERALL TOTAL:

	(MILLIONS OF DOLLARS) ECONOMIC	MILITARY
EUROPE	1,650	5,240
MIDDLE EAST, NORTH AFRICA	125	415
ASIA	375	555
LATIN AMERICA	22	40

MIGHT LEAD TRUMAN (ROUNDUP)

BY D.HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON, MAY 24--(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN WARNED TODAY A THIRD WORLD WAR MIGHT BRING A RETURN TO THE "DARK AGES" AND TURN AMERICAN SOIL INTO A BATTLEFRONT, BUT HE EXPRESSED THE HOPE THAT HIS PROGRAM AND POLICIES WILL AVERT SUCH A CATASTROPHE.

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT HE IS "CONFIDENT"--NOT "COCKY" AS SOME WRITERS HAVE REPORTED--THAT HIS POLICIES ARE RIGHT AND HAVE THE SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND OF THE WORLD.

HE SAID HE BELIEVES THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE ENOUGH INTELLIGENCE AND ENERGY TO MEET ANY SITUATION, BUT HE IS NOT WILLING TO TAKE A CHANCE ON SEEING HOW THEY WOULD REACT UNDER THE DESTRUCTION WHICH ANOTHER WORLD STRUGGLE WOULD BRING.

"THAT IS THE REASON I DON'T WANT A THIRD WORLD WAR," HE SAID.

HE GRANTED A REQUEST THAT A SIZABLE PORTION OF HIS REMARKS BE QUOTED DIRECTLY.

THE PRESIDENT VOLUNTEERED HIS STATEMENT ABOUT POLICIES NEAR THE END OF A LENGTHY NEWS CONFERENCE IN WHICH HE AGAIN DECLINED TO STATE WHETHER HE WILL BE A CANDIDATE AGAIN IN 1952, BUT SAID THE SEASON IS STILL OPEN FOR ALL WHO WANT TO RUN.

HE SAID IF AND WHEN HE DECIDES TO MAKE A CROSS-COUNTRY SPEAKING TRIP-- AS HE SAID HE MIGHT IN A MESSAGE TO A MEETING OF DEMOCRATS IN DENVER YESTERDAY-- THE PURPOSE WOULD BE TO TELL THE PEOPLE THE TRUTH AND THE FACTS JUST AS HE SAID HE DID IN THE 1948 CAMPAIGN.

AS THE CONFERENCE WAS ABOUT TO CLOSE, MR.TRUMAN SAID HE HAD A COMMENT TO MAKE, THAT HE WANTED TO HAVE AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE PRESS. HE SAID SOME OF HIS FRIENDS WHO WRITE COLUMNS HAVE BEEN SAYING LATELY THAT HE HAD A "COCKY" ATTITUDE.

HE SAID HE DIDN'T LIKE THAT WORD "COCKY," AND PREFERRED "CONFIDENT". HE RECALLED THAT HE WAS CAREFUL AFTER HIS 1948 ELECTION "NOT TO APPE COCKY, OR AS IF I WANTED TO PRESS SOMEBODY DOWN," AND THAT HE IS NOT IN THAT MOOD NOW.

"I THINK, HOWEVER," HE WENT ON, "THAT THE PROGRAM AND POLICIES THAT THE EXECUTIVE HAS BEEN ENDEAVORING TO PUT INTO EFFECT ARE RIGHT, AND I THINK THAT THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND OF THE WORLD BELIEVE THAT THEY ARE RIGHT.

"AND I AM CONFIDENT THAT THOSE POLICIES WILL GO INTO EFFECT LEGISLATIVELY AND OTHERWISE BECAUSE THEY ARE RIGHT. AND I DON'T WANT TO ASSUME ANY COCKY ATTITUDE TOWARD ANYBODY, NO MATTER WHO HE IS. I JUST WANT TO MAKE THAT PLAIN--BECAUSE I DON'T FEEL THAT WAY, AND NEVER HAVE."

A194WX

IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, HE SAID HE HAD HIS PROGRAM FOR WORLD PEACE IN MIND, AS WELL AS OTHER POLICIES, AND HOPES THEY WILL PREVENT ANOTHER WORLD WAR.

SUCH A WAR, HE SAID, WOULD IN EFFECT DESTROY FREEDOM AND EVERYTHING ELSE. HE ADDED:

"WE WOULD PROBABLY GO BACK TO THE DARK AGES IF WE HAVE ANOTHER THIRD WORLD WAR. I DON'T WANT TO HAVE IT. THAT'S ALL I HAVE WORKED FOR FOR SIX YEARS, IS PEACE IN THE WORLD.

"NOTHING IN MY LIFE AMOUNTS TO ANYTHING BUT WORLD PEACE. THAT IS ALL I AM WORKING FOR."

RADIO COMMENTATOR ELMER DAVIS ASKED AT THIS POINT:

"HAVEN'T WE GOT ENOUGH ENERGY AND INTELLIGENCE IN THIS COUNTRY TO KEEP FROM SLIPPING BACK INTO THE DARK AGES, EVEN IF WE WOULD HAVE TO FIGHT ANOTHER WAR?"

"I HOPE THAT IS TRUE," THE PRESIDENT REPLIED, "BUT YOU KNOW WHAT HAPPENS TO GOVERNMENTS AND WHAT HAPPENS TO PEOPLE, AND THIS--AND IF A THIRD WORLD WAR SHOULD COME, WE WILL NOT BE IN THE POSITION, ELMER, THAT WE HAVE BEEN IN THE OTHER TWO.

"WE WILL BE A BATTLEFRONT. WE CAN LOOK FORWARD TO DESTRUCTION HERE, JUST AS THE OTHER COUNTRIES HAD IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR. AND YOU NEVER CAN TELL WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO PEOPLE WHEN THAT TAKES PLACE.

"I THINK WE HAVE ENOUGH INTELLIGENCE AND ENERGY TO MEET ANY SITUATION WITH WHICH WE ARE CONFRONTED, BUT I AM NOT WILLING TO TAKE A CHANCE ON IT."

THE PRESIDENT OPENED THE CONFERENCE BY READING A STATEMENT REMINDING THE PEOPLE THAT NEXT WEDNESDAY IS MEMORIAL DAY "AND THAT WE ALL HAVE A DUTY ON THAT DAY TO PRAY FOR PERMANENT PEACE AS WELL AS TO HONOR THE HEROES OF PAST WARS."

HE SAID, REPLYING TO A QUESTION, THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE IN OUR KOREAN POLICY AND THAT COMMANDERS IN THE FIELD HAVE ABSOLUTE CONTROL OVER TACTICS AND STRATEGY AND ALWAYS HAVE HAD. THE QUESTION WAS WHETHER A STATEMENT BY LIEUT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET HAD MEANT ANY POLICY CHANGE. THE AMERICAN EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER SAID TODAY HIS ARMY WAS ATTACKING ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT AND "THERE IS NO LIMIT ON ITS OBJECTIVES."

ASKED ABOUT RUMORS OF "PEACE FEELERS" FROM THE CHINESE REDS, THE PRESIDENT SAID SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ANSWERED THAT QUESTION FULLY YESTERDAY. ACHESON SAID HE KNEW OF NONE.

MR.TRUMAN SAID HE REGARDED AS "DELICATE" AN INQUIRY BY ANOTHER REPORTER SEEKING HIS VIEWS ON THE RECORD OF THE PRESENT CONGRESS. HE SAID ONE NEVER COULD ACCURATELY ESTIMATE SUCH A RECORD UNTIL A CONGRESS IS OVER AND THAT THE PRESENT CONGRESS HAS STILL ANOTHER SESSION TO GO IN 1952.

HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT HE IS WORRIED OVER THE EXTENSION OF EMERGENCY LAWS, SUCH AS THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT, BUT BELIEVES THE IMPORTANT MEASURES WILL PASS BEFORE THE JUNE 30 EXPIRATION DATE.

NIGHT LEAD KOREAN CASUALTIES

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-A DISCLOSURE THAT THERE HAVE BEEN 72,679 NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES IN KOREA TODAY BOOSTED THE TOTAL OF ALL U.S. CASUALTIES IN THE KOREAN WAR TO 141,959.

THE NEW, OVERALL FIGURE CAME OUT IN TESTIMONY BY GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, IN TESTIMONY BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEES. HERETOFORE, OFFICIAL CASUALTY ANNOUNCEMENTS HAVE BEEN LIMITED ALMOST ENTIRELY TO THOSE SUFFERED IN BATTLE.

BRADLEY TOLD THE SENATORS THAT THERE HAVE BEEN 69,276 BATTLE CASUALTIES, INCLUDING 10,680 DEAD. HE TOTALED NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES AT 72,679 INCLUDING 612 DEAD OF SUCH CAUSES AS PNEUMONIA, AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.ETC.

EIGHTY-FIVE PERCENT OF THE NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES HAVE RETURNED TO DUTY, HE SAID, DEFENDING THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT POLICY OF NOT INCLUDING THOSE CASUALTIES IN ITS PUBLIC REPORTS.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASKED WHETHER THE DEPARTMENT HAD CONSIDERED THIS INFORMATION TOO CONFIDENTIAL TO DISCLOSE. BRADLEY REPLIED:

"NO SIR. I THINK THEY ARE JUST APT TO BE MISLEADING IF YOU DO, BECASE A LOT OF THOSE PEOPLE JUST GO BACK, FOR EXAMPLE, INTO A HOSPITAL OR AN AID STATION ONE NIGHT, WITH A COLD OR SOMETHING ELSE; A MAN THAT HAS TO GO BACK TO HAVE A TOOTH PULLED, HE IS ONLY OUT A DAY OR TWO AND GOES BACK. IT VARIES ALL THE WAY FROM THAT TO THOSE WHO ARE HOSPITALIZED, AND THOSE WHO DIE AS A RESULT OF NON-BATTLE INJURIES."

BEFORE THE EXACT FIGURES WERE AVAILABLE FROM THE CLOSED DOOR TESTIMONY, SENATOR BRIDGES TOLD NEWSMEN THAT TOTAL CASUALTIES--BATTLE AND NON-BATTLE--"ARE SUBSTANTIALLY MORE THAN DOUBLE THOSE OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED."

"NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES HAVE BEEN KEPT FROM THE PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS EVEN THOUGH THEY INCLUDE MEN WHO HAVE SUFFERED FROZEN LEGS AND ARMS THAT HAVE BEEN AMPUTATED," BRIDGES SAID.

ON LAST MONDAY THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT REPORTED NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES WERE AVERAGING ABOUT 9.5 PERCENT OF THE TOTAL TROOPS INVOLVED IN KOREA. IT WAS EXPLAINED THEN THIS MEANT THAT PERCENTAGE WAS AWAY FROM ACTIVE DUTY BECAUSE OF ACCIDENTAL INJURY, DISEASE AND OTHER CAUSES SUCH AS FROSTBITE IN WINTER AND HEAT PROSTRATION IN SUMMER.

BRADLEY TOLD THE SENATORS THE CASUALTY TOTALS INCLUDE 13,349 MISSING IN ACTION AND "I WOULD EVEN HESITATE TO MAKE AN ESTIMATE" AS TO HOW MANY OF THOSE MAY EVENTUALLY BE FREED ALIVE.

HE INDICATED HE TOOK A GLOOMY VIEW ON THIS, HOWEVER, BY SAYING:

A197WX

"IN FIGHTING THE GERMANS WE USUALLY GOT BACK A VERY LARGE PERCENTAGE" BUT "IN FIGHTING THE NORTH KOREANS I AM AFRAID THE PERCENTAGE WE GET BACK WILL BE VERY MUCH SMALLER."

HE DECLINED TO TRY TO BE AT ALL SPECIFIC WHEN SENATOR BYRD (D-VA) ASKED: "WOULD YOU SAY THAT TWO-THIRDS OF THOSE ARE LIKELY DEAD?"

THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT YESTERDAY ISSUED ONE OF ITS WEEKLY CASUALTY LISTS, BASED ON THOSE REPORTED TO NEXT OF KIN THROUGH MAY 18. THIS SHOWED A TOTAL OF 66,816, INCLUDING 10,038 KILLED, 45,567 WOUNDED AND 11,211 MISSING.

TRUMAN-KOREA

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN, ASKED ABOUT MILITARY OBJECTIVES IN KOREA, SAID TODAY THAT COMMANDERS IN THE FIELD HAVE ABSOLUTE CONTROL OVER TACTICS AND STRATEGY AND ALWAYS HAVE HAD.

THIS WAS HIS ONLY COMMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE ON AN ASSERTION BY LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET THAT THE 8TH ARMY "IS ATTACKING ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT AND THERE IS NO LIMITATION ON ITS OBJECTIVES."

MR.TRUMAN REPLIED IN THE NEGATIVE WHEN HE WAS ASKED IF THAT CONSTITUTED ANY CHANGE IN POLICY IN KOREA.

TOLD THERE WERE RUMORS OF "PEACE FEELERS" FROM THE CHINESE REDS, THE PRESIDENT SAID SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ANSWERED THAT QUESTION FULLY AT A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY.

ACHESON HAD SAID HE KNEW OF NONE.

(280) MCCARTHY

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS), IN A NEW ATTACK ON SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, SAID TODAY ACHESON HAS "TRIED TO MAKE SURE THAT WE COULD NOT WIN IN BATTLE."

HE ALSO SAID THE "DEATH WARRANT" FOR AMERICANS FIGHTING IN KOREA "HAS BEEN SIGNED AND SEALED BY POLITICIANS WHO ARE RUNNING OUR STATE DEPARTMENT."

AT ANOTHER POINT HE REFERRED TO "THE TREACHEROUS RED CLIQUE IN POWER" IN THE DEPARTMENT, AND AT STILL ANOTHER HE SPOKE OF ACHESON "AND YOUR LACE HANDKERCHIEF CROWD."

MCCARTHY, WHO REPEATEDLY HAS CHARGED THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS HARBORING COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS, MADE THE STATEMENTS IN A SENATE SPEECH. HE SAID THE DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN TRYING TO OVERRIDE U.S. MILITARY OFFICIALS IN RUNNING THE KOREAN WAR.

HE SAID ORDERS RESTRICTING OPERATIONS OF U.S. MILITARY FORCES IN KOREA WERE A "TRIBUTE TO THE TREACHEROUS RED CLIQUE."

MCCARTHY CITED BOB SMITH, A SOLDIER FROM MIDDLEBURG, PA., AS TYPICAL OF THE THOUSANDS OF CASUALTIES HE SAID HAD SUFFERED FROM STATE DEPARTMENT POLICIES IN KOREA. SMITH LOST BOTH ARMS AND BOTH LEGS.

"I SUGGEST," THE SENATOR SAID, "THAT WHEN THE DAY COMES THAT BOB SMITH CAN WALK, WHEN HE GETS HIS ARTIFICIAL LIMBS, HE FIRST WALK OVER TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND CALL UPON THE GREAT RED DEAN ACHESON--IF HE IS STILL THERE.

"HE SHOULD SAY TO HIM, 'DEAN, HUNDREDSOF THOUEANDS OF AMERICAN BOYS HAVE FACED THOSE TWIN KILLERS (BULLETS AND BITTER COLD) BECAUSE YOU HAVE TRIED TO RUN THE TACTICS AND THE STRATEGY OF AN ARMY IN THE FIELD AND HAVE TRIED TO MAKE SURE THAT WE COULD NOT WIN IN BATTLE.'

"HE SHOULD SAY, 'MR. ACHESON, IF YOU WANT TO TRY AT LONG LAST TO PERFORM ONE SERVICE FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE YOU SHOULD NOT ONLY RESIGN FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT BUT YOU SHOULD REMOVE YOUR CARCASS FROM THIS COUNTRY AND GO TO THE NATION FOR WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN STRUGGLING AND FIGHTING FOR SO LONG.'"

NIGHT LEAD INDIA AID (350)

BY WILMOT HERCHER

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-THE HOUSE VOTED TODAY TO LEND FAMINE-STRICKEN INDIA $190,000,000 (M) FOR THE PURCHASE OF AMERICAN GRAIN AND OTHER FOODSTUFFS.

IT REFUSED TO REQUIRE THE INDIAN GOVERNMENT TO REPAY THE LOAN IN STRATEGIC WAR MATERIALS, BUT DIRECTED THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, WHICH WOULD NEGOTIATE TERMS, TO TRY TO GET SOME SCARCE MATERIALS AS PART OF THE DEAL.

A COMPANION BILL WAS PASSED BY THE SENATE LAST WEEK. SINCE IT DISAGREES WITH THE HOUSE MEASURE IN SEVERAL WAYS, THE LEGISLATION NOW GOES TO A SENATE-HOUSE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TO HAVE THE DIFFERENCES IRONED OUT.

THE ROLL CALL VOTE IN THE HOUSE TODAY WAS 293 TO 94. FOR THE BILL WERE 170 DEMOCRATS, 122 REPUBLICANS AND 1 INDEPENDENT. AGAINST WERE 36 DEMOCRATS AND 58 REPUBLICANS.

IN ITS FINAL FORM, THE HOUSE MEASURE REQUIRES THAT THE FOOD BE PURCHASED IN THE UNITED STATES AND THAT AT LEAST HALF OF IT BE TRANSPORTED TO INDIA IN AMERICAN VESSELS. THE ECA WOULD HAVE A FREE HAND IN ARRANGING CREDIT TERMS.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS MANAGED TO DEFEAT BY A STANDING VOTE OF 135 TO 103 AN AMENDMENT BY REP.COX (D-GA) TO WRITE INTO THE BILL A REQUIREMENT THAT INDIA AGREE TO REPAY THE LOAN WITH SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES OF MONAZITE SANDS, MANGANESE, BERYL, CYANITE AND JUTE PRODUCTS, ALL SCARCE IN THE UNITED STATES AND USEFUL IN THE DEFENSE PROGRAM. COX ALSO WANTED THE LOAN REPAID IN SIX YEARS.

JUST BEFORE PASSING THE BILL, THE HOUSE BEAT, 181 TO 73 ON A STANDING VOTE, A MOTION TO REDUCE THE LOAN TO $150,000,000.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD ASKED CONGRESS TO MAKE INDIA A GIFT OF THE GRAIN, ABOUT 2,000,000 TONS, AS A HUMANITARIAN GESTURE. THE GIFT IDEA RAN INTO IMMEDIATE OPPOSITION--A GREAT DEAL OF WHICH WAS TRACED TO INDIA'S REFUSAL TO JOIN OTHER MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN BRANDING RED CHINA AN AGGRESSOR.

THEN PRIME MINISTER NEHRU ANNOUNCED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT ACCEPT A LOAN WITH ANY POLITICAL STRINGS ATTACHED. HE ALSO SAID IT IS A FUNDAMENTAL PART OF INDIA'S FOREIGN POLICY THAT NO MATERIAL RELATED TO THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC WEAPONS AND THE LIKE SHALL BE EXPORTED TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

(280) NIGHT LEAD COMMUNISTS

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-CHARLES M.LA FOLLETTE REFUSED TODAY TO CONTINUE AS CHAIRMAN OF A GOVERNMENT PANEL TRYING TO DECIDE WHETHER THE COMMUNIST PARTY MUST REGISTER AS A FOREIGN AGENCY CONTROLLED BY THE KREMLIN.

THE FORMER REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATIVE FROM INDIANA COMPLAINED THAT HE WAS HELD IN "DISDAIN" BY WILLIAM A.PAISLEY, CHIEF GOVERNMENT ATTORNEY. HE SAID PAISLEY'S ATTITUDE "QUITE EVIDENTLY IS BEING TRANSMITTED" TO THE GOVERNMENT'S WITNESSES IN HEARINGS THE PANEL IS CONDUCTING.

LA FOLLETTE SAID HE RECOGNIZED THAT THERE IS "GREAT PUBLIC SUPPORT" FOR ANYTHING THE GOVERNMENT PROPOSED AT THE HEARING, AND THAT THE SITUATION MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO CONDUCT THE HEARING "WITH ORDERLY PROCEDURE".

HE TRIED TO TURN THE CHAIR OVER TO PETER CAMPBELL BROWN, ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE PANEL, BUT BROWN SHOOK HIS HEAD. THEN IN A THRUST AT BROWN, LA FOLLETTE SAID HIS COLLEAGUE HAD SHOWN A CAPACITY TO MAKE SWIFT RULINGS ON OBJECTIONS RAISED AT THE HEARING, ADDING:

"THE FACT THAT THEY ALMOST UNIFORMLY AMOUNT TO A SUSTAINING OF ANY POSITION TAKEN BY THE PETITIONER (THE GOVERNMENT) AND A REJECTION OF ANY POSITION TAKEN BY THE RESPONDENT (THE COMMUNIST PARTY) IS PURELY COINCIDENTAL, I AM SURE."

THE PANEL IS A SECTION OF THE SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES BOARD. IT OPENED HEARINGS APRIL 23 TO JUDGE WHETHER THE COMMUNIST PARTY MUST REGISTER AS A FOREIGN AGENT UNDER THE MCCARRAN ACT.

LA FOLLETTE DID NOT RESIGN FROM THE PANEL OR THE BOARD. HE JUST REFUSED TO CARRY ON AS PRESIDING OFFICER AT THE HEARING. HIS LAST ACT WAS TO ADJOURN THE HEARING UNTIL JUNE 4. IN THE MEANTIME, APPARENTLY, THE BOARD WILL TRY TO SETTLE THE SQUABBLE. THE THIRD MEMBER OF THE PANEL IS MISS KATHRYN MCHALE.

AFTER LA FOLLETTE SPOKE OUT AT TODAY'S HEARING, VITO MARCANTONIO, A COUNSEL FOR THE COMMUNIST PARTY, SAID THE INCIDENT SUPPORTED HIS CLAIM THAT A FAIR HEARING IS IMPOSSIBLE UNDER THE ACT.

BOARD CHAIRMAN RICHARDSON TOLD NEWSMEN LATER THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT THE PANEL WILL RESUME SESSIONS JUNE 4 WITH THE SAME MAKEUP, AND WITH LA FOLLETTE PRESIDING.

ASKED IF LA FOLLETTE HAD AGREED TO THIS, RICHARDSON REPLIED:

"NO, BUT I HAVE NO DOUBT THAT THAT IS THE WAY IT WILL BE."

LA FOLLETTE MEANWHILE LEFT THE CITY AND WAS NOT AVAILABLE FOR COMMENT.

(370) NIGHT LEAD UN-AMERICAN

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-FRANK WRIGHT TUTTLE, ONETIME $3,000-A-WEEK MOVIE DIRECTOR, ASSUMED THE SELF-STYLED ROLE OF "INFORMER" TODAY IN NAMING NEARLY TWO SCORE HOLLYWOOD SCREEN FIGURES AS COMMUNISTS.

TUTTLE CAME HERE FROM VIENNA. HIS HOME SINCE 1949, TO TESTIFY

VOLUNTARILY ON HIS OWN 10-YEAR SPAN AS A COMMUNIST AT A HEARING BEFORE THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE.

HE DESCRIBED HIS ALLIANCE WITH THE REDS AS "A MONSTROUS ERROR IN JUDGMENT" AND SAID IT HAD COST HIM HIS JOB.

MOST OF THE FIGURES TUTTLE CITED AS COMMUNISTS HAVE ALREADY BEEN IDENTIFIED IN PREVIOUS HEARINGS. THUS THERE WAS NO NEW SENSATION IN THIS TESTIMONY; THERE WAS AN ELEMENT OF DRAMA IN TUTTLE'S CASTING OF HIMSELF:

"I BELIEVE THERE IS A TRADITIONAL DISLIKE AMONG AMERICANS FOR INFORMERS," HE TOLD THE COMMITTEE. "AND I AM AN INFORMER.

"BUT I BELIEVE ALL DECENT PEOPLE WHO AGREE WITH ME THINK IT IS ABSOLUTELY VITAL AT A TIME LIKE THIS, WITH COMMUNIST AGGRESSION ABROAD IN THE WORLD."

TUTTLE, WHO STARTED HIS MOVIE CAREER IN THE OLD SILENT DAYS SOON AFTER GRADUATING FROM YALE IN 1915, HAS DIRECTED SOME 70 PICTURES, INCLUDING BING CROSBY MUSICALS AND SUCH RECENT FILMS AS "THIS GUN FOR HIRE" AND "SUSPENSE." HE IS NOW 59.

AT THE END OF TUTTLE'S RECITAL, ACTING CHAIRMAN WALTER (D-PA) SAID HE DID NOT THINK IT WAS FAIR FOR THE MOVIE INDUSTRY TO PENALIZE WITNESSES WHO TESTIFY FRANKLY ABOUT COMMUNISM IN HOLLYWOOD.

WALTER'S COMMENT CAME AFTER TUTTLE SAID HIS PICTURE COMMITMENTS WERE CANCELLED WHEN HE WAS CITED IN TESTIMONY AS A FORMER COMMUNIST. TUTTLE SAID COLUMBIA PICTURES ALSO ACTED TO REMOVE HIS SCREEN CREDIT FROM A CURRENT MOVIE RELEASE.

"I'M AFRAID IF EMPLOYERS DO THIS SORT OF THING THEY WILL DISCOURAGE THOSE WHO ARE WAITING THEIR TURN TO MAKE THEIR CONTRIBUTION TO THIS COMMITTEE," WALTER SAID, AND HE TOLD TUTTLE:

"YOU HAVE HRENDERED A GREAT SERVICE TO US IN AIDING THE COMMITTEE TO BRING HOME TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THE CONSPIRACY OF COMMUNISM TO DOMINATE THE WORLD."

TUTTLE SAID HIS CAREER AS A COMMUNIST BEGAN IN 1937 WHEN HE BECAME "MORE AND MORE IMPRESSED" WITH THE PARTY'S OPPOSITION TO HITLERISM.

IT ENDED IN 1947, HE SAID, WHEN THE PARTY SWITCHED TO A POLICY OF "VIOLENCE AND FORCE" TO ACHIEVE ITS POLITICAL GOALS.

TUTTLE SAID HE HAD NOT REALIZED UNTIL RECENT YEARS THAT COMMUNISM WAS A WORLD-WIDE CONSPIRACY.

HE SAID COMMUNISTS DON'T THINK CLEARLY. THERE IS "A KIND OF MENTAL INCEST" PRACTICED WHEN COMMUNISTS GET TOGETHER, HE SAID, AND THEY TALK ONLY ABOUT THINGS ON WHICH THEY ARE ALREADY AGREED.

(275) NIGHT LEAD DRAFT TEST

MAY 25 1951

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-THERE MAY BE A LAST-MINUTE RUSH AT DRAFT BOARDS TOMORROW FOR APPLICATIONS TO TAKE THE FORTHCOMING COLLEGE APTITUDE TESTS.

THERE IS NO INDICATION, HOWEVER, THAT LOCAL BOARDS PLAN TO EXTEND THEIR USUAL CLOSING HOURS FOR THE DAY.

SELECTIVE SERVICE HEADQUARTERS SAID IT IS UP TO STATE DIRECTORS WHETHER ANY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE FOR LATE COMERS. NONE OF THE DIRECTORS, AT A MEETING WHICH ENDED HERE TODAY, REPORTED PLANS TO STAY OPEN LATE.

SELECTIVE SERVICE DIRECTOR LOUIS B. HERSHEY PREDICTED, HOWEVER, THAT THERE WOULD BE A LAST-MINUTE RUSH BECAUSE OF THE POPULAR TENDENCY TO DELAY APPLICATIONS AS LONG AS POSSIBLE.

COLLEGE MEN MUST MAIL THEIR APPLICATION CARDS, OBTAINABLE ONLY FROM DRAFT BOARDS, SO THAT THEY WILL BE POSTMARKED NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT FRIDAY.

THE CARDS ARE ADDRESSED TO THE EDUCATIONAL TESTING SERVICE, PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY. THE TESTS WILL BE GIVEN AT HUNDREDS OF CENTERS ACROSS THE COUNTRY.

A SCORE OF 70 OR BETTER FOR UNDERCLASSMEN OR 75 OR BETTER FOR SENIORS -- OR GENERALLY SATISFACTORY SCHOLASTIC STANDING -- MAY PROVIDE THE BASIS FOR DEFERMENT BY THE BOARDS.

THE SCORES WILL GO TO THE DRAFT BOARDS AND NOT TO THE STUDENTS. ANY STUDENT HAS ACCESS TO HIS FILE AT THE DRAFT BOARD AND MAY FIND OUT HIS SCORE THERE.

HERSHEY ADVISED STUDENTS PLANNING TO ASK FOR DEFERMENT IN ORDER TO CONTINUE THEIR EDUCATION TO NOTIFY THE LOCAL BOARDS AS SOON AS THE ACADEMIC YEAR -- AND THEIR CURRENT STATUTORY DEFERMENT -- ENDS.

HERSHEY ESTIMATED MORE THAN 400,000 COLLEGE MEN WILL APPLY FOR ADMISSION TO THE APTITUDE TESTS. ABOUT 175,000 HAVE ALREADY BEEN ASSIGNED TO TAKE THE FIRST THREE HOUR TEST WHICH WILL BE GIVEN, AT MORE THAN 1,000 EXAMINATION CENTERS, SATURDAY.

SIMILAR TESTS WILL BE GIVEN JUNE 16 AND JUNE 30, WITH A FOURTH TEST JULY 12 FOR THOSE WITH RELIGIOUS SCRUPLES AGAINST TAKING A TEST ON A SATURDAY.

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-A NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY (NPA) OFFICIAL SAID TODAY STEEL SUPPLY REQUESTS BY FIVE LOCOMOTIVE BUILDERS WERE "INEXPLICABLY LOST." HE DENIED, HOWEVER, THAT FAVORITISM WAS INVOLVED IN NPA ASSISTANCE TO TWO OTHER LOCOMOTIVE BUILDERS.

THE CASE OF THE LOST PAPERS CAME UP YESTERDAY IN HEARINGS OF A HOUSE MONOPOLY SUBCOMMITTEE. THE SUBCOMMITTEE IS HEARING CHARGES OF GOVERNMENT FAVORITISM IN HELPING GENERAL MOTORS CORP., BUILD LOCOMOTIVES.

H.B.MCCOY, FORMER NPA INDUSTRY OPERATIONS CHIEF AND NOW ASSISTANT ADMINISTRATOR OF NPA'S TEXTILE LEATHER AND SPECIALTY EQUIPMENT BUREAU, EXPLAINED HIS PART IN THE MATTER IN A STATEMENT.

"TWO THINGS WERE INVOLVED," HE SAID. "ONE DIRECTIVE ACTION WAS TAKEN TO PULL TWO COMPANIES (GM'S ELECTRO MOTIVE DIVISION AND THE BALDWIN-LIMA-HAMILTON LOCOMOTIVE CO.) THROUGH AN EMERGENCY WHICH WAS REGARDED AS THREATENING TO SHUT DOWN THEIR PLANTS." DIRECTIVE ACTION, HE EXPLAINED, PROVIDES IMMEDIATE ASSISTANCE NECESSARY IN AN ACUTE EMERGENCY.

"TWO. A REQUEST FOR INTERIM ASSISTANCE OF A PROGRAM NATURE WAS MADE FOR SEVERAL (FIVE) COMPANIES, BUT NOT GRANTED. THIS ASSISTANCE WAS NOT NECESSARY IN VIEW OF THE ADOPTION OF AN OVERALL LOCOMOTIVE PRODUCTION PROGRAM."

IT WAS WHILE THE NON-APPROVED REQUESTS WERE BEING ROUTED BETWEEN NPA'S DEPARTMENTS THAT THEY WERE "INEXPLICABLY LOST," MCCOY DECLARED.

HE SAID THE REQUESTS, ASKING NPA AID IN OBTAINING ABOUT 20,000 TONS OF STEEL, FINALLY WERE DUPLICATED AND ARRIVED AT HIS OFFICE FOR FINAL INSPECTION. HE SAID THE REQUESTS WERE TURNED DOWN AS "UNREALISTIC AFTER INVESTIGATION DISCLOSED THAT A LARGE PART OF THE MATERIAL ASKED FOR ALREADY WAS SCHEDULED IN THE MILLS OR IN THE PROCESS OF DELIVERY."

"THE PROCESSING OF THESE APPLICATIONS WAS NEVER COMPLETED," MCCOY ADDED.

MELVIN W.COLE, CHIEF OF NPA'S IRON AND STEEL DIVISION, TESTIFIED BEFORE THE SUBCOMMITTEE YESTERDAY THAT GM WAS GUARANTEED 2,663 TONS OF STEEL FROM MILLS ON GOVERNMENT ORDER. HE SAID HE APPROVED THE REQUEST FOR MATERIALS BY THE GM COMPETITORS AS LESS-PREFERABLE DEFENSE ORDERS.

OTHER WITNESSES HAVE TESTIFIED THAT THE COMPANIES WHICH FAILED TO GET NPA ASSISTANCE CURTAILED OPERATIONS AND LOST OUT ON SEVERAL MONTHS PRODUCTION OF VITALLY-NEEDED LOCOMOTIVES.

NAMES OF THE COMPANIES WERE NOT BROUGHT OUT IN THE TESTIMONY.

NIGHT LEAD WINE

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-WINE INDUSTRY REPRESENTATIVES TODAY GAVE GOVERNMENT PRICE CONTROL OFFICIALS THEIR VIEWS ON A PROPOSED TAILORED CEILING PRICE REGULATION FOR WINERIES.

THE INDUSTRY SPOKESMAN RECOMMENDED AN ORDER BASED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF THE GENERAL MANUFACTURERS' CEILING PRICE REGULATION. THIS WOULD PERMIT WINERIES TO USE A PRE-KOREAN BASE PRICING PERIOD AND ADD ON THE INCREASED COST OF LABOR AND MATERIALS UP TO GIVEN CUT-OFF DATES.

SINCE WINE PRODUCTION IS SEASONAL AND PRODUCTION PERIODS VARY IN DIFFERENT SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY, THE INDUSTRY SPOKESMAN SAID BASE PERIODS AND CUTOFF DATES SHOULD BE SELECTED WHICH WOULD BE EQUITABLE TO ALL PRODUCING AREAS.

THE COMMITTEE ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THE INDUSTRY REGULATION MIGHT BE BASED ON PRICES F.O.B. AT THE WINERY WITH PERCENTAGE MARKUPS DOWN THE LINE TO THE CONSUMER.

REPRESENTING THE OPS (OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION) AT THE MORNING AND AFTERNOON CLOSED MEETINGS WERE: GEORGE MEHREN, ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR OF THE FOOD AND RESTAURANT DIVISION; CHARLES SAND OF THE GROCERY BRANCH; JOHN PACHE, ECONOMIST AND ISRAEL SONENSHEIN AND HENRY KEISER, ATTORNEYS.

JAMES POOLE, JOHN GENSKI AND GEORGE EASTMAN ATTENDED AS OBSERVERS FROM THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT.

THE 16-MEMBER INDUSTRY ADVISORY COMMITTEE IS MADE UP OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE WINE INDUSTRY FROM VARIOUS STATES. OPS SAID THE RECOMMENDATIONS WOULD BE TAKEN UNDER CONSIDERATION IN PLANNING A PRICE ORDER.

WASHINGTON, MAY 24-(AP)-OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY AS "A DAY TO PRAY FOR PERMANENT PEACE" WAS URGED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY.

THE KOREAN FIGHTING MAKES IT "MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER," HE SAID IN A NEWS CONFERENCE STATEMENT NOTING THAT HE HAD ASKED A SIMILAR OBSERVANCE LAST YEAR BEFORE THE KOREAN CONFLICT STARTED.

THAT PROCLAMATION WAS THE RESULT OF A CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION, WHICH IN TURN GREW OUT OF A SUGGESTION FROM CARL M.SAUNDERS, EDITOR OF THE JACKSON (MICH) CITIZEN PATRIOT.

SAUNDERS RECEIVED A PULITZER PRIZE FOR AN EDITORIAL URGING THE DESIGNATION OF MEMORIAL DAY AS A DAY OF PRAYER FOR PEACE.

THE TEXT OF MR.TRUMAN'S STATEMENT TODAY:

I WANT TO REMIND EVERYONE THAT NEXT WEDNESDAY WILL BE MEMORIAL DAY, AND THAT WE ALL HAVE A DUTY ON THAT DAY TO PRAY FOR PERMANENT PEACE AS WELL AS TO HONOR THE HEROES OF PAST WARS.

IN THE PROCLAMATION WHICH I USSED ON MAY 23, 1950, PURSUANT TO A JOINT RESOLUTION OF THE CONGRESS, I PROCLAIMED EACH SUCCEEDING MEMORIAL DAY AS A DAY OF PRAYER FOR PERMANENT PEACE, AND SUGGESTED 11 O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING, EASTERN DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME, AS AN APPROPRIATE TIME FOR EACH AMERICAN, ACCORDING TO HIS OWN RELIGIOUS FAITH, TO BEG DEVINE AID IN BRINGING ENDURING PEACE TO A TROUBLED WORLD.

I CALLED THEN AND CALL AGAIN UPON THE PRESS, RADIO, TELEVISION AND OTHER MEDIA OF PUBLIC INFORMATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS OBSERVANCE.

THIS PROCLAMATION WAS FIRST ISSUED BEFORE THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION WHICH MADE IT NECESSARY FOR THE FREE NATIONS TO TURN BACK THE INVADERS IN KOREA. WITH OUR MEN, AND THE MEN OF OTHER FREE NATIONS, FIGHTING THIS MEMORIAL DAY IN KOREA, IT IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER THAT WE JOIN -- EVERY ONE OF US -- IN PRAYING FOR THE PEACE WHICH IS OUR OBJECTIVE.

WASHINGTON,MAY 24-(AP)-PFC.ROBERT L.SMITH, QUADRUPLE AMPUTEE OF THE KOREAN WAR, HAS NOW ADDED HAIR COMBING TO THE LITTLE EVERYDAY THINGS HE HAS HAD TO LEARN ALL OVER AGAIN.
AND, THE MIDDLEBURG,PA., SOLDIER WILL TELL YOU, COMBING YOUR HAIR CAN BE A LOT TOUGHER THAN EATING WITH A FORK OR SMOKING A CIGARETTE.
USING HIS RIGHT HOOK, WHICH FOR THE PRESENT HAS REPLACED HIS AMPUTATED RIGHT HAND, SMITH EXECUTES THE GROOMING FEAT WITH AN OVERHEAD TWISTING MOTION.
IT WILL BE MUCH EASIER, HE HAS BEEN TOLD BY WALTER REED HOSPITAL DOCTORS, WHEN HE IS EQUIPPED WITH ARTIFICIAL HANDS. THOSE DEVICES ARE ALMOST AS FLEXIBLE AS HUMAN HANDS SO FAR AS MOTION IS CONCERNED.
FOR SOMETIME BOB HAS BEEN HELPING HIMSELF TO CIGARETTES AND LIGHTING THEM, AND TO LIFTING VARIOUS OBJECTS FROM HIS BEDSIDE TABLE.
BUT MUCH REMAINS TO BE DONE BEFORE HE WILL BE OUTFITTED WITH TWO ARTIFICIAL HANDS AND TWO ARTIFICIAL LEGS. FOR EXAMPLE, BOB EXPECTS TO UNDERGO TWO MORE OPERATIONS SOON. ONE WILL BE TO REMOVE ABOUT AN INCH OF BONE FROM THE STUMP OF HIS LEFT FOREARM. THE OTHER WILL BE TO SHAPE THE STUMP OF HIS LEFT LEG.
BUT BOB TAKES IT ALL PHILOSOPHICALLY AND CHEERFULLY. HE KNOWS IT'S ALL NECESSARY TO OUTFIT HIM FOR THE NEARLY NORMAL LIFE HE LOOKS FORWARD TO LIVING AFTER HE LEAVES THE HOSPITAL.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD DEMOCRATS (300)
BY JACK BELL
DENVER,MAY 24-(AP)-PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER W.AVERELL HARRIMAN TOLD CHEERING DEMOCRATS TODAY THE RED CHINESE FACE A "DISASTER" IN KOREA THAT MAY SHAKE THE KREMLIN.
VIGOROUSLY BACKING PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROGRAM FOR CONTAINING THE WAR IN KOREA, HARRIMAN TOLD DELEGATES TO A 26-STATE PARTY CONFERENCE CREDIT FOR RETREAT OF RED ARMIES CAN BE GIVEN TO GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY AND LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET.
RIDGWAY SUCCEEDED GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, WHOSE PROPOSALS FOR EXPANDING THE WAR AGAINST RED CHINA WERE CONDEMNED NOT ONLY BY HARRIMAN BUT BY SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN.
HARRIMAN FORECAST WHAT HE CALLED COMMUNIST "FAILURE" IN KOREA MAY FORCE RUSSIA TO REORIENT ITS POLICIES TOWARD PEACE TO PREVENT "DISINTEGRATION" IN THE KREMLIN'S CONTROL.
BRANNAN SUBSTITUTED FOR VICE PRESIDENT BARKLEY--KEPT IN WASHINGTON BY ILLNESS IN HIS FAMILY--IN A CONFERENCE WINDUP SPEECH PREPARATORY TO TOMORROW'S MEETING OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE WHICH IS EXPECTED TO PICK CHICAGO FOR ITS PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATING CONVENTION IN THE WEEK OF JULY 21, 1952.
BRANNAN SWUNG ROUNDHOUSE BLOWS AT FOUR REPUBLICANS--SENATORS TAFT

(R-OHIO), MCCARTHY (R-WIS) AND CAIN (R-WASH) AND REP.MARTIN OF MASSACHUSETTS, HOUSE MINORITY LEADER. HE SAID TAFT, WHO THE DEMOCRATS APPARENTLY WOULD LIKE TO SEE BECOME THE 1952 REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE, WAS PART OF THE "REPUBLICAN ISOLATIONIST LEADERSHIP" THAT OPPOSED MEASURES TO STOP COMMUNISM BUT NOW WANTS TO RISK WORLD WAR BY FOLLOWING MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM IN THE FAR EAST.

BRANNAN SAID MARTIN IS A "LONG TIME ISOLATIONIST," AND SAILED INTO MCCARTHY AS ONE OF THE PROMOTERS OF THE "BIG DOUBT" TECHNIQUE HE SAID WAS SIMILAR TO THAT USED BY HITLER. ASSERTING MCCARTHY HAD "CONTRIBUTED NOT A PARTICLE OF EVIDENCE" TO ROOTING COMMUNISTS OUT OF GOVERNMENT, BRANNAN DECLARED IN A PREPARED ADDRESS:

"WHAT AN INFAMY IT IS TO A POLITICAL PARTY THAT ONE OF ITS MEMBERS SHOULD HAVE GIVEN TO THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE SUCH A WORD AS MCCARTHYISM."

BRANNAN SAID CAIN IS "NOT SATISFIED JUST TO ENLARGE THE WAR--HE SAYS DECLARE WAR ON RED CHINA."

HARRIMAN SAID IN AN ADDRESS AT A WESTERN DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION 1951
HERE THAT ANY FAR EASTERN POLICY "OF IMPULSIVE AND ILL-CONCEIVED ACTION MIGHT BE A PROVOCATION TO GENERAL WAR."

HE LINKED THIS OBVIOUS ATTACK ON THE PROPOSALS OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR TO BROADEN THE FIGHT AGAINST RED CHINA WITH A CALL FOR TWO-PARTY SUPPORT OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S LIMITED-WAR POLICY IN KOREA.

ASSERTING THAT RUSSIA'S TIMETABLE FOR TAKING OVER ASIA HAD BEEN UPSET, THE PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER SAID "FROM THE STANDPOINT OF THE KREMLIN, KOREA HAS BEEN A FAILURE."

HARRIMAN CONTENDED THAT IF THE BUILD UP IN THE FREE WORLD'S MILITARY FORCES CONTINUES, "AGGRESSION WILL BE INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT FOR THE KRELIN TO INITIATE," ADDING:

"THE KREMLIN LEADERS MAY HAVE TO ADJUST THE WHOLE BASIS OF THEIR POLICIES IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN CONTROL OF THEIR OWN PEOPLE. DISINTEGRATION MAY SET IN."

SECRETARY OF LABOR TOBIN TOLD THE CONFERENCE THE TRUMAN INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM IS TO "STOP COMMUNISM DEAD, KEEP THE PEACE, BUILD UP OUR STRENGTH AND THEN, WITH GREAT SUPERIOR POWER, TO BRING JUSTICE IN THE WORLD."

TOBIN SAID THE REPUBLICANS "HAVE NO FOREIGN POLICY" AND "IF THEY ATTEMPTED TO WRITE ONE THEY WOULD COME OUT WITH 10 DIFFERENT VARIATIONS."

LIKE HARRIMAN, TOBIN SAID THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION WOULD WELCOME A BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY BUT "NOT A WATERED DOWN ONE."

TOBIN PREDICTED THAT WHEN THE MILITARY PRODUCTION PROGRAM GETS INTO FULL SWING, ABOUT 3,000,000 (M) WORKERS WILL BE TRANSFERRED FROM CIVILIAN TO MILITARY PRODUCTION.

HARRIMAN FILLED IN FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, WHO GOT HIS FIRST OFFICIAL ACCOLADE FROM THE PARTY CONFERENCE IN A RESOLUTION WHICH DESCRIBED HIM AS A MAN OF "BROAD VISION AND KNOWLEDGE OF WORLD AFFAIRS."

ACHESON IS AWAITING A CALL TO TESTIFY IN THE SENATORIAL INQUIRY INTO MACARTHUR'S OUSTER AS PACIFIC COMMANDER.

ACHESON HAS BEEN UNDER FIRE FROM REPUBLICANS AND EVEN SOME DEMOCRATS ARE REPORTED TO HAVE URGED PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO REPLACE HIM. THE PRESIDENT HAS SAID HE WON'T DO THAT. ACHESON SAID HE HAD "ENLISA TED FOR THE DURATION" AND INTENDS TO STAY.

A COMMITTEE HEADED BY CARL V.RICE, KANSAS N

PRESIDENT HAS SAID HE WON'T DO THAT. ACHESON SAID HE HAD "ENLISTED FOR THE DURATION" AND INTENDS TO STAY.

A COMMITTEE HEADED BY CARL V.RICE, KANSAS NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN, BROUGHT OUT RESOLUTIONS PRAISING PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR HIS "COURAGEOUS" FOREIGN POLICY [illegible] AND DESCRIBING SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AS "A MASTER OF GLOBAL STRATEGY."

-MORE-

A21KX

THE RESOLUTIONS REAFFIRMED THE PARTY'S BELIEF IN CIVILIAN CONTROL OVER THE MILITARY. THIS WAS IN LINE WITH TESTIMONY BY GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF CONCURRED IN MAC ARTHUR'S DISMISSAL IN PART BECAUSE THEY FEARED HE WAS CHALLENGING CIVILIAN AUTHORITY.

THE RESOLUTION ACCUSED SOME REPUBLICANS OF TRYING TO "DESTROY THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY."

HARRIMAN TOLD THE DELEGATES THAT WHILE MR.TRUMAN WANTS TWO-PARTY BACKING, HE ISN'T GOING TO "BARGAIN AWAY THE ELEMENT OF OUR SECURITY TO SATISFY THOSE WHO DO NOT UNDERSTAND WHAT IS AT STAKE."

"THE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION REJECTS APPEASEMENT AT HOME, JUST AS IT REJECTS

"THE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION REJECTS APPEASEMENT AT HOME, JUST AS IT REJECTS APPEASEMENT ABROAD," HARRIMAN SAID.

HE SAID MAC ARTHUR SUPPORTERS, WHOM HE ACCUSED OF WANTING THE NATION TO "TAKE RECKLESS, ILL-CONCEIVED ACTIONS THAT MIGHT PLUNGE US INTO ANOTHER WORLD WAR," HAVE JOINED "THOSE WHO WOULD HAVE US RETREAT-TURN BACK FROM WHAT WE HAVE UNDERTAKEN."

"THERE SEEMS TO BE A STRANGE BOND BETW MAY 25 1951

TURN BACK FROM WHAT WE HAVE UNDERTAKEN."

"THERE SEEMS TO BE A STRANGE BOND BETWEEN THOSE GROUPS," HARRIMAN SAID. "ALTHOUGH THEIR IDEAS ARE BASICALLY POLES APART, THEY HAVE ONE THING IN COMMON--THEY WANT US TO GO IT ALONE."

VICE PRESIDENT BARKLEY WAS SCHEDULED TO MAKE A MAJOR CONFERENCE WINDUP SPEECH TONIGHT. BUT NATIONAL CHAIRMAN WILLIAM M.BOYLE ANNOUNCED THAT BARKLEY WOULD BE UNABLE TO COME HERE. SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE CHARLES F.BRANNAN WILL SPEAK INSTEAD.

TOMORROW, THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE WILL TAKE OVER TO PICK ITS CONVENTION SITE FOR NEXT YEAR'S PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

CHICAGO IS EXPECTED TO BE ELECTED, WITH THE TIME FIXED FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 21. PHILADELPHIA ALSO IS BIDDING.

IN THEIR RESOLUTIONS, THE WESTERN DEMOCRATS TOOK COGNIZANCE OF DEMANDS BY LABOR SPEAKERS THAT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION SHOW ITS DETERMINATION TO PUSH FOR TIGHTER ECONOMIC CONTROLS AND TO SEEK ACTION ON SUCH ISSUES AS CIVIL RIGHTS.

THEY CALLED FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION ON THE LATTER ISSUE, WHICH A CIO SPEAKER SAID YESTERDAY HAD BEEN "NEGLECTED" IN THE PRESENT CONGRESS. THEY ALSO APPROVED PAY-AS-YOU-GO TAXES.

JAMES G. PATTON, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL FARMERS UNION, TIED INTO THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF TREASURY SECRETARY SNYDER THAT COOPERATIVES SHOULD BE TAXED.

"I ASK THE CABINET MEMBERS PRESENT TO REMIND SECRETARY SNYDER OF PLEDGES MADE IN THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM," PATTON DECLARED DURING THE PANEL ON AGRICULTRE. "IF HE HASN'T READ THES, THEY OUGHT TO GIVE THEM TO HIM VERBALLY."

PATTON SAID HHIS ORGANIZATION OPPOSED "FREEZING" FARM PARITY PRICES UNLESS ALL PRICES ARE STABILIZED.

"WE'LL SUPPORT THE ROLLBACK BUT ARE NOT GOING TO SIT BY AND SEE AGRICULTURE AND LLABOR HAVE THE BITE PUT ON THEM WHILE NOT A THING IS BEING DONE ABOUT GIGANTIC PROFITS," HE DECLARED. HE ALSO RAPPED THE FARM BUREAU-EXTENSION SERVICE LINK WHICH HE SAID IS BUILDING UP A POLITICAL MACHINE "THAT IS ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE POLITICAL FENCE.

O. A. KNIGHT, PRESIDENT OF THE CIO OIL WORKERS UNION, SAID THAT THE CIO IS READY TO THROW ITS WHOLE WEIGHT BEHIND THE BATTLE AGAINST COMMUNISM.

IN AN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO THE MACARTHUR CONTROVERSY, KNIGHT DECLARED:

"LABOR SUPPORTS THE AMERICAN TRADITION OF CIVILIAN SUPREMACY OVER

30.24- 23391

THE M[illegible]ITARY. IF NECESSARY, TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF CIVILI[illegible]S TO ADMI[illegible]ER THIS COUNTRY, LABOR WILL SUPPORT THE REMOVAL OF ANY GENER[illegible] ADM[illegible]L."

"[illegible] NOT ONE MAN AT STAKE. IT IS A FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE OF OUR WA[illegible] OF LIFE WHICH IS AT STAKE AND IF OLD SOLDIERS EXPRESS A DESIRE TO "'JUST FADE AWAY,' WE SHOULD ANSWER THEM IN THE PHRASE OF THE CRAP SHOOTER, 'BROTHER, YOU'RE FADED.'"

"APPEASEMENT WOULD BE FATALLY WRONG NOW AS IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN WHEN CONFRONTED BY AGGRESSION," DUFF SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR CENTENNIAL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT CARSON-NEWMAN COLLEGE. HE ADDED:

"BUT EVERY SCHOOL BOY MUST SURELY KNOW NOW THAT IF WAR STRIKES ACROSS THE WORLD AGAIN, THE WORLD THEREAFTER WILL BEAR NO RELATIONSHIP TO THE WORLD TODAY.

"WITH ATOMIC WEAPONS, WITH BIOLOGICAL WARFARE, WITH CHEMICAL WARFARE, THE FORCES OF DESTRUCTION ARE NOW SO GREAT THAT IT IS ALMOST WITHIN THE POWER OF HUMAN BEINGS TO DESTROY ALL LIVING FORMS OF LIFE IN THE EARTH -- INCLUDING THEMSELVES."

THE PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR DECLARED THAT THIS COUNTRY, WHILE PREPARING "IN A PHYSICAL WAY TO RESIST RUSSIA," OUGHT ALSO "TO FORMULATE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE SOME METHOD, SHORT OF APPEASEMENT, OF APPROACHING THE QUESTION OF SOLVING TODAY'S DIFFICULTIES WITHOUT INVOLVEMENT IN ANOTHER WORLD WAR." DUFF ADDED:

"UNLESS WE ARE DEALING WITH COMPLETE MADMEN IN RUSSIA THERE MUST SURELY BE SOME AVENUE WHEREBY IT WILL BE POSSIBLE TO DISCUSS SERIOUSLY AND SINCERELY METHODS TO ADJUST THE MISUNDERSTANDINGS X X X ON SOME OTHER BASIS THAN BY DESTROYING CIVILIZATION ITSELF."

DUFF DESCRIBED COMMUNISM AS "THE DEVICE USED BY SOVIET RUSSIA TO DISGUISE THE VEHICLE ON WHICH ITS IMPERIALISM RIDES;" HE DESCRIBED AMERICA AS "THE SINGLE ROAD BLOCK BETWEEN FREEDOM AND SLAVERY IN TODAY'S WORLD."

EVENTS OF THE "LAST FEW MONTHS," HE SAID, "MAKE IT INCREASINGLY CLEAR THAT RUSSIA HAS DEPLOYED HER ARMED FORCES FOR WORLD CONFLICT."

TO COUNTER THIS, HE CALLED ON THE UNITED STATES AS "THE LEADER OF THE FREE PEOPLE" TO:

"THAT IS ONE EFFECT OF 'TREMENDOUS CASUALTIES' BEING INFLICTED ON RED CHINA'S ARMIES IN THE FAR EAST," HE TOLD A JEFFERSON-JACKSON DAY AUDIENCE OF ABOUT 2,000 IN THE ILLINOIS STATE ARMORY. DINERS PAID $20 A PLATE FOR THE DINNER.

"WE HAVE TAUGHT AGGRESSION A TERRIBLE LESSON--THAT IT DOESN'T PAY," DOUGLAS SAID.

HE SAID HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF WOUNDED ENEMY SOLDIERS ARE GOING BACK TO THEIR HOMES IN CHINA AND ARE STIRRING DISSATISFACTION WITH THEIR NATIONAL LEADERS AND WITH RUSSIA.

"WE ARE SPLITTING CHINA AWAY FROM RUSSIA," HE SAID. "BECAUSE THEY SEE THEY ARE BEING USED AS TOOLS FOR RUSSIA."

HE COUNSELED AGAINST BOMBING MANCHURIAN AIR BASES ARGUING THAT "ABSTINENCE HAS NOT BEEN A MILITARY LIABILITY TO US."

"IF WE ARE TO BOMB CHINA AND KILL CHINESE PEOPLE ON CHINESE SOIL, THERE WOULD BE GREAT PRESSURE ON RUSSIA TO HONOR HER (TREATY) OBLIGATIONS," HE SAID.

RUSSIA IS PLEDGED TO COME TO CHINA'S AID IN THIS EVENT, HE ADDED. HE SAID THAT THE KREMLIN ALREADY HAS LOST A LOT OF FACE IN THE ORIENT.

"BOMBING MANCHURIA," HE SAID, "MIGHT BE THE SPARK THAT WOULD SWEEP ACROSS ASIA AND BRING THE PEOPLE OF THE MALAYAN PENINSULA AND INDO-CHINA INTO THE RUSSIAN CAMP."

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 24-(AP)-A UNITED STATES DELEGATION SPOKESMAN DENIED TODAY THAT THE SOVIET UNION HAS MADE ANY OVERTURES TO DISCUSS PEACE IN KOREA, EITHER DIRECTLY OR THROUGH ANY INTERMEDIARY.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JACOB MALIK RELAYED THROUGH A SPOKESMAN AT THE SOVIET DELEGATION HEADQUARTERS A SHORT "NO COMMENT."

THE DENIAL AND THE NO COMMENT STEMMED FROM A REPORT PUBLISHED THIS MORNING THAT RUSSIA HAS OFFERED RECENTLY THROUGH INDIRECT CHANNELS TO DISCUSS A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA WITH THE U.S. ON THE BASIS OF THE RESTORATION OF THE STATUS QUO BEFORE THE NORTH KOREA ATTACK LAST JUNE 25.

U.N. DELEGATES AND OFFICIALS HAVE INSISTED FOR SEVERAL DAYS THAT THEY KNOW OF NO MOVE BY THE SOVIET UNION OR THE UNITED STATES TO INITIATE PEACE TALKS. THE U.N. ACTUALLY IS WAITING AND LOOKING FOR SOMEONE TO COME FORWARD WITH A PLAN AND START THE BALL ROLLING.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (550)
BY DON HUTH
TOKYO, SATURDAY, MAY 26-(AP)-THE ALLIED OFFENSIVE SMASHED ASHEAD TODAY ALL ACROSS THE KOREAN PENINSULA. ARMORED COLUMNS THRUST DEEPER INTO RED NORTH KOREA IN HOT PURSUIT OF THE RETREATING COMMUNISTS.
AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY REPORTED FROM U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS THAT SOME CHINESE ARE FIGHTING SUICIDAL REAR-GUARD BATTLES IN EFFORTS TO KEEP OPEN A SIX-MILE ESCAPE ROUTE NEAR PARALLEL 38 ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

CHINESE PRISONERS THEMSELVES REPORTED MANY REDS ARE COMMITTING SUICIDE DELIBERATELY RATHER THAN FACE CONTINUED ALLIED BOMBING OR RISK BEING SHOT BY THEIR OWN OFFICERS FOR RETREATING.
THE HEAVIEST FIGHTING APPARENTLY WAS ON THE HANGYE-INJE ROAD ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT, SOME 25 AIR MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST. UNITED NATIONS ARMORED COLUMNS ALREADY WERE FOUR MILES INSIDE RED KOREA IN THAT SECTOR.
THE ALLIES WERE BATTLING TO CUT OFF THE RETREAT OF AN ESTIMATED TWO CHINESE ARMY CORPS, SOME 60,000 MEN. FIFTH AIR FORCE PLANES AND ALLIED ARTILLERY POUNDED THE ESCAPE ROUTE INCESSANTLY.
IN ADDITION TO SMASHING ACROSS PARALLEL 38 IN THE INJE AREA, UNITED NATIONS TANK-INFANTRY TEAMS FRIDAY CROSSED THE OLD POLITICAL BOUNDARY IN AT LEAST TWO OTHER PLACES.

MAY 26 1951

A107KX
AGAINST SPOTTY RESISTANCE, ALLIED COLUMNS THRUST INTO RED KOREA NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON, 45 AIR MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, AND NORTHEAST OF UIJONGBU, WHICH IS 11 MILES NORTH OF THE OLD KOREAN CAPITAL.
FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THOSE TWO COLUMNS WITHDREW AT DUSK FRIDAY TO THE ADVANCING MAIN ALLIED LINE.
CORRESPONDENT POLOWETZKY REPORTED THAT---ASIDE FROM THE SUICIDAL REARGUARD ACTION ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT---"THE PICTURE VIRTUALLY ACROSS THE BLOODSOAKED PENINSULA WAS ONE OF COMMUNIST FORCES FLEEING NORTHWARD."
HE SAID THE CHINESE REDS WERE CLOGGING ESCAPE ROUTES WITH THEIR PACK ANIMALS, ARTILLERY PIECES AND WHATEVER OTHER EQUIPMENT THEY COULD SALVAGE FROM THE STEADILY ADVANCING ALLIES.
IN WASHINGTON, GE. J. LAWTON COLLINS, U. S. ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, TOLD SENATE INVESTIGATORS THAT THE REDS "ARE IN PRETTY COMPLETE RETREAT ALONG THE FRONT."
COLLINS SAID A NEW, TOP SECRET WAR PLAN FOR CARRYING ON THE KOREAN WAR WOULD BE ISSUED SOON. HE DECLINED TO HINT WHAT IT MIGHT BE, BUT INDICATED IT WOULD NOT FOLLOW GENERAL MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR ENDING THE WAR.
GENERAL MACARTHUR, DEPOSED SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER WHOSE DISMISSAL THE SENATE IS INVESTIGATING, RECOMMENDED THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS, THE BOMBING OF RED MANCHURIAN BASES AND A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA COAST.
A TANK TASK FORCE SMASHED THROUGH A COMMUNIST ROAD BLOCK ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT LATE FRIDAY AND LINKED UP WITH AMERICAN TROOPS EXPANDING THEIR BRIDGEHEAD IN RED KOREA NEAR INJE.
AP CORRESPONDENT STAN CARTER REPORTED THAT AMERICAN INFANTRY ENGAGED THE REDS NORTHEAST OF HANGYE IN HAND-TO-HAND COMBAT TWICE FRIDAY AFTERNOON. HANGYE IS 13 MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL.
OFF THE EAST COAST, THE U. S. BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND OTHER ALLIED WARSHIPS HAMMERED RED SUPPLY LINES FROM THE PORT OF WONSAN NORTHWARD. CARRIER PLANES JOINED FIFTH AIR FORCE FIFHTERS AND BOMBERS IN HARASSING THE RETREATING REDS.
ONE OF THE LARGEST CONCENTRATIONS OF REDS WAS SPOTTED MOVING NORTH ON THE ROAD TO HWACHON, SIX MILES NORTH OF CHUNCHON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. AN ESTIMATED 10,000 CHINESE TROOPS AND 500 HORSES WERE COUNTED.
AN ALLIED ARMORED COLUMN WAS HOT ON THEIR HEELS.

OTHER ALLIED UNITS PROBED WITHIN ONE MILE OF THE BORDER NEAR THE CONFLUENCE OF THE IMJIN AND HANTAN RIVERS, 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.
LT.GEN.JAMES A. VAN FLEET, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY, CALLED THE NEW SURGE OF ALLIED MIGHT "AN ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE," AND ADDED:
"THE 38TH PARALLEL MEANS NOTHING TO ME."
HE VISITED A TANK-INFANTRY TASK FORCE NORTH OF 38 ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AND COMMENTED THAT THE ALLIED PURSUIT TACTICS WERE WORKING WELL.
AT 10TH CORPS HEADQUARTERS, VAN FLEET PINNED THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS ON LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, CORPS COMMANDER, AND MAJ. GEN. CLARK L. RUFFNER, U.S. SECOND DIVISION COMMANDER.

IT WAS THE SECOND DIVISION THAT BROKE THE BACK OF THE COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE LAST WEEK. ALMOND'S TENTH CORPS LED THE SURGE BACK INTO NORTH KOREA ON THE EASTERN FRONT.

MAY 26 1951

VAN FLEET SAID THE EIGHTH ARMY'S SUDDEN OFFENSIVE, FOLLOWING SO CLOSELY THE REDS' FUTILE DRIVE, WAS A "GAMBLE" BUT THAT IT APPEARED TO BE PAYING OFF.
"THE EIGHTH ARMY WILL GO WHEREVER THE SITUATION DICTATES IN HOT PURSUIT OF THE ENEMY," HE ADDED. "WE INTEND TO EXPLOIT EVERY ADVANTAGE IN CARRYING OUT OUR OBJECTIVE TO FIND AND KILL THE ENEMY."
RED CASUALTIES WERE RECKONED IN THE TENS OF THOUSANDS. AN ESTIMATED 2,000 WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED FRIDAY. THESE WERE IN ADDITION TO A WASHINGTON ANNOUNCEMENT OF 1,025,404 (M) ENEMY CASUALTIES FROM THE JUNE 25 OUTBREAK OF THE WAR THROUGH MAY 23.
THE WASHINGTON FIGURE WAS 120,616 MORE THAN THAT ANNOUNCED THROUGH MAY 7.
ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, AMERICAN AND SOUTH KOREAN FORCES ASTRIDE THE HONGCHON-INJE ROAD ABOVE THE PARALLEL FOUGHT TO TIGHTEN A TRAP ON AN ESTIMATED TWO CHINESE CORPS -- UP TO 60,000 MEN.
THE REDS WERE STREAMING NORTHWARD OVER RUGGED MOUNTAIN TRAILS EAST OF HONGCHON. ALLIED FIGHTERS AND LIGHT BOMBERS POUNDED THEM RELENTLESSLY.
FIELD DISPATCHES REPORTED CHINESE REARGUARD ELEMENTS FARTHER NORTH FOUGHT DESPERATELY TO STEM THE ALLIED ADVANCE.
TO THE WEST, IN THE CHUNCHON SECTOR, AIR OBSERVERS SAID PANICKED CHINESE DRIVERS WERE RUNNING DOWN THEIR OWN SOLDIERS IN FRANTIC EFFORTS TO ESCAPE STRAFING ATTACKS.
MANY COMMUNIST VEHICLES, INCLUDING TANKS, TRUCKS, CARTS AND CAPTURED JEEPS, WERE SPOTTED IN AN ASSEMBLY AREA NORTH OF CHUNCHON. THE ALLIED BORDER CROSSING WAS NORTHWEST OF THAT DESERTED TOWN.
AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER REPORTED PITCHED BATTLE WAS RAGING IN THE HILLS NORTHEAST OF CHUNCHON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.
"THE REDS CLUNG GRIMLY TO THEIR HILL POSITIONS WHILE ALLIED AIR AND ARTILLERY POUNDED THEM," BECKER REPORTED.
ON THE WESTERN FRONT, THE RETREATING REDS OFFERED SPOTTY RESISTANCE. AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID THE FORCES WHICH CROSSED 38 NORTHEAST OF UIJONGBU ENCOUNTERED ONLY SMALL ARMS FIRE.

BUT OTHER UNITS RAN INTO STIFF SKIRMISHES NORTH AND EAST OF UIJONGBU. THEY WERE BEING POUNDED INTO A SHRINKING POCKET WITH NO HOPE OF ESCAPE.

THE RECROSSING OF PARALLEL 38 NORTH OF UIJONGBU WAS THE FIRST ON THE WESTERN FRONT SINCE THE CHINESE SMASHED SOUTH OF THE BORDER IN THEIR APRIL 22 OFFENSIVE.

ON THE EXTREME WESTERN FRONT, SOUTH KOREAN INFANTRYMEN SUPPORTED BY AMERICAN TANKS PATROLLED THE SOUTH BANK OF THE IMJIN JUST BELOW THE PARALLEL IN THE KARANGPO AREA. THIS IS ON ONE MAIN INVASION ROUTE 30 MILES NORTH, NORTHWEST OF SEOUL.

AIR SPOTTERS REPORTED THE CHINESE WERE HEADING NORTH IN LARGE GROUPS--SOME AS LARGE AS REGIMENTAL SIZE. THE REDS WERE HAULING THEIR EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES IN CARTS.

IN ONE SECTION, THE REDS WERE TRYING TO SCREEN THEIR RETREAT WITH ARTILLERY FIRE. THEY DROPPED SHELLS INTO A CANADIAN COMMAND POST, BUT NO DAMAGE WAS REPORTED.

FIFTH AIR FORCES FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS CONCENTRATED THEIR STRIKES ON TWO CHINESE DIVISIONS HEADING NORTH ON THE MAIN ROAD BETWEEN CHUNCHON AND HWACHON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

MAJ.GEN.EDWARD J. TIMBERLAKE, ACTING COMMANDER OF THE FIFTH, REPORTED 538 SORTIES WERE FLOWN BY DUSK FRIDAY. A LIGHT RAIN BEGAN FALLING FRIDAY NIGHT.

SECOND LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP.

BY OLEN CLEMENTS.

TOKYO, MAY 25-(AP)-ALLIED TANKS AND TROOPS TODAY SLASHED ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL AT TWO MORE POINTS IN THEIR OFFICIALLY-DESIGNATED ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE TO HUNT DOWN THE BATTERED AND RETREATING COMMUNISTS.

THE NEW CROSSINGS KEPT UP THE PRESSURE ON THE REDS, WHO ALREADY WERE BATTLING AN ALLIED SPEARHEAD NOW THRUST FOUR MILES INTO NORTH KOREA ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THE NEW CROSSINGS WERE MADE ON THE WESTERN FRONT NORTH OF SEOUL AND ON THE CENTRAL FRONT NORTHEAST OF CHUNCHON. BOTH THESE TANK-INFANTRY TEAMS WITHDREW TO SOUTH KOREA BY NIGHTFALL.

"THE 38TH PARALLEL MEANS NOTHING TO ME," SAID LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. 8TH ARMY.

HE SHOWED HE MEANT IT BY CROSSING INTO RED KOREA HIMSELF.

VAN FLEET VISITED A TANK AND INFANTRY TASK FORCE. IT WAS SITTING SOLIDLY AS A HUGE ROAD BLOCK NORTH OF THE BORDER ASTRIDE THE REDS' ESCAPE ROUTE FROM THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. HE SAID HIS ARMY'S TACTICS OF PURSUING THE REDS INTO THEIR OWN TERRITORY WAS A GAMBLE BUT IS PAYING OFF.

"THE EIGHTH ARMY IS IN AN ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE," VAN FLEET SAID. "CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS" HAS BEEN MADE.

OTHER AMERICAN TANK PATROLS CROSSED INTO RED KOREA NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON LATE FRIDAY AGAINST ONLY LIGHT SNIPER FIRE. A FRONT DISPATCH SAID THEY WITHDREW AT NIGHTFALL.

FIELD DISPATCHES TOLD OF OPEN FLIGHT OF CHINESE TOWARD THE 38TH PARALLEL FROM SOME FRONTS, WHILE THEY FOUGHT STUBBORNLY ON OTHERS. THE PURSUING EIGHTH ARMY, VAN FLEET SAID, WILL "NOT BE LIMITED BY SUCH BARRIERS AS THE 38TH PARALLEL IN CHASING THEM DOWN."

AIRMEN SAID THEY KILLED OR WOUNDED 2,000 REDS FRIDAY IN STRIKES ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BORDER. THE FIFTH AIR FORCE REPORTED 500 "HASTILY WITHDRAWING ENEMY" WERE CAUGHT AND KNOCKED OUT ON THE WESTERN HIGHWAY NORTH OF UIJONGBU.

ANOTHER 500 WERE KO'D ON THE GLUTTED CHUNCHON-HWACHON ROADS OF THE CENTRAL FRONT. THE AIR FORCE SAID "TWO ENEMY DIVISIONS ATTEMPTED TO WITHDRAW WITHOUT THE AID OF THEIR USUAL CAMOUFLAGE TACTICS." TWO HUNDRED REDS FLEEING IN THE INJE AREA OF NORTHEASTERN KOREA AND A SERIES OF FRONT LINE STRIKES ACCOUNTED FOR THE REST.

ON A TOUR OF THE FRONT VAN FLEET PINNED DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSSES ON LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, 10TH CORPS COMMANDER, AND MAJ.GEN. CLARK L.RUFFNER, SECOND DIVISION COMMANDER, FOR THEIR PART IN SMASHING THE REDS' SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE.

"IT LOOKS LIKE THE PURSUIT TACTICS ARE WORKING WELL," VAN FLEET SAID. THERE WILL BE NO TECHNICAL LIMIT ON RUNNING DOWN THE REDS.

"THE 38TH PARALLEL HAS NO SIGNIFICANCE IN THE PRESENT TACTICAL SITUATION. IT MEANS NOTHING TO ME. THE EIGHTH ARMY WILL GO WHEREVER THE SITUATION DICTATES IN HOT PURSUIT OF THE ENEMY.

"WE INTEND TO EXPLOIT EVERY ADVANTAGE IN CARRYING OUT OUR OBJECTIVE TO FIND AND KILL THE ENEMY."

THE WHOLE UNITED NATIONS LINE WAS MOVING FORWARD AT THE BEGINNING OF THE 12TH MONTH OF THE KOREAN WAR. SOLID GAINS OF TWO TO SIX MILES WERE PUNCHED OUT THURSDAY.

THE REDS BACKED UP FAST. BUT THEY LEFT REAR GUARDS WHO FOUGHT BITTERLY TO SLOW THE ALLIED ADVANCE. COMMUNIST ARTILLERY FORCED ONE ALLIED TANK PATROL TO RETURN TO THE MAIN BODY OF TROOPS.

THE CHINESE RETREAT ROUTE IN THE EAST WAS BLOCKED BY A HUGE U.N. ARMORED FORCE ASTRIDE THE MAIN HIGHWAY, NEARLY FOUR MILES NORTH OF 38.

INFANTRY AND ARTILLERY WITH THE TASK FORCE SEIZED THE CHOYANG RIVER CROSSING NEAR INJE AND DUG IN ON BOTH SIDES AFTER A DRAMATIC 13 MILE DRIVE. THE BRIDGEHEAD WAS REPORTED FIRMLY ESTABLISHED AT 8 A.M. FRIDAY. ALLIED TANKS PATROLLED THE HONGCHON-INJE HIGHWAY AND BATTLED WITH REDS IN THE HILLS.

THE ACTION SPLIT THE CHINESE ARMIES AND FORCED SHATTERED REMNANTS OF RED FORCES TO TAKE TO MOUNTAIN TRAILS. THERE PLANES AND PLODDING TROOPS HUNTED THEM DOWN.

WARPLANES BATTERED RETREATING CHINESE AND RED KOREANS AROUND THE CLOCK ON ALL ROADS LEADING NORTH. THEY REPORTED 50 TRUCKS WERE KNOCKED OUT DURING THE NIGHT BY FLARE-DROPPING PLANES.

MAY 26 1951

AMERICAN TANKS WHICH RUMBLED INTO CHUNCHON THURSDAY LED INFANTRYMEN BACK INTO THE CENTRAL HIGHWAY HUB FRIDAY.

NINETEEN AMERICAN PRISONERS OF WAR---18 MARINES AND ONE SOLDIER--- WERE RESCUED IN THAT CITY WHERE CHINESE IN HASTY FLIGHT HAD ABANDONED THEM.

AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY SAID THE GENERAL U.N. ADVANCE MET ONLY SCATTERED RESISTANCE IN THE WEST AND WEST-CENTRAL SECTORS. OPPOSITION WAS STIFFER IN THE CENTRAL AND EAST-CENTRAL AREAS WHERE RUGGED U.S. SECOND DIVISION FIGHTING MEN HAD SHATTERED THE CHINESE SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE.

MAJ.GEN. CLAUDE B. FERENBAUGH, U.S. SEVENTH DIVISION COMMANDER, WAS PINNED DOWN FOR FOUR HOURS THURSDAY NIGHT BY A CHINESE MACHINEGUN AMBUSH. TWO AMERICANS WERE KILLED IN THE TRAP NEAR A CENTRAL KOREAN MOUNTAIN PASS. THE GENERAL WAS NOT HURT.

THERE WERE STUBBORN, SEE-SAW FIGHTS FOR ISOLATED HILLS BETWEEN RED REAR GUARDS AND ADVANCING U.N. TROOPS. IN ONE CASE AMERICAN TROOPS BYPASSED A RIDGE AFTER THREE UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS TO TAKE IT.

IN SPOTS THE REDS OPENED UP WITH MUCH HEAVIER ARTILLERY BARRAGES THAN THEY THREW DURING THEIR OFFENSIVE. THEY LEFT SOME ROADS HEAVILY MINED. RED ROCKETS BLAZED DOWN ON A U.N. TANK FORCE THAT PROBED CLOSE TO 38 NORTH OF SEOUL.

FIERCE TURKS, STOPPED FOR A TIME THURSDAY NIGHT ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, ROLLED FORWARD FRIDAY.

THE ENTIRE U.S. SECOND INFANTRY DIVISION, WITH ITS ATTACHED FRENCH AND DUTCH UNITS, ADVANCED THROUGH THE RUGGED MOUNTAINS OF THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR SOUTH OF INJE. TREMENDOUS ALLIED ARTILLERY CONCENTRATIONS OPENED UP ON STUBBORN COMMUNIST HILLTOP POSITIONS. FIGHTER PLANES SWEPT IN WITH NUMEROUS STRIKES. FOR THE INFANTRYMEN IT WAS A HACKING ADVANCE.

FARTHER EAST THE REDS IN SOME INSTANCES PUSHED BACK AMERICAN TROOPS, CORRESPONDENT POLOWETZKY REPORTED FROM EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

IT WAS A DIFFERENT STORY IN THE EXTREME WEST. THERE SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS CROSSED THE IMJIN RIVER FRIDAY AND ADVANCED ALMOST TO THE 38TH PARALLEL NORTHWEST OF SEOUL WITHOUT MEETING OPPOSITION.

RIVER CROSSINGS WERE MADE BY SMALL PATROLS ALONG THE SHALLOW LOOP OF THE IMJIN NORTHEAST OF MUNSAN.

WHETHER THE SOUTH KOREANS CROSS THE PARALLEL FRIDAY WAS APPARENTLY A QUESTION FOR A PATROL LEADER TO DECIDE, AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED. HE SAID 38 AT THIS POINT NO LONGER HAD ANY MILITARY SIGNIFICANCE. IN FACT, HE SAID, IT WASN'T EVEN CHARTED ON THE ARMY'S BATTLE MAPS. THE MAIN U.N. LINE LAGGED FAR BEHIND.

ALONG THE EAST COAST RED KOREANS TRIED TO LAY MINES AGAIN IN WONSAN'S HARBOR. THE U.S. CRUISER MANCHESTER BLASTED THE MINE LAYING REDS OUT OF THE WATER. AND U.N. WARSHIPS CONTINUED FOR THE 99TH DAY THEIR BOMBARDMENT OF THE PORT.

FIRST LEAD VAN FLEET (350)

BY STAN CARTER

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA,MAY 25-(AP)-LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET SAID TODAY HIS EIGHTH ARMY WHICH HAS RAMMED INTO RED KOREA FOR THE THIRD TIME OF THE WAR "IS IN AN ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE."

VAN FLEET HIMSELF CROSSED THE BORDER ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AFTER COMMENTING ACRIDLY:

"THE 38TH PARALLEL....MEANS NOTHING TO ME.

"THE EIGHTH ARMY WILL GO WHEREVER THE SITUATION DICTATES IN HOT PURSUIT OF THE ENEMY. WE INTEND TO EXPLOIT EVERY ADVANTAGE IN CARRYING OUT OUR OBJECTIVE TO FIND AND KILL THE ENEMY."

AFTER A TALK WITH THE COMMANDER OF A LARGE ALLIED TANK TASK FORCE INSIDE RED KOREA, VAN FLEET SAID, "IT LOOKS LIKE THE PURSUIT TACTICS ARE WORKING WELL."

THE COLUMN WAS BLOCKING A MAIN ESCAPE ROUTE FOR FLEEING REDS.

THE U.N. GROUND COMMANDER VISITED HEADQUARTERS OF U.S. 10TH CORPS COMMANDER LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND AND SEVENTH DIVISION COMMANDER MAJ.GEN.CLAUDE B.FERENBAUGH.

EARLIER, "FIREBALL" FERENBAUGH WAS PINNED DOWN FOUR HOURS BY A COMMUNIST AMBUSH.

"ELEMENTS OF THE NINTH AND 10TH CORPS HAVE BROKEN THROUGH SOME OF THE DIFFICULT ENEMY POSITIONS AND MADE CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS," VAN FLEET SAID.

HE COMPARED RED TACTICS IN KOREA WITH THOSE OF REDS IN GREECE WHERE HE WAS CHIEF OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY MISSION. COMMUNISTS, HE SAID, CAN BE SURROUNDED BY DAY, THEN DISAPPEAR BY NIGHT.

"IT'S LIKE A SPONGE. WHEN YOU WRING IT OUT YOU HAVE NOTHING. THE WATER GOES THROUGH YOUR HANDS," HE SAID.

VAN FLEET ALSO VISITED TROOPS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT BETWEEN CHUNCHON AND THE BORDER.

HE AWARDED DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSSES TO ALMOND AND MAJ.GEN. CLARK L.RUFFNER, SECOND DIVISION COMMANDER, AND TO THREE OFFICERS AND TWO ENLISTED MEN OF THE SECOND DIVISION WHICH BROKE THE BACK OF THE RECENT EAST-CENTRAL FRONT COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

HE AWARDED A SILVER STAR TO ONE OFFICER.

VAN FLEET SAID THERE WAS "GAMBLE" IN THE EIGHTH ARMY'S SUDDEN STRATEGY OF ADVANCING IN THE WAKE OF THE COMMUNIST WITHDRAWAL BUT HE SAID HE BELIEVED IT WOULD SUCCEED.

HE TOLD NEWSMEN IT WOULD BE ALL RIGHT TO SAY THAT ALLIED TROOPS HAD GONE NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 BUT SHIDED THEM ON THEIR REFERENCES TO THE PRE-WAR BOUNDARY IN NEWS STORIES.

AT A DIVISION HEADQUARTERS HE TALKED WITH 19 AMERICAN TROOPS WHO WERE RESCUED FRIDAY AFTER SIX MONTHS OF CAPTIVITY BY THE COMMUNISTS.

THOSE WHO RECEIVED DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSSES FROM VAN FLEET INCLUDED:

COL.JOHN H.CHILES, INDEPENDENCE, MO., COMMANDER OF THE 23RD REGIMENT.

MAJ.JAMES E.STACEY, 23RD REGIMENT.

LT.JOHN M.MURPHY, NINTH INFANTRY REGIMENT.

CPL.OLIVER B.WARD, NINTH REGIMENT, WHO ALSO WAS PROMOTED TO SERGEANT.

THE GENERAL GAVE THE SILVER STAR TO MAJ.MIKE CARIGLIA, BOSTON, CHAPLAIN OF THE 23RD REGIMENT.

NIGHT LEAD POWS (450)

BY STAN CARTER

CENTRAL FRONT,KOREA,MAY 25 (AP)-EIGHTEEN MARINES AND ONE U.S. SOLDIER, THIN, DIRTY AND HUNGRY, RETURNED TODAY TO ALLIED LINES AFTER SIX MONTHS OF COMMUNIST IMPRISONMENT AND MARCHES OVER MOST OF NORTH KOREA.

THEY WERE CAPTURED LAST DEC.2 DURING THE BLOODY FIGHTING AT THE "FROZEN HELL" OF CHANGJIN RESERVOIR IN NORTHEAST KOREA. AN AMERICAN TANK PATROL RESCUED THEM IN THE DESERTED TOWN OF CHUNCHON.

THE REDS ABANDONED THEM THURSDAY IN A HASTY FLIGHT FROM THE TOWN, EIGHT MILES BELOW PARALLEL 38.

NAMES OF THE RESCUED MEN WERE WITHHELD TEMPORARILY.

THEY SAID THAT, FOR THE MOST PART, THEY WERE WELL TREATED BY THE CHINESE. BUT DURING THEIR CAPTIVITY THEY WERE MARCHED OVER DISTANCES MEASURING MORE THAN 350 AIR MILES, MUCH FARTHER IN ACTUAL MILES OVER NORTH KOREA'S WINDING ROADS.

CAPT. EDWARD N. ANDERSON, LAWTON, OKLA., SPOTTED THE MEN WHILE FLYING HIS LITTLE OBSERVATION PLANE OVER CHUNCHON. THEY IMPROVISED A GROUND PANEL OF WALL PAPER WHICH SPELLED OUT: "P O W/S 19 RESCUE."

ANDERSON WAGGLED HIS WINGS AND RADIOED AN AMERICAN TANK TASK UNIT. THREE TANKS SPED TO CHUNCHON'S OUTSKIRTS AND RESCUED THE MEN.

"TEARS ACTUALLY ROLLED DOWN MY CHEEKS," SAID ONE LATER. "THE FIRST COMMUNICATION WE HAD WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD IN SIX MONTHS WAS THE WAGGLE OF THOSE WINGS."

THEY SAID THEY HAD BEEN IMPRISONED UNTIL LAST MARCH WITH AP PHOTOGRAPHER FRANK NOEL, WHO ALSO WAS CAPTURED AT CHANGJIN RESERVOIR. THEY SAID NOEL WAS WELL WHEN THEY LAST SAW HIM.

THE 19 WERE CAPTURED AT KOTO, SOUTH OF THE RESERVOIR, AND MARCHED 60 MILES TO A CAMP NEAR KANGGYE NEAR THE MANCHURIAN BORDER. THE WEATHER WAS FREEZING. THE MARINES AND THE SOLDIER, A JAPANESE-AMERICAN ATTACHED TO THE LEATHERNECKS AS AN INTERPRETER, ARRIVED AT KANGGYE ON CHRISTMAS DAY.

THEY SAID THE CHINESE GAVE THEM A CHRISTMAS PARTY, OF SORTS, INCLUDING CANDY AND A CHRISTMAS TREE. THEY ADDED THAT THE CHINESE STRIVED TO INDOCTRINATE THEM IN COMMUNISM AND "WE JUST LET THEM STRING US ALONG."

ONE OF THE MARINES WAS WOUNDED BEFORE HIS CAPTURE. HE SAID THE CHINESE DID NOT TREAT HIS WOUNDS UNTIL AFTER THEY ARRIVED AT KANGGYE. FROM KANGGYE, THEY WERE PLACED IN A GROUP OF ABOUT 300 OTHER PRISONERS AND MARCHED 150 MILES SOUTH TO PYONGYANG, THE KOREAN RED CAPITAL. MOST OF THE LONG MARCH WAS MADE AT NIGHT. ONLY A FEW GUARDS WENT WITH THEM.

THEY HAD BEEN TOLD THAT ALL WOULD BE RELEASED. BUT AT PYONGYANG, THE CHINESE DECIDED TO RETURN THE MAIN GROUP TO THE NORTH. ONLY THE 19 WERE TAKEN FARTHER SOUTH, FIRST TO CHORWON, RED SUPPLY CENTER IN CENTRAL KOREA, AND THEN TO CHUNCHON.

ONE OF THE MEN SAID IT TOOK THEM 10 DAYS TO MARCH TO CHUNCHON. THEY ARRIVED TUESDAY. WHEN AN AMERICAN TANK PATROL POKED THROUGH CHUNCHON THURSDAY, THE CHINESE "GOT ALL EXCITED."

"THEY JUST ALL OF A SUDDEN RAN OFF AND LEFT US," SAID ONE. "THEY PACKED UP THEIR GEAR AND RAN."

"I NEVER FELT SO HAPPY IN ALL MY LIFE," SAID ONE OF THE MARINES. "I CAN'T EXPRESS IT."

BY STAN CARTER

CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 25-(AP)-EIGHTEEN AMERICAN MARINES AND ONE SOLDIER CAPTURED BY CHINESE COMMUNISTS LAST NOVEMBER WERE RESCUED TODAY ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF THE NEWLY RECAPTURED TOWN OF CHUNCHON.

ALL SAID THEY HAD BEEN WITH ASSOCIATED PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER FRANK NOEL AT PRISON CAMPS IN NORTH KOREA FROM DECEMBER UNTIL ABOUT MARCH 7 OR 8. THEY SAID NOEL WAS IN GOOD HEALTH WHEN THEY LAST SAW HIM AND THEY WERE SURE HE IS ALIVE AND WELL. NOEL WAS CAPTURED DEC. 2 IN NORTHEAST KOREA.

THE LIBERATED MEN SEEMED IN GOOD HEALTH. THEY WERE DIRTY AND BEARDED.

THEY SAID THEY HAD BEEN TAKEN TO A PRISON CAMP NEAR THE MANCHURIAN BORDER. MOST WERE SEIZED IN THE CHANGJIN RESERVOIR AREA AND IN THE RETREAT OF THE U.S. MARINES FROM THERE.

NAMES OF THE LIBERATED MEN WERE WITHHELD.

THE FREED AMERICANS TOLD WAR CORRESPONDENTS THEY WERE AMONG A GROUP OF 200 TO 300 AMERICAN PRISONERS WHO WERE MARCHED TO THE VICINITY OF THE NORTH KOREAN CAPITAL OF PYONGYANG IN MARCH. LATER, THEY SAID, THEY WERE SENT SOUTH FROM PYONGYANG WHILE THE REMAINDER OF THE GROUP WAS MARCHED BACK NORTH.

THE LIBERATED SOLDIERS SAID NOEL WAS ONE OF THOSE RETURNED TO THE FAR NORTH CAMP.

THE FREED YANKS SAID THEY HAD ARRIVED IN CHUNCHON YESTERDAY AFTER MARCHING FOR SEVEN DAYS FROM THE COMMUNIST ASSEMBLY CITY OF CHORWON IN NORTH KOREA.

THE MEN WERE RESCUED AFTER A U.S. ARMY LIGHT PLANE FLEW OVER CHUNCHON AND SIGHTED A GROUND DISTRESS SIGNAL PATTERN THE 19 HAD FASHIONED FROM WALLPAPER THEY FOUND IN A RUINED KOREAN HOUSE.

THE PLANE RADIOED BACK TO ADVANCING AMERICAN SOLDIERS. TANKS WERE SENT TO THE RUINED CITY AND PICKED UP THE AMERICANS.

THE PRISONERS SAID THEY WERE ABANDONED WHEN THE CHINESE FLED THE TOWN LATE YESTERDAY.

CAPT. EDWARD N. ANDERSON, LAWTON, OKLA., SPOTTED THE MEN WHILE FLYING HIS LIGHT OBSERVATION PLANE OVER CHUNCHON LOOKING FOR COMMUNIST TROOPS.

HE SAW THIS MESSAGE ON THE GROUND:

"P O W S 19 RESCUE"

ANDERSON FLEW LOW AND SAW THE MARINES RUN OUT OF A HOUSE AND WAVE A WHITE FLAG. HE WAGGLED HIS WINGS.

"TEARS ACTUALLY ROLLED DOWN MY CHEEKS," SAID ONE OF THE RESCUED MEN. "THE FIRST COMMUNICATION WE'VE HAD WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD IN SIX MONTHS WAS THE WAGGLE OF THAT PLANE'S WINGS."

THE TANKERS SHARED C-RATIONS WITH THE MEN THEY RESCUED.

"I ATE A WHOLE BOX," GRINNED ONE MARINE.

THE MARINES AND THE GI, THEIR JAPANESE-AMERICAN INTERPRETER, SAID THEY HAD BEEN TAKEN TO A COMMUNIST "PEACE CAMP" NEAR KANGGYE IN NORTH KOREA ON CHGISTMAS DAY, AFTER A 60-MILE MARCH THROUGH FREEZING WEATHER FROM KOTO, WHERE MOST OF THEM WERE CAPTURED.

THEY RELATED: THE CHINESE GAVE THEM CANDY AND A CHRISTMAS TREE.

FOR THE MOST PART THEY WERE WELL TREATED.

THE FOOD WAS THE KIND EATEN BY THE CHINESE.

THE ONLY WORK THEY HAD TO DO WAS TO GATHER THEIR OWN FIREWOOD AND KEEP THEIR BARRACKS CLEAN.

THEY LIVED IN HOUSES WITH 10 OR 15 MEN IN EACH 10 BY 12 FOOT ROOM.

"WE MOSTLY JUST STARED AT EACH OTHER," SAID ONE.

ANOTHER SAID HE WAS GIVEN LESS THAN TWO POUNDS OF MEAT TO EAT IN SIX MONTHS OF CAPTIVITY...

"ON HOLIDAYS THEY WOULD GIVE US WHITE RICE AND PORK."

THE CHINESE TRIED TO INDOCTRINATE THE AMERICANS IN COMMUNISM.

"WE JUST LET THEM STRING US ALONG," SAID ONE MARINE, ADDING:

THE CHINESE MADE THE AMERICANS TAKE PART IN GROUP DISCUSSIONS AND ATTEND LECTURES REGULARLY IN A COLD BARN.

MAY 26 1951

ALL HAD DYSENTERY.

MEDICAL FACILITIES AT THE CAMP WERE NOT GOOD. THE CHINESE GAVE THEM ONLY A PILL, NO MATTER WHAT WAS WRONG.

ANOTHER SAID: HE HAD BEEN WOUNDED IN THE LEG AND ARM BEFORE HE WAS CAPTURED. THE CHINESE DID NOTHING ABOUT HIS WOUNDS AT FIRST. BUT WHEN THEY ARRIVED AT KANGGYE, 24 MILES SOUTH OF THE MANCHURIAN BORDER, THE BULLETS WERE REMOVED.

ON MARCH 2 RO 3, A RESCUED PRISONER SAID, THE CHINESE GAVE THEM A "GOING AWAY PARTY" OF RICE, BEANS, PORK, AND "SOME KIND OF SOUR GREENS," AND TOLD THEM THEY WERE GOING TO BE SENT SOUTH AND RELEASED.

THE CINESE TOOK MOVING PICTURES AS ABOUT 300 LEFT THE CAMP. THEY MADE THE PRISONERS WAVE TO THE CAMERAS AS THEY WALKED DOWN THE ROAD.

THE AMERICANS MARCHED 150 MILES SOUTH. MOST OF THE TIME THEY TRAVELLED AT NIGHT. ONLY A FEW GUARDS MARCHED WITH THEM.

NEAR PYONGYANG, THE NORTH KOREAN CAPITAL, THE COMMUNISTS SUDDENLY CHANGED THEIR PLANS.

THEY SAID MOST OF THE AMERICANS WOULD HAVE TO RETURN NORTH, BUT 19 PRISONERS, THOSE RESCUED TODAY, WOULD BE TAKEN TO THE FRONT TO HELP INDOCTRINATE NEWLY CAPTURED AMERICANS IN COMMUNISM.

THE 19 WAVED GOODBYE TO THEIR FRIENDS OUTSIDE PYONGANG AS THE MAJORITY TURNED NORTH.

THE 19 WERE TAKEN TO CHORWON, COMMUNIST SUPPLY CENTER 16 MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL IN CENTRAL KOREA.

TEN DAYS AGO THEY BEGAN THE MARCH TO CHUNCHON, EIGHT MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL. THEY ARRIVED TUESDAY. YESTERDAY WHEN AN AMERICAN TANK PATROL PROBED INTO CHUNCHON THE CHINESE "GOT ALL EXCITED.

"THEY JUST ALL OF A SUDDEN RAN OFF AN LEFT US," ONE MARINE SAID. "THEY PACKED UP THEIR GEAR AND RAN."

A KOREAN CIVILIAN FED THEM LAST NIGHT AND THEY MADE RESCUE PANELS OF WALL PAPER.

BACK AT THE AIR STRIP OF A U.S. DIVISION, MARINE SGT. THOMAS E. WILLIAMSON, 155 ISLINGTON ST., TOLEDO, OHIO, HELD HIS ARM TIGHTLY AROUND ONE OF THE EX-PRISONERS AND SMILED:

"WE'VE BEEN FRIENDS SINCE BOOT CAMP. I KNEW HE WAS A PRISONER AND I JUST HAPPENED TO BE AT THE AIRSTRIP AND SAW HIM BROUGHT IN."

HIS FRIEND, A THIN, HAGGARD LOOKING YOUTH, SEEMED HAPPY.

ANOTHER MARINE SAID "I NEVER FELT SO HAPPY IN ALL MY LIFE. I CAN'T EXPRESS IT."

NOEL (350)

BY STAN CARTER

CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 25-(AP)-NINETEEN AMERICANS WHO WERE IMPRISONED WITH ASSOCIATED PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER FRANK NOEL IN NORTH KOREA SAID TODAY HE WAS ALIVE AND WELL IN MARCH.

THEY ASSUME HE IS IN A CHINESE COMMUNIST PRISON CAMP IN NORTH KOREA NEAR THE MANCHURIAN BORDER.

THE 18 MARINES AND ONE GI WERE RESCUED TODAY IN CHUNCHON. THEY WERE CAPTURED IN NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER.

"NOEL'S STILL IN KOREA. I'M CERTAIN OF THAT," SAID ONE MARINE.

"I'VE NEVER HEARD OF THE CHINESE TAKING ANY PRISONERS TO MANCHURIA OR TO THE CHINA MAINLAND. THEY SAY THAT'S AGAINST THEIR POLICY."

THE MARINES SAID THEY WERE IMPRISONED WITH NOEL AT KANGGYE, 24 MILES SOUTH OF THE MANCHURIAN BORDER, FROM CHRISTMAS DAY UNTIL MARCH 2 OR 3. THEN HE WAS MARCHED WITH THEM AND OTHER POWS SOUTH TO PYONGYANG, THE NORTH KOREAN CAPITAL.

ABOUT MARCH 7 NOEL AND THE BULK OF THE GROUP WAS SENT BACK NORTH. THE 19 WERE MARCHED SOUTH.

THEY WERE TOLD NOEL AND THE LARGE GROUP OF POWS WERE GOING TO "A PERMANENT PRISONER OF WAR CAMP" NEAR THE MANCHURIAN BORDER. THEY DIDN'T KNOW WHETHER IT WAS THE CAMP AT KANGGYE.

ONE MARINE SAID NOEL WAVED AND SMILED WHEN THE PRISONERS WERE PARTED.

"HE SURE WAS A SWELL FELLOW," SAID A MARINE.

"HE WAS ALWAYS TELLING ME ABOUT HIS TRAVELS THROUGH EUROPE AND INDIA AND PLACES LIKE THAT."

"I SAW FRANK NOEL," SAID ANOTHER. "HE WAS LOOKING PRETTY GOOD."

ONE MARINE WAS WITH NOEL ON THE 60 MILE MARCH FROM KOTO, NEAR THE CHANGJIN RESERVOIR WHERE MOST OF THE MARINES WERE CAPTURED, TO KANGGYE.

HE SAID NOEL'S FEET WERE NEARLY FROZEN AND HE WAS ALLOWED TO RIDE IN AN OXCART WITH SIX OTHERS WHO COULD NOT WALK.

HE SAID NOEL RECOVERED AND WALKED ABOUT THE PRISON CAMP WITH "JUST A LITTLE LIMP.

"FRANK WAS IN PRETTY GOOD SHAPE. HE HAD HIGH MORALE. BUT HE WAS LOSING A LOT OF WEIGHT.

"HE'S REALLY A SWELL FELLOW. HE DID A LOT TO CHEER US UP."

ALL THE MEN SEEMED EAGER TO TALK ABOUT NOEL.

WESTERN FRONT, KOREA, MAY 25-(AP)- A U.S. TANK FORCE RECROSSED THE 38TH PARALLEL AT 3:30 P.M. TODAY NORTH, NORTHEAST OF UIJONGBU AND RETURNED TO ALLIED LINES WITHOUT LOSS.

(UIJONGBU IS 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL ON ONE OF THE MAIN INVASION ROUTES TO THE OLD KOREAN CAPITAL.)

IT WAS THE FIRST CROSSING ON THE WESTERN FRONT SINCE THE CHINESE FIRST DROVE THE ALLIES SOUTH OF THE BORDER IN THE OFFENSIVE OF APRIL 22.

FARTHER WEST, ANOTHER U.S. TASK FORCE PROBED TO WITHIN ONE MILE OF THE BORDER JUST SOUTH OF THE JUNCTION OF THE IMJIN AND HANTAN RIVERS. (THIS JUNCTION IS ABOUT 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.)

THIS IS ALMOST AT THE POINT WHERE A BELGIAN BATTALION WAS TRAPPED FOR 20 HOURS WHEN THE CHINESE REDS LAUNCHED THEIR ATTACK IN APRIL.

ON THE EXTREME WEST, REPUBLIC OF KOREA INFANTRY WITH U.S. TANKS IN SUPPORT PATROLLED ALONG THE SOUTH BANK OF THE IMJIN. THIS FORCE RECEIVED SOME FIRE FROM THE DISTANT BANK.

THE SOUTH KOREANS THEMSELVES ARE JUST SOUTH OF THE BORDER WHERE THE IMJIN LOOPS TO THE NORTH NEAR KORANGPO.

EARLIER, THE FORCES ADVANCING ALONG THE UIJONGBU ROAD RAN INTO TWO STIFF SKIRMISHES.

NORTH OF UIJONGBU, ALLIED FORCES FOUGHT ALL DAY WITH AN ESTIMATED REGIMENT OF COMMUNISTS DUG IN ON THE MOUNTAINTOPS. THE FIGHTING FINALLY SUBSIDED AT DUSK.

EAST OF THAT SECTOR, A SMALL ARMS EXCHANGE BETWEEN TWO COMPANIES OF REDS AND AMERICAN TROOPS STILL BLAZED TONIGHT. THE REDS HERE WERE SURROUNDED WITH NO HOPE OF ESCAPE. PRESSURE WAS BEING EXERTED ON ALL SIDES.

AIR SPOTTERS SAID LARGE GROUPS OF CHINESE ON THIS FRONT WERE HEADING NORTH, CARTING EVERYTHING THEY COULD. GROUPS RANGING UP TO REGIMENTAL SIZE WERE SPOTTED.

PARALLEL 38 (250)

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO,MAY 25-(AP)-A NEW CROSSING OF KOREA'S 38TH PARALLEL HAS SPLASHED INTO THE HEADLINES.

THE SOLDIERS WHO CROSSED 38 HAVE HAD THEIR FILL OF PARALLEL TALK AFTER 11 MONTHS OF WAR.

WHAT THEY WANT MOST IS TO GET THE SHOW OVER AND GO HOME.

THE POLITICAL BOUNDARY BETWEEN COMMUNIST NORTH KOREA AND REPUBLICAN SOUTH KOREA ISN'T WHAT THE UNITED NATIONS SOLDIER HAS HIS EYE ON. IT IS THE NEXT RIDGE OR THE NEXT VALLEY THAT HAS TO BE SWEPT CLEAN OF REDS. IT DOESN'T MAKE ANY DIFFERENCE TO THE AVERAGE SOLDIER WHICH SIDE OF 38 IT IS ON.

NORTH KOREANS BEGAN THE WAR JUNE 25 BY CROSSING THE PARALLEL SOUTHWARD.

THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE SOLDIER EXCITEMENT WHEN THE RESURGENT ALLIES BEGAN CROSSING IT NORTHWARD IN OCTOBER.

SOME UNITS PUT UP SIGNS READING:

"YOU ARE CROSSING THE 38TH PARALLEL THROUGH THE COURTESY OF (BLANK) COMPANY."

SINCE THEN THE SEESAW CROSSINGS OF 38 HAVE ROBBED IT OF ALL SOLDIER GLAMOR. ALLIED TROOPS NO LONGER BOTHER TO PUT UP SIGNS.

CROSSINGS HAVE GONE LIKE THIS:

NEW YEAR'S EVE--BY CHINESE REDS MOVING SOUTH.

MARCH--SOUTH KOREANS ROLLING NORTH.

APRIL--CHINESE REDS DRIVING SOUTH.

MAY 24--ALLIED TROOPS BOUNCING BACK NORTH.

ASK ANY U.N. SOLDIER TODAY WHAT HE FEELS ABOUT CROSSING 38. IN ENGLISH, FRENCH, DUTCH, GREEK, TURKISH OR KOREAN HE'LL GIVE YOU THE EQUIVALENT OF:

"SO WHAT?"

KCX) PUSAN,KOREA,MAY 25-(AP)-PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE SAID TODAY THAT ARMING OF 10 ADDITIONAL DIVISIONS OF SOUTH KOREANS WOULD ENABLE SOUTH KOREAN FORCES TO FIGHT "MORE VIGOROUSLY."

BUT, HE SAID, "NO ONE IN KOREA WOULD THINK OF WITHDRAWAL OF UNITED NATIONS FORCES AT THE PRESENT TIME. IN FACT, THEY WILL HAVE TO HAVE MORE COME IN."

RHEE SAID A CHICAGO TRIBUNE STORY BASED UPON AN INTERVIEW WITH HIM WAS INCORRECT IN STATING THAT HE FELT ENOUGH SOUTH KOREANS COULD BE ARMED TO PERMIT WITHDRAWAL OF ALL AMERICAN INFANTRY, LEAVING ONLY ARTILLERY AND WAR PLANES IN KOREA.

"ALL I SAID," RHEE TOLD AN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTER, "WAS THAT ARMING 10 ADDITIONAL KOREAN DIVISIONS WOULD ENABLE THE KOREAN FORCES TO FIGHT MORE VIGOROUSLY IN THE FRONT WITH THE AMERICANS USING LONG RANGE AMERICAN GUNS AND HEAVY ARTILLERY AND WITH THE AIR FORCE COVERING THEM.

"WE DO NOT WANT TO SEE SO MANY LIVES OF OUR FRIENDLY NATIONS BEING SACRIFICED IN OUR BATTLEFRONT. X X X" (EDS: SIC PUNCTUATION)

--DASH--

CHICAGO, MAY 25-(AP)-VIEWS WHICH SYNGMAN RHEE, KOREAN PRESIDENT, SAID TODAY WERE INACCURATELY ATTRIBUTED TO HIM WERE REPORTED IN CHICAGO TRIBUNE EDITIONS OF MAY 23 AND CARRIED ON ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRES FOR MORNING NEWSPAPERS OF THAT DATE.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE STORY, FILED BY CORRESPONDENT WALTER SIMMONS FROM PUSAN, KOREA, MAY 17, AND DELAYED BY CENSORSHIP, WAS BASED ON AN INTERVIEW SIMMONS HAD WITH RHEE.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS STORY WAS BASED UPON SIMMONS' ARTICLE AS PRINTED IN THE TRIBUNE.

THE PORTION OF THE STORY TO WHICH RHEE TOOK EXCEPTION DID NOT QUOTE THE KOREAN PRESIDENT DIRECTLY, BUT SAID "IF ENOUGH SOUTH KOREANS WERE ARMED AND TRAINED, HE SAID, ALL AMERICAN INFANTRY COULD BE WITHDRAWN, LEAVING ONLY ARTILLERY AND WAR PLANES TO SUPPORT THE DEFENSE FORCES."

RHEE WAS QUOTED DIRECTLY, HOWEVER, AS SAYING THAT ALTHOUGH MOST OF KOREA'S JUNIOR OFFICERS HAVE DIED IN BATTLE, "OTHERS COULD BE TRAINED TO AMERICAN STANDARDS IN SHORT, INTENSIFIED COURSES ON OKINAWA OR IN JAPAN. WHEN THEY ARE READY THEY COULD REPLACE AMERICAN OFFICERS (IN COMMAND OF KOREAN TROOPS) AND THE AMERICANS COULD GO HOME."

IN TOKYO, SIMMONS SAID HIS STORY WAS "AN EXACT REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS."

SIMMONS MADE THIS STATEMENT:

"MY INTERVIEW WITH SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE WAS AN EXACT REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS. AFTER THE STORY WAS COMPLETED IT WAS SHOWN TO THE PRESIDENT'S PRESS ADVISER WHO WAS PRESENT AT THE INTERVIEW. HE APPROVED THE STORY IN ITS ENTIRETY AS TO ACCURACY.

"HE CONFIRMED ITS ACCURACY TODAY IN A TELEPHONE CONVERSATION FROM PUSAN. HE SAID THE PRESIDENT'S COMMENT ON THE STORY DID NOT CONSTITUTE A DENIAL BUT A FURTHER EXPLANATION.

"HE SAID HE WAS APPROACHED YESTERDAY BY ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT BILL SHINN, A KOREAN NEWSPAPERMAN, AND THAT HE TOLD SHINN THE TRIBUNE INTERVIEW WAS WHOLLY ACCURATE.

"THE ASSOCIATED PRESS VERSION OF MY STORY IS PARTIALLY INACCURATE, SINCE IT IMPLIES THE PRESIDENT DESIRED AMERICAN TROOPS WITHDRAWN FROM KOREA AT ONCE.

"ACTUALLY, THE INTERVIEW QUOTED HIM AS SUGGESTING THEIR WITHDRAWAL AS FAST AS KOREAN TROOPS COULD BE ARMED TO TAKE THEIR PLACE."

IN ITS MAY 22 STORY FOR MAY 23 MORNING NEWSPAPERS, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS SAID:

"THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE SAID TONIGHT THAT SOUTH KOREAN PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE HAS URGED THE UNITED STATES TO REPLACE GIS WITH NEWLY TRAINED KOREAN TROOPS TO SAVE AMERICAN LIVES.

"X X X THE STORY SAID RHEE ADVOCATED REPLACING GIS WITH NEW KOREAN TROOPS 'AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE.'"

BOTH THE TRIBUNE STORY AND THE ASSOCIATED PRESS STORY CONTAINED CONSIDERABLE DETAIL ON THE INTERVIEW AND INTERPRETIVE BACKGROUND MATERIAL WHICH WAS NOT CHALLENGED BY RHEE.

(ADVANCE)..LONDON, MAY 25-(AP)-PLANS TO CONSCRIPT ALL ALLIED OCEAN-GOING SHIPS INTO A SINGLE POOL IN THE EVENT OF WAR WERE ANNOUNCED HERE TODAY BY THE NORTH ATLANTIC PLANNING BOARD FOR OCEAN SHIPPING.

COUNTRIES NOT IN THE 12 NATION ATLANTIC PACT BUT HELPING "IN THE COMMON EFFORT" WOULD BE ASKED TO JOIN THE POOL, THE ANNOUNCEMENT ADDED.

THE BOARD SAID A CIVILIAN ORGANIZATION TO BE KNOWN AS THE DEFENSE SHIPPING AUTHORITY WOULD BE FORMED TO ORGANIZE SHIPPING ON A WORLD WIDE BASIS FOR MILITARY AND CIVILIAN NEEDS.

UNDER THE PLAN, ALL NORTH ATLANTIC PACT GOVERNMENTS WOULD TAKE OVER SHIPS OF THEIR MERCHANT NAVIES AND PLACE THEM IN THE CENTRAL POOL, THE BOARD SAID. THE POOL WOULD BE SPLIT INTO TWO BRANCHES--ONE AT WASHINGTON DEALING WITH SHIPPING IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE, AND THE OTHER AT LONDON FOR THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE. ALL PARTICIPATING GOVERNMENTS WOULD HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED IN BOTH BRANCHES.

THE ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN EACH GOVERNMENT AND ITS SHIP OWNERS WOULD BE THE DOMESTIC CONCERN OF THAT GOVERNMENT, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, BUT INDIVIDUAL OWNERS WOULD HAVE NO DIRECT FINANCIAL INTEREST IN THE WORK THEIR SHIPS WERE DOING IN THE POOL.

THE PLAN, WORKED OUT BY THE BOARD IN LONDON MEETINGS FOLLOWING A DIRECTIVE FROM THE NORTH ATLANTIC COUNCIL, HAS BEEN APPROVED BY THE COUNCIL'S DEPUTIES.

LONDON, SATURDAY, MAY 26-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE ANNOUNCED TODAY THEY ARE FORMING A BIG THREE COMMISSION TO WORK FOR A FAIR AND ORDERLY SETTLEMENT OF WEST GERMANY'S DEBTS, ESTIMATED AT $4,500,000,000.
THEY OUTLINED PRINCIPLES TO GUIDE THE SETTLEMENT. THESE FORESEE PROBABLE ADJUSTMENT OF CERTAIN DEBTS AND CALL FOR SACRIFICES BY ALL PARTIES INVOLVED "IN THE INTEREST OF COMMON AGREEMENT."
THE THREE POWERS PROMISED TO CONSIDER WEST GERMANY'S INTERNAL FINANCIAL AND BUDGETARY POSITIONS, "BOTH OF WHICH WILL BE AFFECTED BY CERTAIN PROBLEMS, SUCH AS THE IMPACT OF WESTERN DEFENSE REQUIREMENTS."
A COMMUNIQUE SAID TALKS WILL BE HELD HERE IN THE FALL AT WHICH BOTH PRIVATE AND PUBLIC REDITORS AND DEBTORS WILL BE ABLE TO NEGOTIATE GENERAL SETTLEMENT ARRANGEMENTS. THESE WILL BE EMBODIED LATER IN AN INTER-GOVERNMENTAL ACCORD WHICH WILL BIND THE WEST GERMAN FEDERAL REPUBLIC TO ARRANGE FOR LIQUIDATION OF THE CLAIMS.
WEST GERMANY FORMALLY ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE UNPAID BILLS OF THE PREWAR REICH LAST MARCH. SHE ALSO PROMISED TO REPAY THE THREE OCCUPYING POWERS FOR THE POSTWAR GOODS AND SERVICES RECEIVED.
THE BEST AUTHORITATIVE GUESS PUTS GERMANY'S PREWAR DEBTS AT ABOUT $1,000,000,000. POSTWAR ECONOMIC AID TO WEST GERMANY IS ESTIMATED AT $3,500,000,000.
OFFICIALS HERE EXPECT THE TALKS TO LAST MORE THAN A YEAR.
THE WEST WOULD LIKE THE SETTLEMENT TO:
RESTORE NORMAL DEBTOR-CREDITOR RELATIONS BETWEEN WEST GERTANY AND THE OUTSIDE WORLD.
RESTORE CONFIDENCE IN GERMANY'S FINANCIAL RELIABILITY.
AVOID DISLOCATION OF THE GERMAN ECONOMY OR ADD TO THE FINANCIAL BURDEN OF ANY OCCUPYING POWER.
ASIDE FROM THE BIG THREE, MAJOR CREDITOR NATIONS SUCH AS BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, SWEDEN, AND SWITZERLAND WILL BE INVITED TO SEND OBSERVERS TO INFORMAL PRELIMINARY CONFERENCES WITH THE GERMANS. ONE SUCH MEETING WILL BE HELD IN BONN EARLY IN JUNE.
THE COMMUNIQUE STRESSED THAT THE WHOLE SETTLEMENT PLAN WILL BE MADE SUBJECT TO RE-NEGOTIATION "AT SUCH TIME AS GERMANY BECOMES REUNITED."

LONDON, MAY 25-(AP)-THE BRITISH COLONIAL OFFICE REPORTED GLUMLY TODAY THAT WESTERN STYLE INFLATION HAS BOOSTED THE PRICE OF BRIDES AMONG THE GUSII TRIBE IN EAST AFRICA UNTIL THEY HAVE BECOME A LUXURY ITEM.
UP UNTIL 1942 A MAN COULD GET A GRADE A BRIDE FOR SIX COWS, ONE BULL AND 10 GOATS. BUT THEN THE WAR AND THE EFFECTS OF CIVILIZATION BEGAN TO PENETRATE INTO THE BRITISH CROWN COLONY OF KENYA AND THE PRICE OF A GOOD WIFE WENT UP.
AT THE END OF 1947, YOUNG TRIBESMEN COMPLAINED THEY WERE BEING ASKED TO DELIVER OVER 16 COWS, ONE BULL AND AS MANY AS 20 GOATS FOR THE SAME QUALITY WIFE THEY COULD HAVE PICKED UP AT HALF THE PRICE A FEW YEARS BACK.
THE RULING BARAZAS--GUSII TRIBAL COUNCILS--FIGURED THE ONLY WAY TO FIGHT THIS INFLATIONARY SPIRAL WAS WITH ANOTHER WESTERN DEVICE--PRICE CONTROL.
SO IN 1948 THE GRAND TRIBAL COUNCIL PEGGED THE PRICE OF A RELIABLE BRAND GUSII WIFE AT THE PRE-INFLATION RATE OF SIX COWS, ONE BULL AND 10 GOATS.
FOR A WHILE THINGS SETTLED DOWN PEACEFULLY IN GUSII COUNTRY AND A MAN COULD PICK UP A WIFE WITHOUT STRAINING HIS BUDGET.
BUT NOW ONE MORE WESTERN TREND HAS CREPT INTO THE DAILY LIFE OF THE TRIBE. GUSII FATHERS WITH ESPECIALLY DESIRABLE DAUGHTERS BEGAN DEMANDING "UNDER-THE-COUNTER" PAYMENTS IN ADDITION TO THE FIXED PRICE OF SIX COWS, ONE BULL AND 10 GOATS.
THE EFFECT, THE COLONIAL OFFICE COMPLAINED, HAS BEEN TO START THE PRICE SPIRAL ALL OVER AGAIN.

AIR DEFENSES
BY CARTER L.DAVIDSON
PARIS, MAY 25-(AP)-WESTERN EUROPE'S AIR DEFENSES NEED A LOT OF IMPROVING BEFORE THEY COULD BEAT OFF AN INVADER, MILITARY CHIEFTAINS HAVE LEARNED.

THEIR LESSON CAME IN "EXERCISE UMBRELLA," THE FIRST TEST OF AIR FORCES ASSIGNED BY THE ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS TO THE COMMAND OF GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER.

THE THREE-DAY EXERCISE, BIGGEST HELD IN THE WEST SINCE THE WAR, CLOSED TONIGHT. IT INVOLVED FIGHTER AND BOMBER FORCES OF SIX NATIONS--THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, BRITAIN, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND DENMARK.

BRITISH AIR VICE MARSHAL W.A.B.BROOK, DEPUTY COMMANDER OF AIR FORCES IN THE CENTRAL SECTOR, SAID "THE RESULTS LOOK VERY PROMISING," BUT ADDED:

"MANY IMPROVEMENTS MUST BE MADE. THE EXERCISES EXPOSED CERTAIN WEAKNESSES, MAINLY IN THE FIELD OF COMMUNICATIONS."

HE DECLARED HOWEVER, THAT "MUCH IMPROVEMENT HAS BEEN MADE" IN THE EUROPEAN AIR DEFENSE SYSTEM SINCE LAST AUGUST, WHEN THE FIVE-NATION BRUSSELS PACT ALLIANCE HELD COMBINED MANEUVERS.

EXERCISE UMBRELLA--COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS DUBBED IT "UMBRELLA OF DEATH"--WAS A TEST OF THE ABILITY OF FIGHTER AIRCRAFT OF THE SIX NATIONS TO WORK TOGETHER IN FENDING OFF BOMBER ATTACKS. FIVE HUNDRED PLANES TOOK PART.

IN ADDITION, THE EXERCISE TESTED RADAR AND COMMUNICATIONS NETWORKS, ANTI-AIRCRAFT DEFENSES, AND AIR TRANSPORT ELEMENTS.

DURING THE EXERCISE, ONE COMPLETE JET FIGHTER SQUADRON WAS MOVED WITHOUT ADVANCE NOTICE FROM VOLKEL, IN THE NETHERLANDS, TO LUXEUIL, FRANCE. THE FIGHTERS FLEW THE 300 MILES DISTANCE DURING SIMULATED COMBAT CONDITIONS. GROUND CREWMEN AND SUPPLIES WERE HAULED TO THE NEW BASE BY BELGIAN TRANSPORT PLANES.

"ENEMY FORCES" IN THE EXERCISES WERE BRITISH AND UNITED STATES BOMBERS STATIONED IN BRITAIN AND WEST GERMANY.

BROOK SAID SOME RAIDING PLANES GOT THROUGH TO THEIR TARGETS WITHOUT DETECTION, BUT MOST OF THEM WERE ENGAGED BY FIGHTERS BEFORE REACHING THEIR TARGETS.

THE PRINCIPAL IMPROVEMENT IN COMMUNICATIONS WHICH THE EXERCISE SHOWED WAS NECESSARY IS THE ADDITION OF NEW CABLE LINES, BROOK ADDED.

THIS PROJECT ALREADY IS UNDERWAY ON AN INTERNATIONAL BASIS, WITH ALL NATIONS IN THE ATLANTIC PACT SHARING THE COST.

THE EXERCISE ALSO HAS SHOWED THE NECESSITY OF BUILDING NEW AIRFIELDS, PARTICULARLY THOSE EQUIPPED TO HANDLE JET-PROPELLED PLANES. THIS IS BEING DELAYED BY THE LACK OF THE NECESSARY SPECIAL CONSTRUCTION EQUIPMENT.

LANDSBERG, GERMANY, MAY 25-(AP)-A SECOND STAY OF EXECUTION FOR SEVEN CONDEMNED GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS BROUGHT NEW HOPE TODAY TO THEIR FAMILIES AND TO WEST GERMAN OFFICIALS THAT THEY MIGHT YET ESCAPE THE GALLOWS.

THE MEN--CONVICTED OF MASS MURDER UNDER ADOLF HITLER'S REICH--WERE SITTING RED JACKETED AND GRIM IN DEATH ROW LAST NIGHT WHEN THEY RECEIVED WORD THAT U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE WALTER M. BASTIAN IN WASHINGTON, D.C. WAS HOLDING UP THE EXECUTIONS FOR FIVE DAYS WHILE HE STUDIED THE CASE. THEY WERE TOLD OF THE STAY ONLY ONE HOUR AND ONE MINUTE BEFORE THEY WERE TO HANG.

THE WEEPING WIVES WHO HAD BID FINAL FAREWELLS ONLY A FEW HOURS EARLIER, KNELT IN THANKFUL PRAYER AT A LITTLE HOTEL NEAR THE AMERICAN WAR CRIMES PRISON WHEN THEY HEARD THE NEWS. NONE OF THEM COULD BELIEVE THEIR HUSBANDS WOULD FACE THE GALLOWS A THIRD TIME.

GERMAN OFFICIALS IN THE WEST GERMAN CAPITAL OF BONN ALSO VOICED HOPE THE NEW STAY MIGHT LEAD TO A LESSENING OF THE SENTENCES.

VICE-CHANCELLOR FRANZ BLUECHER, WHO HAD SENT U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J. MCCLOY A LAST-MINUTE APPEAL ON BEHALF OF THE ACCUSED, DECLARED THERE WERE "SERIOUS ERRORS" IN THE TRIAL PROCEEDINGS.

"IF THESE ERRORS ARE NOT AT LEAST REVIEWED, THEN WE WILL HAVE A NEW NATIONALISTIC LEGEND," HE SAID IN AN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO A POSSIBLE REVIVAL OF GERMAN NATIONALIST SPIRIT.

MANY HIGH GERMAN OFFICIALS AND NEWSPAPERS HAVE BITTERLY CRITICIZED THE DEATH SENTENCES.

THE FIRST STAY OF EXECUTION WAS GRANTED WHILE THE U.S. SUPREME COURT STUDIED A REQUEST FOR AN APPEAL IN THE CASE. THE SUPREME COURT REFUSED TO REVIEW THE APPEAL.

THE SEVEN PRISONERS, CONVICTED BY A U.S. WAR CRIMES COURT IN 1946 AND 1947 ARE: FORMER S.S. GEN. OSWALD POHL, CONVICTED OF DIRECTING THE DESTRUCTION OF THE WARSAW GHETTO AND OF BEING IN CHARGE OF NAZI CONCENTRATION CAMPS; GEORG SCHALLERMAIR, SENTENCED FOR CONCENTRATION CAMP ATROCITIES; S.S. COL. PAUL BLOBLE, CONVICTED OF HAVING ORDERED THE KILLING OF 60,000 PERSONS IN A KIEV MASSACRE; WERNER BRAUNE, CONVICTED OF A MASSACRE OF JEWS AND GYPSIES; ERIC NAUMANN, COMMANDER OF A UNIT WHICH EXTERMINATED 3,539 PERSONS IN THREE WEEKS; OTTO OHLENDORF, CHIEF OF AN EXTERMINATION TEAM CHARGED WITH HAVING KILLED 90,000 RUSSIANS, AND HANS SCHMIDT, FORMER ADJUTANT OF BUCHENWALD.

COMMENTING ON THE STAY, OHLENDORF'S WIFE EXCLAIMED: "AT THE MOMENT I HEARD IT, I DID NOT BELIEVE IT. THEY CANNOT DO THIS TO US A THIRD TIME."

FREDERICK WIEHL, ATTORNEY FOR POHL, WAS STUNNED BY THE NEWS.

"I THINK W'RE ALL RIGHT NOW," HE GRINNED. "I DON'T THINK THE MEN WILL EVER HANG."

"I THINK THIS LATEST ACTION INDICATES THAT AMERICAN AUTHORITIES MAY BE MOVING TOWARD GRANTING COMMUTATIONS TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT," WIEHL SAID.

NEVERTHELESS THE SEVEN MEN REMAINED IN THE BASEMENT DEATH ROW WHERE THEY WERE MOVED RECENTLY WHEN THEIR LAST HOPES HAD APPEARED DASHED.

PRISON ATTENDANTS SAID THE MEN APPEARED "IN BETTER SPIRITS" AFTER RECEIVING NEWS OF THE STAY.

FRIENDS OF THE CONDEMNED BEGAN NEW PETITIONS IN THEIR BEHALF.

HELENA ELIZABETH, PRINCESS OF ISENBURG, SENT A TELEGRAM TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN WHICH SAID "THE DECISION TO STOP THE LANDSBERG HANGINGS IN THE LAST MINUTE IS A GREAT HELP TO THE TEAMWORK OF THE UNITED STATES AND GERMANY AND A BLOW TO RADICAL PROPAGANDA. THANKS IN THE NAME OF THE WIVES AND RELATIVES."

THE PRINCESS IS KNOWN TO GERMANS AS THE "MOTHER OF WAR PRISONERS" BECAUSE OF HER WELFARE WORK.

EXTRA GUARDS, PLACED AROUND LANDSBERG PRISON THIS WEEK WERE WITHDRAWN TODAY. COL. W.R. GRAHAM, OF BOZEMAN, MONT., THE PRISON COMMANDANT, SAID "THINGS ARE NORMAL AROUND HERE AGAIN."

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM, MAY 25-(AP)-A PATTERN OF MASS ARRESTS, SLAVE LABOR, RAPE, MURDER AND DEATH EVOLVED TODAY FROM TESTIMONY ON RUSSIAN CONCENTRATION CAMPS BEFORE AN UNOFFICIAL COURT MADE UP OF MEN WHO SURVIVED NAZI IMPRISONMENT IN WORLD WAR II.

VLADIMIR ANDREIEV, WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS A FORMER INSPECTOR OF SOVIET CAMPS, DECLARED "THERE ARE THREE SORTS OF PEOPLE IN SOVIET RUSSIA; THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN DETAINED, THOSE WHO ARE DETAINED AND THOSE WHO WILL BE DETAINED."

HE WAS ONE OF 25 WITNESSES WHO HAVE APPEARED IN A MOCK TRIAL STAGED HERE THIS WEEK BY "THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE AGAINST CONCENTRATION CAMPS" TO BUILD UP WORLD OPINION ON THE SUBJECT. THE COURT HAS NO LEGAL POWER.

A.S.BALACHOWSKY OF FRANCE IS THE PRESIDING JUDGE. FORMER INMATES OF NAZI CAMPS FROM FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, GERMANY AND SPAIN SIT WITH HIM. A FRENCH FORMER COMMUNIST, DAVID ROUSSET, IS THE PROSECUTOR. RUSSIA'S BRUSSELS EMBASSY IGNORED AN INVITATION TO SEND DEFENSE COUNSEL.

WITH THE WINDUP OF THE HEARING TONIGHT, THE COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL JUNE 1. IT PLANS THEN TO DECLARE ITS FINDING ON A CHARGE THAT RUSSIA IS SUPPORTING A CONCENTRATION CAMP REGIME BASED ON ARBITRARY ARREST.

ONE EXAMPLE GIVEN IN THE HEARING WAS A MASS ROUNDUP OF FORMER RUSSIAN PRISONERS OF WAR UPON THEIR RETURN FROM GERMAN CAMPS.

A FORMER RED ARMY COLONEL, VASILY ERSCHOV, SAID ALMOST ALL SUCH PRISONERS WERE SENT IMMEDIATELY TO RUSSIAN LABOR CAMPS. HE TESTIFIED THEY WERE CONSIDERED DANGEROUS TO THE KREMLIN REGIME.

ERSCHOV SAID HE HAD SEEN PREPARED FORMS WITH THE SENTENCE AND THE REASON FOR THE SENTENCE ALREADY WRITTEN AND "A BLANK LINE LEFT WITH SPACE TO ADD A NAME, ANY NAME.

ANDREIEV TOLD THE COURT RUSSIA IS CURRENTLY KEEPING ABOUT A TENTH OF HER POPULATION, MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN, BEHIND BARBED WIRE, WHERE THOUSANDS DIE OF STARVATION, BAD TREATMENT OR MERE EXHAUSTION. HE SAID THE TOTAL RANGED FROM 15,000,000 TO 20,000,000. BUT HE DESCRIBED THE WHOLE PRACTICE AS POOR ECONOMY.

"THROUGH OVERHEAD AND HEAVY LOSSES, ONE WEEK'S WORK BY A SLAVE COSTS ALMOST DOUBLE A WEEK'S WORK BY A FREE MAN," HE SAID.

GREGORYI PETROV, A FORMER FACTORY MANAGER, SAID SLAVE MANPOWER WAS FARMED OUT BY THE SOVIET SECRET POLICE JUST AS HARVESTING MACHINES OR TYPEWRITERS ARE HANDLED IN SOME OTHER NATIONS. THE POLICE WERE PAID 12 RUBLES DAILY PER MAN AND EACH MAN GOT LESS THAN TWO RUBLES WORTH OF FOOD DAILY, HE SAID. (RUSSIA VALUES THE RUBLE AT 25 CENTS).

BORIS PODLOAK, A FORMER PROFESSOR OF LITERATURE, TOLD THE COURT A FELLOW INMATE HAD BEEN CONDEMNED TO THREE YEARS SLAVE LABOR FOR ARRIVING AT WORK 21 MINUTES LATE ONE MORNING.

ANTONIO EKART, A POLE ONCE ARRESTED BY THE RUSSIANS, TOLD THE COURT THAT OUT OF 2,000 MEN IN HIS TRANSPORT TO THE CAMP ALL BUT 300 HAD DIED BEFORE THREE MONTHS AFTER ARRIVING AT THE CAMP.

IGOR RATHMIROV, A RUSSIAN DOCTOR ARRESTED IN KIEV ON SPY CHARGES SAID HIS CAMP HOSPITAL WAS PROVIDED WITH LESS THAN 200 BEDS, THOUGH THE CAMP HAD MORE THAN 30,000 STARVING INMATES.

MRS.JADEVIAGA KOWLSKA, ARRESTED IN 1939, TESTIFIED THAT IT WAS COMMON IN CAMPS FOR WOMEN TO BE RAPED.

"IF IT WAS DISCOVERED, THEY WERE PUNISHED AS WELL AS THE MEN," SHE SAID.

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM, MAY 25-(AP)-A FORMER INSPECTOR OF SOVIET CONCENTRATION CAMPS TESTIFIED TODAY BEFORE AN UNOFFICIAL COURT THAT ONE-TENTH OF RUSSIA'S POPULATION--NEARLY 20,000,000 PERSONS--ARE BEING MALTREATED AS SLAVE LABORERS.

VLADIMIR ANDREIEV WAS ONE OF 25 WITNESSES APPEARING BEFORE A GROUP OF FORMER NAZI CONCENTRATION CAMP VICTIMS SITTING AS JUDGES IN A PRIVATELY ORGANIZED MOCK TRIAL OF RUSSIA ON CHARGES SHE MAINTAINS CONCENTRATION CAMPS ON A VAST SCALE.

ANDREIEV SAID:

"THERE ARE THREE SORTS OF PEOPLE IN SOVIET RUSSIA: THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN DETAINED, THOSE WHO ARE DETAINED, AND THOSE WHO WILL BE DETAINED."

HE DECLARED THAT THOUSANDS OF MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN DIE FROM STARVATION, MALTREATMENT OR EXHAUSTION IN RUSSIA'S SLAVE LABOR CAMPS.

THE AMATEUR TRIAL IS BEING CONDUCTED BY "THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE AGAINST CONCENTRATION CAMP REGIMES," WHOSE MEMBERSHIP RANGES FROM SPAIN TO BELGIUM. AFTER TESTIMONY IS COMPLETED TODAY THE "COURT" WILL ADJOURN TO JUNE 1 WHEN THE "JUDGES" WILL SUM UP THE EVIDENCE AND ANNOUNCE A DECISION. THE COMMITTEE SAYS THE REAL JUDGES WILL BE PUBLIC OPINION THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

VASILY ERSCHOV, WHO WAS DESCRIBED AS A FORMER RED ARMY COLONEL, SAID HE HAD SEEN PREPARED SOVIET PRISON FORMS WITH THE SENTENCE AND THE REASON FOR CONDEMNATION INSCRIBED, WITH "A BLANK LINE LEFT WITH SPACE TO ADD A NAME -- ANY NAME."

FLORENNES AIR BASE, BELGIUM, MAY 25-(AP)-HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO MOVE A FIGHTER AIR FIELD NEARLY 200 MILES AND GET INTO OPERATION?

THE ANSWER, SUPPLIED BY THE 86TH FIGHTER-BOMBER GROUP OF THE U.S. ARMY AIR FORCE, IS 13 HOURS.

IN JUST OVER HALF A DAY THE GROUP TRAVELLED FROM ITS BASE AT WIESBADEN, GERMANY, AND WAS PREPARED TO OPERATE ITS PLANES FROM FLORENNES AIR BASE.

CAPT. JIM GRAY FROM FRESNO, CALIF., SUPERVISED THE MASS MOVE.

HE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR SHEPHERDING MORE THAN 100 TRUCKS CRAMMED WITH EQUIPMENT FROM WIESBADEN TO FLORENNES, WHERE THE UNIT TOOK PART IN "OPERATION UMBRELLA" TESTING WESTERN EUROPE'S AIR DEFENSES.

Geneva, Switzerland, May 25-(ap)-The world health assembly adopted today a new international sanitary code described by assembly president leonard scheele as "the greatest step forward ever recorded" in international public health. surgeon-general of the u.s.

The assembly, of which dr. scheele has been president, closed its session here with this announcement. The meeting was held under the auspices of the united nations world health organizat on.

the new code of 124 articles outlines the part of individual national health administrations in preventing the spread of disease. It replaces many existing international conventions covering measures against plague, cholera, yellow fever, smallpox and typhus.

The announcement said the code now embodies all recent advances in medical knowledge concerning epidemics and techniques for fighting the spread of disease. Some former restrictions on international travel and commerce, found not to be necessary, have been removed, requirements for vaccination certificates have been streamlined. in the future, travellers leaving an area of yellow fever infection must be vaccinated before departure, whether by land the persons involved travel by land, sea or air and no matter what the nationality.

the regulations become effective for the 78 countries represented in the world health organization next oct. 1, unless member nations make reservations on any regulations within nine months.

For the interim, the assembly has included a set of measures which will be aimed at sanitary control of the annual moslem religious pilgrimage to mecca.
these measures, however, are for use in the particular case of the travellers to mecca, and it is expected this portion of the code will be dropped when there no longer is need for it.

Closing the assembly, dr. scheele said in an addre s the new code would protect "the rights of the millions of international travellers and protect the many more millions staying at home."

"a balance has been struck between the need for more and rapid travel and the necessity for excluding dangerous infection from aircraft, ships and other means of locomotion."

Warsaw, Poland, May 25--(AP)--Six top provincial leaders of the United Polish Workers XXXXX (Communist) Party have been jailed and seven others removed from office in a widespread cleanup of the party organization in Szczecin Province.

Before World War II Szczecin was Stettin, in German Pomerania.

An announcement today said those ordered arrested by the party's central committee include the chief of public security at Gryfice, formerly Greiffenberg; his deputy; and the leader of the local Polish Youth Organization.

Among those ousted from the party and their jobs are a district attorney, a police chief, and the chairman of the Szczecin National Council.

The central committee charged those arrested with theft; negligent supervision of grain purchasing; terrorization of peasants, amounting to sabotage of the Workers and Peasants Alliance; and forcing the civil authorities to conceal their criminal activities.

The central committee's statement said that similar situations exist

elsewhere, citing instances it said are known [illegible] in the Provinces of Warsaw, Wroclaw (formerly Breslau), and Bialystok.

The Gryfice party committee was dissolved, and the local organizati was instructed to elect a new one. Provincial party authorities were ord ed to hold a meeting to be attended by party politburo members, and the [illegible] tive committee was ordered to make a full investigation.

The Gryfice party committee members were accused of abuse of their power; undermining [illegible] confidence in the authority of the party; subjecti the [illegible] kulaks, or [illegible] (prosperous peasants) to repressive m sures "irrespective of merit;" and establishing 15 collective farms in a atmosphere violating the voluntary principles of those joining.

The announcement was the first public admission that the party has used improperly on a large scale and is regarded as an indication that p vious purges have not been as effective as claimed.

NIGHT LEAD IRAN
BY FRED J.ZUSY
TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 25-(AP)-IN AN EMOTION-PACKED NEWS CONFERENCE PUNCTUATED BY SPELLS OF WEEPING, PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH SAID TODAY IRAN WILL "FIGHT TO THE END" FOR OIL NATIONALIZATION.
HE WARNED THAT ANY ATTEMPT BY BRITAIN OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY TO BLOCK HIS GOVERNMENT'S MOVE TO TAKE OVER IRAN'S VAST OIL RESOURCES--INCLUDING THOSE HELD BY THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY--"WILL SOON BRING THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD TO THE BRINK OF DISASTER."
(BRITAIN ANNOUNCED SHE IS SENDING THE TROUBLE-SHOOTING 16TH PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP OF 4,000 MEN TO CYPRUS--WITHIN EASY STRIKING DISTANCE OF IRAN--TO STRDNGTHEN HER MEDITERRANEAN GARRISON. TOP BRITISH OFFICIALS IN LONDON DO NOT CONCEAL THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE DISPATCH OF THE SPECIALLY TRAINED TROOPS AND THE OIL CRISIS IN IRAN. ALTHOUGH THE BRITISH HOPE IRAN'S NATIONALIST LEADERS WILL NEGOTIATE A NEW OIL DEAL, THEY HAVE MADE IT CLEAR THEY WILL USE ALL MEANS NECESSARY--INCLUDING LAST-RESORT MILITARY MEASURES--TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY AGAINST VIOLENCE.
(AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES IN BERLIN SAID GREGORY PUSHKIN, SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO EAST GERMANY, HAS TOLD COMMUNIST SUPPORTERS RUSSIA WOULD RESIST THE ENTRY OF FOREIGN TROOPS IN THE IRANIAN OIL CRISIS. A 1921 TREATY GAVE RUSSIA THE RIGHT TO SEND TROOPS INTO IRAN IF FOREIGN TROOPS INVADING THAT COUNTRY POSED A THREAT TO SOVIET FRONTIERS TO THE NORTH.)
THE AGED, WEALTHY MOSSADEGH BROKE DOWN IN TEARS WHEN HE TOLD REPORTERS OF THE PLIGHT OF IRAN'S 15,000,000 HUNGRY AND ILL-CLAD PEOPLE, LIVING AMIDST A TREASURE OF OIL. TWO AIDES SUPPORTED HIM BY THE ARMS AS HE SOBBINGLY FINISHED HIS STATEMENT.
IT WAS MOSSADEGH'S FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE SINCE HE BECAME PREMIER APRIL 30. AT THE END. HE RETURNED TO THE SECLUSION OF HIS OFFICES IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING, WHERE HE LOCKED HIMSELF IN 10 DAYS AGO TO GUARD AGAINST THREATS OF ASSASSINATION.

IN THE AFTERNOON THE FRAIL PREMIER WAS REPORTED ILL WITH A HIGH TEMPERATURE FROM THE EFFECTS OF HIS TALKS TO THE NEWSMEN. BUT HE RECEIVED BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS M.SHEPHERD FOR WHAT WAS DESCRIBED AS AN "INFORMAL EXCHANGE OF VIEWS."

HOSSEIN MAKKI, RIGHT HAND MAN OF THE PREMIER AND SECRETARY-GENERAL OF MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL FRONT PARTY, SAID NO NOTES OR MEMORANDA WERE EXCHANGED DURING SHEPHERD'S VISIT.

IRAN, HOWEVER, IS EXPECTED SOON TO REJECT THE LATEST BRITISH NOTE PROTESTING THE SEIZURE OF ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL HOLDINGS AND PROPOSING TO SEND A TOP-LEVEL DIPLOMATIC MISSION TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT.

THE BILLION-DOLLAR OIL CONCERN, 53 PER CENT OF WHICH IS OWNED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, HAS BEEN GIVEN UNTIL MAY 30 TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO HELP THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TAKE OVER CONTROL OF ITS PERSIAN GULF OIL FIELDS AND HUGE REFINERIES AT ABADAN.

MOSSADEGH SAID IN HIS NEWS CONFERENCE THAT, UNDER THE NATIONALIZATION LAW WHICH BECAME EFFECTIVE MAY 2, ALL OIL REVENUES ARE TO GO TO IRAN, WITH AN 11-MAN PARLIAMENTARY BOARD TAKING OVER CONTROL OF THE OIL FIELDS AND REFINERIES.

ALTHOUGH HE GAVE NO HINT OF HOW HIS GOVERNMENT PLANS TO TAKE OVER, HE SAID IT WOULD BE DONE "WITH UTMOST CARE" AND NOTHING WOULD BE DONE TO SUSPEND OPERATION OF THE INDUSTRY. HE DENOUNCED AS FALSE REPORTS THAT IRAN PLANS "UNJUST OCCUPATION OF OIL INSTALLATIONS." HE SAID THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY MAY PRESENT CLAIMS FOR COMPENSATION FOR THE PROPERTY SEIZED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

THE PREMIER, WHO RECENTLY TOLD PARLIAMENT HE HAD DREAMED HE WAS TO BE A MARTYR IN THE CAUSE OF OIL NATIONALIZATION, SAID THIS MOVE WAS THE FINAL EFFORT OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO SAVE THEIR COUNTRY FROM FOREIGN POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC EXPLOITATION.

IF IRAN DOESN'T ACHIEVE THIS GOAL, HE SAID, "THE WESTERN POWERS MUST WASH THEIR HANDS OF THE MIDDLE EAST AND EVEN OF THE WHOLE EAST COMPLETELY."

FIRST LEAD IRAN (290)

BY FRED J. ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 25-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH TEARFULLY ASSERTED TODAY THAT IRAN WILL "FIGHT TO THE END" TO ACHIEVE OIL NATIONALIZATION.

THE AGED GOVERNMENT HEAD, INTERRUPTING THE GUARDED SECLUSION WITH WHICH HE HAS MET THREATS ON HIS LIFE, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE ONLY THE NATIONALIZATION OF HIS COUNTRY'S CHIEF RESOURCE COULD SAVE IRAN'S PEOPLE.

THE WEST, HE DECLARED, WOULD HAVE TO WRITE OFF THE MIDDLE EAST IF THE GOVERNMENT TAKEOVER OF THE BRITISH-DEVELOPED OIL FIELDS WAS STALLED.

(BRITAIN ANNOUNCED TODAY SHE IS SENDING HER TOUGH 16TH PARACHUTE BRIGADE OF 4,000 MEN TO THE MEDITERRANEAN ISLAND OF CYPRUS--WITHIN EASY STRIKING DISTANCE OF IRAN.

(IN BERLIN GREGORY PUSHKIN, SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO THE EAST GERMAN GOVERNMENT, WAS REPORTED TO HAVE TOLD EAST GERMANS THAT RUSSIA WILL "RESIST" INJECTION OF FOREIGN TROOPS INTO THE IRANIAN CRISIS.)

MOSSADEGH LAST WEEK FAINTED AND FELL FROM THE PARLIAMENT ROSTRUM AFTER ANNOUNCING HE WAS TAKING REFUGE IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING BECAUSE OF THE THREATS ONHIS LIFE.

TODAY HE SOBBED AND BROKE DOWN BRIEFLY AS HE DESCRIBED THE POVERTY OF IRAN'S PEOPLE.

HIS GOVERNMENT MEANWHILE AWAITED A REPLY FROM THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY TO ITS ULTIMATUM ORDERING THE START OF NEGOTIATIONS FOR SURRENDER OF THE COMPANY'S VAST HOLDINGS IN IRAN.

MOSSADEGH SAID TODAY:

"IF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT INSISTS ON RETAINING THE FORMER OIL COMPANY, THE RESULTS WILL SOON BRING THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD TO THE BRINK OF DISASTER. XXX TO SAVE IRAN IS TO SAVE THE WORLD FROM A THIRD WAR."

IT WAS MOSSADEGH'S FIRST PRESS CONFERENCE SINCE HE BECAME PREMIER ON APRIL 30. FLANKED BY TWO AIDES, HE READ HIS STATEMENT QUIETLY. HIS VOICE BROKE OCCASIONALLY.

FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH YESTERDAY GAVE THE COMPANY UNTIL MAY 30 TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES FOR TALKS WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. IF THE COMPANY FAILS TO COMPLY, HE SAID, IRAN WILL "ACT ACCORDING TO ITS LEGAL DUTIES"--PRESUMABLY TAKE OVER THE PROPERTY WITHOUT ANY DICKERING.

OFFICIALS DODGED QUESTIONS ON HOW THE GOVERNMENT WOULD GO ABOUT THIS, BUT HOSSEIN MAKKI, SECRETARY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD, TOLD REPORTERS:

"THERE ARE WAYS WE CAN TAKE OVER OUR OWN PROPERTY. WE HAVE DECIDED WHAT WE ARE GOING TO DO, BUT IT IS BEING KEPT A SECRET FOR THE TIME BEING."

(MEANWHILE, THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, WHICH OWNS 53 PER CENT OF THE COMPANY'S STOCK, HAD ITS ENVOYS IN A DOZEN WORLD CAPITALS -- FROM NEW DELHI TO WASHINGTON -- URGE COUNTRIES WITH SOME INFLUENCE IN TEHRAN TO CALM THE FIERY NATIONALIST LEADERS THERE.)

ALLAHYAR SALEH, CHAIRMAN OF THE NATIONALIZATION BOARD, DENIED THAT THERE WAS ANY IRANIAN HATRED TOWARDS BRITAIN. HE SAID HE HOPED TALKS WITH COMPANY REPRESENTATIVES WOULD "END WELL" AND ADDED THAT IRAN HOPES TO CONTINUE EMPLOYMENT OF BRITISH AND OTHER FOREIGN TECHNICIANS NOW EMPLOYED BY THE OIL COMPANY.

"THE REGULATIONS OF THE FORMER COMPANY WILL CONTINUE TO BE THE BASIS OF OPERATIONS," HE SAID, "SO LONG AS THEY DON'T CONFLICT WITH NATIONALIZATION."

SOME OBSERVERS SAW IN THIS THE POSSIBILITY THAT, IF THE COMPANY AGREES TO SEND ITS REPRESENTATIVES, SOME SORT OF NEGOTIATIONS TOWARDS AN AGREEABLE SETTLEMENT MAY TAKE PLACE.

IRAN HAS REJECTED COMPANY PROPOSALS THAT THE DISPUTE BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION. AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAS ALSO DECIDED TO REJECT THE LATEST BRITISH PROPOSAL THAT LONDON SEND A TOP-LEVEL DIPLOMATIC MISSION TO NEGOTIATE THE DISPUTE.

LONDON, MAY 25-(AP)-BRITAIN ANNOUNCED TODAY SHE IS SENDING HER TOUGH 16TH PARACHUTE BRIGADE TO THE MEDITERRANEAN ISLE OF CYPRUS--WITHIN EASY STRIKING DISTANCE OF IRAN WHERE THE BRITISH HAVE A MAJOR OIL CRISIS ON THEIR HANDS.

SOME 4,000 MEMBERS OF THE BRIGADE WILL SAIL IN ABOUT 10 DAYS FOR THE FORTRESS ISLAND.

OFFICIALS SAID FUTURE MOVEMENTS OF THE TROUBLE-SHOOTING FORMATION WILL REST WITH GEN. SIR BRIAN ROBERTSON, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF BRITISH FORCES IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

A DEFENSE MINISTRY ANNOUNCEMENT SAID TERSELY THAT THE BRIGADE WILL BE GOING "AS A REINFORCEMENT TO THE GARRISON" IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

ALERTING OF THE PARATROOPS FOR OVERSEAS DUTY TOUCHED OFF WORLDWIDE SPECULATION THAT THE BRIGADE WAS DESTINED FOR IRAN AND THAT SUCH AN ACT MIGHT BRING THE RUSSIANS INTO THE DISPUTE AND SET THE STAGE FOR WORLD WAR III.
THE HEART OF RUSSIA'S OWN OIL BUSINESS LIES AT BAKU NEAR THE IRANIAN BORDER AND THE SOVIETS HAVE A 30-YEAR-OLD TREATY WITH IRAN WHICH PROVIDES FOR RUSSIAN INTERVENTION IF SOVIET SECURITY IS ENDANGERED.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT SAY SPECIFICALLY THE MEN WILL BE GOING TO CYPRUS. HOWEVER, REPORTERS WERE TOLD THE ISLAND COLONY WHERE BRITAIN ALREADY HAS MANY TROOPS AND AIRMEN BASED WILL BE THE BRIGADE'S DESTINATION.
THE GROUP WILL SAIL IN TWO AIRCRAFT CARRIERS, THE WARRIOR AND THE TRIUMPH, AND IN A TROOPSHIP, THE DEVONSHIRE.
THE PRESENT PLAN, ACCORDING TO THE INFORMANTS, IS THAT THE BRIGADE WILL NOT LEAVE THE MEDITERRANEAN AREA.
AIRCRAFT FOR TRAINING WILL BE AVAILABLE AT CYPRUS, THE SOURCES SAID.
IN ALL OTHER RESPECTS THE BRIGADE WILL BE FULLY EQUIPPED FOR ACTION.

BERLIN, MAY 25-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS HAVE ADVISED THEIR EAST GERMAN COMMUNIST SUPPORTERS THEY WILL "RESIST" INJECTION OF FOREIGN TROOPS INTO THE IRANIAN OIL CRISIS, AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES REPORTED TODAY.
GREGORY PUSHKIN, SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO THE EAST GERMAN GOVERNMENT, WAS SAID TO HAVE CONVEYED THIS THOUGHT TO THE GERMAN COMMUNISTS AT A TOP SECRET MEETING IN EAST BERLIN THIS WEEK.
INFORMED EASTERN QUARTERS SAID PUSHKIN DISCUSSED THE "WORLD SITUATION" AND DECLARED:
1. THE SOVIET UNION WILL NOT ACCEPT THE SENDING OF FOREIGN TROOPS TO IRAN.
2. PRESENCE OF FOREIGN TROOPS IN THAT AREA WILL BE REGARDED AS A "DIRECT THREAT" TO THE SOVIET UNION.

NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR INQUIRY

BY ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF J.LAWTON COLLINS TESTIFIED TODAY THAT GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WENT AGAINST PENTAGON POLICY IN KOREA WHEN HE SENT U.S. TROOPS NEAR THE MANCHURIAN BORDER LAST FALL.
COLLINS SAID MACARTHUR FAILED TO HEED THE ADVICE OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT HE HALT THE UNITED NATIONS ADVANCE SOME FIVE MILES SOUTH OF THE KOREA-MANCHURIA BORDER.
THE CHIEF OF STAFF'S FIRST DAY OF TESTIMONY TO SENATORS INVESTIGATING MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL BROUGHT SHARP CHALLENGES FROM SOME REPUBLICANS. THEY SAID HE CONTRADICTED THE TESTIMONY OF SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY THAT MACARTHUR NEVER DISOBEYED A MILITARY DIRECTIVE.
COLLINS HIMSELF SAID MACARTHUR'S CONDUCT WAS NOT CONSIDERED "BLATANT DISREGARD OF ORDERS."
THE SENATORS CALLED COLLINS BACK FOR FURTHER QUESTIONING TOMORROW 9 A.M. (EST). CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) SAID HE EXPECTED THE GENERAL COULD COMPLETE HIS TESTIMONY TOMORROW AFTERNOON.
TODAY'S HEARING WENT STRAIGHT TO THE HEART OF THE FAR EASTERN CONTROVERSY. MACARTHUR'S CRITICS CONTEND THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS MIGHT NOT HAVE ENTERED THE KOREAN WAR IF U.S. FORCES HAD STOPPED SHORT OF THE YALU RIVER BOUNDARY. MACARTHUR HIMSELF CONTENDS THE CHINESE INTERVENTION WAS NOT CAUSED BY HIS PUSH TO THE BORDER.
COLLINS TESTIFIED EARLY IN THE DAY THAT THE PENTAGON WILL ISSUE SHORTLY A NEW, TOP SECRET PLAN FOR CARRYING ON THE WAR IN KOREA. HE WOULDN'T GIVE THE SENATORS ANY DETAILS, EVEN IN PRIVATE.
THEN, UNDER QUESTIONING, HE WENT INTO THE MACARTHUR POLICIES THAT THE ADMINISTRATION AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAVE REJECTED.
"DID NOT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ADVISE THAT IT MIGHT BE WELL TO STOP THE (UNITED NATIONS) ADVANCE SOME FIVE MILES OR SO ON A RIDGE BEFORE THE YALU WAS REACHED?" ASKED SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN).
"YES, SIR; AT ONE STAGE OF THE GAME WE DID SUGGEST THAT AS A POSSIBILITY," COLLINS REPLIED.
"THE GENERAL REJECTED THAT ADVICE?" MCMAHON ASKED.
"YES, SIR, HE DID," THE CHIEF OF STAFF ANSWERED.
COLLINS TESTIFIED ALSO THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS TOLD MACARTHUR IN A DIRECTIVE SEPT.27 THAT "AS A MATTER OF POLICY NO NON-KOREAN GROUND FORCES WILL BE USED IN THE NORTHEAST PROVINCES BORDERING THE SOVIET UNION OR IN THE AREA ALONG THE MANCHURIAN BORDER."
THE ARMY HEAD SAID MACARTHUR DID USE U.S. TROOPS IN THE MANCHURIAN BORDER REGION "CONTRARY TO THIS MATTER OF POLICY WITHOUT ADVISING US FIRST."
THEN ON OCT.24, COLLINS SAID, THE JOINT CHIEFS MESSAGES MACARTHUR THAT HIS DECISION TO USE OTHER THAN SOUTH KOREANS IN THE ADVANCE TO THE BORDER WAS "NOT IN CONSONANCE WITH THEIR PREVIOUS INSTRUCTIONS."

A24WX
COLLINS SAID HE REGARDED THE GENERAL'S ACTION AS AN INDICATION "OF OUR GROWING CONCERN AS TO WHETHER OR NOT GENERAL MACARTHUR--WHO BY NOW QUITE APPARENTLY WAS NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE BASIC POLICIES, DON'T YOU SEE--WOULD FOLLOW THEM."
"OH, NOW, GENERAL LET'S BE FAIR," INTERJECTED SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF.) AT ONE POINT. KNOWLAND CONTENDED THAT MACARTHUR RECEIVED A NUMBER OF DIRECTIVES IN THAT PERIOD AND THAT NONE SPECIFICALLY FORBADE HIM TO USE U.S. TROOPS IN THE BORDER AREA.
"I DID NOT STATE IT WAS A DISOBEDIENCE OR AN INSUBORDINATION," COLLINS REPLIED.
IN NEW YORK, MACARTHUR'S AIDE, MAJ. GEN. COURTNEY WHITNEY, ISSUED A STATEMENT SAYING:
"THE UTILIZATION OF AMERICAN FORCES IN THE ADVANCE WAS NOT ONLY NOT IN CONTRADICTION TO ANY ORDER BUT WAS IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE DIRECT MISSION AND OBJECTIVE OF THE BASIC ORDERS UNDER WHICH GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS OPERATING TO CLEAR AND SECURE ALL TERRITORY SOUTH OF THE YALU."
WHITNEY SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE KEPT FULLY INFORMED "AND NO ORDERS WHATSOEVER WERE RECEIVED FROM THEM DIRECTING MODIFICATION.
ORIGINALLY IT WAS AGREED BY EVERYONE THAT SOUTH KOREANS SHOULD OCCUPY THE YALU RIVER AREA, WHITNEY SAID, BUT THE FEROCITY OF THE FIGHTING REQUIRED "THE MAXIMUM EMPLOYMENT OF ALL OF OUR FORCES."
ON ANOTHER POINT, COLLINS TOLD THE SENATORS THAT MACARTHUR'S SUCCESSOR, GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, HAS INFORMED HIM THAT HE FELT HE SHOULD SUPPORT MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL TO LIFT BANS AGAINST THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON THE CHINA MAINLAND.

MAY 26 1951

HE EVIDENTLY REFERRED TO THE FORCES OF CHIANG KAI SHEK, NOW GARRISONED ON FORMOSA, ALTHOUGH HE DID NOT SPECIFICALLY SAY SO.
"I HAVE HAD ONE COMMUNICATION FROM GENERAL RIDGWAY, THE DATE OF WHICH I DO NOT RECALL NOW," COLLINS SAID, "IN WHICH HE TOLD ME THAT FROM HIS POINT OF VIEW, OF BEING A COMMANDER IN THE FIELD, AND HE MADE THAT CLEAR, THAT HE FELT THAT HE SHOULD SUPPORT THAT PROPOSAL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR'S, WHICH INVOLVED THE RELEASE OF ANY RESTRICTIONS ON CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES OPERATING ON THE MAINLAND OF CHINA."
"AND HE LIMITED IT TO THAT ONE (PROPOSAL)?" ASKED SENATOR JOHNSON (D-TEX).
COLLINS: "THAT ONE PARTICULAR POINT."
JOHNSON ASKED COLLINS WHETHER HE KNEW OF ANY OTHER REPORT "THAT GEN. RIDGWAY HAS MADE TO THE EFFECT THAT HE AGREES WITH THE PROGRAM RECOMMENDED BY GENERAL MACARTHUR."
"I DO NOT KNOW OF ANY, NO, SIR," COLLINS SAID.
"THAT DOESN'T MEAN THERE AREN'T ANY," SAID SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS), A STAUNCH SUPPORTER OF MACARTHUR.
SPEAKING "WITH MACHINE-GUN SPEED," AS ONE SENATOR PUT IT, COLLINS CLEARLY INDICATED THAT THE PENTAGON'S NEW WAR PLAN WON'T FOLLOW MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR ENDING THE KOREAN CONFLICT.
REPLYING TO A QUESTION BY SENATOR KEFAUVER (D-TENN), COLLINS SAID THAT HE FELT THIS COUNTRY'S PRESENT COURSE IN THE FAR EAST AND EUROPE IS THE ONE BEST CALCULATED TO PREVENT OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR III.
SEN.KEFAUVER THEN ASKED: "WELL, FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW, DO YOU THINK OUR CHANCES FOR PEACE WOULD BE SERIOUSLY JEOPARDIZED IF WE ACCEPTED GENERAL MACARTHUR'S SUGGESTIONS FOR EXTENDING OR ENLARGING A WAR IN THE FAR EAST?"
COLLINS REPLIED: "WELL, IT MIGHT WELL BRING THE CONFLICT TO A CONCLUSION OUT THERE SOONER THAN THE PRESENT COURSE OF ACTION. HOWEVER, THE DANGER THAT IT MIGHT WELL BRING ON A GREAT WORLD WAR, WHEN WE ARE NOT FULLY PREPARED TO WAGE SUCH A WAR, OVERRIDES THE FIRST CONSIDERATION, IN MY JUDGMENT."

COLLINS THEN WENT ON TO WARN THAT GEN.MACARTHUR'S SUGGESTIONS WOULD REQUIRE A NAVAL BLOCKADE WHICH WOULD BE "FROUGHT WITH MATERIAL DANGERS OF INVOLVING US IN ANOTHER WAR."

HE ALSO SAID THERE IS "EVERY INDICATION" THE U.S. WOULD LOSE SOME OF ITS ALLIES IF GEN.MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM WERE CARRIED OUT. HE ADDED SUCH A LOSS WOULD BE "VERY SERIOUS INDEED."

COLLINS SAID MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS WOULD TAKE FIVE MORE DIVISIONS--AND THESE, HE CONTENDED, COULD NOT BE SPARED BY EITHER THE U.S. OR ITS ALLIES WITHOUT EXPOSING A WEAK SPOT TO THE RUSSIANS SOMEWHERE ELSE.

(MACARTHUR URGED, AMONG OTHER THINGS, USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS AGAINST THE CHINESE REDS; BOMBING OF MANCHURIAN BASES; A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE CHINESE COAST; AND ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AGAINST THE COMMUNIST CHINESE.)

LIKE BRADLEY AND MARSHALL, COLLINS SAID HE BECAME CONVINCED THAT MACARTHUR WAS NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE ADMINISTRATION'S AND THE JOINT CHIEFS' PROGRAM FOR FIGHTING THE WAR IN KOREA. AND SO, COLLINS SAID, HE CONCURRED IN MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL.

HE ACKNOWLEDGED, HOWEVER, THAT THE PRESENT LIMIT-THE-WAR POLICY IS "TO A CERTAIN EXTENT" A NEGATIVE ONE.

"AND IF THAT POLICY IS PURSUED," ASKED SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS), "THE ONLY WAY WE CAN GET A SETTLEMENT IS TO HAVE THE ACTION COME FROM THE OTHER FELLOW CALLING QUITS?"

MAY 26 1951

"I BELIEVE THAT IS GENERALLY CORRECT," COLLINS SAID.

THE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF TESTIFIED ALSO THAT:

1--"I THINK THAT WE HAVE SUFFICIENT FORCES OUT IN THE FAR EAST TO HOLD THERE. I THINK WE HAVE SUFFICIENT FORCES IN ALASKA TO HOLD THERE. I DO NOT THINK WE HAVE SUFFICIENT FORCES IN EUROPE."

2--THE ALLIES HAVE MOVED TO THE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE IN KOREA AND THE CHINESE REDS ARE "IN PRETTY COMPLETE RETREAT ALONG THE FRONT."

3--CAPTURED CHINESE EQUIPMENT IS "MOSTLY RUSSIAN" AND "WE ARE QUITE CONVINCED" THAT SOME RED PLANES ARE FLOWN BY RUSSIANS.

A25WX

4--HE THOUGHT MACARTHUR MIGHT BE REMOVED FOR A LONG TIME BEFORE THE GENERAL ACTUALLY WAS FIRED.

COLLINS--AGAIN FOLLOWING THE LEAD OF MARSHALL AND BRADLEY--TESTIFIED THAT MACARTHUR'S POLICIES MIGHT WELL LEAD TO A GENERAL WAR "FOR WHICH WE ARE NOT PREPARED."

BESIDES, COLLINS SAID, IN FOLLOWING THE MACARTHUR PLAN "WE MIGHT VERY WELL STAND TO LOSE THE PRINCIPAL ALLIES WHOM WE CERTAINLY WOULD BE DEPENDENT ON IN EVENT OF A MAJOR WAR."

COLLINS DESCRIBED HIMSELF AS COMPLETELY OUT OF SYMPATHY WITH MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL THAT THIS COUNTRY "GO IT ALONE" IN THE FAR EAST IF OTHER UNITED NATIONS FAILED TO SUPPORT BROADER ACTION AGAINST THE CHINESE REDS.

"I THINK THAT UNQUESTIONABLY WAS THE FUNDAMENTAL THING FROM MY POINT OF VIEW THAT WAS INVOLVED (IN MACARTHUR'S REMOVAL)," THE GENERAL SAID.

COLLINS SAID MACARTHUR'S BLOCKADE PROPOSAL, TO BE EFFECTIVE, WOULD HAVE TO INCLUDE THE SOVIET-DOMINATED PORT OF DAIREN "AND POSSIBLY EVEN THE (SOVIET) PORT OF VLADIVOSTOK," THUS RISKING "ONE OF THOSE BORDERLINE INCIDENTS THAT MIGHT WELL PRECIPITATE LARGE SCALE WAR."

THE DISCUSSION ON WHETHER MACARTHUR DID OR DIDN'T DISOBEY, DISREGARD OR JUST NOT FOLLOW DIRECTIVES WENT ON FOR A LONG TIME AND GOT PRETTY INVOLVED.

COLLINS TRIED TO CLEAR UP HIS OWN POINT OF VIEW BY SAYING HE HAD NO INTENTION OF SECOND-GUESSING THE GENERAL ON STRATEGY OR OF SINGLING OUT ANY ONE INCIDENT THAT LED TO HIS DISMISSAL.

"I WOULD SAY THAT THE CUMULATIVE EFFECT OF THE SEVERAL DIFFERENT INCIDENTS WHERE GENERAL MACARTHUR FAILED TO CLEAR HIS STATEMENTS, THIS INCIDENT OF HIS TAKING AN ACTION CONTRARY TO THE BASIC POLICY, WITHOUT FIRST HAVING CONSULTED WITH US, ALL WERE INVOLVED," COLLINS SAID.

HE TOLD THE SENATORS THESE THINGS "LED ME TO FEEL THAT THE TIME HAD ARRIVED WHEN THE PRESIDENT, OUR COMMANDER IN CHIEF, WAS ENTITLED TO HAVE A MAN IN THE FIELD X X X WHO WAS MORE RESPONSIVE TO THE WISHES OF THE AUTHORITIES HERE IN WASHINGTON."

SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) NOTED THAT MACARTHUR GAVE "MILITARY NECESSITY" AS HIS REASON FOR SENDING AMERICAN TROOPS TO THE MANCHURIAN BORDER. HE ASKED IF COLLINS WOULD "DOUBT HIS JUDGMENT 7,000 MILES AWAY."

"PROBABLY NOT, SENATOR," THE CHIEF OF STAFF REPLIED.

ASKED BY SENATOR LONG (D-LA) IF HE THOUGHT THE UNITED NATIONS ARE WINNING THE WAR UNDER THEIR PRESENT POLICIES, COLLINS REPLIED:

"YES, SIR, I DO."

HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE SUCCESS OF THE U.N. EFFORT IS REFLECTED IN THE FACT THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE NOT PUSHED TO THE SOUTH--INTO INDOCHINA, FOR INSTANCE. "THEY HAVE MADE NO EFFORT TO INVADE FORMOSA," HE NOTED.

COLLINS-MANPOWER

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS WAS QUOTED TODAY AS SAYING IT WOULD REQUIRE "FIVE MORE DIVISIONS" TO CARRY OUT GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR FIGHTING THE KOREAN WAR.

A SENATOR, ASKING NOT TO BE QUOTED BY NAME, TOLD REPORTERS COLLINS MADE THE ESTIMATE AT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

NOTHING OF THAT NATURE HAD, AT THE TIME, APPEARED IN THE OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT OF COLLINS' TESTIMONY. IT'S DELIVERY TO NEWS REPORTERS IN CENSORED FORM NECESSARILY LAGS CONSIDERABLY BEHIND THE ACTUAL TESTIMONY.

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS TOLD SENATORS TODAY A NEW AND SECRET PLAN OF CAMPAIGN FOR THE KOREAN WAR IS BEING MAPPED BY THE PENTAGON.

HE DECLINED TO DISCUSS IT AT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR BUT SAID "A DEFINITE NEW DIRECTIVE" WILL BE ISSUED "SHORTLY."

30.24- 23413

COLLINS MADE A REFERENCE TO THIS PROSPECTIVE NEW DIRECTIVE WHILE BEING QUESTIONED BY SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS).

STEADFASTLY HE SAID IT WOULD BE PREMATURE TO TELL THE SENATORS ABOUT IT AT THIS TIME.

"BUT YOU DO SAY," SALTONSTALL PRESSED HIM, "THAT FOR THE FIRST TIME, THEN, AND YOU ARE THE FIRST WITNESS WHO HAS SAID SO, THAT THERE IS A COURSE OF POLICY NOW BEING STUDIED AND PLANNED WHICH WE COULD SAY WAS AN AFFIRMATIVE POLICY FOR ENDING THE WAR, IS THAT RIGHT, IN KOREA?"

COLLINS REPLIED: "WELL, I DO NOT KNOW WHETHER I COULD GO TO THAT EXTENT. "THE POINT THAT I MAKE IS THAT THE INSTRUCTIONS UNDER WHICH GENERAL RIDGWAY IS OPERATING ARE NOW BEING REVIEWED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, AND A DEFINITE NEW DIRECTIVE WILL BE ISSUED TO HIM SHORTLY."

ASKED WHETHER HE COULD TELL THE COMMITTEE "IN CONFIDENCE" ABOUT THE NEW PLAN, COLLINS SAID:

"I DON'T FEEL THAT I CAN, SENATOR, BECAUSE THE FINAL DECISION ON IT HAS NOT YET BEEN REACHED."

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS TOLD THE SENATE'S MACARTHUR INQUIRY TODAY HE HAS "SEEN TOO MUCH OF THESE DAMNABLE WARS."

THE FOUR-STAR GENERAL SAID HE BELIEVES THIS COUNTRY SHOULD DO ALL "WITHIN REASON" TO SUPPORT THE EFFORTS OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO STOP WARS. HE ADDED:

"IT MAY NOT BE EFFECTIVE, BUT, BY GOD, UNTIL IT IS PROVEN COMPLETELY INEFFECTIVE, I THINK WE OUGHT TO DO EVERYTHING IN OUR POWER TO MAKE IT WORK."

COLLINS-NATIONAL GUARD

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, TOLD SENATORS TODAY HE HAS RECOMMENDED THAT ADDITIONAL NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS BE CALLED INTO FEDERAL SERVICE THIS YEAR.

HE DID NOT SAY HOW MANY.

COLLINS MENTIONED THIS WHILE TESTIFYING AT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

TWO WEEKS AGO THE NATIONAL GUARD BUREAU SAID IT WAS POSSIBLE THAT SOME ADDITIONAL NATIONAL GUARD DIVISIONS WOULD BE CALLED INTO SERVICE AFTER JULY. SIX DIVISIONS, TWO REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAMS AND NUMEROUS SMALLER GUARD UNITS ARE NOW IN SERVICE.

COLLINS' RECOMMENDATION WAS TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

HE TOLD THE SENATORS HE BELIEVED THE ARMY HAD BEEN BUILDING UP AS RAPIDLY AS IT COULD.

"I HAVE ENDEAVORED TO NOT CALL UP ADDITIONAL UNITS OF THE (NATIONAL) GUARD, FOR EXAMPLE," HE EXPLAINED, "UNTIL WE WERE PREPARED TO PROPERLY EQUIP THEM AND HAVE THE NECESSARY TRAINERS TO ASSIST IN THEIR TRAINING AND TO FILL THEIR RANKS."

IT WAS THEN THAT HE SAID HE HAD RECOMMENDED ADDITIONAL GUARD UNITS BE CALLED UP LATER THIS YEAR. FOLLOWING THE SENTENCE, SIX LINES OF TESTIMONY WERE CUT OUT BY THE CENSOR.

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS IN THE SENATE'S MACARTHUR HEARING RAN UP A TOTAL OF MORE THAN 700,000 WORDS WITH THE FIRST THREE WITNESSES.

THIS WAS THE ESTIMATE MADE BY WARD & PAUL, OFFICIAL STENOGRAPHERS, ON THE TOTAL WORDAGE IN HEARING GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, AND GENERAL OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

THE TOTAL WOULD MAKE SEVERAL VOLUMES OF NORMAL BOOK-LENGTH NOVEL SIZE.

M(250) COMMUNIST CASUALTIES

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, TESTIFIED TODAY THE COMMUNISTS HAVE PAID A TOLL OF 1,025,000 CASUALTIES IN THE KOREAN WAR, 90,000 OF THEM BETWEEN MAY 17 AND 23.

AND, HE SAID, THIS DRAIN ON THEIR TRAINED MANPOWER IS BEGINNING TO SHOW.

GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, YESTERDAY COUNTED UNITED STATES CASUALTIES OF ALL TYPES, INCLUDING CASES OF MINOR ILLNESS, AT 141,955.

COLLINS SAID HIS ESTIMATE OF COMMUNIST LOSSES, COMPLETE "AS OF NOW," INCLUDED KILLED, WOUNDED, NON-BATTLE DISABILITY, AND PRISONERS CAPTURED.

MAY 26 1951

THE ESTIMATE OF THEIR MAY 17-23 LOSSES, HE SAID, EMBRACED ONLY BATTLE CASUALTIES--THE DEAD, WOUNDED AND CAPTURED.

HE SAID HE HAD NO BREAKDOWN ON THE FIGURES.

COLLINS SAID OFFICERS JUST RETURNED FROM KOREA TOLD HIM "JUST YESTERDAY" THAT THE NORTH KOREANS ARE SHOWING THE EFFECTS OF THE HEAVY MANPOWER DRAIN.

"THE PRISONERS WE HAVE EEEN TAKING RECENTL6", HE SAID, "HAVE BEEN MUCH OLDER MEN THAN THE YOUNGER, MORE VIGOROUS MEN THAT WE TOOK ORIGINALLY."

THE SOUTH KOREANS HAVE HAD HEAVY LOSSES, TOO, COLLINS SAID. HE SAID THEIR BATTLE CASUALTIES ALONE TOTAL 167,254.

THE BATTLE LOSSES OF OTHER UN FORCES, NOT COUNTING THOSE OF THE UNITED STATES, ARE 4,823, HE SAID.

TO THOSE, HE SAID, COULD BE ADDED 30,202 SOUTH KOREANS COUNTED AS NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES--A TERM TO WHICH HE SAID HE OBJECTS--AND 4,962 FOR THE OTHER U.N. FORCES OTHER THAN THOSE OF THIS COUNTRY. THAT, HE SAID, MAKES THE TOTALS OF BATTLE AND NON-BATTLE LOSSES 197,456 FOR THE SOUTH KOREANS, 9,785 FOR THE OTHERS.

FIRST LEAD MACARTHUR (170)

NEW YORK, MAY 25-(AP)-AN AIDE SAID TONIGHT THAT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WAS NEVER RESTRAINED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY FROM SENDING AMERICAN TROOPS TO THE YALU RIVER IN KOREA LAST NOVEMBER.

THE STATEMENT BY MAJ.GEN.COURTNEY WHITNEY CONTRADICTED TESTIMONY IN WASHINGTON EARLIER BY ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF J.LAWTON COLLINS.

COLLINS DID NOT ACCUSE MACARTHUR OF DISOBEYING ORDERS.

HE DID ACCUSE THE OUSTED FAR EASTERN COMMANDER OF FAILURE TO HEED ADVICE FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT HE HALT UNITED NATIONS FORCES SOME FIVE MILES SOUTH OF THE MANCHURIAN BORDER.

WHITNEY SAID HE WISHED TO MAKE A "CATEGORICAL DENIAL (THAT) ANY SUCH EXTRAORDINARY INHIBITIONS UPON THE USE OF HIS (MACARTHUR'S) TROOPS WERE EVER IMPOSED UPON HIM DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY."

INSTEAD, WHITNEY SAID, MACARTHUR THREW AMERICAN TROOPS INTO THE YALU AREA IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE BASIC ORDERS UNDER WHICH HE WAS OPERATING.

SHORTLY AFTER THE AMERICAN TROOPS REACHED THE YALU, CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES ENTERED THE KOREAN WAR AND LAUNCHED A DAMAGING OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES.

WHITNEY, MACARTHUR'S TOP AIDE, SAID ORIGINALLY IT HAD BEEN AGREED "BY EVERYONE" THAT SOUTH KOREANS SHOULD OCCUPY THE YALU RIVER AREA.

"AS THE FEROCITY OF THE CAMPAIGN INCREASED," WHITNEY CONTINUED IN A STATEMENT, "IT BECAME IMPOSSIBLE TO ACCOMPLISH THE OBJECTIVE OF CLEARING NORTH KOREA OF ENEMY FORCES WITHOUT THE MAXIMUM EMPLOYMENT OF ALL OF OUR FORCES."

WHITNEY SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE FULLY INFORMED OF PLANS AND TROOP MOVEMENTS "AND NO ORDERS WHATSOEVER WERE RECEIVED FROM THEM DIRECTING MODIFICATION."

"THE UTILIZATION OF AMERICAN FORCES IN THE ADVANCE," THE STATEMENT ADDED, "WAS NOT ONLY NOT IN CONTRADICATION TO ANY ORDER BUT WAS IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE DIRECT MISSION AND OBJECTIVE OF THE BASIC ORDERS UNDER WHICH GEN. MACARTHUR WAS OPERATING TO CLEAR AND SECURE ALL TERRIRORY SOUTH OF THE YALU."

WHITNEY SAID COLLINS MAY HAVE BEEN MISQUOTED BY SOME SOURCES AS SAYING MACARTHUR VIOLATED ORDERS.

MAY 26 1951

BUT IF NOT, WHITNEY ADDED, THEN COLLINS WAS WRONG.

ACTUALLY, COLLINS WAS ASKED AT THE SENATE HEARING TODAY:

"DID NOT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ADVISE THAT IT MIGHT BE WELL TO STOP THE (UNITED NATIONS) ADVANCE SOME FIVE MILES OR SO ON A RIDGE BEFORE THE YALU WAS REACHED?"

"YES, SIR, AT ONE STAGE OF THE GAME WE DID SUGGEST THAT AS A POSSIBILITY," REPLIED COLLINS.

THE QUESTIONER, SEN. MC MAHON (D-CONN) THEN ASKED:

"THE GENERAL REJECTED THAT ADVICE?"

"YES, SIR, HE DID," SAID COLLINS.

COLLINS WENT ON TO TESTIFY THAT MACARTHUR USED U.S. TROOPS IN THE MANCHURIAN BORDER AREA CONTRARY TO A POLICY DIRECTIVE OF SEPT. 27 "WITHOUT ADVISING US FIRST."

THE CHIEF OF STAFF SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS MESSAGED MACARTHUR THAT THIS USE OF AMERICAN TROOPS NEAR THE YALU WAS "NOT IN CONSONANCE WITH THEIR PREVIOUS INSTRUCTIONS."

COLLINS SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS FELT A GROWING CONCERN AT THE TIME "MNDOO WHETHER OR NOT

COLLINS SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS FELT A GROWING CONCERN AT THE TIME "AS TO WHETHER OR NOT GENERAL MACARTHUR--WHO BY NOW QUITE APPARENTLY WAS NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE BASIC POLICIES, DON'T YOU SEE--WOULD FOLLOW THEM."

SEN. KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) BROKE IN AT THIS POINT TO QUESTION COLLINS AND THE CHIEF OF STAFF TOLD HIM:

"I DID NOT STATE IT WAS A DISOBEDIENCE OR AN INSUBORDINATION."

GENERAL WHITNEY'S FULL STATEMENT IN BEHALF OF MACARTHUR READ:

"IT HAD BEEN THE ORIGINAL POLICY AGREED ON BY EVERYONE THAT IF POSSIBLE KOREAN TROOPS SHOULD BE UTILIZED TO OCCUPY THE AREA IMMEDIATELY SOUTH OF THE YALU ONCE THAT AREA WAS SECURED BY OUR FORCES.

"AS THE FEROCITY OF THE CAMPAIGN INCREASED, HOWEVER, IT BECAME IMPOSSIBLE TO ACCOMPLISH THE OBJECTIVE OF CLEARING NORTH KOREA OF ENEMY FORCES WITHOUT THE MAXIMUM EMPLOYMENT OF ALL OF OUR FORCES.

"THE COMPARATIVELY LIGHT SOUTH KOREANS WHO FIRST REACHED THE YALU AREA WERE DESTROYED AND IT BECAME NECESSARY TO UTILIZE ALL UNITS OF THE COMMAND IN AN ENDEAVOR TO ACCOMPLISH THE BASIC MISSION, WHICH WAS TO CLEAR KOREA.

"THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE FULLY AND DAILY INFORMED OF THE TACTICAL OPERATIONS AND THE BASIC PLANS, MOVEMENTS AND DISPOSITIONS OF ALL ELEMENTS OF OUR FORCES, AND NO ORDERS WHATSOEVER WERE RECEIVED FROM THEM DIRECTING MODIFICATION.

"THE UTILIZATION OF AMERICAN FORCES IN THE ADVANCE WAS NOT ONLY NOT IN CONTRADICTION TO ANY ORDER BUT WAS IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE DIRECT MISSION AND OBJECTIVE OF THE BASIC ORDERS UNDER WHICH GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS OPERATING TO CLEAR AND SECURE ALL TERRITORY SOUTH OF THE YALU.

"IT MAY WELL BE THAT GENERAL COLLINS HAS BEEN MISQUOTED IN THE PRESS, BUT I REPEAT A CATEGORICAL DENIAL THAT ANY SUCH ORDER THAT GENERAL COLLINS IS REPORTED TO HAVE MENTIONED WAS EVER RECEIVED BY GENERAL MACARTHUR AND ANY SUCH EXTRAORDINARY INHIBITIONS UPON THE USE OF HIS TROOPS WERE EVER IMPOSED UPON HIM DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY.

"AS I RECALL, IT WAS GENERAL MACARTHUR'S OWN ORIGINAL CONCEPT TO SPEARHEAD THE ADVANCE NORTH WITH THE SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS. HE DID SO AND THE FIRST TROOPS TO REACH THE YALU WERE SOUTH KOREANS.

"IT WAS ONLY WHEN THEIR TROOPS WERE DESTROYED AND THE IMPOSSIBILITY OF ACCOMPLISHING THE MISSION BY THE USE OF THE SOUTH KOREAN FORCES BECAME SELF-EVIDENT THAT AMERICAN TROOPS WERE BROUGHT FORWARD.

"THE TESTIMONY ATTRIBUTED IN THIS REPORT OF GENERAL COLLINS IS IN DIRECT VARIANCE WITH THAT OF ALL THREE PRECEDING WITNESSES AND DOCUMENTARY FACTS OF RECORD."

(END STATEMENT).

MACARTHUR

NEW YORK, MAY 25-(AP)-AN AIDE TO GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR CHALLENGES GEN. OMAR BRADLEY'S SENATE COMMITTEE TESTIMONY THAT A "GAP" IN THE KOREAN BATTLE LINES LAST WINTER STEMMED FROM FAULTY MACARTHUR STRATEGY.

THE AIDE, MAJ. GEN. COURTNEY WHITNEY, SAID IN A DICTATED STATEMENT LAST NIGHT THAT "THERE WAS NO GAP IN THE SENSE REPORTEDLY DESCRIBED" BY BRADLEY IN HIS CLOSING TESTIMONY YESTERDAY BEFORE SENATORS PROBING MACARTHUR'S OUSTER FROM THE FAR EAST COMMAND.

BRADLEY SAID MACARTHUR WAS WARNED TWICE BY THE PENTAGON LAST FALL TO CLOSE THE GAP SEPARATING THE EIGHTH ARMY AND THE TENTH CORPS IN KOREA. THE TENTH CORPS WAS ENCIRCLED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS' WINTER OFFENSIVE AND FINALLY ESCAPED WITH HEAVY LOSSES.

WHITNEY SAID IT WAS "APPARENT" THAT BRADLEY SPOKE WITHOUT "FIRST HAND KNOWLEDGE OF THE TERRAIN" AND ADDED:

"DURING 11 MONTHS OF THE WAR HE (BRADLEY) HAS NEVER VISITED THE KOREAN BATTLE AREA, WHICH DIFFERS MATERIALLY FROM ANYTHING HE HAS PERSONALLY EXPERIENCED."

WHITNEY'S STATEMENT, IN FULL, SAID:

"IT IS QUITE APPARENT FROM GENERAL BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY AS REPORTED BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS THIS (THURSDAY) AFTERNOON THAT HE WAS NOT FAMILIAR WITH THE TACTICAL SITUATION EXISTING IN KOREA OR THAT HIS MEMORY HAS BADLEY BETRAYED HIM.

"AT THE TIME THE CHINESE ENTERED THE WAR, THE TENTH CORPS WAS ACTING AS AN ENVELOPING FORCE AGAINST THE REMNANT OF THE NORTH KOREAN FORCES DEPLOYED IN FRONT OF THE EIGHTH ARMY. UPON DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHINESE ATTACK, THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE TENTH CORPS BECAME CLEARLY INDICATED AND SUCH OPERATION WAS UNDER WAY BY GENERAL MAC ARTHUR'S ORDERS LONG BEFORE THE DIRECTIVE OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TO WHICH GENERAL BRADLEY REFERS.

"PRIOR TO THE CHINESE ATTACK, THE EIGHTH ARMY AND THE TENTH CORPS WERE INTEGRAL UNITS FUNCTIONING WITH THEIR OWN SUPPLY LINES BUT NOT FORMING A SINGLE LINE OF BATTLE.

"ON THE RIGHT OF THE EIGHTH ARMY CONSTITUTING ITS RIGHT WING WERE OUR SOUTH KOREAN FORCES. THE CHINESE ARMIES SPLIT BECAUSE OF THE PRESENCE OF THE TENTH CORPS ON THEIR FLANK (AND) HIT THE EIGHTH ARMY AT THE JUNCTION BETWEEN THE AMERICAN AND SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS, ROUTING THE SOUTH KOREANS AND CAUSING THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE ENTIRE LINE.

"THERE WAS NO GAP IN THE SENSE REPORTEDLY DESCRIBED BY GENERAL BRADLEY, AND NONE OF THE CHINESE FORCES OUTFLANKED OUR EIGHTH ARMY POSITIONS AS HE IS REPORTED TO HAVE STATED.

"THE WITHDRAWAL OPERATIONS FOLLOWING THE CHINESE ATTACK WERE AMONG THE MOST SKULLFUL EVER EXECUTED AND RECEIVED THE HIGHEST COMMENDATION FROM WASHINGTON. LOSSES WERE RELATIVELY LIGHT--LESS, FOR INSTANCE, THAN IN THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER DURING OUR VICTORIOUS ACTIONS AT INCHON AND (THE) PUSAN PERIMETER AS GENERAL MAC ARTHUR HAS PREVIOUSLY POINTED OUT.

"ANY OTHER DISPOSITION OF FOUR FORCES IN A VAIN EFFORT TO HOLD A NECESSARILY THIN CONTIGUOUS LINE ACROSS THE PENINSULA WOULD HAVE THREATENED THE DESTRUCTION OF OUR ENTIRE ARMY AND UNQUESTIONABLY WOULD HAVE RESULTED IN MUCH HEAVIER CASUALTIES.

"GENERAL BRADLEY'S REPORTED COMMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE WITHOUT FIRST-HAND KNOWLEDGE OF THE TERRAIN AND OTHER EXISTING LOCAL CONDITIONS. DURING 11 MONTHS OF THE WAR HE HAS NEVER VISITED THE KOREAN BATTLE AREA WHICH DIFFERS MATERIALLY FROM ANYTHING HE HAS PERSONALLY EXPERIENCED.

"THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE FULLY AND DAILY INFORMED OF THE TACTICAL OPERATION AND THE BASIC PLANS, MOVEMENTS AND DISPOSITIONS AND I KNOW OF NO OBJECTION THEY SENT TO TOKYO CONCERNING THE SAME."

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-PUBLIC HEARINGS ON THE U.S. COMMUNIST PARTY'S ALLEGED FOREIGN TIES WERE TEMPORARILY RECESSED TODAY WHILE OFFICIALS TRIED TO PATCH A RIFT IN THE GOVERNMENT PANEL SITTING ON THE CASE.

CHARLES M. LA FOLLETTE, FORMER REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN FROM INDIANA, SUDDENLY INTERRUPTED THE PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY WITH AN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HE WAS STEPPING DOWN AS PANEL CHAIRMAN.

IN A STATEMENT FROM THE BENCH, HE SPOKE CRITICALLY OF A DEMOCRATIC FELLOW PANEL MEMBER AND THE CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR. HE THEN ORDERED A RECESS UNTIL JUNE 4.

SETH W.RICHARDSON, GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF THE SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES CONTROL BOARD, WHO NAMED THE THREE-MEMBER PANEL FOR THE COMMUNIST HEARINGS, SAID TODAY LA FOLLETTE'S ACTION RESULTED FROM "AN UNFORTUNATE MISUNDERSTANDING." HE TOLD NEWSMEN HE WAS "CONFIDENT THE HEARINGS WILL GO FORWARD WITH THE SAME PANEL, AND WITH THE SAME PRESIDING OFFICER."

A FOLLETTE MEANWHILE LEFT THE CITY, WITHOUT ELABORATING ON HIS POSITION. BEFORE LEAVING THE HEARING ROOM, HE OFFERED TO TURN OVER THE CHAIRMANSHIP TO PETER ~~CHANDELL~~ CAMPBELL BROWN, THE PANEL MEMBER WITH WHOM HE INDICATED HE HAD DIFFERENCES.

BROWN, DECLINED. HE TOLD REPORTERS LATER HE HAD "NO COMMENT WHATSOEVER" ON LA FOLLETTE'S ACTIONS.

IN HIS STATEMENT, LA FOLLETTE PAID TRIBUTE TO DR.KATHRYN MCHALE, INDIANA DEMOCRAT AND THIRD MEMBER OF THE PANEL, FOR "STALWART SUPPORT" DURING THE MONTH THE HEARINGS HAVE BEEN IN PROGRESS.

BUT, HE ADDED, OTHER FACTORS LED HIM TO FEEL HE COULD NOT CONTINUE TO HANDLE THE HEARINGS "IN A WAY WHICH WILL BE CONSISTENT WITH ORDERLY PROCEDURE."

HE THEN SUGGESTED THAT BROWN TAKE OVER, ASSERTING THE LATTER HAD "EVIDENCED A REMARKABLE CAPACITY TO MAKE SPEEDY AND IMMEDIATE RULINGS UPON ALL OBJECTIONS PRESENTED."

LA FOLLETTE SAID BLUNTLY THAT BROWN'S ACTIONS "ALMOST UNIFORMLY AMOUNT TO SUSTAINING ANY POSITION" TAKEN BY THE GOVERNMENT. THEN, HE ADDED, "IS PURELY COINCIDENTAL, I AM SURE."

THE PANEL CHAIRMAN ALSO SAID THAT THE CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR, WILLIAM A.PAISLEY, HAD EVIDENCED "A DISDAIN" FOR THE PRESIDING OFFICER AND HIS METHODS OF CONDUCTING THE CASE, AND THAT THIS ATTITUDE "IS BEING TRANSMITTED TO GOVERNMENT WITNESSES."

PAISLEY MADE NO COMMENT ON THE ACCUSATION.

DR.MC HALE, WHO SAT SILENT DURING YESTERDAY'S FLARE-UP, TOLD REPORTERS:

"THE CHAIRMAN HAS BEEN UNDER GREAT STRAIN. HE HAS DONE A REMARKABLE JOB. THIS IS JUST A LITTLE MISUNDERSTANDING THAT WILL IRON ITSELF OUT."

(350) NIGHT LEAD UN-AMERICAN

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-ACTOR JOSE FERRER TOLD THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TODAY HE HAS TAKEN A STAND AGAINST COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN HIS NATIVE PUERTO RICO.

FERRER MADE THE STATEMENT WHILE UNDER QUESTIONING FOR THE SECOND DAY ABOUT THE USE OF HIS NAME BY VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS CITED BY THE COMMITTEE OR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AS COMMUNISTIC.

"I HAVE NEVER KNOWINGLY LENT MY NAME TO ANY ORGANIZATION KNOWN TO BE A COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATION," HE TESTIFIED.

REP.JACKSON (R-CALIF) TOLD FERRER "I CAN NOT FRANKLY PLACE CREDENCE IN SOME OF THE STATEMENTS YOU HAVE MADE." THIS WAS IN REFERENCE TO THE ACTOR'S INSISTENCE THAT HE DIDN'T KNOW OF THE COMMUNIST OR COMMUNIST-FRONT NATURE OF SOME OF THE VARIOUS CAUSES HE HAS SUPPORTED.

HIS REMARKS ON PUERTO RICO WERE IN REPLY TO QUESTIONS. FERRER SAID:

"I HAVE ALWAYS DONE EVERYTHING I COULD TO PROMOTE BETTER RELATIONS BETWEEN PUERTO RICO AND THE UNITED STATES. I AM COMPLETELY OPPOSED TO PUERTO RICAN INDEPENDENCE. I HAVE DONE MY BEST TO HELP PUERTO RICAN CAUSES."

IN 1949, HE SAID, HE REJECTED MESSAGES FROM CERTAIN PUERTO RICANS ASKING HIM NOT TO ACCEPT AN HONORARY DEGREE FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF PUERTO RICO BECAUSE, THEY SAID, THE SCHOOL WAS "THE TOOL OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM."

HE AGREED TO FURNISH THE COMMITTEE WHAT NAMES HE COULD OF THOSE WHO SENT HIM THE REQUEST.

FERRER ACKNOWLEDGED TAKING PART IN ACTIVITIES OF THE JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, THE INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMITTEE OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS, AND A "STOP CENSORSHIP" MOVEMENT THAT DEVELOPED INTO A GROUP FOR ABOLITION OF THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE.

BUT HE INSISTED HE HAD NO IDEA OF COMMUNIST CONNECTIONS.

THE "STOP CENSORSHIP" GROUP, HE SAID, STATED AS ITS AIM THE PREVENTION OF CENSORSHIP IN THE THEATER.

ON ITS LETTERHEAD, HE DECLARED, WERE THE NAMES OF SUCH PROMINENT THEATER PEOPLE AS PLAYWRIGHT MOSS HART AND NOVELIST JOHN HERSEY.

FERRER SAID HE USED AS "SIGN POSTS" THE NAMES OF PEOPLE LISTED AS SPONSORS OF VARIOUS CAUSES.

"IF I SAW THE NAME OF MRS.FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT, MAYOR LAGUARDIA, WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE OR DOROTHY THOMPSON IN CONNECTION WITH GROUPS, I THOUGHT IT WAS ALL RIGHT TO LEND MY NAME," HE SAID.
AFTER FERRER WAS EXCUSED, THE COMMITTEE RECESSED ITS COMMUNISM-IN-HOLLYWOOD HEARINGS UNTIL LATE NEXT WEEK.

"THE CURRENT INVESTIGATION INTO FAR EAST POLICIES IS VITALLY IMPORTANT AND DESERVES THE ATTENTION IT IS GETTING," COCKE TOLD THE CONGRESSIONAL CLUB, WHICH IS COMPOSED OF WIVES OF CONGRESSMEN.
"UNFORTUNATELY, IT HAS HAD THE EFFECT OF DEFERRING ACTION ON UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING (UMT), WHICH IN OUR OPINION IS JUST AS IMPORTANT.

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY BRANDED AS "UNJUSTIFIABLE AND DAMAGING" A PUBLISHED REPORT THAT ONE OF ITS WOMEN EMPLOYES HAD URGED THAT UNION LONGSHOREMEN REFUSE TO LOAD ARMS SHIPMENTS TO AMERICA'S EUROPEAN ALLIES.
THE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT WAS MADE IN A LETTER FROM DEPUTY UNDER-SECRETARY CARLISLE H.HUMELSINE TO REP.WALTER (D-PA), A MEMBER OF THE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE WHO HAD ASKED FOR INFORMATION ON THE REPORT.
WALTER SAID HE HAD READ THE REPORT IN THE NEW YORK DAILY MIRROR IN AN ARTICLE BY VICTOR RIESEL.
THE STATE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE NAMED IN THE ARTICLE WAS MISS EDITH CAMERON WALL, 38, NOW SERVING AS ASSISTANT LABOR ATTACHE AT NEW DELHI, INDIA, WHERE SHE HAS BEEN SINCE JULY 12, 1950.
RISEL'S ARTICLE WAS QUOTED AS ASSERTING THAT MISS WALL HAD RECENTLY CALLED ON JOSEPH P.RYAN, PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL LONGSHOREMEN'S ASSOCIATION, AND URGED THAT HIS FOLLOWERS "REFUSE TO LOAD GUNS AND AMMUNITION ON SHIPS RUSHING MILITARY SUPPLIES TO OUR FRIENDS IN EUROPE."
HUMELSINE WROTE WALTER THAT A "THOROUGH INVESTIGATION" HAD ESTABLISHED "THE DEPARTMENT'S COMPLETE SATISFACTION THAT MISS WALL DID HAVE AN INTERVIEW WITH MR.RYAN ON MARCH 9,1950 BUT EXCEPT FOR THIS FACT, THERE IS NO BASIS FOR MR.RIESEL'S ALLEGATIONS."
HUMELSINE SAID MISS WALL WAS GIVEN SPECIAL TRAINING IN 1950 PREPARATORY TO ASSIGNMENT AS AN ASSISTANT LABOR ATTACHE. IT WAS IN THIS CONNECTION, HE ADDED, THAT SHE WAS TOLD TO ACQUAINT HERSELF WITH THE LABOR MOVEMENT IN THE U. S. BY VISITING UNION HEADQUARTERS AND TALKING WITH OFFICIALS. RYAN WAS ONE OF AT LEAST A DOZEN SUCH OFFICIALS WITH WHOM SHE TALKED, HE SAID.
HUMELSINE DENIED THAT MISS WALL EITHER SOUGHT TO "DELAY OR STOP THE LOADING OF ARMS AND AMMUNITION ON SHIPS DESTINED FOR EUROPE."

"OUR BOYS ARE FIGHTING AND DYING TO SAVE US FROM THAT HORRIBLE DANGER," THE PRESIDENT SAID.
MR.TRUMAN TOUCHED BRIEFLY ON THE KOREAN WAR IN DEDICATING A NEW AMPHITHEATRE TO CARTER BARRON, FORMER WASHINGTON CIVIC LEADER, WHO DIED LAST NOVEMBER.
THE PRESIDENT SPOKE OUT SHARPLY AGAINST "PETTY POLITICAL BICKERING AND CHARACTER ASSASSINATION IN THIS COUNTRY."
"IF WE CAN STOP THAT," HE SAID, "IF WE ACT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS, WE WILL WIN THAT WAR (IN KOREA) AND WE WILL ATTAIN WORLD PEACE."
MR.TRUMAN DREW HIS REFERENCE TO "FAITH OF OUR FATHERS" FROM THE TITLE OF THE HISTORICAL PAGEANT WHICH WILL BE PRESENTED NIGHTLY IN THE AMPHITHEATRE, LOCATED IN THE WOODS OF ROCK CREEK PARK IN NORTHWEST WASHINGTON.
THE PRESIDENT TOLD AN AUDIENCE WHICH INCLUDED CABINET MEMBERS, DIPLOMATS AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS:
"WE OUGHT TO THINK DEEPLY ABOUT THAT PHRASE 'FAITH OF OUR FATHERS.'"
"THIS FAITH," HE SAID, "IS THE BASIS OF FREE GOVERNMENT AND THE BASIS OF OUR CONSTITUTION--THE GREATEST DOCUMENT EVER WRITTEN IN THE HISTORY OF MAN.
"NOW THERE ARE MANY OTHER NATIONS THAT SHARE OUR FAITH," MR.TRUMAN WENT ON. "THIS FAITH IS THE ONLY HOPE FOR FREEDOM.
"TODAY IT IS BEING THREATENED BY A TERRIBLE NEW DANGER. HITLER AND MUSSOLINI NEVER HAD ANYTHING LIKE THE SECRET POLICE OF THE KREMLIN.
"I HAVE IT ON THE AUTHORITY FROM THE BISHOP OF BERLIN THAT THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN HAVE BEEN KIDNAPPED IN EASTERN BERLIN. THEY CARRY THEM OFF AND THEY ARE NEVER HEARD OF AGAIN."
MR.TRUMAN SPOKE BRIEFLY AND PAID A TRIBUTE TO CARTER BARRON, A NATIVE OF GEORGIA, AS "AN IDEAL SOUTHERN GENTLEMAN."
MRS.BARRON SAT NEXT TO THE PRESIDENT. ONE ACT OF THE PAGEANT WAS GIVEN DURING THE PROGRAM.
MR.TRUMAN TOOK TIME OUT FOR A FEW WORDS WITH KATHRYN GRAYSON, HOLLYWOOD SINGING STAR, AS SHE WALKED DOWN THE AISLE FOR HER APPEARANCE ON THE STAGE.

(250) APPROPRIATIONS
WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-A SENATE ECONOMY BLOC HAS FAILED IN ITS FIRST EFFORT THIS YEAR AT TRIMMING DOWN MILITARY APPROPRIATIONS.
AN ATTEMPT BY SENATOR CASE (R-SD) TO CUT $318,984,000(M) OUT OF A $6,442,668,000(B) DEFENSE DEFICIENCY BILL WAS DEFEATED YESTERDAY IN THE SENATE ON A VOICE VOTE.

30.24- 23417

THE SENATE PASSED THE BILL AND SENT IT TO CONFERENCE WITH THE HOUSE, WHICH HAD ALLOWED ABOUT $25,500,000(M) MORE THAN THE SENATE.

THE MEASURE IS THE FOURTH SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS BILL TO BE PASSED FOR THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30. THESE ARE IN ADDITION TO THE REGULAR DEPARTMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS BILLS.

WHEN CONGRESS COMPLETES ACTION ON IT, APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR WILL TOTAL MORE THAN $86,000,000,000(B). SOME $48,000,000,000 (B) OF THIS IS FOR DEFENSE.

THE BILL PASSED YESTERDAY INCLUDED $6,379,673,000 FOR THE DEFENSE ESTABLISHMENT, $59,323,000 FOR THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND $3,672,000 FOR THE BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATION IN THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT. MORE THAN HALF OF THE MILITARY MONEY IS FOR WEAPONS.

THE ECONOMY DRIVE, MEANTIME, APPEARED DUE FOR HEAVY GOING IN OTHER AREAS.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLEA FOR THE SENATE TO WIPE OUT A HOUSE CUT IN PUBLIC HOUSING FUNDS WON APPROVAL IN PART FROM A SENATE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE.

THE GROUP RECOMMENDED A 50,000-UNIT PUBLIC HOUSING CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1951. THE HOUSE HAS VOTED FOR ONLY 5,000 UNITS. MR.TRUMAN WANTED 75,000.

THE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE ALSO RECOMMENDED A $98,046,973 INCREASE IN TOTAL FUNDS FOR 27 GOVERNMENT AGENCIES ABOVE THE FIGURE APPROVED BY THE HOUSE. THE SENATE TOTAL, HOWEVER, WOULD STILL BE $595,000,000 BELOW THE AMOUNT REQUESTED BY MR.TRUMAN.

FOREIGN AID

BY WILLIAM F.ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEW $8,500,000,000(B) STOP-COMMUNISM FOREIGN AID PROGRAM SEEMED CERTAIN TODAY TO FACE A ROUGH COURSE IN CONGRESS.

BUT THE INITIAL OPPOSITION WHICH STEAMED UP YESTERDAY WHEN THE PRESIDENT OUTLINED THE VAST MILITARY AND ECONOMIC HELP PROGRAM MAY COOL OFF BY THE TIME VOTING STARTS, PROBABLY IN MID-SUMMER.

"MUCH TOO BIG," SAID REP.BEN JENSEN (R-IOWA), WHO SUGGESTED OFFHAND THAT THE PROGRAM COULD BE TRIMMED TO "NOT MORE THAN $6,000,000,000."

OTHER INFLUENTIAL REPUBLICANS PRIVATELY SAID THEY SHARED JENSEN'S VIEWS BUT WITHHELD PUBLIC COMMENT.

ADMINISTRATION DEMOCRATS WERE WARY OF COMMENT.

THEIR VIEWS COINCIDED GENERALLY WITH THOSE OF CHAIRMAN RICHARDS (D-SC) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

"THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM WILL RECEIVE THE MINUTE SCRUTINY THAT IT WARRANTS," RICHARDS TOLD NEWSMEN.

RICHARDS WOULDN'T EXPRESS HIS PERSONAL VIEWS OF THE PROGRAM'S MERITS, BUT SOME OF HIS DEMOCRATIC COLLEAGUES THOUGH THE PROPOSAL WAS TOO AMBITIOUS.

HOWEVER, ADMINISTRATION LEADER POINTED TO YESTERDAY'S HOUSE VOTE, AND LAST WEEK'S SENATE VOTE, FAVORING A FOOD LOAN TO INDIA AS INDICATIVE OF CONGRESSIONAL SENTIMENT FOR CONTINUED FOREIGN AID.

THE INDIA-AID BILL, PROVIDING FOR A $190,000,000(M) LOAN TO HELP INDIA BUY GRAIN PRODUCTS TO COMBAT FAMINE, WAS IN A SENATE-HOUSE CONFERENCE FOLLOWING ITS 293 TO 94 APPROVAL BY THE HOUSE.

AMONG THE THINGS THE CONFEREES MUST COMPROMISE ARE:

1. A SENATE PROVISION--REJECTED BY THE HOUSE--TO REQUIRE THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) TO TRY TO GET FROM INDIA, IN EXCHANGE FOR THE GRAIN, "SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES" OF MANGANESE AND MONAZITE SAND, POTENTIALLY USEFUL IN ATOMIC ENERGY PRODUCTION.

2. ANOTHER SENATE PROVISION, NOT CONSIDERED BY THE HOUSE, SETTING ASIDE PART OF THE LOAN INTEREST FOR INDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL WORK IN INDIA.

3. A HOUSE REQUIREMENT THAT THE GRAIN OR OTHER FOOD BE PURCHASED IN THE UNITED STATES.

4. A HOUSE PROVISION THAT AT LEAST HALF OF THE FOOD BE TRANSPORTED TO INDIA IN AMERICAN SHIPS.

MAY 26 1951

A BI-PARTISAN VOTE PUT THE BILL THROUGH THE HOUSE AFTER FOUR DAYS OF DEBATE. ONLY 36 DEMOCRATS AND 58 REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST IT.

THE SAME BI-PARTISAN SUPPORT WAS COUNTED ON TO SAVE THE NEW FOREIGN-AID PROGRAM, WITH ITS $6,250,000,000 (B) FOR MILITARY ASSISTANCE AND $2,250,000,000(B) FOR ECONOMIC AID FOR NON-COMMUNIST AREAS. IT WOULD COVER THE FISCAL YEAR STARTING JULY 1.

THE ECONOMIC PART OF THE PROGRAM, MARKING A TAPERING-OFF OF THE MARSHALL PLAN STARTED AFTER WORLD WAR II, PROBABLY WILL DRAW THE HEAVIEST OPPOSITION. MANY REPUBLICANS, AND SOME DEMOCRATS, OPPOSE ANY FURTHER ECA SPENDING. AND SOME MEMBERS OF BOTH PARTIES BELIEVE THE UNITED STATES SHOULD RECEIVE SOMETHING IN EXCHANGE FOR ANY KIND OF FOREIGN AID.

"IT'S GOING TO HAVE TO BE A LITTLE MORE 'TAKE' AND A LITTLE LESS 'GIVE' IN THE FUTURE ON THESE PROGRAMS," COMMENTED REP.VORYS OF OHIO, A TOP REPUBLICAN ON THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE PLANS TO START HEARINGS LATE NEXT WEEK OR THE FOLLOWING WEEK, NO PLANS FOR HEARINGS HAVE BEEN MADE IN THE SENATE, WHERE THE PROGRAM WILL BE SCANNED BY THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, NOW ENGAGED IN THE INQUIRY INTO OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

PROSPECTS WERE THAT GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, NORTH ATLANTIC MILITARY COMMANDER IN WESTERN EUROPE, AND MACARTHUR, OUSTED FAR EAST COMMANDER, WOULD BE AMONG THE WITNESSES.

MR.TRUMAN TOLD CONGRESS IN A SPECIAL MESSAGE THAT THE PROGRAM IS NECESSARY TO BLOCK "COMMUNIST DREAMS OF WORLD CONQUEST," AND TO CREATE "INTERNAL PRESSURES" THAT WOULD MAKE RUSSIA HALT AGGRESSION.

"IT IS CERTAIN," THE PRESIDENT SAID, "THAT THE UNITED VIGOR AND COOPERATIVE ACTION OF THE FREE WORLD CAN PRODUCE SUCH RESULTS IF WE ACT IN TIME."

WHILE "THERE CAN BE NO ABSOLUTE ASSURANCE OF SUCCESS," THE PRESIDENT ADDED, "THERE ARE FAR GREATER DANGERS IN ANY OTHER COURSE."

MR.TRUMAN REITERATED A BELIEF THAT "WE CANNOT WIN PEACE THROUGH APPEASEMENT," OR GAIN "SECURITY IN ISOLATION," AND ASSERTED THAT "WE WILL NOT SURRENDER."

IF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WERE FORCED TO STAND ALONE AGAINST RUSSIA, THE PRESIDENT SAID, THEY WOULD FACE "A VERY REAL AND TERRIBLE DANGER."

THE SOVIET THREAT, HE SAID, IS WORLDWIDE, IS TOTAL, AND IS OF INDEFINITE DURATION.

THE MONEY THE PRESIDENT WANTS--PROVIDED CONGRESS AUTHORIZES THE PROGRAM AND FURNISHES THE MONEY IN ANOTHER BILL--WOULD SPEED AMERICAN WEAPONS AND ECONOMIC HELP TO ABOUT 50 FRIENDLY NATIONS DURING THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR.

WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS WOULD RECEIVE $6,890,000,000 (B), THE PRESIDENT DESCRIBING THEM AS "THE MOST TEMPTING PRIZE FOR SOVIET AMBITIONS AND OUR STRONGEST ALLIES IN THE WORLD STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM." OF THIS TOTAL, $5,240,000,000 WOULD BE FOR MILITARY AID AND $1,650,-000,000 FOR ECONOMIC HELP.

FRIENDLY GOVERNMENTS IN THE FAR EAST, SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST ASIA, THE NEAR AND MIDDLE EAST AND LATIN AMERICA WOULD GET $1,532,000,000 (B). THE REMAINING $78,000,000(M) WOULD BE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES. OF THE NON-EUROPEAN TOTAL, $522,000,000 WOULD BE FOR ECONOMIC AID AND $1,010,000,000 FOR MILITARY AID.

FORMOSA WOULD RECEIVE PART OF THE $930,000,000(M) EARMARKED FOR ASIATIC NATIONS. HOW MUCH, THE PRESIDENT DIDN'T SAY.

RUSSIAN INTERPRETIVE

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-THE GRAND STRATEGY BEHIND PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S BIG NEW FOREIGN AID PROGRAM CONFRONTED CONGRESS TODAY WITH TWO CRITICAL ISSUES OF JUDGMENT ABOUT COMMUNIST STRENGTH AND INTENTIONS.

THESE SOMEWHAT RELATED ISSUES, WHICH MAY FIGURE LARGELY IN DEBATE ON THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSALS, ARE:

1. WHETHER THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES IN THE NEXT FEW YEARS CAN DISCOVER MEANS OF SEIZING THE INITIATIVE AND WAGING THE CONFLICT WITH THE KREMLIN MORE ON THEIR OWN TERMS.

2. WHETHER THIS COUNTRY CAN INDEFINITELY PEG ITS POLICIES TO A BELIEF THAT POPULAR UNREST IN THE COMMUNIST WORLD WILL EVENTUALLY FORCE THE COLLAPSE OF RUSSIA'S AGGRESSIVE DESIGNS.

MAY 26 1951

THE PRESIDENT SPELLED OUT HIS VIEWS ON THESE TWO POINTS IN HIS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS YESTERDAY ASKING FOR $8,500,000,000(B) FOR GLOBAL MILITARY AID AND ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IN THE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1.

MR.TRUMAN SAID HIS PROGRAM WAS DESIGNED WITH THREE MAJOR CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SOVIET THREAT IN MIND--THAT IT IS WORLD-WIDE; THAT IT IS TOTAL IN THE SENSE OF INVOLVING MILITARY, ECONOMIC AND PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE, POLITICAL INFILTRATION AND SABOTAGE; AND THAT IT IS OF "INDEFINITE DURATION."

CURRENT DEBATE OVER THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S POLICIES IN EUROPE AND THE FAR EAST HAVE TURNED UP LITTLE CRITICISM FOR THE IDEA THAT THE SOVIET MENACE IS WORLD-WIDE OR THAT IT IS TOTAL. BUT ADMINISTRATION CRITICS HAVE SEEMED CONCERNED TO FIND SOME WAY TO KEEP THE CONFLICT FROM CONTINUING INDEFINITELY.

IN THE CASE OF KOREA, FOR EXAMPLE, THE HEART OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S ARGUMENT FOR MORE DIRECT ACTION AGAINST CHINA WAS THAT THIS COULD PRODUCE AN EARLY AND DECISIVE END TO THE CONFLICT.

ADMINISTRATION SPOKESMEN HAVE MADE CLEAR THEIR POLICIES, IN KOREA AND ELSEWHERE, ARE DESIGNED TO AVOID IF POSSIBLE AN EARLY SHOWDOWN WITH THE SOVIET UNION BECAUSE OF THE RELATIVE UNREADINESS OF THIS COUNTRY AND ITS ALLIES FOR SUCH MILITARY ACTION.

MR.TRUMAN DECLARED THAT "THE FREE WORLD MUST TAKE INTO ACCOUNT BOTH THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE SOVIET RULERS MAY SOON START ALL-OUT ARMED AGGRESSION AND THE POSSIBILITY THAT THEY MAY CARRY ON THEIR AGGRESSIVE TACTICS FOR MANY YEARS BY MEASURES SHORT OF ALL-OUT WAR."

IT SEEMS CERTAIN THE ADMINISTRATION'S CRITICS WILL WANT TO KNOW DURING CONSIDERATION OF THIS PROGRAM WHETHER AT SOME FUTURE POINT THE FREE WORLD'S STRENGTH MAY BE SUCH AS TO ENABLE THE UNITED STATES TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE BEYOND ANY DEGREE WHICH MR.TRUMAN SUGGESTED.

THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF SAID THE BEST HOPE FOR WINNING THE CONFLICT LIES IN PRODUCING CHANGES IN SOVIET POLICIES WITHOUT A WORLD WAR.

INCREASED MILITARY DEFENSE, HE SAID, WILL END RUSSIA'S HOPE OF "EASY CONQUEST," AND STRENGTHENED ECONOMIES IN THE FREE COUNTRIES WILL "FRUSTRATE SOVIET POLITICAL WARFARE."

THE PRESIDENT THEN PREDICTED THAT PEOPLES UNDER SOVIET CONTROL WILL GROW INCREASINGLY RESTIVE AND CREATE PRESSURES WHICH WILL FORCE "THE RULERS OF THE SOVIET UNION XXX TO ABANDON THEIR POLICY OF AGGRESSION."

ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH MR.TRUMAN'S MESSAGE, SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) RELEASED A STUDY OF THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS CITING EVIDENCE TO SH(THERE ARE MANY TENSIONS WITHIN RUSSIA ITSELF.

SUMMARIZING THE REPORT, WILEY DECLARED THAT "THE CLEAVAGE BETWEEN THE MEN IN THE KREMLIN AND VAST NUMBERS OF SOVIET CITIZENS XXX IS CLEAI AND DEFINITE."

THIS DOES NOT MEAN, WILEY SAID, THAT "THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE ARE READY TO REVOLT." IT DOES MEAN, HE CONCLUDED, "THAT THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE. BUT NOT THEIR LEADERS. ARE OUR POTENTIAL ALLIES AND THAT THIS FACT SHOULD BE EXPLOITED."

WILEY AND THE PRESIDENT THUS APPEARED TO BE IN SUBSTANTIAL AGREEMENT THAT UNREST DOES EXIST IN THE COMMUNIST BLOC AND IS AN ADVANTAGE TO THE ALLIED CAUSE. BUT THERE MAY BE ROOM FOR ARGUMENT AS TO THE EXTENT TO WHICH THE UNITED STATES CAN COUNT ON THIS AS THE FINAL AND DECISIVE FACTOR IN WINNING THE CONFLICT WITH SOVIET COMMUNISM.

THE BEST KNOWN INSTRUMENT FOR EXPLOITING DISCONTENT BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN WHICH THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS NOW USING IS THE "VOICE OF AMERICA" RADIO. RUSSIA HAS FOR SEVERAL YEARS SOUGHT TO JAM THESE BROADCASTS AND THE "WARFARE" IN THE RADIO IS THEREFORE OPEN AND DIRECT.

ASIDE FROM PROPAGANDA BLASTS AND STATEMENTS DENOUNCING RUSSIAN ACTIVITIES, THE U.S. SO FAR HAS BEEN OTHERWISE CAREFUL AND RESTRAINED IN SEEKING TO EXPLOIT SUCH UNREST AS THERE IS IN THE COMMUNIST LANDS. WHETHER NEW METHODS MAY BE DEVISED AND EMPLOYED, HOWEVER, IS ONE OF THE QUESTIONS POSED BY THE IMPORTANCE WHICH MR.TRUMAN PLACED ON DEVELOPMENT OF POWERFUL ANTI-GOVERNMENT PRESSURES AMONG THE PEOPLES UNDER SOVIET RULE.

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-JOHN MARAGON, FORMER WHITE HOUSE HANGER-ON, WENT TO JAIL FOR PERJURY TODAY DESPITE HIS LAWYER'S PLEA THAT HE WAS "ONLY A SCAPEGOAT" IN A SENATE INVESTIGATION OF INFLUENCE PEDDLING.

FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE JENNINGS BAILEY DENIED CLEMENCY AND THE ONE-TIME FRIEND OF MAJ.GEN.HARRY H.VAUGHAN, PRESIDENTIAL MILITARY AIDE, WAS LED AWAY TO SERVE EIGHT TO 24 MONTHS AT THE FEDERAL REFORMATORY AT PETERSBURG,VA.

IN A FINAL, VAIN PLEA, THE DEFENDANT'S ATTORNEY, EDWARD J.HAYES, ASKED FOR A SUSPENDED SENTENCE AND PROBATION. HE CALLED THE 58-YEAR OLD DEFENDANT "A MAN OF LITTLE CONSEQUENCE AND LITTLE INFLUENCE DESPITE THE STORIES TO THE CONTRARY."

BUT JUDGE BAILEY SAID HE HAD "NO REASONABLE DOUBT" AS TO MARAGON'S GUILT.

"I SEE NO REASON IN THIS CASE FOR PROBATION," THE JUDGE REMARKED.

MARAGON, STILL DAPPER IN A DARK BLUE SUIT, STOOD SILENTLY WITH BOWED HEAD DURING THE PROCEEDINGS. HIS WIFE AND SON SAT AMONG THE SPECTATORS.

SENTENCE WAS IMPOSED BY JUDGE BAILEY APRIL 28,1950, AFTER A JURY HAD CONVICTED MARAGON OF LYING TO A SENATE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING "FIVE PERCENTERS"--MEN WHO OFFER TO OBTAIN GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS FOR A FEE. SPECIFICALLY, HE WAS CONVICTED OF FALSELY SWEARING THAT (1) HE NEVER HAD A BANK ACCOUNT IN TEXAS AND (2) HE WAS NOT ON THE PAYROLL OF THE VERLEY PERFUME CO. WHEN EMPLOYED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT ON A MISSION TO GREECE.

MARAGON WAS ACQUITTED BY THE JURY ON A PERJURY COUNT BASED ON HIS DENIAL THAT HE USED INFLUENCE WITH VARIOUS GOVERNMENT AGENCIES FOR MONEY, AND THE GOVERNMENT DROPPED ONE COUNT OF THE FOUR-COUNT INDICTMENT.

EVER SINCE HIS CONVICTION THE ONE-TIME KANSAS CITY BOOTBLACK HAS BEEN FIGHTING TO ESCAPE JAIL. THE U.S.COURT OF APPEALS HERE UNANIMOUSLY UPHELD THE CONVICTION MARCH 2. THE SUPREME COURT REFUSED TO REVIEW THE CASE.

EXPLAINING WHY MARAGON DIDN'T PLEAD GUILTY, HAYES TOLD THE COURT: "TERROR AND HYSTERIA SEIZED POOR JOHN MARAGON AND HIS FAMILY, AND HE WENT TO TRIAL RATHER THAN PLEAD GUILTY TO THE GOVERNMENT'S SERIOUS CHARGE OF PEDDLING INFLUENCE FOR MONEY WHEN IN FACT HE WAS NOT GUILTY OF IT--AS IT WAS LATER PROVED."

NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES (270)

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-DEATHS FROM ACCIDENTS AND DISEASE AMONG AMERICAN FORCES IN THE KOREAN WAR ARE RUNNING MUCH LOWER IN RELATION TO COMBAT DEATHS THAN IN WORLD WAR TWO.

DEFENSE DEPARTMENT FIGURES SHOW THAT FOR EVERY THREE MEN KILLED BY THE ENEMY IN THE LAST WAR NEARLY ONE MAN DIED FROM NON-COMBAT CAUSES. IN KOREA, TO DATE, THE RATIO IS ONE DEATH FROM ACCIDENT AND DISEASE TO 20 MEN KILLED BY ENEMY ACTION.

THE DEPARTMENT PRODUCED THE FIGURES IN RESPONSE TO QUERIES ABOUT GEN.OMAR BRADLEY'S DISCLOSURE YESTERDAY THAT AMERICAN NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES IN KOREA AMOUNT TO 72,679, INCLUDING 612 DEAD.

BOTH BRADLEY'S FIGURES AND A DEFENSE DEPARTMENT CASUALTY SUMMARY SHOW THAT AT LEAST 12,567 AMERICANS HAVE BEEN KILLED BY ENEMY ACTION IN KOREA.

U.S. COMBAT DEATHS IN WORLD WAR II WERE 326,265. FINAL TABULATIONS PREPARED BY THE ARMED SERVICES SHOW THAT 105,082 SERVICEMEN DIED IN THE LAST WAR OF DISEASE OR INJURIES.

IN MODERN TIMES, ARMED FORCES RARELY REVEAL THEIR NON-COMBAT CASUALTIES UNTIL AFTER WARS ARE ENDED. THAT WAS TRUE OF AMERICAN FORCES IN WORLD WAR TWO.

ON THAT POINT, REP.EDITH NOURSE ROGERS (R-MASS), RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, SAID TODAY SHE WAS "PROFOUNDLY SHOCKED" AT BRADLEY'S REPORT ON NON-COMBAT LOSSES.

MRS.ROGERS SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT "THIS CONCEALMENT OF ACTUAL CASUALTIES IN KOREA IS AN OUTRAGEOUS FOOLING OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC." "WHEN A MAN IN THE BATTLE ZONE (WHICH INCLUDES ALL OF KOREA) LOSES A HAND OR A FOOT AS THE RESULT OF EXPOSURE, HE IS JUST AS MUCH A BATTLE CASUALTY AS THE MAN WHO STOPPED A BULLET," SHE ADDED.

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-A CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE TODAY BRANDED THE DEFENSE LOAN AND TAX INCENTIVE PROGRAM "THE BIGGEST BONANZA THAT EVER CAME DOWN THE GOVERNMENT PIKE."

IT ALSO CHARGED THAT THERE IS "FLAGRANT DEFICIENCY" AMONG TOP LEVEL DEFENSE ADMINISTRATORS, PARTICULARLY IN THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY (NPA). IN THAT AGENCY, IT SAID, "A SMALL CLIQUE OF INDIVIDUALS WITH NO SPECIAL KNOWLEDGE OF ANY INDUSTRY" HAS INVITED "ALL KINDS OF IMPROPRIETY."

THE CHARGES, WERE CONTAINED IN A REPORT OF THE HOUSE EXECUTIVE EXPENDITURES SUBCOMMITTEE SCATHINGLY CRITICAL OF DEFENSE LOANS AND ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF NECESSITY AS TAX INCENTIVES TO BUSINESS.

CERTIFICATES OF NECESSITY ARE INTENDED ASN INDUCMENT FOR GREATER DEFENSE PRODUCTION. BY BEING CERTIFIED, A COMPANY MAY WRITE OFF COST OF A NEW PLANT FOR TAX PURPOSES IN A QUARTER OF THE TIME CUSTOMARILY ALLOWED. THIS MEANS SIZABLE TAX RELIEF FOR THE COMPANY.

THE COMMITTEE REPORT SAID THAT IN FIVE MONTHS CERTIFICATES HAVE BEEN ISSUEED FOR $5,000,000,000 (B) WORTH OF PLANTS, STATING:

"BUSINESSMEN HAVE BEEN QUICK TO SEIZE UPON THIS OPPORTUNITY TO EXPAND THEIR EXISTING FACILITIES, EXPECTING TO CHARGE OFF THE COST OR SUBSTANTIAL PORTION OF IT TO WAR PROFITS."

THE COMMITTEE CALLED ADMINISTRATION OF THE TAX INCENTIVE AND DEFENSE LOAN PROGRAMS "UNSOUND AND DETRIMENTAL TO THE PUBLIC INTEREST IN MANY RESPECTS."

DEFENSE OFFICIALS, THE REPORT STATED, HAVE SHOWN "OUTRIGHT DISREGARD FOR SAFEGUARDS" AND HAVE FOLLOWED A "SHOVEL-IN-THE-BARREL" APPROACH TO GET THE DEFENSE CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM UNDER WAY.
THE COMMITTEE FOUND "TIME AND AGAIN" INSTANCES WHERE TRAINED EXPERTS WERE ARBITRARILY OVER-RULED "BY MEN WHO READILY ADMITTED TO A LACK OF TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE." THE REPORT ADDED:
"THERE SEEMS TO EXIST IN NPA, IN PARTICULAR, A SMALL CLIQUE OF INDIVIDUALS, WITH NO SPECIAL KNOWLEDGE OF ANY INDUSTRY, WHOSE VIEWS AND OPINIONS HAVE INFLUENCED THE FINAL ACTION ON BOTH CERTIFICATES OF NECESSITY AND LOANS.
"WHILE THERE HAS BEEN FOUND NO EVIDENCE OF FRAUD OR COLLUSION IN ANY OF THE MATTERS EXAMINED, THE INFLUENCE OF THESE FEW INDIVIDUALS NOT ONLY IS INCONSISTENT WITH EFFICIENT ADMINISTRATION BUT IS AN INVITATION TO ALL KINDS OF IMPROPRIETY. DECISIONS SHOULD BE BASED ON FACTS AND REASONS, NOT IN DISREGARD OF THEM."
THE REPORT SINGLED OUT FRANK R.CREEDON, DIRECTOR OF THE NPA FACILITIES CLEARANCE DIVISION, AS "ONE INDIVIDUAL" WHOSE TESTIMONY BEFORE THE COMMITTEE "EVIDENCED INCONSISTENCY AND LACK OF UNDERSTANDING" OF HIS RESPONSIBILITIES.

MAY 26 1951

THE REPORT SAID NPA ISSUED ALMOST $500,000,000 OF TAX CERTIFICATES TO STEEL COMPANIES AT THE START OF THE DEFENSE PROGRAM "WITHOUT ANY EFFORT TO VERIFY THE SELF-SERVING STATEMENTS ON EACH APPLICATION AND ENTIRELY ON A FIRST-COME, FIRST-SERVED BASIS."
THE REPORT CITED THE CASE OF THE HAZLETON STEEL AND TUBING CORP., "A NEW COMPANY ORGANIZED BY THREE MEN WITH $600 AND AN IDEA FOR A STEEL PLANT."
"THE PROCESS BY WHICH A LOAN OF $8,000,000 WAS MADE TO THIS COMPANY ALMOST DEFIES BELIEF. EVERY GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL WITH A BACKGROUND EITHER IN STEEL OR FINANCIAL MATTERS WHO HAD OCCASION TO STUDY THE APPLICATION RECOMMENDED AGAINST IT. YET THE LOAN WAS GRANTED WITH A SPEED NOT GENERALLY FOUND IN A GOVERNMENT AGENCY."
THE COMMITTEE SAID "LOANS OF THE HAZLETON TYPE ARE NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST."
OTHER SPECIFIC CASES SINGLED OUT FOR CRITICISM DEALT WITH DEFENSE ASSISTANCE GRANTED THE LONE STAR STEEL CO., OF DAINGERFIELD,TEXAS, AND THE GREEN RIVER STEEL CORP., OWENSBORO,KY.
THESE COMPANIES, LIKE HAZLETON, WERE GRANTED BOTH LOANS AND TAX RELIEF ON PROPOSED DEFENSE PLANT DEVELOPMENTS.
IN CONCLUSION, THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED CONGRESS REVIEW THE WHOLE TAX CONCESSION PROGRAM TO DETERMINE IF IT IS JUSTIFIED IN THE LIGHT OF LOST TAX REVENUES, AND ITS "INFLATIONARY EFFECTS."
THE COMMITTEE SAID THAT WHILE THE GREEN RIVER CASE IS "PROMOTIONAL TO SOME EXTENT, THERE ARE ASPECTS TO THE VENTURE FROM THE STANDPOINT OF EXPERIENCED PERSONNEL AND LIKE FACTORS, WHICH DO NOT PLACE THIS LOAN IN AS QUESTIONABLE A CATEGORY AS THAT OF THE HAZLETON LOAN.
"THE SUBCOMMITTEE DOES NOT FEEL, HOWEVER, THAT THE EVIDENCE BEFORE IT DEFINITELY ESTABLISHES THE GREEN RIVER PROPOSAL AS A VITALLY NECESSARY EXPANSION JUSTIFYING THAT GRANTING OF INFLATIONARY LOANS," THE REPORT ADDED.
IN ANALYZING THE VARIOUS DEFENSE LOANS, THE SUBCOMMITTEE NOTED THAT THE GREEN RIVER STEEL CORPORATION WAS ORGANIZED ON NOV. 22, 1950.
THERE WAS AUTHORIZED CAPITAL STOCK OF 10,000 SHARES OF $1 PAR VALUE.
"THE CORPORATION WAS TO BEGIN BUSINESS WITH PAID-IN CAPITAL OF $1,000," THE COMMITTEE REPORT SAID.
"THE ONLY STOCK SUBSCRIBERS WERE MR.SIDNEY U.WILLIAMS, A RETIRED STEEL EXECUTIVE, 500 SHARES; MR.ROBERT B.HENSLEY, AN ATTORNEY, 250 SHARES; AND MR.FRANK A.LOGAN, MR.HENSLEY'S LAW PARTNER, 250 SHARES. HOWEVER NO MONEY ACTUALLY WAS PAID IN," THE REPORT SAID.

"ON THE SAME DAY THE CORPORATION FILED AN APPLICATION FOR A CERTIFICATE OF NECESSITY FOR $8,001,032 TO COVER THE COST OF THE PROPOSED NEW STEEL MILL," THE COMMITTEE SAID.
THE DAY BEFORE THE CERTIFICATE WAS GRANTED, THE CORPORATION APPLIED FOR A $8,556,126 GOVERNMENT LOAN UNDER THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT.
THE COMMITTEE REPORT COMMENTED THAT WHILE RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE ENGINEERS THOUGHT THE PROJECT WOULD BE TECHNICALLY FEASIBLE BUT SAID IT WOULD BE DEPENDENT UPON STEEL SCRAP WHICH IS ALREADY SCARCE.
THE RFC ENGINEERS SAID "THIS PROJECT MAY NOT RESULT IN ANY OVER-ALL INCREASE FOR THE NATIONAL TOTAL---IN FACT, IT MAY WELL RESULT IN BUILDING A PLANT THAT WILL OPERATE AT ONLY PARTIAL CAPACITY DUE TO LACK OF SCRAP OR TAKE SCRAP FROM OTHER PLANTS AND THEREBY RESTRICT THEIR OUTPUT."
RFC AGREED TO MAKE A LOAN OF $3,556,126, CONDITIONED UPON A DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT LOAN OF $5,000,000 AND THE CORPORATION PUTTING UP $2,000,000 IN EQUITY CAPITAL.
THE COMMITTEE REPORTED THAT A $5,000,000 LOAN CERTIFICATE HAD BEEN SIGNED AND THAT ON FEB. 8, 1951, THE RFC APPROVED A LOAN OF $3,556,126 CONDITIONED UPON THE BORROWER INJECTING $2,000,000 WORKING CAPITAL.
"THERE WAS INFORMATION," THE COMMITTEE ADDED, "THE $2,000,000 WOULD BE PROVIDED BY AN INVESTMENT HOUSE WHICH WAS TO RECEIVE 60 PERCENT OF THE STOCK OF THE CORPORATION. MR.WILLIAMS AND MR.HENSLEY, THE PROMOTERS, WOULD EACH RETAIN 20 PERCENT OF THE STOCK."

JAPANESE TREATY
WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAID TONIGHT THAT AMERICAN AND BRITISH OFFICIALS WHO WILL MEET IN LONDON EARLY NEXT MONTH ON JAPANESE PEACE TREATY PROBLEMS ARE EXPECTED TO TAKE UP THE QUESTION OF CHINESE COMMUNIST AND NATIONALIST RELATIONS WITH THE CONCLUDING STAGES OF TREATY NEGOTIATION.
BRITAIN DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT ON FORMOSA JUST AS THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT ON THE MAINLAND.
THE PROBLEM POSED BY THIS CONFLICT OF LONDON AND WASHINGTON POLICIES IS WHETHER IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS ANY CHINESE GOVERNMENT WILLHBE ABLE TO SIGN THE TREATY WITH JAPAN WITH THE APPROVAL OF ALL THE OTHER NATIONS WHICH ARE WILLING TO SIGN.
BOTH STATE DEPARTMENT AND BRITISH DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS DENIED TONIGHT THAT THE QUESTION HAD YET COME TO A HEAD BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS OR THAT BRITAIN HAD INFORMED THE UNITED STATES THAT IT WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY TREATY NEGOTIATION OR SIGNING WHICH INVOLVED GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI SHEK'S NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.
JOHN FOSTER DULLES, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S CHIEF REPUBLICAN ADVISER AND DIRECTOR OF JAPANESE TREATY WORK FOR THE UNITED STATES AND HIS CHIEF ASSOCIATE, JOHN M.ALLISON, ARE DUE TO FLY TO LONDON JUNE 2 TO TRY TO STRAIGHTEN OUT WITH THE BRITISH CONFLICTS OF INTEREST WHICH HAVE SO FAR ARISEN IN THE NEGOTIATIONS.
TO DATE, THESE NEGOTIATIONS HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED PRINCIPALLY BY THE UNITED STATES IN A SERIES OF SEPARATE CONSULTATIONS WITH OTHER INTERESTED GOVERNMENTS. THIS SYSTEM, WHICH AVOIDED THE ISSUE OF WHAT CHINESE GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE INVITED TO A PEACE CONFERENCE HAS WORKED SO WELL THAT MOST INFORMED AMERICAN OFFICIALS NOW BELIEVE NO CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD ON JAPAN. INSTEAD IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE TREATY WILL BE PUT IN FINAL FORM BY THE SAME PROCESS SO FAR USED. IF THAT IS CORRECT IT LEAVES OPEN WITH RESPECT TO CHINA ONLY THE QUESTION OF WHAT

IF ANY CHINESE GOVERNMENT SHOULD SIGN THE PACT.
SINCE THE U.S. IS FLATLY OPPOSED TO ANY KIND OF RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME AND HAS REJECTED A BRITISH PROPOSAL TO INCLUDE THE REDS IN THE CURRENT NEGOTIATIONS, AND SINCE BRITAIN LONG AGO WITHDREW RECOGNITION FROM THE NATIONALISTS, SOME DIPLOMATS HERE SAY IT SEEMS HIGHLY PROBABLE THAT THE BRITISH WILL OPPOSE THE SIGNING OF THE TREATY BY THE NATIONALISTS. HOWEVER, THEY SAID THAT BRITAIN HAD NOT YET OFFICIALLY ADVISED THE U.S. OF ANY FORMAL POSITION ON THIF POINT.

WAGE BOARD
BY HAROLD W.WARD
WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD TODAY WEIGHED THE ARGUMENTS FOR A FOUR CENT HOURLY PRODUCTION BONUS FOR 1,000,000 AUTO WORKERS AND ITS POSSIBLE EFFECT ON CAR PRICES.
THE FORD AND PACKARD MOTOR COMPANIES TOLD THE BOARD YESTERDAY THEY WANTED TO PAY THE PRODUCTION INCREASE BUT WOULD NEED HIGHER PRICES TO OFFSET IT. GENERAL MOTORS CORP., ON THE OTHER HAND, SAID IT WOULD NOT ASK FOR ANY PRICE BOOST.
THE WAGE HIKE, DUE AT GENERAL MOTORS ON MAY 29, IS A REWARD FOR ANNUAL IMPROVEMENT IN PRODUCTION. IT WAS PROVIDED IN A FIVE-YEAR LABOR CONTRACT MADE LAST YEAR. WALTER P.REUTHER, HEAD OF THE CIO-UNITED AUTO WORKERS, ARGUED THAT THE INCREASE, WHICH WOULD EXCEED THE GOVERNMENT'S 10 PERCENT PAY BOOST MAXIMUM, WAS THE RESULT OF "MATURE" COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND REPRESENTED STABILITY OF LABOR RELATIONS IN THE INDUSTRY.
REUTHER CAUTIONED THAT IF THE PRODUCTION BONUS IS TAMPERED WITH BY THE BOARD THE ENTIRE FIVE-YEAR PEACE PACT WILL BE SCRAPPED. HE SAID THE PARTIES THEN WOULD HAVE TO SIT DOWN AND NEGOTIATE A NEW AGREEMENT AND THAT THE UNION WOULD RENEW OLD DEMANDS WHICH HAD BEEN SET ASIDE TO OBTAIN THE FIVE YEAR AGREEMENT.
PENDING ITS DECISION ON THE RAISE ISSUE, THE BOARD ASKED REUTHER NOT TO INSIST ON THE MAY 29 DEADLINE. HE SAID HE WOULD DISCUSS THIS WITH OTHER UNION OFFICIALS. AND HE INDICATED THERE MIGHT BE WILLINGNESS TO GO ALONG WITH THE BOARD AT LEAST UNTIL THE FIRST INCREASED PAY CHECKS ARE DUE ABOUT MID-JUNE.
IN A SEPARATE ACTION YESTERDAY, THE BOARD SET UP A SPECIAL PANEL REPRESENTING MANAGEMENT, LABOR AND THE PUBLIC TO DECIDE WHETHER INDUSTRIES EXEMPTED FROM PRICE CONTROLS BY THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT ALSO SHOULD BE FREE OF WAGE STABILIZATION.
HEARINGS WILL BE HELD JUNE 5 AND 6 ON THIS QUESTION. THE PANEL WILL BE HEADED BY THEODORE W.KHEEL OF NEW YORK AND PROF. RICHARD A.LESTER OF PRINCETON UNIVERSITY. OTHER MEMBERS HAVE NOT BEEN ANNOUNCED.

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-THE ARMY HAS ORDERED ITS FIRST JET-POWERED, COLLAPSIBLE HELICOPTER.
PLANS CALL FOR A MACHINE THAT CAN BE FOLDED AND LOADED ABOARD A JEEP BY TWO MEN USING ORDINARY TOOLS. IT WILL BE POWERED BY TWO TINY JET ENGINES--WEIGHING ONLY A FRACTION OF A STANDARD ENGINE. ONE WILL BE ATTACHED TO EACH OF THE TWO ROTOR BLADES.
THE ARMY, IN ANNOUNCING THE ORDER TODAY, SAID THE HELICOPTER SHOULD PROVE VALUABLE FOR OBSERVATION AND SCOUTING WORK IN THE OPENING PHASES OF AIRBORNE OPERATIONS. THIS INDICATED IT PROBABLY WOULD BE DROPPED BY PARACHUTE WITH AIRBORNE TROOPS DURING A LANDING.
IT WILL CARRY ONLY ONE MAN, PLUS A RADIO.
THE FIRST ONE WILL BE BUILT BY THE AMERICAN HELICOPTER CO. AT MANHATTAN BEACH, CALIF., FROM DESIGNS RECENTLY APPROVED FOR THE ARMY BY AIR FORCE EXPERTS AT WRIGHT-PATTERSON BASE IN DAYTON, O.
THE AIR FORCE HAS HAD EXPERIMENTAL JET-POWERED 'COPTERS OF THE ORDINARY TYPE FOR SOME TIME.

MCCARTHY
WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) HAS FIRED A SHARP NEW BOLT AT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND WHAT THE SENATOR CALLS "THE TREACHEROUS RED CLIQUE IN POWER IN OUR STATE DEPARTMENT."
ACHESON, MCCARTHY SAID IN A SENATE SPEECH YESTERDAY, HAS "TRIED TO MAKE SURE THAT WE COULD NOT WIN IN BATTLE."
HE ADDED THAT STATE DEPARTMENT "POLITICIANS" HAVE "SIGNED AND SEALED XXX THE DEATH WARRANT" FOR AMERICANS FIGHTING IN KOREA.
HE PROPOSED THAT ACHESON "NOT ONLY RESIGN FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT BUT XXX REMOVE YOUR CARCASS FROM THIS COUNTRY AND GO TO THE NATION FOR WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN STRUGGLING AND FIGHTING FOR SO LONG."
MCCARTHY LED INTO THE LARRUPING NEW ATTACK ON THE STATE DEPARTMENT DURING A SENATE DISCUSSION OF THE INVESTIGATION OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL FROM HIS FAR EASTERN COMMANDS. HE REPEATEDLY HAS CHARGED THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITH HARBORING COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS.
THE KEY QUESTION IN THE MACARTHUR INVESTIGATION, MCCARTHY SAID YESTERDAY, IS "WILL THE GENERALS OR THE POLITICIANS CONTROL MILITARY OPERATIONS ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE?"
HE THEN CITED BOB SMITH, A SOLDIER FROM MIDDLEBURG, PA., AS TYPICAL OF THE THOUSANDS OF CASUALTIES HE SAID HAD SUFFERED BECAUSE OF STATE DEPARTMENT POLICIES IN KOREA. SMITH LOST PARTS OF BOTH ARMS AND BOTH LEGS, AND IS THE ONLY QUADRUPLE AMPUTEE OF THE KOREAN WAR REPORTED THUS FAR.
"I SUGGEST," MCCARTHY SAID, "THAN WHEN THE DAY COMES THAT BOB SMITH CAN WALK, WHEN HE GETS HIS ARTIFICIAL LIMBS, HE FIRST WALK OVER TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND CALL UPON THE RED DEAN ACHESON--IF HE IS STILL THERE.
"HE SHOULD SAY TO HIM, 'DEAN, HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN BOYS HAVE FACED THOSE TWIN KILLERS (BULLETS AND BITTER COLD) BECAUSE YOU HAVE TRIED TO RUN THE TACTICS AND THE STRATEGY OF AN ARMY IN THE FIELD AND HAVE TRIED TO MAKE SURE THAT WE COULD NOT WIN IN BATTLE.'"
MCCARTHY DECLARED THAT GEN.OMAR BRADLEY IN TESTIFYING BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING MACARTHUR'S OUSTER HAD PUT ALL MILITARY MEN ON NOTICE THAT THEY "OWE FIRST DUTY TO WHATEVER POLITICIANS HAPPEN TO BE IN POWER."
MACARTHUR, ON THE OTHER HAND, "BELIEVES THAT GENERALS HAVE NOT ONLY THE RIGHT BUT THE DUTY TO SPEAK OUT WHEN THEY FIND THE NATION'S SECURITY ENDANGERED BY POLITICAL INTERFERENCE IN THE TACTICS AND STRATEGY OF THE ARMY," MCCARTHY SAID.
SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) FIRED BACK THAT THE INQUIRY TESTIMONY HAD SHOWED "BEYOND A DOUBT THE WISDOM OF THE PRESIDENT" IN OUSTING THE FIVE STAR GENERAL.
MCCARTHY THEN ACCUSED MCMAHON, A MEMBER OF THE INQUIRY COMMITTEE, OF PREJUDGING THE ISSUE "BEFORE THE HEARINGS STARTED."
HE SAID HE THOUGHT MCMAHON, SENATOR KERR (D-OKLA), SENATOR BENTON (D-CONN) AND OTHERS WHO HAVE CRITICIZED MACARTHUR SHOULD "TAKE THEIR HATS IN HAND AND GO UP TO THE WALDORF-ASTORIA AND LEARN SOME OF THE SIMPLE MILITARY FACTS OF LIFE."
REPUBLICANS SHOULD CONSULT WITH MACARTHUR AT EVERY CHANCE, MCCARTHY SAID, BECAUSE THE GENERAL IS "THE ONE MAN WHO STANDS AS A SOLID WALL AGAINST COMMUNISM IN THE FAR EAST" AND "THE ONE MAN THE PINKOS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT KNEW THEY HAD TO GET IF THEY WERE GOING TO SELL OUT THE FAR EAST."

BULLETIN
SMALL RETAILERS
WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TODAY RELIEVED ABOUT 100,000 SMALL RETAIL STORES, INCLUDING MANY HARDWARE STORES, FROM FILING DETAILED PRICING CHARTS UNDER THE RETAILERS' CEILING PRICE REGULATION.

THE ORDER BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION GIVES THESE SMALL RETAILERS THE OPTION OF PRICING THEIR GOODS UNDER THE RETAILERS' REGULATION OR CONTINUING TO PRICE UNDER THE GENERAL FREEZE AT LEVELS IN EFFECT FROM LAST DEC.19 THROUGH JAN.25.

MAY 26 1951

A16WX
BOTH THE TYPES OF GOODS SOLD UNDER THE REGULATION AND THE VOLUME OF BUSINESS DONE BY EACH SMALL RETAILER MUST BE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION TO DETERMINE WHETHER A SMALL RETAILER IS EXEMPT FROM CHART FILING PROVISIONS, THE OPS SAID.

A17WX
OPS MADE CLEAR THAT THE RELIEF AMENDMENT IN NO WAY EXEMPTS ANY STORE FROM PRICE CONTROLS.

A SUPPLEMENTARY PRICING ORDER WILL BE ISSUED THE FIRST OF NEXT WEEK--PROBABLY MONDAY--GIVING SMALL RETAILERS REMAINING UNDER GENERAL FREEZE PRICES SOME RELIEF WHERE THEIR MARGINS HAVE BEEN CUT DOWN BY INCREASED COSTS, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

THE PRICE AGENCY GAVE NO HINT AS TO THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SUPPLEMENTARY ORDER.

OPS SAID SMALL STORES CHOOSING THE OPTION OF PRICING UNDER THE GENERAL PRICE FREEZE MUST CONTINUE UNDER THAT UNTIL OTHER METHODS OF PRICE CONTROLS ARE PROVIDED THEM.

A REGULATION TO PROVIDE THESE IS UNDER CONSIDERATION.

AT THE SAME TIME, OPS WARNED THAT ALL OTHER RETAILERS, ESTIMATED AT 195,000, SELLING ITEMS CONTROLLED UNDER THE RETAILERS' REGULATION AND NOT ELIGIBLE TO REMAIN UNDER THE GENERAL FREEZE MUST FILE THEIR PRICING CHARTS BY MAY 31 (CQ). AN ADDITIONAL DAY IS GRANTED BECAUSE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF MAY 30 IS A HOLIDAY.

RETAILERS WHO MUST FILE THE CHARTS CANNOT CONTINUE TO SELL THEIR GOODS LEGALLY AFTER MAY 31 WITHOUT FILING. OPS SAID THERE WILL BE NO EXTENSION OF THAT DEADLINE.

PREPARING THE CHARTS INVOLVES MUCH FIGURING OF ALLOWABLE MARGINS OR MARKUPS AND OTHER DATA.

THE PRINCIPAL GROUP OF RETAILERS GIVEN RELIEF FROM FILING THE CHARTS ARE THOSE STORES SELLING SUCH ITEMS AS HOUSEWARES, NOTIONS, SPORTING GOODS, SILVERWARE, CHINA, GLASSWARE, JEWELRY, WATCHES AND CLOCKS. THEY MAY ELECT TO PRICE UNDER GENERAL FREEZE LEVELS RATHER THAN THE RETAILERS' CEILING PRICE REGULATION, KNOWN AS CPR 7.

OPS SAID THE EFFECT OF TODAY'S ACTION WILL BE THAT MOST RETAILERS HANDLING LARGER ITEMS LIKE FURNITURE, RADIOS, TELEVISION SETS, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, LUGGAGE, APPAREL AND SUCH LARGER ARTICLES WILL REMAIN UNDER CPR 7. OPS SAID SUCH ITEMS ARE MORE EASILY LISTED ON A PRICING CHART.

THE RETAILERS' REGULATION ITSELF GAVE SMALL DEALERS DOING LESS THAN $20,000 OF BUSINESS ANNUALLY THE RIGHT TO STAY UNDER GENERAL FREEZE PRICES.

ADDITIONALLY THE ACTION TODAY PROVIDES THAT A RETAILER MAY ELECT TO STAY UNDER THE FREEZE IF:

1. THE OVER-ALL NET DOLLAR VOLUME OF SALES OF EVERYTHING IN HIS STORE IS LESS THAN $100,000 ANNUALL: EXCEPT THAT IF HIS SALES OF THE LARGER ITEMS SUCH AS LUGGAGE, FURNITURE AND THE LIKE TOTAL $20,000 OR MORE HE MUST FILE PRICING CHARTS COVERING THOSE ITEMS.

2. THE NET DOLLAR VOLUME OF SALES OF THE SMALL ITEMS SUCH AS HOUSEWARES, NOTIONS, SILVERWARE AND THE LIKE IS LESS THAN $60,000 A YEAR; EXCEPT THAT HE STILL MUST FILE PRICING CHARTS COVERING THE LARGER ITEMS IF HIS VOLUME OF BUSINESS IN THOSE ARTICLES IS $20,000 OR MORE YEARLY. SUCH A RETAILER'S TOTAL VOLUME OF SALES IN HIS STORE MAY EXCEED EVEN THE $100,000 LIMIT. THE GOVERNING FACTOR IS THE AMOUNT OF SMALL GOODS HE SELLS.

EVERY RETAILER DOING IN EXCESS OF $20,000 YEARLY IN THE BIGGER ITEMS MUST FILE PRICING CHARTS COVERING THOSE ITEMS.

THE RETAILER WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO DO SO AND WHO ELECTS TO REMAIN UNDER THE GENERAL PRICE FREEZE DOES NOT HAVE TO NOTIFY OPS. HE SIMPLY DISREGARDS THE MAY 31 DEADLINE FOR FILING THE CHARTS. BUT HE MUST BE PREPARED TO SHOW OPS AT ANY TIME WHY HE MADE THE CHOICE.

IF A DEALER ELIGIBLE TO STAY UNDER THE GENERAL FREEZE PRICING ALREADY HAD FILED A CHART AND WANTS TO USE FREEZE PERIOD PRICES HE MUST ASK HIS OPS DISTRICT OFFICE BY JULY 2 TO RETURN HIS CHARTER.

(370) PRECEDE WASHINGTON (A159)
CHICAGO, MAY 25-(AP)-A BEDRIDDEN CHARLES E. WILSON SAID BY PROXY TODAY THAT BY THE END OF 1953, AMERICA "WILL BE ABLE TO MEET ALL THE DEMANDS OF GLOBAL WARFARE."

IN A PREPARED SPEECH READ BY HIS ASSISTANT, ANDRUE BERDING OF WASHINGTON, THE MOBILIZATION CHIEF TOLD THE EXECUTIVES CLUB OF CHICAGO THAT "OUR READINESS WILL BE SUCH AS TO BE INTENSELY DISCOURAGING TO ANY AGGRESSOR."

"WHILE WE WILL BE FULLY READY BY 1953, THAT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN INVITATION FOR ANYONE TO MONKEY WITH A BUZZ SAW BETWEEN NOW AND THEN," WILSON ADDED. "RIGHT NOW WE ARE STRONG ENOUGH TO DEAL OUT THE MOST PUNISHING BLOWS AND OUR STRENGTH GROWS WEEK BY WEEK AND MONTH BY MONTH."

WILSON'S APPEARANCE IN PERSON WAS CANCELED AT THE LAST MINUTE WHEN HE SLIPPED WHILE DESCENDING FROM AN AIRPLANE AT LA GUARDIA FIELD IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT AND GASHED HIS LEG SO SEVERELY IT REQUIRED 20 STITCHES.

HOWEVER, HE DID SPEAK A FEW PERSONAL WORDS OVER A TELEPHONE-PUBLIC ADDRESS HOOKUP TO HIS BEDSIDE. IN THIS IMPROMPTU TALK, THE 64-YEAR-OL WILSON TOLD SOME 1,500 EXECUTIVES CLUB MEMBERS:

"IT SEEMS SO OBVIOUS THAT THE ROAD TO PEACE THROUGH THE PREVENTION OF A WORLD CONFLAGRATION IS DEPENDENT ON AMERICAN MIGHT AND THE STRENGTH OF OUR FREE ALLIES. IT IS A CHALLENGE TO OUR MATURITY AND OUR UNITY TO ACCOMPLISH THIS RESULT.

"WHEN OUR MILITARY FORCE HAS BEEN RECRUITED TO FULL STRENGTH SHORTLY, WE AMERICANS CAN CONFIDENTLY TAKE IT FOR GRANTED IT WILL BE THE SAME GALLANT, EFFECTIVE, WINNING COMBINATION AS IN THE PAST. IT IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO BACK THEM WITH A PRODUCTION JOB.

"THE COMBINATION OF A MAGNIFICENT MILITARY FORCE AND THE WORLD'S GREATEST PRODUCTIVE MACHINE CAN, AND I BELIEVE WILL, MAKE OUR DREAMS OF PEACE A REALITY."

IN HIS PREPARED ADDRESS, WILSON SAID WE WILL HAVE REACHED "OUR CURRENT GOAL OF 3,500,000 (M) MEN UNDER ARMS" BY JULY 1.

HE SAID EQUIPMENT NOW AVAILABLE TO THE ARMED SERVICES "MAY NOT BE 1951 VINTAGE" BUT IS STILL EFFECTIVE AND FORMIDABLE. THE STOCKPILE OF ATOM BOMBS "CONTINUES TO GROW." INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY IS BEING EXPANDED AND MANPOWER IS BEING TRAINED.

"BY FALL, WE WILL BE ROLLING, AND EACH MONTH THEREAFTER GREAT VOLUMES OF ARMS AND EQUIPMENT WILL BE FLOWING FROM OUR PRODUCTION LINES," HE STATED.

ON THE DEBIT SIDE, WILSON ADDED, ARE SUCH PROBLEMS AS "A SERIOUS BOTTLENECK IN THE MACHINE TOOL INDUSTRY" WHICH IS BEING REMEDIED AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE BY MATERIALS ALLOCATIONS AND OTHER AIDS; A SHORTAGE OF SOME VITAL MATERIALS, WHIC IS BEING COMBATED BY SUBSTITUTIONS AND CONSERVATION; AND A MANPOWER SHORTAGE IN SOME HIGHLY SKILLED AND VITAL JOBS.

WASHINGTON,MAY 25-(AP)-MOBILIZATION CHIEF CHARLES E.WILSON SEVERELY INJURED A LEG YESTERDAY IN STEPPING FROM AN AIRPLANE AT LA GUARDIA FIELD IN NEW YORK. HE WAS CONFINED TO HIS APARTMENT HERE TODAY.
A SPOKESMAN FOR THE OFFICE OF DEFENSE MOBILIZATION SAID WILSON SUFFERED A CUT IN THE THIGH THAT REQUIRED SEVERAL STITCHES AND PULLED A TENDON.
WILSON TOOK A PLANE BACK TO WASHINGTON AND DOCTORS ORDERED HIM TO STAY OFF THE INJURED LIMB. HE WAS REPORTED RESTING COMFORTABLY BUT MAY BE UNABLE TO GO TO HIS OFFICE FOR SEVERAL DAYS.
THE ACCIDENT FORCED WILSON TO CANCEL A SCHEDULED ADDRESS AT A DINNER MEETING IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT AND ALSO A SPEECH TODAY BEFORE THE EXECUTIVES CLUB IN CHICAGO. HE HAD PLANNED TO FLY FROM NEW YORK TO CHICAGO.
THE CHICAGO VISIT WOULD HAVE BEEN HIS FIRST TO THE MIDWEST. HE HAD PLANNED TO VISIT THE HOTPOINT PLANT AND THE CARNEGIE ILLINOIS STEEL MILL IN CHICAGO TODAY, IN ADDITION TO ADDREX

AMS BUDGET
NIGHT LEAD ATOMIC
BY FRANK E.CAREY
ASSOCIATED PRESS SCIENCE WRITER
WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-U.S. ATOMIC CHIEFS THREW OUT A DRAMATIC HINT TODAY THAT THE FIRST TESTS OF SOME KIND OF HYDROGEN BOMB--PERHAPS THE FORERUNNER OF A TRUE "SUPER BOMB"--HAVE JUST BEEN SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT, PERHAPS FORESHADOWING AMERICAN POSSESSION OF THE WORLD'S MOST POWERFUL AND DESTRUCTIVE WEAPON, SAID:
"A PROGRAM OF ATOMIC WEAPONS TESTS HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY CARRIED OUT" AT THE SUPER-SECRET ENIWETOK PROVING GROUNDS IN THE PACIFIC.
THEN CAME THE TEN KEY WORDS:
"THE TEST PROGRAM INCLUDED EXPERIMENTS CONTRIBUTING TO THERMONUCLEA WEAPONS RESEARCH."
"THERMONUCLEAR WEAPONS" MEANS HYDROGEN BOMBS.
THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT IN A JOINT, GUARDEDLY WORDED ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT STATE THAT AN H-BOMB HAD BEEN DEVELOPED AND DETONATED DURING THE TESTS--WHICH REPORTEDLY COST $100,000,000 AND INVOLVED THOUSANDS OF PERSONNEL.
IT SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE SUCCESS OF THE TESTS.
SIGNIFICANTLY, IT ALSO POINTED OUT THAT THE "THERMONUCLEAR WEAPONS" PHASE OF THE TESTS HAD BEEN CARRIED OUT "IN FURTHERANCE OF THE PRESIDENT'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF JANUARY 31, 1950."
THAT WAS THE DATE WHEN MR. TRUMAN ORDERED THE AEC "TO CONTINUE ITS WORK ON ALL FORMS OF ATOMIC WEAPONS, INCLUDING THE SO-CALLED HYDROGEN OR SUPER-BOMB."

MAY 26 1951

THE PRESIDENT SAID HE HAD GIVEN THE ORDER SO THAT THE UNITED STATES COULD DEFEND ITSELF "AGAINST ANY POSSIBLE AGGRESSOR."
THE FACT THAT THE THERMONUCLEAR "EXPERIMENTS" WERE CONDUCTED IN CONNECTION WITH TESTS OF SO-CALLED ORTHODOX A-BOMBS OF THE URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM VARIETY INDICATES THAT AT LEAST A SMALL AMOUNT OF POTENTIALLY EXPLOSIVE HYDROGEN MAY HAVE BEEN "WRAPPED AROUND" AN A-BOMB--AND SUCCESSFULLY DETONATED.
IF SO, THE "HELL BOMB" MAY NOW BE AN ACTUAL REALITY.
TOP SCIENTISTS HAVE SPECULATED THAT AN A-BOMB WOULD BE USED TO "TRIGGER" THE H-BOMB, BECAUSE IT WOULD OFFER THE BEST POSSIBILITY OF PROVIDING THE TERRIFIC HEAT NECESSARY TO FUSE HYDROGEN ATOMS. THIS FUSION WOULD SET OFF A TREMENDOUS BLAST OF ATOMIC ENERGY.
IF SUCH A "TRIGGERING" OPERATION HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY PERFORMED WITH EVEN A SMALL AMOUNT OF SO-CALLED "HEAVY HYDROGEN"--THE WAY WOULD CONCEIVABLY BE OPENED TO FABRICATING H-BOMBS OF ANY DESIRED SIZE AND POWER, WITHIN THE LIMITS OF ENGINEERING AND AVAILABILITY OF HYDROGEN MATERIALS. SUCH MATERIALS COULD THEORETICALLY BE EITHER "TRITIUM" OR "DEERIUM"--PERHAPS IN COMBINATION.
VARIOUS SCIENTISTS HAVE SAID UNOFFICIALLY THAT IF THE "FUSION" OF HYDROGEN ATOMS CAN ONCE BE PERFECTED IN A BOMB, THERE IS NO THEORETICAL LIMIT TO THE SIZE OF THE BOMB. AN H-BOMB WOULD NOT HAVE THE "CRITICAL SIZE" LIMITATION OF AN A-BOMB.

AND SOME SCIENTISTS HAVE ESTIMATED THAT IF AN H-BOMB WERE PRODUCED WITH 1,000 TIMES THE ENERGY OF A HIROSHIMA-TYPE A-BOMB, IT WOULD PRODUCE BLAST DAMAGE IN A CIRCULE OF 10 MILES RADIUS, COMPARED WITH THE HIROSHIMA CIRCLE OF ONE MILE RADIUS. ONE SCIENTIST SAYS SUCH A BOMB WOULD BURN PEOPLE TO DEATH OVER A RADIUS UP TO 20 MILES OR MORE.
TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW BLASTS OF A-BOMBS--DESCRIBED BY A CONGRESSMAN AS "MANY TIMES MORE POWERFUL" THAN THOSE DROPPED ON JAPAN--ALSO SEEMED TO HINT AT:
1. DEVELOPMENT OF NEW INFORMATION OF USE IN CIVIL DEFENSE AGAINST ATOMIC ATTACK, INCLUDING INFORMATION ON THE DESIGN OF BUILDINGS BEST SUITED TO WITHDRAND THE EFFECTS OF TERRIFIC BLAST.
2. THE POSSIBLE DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW TECHNIQUE OF DROPPING ATOMIC BOMBS FROM AIRPLANES--CONCEIVABLY INVOLVING THE USE OF SMALLER PLANES THAN THE B-29S WHICH DROPPED THE BOMBS ON HIROSHIMA AND NAGASAKI AND PERHAPS EVEN INVOLVING A LOW-FLYING HIT AND RUN METHOD FOR STRIKING AT GROUND TROOPS IN A SMALL AREA.
THESE DEDUCTIONS APPEAR REASONABLE ON THE BASIS OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE ENIWETOK TESTS INCLUDED COMPREHENSIVE MEASUREMENT OF BLAST AND HEAT EFFECTS ON "STRUCTURES, AIRCRAFT AND VARIOUS OTHER ITEMS."
THE ATOMIC LEADERS OBVIOUSLY MUST HAVE INFORMATION ALREADY ON THE EFFECTS THE JAPANESE BLASTS HAD ON THE PLANES THAT DELIVERED THOSE BOMBS DURING WORLD WAR II.
TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT ALSO SAID WITHOUT AMPLIFICATION THAT THE NEW TESTS PRODUCED "ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OF PRIMARY MILITARY VALUE IN THE FIELD OF WEAPONS EFFECTS."
THE AEC DECLINED TO SAY HOW MANY TESTS WERE CONDUCTED IN THE RECENT HUSH-HUSH ENIWETOK PROGRAM WHICH, IRONICALLY ENOUGH, WAS NICKNAMED "OPERATION GREENHOUSE."
BROOKS (D-LA), A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICE COMMITTEE, MENTIONED IN THE HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY.
MENTION OF ATOMIC SHELLS, WHICH REP.
BROOKS SAID RECENT TESTS HAVE SHOWN PROGRESS IN DEVELOPING ATOMIC SHELLS AND DECLARED THEY SHOULD BE USED BY U.S. TROOPS FIGHTING AGAINST THE REDS IN KOREA.
THE LOUISIANA LEGISLATOR SPOKE AS THOUGH THE USE OR NON-USE OF SUCH A WEAPON WERE ONLY A MATTER OF CHOICE. ARMY AUTHORITIES HAVE SAID ONLY THAT THEY ARE CONFIDENT SUCH A WEAPON WILL BE DEVELOPED SOME DAY.

IN THEIR STATEMENT TODAY, THE ATOMIC HEADS GAVE LITTLE SPECIFIC DATA ON THE LATEST ENIWETOK TESTS, BUT LEFT THE WAY WIDE OPEN TO CONJECTURE.
THE TESTS, FIRST TO BE HELD AT THE BIG PROVING GROUNDS SINCE THE SERIES OF THREE IN THE SPRING OF 1948, WERE CARRIED OUT BY A "JOINT TASK FORCE" OF ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCE AND AEC PERSONNEL, ASSISTED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS AND INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS UNDER AEC CONTRACT.
THE TASK FORCE WAS HEADED BY LIEUT. GEN. ELWOOD R. QUESADA OF THE AIR FORCE, WITH DR. ALVIN C.GRAVES OF AEC'S LOS ALAMOS SCIENTIFIC LABORATORY AS SCIENTIFIC DEPUTY COMMANDER.
THE COMMISSION SAID IT WOULD "CONTINUE TO USE" THE ENIWETOK AREA. IT DID NOT SAY WHETHER FURTHER TESTS ARE IN PROSPECT FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE.
THE STATEMENT DECLARED:
"AS PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED, TEST ACTIVITIES AT ENIWETOK ARE UNDER SECURITY RESTRICTIONS INCLUDING THOSE OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY ACT.
"INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM RESEARCH ON NUCLEAR DETONATIONS, THE MAJOR PURPOSE OF THE TESTS, IS SECRET."
BUT THE ATOMIC CHIEFS SAID "MUCH" OF THE INFORMATION OBTAINED ABOUT ATOMIC WEAPONS EFFECTS ON STRUCTURES, AIRCRAFT AND OTHER ITEMS WOULD BE TAKEN OFF THE SECRET LIST AND MADE AVAILABLE TO THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT AND THE CIVIL DEFENSE AGENCY.
THE SAME GOES FOR DATA OBTAINED ON SEVERAL PROJECTS IN THE FIELDS OF BIOLOGY, MEDICINE AND RADIOATION-EFFECTS.
ALTHOUGH THE AEC DECLINED TO AMPLIFY ON THE NATURE AND RESULTS OF THE TESTS, REP. JACKSON (D-WASH), A RANKING MEMBER OF THE JOINT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY, GAVE SOME TIPS DURING A NEWS CONFERENCE ON MAY 12. JACKSON WITNESSES THE TESTS.
HE SAID THE LATEST PROGRAM "MARKS A DEFINITE STEP FORWARD IN THE FIELD OF ATOMIC WEAPONS AND HAS IMMEASURABLY IMPROVED OUR ATOMIC STOCKPILE POSITION."
"OUR ATOMIC WEAPONS," HE SAID, "WILL BE MORE EFFECTIVE THAN EVER BEFORE. THEY ARE MANY TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN THE A-BOMBS DROPPED ON HIROSHIMA AND NAGASAKI WHICH REPRESENTED A FORCE EQUIVALENT TO 20,000 TONS OF TNT."
JACKSON SAID THE TEST PROGRAM REVEALED AMONG OTHER THINGS THAT, UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS, "OUR TROOPS CAN ADVANCE THROUGH THE VERY AREA DESTROYED BY ATOMIC BLASTS"--THUS PAVING THE WAY, HE DECLARED, "FOR THE TACTICAL USE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS IN WARFARE."
JACKSON SAID UPWARDS OF $100,000,000 (M) WAS SPENT IN PREPARATION FOR THE TESTS AND THOUSANDS OF MILITARY, AEC AND OTHER PERSONNEL WERE INVOLVED.
HE SAID ELABORATE SECURITY MEASURES WERE TAKEN TO PROTECT A WIDE AREA AROUND THE MARSHALL ISLANDS ATOLL TO FORESTALL ANY POTENTIAL ENEMY OPERATIONS--SUCH AS A NSEAK SUBMARINE APPROACH TO ENIWETOK FOR PICTURES OF THE TESTS.

BEEF
WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON SAID TODAY HIS EXPERTS CAN'T AGREE ON WHETHER THE ROLLBACK IN CATTLE PRICES WOULD AFFECT PRODUCTION.
HE TOLD THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE THAT SOME ECONOMISTS IN HIS OFFICE FEEL THAT THE ORDER MIGHT RESULT IN A SHORTAGE OF BEEF, WHILE OTHERS DO NOT.
HE HIMSELF FEELS THE ROLLBACK "IS FAIR" AND PROBABLY "WILL WORK," HE SAID.

JOHNSTON SAID HE APPROVED THE ROLLBACK ORDER ISSUED BY PRICE STABILIZER MICHAEL DISALLE. IT TRIMMED CATTLE PRICES AN AVERAGE OF 10 PERCENT LAST MONDAY AND CALLS FOR ADDITIONAL CUTS OF 4 1/2 PERCENT EACH ON AUGUST 1 AND OCT. 1.
CATTLEMEN HAVE PROTESTED TO THE COMMITTEE THAT THE ORDER WILL "CONFISCATE" THEIR PROFITS, AND IN SOME CASES FORCE THEM OUT OF BUSINESS.
JOHNSTON TOLD THE COMMITTEE THAT CATTLEMEN WERE LIKE REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER INDUSTRIES--"EVERYONE WANTS THE HIGH WATER MARK (OF PRICES) MADE PAR FOR THE COURSE."
HE SAID THAT COULDN'T BE DONE IF THERE IS TO BE A STABLE ECONOMY.
ACTUALLY, HE SAID, THE REAL REASON CATTLEMEN ARE COMPLAINING IS THAT THEY DON'T WANT ANY CONTROLS AT ALL.
JOHNSTON SAID HE HADN'T HEARD FROM A SINGLE CATTLEMAN SINCE THE OPS ROLLBACK ORDER WAS ANNOUNCED LATE LAST MONTH ABOUT ANY HARDSHIP OR "DIRE RESULTS" IT WOULD HAVE FOR THE INDUSTRY.
IT WOULD SEEM, HE SAID, THAT IF CATTLEMEN ARE AS BADLY HURT AS THEY TOLD THE COMMITTEE THEY WOULD HAVE COME TO HIM.
"IF THEY FEEL THAT BAD THEY SHOULD COME IN TO ME AND SQUAWK," HE SAID. "THEY OUGHT TO TALK TO THE ONE MAN WHO CAN CHANGE IT (THE ORDER) AND THAT'S ME."
MAY 26 1951

JOHNSTON WAS QUESTIONED ABOUT A BROADCAST SPEECH LAST MARCH 9 WHICH REP.POAGUE (D-TEX) AND OTHERS SAID CATTLEMEN INTERPRETED AS MEANING THERE WOULD BE NO ROLLBACK.
JOHNSTON SAID HIS INTENTION WAS TO CONVEY THE IDEA THAT THERE WOULD BE SOME ROLLBACKS, OF COMMODITIES WHICH WERE OUT OF LINE AND BROUGHT HIGH PROFITS.
POAGUE NOTED THAT SINCE THE KOREAN WAR STARTED THERE HAD BEEN AN INCREASE OF ABOUT 20 PERCENT IN MEAT PRICES BUT THAT THE THREE ROLLBACK ORDERS WOULD TOTAL ABOUT 19 PERCENT. POAGUE WONDERED IF JOHNSTON FELT THAT ONE PERCENT REMAINING WAS SUFFICIENT PROFIT FOR THE CATTLEMEN. JOHNSTON SAID IT HAD BEEN DEEMED SUFFICIENT BY HIS EXPERTS.
POAGUE TOLD JOHNSTON THAT HE HAD GIVEN THE IMPRESSION THERE WAS NO INTENTION OF ROLLING BACK CATTLE, AT LEAST NOT TO A POINT WHERE CATTLEMEN WOULD NOT MAKE A GOOD PROFIT.
JOHNSTON SAID HE RECALLED A CONVERSATION HE HAD WITH SOME CATTLEMEN IN WHICH HE SPECIFICALLY SAID THERE WOULD BE A ROLLBACK.
JOHNSTON SAID CATTLE RAISERS WOULD NOT BE ASKED TO ABSORB ANY INCREASE THAT MIGHT RESULT FROM THE WAGE BOOST FOR PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYES. HE SAID THAT THE PUBLIC, THE PACKERS OR THE PROCESSORS WOULD HAVE TO ABSORB THIS INCREASE.
THE COMMITTEE HEARINGS CONCLUDED WITH JOHNSTON'S TESTIMONY. CHAIRMAN COOLEY (D-NC) SAID NO CONSUMER GROUP HAD ASKED TO BE HEARD.
HE SAID THE COMMITTEE PROBABLY WOULD MEET IN EXECUTIVE SESSION NEXT WEEK AND DECIDE WHAT ACTION IT WOULD TAKE. THIS COULD MEAN A COMMITTEE REPORT BASED ON TESTIMONY BEFORE THE GROUP AT THE HEARINGS OVER THE LAST TWO WEEKS OR ON A RESOLUTION CALLING FOR THE RESCINDING OF ALL OR SOME OF THE THREE MEAT ROLL BACKS.
COOLEY TOLD REPORTERS THAT IF THE CATTLEMEN'S CLAIMS ARE BORNE OUT HE WAS HOPEFUL THAT THE LAST TWO ROLLBACKS MIGHT BE RESCINDED BY JOHNSTON.
COOLEY SAID CATTLEMAN SHOULD ACCEPT JOHNSTON'S INVITATION TO COMPLAIN TO HIM.
W.H.STEIWER, FOSSIL, ORE., PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL WOOL GROWERS ASSOCIATION, TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE MEANWHILE THAT PRICE CONTROLS BREED BLACK MARKETS. THE COMMITTEE IS CONSIDERING LEGISLATION TO EXTEND AND STRENGTHEN THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT, WHICH PROVIDES THE CONTROLS.
STEIWER ALSO SAID PRICE CONTROLS:

"CAUSE MAL-DISTRIBUTION OF MEAT; DISRUPT MEAT PRODUCTION; CREATE HEALTH HAZARDS THROUGH UNSANITARY PRACTICES AND LACK OF INSPECTION; CAUSE LOSS OF BY-PRODUCTS INCLUDING LIFE-SAVING MEDICINES; DIVERT MANPOWER TO AN IMPOSSIBLE ENFORCEMENT JOB; ENCOURAGE DISREGARD FOR LAW; AND ARE ONE MORE STEP TOWARD GOVERNMENT REGIMENTATION OF OUR ENTIRE ECONOMY."

STEIWER SAID SHEEP PRODUCTION WILL DECREASE "IF THE INDUSTRY IS AGAIN SUBJECTED TO A REPETITION OF THE ERRORS, CONFUSION AND STIFLING RESTRICTIONS OF GOVERNMENT CONTROLS OF THE 1940'S."

WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-REP. COOLEY (D-NC) SAID TODAY ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR GERMANY TO BUY $14,000,000 (M) WORTH OF AMERICAN TOBACCO DURING THE NEXT SEVEN MONTHS.

HE SAID THAT SPECIAL GOVERNMENT MISSION MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE PURCHASES AFTER CONSULTATIONS IN TERMANY.

COOLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE SAID THAT HALF OF THE $14,000,000 WOULD COME FROM ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) FUNDS AND THE REMAINDER WOULD BE FREE GERMAN DOLLARS. THE TOTAL WOULD BE IN ADDITION TO $5,000,000 ALREADY ALLOCATED BY ECA FOR AMERICAN TOBACCO THIS YEAR.

THE SPECIAL MISSION WAS SENT TO GERMANY AT THE REQUEST OF CONGRESSMEN AND SENATORS FROM TOBACCO PRODUCING AREAS. COOLEY SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT THE MISSION "HAS APPARENTLY ELIMINATED MISUNDERSTANDINGS WHICH HAD INTERFERED WITH AMERICAN TRADE IN TOBACCO IN GERMANY AND PAVED THE WAY FOR RESUMPTION OF NORMAL TOBACCO TRADE WITH THAT COUNTRY ON A COMPETITIVE BASIS."

KLINE

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 25-(AP)-PRESIDENT ALLAN B.KLINE OF THE AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION PROPOSED TODAY A "BOLD ATTACK" ON INFLATION WHICH HE SAID WOULD END ALL WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS.

SUCH CONTROLS ARE AN "ECONOMIC NARCOTIC" WHICH DOES NOT GET AT THE REAL CAUSE OF INFLATION, KLINE SAID IN A STATEMENT PREPARED FOR THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE. THE COMMITTEE IS CONSIDERING AN ADMINISTRATION PROPOSAL TO EXTEND THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT BEYOND JUNE 30. THE ACT COVERS ECONOMIC CONTROLS.

DECLARING THAT THE CHIEF CAUSE OF INFLATION IS "ALMOST ENTIRELY INFLATIONARY PSYCHOLOGY AND CHEAP MONEY POLICIES," OF THE GOVERNMENT, KLINE OFFERED AN INFLATION CONTROL PROGRAM AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS. IT CALLED FOR:

(1) INCREASED PRODUCTION; (2) ENDING ALL "NON-ESSENTIAL" GOVERNMENT SPENDING, INCLUDING THAT FOR AID TO AGRICULTURE; (3) EMPHASIS ON MEASU TO RESTRAIN CREDIT; (4) INCREASED PRIVATE SAVING; (5) SALE OF GOVERNMENT BONDS TO INDIVIDUAL AND NON-BANK INVESTORS, AND (6) HIGHER TAXES.

KLINE SAID THE UNITED STATES CAN OUT-PRODUCE THE RUSSIANS, BUT IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT WE CAN "OUT-CONTROL THEM."

"WE COULD LOSE OUR FREEDOM HERE AT HOME WITHOUT EVER GETTING INTO WAR," HE SAID. "WE COULD LOSE IT BY ADOPTING WRONG POLICIES--BY DESTROYING THE VALUE OF OUR MONEY WITH INFLATION AND BY STRANGLING THE MOST PRODUCTIVE ECONOMIC SYSTEM THE WORLD HAS EVER KNOWN WITH UNWORKABLE CONTROLS IN AN EFFORT TO CONCEAL INFLATION."

KLINE SAID PRICE AND WAGE CONTROLS CANNOT POSSIBLY PREVENT INFLATION BECAUSE THEY STRIKE AT THE SYMPTOMS OF THE PROBLEM AND NOT AT ITS REAL CAUSE. HE SAID SUCH CONTROLS WASTE MANPOWER IN ADMINISTRATION, INSPIRE BLACK MARKETS, CAUSE MAL-DISTRIBUTION OF GOODS IN SHORT SUPPLY, AND "PUT A PREMIUM ON DISHONESTY."

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 25-(AP)-DICK CONTINO, 21-YEAR-OLD ACCORDION ARTIST, WAS ORDERED TODAY TO ENTER A PLEA ON JUNE 1 TO A CHARGE THAT HE FAILED TO REPORT FOR INDUCTION INTO THE ARMY.

CONTINO WHO HAS MADE AS MUCH A $4,000 A WEEK WITH HIS ACCORDION, WAS ARRAIGNED BEFORE FEDERAL JUDGE EDWARD P.MURPHY. HIS BAIL WAS CONTINUED AT $5,000.

ONCE AGAIN, AND WITHOUT COMMENT, JUDGE MURPHY DENIED A MOTION BY THE MUSICIAN'S ATTORNEY, JAMES T.DAVIS, THAT CONTINO BE PERMITTED TO LEAVE THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT.

WHEN DAVIS ASKED THAT THE DATE FOR ENTERING A PLEA BE SET AHEAD TWO WEEKS, JUDGE MURPHY SAID SIMPLY "ONE WEEK."

NIGHT LEAD ASSEMBLY (380)
BY ROBERT M.FARRINGTON
ARDEN, N.Y., MAY 25-(AP)-THE FIRST AMERICAN ASSEMBLY WOUND UP FIVE DAYS OF CONFERENCES TODAY ON AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY AND EXPRESSED FAITH AND CONFIDENCE IN THE FUTURE.

A COMPREHENSIVE REPORT ON THE ASSEMBLY WILL BE ISSUED SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE. PRELIMINARY CONCLUSIONS WERE REPORTED IN VERY GENERAL TERMS ONLY.

THE PRELIMINARY REPORT LISTED EIGHT GENERAL CONCLUSIONS AND A NUMBER OF SPECIAL FINDINGS WHICH IN SUBSTANCE RECOMMENDED A FIRM AND CONTINUING STAND AGAINST SOVIET AGGRESSION.

SOME 80 DELEGATES FROM BUSINESS, LABOR, GOVERNMENT, COLLEGES, NEWSPAPER, RADIO AND MAGAZINE FIELDS GATHERED ON A MOUNTAIN TOP IN 96-ROOM ARDEN HOUSE FOR THE ASSEMBLY. THE ASSEMBLY'S EXPRESS PURPOSE IS TO HELP CLARIFY AMERICAN THINKING ON IMPORTANT ISSUES. ARDEN HOUSE WAS GIVEN TO COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY -- WHICH SPONSORS THE ASSEMBLY--BY W.AVERELL HARRIMAN AS A PERMANENT HOME FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

ACCORDING TO A REPORT READ BY PHILIP YOUNG, DEAN OF COLUMBIA'S GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE ASSEMBLY, THE DELEGATES REACHED THESE CONCLUSIONS:

1. THE THREAT FROM SOVIET IMPERIALISM IS GLOBAL AND CAN BEST BE MET BY BUILDING COOPERATION AMONG ALL LIKEMINDED PEOPLE.

2. AGGRESSION MUST BE STOPPED AND, ALTHOUGH A THIRD WORLD WAR MIGHT DESTROY CIVILIZATION, THE FEAR OF SUCH A WAR MUST NOT DETER THE U.S. FROM THE DEFENSE OF FREEDOM.

YOUNG SAID THERE WAS A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO THE "RELATIVE IMPORTANCE OF PARTICULAR AREAS" BUT ADDED THE DELEGATES AGREED THAT WESTERN EUROPE MUST BE PRESERVED FROM SOVIET DOMINATION.

AMONG THE CONCLUSIONS YOUNG READ WAS A WARNING THAT "EVERY AMERICAN AND EVERY OTHER FREE PERSON MUST STEEL HIMSELF TO REAL AND CONTINUING SACRIFICE TO SAVE HIS FREEDOM AT ALL COST."

ON THE SUBJECT OF AID FOR WESTERN EUROPE, YOUNG SAID THE DELEGATES AGREED THAT ARMAMENT AND ECONOMIC AID SHOULD BE CONTINUED BUT THAT GERMAN REARMAMENT "SHOULD BE APPROACHED WITH GREAT CAUTION AND IS LARGELY A MATTER OF TIMING."

YOUNG SAID THAT SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY -- HE DID NOT IDENTIFY THEM--THOUGHT THAT SEVERAL OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN POWERS SHOULD MAKE "A LARGER CONTRIBUTION TOWARD THE DEFENSE OF THE FREE WORLD THAN THEY ARE NOW MAKING."

YOUNG DID NOT EXPLAIN WHETHER THIS CONTRIBUTION WAS SUGGESTED FOR THE DEFENSE OF EUROPE OR FOR THE KOREAN WAR.

HE SAID ALSO THERE WAS A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO THE AMOUNT AND TIMING OF THE EUROPEAN AID AND THE CONDITIONS UPON WHICH SUCH AID SHOULD BE EXTENDED.

NEW YORK, MAY 25-(AP)-APPROXIMATELY 175,000 COLLEGE MEN FROM ALL OVER THE UNITED STATES WILL ENTER CLASSROOMS TOMORROW FOR TESTS THAT CAN DETERMINE WHETHER THEY'LL STAY IN COLLEGE OR BE DRAFTED FOR MILITARY SERVICE.

IT'S THE FIRST TEST OF ITS KIND IN THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES AND PROBABLY THE LARGEST MASS EXAMINATION EVER UNDERTAKEN. THE STUDENTS WILL BE SCRIBBLING ANSWERS AT MORE THAN 1,000 TEST CENTERS.

HERE'S THE SETUP:

DEFERMENTS HAVE BEEN GRANTED UNTIL AUG.20 FOR ABOUT 500,000 DRAFT-AGE COLLEGE STUDENTS IN ORDER FOR THEM TO TAKE THE TESTS TOMORROW, JUNE 16, JUNE 30 OR JULY 13. THEY HAD UNTIL [redacted] TONIGHT MIDNIGHT TO APPLY FOR THE TEST.

THEIR SCORES WILL BE SENT TO LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS WITHIN A MONTH AFTER THE EXAMINATIONS. THE MARKS WILL BE USED ALONG WITH COLLEGE GRADES IN HELPING THE DRAFT BOARD DETERMINE WHO SHOULD REMAIN IN COLLEGE AND WHO SHOULD ENTER THE ARMED SERVICES.

THE DECISIONIS AT THE DRAFT BOARD LEVEL, BUT THE SELECTIVE SERVICE HAS RECOMMENDED THAT SENIORS BE PERMITTED TO COMPLETE THEIR EDUCATION AND SENIORS WHO WANT TO GO ON TO GRADUATE SCHOOL SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER HALF OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE 75 IN THE TEST TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR DEFERMENT.

JUNIORS SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER THREE-FOURTHS OR SCORE 70; SOPHOMORES IN THE UPPER TWO-THIRDS OR SCORE 70; FRESHMEN SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER HALF OR SCORE 75.

STUDENTS WILL BE ASKED 150 QUESTIONS IN A THREE-HOUR SESSION. THE TEST IS DIVIDED INTO TWO SECTIONS; VERBAL AND MATHEMATICAL.

THE MOST EXPERIENCED BUNCH OF QUIZ MASTERS IN THE FIELD--THE EDUCATIONAL TESTING SERVICE IN PRINCETON, N.J.--HAS DRAWN UP THE QUESTIONS. ALL OF THE STAFF HAVE DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY DEGREES. THE SERVICE IS CONDUCTING THE EXAMS AND WILL GRADE THEM, USING THE LATEST ELECTRONIC CALCULATING MACHINES IN THE PROCESS.

THE ACTUAL QUESTIONS TO BE ASKED HAVE BEEN KEPT UNDER CLOSE WRAPS, BUT HERE ARE TYPICAL ONES THAT MIGHT BE FOUND IN EACH SECTION:

VERBAL--PRECISION OF WORDING IS NECESSARY IN GOOD WRITING; BY CHOOSING WORDS THAT EXACTLY CONVEY THE DESIRED MEANING ONE CAN AVOID (1) DUPLICITY (2) INCONGRUITY (3) COMPLEXITY (4) AMBIGUITY (5) IMPLICATIONS.

MATHEMATICS--IF ONE POUND OF ORANGES EQUALS 2 TO 4 ORANGES, WHAT IS THE LEAST POSSIBLE WEIGHT IN POUNDS OF THREE DOZEN ORANGES, 6, 9, 12, 16 OR 18?

DON'T PEEK, BUT THE ANSWER TO THE FIRST QUESTION IS (4). TO THE SECOND THE CORRECT REPLY IS 9.

DRAFT TESTS

PRINCETON, N.J., MAY 25-(AP)-A THREE-HOUR TEST TOMORROW MAY DETERMINE WHETHER 175,000 STUDENTS THROUGHOUT THE NATION WILL STAY IN COLLEGE OR SHOULDER A GUN.

DEFERMENTS UNTIL AUG. 20 HAVE BEEN AUTHORIZED FOR AN ESTIMATED 500,000 DRAFT-AGE COLLEGIANS TO PERMIT THEM TO TAKE THE EXAMINATION EITHER TOMORROW, JUNE 16, JUNE 30 OR JULY 12.

MIDNIGHT TONIGHT IS THE DEADLINE TO APPLY FOR THE TEST ON THE LAST THREE DATES.

THE TESTS WILL BE GIVEN IN MORE THAN 1,000 CENTERS ACROSS THE COUNTRY.

SCORES WILL BE SENT TO LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS WITHIN A MONTH AFTER THE EXAMS TO USE ALONG WITH COLLEGE GRADES IN DECIDING WHO WILL SERVE BEST IN THE CLASSROOM OR IN UNIFORM DURING THE PRESENT EMERGENCY.

STUDENTS WILL HAVE TO ASK THEIR LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS FOR THEIR MARKS.

THE EDUCATION TESTING SERVICE OF PRINCETON WILL ADMINISTER THE EXAMS FOR SELECTIVE SERVICE. A SPOKESMAN FOR THE ETS SAID THE TEST WAS DESIGNED SOLELY TO CHECK ON ABILITY TO TACKLE COLLEGE WORK. QUESTIONS WILL BE ON THE MULTIPLE CHOICE TYPE WITH THE STUDENT ASKED TO PICK THE BEST ANSWER TO A GIVEN PROBLEM.

ALTHOUGH SELECTIVE SERVICE HAS LEFT FINAL DECISIONS UP TO THE LOCAL BOARDS, IT HAS SUGGESTED THESE STANDARDS TO GUIDE THEM ON DEFERMENTS:

1. SENIORS SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO FINISH THEIR COLLEGE EDUCATION.
2. SENIORS WHO WISH TO GO TO GRADUATE SCHOOL SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER HALF OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE 75 IN THE TEST.
3. FRESHMEN SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER HALF OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE 70.
4. SOPHOMORES SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER TWO-THIRDS OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE 70.
5. JUNIORS SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER THREE-FOURTHS OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE 70.

BY A.I.GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 25-(AP)-UNOFFICIAL FIGURES INDICATE THAT MORE THAN 50,000 FIGHTING MEN OF 16 OTHER NATIONS ARE IN THE LINE WITH U.S. AND REPUBLIC OF KOREA FORCES AS THE KOREAN WAR ENTERS ITS 12TH MONTH TODAY.

THE FIGURES ARE INCOMPLETE HERE BECAUSE THE PENTAGON DECLINES TO RELEASE THEM ALL, A U.S. DELEGATION SPOKESMAN SAID.

BUT DELEGATION SOURCES IN THE U.N. AND PUBLISHED FIGURES COMBINE GIVE A PICTURE OF THE UNITED NATIONS TEAM THAT HAS JUST STAVED OFF ANOTHER COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE IN MID-KOREA. THE DEATH STAND OF THE BRITISH GLOUCESTERSHIRE REGIMENT IN BLUNTING THE NEWEST DRIVE CENTERED FRESH ATTENTION ON WHAT THE U.N. ALLIES WERE DOING.

THE BRITISH FORCE REMAINS THE LARGEST, OUTSIDE THE U.S. AND R.O.K. FORCES. U.S. GROUND FORCES ARE ESTIMATED AT MORE THAN 250,000 MEN. A KOREAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL LAST WEEK SAID THAT THE R.O.K. FORCES ALSO NUMBER ABOUT 250.000 MEN.

BESIDES FIGHTING COMMUNISTS IN MALAYA AND GARRISONING HONG KONG, THE BRITISH FIGURE TO HAVE 13,000 FIGHTING MEN IN THE LINE AND ANOTHER 10,000 TIED UP IN AIR AND NAVAL FORCES IN KOREA. TWO SQUADRONS OF SUNDERLANDS, PLUS TWO SCORE NAVY ATTACK PLANES FROM AN AIRCRAFT CARRIER, FURNISH THE BRITISH AIR STRIKING POWER THERE.

MAY 26 1951

A FRESH CANADIAN BRIGADE HAS JUST LANDED IN KOREA, BRINGING TO NEARLY 9,000 MEN CANADIAN GROUND FORCE STRENGTH. THE PRINCESS PAT REGIMENT OF 1,300, WHICH REACHED KOREA LAST DECEMBER, IS NOW INCLUDED IN THAT FIGURE.

IN ADDITION, CANADA HAS IN ACTION THREE DESTROYERS AND A ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE SQUADRON OF 12 THUNDERBIRD PLANES, WITH 1,000 MEN-PILOTS, CREWS, GROUND CREWS AND MAINTENANCE MEN STRUNG CLEAR BACK TO ALASKA. CANADIAN-PACIFIC AIRLINES MAKES TWO MILITARY TRIPS FROM VICTORIA TO TOKYO WEEKLY AND ONE FLIGHT WESTWARD. PRIVATE CARGO VESSELS ALSO HAVE BEEN SHUNTED INTO THE PACIFIC SERVICE TO POWER THE CANADIAN EFFORT.

NEW GROUND FORCE CONTRIBUTIONS WITHIN THE LAST MONTH HAVE COME FROM ETHIOPIA, WHICH SENT 1,070 WARRIORS; COLOMBIA, WHICH HAS EN ROUTE 400 INFANTRY OF A PROMISED 1,080, AND CUBA, WHOSE OFFER OF A COMPANY, ABOUT 200 MEN, HAS BEEN ACCEPTED.

A COLOMBIAN NAVAL FORCE OF 192 ARRIVED MAY 1 IN TOKYO, MANNING THE COLOMBIAN FRIGATE ALMIRANTE PADILLA. IT WAS THE FIRST SOUTH AMERICAN FIGHTING UNIT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE KOREAN WAR.

AUSTRALIA'S CONTRIBUTION IS CHIEFLY AIR AND NAVAL. MORE THAN 3,000 MEN ARE ENGAGED ON THE GROUND IN KOREA AND IN JAPAN SERVICING BRITISH COMMONWEALTH PLANES AND SHIPS.

A ROYAL AUSTRALIAN AIR FORCE SQUADRON OF 27 MUSTANG FIGHTERS IN KOREA IS BEING EQUIPPED WITH JETS. IN ADDITION EIGHT DAKOTAS ARE USED BY A COMMUNICATIONS UNIT. MEN REPLACEMENTS ARE CONSTANTLY BEING SENT IN.

BUT THE AUSTRALIANS ARE PROUD OF THE FACT THAT THEIR AIRCRAFT CARRIER SYDNEY, FLAGSHIP OF THE AUSTRALIAN FLEET AND PRIDE OF THE NAVY, WILL BE SHIFTED TO KOREAN WATERS IN OCTOBER IF THENEED IS STILL THERE.

"THE SYDNEY TO US IS LIKE YOUR BIG MO TO YOU," AN AUSTRALIAN SPOKESMAN SAID, "AND WE FEEL QUITE SET UP OVER THE FACT THAT SHE'S GOING TO MOVE IN ON THE FIGHT."

EXCEPT FOR REPLACEMENTS, THERE HAVE BEEN FEW OTHER SIZEABLE CHANGES IN THE FORCES IN THE LAST TWO MONTHS.

GOVERNMENTS ARE GATHERING CASUALTY FIGURES AS A RESULT OF THE LATEST RED OFFENSIVE AND THE U.N. SAYS IT MAY HAVE A REPORT ON THEM LATE THIS MONTH.

REPLACEMENTS HAVE BROUGHT TURKISH STRENGTH TO ABOUT 6,000, A SPOKESMAN SAID. BELGIUM HAS JUST SENT OUT 225 NEW REPLACEMENTS FOR ITS BATTALION, WHOSE LAST REPORTED STRENGTH WAS ABOUT 675, INCLUDING A FORCE OF 50 FROM LUXEMBOURG.

THE PHILIPPINES, FRANCE, GREECE, AND THE NETHERLANDS ALL HAVE MAINTAINED FORCES OF ABOUT BATTALION STRENGTH, RANGING FROM 900 TO 1,200.

SOUTH AFRICA'S FORCE OF 250 INCLUDES 100 FIGHTER PILOTS AND MAINTENANCE CREWS. NEW ZEALAND HAS KEPT UP ITS GROUND FORCE OF 500 AND HAS MORE REPLACEMENTS IN TRAINING. TWO NAVY FRIGATES ARE IN ACTION.

THAILAND HAS A TOKEN COMBAT TEAM IN THE FIELD FIGURED AT LITTLE MORE THAN 100 MEN. REPORTS TO THE DELEGATION HERE INDICATED THAT THE TEAM SUFFERED AT LEAST 10 DEAD AND A SCORE WOUNDED IN THEIR LAT ENGAGEMENT--BETTER THAN A 10 PER CENT CASUALTY RATE.

OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS INCLUDE GREECE'S EIGHT TRANSPORT DAKOTA PLANES, A NETHERLANDS DESTROYER, A PHILIPPINE TEAM OF 17 TANKS AND ONE TANK DESTROYER WHICH WENT INTO THE FIGHT EARLY LAST FALL, THAILAND NAVY CORVETTES IN ACTION, AND BELGIAN AIR TRANSPORT FACILITIES.

IN ADDITION, NORWAY FURNISHED MERCHANT SHIPS AND A FIELD HOSPITAL UNIT. DENMARK SENT A HOSPITAL SHIP, AND INDIA AND SWEDEN FIELD HOSPITAL UNITS.

MAY 26 1951

ALL OF THESE ARE DISTINCT FROM THE KOREA RECONSTRUCTION AND REHABILITATION PROGRAM INTO WHICH 28 NATIONS AND 17 U.N. NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS POURED IN FOOD, CLOTHING, MEDICAL SUPPLIES AND CASH FOR CIVILIAN RELIEF.

2ND NITE LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (400)
BY DON HUTH

TOKYO,SUNDAY,MAY 27-(AP)-MORE THAN 60,000 CHINESE REDS WERE "RUNNING LIKE HELL" INTO NORTH KOREA TODAY UNDER ALLIED ARTILLERY AND AIR BOMBARDMENT BUT 2,000 WERE TRAPPED SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

FLIGHT OF THE COMMUNISTS NEARED A PANIC AS ALLIED COLUMNS IN HOT PURSUIT PLUNGED ACROSS 38 AT SIX POINTS IN THE EAST, CENTRAL AND WEST-CENTRAL AREAS.

"THEY DON'T LIKE THE ENEMY BEHIND THEM ANY MORE THAN WE DO. SO THEY ARE RUNNING LIKE HELL," A FRONTLINE OFFICER SAID.

AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER SAID THE TRAPPED 2,000 MADE A DESPERATE, UNSUCCESSFUL THREE HOUR, PRE-DAWN FIGHT TO BREAK OUT OF THE TRAP NEAR CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

TWENTY-FIVE MILES NORTHEAST OF CHUNCHON A POWERFUL TANK-INFANTRY TASK FORCE TODAY EXPANDED ITS BRIDGEHEAD OVER THE 38TH PARALLEL.

BECKER QUOTED ALLIED CORPS OFFICERS AS EXPRESSING BELIEF THE CHINESE ABILITY TO MOUNT A NEW OFFENSIVE HAS BEEN CRUSHED "FOR AT LEAST THREE MONTHS."

ONE TOP RANKING CORPS STAFF OFFICER SAID "YESTERDAY WAS AN ARTILLERYMAN'S DREAM. XXX THERE WERE CHINAMEN EVERYWHERE THEY FIRED AND THEY SHOT UP EVERY SHELL THEY COULD GET THEIR HANDS ON."

EVERYWHERE ONRUSHING ALLIED TROOPS FOUND EVIDENCE OF PANIC. TRUCKLOADS OF RICE AND AMMUNITION WERE LEFT BEHIND. MANY OF THE REDS DISCARDED THEIR UNIFORMS AND APPARENTLY SOUGHT TO ESCAPE IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES.

MAY 27 1951

A111KX
AT EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS A BRIEFING OFFICER SAID AT LEAST 60,000 CHINESE REDS WERE RETREATING ON THE CENTRAL AND EAST CENTRAL FRONTS ALONE.

THE NEW EIGHTH ARMY STRATEGY OF QUICK PURSUIT AFTER STOPPING THE LATEST RED OFFENSIVE WAS PAYING OFF--IN A SLAUGHTER OF FLEEING REDS, IN A FATTENING BAG OF PRISONERS.

UNITED NATIONS TROOPS MET ONLY DELAYING ACTIONS AS THEY SWEPT FORWARD ON A LINE STRETCHING FROM THE YELLOW SEA IN THE WEST TO THE SEA OF JAPAN IN THE EAST.

NIGHT AND DAY POUNDING BY ALLIED ARTILLERY AND WARPLANES SEEMED TO HAVE TAKEN THE FIGHT OUT OF THE CHINESE. THEY WERE GIVING UP IN RECORD NUMBERS, FIELD DISPATCHES SAID.

CORRESPONDENT BECKER SAID THE U.N. COMMANDERS APPEARED TO BE MAKING A DARING BID FOR VICTORY.

AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THERE WERE AT LEAST THREE MAJOR MOVEMENTS OF WITHDRAWING CHINESE. ELEMENTS OF THREE CHINESE CORPS WERE RETREATING NORTHWEST FROM THE VICINITY OF THE CHOYANG RIVER TO HWACHON, 55 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

A112KX
TWENTY TO TH RTY THOUSAND CHINESE FLED NORTHEAST TOWARD INJE, FOUR MILES NORTH C THE 38TH ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT AND 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ANOTHER 5,000 TO 10,000 WERE MOVING NORTHWEST FROM THE HYON AREA TOWARD INJE. ALLIED TANK FORCES WERE REPORTED ALREADY IN INJE AHEAD OF THESE RETREATING REDS.

CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY SAID THAT FIFTH AIR FORCE FIGHTERS FOUND GOOD HUNTING IN THE INJE SECTOR. PILOTS SAID THEY KILLED AT LEAST 1,000 ENEMY IN THIS SECTOR ALONE. FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THE EASTERN SECTOR WAS CARPETED WITH ENEMY DEAD.

MURKY WEATHER HAMPERED THE AIR FORCE AND SLOWED MECHANIZED U.N. PURSUIT FORCES, KNOCKING THE REDS OUT OF THEIR LAST FOOTHOLDS IN SOUTH KOREA.

IN THE INJE AREA, 16 U.S. F-84 THUNDERJETS SURPRISED RETREATING REDS WHO HAD THOUGHT LOW-HANGING CLOUDS SHIELDED THEM.

BUT A RECONNAISSANCE PLANE HAD SPOTTED THEM. THE THUNDERJETS DIVED BELOW THE CLOUDS IN A MACHINEGUN STRAFING ATTACK SO DEADLY THAT 700 RED BODIES WERE COUNTED AFTERWARD.

"IT WAS LIKE HITTING A BEE HIVE WITH A ROCK," SAID THE FLIGHT LEADER, CAPT.EDWIN R.DISCHINGER, OF KERRVILLE, TEXAS.

FIFTY RED VEHICLES WERE WRECKED. SOME CAMELS, USED AS PACK ANIMALS, WERE KILLED.

WEST OF INJE, 500 RED TROOPS WERE ATTACKED BY F-51 MUSTANGS. PILOTS CLAIMED A KILL OF AT LEAST 250.

ALLIED CROSSINGS OF THE 38TH PARALLEL WERE REINFORCED IN EAST, CENTRAL AND WEST-CENTRAL KOREA.

IN THE WEST, AN ALLIED TASK FORCE CROSSED OVER DUE NORTH OF SEOUL SATURDAY BUT PULLED BACK AT NIGHTFALL. THE CROSSING WAS UP THE SEOUL-UIJONGBU HIGHWAY AT A POINT NORTH OF CHANGGO.

NEAR CHANGGO, THREE MILES SOUTH OF 38, THE ALLIES FOUND TWO BIG TRUCKS OF ABANDONED RICE.

ANOTHER ALLIED TASK FORCE CROSSED THE 38TH PARALLEL NEAR YONGPYONG, THEN PULLED BACK. IT IS A MILE INSIDE RED KOREA AND CLOSE TO THE HIGHWAY FORKING NORTHEAST FROM UIJONGBU UP TO KUMHWA.

NORTH OF UIJONGBU AN AMERICAN TANK DESTROYED A RED TANK.

TWO BIG TRUCKLOADS OF ABANDONED RED AMMUNITION WERE SEIZED IN WESTERN KOREA NEAR KORANGPO, A MILE SOUTH OF 38.

MAY 27 1951

OFF KOREA'S EAST COAST, THE 16-INCH GUNS OF THE 45,000-TON U.S. BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY SCORED HITS SATURDAY ON RED ROADS OF RETREAT 15 MILES INLAND. THREE DESTROYERS, THE THOMASON, BUCK AND ISBELL, JOINED THE NEW JERSEY IN SHELLING ROADS, RED TROOPS AND VEHICLES.

"WE'VE NEVER SEEN ANYTHING LIKE IT BEFORE," ONE AMAZED OFFICER TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER. "FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE KOREAN WAR THE CHINESE ARE MOVING IN THE DAYTIME. THE ROAD NORTH OF HWACHON WAS CROWDED WITH AN ESTIMATED 10,000 REDS TODAY. OTHER ROADS NORTH WERE EQUALLY JAMMED."

BUT THERE WAS A NOTE OF CAUTION. SOMEWHERE AHEAD OF THE CHARGING ALLIED TANKS AND INFANTRY LAY TWO CORPS OF FRESH CHINESE TROOPS, POSSIBLY 60,000 MEN.

NONE OF THESE HAS YET BEEN COMMITTED. OFFICERS SAID THEY WERE CAPABLE OF STRIKING BACK AT ANY TIME.

ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, BECKER SAID, AN ALLIED PATRO ENTERED INJE, FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL AND SOME 25 AIR MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST. INJE IS THE LARGEST VILLAGE WITHIN THE RAPIDLY EXPANDING ALLIED BRIDGEHEAD ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER.

THE ALLIES WERE OVER THE RED BORDER IN TWO PLACES IN THE INJE AREA. OTHER UNITS ENTERED RED KOREA IN FOUR OTHER PLACES -- ON THE EAST COAST, NORTH OF CHUNCHON IN CENTRAL KOREA, NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON NEAR CHANGGO, AND NORTHEAST OF UIJONGBU.

FRESH AMERICAN AND FRENCH TROOPS RELIEVED A TANK-INFANTRY TASK FORCE WHICH HAD FORGED THE INJE BRIDGEHEAD AND HELD IT SINCE THURSDAY.

ON THE RIGHT FLANK, SOUTH KOREAN UNITS DROVE UNOPPOSED INTO YANGYANG, SIX MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 ON THE EAST COAST.

ON THE LEFT FLANK, AMERICAN FORCES RACED UP THE MUDDY MAIN CENTRAL

KOREAN HIGHWAY NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON TO WITHIN SIX MILES OF HWACHON, FORMER RED BASTION EIGHT MILES ABOVE 38.

ON THE WEST-CENTRAL AND WESTERN FRONTS NORTH OF SEOUL ALLIED UNITS PROBED ACROSS THE PARALLEL BUT WITHDREW AT DUSK SATURDAY.

HE SAID FRONTLINE OFFICERS ATTRIBUTED THE HEADLONG RETREAT TO THE HEAVY RED CASUALTY RATE, SUPPLY DIFFICULTIES AND THE SWIFT COUNTER-OFFENSIVE OF THE ALLIED FORCES.

"AFTER THE PREVIOUS CHINESE OFFENSIVES WE HAVE FALLEN BACK AFTER HURTING THEM BADLY," ONE TOP OFFICER COMMENTED. "THEN WE'VE ALWAYS ALLOWED THEM TO STROLL BACK TO THEIR OWN LINE. THIS TIME WE ARE STRIKING OUT FAST AFTER THEM.

MAY 27 1951

THE COMMUNIST CASUALTY RATE IN THE FUTILE SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE, ESTIMATED AT MORE THAN 60,000 SEVERAL DAYS AGO, WAS MOUNTING STEADILY UNDER THE FURIOUS AERIAL AND ARTILLERY POUNDING.

"THERE ARE SO MANY DEAD ON THE HILLS THAT YOU HAVE TO BE CAREFUL NOT TO STEP ON THEM," ONE SOLDIER TOLD BECKER.

THE REDS' FIRST SPRING OFFENSIVE, LAUNCHED APRIL 22, WAS SMASHED WITH CASUALTIES ESTIMATED AT MORE THAN 75,000. THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON ESTIMATES COMMUNIST LOSSES SINCE THE JUNE 25 OUTBREAK OF THE WAR AT MORE THAN 900,000.

FIELD DISPATCHES REPORTED THAT MUDDY ROADS AND RAIN HAMPERED THE ALLIED ADVANCE MORE THAN THE REDS SATURDAY.

THE MURKY WEATHER REDUCED FIFTH AIR FORCE OPERATIONS TO 88 SORTIES. THOSE FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS CONCENTRATED ON THE LARGEST MASSES OF FLEEING REDS.

FAR-RANGING B-29 SUPERFORTS HAMMERED RED SUPPLY CENTERS AT YONGHUNG, 30 MILES NORTH OF WONSAN ON THE NORTHEAST COAST, KYOMIPO, 18 MILES SOUTH OF PYONGYANG IN THE WEST, AND PYONGYANG, RED CONCENTRATION POINT IN CENTRAL KOREA.

ALLIED ARTILLERY KNOCKED OUT A RUSSIAN-BUILT T-34 TANK AND A SELF-PROPELLED GUN SOUTH OF THE IMJIN RIVER. IT WAS THE FIRST COMMUNIST TANK REPORTED ON THE FRONTLINES IN WEEKS. HOWEVER, PILOTS HAVE REPORTED KNOCKING OUT A FEW FARTHER NORTH.

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO,MAY 26 (AP)-ALLIED TANK-INFANTRY COLUMNS SWARMED INTO RED KOREA ALL ALONG THE 125-MILE BATTLEFRONT TODAY IN HOT PURSUIT OF BEATEN AND FLEEING COMMUNISTS.

THEY WERE STEPPING UP HOURLY THE PACE OF THE ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE PROCLAIMED FRIDAY BY THEIR COMMANDER, LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET.

AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER SAID IT APPEARED THE ALLIED COMMANDERS "WERE STRIKING A DARING BLOW FOR VICTORY."

COMMUNISTS WERE SURRENDERING IN "UNPRECEDENTED" NUMBERS, BECKER REPORTED IN A FRONT DISPATCH.

RED TROOPS JAMMED THE ROADS TO THE NORTH IN PELL-MELL FLIGHT. THEY HAD ABANDONED THEIR TACTIC OF WAITING UNTIL NIGHTFALL TO MOVE. ALLIED PLANES HAMMERED AT THESE WIDE OPEN TARGETS.

"WE'VE NEVER SEEN ANYTHING LIKE IT BEFORE," A U.S.EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID. HE ADDED, "AMAZING."

THE ALLIES TOO HAD ABANDONED THEIR MANEUVER OF THE SLOW ADVANCE. THEY SLAMMED ACROSS THE BORDER INTO RED KOREA IN A HALF-DOZEN PLACES. ALLIED TROOPS WERE SHIFTING INTO HIGH GEAR IN THEIR NORTHWARD THRUST FROM THE YELLOW SEA TO THE SEA OF JAPAN.

COMMANDERS EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER 60,000 FRESH CHINESE TROOPS KNOWN TO BE CLOSE TO THE FRONT. BUT THEY APPEARED TO BE RELYING ON ALLIED HIGH MOBILITY TO MEET ANY POSSIBLE THRUST. ONE OFFICER SAID:

"ANY TIME YOU GO OUT FOR THE WHOLE POT YOU'VE GOT TO TAKE A CHANCE."

ALLIED TROOPS WERE ACROSS THE BORDER--FROM EAST TO WEST--AT YANGYANG, INJE, NEAR HWACHON AND NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON, AND NORTHEAST OF UIJONGBU.

IN THE EXTREME WEST, UNITED NATIONS FORCES WERE STRUNG ALONG THE BORDER AT SEVERAL POINTS.

THERE WERE SO MANY CHINESE DEAD ON SOME HILLS, ONE OFFICER SAID, "YOU HAVE TO BE CAREFUL NOT TO STEP ON THEM."

U.S. DOUGHBOYS RAMMED UP THE MAIN CENTRAL KOREAN HIGHWAY NORTHWEST OF CAPTURED CHUNCHON IN A POURING RAIN AND ROLLED ABOUT TWO MILES BEYOND THE 38TH PARALLEL.

RED OPPOSITION WAS LIGHT AS THE INFANTRY COLUMN STABBED WITHIN SIX MILES OF HWACHON, A FORMER KEY CHINESE BASTION EIGHT MILES NORTH OF THE PRE-WAR POLITICAL BOUNDARY.

MAY 27 1951

TO THE EAST, AMERICAN AND FRENCH TROOPS SMASHED THROUGH CHINESE SCREENING FORCES AND SWEPT UP THE HONGCHON-INJE ROAD. THE THRUST OPENED A DIRECT SUPPLY ROUTE TO THE ALLIED BRIDGEHEAD ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

THE LINK-UP WITH THE BRIDGEHEAD TIGHTENED THE TRAP ON SUICIDAL CHINESE FIGHTING REARGUARD ACTIONS TO KEEP OPEN A SIX-MILE ESCAPE ROUTE IN THE MOUNTAINS NEAR THE ROAD.

THE AMERICAN-FRENCH LINKUP COLUMN KNOCKED OUT RED RESISTANCE ALONG THE IMPORTANT HONGCHON-INJE ROAD. THE INFANTRYMEN CAPTURED SIX IMPORTANT HILLS COMMANDING THE ROUTE.

A U.S. TASK FORCE REACHED INJE AND SOUTH KOREAN FORCES TO THE EAST WERE REPORTED TO HAVE OCCUPIED YANGYANG, SIX MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL ON THE EAST COAST.

FAST-MOVING ALLIED UNITS KNIFED ACROSS THE PARALLEL AT SEVERAL POINTS ON THE EAST-CENTRAL AND EASTERN FRONTS SATURDAY. THEY ADVANCED AGAINST ALMOST NO OPPOSITION FROM CHINESE WHO, AN OFFICER SAID, SURRENDERED "IN NUMBERS."

U.S. MARINES TOOK "MANY" PRISONERS WHO REFUSED TO FIGHT.

NO ESTIMATE HAS BEEN MADE OF THE NUMBER OF CAPTURED CHINESE.

THE OFFICER SAID ALLIED FORCES "ARE TAKING MORE PRISONERS NOW THAN EVER BEFORE.

A TANK-INFANTRY UNIT CROSSED 38 NORTH OF CHANGGO ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT SATURDAY FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT DAY.

SOUTH KOREAN UNITS ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT ADVANCED NEARLY SIX MILES SATURDAY WITH ONLY LIGHT ENEMY CONTACT.

AERIAL SPOTTERS SIGHTED 3,000 COMMUNISTS RETREATING NORTHWEST INTO INJE ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AND SIGHTED GROUPS OF REDS FLEEING NORTHWEST OF HWACHON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

TWENTY-FOUR HOURS OF RAIN FAILED TO SLOW ALLIED TROOPS ON THE WESTERN FRONT. THEY MOVED THEIR MAIN LINE ALMOST TO 38 AND SENT A TANK PATROL BEYOND IT.

THE PATROL REPORTED IT HAD DESTROYED AN ENEMY TANK OR SELF-PROPELLED GUN JUST SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL.

IF IT SHOULD BE VERIFIED AS A TANK, THE ACTION WILL HAVE BEEN ONE OF THE EXTREMELY RARE TANK-TO-TANK CLASHES SINCE THE U N. KNOCKED OUT THE NORTH KOREAN ARMORED FORCE LAST FALL.

ALLIED FIGHTER BOMBERS MOUNTED 88 SORTIES IN RAIN AND GROUND-HUGGING CLOUDS SATURDAY AGAINST COMMUNIST TARGETS JUST NORTH OF THE FRONT. IT WAS THE LOWEST NUMBER OF FLIGHTS SINCE 48 FLOWN APRIL 22.

B-29S STRUCK SUPPLY CENTERS NEAR PYONGYANG, NORTH KOREAN CAPITAL.

CAPTURED CHINESE SAID SOME OF THEIR COMRADES HAD COMMITTED SUICIDE RATHER THAN FACE ANY MORE ALLIED FIRE POWER OR RISK BEING SHOT BY THEIR OWN OFFICERS FOR RETREATING.

A U.S. EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THE REDS WERE NOT FOLLOWING THEIR USUAL PATTERN OF WITHDRAWING IN SMALL GROUPS AND THEN REASSEMBLING.

HE SAID THERE WERE "ENEMY ON EVERY TRAIL AND ROAD NORTH" FROM THE CENTRAL FRONT.

"THEY JUST SEEM TO WANT TO GET THE HELL OUT," THE OFFICER SAID.

MAY 27 1951

REDS WHO POURED THROUGH A GAP IN UNITED NATIONS LINES AT THE START OF THE BROKEN OFFENSIVE HAD FLED NORTHWESTWARD.

THE RED SCREENING FORCES, WHO FOUGHT FIERCELY FRIDAY, FADED INTO THE HILLS SATURDAY, LEAVING MANY DEAD BEHIND.

NEARLY EVERY ADVANCING UNITED NATIONS UNIT SATURDAY REPORTED FINDING NUMEROUS CHINESE DEAD--VICTIMS OF THE POWERFUL ALLIED ARTILLERY AND AIR BARRAGES OF THE LAST FEW DAYS.

A GI DESCRIBED THE ALLIED ADVANCE:

"YOU JUST FIRE THE ARTILLERY AND MORTARS INTO THE HILLS AND THEN WALK UP THEM. THE CHINKS JUST TAKE OFF. AND THERE ARE SO MANY DEAD ON THE HILLS THAT YOU HAVE TO BE CAREFUL NOT TO STEP ON THEM."

TO THE WEST, ALLIED FORCES MADE TWO CROSSINGS OF THE 38TH PARALLEL SATURDAY.

AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID ONE TANK-INFANTRY FORCE MOVED THROUGH LIGHT RESISTANCE UP THE CHUNCHON-HWACHON ROAD ON THE CENTRAL FRONT AND TOOK POSITIONS NORTH OF THE BORDER.

ANOTHER FORCE DROVE ACROSS THE OLD BORDER NORTH OF CHANGGO ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT DAY.

THERE WAS NO LATE WORD WHETHER THE COLUMNS HAD STAYED ACROSS THE PARALLEL OR HAD PULLED BACK TO THE MAIN ALLIED LINE, RAMMING UP WITHIN A FEW MILES OF PARALLEL 38 ALL ACROSS THE FRONT.

IN THE WEST, SOUTH KOREAN UNITS CROSSED THE IMJIN RIVER SOME 25 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL. ON THEIR RIGHT FLANK, AMERICAN UNITS SEIZED HIGH GROUND NINE MILES NORTH OF UIJONGBU AND 20 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.

ALLIED UNITS HAD PROBED WITHIN ONE MILE OF THE RED BORDER FRIDAY, NEAR THE CONFLUENCE OF THE IMJIN AND HANTAN RIVERS ABOUT 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.

A12FX

AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY, AT U.S.EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, REPORTED THAT THE GENERAL SITUATION WAS ONE OF COMMUNIST FORCES FLEEING NORTHWARD.

THE U.S.FIFTH AIR FORCE CONTINUED WHAMMING AWAY AT THE REDS, WHOSE MAY 16 OFFENSIVE BUCKLED LAST WEEK END WITH LOSSES ESTIMATED AT MORE THAN 60,000. IT WAS THE REDS' SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE. THEIR FIRST, BEGUN APRIL 22, ALSO ENDED WITH STAGGERING LOSSES -- MORE THAN 75,000.

RAIN AND LOW CLOUDS HAMPERED AERIAL ASSAULTS ON THE REDS FRIDAY, BUT THE FIFTH AIR FORCE MANAGED 722 SORTIES -- NOT COUNTING THE HELP GIVEN BY CARRIER PLANES.

OTHER ALLIED NAVAL UNITS, INCLUDING THE U.S.BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY, CONTINUED THE INCESSANT POUNDING OF RED SUPPLY LINES ON THE NORTHEAST COAST.

CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, SUNDAY, MAY 27-(AP)-ALLIED CORPS OFFICERS SAID TODAY THEY BELIEVED THE CHINESE ABILITY TO MOUNT AN OFFENSIVE IN KOREA HAS BEEN CRUSHED "FOR AT LEAST THREE MONTHS."

"IT HAS BEEN A REAL SLAUGHTER," A TOP-RANKING CORPS STAFF OFFICER SAID. "YESTERDAY WAS AN ARTILLERYMAN'S DREAM. THEY FIRED AWAY AND THEN RAISED THEIR SIGHTS A LITTLE AND KEPT ON FIRING FOR EFFECT. THEN THEY TILTED THEM A LITTLE MORE AND LET THE CHINESE HAVE IT AGAIN. THERE WERE CHINAMEN EVERYWHERE THEY FIRED AND THEY SHOT UP EVERY SHELL THEY COULD GET THEIR HANDS ON."

"I NEVER SAW A MILITARY SITUATION CHANGE SO FAST," ANOTHER HIGH OFFICER SAID. "A WEEK AGO WE WERE ON THE DEFENSIVE AND TODAY THEY ARE RUNNING MADLY TO GET OUT. THEY ARE LOSING EQUIPMENT, GUNS, ARTILLERY, SUPPLIES AND EVERYTHING. I DON'T SEE HOW THEY COULD MOUNT ANOTHER OFFENSIVE FOR THREE MONTHS.

ATTACK (500)

BY JIM BECKER

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 26-(AP)-IT APPEARED TONIGHT THAT ALLIED COMMANDERS WERE STRIKING A DARING BLOW FOR VICTORY IN KOREA.

UNITED NATIONS TASK FORCES WERE STREAKING NORTH ACROSS PARALLEL 38 IN HOT PURSUIT OF BEATEN AND FLEEING CHINESE.

ALLIED DIVISIONS HAVE TOSSED ASIDE THE CAUTIOUS MANEUVER OF THE SLOW ADVANCE.

ARMORED SPEARHEADS WERE CHARGING UP ROADS AT THREE POINTS ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT ALONE. IN THE WEST, THE SITUATION WAS SIMILAR.

SOUTH KOREANS PLUNGED NORTHEAST TO YANGYANG, A COASTAL VILLAGE SIX MILES NORTH OF 38 ON THE EAST COAST. INLAND 25 MILES, AN AMERICAN TANK INFANTRY TASK FORCE ENTERED INJE, FOUR AND ONE-HALF MILES INSIDE RED KOREA.

NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON, OTHER UNITS MOVED ACROSS THE BORDER AGAINST ONLY OCCASIONAL TOKEN RESISTANCE.

THESE MIGHTY ARMORED JABS WERE HERDING LITERALLY THOUSANDS OF CHINESE NORTHWARDS. THEY WERE JAMMING THE ROADS TO THE NORTH IN UNPRECEDENTED NUMBERS.

A BRIEFING OFFICER SAID TONIGHT AIR SIGHTINGS WERE "AMAZING." HE SAID, "WE'VE NEVER SEEN ANYTHING LIKE IT BEFORE."

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE KOREAN WAR THE CHINESE WERE MOVING IN THE DAYTIME.

THE ROAD NORTH TO HWACHON WAS CROWDED WITH AN ESTIMATED 10,000 REDS.

OTHER ROADS NORTH WERE EQUALLY JAMMED.

FIGHTER PLANES ROARED DOWN AGAIN AND AGAIN BLASTING THE FLEEING REDS. "THERE WEREN'T ENOUGH PLANES TO GO AROUND," ONE AIR OFFICER

SAID. HE ADDED:
"BEFORE WE ALWAYS SIGHTED THE MEN IN GROUPS OF 1,000 SO AND HORSES AND TRUCKS IN GROUPS OF 100.
"VERY SELDOM ANY MORE THAN THAT. TODAY THERE WERE MANY, MANY MORE TIMES THAT AND WE WERE RIGHT AFTER THEM."
ALWAYS BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS HAVE WAITED UNTIL NIGHTFALL, WHENEVER ALLIED UNITS APPEARED TO BE TRAPPING THEM. THEN THEY "OUTFILTRATED," AS SOME FRONTLINE OBSERVERS CALL IT.
IN ADDITION TO THE INCREDIBLE NUMBER OF CHINESE CLOGGING THE ROADS, OTHERS WERE GIVING UP IN RECORD NUMBERS.
ONE ALLIED UNIT TODAY FOUGHT AN ENGAGEMENT WITH 75 CHINESE AND CAPTURED 50 OF THEM.
THE UNPRECEDENTED CHINESE WITHDRAWAL IS EXPLAINED BY FRONTLINE OBSERVERS:
1--THE HEAVY CHINESE CASUALTY RATE. THE REDS TOOK TREMENDOUS LOSSES IN THEIR SPRING OFFENSIVE EFFORT, 90,000 OR MORE.
2--SUPPLY DIFFICULTIES. EVIDENTLY THE ALMOST YEAR-LONG POUNDING OF COMMUNIST SUPPLY LINES WAS PAYING OFF. COMMUNIST TROOPS CARRIED LESS AMMUNITION INTO THE RECENT BATTLE THAN EVER BEFORE. THEIR FOOD STOCKS WERE VERY LOW.
3--THE SWITCH IN ALLIED ATACTICS. A TOP OFFICER SAID, "AFTER ALL THE PREVIOUS CHINESE OFFENSIVES WE HAVE FALLEN BACK AFTER HURTING THEM BADLY. THEN WE'VE ALWAYS ALLOWED THEM TO STROLL BACK TO THEIR OWN LINE. THIS TIME WE ARE STRIKING OUT FAST AFTER THEM. AND THEY HAVE REACTED LIKE ANY MILITARY FORCE. THEY DON'T LIKE THE ENEMY BEHIND THEM ANY MORE THAN WE DO. SO THEY ARE RUNNING LIKE HELL."

A137FX
THERE IS GENERAL FRONTLINE APPROVAL OF THE DARING GAMBLE THE EIGHTH ARMY IS TAKING.
"WE'VE GOT TO GET THIS WAR OVER SOME WAY," WAS ECHOED ALL ALONG THE FRONT.

HOWEVER, LURKING IN THE BACKGROUND WAS ONE UNKOWN FACTOR--TWO CHINESE CORPS--PROBABLY 60,000 MEN--WHICH HAVE NOT BEEN COMMITTED TO BATTLE WERE KNOWN TO BE IN THE GENERAL AREA.
BUT ALLIED COMMANDERS UNDOUBTEDLY WERE RELYING ON THEIR MOBILITY TO MEET THIS THRUST, IF IT COMES. ONE OFFICER PUT IT THIS WAY:
"AND ANY TIME YOU GO OUT FOR THE WHOLE POT YOU'VE GOT TO TAKE A CHANCE."

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 11 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TODAY, SATURDAY, MAY 26)

(ADVANCE) UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY THAT HIS FORCES USED LOUDSPEAKER BROADCASTS AND LEAFLETS TO WARN COMMUNIST FOES IN KOREA THAT THEY FACED CERTAIN DEATH BEFORE THEY BEGAN THEIR OFFENSIVE IN APRIL.

RIDGWAY'S REPORT AS COMMANDER OF UNITED NATIONS FORCES, COVERING KOREA OPERATIONS FROM APRIL 16 TO APRIL 30, WAS TRANSMITTED TO SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE BY THE U.S. DELEGATION TODAY. SINCE THEN, THE U.N. ARMY HAS TURNED THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN COMMUNISTS BACK ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL AFTER INFLICTING TENS OF THOUSANDS OF CASUALTIES.

THE RIDGWAY REPORT SAID THAT THE ENEMY HAD EXPANDED HIS EFFECTIVE FORCES IN KOREA TO MORE THAN 70 DIVISIONS FOR THE OFFENSIVE WHICH BEGAN THE NIGHT OF APRIL 22.

AWARE OF THE BUILDUP, RIDGWAY REPORTED "BEGINNING IN MID-APRIL LARGE QUANTITIES OF U.N. LEAFLETS WERE AIR-DROPPED OVER ENEMY TROOPS IN FRONT-LINE POSITIONS AND IN STAGING AREAS TO THE REAR. THE LEAFLETS WARNED THAT THEIR COMMUNIST LEADERS WERE PLANNING ANOTHER MASSIVE ATTACK IN WHICH THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS OF THEM WOULD BE SACRIFICED WITHOUT PURPOSE EXCEPT TO FURTHER THE CAUSE OF AGGRESSION.

"WHEN THIS ATTACK WAS LAUNCHED LATE IN APRIL, LEAFLETS AND LOUDSPEAKER BROADCASTS WERE USED TO TELL ENEMY SOLDIERS OF THE EXORBITANT PRICE IN LIVES WHICH THEIR OFFICES, ALL ALONG THE LINE, WERE EXPENDING FOR EVERY MILE OF TERRITORY, AND TO SHOW THE ENEMY THAT THE ALTERNATIVE TO THIS CERTAIN DEATH WAS SURRENDER AND HUMANE TREATMENT BY THE U.N. FORCES.

"MORE THAN 355,000,000 (M) LEAFLETS HAVE NOW BEEN DISSEMINATED IN KOREA. RADIO BROADCASTS, IN CONJUNCTION WITH LEAFLETS, HAVE KEPT THE KOREAN PEOPLE INFORMED ON THE RENEWED COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE TO KOREA IN TRMS OF ADDED DESTRUCTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY."

RIDGWAY ALSO REPORTED THAT MORE THAN 90,000 PRISONERS OF WAR NOW RE INTERNED IN A NEW PRISON CAMP ON KOJE-DO ISLAND, SOUTH OF PUSAN.

HIS REPORT SAID ALSO THAT ENEMY GUERRILLA FORCES NOW NUMBER ABOUT 12,000 AND ARE ON THE DEFENSIVE BUT THAT GROUPS UP TO BATTALION SIZE--ABOUT 1,000--HAVE BEEN IN CLASHES IN SOUTH-CENTRAL KOREA.

SAN FRANCISCO,MAY 26 (AP)-THE HEAVY CRUISER ST.PAUL ARRIVED HERE TODAY AFTER SIX MONTHS OF PROVIDING ALMOST CONTINUOUS FIRE SUPPORT FOR UNITED NATIONS TROOPS ALONG THE SHORE OF KOREA.

THE 13,500-TON SHIP FIRED 27,616 ROUNDS OF EIGHT AND FIVE INCH SHELLS AT COMMUNIST TARGETS WHILE RANGING UP AND DOWN BOTH KOREAN COASTS. HER HEAVY GUNS COVERED THE SECOND RECAPTURE OF INCHON AND THE EVACUATIONS OF HUNGNAM AND WONSAN.

THE ST.PAUL CUT SHORT A NAVAL ROTC MIDSHIPMEN'S CRUISE TO REPORT FOR DUTY SHORTLY AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR. ENTERING KOREAN WATERS LAST NOVEMBER, SHE THEREAFTER WENT INTO ACTION SUPPORTING THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA CAPITAL DIVISION. AT TIMES HER BIG GUNS RANGED UP TO 14 MILES INLAND, SMASHING COMMUNIST TROOP CONCENTRATIONS, SUPPLY CENTERS AND COMMUNICATION LINES.

UNDER THE COMMAND OF CAPT.CHESTER C.SMITH, OF BOISE, IDAHO, SHE WAS FLAGSHIP FOR REAR ADM.ROSCOE H.HILLENKOETTER, COMMANDER OF U.S. CRUISER DIVISION ONE, DURING MOST OF HER FAR EASTERN SERVICE.

BONN, GERMANY, MAY 26-(AP)-THE LEGAL FIGHT OF SEVEN CONDEMNED NAZI WAR CRIMINALS TO ESCAPE THE GALLOWS IS BEING PAID FOR BY AN AGENCY OF THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE MINISTRY OF JUSTICE DISCLOSED TODAY.

THE AGENCY IS KNOWN AS THE "LAW PROTECTIVE OFFICE." IT WAS ESTABLISHED BY THE BONN GOVERNMENT AND GIVEN A BUDGET FOR THE PURPOSE OF DEFENDING ALL GERMANS UNDER TRIAL BY FOREIGN COURTS WHO ARE WITHOUT PERSONAL MEANS.

THE MINISTRY DECLINED TO CONFIRM REPORTS THAT $12,000 HAS ALREADY BEEN SPENT BY THE GOVERNMENT OFFICE SO FAR IN TRYING TO SAVE THE SEVEN.

THESE FOREIGN EXCHANGE FUNDS ARE REPORTED TO HAVE GONE TO THE AMERICAN ATTORNEY, WARREN MAGEE, WHO ON THURSDAY OBTAINED A FIVE-DAY STAY OF EXECUTION FOR THE CONDEMNED MEN FROM A U.S. DISTRICT COURT IN WASHINGTON. THIS REPRIEVE CAME ONLY A FEW HOURS BEFORE THE SEVEN WERE SCHEDULED TO MARCH TO THE GALLOWS IN THE U.S. WAR CRIMES PRISON AT LANDSBERG. THE U.S. SUPREME COURT HAD REJECTED THEIR APPEALS AND OTHER CLEMENCY PLEAS HAD FAILED.

HEIDELBERG, GERMANY, MAY 26-(AP)-BENJAMIN J. BUTTENWIESER, U.S. ASSISTANT HIGH COMMISSIONER, DECLARED TODAY THAT THE NEW NAZI MOVEMENT IN WESTERN GERMANY "IS A WARNING WHICH WE WOULD IGNORE AT OUR PERIL."

THE NEO-NAZI SOCIALIST EMPIRE PARTY, WHICH POLLED 11 PER CENT OF THE VOTES IN A STATE ELECTION EARLY THIS MONTH, "CANNOT FAIL TO CAUSE SERIOUS MISGIVINGS BOTH IN GERMANY AND THROUGHOUT THE WORLD," BUTTENWIESER SAID.

IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF GERMAN-AMERICAN CLUBS, BUTTENWIESER CALLED THE EMERGENCE OF THIS NAZI GROUP AN "OMINOUS AND ALARMING SPECTACLE."

HE SAID THE SOCIALIST EMPIRE PARTY "OPENLY AND BRAZENLY ENDORSES CERTAIN PARTS OF THE NAZI PROGRAM AND NUMBERS AMONG ITS LEADERS SOME OF THE VERY LEADERS OF THAT INFAMOUS GANG WHICH BROUGHT SUCH UNTOLD SUFFERING AND RUIN TO GERMANY AND EUROPE."

BY RICHARD K.O'MALLEY

(ADVANCE) FRANKFURT, GERMANY,MAY 26-(AP)-HANS SCHMIDT HAS LIVED THROUGH TWO GREAT WARS, SO AERIAL BOMB DEFENSE IS A TANGIBLE AND IMPORTANT THING TO HIM.

HE TALKS FREQUENTLY OF AMERICAN DEFENSESHRNFULLY HOLDS UP A CLIPPING | UP MOBILE FIRE EXTINGUISHERS TO BE MOVED

HE TALKS FREQUENTLY OF AMERICAN DEFENSES AGAINST BOMBING, AND SCORNFULLY HOLDS UP A CLIPPING SAYING AN AMERICAN SKYSCRAPER SET UP MOBILE FIRE EXTINGUISHERS TO BE MOVED FROM FLOUR TO FLOOR BY ELEVATOR IN CASE OF AN AERIAL BLITZ.

"DON'T THEY KNOW," SCHMIDT ASKED, "THAT THE FIRST THING TO GO IN A BOMB RAID IS ELECTRICAL POWER? WHERE WOULD THE ELEVATORS BE THEN, WITH THEIR FIRE EXTINGUISHERS?"

HIS FACE WAS SEAMED IN EARNESTNESS.

"THE BEST THING AMERICA CAN DO," HE SAID, "IS TO HAVE A LOT OF HAND-OPERATED FIRE EXTINGUISHERS WHICH CAN BE HAULED EASILY BY ONE OR TWO MEN. I KNOW."

SCHMIDT ISN'T A CRANK ABOUT AERIAL DEFENSE, BUT HIS THOUGHTS HAVE BEEN FORCIBLY GUIDED ALONG THE CHANNELS OF WAR.

WHEN HE WAS A YOUNG MAN HIS PARENTS DIED, LEAVING HIM A CONSIDERABLE INHERITANCE. SCHMIDT FACED THE WORLD WITH A SOUND FUTURE. THEN CAME

WORLD WAR I AND HE WENT INTO THE ARMY. AT THE WAR'S END HE WAS BROKE. THE FAMILY HOME REMAINED, HOWEVER, AND AT LEAST HE HAD A ROOF OVER HIS HEAD.

SLOWLY, PAINFULLY, HE TRIED TO BRE-BUILD HIS LIFE. HE EVENTUALLY ADVANCED TO A SUPERVISORY POSITION IN AN OFFICE JOB. THE FUTURE, BLEAK IN 1919, BRIGHTENED UP, ALTHOUGH HIS STEP WAS NOT SO SPRINGY AS IT HAD BEEN AND IT WAS HARDER TO BE ENTHUSIASTIC. HE MARRIED, AND FATHERED TWO CHILDREN.

THEN CAME ADOLF HITLER. SCHMIDT KEPT HIS MOUTH SHUT AND DID HIS JOB. HE WAS TOO OLD FOR MILITARY DUTY BUT HE WAS BUSY IN THE BERLIN BLITZES.

FIRST HIS HOME WAS BURNED BY FIRE BOMBS. THEN THE BUILDING WHERE HE WORKED WAS DESTROYED. BUT HE MANAGED TO SEND HIS FAMILY OUT OF TOWN AND HE STAYED ON.

WHEN THE WAR ENDED HE WAS BACK WHERE HE HAD BEEN IN 1919.

NOW, WELL INTO HIS SIXTIES, HE'S STARTING OVER AGAIN.

THIS TIME HE HASN'T ANY ILLUSIONS.

"I AM DOING WHAT I HAVE TO DO," HE SAID. "I AM MAKING THE BEST OF IT. I DON'T PLAN ANY MORE. I JUST HOPE."

HE WORRIES OVER WHAT WILL BECOME OF HIS CHILDREN.

"I TRY TO TELL THEM TO LIVE AS THOUGH WE DIDN'T HAVE A SWORD HANGING OVER US. I KEEP MY MIND ON THE EVERYDAY THINGS. AFTER ALL, THEY ARE THE THINGS WHICH COUNT. NOBODY CAN MANAGE TOMORROW BEFORE IT COMES."

NIGHT LEAD ELECTION (330)

ROME, MAY 26-(AP)-LOCAL ELECTIONS THROUGHOUT A THIRD OF THE NATION SUNDAY WILL PROVIDE ITALY'S BIGGEST POLITICAL TEST SINCE PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS BEAT THE COMMUNIST LED POPULAR FRONT IN THE PARLIAMENTARY RACE OF 1948.

THE PREMIER AND PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, MOSCOW-TRAINED CHIEF OF THE ITALIAN COMMUNIST PARTY, CLOSED THEIR BITTER CAMPAIGNS FRIDAY. ITALY'S COMMUNIST PARTY, CLAIMING 2,500,000 MEMBERS, IS THE LARGEST OUTSIDE SOVIET RUSSIA. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS DOMINATE THE GOVERNMENT.

ELECTIONEERING IS FORBIDDEN BY LAW IN THE 48-HOUR PERIOD BEFORE THE OPENING OF THE POLLS. THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER L'UNITA, REFERRING TO RELIGIOUS ASPECTS OF THE CAMPAIGN, CHARGED THAT FINAL ELECTION MEETINGS WILL BE HELD IN ITALIAN CHURCHES SUNDAY MORNING.

THE POLLS OPEN AT 6 A.M. IN 2,735 CITIES AND TOWNS IN 28 PROVINCES FOR MUNICIPAL AND PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS. THE PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS WILL BE THE FIRST SINCE 1921. THEY WERE ELIMINATED BY THE FASCISTS.

THE VOTING WILL CARRY OVER UNTIL 2 P.M. MONDAY.

ABOUT 10,000,000 PERSONS ARE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE.

ANOTHER 7,600,000 WILL GO TO THE POLLS IN 1,935 CITIES AND TOWNS JUNE 10. THE REMAINDER OF ITALY'S 7,804 COMMUNITIES WILL MAKE THEIR CHOICES IN THE FALL.

POLITICAL PRIZES IN THE SUNDAY-MORNING BALLOTING INCLUDE CONTROL OF FOUR MAJOR CITIES, VENICE, GENOA, BOLOGNA AND MILAN. ALL EXCEPT MILAN NOW HAVE COMMUNIST ADMINISTRATIONS. ALMOST HALF THE CITIES AND TOWNS INVOLVED ARE RUN BY COMMUNISTS OR SOCIALISTS ALLIED WITH THEM.

THE GIST OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGNING HAS BEEN THAT CONTROL OF THESE COMMUNITIES "SHOULD BE RETURNED TO THE ITALIANS." DE GASPERI SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAD SOLD OUT TO A FOREIGN POWER.

TOGLIATTI ATTACKED ITALY'S MEMBERSHIP IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE. HE CHARGED THE GOVERNMENT IS TURNING OVER THE ITALIAN ARMY TO FOREIGN HANDS.

THE VATICAN NEWSPAPER L'OSSERVATORE ROMANO SAID THAT "ALL COMPREHEND THE SIGNIFICANCE" OF THE ELECTIONS.

"WHEN POLITICS TOUCH THE ALTAR, IT BECOMES A RELIGIOUS FACT THAT REGARDS CATHOLICS AND THE CHURCH," IT SAID.

BISHOPS OF LIGURIA WARNED THAT CATHOLICS VOTING FOR COMMUNISTS WOULD BE EXCLUDED FROM THE SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH.

ROME, MAY 26-(AP)-ITALY'S ARCH POLITICAL FOES--THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT GOVERNMENT PARTY AND THE COMMUNISTS--WILL HAVE THEIR FIRST BIG SHOWDOWN IN THREE YEARS TOMORROW. THE TEST WILL BE LOCAL ELECTIONS THROUGHOUT A THIRD OF THE NATION.

FOLLOWING THE BITTEREST CAMPAIGN SINCE 1948, SOME 10,000,000 (M) VOTERS ARE EXPECTED TO TURN OUT TO PICK COUNCILS IN 2,743 TOWNS AND 28 PROVINCES.

AT STAKE IS CONTROL OF THE "GOTHIC LINE"--STRONG DEFENSE BELT ACROSS NORTHERN ITALY WHERE THE COMMUNISTS NOW CONTROL MOST OF THE CITY AND PROVINCIAL ADMINISTRATIONS.

THE ELECTIONS WILL DETERMINE THE MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENTS IN THE MAJOR CITIES OF MILAN, GENOA, VENICE, BOLOGNA AND FLORENCE.

OF THE 2,743 TOWN COUNCILS UP FOR ELECTION TOMORROW, THE COMMUNISTS NOW CONTROL 1,170--WITH A TOTAL POPULATION OF ALMOST 7,000,000 (M).

ALMOST EVERY MEMBER OF PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI'S "ATLANTIC PACT" GOVERNMENT SPOKE DURING LAST NIGHT'S CAMPAIGN WINDUP. UNDER ITALIAN LAW THERE CAN BE NO STUMPING TODAY.

THE FINAL BROADSIDE AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS WAS TOUCHED OFF BY DE GASPERI. SPEAKING IN MILAN'S DUOMO SQUARE, HE DECLARED HIS GOVERNMENT FOUND IT IMPOSSIBLE TO COLLABORATE WITH THE REDS, WHOM HE ACCUSED OF SELLING OUT THEIR PATRIOTISM FOR A FOREIGN POWER.

IN HIS LAST CAMPAIGN SPEECH, COMMUNIST SECRETARY GENERAL PALMIRO TOGLIATTI CHARGED DE GASPERI'S GOVERNMENT WITH VIOLATING ITALY'S CONSTITUTION AND HOLDING "A MONOPOLY OF POLITICAL LIFE" IN THE COUNTRY.

THE VOTING WILL RUN ALL DAY SUNDAY AND PART OF MONDAY. COUNTING IS EXPECTED TO START MONDAY AFTERNOON.

ROME, MAY 26-(AP)-HINTS THAT RUSSIAN-ITALIAN NEGOTIATIONS ON WAR REPARATIONS ASSESSED AGAINST THE ROME GOVERNMENT THREATEN TO BREAKDOWN APPEARED IN THE ITALIAN PRESS TODAY.

A STATEMENT FROM "COMPETENT SOURCES" CARRIED BY THE ITALIAN NEWS AGENCY ANSA SAID THAT WIDE DIFFERENCES SEPARATED THE TWO GOVERNMENTS OF THE VALUE OF ITALIAN ASSETS IN ROMANIA BULGARIA AND HUNGARY, AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE REPARATIONS UNDER THE TREATY.

UNDER AN ACCORD SIGNED IN MOSCOW IN DECEMBER, 1948, ITALY AGREED TO A REPARATIONS PAYMENT OF $100,000,000 (M) TO RUSSIA. PAYMENT WAS TO BE IN ITALIAN ASSETS IN THE THREE SATELLITE COUNTRIES AND IN INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS.

ANSA SAID ITALY CONTENDS THAT THE ROMANIAN-BULGARIAN-HUNGARIAN ASSETS ARE WORTH MORE THAN THE $100,000,000 (M) TOTAL WHILE RUSSIA CONTENDS THEIR VALUE IS FROM $11,000,000 TO $15,000,000.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, MAY 26-(AP)-FRAGMENTARY REPORTS FROM ROMANIA TONIGHT INDICATED YUGOSLAVIA IS MAKING LITTLE HEADWAY BUCKING RUSSIA'S CONTROL OVER THE RED DANUBE, A MURKY STREAM ONCE CALLED BLUE.

YUGOSLAV DELEGATES ARE ATTENDING A MEETING IN GALATZ OF THE INTERNATIONAL DANUBE COMMISSION TO CONSIDER A DRAFT OF NEW SHIPPING REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE WHOLE LENGTH OF THE LOWER RIVER FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA TO THE BLACK SEA.

SINCE 1948, THE COMMISSION HAS BEEN LITTLE BUT A RUSSIAN-RUN ORGANIZATION TO EXTEND MOSCOW'S CONTROL OVER THE RIVER. A 214-MILE STRETCH RUNS THROUGH YUGOSLAVIA, WHICH BROKE AWAY FROM THE SOVIET CONCEPT OF COMMUNISM IN FAVOR OF A NATIONALISTIC BRAND IN 1948.

THE YUGOSLAVS ARE DEMANDING MORE RIGHTS IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE COMMISSION AND MORE VOICE IN NAVIGATIONAL RULES, BUT ARE BEING CONSISTENTLY OUTVOTED BY THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR COMINFORM ALLIES FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA, HUNGARY, ROMANIA AND BULGARIA.

YUGOSLAV PRESS DISPATCHES INDICATE PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S REPRESENTATIVES ARE SEEKING-- IF NOTHING MORE-- TO DRIVE A WEDGE BETWEEN RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES.

ACTIONS OF THE COMMISSION'S SECRETARY, A RUSSIAN NAMED M. MOROZOW, HAVE BEEN DESCRIBED AS "ILLEGAL" BY THE YUGOSLAV NEWS AGENCY TANJUG IN ACCOUNTS FROM GALATZ. TANJUG CHARGED THAT MOROZOW WAS LEADING ALL THE ATTACKS AGAINST YUGOSLAVIA AND THAT HIS ACTIONS THREATENED THE LIFE OF ALL LANDS ON THE DANUBE'S BANKS.

MOSCOW, MAY 26-(AP)-PRAVDA, RUSSIAN COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER, TODAY CALLED THE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF REQUIRING EXPORTERS TO OBTAIN LICENSES "THE PETTY POLICY OF A GREAT POWER." IT APPEALED FOR GREATER TRADE BETWEEN THE U.S.S.R. AND THE UNITED STATES.

THE PRAVDA ARTICLE CONTENDED THAT THE AUTHORS OF THE AMERICAN SYSTEM HAD TRIED "TO SHOW THAT, ALLEGEDLY, TRADE RELATIONS BETWEEN STATES OF DIFFERENT POLITICAL SYSTEMS IS IMPOSSIBLE." IT CONTINUED:

"BUT THESE EFFORTS ARE SENSELESS AND STUPID BECAUSE LIFE IS STRONGER, AND TRADE TIES OF THE COUNTRIES OF THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACY IS GROWING AND EXPANDING."

PRAVDA ASSERTED THAT THERE ARE MANY AMERICAN CAPITALISTS WHO WOULD LIKE TO TRADE WITH ALL EUROPEAN NATIONS; OTHERWISE EXPORT LICENSING WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY.

"THE FOREIGN TRADE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES HITS THE AMERICAN POCKETBOOK HARDEST," THE PAPER SAID. "THERE IS TRADE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA, OF COURSE, BUT IT IS NOTHING LIKE IT ONCE WAS AND NOTHING LIKE IT COULD BE, FOR THE UNITED STATES HAS MANY THINGS RUSSIA WOULD LIKE, AND RUSSIA HAS MANY THINGS THE AMERICAN MARKET WOULD RELISH.

AMS BUDGET (700)
NIGHT LEAD IRAN (SUB BUDGETED LONDON)
BY NEL SLIS

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, MAY 26-(AP)-BRITAIN AND THE BILLION DOLLAR ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY ASKED THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TODAY TO FORCE IRAN TO SUBMIT TO ARBITRATION IN THE PEACE-THREATENING DISPUTE OVER NATIONALIZATION OF OIL.

U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY HANDED TO THE IRANIAN FOREIGN MINISTER IN TEHRAN A NOTE DECLARING THE DISPUTE WAS OF THE UTMOST IMPORANCE TO THE "ENTIRE FREE WORLD" AND STRONGLY URGING A SETTLEMENT BY NEGOTIATION.

THE UNITED STATES PLAINLY WAS WORRIED THAT THE SITUATION MIGHT LEAD TO THE INTERVENTION OF TROOPS FROM BOTH BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

DISPATCHES FROM TEHRAN TOLD OF UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT SOME OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL BLOC AT LAST WERE WILLING TO SIT DOWN WITH THE BRITISH FOR TALKS.

IT REMAINED TO BE SEEN, HOWEVER, HOW MOSSADEGH AND HIS FIERY FOLLOWERS WOULD REACT TO THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS.

THESE INCLUDED NOT ONLY BRITAIN'S APPEAL TO THE HAGUE AND THE UNITED STATES' URGING OF NEGOTIATIONS, BUT ALSO THE ANNOUNCEMENT FRIDAY THAT 4,000 BRITISH PARACHUTE TROOPS ARE BEING DISPATCHED TO CYPRUS IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN--WITHIN 1,000 MILES OF THE ABADAN REFINERY IN IRAN.

THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY (AIOC) ASKED THE PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TO APPOINT AN ARBITRATOR TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE.

THE APPLICATION INVOKED ARTICLE 22 OF THE 1933 AGREEMENT BY WHICH IRAN GAVE THE COMPANY THE RIGHT TO EXPLOIT OIL RESOURCES IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF THE COUNTRY FOR 60 YEARS. THE ARTICLE PROVIDES THAT DIFFERENCES SHALL BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION AND, IN THE EVENT OF THE TWO PARTIES ARE UNABLE TO AGREE ON A CHOICE OF ARBITRATORS, A THIRD OR A SOLE ARBITRATOR SHALL BE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD COURT AT THE REQUEST OF EITHER PARTY.

A FEW HOURS LATER THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, OWNER OF ABOUT 53 PER CENT OF AIOC'S SHARES, GAVE ITS FULL WEIGHT TO THE APPLICATION WITH A REQUEST THAT THE COURT DECLARE THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT IS OBLIGATED TO SUBMIT THE DISPUTE TO ARBITRATION. FAILING THAT, THE BRITISH SAID IRAN SHOULD BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR AN ACT "CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW."

THE 5,000-WORD BRITISH COMPLAINT SAID IRAN APPARENTLY WAS "NOT RES-09,$8,&" TO A BRITISH OFFER TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT OF THE ROW.

BRITAIN RESERVED THE RIGHT TO

'THE 5,000-WORD BRITISH COMPLAINT SAID IRAN APPARENTLY WAS "NOT RESPONDING" TO A BRITISH OFFER TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT OF THE ROW.

BRITAIN RESERVED THE RIGHT TO ASK THE COURT TO TAKE STEPS FOR THE PROTECTION OF HER NATIONALS IN IRAN AND TO PRESERVE THE EXISTING SITUATION -- THAT IS BRITISH OWNERSHIP OF THE COMPANY -- PENDING A FINAL COURT RULING.

SIX DAYS AGO IRAN'S FINANCE MINISTER REJECTED THE OIL COMPANY'S REQUEST TO THE GOVERNMENT TO NAME AN ARBITRATOR. NATIONALIZATION OF OIL WAS BASED ON NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY, HE SAID, AND WAS NOT SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION OR NEGOTIATION. HE DEMANDED LATER THAT THE COMPANY NAME REPRESENTATIVES BY MAY 30 TO HELP CARRY OUT THE LAW.

A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY THE COURT SAID IRAN IN 1932 RATIFIED ITS ADHERENCE TO THE WORLD COURT AND ACCEPTED ITS JURISDICTION.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID BRITAIN ASKED THE COURT TO DECLARE:

1. ENFORCEMENT OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW WOULD BE ILLEGAL AND CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW.

MAY 27 1951

A205

2. ARTICLE 22 IS STILL LEGALLY BINDING ON IRAN AND, BY IGNORING IT, IRAN HAS COMMITTED A DENIAL OF JUSTICE.
3. IRAN CANNOT ANNUL OR ALTER THE 1933 AGREEMENT EXCEPT BY AGREEMENT.
4. IRAN SHOULD GIVE FULL SATISFACTION AND INDEMNITY.

A WEEK AGO BRITAIN SENT A NOTE TO IRAN PROPOSING TO SEND A HIGH GOVERNMENT MISSION TO NEGOTIATE SOME KIND OF BRITISH PARTNERSHIP IN THE ENTERPRISE.

ALTHOUGH SHE STILL HAD RECEIVED NO ANSWER TO THAT OFFER, SHE WAS REPORTED FROM LONDON TODAY TO HAVE SENT ANOTHER STATEMENT TO TEHRAN OUTLINING HER POSITION.

THE UNITED STATES NOTE TO IRAN SAID ITS MAY 18 STATEMENT URGING MODERATION AND NEGOTIATION ON BOTH SIDES HAD BEEN MISCONSTRUED BY IRAN AS "INTERFERENCE."

THE NOTE REPEATED THE UNITED STATES STAND AGAINST "UNILATERAL CANCELLATION OF CONTRACTUAL RELATIONSHIPS AND ACTIONS OF A CONFISCATORY NATURE."

BUT THE U.S. DECLARED ITS BELIEF THAT "THROUGH NEGOTIATIONS A SETTLEMENT CAN BE FOUND WHICH WILL SATISFY THE DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO CONTROL THEIR OWN RESOURCES, WILL PROTECT THE LEGITIMATE BRITISH INTERESTS AND WILL ASSURE THE UNINTERRUPTED FLOW OF IRANIAN OIL TO ITS WORLD MARKETS."

THE UNITED STATES, THE NOTE ADDED, HAS A DEEP AND LEGITIMATE INTEREST IN THE CONTROVERSY BECAUSE IT COULD "UNDERMINE THE UNITY OF THE FREE WORLD."

TEHRAN DISPATCHES LINKED REPORTS THAT THE BRITISH HAD MADE TENTATIVE OFFERS TO ACCEPT NATIONALIZATION OF THE COMPANY IN PRINCIPLE WITH INDICATIONS THAT SOME OF THE MORE MODERATE ELEMENTS BEHIND MOSSADEGH AT LAST WERE FACING UP TO THE PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES OF RUNNING THE COMPANY ON THEIR OWN.

THE MORE VIOLENT NATIONALISTS, HOWEVER, VIEWED WITH UNEASINESS TALK OF COMPROMISES BY WHICH BRITISH EXPERTS MIGHT BE RETAINED TO RUN THE COMPANY.

ATTASH, ONE TEHRAN NEWSPAPER, WAS QUOTED AS SAYING" "WE FEEL THERE IS COMING UP A SITUATION WHICH WE ARE AFRAID MAY COOL DOWN THIS HOLY FIRE OF PATRIOTISM AND LEAD TO DISASTROUS HISTORICAL SLAVERY."

THE BRITISH APPEAL TO THE UNITED NATIONS-SPONSORED COURT CONTAINED A PROVISION THAT THE APPEAL MAY BE WITHDRAWN IF IRAN DOES DECIDE TO NEGOTIATE.

MEANWHILE, THE AIOC DISCLOSED IN LONDON IT HAS DECIDED TO SEND A REPRESENTATIVE TO MEETINGS OF THE IRANIAN OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD "AS A MEASURE OF RESPECT."

ALTHOUGH THE COMPANY EMPHASIZED THAT THIS REPRESENTATIVE WOULD SIT ONLY AS AN OBSERVER, HIS PRESENCE AT MEETINGS OF THE BOARD, WHICH IS TO CARRY OUT NATIONALIZATION, WOULD KEEP OPEN A POSSIBLE CHANNEL FOR NEGOTIATION. THE COMPANY EMPHASIZED THAT HIS PRESENCE WOULD NOT PREJUDICE ITS CLAIMS FOR ARBITRATION.

FIRST LEAD WORLD COURT

THE HAGUE, MAY 26-(AP)-THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY AND THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT ASKED THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TODAY TO APPOINT AN ARBITRATOR TO SETTLE BRITAIN'S OIL DISPUTE WITH IRAN.

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS 53 PER CENT OF THE BILLION DOLLAR ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY. IRAN HAS PASSED LAWS FOR NATIONALIZATION OF THE OIL INDUSTRY THERE, INCLUDING ANGLO-IRANIAN, AND HAS CALLED UPON THE COMPANY TO HELP GET THE NATIONALIZATION JOB DONE.

THE COMPANY'S REQUEST WAS FILED FIRST AND THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT SENT A COMMUNICATION SUPPORTING IT LATER IN THE DAY.

THE COMPANY'S COMMUNICATION INVOKED ARTICLE 22 OF THE OIL CONCESSION, DATED APRIL 29, 1933, WHICH PROVIDES THAT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE PARTIES SHALL BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.

FAILING AGREEMENT ON THE CHOICE OF ARBITRATORS, THE ARTICLE SAYS, A THIRD OR SOLE ARBITRATOR SHALL BE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD COURT AT THE REQUEST OF EITHER OF THE PARTIES.

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, MAY 26-(AP)-A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED TODAY BY THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE ON THE IRANIAN-BRITISH OIL ISSUE: (ABOUT 360)

REFERRING TO THE DECLARATION MADE ON OCTOBER 2, 1930, AND RATIFIED SEPTEMBER 19, 1932, BY WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN ACCEPTED JURISDICTION OF THE PERMANENT COURT OF JUSTICE BY TERMS OF ARTICLE 36 OF THE STATUTE, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM DEPOSITED TODAY AN APPLICATION INSTITUTING PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE COURT AGAINST THE IRANIAN IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT.

THE COURT IS REQUESTED TO DECLARE THAT THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN ARE UNDER A DUTY TO SUBMIT THE DISPUTE BETWEEN THEMSELVES AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, LTD., TO ARBITRATION UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE 22 OF THE CONVENTION CONCLUDED APRIL 29, 1933, BETWEEN THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF PERSIA (IRAN) AND THE ANGLO-PERSIAN OIL COMPANY, LTD., AND TO ACCEPT AND TO CARRY OUT ANY AWARD ISSUED AS THE RESULT OF SUCH ARBITRATION.

THE COURT IS REQUESTED ALTERNATIVELY TO DECLARE:

ONE--THAT THE PUTTING INTO EFFECT OF THE IRANIAN OIL NATIONALIZATION ACT OF MAY 1, 1952, INSOFAR AS IT PURPORTS TO AFFECT A UNILATERAL ANNULMENT OR ALTERATION OF TERMS OF THE CONVENTION CONCLUDED

ONE--THAT THE PUTTING INTO EFFECT OF THE IRANIAN OIL NATIONALIZATION ACT OF MAY 1, 1951, INSOFAR AS IT PURPORTS TO AFFECT A UNILATERAL ANNULMENT OR ALTERATION OF TERMS OF THE CONVENTION CONCLUDED APRIL 29, 1933, BETWEEN THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF PERSIA AND THE ANGLO-PERSIAN OIL COMPANY, CONTRARY TO ARTICLE 21 AND ARTICLE 26 THEREOF, WOULD BE AN ACT CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW FOR WHICH THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN WOULD BE INTERNATIONALLY RESPONSIBLE.

TWO--TO DECLARE THAT ARTICLE 22 OF AFORESAID CONVENTION CONTINUES TO BE LEGALLY BINDING ON THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN AND THAT BY DENYING TO THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY THE EXCLUSIVE REMEDY PROVIDED IN ARTICLE 22 OF AFORESAID CONVENTION, THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN HAS COMMITTED A DENIAL OF JUSTICE CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW.

THREE--TO DECLARE THAT AFORESAID CONVENTION CANNOT LAWFULLY BE ANNULLED OR ITS TERMS ALTERED BY THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN OTHERWISE THAN AS RESULT OF AN AGREEMENT WITH THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY OR UNDER CONDITIONS PROVIDED IN ARTICLE 26 OF THE CONVENTION.

FOUR--TO ADJUDGE THAT THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN SHOULD GIVE FULL SATISFACTION AND INDEMNITY FOR ALL ACTS COMMITTED IN RELATION TO THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY WHICH ARE CONTRARY TO INTERNATIONAL LAW OR THE AFORESAID AGREEMENT AND TO DETERMINE THE MANNER OF SUCH SATISFACTION AND INDEMNITY. WITH THE HAGUE

LONDON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY CALLED ON THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TODAY TO INTERVENE IN ITS DISPUTE WITH IRAN.

THE ACTION WAS A CHALLENGE TO THE SIX-DAY ULTIMATUM WHICH IRAN THURSDAY GAVE THE BRITISH-OWNED COMPANY--TO HELP IN ITS OWN LIQUIDATION OR BE DISSOLVED BY IRAN.

THE COMPANY SPECIFICALLY ASKED THE PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD COURT TO APPOINT AN ARBITRATOR TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE, IF POSSIBLE. IN DOING SO, THE COMPANY INVOKED AN ARTICLE OF ITS 1933 AGREEMENT WITH THE TEHRAN GOVERNMENT WHICH THEN GAVE IT THE RIGHT TO EXPLOIT THE COUNTRY'S SOUTHERN OIL REGIONS FOR 60 YEARS.

TEXT OF THE AIOC APPEAL IS EXPECTED LATER TODAY.

MEANWHILE, INFORMED SOURCES REPORTED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAS HANDED TO IRAN A 4,000-WORD STATEMENT OF ITS POSITION IN THE OIL DISPUTE.

BRITAIN, HOWEVER, STILL IS AWAITING A FORMAL REPLY TO AN OFFER SHE PUT TO IRAN A WEEK AGO--THAT THE TWO GOVERNMENTS GET TOGETHER AND TALK THE WHOLE THING OVER.

THE BRITISH OFFER INCLUDED AN INTIMATION THIS COUNTRY IS READY TO ACCEPT SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION OF THE IRANIAN OIL INDUSTRY.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 26-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES INFORMED IRAN TODAY THE IRANIAN-BRITISH OIL DISPUTE COULD SERIOUSLY WEAKEN THE UNITY OF THE FREE WORLD AND STRONGLY URGED NEGOTIATIONS AIMED AT A SETTLEMENT.

THIS AMERICAN ADVICE WAS GIVEN IN AN AIDE MEMOIRE DELIVERED BY AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY TO FOREIGN MINISTER BAGHER KAZEMI. IT WAS THE SECOND U.S. STATEMENT IN RECENT DAYS ON THE OIL CRISIS, WHICH HAS BROUGHT TENSION NEAR THE BREAKING POINT IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

(IN THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY ASKED THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TO INTERVENE IN THE DISPUTE, BY APPOINTING AN ARBITRATOR TO WORK ON PROPOSALS FOR A SETTLEMENT. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS 53 PER CENT OF THE BILLION DOLLAR COMPANY, WHICH WOULD BE NATIONALIZED UNDER IRAN'S PRESENT PLANS.)

TODAY'S AIDE MEMOIRE, OR NOTE, SAID THE UNITED STATES "REAFFIRMED ITS STAND AGAINST UNILATERAL CANCELLATION OF CONTRACTUAL RELATIONSHIPS AND ACTIONS OF CONFISCATORY NATURE." IRAN'S PREMIER, DR.F.MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH TOLD NEWSPAPERMEN YESTERDAY IT WAS IMPERATIVE FOR IRAN TO NATIONALIZE THE OIL INDUSTRY IN ORDER TO RELIEVE POVERTY IN THE COUNTRY.

MAY 27 1951

THE NOTE SAID THE UNITED STATES IS "CONVINCED THAT THROUGH NEGOTIATIONS A SETTLEMENT CAN BE FOUND WHICH WILL SATISFY THE DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO CONTROL THEIR OWN RESOURCES, WILL PROTECT LEGITIMATE BRITISH INTERESTS AND WILL ASSURE UNINTERRUPTED FLOW OF IRANIAN OIL TO ITS WORLD MARKETS."

IRAN, WHICH HAS RUSSIA FOR A NORTHERN NEIGHBOR, IS ONE OF THE VITAL SOURCES OF OIL SUPPLY FOR THE WEST, PARTICULARLY FOR BRITAIN AND HER NAVY.

THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT IS EXPECTED TO REJECT FORMALLY TODAY OR TOMORROW BRITAIN'S LATEST NOTE OFFERING TO SEND A TOP-LEVEL DIPLOMATIC TEAM HERE TO NEGOTIATE THE DISPUTE. MEANWHILE THERE HAS BEEN NO ANSWER FROM THE OIL COMPANY WHICH HAS UNTIL MAY 30 TO APPOINT REPRESENTATIVES TO HELP THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT PLAN THE TAKEOVER.

IRAN'S PREMIER, MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, TOLD REPORTERS YESTERDAY HIS COUNTRY WILL "FIGHT TO THE END" FOR OIL NATIONALIZATION. HE WARNED THAT ANY BRITISH ATTEMPT TO INTERFERE WOULD "SOON BRING THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD TO THE BRINK OF DISASTER." HE BROKE DOWN IN TEARS AS HE TALKED.

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES CALLED TODAY FOR A THREE POINT SETTLEMENT OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CONTROVERSY WHICH WOULD MEET IRAN'S DEMAND FOR NATIONALIZATION OF ITS VAST OIL INDUSTRY.

THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT DECLARED IN A NOTE TO TEHRAN THAT IT IS CONVINCED NEGOTIATIONS---BETWEEN IRAN AND BRITAIN---CAN PRODUCE A SETTLEMENT WHICH WILL:

1. "SATISFY THE DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO CONTROL THEIR OWN RESOURCES."
2. "PROTECT LEGITIMATE BRITISH INTERESTS."
3. "ASSURE UNINTERRUPTED FLOW OF IRANIAN OIL TO ITS WORLD MARKETS."

THE AMERICAN NOTE ADDED THAT A SETTLEMENT ALONG THESE LINES IS "OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE NOT ONLY TO THE WELFARE OF THE TWO POWERS CONCERNED BUT TO THAT OF THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD."

THE IRANIANS WERE WARNED THAT IN THE U.S. GOVERNMENT'S OPINION THE PRESENT CONTROVERSY IF BADLY HANDLED "COULD UNDERMINE THE UNITY OF THE FREE WORLD AND SERIOUSLY WEAKEN IT."

THE OBVIOUS PURPOSE OF THE NOTE, WHICH WAS DELIVERED TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE IN TEHRAN TODAY BY AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY, WAS TO ASSURE THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES, IN PREVIOUSLY URGING A FRIENDLY NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT, WAS NOT INTERFERING IN IRANIAN AFFAIRS AND TO SAY THAT IT WOULD NOT INTERFERE IN THE FUTURE.

HOWEVER, THE WORDING OF THE NOTE APPEARED TO GO BEYOND THIS OSTENSIBLE AIM AND SAY TO THE IRANIANS THAT THEY CAN COUNT UPON OBTAINING BRITISH AGREEMENT TO THEIR NATIONALIZATION DEMANDS PROVIDED THEY IN TURN SHOW REASONABLE REGARD FOR BRITAIN'S RIGHTS AND CONTINUED OPERATION OF THE FIELDS BY THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.

THAT GOES BEYOND THE POSITION WHICH THE BRITISH THEMSELVES HAVE PUBLICLY STATED, WHICH IS THAT IRAN HAS FIRM CONTRACT COMMITMENTS ABOUT BRITAIN'S PRESENT OIL FIELD RIGHTS WHICH CAN ONLY BE MODIFIED BY THE AGREEMENT OF BOTH COUNTRIES. HOWEVER, THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS FROM LONDON, WHICH ARE APPARENTLY WELL FOUNDED, THAT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT IS IN FACT PREPARED TO NEGOTIATE WITH IRAN ON THE BASIS OF SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION, ASSUMING THE NEGOTIATIONS CAN BE EFFECTIVE.

A184WX

THE U.S. NOTE TODAY REAFFIRMED THIS COUNTRY'S "DEEP INTEREST X X X IN THE MAINTENANCE OF THE INDEPENDENCE AND TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF IRAN," DESCRIBING THIS AS A CARDINAL PRINCIPLE OF UNITED STATES POLICY.

THIS GENERALIZATION HAS BEEN AUTHORITATIVELY INTERPRETED HERE AS A WARNING FOR MOSCOW THAT IN EVENT OF SERIOUS INTERNAL TROUBLE IN IRAN RUSSIA WOULD NOT, IN THE AMERICAN VIEW, HAVE ANY EXCUSE TO INTERVENE.

D82WX IRAN OIL TEXT
(410)

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A UNITED STATES NOTE TO IRAN ON THE OIL NATIONALIZATION DISPUTE (ABOUT 400)

THE AIDE MEMOIRE OF HIS EXCELLENCY, THE MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF IRAN, WHICH WAS HANDED TO THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR IN TEHRAN ON MAY 21, HAS BEEN CAREFULLY CONSIDERED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE THAT THE PUBLIC STATEMENT MADE BY THIS GOVERNMENT ON MAY 18 HAS BEEN MISCONSTRUED BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT AS INTERVENTION IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF IRAN. THE UNITED STATES WISHES TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT IT DID NOT THEN INTEND, NOR DOES IT NOW INTEND, TO INTERFERE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF IRAN, NOR TO OPPOSE IRAN'S SOVEREIGN RIGHTS OR THE EXPRESSED DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT IN REGARD TO CONTROL OF IRANIAN RESOURCES.

THERE IS, HOWEVER, LEGITIMATE BASIS FOR DEEP AND PROPER INTEREST ON THE PART OF THIS GOVERNMENT IN A SOLUTION OF THE OIL PROBLEM IN IRAN. A SERIOUS CONTROVERSY EXISTS BETWEEN IRAN AND GREAT BRITAIN, A CONTROVERSY WHICH COULD UNDERMINE THE UNITY OF THE FREE WORLD, AND SERIOUSLY WEAKEN IT. THE UNITED STATES IS BOUND TO BOTH COUNTRIES BY STRONG TIES OF FRIENDSHIP AND HAS ATTESTED ITS SINCERE CONCERN FOR THE WELL BEING OF BOTH. IT HAS, THEREFORE, IN VIEW OF THE IMPORTANCE OF THE MATTER, DISCUSSED THE ISSUES WITH BOTH PARTIES AND HAS STATED PUBLICLY THE PRINCIPLES IT CONSIDERS IMPORTANT IN REACHING A SOLUTION OF THIS CONTROVERSY.

THE UNITED STATES CONTINUES IN ITS FIRM BELIEF THAT AN ISSUE OF THIS KIND CAN BE SETTLED SATISFACTORILY ONLY BY NEGOTIATION BY THE PARTIES CONCERNED. WHILE THE UNITED STATES HAS URGED UPON BOTH PARTIES THE NEED FOR MODERATION, IT HAS TAKEN NO POSITION ON DETAILS OF ANY ARRANGEMENT WHICH MIGHT BE WORKED OUT. IT HAS, HOWEVER, REAFFIRMED ITS STAND AGAINST UNILATERAL CANCELLATION OF CONTRACTUAL RELATIONSHIPS AND ACTIONS OF A CONFISCATORY NATION.

THE UNITED STATES IS CONVINCED THAT THROUGH NEGOTIATION A SETTLEMENT CAN BE FOUND WHICH WILL SATISFY THE DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO CONTROL THEIR OWN RESOURCES, WHICH WILL PROTECT LEGITIMATE BRITISH INTERESTS, AND WHICH WILL INSURE UNINTERRUPTED FLOW OF IRANIAN OIL TO ITS WORLD MARKETS. SUCH A SETTLEMENT IS, IN THE OPINION OF THIS GOVERNMENT, OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE, NOT ONLY TO THE WELFARE OF THE TWO POWERS CONCERNED BUT TO THAT OF THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD. THE UNITED STATES WISHES TO STATE AGAIN ITS DEEP INTERESTS IN THE WELFARE OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE AND IN THE MAINTENANCE OF THE INDEPENDENCE AND TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF IRAN, WHICH IS A CARDINAL PRINCIPLE OF UNITED STATES POLICY.

IRAN-OIL

BY VERN HAUGLAND

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-IF THE ALLIES LOSE IRAN'S OIL, UNITED STATES OFFICIALS FORESEE GASOLINE RATIONING IN ENGLAND AND FRANCE, BUT NOT THE U.S.

THEY WOULD EXPECT IMMEDIATE AND SERIOUS SHORTAGES OF HEAVY FUEL OILS ALONG THE U.S. EAST COAST, BUT NOT SHORTAGE IN U.S. HOME HEATING OILS.

ABROAD, THEY WOULD LOOK FOR A GENERAL SHORTAGE OF PETROLEUM PRODUCTS IN EUROPE, INDIA AND AUSTRALIA.

THESE VIEWS WERE OUTLINED AMID A CONTINUING OIL CRISIS IN IRAN. THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS COMPLETED LEGISLATION TO TAKE OVER ITS BIG OIL FIELDS NOW LEASED TO BRITISH ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.

RIOTERS DENOUNCING ENGLAND AND THE U.S. HAVE URGED IMMEDIATE STEPS TO CARRY OUT THE NATIONALIZATION PROCESS. THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN THE BRITISH COMPANY UNTIL MAY 30 TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO DISCUSS WAYS OF TURNING OVER THE VAST PROPERTY TO THE GOVERNMENT.

THE DISPUTE BETWEEN ENGLAND AND IRAN OVER THE OIL HAS STIRRED GRAVE CONCERN THAT THE ALLIES COULD LOSE THE OIL, OR THAT WAR COULD DEVELOP. MOST OF IRAN'S OIL NOW GOES TO EUROPE.

IN SEPARATE INTERVIEWS, A.P.FRAME, ACTING DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR OF THE U.S. PETROLEUM ADMINISTRATION FOR DEFENSE (PAD), AND RUSSELL B.BROWN, GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE INDEPENDENT PETROLEUM ASSOCIATION, OUTLINED PROSPECTS IF THE OIL IS LOST TO THE WEST.

FRAME ALSO IS CHAIRMAN OF THE MILITARY PETROLEUM ADVISORY BOARD, ON LEAVE FROM VICE PRESIDENCY OF THE CITIES SERVICE REFINING CORP., OF NEW YORK CITY. HE WAS DIRECTOR OF REFINING FOR THE WORLD WAR II PETROLEUM ADMINISTRATION.

BROWN SAID IT IS URGENT THAT STEEL SUPPLIES FROM THE OIL INDUSTRY BE INCREASED IN VIEW OF THE IRANIAN CRISIS.

HE SAID DOMESTIC OIL OPERATORS SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO BUY ENOUGH STEEL TO DRILL 48,000 WELLS THIS YEAR. THE GOVERNMENT'S PRESENT PROGRAM PERMITS 43,000 WELLS.

"WE WOULD BE IN A MUCH SAFER POSITION HERE IF WE HAD MORE RESERVES, IF WE HAD FACILITIES FOR EXPLORING SO THAT OIL WOULD BE READY FOR DEVELOPMENT AND PRODUCTION WHEN NEEDED," BROWN SAID.

OF THE 2,000,000 BARRELS OF CRUDE OIL PRODUCED DAILY IN THE MIDDLE EAST, 700,000 BARRELS COME FROM IRAN. THAT NATION EXPORTS 200,000 BARRELS DAILY IN CRUDE FORM, AND REFINES THE REMAINING 500,000 BARRELS AT THE PLANT AT ABADAN. IT IS THIS REFINERY WHICH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN FROM ITS BRITISH OWNERS, AND WHICH IS THREATENED WITH A COMPLETE SHUTDOWN FOR LACK OF TECHNICIANS TO KEEP IT GOING.

A134WX

FRAME SAID THAT, ASSUMING THE DIFFICULTY IS CONFINED TO IRAN AND DOES NOT SPREAD TO NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES, THE LOSS OF IRAN'S 200,000-BARRELS-A-DAY CRUDE OIL EXPORTS WOULD NOT BE TOO SERIOUS.

"PRODUCTION FROM OTHER MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRIES--SAUDI-ARABIA, KUWAIT, IRAQ AND OTHERS--COULD MAKE UP THE AMOUNT FAIRLY EASILY," HE SAID.

"BUT THE LOSS OF ABADAN'S REFINED PRODUCTS--THAT'S SOMETHING ELSE AGAIN."

EVEN SO, IT WOULD NOT BE AS GREAT A LOSS AS THE CLOSING OF A 500,000-BARREL-A-DAY REFINERY IN THIS COUNTRY, FRAME SAID.

ABADAN'S OUTPUT CONSISTS OF A MUCH GREATER PROPORTION OF RESIDUAL FUEL OIL, TO MEET THE NEEDS OF SHIPPING IN THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA AND INDIAN OCEAN, THAN IN U.S. PLANTS.

FRAME SAID THAT IF THE ABADAN PLANT SHUTS DOWN, OTHER REFINERIES SHOULD BE ABLE TO INCREASE OUTPUT SUFFICIENTLY TO MAINTAIN THE ECONOMY OF WESTERN EUROPE, INDIA AND AUSTRALIA "WITHOUT COMPLETE DISRUPTION."

IF GASOLINE RATIONING WERE REQUIRED, IT WOULD OCCUR IN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND IN FRANCE--NOT HERE, HE SAID.

FRAME ADDED THAT BETTER DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRODUCTS OF U.S. COMPANIES OPERATING ABROAD, THROUGH A VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT, WOULD "COME REASONABLY CLOSE" TO OFFSETTING ABADAN'S LOSS--EXCEPT IN RESIDUAL FUEL OILS.

A COMMITTEE REPRESENTING 19 AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES WITH FOREIGN ACTIVITIES HAS BEEN CONFERRING WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ON AN AGREEMENT FOR POOLING FACILITIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST AREA.

FRAME SAID THE AGREEMENT WOULD ENABLE THEM TO SERVE THEIR TERRITORY MORE EFFICIENTLY, BY CUTTING DOWN ON DORMANT STOCKS AND ON EXCESSIVE MATERIALS IN TRANSIT.

HE ADDED THAT THE PLAN IS ALMOST READY NOW FOR PRESENTATION TO THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT FOR ANTI-TRUST CLEARANCE.

THE QUESTION WAS RAISED BY HOWARD GREEN, A PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE MEMBER FROM VANCOUVER, B.C., WHO ASKED IF THERE WAS ANY THOUGHT OF ACTION AGAINST PEOPLE LIKE MRS.RODD. HE SAID SHE HAD GONE TO NORTH KOREA AND PLANNED TO COME BACK TO CANADA AND TELL CANADIANS ABOUT THE "TERRIBLE THINGS" OUR TROOPS ARE DOING.

COLLINS SAID ALSO THAT A PEACE SETTLEMENT "IS ALWAYS POSSIBLE" ON THE BASIS OF THE 38TH PARALLEL--THE NORTH-SOUTH KOREAN BOUNDARY JUST RE-CROSSED BY UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN THEIR GREAT COUNTER-OFFENSIVE.

WINDING UP TWO DAYS OF TESTIMONY TO SENATE COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S REMOVAL, COLLINS REFUSED TO BUDGE FROM HIS STATEMENT YESTERDAY THAT MACARTHUR "VIOLATED A POLICY" BY SENDING AMERICAN TROOPS CLOSE TO THE MANCHURIAN BORDER LAST FALL.

THE ARMY CHIEF DISCLOSED THAT HE HAS ASKED "A SLIGHT INCREASE" IN THE SIZE OF THE ARMY, WHICH WOULD BRING TOTAL MANPOWER ABOVE THE PRESENT GOAL OF 3,462,000. BUT HE SAID TOTAL STRENGTH WOULD BE UNDER 4,000,000 EVEN WITH THE PROPOSED INCREASE.

COLLINS GAVE THE SENATORS, TOO, HIS OWN ESTIMATE OF RUSSIA'S FIGHTING STRENGTH. MILITARY CENSORSHIP PROMPTLY WAS CLAMPED DOWN ON IT, BUT THE TRANSCRIPT SHOWED COLLINS WOUND UP BY SAYING HE WAS SATISFIED THAT U.S. FORCES IN KOREA AND JAPAN ARE SECURE AGAINST ANY PREDICTABLE ATTACK.

ON THE MATTER OF RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE KOREAN WAR, COLLINS SAID: "I DON'T THINK THEY LIKE TO SEE THEIR CHINESE COMMUNIST FRIENDS GET BEATEN LIKE THEY ARE."

"JUST AS A HUMANITARIAN THING?" ASKED SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA).

"NO X X X I THINK FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW THEY ARE BEGINNING TO GET CONCERNED ABOUT IT," THE GENERAL REPLIED.

HE FINISHED TESTIFYING A SHORT TIME BEFORE HIS SCHEDULED TAKEOFF ON A FLIGHT TO EUROPE, WHERE HE PLANS TO CONFER WITH GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, COMMANDER OF THE COMBINED WESTERN DEFENSE FORCE.

THE SENATE INVESTIGATORS CALLED GEN. HOYT S. VANDENBERG, AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF, AS THEIR WITNESS ON MONDAY. THEY MAY GET AROUND TO QUESTIONING SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON BEFORE THE END OF NEXT WEEK.

COLLINS TESTIFIED THAT BECAUSE MACARTHUR "VIOLATED A POLICY," THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF FEARED HE MIGHT COMMIT SOME OTHER POLICY VIOLATION "OF A MORE SERIOUS NATURE."

HE MADE THE STATEMENT AFTER SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) TOLD HIM HE HAD UNINTENTIONALLY DONE "A FIRST RATE HATCHET JOB" ON MACARTHUR IN HIS TESTIMONY YESTERDAY.

IN YESTERDAY'S TESTIMONY, COLLINS SAID MACARTHUR WENT AGAINST "A CLEAR DIRECTIVE" FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS THAT "AS A MATTER OF POLICY" ONLY SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WERE TO BE USED IN THE LAST MILES OF THE UNITED NATIONS' NORTHWARD PUSH.

HE ALSO TESTIFIED THAT THE CHIEFS SUGGESTED MACARTHUR MIGHT CONSIDER HALTING THE U.N.ADVANCE ABOUT FIVE MILES SOUTH OF THE YALU RIVER BOUNDARY.

MACARTHUR'S AIDE, MAJ.GEN.COURTNEY WHITNEY, DENIED IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT THAT ANY SUCH LIMITATIONS HAD BEEN PUT ON MACARTHUR.

TODAY, APPEARING AGAIN BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING MACARTHUR'S REMOVAL, THE FAST-TALKING COLLINS SAID IT WAS "ABUNDANTLY CLEAR" THAT THE DEPOSED COMMANDER (1) DID NOT FOLLOW A POLICY "CLEARLY ENUNCIATED BY THE CHIEFS," AND (2) DID NOT NOTIFY HIS SUPERIORS OF WHAT HE WAS DOING.

SENATORS MADE MUCH OF THE POINT SINCE MACARTHUR'S CRITICS HAVE CHARGED, AND THE GENERAL HIMSELF HAS DENIED, THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS MIGHT HAVE REFRAINED FROM COMING INTO THE KOREAN WAR IF ALLIED TROOPS HAD HALTED THEIR ADVANCE AT SOME POINT SOUTH OF THE YALU RIVER BOUNDARY.

COLLINS STRESSED THAT HE DID NOT MEAN TO ACCUSE MACARTHUR OF DISOBEYING A MILITARY ORDER.

BUT HE SAID HE STILL HOLDS THE OPINION THAT MACARTHUR DID NOT "FOLLOW A MATTER OF POLICY WHICH HAD BEEN CLEARLY DELINEATED TO HIM IN A DIRECTIVE."

COLLINS SAID FURTHER:

"I THINK THIS WAS ONE INDICATION AMONG MANY OTHERS, WHICH CERTAINLY HAVE BEEN CLEAR, THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS NOT IN CONSONANCE WITH THE BASIC POLICIES. THAT LED US GRADUALLY TO FEAR THAT--JUST AS HE VIOLATED A POLICY IN THIS CASE WITHOUT CONSULTING US--PERHAPS THE THING MIGHT BE DONE IN SOME OTHER INSTANCE OF A MORE SERIOUS NATURE."

A180WX

THE ARMY CHIEF ALSO TESTIFIED THAT PENTAGON RECORDS FAIL TO SHOW MACARTHUR EVER ASKED IN SO MANY WORDS FOR AUTHORITY TO BOMB RED BASES IN MANCHURIA.

COLLINS SAID MACARTHUR "RAISED THE QUESTION" OF MAKING SUCH AIR STRIKES AS EARLY AS LAST NOV. 7, IN A MESSAGE ASKING INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COPE WITH THE "NEW AND THREATENING DEVELOPMENT" OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ENTRY INTO THE WAR.

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF "CAREFULLY REVIEWED" THE BOMBING IDEA AND THEN REJECTED IT, COLLINS SAID, ADDING THAT MACARTHUR RAISED THE QUESTION AGAIN IN SUCCEEDING MESSAGES AND THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS AGAIN RULED IT OUT LAST JANUARY.

"IT IS POSSIBLE," COLLINS SAID, "THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR CONSIDERED THESE REFERENCES TO THE SUBJECT TO BE REQUESTS, BUT WE CAN NOT FIND IN THE RECORD ANY SPECIFIC REQUESTS AS SUCH."

COLLINS ASSERTED, HOWEVER, THAT MAC ARTHUR "CLEARLY INDICATED THAT HE THOUGHT IT OUGHT TO BE DONE."

THE USE OF AIR POWER AGAINST THE HOME BASES AND SUPPLY LINES OF THE CHINESE REDS IS A CARDINAL POINT IN MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM FOR SPEEDILY ENDING THE WAR IN KOREA.

COLLINS SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS' REASONS FOR REJECTING THIS COURSE ARE WELL KNOWN. SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS, HAD TESTIFIED PREVIOUSLY THAT THIS WOULD BROADEN THE KOREAN CONFLICT AND PERHAPS BRING ABOUT WORLD WAR III.

IN ADDITION, COLLINS READ A 150-WORD STATEMENT ON THE SUBJECT TODAY AND ASKED THAT IT BE KEPT OUT OF THE HEARING TRANSCRIPT RELEASED TO THE PRESS AFTER MILITARY CENSORSHIP. THE TRANSCRIPT NOTED THAT THE STATEMENT WAS DELETED AT THAT POINT.

CENSORSHIP CROPPED UP AGAIN WHEN SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) SAID HE BELIEVED COLLINS HAD "STATED DEFINITELY" THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS TOLD MACARTHUR ON MARCH 7 THAT HE COULD NOT BOMB NORTH OF THE YALU RIVER, THE BOUNDARY BETWEEN NORTH KOREA AND MANCHURIA. THERE HAD BEEN NO PREVIOUS MENTION OF A MARCH 7 MESSAGE IN THE TRANSCRIPT AS IT REACHED NEWSMEN.

A181WX

WILEY WANTED TO KNOW IF THIS MESSAGE "WAS THE RESULT OF THE CHIEFS OF STAFF'S OWN JUDGMENT, OR WAS IT THE RESULT OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S JUDGMENT, OR BOTH?"

"IT WAS PROBABLY BOTH, SENATOR," COLLINS REPLIED.

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), COLLINS TOLD HOW THE JOINT CHIEFS CAME TO APPROVE MACARTHUR'S PLANS FOR LAST SUMMER'S INCHON LANDINGS, ON THE WEST COAST OF KOREA, WHICH BY-PASSED COMMUNIST FORCES IN THE SOUTH AND LED TO APPARENT VICTORY IN THE WAR---UNTIL THE CHINESE CAME IN.

COLLINS SAID HE AND ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, NAVY CHIEF OF STAFF, WERE LEFT "SOMEWHAT IN THE DARK" ON MACARTHUR'S PLANS BEFORE THE LANDING OCCURRED, AND SO WENT TO TOKYO TO FIND OUT WHAT THE GENERAL HAD IN MIND.

"WE SUGGESTED CERTAIN ALTERNATIVE POSSIBILITIES AND PLACES AND EVERYTHING OF THAT SORT, WHICH GENERAL MACARTHUR LOOKED INTO, AND THEN HE FINALLY GAVE US THE RECOMMENDATIONS AND THE JOINT CHIEFS APPROVED THE PLAN," COLLINS SAID.
CAIN QUESTIONED COLLINS FOR SOME TIME ON THE QUESTION OF MACARTHUR'S USE OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN THE FINAL PUSH TO THE YALU.
FINALLY CAIN DEMANDED TO KNOW IF THERE WAS "ANY MANDATORY PROVISION" PREVENTING MACARTHUR FROM DEPLOYING HIS FORCES "AS MILITARY NECESSITY DICTATED."
COLLINS REPLIED THAT THAT THERE WASN'T AND SAID HE WOULDN'T HAVE SUPPORTED SUCH AN ORDER.
"I APPRECIATE YOUR ANSWER," CAIN SAID, "AND I THINK THAT CLEARS THAT MATTER AWAY FOR ALL TIME."
COLLINS TESTIFIED EARLIER THAT MACARTHUR GAVE "MILITARY NECESSITY" AS HIS REASON FOR USING U.S. TROOPS CLOSE TO THE BORDER.
SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) SAID HE FOUND IN THE HEARING RECORDS "20 OR MORE INSTANCES" WHICH INDICATED WASHINGTON HAD TOLD MACARTHUR TO "SLOW DOWN, OR HESITATE PERHAPS" IN FIGHTING THE COMMUNISTS BECAUSE OF PENDING DECISIONS AT LAKE SUCCESS "OR SOME POLITICAL DECISION ON THAT LEVEL."
"IS THAT AN UNFAIR IMPRESSION THAT I HAVE?" HE ASKED.
"YES, SIR; I BELIEVE IT IS UNFAIR, SENATOR," COLLINS ANSWERED.
KNOWLAND QUESTIONED THE PENTAGON'S ORDERS TO MACARTHUR TO GET PERMISSION BEFORE LAUNCHING "ALL OUT BOMBING ATTACK OR ATTACKS AGAINST PYONGYANG," THE NORTH KOREAN COMMUNIST CAPITAL.
"IN THE FIRST PLACE," COLLINS SAID, "WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO REBUILD THEM, WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO GIVE THEM CIVIL AID LIKE WE ALWAYS DO," SO THE ORDERS TO MACARTHUR WERE "GO EASY ON THAT UNTIL THE SITUATION DEVELOPS AND YOU THINK IT MUST BE DONE."
KNOWLAND SAID HE WORRIED ABOUT A SITUATION IN WHICH THE OTHER U.N. MEMBERS "ARE ONLY PUTTING IN 10 PER CENT OF WHAT WE ARE PUTTING IN," BUT ON A POLITICAL LEVEL "THEY CAN HOGTIE US AND OBSTRUCT US."

COLLINS-WOUNDED
WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS TOLD SENATORS TODAY THE PERCENTAGE OF DEATHS AMONG THE WOUNDED IN THE KOREAN WAR IS "A THIRD LESS" THAN IN WORLD WAR II.
"OUR MEDICAL PEOPLE HAVE DONE A PERFECTLY MARVELOUS JOB--PERFECTLY MARVELOUS," COLLINS SAID.
COLLINS, THE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, WAS TESTIFYING AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WHEN HE WAS ASKED ABOUT CASUALTIES.
GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, TOLD THE SENATORS EARLIER THIS WEEK THAT TOTAL CASUALTIES IN KOREA, BOTH BATTLE AND NON-BATTLE, WERE 141,995 WITH 11,292 DEAD.
BRADLEY SAID "NON-BATTLE"CASUALTIES WERE 72,679 BUT NOTED THAT THIS INCLUDED SUCH THINGS AS A MAN'S HAVING A TOOTH PULLED AS WELL AS SERIOUS ILLNESSES AND INJURIES.
COLLINS SAID 90.4 PER CENT OF NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES HAVE BEEN RETURNED TO DUTY IN THE FAR EAST, 4.9 PER CENT WERE REMOVED TO THE UNITED STATES FOR TREATMENT, AND .3 OF ONE PER CENT DIED OF THEIR AILMENTS.
BRADLEY HAD GIVEN THE FIGURE 612 AS THE NUMBER OF DEAD FROM "NON-BATTLE" CAUSES.
COLLINS SAID THAT OF THE BATTLE CASUALTIES -- THAT IS MEN WOUNDED OR LISTED AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER AS MISSING -- 70.2 PER CENT HAVE BEEN RETURNED TO DUTY--57.3 PERCENT TO DUTY IN THE FAR EAST AND 12.9 PER CENT TO DUTY IN THE UNITED STATES.

A133WX
COLLINS SAID THE NON-BATTLE CASUALTY RATE AMONG MEN SERVING IN KOREA IS "EIGHT PER CENT LESS" THAN THE NON-BATTLE CASUALTY RATE IN JAPAN, WHERE THERE IS NO FIGHTING.
HE SAID 20 PER CENT OF THE ARMED FORCES' TOTAL STRENGTH IN JAPAN FROM JULY, 1950, TO LAST MARCH 31 WERE LISTED AS NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES --MEANING THE NUMBER OF MEN WHO RECEIVED TREATMENT FOR ILLNESS OR INJURY AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER, WAS 20 PERCENT OF ALL THE MEN ON DUTY THERE. IT INCLUDES SOME MEN, OF COURSE, WHO DIED OF INJURIES AND ILLNESS.
IN THE SAME PERIOD IN KOREA, COLLINS SAID, "THE SO-CALLED NONBATTLE CASUALTIES AMOUNTED TO ONLY 12 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL U.S.STRENGTH FOR THE PERIOD."
COLLINS TOLD THE SENATORS, "I WILL GUARANTEE THERE HAS BEEN NO CONCEALMENT" OF CASUALTY TOTALS, "NO ATTEMPT TO FOOL THE AMERICAN PUBLIC--WE ARE NOT THAT SILLY."
HE SAID THE OFFICIAL CASUALTY FIGURES FOR THE WORLD WARS--333,734 IN THE FIRST WAR AND 994,893 IN WORLD WAR II--REPRESENT "ONLY BATTLE, TRUE BATTLE CASUALTIES" AND INCLUDE NONE OF THE SO-CALLED NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES, A TERM HE SAID IS MISLEADING.
"IF WE MILITARY, PARTICULARLY OUR MEDICOES, COULD GET AWAY FROM OUR MILITARY LINGO AND TALK PLAIN ENGLISH A BIT MORE, WE WOULD NAME THESE SO-CALLED NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES WHAT THEY REALLY ARE---THAT IS SICK AND INJURED," COLLINS SAID.
HE CALLED THE TERM "SHEER DOGGEREL" WHICH GIVES A MISLEADING PICTURE OF ACTUAL LOSSES BY INCLUDING IN CASUALTY TOTALS MEN WHO HAVE REPORTED TO SICK CALL TO HAVE SOME MINOR AILMENT OR CUT TREATED.

(PEACE)
(72W) PEACE-COLLINS
BY J. W. DAVIS
WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST HIGH COMMAND NOW HAS AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSIDER WHETHER IT IS WILLING TO LISTEN TO KOREAN PEACE TERMS WORKED OUT BY THE 14 UNITED NATIONS WITH TROOPS IN KOREA.
AN OUTLINE OF THE TERMS WAS PROVIDED PUBLICLY FOR THE FIRST TIME YESTERDAY IN THE TESTIMONY OF GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, IN THE SENATE MACARTHUR HEARINGS. UP TO THEN, THE MATTER HAD BEEN A SECRET.
IN BROAD OUTLINE, THE UNITED NATIONS WERE SHOWN TO FEEL THAT WITH THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSORS IN KOREA BEING DRIVEN BACK TO THE 38TH PARALLEL, THE COMMUNISTS COULD BE INVITED TO CEASE FIRE AND AGREE TO A SETTLEMENT OF OUTSTANDING ISSUES BY NEGOTIATION.
WHILE THE PEACE PROPOSAL TALK DATED BACK TO MARCH OR EARLIER, DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES ATTACHED CONSIDERABLE IMPORTANCE TO ITS DISCLOSURE AT THIS TIME. IN OTHER WORDS, IT WAS SAID TO BE NOT NECESSARILY A DEAD DOCUMENT BUT ONE WHICH EVEN AS OF NOW PLACES BEFORE COMMUNIST CHINA AND THE RUSSIANS THE BASIS OF A POSSIBLE SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN WAR -- A SORT OF PEACE FEELER FROM THE ALLIED SIDE.
EMPHASIS ON THE LIVELINESS OF THE DOCUMENT IS SUPPLIED BY THE FACT THAT TODAY THE ALLIED AND COMMUNIST ARMIES ARE ONCE MORE IN THE CLOSE NEIGHBORHOOD OF THE 38TH PARALLEL -- THE STARTING LINE OF THE WAR.

THE CEASE-FIRE-AND-NEGOTIATE INVITATION WAS NEVER DELIVERED TO THE COMMUNISTS. INSTEAD, ON MARCH 24, GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR ISSUED A STATEMENT OF HIS OWN OFFERING TO MEET THE CHINESE COMMANDER TO TALK PEACE IN THE FIELD. MACARTHUR SAID AT THE SAME TIME THAT IF U.N. ATTACKS SHOULD BE LAUNCHED ON CHINA'S COASTAL AREAS AND MILITARY BASES, THE RED NATION WOULD PROBABLY FACE MILITARY COLLAPSE.
SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, WHEN HE TESTIFIED IN THE HEARINGS ON MACARTHUR'S DISCHARGE FROM COMMAND, SAID THE GENERAL'S MARCH 24 STATEMENT DESTROYED ANY CHANCES FOR A PEACE SETTLEMENT AT THAT TIME.
MARSHALL SAID THE UNITED NATIONS WAS PREPARING AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF READINESS TO DISCUSS A SETTLEMENT -- THE ANNOUNCEMENT TO COME FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN -- WHEN MACARTHUR MADE HIS OWN PEACE-TALK OFFER. "IT BECAME NECESSARY TO ABANDON THE EFFORT," MARSHALL SAID.
WHEN COLLINS WAS ON THE STAND YESTERDAY, SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASKED WHY THE U.N. PEACE PLAN WAS NOT SHOWN TO MACARTHUR AND COLLINS SAID HE ASSUMED THE DECISION ON THIS WAS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S.
AT THE SENATORS' REQUEST, COLLINS READ INTO THE RECORD A DOCUMENT SAYING:

MAY 27 1951

A203WX
"THE PROPOSED STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT POINTED OUT THAT THE AGGRESSORS IN KOREA HAD BEEN DRIVEN BACK TO THE GENERAL VICINITY FROM WHICH THE UNLAWFUL ATTACK WAS FIRST LAUNCHED AND THAT, THEREFORE, THE PRINCIPAL OBJECTIVE OF REPELLING NORTH KOREAN AND CHINESE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION AGAINST THE SOUTH KOREAN REPUBLIC HAD BEEN ACHIEVED.
"IT ASSERTED THAT FURTHER UNITED NATIONS OBJECTIVES, SUCH AS UNIFICATION AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FREE GOVERNMENT IN ALL OF KOREA, COULD AND SHOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT FURTHER FIGHTING OR BLOODSHED.
"THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WERE, IN EFFECT, GIVEN AN INVITATION TO CEASE FIRE AND TO AGREE TO A SETTLEMENT OF OUTSTANDING ISSUES BY NEGOTIATION.
"THE STATEMENT THEN WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE KOREAN PEOPLE WERE ENTITLED TO PEACE AND TO ASSISTANCE FROM THE REST OF THE WORLD IN REPAIRING THE RAVAGES OF WAR.
"A SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN SITUATION WOULD GREATLY REDUCE INTERNATIONAL TENSION AND WOULD OPEN THE WAY FOR THE PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF OTHER PROBLEMS AS IS ENVISAGED IN THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS.
"THE STATEMENT INCLUDED A WARNING, HOWEVER, THAT IF THE CHINESE REFUSED TO NEGOTIATE, THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD BE COMPELLED TO CONTINUE THE CONFLICT."
COLLINS ADDED: "I DON'T HAVE A COPY OF THE EXACT STATEMENT."
IN TESTIMONY TODAY, COLLINS WAS ASKED BY SENATOR LONG (D-LA) WHETHER AN ULTIMATE SOLUTION TO THE WAR MAY BE WORKED OUT ON THE BASIS OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. COLLINS REPLIED THAT "SOMETHING APPROXIMATING IT, IT IS ALWAYS POSSIBLE."
THE ARMY CHIEF SAID THAT AS HE SEES IT THERE ARE TWO ALTERNATIVE SOLUTIONS TO THE KOREAN WAR -- EITHER UNIFICATION OF THE ENTIRE COUNTRY OR A RESTORATION OF CONDITIONS THAT EXISTED PRIOR TO THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.
UNIFICATION OF ALL KOREA SHOULD BE ACHIEVED IF POSSIBLE, HE SAID, BUT HE ADDED THAT "AS I SEE IT TODAY, UNDER THE CURRENT CIRCUMSTANCES, FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW THAT IS UNLIKELY."
"THE OTHER POSSIBILITY," HE SAID, "WOULD BE TO ARRIVE AT A SOLUTION BASED ON FACTUAL CONDITIONS SOMEWHERE CERTAINLY NOT SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. THAT WOULD AT LEAST RESTORE THE CONDITIONS THAT EXISTED PRIOR TO THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION. X X X
"WHILE THAT SECOND SOLUTION WOULD NOT BE AS GOOD A SOLUTION, IN MY JUDGMENT, AS THE FIRST, NEVERTHELESS YOU ARE BACK WHERE YOU STARTED FROM, AT ANY RATE BACK IN THE FIELD OF ARRIVING AT SOME SORT OF A POLITICAL SOLUTION WITHOUT FURTHER WAR."
HE AGREED WITH LONG THAT THIS COUNTRY'S COMMITMENT TO REPEL THE AGGRESSOR DID NOT NECESSARILY ENTAIL CARRYING OUT A UNIFICATION OF KOREA BY MILITARY MEANS.

COLLINS-PRESS RELEASE
WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS TESTIFIED TODAY THAT HE HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH PUTTING OUT A PRESS RELEASE LAST MONTH WHICH SAID THE REMOVAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WAS "BASED ON THE UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATIONS" OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.
HE SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS DID NOT TAKE THE INITIATIVE IN RECOMMENDING THE OUSTER; THAT THEY SIMPLY CONCURRED WITH IT.
TESTIFYING AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO THE MAC ARTHUR REMOVAL, COLLINS SAID HE DID NOT THINK ANY OF THE OTHER CHIEFS OF STAFF SAW THE PRESS RELEASE, WHICH WAS ISSUED AT THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT.
APPARENTLY HE REFERRED TO A STATEMENT ISSUED APRIL 19 BY CLAYTON FRITCHEY, THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR OF INFORMATION, WHICH SAID:
"IN RESPONSE TO INQUIRIES FROM THE PRESS CONCERNING GEN. MACARTHUR'S REFERENCE TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, A PENTAGON SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THE WHITE HOUSE HAD AUTHORIZED HIM TO SAY THAT THE ACTION TAKEN BY THE PRESIDENT IN RELIEVING GEN. MACARTHUR WAS BASED UPON THE UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LRESIDENT'S PRINCIPAL CIVILIAN AND MILITARY ADVISERS INCLUDING THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF."
MACARTHUR HAD ADDRESSED CONGRESS EARLIER THAT DAY AND SAID AMONG OTHER THINGS THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS HAD FULLY SHARED, FROM A MILITARY STANDPOINT, HIS PROPOSALS FOR ECONOMIC AND NAVAL BLOCKADES OF RED CHINA, FOR AIR OPERATIONS ON MANCHURIA AND FOR USING CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS AGAINST THE ENEMY.

MAY 27 1951

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) BROUGHT UP THE MATTER AT TODAY'S HEARING. APPARENTLY REFERRING TO THE FRITCHEY RELEASE, ALTHOUGH HE SAID IT HAD BEEN ISSUED ANONYMOUSLY ABOUT APRIL 12, HE TOLD COLLINS:
"NOW, ON OR ABOUT APRIL 12 THERE WAS A PRESS RELEASE, PRESUMABLY FROM THE PENTAGON, BECAUSE IT QUOTED AN UNKNOWN PENTAGON SPOKESMAN, THAT SAID THAT THE ACTION OF THE REMOVAL OF GEN. MACARTHUR, WHICH HAD TAKEN PLACE A DAY OR SO PRIOR TO THAT, HAD HAD THE UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

A68WX
"AS I UNDERSTAND YOUR TESTIMONY TODAY, IT WAS A CONCURRENCE OF THE JOINT CHIEFS, BECAUSE YOU HAVE TESTIFIED THAT OF THEIR OWN MOTION THE JOINT CHIEFS MADE NO SUCH RECOMMENDATION.
COLLINS: YES SIR. X X X I WANT TO MAKE IT VERY CLEAR, CERTAINLY I, AND I DON'T BELIEVE ANY OTHER MEMBERS OF THE CHIEFS THEMSELVES, TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE, SAW THE PRESS RELEASE. COMMOTION IS SUCH, WE HAVE GOT A TERRIBLY COMPLICATED BUSINESS WE CONDUCT, AND TO MY RECOLLECTION I NEVER SAW THE PRESS RELEASE PRIOR TO THE TIME IT WAS RELEASED.
"I DON'T KNOW WHO IT WAS THAT RELEASED IT. IT MAY HAVE BEEN BY THOSE WHO ISSUE WHAT COMES OUT OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE OFFICE, THE CIVILIAN IN CHARGE OF THAT, AND THE EXACT TECHNICAL CONNOTATION OF RECOMMENDATION MAY NEVER HAVE OCCURRED TO HIM."

(190) COLLINS-CENSOR

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS TOLD SENATORS "ON A CONFIDENTIAL BASIS" TODAY GENERAL MACARTHUR MUST HAVE ANTICIPATED HIS FAMOUS LETTER TO REP. MARTIN (R-MASS) WOULD BE RELEASED TO THE PRESS.

IN MAKING THIS STATEMENT AT COMMITTEE HEARINGS ON MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL, COLLINS INTERJECTED, "WHAT I AM SAYING NOW IS ON A CONFIDENTIAL BASIS."

APPARENTLY THE CENSOR, WHO IS SCREENING A TRANSCRIPT OF THE TESTIMONY BEFORE IT IS RELEASED TO THE PRESS, MISSED THAT POINT. THE ENTIRE EXCHANGE WAS INCLUDED IN THE RELEASED TRANSCRIPT.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SAID HE MADE UP HIS MIND TO FIRE MACARTHUR WHEN HE SAW THE GENERAL'S LETTER TO MARTIN, HOUSE REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER, IN THE NEWSPAPERS. IN THE LETTER MACARTHUR ADVOCATED RELEASING NATIONALIST CHINESE TROOPS FROM FORMOSA TO FIGHT CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THIS IS AGAINST ADMINISTRATION POLICY.

COLLINS WAS ASKED BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WISC) WHETHER A GENERAL ADMINISTRATION DIRECTIVE TO HAVE FOREIGN POLICY STATEMENTS BY MILITARY MEN AND OTHER OFFICIALS CLEARED IN WASHINGTON WAS "MEANT TO CURTAIL THE RIGHT TO WRITE A CONGRESSMAN."

COLLINS REPLIED, "NO, SIR, IT WAS NOT. X X X BUT CLEARLY X X X MR. MARTIN GAVE GENERAL MACARTHUR THE OPTION OF ANSWERING IN A CONFIDENTIAL MANNER OR OTHERWISE, AND GENERAL MACARTHUR IS A SMART MAN, HE DIDN'T REPLY TO SENATOR MARTIN--WHAT I AM SAYING NOW IS ON A CONFIDENTIAL BASIS-THEREFORE HE MUST HAVE ANTICIPATED THAT THAT WOULD HAVE BEEN RELEASED TO THE PRESS."

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS SAID TODAY THE ARMY HAS SHIPPED $12,500,000 WORTH OF SUPPLIES TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA SINCE LAST NOVEMBER.

COLLINS, THE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, SAID $54,000,000 WORTH HAVE GONE TO INDO-CHINA SINCE JUNE, 1949, AND AN ADDITIONAL $2,000,000 WORTH IS BEING PREPARED FOR SHIPMENT THERE.

ALSO, COLLINS SAID, ARMY SUPPLIES VALUED AT $3,000,000 HAVE GONE TO THE PHILIPPINES SINCE JUNE, 1949. HE SAID A "GREAT QUANTITY OF EQUIPMENT AND AMMUNITION" WAS LEFT THERE AFTER WORLD WAR II.

COLLINS GAVE THE FIGURES ON ARMY SHIPMENTS TO THOSE KEY PLACES IN THE FAR EAST TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

HE EMPHASIZED THE FIGURES DID NOT INCLUDE ANY SUPPLIES SENT BY THE NAVY AND AIR FORCE.

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS TESTIFIED TODAY THE ARMY IS REPLACING BATTLE WEARY TROOPS IN KOREA WITH FRESH ONES FROM THE STATES AT A RATE OF 20,000 MEN A MONTH, BUT THAT DETAILS OF THE ROTATION PLAN MUST BE KEPT SECRET.

HE APPEALED TO CONGRESS MEMBERS NOT TO USE THEIR INFLUENCE TO INTERFERE WITH THE OFFICER'S WHO ARE RUNNING THE PLAN.

"YOU HAVE TO TRUST THE HONESTY AND INTEGRITY OF THE MEN ON THE SPOT," HE SAID, "AND I REALLY ASK YOU NOT TO INTERJECT FOR SPECIAL CASES."

HE GAVE THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES AN EXPLANATION OF HOW THE PLAN HAS BEEN SET UP BY THE U.S. COMMAND IN KOREA.

HE INSISTED THAT IT BE KEPT SECRET, NOT FROM A STANDPOINT OF SECURITY BUT "BECAUSE, VERY FRANKLY, IF WE PUBLISH THIS WHOLE THING, JUST AS IS, EVERY SOLDIER ON THE LINE IS GOING TO START FIGURING OUT WHEN HE GETS HOME, AND THAT IS GOING TO HAVE AN EFFECT ON THE FIGHTING EFFICIENCY OF THIS FORCE."

BESIDES, HE SAID THERE WILL BE CASES WHERE MEN ELIGIBLE FOR RETURN, "PARTICULAR A KEY MAN," WILL HAVE TO WAIT UNTIL A COMPETENT REPLACEMENT IS AVAILABLE.

"WE JUST CANNOT WRECK THE FIGHTING EFFICIENCY OF THE EIGHTH ARMY," HE DECLARED.

BUT HE PROMISED THAT "THE BULK OF THE MEN THAT REALLY TAKE THE POUNDING ARE GOING TO BE ROTATED, AND WE ARE DOING IT NOW, AT THE RATE OF 20,000 A MONTH."

(170) MILITARY MANPOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS TOLD SENATORS TODAY HE HAS ASKED "A SLIGHT INCREASE" IN THE SIZE OF THE ARMY. HE SAID IT WOULD RAISE THE MILITARY MANPOWER IN ALL SERVICES ABOVE THE PREVIOUS GOAL OF 3,462,205, BUT DIDN'T SAY HOW MUCH.

COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, SAID THE TOTAL STRENGTH OF THE ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCES AND MARINES STILL WOULD BE UNDER 4,000,000, EVEN WITH THE PROPOSED INCREASES.

THE DISCUSSION OF MILITARY MANPOWER CEILINGS CAME DURING THE SENATE INVESTIGATION OF THE FIRING OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

COLLINS SAID THE ARMY ALREADY HAD TRIPLED SINCE START OF THE KOREAN FIGHTING LAST JUNE. HE SAID IT WAS 592,000 BEFORE THE KOREAN FIGHTING AND WAS "APPROXIMATELY 1,550,000 TO 1,600,000 IN ROUND NUMBERS" NOW.

THE 3,462,205 GOAL WAS ANNOUNCED BY THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN FIXED A ROUND FIGURE OF 3,500,000 FOR THE ARMED SERVICES BY JULY 1 NEXT. ROUGHLY IT WAS TO INCLUDE 1,500,000 IN THE ARMY, AND 1,000,000 EACH IN THE AIR FORCES AND NAVY AND MARINES COMBINED.

(300) MACARTHUR-REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-TWO REPUBLICAN SENATORS DISAGREED TODAY ABOUT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR--ONE SUGGESTING HE WAS A HARD-TO-GET-ALONG-WITH "MILITARY PRIMA DONNA" AND THE OTHER CONTENDING HE WAS FIRED WITHOUT JUSTIFICATION.

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE), IN CRITICAL REMARKS, RAISED THE PRIMA DONNA QUESTION AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO DISMISSAL OF THE GENERAL.

MORSE ALSO SAID HE THINKS SOME OF THE DOCUMENTS THE SENATORS HAVE SEEN INDICATE MACARTHUR WANTED TO CARRY THE KOREAN WAR "ON TO THE MAINLAND OF CHINA."

SENATOR H. ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) QUARRELED WITH BOTH THE DECISION TO FIRE THE GENERAL AND THE METHOD IN WHICH THE DISMISSAL WAS HANDLED.

SMITH SAID THE REASONS SO FAR GIVEN ARE NOT "A SOUND BASIS" ON WHICH THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF COULD STAND IN THEIR "POSITION AGAINST A MAN WHO HAS BEEN WORKING WITH THEM AND WHICH WE ALL GIVE SUCH GREAT CREDIT TO, X X X AND ABRUPTLY DISMISSED HIM."

IN ANY EVENT, HE SAID, MACARTHUR SHOULD HAVE BEEN GIVEN A CHANCE TO RESIGN. MACARTHUR HAS TESTIFIED HE WOULD HAVE DONE SO IF HE HAD BEEN ASKED TO STEP DOWN.

MORSE, REFERRING TO "THIS SECRET DOCUMENT HERE," WHICH HE SAID CONTAINED EXCHANGES BETWEEN MACARTHUR AND THE JOINT CHIEFS, REMARKED THAT "I THINK" IT INDICATES "THAT HE WANTED TO CARRY THIS WAR MORE ENERGETICALLY FAR UP INTO NORTH KOREA AND THEN ON TO THE MAINLAND OF CHINA."

THE TRANSCRIPT MENTIONED NO REPLY FROM GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WHO WAS IN THE WITNESS CHAIR.

AT ANOTHER POINT. MORSE TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES ON THE INQUIRY COMMITTEE:

"MY PRESENT IMPRESSION IS THAT THIS RECORD IS BUILDING UP TO THE CONCLUSION THAT ALTHOUGH THERE WAS A VERY HIGH REGARD FOR MACARTHUR'S MILITARY GENIUS AND HIS GREAT CONTRIBUTION TO THE MILITARY HISTORY OF THIS COUNTRY, NEVERTHELESS IT REACHED THE POINT WHERE IN REGARD TO THIS PARTICULAR OPERATION HE WAS SUFFICIENTLY OUT OF SYMPATHY WITH THE POLICY OF HIS GOVERNMENT THAT YOU WERE NOT GETTING FROM HIM THAT OPEN HANDED FULL COOPERATION THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAD TO EXPECT FROM A MEMBER OF THE TEAM."

PRESSED FOR HIS COMMENT, GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, TOLD THE SENATOR:

"AS A GENERAL PROPOSITION I AGREE WITH YOUR CONCLUSION, AS A GENERAL PROPOSITION."

MORSE: "ONE MIGHT ALMOST THINK THAT HE WAS LOOKED UPON AS A MILITARY PRIMA DONNA."

MACARTHUR-POLITICS

WASHINGTON,MAY 26-(AP)-SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) SAID TODAY THAT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S "POSSIBILITIES" IN THE POLITICAL FIELD CANNOT BE DISCOUNTED EVEN THOUGH MACARTHUR HAS DECLARED HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR ANYTHING.

AT THE SENATE HEARING ON MACARTHUR'S OUSTER, WILEY REMARKED:

"A MAN WHO HAS DEMONSTRATED TO THE HEARTS OF AMERICA BY SIMPLY COMING AND TELLING HIS STORY THE WAY HE HAS, AND RECEIVED AS NO OTHER MAN IN HISTORY--IN THE HISTORY OF AMERICA HAS BEEN RECEIVED--YOU CANNOT DISCOUNT HIS POSSIBILITIES."

(ADVANCE FOR AMS OF SUNDAY, MAY 27)

(ADVANCE) (NY) WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE QUESTION OF HOW TO BRING THE KOREAN WAR TO AN END HELD ATTENTION AT THIS WEEK'S SENATE HEARINGS.

GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, DISCLOSED THAT A NEW DIRECTIVE IS BEING PREPARED TO GUIDE MILITARY OPERATIONS IN KOREA, BUT DECLINED TO REVEAL ITS CONTENTS.

COLLINS, TAKING THE SAME POSITION AS BRADLEY AND DEFENSE SECRETARY GEORGE C.MARSHALL, DEFENDED THE DISMISSAL OF MACARTHUR AND HELD THAT THE WAR SHOULD BE CONFINED TO KOREA.

A DIGEST OF TESTIMONY BY THIS WEEK'S WITNESSES, COMPARED WITH PREVIOUS TESTIMONY BY MACARTHUR ON RELATED ISSUES:

WAYS TO VICTORY

SEN.HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA): WHAT ARE WE ATTEMPTING TO DO IN KOREA? WE WANT TO DEFEAT THE ENEMY, YES, BUT HOW ARE WE GOING TO DO IT, WHAT IS OUR OBJECTIVE AND WHAT DO WE CONSIDER A VICTORY OR A DEFEAT OF THE ENEMY?

BRADLEY: FROM THE MILITARY POINT OF VIEW WE HOPE THAT BY INFLICTING SEVERE CASUALTIES ON THE ENEMY AND PROVING TO THEM THAT THEY ARE NOT INVINCIBLE, THAT THEY CANNOT GAIN ANYTHING BY AGGRESSIVE ACTION, THAT IT IS TOO COSTLY A MATTER, THAT THEY HAVE BEEN LET DOWN BY RUSSIA IN GETTING IN IT, THAT THEY WILL BE WILLING TO NEGOTIATE A PEACE WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.

HICKENLOOPER: WHAT WILL THE PEACE CONSIST OF? WHAT WILL THE BASIS FOR THE NEGOTIATIONS BE?

BRADLEY: WELL, THAT I DON'T KNOW.

HICKENLOOPER: IS IT A PART OF OUR OBJECTIVE TO DRIVE THE RED CHINESE AND THE NORTH KOREAN ARMIES CLEAR OUT OF NORTH KOREA?

BRADLEY: AT THE PRESENT TIME THAT IS NOT OUR OBJECTIVE.

HICKENLOOPER: WHAT IS OUR OBJECTIVE? ARE WE GOING TO THE 38TH PARALLEL AND STOP...ARE WE GOING HALFWAY TO THE YALU AND THE BORDER AND STOP?

BRADLEY: WE ARE FIGHTING AN ACTION WITHOUT REGARD TO THE 38TH PARALLEL IF NECESSARY. IN OTHER WORDS, WE ARE NOT AT THE PRESENT TIME CONTAINED AT THE 38TH PARALLEL FROM THE MILITARY POINT OF VIEW. WE ARE TRYING TO INFLICT MAXIMUM CASUALTIES WITH A MINIMUM TO OURSELVES, SO THAT WE CAN GET SOME KIND OF A NEGOTIATION...

A118

SEN.LONG (D-LA): YOU DO NOT FEEL THAT ANY KIND OF PEACE, THAT IS ANYTHING SHORT OF COMPLETE VICTORY, WOULD BE APPEASEMENT, IS THAT CORRECT?

BRADLEY: I THINK THAT SOMETHING SHORT OF DRIVING THEM OUT OF KOREA WOULD BE SATISFACTORY AND WOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED AS APPEASEMENT.

SEN.LONG: D YOU THINK THERE IS SOME POSSIBILITY OF THIS WAR SIMPLY PETERING OUT AROUND THE 38TH PARALLEL EVEN WITHOUT NEGOTIATING A PEACE. IN OTHER WORDS, 974 194:3' &3558,& ?-:(59 5£3 38TH PARALLEL, A LITTLE BELOW, AND THE COMMUNISTS SIMPLY CEASING TO COME DOWN AND ATTACK OUR TROOPS?

BRADLEY: THAT IS A POSSIBILITY WHICH WE HAVE TO CONSIDER. IT PETERED OUT IN GREECE, AND THAT IS ONE WAY IT COULD END HERE.

SEN.MORSE (R-ORE): DO YOU THINK THAT IMPLEMENTING GEN.MACARTHUR'S RECOMMENDATIONS IN RESPECT TO BOMBING AND BLOCKADING WOULD RUN A VERY GREAT RISK OF BRINGING RUSSIA INTO THE WAR?

BRADLEY: YES, I THINK IT WOULD RUN THAT RISK.

SEN.WILEY (R-WIS): AREN'T YOU DEFEATING YOUR OWN PURPOSE WHEN YOU ALLOW THE KOREAN CONFLICT TO DRAG ON INDEFINITELY AND PREVENT AMERICA FROM BEING IN A POSITION TO MEET TROUBLE ELSEWHERE IN THE WORLD?

BRADLEY: WE ARE JUST AS ANXIOUS TO END THE WAR IN KOREA AS GEN.MACARTHUR OR ANYONE ELSE IS. THE DIFFERENCE IN OPINION COMES IN HOW MUCH ADDITIONAL RISK YOU SHOULD TAKE IN TRYING TO TAKE ADDITIONAL MEASURES.

(MACARTHUR: I BELIEVE THAT IF YOU CARRY THAT OUT (AIR AND NAVAL ACTION AGAINST COMMUNIST CHINA) YOU STAND THE BEST CHANCE THAT IS POSSIBLE OF ENDING THIS WAR IN THE QUICKEST TIME AND WITH THE LEAST

COST IN BLOOD...
(YOU HAVE GOT A WAR ON YOUR HANDS AND YOU CAN'T JUST SAY 'LET THAT WAR GO ON INDEFINITELY WHILE I PREPARE FOR SOME OTHER WAR,' UNLESS YOU PAY FOR IT BY THE THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN BOYS...

I BELIEVE THAT THE METHODS I HAVE PROPOSED WILL BE COMPLETELY EFFECTIVE. I BELIEVE THAT WE CAN BRING A SUFFICIENT BLOCKADE AND AIR ATTACK TO UNQUESTIONABLY FORCE CHINA TO DIMINISH HER EFFORT IN NORTH KOREA. I BELIEVE--I WOULDN'T ATTEMPT TO PREDICT THE EXACT TIME THAT THAT WOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED, BUT APPLIED LONG ENOUGH, I BELIEVE ITS RESULTS WOULD BE A CERTAINTY.)

--DASH--

GROUND RULES

SEN. GEORGE (D-GA): SO FAR AS YOU KNOW, CHINA IS DOING ABOUT AS MUCH TO US AS SHE CAN AT THIS TIME, IS SHE NOT?

BRADLEY:...THERE ARE A LOT OF THINGS THAT THEY (THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS) CAN DO THAT THEY HAVEN'T DONE YET, SO I DON'T THINK WE COULD SAY THAT CHINA IS AT ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST US YET ANY MORE THAN WE ARE AT ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST THEM.

IN OTHER WORDS, THE CONFLICT IS BEING PLAYED UNDER CERTAIN GROUND RULES WHICH ARE SHORT, IN THE CASE OF BOTH CHINA AND THE UNITED STATES, AS TO WHAT EACH CAN DO TO THE OTHER.

(MACARTHUR: I BELIEVE THAT THE CHINESE NATION, THE RED NATION, IS BRINGING TO BEAR UPON THE CAMPAIGN IN KOREA EVERY POSSIBLE FACILITY IT CAN AMASS...AND THAT THEIR AIM IN KOREA IS THE COMPLETE DESTRUCTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES THERE, AND THAT THEY INTEND TO OCCUPY AND ADMINISTER AND GOVERN...EVERY INCH OF KOREAN TERRITORY.)

--DASH--

MAY 27 1951

RUSSIANS RISK WAR

SEN. HICKENLOOPER: DO YOU BELIEVE THAT THE SOVIET WILL START A THIRD WORLD WAR MERELY BECAUSE IT HAS A TREATY TO DEFEND RED CHINA AGAINST JAPAN--OR WILL IT START A THIRD WORLD WAR, IF IT DOES, IF, AS AND WHEN RED RUSSIA FEELS THAT THE TIME IS PROPITIOUS?

BRADLEY: IT WOULD BE PRETTY HARD TO TRY TO GUESS WHAT THE MEN IN THE KREMLIN ARE THINKING. THEY HAVE A TIMETABLE; THEY MAY BE WILLING TO STEP UP THAT TIMETABLE TO MEET CERTAIN CONDITIONS; AND MY OPINION IS THAT THEY STARTED THIS...THE NORTH KOREANS STARTED IT AT THEIR INSTIGATION...I THINK THE FACT THAT THEY STARTED THIS IS AN INDICATION THAT THEY WERE IN A POSITION NOW WHERE THEY WERE WILLING TO RISK WAR AND, THEREFORE, THEY MUST BE WILLING TO ACCEPT IT...

A123

NOW, NO ONE KNOWS WHETHER OR NOT RUSSIA IS GOING TO COME IN (THE WAR). SOME PEOPLE THINK THAT IF WE BOMB BASES IN MANCHURIA AND CHINA THEY WILL. OTHERS THINK THEY WOULD NOT COME IN.

I DO NOT THINK THAT THEY KNOW--I DO NOT THINK ANYONE KNOWS, OTHER THAN PROBABLY THE 14 PEOPLE IN THE KREMLIN THAT FORM THE POLITBURO.

HOWEVER, OUR FEELING IS THAT AS LONG AS WE ARE NOT SUFFERING TOO MUCH FROM THE AVOIDANCE OF GOING ACROSS AND BOMBING IT, THAT WE SHOULDN'T TAKE THE CHANCE, WHATEVER IT IS.

NOW, IT MAY BE A BIG CHANCE; IT MAY BE A LITTLE CHANCE, NO ONE KNOWS; BUT WE DON'T THINK THE ADVANTAGES OF DOING IT NOW ARE GREAT ENOUGH TO OUTWEIGH THE DISADVANTAGES OF THE POSSIBILITY OF BRINGING RUSSIA INTO THE WAR.

(MACARTHUR: THERE IS NO CERTAINTY THAT ANYTHING THAT HAPPENS IN KOREA WILL INFLUENCE HER (SOVIET RUSSIA)...I DO SAY THE WORST THING WE CAN DO IS TO GO ON INDECISIVELY SACRIFICING THESE MEN, WITH NO DEFINITE END IN SIGHT...

(I BELIEVE IT CAN BE BROUGHT TO A DECISIVE END WITHOUT THE CALAMITY OF A THIRD WORLD WAR. I BELIEVE IF YOU LET IT GO ON INDEFINITELY IN KOREA, YOU INVITE A THIRD WORLD WAR.)

--DASH--

HEARINGS AND SECURITY

SEN.CAIN (R-WASH): YOU STATED, AS DID GEN.MARSHALL, A FEW DAYS AGO, THAT YOU WERE AGAINST TAKING THE WAR TO RED CHINA BECAUSE OF YOUR FEAR THAT RUSSIA WOULD ENTER THE CONFLICT.

THIS, TO MY MIND, ADVISES RUSSIA THAT THE FREE NATIONS INTEND TO RESIST AGGRESSION IN KOREA AND ANYWHERE ELSE, BUT ONLY TO A POINT SHORT OF RISKING WAR WITH RUSSIA...WOULD YOU TELL ME WHY SUCH STATEMENT WILL NOT ENCOURAGE RUSSIA TO INITIATE FURTHER LIMITED BUT VERY DESTRUCTIVE AGGRESSION IN AREAS OTHER THAN KOREA?

BRADLEY: I WOULD LIKE TO SUPPLEMENT WHAT GEN.MARSHALL SAID WHEN HE WAS HERE (AT THE SENATE HEARINGS). I THINK IT IS VERY HARMFUL TO OUR SECURITY AND TO OUR COUNTRY AND TO OUR FUTURE SECURITY TO HAVE TO PASS ON TO RUSSIA ALL OF OUR INTENTIONS, ALL OF OUR THOUGHTS, ALL OF OUR CAPABILITIES.

I WOULD BE PERFECTLY WILLING TO COME UP HERE BEFORE YOUR APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE AND ADVOCATE A VERY LARGE APPROPRIATION TO BUY SIMILAR INFORMATION ON RUSSIA; AND I THINK THAT WHAT YOU SAY IS PROBABLY VERY TRUE, THAT WE ARE UNNECESSARILY INCITING RUSSIA TO WAR--MAYBE NOT UNNECESSARILY--BUT IT BECOMES NECESSARY BECAUSE OF THE NATURE OF THESE HEARINGS VERY LARGELY.

IN A WAY IT IS INHERENT IN OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT. WE MUST EDUCATE 154,000,000 PEOPLE INSTEAD OF TRYING TO GET A DECISION OUT OF 14 (POLITBURO MEMBERS).

A124

POLICE ACTION AND STALEMATE

SEN. CAIN: WILL YOU TELL ME, PLEASE, WHAT IS A POLICE ACTION, AND WITH REFERENCE TO KOREA, WHEN DID THAT POLICE ACTION BECOME A WAR?

BRADLEY: I THINK IT MIGHT TAKE A MR.WEBSTER TO DEFINE THE TWO AND CREATE A DISTINCTION BETWEEN THEM.....

AS FAR AS ANY INDIVIDUAL MIXED UP IN THAT WAS CONCERNED, IT WAS WAR FROM THE TIME HE ENTERED THE CONFLICT UNTIL HE GOT OUT OF IT. SO THAT SO FAR AS ANY INDIVIDUAL IS CONCERNED, IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN WAR.

FROM A NATIONAL POINT OF VIEW, WHEN IT CEASES TO BE RECOGNIZED AS A POLICE ACTION AND BECOMES A WAR, I FRANKLY DON'T KNOW.

(MAC ARTHUR: TO ME IT WAS WAR FROM THE DAY I GOT THERE. THE TERM OF POLICE ACTION MAY HAVE BEEN EVOLVED IN THE CONCEPTS THAT IT WAS AN ENDEAVOR TO CLEAR AND POLICE ALL OF KOREA....I HAVE NEVER USED THE TERM MYSELF....WE WERE FIGHTING A VERY, VERY SAVAGE WAR.)

--DASH--

JOINT CHIEFS ON

REMOVING MACARTHUR

BRADLEY: (THE JOINT CHIEFS) SET FORTH THESE (REASONS) FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW:

ONE. THAT BY HIS (MACARTHUR'S) PUBLIC STAYEMENTS AND BY HIS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO US, HE HAD INDICATED THAT HE WAS NOT IN SYMPATHY WITH THE DECISION TO TRY TO LIMIT THE CONFLICT TO KOREA. THIS WOULD MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR HIM TO CARRY OUT JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF DIRECTIVES. SINCE WE HAD DECIDED TO TRY TO CONFINE THE CONFLICT TO KOREA AND AVOID A THIRD WORLD WAR, IT WAS NECESSARY TO HAVE A COMMANDER MORE RESPONSIVE TO CONTROL FROM WASHINGTON.

THE SECOND REASON ADVANCED BY THE CHIEFS WAS THAT GEN.MACARHUR

HAD FAILED TO COMPLY WITH THE PRESIDENTIAL DIRECTIVE TO CLEAR STATEMENTS ON POLICY BEFORE MAKING SUCH STATEMENTS PUBLIC. HE HAD ALSO TAKEN INDEPENDENT ACTION IN PROPOSING TO NEGOTIATE DIRECTLY WITH THE ENEMY FIELD COMMANDER FOR AN ARMISTICE AND HAD MADE THAT STATEMENT PUBLIC DESPITE THE FACT THAT HE KNEW THE PRESIDENT HAD SUCH A PROPOSAL UNDER CONSIDERATION FROM A GOVERNMENTAL LEVEL.

THE THIRD REASON ADVANCED BY THE CHIEFS WAS THAT "THEY, THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, HAVE FELT AND FEEL NOW THAT THE MILITARY MUST BE CONTROLLED BY CIVILIAN AUTHORITY IN THIS COUNTRY." THEY HAVE ALWAYS ADHERED TO THIS PRINCIPLE AND THEY FELT THAT GEN. MACARTHUR'S ACTIONS WERE CONTINUING TO JEOPARDIZE THE CIVILIAN CONTROL OVER THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES

..... THE DECISION TO RELIEVE GEN. MACARTHUR AND THE TIMING OF THE RELEASE WAS MADE BY THE PRESIDENT, SIR, AND WAS NOT INCLUDED IN THESE VIEWS.....

A125

(MACARTHUR: IF THE PRESIDENT HAD GIVEN A DECISION WHICH WAS EXACTLY CONTRARY TO THE RECOMMENDATIONS I HAD MADE, I WOULD, TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY, HAVE CARRIED THEM OUT COMPLETELY AND ABSOLUTELY.

(MY RECOMMENDATIONS WERE SEEKING DECISIONS, SEEKING POLICY DIRECTIVES. I FELT THAT THE POSITION I WAS IN, THE MILITARY POSITION, WAS UNTENABLE WITHOUT HAVING SOME DIRECTIVE, SOME MISSION WHICH WAS MORE REALISTIC THAN THAT WHICH EXISTED AT THE TIME; AND I FELT, IN ALL CONSCIENCE, I COULD NOT GO ON ORDERING MEN TO THEIR DEATHS BY THE THOUSANDS, IN SUCH A COMPLETE VACUUM OF POLICY DECISION.....

(I RESENT, WITH EVERY FIBER IN MY BODY, ANY INFERENCE THAT CAN BE DRAWN THAT THAT I HAVE BEEN IN ANY DEGREE INSUBORDINATE OR DISRESPECTFUL OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, OR THE POLICIES OF THIS COUNTRY, OR EVEN OF THE POLICIES: AND DIRECTIVES OF THE UNITED COUNTRY NATIONS.)

QUESTIONS OF POLICY

SEN. SALTONSTALL (R-MASS): MAY 27 1951

THERE WAS NO DEFINITE MILITARY, POLITICAL OR DIPLOMATIC POLICY WITH RELATION TO KOREA. IS THAT A FAIR STATEMENT?

BRADLEY: THAT PERTAINED PRIMARILY TO WHETHER OR NOT WE CROSSED THE 38TH PARALLEL IN THE SPRING, AND AT THIS TIME IT WAS PRETTY MUCH UNDERSTOOD THAT WE WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO GET ANY POLITICAL-MILITARY POLICY UNTIL WE HAD BEEN ABLE TO SEE WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO THIS NEXT OFFENSIVE.

IT IS A FACT, OF COURSE, THAT THIS IS STILL A WAIT-AND-SEE PROPOSITION.

COLLINS: RIGHT NOW I WOULD SAY THAT OUR OBJECTIVES WERE TO PUNISH THE COMMUNIST FORCES TO THE VERY MAXIMUM, AND TO HOLD IN KOREA AS MUCH OF KOREA AS POSSIBLE FOR US TO HOLD UNTIL SOME FORM OF SETTLEMENT CAN BE HAD OF THE CONFLICT THERE.

SALTONSTALL:...NOW UP TO THE PRESENT MOMENT THEN THE POLICY HAS BEEN RATHER A NEGATIVE POLICY, HAS IT NOT, TO KILL OFF AS MANY CHINESE AS YOU CAN AND TO PROTECT OUR OWN TROOPS?

COLLINS: TO A CERTAIN EXTENT, THAT IS CORRECT.

SALTONSTALL: BUT YOU DO SAY THAT FOR THE FIRST TIME, THEN, AND YOU ARE THE FIRST WITNESS WHO HAS SAID SO, THAT THERE IS A COURSE OF POLICY NOW BEING STUDIED AND PLANNED WHICH WE COULD SAY WAS AN AFFIRMATIVE POLICY FOR ENDING THE WAR, IS THAT RIGHT, IN KOREA?

COLLINS: WELL, I DO NOT KNOW WHETHER I COULD GO TO THAT EXTENT. THE POINT THAT I MAKE IS THAT THE INSTRUCTIONS UNDER WHICH GEN. (MATTHEW) RIDGWAY IS OPERATING ARE NOW BEING REVIEWED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, AND A DEFINITE NEW DIRECTIVE WILL BE ISSUED TO HIM SHORTLY.

(MACARTHUR: THE INERTIA THAT EXISTS! THERE IS NO POLICY--THERE IS NOTHING, I TELL YOU, NO PLAN, OR ANYTHING.....

(HE (THE ENEMY) ATTACKS TODAY. WE RESIST IT. WE FALL BACK. WE FORM A NEW LINE AND WE SURGE BACK. THEN HE IS RIGHT BACK, WITHIN A WEEK, MAYBE.... WITH HIS INEXHAUSIBLE SUPPLY OF MANPOWER.... THAT IS A NEW CONCEPT IN WAR).

--DASH--

A122

BATTLE TACTICS

(SEN. FULBRIGHT (D-ARK.) QUESTIONED BRADLEY ON TWO MESSAGES SENT BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TO MACARTHUR, SAYING THAT UNITS OF THE 10TH CORPS "APPEARED TO BE EXPOSED," PRIOR TO THE CHINESE ATTACK IN NORTH KOREA.)

FULBRIGHT: NOW I WOULD INTERPRET THAT AS A WARNING TO HIM THAT "YOU HAD BETTER LOOK OUT. IT LOOKS TO US AT LEAST AS IF YOUR FLANKS ARE EXPOSED." IS THAT A CORRECT INTERPRETATION?

BRADLEY: THAT WAS THE PURPOSE OF THIS.....

FULBRIGHT: .... IN EACH INSTANCE, HE (MACARTHUR) DID NOT ACCEPT THE WARNING, OR AT LEAST HE DID NOT CHANGE HIS ACTIONS IN ACCORD WITH THE SUGGESTIONS OR WARNINGS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF. IS THAT A FAIR AND CORRECT STATEMENT?

BRADLEY: I THINK SO; AND, AS I STATED HERE ONCE BEFORE, IT IS HARD TO SAY WHAT YOU WOULD DO THIS FAR AWAY. BUT I THINK I STATED THAT KNOWING WHAT I KNEW AT THE TIME, I WOULD HAVE DONE IT SOMEWHAT DIFFERENTLY.

COLLINS: WE DID CALL TO GEN. MAC ARTHUR'S ATTENTION IN, I THINK, TWO DIFFERENT MESSAGES THE FACT THAT WE WERE CONCERNED ABOUT THIS GROWING SEPARATION BETWEEN THE 19TH CORPS AND THE 8TH ARMY.

SEN. GEORGE: BUT THE INITIAL DECISION TO SEPARATE THEM AND SEND THEM UP, ONE EAST AND ONE WEST....

COLLINS: WE APPROVED. WE NOT ONLY DIDN'T QUESTION, BUT WE APPROVED, BECAUSE OF THE FACT THAT AT THAT STAGE OF THE GAME THERE WAS NOTHING BUT NORTH KOREANS, AND IT WAS MY OPINION THAT IT WAS A WHOLLY REASONABLE PROPOSITION. MAY 27 1951

SEN. SMITH NOTED THAT ALL TESTIMONY HAD INDICATED MACARTHUR NEVER VIOLATED A MILITARY DIRECTIVE.

COLLINS: THERE WAS ONE SPECIFIC INCIDENT THAT DID OCURR.... ONE OF THE INSTRUCTIONS THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAD ISSUED TO GEN. MACARTHUR WAS THAT HE WOULD NOT USE ANYTHING BUT KOREAN TROOPS ON THE FRONTIER (OF MANCHURIA), AND HE DID NOT COMPLY WITH THAT. HE SENT AMERICAN FORCES DIRECTLY TO THE FRONTIER WITHOUT ADVISING US AHEAD OF TIME ON IT, AND WHEN WE ASKED HIM, CHALLENGED HIS DOING THIS, HE SAID THAT HE DID IT BECAUSE OF MILITARY NECESSITY.

THE ACTION HAD ALREADY BEEN TAKEN AND WE DID NOT COUNTERMAND IT, BUT THAT WAS A SPECIFIC EXAMPLE.... IT WAS A CLEAR-CUT DIRECTIVE THAT HE WAS NOT TO EMPLOY TROOPS OTHER THAN SOUTH KOREANS CLOSE TO THE FRONTIER.

A123

(Q TO MACARTHUR: DID I UNDERSTAND YOU CORRECTLY, GENERAL, WHEN YOU SAID HAD YOU KNOWN THE RED CHINESE WERE COMING IN GREAT FORCE, THAT YOU WOULD HAVE HAD EXACTLY THE SAME DISPOSITION OF TROOPS THAT YOU DID HAVE?

(MACARTHUR: I DON'T SEE HOW I COULD HAVE DONE ANYTHING ELSE, SENATOR....

(NOW WHAT WE ACTUALLY DID WAS TO MOVE FORWARD TO ASCERTAIN THE

STRENGTH OF THE ENEMY FORCES. WHEN WE MOVED FORWARD I HAD ALREADY PREPARED AND THE TROOPS HAD IN THEIR HANDS THE ORDER FOR RETREAT IF WE FOUND THE ENEMY IN FORCE. WHAT WE DID WAS REALLY A RECONNAISSANCE IN FORCE. IT WAS THE ONLY WAY WE HAD TO FIND OUT WHAT THE ENEMY HAD AND WHAT HIS INTENTIONS WERE....

(THE CONCEPT THAT OUR FORCES WITHDREW IN DISORDER OR WERE BADLY DEFEATED IS ONE OF THE MOST VIOLENT PREVARICATIONS OF TRUTH THAT EVER WAS MADE. THOSE FORCES WITHDREW IN MAGNIFICENT ORDER AND SHAPE.... THE FORCES IN THE NORTHEAST, THE 10TH CORPS, WERE WITHDRAWN IN THE SAME WAY. THE LOSSES THAT WE HAD IN THAT WITHDRAWAL WERE LESS THAN THE LOSSES WE HAD IN OUR VICTORIOUS ATTACK AT INCHON.)

--DASH--

VIEWS ON INTELLIGENCE

SEN. SMITH (R-NJ): COULD YOU SAY, AS A MILITARY MAN, WHETHER MACARTHUR WAS TO BLAME FOR THE APPARENTLY WRONG INTELLIGENCE IN THE CHINESE COMING INTO NORTH KOREA.

BRADLEY: IT IS HARD FOR US HERE TO KNOW, BECAUSE A LOT OF THAT INTELLIGENCE SHOULD HAVE COME FROM HIS OWN FIELD COMMAND.... BUT CERTAINLY THERE WAS ENOUGH COMING IN TO INDICATE THAT THERE WAS A CONSIDERABLE CHINESE BUILD-UP SOMEWHERE IN NORTH KOREA. X X X AS I SAY, IT IS VERY HARD TO SIT HERE IN WASHINGTON AND SAY HE SHOULD HAVE KNOWN OR JUST WHAT HE DID KNOW....

(MACARTHUR: NOW YOU MUST UNDERSTAND THAT THE INTELLIGENCE THAT A NATION IS GOING TO LAUNCH WAR IS NOT INTELLIGENCE THAT IS AVAILABLE TO A COMMANDER LIMITED TO A SMALL AREA OF COMBAT. THAT INTELLIGENCE SHOULD HAVE BEEN GIVEN ME....

(WE HAD KNOWLEDGE THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAD COLLECTED LARGE FORCES ALONG THE YALU RIVER. THE RED CHINESE AT THT TIME WERE PUTTING OUT ALMOST DAILY STATEMENTS THAT THEY WERE NOT INTERVENING, THAT THESE WERE VOLUNTEERS ONLY. ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF SEPTEMBER OUR SECRETARY OF STATE ANNOUNCED THAT HE THOUGHT THERE WAS LITTLE CHANCE, AND NO LOGIC, IN CHINESE INTERVENTION...IN NOVEMBER OUR CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY HERE HAD SAID THEY FELT THERE WAS LITTLE CHANCE OF ANY MAJOR INTERVENTION....

(WE OURSELVES ON THE FRONT REALIZED THAT THE NORTH KOREAN FORCES WERE BEING STIFFENED AND OUR INTELLIGENCE.... INDICATED THEY THOUGHT FROM 40,000 TO 60,000 MEN MIGHT BE DOWN THERE.)

DANGER IN IRAN

SEN. GEORGE: HOW CAN YOU TELL US THAT WE WON'T GET INTO WAR IF WE GO INTO IRAN TOMORROW WITH THE BRITISH AND SAY THAT YOU MUST NOT TAKE THIS OIL OR YOU MUST NOT NATIONALIZE? WE ARE TAKING CHANCES, GENERAL, EVERYWHERE.

BRADLEY: WE HAVE NO COMMITMENT OF GOING INTO IRAN WITH THE BRITISH. THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF CERTAINLY HAVE NOT MADE ANY SUCH DECISION, AND THAT OUGHT TO BE CLEARED UP....

SEN.BREWSTER: NOW, TO WHAT EXTENT ARE THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, IF YOU FEEL FREE TO STATE, GIVING CONSIDERATION TO THE APPARENT IMMINENCE OF TROUBLE IN IRAN, AS MAKING MORE DESIRABLE THE LIQUIDATION OF OUR PROBLEM IN KOREA?

BRADLEY: WELL, OF COURSE, THE LONGER THE PROBLEM IN KOREA KEEPS UP, THE LESS WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET ANY MOVEMENT ANYWHERE ELSE. I WOULD PREFER NOT TO SAY AS TO IRAN, BECAUSE I AM NOT TOO SURE THAT HAS TOO MUCH APPLICATION IN OUR CASE.

THERE IS A DANGER, OF COURSE, OF THE RUSSIANS MOVING INTO IRAN AND STARTING ANOTHER AGGRESSION. WHETHER OR NOT THAT IS ANY MORE DANGEROUS THAN YUGOSLAVIA OR INDO-CHINA OR SOME OTHER PLACE, I AM NOT PREPARED TO STATE; BUT CERTAINLY IT IS A POINT OF DANGER AND WE WOULD LIKE TO BE IN A BETTER POSITION TO MEET FURTHER AGGRESSION IF IT OCCURRED.

(MACARTHUR WAS NOT QUESTIONED CONCERNING IRAN)

--DASH--

RUSSIA AND THE A-BOMB

BRADLEY:... I THINK WE ALL MUST REALIZE THAT RUSSIA HAS THE BOMB. HOW MANY WE CAN ONLY ESTIMATE FROM CERTAIN SOURCES OF INFORMATION. SHE HAS THE ABILITY TO DELIVER THEM....

I WISH WE COULD FEEL SURE THAT RUSSIA REALIZED THE DESTRUCTIVENESS OF THESE BOMBS, AS WELL AS WE DO, AND WOULD CONSENT TO A PERIOD OF PEACE.

APPARENTLY THEY ARE NOT WILLING TO DO SO, AND THEIR ANNOUNCED INTENTION TODAY IS TO SOME DAY RULE THE WORLD. THEY HAVE ANNOUNCED THAT CAPITALISM AND COMMUNISM CANNOT EXIST IN THE WORLD TOGETHER.

NOW, WHETHER OR NOT WE CAN AVOID A WAR BY A DETERRENT LIKE THE A-BOMB, AND BY BUILDING UP OUR STRENGTH LONG ENOUGH TO LET THEM CHANGE THEIR MINDS AND GET IN A NEW REGIME--MAYBE THE MAN FOLLOWING STALIN WILL HAVE A FALLING-OUT WITH SOMEBODY ELSE AND BY SOME KIND OF TURN-OVER WE WILL HAVE A CONDITION WHERE THEY WILL ABANDON THEIR PRESENTLY ANNOUNCED INTENTION.

AND THAT IS ONE REASON I AM OF THE OPINION WE SHOULD ALWAYS TRY TO AVOID WAR AS LONG AS POSSIBLE, WITH THE HOPE THAT IN THE END WE WILL AVOID IT ALTOGETHER.

(Q BY SEN. MCMAHON TO GEN. MACARTHUR: ARE WE NOW PREPARED WITH WITHSTAND THAT SURPRISE BLOW (AT AMERICAN INDUSTRIAL CENTERS)?

(MACARTHUR: I SHOULD SAY FROM MY GENERAL KNOWLEDGE THAT WE ARE RATHER INADEQUATELY PREPARED AT THE PRESENT MOMENT...

(MC MAHON: THEREFORE ANY COURSE OF ACTION WHICH MIGHT PRECIPITATE NOW THAT KIND OF A BLOW MUST BE WEIGHED WITH THE GREATEST OF CARE?

(MACARTHUR: CORRECT.

(MCMAHON: HAVE YOU TAKEN THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES INTO CTNSIDERATION WHEN YOU NOW RECOMMEND THAT WE PROCEED ON A COURSE WHICH MAY BRING THE SOVIET UNION INTO THE CONFLICT?

(MACARTHUR: COMPLATE. I BELIEVE THAT IF YOU DO NOT SETTLE SUCCESSFULLY WHAT YOU HAVE STARTED, AND ARE COMMITTED TO, IN KOREA, YOU WILL TEND TO INCITE HIM TO INCREASE NOT ONLY THE TEMPO OF HIS BLOW BUT THE TIME OF HIS BLOW...I DON'T BELIEVE THERE IS ANYTHING THAT YOU COULD DO THAT WOULD ACCELERATE THE TEMPO OF POSSIBLE WAR WITHWIROT

VALUE OF FORMOSA

SEN. SPARKMAN (D-ALA): GENM MACARTHUR EXPLAINED IT, AS A RECALL, BY SHOWING THAT IT WOULD BE A VERY DANGEROUS THING (FOR FORMOSA) TO BE IN ENEMY HANDS BECAUSE IT WOULD ADVANCE BOTH THE AIR BASES AND SUBMARINE BASES BY SOMETHING LIKE 90 TO 100 MILES, I BELIEVE; BUT HE SAID THE EFFECT OF THAT WOULD BE VIRTUALLY TO PUSH US BACK TO OUR WESTERN COAST..

BRADLEY: WELL, THAT IS APPARENTLY HIS OPINION. THE JOINT CHIEFS DO NOT GO THAT FAR. / / /IT WOULD BE BAD, YES, BUT NOT THAT BAD.(END ADVANCE FOR AMS OF SUNDAY, MAY 27 SENT MAY 25)

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT REPORTED TODAY THAT RUSSIA WILL HAVE ACHIEVED A 25 PER CENT INCREASE IN ITS FOREIGN PROPAGANDA OUTPUT THROUGH RADIO MOSCOW THIS SUMMER.

RADIO MOSCOW'S SCHEDULE HAS DOUBLED ITS ENGLISH LANGUAGE SERVICE TO NORTH AMERICA DURING THE LAST SIX MONTHS AND SUBSTANTIALLY STEPPED UP ITS OUTPUT TO WESTERN EUROPE. ONE OF THE LARGEST EUROPEAN INCREASE HAS BEEN IN GERMAN LANGUAGE PROGRAMS TO GERMANY, DOUBLED IN RECENT MONTHS.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH PROGRAMS LIKEWISE HAVE BEEN INCREASED, AS HAVE SPANISH LANGUAGE BROADCASTS TO LATIN AMERICA. REPORTS TO INDONESIA HAVE BEEN DOUBLED DURING THE PAST SIX MONTHS AND ARABIC PROGRAMS TO THE MIDDLE EAST HAVE BEEN EXPANDED. WITHIN THE IRON CURTAIN BLOC THE ONLY CHANGE REPORTED WAS A SLIGHT INCREASE IN HUNGARIAN LANGUAGE BROADCASTS.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT ALSO ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THAT RAYMOND SWING, RADIO NEWS COMMENTATOR, WILL JOIN THE STAFF OF ITS OWN VOICE OF AMERICA ORGANIZATION IN NEW YORK AS A SPECIAL POLITICAL COMMENTATOR EFFECTIVE MAY 28.

(275) WASHINGTON,MAY 26-(AP)-THE NAVY IS GOING INTO PRODUCTION OF A GUIDED MISSILE FOR ANTIAIRCRAFT DEFENSE OF ITS SHIPS.

REAR ADMIRAL M.F.SCHOEFFEL, CHIEF OF NAVY ORDNANCE, ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT THE BLUEPRINT FOR THE WEAPON HAS BEEN TAGGED NO. 1,000,000 AND THAT:

"THIS MARKS THE ADVANCEMENT OF THE GUIDED MISSILE PROGRAM FROM THE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT STAGE INTO THE PRODUCTION STAGE. THE RELEASE OF ORDNANCE DRAWING NO. 1,000,000 WILL HASTEN THE STEP-UP FROM LIMITED PRODUCTION TO PRODUCTION FOR USE IN THE FLEET AS STANDARD EQUIPMENT."

THE NAVY ALREADY HAS ANNOUNCED THE MISSILE WILL BE PRODUCED AT POMONA,CALIF., UNDER CONTRACT WITH CONSOLIDATED AIRCRAFT CORPORATION. THE ONE-MILLIONTH BLUEPRINT NUMBER GIVEN THE GUIDED MISSILE IS THE LATEST ADDITION TO A FILE WHICH BEGAN ON MARCH 14,1885 WHEN DRAWING NO. 1 WAS FOR A FIVE-INCH GUN CARRIAGE FOR THE OLD SAIL-AND-STEAM FRIGATE U.S.S. CHICAGO.

THE NAVY HAS MADE NO ANNOUNCEMENT ON DETAILS OF THE METHOD OF GUIDING THE MISSILE NOR ITS SIZE AND SPEED.

HOWEVER, IT HAS BEEN EXPERIMENTING WITH A VARIETY OF MISSILES INCLUDING THE "AEROBEE" AND "LOON." SOME OF THESE ROCKETS OR JET-POWERED MISSILES HAVE BEEN USED PRIMARILY FOR UPPER AIR RESEARCH, BUT OTHERS HAVE BEEN TESTED FOR USE AS WEAPONS.

AN ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUIDED MISSILE MUST HAVE SPEED FAR FASTER THAN THE FASTEST BOMBER. IN GENERAL, GUIDANCE SYSTEMS UP TO NOW HAVE BEEN DESIGNED TO ACCOMPLISH TWO THINGS:

(1) A GENERAL RADAR CONTROL DEVICE WHICH SENDS THE MISSILE INTO THE GENERAL AREA OF ITS HIGH-FLYING TARGET; (2) A "HOMING" DEVICE WHICH THEN TAKES OVER CONTROL OF THE MISSILE AND STEERS IT TO THE TARGET, EVEN THOUGH THE ENEMY PLANE MAY TAKE EVASIVE ACTION.

HOMING DEVICES ARE BASED ON SEVERAL IDEAS, AMONG THEM GADGETS WHICH FOLLOW HEAT GIVEN OFF BY THE ENGINES OF A PLANE, SOUND PRODUCED BY THE PLANE, AND OTHER, STILL MORE SECRET METHODS.

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE ARMY HAS ON ORDER A LITTLE JET-POWERED HELICOPTER THAT FOLDS UP IN A JEEP LIKE A DAY BED IN A WALL.

ACCORDING TO PLANS, TWO MEN, USING ORDINARY TOOLS, WILL BE ABLE TO STOW THE LITTLE HOVER SCOUT IN A JEEP. TWO TINY JET ENGINES, ONE ATTACHED TO EACH ROTOR OF THE PLANE, WILL POWER IT. IT WILL CARRY ONLY ITS PILOT AND A RADIO.

INDICATIONS WERE THE HELICOPTER WILL BE PARACHUTED ALONG WITH AIRBORNE TROOPS. THE ARMY SAID IT SHOULD BE VALUABLE AS A SCOUT OBSERVATION PLANE IN THE EARLY PHASES OF AN AIRBORNE OPERATION.

THE FIRST ONE WILL BE BUILT BY AMERICAN HELICOPTER CO., AT MANHATTAN BEACH, CALIF.

(150) TRUMAN

WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN GOT INTO A WRESTLING MATCH LAST NIGHT--WITH A ROSTRUM.

WHEN HE FINALLY JOSTLED THE SMALL SPEAKING PLATFORM NEARER THE MICROPHONE, THE CROWD AT THE NEW CARTER BARRON AMPHITHEATER BROKE INTO APPLAUSE.

THE PRESIDENT WANTED TO MAKE SURE HE'D BE HEARD.

HE TOLD AN AUDIENCE OF CABINET MEMBERS, DIPLOMATS AND OTHER HIGH OFFICIALS THAT HE HAD IT "ON THE AUTHORITY FROM THE BISHOP OF BERLIN" THAT THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN HAVE BEEN KIDNAPPED FROM BERLIN'S RUSSIAN ZONE.

"THEY CARRY THEM OFF AND THEY ARE NEVER HEARD OF AGAIN," MR.TRUMAN SAID.

THE OCCASION FOR MR.TRUMAN'S SPEECH WAS DEDICATION OF THE AMPHITHEATER TO THE LATE CARTER BARRON, WASHINGTON CIVIC LEADER WHO DIED LAST NOVEMBER.

THE PRESIDENT SPOKE ONLY BRIEFLY. HE SAID A "TERRIBLE NEW DANGER" THREATENS THIS COUNTRY AND OTHERS WHICH HAVE THE SAME FAITH.

"HITLER AND MUSSOLINI NEVER HAD ANYTHING LIKE THE SECRET POLICE OF THE KREMLIN," MR.TRUMAN SAID.

THEN HE TOLD ABOUT THE KIDNAPPED CHILDREN.

BY ELTON C.FAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER
WASHINGTON, MAY 26-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES MAY HAVE GAINED A WIDE NEW LEAD IN THE RACE FOR SUPREMACY IN NUCLEAR WEAPONS. BUT THE QUESTION IS: HOW LONG CAN IT BE HELD?
THE LEAD--INDICATED YESTERDAY IN A TERSE ANNOUNCEMENT OF SECRET EXPERIMENTS COMPLETED RECENTLY AT ENIWETOK--DEPENDS IN GREAT MEASURE ON WHETHER THE ATOMIC SECRECY SYSTEM IS BETTER THAN IT WAS FIVE YEARS AGO.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT INDICATED U.S. SCIENTISTS MAY HAVE FOUND THE ATOMIC "TRIGGER" THAT WILL FIRE SUPERPOWERFUL HYDROGEN BOMBS.
IN THE SUMMER OF 1946 SOVIET ESPIONAGE AGENTS GAINED KEY INFORMATION ON THE MAKING OF ATOMIC BOMBS. BY OFFICIAL AMERICAN ESTIMATES, RUSSIA THEN GAINED A YEAR AND A HALF OF TIME IN HER HITHERTO SLOW SEARCH FOR THE ATOMIC SECRET. SHE PRODUCED AN ATOMIC EXPLOSION IN THE SUMMER OF 1949.
THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT APPARENTLY THINKS ITS SECURITY OF NUCLEAR SECRETS HAS IMPROVED. THE JOINT SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, IN A RECENT REPORT, COMMENTED THAT THE ATOMIC COUNTER-ESPIONAGE SYSTEM HAS NOT BEEN PIERCED SINCE THE 1946 BREAK.
BUT FOR SOME REASON (PERHAPS INTERNATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY) THE U.S. NOW APPEARS TO WANT THE WORLD TO KNOW IT IS MAKING PROGRESS TOWARD PRODUCTION OF A HYDROGEN BOMB WHICH COULD BE A TOUSAND TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN ATOMIC BOMBS.
THE JOINT ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY BY THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT DIDN'T SPELL OUT THE WORDS "HYDROGEN BOMB." BUT IT MENTIONED "EXPERIMENTS CONTRIBUTING TO THE THERMONUCLEAR WEAPONS RESEARCH," IN SAYING THE LATEST TESTS ON ENIWETOK ISLAND HAD BEEN "SUCCESSFULLY CARRIED OUT." THE H-BOMB IS SUCH A WEAPON.
THAT COULD BE A HINT THAT BY ACTUAL FIELD TEST--USING A RELATIVELY SMALL QUANTITY OF HYDROGEN MATERIAL, LIKE TRITIUM, TOGETHER WITH A CONVENTIONAL ATOMIC BOMB OF PLUTONIUM OR URANIUM--THE WEAPONEERS HAVE LEARNED HOW TO TOUCH OFF AN H-BOMB.
SCIENTISTS HAVE BEEN SAYING SUCH A "TRIGGERING" PROCESS POSED TWO BIG PROBLEMS: (1) HOW TO PRODUCE HEAT IN MILLIONS OF DEGREES (SOME ESTIMATES ON HOW MUCH IS NEEDED TO EXPLODE AN H-BOMB RANGED UP TO 50 MILLION, FARENHEIT); (2) HOW TO PROLONG THE TIME OF THAT HEAT BEYOND THE TINY FRACTION OF A SECOND THAT THE PEAK HEAT OF AN ATOMIC BOMB IS MAINTAINED (IN ORDER TO USE THE A-BOMB AS A "MATCH" TO SET OFF ITS MUCH TOUGHER BIG BROTHER.)

A8WX
IT MAY BE THE AEC-MILITARY EXPERTS ALSO GOT SOME OTHER BADLY NEEDED INFORMATION ON THE IMMENSELY INTRICATE BUSINESS OF DEVISING A HYDROGEN BOMB.
WHEN SCIENTISTS FIRST BEGAN PENCILLING ROUGH SKETCHES OF A FUTURE HYDROGEN BOMB, ONE QUESTION WAS: HOW BIG AND HOW HEAVY WILL IT BE?
WITH ALL OF ITS OWN COMPLEX MECHANISM, INCLUDING EQUIPMENT FOR COOLING THE MATERIAL UNTIL THE MOMENT OF EXPLOSION AND THE NEED TO HAVE A FULL-SIZED STANDARD ATOMIC BOMB FOR PRODUCING THE NECESSARY HEAT AT THE MOMENT OF EXPLOSION, WOULD IT BE TOO BULK TO LOAD INTO ANY EXISTING BOMBER? WOULD THE UNITED STATES, ONCE IT POSSESSED A HYDROGEN BOMB, FIND THERE WAS NO WAY TO FLY IT TO A TARGET?
THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THAT "INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM RESEARCH ON NUCLEAR DETONATIONS, THE MAJOR PURPOSE OF THE TESTS, IS SECRET."
THIS LEFT UNANSWERED THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE ENIWETOK SERIES INCLUDED TESTS OF PROJECTILES WITH ATOMIC WARHEADS WHICH COULD BE FIRED FROM BIG, LONG RANGE MORTARS OR LAUNCHING RACKS AGAINST AN ENEMY IN THE BATTLEFIELD. REP.OVERTON BROOKS (D-LA) SAID EARLIER THIS WEEK THAT ATOMIC WEAPONS FOR TACTICAL USE ARE READY.
BUT THE ANNOUNCEMENT DID REFER TO BLAST AND HEAT TESTS AGAINST STRUCTURES, AIRPLANES AND OTHER ITEMS. AND, THOUGH IT SAID THIS PROGRAM HAD BEEN COMPLETED, IT SUGGESTED FURTHER EXPERIMENTS IN THE MARSHALL ISLAND PROVING GROUND ARE IN THE OFFING. IT SAID THE PROVING GROUND AND THE AREA AROUND IT WILL REMAIN CLOSED.
THE TIMING OF YESTERDAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT TENDED TO SUBSTANTIATE REPORTS EARLIER IN THE WEEK THAT THE FINAL--AND BIGGEST--TEST BLAST WOULD NOT OCCUR UNTIL EITHER WEDNESDAY OR THURSDAY--LONG AFTER CONGRESSIONAL WITNESSES HAD RETURNED TO THIS COUNTRY.
IF THE EXPLOSION DID NOT TAKE PLACE UNTIL MID-WEEK, IT WAS UNLIKELY ANY DETAILED REPORT ON IT WOULD YET BE IN THE HANDS OF THE FEW CONGRESSMEN WHO CUSTOMARILY RECEIVE SUCH REPORTS.

(900) PEACE FEELERS
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MAY 26-(AP)-A CONSIDERABLE MYSTERY HAS BEEN WHIPPED UP IN THE LAST TWO WEEKS OVER WHETHER RUSSIA HAS BEEN PUTTING FORTH PEACE FEELERS FOR A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT IN KOREA.
THE ANSWER TO THE QUESTION, ACCORDING TO THE BEST INFORMATION OBTAINABLE HERE, IS "PROBABLY NOT, BUT MAYBE." THIS ADMITTEDLY DOES LITTLE TO CLEAR UP THE MYSTERY.
THE DIFFICULTY IS THAT EVEN THE EXPERTS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THOUGH PRACTICED IN SEEKING HIDDEN MEANINGS IN THE WORDS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS, CANNOT SAY EXACTLY WHAT IS A PEACE FEELER UNTIL THEY SEE HOW IT TURNS OUT.
THUS IF IT SHOULD TURN OUT THAT A RECENT CONVERSATIONAL REMARK BY THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE AT THE UNITED NATIONS TO TWO AMERICAN OFFICIALS WAS SERIOUSLY INTENDED AND IF NEGOTIATIONS RESULTED, THEN AT SOME FUTURE TIME AND WITH THE WISDOM OF HINDSIGHT IT WOULD BE ACCEPTED BY AUTHORITIES HERE AS HAVING BEEN A PEACE FEELER.
AT THE MOMENT THEY DO NOT THINK IT WAS AND HAVE SO STATED PUBLICLY. YET, WITH THE DEFEAT OF THE LATEST RED CHINESE OFFENSIVE IN KOREA, IT IS CERTAIN THAT EVERY WORD OF POSSIBLE SIGNIFICANCE FROM THE COMMUNIST SIDE IS BEING CAREFULLY EXAMINED HERE AND IN OTHER WESTERN CAPITALS FOR HINTS OF AN OPENING FOR NEGOTIATIONS ON REASONABLE TERMS.
WHAT ARE THE CHARACTERISTICS OF A GENUINE PEACE FEELER?
AS APPLIED TO THE PRESENT SITUATION THERE SEEM TO BE CHIEFLY TWO IN THE MINDS OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS.
FIRST, ANY MOVE WHICH THE RUSSIANS OR CHINESE COMMUNISTS DESIRE TO BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY SHOULD BE MADE THROUGH DIPLOMATIC CHANNELS; SECOND, IT SHOULD INDICATE SOME YIELDING IN SUCH COMMUNIST DEMANDS AS RED CHINESE MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS AND ACQUISITION OF FORMOSA.
TWO SO-CALLED PEACE FEELERS RECENTLY HAVE COME TO THE ATTENTION OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. ON ONE OCCASION SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE JACOB MALIK, RIDING AWAY FROM A U.N. MEETING IN AN AUTOMOBILE WITH TWO AMERICAN DELEGATES, IS REPORTED TO HAVE SUGGESTED THAT THE UNITED STATES LET FORMOSA GO TO RED CHINA AND SO SET ABOUT WINDING UP THE KOREAN WAR.
WAS THIS JUST CONVERSATION? THE STATE DEPARTMENT, AT LEAST, DECIDED IT WAS. MALIK HIMSELF IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE TOLD HIS AUTO-

MOBILE COMPANIONS IT WAS NOT A PEACE FEELER. MOREOVER HE SEEMS TO HAVE INDICATED NO YIELDING ON BASIC COMMUNIST TERMS. HENCE, OFFICIALLY, SECRETARY ACHESON AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAVE SAID THAT THEY KNEW OF NO PEACE FEELERS.

SHORTLY AFTER THE MALIK REPORTS CIRCULATED, WORD SPREAD THAT A SWEDISH BUSINESS MAN HAD RECEIVED A PRIVATE TIP FROM RUSSIA THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT WAS INTERESTED IN BRINGING ABOUT AN END TO THE KOREAN FIGHTING.

A137WX

WASHINGTON DISCOUNTED THIS ON THE GROUND THAT IF THE SOVIETS REALLY WANT TO GET THE BALL ROLLING THEY CAN USE THIRD-PARTY GOVERNMENT DIPLOMATS (SWEDISH, SWISS, INDIAN) OR SOME OTHER MORE DIRECT CHANNEL SUCH AS ANY OF THE WESTERN EMBASSIES IN MOSCOW OR THE RUSSIAN EMBASSIES IN WASHINGTON, LONDON OR PARIS.

IN DIPLOMACY THE "FEELER", WHETHER FOR PEACE OR SOME OTHER PURPOSE, IS REGARDED AS A LEGITIMATE AND HIGHLY USEFUL DEVICE. IT ENABLES A GOVERNMENT TO FIND OUT WHAT SOME OTHER GOVERNMENT MAY BE WILLING TO DO WITHOUT FIRST HAVING TO COMMIT ITSELF ON A COURSE OF ACTION.

THE NEGOTIATIONS WHICH LED UP TO THE NAZI-SOVIET PACT IN 1939 WERE PRECEDED BY SOME EXTREMELY SKILLFUL FEELING OUT OPERATIONS ON THE PART OF SOVIET DIPLOMATS IN BERLIN TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE NAZIS WOULD BE INTERESTED IN A DEAL. IT ALL BEGAN, IN FACT, DURING RELATIVELY MINOR SOVIET-GERMAN TALKS OVER A MUNITIONS CONTRACT.

A MORE RECENT EXAMPLE IS SUPPLIED BY THE SOLUTION OF THE BERLIN CRISIS IN 1949. THE RUSSIANS WITH THEIR BERLIN BLOCKADE AND THE WESTERN POWERS WITH THEIR AIRLIFT SEEMED LOCKED IN A COMPLETE STALEMATE. THEN PREMIER STALIN ANSWERED A SERIES OF QUESTIONS FOR AN AMERICAN REPORTER IN WHICH, TALKING ABOUT CONDITIONS FOR A BERLIN SETTLEMENT, HE OMITTED ONE OF THE CONDITIONS ON WHICH RUSSIA HAD PREVIOUSLY INSISTED. AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE PHILIP JESSUP, THEN A U.S. DELEGATE AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS, ASKED MALIK WHETHER THE OMISSION WAS SIGNIFICANT.

IT TOOK MALIK A MONTH TO FIND OUT BUT HIS ANSWER--OBVIOUSLY STRAIGHT FROM MOSCOW--WAS THAT IT WAS "NOT ACCIDENTAL." FROM THIS SLENDER PEG HUNG THE ELABORATE NEGOTIATIONS, INCLUDING A MEETING OF BIG-FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS, WHICH FOLLOWED AND WHICH RESULTED IN BREAKING THE BERLIN CRISIS.

IN STALIN'S INITIAL OMMISSION THE STATE DEPARTMENT DID NOT KNOW WHETHER IT HAD A KIND OF PEACE FEELER ON ITS HANDS OR NOT. SINCE THE RUSSIANS TOOK A MONTH TO REPLY TO JESSUP'S DELIBERATELY CASUAL INQUIRY, PERHAPS THE KREMLIN WAS NOT SURE AT THAT TIME EITHER.

AS THINGS STAND TODAY, OFFICIALS HERE SAY THE RUSSIANS HAVE AMPLE TACTICAL REASON TO CIRCULATE PHONY PEACE FEELERS. SUCH MOVES WOULD FIT INTO THEIR CONTINUING "PEACE" OFFENSIVE WHICH IS DESIGNED TO PROVE THAT THE COMMUNIST WORLD ONLY WANTS PEACE AND THAT THE UNITED STATES IS THE AGGRESSOR IN KOREA. THEREFORE ANYTHING THE SOVIETS SAY PUBLICLY OR PRIVATELY IS STUDIED HERE NOT ONLY FOR ITS POSSIBLE DIPLOMATIC SIGNIFICANCE BUT ALSO FOR ITS PROPAGANDA VALUE TO THEM.

A138WX

AS TO WHETHER THE RUSSIANS REALLY WANT TO WIND UP THE KOREAN CONFLICT, THERE ARE TWO WELL-DEVELOPED THEORIES AMONG OFFICIALS HERE.

ONE IS THAT THEY ARE READY TO SEE THE RED CHINESE ARMIES WRECKED AND TO HAVE AMERICAN FORCES TIED UP IN KOREA INDEFINITELY BECAUSE THEY MAY THEREBY STRENGTHEN THEIR OWN POWER POSITION, ESPECIALLY IN RELATION TO CHINA.

THE OTHER THEORY IS THAT THEY ARE EMBARRASSED AND THEIR RELATIONS WITH CHINA ARE SUFFERING AS A RESULT OF THE RED CHINESE DEFEATS; IF THIS IS TRUE, THEN THEY MIGHT LOGICALLY BE EXPECTED TO TRY TO FIND SOME WAY TO BRING THE CONFLICT TO AN END.

MOBILIZATION

BY STERLING F.GREEN

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MAY 26-(AP)-ELEVEN MONTHS AFTER RED AGGRESSION IN KOREA BROKE THE PEACE AND SPURRED THE DRIVE FOR ARMED SECURITY, THE UNITED STATES TODAY IS:

ONLY A MONTH AWAY FROM ITS GOAL OF 3,500,000 FIGHTING MEN.

BETTER ARMED AND EQUIPPED, SIZE OF FORCES CONSIDERED, THAN IN WORLD WAR II.

ALMOST TOOLED UP TO MASS-PRODUCE A COMPLETE ARRAY OF NEW WEAPONS--BIGGER BOMBERS, DEADLIER JETS, THREE NEW TANKS, GUIDED MISSILES, VASTLY IMPROVED RADAR.

WELL ADVANCED IN A PLANT EXPANSION CAPABLE OF SUPPLYING AN ARMY AT LEAST THREE TIMES AS BIG IN CASE OF ALL-OUT WAR.

READY, ON JULY 1, FOR SHORTER RATIONS OF CIVILIAN "HARD GOODS"--65 PERCENT OF LAST YEAR'S STEEL FOR AUTOS, 70 PERCENT FOR WASHERS, REFRIGERATORS, VACUUM CLEANERS AND THE LIKE, AND ONLY 60 PERCENT OF COPPER, 50 PERCENT OF ALUMINUM.

SPENDING AT A BILLION-A-MONTH CLIP FOR ARMS--BUT PLACING CONTRACTS NEARLY FIVE TIMES AS FAST, SO THAT ACTUAL DOLLAR OUTLAYS WILL HIT A CLIP OF THREE, FOUR OR FIVE BILLIONS MONTHLY IN A YEAR OR SO.

READY TO HARNESS PERHAPS 150 "DEFENSE-SUPPORTING" INDUSTRIES--ALSO AS OF JULY 1--IN A METAL ALLOCATION PROGRAM AS TIGHT AS THE LAST WAR'S.

STILL LIVING IN PLENTY, WITH NATIONAL INCOME AND PRODUCTION AT RECORD LEVELS, PAYCHECKS HIGH AND JOBLESSNESS LOW.

BUT--SITTING UNCERTAINLY ON THE LID OF INFLATION.

TO CALL THIS THE WORK OF ELEVEN MONTHS IS TO SPEAK LOOSELY. THE DEFENSE PROGRAM MADE FUMBLING PROGRESS UNTIL COMMUNIST CHINA JOINED THE KOREAN FOE IN LATE NOVEMBER.

IT HAS BEEN ONLY ABOUT SIX MONTHS SINCE THE WHITE HOUSE DECLARED A NATIONAL EMERGENCY, SET UP THE OFFICE OF DEFENSE MOBILIZATION UNDER CHARLES E.WILSON, AND SHOOK UP OTHER AGENCIES. JUST FIVE MONTHS HAVE ELAPSED SINCE THE PRICE-WAGE FREEZE.

LOOKING AHEAD, WILSON SEES ONE YEAR OF REAL PINCH FOR CIVILIANS. THE SHORTAGES WILL BE EASING OFF BY MID-1952, HE THINKS. LESS OPTIMISTIC, ERIC JOHNSTON'S ECONOMIC STABILIZATION AGENCY FORESEES A STRAIN FOR SIX OR 12 MONTHS LONGER.

MAY 27 1951

A134WX

PRICE CONTROL MACHINERY IS AT A POINT WHICH IT TOOK OPA TWO YEARS TO ACHIEVE. WAGE CONTROLLERS, SET BACK BY BITTER CONTROVERSY, STILL ARE GROPING FOR A POLICY WHICH CAN LAST FOR THE "DURATION."

GRAVE BUT FAMILIAR PROBLEMS LIE JUST AHEAD. PART OF INDUSTRY, FOR EXAMPLE, FEARS THAT RECENT COMMODITY PRICE SAGS, COUPLED WITH BULGING WAREHOUSES AND EXPANDED PLANT CAPACITY, PORTEND A RECESSION AHEAD.

WASHINGTON, ON THE OTHER HAND, WELCOMES THE PRICE LULL. OFFICIALS ARE CERTAIN THAT NEW INFLATIONARY PRESSURE WILL RESULT FROM THIS YEAR'S PROSPECTIVE $37 BILLION RISE IN NATIONAL INCOME, CAUSED BY DEFENSE SPENDING. THIS REPRESENTS MORE CONSUMER BUYING POWER, WITH NO INCREASE IN CONSUMER GOODS TO COMPENSATE.

ON LABOR'S SIDE, THE UNIONS FEAR MASS LAY-OFFS IF CIVILIAN OUTPUT IS THROTTLED DOWN BEFORE ARMS PRODUCTION SURGES UP. GOVERNMENT MEN AGREE THERE WILL BE IDLENESS, BUT CONTEND IT WILL BE SHORT-LIVED.

IN THE END--SOME OFFICIALS SAY--MANPOWER MAY PROVE TO BE A WORSE BOTTLENECK THAN MATERIALS. THEY NOTE THAT IT TAKES TWICE AS MUCH LABOR, PER DOLLAR'S WORTH OF PRODUCTION, TO MAKE WEAPONS AS IT DOES TO MAKE CONSUMER GOODS.

THEY EXPECT GROWING DIFFICULTY IN HOLDING THE ALREADY WAVERING WAGE LINE. RIVAL PRODUCERS WILL BE BIDDING FOR WORKERS. THEY WILL JOIN WITH UNIONS--AS 1,500 FIRMS ALREADY HAVE DONE--IN APPLYING FOR PAY INCREASES WHICH CRACK THE WAGE CEILING.

THE DANGER OF A FIERCE NEW INFLATIONARY SPIRAL THEREFORE EXISTS, OFFICIALS SAY, EVEN THOUGH LIVING COSTS LAST MONTH SEEMED TO BE FLATTENING OUT AT A LEVEL ABOUT 8 1/2 PERCENT ABOVE LAST JUNE'S.

CONGRESS SEEMS DISINCLINED, HOWEVER, TO TIGHTEN UP THE CONTROL POWERS AS PRESIDENT TRUMAN REQUESTS. IT'S A TOSS-UP NOW WHETHER THE LAW WILL BE EXTENDED ON JUNE 30 MUCH AS IT STANDS, OR WEAKENED.

AS FOR ARMS OUTPUT, TWO FACTORS MAKE IT HARD TO MEASURE THE GAINS--MILITARY SECRECY, AND THE FACT THAT MOST OF THE PROGRESS IS IN TERMS OF "TOOLING UP" RATHER THAN ACTUAL PRODUCTION.

TOOLING-UP IS PERHAPS THE MORE IMPORTANT, BECAUSE THE MAJOR THREAT IS NEITHER NORTH KOREA NOR RED CHINA. IT IS RUSSIA.

THE COUNTRY DOESN'T WANT 50,000 PLANES AND 35,000 TANKS A YEAR. IT WANTS THE CAPACITY TO PRODUCE THEM. RIGHT NOW SOME AIRCRAFT PLANTS ARE WORKING THREE SHIFTS. THE GOAL IS TO HAVE ENOUGH PLANTS SO THAT NONE WILL WORK AROUND THE CLOCK; THEN THERE WILL BE ROOM TO EXPAND SWIFTLY IF RUSSIA STRIKES.

MAY 27 1951

A135WX

THIS TAKES TIME. OFFICIALS QUOTE WILLIAM S.KNUDSEN, THE FIRST PRODUCTION BOSS IN WORLD WAR II: "DO WHAT YOU WILL, IT STILL TAKES NINE MONTHS TO MAKE A BABY."

SOME IMPORTANT BABIES ARE BEING BORN, HOWEVER. CADILLAC, HAVING DONE A RUSH JOB AT CLEVELAND, WILL TURN OUT THE FIRST PRODUCTION-LINE MODELS OF THE COMPLETELY NEW LIGHT TANKS IN A MONTH OR TWO. NOT TOO FAR BEHIND WILL BE THE HEAVILY GUNNED MEDIUMS AT DETROIT AND DEADLY NEW HEAVIES FROM CHRYSLER'S DELAWARE PLANT. THESE TANKS ARE RATED HALF AGAIN AS FAST AND 60 PERCENT MORE POWERFUL THAN THOSE THAT HELPED CRUSH GERMANY AND JAPAN.

JET PLANES, IMPROVED ROCKETS, RECOILLESS WEAPONS, AND INCREDIBLY COMPLEX RADAR ITEMS ARE IN PRODUCTION. SMALL ARMS, MACHINE GUNS, FIELD ARTILLERY, AND AMMUNITION ARE NO PROBLEM. WE'VE GOT THEM.

"THERE'S NO QUESTION THAT OUR FORCES TODAY ARE MORE EFFECTIVE, FROM THE STANDPOINT OF EQUIPMENT, THAN ANYTHING WE PUT IN THE FIELD IN THE LAST WAR," ONE HIGH MOBILIZATION OFFICIALS SAID.

"WE'RE GETTING NEARER TO OUR GOAL--TO MAKE ONE U.S. SOLDIER MORE EFFECTIVE THAN SEVERAL OF THE POTENTIAL ENEMY."

THE B-29 BOMBER, WONDER PLANE OF WORLD WAR II, IS JUST A MEDIUM NOW. THE B-36 HAS A 10,000-MILE RANGE; THE SOON-TO-COME B-47, FIRST ALL-JET STRATEGIC BOMBER, WILL CARRY DESTRUCTION AT 600 MILES AN HOUR.

ONLY ONE FIGHTER PLANE USED IN THE LAST WAR IS STILL PRODUCED. JETS HAVE DISPLACED THEM--BUT THE JETS, TOO FAST FOR HUMAN REFLEXES, NEED COSTLY ELECTRONIC CONTROLS. SOME STEP-UP IN PRODUCTION IS EVIDENT. THE REAL BURST OF PRODUCTION IS DUE THIS FALL AND WINTER.

GUIDED MISSILES ARE BEING TURNED OUT, BUT THERE STILL IS FAR MORE EXPERIMENTATION THAN PRODUCTION.

THE NAVAL SHIP PROGRAM IS MAINLY ONE OF IMPROVING ANTI-AIRCRAFT DEFENSES AND INSTALLING MODERN RADAR ON EXISTING VESSELS. BY NOW MOST CARRIERS ARE CARRYING JET PLANES. ALL WILL BE SO EQUIPPED.

STEEL PLANT EXPANSION IS OUTRUNNING THE TIMETABLE. CAPACITY WILL REACH 110 MILLION TONS ANNUALLY BY THE YEAR'S END, A GAIN OF NEARLY 10 MILLION TONS SINCE KOREA. THE GOAL OF 118 MILLION BY THE END OF '52 NOW LOOKS EASY. FINDING THE IRON ORE WILL BE HARDER.

THE ALUMINUM EXPANSION--INTENDED TO DOUBLE U.S. OUTPUT--IS ABOUT ON SCHEDULE. COPPER, THE THIRD BASIC WAR MATERIAL, IS A PROBLEM BECAUSE DOMESTIC OUTPUT IS BELIEVED TO BE CLOSE TO ITS PEAK.

RUBBER STILL IS TIGHT ENOUGH TO PREVENT A RESTORATION OF THE SPARE TIRE TO NEW CARS. BUT OFFICIALS INSIST THAT THE REACTIVATED SYNTHETIC PLANTS ARE COMING IN FAST ENOUGH TO ASSURE AN EASE-UP SOON.

THE WORST PROBLEMS ARE THE ALLOYS--NICKEL, TUNGSTEN, COBALT, CADMIUM AND OTHER STEEL-HARDENERS AND RUST-REGISTERS WHICH ARE VITAL TO JET ENGINES. SOME MILI

AND OTHER STEEL-HARDENERS AND RUST-REGISTERS WHICH ARE VITAL TO JET ENGINES. SOME MILITARY SPECIFICATIONS WILL HAVE TO BE REWRITTEN.

IN GENERAL, OFFICIALS REPORT PRODUCTION IS COMING UP NICELY, BUT NOT FAST ENOUGH TO AVOID A CIVILIAN SQUEEZE.

U.N.-KOREA

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 26-(AP)-RUSSIA DEFIED ANEW TODAY THE UNITED NATIONS CALL FOR A WORLDWIDE EMBARGO ON WAR MATERIALS TO RED CHINA.

JACOB A.MALIK, CHIEF RUSSIAN DELEGATE, WROTE THE U.N. THAT HE STILL CONSIDERS THE U.N. EMBARGO RESOLUTION ILLEGAL AND THAT HE WILL NOT EVEN INFORM HIS GOVERNMENT IN MOSCOW OFFICIALLY OF ITS TERMS.

RED CHINA HAS ALREADY DENOUNCED THE EMBARGO CALL VIA THE PEIPING RADIO.

MALIK AND THE SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES ARGUED IN ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE AND PLENARY MEETINGS LAST WEEK THAT ANY EMBARGO QUESTION SHOULD GO BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL--WHERE RUSSIA COULD HAVE VETOED IT.

IN HIS LETTER TO THE U.N. MALIK AGAIN CHARGED THAT THE RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED "AS A RESULT OF THE EFFORT OF THE U.S. AND THE AGGRESSIVE BLOC IN THE UNITED NATIONS." THE ASSEMBLY VOTE MAY 18 WAS 47 TO 0 WITH EIGHT COUNTRIES ABSTAINING AND THE SOVIET BLOC NOT PARTICIPATING.

MALIK'S LETTER WAS IN RESPONSE TO THE U.N.'S FORMAL CALL FOR COUNTRIES TO REPORT ON OBSERVANCE OF THE RESOLUTION. THE ASSEMBLY'S SANCTIONS COMMITTEE PLANS TO MEET NEXT WEEK TO SET UP A REVIEW BOARD TO PLUG LOOPHOLES IN THE EMBARGO.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 26-(AP)-LESTER B. PEARSON, CANADA'S MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, SAID TODAY THAT NEGOTIATING FOR PEACE AND HELPING ROUT WANT IN THE WORLD ARE AS NECESSARY AS MILITARY ACTION TO PREVENT FURTHER WAR.

HE WAS THE NINTH SPEAKER IN A SERIES OF U.N. BROADCASTS ON "THE PRICE OF PEACE" (CBS).

PEARSON WAS A MEMBER OF THE U.N.'S FIRST GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, WHICH TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO GET COMMUNIST CHINA TO AGREE TO A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA.

"IF U.N. FORCES CAN CONTINUE TO THROW BACK THE AGGRESSORS WITH HEAVY LOSSES," HE SAID, "AND AT THE SAME TIME TO AVOID ANY MEASURES WHICH ARE NOT ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW AND WHICH MIGHT LEAD TO THEICONFLICT SPREADING, THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT IN PEIPING MAY DECIDE THAT IT WOULD BE FOLLY FOR THEM TO PERSIST IN THE DESTRUCTIVE COURSE THEY HAVE BEGUN.

"WE MUST HOPE THAT THE DAY WILL COME WHEN THEY WILL REALIZE THAT IT IS NOT CHINA BUT RUSSIA WHICH IS BEING SERVED BY THE AGGRESSION IN KOREA IN WHICH THEY HAVE PARTICIPATED. THEN, THEY MAY BE READY TO ENTER INTO DISCUSSIONS LEADING TO A SETTLEMENT OF KOREAN AND OTHER FAR EASTERN ISSUES, ON TERMS THAT THE UNITED NATIONS CAN ACCEPT."

PEARSON ADDED "THE ORGANIZATION'S CONCILIATORY FUNCTIONS ARE AS IMPORTANT AS THOSE IN ORGANIZING COLLECTIVE ACTION AGAINST AGGRESSION."
THEN HE SAID THAT THE RICHER COUNTRIES IN THE U.N. MUST HELP STRENGTHEN THE WEAKER PARTS OF THE WORLD AND REMOVE WANT AND SUFFERING AS ANOTHER PART OF THE PRICE OF PEACE: "WE CANNOT HOPE TO RESIDE COMFORTABLY IN A RICH SUBURB SURROUNDED BY SLUMS."

"WE SHALL TELL YOU WHAT GOES ON IN THE WORLD AT LARGE, INCLUDING THE AGGRESSIVE MILITARISTIC ACTIONS IN THE NAME OF PEACE FOR WHICH THE COMMUNIST LEADERS ARE RESPONSIBLE.
"THEIR PLOTS AND THREATS ARE FORCING FREE MEN TO STAND FIRMLY AGAINST THE FURTHER SPREAD OF DESPOTISM.
"THE ULTIMATE GOAL OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THEIR GOVERNMENT IS A PEACEFUL WORLD IN WHICH THERE IS NO STRONG AND NO WEAK, NO MASTER AND NO SLAVE, BUT WHERE ALL MEN CAN LIVE AND WORK FREELY AND HAPPILY WITHOUT WANT OR FEAR AND WITH THE RIGHT TO WORSHIP GOD IN THEIR OWN WAY.

LEHMAN SAID MACARTHUR HAD FAILED AS A PROPHET, MISSING THESE SEVEN "PREDICTIONS" IN THE LAST 19 YEARS:
1. IN 1932, AS CHIEF OF STAFF, MACARTHUR SAID A SEPARATE AIR FORCE WOULD NEVER BE SUCCESSFUL.
2. IN 1939, HE SAID JAPAN DID NOT COVET THE PHILIPPINES.
3. IN MAY, 1941, HE SAID THAT HALF THE AMERICAN, DUTCH AND BRITISH FORCES THEN IN THE PACIFIC COULD DEFEAT JAPAN IF WAR STARTED.
4. IN FEBRUARY, 1945, HE SAID TWO MORE YEARS AND EARLY RUSSIAN INTERVENTION WOULD BE NEEDED TO DEFEAT JAPAN.
5. IN OCT., 1950, HE PREDICTED AT WAKE ISLAND THAT RED CHINA

WOULD STAY OUT OF KOREA.
6. A MONTH LATER HE SAID AMERICAN TROOPS WOULD BE HOME FOR CHRISTMAS.
7. LAST JANUARY THE GENERAL SUGGESTED TO WASHINGTON IMMEDIATE EVACUATION, SAYING U.S. FORCES COULD NOT HOLD KOREA.

NIGHT LEAD DRAFT TEST
NEW YORK, MAY 26-(AP)-APPROXIMATELY 175,000 COLLEGE STUDENTS TODAY TOOK THEIR KEEP-STUDYING-OR-START-SOLDIERING TEST.
"IT WAS A CINCH," SAID RICHARD WALD, A 21-YEAR-OLD COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY JUNIOR. HIS VIEW WAS ECHOED BY MANY OTHERS.
HOW HIGH A STUDENT SCORES ON THE TEST CAN DETERMINE WHETHER HE STAYS IN COLLEGE OR GETS DRAFTED.
THE EXAMINATION, FIRST OF ITS KIND AND THE LARGEST MASS QUIZZING EVER HELD IN THIS COUNTRY, TOOK PLACE AT MORE THAN 1,000 CENTERS--MOSTLY COLLEGE CLASSROOMS--ACROSS THE COUNTRY.
THE STUDENTS HAD THREE HOURS TO ANSWER THE 150 QUESTIONS, MOST OF THEM MULTIPLE-CHOICE DEALING WITH SUCH SUBJECTS AS VOCABULARY AND MATHEMATICS.
IT WAS A GENERALLY SERIOUS AND ANXIOUS THRONG THAT FLOCKED TO THE TESTING PLACES IN MOST AREAS. BUT MANY WERE OPTIMISTIC AS THEY EMERGED AT THE END OF THE SESSION.
"I THOUGHT IT WAS EASY," SAID JOHN KRAMER, 20, OF MONTCLAIR, N.J.
"EASIER THAN THE COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMS," SAID A WATERVILLE, ME., STUDENT, WHO WOULDN'T GIVE HIS NAME.
COL.CANDLER COBB, NEW YORK DIRECTOR OF SELECTIVE SERVICE, SAID AFTER A VISIT TO AN EXAMINATION CENTER:
"ALL OF THE BOYS APPARENTLY FELT THAT THE EXAMINATION WAS FAIR."
SOME, HOWEVER, SAID THEY DIDN'T GET THROUGH THE TEST BEFORE THE FINAL WHISTLE.
"THERE JUST WASN'T ENOUGH TIME," SAID BERNARD LEVINE, 20, A CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK SOPHOMORE.
THROUGHOUT THE TEST, PROCTORS STOOD BY TO PREVENT CRIBBING.
SOME SCHOOLS SET ASIDE UP TO 60 CLASSROOMS FOR THE TESTS.
THE EXAMINATION, FORERUNNER OF SIMILAR MASS QUIZZES TO BE HELD FOR OTHER STUDENTS JUNE 16, JUNE 30 AND JULY 13, WILL BE USED ALONG WITH COLLEGE GRADES BY LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS AS A GUIDE TO DETERMINE SCHOLASTIC DEFERMENTS.
SELECTIVE SERVICE HAS RECOMMENDED DEFERMENT FOR JUNIORS WHO ARE IN THE UPPER THREE-FOURTHS OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE AT LEAST 70 ON THE TEST; FOR SOPHOMORES IN THE UPPER TWO-THIRDS OR WITH A SCORE OF 70; FRESHMEN IN THE UPPER HALF OR WITH A SCORE OF 75.
SENIORS WHO WANT TO GO ON TO GRADUATE SCHOOL SHOULD BE IN THE UPPER HALF OF THEIR CLASS OR SCORE 75 TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR DEFERMENT UNDER THE RECOMMENDATIONS.
STUDENTS, WHO APPLIED FOR DEFERMENT BEFORE THE DEADLINE LAST MIDNIGHT, HAVE ALL BEEN GRANTED DRAFT DELAYS UNTIL AUGUST 20.
BEFORE THEN, RESULTS OF ALL THE TESTS WILL HAVE BEEN TABULATED, AND PUT IN THE HANDS OF LOCAL BOARDS.
QUESTIONS FOR THE TEST WERE PREPARED BY THE STAFF OF EXPERTS OF THE EDUCATIONAL TESTING SERVICE IN PRINCETON, N.J. THE SERVICE WILL USE ELECTRICAL SCORING MACHINES IN GRADING THE PAPERS.
OFFICIALS OF THE EDUCATIONAL TESTING SERVICE DECLINED TO RELEASE ANY OF THE QUESTIONS USED IN THE TEST, BUT PRINCETON UNIVERSITY STUDENTS WHO TOOK IT GAVE THESE EXAMPLES OF THE QUESTIONS: ON THE AVERAGE, ONE LINE OF A NEWSPAPER COLUMN CONTAINS FIVE WORDS AND EACH COLUMN INCH CONTAINS EIGHT LINES. HOW MANY WORDS MUST BE DELETED FROM A 220-WORD DISPATCH TO FILL A FOUR-INCH SPACE? (A) 22 (B) 55 (C) 60 (D) 72 (E) 88. ANSWER--(C).
IF A CERTAIN STRUCTURE CAN CARRY A LOAD OF FOUR TO FIVE TONS, WHAT IS THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF POTATO SACKS WEIGHING 100 POUNDS EACH THAT IT CAN CARRY: (A) 20 (B) 40 (C) 80 (D) 100 (E) 500. ANSWER--(D).
A ------ IS ONE WHO HAS LOST FAITH IN ------. THE CORRECT COMBINATION IS (A) SATIRIST-VANITY (B) CYNIC-HUMANITY (C) SKEPTIC-OBJECTIVITY (D) SYCOPHANT-SOCIETY (E) REALIST-TRUTH. ANSWER--(B).

UTICA, N.Y., MAY 26-(AP)-A MOCK ATOM-BOMB ATTACK STRUCK THIS CENTRAL NEW YORK CITY TODAY AND 2,000 GRIM FIREMEN AND DEFENSE WORKERS FOUGHT A SIX-HOUR BATTLE WITH SIMULATED DISASTER.
THROUGHOUT THE EXERCISE CREWS WENT SERIOUSLY ABOUT THE BUSINESS OF EXTINGUISHING MAKE-BELIEVE FIRES, EVACUATING INJURED AND ISOLATING THE "BOMBED RUINS" OF UTICA'S INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.
LAWRENCE WILKINSON, STATE CIVIL DEFENSE DIRECTOR, CALLED THE OPERATION THE LARGEST OF ITS KIND UNDERTAKEN IN THE UNITED STATES.
HE SAID IT HAD BEEN DESIGNED TO DETERMINE JUST WHAT FORCES A COMMUNITY COULD COUNT ON IN THE EVENT OF AN ACTUAL ATTACK. HE SPECULATED THAT SUCH AN ATTACK WOULD KILL OR INJURE 60,000 OF UTICA'S 106,000 RESIDENTS.
WHEN THE TEST WAS OVER, WILKINSON SAID IT HAD SERVED A MAIN PURPOSE BY GIVING CIVIL DEFENSE PERSONNEL A BETTER APPRECIATION OF THE PROBLEMS OF ATOMIC DEFENSE.
HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE EXERCISE DISPLAYED A STATE OF PREPARED-NESS "FAR SHORT OF MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS OF AN ATOMIC ATTACK." HE SAID HE WAS EXTREMELY APPREHENSIVE OF WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IN CASE OF AN ATTACK AT THIS TIME."
JAMES SAPANARA, DIRECTOR OF DEFENSE FOR THE UTICA METROPOLITAN AREA, CALLED THE EXERCISE "A SUCCESS, GENERALLY."
A WOMAN WAS KILLED IN AN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT ATTRIBUTED INDIRECTLY TO THE EXERCISE.
SHE WAS MRS. LOUISE THOMPSON, 56, OF (266 DORCHESTER ROAD) AKRON, ONio. HER CAR AND A MILK TANK TRUCK COLLIDED AT BRIDGEWATER, ABOUT 25 MILES SOUTH OF UTICA.
STATE POLICE SAID THE CRASH RESULTED WHEN MRS. THOMPSON PULLED OUT TO PASS A LONG LINE OF CARS THAT HAD BEEN SLOWED DOWN BY CIVIL DEFENSE WORKERS AT THE INTERSECTION OF TWO HIGHWAYS.
THE WAIL OF 12 BIG SIRENS LAUNCHED THE EXERCISE.
PEDESTRIANS IN DOWNTOWN UTICA RACED FOR DOORWAYS AND DRIVERS BROUGHT THEIR CARS TO A HALT.
POLICE AND CIVIL DEFENSE CARS SPED THROUGH EMPTY STREETS TO THE SCENE OF THE "TARGET" AREA, 13 BLOCKS THAT RUN THROUGH THE HEART OF UTICA'S INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.
THE ALL-CLEAR SOUNDED 13 MINUTES LATER AND ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY THE FIRST FIRE TRUCKS, POLICE AND AMBULANCES BEGAN TO ARRIVE AT THE SCENE OF SIMULATED DEVASTATION.
MEANWHILE, OTHER ACTIVITY IN THE CITY RETURNED TO NORMAL.
ADDITIONAL FIRE FIGHTING APPARATUS POURED INTO UTICA FROM ONEIDA COUNTY TOWNS AND SIX OTHER COUNTIES UNTIL A TOTAL OF 72 WERE ON HAND.

ITHACA, N.Y., MAY 26-(AP)-PROFESSOR PHILIP MORRISON, CORNELL PHYSICIST, DECLARED TONIGHT EASTERN NEWSPAPERS SOFT-PEDALED A RECENT SENATE RESOLUTION CALLING FOR AN ARMISTICE IN KOREA.

MORRISON IS A MEMBER OF THE PLANNING COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN PEACE CRUSADE, WHICH WILL MEET IN CHICAGO NEXT WEEKEND TO PLAN A "PEACE FAIR."

HE SAID HE BELIEVED DELEGATES WOULD DEVOTE CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION TO A RESOLUTION INTRODUCED BY SEN. EDWARD JOHNSON (D-COLO) CALLING FOR AN ARMISTICE ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE OUTBREAK OF FIGHTING IN KOREA.

MORRISON SAID "I AM SURPRISED AT THE MANNER IN WHICH EASTERN NEWSPAPERS PLAYED DOWN THE SENATOR'S RESOLUTION CALLING ON THE UNITED STATES TO LEAD THE WAY AMONG MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN DECLARING AN ARMISTICE JUNE 25."

HE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED THE NEW YORK TIMES AND THE HERALD TRIBUNE. HE ALSO SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD USED ITS INFLUENCE WITH NEWSPAPERS TO PRESENT THE RESOLUTION IN A "BAD LIGHT."

IN NEW YORK, THE TIMES AND HERALD TRIBUNE HAD NO COMMENT ON MORRISON'S REMARKS. NEITHER WAS THERE COMMENT FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON.

JOHNSON'S RESOLUTION PROPOSED THAT ALL FORCES BE RETIRED TO OPPOSITE SIDES OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, AND THAT ALL FOREIGNERS, EXCEPTING DIPLOMATS, WITHDRAW FROM KOREA BY DEC.31.

MORRISON HAS DENIED STATE DEPARTMENT ACCUSATIONS THAT THE AMERICAN PEACE CRUSADE IS A "COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATION."

MORRISON, WHO PRESIDED AT A CRUSADE RALLY IN WASHINGTON LAST MARCH, SAID THERE HAD BEEN A TREMENDOUS GROWTH IN MEMBERSHIP AND INTEREST IN THE ORGANIZATION. HE SAID 5,500 DELEGATES WERE EXPECTED TO ATTEND THE CHICAGO MEETING.

MORRISON ADDED THAT BRIDGEPORT, CONN., DENVER, COLO., AND KANSAS CITY NOW HAVE THEIR OWN CRUSADE CHAPTERS.

WESTBROOK, CONN., MAY 26-(AP)-NEAR POHANG-DONG IN KOREA, ON SEPTEMBER 2 LAST YEAR, PRIVATE PRIMO CARNABUCI SUFFERED FACE AND NECK WOUNDS AFTER KILLING THREE ENEMY SOLDIERS.

WHILE BEING TREATED IN THE FIELD, CARNABUCI SAW THAT HIS SQUAD WAS IN DANGER OF BEING OVERWHELMED. HE SHOVED A MEDICAL CORPSMAN ASIDE, GRABBED HIS RIFLE AND RETURNED TO ACTION, HELPING TO WIPE OUT AN ENEMY MACHINE GUN NEST AND TURN THE TIDE OF ATTACK.

HE RECOVERED FROM HIS WOUNDS AND REJOINED HIS OUTFIT. BUT TWO MONTHS LATER ONE OF THOSE TELEGRAMS CAME TO HIS PARENTS, MR. AND MRS. CHARLES CARNABUCI OF THIS TOWN. "MISSING IN ACTION," IT SAID. HE'S STILL MISSING.

TODAY IN A CEREMONY IN THE YARD OF THE CARNABUCI HOME, PRIVATE PRIMO WAS AWARDED THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS FOR HIS SEPTEMBER 2 HEROISM.

HIS FATHER ACCEPTED THE MEDAL IN HIS BEHALF. THE FATHER KNOWS WHAT IT'S LIKE TO BE MISSING IN ACTION. IT HAPPENED TO HIM IN WORLD WAR I. FRIENDLY BELGIANS HID HIM FROM THE GERMANS FOR SEVEN MONTHS.

THE ELDER CARNABUCI CAME BACK, AND HE BELIEVES HIS SON WILL, TOO.

"I HAVEN'T GIVEN UP HOPE," HE SAID, EMOTION CHOKING HIS VOICE. "I THINK HE'LL COME BACK. BUT WHETHER HE DOES OR NOT, HE'S DONE SOMETHING FOR HIS COUNTRY. GOD BLESS THEM ALL OVER THERE!"

SEATTLE,MAY 26-(AP)-NEARLY 1,700 KHAKI-CLAD WARRIORS CAME HOME TODAY FROM THE BATTLEFIELDS OF KOREA. A NOISY OVATION GLADDENED THEIR RETURN.

THE GI COMBAT VETERANS, ALL WITH AT LEAST SIX MONTHS' DUTY IN KOREA, WERE BROUGHT BACK UNDER THE ARMY'S NEW ROTATION PROGRAM. THEY WERE THE SECOND SUCH GROUP TO PUT IN AT SEATTLE.

THEIR FACES WREATHED WITH GRINS, THEY LINED THE RAILS OF THE TRANSPORT MARINE ADDER AS SHE SLID ALONGSIDE A SEATTLE PORT OF EMBARKATION PIER AT 3 P.M. PDT (5 P.M. EST).

ON THE DOCK WERE BANDS, FANCY-STEPPING BATON TWIRLERS AND ENTERTAINERS--BUT MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL WERE THE FACES OF LOVED ONES THERE TO GREET MANY OF THE MEN AS THEY SET FOOT ONCE MORE ON AMERICAN SOIL.

THE MEN DEBARKED ABOUT 30 MINUTES AFTER THE BIG NAVY TRANSPORT TIED UP. THEY WERE FORCED TO WAIT IMPATIENTLY WHILE CUSTOMS AND MEDICAL INSPECTION FORMALITIES WERE COMPLETED.

FIRST LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (340)

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO,MONDAY, MAY 28-(AP)-HUNGRY, BEATEN CHINESE REDS SURRENDERED IN WHOLESALE LOTS ON THE KOREAN WARFRONT TODAY. THE ALLIES SLAMMED SHUT ESCAPE CORRIDORS ON THOUSANDS OF OTHER WOEFUL COMMUNIST SOLDIERS.

THE U.S. 24TH DIVISION CAPTURED 2,000 REDS -- LARGEST SINGLE CHINESE BAG OF THE WAR -- ON THE CENTRAL FRONT NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON.

"WHEN THE FINAL COUNT IS IN, YOU WILL FIND THAT THE TRAP NETTED WELL OVER 2,000," A SPOKESMAN SAID.

OTHER ALLIED FORCES SURGED BACK INTO HWACHON, SEVEN MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38, AND SEIZED TWO OTHER ROAD CENTERS SUNDAY. THE REDS STILL WERE ON THE RUN CLEAR ACROSS THE MOUNTAINOUS PENINSULA, EXCEPT FOR SPORADIC ATTEMPTS AT REARGUARD ACTIONS.

THE COMMUNISTS FLIGHT NORTH OF CHUNCHON WAS SO HASTY THEY ABANDONED 30 TRUCKLOADS OF ARTILLERY AND MORTAR SHELLS. AN ALLIED OFFICER SAID THE REDS WERE SO BADLY DISORGANIZED THEY MIGHT NOT BE ABLE TO MOUNT ANOTHER OFFENSIVE FOR THREE MONTHS.

THE SEALING OF THE ESCAPE ROUTES ACROSS THE RED BORDER ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT EVIDENTLY HAD BEWILDERED ONE OF THE MAIN FORCES USED BY THE CHINESE IN THEIR ILL-STARRED SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE.

THE MID-DAY DRIVE HAD CARRIED SOUTHWARD FROM INJE, SOME 28 MILES INLAND FROM THE

MAY 28 1951

TH MID-MAY DRIVE HAD CARRIED SOUTHWARD F TM INJE, SOME 28 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST, DEEP INTO SOUTH KOREA. THE REDS SHATTERED TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS IN AN INITIAL SUCCESS.

BUT THE ALLIED FORCES, RECOILING LIKE A STEEL SPRING, SNAPPED SUDDENLY BACK BEHIND TERRIFIC ARTILLERY AND AERIAL BOMBARDMENT. RED CASUALTIES SOARED ABOVE AN ESTIMATED 60,000 BY LAST WEEK. THEY BEGAN STREAMING BACK OVER THE BLOODY RIDGES TO NORTH KOREA.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID AN ENTIRE CHINESE DIVISION -- BETWEEN 6,000 AND 10,000 MEN -- WAS BELIEVED TRAPPED SOUTHEAST OF HWACHON, IN THE AREA GENERALLY NORTH OF CHUNCHON.

IT WAS A SHORT DISTANCE WEST OF THAT AREA THAT THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY REPORTED MORE THAN 2,000 CHINESE -- HARD-HIT AND HUNGRY -- HAD GIVEN UP. THE 8TH ARMY COMMUNIQUE REPORTED "LARGE" NUMBERS SURRENDERED ELSEWHERE.

ONE FIELD REPORT SAID AMERICAN GIS FED SOME OF THE HUNGRY PRISONERS AND THEN TURNED THEM LOOSE IN THE HILLS TO ENCOURAGE THEIR COMRADES TO QUIT.

AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER REPORTED RED CASUALTIES CONTINUED "HEAVY."

TWO U.S. SECOND DIVISION ARMORED FORCES WITHIN ONE HALF HOUR BOTTLED UP BOTH NORTH AND SOUTH ENDS OF AN IMPORTANT ESCAPE ROUTE INTO NORTH KOREA FOR THOUSANDS OF CHINESE. WITH ONLY SLIGHT OPPOSITION THEY SEIZED THE ROAD JUNCTION OF INJE, FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AND HYON, FOUR MILES SOUTH OF THE PRE-WAR BOUNDARY.

THE SWIFT MOVEMENT CAUGHT THE TAG END OF A LARGE RED COLUMN STREAKING NORTH THROUGH HYON. ALLIED ARTILLERY, MACHINEGUNS AND SMALL ARMS, SLAUGHTERED THE TRAPPED COLUMN, A POOLED FIELD DISPATCH REPORTED.

THE RED COLUMN WAS ESTIMATED TO NUMBER BETWEEN 5,000 AND 10,000.

INJE IS 28 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST, HYON 25 MILES.

FARTHER EAST THE U.S. THIRD DIVISION WAS DISCLOSED IN ACTION FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE CURRENT OFFENSIVE. LAST WEEK IT HAD PLUGGED A DANGEROUS GAP IN ALLIED LINES AT SOKSA AND NOW WAS SWEEPING NORTHWARD ACROSS THE NAERICHON RIVER NEAR THE PARALLEL.

ON THE EXTREME EAST COAST SOUTH KOREAN CAPITOL DIVISION TROOPS WERE BACK IN YANGYANG, EIGHT MILES NORTH OF 38.

THE MOUNTING DEBACLE TO CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN TROOPS ACROSS THE ENTIRE 125-MILE KOREAN FRONT LED SOME HIGH OFFICERS TO ESTIMATE IT WOULD TAKE THREE MONTHS OR MORE FOR THE REDS TO MOUNT ANY NEW OFFENSIVE

AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER QUOTED ONE HIGH OFFICER AS SAYING:

"THE CHINAMAN KNOWS IT WILL TAKE THEM A VERY LONG TIME TO REORGANIZE AFTER THE DISASTER. OF COURSE, HE IS STILL CAPABLE OF STAGING STIFF DELAYING ACTIONS."

BECKER SAID OTHER DIVISION OFFICERS AGREED WITH ESTIMATES FROM THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT THAT THE CHINESE HAVE BEEN SO SEVERELY MAULED THAT THEY WERE INCAPABLE OF OFFENSIVE ACTION FOR "A LONG TIME." THIS WAS THE RESULT OF A NEW ALLIED TACTIC--GO AFTER THE ENEMY THE MINUTE HIS OWN OFFENSIVE WAS CRUSHED.

BAD WEATHER HAS HINDERED THE ALLIES FOR THE PAST TWO DAYS. IT PREVENTED FULL SCALE AIR ATTACKS.

BUT AMERICAN, DUTCH AND FRENCH TROOPS, SPEARHEADED BY TANKS AND BACKED BY MOBILE ARTILLERY, TOOK AFTER THE RETREATING REDS IN HOT PURSUIT.

THE NORTHERN ARM OF THE SECOND DIVISION PINCER CLOSED IN ON INJE AT 4 P.M., SUNDAY. THE SOUTHERN ARM SNAPPED SHUT AT 4:30 P.M.

IN THE CENTER OF THE SLOWLY COMPRESSING TRAP, SOUTH KOREAN FORCES MOVED FORWARD THROUGH A MOUNTAINOUS SECTOR REPORTED SWARMING WITH COMMUNIST STRAGGLERS IN GROUPS OF THREE TO 60.

THE SOUTHERN PINCER ARM FOUGHT THROUGH RED MINEFIELDS AND SPORADIC SNIPER AND MORTAR FIRE TO REACH HYON. THE NORTHERN GROUP FOUGHT ITS WAY INTO INJE WHERE THEY QUICKLY MOPPED UP SNIPERS.

SOUTHWEST OF INJE A LARGE CACHE OF RED AMMUNITION WAS CAPTURED.

ALLIED ENTRY INTO HWACHON IN CENTRAL KOREA WAS MADE AT 2:30 P.M., SUNDAY. THE CHINESE WERE TRYING TO ESCAPE FROM THE CENTRAL AND EAST-CENTRAL FRONTS OVER A ROUTE THAT CUTS NORTHWEST ACROSS THE HWACHON AREA

THIS WOULD CARRY THEM BACK INTO THEIR OLD BUILDUP AND ASSEMBLY GROUNDS BETWEEN CHORWON AND KUMHWA--SPAWNING GROUNDS FOR TWO ILL-FATED CHINESE SPRING OFFENSIVES.

AMERICAN MARINES AND ALLIED FORCES HAD FOUGHT THEIR WAY INTO HWACHON AND SEIZED KOREA'S THIRD LARGEST RESERVOIR AND HYDROELECTRIC DAM IMMEDIATELY EAST OF THAT BATTERED TOWN LAST APRIL. THEY HAD TO GIVE IT UP ON APRIL 22 WHEN THE REDS ATTACKED IN FORCE.

THE ALLIED TROOPS WERE BACK IN LESS THAN FIVE WEEKS.

OTHER AMERICAN FORCES CROSSED THE CHOYANG RIVER TWO MILES WEST OF THE HONGCHON-INJE HIGHWAY AND PUSHED TWO MILES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

AN AMERICAN PLATOON CAPTURED TWO LARGE AMMUNITION DUMPS AT CHUNCHON, A HIGHWAY HUB 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL IN CENTRAL KOREA.

NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON, AND SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, ELEMENTS OF THE U.S. 24TH DIVISION AND SOUTH KOREAN FORCES SURROUNDED WHAT THEY HOPED WAS A CHINESE DIVISION. IT DEVELOPED THAT THE RINGED REDS WERE IN REGIMENTAL STRENGTH, OR ABOUT 2,000.

FIRST REPORTS FROM THIS ACTION INDICATED A LARGE NUMBER OF PRISONERS

WERE TAKEN. OTHER SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS REPORTED 150 PRISONERS TAKEN DURING THE DAY.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT ALLIED FORCES SWEPT TO THE 38TH PARALLEL IN STRENGTH AND SENT TANKS STABBING ALMOST TO YONCHON, SEVEN MILES NORTH OF THE BORDER.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID EIGHT ALLIED SOLDIERS WHO SURVIVED THE CHINESE APRIL 22 OFFENSIVE WERE LIBERATED. THEIR NAMES WERE NOT IMMEDIATELY DISCLOSED.

GREEK INFANTRYMEN ON THE IMJIN RIVER FRONT, SOME 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, OVERRAN THE HILLS WHERE THE BRITISH GLOUCESTERSHIRE BATTALION MADE ITS DEATH STAND LAST MONTH, RANDOLPH SAID. THEY FOUND ONE DAZED AND WOUNDED ENGLISHMAN WHO HAD BEEN CARED FOR BY A FRIENDLY KOREAN FAMILY FOR 33 DAYS BEHIND ENEMY LINES.

THE REST OF THE BATTALION--EXCEPT FOR 49 WHO FOUGHT THEIR WAY OUT--APPARENTLY WERE EITHER DEAD OR IN CHINESE HANDS.

IN VALLEYS AND RAVINES LAY SMASHED AND BATTERED BRITISH TRUCKS, BREN GUN CARRIERS, BROKEN MACHINEGUNS AND SCATTERED AMMUNITION. BODIES WERE SCATTERED ON HILL CRESTS OR SCOOPED INTO SHALLOW GRAVES WHERE THE CHINESE LATER OCCUPIED THE SAME POSITIONS.

THE DEATH STAND OF THE GLOUCESTERSHIRE BATTALION PROVIDED TIME FOR ALLIED TROOPS IN THE WEST TO WITHDRAW IN THE FACE OF A HUGE CHINESE BLOW THAT EVENTUALLY CARRIED TO THE GATES OF SEOUL BEFORE IT WAS TURNED.

NEAR CHOKSONG, JUST SOUTH OF THE IMJIN, THE ADVANCING GREEKS DISCOVERED ANOTHER ENORMOUS CACHE OF ENEMY ARMS AND AMMUNITION. THERE WERE HUNDREDS OF MACHINEGUNS, SOME OF THEM NEW, SEVERAL HUNDRED TONS OF ARTILLERY AMMUNITION, MOSTLY FOR THE 76-MILLIMETER GUNS. THERE ALSO WAS A LARGE AMOUNT OF CAPTURED AMERICAN AMMUNITION IN GOOD ENOUGH CONDITION TO BE SALVAGED.

THE DUMP--APPARENTLY A SUPPLY CENTER FOR AN ENTIRE CHINESE DIVISION --HAD BEEN ABANDONED.

FIFTH AIRFORCE PLANES FLEW 260 SORTIES BY 6 P.M., SUNDAY WITH CLEARING WEATHER IN THE LATE AFTERNOON AIDING THEIR HAMMER BLOWS AGAINST RED SUPPLY LINES AND TROOP CONCENTRATIONS.

MOST OF THE STRIKES WERE HURLED AT THE KUMHWA-CHUNCHON ASSEMBLY AREA. A FLIGHT OF MARINE FIGHTERS CAUGHT 300 REDS IN THE OPEN NEAR CHORWON AND KILLED OR WOUNDED AN ESTIMATED 200.

U.S. SABRE JETS, PATROLLING THE "MIG ALLEY" SECTOR OF NORTHWEST KOREA, SIGHTED 42 OF THE ENEMY PLANES ON BOTH SIDES OF THE YALU LATE IN THE DAY. EACH TIME THE AMERICAN JETS TRIED TO ATTACK THE RED PLANES STREAKED BACK ACROSS THE RIVER INTO MANCHURIA. ALLIED PLANES ARE FORBIDDEN TO CROSS IT.

THIRD DIVISION (400)

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD.

TOKYO, MAY 27-(AP)-NOW IT CAN BE TOLD HOW THE U.S. THIRD DIVISION TOOK A MIDNIGHT RIDE AND MADE THE GREATEST FLYING TACKLE OF THE KOREAN WAR.

TWO REPUBLIC OF KOREA (ROK) DIVISIONS COLLAPSED ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AT THE OUTSET OF THE REDS ILL-FATED MID-MAY OFFENSIVE. THE FIGHTING THIRD, UNDER MAJ. GEN. ROBERT SOULE, THEN PUT THE FLYING TACKLE ON 25,000 CHINESE COMMUNISTS RACING SOUTHWARD.

CENSORSHIP TODAY PERMITTED IDENTIFICATION OF THE THIRD AS THE DIVISION WHICH PREVENTED THE REDS FROM MAKING THE MOST OF A TREMENDOUS BREAKTHROUGH.

HERE'S WHAT HAPPENED;

MAY 28 1951

ON WEDNESDAY MAY 16, THE CHINESE SMACKED INTO THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT WITH 125,000 MEN.

THE BIGGEST BLOW HIT THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION, EAST OF CHUNCHON, AND TWO ROK DIVISIONS ON THE SECOND'S RIGHT (EAST) FLANK.

THE ROK DIVISIONS WERE ROUTED. CHINESE STREAMED SOUTHWARD.

AN EMERGENCY CALL WENT OUT FOR THE THIRD DIVISION---IN RESERVE ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

THIS WAS THE DIVISION THAT LED THE NORTHWARD SMASH TO THE HAN RIVER ON THE WESTERN FRONT IN FEBRUARY. THIS WAS THE VETERAN, HARD-HITTING OUTFIT THAT PUSHED ON ACROSS THE HAN AND BY-PASSED SEOUL IN A STIRRING DRIVE TOWARD THE THIRTY EIGHTH PARALLEL. AND IT WAS THE THIRD U.S. DIVISION THAT PLAYED A GREAT PART IN STOPPING THE FIRST STAGE OF THE RED SPRING OFFENSIVE THAT BEGAN APRIL 22 ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

NOW, FROM THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT CAME A NEW DESPERATE CALL.

THE DIVISION ANSWERED WITH A DRAMATIC, 70-MILE RIDE ACROSS THE PENINSULA.

THE OBSERVER ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT SAW THE BEATEN, DISORGANIZED SOUTH KOREANS, MANY WITHOUT WEAPONS, STREAMING AWAY FROM THE ONRUSHING ENEMY.

THEN THERE WAS THE SUDDEN, HEARTENING SIGHT OF THE THIRD DIVISION, HEADING FOR THE FRONT. HUNDREDS AND HUNDREDS OF VEHICLES, BUMPER TO BUMPER, ROLLED BY---JEEPS, TRUCKS, TANKS AND ARTILLERY AND THE GRIM MEN OF THE THIRD, HEADING FOR A NEW FIGHT. FIRST IN THE LINE WAS THE 15TH INFANTRY REGIMENT.

IT HIT THE CHINESE ON MAY 17TH AND 18TH. THE SEVENTH INFANTRY REGIMENT AND 65TH INFANTRY PUERTO RICAN REGIMENT FOLLOWED.

THE THIRD DIVISION HIT THE LINE NEAR SOKSA, 18 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST. REPEATED BLOODY ENGAGEMENTS COMPLETELY STALLED THE AMAZED REDS. MEMBERS OF THE ENEMY UNITS HAD FOUGHT THE THIRD ON THE WESTERN FRONT EARLY IN MAY AND HAD NOT EXPECTED IT TO SHOW UP ON THE EAST.

THE DIVISION TOOK SOKSA, MOPPED UP, TOOK COMMAND OF A STRATEGIC PASS THROUGH A 5,000 FOOT RIDGELINE, A PASS DOMINATING NORTH-SOUTH MOVEMENT THROUGH A WILD AND TERRIBLY RUGGED REGION.

NOW THE REDS ARE RUNNING EVERYWHERE. AND THE THIRD DIVISION HAS TURNED FROM HOLE-PLUGGING TO PURSUIT.

TOKYO, MAY 27-(AP)-SIXTEEN JUBILANT U. S. MARINES, FREE AFTER BEING HELD PRISONERS BY THE CHINESE FOR NEARLY SIX MONTHS, STARTED THE FIRST LEG OF THEIR TRIP HOME, A POOLED FIELD DISPATCH REPORTED TODAY FROM EAST-CENTRAL KOREA. THEIR CAPTORS HAD WALKED THEM MORE THAN 260 MILES.

GAUNT BUT DEVOUTLY THANKFUL AFTER THEIR LONG ORDEAL, THE LEATHER-NECKS WERE DRIVEN TO AN AIR EVACUATION BASE FOR FLIGHT TO PUSAN. THERE THEY WILL BE GIVEN FURTHER PHYSICAL EXAMINATION ABOARD A HOSPITAL SHIP AND THEN SENT HOME.

TWO OTHER MARINES WERE HOSPITALIZED AND AN ARMY MAN SENT BACK TO HIS OWN OUTFIT.

FOUR DAYS AGO THE GROUP WAS SAVED BY A TANK PATROL IN NO-MANS-LAND NEAR CHUNCHON. THE CHINESE RELEASED THEM NEAR ALLIED LINES.

"WE ALL WANTED TO GO TO CHURCH THIS MORNING AS A GROUP," ONE OF THE MARINES SAID. "WE COULDN'T DO IT BECAUSE WE HADN'T FINISHED OUR INTERROGATION YET.

"ANYWAY, WE ASKED THE CAPLAIN TO SAY SPECIAL PRAYERS OF THANKS FOR US--AS WELL AS PRAYERS FOR THOSE THE CHINESE HAVEN'T YET RELEASED.

"NINETEEN CHRISTIANS CAME BACK IN OUR GROUP. THAT'S MORE CHRISTIANS THAN OUR GROUP HAD TO BEGIN WITH. WE KNEW SOMETHING PRETTY BIG WAS TAKING CARE OF US."

THE MARINES SPOKE KINDLY OF THEIR CHINESE CAPTORS. ONE WHO HAD BEEN A PRISONER OF THE JAPANESE AFTER HIS CAPTURE ON WAKE ISLAND IN WORLD WAR II, SAID THERE WAS NO COMPARISON.

"WHEN THE CHINESE HAD FOOD THEY SHARED IT WITH US. AND THEY INSISTED WE DRINK ONLY BOILED WATER," HE EXPLAINED. "WHEN THEY HAD MEDICAL SUPPLIES, THEY TREATED OUR SICK MEN."

THE MARINES HAD BEEN CAPTURED NEAR THE CHANGJIN RESERVOIR IN ACTION EARLY LAST DECEMBER.

A SERGEANT WHO HAS SPENT 28 OF HIS 52 YEARS IN THE MARINE CORPS SAID THE CHINESE WERE "VERY KIND...THEY ASKED US TO BE MORE INTERESTED IN OUR GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS WHEN WE RETURNED. THEY WANTED US TO BELIEVE THAT WALL STREET CAUSED ALL THE WARS."

MAY 28 1951

THE DISPATCH DID NOT IDENTIFY ANY OF THE MARINES.

BRITAINS LOST BATTALION.

BY JOHN RANDOLPH.

WESTERN FRONT, KOREA, MAY 27-(AP)-HELP REACHED BRITAIN'S LOST FIRST BATTALION OF THE GLOUCESTERSHIRE REGIMENT--BUT IT CAME A MONTH TOO LATE FOR ALL BUT ONE DAZED AND UNBELIEVING SURVIVOR.

HE WAS PRIVATE LIONEL ESSEX, ENGLISH RIFLEMAN WHO CRAWLED AWAY FROM THE SCENE OF MASSACRE THE NIGHT OF APRIL 25 AND HID WITH A KINDLY KOREAN FAMILY FOR 33 DAYS. A GREEK PATROL FOUND HIM LAST NIGHT IN A POURING RAINSTORM.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE 49 MEN WHO FOUGHT THEIR WAY BACK FROM THE TRAP LAST MONTH, HE IS THE ONLY KNOWN SURVIVOR OF SOME 600 BRITISHERS WHO BATTLED FOR TWO DAYS AFTER THEY WERE SURROUNDED BY TWO CHINESE CORPS.

THE REST OF THE BATTALION, EXCEPT FOR SOME WHO MUST HAVE BEEN TAKEN PRISONER WERE ALSO FOUND TODAY--STILL LYING IN THE HILL TRAP OR SCOOPED INTO SHALLOW GRAVES BY THE CHINESE.

AT THE FOOT OF THE HILL WAS THE WRECKAGE OF THE BATTALION--VEHICLES AND EQUIPMENT--BURNED TRUCKS, WRECKED BREN GUN CARRIERS, SCATTERED AMMUNITION AND SMASHED MACHINE GUNS.

ALL OVER THE AREA WERE THE MUTE SYMBOLS THAT ARE FOUND ON ANY BATTLEFIELD--THE EMPTY HELMET AND THE CRUMPLED CLOTH CAPS OF THE DEAD.

PRIVATE ESSEX, WHO HAD BEEN SHOT IN THE ARM AND LEG BY THE CHINESE, WAS RUSHED INTO THE MEDICS FOR EVACUATION.

THIS STORY WAS TOLD BY THE GREEK OFFICER WHO FOUND HIM, MAJ. P. PANTELIS KALAMAKIS OF ATHENS, OPERATION OFFICER OF THE GREEK BATTALION. HE WAS MAKING A PERSONAL RECONNAISSANCE AT THE TIME.

"WE WENT INTO THE VILLAGE OF PAEGAN JUST BELOW THE IMJIN AT 8:30 P.M., SATURDAY," THE MAJOR SAID IN HALTING BUT UNDERSTANDABLE ENGLISH.

"A KOREAN RAN UP AND SHOUTED. HE PULLED OUR SLEEVES. WE FOLLOWED.

"WE WENT IN AND SAW THIS ENGLISHMAN. HE COULD HARDLY BELIEVE. HE WAS THIN, PALE, AND HAIRY."

"HE SAID NEARLY AS I REMEMBER: 'FOR THIS MOMENT, I WAITED. I PRAYED TO GOD YOU'D COME.'

"THEN HE CRIED.

"THEN HE BEGAN TO LAUGH AND I WANTED TO MAKE HIM HAPPY. I STARTED TO SING TO HIM. I SANG A SONG OF YOURS 'BLESS 'EM ALL.'

"HE KNEW SOME WORDS--ENGLISH SOLDIER WORDS. THEY WERE SOMETHING ABOUT BOMBAY. I DON'T REMEMBER THEM ALL."

(THE WORDS ABOUT BOMBAY ARE:
("THE TROOPSHIP WAS LEAVING BOMBAY,
BOUND FOR OL' BLIGHTY SHORE,
HEAVILY LADEN WITH TIME-EXPIRED MEN, BOUND FOR THE LAND THEY ADORE").

MAY 28 1951

"WE SAT ON THE FLOOR AND WE SANG AND SANG. HE WAS HAPPY THEN. WE STARTED BACK. THE KOREANS, THEY CARRIED HIM.

"ON THE WAY HE TOLD THE STORY. THEY WERE OUTNUMBERED AND COULD DO NOTHING MORE. THE CHINESE CAME IN AND THIS MAN WAS WOUNDED. HE SAID ONE OF THESE CHINKS RAN UP AND SHOT HIM WHILE HE LAID ON THE GROUND. HE SHOT HIM IN THE ARM AND LEG. HE HAD BEEN SHOT BEFORE IN THE OTHER LEG.

"HE COULD NOT WALK. SO HE PLAYED DEAD. AFTER, WHEN THE CHINESE WENT, HE STARTED TO CRAWL--NOT ON HIS BELLY, BUT ON HIS BACK AND BACKWARD.

"HE COULD NOT SAY HOW FAR BUT NEXT DAY THE KOREANS FOUND HIM.

"THEY TOOK HIM AND FED HIM IN A DUGOUT. THE WOMEN WASHED HIM. THEY WASHED HIS CLOTHES. BUT I THINK THEY TRIED TO HELP HIS WOUNDS. THEY TREATED HIM LIKE A BABY, BUT HE

"THEY TOOK HIM AND FED HIM IN A DUGOUT. THE WOMEN WASHED HIM. THEY WASHED HIS CLOTHES. BUT I THINK THEY TRIED TO HELP HIS WOUNDS. THEY TREATED HIM LIKE A BABY, BUT HE COULD NOT EAT THEIR FOOD. IT MADE HIM SICK."

"THAT'S ALL I KNOW; FOR THEY SENT HIM BACK FAST."

AS THE GREEK ENTERED THE AREA, A YOUNG BRITISH OFFICER--ONE OF THE GLOUCESTER MEN WHO FOUGHT FREE--WAS ON HAND WITH SEVERAL OF HIS MEN TO SEE WHAT COULD BE DONE TO IDENTIFY THE DEAD.

AS THE GREEK ENTERERBTHE AREA, A YOUNG BRITISH OFFICER--ONE OF THE GLOUCESTER MEN WHO FOUGHT FREE--WAS ON HAND WITH SEVERAL OF HIS MEN TO SEE WHAT COULD BE DONE TO IDENTIFY THE DEAD.

HE WAS SECOND LT. DENIS WHATMORE, OF 92 SHIPLANE, FARMBOROUGH, HAMPSHIRE, A PLATOON LEADER OF THE VANISHED BATTALION.

"OUR COMPANY WAS OVER HERE ON THE HILL ON THE LEFT" HE POINTED OUT WITH A MINE DETECTOR POLE THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN A SWAGGER STICK.

"THE OTHER CHAPS WERE ON THE BIG HILL AT THE RIGHT. THE CHINESE STARTED COMING AND THEY JUST KEPT COMING AND COMING. IT WAS ONE OF THOSE THINGS."

WHATMORE, TALL, LEAN, BLOND AND WEARING SCHOLARLY GLASSES, WAS ONE OF THE FEW WHO SURVIVED THE TRAP BY ATTACKING FROM THE NORTH AND THEN FIGHTING THEIR WAY BACK THROUGH THE CHINESE LINE TO THE WEST. THEY LOST MORE THAN HALF THEIR GROUP BEFORE THEY REACHED SAFETY.

TODAY, HE WALKED OVER THE SAME HILLS AGAIN LOOKING FOR THE BODIES OF HIS COMRADES.

NEARLY 40 WERE REPORTED UNBURIED ON ONE OF THE REMOTE HILLS.

ALMOST ALL FOUND TODAY WERE IN A SHALLOW GRAVE WHERE THE CHINESE HAD PLACED THEM WHEN THEY OCCUPIED THE BRITISH POSITION.

WHEREVER THE LIEUTENANT WALKED AND STOPPED THERE WAS THE SMELL OF DEAD AND THE BUZZING OF BLACK FLIES. THE GRAVES WERE VERY SHALLOW.

SCATTERED ABOUT FROM HILL TO HILL WAS THE DEBRIS OF THE BATTLE:

EMPTY BREN GUN CLIP, EMPTY WOODEN BOXES THAT ONCE HELD HAND GRENADES--THERE WERE ELEVEN OF THESE IN FRONT OF ONE BRITISH FOXHOLE.

THERE WAS WEBBING EQUIPMENT, THE LITTLE SHORT BRITISH BAYONET THAT THE CHINESE DID NOT WANT, EMPTY CASE AFTER CASE OF RIFLE AMMUNITION, MORTAR SHELLS AND FLARES.

HERE AND THERE WERE THE TORN AND SODDEN LETTERS OF THE DEAD FROM THEIR LOVED ONES AT HOME.

"MY OWN DARLING HUSBAND"--ONE WOULD READ. ANOTHER WOULD SAY "DEAR TOM, WE HAVEN'T HEARD FROM YOU."

SOME WERE BIRTHDAY CARDS. THERE WERE PHOTOGRAPHS OF FRIENDS IN THE SERVICE AND SOMETIMES OF A YOUNG WOMAN WITH A CHILD.

MOST OF THESE MEN WERE RESERVISTS--MEN WHO SERVED IN WORLD WAR TWO, MARRIED AFTERWARD WHEN THEY WERE RELEASED AND THEN WERE RECALLED TO FIGHT HALF-A-WORLD AWAY.

DOWN IN THE VALLEY, AMONG THE WRECKED TRUCKS SOME OF THE BRITISH SOLDIERS WITH THE LIEUTENANT HAD FOUND A RAIN WARPED CRICKET BAT. THEY WERE "BOWLING" LITTLE ROCKS TO THE BATSMAN WHO OBLIGED WITH A SERIES OF STROKES."

"FRIGHTFUL THING ABOUT THOSE CHAPS, WASN'T IT?" ONE OF THEM SAID, "I HAD A LOT OF FRIENDS THERE."

BY JIM BECKER.

WITH THE U.S. MARINES, EAST CENTRAL KOREA (DELAYED)--MAY 26-(AP)-THE PIN BOYS GOT EVEN WITH THE BOWLERS TODAY.

AN AMERICAN TANK CREW SAT AT THE PIN BOYS' END OF A BOWLING ALLEY-SHAPED VALLEY. THEY CAUGHT THE CHINESE AS THEY CAME ROLLING DOWN.

TWO BATTALIONS OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS HAD SENT THE CHINESE RUNNING. THE ENEMY POURED RIGHT INTO THE SIGHTS OF THE MARINES' 50-AND 30-CALIBER MACHINE GUNS ON THE TANKS.

THE CHINESE HAD BEEN OCCUPYING RUGGED HILLS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE "BOWLING ALLEY."

THE MARINES SLIPPED THEIR TANK INTO THE ALLEY AND SET UP STATION AT THE END. THEN THE TROOPS BEGAN CLIMBING THE JAGGED PEAKS BEHIND A VICIOUS ARTILLERY AND MORTAR BARRAGE.

THEY WAITED FOR THE CHINESE TO COME RUNNING DOWN THE BACK SLOPES AND INTO THEIR GUNS.

SGT. EARL B. SNYDER OF MOOREFIELD, W.VA., CROUCHED BEHIND THE TANK TURRET WITH A PAIR OF BINOCULARS AND WATCHED FIRST THE HILL TO THE RIGHT AND THE HILL TO THE LEFT.

PFC. JAMES B. STANLEY OF RICHWOOD, W.VA., AND PFC. EDGAR R. PERKINS OF BROWNSVILLE, PA., WERE AT THEIR MACHINE GUN STATIONS. PVT. EDWARD SOKOL OF PHILADELPHIA AND CORPORAL J.C. HOUCK OF LENOR, N.C., KEPT A CAREFUL WATCH.

I TRIED TO STAY OUT OF THE WAY.

THE ARTILLERY AND MORTARS POURED IT ON THE CHINESE ATOP BOTH HILLS. THE CLEAN WHITE PUFFS OF PHOSPHOROUS SHELLS, FLECKED WITH FIRE, ROSE AGAIN AND AGAIN. THE TIME-FUSED HIGH EXPLOSIVE SHELLS BURST 30-FEET OVER THE HEADS OF THE REDS IN UGLY BLACK CLOUDS, RAINING FRAGMENTS ON THEM.

BEHIND US, GRACEFUL JET PLANES DARTED IN AND OUT, GIVING ROCKET AND FIRE BOMB TREATMENT TO THE HILLS.

THEN THE MACHINE GUNS OPENED UP WITH THEIR ANGRY STUTTER. AMERICAN INFANTRYMEN BEGAN CAUTIOUSLY EDGING UP THE SLOPES.

THEY DARTED SKILLFULLY FROM ROCK TO BUSH, EACH MAN FIRING A FEW ROUNDS WHILE A BUDDY DASHED 10 OR 15 YARDS FORWARD.

THE REDS OPENED UP ATOP THE HILL. BULLETS CHURNED UP THE GROUND ON THE SLOPE. A RUSSIAN-MADE "BURP GUN" LET LOOSE LIKE A LOW VOICED ZIPPER BEING ZIPPED IN ANGER.

THEN THE SAME RACKET BEGAN ON THE RIGHT.

"IT'S A WONDER ANYONE IS ALIVE ON THOSE HILLS AFTER THE STUFF WE THREW AT THEM," SAID SNYDER, "BUT THEY SURE ARE."

BUT THE INCREDIBLE FIRE POWER BARRAGE OF THE AMERICANS--IT SOUNDED AS IF A WHOLE COMPANY HAD OPENED FIRE AT ONCE AND ALL THE MEN WERE POURING LEAD AS FAST AS THEY COULD--SOON HAD ITS EFFECT.

A TINY FIGURE, THEN ANOTHER APPEARED ON THE SKYLINE OF THE HILL TO THE LEFT. THEY BEGAN RUNNING IN A ZIGZAG LINE AS IF THEY WERE STRUGGLING UNDER HEAVY LOADS.

MAY 28 1951

AS1FX

"THOSE ARE CHINKS TRYING TO GET AWAY WITH THE AMMO," SHOUTED SOKOL.

"LET ME GET THEM," SAID PERKINS.

"HOLD IT A SECOND, DAMMIT," SAID SNYDER, PEERING INTENTLY THROUGH THE GLASSES. "LET'S MAKE SURE THEY ARE NOT OUR OWN MEN."

SUDDENLY ANOTHER DOZEN MEN TOPPED THE HILL AND BEGAN RUNNING INTO OUR GUN SIGHTS. SNYDER GRABBED STANLEY'S ARM AND SHOUTED:

"THEY ARE CHINKS, ALL RIGHT. THEY'RE WEARING THOSE BROWN UNIFORMS."

BOTH GUNNERS OPENED UP AT ONCE. THE TRACERS WINKED INTO THE HILLS. DUST CLOUDS APPEARED AT THE FEET OF THE RUNNING MEN.

"SHOOT HIGHER, HIGHER," SHOUTED SOME ONE.

THE ROUTE OF THE BULLETS WAS MOVED UP. FOUR OR FIVE MEN FELL. THE GUNS CHATTERED AWAY. STEAM ROSE FROM THE BIG ANGRY-NOSED 50-CALIBER. THE 30-CALIBER BOBBED UP AND DOWN WITH EACH ROUND.

"YOU'RE HITTING THEM. YOU'RE GETTING THEM," SHOUTED SNYDER OVER THE ROAR OF THE GUNS. "GIVE THEM HELL."

THE CHINESE, NOW ABOUT 500 YARDS AWAY, WHEELED AND TRIED TO CHANGE DIRECTION. THE MURDEROUS FIRE CONTINUED TO DROP THEM UNTIL THE SURVIVORS DISAPPEARED OVER THE SLOPE AND RAN FOR ANOTHER VALLEY EXIT.

BUT THERE WAS NO REST FOR THE SMOKING GUNS.

SNYDER SUDDENLY SPOTTED SOME BROWN-SUITED MEN SNEAKING AWAY FROM THE FIGHT ON THE RIGHT.

"GET THOSE B------," HE HOLLERED AND THE REST OF THE LEATHERNECKS TOOK UP THE CRY.

TWO OF THEM DROPPED BEFORE THEY VEERED AWAY FROM THE "BOWLING ALLEY" AND SLIPPED AWAY THROUGH THE BRUSH.

THEN THE QUIET THAT COMES AFTER BATTLE DESCENDED ON THE VALLEY. AMERICANS APPEARED ON THE PEAKS OF THE HILLS TO THE RIGHT AND LEFT.

IT DIDN'T LAST LONG.

THE BLASTING OF OUR GUNS HAD GIVEN US AWAY. FROM SOMEWHERE BEHIND US MORTAR SHELLS WERE SENT TO FIND US. THEY SPLATTERED INTO THE VALLEY WITH A NASTY CRASH.

"LET'S GET THE HELL OUT OF HERE," WAS THE GENERAL CONCENSUS. WE DID.

WESTERN FRONT, KOREA, MAY 27-(AP)-"BY GOD, IF I'M EVER UNHAPPY AGAIN I'M GOING TO LOOK AT A PICTURE OF MYSELF LIKE THIS."

THE SPEAKER WAS AIRFORCE SECOND LT.MELVIN J.SHADDUCK OF ROUTE ONE, CUSHING,MINN. HE WAS SITTING IN A JEEP, SUNKEN AND SHAGGY WITH MORE THAN A MONTH'S GROWTH OF BROWN HAIR AND BEARD.

BUT HIS EYES WERE UNNATURALLY BRIGHT WITH THE FIRST FREEDOM HE HAD TASTED IN 35 DAYS--SINCE HE WAS SHOT DOWN BEHIND ENEMY LINES ON APRIL 22, THE DAY THE CHINESE LAUNCHED THEIR LAST GREAT WESTERN OFFENSIVE.

THE LIEUTENANT IS THE SON OF MR. AND MRS.L.K.SHADDUCK OF 808 EIGHTH STREET, LITTLE FALLS, MINN. HIS WIFE, LILLIAN, LIVES WITH HER MOTHER AT ROUTE ONE, DOWNERS GROVE, MINN.

"IF I EVER KICK AGAIN ABOUT WHAT HAPPENS TO ME I'M JUST GOING TO GET THIS PICTURE OUT AND LOOK AT IT," SAID THE LIEUTENANT. "EVERYTHING'S WONDERFUL RIGHT NOW. I LOVE THE WORLD. I COULDN'T BE HAPPIER IF I LIVED A THOUSAND YEARS."

LESS THAN AN HOUR BEFORE, A GREEK PATROL, PROBING A LITTLE VILLAGE ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE IMJIN RIVER, SAW SEVERAL KOREANS RUNNING UP EXCITEDLY. THEY PULLED THE GREEKS INTO HOUSE, WHERE THEY FOUND SHADDUCK LYING ON A RICE STRAW MAT. HE WAS THIN AND WORN FROM HIS ORDEAL BUT WELL ENOUGH TO WALK.

"I WAS FLYING A MOSQUITO PLANE APRIL 22," HE SAID, "WHEN THE CHINESE CAUGHT ME IN THE AIR WITH A BURST OF 20 MILLIMETER GROUND FIRE."

MOSQUITOS ARE SPOTTER PLANES THAT CONTROL THE MOVEMENTS OF THE FAST FIGHTER AIRCRAFT.

"THE PLANE CAUGHT FIRE, BURNING MY ARM A BIT, AND I HAD TO BAIL OUT. I HAD NO IDEA THE OFFENSIVE WAS TO START THAT NIGHT AND I THOUGHT I WAS NEAR OUR LINES.

"I HEADED SOUTH THAT NIGHT BUT WHEN I GOT TO OUR POSITIONS THE CHINESE WERE THERE AHEAD OF ME. I LAID LOW THAT NIGHT BUT WHEN I STARTED OUT IN THE MORNING I RAN INTO A GROUP OF ABOUT 50 CHINESE AND THAT WAS THAT.

"BY AND LARGE THEY TREATED ME FAIRLY WELL. OF COURSE THEY TOOK MY PISTOL, BUT THEY LEFT ME WITH ALL MY OTHER THINGS. AT FIRST, I GOT THE SAME FOOD THEY DID AND AS LONG AS I WAS WITH A GROUP NOBODY PUSHED ME AROUND. IT WAS ONLY WHEN I WAS WITH ONE OR TWO THAT I GOT CLUBBED A LITTLE. THE FRONT TROOPS WERE BETTER THAN THOSE IN THE REAR ABOUT THAT, TOO."

MAY 28 1951

A152FX

SHADDUCK WAS MARCHED HITHER AND YON FOR SEVERAL WEEKS. THEN WHEN THE CHINESE BEGAN THEIR NEW RETREAT NORTH THEY SIMPLY ABANDONED HIM WITH SIX OTHER PRISONERS--FIVE AMERICANS AND A TURK.

SHADDUCK STRUCK OUT ALONE AND REACHED THE VILLAGE.

"WHEN THEY CAPTURED ME THEY TALKED EXACTLY LIKE THE SURRENDER LEAFLETS THEY LEAVE FOR OUR TROOPS. THEY SAID WE ARE CHINESE VOLUNTEERS--WE WILL NOT HARM YOU, WE WILL NOT TAKE YOUR PERSONAL POSSESSIONS, AND WE WILL FEED YOU AND GIVE YOU MEDICAL CARE.

"THEY SAID IT IN ENGLISH AS IF THEY HAD MEMORIZED IT.

"LITTLE BY LITTLE THEY TOOK MOST OF MY THINGS IN SPITE OF THEIR PROMISES. THEY DID LEAVE ME MOST OF MY CLOTHES AND ONE ARMY PEN."

SHADDUCK DIRECTED THE GREEKS TO THE SIX OTHER ALLIED SOLDIERS, WHO WERE RETURNED TO ALLIED LINES.

FIRST LEAD TIBET.

TOKYO, MAY 27-(AP)-RED CHINA ANNOUNCED WITH MUCH FANFARE TODAY A SWEEPING TREATY FOR THE "LIBERATION" OF TIBET--BUT WHICH, IF EFFECTIVE, GIVES IT A MILITARY STRANGLEHOLD ON THAT GATEWAY TO INDIA. x30

THE TERMS CALLED FOR CONTROL OF TIBET'S NATIONAL DEFENSES BY THE RED ARMY. THEY ALSO FEATURED A SLY RED ATTEMPT TO DIVIDE THE COUNTRY BY ESTABLISHMENT OF A CHINESE AS A RIVAL OF THE RULING DALAI LAMA.

PEIPING RADIO ROLLED OUT A FLOODTIDE OF WORDS ON JUST HOW RED CHINA "WILL CERTAINLY HELP THE TIBETAN PEOPLE IN WIPING OUT THE INFLUENCE OF IMPERIALISM IN TIBET."

A NOTE OF UNCERTAINTY ON JUST HOW TIBET WILL ACCEPT ITS "LIBERATION" WAS DETECTED IN A STATEMENT ISSUED BY CHINA'S ARMY COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, CHU TEH:

"IT IS HOPED THAT THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT OF TIBET WILL CARRY OUT THE AGREEMENT ON THE MEASURES FOR THE PEACEFUL LIBERATION OF TIBET IN EARNEST AND DO ALL IT CAN TO HELP THE PEOPLE'S LIBERATION ARMY (COMMUNIST) MARCH INTO TIBET."

BY TREATY, TIBET BECAME A MILITARY DISTRICT OF RED CHINA UNDER A RED GENERAL'S COMMAND THE MOMENT THE TREATY WAS SIGNED--MAY 23.

THE COMMUNIST COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, GEN. CHU TEH, WITNESSED THE SIGNING.

MAY 28 1951

BY PEIPING'S OWN ACCOUNT:

RED TROOPS WILL STAY IN THAT "ROOF OF THE WORLD" LAND--ABOUT THE SIZE OF FRANCE AND GERMANY--WHICH THEY INVADED LAST FALL.

(AS MONITORED IN SAN FRANCISCO, THIS TREATY PROVISION READ BLUNTLY: "THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT OF TIBET SHALL ACTIVELY ASSIST THE PEOPLE'S LIBERATION (COMMUNIST) ARMY TO ENTER TIBET AND CONSOLIDATE THE NATIONAL DEFENSES.")

TIBETAN TROOPS WILL BE INTEGRATED IN THE RED ARMY.

RED CHINA TAKES OVER TIBET'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND TRADE.

TIBET WILL BANISH "IMPERIALISTIC INFLUENCE AND REVERT TO RED CHINA."

THERE ALSO WAS A HINT THAT TIBET WOULD BE PARTITIONED BETWEEN RIVAL LAMAS.

ONE TREATY PROVISION WAS THAT THE STATUS AND POWER OF THE DALAI LAMA WOULD CONTINUE UNMODIFIED. WITH HIS GOVERNMENT OF PRIESTS, THE DALAI LAMA FLED LHASA AT THE OUTSET OF THE COMMUNIST INVASION. HE WENT TO YATUNG ON THE INDIAN BORDER.

BUT THE TREATY AT THE SAME TIME PROMISED REINSTATEMENT OF THE PANCHEN LAMA WHO HAS BEEN IN EXILE UNDER TUTELAGE OF RED CHINA. BEFORE HE LEFT CHINA HE HAD CONTROLLED WEST TIBET AND THE DALAI LAMA THE EAST.

BUT THE TREATY PROMISED TO ESTABLISH THE PANCHEN LAMA. THE PRESENT CLAIMANT IS A CHINESE WHO HAS NEVER BEEN IN TIBET.

CHINESE RED PLANS FOR TWO LAMAS SUGGEST A SHREWD ATTEMPT AT PARTITION.

THE DALAI LAMA HAS LONG BEEN THE TEMPORAL AND SPIRITUAL LEADER OF ALL TIBET. THE CURRENT PANCHEN LAMA SOUGHT TO TAKE OVER SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP BUT NEVER WAS ABLE TO GAIN POWER SO LONG AS THE DALAI LAMA REMAINED IN LHASA.

THE DALAI LAMA'S FLIGHT FROM LHASA AND ENTRY THERE OF CHINESE REDS GAVE THE COMMUNISTS THEIR OPPORTUNITY TO BACK THEIR PANCHEN PUPPET.

IN ADDITION TO THESE SIX TREATY PROVISIONS, PEIPING RADIO, AS MONITORED IN TOKYO, ANNOUNCED THESE FOUR:

TIBET'S RELIGION--LAMAISM, A FORM OF BUDDHISM--ITS CUSTOMS AND HABITS WILL REMAIN INTACT; THE REVENUE OF THE LAMA TEMPLES WILL BE UNDISTURBED. (RED CHINA OBVIOUSLY WANTS TO AVOID TROUBLE WITH THE LAMAS ALTHOUGH

SHE HAS SHOWN NO COMPUNCTION IN DEALING SHARPLY WITH THE CHRISTIAN MISSIONS WITHIN RED CHINA ITSELF.)

TIBETAN "COLLABORATORS" WHO SEVER THEIR RELATIONS WITH "IMPERIALISTS AND THE KUOMINTANG" (CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT PARTY) SHALL NOT BE PUNISHED. (THIS WAS AN OBVIOUS ATTEMPT TO GUARD AGAINST INSURRECTION BY WEENING AWAY ANY DISSIDENTS FROM OLD TIES.)

THE TIBETAN GOVERNMENT WILL CONDUCT REFORMS "VOLUNTARILY AND NOT UNDER DURESS."

TIBETANS "UNDER GUIDANCE OF THE CENTRAL RED CHINA GOVERNMENT" WILL CONDUCT THEIR OWN AUTONOMOUS GOVERNMENT.

RED CHINA DID NOT DIGNIFY THE OCCASION EITHER WITH THE NO. 1 COMMUNIST, MAO TZE-TUNG, NOR THE RED PREMIER AND FOREIGN MINISTER, CHOU EN-LAI.

THE BROADCAST SAID LIE WEI-HAN SIGNED FOR RED CHINA AND THAT THE TIBETAN PLENIPOTENTIARY WAS NGA BOU.

PEIPING RADIO CALLED IT "A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT."

USING A DAZZLING DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS, THE RED ARMY ROUTED TIBETAN'S TROOPS LAST OCTOBER WITHOUT EVEN A FIGHT.

THE RED VENTURE NEVER WAS COMPLETELY ENDED. THE REDS SET UP A BORDER GOVERNMENT FOR TIBET IN THE NEIGHBORING CHINESE PROVINCE OF SIKANG.

A TIBET DELEGATION HAS BEEN IN PEIPING FOR WEEKS NEGOTIATING FOR SOME DEGREE OF AUTONOMY.

PEIPING RADIO CALLED THE SWEEPING TREATY PROVISIONS A "PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT."

PEIPING SAID, HOWEVER, THAT WHILE CHAIRMAN MAO WAS NOT PRESENT AT THE SIGNING HE DID HOLD A RECEPTION ON THE EVENING OF THE 24TH TO CELEBRATE "THE AGREEMENT ON MEASURES FOR THE PEACEFUL LIBERATION OF TIBET."

THIS WAS ONE OF FEW OCCASIONS RECENTLY WHEN THE REPORTEDLY AILING MAO WAS PLACED IN THE PUBLIC EYE. THE LAST PREVIOUS ONE WAS THE BIG COMMUNIST MAY DAY PARADE.

(AS MONITORED IN SAN FRANCISCO, THE ACCOUNT OF THE CELEBRATING RECEPTION HAD THE PANCHEN NGO ERH-TEHNI AND HIS DEPUTY ADVISOR, JIAYA BUDDHA, PRESENT. CONSPICUOUSLY NOT MENTIONED WAS THE DALAI LAMA. HE REPORTEDLY WAS REPRESENTED BY A "DELEGATION."

(BUT THE PEIPING BROADCAST SAID REPEATED TOASTS WERE PROPOSED TO THE "UNITY" OF THE TWO LAMAS, AS WELL AS TO THE HEALTH OF CHAIRMAN MAO AND "THE GREAT UNITY OF ALL THE NATIONALITIES IN CHINA."

(BOTH THE PANCHEN LAMA AND THE SO-CALLED DELEGATION OF THE DALAI LAMA WERE SAID TO HAVE PAID COURTESY CALLS DURING THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 24 ON BOTH CHAIRMAN MAO AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF CHU.)

MAY 28 1951

A9

HONG KONG, MAY 27-(AP)-PEIPING RADIO ANNOUNCED TODAY A "PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT" WITH TIBET. DETAILS AS RECEIVED HERE INDICATED THAT THE COMMUNIST CHINESE GOVERNMENT HAS WON ALMOST COMPLETE CONTROL OVER THE CONQUERED MOUNTAIN LAND.

RED CHINESE ARMIES INVADED TIBET LAST FALL AND SENT THE TIBETAN ARMY INTO FLIGHT WITH A DAZZLING DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS. THE RULING DALAI LAMA AND HIS GOVERNMENT OF PRIESTS FLED TO YATUNG, ON THE INDIAN BORDER. A TIBETAN DELEGATION JOURNEYED TO PEIPING FOR PEACE AND SETTLEMENT TALKS.

TODAY'S PEIPING BROADCAST SAID THE AGREEMENT PROVIDED FOR:

1. MAINTENANCE OF "THE SATUS QUO (EXISTING) GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE."

2. REORGANIZATION OF THE TIBETAN ARMY INTO THE RED ARMIES.

3. RECONCILIATION BETWEEN THE DALAI LAMA AND THE PANCHEN LAMA. THE PANCHEN LAMA, A CLAIMANT TO THE RULING POST IN TIBET, HAS BEEN RAISED IN CHINA AND HAS HAD CHINESE BACKING.

4. PLACING ALL TIBETAN FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN THE HANDS OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT.

5. A PROGRAM OF CULTURE AND EDUCATION (PROBABLY COMMUNIST INDOCTRINATION) FOR TIBET UNDER CONTROL OF THE COMMUNISTS.

JABARA JET ACE (225)

BY FRANK H. KING.

TOKYO, MAY 27-(AP)-CAPT. JAMES JABARA, THE WORLD'S FIRST JET ACE, HEADED TOWARD THE UNITED STATES AND THE ARMS OF HIS WIFE TONIGHT.

WEARING A BORROWED UNIFORM THAT "DOESN'T FIT VERY WELL," HE LEFT HANEDA AIR BASE AT 11:30 P.M., (8:30 A.M., SUNDAY, E.S.T.)

HE BORROWED THE UNIFORM, A SUMMER ONE, AFTER MISPLACING HIS OWN.

"I MAY LOOK TACKY BUT I FEEL GREAT," HE SAID IN A TELEPHONE CONVERSATION JUST BEFORE DEPARTURE, "MY WIFE WILL BE AT TRAVIS AIRFORCE BASE AT FAIRFIELD-SUISUN, CALIFORNIA, WAITING FOR ME.

"IF THE WINDS ARE OKAY WE'LL GET IN AT 9 P.M., MAY 28, SAN FRANCISCO TIM."

TIME."

JABARA SCORED A DOUBLE-KILL ON SUNDAY, MAY 20, IN NORTH KOREA WHEN HE DOWNED TWO ENEMY MIGS. THAT RAN HIS TOTAL TO SIX KILLS--ONE PAST THE ACE-MAKING MINIMUM. HE HAD EARNED ACE-RATING IN WORLD WAR II WITH NINE GERMAN PLANES DESTROYED. HE ALSO SHARED CREDIT WITH ANOTHER FLIER FOR A 10TH GERMAN PLANE.

JABARA WAS RUSHED BACK TO JAPAN IMMEDIATELY AFTER BECOMING A JET ACE OVER KOREA.

HE WAS DECORATED WITH A DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS AND TURNED INTO AN INSTRUCTOR.

WASHINGTON ORDERED HIM BACK TO THE STATES FOR STILL UNDISCLOSED DUTY.

"I PHONED MY WIFE THREE TIMES IN THE LAST THREE DAYS," HE SAID. "SHE KNEW I WAS COMING HOME--A FORT WORTH PAPER TOLD HER--I DON'T KNOW WHICH ONE."

MRS. JABARA WAS AT THE HOME OF HER PARENTS (206 S. KENTUCKY ST.) IN MCKINNEY, TEXAS.

"SHE FLEW OUT TO CALIFORNIA AND IS STAYING WITH HER SISTER AND BROTHER-IN-LAW. HE'S CHIEF PHARMACIST'S MATE HOWARD STILES OF THE U.S.S. WARRICK STATIONED AT MARE ISLAND.

"EVEN IF WE HAVE TO GO COMMERCIAL, SHE'S FLYING BACK TO WASHINGTON WITH ME."

HONG KONG, MAY 27-(AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA'S OFFICIALS NEWS AGENCY HAS ISSUED EXPLICIT INSTRUCTIONS ON "HOW TO HOLD SUCCESSFUL ACCUSATION MEETINGS IN CHURCH."

THE INSTRUCTIONS, RELEASED TODAY, SAID THE MEETINGS WERE "ESSENTIAL" IF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES OF RED CHINA WERE TO "LIQUIDATE ALL IMPERIALIST INFLUENCE."

THE RELIGIOUS ACCUSATION MEETINGS ARE EQUIVALENT TO THE RED "STRUGGLE MEETINGS" USED TO DENOUNCE LANDLORDS PRIOR TO THE RE-DISTRIBUTION OF LAND. ONLY NOW THEY ARE BEING DIRECTED AGAINST CHRISTIAN CHURCH LEADERS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS SUSPECTED OF SYMPATHY FOR THE UNITED STATES.

THE INSTRUCTIONS SAID FIRST IT WAS NECESSARY TO OVERCOME FEELINGS THAT IT WAS "UN-CHRISTIAN" TO ATTEND ACCUSATION RALLIES AND PUBLIC TRIALS.

THEN THE INSTRUCTIONS TOLD HOW TO ORGANIZE "ACCUSATION COMMITTEES," WRITE OUT THE ACCUSATIONS IN CLEAR, FORCEFUL TERMS. IT WARNED THAT LONG SPEECHES SHOULD BE SHORTENED, AMBIGUOUS STATEMENTS MADE CLEAR, AND "VAGUE SPEECHES SHOULD BE MADE MORE SUBSTANTIAL."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHURCH TRIALS SHOULD BE MADE PUBLIC AND SENT TO LEADING NEWSPAPERS. "EVIDENCE" AGAINST THE ACCUSED--SUCH AS LETTERS, PHOTOGRAPHS, ARMS OR RADIO SETS--SHOULD BE PUBLICLY EXHIBITED IF AVAILABLE, THE INSTRUCTIONS DECLARED.

THE COMMUNISTS ONCE ASSERTED THERE WOULD BE FREEDOM OF RELIGION IN RED CHINA, BUT THERE WAS NO HINT OF TOLERANCE IN THEIR PRESENT INSTRUCTIONS.

SUCCESSFUL ACCUSATIONS AGAINST CHRISTIANS BELIEVED OF PRO-WESTERN LEANINGS SHOULD BE FACTUAL, NON-SENTIMENTAL, SPOKEN FROM THE HEART, COMPLETELY FRANK AND SINCERE AND "SHOULD STAND FIRM ON THE PEOPLE'S STANDPOINT."

THE REDS USE THE WORD "PEOPLE" IN LIEU OF THE WORD COMMUNISM.

THE INSTRUCTIONS EMPHASIZED THAT THE "ATMOSPHERE MUST BE MADE STERN WHEN CONDUCTING ACCUSATION MEETINGS." THE ORDER OF APPEARANCE OF THE ACCUSERS SHOULD BE MADE IN SUCH A WAY AS TO "AROUSE TENSION FIRST, THEN RELAXATION AND FINALLY TENSION AGAIN...HAND CLAPPINGS MAY BE USED TO STRESS THE MOST EXCITING PHASE OF THE ACCUSATIONS."

THE MEETINGS MUST BE HELD WITH THE FULLEST "ASSISTANCE AND GUIDANCE" FROM COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT ORGANS AND PRIVATE GROUPS, THE NEWS AGENCY SAID TO AROUSE "PATRIOTIC ARDOUR AND POLITICAL UNDERSTANDING."

CHURCH WORKERS, IT INSISTED MUST TAKE FULL AND ACTIVE PART IN THE COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY SUPPRESSION PROGRAM, RESIST THE UNITED STATES AND AID NORTH KOREA.

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 5 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, SUNDAY, MAY 27)
BY MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

(ADVANCE)..GENEVA, MAY 27-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE URGED TODAY AN IMMEDIATE AND DRASTIC REVALUATION OF EUROPEAN CURRENCIES TO "TURN THE MOUNTING TIDE OF INFLATION."

A SPECIAL REPORT BY THE COMMISSION DECLARED THAT AN INCREASE IN THE DOLLAR VALUE OF STERLING AND OTHER WEST EUROPEAN CURRENCIES WAS THE ONLY CONCEIVABLE ALTERNATIVE TO "THE VASTLY DISTURBING PROCESS" OF PERMITTING INFLATION TO RUN ITS COURSE.

THE REPORT ALSO SUGGESTED THAT ANY REVALUATION UNDERTAKEN NOW SHOULD BE REVERSABLE AT NEED, "SINCE IT WOULD BE A MISTAKE ONCE MORE TO ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH FIXED EXCHANGE RATES IN A FLUCTUATING WORLD ECONOMY."

THE REPORT WAS A LAST-MINUTE ADDITION TO THE COMMISSION'S ANNUAL SURVEY, PUBLISHED A WEEK AGO, WHICH WARNED OF THE "MENACING PROBLEM" OF ACCELERATING WORLDWIDE INFLATION AND ASSERTED THAT THE 30 PER CENT DEVALUATION OF MOST EUROPEAN CURRENCIES IN 1949 WAS PROVED EXCESSIVE BY SUBSEQUENT EVENTS.

TODAY'S REPORT ADVISED THE WEST EUROPEAN COUNTRIES THAT JOINT ACTION TO RESTORE SUBSTANTIALLY THE DOLLAR VALUE OF THEIR CURRENCIES WOULD RADICALLY LOWER THEIR IMPORT PRICES WITHOUT NECESSARILY HARMING THEIR EXPORTS. REVALUATION COULD THUS BE EXPECTED TO CHECK INFLATION AND SIMULTANEOUSLY IMPROVE THE BALANCE OF PAYMENTS OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, THE REPORT SAID, ALTHOUGH ADDITIONAL INTERNAL AUSTERITY MEASURES WOULD ALSO BE NECESSARY.

UNLESS EUROPEAN CURRENCIES ARE REVALUED NOW, THE REPORT WARNED, THE PRESENT SPIRAL OF RISING PRICES AND INCOMES WILL "VERY PROBABLY CONTINUE TO DEVELOP."

"THE IMPACT OF EVEN A MODEST APPRECIATION OF EUROPEAN CURRENCIES WOULD HELP TO BREAK THIS SPIRAL. A MORE DRASTIC REVISION MIGHT WELL UNDO SOME OF THE PAST DAMAGE."

A SUDDEN COLLAPSE OF WORLD RAW MATERIAL PRICES "WOULD, OF COURSE, COMPLETELY ALTER THE OUTLOOK," THE REPORT SAID, BUT SUCH A COLLAPSE IS HIGHLY UNLIKELY IN VIEW OF GROWING SHORTAGES AND WORLDWIDE REARMAMENT.

MAY 28 1951

THE REPORT WAS PREPARED BY THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION'S LEADING ECONOMISTS, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF HAL B.LARY OF WEATHERFORD, TEXAS, HEAD OF THE COMMISSION'S RESEARCH AND PLANNING DIVISION. IT IS TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE ANNUAL SESSION OF THE COMMISSION, OPENING HERE ON MAY 29, WITH DELEGATES FROM THE UNITED STATES AND EVERY EUROPEAN COUNTRY EXCEPT SPAIN TAKING PART.

THE EXPERTS SAID A SIMULTANEOUS REVALUATION BY WEST EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WOULD RESULT IN AN IMMEDIATE DROP IN THE PRICES PAID BY WESTERN EUROPE FOR ITS MAJOR RAW MATERIAL IMPORTS FROM THE DOLLAR AREA, INCLUDING COTTON, TOBACCO, GRAIN, TIMBER, SUGAR AND MANUFACTURED PRODUCTS. THE PRICES OF THESE IMPORTS WOULD FALL "BY ALMOST THE FULL AMOUNT" OF THE REVALUATION, THE REPORT PREDICTED.

RAW MATERIAL IMPORTS FROM THE OVERSEAS AREAS OF STERLING AND OTHER WEST EUROPEAN CURRENCIES WOULD ALSO REGISTER SUBSTANTIAL PRICE DECLINES IN TERMS OF EUROPEAN CURRENCIES, THE REPORT SAID, BECAUSE THEIR DOLLAR PRICES WOULD REMAIN STATIC OR RISE "ONLY MODERATELY." THE PRESENT PRICES OF THESE PRODUCTS, WHICH INCLUDE RUBBER, WOOL, TIN, COPPER, COCOA AND COFFEE, "HAVE ALREADY RISEN FAR ABOVE PRODUCTION COSTS."

THE EXPERTS GAVE NO PRECISE INDICATION OF WHAT THEY REGARDED AS THE MOST ADVANTAGEOUS REVALUATION RATE. BUT THEY PREDICTED THAT A 30 PER CENT REVALUATION OF WEST EUROPEAN CURRENCIES WOULD CAUSE IMPORT PRICES FROM ALL AREAS TO DROP BY AN AVERAGE OF 20 PER CENT. WITH THE GREATEST FALLS CENTERED ON "THE COMMODITIES WHICH HAVE RECENTLY SHOWN THE MOST EXTREME PRICE INCREASES."

ADDITIONAL AUSTERITY MEASURES WOULD, HOWEVER, BE REQUIRED TO CONTROL DOMESTIC INFLATION, THE EXPERTS SAID, IF THE BENEFITS OF REVALUATION ARE NOT TO BE LOST. SUCH MEASURES WOULD INCLUDE CONSIDERABLY HIGHER TAXES TO OFFSET INCREASING DEFENSE EXPENDITURES--COMBINED WITH MORE ENERGETIC ACTION AGAINST TAX EVASION--AS WELL AS DOMESTIC PRICE AND WAGE CONTROLS AND RATIONING OF CRITICAL CONSUMER GOODS. THERE WOULD ALSO HAVE TO BE SHARP CONTROLS OF INVESTMENT POLICY "DESIGNED TO CURB CAPITAL OUTLAYS OF A NON-ESSENTIAL NATURE AND TO COMBAT THE HOARDING OF RAW MATERIALS AND OTHER GOODS."

THE REPORT ASSERTED THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD NOT, UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS, BE ABLE TO INCREASE ITS EXPORTS TO OVERSEAS MARKETS SUFFICIENTLY TO REPLACE THE EUROPEAN EXPORTS MADE MORE EXPENSIVE BY REVALUATION. BUT IT WARNED THAT ONE OF THE LONG-TERM EFFECTS OF REVALUATION WOULD BE THE LOSS TO EUROPE OF "SOME OF THE EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITIES NOW PRESENTED TO DEVELOP EXPORT FOOTHOLDS IN THE DIFFICULT UNITED STATES MARKET."

THIS LOSS MIGHT BE REGRETTED WHENSTHE PRESENT CONDITIONS OF SHORTAGE CAME TO AN END, THE REPORT DECLARED. BUT THE EXPERTS STRESSED THAT THE FUTURE "FLEXIBILITY" OF EUROPEAN CURRENCY RATES IN TERMS OF DOLLARS WAS AN ESSENTIAL PART OF THEIR PROPOSAL AND WOULD PERMIT RENEWED DEVALUATION WHEN THE NEED AROSE THROUGH CHANGING ECONOMIC CONDITIONS.

"IT IS NOW CLEAR," THE REPORT DECLARED, "THAT THE ENDEAVOR TO SET RIGID EXCHANGE RATES IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE WAR, BEFORE A SUFFICIENT DEGREE OF STABILITY HAD DEVELOPED IN WORLD PRODUCTION AND TRADE, UNNECESSARILY DEPRIVED EUROPEAN COUNTRIES OF READY ACCESS TO ONE OF THE MOST USEFUL MEANS OF ADJUSTMENTS BETWEEN THEIR DOMESTIC ECONOMIES AND EXTERNAL CONDITIONS, AND THAT, AT THE TIME OF DEVALUATION IN 1949, THEY FAILED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE OPPORTUNITY THEN PROVIDED TO INITIATE MORE FLEXIBLE POLICIES.

"MAINTENANCE OF EXCHANGE STABILITY PREUPPOSES THAT THERE IS ALSO A REASONABLE STABILITY IN BASIC ECONOMIC CONDITIONS. EXCHANGE CEASES TO BE A VIRTUE WHEN IT BECOMES A MEANS THROUGH WHICH THE SHOCK OF PRICE AND INCOME FLUCTUATIONS ABROAD IS TRANSMITTED TO THE DOMESTIC PRICE AND INCOME STRUCTURE.

"WHEN CONFIDENCE IN CURRENT STABILITY IS DESTROYED THROUGH PROGRESSIVE INFLATION, THE VERY POSSIBILITY OF ORDERLY AND SUSTAINED ECONOMIC PROGRESS IS ERIOUSLY IMPAIRED, AS THE EXPERIENCE OF FRANCE AND ITALY IN RECENT DECADES TENDS TO BEAR OUT.

"CONFIDENCE IN THE VALUE OF MONEY WOULD BE FAR BETTER MAINTAINED IN THE LONG RUN, IF THE EXPERIENCE MIGHT SHOW THAT CURRENCIES COULD MOVE UP AS WELL AS DOWN AS PART OF A POLICY DESIGNED TO MAINTAIN TERNAL MONETARY STABILITY. AS IT IS, THE PREMATURE FIXING OF EXCHANGE RATES HAS PLAYED QUITE UNNECESSARILY INTO THE HANDS OF SPECULATIVE FORCES."

(470) FOURTH DIVISION

BY DONALD DOANE

BREMERHAVEN, GERMANY, MAY 27-(AP)-A FORMER GERMAN WHO SURVIVED HITLER'S CONCENTRATION CAMPS LED 1,300 AMERICAN SOLDIERS ASHORE HERE TODAY TO BEGIN A BIG REINFORCEMENT OF U.S. TROOPS GUARDING WESTERN EUROPE.

THEY WERE PART OF THE FOURTH INFANTRY DIVISION, THE FIRST TO ARRIVE OF FOUR NEW AMERICAN DIVISIONS BEING SENT TO GERMANY TO BOLSTER THIS WESTERN DEFENSE LINE AGAINST THE THREAT OF COMMUNIST ATTACK.

TOP COMMANDERS OF GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER'S NORTH ATLANTIC COMMAND WELCOMED THE TROOPS AS THEY MARCHED OFF THE U.S. TRANSPORT GENERAL PATCH TO THE CHEERS OF A WAITING CROWD.

"YOU COME TO PRESERVE THE PEACE," SAID GEN. ALPHONSE JUIN OF FRANCE, COMMANDER OF ALL ALLIED ARMY FORCES IN THE CENTRAL SECTOR OF EUROPE.

THE FIRST ENLISTED MAN ASHORE WAS GERMAN-BORN PRIVATE EDWIN STERNBERG OF 6513 THREE CHOPT ROAD, RICHMOND, VA. HIS JEWISH BIRTH COST HIM FOUR YEARS IN A CONCENTRATION CAMP. EMIGRATING TO AMERICA AFTER THE WAR HE WAS DRAFTED AND SENT BACK TO HIS HOMELAND AS A SOLDIER.

DESPITE THE BLARING BAND AND THE GLITTERING PENNANTS WHICH DECORATED THE BIG U.S. PORT HERE, THERE WAS A GRIMLY EARNEST AIR ABOUT THE TROOPS AS THEY POURED OFF THE SHIP IN A DRIZZLING RAIN.

THEY STOOD STIFFLY AT ATTENTION IN MILITARY FORMATION BEFORE AN IMPOSING ARRAY OF GENERALS WHO FLEW HERE TO GREET THEM.

"WE AND OUR ALLIES ARE HERE TO MAINTAIN A SECURE MILITARY FOUNDATION FOR THE PROTECTION OF GERMANY AND ALL WESTERN EUROPE," THEY WERE TOLD BY GEN. THOMAS T.HANDY, COMMANDER OF ALL U.S. FORCES IN EUROPE.

"YOU ARE A GUARANTEE TO THE GERMAN PEOPLE AND THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT THAT THEY HAVE THE SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES AND THAT THEY CAN RE-BUILD A PEACEFUL AND DEMOCRATIC GERMANY WITHOUT INTERFERENCE FROM THE EAST.

"TODAY ONE OF THE GREATEST DETERRENTS TO SOVIET AGGRESSION IS THE PRESENCE OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN GERMANY."

A48

MAY 28 1951

WHEN ALL FOUR OF THE NEW AMERICAN DIVISIONS ARRIVE, THE UNITED STATES WILL HAVE SIX BATTLE-READY DIVISIONS IN GERMANY. COMBINED WITH THE TROOPS OF OTHER WESTERN ALLIES, THIS WILL MAKE A TOTAL WESTERN FORCE OF AT LEAST 13 DIVISIONS IN THIS VITAL AREA.

AT PRESENT, THERE ARE ONLY TWO COMPLETE AMERICAN DIVISIONS IN GERMANY A LITTLE OVER THREE BRITISH DIVISIONS, THREE FRENCH DIVISIONS, ONE DIVISION FROM BELGIUM AND BRIGADES FROM DENMARK AND NORWAY.

ALL THE WELCOMING GENERALS STRESSED THE PEACEFUL PURPOSES OF THE TROOP REINFORCEMENTS.

"YOUR ARRIVAL IN GERMANY THREATENS NO ONE," SAID GEN.JUIN.

"WE HOPE OUR MISSION HERE WILL CONTINUE TO BE ONE OF PEACE," SAID THE FOURTH DIVISION COMMANDER, MAJOR GEN.HARLAN N.HARTNESS. "BUT IF IT TURNS OUT TO BE OTHERWISE, I ASSURE YOU THAT THE FOURTH DIVISION WILL GIVE A GOOD ACCOUNT OF ITSELF."

THE FOURTH DIVISION HAD A HEROIC COMBAT RECORD IN THE NORMANDY INVASION OF THE LAST WAR.

THERE ARE STILL VETERANS FROM ITS SECOND WORLD WAR BATTLES IN ITS RANKS TODAY. LIKE SERGEANT ANDREW JONES, OF CLOVER, SOUTH CAROLINA, WHO LANDED WITH THE DIVISION IN NORMANDY ON D-DAY 1944.

"I'M GLAD TO COME BACK," HE SAID. "MOST OF THE MEN ARE PROUD TO BE HERE. WE THINK THAT OUR MOST IMPORTANT JOB IS PROBABLY RIGHT HERE IN EUROPE."

SOME ARE VETERANS OF PACIFIC WARFARE LIKE SERGEANT HAY C.PHARISS OF NEWPORT, ARKANSAS, WHO WAS CAPTURED BY THE JAPANESE ON CORREGIDOR.

"I'M GLAD TO BE HERE INSTEAD OF IN KOREA," HE SAID.

BUT MOST OF THE FOURTH DIVISION MEMBERS ARE YOUNGSTERS WITH ONLY ABOUT A YEAR OF ARMY SERVICE AND NO COMBAT EXPERIENCE.

GENERAL HARTNESS, WHO WAS ASSISTANT COMMANDER OF THE 26TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN EUROPE DURING THE LAST WAR, ACKNOWLEDGED THE COMPARATIVE INEXPERIENCE OF HIS TROOPS.

"BUT THEY ARE GOOD MEN," HE DECLARED. "THEY CAN FIGHT RIGHT NOW

IF THEY HAVE TO."
ADDITIONAL ELEMENTS OF THE DIVISION ARE EN ROUTE FROM NEW YORK. THE SECOND ARMORED DIVISION WILL LEAVE SOON, FOLLOWED BY TWO OTHER DIVISIONS WHICH HAVE NOT YET BEEN IDENTIFIED.
NO ANNOUNCEMENT HAS BEEN MADE OF WHERE THE NEW AMERICAN TROOPS WILL BE QUARTERED EXCEPT THAT IT WILL BE SOMEWHERE IN WESTERN GERMANY THEY WENT BY TRAIN TONIGHT TO A TEMPORARY CAMP IN SANDHOFEN NEAR MANNHEIM.
GEN.HANDY CAUTIONED THE SOLDIERS ABOUT HOW THEY SHOULD CONDUCT THEMSELVES IN GERMANY:
"ACT IN GERMANY AS YOU WOULD IN YOUR HOME TOWN."

SECOND LEAD AUSTRIAN
BY RICHARD O'REGAN
VIENNA, MAY 27-(AP)-DR.THEODOR KOERNER, 78, A GRANDFATHERLY VETERAN SOCIALIST WHO IS A BITTER ANTI-COMMUNIST, WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE AUSTRIAN REPUBLIC TONIGHT.
KOERNER WAS NAMED PRESIDENT FOR SIX YEARS IN A NECK-AND-NECK RUN-OFF ELECTION IN WHICH A CONSERVATIVE OPPOSED HIM. THE TALLY ANNOUNCED BY THE INTERIOR MINISTRY TONIGHT WAS:
KOERNER, 2,172,806 VOTES.
DR.HEINRICH GLEISSNER, 58, A CIVIL SERVANT AND LIFE-LONG MEMBER OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY, 2,004,290.
KOERNER IS A WHITE-HAIRED FORMER GENERAL IN THE OLD AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN IMPERIAL ARMY. HE HAS BEEN A LIFE-LONG SOCIALIST AND FIGHTER FOR THE WORKING MAN. SINCE THE WAR HE HAS BEEN LORD MAYOR OF VIENNA.
HE SUCCEEDS ANOTHER SOCIALIST, THE LATE DR. KARL RENNER, WHO DIED LAST NEW YEAR'S EVE. LIKE RENNER, KOERNER IS PRO-WESTERN, HE DISOWNED THE COMMUNISTS, WHO DECIDED TO VOTE FOR HIM AFTER THEIR OWN CANDIDATE HAD FAILED TO GET MORE THAN FIVE PER CENT IN THE FIRST PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION MAY 6.
KOERNER IS EXPECTED TO TAKE HIS OATH OF OFFICE JUNE 20. HE DECLINED TO MAKE ANY STATEMENT REGARDING HIS VICTORY EXCEPT TO SAY HE IS "VERY HAPPY."
DR.ADOLF SCHAERF, SOCIALIST VICE-CHANCELLOR WHO WAS WITH KOERNER WHEN THE ELECTION RESULTS WERE ANNOUNCED AT THE INTERIOR MINISTRY, SAID:
"KOERNER WILL CONTINUE THE TRADITION OF OLD AUSTRIA AND WORK FOR THE AUSTRIA OF TOMORROW."
KOERNER'S ELECTION TO THE PRESIDENCY IS NOT EXPECTED TO MEAN ANY IMMEDIATE CHANGE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF AUSTRIA, A TINY COUNTRY LYING ASTRIDE THE IRON CURTAIN AND OCCUPIED BY THE TROOPS OF RUSSIA AND THE WEST. HIS POST IS LARGELY AN HONOR AND DOES NOT CARRY ANY GREAT POLITICAL AUTHORITY.
THE PRESENT AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT IS A COALITION OF 16 SOCIALIST AND SEVEN PEOPLE'S PARTY CABINET MINISTERS. THE VICE-CHANCELLOR SAID THE GOVERNMENT CAN BE EXPECTED TO RESIGN AS A MATTER OF FORM AFTER KOERNER TAKES OFFICE.
THE PRACTICE IS FOR THE NEW PRESIDENT TO ASK THE LEADER OF THE COUNTRY'S STRONGEST PARTY TO NOMINATE A CABINET. DR.LEOPOLD FIGL, THE PRESENT CHANCELLOR, IS HEAD OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY. FIGL IS EXPECTED TO PROPOSE THA KOERNER APPO

EXPECTED TO PROPOSE THAT KOERNER APPOINT THE SAME GOVERNMENT NOW IN POWER.
DR.OSKAR HELMER, SOCIALIST INTERIOR MINISTER, SAID THE SOCIALISTS PROBABLY WILL NOT ASK FOR NEW PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS AS A RESULT OF THE SURPRISING NATION-WIDE VOTE FOR KOERNER. GENERAL ELECTIONS FOR PARLIAMENT ARE SCHEDULED FOR THE FALL OF 1953.

A103
KOERNER'S ELECTION WAS A SURPRISE BECAUSE THREE WEEKS AGO HE OBTAINED FEWER VOTES THAN GLEISSNER IN THE FIRST ELECTION AMONG SIX CANDIDATES. AT THAT TIME HE GOT 1,682,881 VOTES, OR 39.2 PER CENT, TO GLEISSNER'S 1,725,451, OR 40.1 PER CENT.
AUSTRIA'S COMMUNIST VOTERS--219,969 STRONG--CAST THEIR BALLOTS FOR KOERNER IN THE RUN-OFF. THEY UNQUESTIONABLY HELPED SWING THE ELECTION IN HIS FAVOR TO GIVE HIM 52 PER CENT OF THE VALID VOTES.
BUT THE MORE SURPRISING THING ABOUT KOERNER'S FOLLOWING WAS THE SIZEABLE SUPPORT HE RECEIVED FROM THE NATION'S 660,000 INDEPENDENTS, MOSTLY RIGHTWINGERS, DISSATISFIED ELEMENTS AND NEO(NEW)-NAZIS. A MAJORITY OF THESE VOTERS APPEARED TO HAVE SUPPORTED KOERNER OR TO HAVE CAST INVALID BALLOTS. SUCH BALLOTS TOTALED 188,000, MORE THAN DOUBLE WHAT THEY WERE IN THE MAY 6 ELECTION.
JUBILANT SOCIALISTS SET OFF VIENNA'S OLD AIR RAID WARNING SYSTEM TO MARK THE ELECTION OF THEIR LORD MAYOR TO THE PRESIDENCY. SCHAERF SAID THE ELECTION SHOWED THE PEOPLE HAD "MAINTAINED THEIR GOOD JUDGMENT AND REJECTED THE FASCISM OF 1934." HE WAS REFERRING TO THE REGIME OF CHANCELLOR ENGELBERT DOLLFUSS, IN WHOSE GOVERNMENT GLEISSNER WAS A CIVIL SERVANT.
KOERNER IS PERHAPS THE MOST POPULAR MAN IN AUSTRIA'S CAPITAL, A STRONGHOLD OF SOCIALISM, WHERE HIS PERSONAL MODESTY AND HIS DEVOTION TO WORKERS' INTERESTS HAVE WON HIM COUNTLESS FRIENDS.
ALTHOUGH A MEMBER OF AN ARISTOCRATIC FAMILY, KOERNER NEVER HAS USED THAT PART OF HIS NAME WHICH DENOTES HIS RANK. HE WAS BORN THEODOR KOERNER VON SIEGRINGEN, THE SON OF AN ARTILLERY OFFICER IN THE IMPERIAL ARMY.
AS AN OFFICER, KOERNER PAID LITTLE ATTENTION TO THE FORMALITIES OF RANK, NEVER WORE HIS DECORATIONS AND WAS KNOWN TO FELLOW-OFFICERS AS COMMONER KOERNER.
IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR, HE SERVED IN SERBIA AND ITALY AND ROSE TO THE POST OF CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE AUSTRIAN ARMY IN ITALY. WHEN THE WAR ENDED WITH HIS COUNTRY'S DEFEAT, KOERNER TOOK OFF HIS UNIFORM AND BECAME A CONTRIBUTOR TO THE SOCIALIST NEWSPAPER ARBEITER ZEITUNG.
THROUGH THIS ACTIVITY, HE WON THE ATTENTION OF THE GOVERNMENT AND ENTERED THE DEFENSE MINISTRY. IN 1925, HE WAS ELECTED VIENNA'S REPRESENTATIVE IN THE UPPER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT AND WAS CHAIRMAN OF THAT BODY WHEN IT WAS DISSOLVED BY THE DOLLFUSS REGIME IN 1934.
KOERNER REMAINED A PRIVATE CITIZEN DURING THE NAZI OCCUPATION, REFUSING A NAZI SUGGESTION THAT HE RE-ENTER THE MILITARY SERVICE. DURING THIS TIME, HE STUDIED RUSSIAN AND HIS KNOWLEDGE OF THE LANGUAGE WAS VALUABLE WHEN THE RED ARMY OCCUPIED VIENNA IN 1945.
A HURRIED MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL PROPOSED HIM AS LORD MAYOR AND, A FEW DAYS LATER, THE RUSSIANS ACCEPTED HIM AND HIS ADMINISTRATION OF THE CAPITAL. HE WAS ELECTED FORMALLY TO THE CITY COUNCIL A FEW MONTHS LATER IN THE FIRST VIENNESE POSTWAR ELECTION. THE COUNCIL AGAIN NAMED HIM LORD MAYOR.
A BACHELOR, KOERNER LIVES ALONE AND DOES HIS OWN MARKETING. HE FREQUENTLY RIDES VIENNA'S CROWDED STREETCARS AND IMPRESSES HIS WORKING CLASS SUPPORTERS WITH HIS OWN SIMPLICITY.

OIL BUDGET (670

BY ROBERT B.HEWETT

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 27-(AP)-THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY (AIOC) MADE A CONCILIATORY GESTURE TODAY BY OFFERING TO SEND ITS RESIDENT MANAGER TO LISTEN IN AT ONE MEETING ONLY OF THE OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD.

THE BILLION DOLLAR BRITISH COMPANY THUS REPLIED BY HALF MEASURES TO THE IRANIAN ULTIMATUM THAT IT HELP CARRY OUT ITS OWN NATIONALIZATION BY WEDNESDAY OR BE TAKEN OVER WITHOUT CONSULTATION.

MEMBERS OF THE OIL BOARD DECLARED AIOC'S APPEAL YESTERDAY TO THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TO APPOINT AN ARBITRATOR IN THE WORLD-SHAKING DISPUTE WAS "RIDICULOUS" AND THE "DESPERATE ACT OF A DROWNING MAN."

"THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY NO LONGER EXISTS," SAID ONE MEMBER.

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS CALLED MASS MEETINGS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY FOR TUESDAY "TO FIGHT IMPERIALISTIC OIL COMPANIES."

ALL THESE MOVES SEEMED TO PRESAGE A NEW CRISIS FOR WISPY PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH --A CRISIS IN WHICH WESTERNERS HERE SAW A POSSIBLE COUP D'ETAT GROWING OUT OF THE PRESENT INSTABILITY AS THE GREATEST DANGER.

SUPPORTING AIOC'S APPEAL TO THE WORLD COURT AT THE HAGUE THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT RESERVED THE RIGHT TO TAKE MEASURES TO PRESERVE HER PRESENT STATUS IN IRAN. THE GOVERNMENT OWNS 53 PER CENT OF AIOC. IF BRITAIN MOVED HER PARACHUTE TROOPS, PRESENTLY DESTINED FOR CYPRUS IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN, INTO SOUTHERN IRAN TO PROTECT HER PROPERTY AND NATIONALS RUSSIA MIGHT MAKE A SIMILAR MOVE IN THE NORTH.

GEORGE MIDDLETON, COUNSELOR OF THE BRITISH EMBASSY DELIVERED A NOTE TO THE FOREIGN MINISTRY TODAY FORMALLY NOTIFYING IRAN OF THE BRITISH REFERENCE OF THE CASE TO THE WORLD COURT. THE NOTE REPORTEDLY MADE IT CLEAR THAT BRITAIN, DESPITE THIS STEP, STILL PREFERS TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE BY NEGOTIATION.

MOSSADEGH, HOLED UP IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING FOR 14 DAYS FOR FEAR OF THE SAME ASSASSINATION FATE THAT MET FORMER PREMIER ALI RAZMARA. WAS IN A PRECARIOUS FINANCIAL STATE. HIS GOVERNMENT IS LIVING ON A HAND-TO-MOUTH BUDGET BECAUSE ITS OIL ROYALTIES STOPPED WITH PASSAGE OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW 25 DAYS AGO.

MEANWHILE, SOME OF HIS FANATICAL FOLLOWERS ARE GETTING UNEASY AND ARE POINTING OUT THAT THOUGH HE FATHERED THE NATIONALIZATION LAW AND HAS BEEN PREMIER FOR FOUR WEEKS THE AIOC MAINTAINS ITS PRIVATE OPERATIONS UNMOLESTED.

NATIONALISTIC MOSLEMS HAVE THREATENED A HOLY WAR AND HAVE DECLARED THEY WOULD BURN DOWN ABADAN REFINERY, THE WORLD'S LARGEST, IF A SINGLE BRITISH SOLIDER SETS FOOT IN IRAN.

THE TEHRAN GOVERNMENT WAS REPORTED ARRANGING FOR TANKS, ARMORED CARS AND SPECIAL TROOPS TO MAINTAIN ORDER IN THE CAPITAL AND ELSEWHERE WHEN THE FRONT ORGANIZATIONS OF THE OUTLAWED TUDEH (COMMUNIST) PARTY ATTEMPT THEIR MASS DEMONSTRATIONS TUESDAY.

AIOC'S CHAIRMAN, SIR WILLIAM FRASER, IN A LETTER TO IRAN'S FINANCE MINISTER ANNOUNCED THAT THE COMPANY'S RESIDENT MANAGER, N.R. SEDDON, WOULD ATTEND ONE MEETING OF THE OIL BOARD AS A "MEASURE OF RESPECT TO THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT AND IRANIAN PARLIAMENT."

HE WILL NOT BE EMPOWERED TO PARTICIPATE IN PUTTING THE COMPANY TO DEATH, AS IRAN ORDERED, BUT ONLY TO LISTEN AND REPORT BACK TO THE COMPANY.

SIR WILLIAM REITERATED THE COMPANY'S WILLINGNESS TO TRY AND RESOLVE THE DISPUTE BY DISCUSSION AND AGREEMENT, BUT DECLARED IRAN'S ONE-SIDED ACTION IN TRYING TO TAKE OVER THE COMPANY WITHOUT DISCUSSION WAS A BREACH OF ITS 60-YEAR CONTRACT, SIGNED IN 1933.

MAY 28 1951

WHAT MOSSADEGH WOULD DO IF HE FOUND AIOC'S OFFER UNSATISFACTORY WAS NOT KNOWN. BUT ONE QUALIFIED INFORMANT SAID HE MIGHT ASK THE DISTRICT COURT IN KUHZISTAN PROVINCE IN SOUTHERN IRAN FOR AN ORDER TO THE OIL COMPANY TO TURN OVER ITS PROPERTY.

NEWSPAPER SPECULATION SAID GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS MIGHT GIVE DIRECT ORDERS TO COMPANY EMPLOYES ON WEDNESDAY.

ONE GLIMMER OF LIGHT WAS IN HINTS FROM BOTH BRITISH AND IRANIAN SOURCES OF POSSIBLE NEGOTIATIONS. SOME OF MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL FRONTERS WERE GROWING AWARE OF THE PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES OF EXPLOITING THEIR OWN OIL RESOURCES WITHOUT FOREIGN TECHNICAL HELP.

U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F. GRADY, IN A STATE DEPARTMENT NOTE SATURDAY, AGAIN URGED NEGOTIATIONS UPON IRAN. GRADY WARNED THAT THE DISPUTE COULD SERIOUSLY WEAKEN THE FREE WORLD DESPITE AMERICAN EFFORTS FOR SEVERAL YEARS TO STRENGTHEN IRAN AGAINST HER SOVIET NEIGHBOR.

THE NOTE CAME MUCH CLOSER TO STAMPING OFFICIAL AMERICAN APPROVAL ON IRAN'S DEMAND FOR NATIONALIZATION BY DECLARING THAT "THROUGH NEGOTIATION A SETTLEMENT CAN BE FOUND WHICH WILL SATISFY THE DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO CONTROL THEIR OWN RESOURCES."

BUT IT ALSO SAID NEGOTIATIONS COULD "PROTECT LEGITIMATE BRITISH INTERESTS" AND KEEP IRAN'S OIL MOVING INTO WORLD MARKETS.

THERE HAVE BEEN UNCONFIRMED REPORTS HERE FOR SEVERAL DAYS THAT THE BRITISH HAVE INTIMATED TO IRANIAN OFFICIALS THEY WOULD ACCEPT SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION IN PRINCIPLE, PERHAPS WITH THE CONDITION THAT THE BRITISH COULD STILL HAVE A HAND IN THE OPERATIONS.

BY EDWIN B.HAAKINSON

MAY 28 1951

WASHINGTON, MAY 27-(AP)-GEN. HOYT VANDENBERG COMES UP TOMORROW AS THE FIFTH WITNESS IN THE MACARTHUR INVESTIGATION, TO GIVE AN AIRMAN'S VIEW ON THE OUSTER OF THE FAR EAST COMMANDER.
WITH THE STAND OF THE HIGH COMMAND IN GENERAL--AND OF THE ARMY IN PARTICULAR--ALREADY IN THE HUGE RECORD OF THE HEARINGS, ALL SIGNS POINT TO CLOSE QUESTIONIONG OF THE AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF ON THE PROPOSAL TO CARRY THE AERIAL WAR ACROSS THE KOREAN BORDER INTO MANCHURIA.
THAT WAS A CARDINAL ITEM IN THE WAR PLAN WHH GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR URGED SO OPENLY AND PERSISTENTLY HE WAS FIRED FOR IT.
MACARTHUR'S CONTENTION WAS THAT MORE AGGRESSIVE TACTICS--INCLUDING AIR OPERATIONS TO DENY THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSORS "SANCTUARY" BEHIND THE FRONTIER, USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS FROM FORMOSA FOR A SECOND FROT, AND A BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA COAST--WERE THE WAY OUT OF A "STALEMATE" TO VICTORY.
THE WHITE HOUSE AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENT VIEW IS THAT SUCH WIDENING OI THE KOREAN WAR CARRIES LITTLE IF ANY PROMISE OF SUCCEEDING BETTER THAN PRESENT STRATEGY, AND DOES CARRY A GRAVE THREAT OF BRINGING ON WORLD WAR III.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SAID TODAY THAT "PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOOK THE RISK OF A THIRD WORLD WAR WHEN HE MOVED INTO KOREA."
THE SENATE GOP POLICY LEADER DISAGREED WITH GEN.OMAR BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY THAT MILITARY DISCLOSURES IN THE INVESTIGATION MIGHT INCITE RUSSIA TO WAR.
"IF WE ARE WEAK ANYWHERE, THE RUSSIANS KNOW IT ALREADY," HE SAID ON NBC'S TELEVISION PROGRAM, "METT THE PRESS."
"I DON'T THINK THE RUSSIANS WILL GO TO WAR," HE STATED, BUT ADDED THAT HE BELIEVES THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN POLICY "RISKS WAR AT EVERY MOMENT."
CONGRESS, TAFT SAID, HAS A RIGHT TO KNOW JUST WHAT WAS SAID AT A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE PRECEDING MACARTHUR'S DISCHARGE.
HE REFERRED THERE TO AN UNSUCCESSFUL GOP EFFORT TO FORCE BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, TO DIVULGE THE CONVERSATIONS.
THE POLITICAL EFFECT OF GEN.MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL "WILL BE EXCEEDINGLY ADVERSE TO PRESIBENT TRUMAN," TAFT SAID. "AND-THE-NET RESULT WILL BE HARMFUL TO HIM IF HE RUNS AGAIN."
FROM AN OVERALL STANDPOINT, TAFT SAID, THE SENATE INVESTIGATION OF MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL HAS BEEN "VERY FAIR." IT HAS BROUGHT PUBLIC ATTENTION TO THE FAR EAST PROBLEM," TAFT ADDED, AND "OUGHT TO BE CONTINUED."
WHILE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS XOMMITTEES, JOINTLY INVESTIGATING THE MACARTHUR OUSTER, READIED QUESTIONS FOR VANDENBERG'S APPEARANCE (9 A.M. EST), SOME OF THEM SUGGESTED THE LAWMAKERS OUGHT TO AGREE ON A TARGET BEFORE THEY SHOOT INQUIRIES AT MANY MORE WITNESSES.
ALTHOUGH THE CLOSED-DOOR INQUIRY IS ON ITS 19TH DAY, ONLY FOUR WITNESSES HAVE BEEN HEARD AND ARMED SERVICES CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-MGAA SAID COMMITTEEMEN

MAY 28 1951

(GA) SAID COMMITTEMEN HAVE "ASKED THAT ABOUT 100 WITNESSES BE HEARD."
ALL OF THIS CAUSED SENATOR HUNT (D-WYO), ONE OF THE 26 COMMITTEEMEN, TO TELL A REPORTER "SO FAR, WE HAVE NOT EVEN FORMALLY DECIDED WHAT WE'RE TRYING TO DO."
"APPARENTLY NO ONE DOUBTS THEAUTHORITY OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO RELIEVE GENERAL MACARTHUR, INCLUDING THE GENERAL HIMSELF," HUNT SAID. "I DOUBT THAT ANYBODY SERIOUSLY BELIEVES WE COULD PUT THE GENERAL BACK IN HIS VARIOUS COMMANDS."
HUNT ALSO NOTED THAT UNLIKE MOST CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATIONS, THE JOINT COMMITTEES HAVE NO FORMAL DIRECTIVE OR RESOLUTION REQUIRING A REPORT, RECOMMENDATIONS OR ANYTHING SPECIFIC.
ASKED ABOUT THIS, RUSSELL SAID "THERE UNDOUBTEDLY WILL BE SOME FINDINGS X X X SOME KIND OF A REPORT."
QUESTIONING UP TO DATE, WHICH HAS PRODUCED A RECORD CERTAIN TO CONTAIN MORE THAN 1,000,000 294$', AND THE FEW VOTES TAKEN, INDICATE THAT THE INVESTIGATING GROUP IS SPLIT INTO THREE OR POSSIBLY MORE GROUPS.
"I AM HOPING THAT WE CAN COME UP WITH UNANIMOUS OR AT LEAST A STRONG MAJORITY AGREEMENT UPON CERTAIN FUNDAMENTAL FACTS," RUSSELL SAID, BUT ADDED HE WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF THERE WERE "THREE DIFFERENT REPORTS."

IN THREE VOTES ON CONDUCT OF THE INQUIRY, DEMOCRATS VOTED TOGETHER ONCE, REPUBLICANS EXCEPT SENATOR MORSE OF OREGON VOTED TOGETHER ONCE, AND PARTY LINES SPLIT ON THE THIRD.
IN ANY EVENT, RUSSELL SAID THE GROUP WOULD PUSH AHEAD THIS WEEK WITH THE ORIGINAL WITNESSES SCHEDULED.
ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN, TOP NAVY OFFICER, IS TO FOLLOW VANDENBERG. NEXT WILL BE SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, CERTAIN TO BE QUESTIONED AT

30.24- 23473

GREAT LENGTH ABOUT ADMINISTRATION POLICIES AND STATE DEPARTMENT ACTIONS IN KOREA, CHINA AND THE FAR EAST AND HIS DIFFERENCES WITH MACARTHUR POLICIES AND PROPOSALS.

RUSSELL SAID HE PROBABLY WILL ASK A SUBCOMMITTEE TO PASS UPON SUGGESTIONS TO HEAR SCORES OF WITNESSES NOT YET INVITED.

A26WX

HE SAID MAJ. GEN. COURTNEY WHITNEY, AIDE TO MACARTHUR AND FREQUENTLY HIS SPOKESMAN SINCE THE INQUIRY GOT UNDER WAY, HAD BEEN ADDED TO THIS GROWING LIST.

THE ROSTER ALREADY INCLUDES NUMEROUS PAST AND PRESENT MILITARY, DIPLOMATIC AND GOVERNMENT LEADERS. AMONG THEM ARE FORMER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE LOUIS JOHNSON, ADMIRAL LOUIS DENFELD, FORMER CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, AND OTHER PAST LUMINARIES OF THE WASHINGTON AND PACIFIC SCENES. BOTH JOHNSON AND DENFELD RESIGNED THEIR HIGH POSTS DURING CONTROVERSIES.

MAY 28 1951

AT THE OUTSET OF THE INVESTIGATION MAY 3, CHAIRMAN RUSSELL SAID IT WOULD DEAL WITH THE OUSTER OF MACARTHUR AND THE "FACTS WHICH ARE NECESSARY TO PERMIT THE CONGRESS TO DISCHARGE ITS PROPER FUNCTIONS AND MAKE DIRECT DECISIONS ON THE PROBLEM OF WAR AND PEACE IN THE FAR EAST AND INDEED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD."

MACARTHUR, THE INITIAL WITNESS, CONCEDED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD AUTHORITY TO RELIEVE ANY COMMANDER BUT INSISTED HE DID NOT KNOW WHY HE HAD BEEN RELIEVED AND EMPHATICALLY DENIED TO HAD BEEN INSUBORDINATE OR HAD FAILED TO CARRY OUT DIRECTIVES AND POLICIES.

MACARTHUR SHARPLY CRITICIZED FAILURE OF WASHINGTON OFFICIALS TO ACCEPT PROPOSALS WHICH HE SAID WOULD BRING THE KOREAN WAR TO A PROMPT AND VICTORIOUS END. HE CLAIMED THESE MEASURES HAD APPROVAL AT ONE TIME OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AND ALL OTHER COMPETENT MILITARY LEADERS.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, LIKE MACARTHUR A FIVE-STAR GENERAL, TESTIFIED THAT THE MACARTHUR PROPOSALS MIGHT HAVE TOUCHED OFF WORLD WAR III BY BRINGING RUSSIA INTO THE KOREAN FIGHT.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASSUMED FULL PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR REMOVING MACARTHUR, IN SPEECHES AND NEWS CONFERENCES. HE SAID THE ACTION HAD BEEN UNDER CONSIDERATION FOR ABOUT A YEAR. THAT WAS REVISED LATER TO SINCE LAST AUGUST, ABOUT THE TIME MACARTHUR WROTE TO THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS LAYING GREAT STRESS ON THE STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD OF FORMOSA.

GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, WHO COMPLETED TWO DAYS OF TESTIMONY LATE SATURDAY, ADDED TO THE ADMINISTRATION ACCOUNT OF REASONS FOR THE MACARTHUR OUSTER.

A STANDOUT FRONT IN HIS TESTIMONY WAS HIS INSISTENCE THAT MACARTHUR HAD VIOLATED A KNOWN POLICY BY USING NON-ASIATIC TROOPS CLOSE TO MANCHURIA JUST BEFORE THE CHINESE REDS CAME INTO THE WAR IN FORCE AND THAT IT WAS FEARED HE MIGHT DO SOMETHING ELSE OF THE SORT UNDER "MORE SERIOUS" CIRCUMSTANCES.

COLLINS WAS MORE BLUNT THAN PREVIOUS WITNESSES IN DISCUSSING SHARP DIFFERENCES BETWEEN TOP PENTAGON MILITARY LEADERS AND MACARTHUR AS A THEATER COMMANDER. AS A RESULT HE RAN INTO SOME SHARP QUESTIONS FROM SENATORS CAIN (R-WASH), WILEY (R-WIS), KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) AND HICKENLOOPER (R-IA).

COLLINS SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF CONSIDERED POSSIBLE BOMBING OF TARGETS IN MANCHURIA AND CHINA AT THE TIME CHINESE REDS ENTERED THE KOREAN WAR, AND REJECTED THE IDEA.

A92WX

COLLINS' INSISTENCE THAT MACARTHUR HAD "VIOLATED A POLICY" IN SENDING U.S. TROOPS CLOSE TO THE MANCHURIAN BORDER LED CAIN TO TELL HIM:

"ON YESTERDAY (FRIDAY), GENERAL COLLINS, I THINK YOU UNINTENTIONALLY, AND I EMPHASIZE THAT WORD, UNINTENTIONALLY DID A FIRST RATE HATCHET JOB ON GENERAL MACARTHUR; AND CERTAINLY YOU LED THE NATION TO BELIEVE THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR VIOLATED A FIELD DIRECTIVE, A FIELD ORDER WHEN, IN MY OPINION HE DID NO SUCH THING."

COLLINS SAID HE HAD INCORRECTLY REFERRED TO "A DIRECTIVE, OR WORDS TO THAT EFFECT" BUT LATER HAD CORRECTED THIS TO "A POLICY" OF THE JCS.

BUT THE ARMY LEADER STUCK TO HIS GUNS, SAYING:

"I THINK THIS WAS ONE INDICATION AMONG MANY OTHERS, WHICH CERTAINLY HAVE BEEN CLEAR, THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS NOT IN CONSONANCE WITH THE BASIC POLICIES THAT LED US GRADUALLY TO FEAR THAT JUST AS HE VIOLATED A POLICY IN THIS CASE WITHOUT CONSULTING US, PERHAPS THE THING MIGHT BE DONE IN SOME OTHER INSTANCE OF A MORE SERIOUS NATURE."

COLLINS TOLD CAIN FURTHER:

"I DID NOT INTEND X X X TO ACCUSE GENERAL MACARTHUR OF INSUBORDINATION OR ANYTHING OF THAT SORT."

IN AN EXCHANGE WITH HICKENLOOPER, COLLINS SAID HE DID NOT KNOW MACARTHUR WAS TO BE OUSTED UNTIL PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED FOR RECOMMENDATIONS BUT COLLINS MADE IT PLAIN IT WAS NO SURPRISE TO HIM.

"YOU CAN ASK IT 10 DIFFERENT WAYS," COLLINS TOLD HICKENLOOPER "AND I'M GOING TO GIVE YOU THE SAME ANSWER."

WILEY IN A LONG SERIES OF QUESTIONS TRIED TO GET COLLINS TO CONCEDE THAT SOME OF THE DIRECTIVES AND POLICIES FOR MACARTHUR ACTUALLY CAME FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

COLLINS EACH TIME INSISTED THERE ALSO WAS A MILITARY SIDE TO IT OR THEY CAME DOWN FROM THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID TODAY THAT SECRETARY MARSHALL AND GEN. BRADLEY "HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO TELL US JUST WHAT IS OUR OBJECTIVE IN KOREA."

SENATOR SPARKMAN (D-ALA) REPLIED THAT THE OBJECTIVE, "A FREE AND UNITED KOREA," ALREADY HAD BEEN SET BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

SPARKMAN AND BRIDGES, ALONG WITH SENATORS O'MAHONEY (D-WYO) AND KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) DEBATED THE ISSUES IN THE SENATE INVESTIGATION OF THE FIRING OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, ON THE RADIO (STATION WINX).

KNOWLAND CONTENDED THAT MACARTHUR HAD TRIED TO ATTAIN A "FREE, UNITED AND NON-COMMUNIST KOREA" BUT HAD BEEN HANDICAPPED BECAUSE HE RECEIVED NO "PRECISE" DIRECTIVES FROM THE U.N.

MAY 28 1951

O'MAHONEY SAID THAT THE U.N. WAS "HAVING ALMOST AS MUCH DIFFICULTY IN AGREEING ON A (KOREAN) POLICY AS WE HAVE IN THE SENATE." FOR HIMSELF, HE SAID, HE WOULD "GO AS FAR AS I COULD IN DRIVING THEM (THE COMMUNISTS) OUT OF KOREA" WITHOUT RUNNING THE CHANCE OF LOSING THE SUPPORT OF THIS COUNTRY'S ALLIES.

JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, MAY 27-(AP)-SENATOR JOHNSON (D-COLO SAID TONIGHT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE INDICATED THEY ARE INTERESTED IN A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA.

JOHNSON PUT THIS INTERPRETATION ON COMMUNIST REACTION TO HIS SENATE RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A CEASE-FIRE JUNE 25. COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS HAVE GIVEN THE RESOLUTION BIG COVERAGE.

"THAT SHOWS THEY ARE INTERESTED," JOHNSON TOLD A REPORTER. "AND THAT IS ENCOURAGING--IF WE ARE GOING TO WORK OUT PEACE, THEY WILL HAVE TO BE INTERESTED. PEACE ISN'T A ONE-MAN JOB."

THE COLORADO SENATOR ALSO SAID THERE IS A "TREMENDOUS AND GROWING REACTION" IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION IN THIS COUNTRY.
HE SAID HE IS VERY ENCOURAGED BY AN INFLUX OF TELEPHONE CALLS, TELEGRAMS AND LETTERS FROM "CHURCH PEOPLE, LABOR UNIONS, AND JUST PLAIN PEOPLE WHO WANT TO GET THIS WAR STOPPED."
JOHNSON'S RESOLUTION, PENDING BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, WOULD RECOMMEND THAT THE UNITED NATIONS PROCLAIM THE CEASE-FIRE AND WITHDRAW THEIR OWN TROOPS SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL IN KOREA. AT THE SAME TIME THE UN WOULD CALL ON COMMUNISTS TO KEEP THEIR FORCES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL, FORMERLY THAT BORDER BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA AND NORTH KOREA.
THE RESOLUTION, INTENDED TO EXPRESS THE SENTIMENT OF THE SENATE, WOULD CALL FOR ALL FOREIGN TROOPS TO LEAVE KOREA BY DEC. 31, LEAVING KOREA DIVIDED INTO TWO PARTS AS IT WAS BEFORE THE WAR.
JOHNSON SAID THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL BE TIED UP FOR SOME TIME BY HEARINGS ON GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL BUT HE WILL PUSH HIS PROPOSAL AT THE FIRST OPPORTUNITY.
HE SAID HE HASN'T RECEIVED ANY REACTION FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT OR OTHERS IN THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION BUT THAT BOTH THE ADMINISTRATION AND GENERAL MACARTHUR HAVE SAID "THEY DIDN'T WANT TO GET IN FULL-SCALE WAR WITH CHINA OR IN WORLD WAR III."
HE SAID HIS RESOLUTION CONFLICTS NEITHER WITH THE ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM NOR MACARTHUR'S VIEWS AND OFFERS "ONE WAY TO END THE WAR."

BY CHARLES MOLONY
WASHINGTON, MAY 27-(AP)-THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND SAID TODAY THE GROWTH OF WORLD TRADE IS BEING HAMPERED BY UNNECESSARY RESTRICTIONS, INCLUDING CONTROLS WHICH LIMIT THE EXCHANGE OF ONE COUNTRY'S MONEY FOR ANOTHER'S.
A 160-PAGE REPORT ADOPTED UNANIMOUSLY BY ITS DIRECTORS URGED SPEEDY "RELAXATION OR REMOVAL" OF THESE RESTRICTIONS, DECLARING THAT WOULD RESULT IN GREATER PRODUCTIVE EFFICIENCY AND MORE GOODS AND SERVICES BEING OBTAINED FROM LIMITED WORLD RESOURCES.
OFFICIALS NOTED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THE FUND'S ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT SPECIFY THAT NONE OF THE 49 MEMBER COUNTRIES MAY KEEP RESTRICTIONS ON EXCHANGE TRANSACTIONS AFTER MARCH, 1952, WITHOUT THE FUND'S APPROVAL.
A.N.OVERBY OF THE UNITED STATES, ACTING BOARD CHAIRMAN, SAID THAT "ALTHOUGH DUE CAUTION IS REQUIRED, MANY MEMBER COUNTRIES" ARE NOW ABLE AND "SHOULD MAKE FURTHER PROGRESS TOWARD" EASING OR DROPPING EXCHANGE RESTRICTIONS.
NO COUNTRIES WERE CITED BY NAME IN THE REPORT, BUT A FUND STATEMENT LAST DECEMBER PUT BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, CEYLON AND SOUTHERN RHODESIA IN THAT CLASS. OFFICIALS INDICATED THE SAME GOES FOR MANY OTHER COUNTRIES.
THE FUND REPORT, SECOND IN AN ANNUAL SERIES ON THE EXCHANGE RESTRICTION SITUATION, ARGUED THAT CONDITIONS ARE FAVORABLE FOR RELAXATION AND REMOVAL OF CURBS DESPITE EXISTENCE OF POLITICAL TENSION AND A WIDESPREAD REARMAMENT MOVEMENT.
IN SUPPORT OF THAT, IT CONTENDED:
WORLD TRADE AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS, PARTICULARLY AS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE REST OF THE WORLD, ARE NOW NEARER A BALANCE THAN IN MANY YEARS, PROVIDING A SOLID FOOTING FOR UNRESTRICTED DEALINGS.
MANY COUNTRIES WHICH IN THE EARLY POSTWAR PERIOD COULDN'T AFFORD TO RISK UNRESTRICTED CURRENCY EXCHANGE BECAUSE THEY WERE SHORT ON GOLD AND DOLLARS HAVE MANAGED TO REBUILD THEIR RESERVES OF SUCH UNIVERSALLY DESIRED "MONEY," AND WOULD HAVE A CUSHION AGAINST SUDDEN, SHORT-LIVED DRAINS.

A114WX
THERE IS LESS REASON NOW THAN IN A LONG TIME TO FEAR THAT LARGE UNEMPLOYMENT WOULD RESULT IF DOMESTIC INDUSTRIES WERE SUBJECTED TO GREATER COMPETITION FROM FOREIGN GOODS. UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS, THERE WOULD BE "VERY LITTLE, IF ANY, DANGER TO THE LEVEL OF EMPLOYMENT."
COUNTRIES ENGAGED IN REARMAMENT WOULD NOT HAVE TO CUTBACK CIVILIAN HOME CONSUMPTION SO MUCH IF THEY COULD OBTAIN MORE GOODS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES. COUNTRIES NOT SO ENGAGED WOULD HAVE INCREASED ACCESS TO NEEDED RESOURCES.
THE REPORT SAID THAT THE FUND, WHILE OBJECTING TO RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED FOR ECONOMIC PURPOSES AND NOT ACTUALLY NECESSARY RECOGNIZES THE RIGHT OF MEMBER COUNTRIES TO KEEP CONTROLS FOR STRATEGIC PURPOSES.
AN EXAMPLE OF STRATEGIC-PURPOSE CONTROLS IS THE VIRTUAL BAN THE U.S. HAS MAINTAINED UNDER A LICENSING SYSTEM FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS TO PREVENT SHIPMENT OF WAR-POTENTIAL GOODS TO THE SOVIET BLOC. THE U.S. HAS NO RESTRICTIONS ON EXCHANGE EXCEPT FOR STRATEGIC PURPOSES; THEIR ONLY USE NOW IS AGAINST RED CHINA.

BEEF-CONTROLS
WASHINGTON, MAY 27-(AP)-PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE SAID TODAY "WE ARE BRINGING THE PRICE OF BEEF BACK WITHIN THE REACH OF PEOPLE."
HE DEFENDED HIS RECENT PRICE ROLLBACK ORDER AND SCOFFED AT A CATTLEMAN'S CHARGE THAT THE WHOLE PROGRAM "IS A HOAX ON THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."
DISALLE APPEARED WITH JOE G.MONTAGUE, GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE TEXAS SOUTH-WESTERN CATTLE RAISER'S ASSOCIATION, ON TELEVISION (NBC).
ALSO PUTTING DISALLE'S ROLLBACK ORDER ON THE PAN WAS HERSCHEL D. NEWSOM, MASTER OF THE NATIONAL GRANGE. THE FARM ORGANIZATION LEADER ARGUED THAT PRICE CONTROLS SHOULD BE ELIMINATED UNLESS THEY ARE ACCOMPANIED BY RATIONING. NEWSOM AND SENATOR MAYBANK (D-SC) APPEARED IN A (NBC) RADIO INTERVIEW.
"IF WE ARE GOING TO HAVE PRICE STABILIZATION, WE HAVE GOT TO CONTROL THE PRICE OF BEEF," DISALLE SAID. BEEF, HE ADDED, INCREASED 50 PER CENT IN PRICE SINCE JANUARY, 1950.
MONTAGUE CAME BACK WITH FIGURES WHICH HE SAID SHOWED THAT THE EXPENSE OF RAISING CATTLE ALSO HAD SPIRALED. FOR INSTANCE, HE SAID, COTTONSEED CAKES HAVE INCREASED TO $100 FRO $60 A TON "IF YOU CAN FIND THEM."
THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION (OPS) EFFECTED A 10 PER CENT ROLLBACK IN CATTLE PRICES A WEEK AGO. ADDITIONAL ROLLBACKS OF 4 1/2 PER CENT EACH ARE SCHEDULED FOR AUG. 1 AND OCT. 1.
JUST BEFORE THE OTHER ROLLBACKS GO INTO EFFECT, MONTAGUE SAID, THE MARKETS WILL BE GLUTTED WITH CATTLE AS RANGEMEN SEEK TO GET THE TOP PRICE BEFORE THE CUTS. AND AFTER THAT, HE ADDED, A SHORTAGE OF MEAT WILL RESULT BECAUSE THERE WON'T BE ENOUGH LEFT TO SUPPLY THE DEMAND. HE CITED FIGURES IN AN EFFORT TO PROVE THAT THE 10 PER CENT ROLLBACK ACTUALLY WAS AN 18 PER CENT ONE.
DISALLE SAID THE ROLLBACK FIGURES WERE REACHED AFTER EXHAUSTIVE STUDIES AND INTERVIEWS WITH LIVESTOCK FOLK. HIS OFFICE, HE SAID, WAS FORCED INTO THE ACTION IN ORDER TO HALT AN INFLATIONARY SPIRAL AND RETURN THE PRICE OF BEEF TO A POINT WHERE HOUSEWIVES CAN AFFORD TO BUY IT.

WASHINGTON, MAY 27-(AP)-SECRETARY OF COMMERCE SAWYER SAID TODAY AMERICANS WILL HAVE TO DO WITHOUT SOME THINGS SO THAT OUR "OVERSEAS PARTNERS" CAN BE SUPPLIED WITH GOODS THEY MUST HAVE.

THEY NEED A VARIETY OF THINGS, HE SAID, TO "PLAY THEIR PROPER ROLE IN OUR COMMON MOBILIZATION."

"THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN, WHICH WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE ON JULY 1, WILL NOT OVERLOOK THE EXPORT NEEDS OF THIS COUNTRY AND THOSE TO WHOM EXPORTS ARE TO GO," SAWYER SAID ON A TELEVISION (NBC) PROGRAM.

"HERE, AS ELSEWHERE, THE DECISIONS ARE NOT EASY. NOBODY, OR AT LEAST VERY FEW PEOPLE, WILL BE SATISFIED. IT IS NECESSARY TO MAKE DECISIONS WHICH HURT OR AT LEAST WHICH GREATLY INCONVENIENCE MANY PEOPLE. THIS IS TRUE BECAUSE OF MANY MATERIALS THERE SIMPLY ISN'T ENOUGHT TO GO AROUND.

"IT WOULD BE PLEASANTER TO AVOID MAKING THESE DIFFICULT DECISIONS BUT COMPLETE CHAOS AND ULTIMATE DISASTER WOULD FOLLOW ANY SUCH FAILURE TO MEET THE SITUATION."

THE COMMERCE CHIEF SAID FOREIGN COUNTRIES REQUIRE FROM THE UNITED STATES "SUCH DIVERSE ITEMS AS LOCOMOTIVES AND MINING EQUIPMENT."

SAWYER SAID HE WAS PROUD OF HIS DEPARTMENT'S WORK IN HANDLING EXPORT CONTROLS, ASSERTING THAT "NATIONAL SECURITY HAS NOT BEEN NEGLECTED," HE REMARKED:

"I HAVE LONG SINCE PROHIBITED THE EXPORT TO THE SOVIET BLOC OF ALL COMMODITIES WHICH MIGHT CONTRIBUTE TO THEIR WAR POTENTIAL.

"I CUT OFF ALL EXPORTS TO THE NORTH KOREAN AGGRESSORS AT THE OUTBREAK OF FIGHTING IN KOREA, AND RESCINDED ALL OUTSTANDING EXPORT LICENSES TO CHINA LONG BEFORE THE CHINESE REDS ENTERED THE CONFLICT."

SPEAKING ON THE SAME PROGRAM, AMBASSADOR JOHN E.PEURIFOY, HOME FROM ATHENS FOR CONSULTATION, DECLARED TODAY THAT "THE SOVIET THREAT CONTINUES TO MENACE GREECE." HE SAID THE GREEK NATION CONTINUES TO NEED ECONOMIC AND MILITARY HELP FROM THE U.S.

PEURIFOY DECLARED THAT GREECE IS A FREE NATION TODAY WITH THE HELP OF THE U.S. BUT SAID IT IS "NOT OUT OF THE WOODS YET, AND WILL NOT BE WITHOUT OUR HELP."

AT THE SAME TIME, HE SAID, THE GREEKS HAVE COME A LONG WAY IN SELF-HELP SINCE 1947 AND WILL CONTINUE TO MAKE PROGRESS TOWARD MEETING THEIR OWN REQUIREMENTS.

CHICAGO,MAY 27-(AP)-NATIONALS OF 33 NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS HAVE BEEN INVITED TO MEET IN CHICAGO JUNE 8 TO EVOLVE THEIR VERSION OF A CHARTER FOR A FEDERAL UNION OF DEMOCRACIES.

THE THREE-DAY CONVENTION, TO WIND UP JUNE 10 WITH A PUBLIC RALLY, IS BEING PLANNED BY THE CHICAGO CHAPTER OF THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE, A GROUP WHICH ADVOCATES FEDERATION OF NATIONS.

THE SPONSORS HOPE THAT THE CHICAGO AFFAIRS WILL COINCIDE WITH CONGRESSIONAL CONSIDERATION OF A RESOLUTION PENDING IN BOTH HOUSES WHICH WOULD ASK PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO APPOINT A COMMITTEE TO EXPLORE WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER COUNTRIES THE POSSIBILITIES OF SETTING UP AN INTERNATIONAL FEDERAL BODY.

THE RESOLUTION IS SPONSORED BY SEVERAL MEMBERS OF EACH HOUSE, INCLUDING SEN.KEFAUVER (D-TENN) AND REP.WALTER JUDD (R-MINN).

THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE IS HEADED BY OWEN ROBERTS, FORMER JUSTICE OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT AND NOW DEAN OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA SCHOOL OF LAW.

THE CHICAGO CHAPTER IS HEADED BY DR.HAROLD UREY, UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PHYSICIST. THE CHICAGO CONCLAVE PLANS ARE BEING DIRECTED BY JULIAN J.STEEN, EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE CHAPTER AND PRESIDENT OF THE CHICAGO SCHOOL FOR ADULTS.

STEEN SAID TODAY HE HOPES THE MEETING WILL BE "A REAL GRASS ROOTS CONVENTION."

MAY 28 1951

NONE OF THE DELEGATES PARTICIPATING, STEEN EMPHASIZED, WILL HAVE ANY STATUS AS REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THEIR HOME NATIONS. THEY WILL BE PRIVATE CITIZENS WHO ARE IN THE UNITED STATES UNOFFICIALLY SOME ARE POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES; OTHERS ARE ON PRIVATE BUSINESS.

SEVERAL U.S. CITIZENS INTERESTED IN ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE AIMS WILL BE SELECTED AS DELEGATES, STEEN SAID.

HE SAID IT IS PLANNED TO USE AS A POINT OF DEPARTURE IN CONSIDERATING THE CHARTER, THE ILLUSTRATIVE CONSTITUTION FOR A SUPRA-NATIONAL GOVERNMENT PRESENTED BY AUTHOR CLARENCE STREIT IN HIS BOOK, UNION NOW.

"WE HOPE, HOWEVER, THAT THE CONVENTION WILL COME UP WITH AN ENTIRELY ORIGINAL CHARTER COUNTAINING ANY PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS WHICH WILL BE VALUABLE HELP IN SETTING UP AN EVENTUAL UNION OF NATIONS," STEEN SAID.

HE SAID THE MEETING WILL BE CONDUCTED "IN MUCH THE SAME MANNER AS WAS THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1787."

(ADVANCE)..CHICAGO,MAY 27-(AP)-JJEP, TRUCK AND OTHER VEHICLE ACCIDENTS NOW OUT-RANK DISEASES AS A CAUSE OF NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES IN THE ARMY, DR.LOWELL T.COGGESHALL REPORTED TONIGHT.

SINCE 1936, THE WAR ON GERMS HAS BROUGHT SUCH GOOD CONTROL THAT ONE-TIME KILLER DISEASES NOW ARE "REGARDED WITH RELATIVELY MINOR CONCERN," HE TOLD THE OPENING MEETING OF THE SOCIETY OF AMERICAN BACTERIOLOGISTS.

DR.COGGESHALL IS DEAN OF THE DIVISION OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.

IN KOREA, HE WARNED, ONE URGENT UNSOLVED PROBLEM IS A LIVER DISEASE THAT POSSESSES "ALL THE CHARACTERISTICS NECESSARY FOR A REAL TROUBLE MAKER."

THIS DISEASE IS SCHISTOSOMIASIS. IT IS CAUSED BY A FLUKE, OR MICROSCOPIC ORGANISM, TRANSMITTED TO MAN THROUGH SNAILS.

WATER RICE PADDIES AND PRIMITIVE SANITATION IN SOUTHERN KOREA OFFER AN EXCELLENT BREEDING GROUND FOR THESE PARASITES, HE SAID. THEY ALSO ARE RIFE IN SOUTHERN CHINA AND WOULD BE A MAJOR MEDICAL PROBLEM IF THE WAR WERE EXTENDED THERE.

THE PARASITES OFTEN ENLARGE THE LIVER AND SPLEEN AND THE PATIENT DIES OF INFECTION OR EXHAUSTION. THERE IS NO WAY OF IMMUNIZING AGAINST THE DISEASE OR OF TREATING IT SATISFACTORILY, HE SAID.

DYSENTERY IS ANOTHER IDSEASE THAT TAKES TOO MANY MEN OUT OF ACTION, HE ADDED, AND THERE ARE NOT YET WAYS TO VACCINATE TROOPS AGAINST IT.

DR.COGGESHALL DECLARED MORE BASIS SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH IS NEEDED TO SOLVE THESE AND OTHER PROBLEMS. SOVIET RUSSIA HAS STARTED A VAST TRAINING PROGRAM IN BASIC SCIENCES, HE SAID, AND THIS SHOULD BE A WARNING THAT THE UNITED STATES ALSO MUST TRAIN MORE RESEARCH SCIENTISTS.

HE MADE THE ASSERTION IN A MESSAGE RECEIVED BY THE JEWISH WAR VETERANS' OF THE U.S. DURING THEIR ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE HONORING JEWISH SERVICE MEN WHO DIED FIGHTING FOR THEIR COUNTRY.

GEN.BRADLEY'S MESSAGE SAID "WE MUST LEARN HOW MEN MIGHT LIVE AS CHARITABLY TOGETHER IN PEACE AS THEY DIED FOR EACH OTHER IN WAR."

A MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE MARSHALL STRESSED THE COMMON FAITH OF MEN WHO "HAVE WORSHIPED THEIR GOD IN VARIOUS WAYS BUT HAVE BEEN UNITED UNDER A COMMON AMERICAN UNIFORM IN SERVICE TO THE IDEALS OF THEIR COUNTRY."

AUSTIN BUDGET (450)

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 5 P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME TODAY SUNDAY MAY 27)

BY A.I.GOLDBERG

MAY 28 1951

(ADVANCE)..UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 27-(AP)-WARREN AUSTIN, CHIEF U.S.DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, ADVISED COMMUNIST PEACE PROPAGANDISTS TONIGHT TO GO PEDDLE THEIR PAPERS IN MOSCOW AND PEIPING.

HE USED MORE DIPLOMATIC LANGUAGE. BUT THAT WAS THE MAIN IDEA IN A LONG LETTER HE WROTE TO FREDERIC JOLIOT-CURIE, FRENCH ATOM SCIENTIST AND COMMUNIST LEADER. THE U.S.DELEGATION MADE THE TEXT PUBLIC HERE AT ABOUT THE TIME THE LETTER WAS DUE TO REACH JOLIOT-CURIE IN PARIS.

AUSTIN'S LETTER ANSWERED AN APPEAL FROM THE FRENCH SCIENTIST TO SUPPORT APPEARANCE OF A DELEGATION FROM THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED WORLD PEACE COUNCIL BEFORE THE U.N. TO ARGUE ITS PROGRAM. THE COUNCIL RECENTLY FRAMED A NEW SOVIET-INSPIRED "PEACE PROGRAM" IN BERLIN.

"IF YOUR DELEGATION HONESTLY DESIRES TO MAKE A CONTRIBUTION TO PEACE," AUSTIN WROTE, "I SUGGEST THAT IT VISIT MOSCOW AND URGE THE SOVIET RULING CIRCLE (REPEAT CIRCLE, SINGULAR) TO ABIDE BY THE (U.N.) CHARTER AND THE OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS TO WHICH IT IS PLEDGED.

"YOUR DELEGATION COULD THEN PROCEED TO PEIPING, AND URGE THE RULING CIRCLE (CQ) THERE TO END THE AGGRESSION IN KOREA, WITHDRAW ITS FORCES, AND LET THE KOREAN PEOPLE ORGANIZE THE INDEPENDENT, UNIFIED AND DEMOCRATIC NATION THE U.N.SEEKS FOR THEM.

"IN MOSCOW, YOU COULD URGE THE LEADERS OF WORLD COMMUNISM TO ABANDON THEIR DELCARED AIMS OF TAKING OVER OTHER PEOPLE'S COUNTRIES BY THE WELL-KNOWN TOTALITARIAN TACTICS WHICH LED HITLER TO DISASTER.

"TELL THEM THERE WILL NOT BE A WAR UNLESS THEY DECIDE TO PRECIPITATE IT; THAT THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD WANT REAL PEACE WITH FREEDOM AS DEFINED IN THE U.N.CHARTER; BUT THAT THEY WILL NOT PAY BLACKMAIL TO AGGRESSORS.

"IN PEIPING YOU COULD TELL THE LEADERS THAT THEY CANNOT SHOOT THEIR WAY INTO THE U.N. REMIND THEM THAT IT WAS ONLY THE SOVIET UNION THAT BLOCKED A SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION GIVING FORMAL GUARANTEES ON THE SECURITY OF CHINA'S BORDERS."

JOLIOT-CURIE'S LETTER NAMED SEVERAL EUROPEAN COMMUNISTS AND FELLOW-TRAVELERS WHO WOULD BE ON THE DELEGATION PROPOSED TO ARGUE THE SOVIET LINE ON PEACE PROPOSALS HERE.

AUSTIN TOLD THE FRENCHMAN THAT ALL THE WORLD PEACE COUNCIL PROPOSALS "HAVE ALREADY BEEN DEBATED AT LENGTH WITH THE SOVIET SPOKESMEN WHO ORIGINALLY PUT THEM FORWARD IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

"AFTER EXHAUSTIVE DEBATE, THE U.N. REJECTED THESE PROPOSALS.

"ARE YOU SUGGESTING THAT MR. (ANDREI) VISHINSKY (SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER) AND MR. 'JACOB) MALIK (SOVIET CHIEF DELEGATE) HAVE NOT ADEQUATELY ARGUED THE CASES FOR THE PROPOSALS YOU HAVE BORROWED FROM THEM? "AUSTIN ASKED.

HE SAID THAT HONEST COOPERATION BY THE SOVIET UNION UNDER U.N. MEMBERSHIP OBLIGATIONS WAS ALL THAT WAS NEEDED NOW TO ASSURE WORLD PEACE.

AUSTIN TOLD JOLIOT-CURIE THAT HE DID NOT DOUBT MANY OF HIS FOLLOWERS SINCERELY WANTED PEACE BUT THEY "DO NOT YET REALIZE THAT THEY ARE BEING USED TO ADVANCE THE INTERESTS OF SOVIET IMPERIALIST POWER."

ALTHOUGH JOLIOT-CURIE ATTENDED SEVERAL EARLY SESSIONS OF THE U.N. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, DELEGATION SOURCES SAID HE AND AUSTIN HAD NOT MET. THE FRENCH SCIENTIST HAS SINCE BEEN REMOVED AS HEAD OF HIS COUNTRY'S ATOMIC PILE PROJECT.

NEW YORK, MAY 27-(AP)-GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, IN A MESSAGE TODAY TO THE JEWISH WAR VETERANS OF THE U.S., SAID "WARS CAN BE PREVENTED JUST AS SURELY AS THEY ARE PROVOKED."

BRADLEY'S MESSAGE WAS RECEIVED BY THE WAR VETERANS' ORGANIZATION DURING OBSERVANCE OF ITS 56TH ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE HONORING JEWISH SERVICE MEN WHO DIED FIGHTING FOR THEIR COUNTRY.

THE PRE-MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONIES FEATURED A PARADE DOWN FIFTH AVENUE IN WHICH SOME 2,900 MARCHERS TOOK PART. LATER, SERVICES WERE HELD AT TEMPLE EMANU-EL.

BRADLEY'S MESSAGE, READ TO THE TEMPLE ASSEMBLY, ADDED THAT "WE MUST LEARN HOW MEN MIGHT LIVE AS CHARITABLY TOGETHER IN PEACE AS THEY DIED FOR EACH OTHER IN WAR."

ANOTHER MESSAGE, FROM SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE MARSHALL, STRESSED THE COMMON FAITH OF MEN WHO "HAVE WORSHIPED THEIR GOD IN VARIOUS WAYS BUT HAVE BEEN UNITED UNDER A COMMON AMERICAN UNIFORM IN SERVICE TO THE IDEALS OF THEIR COUNTRY."

DAVID BEN-GURION, PRIME MINISTER OF ISRAEL, ALSO SENT A MESSAGE, SAYING:

"WE IN ISRAEL WHO FOUGHT OUR WAR OF INDEPENDENCE FOR THE VERY SAME PRINCIPLES, FIND A DEEP KINSHIP WITH THOSE SOLDIERS YOU ARE HONORING."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO, TUESDAY, MAY 29-(AP)-ALLIED TROOPS TRAPPED AND DESTROYED TWO CHINESE RED DIVISIONS IN CENTRAL KOREA IN THE PAST FOUR DAYS, THE EIGHTH ARMY REPORTED TODAY.

BUT THE COSTLY RED STAND--12,974 KILLED OR WOUNDED, 5,028 CAPTURED--IN THE CENTER MAY HAVE ALLOWED THE BULK OF THE COMMUNISTS TO SLIP BACK NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. TODAY THE REDS HAD STOPPED THEIR HEADLONG RETREAT AND EVEN COUNTER-ATTACKED IN PLACES.

THE TWO RED DIVISIONS WERE ENCIRCLED AND ELIMINATED AS A FIGHTING FORCE NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, FROM FRIDAY NIGHT THROUGH MONDAY.

"THE ENEMY POCKET IN THIS AREA HAS BEEN CLEANED UP EXCEPT FOR A FEW SCATTERED COMMUNIST GROUPS," AN EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID.

MORE THAN EIGHT MILES INSIDE RED KOREA, NORTH OF THIS SCENE OF SLAUGHTER, 300 REDS WERE KILLED LAST NIGHT BY AN ALLIED ARMORED FORCE. THE FORCE ATTACKED AND DROVE OFF REDS WHO HAD PUSHED U.S. INFANTRYMEN FROM HIGH GROUND NORTH OF HWACHON.

A PRISONER HAUL OF 2,558 WAS MADE MONDAY BY ALLIED FORCES WHO HAVE DRIVEN THE REDS FROM VIRTUALLY ALL TERRITORY GAINED IN THE REDS' TWO TURNED-BACK SPRING OFFENSIVES.

RED RESISTANCE STIFFENED YESTERDAY AND TODAY ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AROUND INJE AND HYON AND ON THE CENTRAL FRONT NEAR HWACHON. THE COMMUNISTS SHOWED SIGNS OF STANDING STILL AND TRYING TO HALT THE GENERAL ALLIED PUSH ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL INTO NORTH KOREA.

AN EIGHTH ARMY STAFF OFFICER SAID COSTLY RED DELAYING ACTIONS PROBABLY HAVE PERMITTED MANY TROOPS TO ELUDE UNITED NATIONS TRAPS.

THE ALLIES WERE HAMPERED BY MUD. THE REDS WERE ABLE TO SLIP UP ROADS AND TRAILS BEFORE THE SLOSHING ALLIES COULD CUT THEM.

BYPASSED REDS STILL WERE SURRENDERING. THE REPORT ON MONDAY'S BAG OF 2,558 PRISONERS WAS INCOMPLETE. ALL THOSE WERE SEIZED IN THE CHUNCHON AREA ALONE.

THIS IS A QUICK LOOK ACROSS THE FRONT:

EAST COAST--REPUBLIC OF KOREA (ROK) TROOPS MET SCANT RESISTANCE IN A PUSH NEARLY 15 MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

EAST-CENTRAL--THE REDS STOPPED AND FOUGHT AROUND INJE, NORTH OF 38, AND HYON, SOUTH OF IT--POINTS ABOUT 25 MILES INLAND. ONE U.S. UNIT HAD TO GIVE GROUND SOUTHWEST OF INJE.

CENTRAL--A RED REGIMENT TRIED TO REINFORCE COMMUNISTS NEAR ALLIED-HELD HWACHON, EIGHT MILES NORTH OF 38. AIR ATTACKS BROKE UP THE EFFORT.

WEST-CENTRAL--ALLIED PATROLS PROWLED INTO NORTH KOREA BEYOND OYNGPYONG.

WEST--U.S. 25TH DIVISION TANK-INFANTRY PATROLS THRUST INTO NORTH KOREA BEYOND YONCHON AND ROUTED A RED FORCE, AIDED BY ALLIED ARTILLERY. GREEK AND SOUTH KOREAN PATROLS RAN INTO HEAVY RED FIRE NORTH OF MUNSAN AND NEAR KORANGPO, POINTS NORTHWEST OF SEOUL.

BRIGHT SUNSHINE TODAY WAS DRYING OUT THE ROADS--AND OPENING THE WAY FOR HEAVY ALLIED AIR ATTACKS.

THE RED REINFORCEMENT EFFORT BROKEN UP NEAR HWACHON WAS THE FIRST SUCH ATTEMPT REPORTED SINCE THE RED RETREAT BEGAN LAST WEEK.

HWACHON IS AT THE WEST END OF THE 11-MILE-LONG HWACHON RESERVOIR. A FIELD DISPATCH SAID A STRONG RED ATTACK THIS MORNING AT THE EAST END NEAR YANGGU STALLED AN ALLIED ADVANCE. HALF OF AN ATTACKING FORCE OF 200 REDS WAS KILLED NEAR YANGGU LAST NIGHT.

RED TROOPS SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL IN THE EAST-CENTRAL AREA STILL WERE TRYING TO SLIP BACK NORTH. ONE GROUP OF 1,700 WAS OBSERVED MOVING NORTHWEST FROM THE HYON AREA.

ALLIED TROOPS HAD TO FIGHT THROUGH A ROADBLOCK NORTHWEST OF HYON ON THE ROAD TOWARD INJE. THE REDS USED HEAVY MORTAR FIRE. SOUTHEAST OF HYON, THE ADVANCING U.S. THIRD DIVISION MET ONLY LIGHT RESISTANCE.

THERE WERE REPORTS FROM THE INJE AREA THAT THE ALLIED PUSH NORTH-EASTWARD HAS BOGGED DOWN.

U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE PLANES SPOTTED 225 VEHICLES MOVING SOUTH TOWARD RED LINES MONDAY NIGHT AND CLAIMED THEY DESTROYED OR DAMAGED 80. ONE B-26, PILOTED BY CAPT.JOHN B.POLLOCK (2498 PRINCETON ROAD) CLEVELAND, OHIO, KNOCKED OUT 10 TRUCKS OF A 50-TRUCK CONVOY.

FIFTH AIR FORCE PILOTS CLAIMED THEY KILLED OR WOUNDED 1,850 REDS YESTERDAY.

PURSUING UNITED NATIONS FORCES WERE DRIVING FOUR TO 14 MILES INSIDE NORTH KOREA ACROSS THE 125-MILE WIDE PENINSULA. THE ALLIED POSITIONS WERE ABOUT THE SAME THEY OCCUPIED JUST BEFORE THE FIRST RED HAMMER BLOW THE NIGHT OF APRIL 22.

IN ONE WEEK THE EIGHTH ARMY OFFENSIVE HAS ELIMINATED RED PENETRATIONS RANGING UP TO 25 MILES BELOW THE 38TH PARALLEL. THE TOTAL RED GAINS WERE FROM 30 TO 40 MILES.

HOWEVER, FIELD DISPATCHES SAID 3,000 CHINESE WERE IN ACTION MONDAY NIGHT AGAINST U.S.TROOPS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, WEST OF HWACHON RESERVOIR. THAT WAS ROUGHLY SEVEN MILES NORTH OF THE OLD POLITICAL BOUNDARY.

FRONTLINE OFFICERS BELIEVED CHINESE REARGUARDS WERE ATTEMPTING ONLY TO SLOW THE ALLIED ADVANCE. THEY EXPECTED NOTHING MORE THAN A LOCAL ENEMY COUNTERATTACK.

OTHER RED REARGUARDS INCLUDING MANY NORTH KOREANS, TRIED TO STOP THE ALLIED ADVANCES ON BOTH THE WESTERN AND EASTERN FLANKS OF THE BATTLELINE.

A POOLED DISPATCH FROM THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT QUOTED AN OFFICER AS SAYING "THE ROUT PHASE OF THE CHINESE RETREAT SEEMS TO HAVE ENDED."

"THE ENEMY," HE SAID, "APPARENTLY HAS WITHDRAWN THE BULK OF THE CHINESE TROOPS. NORTH KOREANS ARE BEING THROWN INTO THE LINE AND THEY ARE SLOWING OUR ADVANCE."

MAY 29 1951

ALLIED TROOPS PUSHING NORTHWEST TOWARD YANGGU ON THE EASTERN END OF THE SPRAWLING HWACHON RESERVOIR GAINED ONLY TWO AND ONE-HALF MILES DURING THE DAY. THEY WERE HIT BY SMALL ARMS AND MORTAR FIRE.

THE ALLIES IN INJE WERE UNDER SHARP RED ARTILLERY FIRE. INJE, IS FOUR MILES NORTH OF 38 AND 28 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST.

THE OTHER RED REARGUARDS INCLUDING MANY NORTH KOREANS, TRIED TO STOP THE ALLIED ADVANCES ON BOTH THE WESTERN AND EASTERN FLANKS.

THE NUMBER OF CHINESE PRISONERS TAKEN MONDAY DROPPED OFF SHARPLY AFTER SUNDAY'S RECORD OF 3,016. THE TOTAL NUMBER OF PRISONERS TAKEN BETWEEN MAY 20 AND MAY 27 EXCEEDED 5,000. MOST OF THEM WERE CHINESE.

LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET, U.S. EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER, SAID FLATLY THAT THE ENEMY "LOST HIS NERVE" AND RETREATED AFTER FAILING TO CRACK THE ALLIED DEFENSES ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT IN THE SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE MAY 16.

THE UNITED NATIONS FIELD COMMANDER CAUTIONED THAT HE DOES NOT NECESSARILY THINK THIS MEANS THE WAR IS OVER.

VAN FLEET TOLD CORRESPONDENTS DURING A FRONTLINE INSPECTION THAT THE CHINESE ARMY "STILL HAS PLENTY OF RESERVES AND GREAT LATENT CAPABILITIES" AND "CAN SMASH US AGAIN IF HE WANTS TO."

THE STIFFEST RED RESISTANCE MONDAY WAS NORTH OF STRATEGIC HWACHON, EIGHT MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

A COMMUNIST SCREENING FORCE FOUGHT STUBBORNLY TO COVER THE RETREAT OF THOUSANDS OF CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS.

ALLIED AIR, ARTILLERY AND GROUND FORCES SMASHED AT THEM CONTINUALLY AT THEIR HEELS. COMMUNIST REINFORCEMENTS PUSHED SOUTH TO HELP COVER THE WITHDRAWAL.

DISPATCHES DELAYED BY CENSORS INDICATED AMERICAN UNITS ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT FACED A STIFF FIGHT NORTH OF INJE ABOVE THE EXPANDING CHOYANG RIVER BRIDGEHEAD.

ALLIED TROOPS DISCOVERED ABOUT 200 TRUCKLOADS OF ENEMY AMMUNITION STRUNG OUT FOR TWO MILES ALONG THE CHOYANG RIVER. THE VAST ARMS DEPOT WAS FOUND ONE MILE NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

ALLIED FORCES WHO BLOCKED BOTH ENDS OF THE INJE-HYON ROAD SUNDAY, BATTLED LONG AND BLOODILY MONDAY WITH ENEMY UNITS LINING RIDGES ON BOTH SIDES OF THE HIGHWAY. HYON IS FIVE MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AND ABOUT 25 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST. AMERICAN AND DUTCH TROOPS HAMMERED NORTH OF HYON, ENDEAVORING TO DESTROY RED GROUPS TRYING TO USE THE BLOCKED ESCAPE ROUTE.

A194KX

FRONTLINE REPORTS SAID THE HILLS IN THE HYON SECTOR SWARMED WITH SMALL POCKETS OF REDS. MANY SURRENDERED WHEN THEY REALIZED THEY WERE CUT OFF. OTHERS WERE DEMORALIZED BY DEVASTATING AIR AND ARTILLERY STRIKES. MOST OF THESE REDS WERE NORTH KOREANS WHO HAD BEEN LEFT BEHIND IN THE RUGGED HILLS TO COVER THE CHINESE WITHDRAWAL.

DUE SOUTH OF HYON THE U.S. THIRD DIVISION COMBED THROUGH RIDGES HUNTING OUT REDS WHILE SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS HOPPED UP FARTHER WEST.

ALONG THE EXTREME EAST COAST, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS PUSHED UP THE COASTAL HIGHWAY WITH ALLIED WARSHIPS PROVIDING ARTILLERY SUPPORT. SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS CAPTURED SOKCHO, 14 MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38. ONE RED BATTALION OFFERED RESISTANCE FARTHER SOUTH NEAR OCCUPIED YANGYANG.

ON THE WESTERN END OF THE COMBAT ZONE AN AMERICAN STAFF OFFICER SAID HE BELIEVED THE CHINESE ARMIES WERE HIDING DURING THE DAY TO ESCAPE AIR ATTACKS AND ARTILLERY, AND RETREATING AT NIGHT.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED ALLIED TANKS ADVANCED NINE MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 TO A POINT NORTH OF YONCHON. THEY MET ONLY SLIGHT RESISTANCE.

EVERYWHERE ALONG THE WESTERN FRONT THE REDS WERE EITHER WITHDRAWING OR TRYING TO SLOW THE ALLIED PUSH WITH SMALL REARGUARD ACTION. THE ADVANCING AMERICANS LIBERATED TWO MORE AMERICAN SOLDIERS WHO HAD BEEN CAPTURED BY THE CHINESE LAST MONTH. THIS BROUGHT TO 10 THE NUMBER OF ALLIED SOLDIERS FREED IN THE LAST TWO DAYS IN THE WEST.

RANDOLPH SAID THAT AS THE TANKERS ADVANCED NORTH OF YONCHON THEY ENCOUNTERED LIGHT BUT INEFFECTIVE ENEMY FIRE.

ABOUT 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, SOUTH KOREAN, AMERICAN AND GREEK PATROLS CROSSED THE IMJIN RIVER AND FANNED NORTH LOOKING FOR REDS. ALLIED TROOPS WERE BROUGHT UP FLUSH TO THE SOUTH BANK OF THE IMJIN.

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS STILL TABULATED CHINESE PRISONERS ON THE BASIS OF INCOMPLETE REPORTS. OFFICERS AT VAN FLEET'S HEADQUARTERS SAID THE WHOLESALE SURRENDERS WERE A "CUMULATIVE EFFECT" OF (1) INTENSE ALLIED FIREPOWER, (2) RAPID PURSUIT BY U.N. UNITS, (3) LACK OF FOOD AND DISILLUSIONMENT.

TO COUNTER THE PROPAGANDA EFFECT ON THEIR KOREAN DEBACLE, THE COMMUNIST RADIO AT PEIPING RUSHED OUT A COUNTER CLAIM THAT 46,302 ALLIED TROOPS WERE KILLED, WOUNDED OR CAPTURED BETWEEN APRIL 22 AND MAY 21. THE BROADCAST SAID THE ALLIES WERE HURLED BACK 31 TO 43 MILES BUT ACTUALLY THE RED RETREAT HAS WIPED OUT ALL OF THOSE ALLEGED GAINS.

FIFTH AIRFORCE PLANES FLEW 520 SORTIES BY DUSK AND KILLED OR WOUNDED AN ESTIMATED 450 COMMUNISTS. OKINAWA-BASED B-29S HIT PYONGYANG'S "DOWNTOWN" AIRPORT ON THE STREETS OF THE RED CAPITAL AND YANGYU AIRSTRIP 25 MILES NORTH.

THREE U.S. SABRE JETS TANGLED BRIEFLY WITH EIGHT ENEMY MIGS IN NORTHWEST KOREA AND DAMAGED ONE WITHOUT DAMAGE TO THEMSELVES.

SECOND LEAD ~~KOREAN~~ WAR ROUNDUP (200)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, MAY 28-(AP)-COMMUNIST RESISTANCE STIFFENED TODAY AS UNITED NATIONS TROOPS PUSHED DEEPER INTO RED KOREA AFTER TAKING THE WAR'S GREATEST BAG OF PRISONERS.

BUT LT.GEN. JAMES A.VAN FLEET SAID THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAD LOST THERE NERVE AND RETREATED WHEN THEY COULDN'T CRACK THE U.S.SECOND DIVISION.

"HE (THE ENEMY) LOST HIS NERVE. HE JUST QUIT AND HAULED OUT," ADDED THE U.N.GROUND COMMANDER.

U.S.EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCED 3,000 REDS SURRENDERED SUNDAY ANOTHER 2,000 WERE TAKEN LAST WEEK.

MOST OF THE 5,000 WERE CAPTURED IN A GREAT BOX-LIKE TRAP, 25 MILES ACROSS AND TEN MILES DEEP. THE LID OF THE TRAP IS THE HWACHON RESERVOIR WITH U.N.FORCES ANCHORED AT EACH SIDE IN INJE AND HWACHON. BOTH ARE IN NORTH KOREA.

MAY 29 1951

U.N.FORCES DROVE NEW PRONGS MONDAY ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL, ALREADY PUNCTURED AT HALF A DOZEN POINTS. SOUTH KOREANS SMASHED INTO SAKCHANG, 4 1/2 MILES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL AND 10 MILES WEST OF HWACHON. AMERICANS MOVED UP ON THEIR WESTERN FLANK.

REDS PUT UP STIFFENING RESISTANCE AGAINST ADVANCING FORCES MONDAY. AND FEWER SURRENDERED.

A STRONG ALLIED TASK FORCE SHOVED TEN MILES BEYOND CAPTURED INJE INTO NORTH KOREA. IT WAS TURNED BACK BY WITHERING FIRE FROM A RED ROAD BLOCK NEAR THE VILLAGE OF HANGYE, NINE MILES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL. THIS U.N. FORCE HAD DRIVEN FROM ANOTHER HANGYE, 27 AIR MILES SOUTH, FROM WHICH THE ALLIED COUNTEROFFENSIVE JUMPED OFF LAST WEEK.

WITH ISOLATED EXCEPTIONS, THE REDS WERE IN FULL RETREAT.

BUT THE RETREAT, "FAST AS IT IS," SAID LT. GEN. JAMES A. VAN FLEET, DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN ANY END TO THE WAR.

"HOW FAR HE (THE ENEMY) WILL RETREAT I DO NOT KNOW," THE U.N. GROUND COMMANDER SAID. "HE STILL HAS PLENTY OF RESERVES AND GREAT LATENT CAPABILITIES. HE CAN SMASH US AGAIN IF HE WANTS TO. BUT THERE'S NO DENYING HIS TROOPS HAVE LOW MORALE RIGHT NOW AND THEY ARE VERY WEARY AND ILL-FED."

AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN ATTRIBUTED THE MASS SURRENDERS TO THE "CUMULATIVE EFFECT OF THE LONG AND INTENSE FIRE TO WHICH THE ENEMY WAS SUBJECTED SINCE THE START OF THEIR LAST OFFENSIVE, THE RAPID PURSUIT BY U.N.FORCES WHICH CUT OFF LARGE POCKETS OF THE ENEMY, AND THE REDS' LACK OF FOOD AND DISILLUSIONMENT."

REDS ABANDONED HUGE STORES OF AMMUNITION IN THEIR FLIGHT. AIRMEN REPORTED THE RED RETREAT "IN CENTRAL KOREA RESEMBLED A ROUT," THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES SAID.

THE ALLIED ADVANCE CUT OFF ESCAPE ROUTES AND MAY HAVE KNOCKED THE REDS OUT AS A SERIOUS THREAT FOR AT LEAST THREE MONTHS, U.S. EIGHTH ARMY OFFICERS SAID.

THE ALLIED ADVANCE WAS GENERAL ACROSS THE 125-MILE FRONT. IT PUNCTURED THE 38TH PARALLEL BOUNDARY OF RED KOREA ON ALMOST EVERY MAIN HIGHWAY.

HWACHON, SEVEN MILES INSIDE RED KOREA ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, AND INJE, FOUR MILES ABOVE THE BORDER ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, WERE FIRMLY IN UNITED NATIONS HANDS. BOTH ARE KEY TOWNS ON RED ESCAPE HIGHWAYS.

SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WERE BACK IN YANGYANG, EIGHT MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 ON THE EAST COAST.

IN THE WEST TANKS LED A TASK FORCE ALMOST TO YONCHON, SIX MILES

30.24- 23481

ACROSS THE BORDER AND 35 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. OTHER TANKS RUMBLED THROUGH YONGPYONG, 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL AND A MILE ACROSS THE BORDER.

SOUTH OF THE BORDER A KEY ESCAPE ROUTE WAS SEALED WHEN AMERICANS CAPTURED HYON, A ROAD JUNCTION ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT, SOUTHEAST OF INJE.

U.N. TANKS AND INFANTRY PUSHED NORTH MONDAY FROM ALL CAPTURED TOWNS.

A39FX

A U.S. TENTH CORPS BRIEFING OFFICER SAID A TANK AND INFANTRY FORCE STREAMED NORTH OF INJE. HE ADDED:

"WE ARE CONTINUING TO COUNTERATTACK AND ALSO CHOP UP AND ELIMINATE BYPASSED ELEMENTS."

U.S. SECOND DIVISION OFFICERS REPORTED TWO GROUPS OF CHINESE WERE AMBUSHED SOUTHEAST OF INJE SUNDAY. "WE SLAUGHTERED THEM," THE OFFICERS REPORTED. BETWEEN 500 AND 1,000 WERE IN EACH GROUP.

SOUTHEAST OF HWACHON A CHINESE DIVISION--BETWEEN 6,000 AND 10,000 MEN--WAS REPORTED FIGHTING DESPERATELY TO ESCAPE BEFORE AMERICAN TROOPS SEALED THEIR LAST AVENUE TO THE NORTH.

THE U.S. SECOND, SEVENTH, THIRD, 24TH AND 25TH INFANTRY DIVISIONS, THE FIRST CAVALRY AND THE FIRST MARINES WERE IN THE ADVANCE. SO WERE BRITISH, FRENCH, TURKISH, GREEK, DUTCH, CANADIAN, NEW ZEALAND, AUSTRALIAN, SOUTH AFRICAN AND OTHER U.N. UNITS.

MAY 29 1951

CLEARING WEATHER ENABLED AIR FORCES TO ROAR BACK TO THE ATTACK MONDAY AFTER TWO DAYS OF BAD FLYING CONDITIONS.

THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES REPORTED FIRE BOMBS AND STRAFING FORCED 300 REDS TO SURRENDER TO GROUND TROOPS NEAR HWACHON SUNDAY.

FLARE-DROPPING PLANES CAUGHT BETWEEN 3,000 AND 4,000 REDS FLEEING NORTH OF HWACHON RESERVOIR SUNDAY NIGHT WITH ABOUT 500 PARK ANIMALS. THE ANIMALS, LOADED WITH AMMUNITION, BLEW UP WHEN THEY WERE HIT.

RED ANTIAIRCRAFT GUNS SHOT DOWN TWO F-4U MARINE PLANES SUNDAY.

U.S. SUPERFORTS FLEW THROUGH FLAK MONDAY AND BOMBED TWO AIR STRIPS. ONE WAS PYONGYANG'S NOVEL "DOWNTOWN AIRSTRIP." THIS IS A STREET WIDENED IN THE CENTER OF THE RED CAPITAL FOR USE OF THE COMMUNIST AIR FLEET WHICH HAS NEVER GOTTEN INTO ACTION.

DESPITE MASSES OF REDS REPORTED KILLED, TRAPPED OR SURRENDERED, EIGHTH ARMY OFFICERS CAUTIONED THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE STILL CAPABLE OF PUTTING UP A FIGHT.

BUT THEIR FLIGHT WAS SO PRECIPITATE IN MANY CASES THEY MADE NO ATTEMPT TO DESTROY ARMS AND AMMUNITION BROUGHT WITH GREAT DIFFICULTY DOWN BOMB-RIDDLED ROADS TO THE FRONT.

LARGE CACHES OF AMMUNITION WERE CAPTURED SOUTHWEST OF INJE, IN AND NEAR CHUNCHON 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, AND NEAR CHOKSONG ON THE WEST CENTRAL FRONT.

THE CHOKSONG AMMUNITION DUMP, INCLUDING USABLE AMERICAN ARTILLERY SHELLS, WAS CAPTURED BY GREEK INFANTRYMEN. THE GREEKS OVERRAN THE HILLS WHERE THE BRITISH GLOUCESTERSHIRE BATTALION WAS CUT TO PIECES LAST MONTH.

THEY FOUND ONE WOUNDED ENGLISHMAN WHO HAD BEEN CARED FOR BY A KOREAN FAMILY FOR 33 DAYS. HE IS THE 50TH KNOWN SURVIVOR OF THE BATTALION.

ALL OF THE OTHER 550 IN THE BATTALION PRESUMABLY WERE KILLED OR CAPTURED.

THE VALLEYS AND RIDGES WHERE THEY MADE THEIR DEATH STAND WERE LINED WITH SHALLOW GRAVES SCOOPED OUT BY THE CHINESE, AND LITTERED WITH THE DEBRIS OF WARFARE.

TOKYO, MAY 28-(AP)-FAR EAST AIR FORCES HEADQUARTERS SAID TODAY MORE THAN 300 REDS SURRENDERED YESTERDAY NEAR THE HWACHON RESERVOIR IN KOREA RATHER THAN WITHSTAND ANOTHER PUMMELING BY U.S.FIFTH AIR FORCE WARPLANES AND MASSED ARTILLERY.

THE SURRENDER WAS DESCRIBED BY CAPT. EDSEL L.GEORGE, 18470 STAHELIN ROAD, DETROIT, A T-6 MOSQUEITO PILOT. THE SURRENDER CAME AS A FLIGHT OF FIGHTER AIRCRAFT CIRCLED ABOVE THEM PRIOR TO AN AIR STRIKE.

CAPT.GEORGE SAID "WE HAD BEEN ORBITING AROUND THE AREA WITH THIS FLIGHT OF FIGHTERS WAITING FOR THE ARTILLERY TO CEASE FIRING.

"APPARENTLY THE CHINESE GUESSED WHAT WAS IN STORE FOR THEM BECAUSE WHEN THE ARTILLERY BARRAGE STOPPED THEY CAME DOWN FROM THE HILLS WAVING WHITE FLAGS AND HOLDING THEIR ARMS OVER THEIRHEADS."

VAN FLEET (200)
BY JOHN RANDOLPH
WESTERN FRONT, KOREA, MAY 28-(AP)-LT. GN. JAMES A. VAN FLEET SAID TODAY THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ARMY LOST ITS NERVE AND RETREATED WHEN IT COULDN'T CRACK THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.
"THE ENEMY HAD A VERY FINE INITIAL ADVANTAGE," THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER SAID ON A FRONTLINE VISIT. "BUT THE SECOND DIVISION PUT UP SUCH A WONDERFUL FIGHT THAT HE COULDN'T PRESS IT. HE LOST HIS NERVE. HE JUST QUIT AND HAULED OUT."
THE GENERAL SAID HE DID NOT THINK THE PRESENT CHINESE RETREAT --AS FAST AS IT IS--NECESSARILY MEANS THE END OF THE WAR.
"HOW FAR HE WILL RETREAT I DO NOT KNOW. HE STILL HAS PLENTY OF RESERVES AND GREAT LATENT CAPABILITIES. HE CAN SMASH US AGAIN IF HE WANTS TO, BUT THERE'S NO DENYING HIS TROOPS HAVE LOW MORALE RIGHT NOW AND THEY ARE VERY WEARY AND ILL-FED."
VAN FLEET DECORATED SEVERAL MEN OF THE FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION. AMONG THEM WAS LT. TYLEE N. JAMES, 1548 CABRILLO ST., VENICE, CALIF., FOR EXTREME GALLANTRY IN ACTION.
THE GENERAL ALSO PRAISED THE GREEK BATTALION WHICH IS SERVING AS PART OF THE SEVENTH CAVALRY REGIMENT.
"I JUST WISH WE HAD MORE GREEK BATTALIONS OVER HERE--MAYBE A BRIGADE." VAN FLEET SAID. "IF WE HAD ENOUGH OF THEM WE COULD GET THIS WAR OVER WITH."

SUDDENLY A BULLET WHIZZED BY AND HIT ANOTHER GI STANDING NEARBY.
HE RUSHED OVER TO THE FALLEN SOLDIER AND STARTED BANDAGING THE WOUND. THEN A CHINESE GRENADE LANDED ONLY A FOOT AWAY.
THE TALL BLONDE SOLDIER CALMLY PICKED IT UP AND WAS ABOUT TO THROW IT. BUT IT EXPLODED, MANGLING HIS RIGHT ARM.
A FEW SECONDS LATER A MORTAR FRAGMENT CAUGHT HIM IN THE BACK.
THAT WAS THE FIRST DAY IN COMBAT FOR PVT. KENNETH W.SELLS OF MIDDLESBORO, KY. HE WAS A MILITARY POLICEMAN WHO HAD VOLUNTEERED FOR DUTY WITH A RIFLE COMPANY. ONLY FIVE DAYS BEFORE HE HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO COMPANY K OF THE 17TH INFANTRY REGIMENT.
AND ON THAT FIRST DAY HE EARNED HIS COMBAT INFANTRY MAN'S BADGE, THE PURPLE HEART, AND A RECOMMENDATION FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR.
THEY STILL TALK ABOUT IT.
HOW HE WALKED DOWN THE HILL FROM THE BATTLE, CRADLING HIS BLOODY RIGHT ARM.
HOW, WHEN SOMEONE OFFERED HIM A CIGARETTE, HE SMILED AND SAID, "THANKS, I'VE GOT MY OWN."
HOW, WHEN THE GRENADE WENT OFF, ALL HE SAID WAS, "I'M HIT."

TIBET (PRECEDE TOKYO DAY)

BY FRED HAMPSON

HONG KONG,MAY 28 (AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA'S "TREATY" GIVING IT CONTROL OF REMOTE TIBET IS EXPECTED TO INCREASE RED PRESSURE ON INDIA, WHICH IS RIGHT NEXT DOOR.

THAT LOFT, CRAGGY AND MYSTERIOUS LAND OF THE LAMAS--OR PRIESTLY RULING CLASS--HAD ITS MYSTERY DEEPENED BY THE IRON CURTAIN.

BY THE TREATY SIGNED IN PEIPING ON MAY 23 AND ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT, RED CHINA TAKES OVER TIBET'S NATIONAL DEFENSE, FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND TRADE.

OBSERVERS POINT OUT THAT TIBET GIVES THE COMMUNISTS A BASE NOT SO MUCH FOR MILITARY ACTION AGAINST INDIA BUT FOR PROPAGANDA, INFILTRATION AND CONCESSIONS. TIBET IS TOO MOUNTAINOUS FOR MILITARY PURPOSES.

THESE OBSERVERS BELIEVE THAT INDIA SOON WILL FEEL COMMUNIST PRESSURE IN MANY FORMS AND, ONE DAY, WILL REGRET IT DID NOT TAKE A FIRM STAND FOR A FREE AND INDEPENDENT TIBET.

A LARGE BODY OF FAR EAST OPINION HOLDS THAT INDIA WAS THE ONLY NATION THAT MIGHT HAVE DETERRED PEIPING. INDIA CHOSE NOT TO ACT.

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE REMOTE LAND OF THE LAMAS REMAINS TO BE SEEN. NO ONE, HOWEVER, EXPECTS TIBET TO REMAIN THE ALMOST INDEPENDENT RELIGIOUS STATE IT WAS WHEN THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS WERE IN POWER IN CHINA.

REPORTS INDICATE THAT PEIPING "DIPLOMACY" WORKED WHERE ITS MILITARY FORCES FAILED. THE RED ARMIES THAT WENT INTO TIBET LAST FALL ACCOMPLISHED LITTLE, DESPITE PEIPING'S VICTORY CLAIMS. THE ARMY, STALLED BY THE HIGH MOUNTAINS AND THE COLD, HALTED IN THE BORDER REGION.

THE REDS THEN WORKED THEIR WILL IN TIBET BY GETTING CONTROL OF THREE GROUPS.

THE FIRST GROUP WAS THAT REPRESENTED BY THE PANCHEN LAMA, WHO WAS CHASED OUT OF TIBET BY THE RIVAL DALAI LAMA IN 1923. TWO NON-HEREDITARY LINES OF SUCCESSION FOR THE RULER OF TIBET WERE ESTABLISHED IN THE 15TH CENTURY. ONE IS KNOWN AS THE PANCHEN LAMA AND THE OTHER AS THE DALAI LAMA. BOTH ARE SUPPOSED TO BE LIVING REINCARNATIONS OF BUDDHA. THE DALAI LAMA IS THE SPIRITUAL AND TEMPORAL RULER. THE PANCHEN LAMA IS CONSIDERED BY SOME TO BE EQUAL TO THE DALAI LAMA AS A SPIRITUAL RULER.

A12KX

THE PRESENT PANCHEN LAMA IS A CHINESE BOY IN HIS TEENS. HE WAS COURTED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AS SOON AS THEY FOUND HIM AT THE TIME THEY CAPTURED TSINGHAI PROVINCE IN NORTHWEST CHINA. HIS ADVISERS DECIDED HE WOULD GO COMMUNIST.

NOW HE WILL BE SENT TO TIBET. THIS MAY BE A RED MANEUVER FOR REVIVING THE DISPUTE BETWEEN THE TWO LAMAS. SUCH A DISPUTE COULD LEAD TO ELIMINATING THE LAMAS FROM POWER AND CONSOLIDATING THAT OF THE COMMISSARS.

(A PEIPING BROADCAST HEARD AT SAN FRANCISCO SAID THERE WOULD BE NO CHANGE IN THE DALAI LAMA'S POWERS AND EXPRESSED HOPE THE TWO FACTIONS WOULD "UNITE FOREVER.")

THE SECOND GROUP INCLUDES SOME OF THOSE AROUND THE DALAI LAMA, ALSO A BOY IN HIS TEENS. HE FLED THE CAPITAL OF LHASA WHEN THE REDS THREATENED TIBET, BUT TWO DELEGATES WHO SIGNED THE AGREEMENT IN PEIPING ARE SUPPOSED TO BE HIS MEN.

THE THIRD GROUP WAS READY MADE BY THE COMMUNISTS THEMSELVES. IT IS CALLED "THE PEOPLES GOVERNMENT OF THE AUTONOMOUS TIBETAN AREA."

IT WAS SET UP LAST YEAR IN NEIGHBORING SIKANG PROVINCE AFTER THE MILITARY INVASION FAILED. THIS GOVERNMENT WAS TO INFILTRATE INTO TIBET. IT HAD MADE SOME PROGRESS WHEN THE PEIPING NEGOTIATION PROVIDED A SHORT CUT TO CONTROL.

(THE PEIPING RADIO, HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS AT SAN FRANCISCO, WAS LOADED TODAY WITH COMMENTS ON WHAT IT CALLED "THE PEACEFUL LIBERATION OF TIBET."

(AN EDITORIAL IN THE PEIPING PEOPLES DAILY, OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY, SAID THE TREATY REPRESENTED A VICTORY OVER BRITISH AND U.S."IMPERIALISM."

(THE EDITORIAL ASSERTED THAT "IMPERIALISTS AND THEIR LACKEYS" TRIED TO "ORGANIZE ARMED INTERVENTION IN TIBET AS THEIR CAPITAL FOR ENGINEERING THE THIRD WORLD WAR."

(THE EDITORIAL SAID THAT "WE DO NOT INVADE ANY COUNTRY BUT SEEK TO LIVE IN PEACE WITH NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES.") MAY 29 1951

TIBET (450)

TOKYO,MAY 28-(AP)-RED CHINA HAS ANNOUNCED IT IS TAKING OVER TIBET--UNDER THE GUISE OF A TREATY OF "LIBERATION."

THE PEIPING RADIO IN A BROADCAST HEARD HERE SAID THE TERMS PROVIDE FOR RED CHINESE CONTROL OF TIBET'S NATIONAL DEFENSE, FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND TRADE.

THE CHINESE RED ARMY INVADED THE LOFTY HIMALAYAN LAND OF THE BUDDHIST LAMAS (PRIESTS) LAST OCTOBER. TIBET'S RAG-TAG TROOPS WERE ROUTED IN EASTERN TIBET WITHOUT PUTTING UP A MAJOR FIGHT BUT THE CHINESE WERE UNABLE TO TAKE LHASA, THE CAPITAL.

WITH HIS PRIESTLY GOVERNMENT, THE 17-YEAR-OLD DALAI LAMA--TIBET'S SPIRITUAL-TEMPORAL RULER--FLED OVER THE WINDY, SNOW-MANTLED PASSES FROM HIS CAPITAL AT LHASA TO YATUNG ON THE INDIAN BORDER.

THE CHINESE DIDN'T CHASE HIM. INSTEAD, THEY SET UP A BORDER GOVERNMENT FOR TIBET IN THE NEIGHBOR CHINESE PROVINCE OF SIKANG. THEN THEY SET ABOUT ARRANGING "PEACE" TERMS WITH A TIBETAN DELEGATION AND PUSHING FORWARD A CLAIMANT TO POWER--THE RIVAL PANCHEN LAMA, WHO HAS NEVER BEEN IN TIBET SO FAR AS IS KNOWN.

THE TREATY ANNOUNCED WITH MUCH FANFARE BY PEIPING SUNDAY PROMISED TO ESTABLISH THE PANCHEN LAMA IN POWER. BUT THE BROADCAST HINTED CLEARLY AT A PARTITION OF TIBET. IT SAID ALSO THAT THE STATUS AND POWER OF THE DALAI LAMA WOULD CONTINUE UNCHANGED.

HOW THIS WAS TO BE ACHIEVED WAS NOT EXPLAINED.

THE TREATY PROVISIONS WOULD PLAGE ALL THE MOUNTAIN COUNTRY SQUARELY UNDER THE RED THUMB. IT PROVIDES:

TIBETAN TROOPS WILL BE "INTEGRATED" INTO THE RED ARMY.

TIBET WILL BANISH "IMPERIALISTIC INFLUENCE AND REVERT TO RED CHINA."

RED CHINA WILL HANDLE TIBET'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND TRADE.

TIBET'S RELIGION--OF BUDDHIST ORIGIN--AND ITS CUSTOMS WILL REMAIN UNCHANGED. THE REVENUE OF THE LAMA TEMPLES WILL NOT BE DISTURBED.

TIBETANS "UNDER GUIDANCE OF THE CENTRAL RED CHINA GOVERNMENT" WILL CONDUCT THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT.

A22FX

PEIPING TRUMPETED THAT THIS WAS "A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT." (BUT A PEIPING BROADCAST HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO ASSERTED BALDLY "THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT OF TIBET SHALL ACTIVELY ASSIST THE PEOPLE'S LIBERATIO

PEIPING TRUMPETED THAT THIS WAS "A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT." (BUT A PEIPING BROADCAST HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO ASSERTED BALDLY "THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT OF TIBET SHALL ACTIVELY ASSIST THE PEOPLE'S LIBERATION (RED) ARMY TO ENTER TIBET AND CONSOLIDATE THE NATIONAL DEFENSES.")

THE BROADCAST SAID LIE WEI-HAN SIGNED FOR RED CHINA AND NGA BOU, TIBETAN PLENIPOTENTIARY, SIGNED FOR TIBET. ALTHOUGH RED CHINA'S LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG DID NOT WITNESS THE SIGNING, PEIPING SAID HE HELD A RECEPTION MAY 24 TO CELEBRATE THE TREATY.

CHU TEH, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF RED CHINA'S ARMY, ISSUED A STATEMENT WITH AN UNDERTONE OF UNCERTAINTY AS TO JUST HOW TIBET WOULD ACCEPT "LIBERATION."

"IT IS HOPED," HE SAID, "THAT THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT OF TIBET WILL CARRY OUT THE AGREEMENT ON THE MEASURES FOR THE PEACEFUL LIBERATION OF TIBET IN EARNEST AND DO ALL IT CAN TO HELP THE PEOPLE'S LIBERATION ARMY MARCH INTO TIBET."

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, MAY 28-(AP)-A FORMER HIGH CHINESE NATIONALIST OFFICIAL SAID TODAY RUSSIA IS PLANNING TO INCORPORATE NEARLY ONE-THIRD OF CHINA INTO THE SOVIET UNION.

YOLBARS "TIGER" KHAN, REFUGEE NATIONALIST GOVERNOR OF SINKIANG, SAID FIVE NORTHWEST PROVINCES WERE INVOLVED. HE SAID THEY ARE SINKIANG SHENSI, KANSU, NINGHSIA AND TSINGHAI.

THE FIVE PROVINCES TOTAL ABOUT 1,305,000 SQUARE MILES. THAT'S MORE THAN 29 PER CENT OF CHINA'S LAND MASS; MORE THAN ONE-THIRD THE SIZE OF THE UNITED STATES. SINKIANG ALONE IS MORE THAN TWICE AS BIG AS TEXAS.

YOLBARS, BALD AND BEARDED MOSLEM WHO FLED THE COMMUNIST MAINLAND MAY 1, SAID RUSSIAN TROOPS WERE STATIONED IN ALL FIVE PROVINCES. HE SAID THE SOVIETS PLANNED TO MAKE THE PROVINCES A BASE FOR THE EVENTUAL CONQUEST OF SOUTHEAST ASIA AND INDIA.

A MILITARY HIGHWAY, HE REPORTED WAS BEING BUILT UNDER SOVIET DIRECTION BETWEEN TIHWA, CAPITAL OF SINKIANG, AND LHASA, CAPITAL OF TIBET.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 28-(AP)-AUTHORITATIVE INDIAN CIRCLES HERE CONSIDER THE NEW CHINESE-TIBETAN TREATY IMPOSES "FAIRLY STIFF TERMS ON THE TIBETANS AND RAISES MORE QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED."

30.24- 23485

OFFICIALS SAID, HOWEVER, THEY WOULD AWAIT REPORTS ON THE TREATY FROM THE INDIAN AMBASSADOR IN PEIPING BEFORE COMMETING PUBLICLY. NEWS OF THE TREATY WAS FRONTPAGED IN INDIAN NEWSPAPERS TODAY.

SOUCES HERE MADE THESE COMMENTS ON THE TREATY:

1. IT APPARENTLY RELEGATES THE DALAI LAMA, WHO HAS BEEN THE SPIRITUAL AND TEMPORAL RULER OF TIBET FOR GENERATIONS, TO A MERELY TEMPORAL POSITION. IT FOISTS OVER HIM THE PANCHEN LAMA, HIS TRADITIONAL OPPONENT. THE CURRENT PANCHEN LAMA, WHO HAS NEVER BEEN IN TIBET, HAS LONG SOUGHT TO TAKE OVER SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP BUT WAS NEVER ABLE TO DO SO AS LONG AS THE DALAI LAMA REMAINED IN LHASA, THE TIBETAN CAPITAL. THE PANCHEN LAMA HAS LONG BEEN RESIDING IN TERRITORY CONTROLLED BY THE CHINESE.

2. THE AGREEMENT SAYS COMMUNIST CHINESE ENTERED TIBET LATE IN OCTOBER "TO LIBERATE 3,000,000 TIBETANS FROM IMPERIALISTIC OPPRESSION." IT NO DEMANDS THAT THE TIBETANS "SEVER PREVIOUS RELATIONSHIPS X X X WITH OTHER IMPERIALISTS." THESE SOURCES WONDER TO WHAT "IMPERIALISTS" THE TREATY REFERS. SO FAR AS THEY KNOW, THERE IS NO IMPERIALIST POWER OPERATING IN THE LAND-LOCKED "ROOF OF THE WORLD" BETWEEN INDIA AND CHINA.

3. THE AGREEMENT REFERS TO MILITARY COMMISSIONS BEING SENT TO TIBET TO RECRUIT AND TRAIN TIBETANS AS "PART OF THE CHINESE PEOPLES LIBERATION ARMY." THE SOURCES SAID THE TIBETANS ARE A PEACEFUL PEOPLE OPPOSED TO MILITARIZATION AND ADDED THIS CLAUSE APPEARED, ON THE FACE OF IT, TO HAV BEEN "IMPOSED ON UNWILLING TIBETANS IN PEIPING.'

PARIS, MAY 28-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES SUGGESTED TODAY THAT EVEN THE FISH WON'T BITE AT RUSSIA'S PEACE PROPAGANDA LINE.

THE OBSERVATION CAME FROM AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE PHILIP JESSUP DURING ANOTHER FRUITLESS MEETING OF DEPUTIES SEEKING TO DRAW UP AN AGENDA FOR A BIG FOUR CONFERENCE.

JESSUP SAID HE HAD BEEN LISTENING TO SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI GROMYKO "MELODIOUSLY" EXPRESSING THE THEME THAT RUSSIA IS "A GREAT PEACEFUL POWER."

MAY 29 1951

"THE ONLY POSSIBLE VALUE OF THE THEME," SAID JESSUP DRYLY, "IS IF MR. GROMYKO GOES SWIMMING IN SHARK-INFESTED WATERS, HE COULD WEAR IT ON A CARD AROUND HIS NECK. EVEN THE SHARKS WOULDN'T SWALLOW THAT!"

THE CRACK PRODDED THE SOVIET DELEGATE INTO A REPLY IN KIND. HE AGREED, HE SAID, THAT IT WAS UNFORTUNATE WHEN A DEFENSELESS PERSON FALLS AMONG SHARKS, "BUT IF THERE WERE ANY AROUND THE MEANS SHOULD BE PROVIDED TO BREAK THEIR TEETH IN THE EVENT THEY SHOULD BITE."

GROMYKO SUGGESTED IF THE WEST YIELDS TO RUSSIA'S INSISTENCE THAT THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY BE PLACED ON THE AGENDA, THERE WOULD BE PROGRESS TOWARDS ENDING WAR--AND THE DANGER OF SHARKS.

THE TREATY, AND COUPLED WITH IT THE ISSUE OF U.S. BASES OVERSEAS, REMAINS THE LAST BIG SNAG IN THE WAY OF A BIG FOUR GET-TOGETHER TO THRASH OUT THE TENSIONS BETWEEN EAST AND WEST.

MOST OTHER SUBJECTS, INCLUDING THE DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY, WHICH PROMPTED RUSSIA TO PROPOSE THE BIG FOUR MEETING LAST NOVEMBER, HAVE BEEN PLACED ON THE LIST OF SUBJECTS TO BE DISCUSSED. SOME OF THEM APPEAR AS DISAGREED ITEMS.

BERLIN, MAY 28-(AP)-A TOUGH CREW OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS CHECKING EVERY TRUCK THAT ENTERS WEST BERLIN HAS ALREADY PUT A SHARP CRIMP IN EAST-WEST SMUGGLING, U.S. OFFICIALS SAID TODAY.

IN LESS THAN A WEEK OF OPERATION, THE MILITARY POLICE HAVE DISCOVERED A SERIES OF MANEUVERS GERMAN SHIPPERS WERE USING TO SNEAK STRATEGIC MATERIALS INTO THE RUSSIAN ZONE FOR EVENTUAL DELIVERY TO RED CHINA.

ONE SHIPMENT CONSIDERED HIGHLY USEFUL FOR WAR PURPOSES WAS CAUGHT AND SEIZED.

DETAILS OF THE EARLY EXPERIENCES ARE BEING WITHHELD UNTIL COUNTER MEASURES TO PREVENT REPETITION ARE DRAFTED, THE OFFICIALS SAID.

AMONG THE MEASURES MAY BE A NEW SYSTEM OF CARGO PAPERS. MILITARY POLICE TEAMS SIMILAR TO THAT ASSIGNED TO BERLIN ARE CHECKING TRAFFIC ALSO ON THE WEST ZONE BORDERS DAY AND NIGHT.

THE CREWS ARE ALERTED ESPECIALLY FOR SHIPMENTS OF STEEL, MACHINERY, POWER PLANT EQUIPMENT, CHEMICALS, AND MINING AND FARMING MACHINERY.

THESE ARE THE ITEMS THE COMMUNIST CHINA TRADE MISSION IN EAST BERLIN HAS BEEN ESPECIALLY ANXIOUS TO GET FROM THE WEST GERMAN WORKSHOP.

THE RED MISSION WAS REPORTED BY EAST GERMAN CIRCLES TODAY TO HAVE AVERAGED MORE THAN $1,000,000 A MONTH IN ILLEGAL TRADE WITH WEST GERMANY SINCE THE START OF THIS YEAR.

THESE INFORMED QUARTERS SAID THE RUSSIANS HAD ISSUED ORDERS TO THE EAST GERMAN COMMUNIST TRADE MINISTRY TO HELP THE CHINESE WHEREVER POSSIBLE.

THE CHINESE TRADE GROUP, ONCE ONLY A HANDFUL, HAS EXPANDED TO MORE THAN 40 PERSONNEL, NOT COUNTING DOZENS OF GERMANS WHO ARE ESPECIALLY EMPLOYED.

THE BERLIN SOURCES SAID THE CHINESE REDS WERE OFFERING WEST GERMAN FIRMS PAYMENT IN DOLLARS FOR THE STRATEGIC MATERIALS AND AT PRICES ABOVE THE WORLD MARKET.

MOST OF THE TRADE, THEY SAID, IS HANDLED BY THE SOVIET ZONE "FOREIGN TRADE ASSOCIATION," WHICH WAS SET UP BY THE RUSSIANS AS THE GO-BETWEEN.

THE DEALS ARE HANDLED TWO WAYS: SMUGGLING BY TRUCK INTO EAST BERLIN OR THE EAST ZONE, AND DIRECT SHIPMENT TO DUTCH, BELGIAN, SWISS OR CZECH POINTS FOR TRANSSHIPMENT TO CHINA.

NIGHT LEAD AUSTRIAN
BY RICHARD O'REGAN
VIENNA, AUSTRIA, MAY 28-(AP)-AUSTRIA'S NEWLY ELECTED SOCIALIST PRESIDENT, DR.THEODOR KORNER, SAID TODAY HE WILL DO EVERYTHING IN HIS POWER TO OBTAIN FREEDOM AND PROSPERITY FOR HIS OCCUPIED COUNTRY.
THE 78-YEAR-OLD BITTER FOE OF COMMUNISM WAS VOTED YESTERDAY INTO THE OFFICE LEFT VACANT BY THE DEATH LAST NEW YEAR'S EVE OF PRESIDENT DR.KARL RENNER, ANOTHER SOCIALIST.
IN A STATEMENT TO THE PRESS, KORNER SAID HE HAS ASSIGNED HIMSELF THE MAJOR TASK OF CONVINCING THE WORLD THAT AUSTRIA SHOULD HAVE "COMPLETE FREEDOM FROM OCCUPATION AND A SPEEDY CONCLUSION OF A STATE TREATY."
THE WHITE-BEARDED FORMER GENERAL OF THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN IMPERIAL ARMY PLEDGED HIMSELF TO ABIDE BY HIS COUNTRY'S CONSTITUTION AND TO "ACT INSTEAD OF TALK." THE PRESIDENCY IS LARGELY A POST OF HONOR WITH LITTLE POLITICAL AUTHORITY.
KOERNER, WHO HAS SERVED AS VIENNA'S LORD MAYOR SINCE THE WAR, DEFEATED HIS CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE'S PARTY OPPONENT, DR.HEINRICH GLEISSNER, IN A RUNOFF ELECTION BY A VOTE OF 2,172,306 TO 2,004,290.
KOERNER RAN SECOND IN THE FIRST ELECTION THREE WEEKS AGO, WITH 1,682,881 VOTES TO GLEISSNER'S 1,725,451. BUT NONE OF THE SIX CANDIDATES IN THAT ELECTION GAINED A MAJORITY SO A RUNOFF ELECTION WAS CALLED.
THE COMMUNISTS SWUNG THEIR VOTES TO KOERNER IN THE RUNOFF, BUT KOERNER IS EXPECTED TO IGNORE THE REDS.
KOERNER PROBABLY WILL TAKE HIS OATH OF OFFICE JUNE 20 FOR A SIX-YEAR TERM. PEOPLE'S PARTY CHANCELLOR, DR.LEOPOLD FIGL, IS EXPECTED TO PROPOSE REAPPOINTMENT OF THE PRESENT COALITION OF 16 SOCIALISTS AND SEVEN CONSERVATIVE MINISTERS.

VIENNA, MAY 28-(AP)-AUSTRIA'S NEW SOCIALIST PRESIDENT, 78-YEAR-OLD DR.THEODOR KOERNER, PLEDGED HIMSELF TODAY TO ABIDE BY HIS COUNTRY'S CONSTITUTION AND TO "ACT INSTEAD OF TALK."
KOERNER, A BITTER ANTI-COMMUNIST AND VIENNA'S LORD MAYOR SINCE THE WAR, DEFEATED THE PEOPLE'S PARTY (CONSERVATIVE) CANDIDATE, DR.HEINRICH GLEISSNER, IN A RUNOFF ELECTION YESTERDAY.
SPEAKING BRIEFLY FROM THE BALCONY OF THE VIENNA CITY HALL THIS MORNING, KOERNER SAID:
"I PROMISE YOU I WILL NOT DESTROY THE CONFIDENCE YOU HAVE PLACED IN ME. I DO NOT WISH TO TALK BUT TO ACT.
THE WHITE-BEARDED FORMER GENERAL OF THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN IMPERIAL ARMY CAN BE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW TWO AIMS AFTER HE TAKES THE OATH OF OFFICE, PROBABLY ON JUNE 20.
FIRSTLY, HE HAS SAID IN CAMPAIGN STATEMENTS HE WILL DEVOTE THE SIX YEARS OF HIS PRESIDENTIAL TERM TO THE FERVENT HOPE OF ALL AUSTRIANS--ATTAINMENT OF LIBERATION FROM THE OCCUPATION TROOPS OF RUSSIA AND THE WEST.
SECONDLY, HE WILL UNDOUBTEDLY REJECT ALL ATTEMPTS BY AUSTRIA'S COMMUNIST PARTY TO CAPITALIZE UPON THE HELP THEY GAVE HIM IN HIS ELECTION. THE PRO-WESTERN KOERNER SAID PREVIOUSLY HE DID NOT WANT THE RED VOTE.
HIS SOCIALIST PARTY ALSO REFUSED ALL SUGGESTIONS OF COOPERATION WITH THE COMMUNISTS.
KOERNER SUCCEEDS ANOTHER SOCIALIST, THE LATE DR.KARL RENNER, WHO DIED LAST NEW YEAR'S EVE. THE PRESIDENCY CARRIES LITTLE POLITICAL AUTHORITY AND IS LARGELY A POST OF HONOR.
SOCIALIST VICE-CHANCELLOR ADOLF SCHAERF SAID LAST NIGHT, HOWEVER, THAT AUSTRIA'S GOVERNMENT WOULD CONFORM TO TRADITION AND RESIGN AFTER KOERNER TAKES OFFICE. THE PRESENT CHANCELLOR, PEOPLE'S PARTY LEADER DR.LEOPOLD FIGL, IS EXPECTED TO PROPOSE REAPPOINTMENT OF THE PRESENT COALITION REGIME OF 16 SOCIALIST AND SEVEN PEOPLE'S PARTY MINISTERS.
DR.OSKAR HELMER, SOCIALIST INTERIOR MINISTER, SAID DESPITE KOERNER'S VICTORY, THE SOCIALISTS PROBABLY WILL NOT ASK FOR NEW PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS. AUSTRIA'S NEXT GENERAL ELECTION IS SCHEDULED FOR THE FALL OF 1953.

A24
THE VOTE YESTERDAY WAS 2,172,806 FOR KOERNER AND 2,004,290 FOR GLEISSNER. IN THE FIRST ELECTION THREE WEEKS AGO, WITH SIX CANDIDATES,

KOERNER RAN SECOND WITH 1,682,881 VOTES TO GLEISSNER'S 1,725,451.
THE COMMUNISTS TOLD THE 219,000 VOTERS WHO SUPPORTED THEIR EARLIER CANDIDATE TO SWING TO KOERNER IN THE RUNOFF. IN EARLY NEWSPAPERS TODAY THEY TRUMPETED THAT WITHOUT THEIR SUPPORT KOERNER--WHO WON BY A MAJORITY OF ONLY 168,516 VOTES--WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ELECTED.
THE REDS STATISTICALLY WERE CORRECT, BUT THE NATURE OF THE ELECTION AND THE SUPPORT THE VETERAN SOCIALIST OBTAINED FROM INDEPENDENT VOTERS INDICATED THAT HIS SUCCESS WAS DUE MORE TO HIS PERSONALITY AND REPUTATION.
KOERNER'S LIFELONG DEVOTION TO WORKERS' INTERESTS AND HIS PERSONAL MODESTY HAVE HELPED TO MAKE HIM THE MOST POPULAR MAN IN AUSTRIA'S CAPITAL. A MEMBER OF AN ARISTOCRATIC FAMILY, HE ROSE IN WORLD WAR ONE TO THE POST OF CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE AUSTRIAN ARMY IN ITALY.
AFTER HIS COUNTRY'S DEFEAT, KOERNER BECAME A CONTRIBUTOR TO THE SOCIALIST NEWSPAPER ARBEITER ZEITUNG AND LATER ENTERED THE DEFENSE MINISTRY. HE WAS ELECTED VIENNA'S REPRESENTATIVE IN THE UPPER PARLIAMENTARY HOUSE IN 1925 AND WAS THAT BODY'S CHAIRMAN WHEN CHANCELLOR ENGELBERT DOLLFUSS DISSOLVED IT IN 1934.
KOERNER STAYED IN RETIREMENT DURING THE NAZI OCCUPATION. THE CITY COUNCIL NAMED HIM LORD MAYOR IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE LIBERATION OF THE CAPITAL. A FEW MONTHS LATER HE WAS FORMALLY ELECTED TO THE COUNCIL IN VIENNA'S FIRST POSTWAR ELECTION AND THE COUNCIL AGAIN NAMED HIM LORD MAYOR.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD OIL

By Fred Zusy

Tehran, Iran, May 28--(AP)--A new feeling of tenseness gripped Tehran on the eve of country-wide "anti-imperialist demonstrations planned by a Communist front group.

Tanks rumbled down the main streets of the capital, and army trucks brought hundreds of troops into the city to reinforce the regular police force, already alerted for the demonstrations.

The occasion will be the 18th anniversary of the signing of the rich oil concession to [redacted] Anglo-Iranian Oil Co., which Parliament in a heat of nationalistic emotion voted less than a month ago to end.

30.24- 23489

Agitators say oil nationalization has been "in name only."

The demonstrations are sponsored by the Society To Fight Imperialistic In Iran, Oil Companies, which Western observers have tagged as a Communist front group, and are advertised to last for three weeks. Despite the announced identity of the backers, the event is expected to be the biggest show that the outlawed and Communist Tudeh Party will have made since it was forced underground in 1949. The reason for outlawing Tudeh was the unsuccessful attempt to [redacted]Shah assassinate Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi, publicly blamed but never legally pinned on the Communist-controlled group.

Tomorrow's demonstrations will be staged in Tehran and other Tudeh strongholds, including the oil center of Abadan; Isfahan, industrial center; and Tabriz, capital of agricultural Azerbaijan Province which was ruled briefly by a Soviet-led people's government five years ago. Some said Abadan, site of Anglo-Iranian's huge refinery in Southern Iran, also might be a trouble spot tomorrow, with workers reportedly in a striking mood. However, the Abadan area has been under martial law since the April rioting.

[redacted] for the widely-heralded demonstrations came as the government of [redacted] fiery nationalist Premier Mohammed Mossadegh spurned pleas by Britain to take the British-Iranian dispute over nationalizing oil to The International Court Of Justice (World Court) at The Hague. Foreign Minister Bagher Kazami sent a message to The Hague saying:

MAY 29 1951

"I hereby declare the Iranian Government is of the opinion that the International Court Of Justice is not competent to handle this matter and when the full text of the complaint reaches us, we shall give a detailed reply."

U.S. Ambassador Henry F. Grady visited Mossadeghfor more than an hour today at the premier's request. Grady later conferred with Sir Francis M. Shepherd, British ambassador. There was immediate speculation that Mossadegh was trying to press Grady into the role of unofficial negotiator [redacted] between the government and Britain but with the stubborn stand that any set-

[redacted]lement must be on Mossadegh's terms.

So far, those terms have meant carrying out the nationalization law as it stands with all oil revenues going to Iran, [redacted] with possibly some of the present employes being retained to help run the company.

Mossadegh's long-time drive for oil nationalization finally put him into the premiership, but Western observers say it appears to have put on a delicate spot. As one of these observers put it, "he has drummed up these people to a fever-hot pitch, and if he wanted to--which is in the realm of possibilities--he might find it difficult to put out the fire."

The shah also is on a spot. It is generally agreed he could not boot Mossadegh out if he wanted to because that would make the premier a great martyr. For similar reasons the monarch could not dissolve Parliament because of probable repercussions.

In a sense, the United States, which has been trying for several years to build Iran up against the danger of Communism from Russia just across the border, [redacted] is on a spot, too. The present Iranian government seems to have adopted this attitude toward the U.S.:"You don't want to see this country in the hands of the Soviets, do you? Well then, you had better help us get what we want."

There was one one favorable note--Iran agreed it is all right for

N. R. Seddon, Anglo-Iranian resident manager, to sit down with the Parliamentary Oil Nationalization Board for one meeting, listen to their arguments, plans or suggestions, and then report them back to his [redacted] company.

AIOC SAID SEDDON WOULD SIT MERELY AS AN OBSERVER NOT AS A DELEGATE, TO DISCUSS HOW THE BRITISH WOULD BE OUSTED. AIOC DISPUTES THE LEGAL-ITY OF IRAN'S ONE-SIDED NATIONALIZATION, WITHOUT DISCUSSION OR NEGOTIA-TION.

HASIBI ADDED THAT IF THE WEDNESDAY MEETING "WAS NOT SATISFACTORY
WE WILL PROCEED TO ENFORCE A SECRET DECISION BY THE BOARD FOR TAKING OVER."

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS NEARLY 53 PER CENT OF THE OIL COMPANY'S SHARES.

MAY 29 1951

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN IN A ROUNDABOUT FASHION HAD INDICATED FOR THE FIRST TIME A WILLINGNESS TO ACCEPT THE PRINCIPLE OF NATIONALIZATION. A REPORT TO THIS EFFECT HAD BEEN LACKING OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID GEORGE MIDDLETON, COUNSELOR AT THE BRITISH EMBASSY, GAVE THE FOREIGN MINISTER ON SUNDAY A COPY OF A STATEMENT MADE BY A BRITISH GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN IN LONDON LAST FRIDAY. THE STATEMENT SAID BRITAIN DID NOT DENY THE RIGHT OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO NATIONALIZE OIL IN PRINCIPLE, BUT FELT THIS COULD BE DONE ONLY THROUGH AGREEMENT BY BOTH SIDES AND IN SUCH A MANNER AS TO SAFEGUARD
THE CONTINUED FLOW OF OIL TO WORLD MARKETS. BRITAIN GETS ABOUT A THIRD OF HER OIL FROM IRAN.

TEHRAN NEWSPAPERS SAID THE WORLD COURT IS NOT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS-SPONSORED BODY THAT IS MENTIONED IN THE 1933 OIL CONCESSION AS COMPETENT TO SETTLE DISPUTES UNDER THE CONTRACT. BUT A DIFFERENT BODY

30.24- 23491

SET UP BY THE UNITED NATIONS.
THEY SAID THE WORLD COURT IS COMPETENT TO HANDLE DISPUTES ONLY BETWEEN COUNTRIES, NOT BETWEEN A COUNTRY AND A PRIVATE COMPANY.
(THE OLD PERMANENT COURT OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE WAS ABOLISHED BY THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN 1946. THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE, CREATED AS ITS SUCCESSOR, IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER WHICH IRAN SIGNED. THE CHARTER PROVIDED THAT THE NEW COURT WOULD ASSUME JURISDICTION IN CASES ARISING UNDER TREATIES WHICH PROVIDED FOR APPEALS TO THE OLD COURT.)

FIRST LEAD IRANIAN (120)
BY FRED J.ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 28-(AP)-IRAN REFUSED TODAY TO RECOGNIZE THE JURISDICTION OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT IN THE DISPUTE WITH BRITAIN OVER NATIONALIZATION OF IRANIAN OIL RESOURCES.

DEPUTY PREMIER HOSSEIN FATEMI ANNOUNCED THAT THE IRANIAN FOREIGN OFFICE REJECTED A NOTIFICATION FROM THE WORLD COURT OF THE COMPLAINT LODGED THERE SATURDAY BY BRITAIN AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY. THE BRITISH EARLIER HAD NOTIFIED IRAN OF REFERRAL OF THE DISPUTE TO THE WORLD COURT AT THE HAGUE, ASKING THAT THE UNITED NATIONS-SPONSORED BODY NAME AN ARBITER.

THE DEPUTY PREMIER SAID FOREIGN MINISTER BAGHER KAZAMI INFORMED THE COURT IRAN WOULD NOT SEND A REPRESENTATIVE FOR ANY HEARING ON THE MATTER.

IRAN'S COMMUNISTS WERE MOVING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF HEATED NATIONALIST EMOTIONS STIRRED BY THE OIL DISPUTE.

RED FRONT ORGANIZATIONS SCHEDULED COUNTRY-WIDE MASS MEETINGS TOMORROW TO "FIGHT IMPERIALISTIC OIL COMPANIES." THE GOVERNMENT, HEADED BY PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, REPORTEDLY WAS ARRANGING FOR TANKS, ARMORED CARS AND SPECIAL TROOPS TO MAINTAIN ORDER.

MEANWHILE NON-COMMUNIST MOSLEM FANATICS, WHO HAVE THREATENED A HOLY WAR AGAINST THE BRITISH-CONTROLLED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, GREW MORE RESTIVE.

THEY POINTED OUT THAT ALTHOUGH MOSSADEGH FATHERED THE NATIONALIZATION LAW--WHICH OSTENSIBLY SEIZED THE PROPERTIES OF THE BILLION DOLLAR AIOC--26 DAYS AGO, THE COMPANY IS STILL DOING BUSINESS WITHOUT INTERFERENCE.

MOSSADEGH IS IN FURTHER TROUBLE BECAUSE THE COMPANY STOPPED PAYING ROYALTIES AFTER PASSAGE OF THE LAW. THESE ROYALTIES MAKE UP MOST OF IRAN'S INCOME AND CONSEQUENTLY THE GOVERNMENT IS LIVING FROM HAND TO MOUTH.

OBSERVERS FEARED THAT IN THE PRESENT UNSETTLED ATMOSPHERE, EITHER OF THE TWO EXTREMIST GROUPS MIGHT STAGE A LIGHTNING COUP AND SEIZE CONTROL OF THE COUNTRY.

THE AIOC MADE A CONCILIATORY GESTURE YESTERDAY TO TRY TO CALM THE TROUBLED WATERS. BOARD CHAIRMAN SIR WILLIAM FRASER, IN A LETTER TO IRAN'S FINANCE MINISTER, ANNOUNCED THAT THE COMPANY'S RESIDENT MANAGER, N.R.SEDDON, WOULD ATTEND ONE MEETING OF THE OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD "AS A MEASURE OF RESPECT TO THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT AND THE IRANIAN PARLIAMENT."

THE GOVERNMENT HAD GIVEN THE COMPANY UNTIL MAY 30 TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO THE BOARD TO HELP IT WITH THE DETAILS OF TAKING OVER THE COMPANY'S HOLDINGS. THE COUNTER-OFFER SAID ONLY THAT THE REPRESENTATIVE WOULD BE AN OBSERVER AND WOULD REPORT PROCEEDINGS BACK TO LONDON. HE WAS GIVEN NO AUTHORITY TO HELP WITH THE NATIONALIZATION.

SIR WILLIAM REITERATED THE COMPANY'S WILLINGNESS TO TRY TO RESOLVE THE DISPUTE BY DISCUSSION AND AGREEMENT, BUT DECLARED IRAN'S ONE-SIDED ACTION IN TRYING TO TAKE OVER THE COMPANY WITHOUT SUCH DISCUSSION WAS A BREACH OF ITS 60-YEAR CONTRACT SIGNED IN 1933.

GEORGE MIDDLETON, COUNSELOR OF THE BRITISH EMBASSY, ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY NOTIFIED THE IRANIAN FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIALLY THAT BRITAIN HAS REFERRED THE DISPUTE TO THE INTERNATIONAL COURT AT THE HAGUE AND ASKED THAT UNITED NATIONS-SPONSORED BODY TO APPOINT A SOLE ARBITER.

MEMBERS OF THE OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD DENOUNCED THE APPEAL TO THE COURT AS "RIDICULOUS" AND THE "DESPERATE ACT OF A DROWNING MAN."

"THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY NO LONGER EXISTS," SAID ONE MEMBER.

U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY ALSO TRIED TO SMOOTH THE SITUATION. HE DELIVERED A NOTE SATURDAY SAYING THAT "THROUGH NEGOTIATION A SETTLEMENT CAN BE FOUND WHICH WILL SATISFY THE DESIRES OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE TO CONTROL THEIR OWN RESOURCES."

HINTS THAT SUCH NEGOTIATIONS MIGHT TAKE PLACE CAME FROM BOTH BRITISH AND IRANIAN SOURCES. THEY SAID SOME OF MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL FRONTERS WERE GROWING AWARE OF THE PRACTICAL DIFFICULTIES OF EXPLOITING OIL RESOURCES WITHOUT FOREIGN TECHNICAL HELP.

ROSH PINNA, ISRAEL, MAY 28-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS CHIEF-OF-STAFF IN PALESTINE SAID TODAY THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI ARMISTICE COMMISSION IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO DISCUSS THE HULEH SWAMP DRAINAGE PROJECT. THIS WORK IS THE FOCAL POINT OF BORDER CLASHES BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

THE CHIEF, MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM E. RILEY, ARRIVED BY PLANE TODAY TO PRESIDE AT A MEETING OF THE COMMISSION.

HE SAID THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL'S DECISION HALTING TEMPORARILY THE ISRAELI DRAINAGE PROJECT WAS TAKEN TO SAFEGUARD THE INTERESTS OF ARAB LANDOWNERS ON SEVEN ACRES IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE AFFECTED. HE EMPHASIZED THE U.N. IS NOT OPPOSED TO THE HULEH PROJECT IN PRINCIPLE.

TODAY'S MEETING WAS THE FIRST THE MIXED COMMISSION HAS HELD SINCE THE FRONTIER CLASHES BROKE OUT. THE ISRAELI DELEGATION ASKED THAT THE SYRIANS SIGN THE U.N.-SPONSORED CEASE-FIRE AGREEMENT, WHICH IS ALREADY BEING OBSERVED BY BOTH SIDES. Rosh Pinna, Israel, May 28--(AP)--Maj. Gen. William E. Riley, United Nations chief-of-staff in Palestine, said today that the Syrian-Israeli Mixed Armistice Commission is not authorized to discuss Huleh Swamp drainage project, focal point of border clashes between the two countries.

Riley arrived by plane today at this Galilean mountain town near the Syrian-Israeli frontier to preside at a meeting of the commission.

He said the U.N. Security Council's decision halting temporarily the Israeli drainage project was taken to to safeguard the interests of Arab landowners on seven acres in the demilitarized zone. He emphasized that U.N. is not opposed to the Huleh project in principle.

Today's meeting was the first the mixed commission has held since the frontier clashes broke out. The Israeli delegation requested that the Syrians sign the cease-fire agreement, which is already being observed by both sides. Riley stated he had a promise from the Syrian defense minister to respect the cease-fire, which the Syrian delegation added is binding.

No agenda has been fixed for 84 complaints, mostly civil, raised by both countries. At the request of the Syrian delegation, the commission adjourned to next week at the Syrian custom house at Jisr Banat Yacub.

AMS BUDGET (800)
NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR INQUIRY
BY DON WHITEHEAD
MAY 29 1951
WASHINGTON,MAY 28-(AP)-GEN.~~HOYT~~ VANDENBERG TOLD SENATORS TODAY THERE'S A GOOD CHANCE THE UNITED STATES CAN AVOID ANOTHER WORLD WAR AND ALSO WIN A NEGOTIATED PEACE IN KOREA WITHOUT BOMBING RED BASES IN MANCHURIA.
BUT THE AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF TEMPERED THIS OPTIMISM BY SAYING THE U. S. NOW HAS ONLY A "SHOESTRING AIR FORCE" WHICH CANNOT BE THROWN INTO KOREA IN FORCE WHILE THERE IS ADANGER ELSEWHERE OF ATTACK FROM RUSSIA.
HE URGED THAT THE AIR FORCE BE KEPT INTACT AND NOT USED IN A BROADER WAR AGAINST CHINA AS PROPOSED BY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.
VANDENBERG GAVE THIS TESTIMONY TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN THEIR STUDY OF THE REASONS BEHIND THE OUSTER OF MACARTHUR FROM HIS FAR EAST COMMANDS.
HE SAID HE AGREED WITH THE OTHER JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT MACARTHUR HAD TO BE DISMISSED FOR HIS OPPOSITION TO ADMINISTRATION WAR POLICY.
A SHORT TIME BEFORE, RUSSIA'S JACOB A.MALIK SAID THROUGH A SPOKESMAN AT NEW YORK THAT TALK OF RUSSIAN PEACE FEELERS AT THIS STAGE OF THE KOREAN WAR WERE "COMPLETELY GROUNDLESS."
THE CHIEF SOVIET DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS LET IT BE KNOWN THAT HIS DENIAL WAS TO APPLY "FULLY" TO ALL REPORTS THAT THE SOVIET WANT TO DISCUSS AN END TO THE WAR ALONG THE 38TH PARALLEL IN KOREA.
VANDENBERG ARGUED THE AIR FORCE MUST BE KEPT IN READINESS TO MEET ANY ATTACK THAT MIGHT BE LAUNCHED BY THE RUSSIANS. DISCUSSING THE MACARTHUR PROPOSAL TO BOMB RED CHINA AND MANCHURIA, HE SAID:
"IN MY OPINION, WE CANNOT AFFORD TO X X X PECK AT THE PERIPHERY AS LONG AS WE HAVE A SHOESTRING AIR FORCE."
AGAIN HE SAID: "I BELIEVE THERE ARE REASONABLE CHANCES OF SUCCESS IN ACHIEVING A NEGOTIATED PEACE WITHOUT ENDANGERING THAT ONE POTENTIAL THAT WE HAVE, WHICH HAS KEPT THE PEACE SO FAR, WHICH IS THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE."
AT ANOTHER POINT, VANDENBERG STATED HE BELIEVES THE CHANCES FOR AVOIDING AN ALL-OUT WAR ARE GOOD "UP TO TODAY." HE SAID THE ATOMIC BOMB FIGURES IN HIS ESTIMATE OF THESE CHANCES.
THE AIR FORCE CHIEF WENT ON TO SAY THE AIR FORCE DOESN'T HAVE THE STRENGTH AT THIS TIME TO BOMB THE RED BASES IN THE FAR EAST AND AT THE SAME TIME BE IN READINESS TO MEET THE DANGER OF ATTACKS AT HOME AND IN OTHER AREAS OF THE WORLD.

A6WX
MACARTHUR HAS TOLD THE SENATORS THAT HIS ARMY COULD HAVE BEATEN THE CHINESE REDS LAST FALL IF HE COULD HAVE USED THE FULL WEIGHT OF HIS AIR POWER. AND HE INSISTED THE CHINESE COULD BE BEATEN INTO SURRENDER NOW WITH ONLY A SLIGHT INCREASE IN AIR POWER.
BUT VANDENBERG DECLARED THAT WITH THE AIR FORCE AVAILABLE TO MACARTHUR LAST FALL THE ATTACKS HE PROPOSED "WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN IN ANY WAY DECISIVE."
VANDENBERG SAID THE AMERICAN AIR FORCE IS THE "SOLE DETERRENT" THAT IS KEEPING RUSSIA FROM GOING TO WAR--AND "IF WE EMASCULATE IT" WITH HEAVY LOSSES IN BOMBING CHINA AND MANCHURIA THEN THIS DETERRENT WILL BE LOST.
THE GENERAL TESTIFIED FOR TWO AND A HALF HOURS AND WILL RETURN TOMORROW (9 A.M., EST) TO COMPLETE HIS TESTIMONY. HE WILL BE FOLLOWED TO THE STAND WEDNESDAY BY ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS.
VANDENBERG EMPHASIZED THAT ALTHOUGH HE NOW IS OPPOSED TO THE MACARTHUR PLAN FOR BOMBING RED BASES, HE MAY CHANGE HIS MIND IN THE FUTURE IF THE GLOBAL SITUATION CHANGES.
"THE QUESTION BETWEEN GEN.MACARTHUR AND THE CHIEFS OF STAFF, AS I FEEL IT," HE SAID, "HAS TO DO WITH THE TIMING."
MACARTHUR HAS SAID THAT HE BELIEVED THE JOINT CHIEFS AT ONE TIME WERE IN ACCORD WITH HIS VIEWS ON FIGHTING THE WAR.
SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) ASKED VANDENBERG IF HE THOUGHT MACARTHUR HAD MISREPRESENTED THE THINKING OF THE JOINT CHIEFS.
"I THINK GEN.MACARTHUR IS TOO FINE A MAN," VANDENBERG REPLIED. "I DO BELIEVE THAT HE MUST HAVE MISUNDERSTOOD."
DISCUSSING AIR COMBAT IN KOREA, VANDENBERG SAID THE REDS ARE USING A RUSSIAN-MADE JET PLANE THAT HAS AN ENGINE "SUPERIOR TO ANY WE HAVE" AT THIS TIME.
CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP BROUGHT UP THE SUBJECT AND ASKED FOR A COMMENT.
MAY 29 1951
VANDENBERG SAID: "THE INDICATION IS, MR.CHAIRMAN, THAT THEY HAVE A JET ENGINE IN THE MIG 15 THAT IS SUPERIOR TO ANY JET ENGINE THAT WE HAVE TODAY.
"OUR TRAINING IS SUPERIOR AND OUR GUNNERY CONTROL IN THE AIRCRAFT IS SUPERIOR, WHICH GIVES US AN ADVANTAGE, EVEN THOUGH THEY HAVE THE ADVANTAGE OF SPEED AND CLIMB AND OPERATIONS AT ALTITUDE."
VANDENBERG SAID THE AMERICAN AIRMEN ARE KNOCKING DOWN ENEMY JETS WITHOUT LOSSES THEMSELVES BECAUSE OF SUPERIOR GUNNERY EQUIPMENT AND PILOT TRAINING.
"OUR PILOTS," HE SAID, "ARE AT THE PRESENT TIME MUCH SUPERIOR IN TACTICS AND TECHNIQUE OF AIR FIGHTING, IN MY OPINION. THEY ARE BETTER TRAINED AND THEIR ARMAMENT IS SUPERIOR. I THINK THOSE ARE THE TWO FACTORS."

A7WX
HE SAID THE RUSSIAN-MADE JET ENGINE IS A "VERY MARKED IMPROVEMENT OF THE ALMOST OBSOLESCENE JET ENGINE THAT WAS SOLD TO THE RUSSIANS

SEVERAL YEARS AGO."

"IT WAS MADE AND DEVELOPED IN RUSSIA," HE ADDED, "POSSIBLY WITH THE HELP OF GERMAN TECHNICIANS; BUT ANY THOUGHT THAT WE MIGHT HAVE THAT IT IS DUE SOLELY TO THOSE GERMAN TECHNICIANS IS FALLACIOUS.

"THE QUANTITIES IN WHICH THEY ARE NOW APPEARING ON THE FRONT, BOTH IN WESTERN EUROPE AND IN THE FAR EAST, WOULD INDICATE THAT MASS PRODUCTION METHODS OF VERY EXCELLENT AIRCRAFT ARE NOW A CAPABILITY OF THE RUSSIANS."

VANDENBERG SAID AMERICAN AND BRITISH DESIGNERS ARE "DOING EVERYTHING POSSIBLE" TO TURN OUT BETTER JET ENGINES.

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX), VANDENBERG SAID THE AIR FORCE WOULD HAVE TO "ROUGHLY DOUBLE" ITS STRATEGIC AIR FORCE TO CARRY OUT MACARTHUR'S PROPOSED AIR PROGRAM IN KOREA.

JOHNSON SAID: "THAT AIR POWER, OF COURSE, IS NOT AVAILABLE NOW?"

VANDENBERG REPLIED: "IT IS NOT."

HE WENT ON TO SAY THE AIR FORCE HAS THE ABILITY TO MAKE A "REASONABLE DEFENSE" OF AMERICAN CITIES AGAINST ATOMIC ATTACK IN CASE OF WAR WITH RUSSIA---BUT "NOT TOMORROW."

HE EXPLAINED THE STRATEGIC EFFORT "IS OKAY" FOR THE TIME BEING BUT THAT IT WON'T BE ENOUGH "BY ANY STRETCH OF THE IMAGINATION" BECAUSE OF THE LENGTH OF TIME REQUIRED TO BUILD UP A BIG AIR FORCE.

VANDENBERG CONCEDED THAT THE ADOPTION OF MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS TO CARRY THE WAR TO RED CHINA "WOULD NOT NECESSARILY MEAN WAR" WITH RUSSIA. HE SAID THE ATTACKS, HOWEVER, "WOULD INCREASE THE DANGER" OF SUCH A CONFLICT.

IF THE WHOLE U.S. AIR FORCE IS USED AGAINST CHINA AND MANCHURIA, VANDENBERG SAID, THEN THEIR MAIN CITIES COULD BE DESTROYED.

BUT HE ADDED "THE ATTRITION THAT WOULD INEVITABLY BE BROUGHT UPON US WOULD LEAVE US IN MY OPINION, AS A NATION, NAKED FOR SEVERAL YEARS TO COME."

HE SAID THE AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY WOULD NOT BE ABLE "UNTIL ALMOST 1953" TO DO VERY MUCH ABOUT REPLACING PLANES LOST IN A WAR AGAINST ANY MAJOR OPPOSITION."

HE DISCLOSED THAT THE PROPOSED AIR FORCE STRENGTH OF 95 GROUPS IS ONLY A "STEPPING STONE" TOWARD THE AIR FORCE "THAT WE BELIEVE IS NECESSARY." PART OF HIS ANSWER WAS CENSORED FROM THE TRANSCRIPT WHICH IS MADE PUBLIC, AND IT DID NOT DISCLOSE THE SIZE OF THE AIR FORCE HE BELIEVED WOULD BE NEEDED.

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR GREEN (D-RI), VANDENBERG SAID HE DOUBTS THE CHINESE REDS SEIZED ANY LARGE NUMBER OF AMERICAN-MADE PLANES FROM THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS. HE SAID ALMOST ALL THE COMBAT PLANES BEING USED BY THE CHINESE WERE MADE IN RUSSIA.

A48WX

GREEN ASKED WHETHER THE UNITED STATES WOULD HAVE TO GIVE LOGISTICAL SUPPORT TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS IF THEY INVADED THE CHINESE MAINLAND FROM FORMOSA. MACARTHUR HAS URGED GIVING SUCH SUPPORT.

VANDENBERG REPLIED THAT IN HIS OPINION THIS COUNTRY WOULD HAVE TO GIVE HELP "BOTH IN THE AIR AND WITH SEA POWER AND WITH X X X LOGISTIC SUPPLIES."

DISCUSSING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF BOMBING RAID ON RED BASES IN MANCHURIA, VANDENBERG SAID: "X X SINCE THE MAJORITY OF THIS EQUIPMENT COULD BE SUPPLIED BY RUSSIA X X X EVEN THOUGH WE DEVASTATED COMPLETELY MANCHURIA, WHICH IS OUR CAPACITY TO DO X X X THE RUSSIANS X X X COULD KEEP THE FIGHTING GOING OVER THERE BY SUPPLYING ALL THE ESSENTIALS THAT WERE NEEDED."

(120) VANDENBERG-MACARTHUR SPEECH

WASHINGTON,MAY 28-(AP)-GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG SAID TODAY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR IS "TOO FINE A MAN" TO HAVE MISREPRESENTED TO CONGRESS THE VIEWS OF THE CHIEFS OF STAFF ON HIS KOREAN WAR STRATEGY PROPOSALS.

"I DO BELIEVE HE MUST HAVE MISUNDERSTOOD," VANDENBERG SAID OF MACARTHUR'S CONTENTION IN A SPEECH TO CONGRESS THAT MILITARY MEN GENERALLY ENDORSED HIS IDEAS.

MACARTHUR SAID IN A SPEECH ON APRIL 19 THAT HE HAD UNDERSTOOD THE U.S. JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF "FULLY SHARED" HIS VIEWS FROM THE MILITARY STANDPOINT.

SINCE SENATE HEARINGS BEGAN ON MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL, THREE OF THE FOUR MEMBERS OF THE JCS HAVE TESTIFIED THEY DIDN'T SHARE THEM. THE FOURTH, ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN OF THE NAVY, HAS NOT YET BEEN HEARD.

WASHINGTON,MAY 28-(AP)-GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG EXPRESSED BELIEF TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS "RELATIVELY SAFE FROM AIR ATTACK" AT PRESENT BUT SAID: "TOMORROW, IN MY OPINION, WE WILL NOT BE."

THE AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF GAVE THESE VIEWS AT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR. HE TOLD THE SENATORS:

"BECAUSE WE ARE RELATIVELY SAFE FROM AIR ATTACK TODAY, AN AIR FORCE OF A CERTAIN SIZE CAN PROTECT THE UNITED STATES AND KEEP THE BALANCE OF POWER IN OUR FAVOR.

"TODAY WE ONLY HAVE ONE JOB THAT WE WOULD HAVE TO DO IF WE GOT INTO A MAJOR WAR WITH RUSSIA, AND THAT IS TO LAY WASTE THE INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL OF THAT COUNTRY. TOMORROW WHEN THEY HAVE DEVELOPED THEIR LONG RANGE AIR FORCE AND THEY HAVE MORE ATOMIC WEAPONS, WE HAVE TWO JOBS.

"WE WOULD HAVE TO PUT INTO FIRST PLACE THE JOB OF DESTROYING THE RUSSIAN AIR POTENTIAL THAT COULD UTILIZE ATOMIC BOMBS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, AND LAY WASTE THE INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL. TODAY THE AIR DEFENSES OF THIS COUNTRY ARE ABOUT ADEQUATE. TOMORROW THEY WILL NOT BE NEARLY ADEQUATE ENOUGH."

KOREA PLANES

BY ELTON C.FAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON, MAY 28-(AP)-MODERN, ELECTRONICALLY-AIMED ANTIAIRCRAFT GUNS -- AND NOT THE SPECTACULAR RUSSIAN DESIGNED MIG 15 JET FIGHTERS -- ARE TAKING THE HEAVIEST TOLL OF AMERICAN PLANES IN THE KOREAN WAR.

OF THE MORE THAN 200 U.S. AIR FORCE PLANES LOST TO ENEMY ACTION IN 11 MONTHS OF WAR, THE GREAT MAJORITY HAS BEEN DOWNED BY FIRE FROM THE GROUND -- EVERYTHING RANGING FROM RIFLE FIRE TO HEAVY FLAK. BECAUSE THE AIR FORCE GUARDS SUCH DETAILS, THE PROPORTION OF AIRCRAFT LOST TO FLAK AND TO ENEMY PLANES MAY NOT BE STATED.

THE REDS' GROUND GUNNERS, USING RADAR-DIRECTED WEAPONS, HAVE HIT B-29 BOMBERS AT ALTITUDES WELL ABOVE 20,000 FEET IN AIR RAIDS DURING RECENT WEEKS.

THIS RADAR EQUIPMENT, LIKE THE PLANES THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN FORCES USE, IS PRESUMED OF RUSSIAN MANUFACTURE AND MUCH OF IT PROBABLY WAS COPIED FROM THE SUBSTANTIAL AMOUNTS OF RADAR EQUIPMENT GIVEN THE SOVIETS BY THE U.S. AND BRITAIN DURING WORLD WAR II, WHEN THE THREE WERE ALLIES.

THE QUALITY OF COMMUNIST ANTIAIRCRAFT WORK RAISES A QUESTION, LIKE THAT INVOLVING THE ENEMY JET FIGHTER PLANES, ABOUT WHO OPERATES

30.24- 23495

THE RADAR-CONTROLLED GUNS. HIGHLY SKILLED TECHNICIANS, NOT USUALLY FOUND AMONG THE PEASANT SOLDIERS OF ASIA, ARE NEEDED TO OPERATE AND KEEP RADAR AIMING EQUIPMENT IN REPAIR.

INFORMATION REACHING HERE INDICATES THAT RADAR-DIRECTED FLAK BATTERIES ARE NOT MERELY ISOLATED AFFAIRS, SPOTTED AROUND AT STRATEGIC POINTS. ONE NORTH KOREAN TARGET CITY, WHICH AIR FORCE BOMBERS VISIT FREQUENTLY, HAS SEVERAL SCORE SUCH BATTERIES RINGING THE CITY. SIMILAR, ALTHOUGH PRESUMABLY WEAKER, DEFENSES ARE FOUND AT NORTH KOREAN AIRFIELDS WHICH THE ENEMY IS ATTEMPTING TO KEEP IN OPERATION, ALTHOUGH THEY ARE UNDER ALMOST DAILY ATTACK BY UNITED NATIONS PLANES.

MOREOVER, THERE IS BELIEF THAT THE BIG COMMUNIST CHINA AIRFIELDS IN MANCHURIA -- AND ELSEWHERE IN CHINA -- HAVE THE SAME MODERN FLAK PROTECTION. IT IS AT THOSE FIELDS THAT THE POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS CHINESE RED AIR FORCE IS BASED -- THE MIGS WHICH MAKE THEIR BRIEF, TESTING SORTIES NEAR THE YALU RIVER AND PRESUMABLY TWO-ENGINED BOMBERS CAPABLE OF HITTING U.N. POSITIONS ANYWHERE IN SOUTH KOREA OR EVEN IN JAPAN.

BUT AMERICAN PILOTS SO FAR HAVE NO FIRST HAND INFORMATION ON THE FLAK SITUATION BEYOND THE YALU. THE CURRENT BAN ON OPERATING AIRCRAFT OVER MANCHURIA, A MAJOR POINT IN THE DEBATE OVER THE OUSTING OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, WILL LEAVE THAT AN UNKNOWN SITUATION UNLESS THE REDS CHOOSE TO MAKE MASS AIR ATTACKS ON U.N. TROOPS AND THE U.N. AIR FORCE IS ORDERED TO RETALIATE.

ANTIAIRCRAFT HITS AT ALTITUDES ABOVE 20,000 FEET COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH SOME OF THE BEST AA DEFENSES OF WORLD WAR II.

GERMAN HEAVY FLAK -- SOME OF THE BEST OF THAT WAR -- WAS EFFECTIVE AT ALTITUDES OF BETWEEN 15,000 AND 25,000 FEET. THAT HIGH ALTITUDE FIRE WAS RADAR-AIMED.

KOREAN

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 28-(AP)-DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAID TODAY A 14 NATION KOREAN TRUCE STATEMENT PREPARED IN MARCH COULD STILL SERVE AS AN APPROACH TO NEGOTIATIONS IF THE CHINESE AND KOREAN REDS ARE INTERESTED.

WHETHER THE TERMS FOR PEACE NOW WOULD BE THE SAME AS THOSE WHICH THE UNITED NATIONS ALLIES WITH TROOPS IN KOREA HAD DECIDED ON FOR LAST MARCH, HOWEVER, IS ANOTHER QUESTION. AUTHORITIES SAID IT COULD NOT BE ANSWERED WITHOUT A FURTHER REVIEW OF THE SITUATION WHICH EVIDENTLY WOULD BE UNDERTAKEN IF THERE WAS REASON TO THINK THE REDS WERE INTERESTED IN OPENING TALKS.

MEANWHILE THE MILITARY HIGH COMMAND IS COMPLETING A NEW DIRECTIVE TO GEN. MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, THE U.N. COMMANDER, WITH THE AIM OF CONTINUING MAXIMUM PRESSURE ON RED FORCES IF THEY DO NOT AGREE TO SOME REASONABLE SETTLEMENT PROMPTLY.

PREPARATION OF THIS DIRECTIVE, PLUS THE FACT U.N. TROOPS HAVE SMASHED THE LATEST COMMUNIST SPRING OFFENSIVE AND ARE ONCE MORE FIGHTING NEAR THE 38TH PARALLEL, IS REGARDED HERE AS MEANING THAT THE KOREAN WAR HAS ENTERED A NEW STAGE. THIS HAS PRODUCED NO NOTICEABLE REACTION IN WASHINGTON, BUT ABROAD IT HAS BROUGHT A NEW WAVE OF SPECULATION OVER POSSIBLE PEACE FEELERS AND TRUCE NEGOTIATIONS.

WEEKEND SPECULATION IN PARIS AND LONDON ABOUT POSSIBLE PEACE DEVELOPMENTS OR SOME NEW APPEAL TO THE COMMUNISTS FOUND NO SUPPORT AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

OFFICIALS TOLD A REPORTER THEY KNEW OF NO CONSIDERATION EITHER OF A NEW JOINT TRUCE PROPOSAL OR OF A REVIEW OF THE OLD--BUT POSSIBLY STILL GOOD-PROPOSAL.

HOWEVER, SENATOR JOHNSON (D-COLO) SAID LAST NIGHT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE SHOWN INTEREST IN A CEASE-FIRE WHICH HE PROPOSED IN A SENATE RESOLUTION. [redacted]. COMMUNISTS NEWSPAPERS, HE TOLD A REPORTER, HAVE GIVEN THE RESOLUTION PROMINENT DISPLAY. HE TERMED THAT "ENCOURAGING."

JOHNSON'S RESOLUTION CALLS ON THE UNITED NATIONS TO PROCLAIM THE CEASE-FIRE AND WITHDRAW U.N. FORCES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL IN KOREA. AT THE SAME TIME, THE U.N. WOULD ASK THE COMMUNISTS TO KEEP THEIR TROOPS NORTH OF THAT OLD DIVIDING LINE BETWEEN SOUTH AND NORTH KOREA. ALL FOREIGN TROOPS WOULD LEAVE KOREA BY DEC. 31, LEAVING KOREA SPLIT IN TWO PARTS AS IT WAS BEFORE THE WAR. THE RESOLUTION IS STILL PENDING IN COMMITTEE.

IT WAS GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, WHO TOLD SENATORS INVESTIGATING GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL APPROXIMATELY WHAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN WOULD HAVE SAID IN A PROJECTED PEACE STATEMENT TWO MONTHS AGO. WHILE THE PROPOSAL WAS STILL UNDER STUDY, MACARTHUR OFFERED TO TALK TERMS WITH HIS OPPOSITE MEMBER IN THE FIELD IN KOREA BUT COUPLED HIS OFFER WITH A WARNING THAT FAILURE OF THE CHINESE TO ACT MIGHT CAUSE THE U.N. TO BROADEN THE WAR AGAINST THEM AND BRING ON RED CHINA'S COLLAPSE.

MR.TRUMAN HAS SAID MACARTHUR'S ISSUANCE OF THAT STATEMENT SHORTLY AFTER BEING TOLD THE PRESIDENT WAS PLANNING TO MAKE ONE WAS THE INCIDENT WHICH LED HIM DIRECTLY TO OUST MACARTHUR.

COLLINS SAID THE PRESIDENTIAL DOCUMENT--WHICH HAD BEEN WORKED OUT BY THE UNITED STATES WITH 13 OTHER ALLIED GOVERNMENTS--POINTED OUT THAT THE AGGRESSORS IN KOREA HAD BEEN DRIVEN BACK TO THE AREA FROM WHICH THEIR ATTACK WAS LAUNCHED AND THEREFORE THE U.N. OBJECTIVE OF REPELLING AGGRESSION AGAINST SOUTH KOREANS HAD BEEN ACHIEVED.

A12WX

MAY 29 1951

"IT ASSERTED," COLLINS CONTINUED, "THAT FURTHER UNITED NATIONS OBJECTIVES, SUCH AS UNIFICATION AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FREE GOVERNMENT IN ALL OF KOREA COULD AND SHOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT FURTHER FIGHTING OR BLOODSHED."

THOSE WERE THE ESSENTIALS--A TRUCE ALONG THE 38TH PARALLEL FOLLOWED BY NEGOTIATIONS ON POLITICAL QUESTIONS OF KOREA'S FUTURE.

AT THE TIME, U.N. TROOPS HAD JUST FOUGHT THEIR WAY BACK TO THE 38TH PARALLEL AND WERE STANDING READY TO CROSS. THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WERE KNOWN TO BE PREPARING A GREAT OFFENSIVE WHICH THEY DID NOT LAUNCH UNTIL SOME WEEKS LATER.

THERE IS, THEREFORE, A GREAT DIFFERENCE AS WELL AS A GREAT SIMILARITY IN THE SITUATION UNDERLYING ANY TRUCE TALKS WHICH MIGHT BE MADE NOW AS COMPARED WITH THAT TWO MONTHS AGO.

THE SIMILARITY IS THAT THE FIGHTING IS ONCE MORE ALONG THE 38TH PARALLEL. THE GREAT DIFFERENCE IS THAT IT IS THERE BECAUSE U.N. FORCES HAVE SMASHED TWO SUCCESSIVE MAJOR EFFORTS BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TO DRIVE SOUTH. IN A WORD, THE REDS ARE IN A MUCH WEAKER MILITARY POSITION NOW THAN THEY WERE TWO MONTHS AGO.

MAY 29 1951

(EDITOR'S NOTE--THIRTY YEARS AGO, AMERICA BURIED HER UNKNOWN SOLDIER, HOPING THERE WOULD BE NO MORE OCCASION FOR SUCH CEREMONIES. A MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON STAFF, KIRKE L. SIMPSON, CAUGHT THE SPIRIT OF THAT OCCASION WITH A SERIES OF STORIES THAT GAINED WORLD-WIDE ACCLAIM. ON THIS MEMORIAL DAY, WE REPRODUCE BELOW THE MAJOR PORTION OF THE STORY THAT GAINED A PULITZER PRIZE FOR SIMPSON.)

WASHINGTON, NOV.11, 1921-(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)-UNDER THE WIDE AND STARRY SKIES OF HIS OWN HOME-LAND AMERICA'S UNKNOWN DEAD FROM FRANCE SLEEPS TONIGHT, A SOLDIER HOME FROM THE WARS.

ALONE, HE LIES IN THE NARROW CELL OF STONE THAT GUARDS HIS BODY; BUT HIS SOUL HAS ENTERED INTO THE SPIRIT THAT IS AMERICA. WHEREVER LIBERTY IS HELD CLOSE IN MEN'S HEARTS, THE HONOR AND THE GLORY AND THE PLEDGE OF HIGH ENDEAVOR POURED OUT OVER THIS NAMELESS ONE OF FAME, WILL BE TOLD AND SUNG BY AMERICANS FOR ALL TIME.

SCROLLED ACROSS THE MARBLE ARCH OF THE MEMORIAL RAISED TO AMERICAN SOLDIER AND SAILOR DEAD, EVERYWHERE, WHICH STANDS LIKE A MONUMENT BEHIND HIS TOMB, RUNS THIS LEGEND: "WE HERE HIGHLY RESOLVE THAT THESE DEAD SHALL NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN."

THE WORDS WERE SPOKEN BY THE MARTYRED LINCOLN OVER THE DEAD AT GETTYSBURG. AND TODAY WITH VOICE STRONG WITH DETERMINATION AND RINGING WITH DEEP EMOTION, ANOTHER PRESIDENT ECHOED THAT HIGH RESOLVE OVER THE COFFIN OF THE SOLDIER WHO DIED FOR THE FLAG IN FRANCE.

GREAT MEN IN THE WORLD'S AFFAIRS HEARD THAT HIGH PURPOSE REITERATED BY THE MAN WHO STANDS AT THE HEAD OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. TOMORROW THEY WILL GATHER IN THE CITY THAT STANDS ALMOST IN THE SHADOW OF THE NEW AMERICAN SHRINE OF LIBERTY DEDICATED TODAY. THEY WILL TALK OF PEACE; AND OF THE CURBING OF THE HAVOC OF WAR.

A113

THEY WILL SPEAK OF THE WAR IN FRANCE, THAT ROBBED THIS SOLDIER OF LIFE AND NAME AND BROUGHT DEATH TO COMRADES OF ALL NATIONS BY THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS. AND IN THEIR EARS WHEN THEY MEET MUST RING PRESIDENT HARDING'S DECLARATION TODAY BESIDE THAT FLAG-WRAPPED, HONOR-LADEN BIER:

"THERE MUST BE, THERE SHALL BE, THE COMMANDING VOICE OF A CONSCIOUS CIVILIZATION AGAINST ARMED WARFARE."

ALL DAY LONG THE NATION POURED OUT ITS HEART IN PRIDE AND GLORY FOR THE NAMELESS AMERICAN. BEFORE THE FIRST CRASH OF THE MINUTE GUNS ROARED ITS KNELL FOR THE DEAD FROM THE SHADOW OF THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT, THE PEOPLE WHO CLAIM HIM AS THEIR OWN WERE TROOPING OUT TO DO HIM HONOR. THEY LINED THE LONG ROAD FROM THE CAPITOL TO THE HILLSIDE WHERE HE SLEEPS TONIGHT; THEY FLOWED LIKE A TIDE OVER THE SLOPES ABOUT HIS BURIAL PLACE. THEY CHOKED THE BRIDGES THAT LEAD ACROSS THE RIVER TO THE FIELDS OF THE BRAVE, IN WHICH HE IS THE LAST COMER.

SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES--ALL PLAYED THEIR PART IN THE THRILLING SPECTACLE AS THE CORTEGE ROLLED ALONG. AND JUST BEHIND THE CASKET, WITH ITS FADED FRENCH FLOWERS ON THE DRAPED FLAG, WALKED THE PRESIDENT, THE CHOSEN LEADER OF A HUNDRED MILLION, IN WHOSE NAME HE WAS CHIEF MOURNER AT HIS BIER. BESIDE HIM STRODE THE MAN UNDER WHOM THE FALLEN HERO HAD LIVED AND DIED IN FRANCE, GEN. PERSHINGS, WEARING ONLY THE SINGLE MEDAL OF VICTORY THAT EVERY AMERICAN SOLDIER MIGHT WEAR AS HIS ONLY DECORATION.

BEHIND CAME THE CARRIAGE IN WHICH RODE WOODROW WILSON, ALSO STRICKEN DOWN BY INFIRMITIES AS HE SERVED IN THE HIGHEST PLACE OF THE NATION, JUST AS THE HUMBLE PRIVATE RIDING IN SUCH STATE AHEAD HAD GONE DOWN BEFORE A SHELL OR BULLET. FOR THAT DEAD MAN'S SAKE, THE FORMER PRESIDENT HAD PUT ASIDE HIS DREAD OF SEEMING TO PARADE HIS PHYSICAL WEAKNESS AND RISKED HEALTH, PERHAPS LIFE, TO APPEAR AMONG THE MOURNERS FOR THE FALLEN.

AFTER PRESIDENT HARDING AND MOST OF THE HIGH DIGNITARIES OF THE GOVERNMENT HAD TURNED ASIDE AT THE WHITE HOUSE, THE PROCESSION, HEADED BY ITS SOLID BLOCKS OF SOLDIERY AND THE BATTALIONS OF SAILOR COMRADES, MOVED ON WITH PERSHING, NOW FLANKEDHBY SECRETARIES WEEKS AND DENBY, FOR THE LONG ROAD TO THE TOMB.

AHEAD, THE WHITE MARBLE OF THE AMPHITHEATER GLEAMED THROUGH THE TREES. PEOPLE IN THOUSANDS WERE MOVING ABOUT THE GREAT CIRCLE. DOWN BELOW THE PLATFORM PLACED FOR THE CASKET, IN A STONE VAULT, LAY WREATHS AND GARLANDS. ABOVE THE PLATFORM GATHERED MEN WHOSE NAMES RING THROUGH HISTORY--BRIAND, FOCH, BEATTY, BALFOUR, JACQUES, DIAZ AND OTHERS--IN A BRILLIANT ARRAY OF PLACE AND POWER. THEY WERE FOLLOWED BY OTHERS, BARON KATO FROM JAPAN, THE ITALIAN STATESMEN AND OFFICERS, BY THE NOTABLES FROM ALL COUNTRIES GATHERED HERE FOR TOMORROW'S CONFERENCE AND BY SOME OF THE OLDER FIGURES IN AMERICAN LIFE TOO OLD TO WALK BESIDE THE APPROACHING FUNERAL TRAIN.

AT THE ARCH WHERE THE CHOIR WAITED THE HEROIC DEAD, COMRADES LIFTED HIS CASKET DOWN AND, FOLLOWED BY THE GENERALS AND THE ADMIRALS, WHO HAD WALKED BESIDE HIM FROM THE CAPITOL, HE WAS CARRIED TO THE PLACE OF HONOR. AHEAD MOVED THE WHITE-ROBED SINGERS, CHANTING SOLEMNLY. CAREFULLY THE CASKET WAS PLACED ABOVE THE BANKED FLOWERS AND THE MARINE BAND PLAYED SACRED MELODIES UNTIL THE MOMENT THE PRESIDENT AND MRS.HARDING STEPPED TO THEIR PLACES BESIDE THE CASKET.

A114

MR.HARDING SHOWED STRONG EMOTION AS HIS LIPS FORMED THE LAST WORDS OF THE ADDRESS. HE PAUSED, THEN WITH RAISED HAND AND HEAD BOWED, WENT ON IN THE MEASURED, ROLLING PERIOD OF THE LORD'S PRAYER. THE RESPONSE THAT CAME BACK TO HIM FROM THE THOUSANDS HE FACED, FROM THE OTHER THOUSANDS OUT OVER THE SLOPES BEYOND, AROSE LIKE A CHANT. THE MARBLE ARCHES HUMMED WITH THE SOLEMN SOUND.

THEN THE FOREIGN OFFICERS WHO STAND HIGHEST AMONG THE SOLDIERS OR SAILORS OF THEIR FLAGS CAME ONE BY ONE TO THE BIER TO PLACE GOLD AND JEWELED EMBLEMS FOR THE BRAVE ABOVE THE BREAST OF THE SLEEPER. ALREADY, AS THE GREAT PRAYER ENDED, THE PRESIDENT HAD SET THE AMERICAN SEAL OF ADMIRATION FOR THE VALIANT, THE NATION'S LOVE FOR BRAVE DEEDS AND THE COURAGE THAT DEFIES DEATH, UPON THE CASKET. SIDE BY SIDE HE LAID THE MEDAL OF HONOR AND THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS.

THE CASKET, WITH ITS WEIGHT OF HONORS, WAS LOWERED INTO THE CRYPT. A ROCKING BLAST OF GUNFIRE RANG FROM THE WOODS. THE GLITTERING CIRCLE OF BAYONETS STIFFENED TO A SALUTE TO THE DEAD. AGAIN THE GUNS SHOUTED THEIR MESSAGE OF HONOR AND FAREWELL. AGAIN THEY BOOMED OUT; A LOYAL COMRADE WAS BEING LAID TO HIS LAST, LONG REST.

HIGH AND CLEAR AND TRUE IN THE ECHOES OF THE GUNS, A BUGLE LIFTED THE OLD, OLD NOTES OF TAPS, THE LULLABY FOR THE LIVING SOLDIER, IN DEATH HIS REQUIEM. LONG AGO SOME FORGOTTEN SOLDIER POET CAUGHT ITS MEANING CLEAR AND SET IT DOWN THAT SOLDIERS EVERYWHERE MIGHT KNOW ITS MESSAGE AS THEY SING TO REST:

"FADES THE LIGHT;
"AND AFAR
"GOETH DAY, COMETH NIGHT,
"AND A STAR,
"LEADETH ALL, SPEEDETH ALL,
"TO THEIR REST."

THE GUNS ROARED OUT AGAIN IN THE NATIONAL SALUTE. HE WAS HOME, THE UNKNOWN (CAP U), TO SLEEP FOREVER AMONG HIS OWN.

(400) NIGHT LEAD JAFFE-AMERASIA
WASHINGTON,MAY 28-(AP)-PHILIP J.JAFFE, KEY FIGURE IN THE MUCH INVESTIGATED "AMERASIA" SECRET DOCUMENTS CASE, WAS ACQUITTED TODAY OF CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS.

FEDERAL JUDGE JAMES W.MORRIS RULED THAT JAFFE WAS JUSTIFIED IN REFUSING TO ANSWER QUESTIONS BEFORE A SENATE COMMITTEE DURING LAST YEAR'S INVESTIGATION INTO CHARGES OF COMMUNISM-IN-GOVERNMENT.

JAFFE'S ACQUITTAL WAS THE 13TH IN 19 CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS TRIALS HERE THIS YEAR. THERE HAVE BEEN FOUR CONVICTIONS AND ONE JURY DISAGREEMENT.

IN HIS DECISION, JUDGE MORRIS DECLARED:

"I CANNOT REACH ANY OTHER CONCLUSION BUT THAT THE DEFENDANT HAD REASONABLE GROUND FOR APPREHENSION THAT THE TESTIMONY SOUGHT FROM HIM WOULD EXPOSE HIM TO PROSECUTION FOR OR CONVICTION OF A CRIME AGAINST THE UNITED STATES."

THE JUDGE SAID JAFFE HAD CLAIMED "THE PRIVILEGE GRANTED HIM BY THE FIFTH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION"--IMMUNITY AGAINST ANSWERING QUESTIONS WHICH MIGHT INCRIMINATE HIM--AND "SHOULD NOT HAVE BEEN REQUIRED TO GIVE SUCH TESTIMONY."

JUDGE MORRIS NOTED THAT LOUIS BUDENZ, A ONE-TIME COMMUNIST, HAD SWORN DURING THE SENATE INQUIRY THAT JAFFE WAS KNOWN TO HIM AS A "SOVIET ESPIONAGE AGENT."

THE COURT SAID JAFFE HAD NO RIGHT TO CLAIM IMMUNITY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY PAST OFFENSE FOR WHICH HE COULD NO LONGER BE PROSECUTED, BUT DECLARED:

"CLEARLY, HOWEVER, HIS PREVIOUS INDICTMENT AND PUNISHMENT WOULD NOT BE A BAR TO PROSECUTION FOR VIOLATION OF TITLE 18, UNITED STATES CODE...."GATHERING OR DELIVERING DEFENSE INFORMATION TO AID A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT.'"

JAFFE, NOW 54 AND A NATURALIZED U.S. CITIZEN WHO WAS BORN IN RUSSIA, WAS FINED $2,500 AFTER FEDERAL AGENTS RAIDED THE NEW YORK OFFICES OF AMERASIA MAGAZINE IN 1945 AND SEIZED HUNDREDS OF CONFIDENTIAL GOVERNMENT WARTIME DOCUMENTS.

A55WX
THE ORIGINAL CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ESPIONAGE WAS REDUCED TO CONSPIRACY TO REMOVE U.S. DOCUMENTS ILLEGALLY.

JAFFE WAS EDITOR OF AMERASIA, AN ORGAN DEVOTED TO FAR PACIFIC AFFAIRS. HE WAS ARRESTED WITH FIVE OTHERS, INCLUDING TWO STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS. EMMANUEL S.LARSEN, ONE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT DEFENDANTS, PLEADED NO DEFENSE AND JAFFE PAID HIS $500 FINE.

THE OTHER DEFENDANTS WERE EITHER NOT INDICTED OR WERE CLEARED.

SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WISC) USED THE AMERASIA INCIDENT AS A KEY CASE IN HIS CHARGES THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS INFESTED WITH COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS.

EVEN AS JAFFE WON HIS ACQUITTAL, A NEARBY COURTROOM WAS THE SCENE OF STILL ANOTHER CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS TRIAL--THE 20TH THIS YEAR--WITH MARCEL SCHERER AS THE DEFENDANT.

SCHERER HAS BEEN LINKED IN TESTIMONY BEFORE THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE WITH STORIES OF RED EFFORTS TO INFILTRATE THE WARTIME RADIATION LABORATORY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

APPEARING BEFORE THE COMMITTEE LAST JUNE 21, SCHERER REFUSED TO ANSWER SCORES OF QUESTIONS. TWENTY-SIX OF THE REFUSALS WERE MADE COUNTS IN THE INDICTMENT.

HIS TRIAL IS EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED TOMORROW.

NIGHT LEAD DRAFT CALL
WASHINGTON,MAY 28-(AP)-THE ARMY ISSUED A DRAFT CALL TODAY FOR 15,000 MEN IN JULY.

THIS IS THE SMALLEST NUMBER REQUESTED FOR ANY ONE MONTH SINCE THE NEW SELECTIVE SERVICE PROGRAM BEGAN.

THE ARMY DRAFTED 80,000 MEN IN JANUARY AND THE SAME NUMBER IN FEBRUARY AND MARCH. IT DREW 40,000 A MONTH IN APRIL AND MAY, FIXED A TOTAL OF 20,000 FOR JUNE AND 22,000 FOR AUGUST OF THIS YEAR.

REDUCED CASUALTIES IN KOREA AND INCREASING VOLUNTEER ENLISTMENTS, THE ARMY SAID, ARE THE MAIN FACTORS IN THE DECLINING DRAFT FIGURES.

UNDER THE PRESENT PROGRAM, AT THE END OF AUGUST, 377,000 MEN WILL HAVE BEEN DRAFTED INTO THE ARMY THIS YEAR. THE NAVY, MARINE CORPS AND AIR FORCE HAVE NOT CALLED ON SELECTIVE SERVICE FOR DRAFTEES IN 1951.

THE NAVY--THE ONLY SERVICE STILL CALLING ENLISTED RESERVISTS INDIVIDUALLY--SAID TODAY IT WILL ORDER UP 3,000 NON-RATED RESERVISTS A MONTH STARTING IN AUGUST.

THESE MEN WILL GET A MAXIMUM ELEVEN WEEKS BOOT TRAINING, THE NAVY SAID, ALTHOUGH SOME WITH PRIOR ACTIVE SERVICE WILL GET LESS. THEY WILL ALL SERVE A TOTAL 21 MONTHS ACTIVE DUTY.

BOOT TRAINING WILL BE GIVEN AT NEWPORT, R.I., GREAT LAKES, ILL., SAN DIEGO, CALIF. AND BAINBRIDGE, MD.

IN ADDITION, THE NAVY SAID IT WILL CALL 3,000 RESERVE PETTY OFFICERS IN THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER. THEY WILL BE FROM THE FOLLOWING RATES:

FIRE CONTROL TECHNICIANS, FIRE CONTROLMEN, PERSONNEL MEN, SHIPS SERVICEMEN, INTERIOR COMMUNICATIONS TECHNICIANS AND DENTAL TECHNICIANS IN THE GRADES OF CHIEF, FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD CLASS PETTY OFFICER.

QUARTERMASTERS, RADARMEN, SONARMEN AND ELECTRICIANS MATES IN THE GRADES OF CHIEF, FIRST AND SECOND CLASS PETTY OFFICERS.

BOILERMEN IN THE GRADES OF FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD CLASS PETTY OFFICER.

GUNNERS MATES, MACHINISTS MATES, PIPE FITTERS AND DAMAGE CONTROLMEN IN THE GRADES OF FIRST AND SECOND CLASS PETTY OFFICER.

(550) NIGHT LEAD DRAFT-UMT
BY WILMOT HERCHER
WASHINGTON, MAY 28-(AP)-A SENATE-HOUSE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REACHED AGREEMENT ON A NEW DRAFT BILL TODAY AND LAID THE FOUNDATION FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING (UMT) IN THE UNITED STATES.
THE COMPROMISE LEGISLATION WOULD DROP THE MINIMUM DRAFT AGE FROM 19 YEARS TO 18 1/2 AND KEEP THE SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM GOING UNTIL JULY 1, 1955.
IT WOULD ALSO SET UP THE FRAMEWORK FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING, WITH THE PROVISO THAT CONGRESS SHALL TAKE A SECOND, LONG LOOK AT THE IDEA BEFORE PUTTING ANY PROGRAM INTO EFFECT.
BEFORE THE DEADLOCK ON THE SENATE-HOUSE BILLS CAN BE BROKEN COMPLETELY, HOWEVER, THE COMPROMISE MEASURE MUST BE APPROVED BY BOTH CHAMBERS.
SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, AND REP. VINSON (D-GA), HEAD OF A SIMILAR COMMITTEE IN THE HOUSE, EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THE MACHINERY FOR UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING (UMT) WOULD BE IN EFFECT BY THE END OF THIS YEAR.
THE ACTUAL TRAINING PROGRAM IS NOT EXPECTED TO START UNTIL THE END OF THE KOREAN EMERGENCY.
RUSSELL CALLED THE AGREEMENT ON UMT "RATHER HISTORIC BUSINESS". HE SAID MANY AUTHORITIES BELIEVE THAT IF THE UNITED STATES HAD HAD A UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING PROGRAM 40 YEARS AGO IT MIGHT HAVE PREVENTED WORLD WARS I AND II.
BOTH HE AND VINSON SAID THEY WERE SURE THE SENATE AND HOUSE WOULD APPROVE THE COMPROMISE. THE CONFERENCE REPORT PROBABLY WILL BE ACTED ON IN THE SENATE THURSDAY OR FRIDAY. VINSON PLANS TO CALL IT UP IN THE HOUSE NEXT WEEK.
THE PRESENT DRAFT LAW EXPIRES JULY 9. DROPPING THE DRAFT AGE FROM 19 TO 18 1/2 MAKES ABOUT 500,000 MORE YOUTHS ELIGIBLE FOR MILITARY SERVICE, BUT THE CONFEREES PREDICTED THAT FEW YOUNGER THAN 19 WOULD BE INDUCTED FOR A LONG TIME, IF EVER. THE BILL PROVIDES THAT ALL THOSE AVAILABLE IN THE 19 TO 26 YEAR GROUP MUST BE CALLED FIRST.
UNDER THE COMPROMISE, A FIVE-MEMBER COMMISSION ON NATIONAL SECURITY TRAINING WOULD HAVE GENERAL SUPERVISION OF THE UMT PROGRAM. THIS AUTHORITY WOULD NOT EXTEND TO THE SPECIFIC DETAILS OF MILITARY TRAINING.

A63WX MAY 29 1951
THE COMMISSION WOULD BE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT, BUT WOULD HAVE TO BE CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE. THREE WOULD BE CIVILIANS WITH NOT MORE THAN TWO FROM ANY ONE OF THE MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES. TWO WOULD BE ACTIVE OR RETIRED MILITARY MEN.
WITHIN FOUR MONTHS AFTER MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION WERE FONRIEMD, THEY WOULD BE REQUESTED TO SUBMIT LEGISLATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEES OF BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS.
IT IS AT THIS POINT THAT CONGRESS WOULD TAKE ITS SECOND LOOK AT UMT.
INDIVIDUAL UMT TRAINEES WOULD GET THEIR DRILLING EITHER IN THE ARMY, NAVY OR AIR FORCE. THEY WOULD BE LIABLE FOR A TOTAL OF EIGHT YEARS OF SERVICE, COUNTING TIME IN THE RESERVES. THUS IF THEIR TRAINING PERIOD LASTED SIX MONTHS, AS PROVIDED IN THE COMPROMISE BILL, THEY WOULD HAVE TO SPEND AN ADDITIONAL SEVEN YEARS AND SIX MONTHS IN THE RESERVES. PAY DURING TRAINING WOULD BE $30 A MONTH.
LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS WOULD INDUCT YOUNG MEN INTO UMT, BEGINNING AT AGE 18. A DEFERMENT SYSTEM WOULD BE ESTABLISHED ALONG THE LINES OF THAT NOW APPLICABLE TO THE DRAFT.
OTHER POINTS SETTLED TODAY BY THE CONFEREES INVOLVED THE LENGTH OF SERVICE OF MEMBERS OF THE INACTIVE AND VOLUNTEER RESERVES. THEY AGREED THESE RESERVES MUST BE RELEASED AT THEIR OWN REQUEST AFTER SERVING 17 MONTHS IF THEY PREVIOUSLY HAD HAD ONE YEAR'S SERVICE IN WORLD WAR TWO. THE PROVISION APPLIES TO BOTH ENLISTED MEN AND OFFICERS. IT WOULD NOT APPLY TO NATIONAL GUARDSMEN AND ORGANIZED RESERVISTS.
THESE OTHER PROVISIONS HAD BEEN AGREED ON EARLIER BY THE CONFEREES:
REGISTRATION OF ALL YOUTHS AT AGE 18. DRAFT BOARDS WOULD HAVE TO CLASSIFY THEM BEFORE THEY REACHED 18 1/2.
A MANPOWER CEILING OF 5,000,000 FOR THE ARMED SERVICES. THE SENATE HAD VOTED FOR 4,000,000; THE HOUSE BILL HAD NO LIMIT. THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION GOAL IS 3,500,000.
REQUIRE DRAFTEES TO SERVE 24 MONTHS. THE PRESENT PERIOD NOW IS 21 MONTHS.
CONTINUATION FOR TWO MORE YEARS OF PRESIDENTIAL AUTHORITY TO HOLD VOLUNTEERS FOR A PERIOD BEYOND THEIR TERM OF ENLISTMENT.

NPA'S DICTUM QUASHED THE HOPES OF SOME RUBBER COMPANIES THAT THE BAN ON THE EXTRA TIRE ON NEW CARS MIGHT BE LIFTED IN VIEW OF THE INCREASED PRODUCTION OF SYNTHETIC RUBBER BY REACTIVATED PLANTS.
"THE STOCKPILE SITUATION IS STILL CRITICAL, AND WE'RE PUTTING EVERY POUND WE CAN GET INTO IT," NPA RUBBER DIRECTOR LELAND E. SPENCER TOLD INDUSTRY REPRESENTATIVES.
THE AGENCY ALSO PLANS TO ISSUE AN ORDER NOT LATER THAN THURSDAY FOR CONTROLLING STEEL CONSUMPTION BY AUTO MANUFACTURERS IN THE JULY-AUGUST-SEPTEMBER QUARTER.
THE ORDER IS EXPECTED TOCUT STEEL TONNAGE FOR PASSENGER CARS AND STATION WAGONS TO 65 PER CENT OF THE EARLY 1950 USAGE. THE PRESENT ORDER PERMITS 75 PER CENT.
IN ANOTHER MOVE, THE GOVERNMENT TODAY BANNED PROCESSORS OF FARM PRODUCTS FROM PROFITING ON INVENTORIES BY APPLYING THE RISING COST OF THINGS THEY BUT TO THE STOCKS THEY ALREADY HAVE ON HAND.
THE ACTION BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION IS EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY. IT APPLIES TO AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS SELLING BELOW PARITY AND WHICH MAY RISE IN PRICE. FARM PRODUCTS SELLING BELOW PARITY ARE EXEMPT FROM PRICE CONTROL.
THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT IS DUE TO ANNOUNCE NEW PARITY FIGURES TOMORROW. PARITY IS A FORMULA DESIGNED TO GIVE THE FARMER A FAIR RETURN FOR WHAT HE SELLS IN RELATION TO THE PRICES OF WHAT HE BUYS.

ON CAPITOL HILL, MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE HEARD NUMEROUS COMPLAINTS AGAINST THE "REGULATION W" CURBS ON INSTALLMENT CREDIT.

THE REGULATION REQUIRES A ONE-THIRD DOWN PAYMENT AND A 15-MONTH PAY BACK ON MANY INSTALLMENT PURCHASES, INCLUDING AUTOMOBILES. IT WAS IMPOSED BY THE FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD IN A MOVE TO COMBAT INFLATION BY TIGHTENING CREDIT.

PATMAN CALLED THE REGULATION "UNFAIR" AS APPLIED TO CAR SALES.

"I'M IN FAVOR OF HAVING CREDIT TERMS LIBERALIZED SO DOWN PAYMENTS OF ONLY 25 PERCENT WILL BE REQUIRED AND BUYERS CAN HAVE 21 MONTHS FOR REPAYMENT," PATMAN SAID. HE HAS BEEN A CONSISTENT CRITIC OF REGULATION W.

ALTON M.COSTLEY OF EAST POINT,GA., REPRESENTING THE NATIONAL AUTOMOBILE DEALERS ASSOCIATION, TOLD THE COMMITTEE THE FEDERAL REGULATION HAS SLOWED DOWN THE SALES OF BOTH NEW AND USED CARS.

HE SAID THAT DURING THE SIX-MONTH PERIOD FROM OCT. 1,1950, TO MARCH 31,1951, INSTALLMENT CREDIT FOR CARS DROPPED $271,000,000.

COSTLEY URGED THE COMMITTEE TO WRITE IN EASIER TERMS IN REVISING THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT--THE BACKBONE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTROLS PROGRAM--WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN WANTS STRENGTHENED.

BOTH THE SENATE AND HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE ARE CONDUCTING HEARINGS ON THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE ACT, WHICH EXPIRES JUNE 30.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN CONFERRED WITH HIS TOP CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS AND REFLECTED CONCERN OVER RECENT CRITICISM OF THE ACT ON CAPITOL HILL.

HOUSE SPEAKER SAM RAYBURN (D-TEX) TOLD NEWSMEN THAT MR.TRUMAN URGED HIS LEADERS TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO PREVENT THE CONTROLS LEGISLATION FROM EXPIRING.

IN OTHER DEVELOPMENTS:

1. THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF FARMER COOPERATIVES ASKED THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE TO LET WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS DIE.

JOHN J.RIGGLE, REPRESENTING THE COUNCIL, SUGGESTED THAT SOME OF THE MONEY NOW USED FOR PRICE AND WAGE REGULATION SHOULD BE USED FOR "A COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM OF VOLUNTARY MOBILIZATION AGAINST INFLATION."

MAY 29 1951

A205WX

SENATOR CAPEHART (R-IND) COMMENTED:

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE CAN STOP INFLATION ANY TIME THEY WANT TO. ALL THEY HAVE TO DO IS QUIT BUYING."

2. PRESIDENT WILLIAM H.RUFFIN OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS FIRED A NEW BLAST AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT'S ENTIRE CONTROLS PROGRAM IN TESTIMONY BEFORE THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE.

RUFFIN HAD PREVIOUSLY AIRED HIS VIEWS BEFORE THE SENATE BANKING GROUP.

3. THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION (DPA) PREDICTED THAT ABOUT 40 PERCENT OF THE NATION'S TOTAL STEEL OUTPUT WILL BE USED IN THE DEFENSE EFFORT IN THE THIRD QUARTER OF 1951 (CORRECT).

4. THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY (NPA) BEGAN A 13-STATE CHECKUP ON REPORTED VIOLATIONS OF ITS MATERIAL CONTROLS--MOSTLY CASES OF HOARDING AND "GRAY MARKET" SALES OF METAL BY FLY-BY-NIGHT OPERATORS WHO CHARGE MORE THAN THE REGULAR MARKET PRICE.

5. PRESIDENT W.D.LAWSON OF THE AMERICAN COTTON SHIPPERS ASSOCIATION TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT FEDERAL PRICE CEILINGS ON COTTON ARE "UNWORKABLE AND IMPRACTICABLE TO ENFORCE."

LAWSON SAID IF THE CEILINGS ARE CONTINUED, THE COTTON MARKETING SYSTEM MAY BE DESTROYED.

6. THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION RELAXED RETAIL AND WHOLESALE PRICE CONTROLS ON MANUFACTURED GOODS TO PERMIT ADJUSTMENTS IN LINE WITH CHANGES IN MANUFACTURERS' PRICES.

OFFICIALS SAID THE MOVE WILL PROBABLY MEAN MORE PRICE CUTS THAN INCREASES.

MANUFACTURERS HAVE BEEN ORDERED TO SET PRICE CEILINGS AT PRE-KOREA WAR LEVELS, WITH ALLOWANCE FOR SUBSEQUENT COST INCREASES, BY JULY 2.

IN ANOTHER DEVELOPMENT, THE GOVERNMENT CALLED ON SHOE MANUFACTURERS TODAY TO COMPUTE NEW CEILING PRICES, BUT OFFICIALS SAID LITTLE CHANGE IS EXPECTED IN THE AVERAGE RETAIL COST OF SHOES.

THE ORDER IS EFFECTIVE JUNE 4, HOWEVER, SHOE MANUFACTURERS ARE NOT COMPELLED TO USE THE NEW CEILINGS UNTIL JULY 2. UNTIL THEN, THEY MAY CONTINUE TO USE PRICES UNDER THE GENERAL FREEZE ORDER COVERING THE PERIOD FROM LAST DEC. 19 THROUGH JAN. 25.

THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION SAID THE REGULATION WILL MEAN ROLL-BACKS FOR SOME MANUFACTURERS WHO RAISED THEIR PRICES RAPIDLY AFTER THE KOREAN OUTBREAK. IT WILL MEAN INCREASES FOR THOSE WHOSE PRICES WERE NOT RAISED IN KEEPING WITH THE RISE IN COSTS OF LABOR AND RAW MATERIALS.

THE ORDER DOES NOT APPLY TO FOOTWEAR MADE OF FELTED, KNITTED OR WOVEN FABRICS NORMALLY NOT PRODUCED BY A SHOE MANUFACTURER. NOR DOES IT APPLY TO RUBBER FOOTWEAR NORMALLY PRODUCED BY RUBBER MANUFACTURERS.

THIS WAS THE FIRST OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD CONTRIBUTE TO A GLOBAL EMERGENCY FORCE, ALTHOUGH THE U.S. ORIGINATED THE UNITING FOR PEACE RESOLUTION UNDER WHICH THE PROPOSED U.N. ARMY IS BEING SET UP.

AUSTIN MADE HIS DECLARATION IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE 42ND ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE ROTARY INTERNATION).

UNDER THE UNITING-FOR-PEACE PLAN, APPROVED LAST FALL BY 51 NATIONS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE U.N. ARE CALLED UPON TO REPORT WHAT FORCES THEY ARE PREPARED TO ORGANIZE, TRAIN AND EQUIP FOR SERVICE AS U.N. UNITS. THE PLAN IS DESIGNED FOR LONG-RANGE PREPARATION AND IS NOT INTENDED TO PLAY ANY PART IN THE PRESENT FIGHTING IN KOREA.

IN ANNOUNCING THAT THE U.S. WOULD RESPOND PROMPTLY TO THIS APPEAL, AUSTIN SAID:

"I SHALL BE ABLE VERY SOON TO TRANSMIT TO THE UNITED NATIONS, ON BEHALF OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, A SPECIFIC STATEMENT OF THE TYPES AND STRENGTH OF THE NATIONAL ARMED FORCES WHICH WILL BE MAINTAINED BY THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN ACCORDANCE WITH OUR CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESSES, FOR SERVICE AS UNITED NATIONS UNITS."

AUSTIN AGAIN PLEDGED THE UNITED STATES TO CONTINUED SUPPORT OF COLLECTIVE SECURITY, DESPITE WHAT HE TERMED AN ORGANIZED CAMPAIGN BY BOTH COMMUNIST IMPERIALISTS AND PSEUDO-NATIONALISTS ALL OVER THE WORLD TO DISCREDIT THE CONCEPT OF COLLECTIVE ACTION.

"RIGHT NOW," HE SAID, "MISGUIDED PSEUDO-NATIONALISTS IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES ARE SOWING DISSENSION AMONG THE FREE NATIONS, CASTING DOUBT ON THE WORTH OF THE STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST IMPERIALISM IN KOREA, AND BELITTLING UNITED NATIONS EFFORTS TO BUILD COLLECTIVE STRENGTH AGAINST THE SCOURGE OF WAR.

"THEREFORE, NOW IS THE TIME TO CONSOLIDATE OUR UNITY, AND TO REMEMBER WHAT HAPPENED TO THE WORLD WHEN IT FAILED TO BUILD THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AS AN INSTRUMENT FOR COLLECTIVE DEFENSE."

AUSTIN ADDED:

"PREVENTION OF WORLD WAR III IS OUR IMMEDIATE AIM. X X X WORLD WAR III CAN BE PREVENTED IF THE FREE NATIONS WILL MAINTAIN EFFECTIVE MILITARY ELEMENTS COORDINATED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESOLUTION, UNITING FOR PEACE."

AUSTIN DECLARED THE MAJOR AIM OF THE COMMUNIST "PEACE OFFENSIVES" IS TO TRY TO PREVENT THE U.N. FROM TAKING STEPS TO PREVENT FUGURE AGGRESSION.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 28-(AP)-SOVIET DELEGATE JACOB A. MALIK TODAY KNOCKED DOWN AS "COMPLETELY GROUNDLESS" REPORTS THAT HE OR THE SOVIET UNION HAD PUT OUT KOREAN PEACE FEELERS TO THE UNITED STATES, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY.
IN A TERSE COMMENT ISSUED THROUGH A SOVIET DELEGATION SPOKESMAN, MALIK THUS PUT THE CLINCHER ON A SERIES OF DENIALS FROM ALL SIDES. THE RUMORS HAD PERSISTED EVEN THOUGH THE UNITED STATES, U.N. AND OTHER OFFICIALS HAD INSISTED THE SOVIET UNION AND MALIK WERE NOT MAKING ANY PEACE BIDS.
DELEGATES FAMILIAR WITH RUSSIAN THINKING SPECULATED THAT MALIK'S ACTION WAS INTENDED TO CLEAR THE WAY FOR ATTACKS ON THE UNITED STATES AND THE U.N. POLICIES IN KOREA DURING JUNE, WHEN HE WILL BE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THEY REASONED HE COULD NOT LOGICALLY ASSAIL THE U.S. WHILE REPORTS WERE FLYING AROUND THAT HE WANTED TO TALK PEACE WITH THE AMERICANS.
THESE DELEGATES RECALLED THAT MALIK TIED UP THE SECURITY COUNCIL DURING HIS LAST TERM AS PRESIDENT LAST AUGUST. WITH CHINESE COMMUNIST ARMIES IN RETREAT AND THE U.N. FORCING AHEAD, THE DELEGATES WONDERED WHAT TACK MALIK WOULD TAKE THIS TIME IN THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S CHAIR.
THE PEACE FEELER REPORTS FIRST APPEARED IN FORCE EARLIER IN MAY. THEN MALIK GRINNED BROADLY AND REPLIED "NO COMMENT" OR ASKED WHAT THE AMERICAN DELEGATE, WARREN R. AUSTIN, HAD SAID ABOUT THEM. TOLD THAT AUSTIN DENIED ANY PEACE FEELERS HAD BEEN MADE, MALIK LAUGHED AND SAID "THEN I DENY THEM TOO." BUT HE HAD REMAINED FORMALLY SILENT UNTIL HIS SPOKESMAN PASSED OUT HIS COMMENT TODAY.
MALIK HAD HAD TIME TO GET INSTRUCTIONS FROM MOSCOW ON HIS ANSWER--AND PERHAPS ON WHAT TO DO IN JUNE.
A REPORT SPREAD LAST WEEK THAT A SOVIET CITIZEN HAD WRITTEN A RESIDENT OF A NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRY SUGGESTING THE SOVIET UNION WOULD BE WILLING TO TALK ABOUT STOPPING THE WAR ON THE 38TH PARALLEL IN KOREA. THE NON-COMMUNIST CITIZEN SENT THE LETTER ON TO HIS FOREIGN OFFICE. ITS CONTENTS FOUND THEIR WAY TO SVEN GRAFSTROEM, SWEDISH DELEGATE HERE AND A MEMBER OF THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, WHICH HAS BEEN ATTEMPTING VAINLY TO MAKE CONTACT WITH PEIPING. GRAFSTROEM SAID HE REGARDED THE LETTER AS UNOFFICIAL AND DID NOT ATTACH IMPORTANCE TO IT.
THERE ALSO HAD BEEN A REPORT THAT MALIK RODE INTO NEW YORK FROM LAKE SUCCESS RECENTLY WITH TWO JUNIOR MEMBERS OF THE U.S. DELEGATION AND SUGGESTED THE TWO COUNTRIES COULD GET TOGETHER AND END THE WAR.
MALIK'S AIDE SAID THE COMMENT OF "COMPLETELY GROUNDLESS" APPLIED "FULLY" TO BOTH THOSE ACCOUNTS.
THE RUSSIANS HAVE REFRAINED FROM TAKING ANY POSITION THAT WOULD TIE MOSCOW DIRECTLY WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNIST WAR EFFORT, ALTHOUGH THE AMERICAN REPEATEDLY HAVE SAID MOSCOW IS DIRECTING THE CHINESA COMMUNISTS IN THE WAR.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 28-(AP)-THE NORTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT CHARGED IN A STATEMENT CIRCULATED TO U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL MEMBERS TODAY THAT THE U.S. FORGED DOCUMENTS IN AN ATTEMPT TO PROVE THAT NORTH KOREA INVADED SOUTH KOREA.
PAK HEN EN, NORTH KOREAN FOREIGN MINISTER, SAID TWO ALLEGED ARMY ORDERS FOR THE INVASION--WHICH U.S. DELEGATE WARREN AUSTIN SUBMITTED TO THE U.N.--WERE "CRUDE FORGERIES FABRICATED BY THE AMERICAN COMMAND."
A SIMILAR STATEMENT BY NAM IR, WHO SIGNED AS CHIEF OF THE NORTH KOREAN GENERAL STAFF, WAS ALSO CIRCULATED. BOTH DOCUMENTS, DATED MAY 18, ARRIVED HERE IN RUSSIAN LATE LAST WEEK BUT THE U.N. TRANSLATION DEPARTMENT DID NOT MAKE THEM AVAILABLE UNTIL TODAY.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 28-(AP)-RUSSIA'S JACOB A. MALIK SAID TODAY THROUGH A SPOKESMAN THAT REPORTS OF RUSSIAN PEACE FEELERS TO THE UNITED STATES ARE "COMPLETELY GROUNDLESS."
THE COMMENT OF THE CHIEF SOVIET DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS CAME SEVERAL DAYS AFTER REPORTS WERE PUBLISHED HERE THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE INTERESTED IN TALKING ABOUT ENDING THE KOREAN CONFLICT ALONG THE 38TH PARALLEL AND HAD MADE OVERTURES TO AMERICAN DELEGATES.
ASKED IF THE RUSSIAN DENIAL OF PEACE MOVES APPLIED TO ONE PART OF THE REPORTS OR TO ALL, THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE DENIAL WAS MEANT TO APPLY "FULLY."

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 28-(AP)-WARREN R. AUSTIN, U.S.DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, THINKS SPONSORS OF COMMUNIST-INSPIRED PEACE APPEALS SHOULD ADDRESS THEM TO MOSCOW AND PEIPING--NOT TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

ANSWERING A BID FROM FREDERIC JOLIOT-CURIE, FRENCH ATOM SCIENTIST AND COMMUNIST LEADER, TO SUPPORT APPEARANCE OF A DELEGATION FROM THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED WORLD PEACE COUNCIL BEFORE THE U.N., AUSTIN SAID:

"IF YOUR DELEGATION HONESTLY DESIRES TO MAKE A CONTRIBUTION TO PEACE, I SUGGEST THAT IT VISIT MOSCOW AND URGE THE SOVIET RULING CIRCLE TO ABIDE BY THE (U.N.) CHARTER AND THE OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS TO WHICH IT IS PLEDGED.

"YOUR DELEGATION COULD THEN PROCEED TO PEIPING AND URGE THE RULING CIRCLE THERE TO END THE AGGRESSION IN KOREA, WITHDRAW ITS FORCES AND LET THE KOREAN PEOPLE ORGANIZE THE INDEPENDENT, UNIFIED AND DEMOCRATIC NATION THE U.N. SEEKS FOR THEM."

AUSTIN'S LETTER WAS MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY. MAY 29 1951

SECOND NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR-VANDENBERG
BY DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON,MAY 29-(AP)-GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG TODAY WARNED SENATORS THE UNITED STATES WILL NOT HAVE ADEQUATE MILITARY SECURITY BEFORE 1954 AND HE CALLED FOR A GIANT AIR FORCE BIG ENOUGH TO ENFORCE PEACE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.
THE AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF TESTIFIED THE UNITED STATES WON'T EVEN BEGIN TO HAVE MILITARY SECURITY UNTIL 1953--AND THE DANGER PERIOD IS "FROM TODAY UNTIL ABOUT 1954."
VANDENBERG DECLARED HE COULD NOT QUITE AGREE WITH SENATOR LONG (D-LA) WHO QUOTED DEFENSE MOBILIZATION CHIEF CHARLES E.WILSON AS SAYING THAT THIS COUNTRY WILL HAVE "A REASONABLE MARGIN OF SECURITY" IN 1953.
"I WOULD NOT SAY THAT IN 1953 EVERYTHING WOULD BE LOVELY BY A LONG SHOT," HE ADDED.
VANDENBERG SAID THE UNITED STATES IS "RELATIVELY SAFE TODAY" FROM AN ATOMIC BOMB ATTACK AND THE U.S. AIR FORCE NOW HAS THE POWER AND ATOMIC WEAPONS TO DELIVER A KNOCKOUT BLOW AT RUSSIAN INDUSTRY IN CASE OF WAR.
BUT HE ADDED THE AIR FORCE STRENGTH WILL NOT BE ENOUGH ON SOME FUTURE "TOMORROW" WHEN RUSSIA BUILDS UP HER LONG RANGE AIR FORCE AND ATOMIC STOCKPILE.
HE SAID THE U.S. AIR FORCE MUST BE ABLE IN WAR TO SMASH RUSSIAN INDUSTRIAL CENTERS AND AT THE SAME TIME DESTROY THE SOVIET AIR FORCE WITH SWIFT BLOWS.
VANDENBERG GAVE THESE VIEWS AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO THE OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR. HE COMPLETED HIS TESTIMONY LATE IN THE DAY AND WILL BE FOLLOWED TO THE STAND TOMORROW (9 A.M., EST) BY ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS.
THROUGHOUT THE DAY, VANDENBERG HAMMERED ON THE IDEA OF A BIGGER, STRONGER AIR FORCE TO MEET THE THREAT OF RUSSIA'S GROWING AIR STRENGTH.
HE PICTURED THE FUTURE AMERICAN AIR FORCE IN THE SAME ROLE WHICH THE BRITISH NAVY PLAYED IN HISTORY FOR SO MANY YEARS.
"THE BRITISH NAVY, WHICH WAS SUPERIOR AT ONE TIME TO ALL THE COMBINED NAVIES OF THE WORLD," HE SAID, "KEPT THE PEACE FOR A LONG PERIOD OF TIME.

MAY 30 1951

A64WX
"X X X MY ONLY HOPE IS THAT THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE CAN BE BUILT TO A POINT WHERE IT CAN DO A SIMILAR JOB FOR THE FREE NATIONS OF THE WORLD. X X X I BELIEVE IT TO BE THE GREATEST POWER FOR PEACE THAT THE UNITED STATES CAN POSSIBLY HAVE."
HE CONCEDED THE AIR FORCE THIS YEAR HAS RECEIVED ALL THE MONEY FROM CONGRESS THAT IT CAN SPEND EFFICIENTLY. BUT HE INSISTED THE MONEY WAS NOT PROVIDED SOON ENOUGH.
AND AGAIN HE REJECTED THE PROPOSAL BY GENERAL MACARTHUR TO BOMB RED SUPPLY BASES IN CHINA AND MANCHURIA. HE CLAIMED AMERICAN FLIERS WOULD RUN INTO "A HORNET'S NEST" OF RUSSIAN PLANES OUTSIDE OF KOREAN BORDERS AND U.S. LOSSES WOULD FAR OUTWEIGH ANY GAINS.

VANDENBERG SAID THERE WAS A BELIEF AT THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR THAT RUSSIA WAS MORE LIKELY TO INTERVENE THAN THE CHINESE.
"BUT WITH THOSE VIEWS AND RECOGNIZING THE VERY EVIDENT RISKS," HE SAID, "WE ALL BELIEVED AND CONCURRED THAT SOMEWHERE, SOMETIME, WE HAD TO STOP BEING PUSHED AROUND, AND TO AFFORD SOME HOPE TO THOSE PEOPLE WHO LINED THEMSELVES UP WITH US, THAT THEY COULD EXPECT SOME ASSISTANCE FROM THE UNITED STATES.
"GENERAL MACARTHUR CONCURRED IN THAT AND THAT IS MY UNDERSTANDING."

AT ANOTHER POINT, VANDENBERG SAID HE DID NOT MEAN TO IMPLY IN TESTIFYING YESTERDAY THAT THE U.S. STRATEGIC AIR STRENGTH WOULD HAVE TO BE DOUBLED TO CARRY OUT MACARTHUR'S PLANS TO BOMB RED BASES.
"I BELIEVE THOSE WORDS WERE SOMEWHAT PUT IN MOUTH," HE SAID.
"X X X THERE IS NO INTENTION ON MY PART TO SAY OR TO IMPUTE THAT WHAT GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS ADVOCATED IS SOMETHING THAT COULDN'T BE DONE WITH THE FORCE THAT HE ADVOCATED."
HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT HE WAS CONCERNED OVER THE AIR FORCE'S GLOBAL RESPONSIBILITIES AND FOR THAT REASON COULD NOT GO ALONG WITH MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL. PREVIOUSLY HE HAS SAID THE AIR FORCE COULD NOT AFFORD TO DISPERSE ITS STRENGTH WITH AN ALL-OUT BOMBING OF MANCHURIA.

~~HE~~ RECALLED PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S ADVICE TO THIS NATION: "WALK SOFTLY, BUT CARRY A BIG STICK."
THEN THE GENERAL ADDED:
"TODAY, THE UNITED STATES HAS THE OPPORTUNITY OF CARRYING A BIG STICK, AND CAN WALK SOFTLY; X X X THAT BIG STICK IS THE OFFENSIVE STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE.
"TO DATE, INSTEAD OF A BIG STICK, IT IS A FAIRLY LARGE CLUB; BUT TOMORROW, IT IS LIABLE TO BE A WILLOW WAND.
"AS THE POWER OF THE RUSSIAN AIR FORCE INCREASES, AND THEIR STOCKPILE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS INCREASES, THE JOB OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE BECOMES ROUGHLY DOUBLED."
VANDENBERG DID NOT SAY--OR THE CENSORS OF THE TESTIMONY DELETED--HOW BIG AN AIR FORCE THE GENERAL BELIEVED THIS COUNTRY SHOULD HAVE. CONGRESS HAS AUTHORIZED A 95-GROUP FORCE BUT IT WILL BE ONLY ABOUT 87 GROUPS STRONG BY JUNE 30.
AT ONE POINT, SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) REFERRED TO THE PROPOSED AIR FORCE BUILDUP AS BEING ON "A GIGANTIC SCALE."
BUT VANDENBERG SAID: "NO, SIR, THE GOALS THAT I SET IN TERMS OF EQUIPMENT, MONEY OR PEOPLE ARE NOT IN MY OPINION AS GREAT AS WOULD BE INDICATED IN YOUR STATEMENT."
VANDENBERG GAVE THIS TESTIMONY TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITEES IN THEIR INQUIRY INTO THE OUSTER OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

MAY 30 1951

VANDENBERG SAID HE DID NOT BELIEVE WAR WITH RUSSIA IS INEVITABLE ALTHOUGH "I MUST CONFESS THAT MY HOPE FOR A PEACEFUL WORLD SITUATION is rather limited."
THEN UNDER QUESTIONING BY SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ), THE [redacted]-STAR GENERAL TOLD THE COMMITTEES:
1. HE IS OPPOSED TO THE ADMISSION OF RED CHINA INTO THE UNITED NATIONS "UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES."
2. HE BELIEVES THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA, THE CHINESE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD, HAS STRATEGIC VALUE TO THE UNITED STATES AND HE WOULD OPPOSE RED CONTROL OF THE ISLAND.
WITH THESE VIEWS, VANDENBERG SIDED WITH OTHER MILITARY LEADERS--INCLUDING GEN.MACARTHUR--IN OPPOSING U.N. MEMBERSHIP FOR RED CHINA OR RED CONTROL OF FORMOSA AS THE BASIS FOR PEACE DISCUSSIONS IN KOREA.
SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) BROUGHT UP THE MACARTHUR PROPOSAL THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD "GO IT ALONE" IN KOREA IF NECESSARY IN CARRYING THE WAR TO RED CHINA.
VANDENBERG SAID ONE FACTOR IN FOLLOWING THE MACARTHUR COURSE WOULD BE THE POSSIBILITY OF LOSING AIR BASES IN FRIENDLY COUNTRIES.
HE ESTIMATED WITH AN "OFF-THE-CUFF" GUESS THAT THE U. S. AIR FORCE WOULD HAVE TO BE FIVE OR SIX TIMES LARGER IF IT HAD TO FIGHT A WAR WITHOUT FOREIGN BASES FROM WHICH TO LAUNCH ATTACKS.
SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) SAID A STUDY OF MESSAGES EXCHANGED BETWEEN MACARTHUR AND THE PENTAGON LAST DECEMBER INDICATED TO HIM THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS--AND NOT MACARTHUR--FIRST RAISED THE QUESTION OF A POSSIBL EVACUATION OF ALLIED TROOPS FROM KOREA.

GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JCS, AND GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, BOTH HAVE TESTIFIED THIS POSSIBILITY WAS FIRST RAISED IN A GLOOMY MESSAGE FROM MACARTHUR.

KNOWLAND FOR THE FIRST TIME READ INTO THE RECORD A PARAPHRASED MESSAGE FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS TO MACARTHUR LAST DEC. 29 WHICH SAID IN PART: "COMMENTS BY CINCFE (MACARTHUR) WERE REQUESTED AS TO CONDITIONS WHICH MIGHT DETERMINE A DECISION TO EVACUATE KOREA. IT WAS STATED THAT UPON THE RECEIPT OF HIS COMMENTS, CINCFE WOULD BE PROVIDED A DEFINITE DIRECTIVE."

IN REPLY, KNOWLAND SAID, MACARTHUR TOLD THE JCS THAT NAVAL AND AIR POWER WERE ONLY BEING USED IN PART IN KOREA WHILE THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA AND GUERILLAS ON THE CHINESE MAINLAND WERE BEING IGNORED.

MAY 30 1951

A46WX

MACARTHUR SUGGESTED THAT IF THE GOVERNMENT MADE A POLITICAL DECISION "TO RECOGNIZE THE STATE OF WAR FORCED UPON THE UNITED STATES BY CHINA," THEN ACTION COULD BE TAKEN TO:

A. BLOCKADE THE CHINA COAST.

B. DESTROY WITH NAVAL AND AIR BOMBARDMENT CHINA'S INDUSTRIAL CENTERS.

C.OBTAIN REINFORCEMENTS FROM FORMOSA AND PERMIT THE NATIONALISTS TO INVADE VULNERABLE SPOTS ON THE CHINA MAINLAND.

VANDENBERG SAID THESE PROPOSALS BY MACARTHUR WERE CONSIDERED WHEN THE JOINT CHIEFS TENTATIVELY CONSIDERED A 16-POINT WAR PROGRAM JAN. 12 WHICH BRADLEY AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL HAVE SAID WAS BASED ON THE POSSIBILITY OF AN EVACUATION OF KOREA.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) RAISED THE POINT THAT A DEFINITION OF MILITARY AND POLITICAL OBJECTIVES IS NEEDED IN THE KOREAN WAR.

VANDENBERG THEN READ FROM A REPORT SUPPLIED TO THE COMMITTEE BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WHICH SAID:

"ON 13 FEBRUARY, 1951, THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF MET WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND INFORMALLY DISCUSSED THE KOREAN SITUATION.

"DURING THE COURSE OF THE DISCUSSION IT BECAME APPARENT TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE WOULD PREFER NOT TO EXPRESS POLITICAL OBJECTIVES WITH RESPECT TO KOREA UNTIL MILITARY CAPABILITIES THERE WERE ESTABLISHED.

"ON THE OTHER HAND, THE CONSENSUS OF THE OPINIONS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WAS THAT A POLITICAL DECISION WAS REQUIRED BEFORE THERE COULD BE SUITABLE DETERMINATION OF MILITARY COURSES OF ACTION."

VANDENBERG SAID HE AGREED "IN GENERAL" WITH THE STATEMENT.

THEN HICKENLOOPER DECLARED MACARTHUR'S POSITION WAS THAT SUCCESSFUL MILITARY OPERATIONS COULD NOT BE DECIDED UPON UNTIL "THE POLITICAL PEOPLE DEFINE WHAT THE OBJECTIVES ARE--AND THOSE OBJECTIVES HAVE NOT BEEN CLEARLY DEFINED AS YET."

VANDENBERG SAID HE AGREED BUT HE ADDED SOMETIMES THE ATMOSPHERE FOR MAKING POLITICAL DECISIONS DEPENDS ON MILITARY SITUATIONS.

"SOMETIMES,"HE SAID, "AS IN THIS INSTANCE, THERE ARE TIMES WHEN THE ATMOSPHERE IS MORE RIPE FOR THAT SORT OF THING AND THERE ARE TIMES WHEN THE MILITARY SITUATION MAKES IT LESS ADVANTAGEOUS, SO BOTH CONDITIONS I THINK HAVE TO BE TAKEN INTO IT. IT CANNOT BE STATED FLATLY THAT ONE MUST COME FIRST OR THE OTHER MUST COME FIRST. IT DEPENDS UPON, IT SEEMS TO ME, BOTH THE MILITARY AND THE DIPLOMATIC ATMOSPHERE."

LAST WEEK BRADLEY SAID ON THIS POINT THAT IT WAS AGREED GENERALLY THAT POLITICAL DECISIONS WOULD HAVE TO WAIT ON AN ALLIED VICTORY OVER THE BIG RED SPRING OFFENSIVE WHICH NOW HAS BEEN BEATEN BACK BY THE U. N. ARMY.

AT ONE POINT, SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) SAID SHARPLY THAT VANDENBERG HAD BEEN AS CRITICAL OF U. S. POLICY IN KOREA AS MACARTHUR HAD BEEN. HICKENLOOPER WONDERED WHETHER VANDENBERG SHOULD RESIGN OR BE RELIEVED OF HIS COMMAND.

VANDENBERG ACKNOWLEDGED WRITING LAST MARCH IN "AIR FORCE" MAGAZINE THAT U. S. AIR POWER IN KOREA WAS LEFT JUST ABOUT USELESS "WHEN THE UNITED NATIONS IN AN EFFORT TO AVOID A DIPLOMATIC RUPTURE WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HALTED OFFENSIVE ACTION AT THE YALU RIVER."

BUT HE DECLARED "I WAS EXPLAINING A RESULT FROM MILITARY ACTION. I WAS NOT ADVOCATING IT."

VANDENBERG HAS SAID THAT HE AGREED WITH THE OTHER JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT MACARTHUR SHOULD BE DISMISSED BECAUSE OF HIS OPPOSITION TO ADMINISTRATION WAR POLICY. HE SAID YESTERDAY HE OPPOSED BOMBING OF RED BASES IN MANCHURIA BECAUSE IT WOULD LEAVE U. S. AIR DEFENSES "NAKED."

A215WX

GIVING HIS VIEWS ON A KOREAN PEACE, VANDENBERG SAID HE WAS AN ADVOCATE OF A "BALANCE OF POWER" IN THE WORLD ALTHOUGH HE AGREED IN GENERAL WITH MACARTHUR'S STATEMENT THAT "IN WAR THERE CAN BE NO SUBSTITUTE FOR VICTORY."

HE SAID SOME PEOPLE BELIEVE COMPLETE VICTORY MEANS TO WIPE OUT "THE POTENTIAL OF A COUNTRY TO ENGAGE IN WAR FOR PERHAPS MANY YEARS."

OTHERS, HE SAID, BELIEVE IN A COMBINATION MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC VICTORY "WITHOUT COMPLETELY KNOCKING OUT, EMASCULATING, RUINING, KILLING OFF ALL OF YOUR ENEMIES."

HE ADDED THAT "COMPLETE VICTORY" TO HIM WOULD MEAN: "THE UNIFICATION OF NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA UNDER A DEMOCRATIC FORM OF GOVERNMENT WITH A TREATY OF SOME SORT WITH THE CHINESE X X X."

AND THEN HE SAID: "OFTEN IT SEEMS TO ME THERE ARE OPPORTUNITIES FOR SOMETHING LESS THAN THE COMPLETE ANNIHILATION OR DESTRUCTION OF A NATION."

ON THE SUBJECT OF A BIGGER AIR FORCE, VANDENBERG MADE IT CLEAR THAT THE PRESENT 95-GROUP GOAL IS ONLY A WAY-STATION IN THE FINAL GOAL OF THE AIR FORCE. AN AIR GROUP--OR WING--IS COMPOSED NOW OF 18 TO 75 PLANES--DEPENDING ON THE TYPE AIRCRAFT AND ITS MISSION.

HE SAID THE AIR FORCE IS THE BIG DETERRENT TO RUSSIA GOING TO WAR BECAUSE IT HOLDS THE THREAT OF DEVASTATING "THE INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL OF ANY GREAT NATION ON THE GLOBE."

MAY 30 1951

HE ADDED:

"TOMORROW, IF THE RUSSIAN AIR FORCE HAS THE ATOMIC BOMBS AND THE ABILITY TO DELIVER THEM, WE HAVE TO HAVE AN AIR FORCE THAT CAN TAKE THE ATTRITION THAT WOULD BE NECESSARY TO DESTROY THAT AIR FORCE, AND DESTROY IT PROMPTLY; AND AFTER THAT, HAVE A SUFFICIENT AIR FORCE LEFT TO DESTROY THE MANUFACTURING POTENTIAL OF RUSSIA, AND TO DO WHAT WE CALL POLICING ACTION AFTER THAT, TO INSURE THAT IT WAS NOT REBUILT.

"THEREFORE, WHILE WE HAVE A FAIRLY LARGE CLUB, IN THE U.S. AIR FORCE, THAT (FUTURE) TOMORROW, WHICH IS THE DATE AT WHICH THEY WILL HAVE SUFFICIENT ATOMIC BOMBS, AND AIRCRAFT TO DELIVER THEM, WE WILL NOT HAVE, IN MY OPINION, A SUFFICIENT AIR FORCE."

VANDENBERG'S TESTIMONY ON RUSSIAN AIR STRENGTH WAS SHARPLY CENSORED BUT HE DID DISCLOSE THE SOVIETS ARE BUILDING A LONG-RANGE BOMBER FORCE.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP DREW THIS TESTIMONY FROM VANDENBERG, AND THEN THE SENATOR ASKED:

"IS YOUR STATEMENT TO BE CONSTRUED AS A WARNING TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THAT WE CANNOT IN ANY WISE RELAX IN OUR PROVIDING THE AIR FORCE WITH THE ESSENTIAL WEAPONS OF WAR AND THE MEN TO MAN THEM, OR IS IT A PREDICTION OF GLOOM FOR THE FUTURE THAT THIS CONTEST IS SET UP IN SUCH A WAY THAT WE CAN'T HOPE TO WIN IT?"

30.24- 23507

VANDENBERG REPLIED: "I DIDN'T INDICATE THAT WE WOULDN'T HAVE IT OR THAT WE COULDN'T HAVE IT. I MEANT TO INDICATE THAT WE MUST HAVE IT, BUT THAT IT IS GOING TO REQUIRE A GREATER AIR FORCE THAN WE HAVE PLANNED TODAY."

A216WX

LATER, RUSSELL TOLD REPORTERS THAT VANDENBERG'S CALL FOR GREATLY INCREASED AIR STRENGTH WAS "BASED ON THE GLOOMIEST OUTLOOK." HE ADDED IF THE TENSION BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE FREE WORLD LESSENS, THEN THESE PLANS FOR A HUGE AIR FORCE CAN BE "SAFELY REDUCED."

BUT AS MATTERS NOW STAND, RUSSELL SAID, THE FREE WORLD HAS NO CHOICE BUT TO PUSH AHEAD.

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), CHAIRMAN OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, VANDENBERG CONCEDED THE RUSSIANS KNOW MORE ABOUT THE U.S. AIR FORCE THAN THIS COUNTRY KNOWS ABOUT THEIR AIR POWER.

"THEY KNOW MUCH BETTER THAN WE DO," VANDENBERG SAID.

CONNALLY SUGGESTED "EITHER KEEP THEM MORE IGNORANT OF OUR AFFAIRS OR FIND OUT MORE ABOUT THEIRS."

THEN CONNALLY ADDED: "IT IS A PRETTY HARD POKER GAME WHEN ONE FELLOW IS SITTING THERE WITH A HAND YOU CAN SEE, AND ANOTHER ONE, YOU CAN'T SEE."

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) QUESTIONED VANDENBERG CRITICALLY ABOUT THE SENDING OF F-84 JET PLANES TO NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY NATIONS WHILE THERE IS A SHORTAGE OF THIS TYPE PLANE IN KOREA.

"IN THE WAR WHICH WE ARE FIGHTING AND AMERICANS WERE DYING OVER THERE," BRIDGES DECLARED, "WHILE WE NEEDED AND YOU HAD REQUESTS FOR MODERN AIRPLANES, WE REFUSED THEM IN KOREA, YET WE SENT THEM TO THESE FOREIGN OTHER COUNTRIES."

VANDENBERG ARGUED THERE WERE "VARIOUS REASONS" FOR DELIVERIES OF THE F-84 TO THE TREATY COUNTRIES, SOME MILITARY AND SOME POLITICAL. HE SAID THE NEEDS IN KOREA WERE CONSIDERED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS IN APPROVING SHIPMENTS.

HE SAID: "THE SMALL QUANTITIES OF AIRCRAFT GOING TO OTHER COUNTRIES WOULD NOT AFFECT THE OVERALL PROPOSITION OF EQUIPPING UNITS (IN KOREA) UNIT BY UNIT TO ANY GREAT EXTENT." (SEE N.Y. TIMES for full text.)

FIFTH LEAD MACARTHUR INQUIRY

WASHINGTON,MAY 29-(AP)-GEN.HOYT VANDENBERG TOLD SENATORS TODAY HE THINKS THE HOPE FOR A PEACEFUL WORLD IS "RATHER LIMITED," BUT HE DOES NOT REGARD WAR WITH RUSSIA AS INEVITABLE.

THE NATION'S TOP AIR OFFICER SAID THE UNITED STATES MUST, FOR SAFETY'S SAKE, MAINTAIN AN AIR FORCE ABLE TO DESTROY RUSSIA'S AIR POWER "AND DESTROY IT PROMPTLY."

HE SAID HE ADVOCATES SUCH AN AIR FORCE "TO PREVENT WORLD WAR III, RATHER THAN TO GET READY FOR IT."

TESTIFYING AT THE SENATE'S MACARTHUR INQUIRY, VANDENBERG ALSO SAID:

1. HE IS OPPOSED TO CONSIDERING ADMISSION OF COMMUNIST CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS AS A BARGAINING POINT IN ANY DISCUSSION OF A SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN WAR.

2. HE PERSONALLY IS OPPOSED TO TURNING OVER FORMOSA TO THE CHINESE REDS. FORMOSA IS THE PACIFIC ISLAND STRONGHOLD OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS.

3. IN HIS OPINION FORMOSA IS STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT TO THE UNITED STATES.

4. THE UNITED NATIONS IS "A WONDERFUL EFFORT" BUT SOME DIFFERENT ORGANIZATION WOULD BE "MORE LIKELY TO MAKE A COHESIVE INSTRUMENT FORCIBLY MAINTAINING PEACE."

VANDENBERG DESCRIBED THE U.S. AIR FORCE AS THE "BIG STICK," OR AT LEAST THE "FAIRLY LARGE CLUB" GUARDING THE WORLD AGAINST A NEW GLOBAL WAR. HE SAID THE PRESENT FORCE MAY BECOME ONLY A "WILLOW WAND" AS RUSSIA INCREASES HER AIR POWER AND STOCKPILES ATOMIC WEAPONS.

VANDENBERG, CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE AIR FORCE, WAS IN THE WITNESS CHAIR FOR THE SECOND DAY AT HEARINGS BY THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FROM HIS COMMANDS.

WHILE QUESTIONING HIM, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) READ INTO THE RECORD A DOCUMENT SHOWING MACARTHUR TOLD THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF LAST DEC. 30 THAT U.S. NAVAL AND AIR POWER WAS BEING ONLY PARTLY UTILIZED IN KOREA, AND THAT "THE POTENTIAL OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA AND GUERRILLA ACTION ON (CHINA) MAINLAND WERE BEING IGNORED."

MACARTHUR ALSO SAID THEN:

"FURTHER, WERE THE GOVERNMENT TO MAKE A POLITICAL DETERMINATION TO RECOGNIZE THE STATE OF WAR FORCED UPON THE UNITED STATES BY CHINA AND TO TAKE APPROPRIATE RETALIATORY MEASURES, THE UNITED STATES COULD:

"A. BLOCKADE THE COAST OF CHINA;

"B. DESTROY THROUGH NAVAL GUN FIRE AND AIR BOMBARDMENT CHINA'S INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY TO WAGE WAR;

"C. SECURE APPROPRIATE REINFORCEMENTS FROM THE NATIONALIST GARRISON ON FORMOSA; AND

"D. RELEASE EXISTING RESTRICTIONS UPON THE FORMOSA GARRISON FOR DIVERSIONARY ACTION--POSSIBLY LEADING TO COUNTERINVASION X X X AGAINST VULNERABLE AREAS OF THE CHINESE MAINLAND."

KNOWLAND SAID IT WAS MACARTHUR'S REPLY TO A JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF MESSAGE OF DEC. 29.

THE JOINT CHIEFS HAD TOLD MACARTHUR THAT "DEFLATION OF THE MILITARY AND POLITICAL PRESTIGE OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS" WAS IMPORTANT TO THE NATIONAL INTEREST. THEY ALSO ASKED MACARTHUR'S VIEWS AS TO "CONDITIONS WHICH MIGHT DETERMINE A DECISION TO EVACUATE KOREA."

THERE HAS BEEN SOME CONTROVERSY AT THE HEARINGS AS TO WHETHER MACARTHUR OR THE JOINT CHIEFS FIRST SUGGESTED THE POSSIBILITY KOREA MIGHT HAVE TO BE EVACUATED, AFTER THE CHINESE REDS ENTERED THE WAR LAST NOVEMBER.

KNOWLAND SAID THE DEC. 29 MESSAGE FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS INDICATED TO HIM THAT THE FIRST SUGGESTION CAME FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS.

IN REPLY TO A QUESTION BY KNOWLAND, VANDENBERG SAID THE PROPOSALS MACARTHUR OUTLINED DEC. 30 WERE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT BY THE JOINT CHIEFS WHEN THEY TENTATIVELY APPROVED A 16-POINT KOREAN WAR PROGRAM JAN. 12, INCLUDING POSSIBLE STEPS IF IT BECAME NECESSARY TO PULL TROOPS OUT OF KOREA.

MAY 30 1951

IN OTHER HIGH SPOTS:

1. VANDENBERG CONCEDED UNDER QUESTIONING BY SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) THAT SOME CALLS FOR F-84 FIGHTER PLANES FOR KOREA HAVE GONE UNFILLED WHILE DELIVERIES OF THIS TYPE OF CRAFT WERE MADE TO NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY NATIONS. BUT VANDENBERG SAID--"I COULDN'T GO ALONG WITH THE IMPLICATION" THERE WERE MANY CASUALTIES IN THE AIR FORCE BECAUSE OF USE OF OBSOLESCENT AIRPLANES.

2. SENATOR HUNT SUGGESTED "BETTER FINESSE COULD HAVE BEEN USED" IN FIRING MACARTHUR, BUT GOT NO REPLY FROM VANDENBERG.

3. VANDENBERG, ASKED BY HUNT IF HE HAS "MORE CONFIDENCE" IN AIR FORCE PERFORMANCE UNDER A NEW COMMANDER IN KOREA, SAID IT "SEEMED SOUNDER TO HAVE SOMEONE X X MORE NEARLY IN CONSONANCE WITH GOVERNMENT POLICY."

4. SENATOR JOHNSON (D-TEX) ASKED VANDENBERG WHETHER HE IS CONVINCED THE COURSE BEING FOLLOWED IN KOREA IS THE ONE "MOST LIKELY TO GIVE US VICTORY, X X X WITH THE LEAST LOSS OF MATERIAL AND LIVES."

"AT THE PRESENT MOMENT, YES, SIR," THE GENERAL SAID.

ON THE MACARTHUR ISSUE, HE HAD A SHARP EXCHANGE WITH SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) WHO DECLARED THAT VANDENBERG HAD BEEN JUST AS CRITICAL OF KOREAN POLICE AS MACARTHUR EVER WAS. HICKENLOOPER SUGGESTED THAT RAISED A QUESTION AS TO WHETHER VANDENBERG SHOULD RESIGN OR BE REMOVED AS CHIEF OF THE AIR FORCE. VANDENBERG DENIED HE HAD DISAGREED WITH ANY UNITED NATIONS POLICY.

A171WX

AT ANOTHER POINT, VANDENBERG GAVE HIS DEFINITION OF WHAT WOULD BE "COMPLETE VICTORY" IN KOREA. IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS FROM SENATOR HUNT (D-WYO), HE SAID HE WOULD REGARD IT AS COMPLETE VICTORY IF THERE WAS UNIFICATION OF KOREA UNDER A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT AND "SOME SORT OF" A KOREAN-CHINESE TREATY.

IN HIS DISCUSSION OF THE U.S. AIR FORCE ROLE IN THE PRESENT WORLD SITUATION, VANDENBERG HARKED BACK TO PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S ADVICE REGARDING THE UNITED STATES: "WALK SOFTLY, BUT CARRY A BIG STICK." THEN VANDENBERG SAID:

"TODAY, THE UNITED STATES HAS THE OPPORTUNITY OF CARRYING A BIG STICK, AND CAN WALK SOFTLY; BUT PEOPLE WILL REALIZE THAT THAT BIG STICK IS THE OFFENSIVE STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE.

"TO DATE, INSTEAD OF A BIG STICK, IT IS A FAIRLY LARGE CLUB; BUT TOMORROW, IT IS LIABLE TO BE A WILLOW WAND.

"AS THE POWER OF THE RUSSIAN AIR FORCE INCREASES, AND THEIR STOCKPILE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS INCREASES, THE JOB OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE BECOMES ROUGHLY DOUBLED."

VANDENBERG SAID THE U.S. AIR FORCE NOW IS A DETERRENT TO WAR "BECAUSE OF ITS ABILITY TO DEVASTATE THE INDUSTRIAL POTENTIAL OF ANY GREAT NATION ON THE GLOBE."

THEN HE ADDED:

"TOMORROW, IF THE RUSSIAN AIR FORCE HAS THE ATOMIC BOMBS AND THE ABILITY TO DELIVER THEM, WE HAVE TO HAVE AN AIR FORCE THAT CAN TAKE THE ATTRITION THAT WOULD BE NECESSARY TO DESTROY THAT AIR FORCE, AND DESTROY IT PROMPTLY; AND AFTER THAT, HAVE A SUFFICIENT AIR FORCE LEFT TO DESTROY THE MANUFACTURING POTENTIAL OF RUSSIA, AND TO DO WHAT WE CALL POLICING ACTION AFTER THAT, TO INSURE THAT IT WAS NOT REBUILT.

"THEREFORE, WHILE TODAY WE HAVE A FAIRLY LARGE CLUB, IN THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE, THAT TOMORROW, WHICH IS THE DATE AT WHICH THEY WILL HAVE SUFFICIENT ATOMIC BOMBS, AND AIRCRAFT TO DELIVER THEM, WE WILL NOT HAVE, IN MY OPINION, A SUFFICIENT AIR FORCE."

MAY 30 1951

A172WX

VANDENBERG WENT INTO A DISCUSSION OF RUSSIAN AIR STRENGTH WITH THE SENATORS BUT MUCH OF WHAT HE SAID WAS HEAVILY CENSORED. HOWEVER, ONE STATEMENT LEFT IN WAS THIS: "THEY (THE RUSSIANS) ARE BUILDING A LONG RANGE AIR FORCE."

THE HEARINGS ARE BEING CONDUCTED BEHIND CLOSED DOORS BUT A STENOGRAPHIC REPORT OF WHAT IS SAID IS GIVEN TO NEWSMEN AFTER GOING THROUGH CENSORS.

SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), WHO IS PRESIDING AT THE JOINT HEARINGS BY THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES, ASKED VANDENBERG:

"DO I UNDERSTAND THAT DESPITE OUR REARMAMENT PROGRAM, THE DISPARITY BETWEEN OUR AIR AND RUSSIAN AIR IS INCREASING RATHER THAN THE GAP BEING NARROWED BY OUR EFFORTS?"

VANDENBERG: "NO, SIR. I BELIEVE THAT THE GAP IS IN PROCESS OF BEING DECREASED; BUT THE DIFFICULTY IN THIS PROBLEM IS SOMEWHAT AS I STATE, LIKE THIS:

"THEY HAVE THE INITIATIVE. THEY CAN, WHEN THEY DECIDE, OR IF THEY DECIDE TO MOVE, THEY CAN PICK A DATE WHICH IS ADVANTAGEOUS TO THEM, AND A PLACE OR PLACES.

"THE UNITED STATES, ON THE OTHER HAND, HAS TO BE EQUALLY READY AT ALL PLACES, AND FROM NOW ON OUT."

VANDENBERG'S EXCHANGE WITH HICKENLOOPER OVER WHETHER HE HAS DISAGREED WITH KOREAN POLICY WAS CENTERED ON PUBLISHED WRITINGS OF THE AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF.

HE ACKNOWLEDGED WRITING IN A MAGAZINE ARTICLE LAST March THAT U.S. AIR POWER WAS MADE JUST ABOUT USELESS "WHEN THE UNITED NATIONS IN AN EFFORT TO AVOI A DIPLOMATIC RUPTURE WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HALTED OFFENSIVE ACTION AT THE YALU RIVER."

A138WX

BUT HE TOLD HICKENLOOPER:

"I WAS EXPLAINING A RESULT FROM MILITARY ACTION. I WAS NOT ADVOCATING IT."

HICKENLOOPER CONTENDED THAT VANDENBERG'S COMMENTS, PUBLISHED IN "AIR FORCE" MAGAZINE, TOGETHER WITH OTHER STATEMENTS HE SAID HE WOULD PRODUCE LATER, WERE "JUST AS CRITICAL OF U.N. POLICY X X X AS ANYTHING THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR EVER SAID."

A139WX

VANDENBERG WAS IN THE WITNESS CHAIR FOR THE SECOND DAY BEFORE THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES. THEY ARE INVESTIGATING MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL FROM HIS FAR EASTERN COMMANDS AND THE POLICY DIFFERENCES INVOLVED IN THE DISMISSAL.

ON YESTERDAY, VANDENBERG SAID THAT AS A MEMBER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HE CONCURRED IN THE DECISION THAT MACARTHUR SHOULD BE RELIEVED.

A140WX

TODAY, HICKENLOOPER TOLD HIM:

"NOW LET ME ASK YOU THIS, BECAUSE YOU RECOMMENDED OR CONCURRED IN HIS (MACARTHUR'S) WITHDRAWAL, SHOULDN'T YOU RESIGN YOUR COMMISSION OR GET OUT OF THE SERVICE OR BE RECALLED FOR CRITICIZING U.N. POLICY?

"AND I AM NOT ADVOCATING THAT, GENERAL, BEAR IN MIND, BUT I AM SAYING THAT YOU CONCURRED IN GENERAL MACARTHUR'S RECALL ON THE BASIS THAT THERE WAS A CUMULATIVE DISAGREEMENT WITH POLICY.

MAY 30 1951

A141WX

"NOW WHAT ABOUT YOUR OWN SITUATION, AND I THINK THERE ARE SOME OTHER STATEMENTS WE CAN BRING UP WHERE YOU HAVE BEEN IN DISAGREEMENT WITH POLICY."

VANDENBERG SAID HIS PUBLISHED STATEMENT "IS FACTUAL WHEN YOU CONSIDER THE POINT OF TIME TO WHICH I WAS TALKING."

"AT THAT TIME," HE SAID, "THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES WERE UP CLOSE TO THE YALU. THERE WAS VERY LITTLE DISTANCE BETWEEN THE YALU AND THE FRONT LINE WHERE AIR POWER COULD OPERATE AGAINST THEM, AND I WAS SIMPLY MAKING A FACTUAL STATEMENT THAT WHEN THAT CONDITION OCCURS, YOUR AIR POWER IS RELATIVELY INEFFECTIVE."

A142WX

EARLIER, VANDENBERG HAD TESTIFIED IT WAS MADE CLEAR TO MACARTHUR THAT A JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF STUDY LAST JANUARY -- EMBRACING SOME POINTS OF MACARTHUR'S PROPOSED KOREAN STRATEGY -- WAS ONLY A TENTATIVE THING. HE SAID THAT AS HE RECALLS HE AND GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, MADE THAT CLEAR ON A VISIT TO TOKYO.

30.24- 23509

VANDENBERG SAID HE AND COLLINS DISCUSSED THE JAN. 12 JCS STUDY WITH MACARTHUR IN TOKYO, AND ALSO DISCUSSED A LETTER TO MACARTHUR FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN OUTLINING THE POLITICAL ISSUES INVOLVED.

"AT ONE TIME," HE CONTINUED, "GENERAL MACARTHUR INDICATED THAT EVERYTHING WAS NOW CLEAR TO HIM, THAT THE PRESIDENT'S DIRECTIVE NOW MADE IT ABUNDANTLY CLEAR TO HIM X X X

"GENERAL COLLINS IMMEDIATELY SAID, 'NO, GENERAL MACARTHUR, THAT IS NOT A DIRECTIVE. THAT IS FOR BACKGROUND?"

HICKENLOOPER ASKED VANDENBERG WHAT DIFFERENCE THERE WAS BETWEEN ALLOWING U.S. PLANES TO SHOOT DOWN ENEMY AIRCRAFT WHILE IN "HOT PURSUIT" ACROSS THE YALU RIVER, AND ALLOWING THEM TO ATTACK RED PLANES ON THE GROUND ACROSS THE YALU.

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN ONCE APPROVED A PLAN FOR UNITED NATIONS AIR FIGHTERS TO CROSS THE YALU WHEN IN "HOT PURSUIT" OF ENEMY PLANES. THIS POLICY WAS NEVER PUT INTO FORCE, HOWEVER, BECAUSE OTHER UNITED NATIONS WITH FORCES IN KOREA WOULD NOT APPROVE IT.

IN REPLY TO HICKENLOOPER'S QUESTION, VANDENBERG SAID HE THOUGHT THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE DIFFERENCE. HE WENT ON:

"THE THEORY AND THE THOUGHT, AS I UNDERSTAND IT, BEHIND THE HOT PURSUIT WAS THAT THEY COULD GO OVER FOR SIX OR EIGHT MILES, WHILE THEY WERE ENGAGED IN A DOGFIGHT TO CONTINUE THE DOGFIGHT; THAT DISTANCE IN THE AIR AT SIX OR SEVEN HUNDRED MILES AN HOUR IS A MATTER OF SECONDS.

"THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THAT AND A DETERMINED ATTACK PRESSED FORWARD ON THE GROUND WHERE A GREAT MANY INDIVIDUALS COME UNDER FIRE IS A DIFFERENT PROPOSITION, I THINK, IN THE REACTION OF THE PEOPLE THAT ARE BEING ATTACKED."

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) CITED FIGURES SHOWING THAT AS OF MAY 13 ALLIED PLANE LOSSES IN KOREA TOTALLED 212 WHILE RED PLANE LOSSES AMOUNTED TO ONLY 149. KNOWLAND ASKED WHY "OUR LOSSES WERE SUBSTANTIALLY HEAVIER THAN THE COMMUNIST LOSSES IN THE AIR."

VANDENBERG SAID THE UNITED NATIONS AIR ACTIVITY WAS "INFINITELY GREATER," AT LEAST 500 PER CENT, AND THAT THE COMMUNIST AIR FORCES HAD NOT OPERATED AGAINST UNITED NATIONS GROUND TROOPS.

"OUR AIR POWER IS ASSISTING THE FRONT LINE TROOPS, GOING INTO THE FACE OF VERY HEAVY GROUND FIRE, GROUND FLAK, SMALL ARMS' FIRE," VANDENBERG SAID.

"THEY ARE OPERATING AT PRACTICALLY TREE-TOP LEVEL WHERE ALMOST A HAND GRENADE CAN BRING THEM DOWN, AND THE LOSSES THAT WE GET IN ADDITION TO THAT ARE THE LOSSES WHEN WE DELIBERATELY GO UP ALONG THE YALU RIVER AND ARE EXPOSED TO ATTACK ALONG THE RIVER."

THE SENATORS EXPECT TO HEAR ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, TOMORROW. SHERMAN WILL BE THE FINAL MEMBER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TO TESTIFY.

TENTATIVE PLANS ARE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON TO TAKE THE WITNESS CHAIR ON THURSDAY.

WHEN FIRST BEFORE THE SENATORS YESTERDAY, VANDENBERG SAID HE CONCURRED IN THE DECISION TO DISMISS MACARTHUR FROM HIS COMMANDS.

VANDENBERG ALSO SAID HE WAS OPPOSED AT THIS TIME TO MACARTHUR'S RECOMMENDATION THAT CHINESE RED BASES IN MANCHURIA BE BOMBED. HE SAID THAT WOULD MEAN PUTTING INTO KOREA PLANES NEEDED ELSEWHERE AND WOULD LEAVE THE NATION "NAKED" AGAINST AIR ATTACK.

MACARTHUR, WHEN TESTIFYING BEFORE THE SENATORS, CONTENDED THAT ABOUT ALL IT WOULD REQUIRE WAS A "LOOSING" OF THE AIR POWER ALREADY IN THE FAR EAST.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) TOLD REPORTERS HE COULDN'T SEE ANY LOGIC IN VANDENBERG'S CONTENTION THE U.S. WOULD NEED TO DOUBLT ITS PRESENT STRATEGIC AIR POWER IN ORDER TO ADOPT THE MACARTHUR AIR STRATEGY.

KNOWLAND READ FROM AN ARTICLE BY GEN.CARL A.SPAATZ, FORMER COMMANDER OF THE AIR FORCE, IN NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE. HE QUOTED SPAATZ AS HAVING WRITTEN THAT "THE PRESENT RESTRICTIVE POLICY IN KOREA IS EXTREMELY DANGEROUS," AND THAT:

"THIS RAISES THE QUESTION WHETHER BOMBING CHINESE COMMUNIST BASES A LINES OF COMMUNICATION IN MANCHURIA WOULD SPARK ANOTHER WORLD WAR. PERSONALLY, I DO NOT BELIEVE IT WOULD. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT OTHER ACTIONS -- RE-CREATION OF GERMAN MILITARY MIGHT, FOR EXAMPLE -- WOULD BE JUST AS PROVOCATIVE OR EVEN MORE SO. X X X

"THE RUSSIAN COMMUNISTS MAY GAIN THE KNOW-HOW TO DEFEAT US IN THE AIR. AND MEANWHILE, THE UNITED NATIONS GROUND FORCES MUST CONTINUE TO MEET FULL-SCALE ATTACK BY GREATLY SUPERIOR NUMBERS OF SOLDIERS WHO MOVE FREELY AND SAFELY TO THE YALU RIVER."

AGAINST THE BACKGROUND OF SPAATZ' ARTICLE, KNOWLAND ASKED VANDENBERG WHETHER HE BELIEVES "THESE RUSSIAN MIG FIGHTERS ARE GAINING VALUABLE EXPERIENCE AGAINST OUR BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS IN KOREA?"

VANDENBERG: "YES, SIR, I THINK THAT ANY TIME ANYBODY ENGAGES IN COMBAT WITH AN ENEMY WITH MORE KNOW-HOW, AND THEY CAN AFFORD TO TAKE THE LOSSES, THOSE PEOPLE WHO LIVE ARE BOUND TO LEARN.

"OF COURSE, THAT IS A TWO-WAY STREET, TOO, BECAUSE WE ALSO ARE GAINING BATTLE EXPERIENCE.

KNOWLAND: "BUT NOT AGAINST WHATEVER LATEST BOMBERS THE SOVIET MAY HAVE."

VANDENBERG: NO; BUT THE DIFFICULTY OF SHOOTING DOWN A JET AIRPLANE AT HIGH SPEED -- WITH RELATIVELY THE SAME OR GREATER SPEED AND MANEUVERABILITY. IS VERY ESSENTIAL."

MACARTHUR, WHEN TESTIFYING BEFORE THE SENATORS, READ FROM THE JAN. 12 DOCUMENT IN SAYING HE UNDERSTOOD THE JOINT CHIEFS SHARED HIS STRATEGY VIEWS.

THE DOCUMENT LISTED AS POSSIBLE MOVES AIR RECONNAISSANCE OVER MANCHURIA AND RED CHINA, A NAVAL AND ECONOMIC BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA COAST, AND USE OF THE FORMOSA-BASED CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES.

A133WX

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND HHE JOINT CHIEFS HAVE TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES THAT THE PROGRAM--WHICH INCLUDED 12 OTHER POINTS--WAS GIVEN ONLY TENTATIVE APPROVAL AND NEVER GOT OUT OF THE STUDY STAGE.

THEY SAID THE PROGRAM WAS FOR USE MAINLY IF IT BECAME NECESSARY TO PULL GROUND FORCES OUT OF KOREA. IN JANUARY IT LOOKED AS THOUGHT THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES MIGHT HAVE TO PULL OUT.

AT TODAY'S SESSION, SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) ASKED VANDENBERG IF THERE WAS ANY NOTIFICATION TO MACARTHUR THAT THESE TENTATIVE PROPOSALS HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN.

VANDENBERG REPLIED: "NO, SENATOR HICKENLOOPER. I AM OF THE OPINION THAT WE EXPLAINED TO GENERAL MACARTHUR WHEN WE WERE DISCUSSING (THEM) THAT THEY WERE TENTATIVE AND WERE DRAWN UP BASED UPON CONDITIONS AS REPORTED IN HIS MESSAGE TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO A MACARTHUR MESSAGE TO THE JOINT CHIEFS SAYING IT MIGHT BE NECESSARY TO EVACUATE KOREA.

"AS I RECALL," VANDENBERG SAID, "IT WAS MADE CLEAR THAT THEY WERE BASED UPON CONDITIONS WHICH AT THE TIME GENERAL COLLINS AND I ARRIVED THERE APPEARED TO HAVE DISSIPATED TO SOME EXTENT."

HICKENLOOPER SAID IT SEEMED TO HIM TO BE CLEAR THAT "AT NO TIME WAS GENERAL MACARTHUR EVER TOLD THAT THESE TENTATIVE PROPOSALS ANI THE ACTIONS PROPOSED TO BE TAKEN WERE EVER WITHDRAWN, CHANGED OR ALTERED."

TAFT SAID IN AN INTERVIEW HE WAS TOLD RECENTLY BY VANDENBERG HIMSELF THAT AS MANY AS 1,000 U.S. PLANES HAD BEEN USED IN ATTACKS ON THE CHINESE REDS IN KOREA.

"IF THEY CAN BOMB IN KOREA, I DON'T SEE WHY THEY CAN'T FLY A LITTLE FURTHER AND BOMB IN MANCHURIA OR WHY THERE HAVE TO BE SO MANY MORE OF THEM TO DO THE JOB," TAFT SAID.

THE OHIOAN SAID HE FEARS THE MILITARY MEN WHO HAVE OPPOSED MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL TO BLOCKADE CHINA, BOMB MANCHURIA AND USE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS ARE "FOLLOWING THE ADMINISTRATION LINE" RATHER THAN EXPRESSING INDEPENDENT MILITARY THINKING IN THE SENATORIAL INQUIRY.

ON THE OTHER HAND, SENATOR SPARKMAN (D-ALA) SAID HE DOESN'T THINK THERE IS ANY QUESTION BUT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DISMISSAL OF MACARTHUR WAS JUSTIFIED.

"I BELIEVE THE TESTIMONY AMPLY SHOWS THAT MACARTHUR COULD NOT ABIDE BY THE DECISIONS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHO AFTER ALL WERE HIS SUPERIORS," SPARKMAN TOLD A REPORTER.

"MARSHALL, BRADLEY, COLLINS AND VANDENBERG HAVE MADE A GOOD CASE IN POINTING OUT THAT THEIRS IS A GLOBAL RESPONSIBILITY IN CONTRAST TO MACARTHUR'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR ONE THEATER. THEY HAVE SHOWED THAT THEY WORKED AS A UNIT --WERE IN AGREEMENT ON THE DECISIONS REACHED."

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, AND GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, ALL HAVE OPPOSED MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM. MACARTHUR HAS SAID IT WAS HIS UNDERSTANDING THAT, FROM A MILITARY STANDPOINT, THE JOINT CHIEFS HAD IN THE PAST AGREED WITH HIM.

MAY 30 1951

THE COMMITTEES HOPE TO CONCLUDE WITH VANDENBERG TODAY AND TAKE ON ADM. FORREST SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, IN AN ALL-DAY MEMORIAL DAY SESSION TOMORROW.

SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE INQUIRY GROUP, SAID HE HOPES SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WILL TESTIFY THURSDAY.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA), A MEMBER, SAID HE EXPECTS ACHESON TO FACT "SEVERAL ROUNDS" OF QUESTIONING. MEMBERS WILL BE LIMITED TO 30 MINUTES ON EACH TURN, BUT THERE IS NO LIMIT ON THE NUMBER OF OPPORTUNITIES FOR QUESTIONING. WITH WITNESSES OTHER THAN ACHESON, EACH SENATOR'S ROUND IS HELD TO 15 MINUTES.

SPARKMAN SAID HE ASSUMES THE REPUBLICANS WILL BE "LOADED FOR BEAR" AGAINST ACHESON, BUT BELIEVES THE SECRETARY WILL BE ABLE TO "TAKE CARE OF HIMSELF."

"I THINK THE TESTIMONY SO FAR HAS NOT DISCLOSED ANY REAL BASIC DIFFERENCE BETWEEN ACHESON AND THE MILITARY, WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF THE STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE OF FORMOSA," HE SAID.

REP. LAWRENCE H. SMITH (R-WISC) SAID, MEANWHILE, HE IS AGAINST ANY MOVE TO RECALL MACARTHUR FOR REBUTTAL TESTIMONY, AS THE SENATE COMMITTEE HAS CONTEMPLATED. HE TOLD A REPORTER RECALL OF THE GENERAL WOULD RESULT ONLY IN NEEDLESS ARGUMENT.

"BY THIS TIME THE ISSUE HAS BEEN SHARPLY DRAWN BETWEEN THE MACARTHUR VIEW OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S VIEW," SMITH SAID. "NOW THE PEOPLE WILL HAVE TO JUDGE WHICH POSITION IT WANTS TO SUPPORT. IT IS AS SIMPLE AS THAT."

SMITH, A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, IS A MACARTHUR SUPPORTER.

VANDENBERG TOLD THE COMMITTEES YESTERDAY THE UNITED STATES CANNOT AFFORD TO COMMIT ITS FULL AIR POWER TO BOMB MANCHURIA BECAUSE THE LOSSES INVOLVED MIGHT "LEAVE US, AS A NATION, NAKED FOR SEVERAL YEARS TO COME."

MACARTHUR HAD CONTENDED HIS PROPOSALS FOR BOMBING NORTH OF THE YALU RIVER COULD BE CARRIED OUT WITH MODEST ADDITIONS TO THE AIRPOWER NOW COMMITTED TO THE FAR EAST.

VANDENBERG SAID THAT WHILE HE REGARDS THE PRESENT PLANE STRENGTH THERE AS SUFFICIENT TO HELP PROMOTE "REASONABLE CHANCES" OF GAINING A NEGOTIATED PEACE, THE U.S. HAS ONLY A "SHOE STRING" AIR FORCE SO FAR AS WORLD RESPONSIBILITIES GO.

HE SAID THE FULL WEIGHT OF AMERICAN POWER COULD LEVEL CHINA'S SUPPLY BASES AND CITIES, BUT MIGHT NOT WIN A VICTORY EVEN THEN. IT WOULD TAKE DOUBLE THE PRESENT STRATEGIC AIRPOWER NOW AVAILABLE, TO CARRY OUT THE MACARTHUR PLAN, HE TESTIFIED.

INSTEAD, HE SAID, THE UNITED STATES MUST KEEP AN AIR RESERVE AVAILABLE TO MEET ANY THREATENED ATTACKS BY RUSSIA ELSEWHERE.

THE PRESENT GOAL OF 95 AIR GROUPS IS ONLY A "INTERIM TARGET", VANDENBERG SAID. TOP U.S. AIR STRENGTH IN WORLD WAR TWO WAS 200 AIR GR A GROUP IS A VARIABLE NUMBER OF PLANES, RANGING FROM A FEW HEAVY BOMBERS TO SCORES OF FIGHTERS.

THE AIR FORCE PLANS TO HAVE 87 COMBAT WINGS IN OPERATION BY JUNE 30 AND REACH THE 95-WING GOAL IN THE FALL OF 1952. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS ASKED CONGRESS FOR $19,800,000,000 (B) FOR AIR OUT OF A $60,700,000,000 (B) MILITARY BUDGET FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1.

IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS BY SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX), VANDENBERG SAID REGARDLESS OF HOW MUCH MONEY CONGRESS PUTS INTO IT, IT WILL TAKE TWO AND A HALF TO THREE YEARS TO BUILD AN AIR FORCE CAPABE OF DEFENDING FAR EASTERN BASES, WESTERN EUROPE, THE UNITED STATES ITSELF AND STILL BE ABLE TO TAKE THE STRATEGIC AIR OFFENSIVE.

DESCRIBING THE U.S. AIR FORCE AS "THE ONE THING THAT HAS, UP TO DATE, KEPT THE RUSSIANS FROM DECIDING TO GO TO WAR," VANDENBERG SAID IT SHOULDN'T BE USED TO "PECK AT THE PERIPHERY" OF SOVIET POWER IN MANCHURIA.

HE SAID THAT AS OF TODAY, THE UNITED STATES ITSELF IS RELATIVELY SAFE FROM AIR ATTACK, BUT IT WON'T BE WHEN RUSSIA HAS DEVELOPED ITS LONG RANGE AIR FORCE AND HAS MORE ATOMIC BOMBS.

VANDENBERG CONTENDED THERE IS NOT SUFFICIENT AIRPOWER AVAILABLE TODAY TO CARRY OUT U.S. COMMITMENTS IN EUROPE, ADDING THAT ALL OF THE COUNTRIES CONTRIBUTING TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC AIR DEFENSE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO LIFE THEIR SIGHTS ONE-THIRD OR ONE-HALF ABOVE PRESENT GOALS.

MACARTHUR HAD CONTENDED HIS PROPOSALS WOULD NOT INCITE THE RUSSIANS TO WAR, ASSERTING THAT THEY WOULD PICK THE TIME THEY THINK MOST ADVANTAGEOUS TO THEM, REGARDLESS OF WHAT THE UNITED STATES DOES.

SENATOR GREEN (D-RI) ASKED IF MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM MIGHT NOT SET OFF WORLD WAR III.

"THAT WOULD ~~DEPEND ENTIRELY UPON THE DECISION~~ OF THE PEOPLE IN RUSSIA -- THAT IN MY OPINION IT WOULD NOT NECESSARILY MEAN WAR BECAUSE IT DEPENDS ON WHETHER OR NOT THEY FEEL THAT THE GREATEST ADVANTAGE WOULD BE GAINED FROM HAVING WAR AT THAT TIME," VANDENBERG REPLIED.

MAY 30 1951

R7WX

VANDENBERG SAID MACARTHUR IS "TOO FINE A MAN" TO HAVE ATTEMPTED TO MISLEAD CONGRESS WITH HIS STATEMENT THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF APPROVED HIS PROPOSALS FOR BROADENING THE KOREAN WAR.

"I DO BELIEVE HE MUST HAVE MISUNDERSTOOD," VANDENBERG SAID. GENERAL BRADLEY HAS TESTIFIED THE POINTS MACARTHUR ADVOCATED WERE AMONG 16 THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF STUDIED FOR POSSIBLE USE IF U.S. FORCES HAD TO QUIT KOREA.

VANDENBERG SAID THERE WERE NO PERSONAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MACARTHUR AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF. HE SAID IT WAS EVIDENT, HOWEVER, THAT MACARTHUR DID NOT SEE "EYE TO EYE" WITH WASHINGTON AUTHORITIES ON POLICIES.

VANDENBERG SAID HE BELIEVED THE JOINT CHIEFS DID NOT INITIATE THE MOVE FOR MACARTHUR'S OUSTER--BUT ONLY CONCURRED IN IT--BECAUSE THERE WERE OTHER THAN MILITARY QUESTIONS INVOLVED.

HE SAID HE JOINED IN THE DECISION "RELUCTANTLY AND REGRETFULLY".

JETS-GERMAN SCIENTISTS (300)

WASHINGTON,MAY 29-(AP)-SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) SAID TODAY "ONE INDIVIDUAL IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT" BLOCKED MILITARY EFFORTS TO BRING TRAINED GERMAN SCIENTISTS HERE AFTER THE WAR.

HICKENLOOPER DID NOT NAME THE MAN, BUT SAID HE WAS NOT TALKING ABOUT THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

"HE MUST HAVE BEEN AN AWFULLY POWERFUL MAN TO OVERRIDE THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND EVERYBODY ELSE IN THE DEPARTMENT," OBSERVED SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEXAS).

HICKENLOOPER BROUGHT THE MATTER UP IN QUESTIONING OF GEN.HOYT VANDENBERG, CHIEF OF THE AIR STAFF, DURING HEARINGS ON THE OUSTER OF GEN.MACARTHUR.

VANDENBERG HAD TESTIFIED EARLIER TO THE EXCELLENCE OF THE JET ENGINE IN THE RUSSIAN-BUILT MIG-15 FIGHTER BEING USED IN KOREA. HE SAID GERMAN SCIENTISTS HAD AIDED RUSSIA IN JET DEVELOPMENT.

HICKENLOOPER RECALLED THERE WAS A PROPOSAL TO BRING A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF TRAINED GERMAN SCIENTISTS TO THIS COUNTRY TO WORK ON ROCKET AND JET PROGRAMS.

VANDENBERG REPLIED THAT "WE GOT SOME, ABOUT THAT TIME."

HICKENLOOPER SAID HE FELT THE ARMED SERVICES DID EVERYTHING THEY COULD TO OBTAIN "THIS VAST LORE OF SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE."

HICKENLOOPER: "I RAISE THAT QUESTION INDICATING THAT AT LEAST THE MILITARY, AT THAT TIME, REALIZED THE TREMENDOUS VALUE WHICH THEY MIGHT GET, TO THIS COUNTRY, BUT ACCORDING TO MY INFORMATION, THE COMPLETION OF THAT PROGRAM HAD A LOT TO PROMISE FOR US, BUT WAS BLOCKED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT."

CONNALLY: "WHO BLOCKED THEM?"

HICKENLOOPER: "MY INFORMATION IS IT WAS BLOCKED BY ONE INDIVIDUAL IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. I DON'T MEAN THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

CONNALLY: "WHAT MAN?"

HICKENLOOPER: "I DIDN'T NAME THE MAN. I DON'T KNOW ABOUT CENSORSHIP, AND I DON'T KNOW ALL THE FACTS, AND I DON'T THINK IT WOULD BE FAIR TO NAME HIS NAME. I HAVE IT HERE ON THIS MEMORANDUM, BUT I SHALL NOT MAKE HIS NAME AVAILABLE FOR THE RECORD AT THIS MOMENT."

CONNALLY: "HE MUST HAVE BEEN AN AWFULLY POWERFUL MAN TO OVERRIDE THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND EVERYBODY ELSE IN THE DEPARTMENT."

HICKENLOOPER: "HE WAS JUST POWERFUL ENOUGH TO BLOCK THIS THING, I AM SURE."

MAY 30 1951

BOSTON,MAY 29-(AP)-REP. KENNEDY (D-MASS) TODAY QUOTED GEN. MACARTHUR AS SAYING THAT THE PRESENT METHOD OF FIGHTING IN KOREA "CANNOT LEAD TO ANY FINAL DECISION REGARDLESS OF HOW MANY CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE KILLED."

AFTER CONFERRING FOR TWO HOURS WITH MAC ARTHUR AT HIS NEW YORK HEADQUARTERS, KENNEDY SAID THE GENERAL TOLD HIM:

"WE HAVE NOT HURT HIM (THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS) VITALLY, AND WE ARE LOSING HEAVILY OURSELVES. THE POOL OF AMERICAN BLOOD IS GETTING DEEPER."

KENNEDY'S REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE WAS CONTAINED IN A STATEMENT ISSUED FROM HIS BOSTON OFFICE.

KENNEDY SAID THE GENERAL DECLARED THAT THE MOST SAVAGE FIGHTING HE HAS EVER SEEN HAS BEEN IN THE KOREAN WAR.

HE QUOTED THE GENERAL AS SAYING THAT "WE MUST HIT THE ENEMY IN ITS DISTRIBUTIVE CENTERS IN MANCHURIA WITH OUR AIR POWER AND USE OUR NAVAL POWER FOR BLOCKING THEIR COAST."

MAC ARTHUR SAID THAT OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE IN EUROPE "IS NOT THE ELBE OR RHINE RIVERS BUT THE YALU RIVER," KENNEDY ADDED. "IF WE DO NOT WIN IN KOREA, WE CAN LOSE IN EUROPE."

HE SAID THE GENERAL APPARENTLY DOES NOT BELIEVE THE RUSSIANS WILL RESORT TO FORCE IN EUROPE BECAUSE THEY ARE MAKING PROGRESS IN ASIA "WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT OR LOSING A SOLDIER."

KENNEDY SAID THE GENERAL BELIEVES RUSSIAN DISPOSITIONS IN SIBERIA ARE DEFENSIVE AND THAT OUR BOMBING OF MANCHURIA WOULD NOT AFFECT THEIR DECISION TO BEGIN AN AGGRESSIVE WAR.

THE MASSACHUSETTS REPRESENTATIVE WAS THE FIRST CONGRESSMAN TO CONFER WITH THE GENERAL SINCE HIS APPEARANCE BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEES.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (230)

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 30-(AP)-THE BIG ALLIED OFFENSIVE TUESDAY RIPPED 26 MILES OR MORE DEEP INTO NORTH KOREA, SLAMMING SHUT THE LAST RED ESCAPE ROUTES ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

IT APPEARED, HOWEVER, THAT MOST OF THE COMMUNIST FORCES THAT STRUCK SOUTH ON THAT FRONT IN THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE LAREADY HAD PULLED OUT.

THE CUT-OFF WAS ACHIEVED MAINLY BY SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS, WHO HAD BEEN HARD HIT WHEN THE REDS SPRANG THEIR BIG MAY DRIVE.

ONE FORCE OF SOUTH KOREANS, RACING UP THE EAST COAST, SEIZED THE TOWN OF KANSONG, 26 MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38. THIS STOPPED UP ONE ESCAPE ROUTE, A ROAD LEADING NORTHEAST FROM THE FRONT TO THE COAST.

OTHER SOUTH KOREANS CAPTURED HIGH GROUND OVERLOOKING THE HWACHON DAM, ABOUT SEVEN MILES INTO NORTH KOREA ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, AND REACHED THE SOUTH AND WEST BANKS OF THE RESERVOIR. THIS GAVE THEM COMMAND OF OTHER ROUTES LEADING FROM THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR.

BETWEEN HWACHON RESERVOIR AND THE EAST COAST, A U.S. TANK FORCE HELD STRATEGIC INJE. ALL VEHICLES MUST PASS THROUGH INJE TO GET INTO NORTH KOREA FROM THE EASTERN FRONT.

A STRONG U.S. TANK FORCE TRIED TO MOVE UP THE NORTHEAST ROAD FROM INJE TOWARD KANSONG AND WAS STOPPED COLD 10 MILES FROM INJE BY FIERCE COMMUNIST RESISTANCE, A FIELD DISPATCH SAID.

BACK IN TOKYO AFTER A TWO-DAY VISIT TO KOREA, GENERAL MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY SAID THE ALLIES HAD CAPTURED NEARLY 10,000 REDS SINCE APRIL 22 IN INFLICTING "A MAJOR, SEVERE DEFEAT" ON THE COMMUNISTS.

RIDGWAY CAUTIONED A NEWS CONFERENCE, HOWEVER, THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAD FIVE ARMIES WHICH STILL COULD LOOSE AN OFFENSIVE. FIELD DISPATCHES SEEMED TO UNDERSCORE HIS WORDS.

THE REDS WERE STIFFENING ALL ALONG THE 125-MILE FRONT. BUT STILL THE ALLIED TROOPS POUNDED ON IN NORTH KOREA, AP CORRESPONDENT STAN CARTER REPORTED FROM U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS. GAINS OF FROM ONE TO FOUR MILES WERE REPORTED IN SCATTERED SECTORS.

THE RAINS, WHICH HAD HELPED TO SHIELD THE RED RETREAT, ABATED AND IN CLOUDY WEATHER ALLIED WARPLANES RAINED DESTRUCTION ON THE BACKTRACKING ENEMY.

THE FAR EAST AIR FORCE ESTIMATED THAT AIR FORCE AND NAVY PLANES INFLICTED APPROXIMATELY 1,000 CASUALTIES. ABOUT 900 SORTIES WERE FLOWN.

NIGHT BOM ERS REPORTED MORE THAN 800 COMMUNIST VEHICLES AND SAID AT LE 60 WERE DESTROYED. MOST OF THE MOVEMENT WAS NORTH, AWAY FROM 0 NIGHT BOMBERS REPORTED HEAVY MOVEMENT OF TRAFFIC BEHIND THE ENEMY LINES. THEY ATTACKED MORE THAN 800 COMMUNIST VEHICLES AND SAID AT LEAST 60 WERE DESTROYED. MOST OF THE MOVEMENT WAS NORTH, AWAY FROM THE FRONT.

ENEMY RESISTANCE WAS HEAVY TO LIGHT ALONG THE WESTERN FRONT, WHERE THE ALLIES WERE ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL. ONE PRONG WAS AIMED MENAINCINGLY AT KUMHWA, RED BASE 20 MILES NORTH OF THE OLD BOUNDARY BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA.

SOUTH KOREANS ON THE EXTREME WEST CROSSED THE IMJIN RIVER AND RAN INTO AN ENEMY BATTALION. THIS CROSSING WAS MADE SOUTH OF KORANGPO, 28 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL.

A FEW MILES TO THE EAST, A U.S. ARMY DIVISION SENT PATROLS TO THE OUTSKIRTS OF YONCHON, SIX MILES INSIDE NORTH KOREA. BUT AN ENEMY REGIMENT DUG IN ON HILLS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE ROAD CHECKED THE ADVANCE.

THE REDS WERE SENSITIVE TO THIS THRUST SINCE YONCHON LIES ON THE ROAD TO ANOTHER BIG COMMUNIST BASE, CHORWON, ABOUT 13 MILES WEST OF KUMHWA.

FARTHER EAST, ELEMENTS OF A U.S. DIVISION REACHED THE HANTAN RIVER, BUT THE DISTANCE OF ITS PENETRATION WAS CENSORED. THIS FORCE MET LITTLE RESISTANCE.

EAST OF THIS HANTAN ADVANCE UNITED NATIONS TROOPS MOVED NORTH MORE THAN TWO MILES TO A POINT WHICH CARTER SAID WAS "HIGH ABOVE THE PARALLEL." THE DISTANCE NORTH WAS NOT GIVEN, BUT THIS THRUST WAS THE ONE WHICH WAS MENACING KUMHWA.

THE HARDEST FIGHTING APPEARED TO BE AROUND HWACHON RESERVOIR ON THE CENTRAL FRONT EAST OF THE PUSH TOWARD KUMHWA.

AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THE ALLIES NOW "ARE IN A POSITION OVERLOOKING THE DAM." HE SAID ARTILLERY FIRE COULD KEEP THE ENEMY FROM CROSSING THE DAM, WHICH IS ALSO A ROAD OF RETREAT.

A134KX MAY 30 1951

THE COMMUNISTS WERE OUT IN LARGE NUMBERS IN THE HILLS WEST OF THE DAM, BUT THE BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THEY WERE BELIEVED TO BE ONLY DELAYING TROOPS. SOUTH KOREANS SKIRMISHED WITH SMALL RED FORCES IN THIS AREA.

COMMUNIST RESISTANCE WAS STRONG NORTH AND WEST OF THE ALLIED-HELD TOWN OF HWACHON, FOR WHICH THE RESERVOIR IS NAMED. THE REDS THREW IN SEVERAL COUNTERATTACKS WHICH WERE REPULSED.

NORTH KOREAN COMMUNISTS, REPLACING THE RETREATING CHINESE REDS IN THE LINE, WERE FIGHTING MUCH BETTER ON THE HWACHON FRONT.

"THESE KOREANS," ONE ALLIED OFFICER SAID, "STICK IN THEIR HOLES AND FIGHT A LOT LONGER THAN THE CHINESE. WE'VE BEEN THROWING GRENADES BACK AND FORTH AT EACH OTHER ALL DAY. THEY ARE WAITING FOR US TO CLOSE WITH THEM AND DIG THEM OUT HAND TO HAND."

ALLIED FORCES EAST OF THE RESERVOIR GROUND OUT SOME GAINS, BUT WERE FORCED BACK FROM ONE HILL POSITION BY AN ATTACK BY POSSIBLY 1,000 ENEMY TROOPS.

THERE WAS BLOODY HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING HERE, WHERE U.S. TROOPS WERE WITHIN FOUR MILES OF YANGGU AT THE EASTERN TIP OF THE RESERVOIR.

RED KOREANS ATTACKED BEFORE DAYLIGHT AND THE AMERICANS COUNTER-ATTACKED AT DAWN. THE FIGHTING SWIRLED THROUGH THE WOODS AT POINT-BLANK RANGE. WHEN THE FIGHTING ENDED THE AMERICANS HELD THE LAST RIDGES ON THE PASS LEADING TO YANGGU.

ENEMY TROOPS CUT OFF IN THE HWACHON AREA HAD MADE GOOD THEIR ESCAPE OVER THE HILLS AND FEW PRISONERS WERE BEING TAKEN NOW. THE ENGHTH ARMY ESTIMATED 18,000 CHINESE WERE KILLED, WOUNDED OR CAPTURED IN THE FOUR-DAY BATTLE ALONG THE CENTRAL FRONT. THE U.S. 24TH DIVISION, FIRST TO ENTER THE WAR, CAPTURED POSSIBLY 3,000 ENEMY TROOPS.

THE STRONG ALLIED TASK FORCE THAT HAD THRUST UP THE ROAD FROM INJE TOWARD THE EAST COAST WAS STOPPED 20 MILES SHORT OF A LINKUP WITH SOUTH KOREANS ON THE EAST COAST, FIELD REPORTS SAID. CENSORSHIP OBSCURED DETAILS OF THE OPERATION.

THE EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER REPORTED THE SOUTH KOREANS ENTERED KANSONG TUESDAY WITHOUT A FIGHT. HE HAD NO INFORMATION AS TO WHETHER THE SOUTH KOREANS HAD PUSHED ON BEYOND KANSONG.

SEA AND AIR BLOWS WERE FALLING ON COMMUNIST SUPPLY LINES FAR BEHIND THE FRONT.

A135KX

SUPERFORTS FROM JAPANESE BASES PLASTERED THE RAILWAY YARDS AT KOWON, NEAR THE EAST COAST 22 MILES NORTH OF THE RUBBLED PORT OF WONSAN. OTHER B-29S RANGED FAR NORTH AND ATTACKED A KEY RAILWAY BRIDGE SOUTH OF KANGGYE NEAR THE YALU RIVER BOUNDARY OF MANCHURIA.

OTHER PLANES DESTROYED LARGE STORES OF AMMUNITION AND FUEL IN SKIP BOMBING ATTACKS ON TUNNELS WHICH THE ENEMY WAS USING FOR SUPPLY DUMPS BEHIND THE FRONT.

ALLIED WARSHIPS OFF THE EAST COAST KEPT UP THE BOMBARDMENT OF WONSAN AND OTHER COMMUNICATION CENTERS ALONG THE SHORE.

SECOND LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (130)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 30-(AP)-SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS STABBED FORWARD A DOZEN MILES TUESDAY AGAINST LITTLE OR NO OPPOSITION TO SEIZE THE EAST COAST PORT OF KANSONG, 26 MILES INSIDE NORTH KOREA.

OTHER UNITED NATIONS FORCES ON THE CENTRAL FRONT GAINED CONTROL OF AN IMPORTANT RIDGE OVERLOOKING THE ESCAPE ROUTE FOR THOUSANDS OF KOREAN AND CHINESE REDS AT THE EASTERN END OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR.

THE ALLIED PUSH WAS DESIGNED TO SLAM THE DOOR ON RED TROOPS STILL SOUTH OF THE RESERVOIR, SAID A POOLED DISPATCH.

THE ALLIES WERE WITHIN FOUR MILES SOUTHEAST OF YANGGU ON THE LAST RIDGELINE LEADING TO THAT STRATEGIC TOWN.

THE REDS FOUGHT BITTERLY TO DELAY THE ALLIED TROOPS ON THE MOUNTAINOUS CENTRAL FRONT BUT GAINS OF AS MUCH AS 4,500 YARDS (ALMOST THREE MILES) WERE SCORED BY POWERFUL ALLIED TANK AND ARTILLERY-SUPPORTED TASK FORCES.

TWO CHINESE DIVISIONS WERE WIPED OUT IN A FOUR DAY BATTLE ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY SAID THE CHINESE LOST 18,000 MEN--KILLED, WOUNDED OR CAPTURED--IN THE SINGLE BATTLE.

SMALLER, BUT EQUALLY STUBBORN FIGHTS RAGED ACROSS KOREA NORTH OF 38. ALLIED TROOPS WERE HELD TO LIMITED GAINS. STIFFEST ACTION WAS IN THE CENTER OF THE PENINSULA WHERE U.N. TROOPS TRIED TO SEAL OFF HWACHON RESERVOIR.

SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WERE STRUNG ALONG THE SOUTH BANK OF THE RESERVOIR ABOUT FOUR MILES EAST OF THE DAMSITE. U.S. MARINES WERE ON THE WESTERN END. AMERICAN INFANTRYMEN FIGHTING THROUGH STRONG OPPOSITION GAINED ONE MILE TUESDAY IN THEIR DRIVE TO REACH ITS EASTERN END.

FIELD DISPATCHES REPORTED ALLIED TROOPS BEHIND THE FIGHTING FRONT KNIFED FIVE MILES UP THE HYON-INJE ROAD TO LINK WITH AMERICANS FIGHTING SLOWLY SOUTHWARD.

BUT A STRONG FORCE MOVING NORTHWEST OF INJE FOUGHT FOR TWO DAYS TO REACH AND CAPTURE A MINOR ROAD JUNCTION THREE AND A HALF MILES FROM THE DEATH-RIDDEN TOWN.

A DELAYED AND HEAVILY CENSORED DISPATCH FROM AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW SAID A POWERFUL U.N. TASK FORCE BOGGED DOWN MONDAY NORTH-EAST OF INJE.

"ALLIED CASUALTIES IN INJE ITSELF WERE HEAVY," BRADSHAW REPORTED. REDS POURED SPORADIC FIRE FROM THE SURROUNDING HILLS INTO THE TOWN--"A LEVELED AREA OF MUD HUTS INTERSPERSED WITH DEAD CHINESE AND HORSES."

"THE UNGODLY SMELL OF DEAD FLESH" HUNG OVER INJE. "AND ALONG THE STREETS OF THE TOWN LAY BODIES OF CHINESE COMMUNISTS SO BATTERED BY THE PASSING VEHICLES THAT THEY COULD HARDLY BE RECOGNIZED AS HUMAN BEINGS."

BRADSHAW REPORTED THE TASK FORCE HAD RUMBLED ACROSS THE BODIES IN THE NIGHT "WITH A DULL CRUNCHING OF HUMAN BONES."

REDS LINING THE HILLS NORTHEAST OF THE TOWN SLOWED THE TANKS TO A CRAWL WITH A SERIES OF ROAD BLOCKS AND HEAVY MORTAR AND AUTOMATIC WEAPON FIRE, AND FINALLY HALTED IT.

OTHER ARMORED UNITS RAN INTO THE SAME TROUBLE AS THEY HEADED NORTHWEST TOWARD YANGGU, 10 MILES AWAY ON THE END OF HWACHON RESERVOIR. AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER REPORTED AMERICANS HACKED OUT ONE MILE TUESDAY AGAINST RUGGED OPPOSITION.

NORTH KOREANS FOUGHT THROUGHOUT THE DAY, BECKER REPORTED, CONCENTRATING "INTENSE, HIGHLY ACCURATE MORTAR FIRE AND VERY HEAVY ANTI-TANK FIRE ON THE AMERICANS."

"THESE KOREANS STICK IN THEIR HOLES AND FIGHT A LOT LONGER THAN THE CHINESE," ONE AMERICAN OFFICER SAID. "WE'VE BEEN THROWING GRENADES BACK AND FORTH AT EACH OTHER ALL DAY.

A112FX

"THEY ARE WAITING FOR US TO COME IN AND DIG THEM OUT HAND TO HAND.

"AND THEY HAVE PLENTY OF GOOD MORTAR SUPPORT. IT IS ALWAYS DIFFICULT TO MAKE PROGRESS AGAINST WELL PLACED MORTAR BARRAGES."

ANOTHER OFFICER SAID HE THOUGHT AN ENTIRE RED DIVISION BLOCKED THE ROAD TOWARD YANGGU.

SOUTH KOREANS ADVANCED TO THE SOUTHERN BANKS OF THE 20 MILE LONG RESERVOIR.

AT ITS WESTERN TIP U.S. MARINES WERE ENGAGED IN SHARP, FIERCE FIGHTS WITH RED KOREANS EAST, WEST AND NORTH OF THE TOWN OF HWACHON. HWACHON IS THE CENTRAL SPEARHEAD OF THE 125 MILE U.N. BATTLELINE.

COMMUNIST TROOPS THREW UP STIFF DEFENSES AGAINST EVERY OTHER U.N. PENETRATION TO THE WEST. SOUTH KOREANS IN YONGONG HAD TO CALL FOR AIR STRIKES BEFORE THEY COULD MOVE AT ALL AGAINST TWO RED BATTALIONS.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT, ARMORED PATROLS MONDAY PROBED THROUGH YONCHON, SIX MILES NORTH OF 38 AND 35 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. BUT WHEN INFANTRY MOVED UP TUESDAY THEY FOUND COMMUNISTS ON THE HILLTOPS EVERYWHERE. THE REDS OPENED UP WITH 76-MM. FIELD GUNS AND AN ARTILLERY BATTLE FLARED.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED THESE REDS APPARENTLY WERE FIGHTING TO BLOCK AMERICANS FROM THEIR CHORWON ASSEMBLY AREA.

NASTY HILL FIGHTS DEVELOPED ALL ALONG THE FRONT.

NONE, HOWEVER, APPROACHED THE SCOPE OF THE FOUR DAY BATTLE ON THE CENTRAL FRONT WHERE TWO CHINESE DIVISIONS WERE ELIMINATED.

THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY SAID 12,974 REDS WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED IN THE BATTLE NORTHWEST OF CHUNCHON. ANOTHER 5,028 WERE CAPTURED.

AMERICANS AND SOUTH KOREANS SURROUNDED AND HACKED TO PIECES TWO FULL CHINESE DIVISIONS IN THIS BATTLE. A BRIEFING OFFICER SAID ONLY A FEW SCATTERED RED UNITS SURVIVED.

BUT THE COSTLY CHINESE STAND MAY HAVE ALLOWED THE BULK OF RETREATING RED FORCES TO SLIP BACK ACROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL AND ESCAPE PURSUING U.N. FORCES.

THE ALLIED COUNTERATTACK HAD PUSHED THE REDS BACK 30 TO 40 MILES. IT VIRTUALLY WIPED OUT GAINS THE COMMUNISTS MADE IN TWO COSTLY SPRING OFFENSIVES. THE REDS, BY EIGHTH ARMY ESTIMATES, PAID NEARLY 150,000 CASUALTIES FOR THOSE TEMPORARY GAINS.

THE U.N. COMEBACK DRIVE HAD CARRIED THE ALLIES NORTH ACROSS 38 AT ALMOST EVERY MAJOR ROAD CROSSING. THE DEEPEST PENETRATION WAS ON THE EAST COAST. THERE SOUTH KOREANS WERE DUG IN TUESDAY MORNING AT SOKCHO, 14 MILES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL, UNDER THE SUPPORTING GUNS OF U.S. WARSHIPS STANDING OFFSHORE.

THE NAVY ANNOUNCED THAT FARTHER NORTH BLOCKADING WARSHIPS HAVE KILLED OR WOUNDED MORE THAN 9,200 REDS IN THEIR SIEGE OF WONSAN, NOW IN ITS FOURTH MONTH. NAVAL GUNS ALSO WERE CREDITED WITH KNOCKING OUT 79 AMMUNITION AND SUPPLY DUMPS, 615 BUILDINGS, 345 VEHICLES AND 115 RAILROAD CARS.

BRIGHT SUNSHINE TUESDAY BROUGHT ALLIED WAR PLANES OUT IN FORCE. THEY SWEPT OUT IN MORNING ATTACKS ON TROOPS AND SUPPLIES BACK OF THE LINES.

SOME SMASHED AT COMMUNISTS PUTTING UP A STIFFENING FIGHT ACROSS THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

FIELD REPORTS SAID U.N. TANK-LED PATROLS RAN INTO TROUBLE PROBING OUT IN THREE DIRECTIONS FROM INJE, EASTERN ANCHOR OF THIS SECTOR FOUR MILES NORTH OF 38.

THE ALLIED NORTHEASTWARD DRIVE WAS REPORTED BOGGED DOWN. REDS STOPPED U.N. PATROLS DRIVING NORTHWESTWARD TOWARD YANGGU AT THE EASTERN END OF HWACHON RESERVOIR. COMMUNISTS PUT UP A STIFF FIGHT SOUTHEAST OF INJE AGAINST U.N. TROOPS TRYING TO CLOSE THE GAP BETWEEN INJE AND HYON, SOUTH OF THE BORDER.

AT THE WESTERN END OF THE RESERVOIR, BATTLES FLARED NORTH, WEST AND EAST OF HWACHON.

ALONG THE EXTREME WESTERN FRONT, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS RAN INTO STIFF OPPOSITION AFTER FORDING THE IMJIN RIVER. THE ACTION WAS WEST OF MUNSAN AND NORTHWEST OF SEOUL. FOR A TIME HEAVY HAZE CUT OFF THE SOUTH KOREANS FROM ARTILLERY SUPPORT.

RED TROOPS CHECKED GREEK AND SOUTH KOREAN ATTEMPTS TO CROSS THE RIVER NEAR THE 38TH PARALLEL AROUND KORANGPO. ALLIED INFANTRY AND TANK PATROLS DRIVING UP THE ROAD FROM UIJONGBU PUSHED TOWARD YONCHON IN A SERIES OF SMALL BUT FURIOUS FIGHTS.

NIGHT LEAD TASK FORCE (850)

(EDITOR'S NOTE: THE FOLLOWING DISPATCH WAS HEAVILY CENSORED. EIGHT PARAGRAPHS AND FOUR LINES, PRESUMABLY DEALING WITH THE CURRENT STATUS OF A POWERFUL ALLIED TASK FORCE FIGHTING NORTHEAST OF INJE, WERE DELETED. THE REMAINDER IS A GRAPHIC ACCOUNT OF THE TASK FORCE'S BATTLE TO REACH INJE, FOUR MILES INSIDE RED KOREA ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, BEFORE IT STRUCK OUT TO THE NORTH).

BY TOM BRADSHAW

INJE, RED KOREA, MAY 29-(AP)-A POWERFUL ALLIED TASK FORCE THAT TRIED TO SMASH THROUGH ENEMY TERRITORY WAS STOPPED COLD 10 MILES NORTHEAST OF INJE.

THE REDS BATTLED STUBBORNLY FOR EVERY INCH OF THE ROAD.

THE POWERFUL TANK AND INFANTRY TASK FORCE WAS STRIKING UP THE INJE-KANSONG ROAD LEADING TO THE SEA OF JAPAN.

(SOUTH KOREAN FORCES TUESDAY SEIZED KANSONG, ABOUT 30 MILES FROM INJE ON THE EAST COAST ROAD).

THE OPERATION STARTED LAST THURSDAY WHEN THE TASK FORCE OF TANKS AND SUPPORTING INFANTRY BARRELED UP THE HONGCHONG-INJE ROAD.

THE TASK FORCE HAD TO FIGHT ITS WAY THROUGH FOUR MILES OF ENEMY ROADBLOCKS AND AMBUSHES BEFORE REACHING THE SOUTH BANK OF THE CHOYANG RIVER. THE REDS WERE FIGHTING DESPERATELY TO KEEP THE ROUTE OPEN FOR THEIR OWN RETREAT.

A COMPANY OF INFANTRYMEN WAS SENT ACROSS THE RIVER TO CLEAN OUT A POCKET OF REDS. THEN THE TANKS RUMBLED ACROSS.

THE TASK FORCE BATTLED ITS WAY OVER A STEEP MOUNTAIN PASS AND DOWN INTO INJE--FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

THE GOING WAS ROUGH ALL THE WAY. THE REDS WERE WELL ARMED. SOME CARRIED AMERICAN WEAPONS CAPTURED IN THEIR LAST OFFENSIVE.

SIX TANKS WERE KNOCKED OUT BY NAZOOKAS SHOOTING DOWN FROM A SHARP BLUFF OVERLOOKING THE ROAD.

ONE TANK LEADER--A YOUNG FIRST LIEUTENANT WHO HAD BEEN ON MORE PATROLS INTO ENEMY TERRITORY THAN THE NUMBER OF HIS YEARS--WAS LED TO THE REAR, BABBLING INCOHERENTLY. A BAZOOKA STRUCK HIS TANK AND KILLED MOST OF THE CREW.

COMMUNISTS WERE DUG IN ON EVERY HILL AROUND THE TOWN OF INJE. ONE HILL LOOMING UP IMMEDIATELY BEHIND THE TOWN'S ONE CHURCH WAS HONEYCOMBED WITH BUNKERS, PILL BOXES, TRENCHES.

TANK GUNS POUNDED THOSE EMPLACEMENTS TO ASSIST SWEATING GI'S WHO SLOWLY WORKED THEIR WAY UP TO THE TOP. AFTER A FOUR-HOUR BATTLE THE HILL WAS IN FRIENDLY HANDS.

MAY 30 1951

A60KX

BACK DOWN THE ROAD AMERICAN ENGINEERS BUILT A PONTOON BRIDGE ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER FOR THE TRUCKS AND JEEPS TO COME ACROSS. THE ENGINEE WORKED WITH SNIPER BULLETS SINGING AROUND THEIR HEADS.

A SUPPLY TRUCK MAKING THE DASH FROM INJE BACK TO HANGYE--ABOUT 21 MILES--HAD TO RUN A GANTLET OF ENEMY SNIPER FIRE AND THE SAME FOUR-MILE ROADBLOCK THAT HAD FAILED TO STOP THE TANK.

ONE CONVOY OF 22 TRUCKS WAS HIT HARD. THE DRIVER OF ONE HAD TO KNOCK CHINESE FROM HIS PATH AS HE RODE DOWN THE ROAD. THE BULLET-RIDDLED WRECK OF THE OTHER (FIGURES CENSORED OUT) TRUCKS LINED THE ROAD.

ON SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 26, THE MAIN BODY OF THE "FLYING" COLUMN FORMED ALONG THE ROAD NEAR HANGYE. GROUPS OF MEN SAT AROUND FIRES IN A STEADY RAIN AND SWEATED OUT THE OPERATION AHEAD.

AN MP MOVED FROM GROUP TO GROUP GIVING FINAL INSTRUCTION.

"DON'T ABANDON YOUR VEHICLE," HE SAID, "AS LONG AS THE DAMN THING WILL STILL RUN."

A BLONDE SOLDIER LOOKED UP AT HIME AND ASKED:

"WHAT DO I DO IF THEY SHOOT ME?"

"PUT IT ON AUTOMATIC PILOT," CAME BACK THE ANSWER, "AND DROP DEAD."

AT ONE O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON THE COLUMN FINALLY BEGAN MOVING. EXACTLY TEN HOURS LATER THE TRUCKS AND JEEPS CRAWLED INTO A BIVOUAC AREA ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE CHOYANG.

AN INTERMITTENT RAIN FELL.

WEARY MEN CLIMBED OUT OF THEIR VEHICLES AND TRIED TO FIND A DRYING SPOT TO SLEEP. BUT THE RAIN SEEMED TO REACH THEM EVEN UNDER THE TRUCKS AND TRAILERS. SOME GAVE UP THE IDEA OF SLEEP AND OPENED CANS OF C-RATION.

NO FIRE COULD BE LIT BECAUSE OF THE SNIPERS IN THE SURROUNDING HILLS. THE MEN ATE COLD BEEF AND HAM.

JUST THREE HOURS AFTER THEY REACHED THE BIVOUAC AREA THE MEN WERE ALERTED AGAIN. ONCE MORE THEY STOOD AROUND FOR HOURS WHILE THE INFANTRY CLEARED THE ROAD AHEAD. IT WAS ALMOST DARK WHEN THE COLUMN STARTED MOVING NORTH.

THE RIDE THROUGH THE BLACK NIGHT WAS ROUGH ON THE NERVES.

BOB SCHUTZ, ASSOCIATED PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER AND I WERE RIDING IN A JEEP WITH THE MPS.

HALFWAY FROM THE RIVER TO INJE THE COLUMN STOPPED AT A SECTION OF ROADS WITH A STEEP BLUFF RISING ON ONE SIDE AND A SHEER DROP TO THE RIVER BED ON THE OTHER.

LIKE MOST OF THE MANY STOPS THIS ONE WAS BECAUSE OF A COMMUNIST AMBUSH. A SMALL GROUP OF REDS WERE TOSSING HAD GRENADES DOWN ON THE CONVOY FROM THE ROADSIDE CLIFF.

A61KX

WHEN THE TROUBLE WAS CLEARED UP BY THE INFANTRY THE CONVOY SWEPT DOWN THE ROAD ONCE AGAIN. SHORTLY THEY CAME TO ANOTHER STOP. THE ROAD HAD CAVED IN ON A CURVE, CARRYING A TRUCK DOWN WITH IT. TWO MEN WERE TRAPPED IN THE TRUCK CAB. ONE DIED QUICKLY. THE OTHER LASTED THREE HOURS BUT THERE WAS NO WAY TO LIFE THE HEAVY TRUCK FROM HIM.

AT DAWN SUNDAY THE COLUMN REACHED INJE. THE TANKS AND INFANTRY OF THE TASK FORCE WERE BATTLING TO GAIN CONTROL OF THE HIGH GROUND ALONG THE ROAD LEADING TO KANSONG.

THE TOWN OF INJE WAS A PILE OF RUBBLE. THE BODIES OF COMMUNISTS AND DEAD PACK ANIMALS LITTERED THE MAIN STREET. THE SMELL OF DEAD FLESH WAS OVERPOWERING. TIRED, HUNGRY MEN MOVED FAR ENOUGH AWAY FROM THE NEAREST CORPSE BEFORE OPENING A CAN OF

THE NEAREST CORPSE BEFORE OPENING A CAN OF RATIONS.

ALL DAY THE COLUMN WAITED IN INJE WHILE THE REDS STILL IN THE HILLS AROUND THE TOWN SENT AN OCCASIONAL MORTAR ROUND OR FIRED BULLETS DOWN AMONG THE CLUSTER OF MEN AND TRUCKS.

SIX MORTAR SHELLS DROPPED ALONG THE RIVER BANK WHERE SOME OF THE GIS WERE WASHING OFF THE DUST OF THE ROAD. SOME WERE HIT BY SHRAPNEL.

FOR MORE, LONG, TEDIOUS HOURS THE MEN WAITED TO MAKE THEIR DASH TO THE SEA.

LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, COMMANDER OF THE U.S.TENTH CROPS, FLEW INTO THE LITTLE EMERGENCY AIRSTRIP ON THE EDGE OF THE TOWN. HE CONFERRED WITH FRONT LINE OFFICERS.

ALLIED JETS AND PROPELLER-TYPE FIGHTER PLANES CAME DOWN TO DROP JELLIED GASOLINE AND BOMBS ON THE HILLS LESS THAN A MILE FROM THE AIRSTRIP.

TASK FORCE (400)

BY TOM BRADHASW

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 28-(DELAYED AND HEAVILY CENSORED). --(AP)--A TANK-LED ALLIED TASK FORCE CRASHED DOWN A COMMUNIST-HELD ROAD SUNDAY AND FOUGHT ITS WAY INTO BATTERED INJE, 4 1/2 MILES NORTH OF PARLLEL 38.

STUBBORN RED TROOPS STOPPED THE FORCE TODAY IN THE HILLS NORTHEAST O THE TOWN.

TO PAVE THE WAY FOR THE FORCE, COMBAT ENGINEERS BUILT A PONTOON BRIDGE UNDER FIRE ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER.

ON THE WAY TO INJE, TWO TANKS AND FOUR VEHICLES WENT OVER THE SIDE OF THE TORTUOUS MOUNTAIN ROAD. TWO MEN WERE KILLED AND SEVEN INJURED.

SLOWLY THE LONG CONVOY WOUND INTO THE TOWN. COMMUNIST FIRE WAS HEAV BUT RELATIVELY FEW CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED UNTIL INJE WAS REACHED.

IT WAS A LONG, ROUGH JOURNEY, FILLED WITH THE HORRORS OF WAR.

THERE WERE THE CHINESE DEAD COVERING THE ROAD, AND A DULL CRUNCHING OF HUMAN BONES AS THE VEHICLES GROUND OVER THEM.

THERE WAS THE UNGODLY SMELL OF DEAD FLESH, AND THE LONG WAITS IN THE DARKNESS, NOT KNOWING WHEN OR WHERE THE REDS MIGHT STRIKE.

THE ALLIED SOLDIERS FOUND INJE A LEVELED AREA OF MUD HUTS. ALONG THE STREETS LAY THE BODIES OF CHINESE SOLDIERS, SO BATTERED BY PASSING VEHICLES THAT THEY COULD HARDLY BE RECOGNIZED AS HUMAN BEINGS.

THE SMELL OF DEAD SOLDIERS AND PACK ANIMALS SO COVERED THE AREA THAT IT WAS HARD TO EAT.

INJE WAS SECURED 24 HOURS AFTER THE OPERATION BEGAN.

BUT WHILE THE TOWN WAS CONSIDERED TO BE IN ALLIED HANDS, THE HILLS AROUND IT WERE FULL OF COMMUNISTS. THEY SPRAYED THE TASK FORCE WITH HEAVY MACHINEGUN, AUTOMATIC WEAPONS AND MORTAR FIRE.

WITH INJE SECURED, THE LONG TASK FORCE CRAWLED AHEAD.
BUT THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS SPIKED THE ALLIED EFFORT.
GROUPS OF RETREATING REDS, APPARENTLY REALIZING THE DIRECTION AND AIM OF THE MOVE, DUG IN ON A HILL NORTHEAST OF INJE AND RESISTED EVERY EFFORT THE TASK FORCE MADE TO CRASH THEIR LINES.
ALLIED FIGHTER-BOMBERS POUNDED THE HILLS WITH JELLIED GASOLINE, ROCKETS AND MACHINEGUN FIRE.
BUT EVERY TIME THE AMERICAN GUNS STOPPED FIRING, THE REDS BEGAN AGAIN, INFLICTING MORE DAMAGE ON THE SORELY DEPLETED TASK FORCE.

WITH THE U.S. MARINES IN EAST-CENTRAL KOREA,MAY 29-(AP)-I HAD A CHINESE RED SOLDIER ON MY HANDS TODAY. I THOUGHT FOR A WHILE I WOULD HAVE TO TAKE HIM HOME WITH ME. ONLY BY SUBTERFUGE WAS I ABLE TO RID MYSELF OF HIM.
I FOUND HIM THIS MORNING. YOU MIGHT EVEN SAY I CAPTURED HIM.
THERE HE WAS COWERING IN THE BUSHES AS I WALKED BY. HE STOOD UP WITH HIS HANDS RAISED AND SMILED. I DIDN'T HAVE A GUN BUT HE DIDN'T EITHER. HE LOOKED LIKE HE WAS ABOUT 11 YEARS OLD, SO I FIGURED I COULD HANDLE HIM.
THERE WE WERE--A SCARED CHINESE AND A FRIGHTENED REPORTER, FACE TO FACE.
I MOTIONED TO HIM TO COME WITH ME AND HE PADDED ALONG SILENTLY, GRINNING LIKE MAD.
I TOOK HIM TO MY JEEP AND PUT HIM IN THE FRONT SEAT. I DIDN'T WANT HIM SITTING IN THE BACK.
ALL THE WHILE I WAS DRIVING, I KEPT ONE EYE ON JUNIOR AND THE OTHER ON THE ROAD. HE NEVER MADE A MOVE AND HE NEVER STOPPED GRINNING.
FIRST I STOPPED SOME MARINE INFANTRYMEN COMING DOWN THE ROAD.
"YOU WANT A PRISONER?" I ASKED.
"WHAT WOULD WE DO WITH HIM?" ONE ASKED. "YOU TAKE HIM BACK TO THE REAR."
SO I STARTED BACK TO THE REAR WITH MY GRINNING CAPTIVE. AT THE NEXT CROSS ROADS I MET AN MP (MILITARY POLICEMAN).
I STOPPED THE JEEP AND POINTED TO LAUGHING BOY:
"HERE'S A PRISONER FOR YOU."
"I DON'T WANT HIM," SAID THE MP. "TAKE HIM TO THE REAR. AND MOVE ON, YOU ARE BLOCKING TRAFFIC."
DOWN THE ROAD WE WENT--OLD HAPPINESS BOY AND HIS PRIVATE CHAUFFEUR.
AFTER ABOUT A MILE, I PASSED A PRISONER OF WAR (POW) PROCESSING POINT FOR A BATTALION.
I STOPPED THE JEEP, MOTIONED TO MY CAPTIVE TO WAIT, AND WENT INSIDE.
THERE WAS A CORPORAL SITTING ON A BOX. IN THE BACK WERE A BATCH OF FORLORN-LOOKING CHINESE IN ASSORTED UNIFORMS.
"I'VE GOT A PRISONER OUTSIDE IN THE JEEP, A BRAND NEW, FRESHLY CAUGHT CHINAMAN," I TOLD THE CORPORAL.
"WHO ARE YOU?" HE ASKED.
I TOLD HIM.
"WE ONLY PROCESS PRISONERS CAPTURED BY OUR OWN BATTALION. TAKE HIM BACK TO THE REAR," HE SAID.

A44FX
OUT IN THE JEEP, MY SMIRKING PASSENGER WAS STILL WAITING. HE SEEMED TO BE ENJOYING THE RIDE.
IT WAS BEGINNING TO LOOK LIKE I HAD ACQUIRED A PERMANENT PASSENGER. I TRIED ONE MORE MP, WITHOUT MUCH HOPE, AND HE MERELY POINTED AND SAID:
"TAKE HIM TO THE REAR."
YOU'VE GOT TO USE YOUR HEAD IN THESE SITUATIONS. A SHORT DISTANCE DOWN THE ROAD I PASSED A REGIMENTAL COMMAND POST. I DROVE RIGHT INSIDE.
THERE WAS A POW STOCKADE BUT I KNEW THEY WOULDN'T WANT JUNIOR.
SO I DROVE RIGHT UP TO THE S-2 (INTELLIGENCE) TENT. THE JOB OF THE INTELLIGENCE SECTION IS TO QUESTION PRISONERS OF WAR.
I MOTIONED TO THE LAUGHING LAD TO GET OUT OF THE JEEP AND FOLLOW ME. HE CAME ALONG QUIETLY.
I CIRCLED AROUND TO THE REAR OF THE TENT, LOOKED CAREFULLY IN ALL DIRECTIONS AND THEN OPENED THE FLAP AND SHOVED MY CAPTIVE, STILL GRINNING, INSIDE.
I HOPE THEY HAVE BETTER LUCK GETTING RID OF HIM THAN I DID.

TROOPS-NARCOTICS (280)

BY WILLIAM JORDEN

TOKYO,MAY 29-(AP)-WHILE UNITED NATIONS TROOPS BATTLE TO DESTROY THE COMMUNIST FORCES, ARMY MEDICS BEHIND THE LINES ARE WAGING A RELENTLESS FIGHT AGAINST DRUG ADDICTION.

THEY SAY THEY ARE WINNING.

THE MEDICAL AUTHORITIES DENY PUBLISHED STORIES THAT USE OF DRUGS HAS BECOME A MAJOR PROBLEM AMONG TROOPS IN JAPAN AND KOREA.

MAJ.GEN.EDGAR H.HUME, SURGEON GENERAL OF THE FAR EAST COMMAND, EXPRESSED SURPRISE WHEN INFORMED SUCH STORIES HAD BEEN CIRCULATED. "NO SUCH MAJOR PROBLEM EXISTS," HE SAID.

PROVOST MARSHAL STATISTICS SHOW DRUG VIOLATIONS FAR DOWN THE LIST OF VIOLATIONS FOR WHICH SOLDIERS ARE ARRESTED IN JAPAN. FOR EXAMPLE, BETWEEN OCT. 1, 1950, AND MARCH 1, THERE WERE 173 CASES INVOLVING POSSESSION OF NARCOTICS. THIS WAS 1.3 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL 12,828 ARRESTS OF MILITARY PERSONNEL IN THAT PERIOD.

HUME SAID ADMISSIONS TO ARMY HOSPITALS OF DRUG ADDICTS WERE "NORMAL AND ABOUT THE SAME AS EXPERIENCED IN ANY CIVILIAN HOSPITAL IN THE UNITED STATES."

THE FACT THAT THERE IS SOME USE OF DRUGS BY ALLIED SOLDIERS IS NOT CONSIDERED SURPRISING. THE FAR EAST HAS LONG BEEN NOTORIOUS FOR ITS WIDESPREAD USE OF OPIUM, HEROIN, COCAINE AND OTHER DRUGS. BUT ARMY CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION AGENTS, WORKING CLOSELY WITH KOREAN AND JAPANESE POLICE, SAY THEY HAVE SUCCEEDED IN CHOPPING OFF MAJOR SUPPLY CHANNELS TO U.N. TROOPS.

"FROM TIME IMMEMORIAL, THERE HAS BEEN DRUG ADDICTION IN THE ORIENT," ONE HIGH EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID. "THIS IS ESPECIALLY TRUE IN PORT CITIES, AND ANYONE IS SUSCEPTIBLE.

"BUT I CAN TELL YOU THERE IS LESS DRUG ADDICTION HERE (IN KOREA) THAN IN ANY OTHER PLACE IN THIS PART OF THE WORLD.

"AND MOST IMPORTANT, DRUG ADDICTION AMONG UNITED NATIONS FORCES IS PRACTICALLY NIL."

HUME SAID THE LAST SIGNIFICANT DRUG PROBLEM INVOLVING AMERICAN SOLDIERS THAT HE KNEW OF BROUGHT THE CONVICTION OF THREE GIS IN KOBE MORE THAN A YEAR AGO.

SINCE THE KOREAN WAR BEGAN, U.S. ARMY AGENTS AND THE JAPANESE AUTHORITIES HAVE INCREASED THEIR VIGILANCE. THE WAR ITSELF HELPED CONTROL IN CHINA AND NORTH KOREA FROM THE JAPAN TRAFFIC.

V

IN KOREA,SIMILAR DRIVES HAVE BEEN CARRIED OUT.

"DOPE USED TO BE OBTAINABLE FROM ANY STREET PEDDLER OR IN HOUSES WHERE ONE COULD BUY ANY KIND OF NARCOTIC HE WANTED," AN EIGHTH ARMY NARCOTIC CONTROL OFFICER SAID. "BUT WE HAVE SOUGHT OUT AND DESTROYED THESE SOURCES. AND THE DOPE HOUSES HAVE BEEN FORCED TO MOVE SO FAST AND FREQUENTLY THAT THEY HAVE LOST THEIR CONTACTS AND DISAPPEARED.

"IT'S NOW A MATTER OF UP-A-BACK-ALLEY DEALS."

AVAILABLE STATISTICS SHOW THE SUPPLIES OF NARCOTICS HAVE DECREASED BY 80 PER CENT SINCE SEPTEMBER.

A CONTRIBUTING FACTOR TO THE DECREASE IS THE TOUGH ATTITUDE TAKEN BY THE KOREAN GOVERNMENT TOWARD DRUG SELLERS.

"THE KOREAN GOVERNMENT MAKES A DISTINCTION BETWEEN SELLING NARCOTICS TO OTHER KOREANS AND TO U.N. SOLDIERS," AN AMERICAN OFFICER EXPLAINED. "THEY CONSIDER SELLING DRUGS TO U.N. SOLDIERS AS SABOTAGE AND THAT IS A TREASON CHARGE."

THE ARMY ITSELF DEALS HARSHLY WITH ANY SOLDIER CAUGHT USING, SELLING OR POSSESSING DRUGS.

A SURVEY OF DRUG CASES IN JAPAN SHOWS THE AVERAGE SENTENCE IMPOSED BY COURTS MARTIAL IN DRUG CASES IS A DISHONORABLE DISCHARGE, FORFEITURE OF ALL PAY AND ALLOWANCES AND CONFINEMENT AT HARD LABOR FOR 18 MONTHS.

SECOND LEAD RIDGWAY

TOKYO,WEDNESDAY,MAY 30-(AP)-GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY DECLARED TODAY ALLIED TROOPS HAD CAPTURED NEARLY 10,000 RED TROOPS SINCE APRIL 22 AND INFLICTED "A MAJOR, SEVERE DEFEAT" ON THE COMMUNISTS IN KOREA.

BUT THE SUPREME COMMANDER, JUST BACK FROM A VISIT TO THE FRONT, SAW NO END TO THE FIGHTING, SAYING:

"WITH THEM (THE COMMUNISTS) THERE IS NO COMPROMISE, AND FOR US THERE IS NO CHOICE."

RIDGWAY TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE IT WAS THE STAND OF THE U.S. SECOND INFANTRY DIVISION IN EAST CENTRAL KOREA THAT INFLICTED THE DEFEAT ON THE REDS. THE SECOND ONCE BEFORE SAVED THE EIGHTH ARMY FROM DISASTER IN NORTH KOREA BY A SIMILAR STAND.

"WE HAVE LEARNED FROM PRISONER OF WAR REPORTS," RIDGWAY SAID, "THAT DESERTION HAS BECOME A DEFINITE AND SERIOUS PROBLEM FOR THE COMMUNISTS WELL BACK INTO THEIR REAR AREAS."

THE SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER RETURNED TO TOKYO THIS AFTERNOON AFTER A TWO-DAY VISIT TO KOREA. HE IMMEDIATELY CALLED THE FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE SINCE HE REPLACED GENERAL MACARTHUR.
RIDGWAY SAID THAT DESPITE THEIR SEVERE LOSSES, THE COMMUNISTS STILL HAVE THE CAPACITY FOR OFFENSIVE ACTION. HE SAID THE REDS COULD EMPLOY FIVE CHINESE ARMIES "WHOSE EXACT STRENGTH WE DON'T KNOW."

A149FX MAY 30 1951
THE GENERAL SAID THERE WERE SEVERAL ROUTES COMMUNIST ARMIES COULD TAKE IN ANY FURTHER DRIVE SOUTHWARD. BUT HE SAID HISTORY AS WELL AS THE EXPERIENCE OF THE KOREAN WAR POINTED TO THREE LIKELY CHOICES:
1. ALONG THE CHORWON-SEOUL AND KUMHWA-SEOUL ROADS.
2. THROUGH THE VALLEYS TO THE EAST OF SEOUL.
3. AROUND THE EAST END OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR DOWN KOREA'S HILLY CENTRAL SPINE.

THE FIGHTING ALLIED COMMANDER, STILL WEARING COMBAT BOOTS AND FATIGUE PANTS AFTER HIS KOREAN TRIP, LEFT NO DOUBT HE FELT HIS ARMIES COULD AGAIN STOP ANY SUCH RED DRIVE.
RIDGWAY SAID THE COMMUNIST COMMANDERS' CONDUCT OF THE KOREAN WAR INDICATED TO HIM "THEIR UNCHANGING DETERMINATION TO CONTINUE THIS UTTERLY UNWARRANTED, WANTON USE OF ARMED FORCES TO ACHIEVE THEIR ENDS."
HE APPEARED TO HAVE NO REASON TO FORESEE ANY EARLY END TO THE KOREAN CONFLICT. THE ONLY POSSIBILITIES FOR AN END TO THE FIGHTING SEEMED TO BE FURTHER BATTERING INTO SUBMISSION OF THE RED ARMIES OR A CHANGE OF POLICY ON THE HIGHEST LEVEL OF COMMUNIST POWER -- IN PEIPING OR MOSCOW.
RIDGWAY SAID THE COMMUNISTS' CONDUCT OF THE KOREAN CAMPAIGN, WITH "CYNICAL DISREGARD FOR THE LIVES OF THEIR OWN MEN," GAVE THE WORLD A CLEAR VIEW "OF THE FATE THAT WOULD BEFALL US AND ALL OTHER FREE PEOPLES IF THEY ARE SUCCESSFUL."
"WITH THEM THERE IS NO COMPROMISE," HE SAID GRIMLY, "AND FOR US THERE IS NO CHOICE."

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, CALIF., MAY 29-(AP)-BRIG.GEN.LUTHER W. SWEETSER JR., ARRIVED TODAY FROM TOKYO, TIGHTLIPPED ABOUT HIS REMOVAL AS COMMANDER OF AN AIR FORCE LIGHT BOMBER WING.
HE WAS RELIEVED TWO WEEKS AGO.
THE STOCKY GLENDALE, CALIF., FLIER MERELY SMILED. HE TOLD REPORTERS HE HAD NOTHING TO SAY WHEN ASKED FOR COMMENT ON TODAY'S EXPLANATORY STATEMENT IN TOKYO BY LT.GEN.EARLE H.PARTRIDGE, ACTING COMMANDER OF THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES.
THAT STATEMENT SAID:
"GENERAL SWEETSER, AFTER A CONSIDERABLE PERIOD OF TIME, WAS UNABLE TO ACHIEVE THE MAXIMUM COMBAT POTENTIAL FROM HIS 452ND LIGHT BOMB WING.
"I FELT X X X THAT UNDER DIFFERENT LEADERSHIP, THE 452ND'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE AIR WAR IN KOREA WOULD BE SUBSTANTIALLY ENHANCED."
SWEETSER SAID THIS WAS THE FIRST HE HAD SEEN OR HEARD OF PARTRIDGE'S STATEMENT, ALTHOUGH THE LATTER HAD RELIEVED SWEETSER OF HIS COMMAND MAY 10--NEARLY THREE WEEKS AGO.
HE WAS SUCCEEDED BY COL.BROOKS A.LAWHON.
GEN.PARTRIDGE'S STATEMENT SAID THAT "SINCE THERE WAS NO OTHER POSITION IN THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES IN WHICH GEN.SWEETSER'S PARTICULAR ABILITIES AND RANK WERE REQUIRED HE HAS BEEN ROTATED TO THE UNITED STATES FOR FURTHER ASSIGNMENT."
THERE HAD BEEN REPORTS IN THE U.S.THAT THE GENERAL HAD BEEN RELIEVED BECAUSE HE HAD URGED CREW REPLACEMENTS AND BETTER LOGISTIC SUPPORT. AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS MADE NO COMMENT ON THIS.

PRECEDE TRAVIS AFB DAY JABARA
SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 29-(AP)-CAPT.JAMES JABARA, THE WORLD'S FIRST JET FIGHTER ACE WITH SIX RUSSIAN-MADE MIGS TO HIS CREDIT IN KOREA, SAID TODAY THE DAY OF THE AIR FORCE "GLAMOUR BOYS" IS OVER.
"THIS (AIR COMBAT) IS JUST A BUSINESS," JABARA TOLD REPORTERS WHO INTERVIEWED HIM AT BREAKFAST A FEW HOURS AFTER HIS RETURN BY PLANE. "IT'S WHAT WE'RE TRAINED FOR--JUST LIKE YOU MIGHT BE TRAINED FOR ANY BUSINESS."
THE 27-YEAR-OLD, FIVE FOOT, SIX-INCH AIR FORCE CAREER OFFICER WAS ORDERED BACK TO THIS COUNTRY FOR AN UNDISCLOSED ASSIGNMENT.
JABARA BECAME AN ACE FOR THE SECOND TIME ON MAY 20 WHEN HE SHOT DOWN HIS FIFTH AND SIXTH MIGS IN A BIG JET BATTLE IN KOREA. IN WORLD WAR II, FLYING PROPELLER-DRIVEN P-51S, HE ALSO ACHIEVED AN ACE'S RATING WITH 9 1/2 PLANES TO HIS CREDIT, INCLUDING 5 1/2 IN THE AIR. (HE SHARED ONE KILL WITH A COLLEAGUE.)
HE SAID JET PLANE FIGHTING IS TOUGHER THAN WORLD WAR II FIGHTING. "IT'S THEIR SPEED--IT KEEPS YOU TENSE, MORE ALERT."
HE CAST HIS PERSONAL VOTE FOR THE U.S. F-86 SABRE JET OVER THE MIG JET.
"THE MIGS ARE LIGHTER AND SMALLER--SOMETHING LIKE THE OLD 51S--AND THEY CLIMB FASTER. BUT THE F-86 IS BUILT RUGGED, BETTER IN A DIVE.
"WE USUALLY MEET AT ALTITUDE--ABOUT 35,000 FEET--AND END UP LOW, DOWN IN THE TREE TOPS.

30.24- 23519

"LONGEST JET FIGHT I WAS IN LASOED ABOUT 10 MINUTES. WE WENT ROUND AND ROUND, AND I JUST GOT A DAMAGE ON HIM. BUT THAT'S EXTRAORDINARY. MOST OF THE TIME IT'S TWO MINUTES. A HEAD-ON PASS LASTS ABOUT TWO, THREE SECONDS."

HE SPENT SIX MONTHS IN JAPAN AND KOREA AND FLEW 63 MISSIONS. TWO DAYS AFTER THE MAY 20 AIR BATTLE, HE WAS AWARDED THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS--THE SECOND HIGHEST HONOR THE NATION CAN GIVE ITS FIGHTING MEN.

JABARA (280)
BY WILLIAM J. WAUGH

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, CALIF., MAY 29-(AP)-CAPT. JAMES JABARA, THE WORLD'S FIRST JET ACE, ARRIVED FROM KOREA THIS MORNING AND FOR NEARLY FIVE MINUTES KISSED HIS PRETTY WIFE---TO THE DELIGHT OF PHOTOGRAPHERS.

OBVIOUSLY EXCITED, THE FIVE-FOOT, SIX-INCH CAPTAIN FROM WICHITA, KAS., SAID "I'M MORE NERVOUS TONIGHT" THAN WHEN DOGFIGHTING WITH MIG JETS OVER KOREA.

JABARA, THE TOP JET PILOT OF THE KOREAN WAR, WAS CREDITED WITH SIX RUSSIAN-MADE MIGS. IN WORLD WAR II HE SHOT DOWN 9 1/2 GERMAN PLANES. FIVE KILLS MAKE AN ACE.

JABARA, WHO FLEW F-86 SABRE JETS, ARRIVED AT 12:04 A.M.

MRS. JABARA, WHO CAME TO SAN FRANCISCO YESTERDAY FROM HER MCKINNEY, TEX., HOME WAS AT THE AIRFIELD A FULL HOUR BEFORE HER HUSBAND ARRIVED.

ASKED IF SHE OBJECTED TO HIS FLYING THE FAST JETS, SHE SAID:
"IF IT MAKES HIM HAPPY LET HIM FLY THEM."

AS THE PLANE ROLLED TO A HALT, SHE WAVED FRANTICALLY TO HER HUSBAND WHO GRINNED BROADLY AND WAVED FROM A WINDOW.

JABARA PLACED AN ORCHID LEI AROUND HIS WIFE'S NECK AND PASSIONATELY EMBRACED HER.

CAMERAMEN ASKED THEM TO REPEAT.

WITHOUT A WORD THE JABARAS AGAIN EMBRACED, FOR SEVERAL MINUTES.

ONE OF THE CAMERAMEN SHOUTED "PICK HER UP AGAIN."

JABARA LIFTED HIS WIFE INTO HIS ARMS AND STARTED TO WALK OFF.

A REPORTER TOLD MRS. JABARA SHE CERTAINLY WAS A GOOD SPORT.

"IT WAS A PLEASURE," SHE SAID WITH A SOFT TEXAS DRAWL.

THE JABARAS WILL STAY IN SAN FRANCISCO TWO DAYS. THEN THE CAPTAIN REPORTS FOR DUTY AT AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS IN THE PENTAGON, WASHINGTON, D.C.

HE TOLD THE OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB THAT U.S. TROOPS IN KOREA ARE AT "THE HIGHEST LEVEL OF PROFESSINALISM I HAVE EVER SEEN."

ON THE CONTRARY, MICHAELIS ADDED, CHINESE TROOPS FIGHT BECAUSE THEY ARE AFRAID NOT TO, AND HAVE TO BE TAKEN BACK TO MANCHURIA EVERY SO OFTEN FOR A NEW DOSE OF COMMUNIST INDOCTRINATION.

MICHAELIS SAID ONE OF THE REASONS THE U.N. STILL ISIN KOREA IS BECAUSE OF THE LATE GEN. WALTON H. WALKER'S FORESIGHT IN TRAINING THE EIGHTH ARMY BEFORE THE NORTH KOREAN INVASION.

WITH TEHRAN IRANIAN

(ADVANCE) LONDON, MAY 29-(AP)-BRITAIN PLEADED WITH IRAN TODAY TO NEGOTIATE THE TENSE IRANIAN OIL ISSUE IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF GOOD WILL, "TAKING FULL ACCOUNT OF THE DANGEROUS POTENTIALITIES OF THE PRESENT SITUATION."

THE BRITISH STATEMENT, DELIVERED BY FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, REJECTED ONE-SIDED IRANIAN ACTION IN NATIONALIZING THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, AND SAID BRITAIN IS READY TO ACCEPT SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION OF HER OIL INTERESTS IN IRAN.

THE BID TO TEHRAN CAME AS TENSION ROSE IN IRAN OVER THE OIL ISSUE. TANKS AND TROOPS POURED INTO TEHRAN AS IRAN'S GOVERNMENT BRACED FOR COMMUNIST-INSPIRED "ANTI-IMPERIALIST" DEMONSTRATIONS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

MOSCOW ISSUED ANOTHER PROPAGANDA BLAST ON THE ISSUE TODAY. ITS LITERARY GAZETTE CHARGED BRITAIN WITH TRYING TO BLACKMAIL IRAN AND FRIGHTEN THE IRANIANS WITH MILITARY FORCE.

MORRISON TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THAT BRITAIN'S AMBASSADOR, SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD, HAS INFORMED IRAN THAT BRITAIN IS READY FOR SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION OF IRANIAN OIL PROVIDED THE ACTION IS "SATISFACTORY IN OTHER RESPECTS."

HOWEVER, HE SAID, SO FAR THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT "HAS NOT SEEN FIT TO RESPOND IN ANY WAY TO (BRITAIN'S) REPEATED SUGGESTIONS OF NEGOTIATION." ON THE CONTRARY, HE SAID, IRAN HAS INDICATED SHE INTENDS TO GO AHEAD ON HER OWN WITH THE NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM.

BRITAIN'S GOVERNMENT CONTROLS THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY, SOLE EXPLOITER OF IRANIAN OIL. THE IRANIAN MAJLIS (PARLIAMENT) HAS PUSHED THROUGH A NATIONALIZATION LAW TAKING OVER THE BRITISH HOLDINGS.

MORRISON TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT COULD NOT ACCEPT A ONE-SIDED ACTION BY IRAN, WHOSE GOVERNMENT HAS INDICATED IT WOULD GO AHEAD ON ITS OWN WITH THE NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM. HE SAID BRITAIN IN PARTICULAR "NOTED WITH SATISFACTION THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAVE SPOKEN PUBLICLY AGAINST THE UNILATERAL CANCELLATION OF CONTRACTUAL RELATIONSHIPS AND ACTIONS OF A CONFISCATORY NATURE."

MORRISON'S PREPARED STATEMENT GAVE AN ACCOUNT OF THE DISPUTE WHICH FLARED AFTER THE MOSSADEGH GOVERNMENT BEGAN ITS CAMPAIGN TO TAKE

OVER BRITAIN'S BILLION-DOLLAR OIL COMPANY. THEN HE TOLD THE HOUSE THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT "EARNESTLY HOPES WISER COUNSELS, TAKING FULL ACCOUNT OF THE DANGEROUS POTENTIALITIES OF THE PRESENT SITUATION, WILL PREVAIL IN TEHRAN AND THAT NEGOTIATIONS CAN BE INITIATED IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF REASON AND GOOD WILL."

MOSCOW, MAY 29-(AP)-THE LITERARY GAZETTE TODAY MADE A BLISTERING ATTACK ON BRITAIN'S ROLE IN IRAN AND CHARGED THE BRITISH WITH TRYING TO "BLACKMAIL" THE IRANIANS IN THE CURRENT OIL NATIONALIZATION DISPUTE.

(THE SOVIET PRESS HAS BEEN CARRYING FREQUENT ATTACKS OF THIS SORT, OFTEN MENTIONING THE EXISTENCE OF THE 1921 RUSSIAN-IRANIAN TREATY WHICH GIVES THE RUSSIANS THE RIGHT TO INTERVENE IN IRAN IF SOVIET SECURITY IS CONSIDERED THREATENED.)

THE GAZETTE, LABELLING ITS ARTICLE AN ANSWER TO READERS' QUESTIONS, SAID BRITAIN WAS TRYING TO FRIGHTEN THE IRANIANS WITH MILITARY FORCE, AND IT MENTIONED THE ALERT ORDER GIVEN THE BRITISH 16TH PARACHUTE TROOP BRIGADE. IT WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE CONCESSIONS GRANTED TO BRITAIN IN 1933 TO EXPLOIT IRANIAN OIL WERE FORCED UPON IRAN AT A TIME WHEN THE SHAH WAS "HOPELESSLY MUDDLED AND IN DEBT."

IT ADDED THAT THE BRITISH, AT THE URGING OF WINSTON CHURCHILL AS FIRST LORD OF THE ADMIRALTY, BOUGHT CONTROLLING SHARES IN THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, THUS "TURNING THE COMPANY INTO A WEAPON OF IMPERIALIST POLICY."

IT SAID THAT THEREAFTER THE COMPANY RAN LOCAL GOVERNMENTS AND POLICE IN IRAN, "CONTROLLING THE LAND AND EVEN THE SKIES THROUGH WHICH PLANES FLY."

ANGLO-IRANIAN STOCKHOLDERS, IT SAID, MADE "UNHEARD OF PROFITS" WHICH PAID STOCKHOLDERS GENEROUSLY BUT LEFT "ONLY CRUMBS FROM THE MASTERS' TABLE" FOR THE IRANIANS.

THE ARTICLE ADDED THAT THE IRANIAN PEOPLE NOW DEMAND THAT IRANIAN OIL "SHALL NOT FALL INTO THE HANDS OF THE STILL MORE GREEDY ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE, THE AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS."

NIGHT LEAD IRAN

BY FRED ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 29-(AP)-COMMUNIST-FRONT DEMONSTRATORS, ESTIMATED AT 100,000, PARADED IN TEHRAN TONIGHT, RAISING CLENCHED FIST SALUTES, AND CHANTING "KICK BRITISH AND AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS OUT."

THE DEMONSTRATION, BIGGEST EVER STAGED BY LEFTISTS IN TEHRAN, WAS ORGANIZED ON THE 18TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SIGNING OF IRAN'S CONCESSION TO THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY (AIOC).

DESPITE THE OUTBURST, WITH ITS OVERTONES OF A POSSIBLE COMMUNIST COUP, THE FIRST OPTIMISTIC SIGN IN WEEKS CAME IN THE IPASSE OVER IRAN'S NATIONALIZATION OF THE B COUP, THE FIRST OPTIMISTIC SIGN IN WEEKS CAME IN THE IMPASSE OVER IRAN'S NATIONALIZATION OF THE BRITISH COMPANY.

PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, FATHER OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW, LEFT HIS BARRICADED OFFICE IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING AND HAD LUNCH WITH HENRY F.GRADY AND SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD, THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH AMBASSADORS.

IT WAS REPORTED LATER THAT MOSSADEGH TOLD GRADY AT THE LUNCHEON THAT IRAN DOES NOT INTEND TO SEIZE THE OIL PROPERTIES BY FORCE, BUT THAT HE INSISTED BRITAIN MUST TURN OVER THE AIOC HOLDINGS TO IRAN.

RELIABLE SOURCES SAID THE PREMIER SEEMED TO REGARD GRADY AS A "SAVIOUR" WHO COULD PERSUADE THE BRITISH TO SIGN OVER THE COMPANY'S HOLDINGS.

AN AIR OF PESSIMISM AMONG FOREIGN OBSERVERS FOLLOWED THE MEETING, EVEN THOUGH EARLIER THEY HAD CONSIDERED IT ENCOURAGING THAT MOSSADEGH RELENTED ENOUGH TO MEET THE TWO AMBASSADORS. ON OCCASION HE HAS EVEN REFUSED TO RECEIVE SIR FRANCIS, ALTHOUGH HE ADMITTED GRADY FOR A TALK YESTERDAY.

IT WAS THE SECOND TIME HE HAD LEFT HIS REFUGE AGAINST ALLEGED THREATS OF ASSASSINATION SINCE MAY 13. THE OTHER TIME WAS WHEN HE WANTED TO TAKE A BATH.

ON THE OTHER HAND, AFTERNOON NEWSPAPERS SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAS NAMED A THREE-MAN COMMITTEE TO GO TO SOUTHERN IRAN TO CARRY OUT THE NATIONALIZATION LAW.

THIS REPORT WAS ON THE EVE OF THE EXPIRATION OF AN ULTIMATUM FOR THE COMPANY TO SEND A REPRESENTATIVE TOMORROW TO DISCUSS HOW BRITISH INTEREST IN THE COMPANY WILL BE LIQUIDATED. THE COMPANY HAS PROMISED TO SEND ONLY AN OBSERVER TO THE MEETING.

(FOREIGN MINISTER HERBERT MORRISON TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BRITAIN HAS TAKEN "APPROPRIATE STEPS" TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY IN IRAN AGAINST ATTACK, SEIZURE OR SABOTAGE. HE DECLARED THE GOVERNMENT HAD "EVERY RIGHT AND INDEED THE DUTY" TO DO THAT. HE WAS ASSURED OF SUPPORT BY CONSERVATIVE LEADER WINSTON CHURCHILL. A BRITISH PARACHUTE BRIGADE HAS BEEN ORDERED TO CYPRUS, WITHIN 1,000 MILES FLYING DISTANCE OF THE OIL FIELDS.

(MORRISON SAID IRAN HAD BEEN INFORMED THAT BRITAIN WOULD AGREE TO SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION BUT "COULD NOT ACCEPT" A UNILATERAL CANCELLATION OF AIOC'S CONTRACT WITHOUT NEGOTIATION.

(BRITISH OIL EXPERTS WERE REPORTED WORKING ON A PLAN TO GIVE IRAN FORMAL OWNERSHIP OF AIOC'S ASSETS IN IRAN IN RETURN FOR COMPENSATION AND CONTINUED BRITISH CONTROL OF PRODUCTION AND MARKETING.

MAY 30 1951

A3.

(THE LITERARY GAZETTE, IN THE FIRST SOVIET PRESS REACTION SINCE THE DISPUTE HAS COME UP, GAVE FULL SUPPORT TO THE IRANIANS. IT DECLARED BRITAIN WAS TRYING TO BLACKMAIL IRAN BY AN APPEAL TO THE WORLD COURT AND TRYING TO FRIGHTEN HER WITH MILITARY FORCE.)

ARMY TRUCKS AND TANKS WITH HUNDREDS OF TROOPS WERE ON HAND TO ENFORCE ORDER AS THE LEFTISTS MOVED FROM SIDE STREETS TOWARD THE SQUARE IN FRONT OF THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING. TEHRAN MERCHANTS HAD THEIR WINDOWS BOARDED UP.

FEW FOREIGNERS WERE IN SIGHT, FOR WESTERN EMBASSIES HAD WARNED THEIR NATIONALS TO STAY OFF THE STREETS.

SOME OF THE MARCHERS CARRIED HAMMERS. ONE SIGN SHOWED A WORKER WITH A HAMMER SLAYING A TWO-HEADED SNAKE--THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN.

A MINIATURE OIL DERRICK ON A TRUCK LED THE MARCHERS.

DEMONSTRATION LEADERS AT A KICK-OFF RALLY DEMANDED THAT THE TUDEH (COMMUNIST) PARTY BE ALLOWED TO OPERATE FREELY. IT HAS BEEN OPERATING UNDERGROUND SINCE IT WAS OUTLAWED MORE THAN TWO YEARS AGO FOLLOWING AN ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE THE SHAH.

MOSSADEGH WAS REPORTED CONSIDERING REMOVING THE BAN ON THE PARTY ON THE THEORY THAT IT WOULD BE EASIER TO CONTROL IF IT IS IN THE OPEN. WESTERNERS, HOWEVER, FEARED HE HAD PLAYED INTO COMMUNIST HANDS BY HIS NATIONALISTIC ATTACKS ON THE OIL COMPANY WHICH HAVE AROUSED IRAN'S IMPOVERISHED 15,000,000 PEOPLE.

30.24- 23521

NOW SOME OBSERVERS QUESTION WHETHER HE IS ABLE TO CONTROL THE STORM HE HAS WHIPPED UP.

A NEW POLITICAL MOVEMENT CALLING ITSELF THE IRANIAN NATIONALIST PARTY DISTRIBUTED LEAFLETS CALLING FOR A BIGGER DEMONSTRATION THAN THAT OF THE LEFTISTS. IT PROMISED A "FIGHT UNTIL VICTORY OR DEATH" AGAINST BOTH COMMUNISTS AND "FOREIGN INTRIGUERS."

OTHER LEFTIST RALLIES WERE CALLED TODAY IN ABADAN, THE BIG REFINERY CITY; ISFAHAN, AN INDUSTRIAL CENTER; AND TABRIZ, CAPITAL OF AZERBAIJAN THE NORTHERN PROVINCE ONCE RULED BY A PUPPET COMMUNIST REGIME.

ABADAN, SCENE OF BLOODY RIOTS AND STRIKES LAST APRIL, WAS REPORTED UNEASY WITH SOME WORKERS AGAIN IN A MOOD FOR A WALKOUT. SOME OF THE OIL COMPANY'S WORKERS HAVE BEEN BOASTING THAT NEXT WEEK THEY WOULD BE TELLING THEIR BRITISH SUPERVISORS WHAT TO DO.

TH LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT VOTED TODAY TO EXTEND MARTIAL LAW IN THE OIL FIELD DISTRICTS. THE SENATE HAS YET TO ACT. MARTIAL LAW, DECLARED LAST APRIL, TECHNICALLY EXPIRED MAY 27, BUT THE TROOPS HAVE NOT BEEN WITHDRAWN.

THE OIL COMPANY ANNOUNCED IT HAD AUTHORIZED THE WIVES AND CHILDREN OF BRITISH AND PAKISTAN EMPLOYES TO LEAVE ABADAN AT COMPANY EXPENSE. SOME BRITISH TECHNICAL EMPLOYES WERE REPORTED RESIGNING BECAUSE OF THE UNSETTLED SITUATION.

BY FRED ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 29-(AP)-A DEMONSTRATION BY 50,000 PERSONS IN TEHRAN TODAY OPENED A COMMUNIST-FRONT BARRAGE AGAINST THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS KEYED TO THE EXPLOSIVE OIL ISSUE. TANKS AND TROOP-TRUCKS PATROLLED THE TENSE CAPITAL.

IT WAS THE BIGGEST COMMUNIST-FRONT DEMONSTRATION THUS FAR IN TEHRAN, AND IT WAS THE SIGNAL FOR OTHER DEMONSTRATIONS PLANNED AT KEY POINTS THROUGHOUT IRAN, CALLED BY THE COMMUNIST TUDEH PARTY AS A PROTEST AGAINST "BRITISH-AMERICAN IMPERIALISM."

TEHRAN NEWSPAPERS REPORTED THE GOVERNMENT NAMED A THREE-MAN COMMITTEE TO GO TO KHUZISTAN, SITE OF BRITISH OIL OPERATIONS IN SOUTHWEST IRAN, AND "IMPLEMENT" THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW RECENTLY PASSED BY PARLIAMENT. THE NEWSPAPERS SAID THE IRANIAN MINISTER OF ECONOMY WILL BE KHUZISTAN'S PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR.

(DISPATCHES THUS FAR RECEIVED DID NOT MAKE CLEAR WHAT THE COMMITTEE'S INSTRUCTIONS WOULD BE, BUT IT SEEMED LIKELY THIS WAS A STEP IN FORMALLY TAKING OVER THE HOLDINGS OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.)

THE LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT, MEETING WHILE THE DEMONSTRATORS GATHERED, VOTED TO EXTEND IRAN'S MARTIAL LAW TO SEVEN POINTS IN KHUZISTAN PROVINCE, WHERE THE OIL INDUSTRY IS CENTERED. HOWEVER, ARMY UNITS ORDERED INTO THE AREA AT THE TIME OF THE APRIL RIOTS AGAINST THE BRITISH NEVER HAVE BEEN WITHDRAWN. THE PRIOR MARTIAL LAW DECLARATION, WHICH THEORETICALLY EXPIRED SUNDAY, STILL WAS BEING ENFORCED THERE.

THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, CHIEF TARGET OF THE DEMONSTRATORS, ANNOUNCED IT WAS AUTHORIZING THE WIVES AND CHILDREN OF ITS BRITISH, PAKISTANI AND INDIAN EMPLOYES TO QUIT ABADAN, THE OIL PORT, "ON LEAVE" AT COMPANY EXPENSE. HOLDINGS OF THE COMPANY, CONTROLLED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, ARE MARKED FOR NATIONALIZATION BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT.

N.R.SEDDON, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE COMPANY IN IRAN, WAS TO SEE THE IRANIAN MINISTER OF FINANCE TOMORROW -- THE DEADLINE OF AN ULTIMATUM TO THE COMPANY TO CONFER WITH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT ON HOW THE LIQUIDATION OF THE FIRM'S HOLDINGS WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED.

U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY ARRANGED A LUNCHEON MEETING, MEANWHILE, WITH SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD, THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR, AND F.MOHAMME MOSSADEGH, IRAN'S NATIONALIST PREMIER WHO HAS SPARKED THE NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM. THIS MEETING WAS TO BE THE FIRST MEETING OF THE THREE TOGETHER, AND IN VIEW OF GRADY'S OFFER TO MEDIATE THE DISPUTE, WAS LOOKED UPON BY SOME AS AN OPTIMISTIC SIGN THAT INFORMAL TALKS COULD WIDEN INTO FORMAL NEGOTIATIONS.

(IN LONDON, FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON IMPLORED THE IRANIANS TO CONSIDER THE DANGEROUS POTENTIALITIES OF THE SITUATION AND NEGOTIATE IN AN ATMOSPHERE OF GOOD WILL. HE EXPRESSED BRITISH WILLINGNESS, UNDER CERTAIN UNSPECIFIED CONDITIONS, TO ACCEPT SOME FORM OF NATIONALIZATION OF THE BRITISH OIL HOLDINGS.)

THE TUDEH PARTY, BENT ON ITS BIGGEST DEMONSTRATION SINCE IT WAS OUTLAWED AND FORCED UNDERGROUND IN 1949, PEGGED TODAY'S TURNOUTS TO THE 18TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SIGNING BY BRITAIN AND IRAN OF THE 60-YEAR OIL CONCESSION ALLOWING THE BRITISH TO BE THE SOLE EXPLOITERS OF IRAN'S RICH OIL DEPOSITS. PARLIAMENT, IN A WAVE OF NATIONALIST FERVOR, VOTED A MONTH AGO TO END THE CONCESSION.

AUTOMOBILES EQUIPPED WITH LOUD SPEAKERS TOURED TEHRAN'S STREETS URGING THE PEOPLE TO TURN OUT FOR THE RALLY TO HEAR FLAMING ANTI-AMERICAN AND ANTI-BRITISH SPEECHES IN FRONT OF THE TWO EMBASSIES. THE SPEAKERS ALSO MADE A BIG POINT OF THEIR DEMAND THAT THE TUDEH PARTY AGAIN BE ALLOWED TO OPERATE OPENLY AND FREELY.

THE TUDEH PARTY SET RALLIES ALSO FOR THE PERSIAN GULF PORT OF ABADAN, FOR ISFAHAN, AN INDUSTRIAL CENTER, AND FOR TABRIZ, CAPITAL OF THE NORTHWESTERN PROVINCE OF AZERBAIJAN ON RUSSIA'S BORDER WHICH, FIVE YEARS AGO, WAS HELD FOR A TIME BY COMMUNIST SEPARATISTS. THE SPONSORING GROUP FOR THE RALLIES IS THE SOCIETY TO FIGHT IMPERIALISTIC OIL COMPANIES IN IRAN (CAPS S, F, I, O, C, I), WHICH OBSERVERS SAY IS THE TUDEH PARTY'S FRONT.

THE DEMONSTRATIONS WERE ADVERTISED AS PLANNED TO LAST THREE WEEKS.

MEANWHILE THE BRITISH-IRANIAN OIL DISPUTE REMAINED DEADLOCKED FOLLOWING IRAN'S FLAT REJECTION YESTERDAY OF STEPS BY BRITAIN TO TAKE THE CASE TO THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE (WORLD COURT) AT THE HAGUE.

U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F. GRADY VISITED FIERY NATIONALIST PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH FOR MORE THAN AN HOUR YESTERDAY AT THE PREMIER'S REQUEST. GRADY LATER CONFERRED WITH SIR FRANCIS M. SHEPHERD, BRITISH AMBASSADOR. THERE WAS SPECULATION THAT MOSSADEGH WAS TRYING TO PRESS GRADY INTO THE ROLE OF UNOFFICIAL NEGOTIATOR BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND BRITAIN--BUT WITH THE STUBBORN STAND THAT ANY SETTLEMENT MUST BE ON MOSSADEGH'S TERMS.

SO FAR, THESE TERMS HAVE MEANT CARRYING OUT THE NATIONALIZATION LAW AS IT STANDS WITH ALL OIL REVENUES GOING TO IRAN, AND WITH POSSIBLY SOME OF THE PRESENT EMPLOYES BEING RETAINED TO HELP RUN THE COMPANY.

TODAY MOSSADEGH ACCEPTED AN INVITATION TO LUNCH AT THE U.S. EMBASSY WITH GRADY AND SHEPHERD. THIS WAS VIEWED AS A POSSIBLE OPPORTUNITY TO EASE THE TENSION.

BELFAST, NORTHERN IRELAND, MAY 29-(AP)-THIRTEEN MEN SUSPECTED OF BEING MEMBERS OF THE UNDERGROUND IRISH REPUBLICAN ARMY (IRA) WERE ROUNDED UP IN PREDAWN POLICE RAIDS TODAY AS A PRECAUTION AGAINST VIOLENCE WHEN KING GEORGE VI VISITS BELFAST THIS WEEKEND.
THE MEN WERE ARRESTED UNDER A "SPECIAL POWERS ACT" WHICH PERMITS THEM TO BE HELD UNTIL AFTER THE ROYAL VISITORS HAVE SAFELY COME AND GONE.
SIMILAR ACTION, INVOLVING A SMALLER NUMBER OF MEN, WAS TAKEN LAST YEAR WHEN QUEEN ELIZABETH VISITED BELFAST.
THE IRA IS A MILITANT GROUP WHICH IN THE PAST HAS STAGED REBELLIONS AND HAS BEEN BLAMED FOR CAMPAIGNS OF SPORADIC BOMBING AGAINST BRITISH INSTALLATIONS.
IT WAS UNCERTAIN THE KING WOULD BE ABLE TO GO AHEAD WITH HIS VISIT. HE IS ILL WITH INFLUENZA AND ALREADY HAS CANCELLED PLANS TO ATTEND THE DERBY, BRITAIN'S PREMIER HORSE RACE, TOMORROW. HIS DOCTORS DECLINED TO SPECULATE WHETHER HE WOULD RECOVER SUFFICIENTLY TO GO THROUGH WITH THE BELFAST VISIT.
THE IRA IS BACKING A CAMPAIGN TO UNITE PROTESTANT NORTHERN IRELAND --WHICH IS PART OF THE UNITED KINGDOM--WITH THE PREDOMINANTLY ROMAN CATHOLIC IRISH REPUBLIC. IT WAS SUSPECTED OF THROWING A SMALL BOMB IN THE BRITISH EMBASSY IN DUBLIN LAST WEEK. A PAINT CAN FULL OF GASOLINE ALSO WAS FOUND LAST NIGHT NEAR A POLICE STATION HERE BUT POLICE SAID THEY ATTACHED "NO SIGNIFICANCE" TO IT.

WEST LEAD SAAR

BONN, GERMANY, MAY 29-(AP)-THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT TODAY COMPLAINED TO THE WESTERN ALLIES AGAINST FRENCH ACTIONS IN THE COAL-RICH SAAR.

A PROTEST NOTE WAS SENT TO THE ALLIED HIGH COMMISSION ON THE EVE OF AN IMPORTANT PARLIAMENT DEBATE ON THE SAAR QUESTION.

THE NOTE, INFORMED SOURCES SAID, REMINDED THE ALLIES OF THEIR PROMISE THAT THE SAAR'S FINAL STATUS WOULD NOT BE DECIDED UNTIL A PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY IS WORKED OUT.

THE 900-SQUARE-MILE SAAR BASIN IS FRENCH-OCCUPIED AND THE PRODUCTS OF ITS STEEL MILLS AND COAL MINES GO TO FRANCE FOR 50 YEARS THROUGH ECONOMIC AGREEMENTS CONCLUDED LAST YEAR WITH THE SAAR GOVERNMENT.

A RECENT BAN ON THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN THE REGION FANNED INTO NEW FLAMES SMOLDERING GERMAN RESENTMENT OVER CONTINUED FRENCH CONTROL OF THE AREA.

PARLIAMENT WILL DEBATE TOMORROW A SERIES OF MOTIONS ACCUSING THE FRENCH OF USING "POLICE STATE METHODS" TO CRUSH THE "BACK TO GERMANY" MOVEMENT IN THE SAAR.

THE SOCIALIST OPPOSITION HAS DEMANDED GOVERNMENT ACTION TO HALT WHAT IT CALLS FRENCH ATTEMPTS TO ALIENATE THE SAARLANDERS FROM GERMANY.

BY GEORGE BOULTWOOD
(ADVANCE) BONN, GERMANY, MAY 29-(AP)-CHARGES THAT THE FRENCH HAVE USED "POLICE STATE METHODS" TO CRUSH A BACK-TO-GERMANY MOVEMENT IN THE SAAR WILL BE AIRED HERE TOMORROW IN WHAT IS EXPECTED TO BE A HEATED PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE.
GOVERNMENT AND OPPOSITION PARTIES WILL BRING BEFORE THE WEST GERMAN BUNDESTAG (LOWER HOUSE) A SERIES OF RESOLUTIONS DEMANDING ACTION BY THE GOVERNMENT TO STOP "THE ALIENATION OF THE SAAR PEOPLE FROM GERMANY."

MAY 30 1951

THUS THE SAAR QUESTION HAS CROPPED UP AGAIN TO OUR RELATIONS BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY, JUST WHEN THE LONG SOUGHT RAPPROCHEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES SEEMED CLOSER THAN EVER BEFORE.
THE 900 SQUARE MILE COAL-RICH SAAR TERRITORY IS FRENCH-OCCUPIED, AND PRODUCTS OF ITS STEEL MILLS AND MINES WILL GO TO FRANCE FOR 50 YEARS THROUGH AGREEMENTS CONCLUDED LAST YEAR.
THE TERRITORY AND ITS POPULATION OF NEARLY 1,000,000 (M) HAVE CHANGED HANDS BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY SEVERAL TIMES. IN 1935 THE INHABITANTS VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY TO GO BACK TO HITLER'S REICH. THE FIRST POSTWAR ELECTIONS IN 1947 PUT INTO POWER PARTIES FAVORING ECONOMIC TIES WITH FRANCE.
THE PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE WAS ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED FOR LAST MONTH BUT WAS POSTPONED SO AS NOT TO DISTURB THE ATMOSPHERE OF CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER'S FIRST VISIT TO PARIS.
SINCE THEN THE SAAR REGIME HAS BANNED THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND FANNED GERMAN ANGER ANEW. POLITICIANS OF ALL COMPLEXIONS HAVE HARPED ON THE THEME "THE SAAR IS GERMAN AND MUST REMAIN GERMAN."
THE ALLIES HAVE DECLARED THAT THE FINAL STATUS OF THE SAAR CAN ONLY BE DECIDED BY A PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY. BUT THE BONN REGIME CLAIMS THAT SUCH FRENCH ACTIONS AS SPONSORING THE SEPARATE ADMISSION OF THE SAAR TO THE EUROPEAN ASSEMBLY ARE AIMED AT PREJUDICING THE DECISION IN FAVOR OF THE FRENCH.
THE FRENCH ANSWERED, IN A LETTER FROM FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN TO SAAR MINISTER-PRESIDENT JOHANNES HOFFMANN, THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY REPRESENTED ELEMENTS WHO WERE WORKING AGAINST THE AUTONOMOUS SAAR REGIME, ENDANGERING PUBLIC ORDER AND DISTURBING FRENCH-GERMAN RELATIONS.
THIS INTERVENTION BY THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER UPSET THE GERMANS STILL MORE.
THE ADENAUER GOVERNMENT IS TRYING TO PURSUE A MIDDLE COURSE OF STICKING UP FOR GERMAN INTERESTS IN THE SAAR WHILE AVOIDING ANY ACTION THAT WOULD RUFFLE FRENCH-GERMAN RELATIONS.
GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAVE DECLARED HOPEFULLY THAT THE DISPUTE WILL NOT AFFECT EARLY RATIFICATION OF THE SCHUMAN PLAN.
BUT THE SOCIALIST OPPOSITION, HEADED BY VIOLENTLY OUTSPOKEN KURT SCHUMACHER, WILL HAVE NONE OF THIS MODERATION. SCHUMACHER REJECTED AN APPEAL BY ADENAUER FOR KID-GLOVE HANDLING OF THE QUESTION TOMORROW OTHER SOCIALISTS ARE OUT TO KILL THE SCHUMAN PLAN IF THEY CAN, AND THEY SEE THE SAAR DEBATE AS A MEANS OF WHIPPING UP OPPOSITION TO THE COAL-STEEL POOL.
WHILE ADENAUER IS EXPECTED TO MAKE A COMPARATIVELY MILD STATEMENT ON BEHALF OF THE GOVERNMENT, THE SOCIALISTS AND RIGHTWINGERS ARE SURE TO PROMOTE ACRIMONIOUS AND STRONGLY NATIONALISTIC VIEWS.

ROME, MAY 29-(AP)-ITALIAN NEWSPAPERS TODAY CARRIED A STORY OF A RUSSIAN WOMAN WHO, THEY SAID, LEAPED FROM A MOVING TRAIN TO FREEDOM RATHER THAN GO BACK TO THE SOVIET UNION.
THE NEWSPAPERS DESCRIBED ANNA POLONSKA, 45, AS THE KASENKINA OF ITALY, COMPARING HER LEAP WITH THAT OF OKSANA STEPANOVA KASENKINA, WHO JUMPED FROM A SOVIET CONSULATE WINDOW IN NEW YORK TO ESCAPE THE RUSSIANS.
THE NEWSPAPERS GAVE THIS ACCOUNT:
MRS.POLONSKA AND HER PEASANT HUSBAND, NIKOFOR, HAD BEEN SHIFTED FROM ONE REFUGEE CAMP TO ANOTHER AFTER THE WAR, FINALLY WINDING UP AT THE ST.ANTONIO CAMP NEAR SALERNO. AFTER MANY MONTHS SHE BECAME HOMESICK FOR HER RELATIVES IN ROSTOV ON THE DON, AND SPOKE OF RETURNING. HER HUSBAND TRIED TO TALK HER OUT OF IT, BUT SHE MADE ARRANGEMENTS TO RETURN AS A VOLUNTARY REPATRIATE.
RUSSIAN EMBASSY OFFICIALS IN ROME PREPARED THE DOCUMENTS. ON MAY 20 SHE WAS TAKEN TO A RAILROAD TRAIN AND SOON DISCOVERED SHE WAS UNDER GUARD. THE GUARDS BEGAN TO QUESTION HER CLOSELY AND SHE BECAME TERRIFIED OF WHAT HER FATE MIGHT BE BACK IN RUSSIA. SUDDENLY SHE JUMPED FROM THE TRAIN.
SHE WAS UNINJURED IN THE LEAP. ITALIAN POLICE HELD HER FOR SEVERAL DAYS PENDING THE ARRIVAL OF DOCUMENTS WHICH WOULD PERMIT HER TO RETURN TO THE REFUGEE CAMP. SHE WAS SENT BACK TO SALERNO SUNDAY.
"HERE," SHE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING, "I AM AT LEAST FREE."

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, MAY 29-(AP)-YUGOSLAV DELEGATES HAVE FORCED INDEFINITE ADJOURNMENT OF A MEETING OF THE MOSCOW-RUN DANUBE RIVER CONTROL COMMISSION, A YUGOSLAV REPORT INDICATED TONIGHT.

THE COMMISSION, WHICH YUGOSLAVIA IS ATTENDING AS A FULL MEMBER, HAS BEEN MEETING AT GALATZ, ROUMNIA, SINCE MAY 23. REPORTS FROM ROMANIA HAVE INDICATED THAT ONE PURPOSE OF THE MEETING HAS BEEN TO EXTEND MOSCOW'S CONTROL OVER THE DANUBE, EUROPE'S LONGEST RIVER.

THE YUGOSLAVS HAVE OPPOSED ALL ATTEMPTS BY THE COMMISSION'S RUSSIAN SECRETARY AND THE PRO-MOSCOW STATES OF THE BALKANS TO RAILROAD THROUGH SHIPPING REGULATIONS WHICH MARSHAL TITO'S DELEGATES INSIST WOULD DAMAGE YUGOSLAVIA'S ECONOMY.

A GALATZ DISPATCH OF THE YUGOSLAV AGENCY TANJUG SAID INDEFINITE ADJOURNMENT OF THE COMMISSION WAS ORDERED AT YESTERDAY'S SESSION. THE CONFERENCE PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN ADJOURNED FROM FRIDAY TO MONDAY.

TANJUG SAID THE ADJOURNMENT WAS ORDERED "BECAUSE THE WORKING COMMITTEE DID NOT COMPLETE ITS STUDY OF THE DRAFT FOR GENERAL NAVIGATIONAL REGULATIONS."

THIS DRAFT, OFFERED BY THE RUSSIAN SECRETARY OF THE COMMISSION, WAS FIRST POINT OF THE AGENDA. LAST WEEK, THE YUGOSLAVS ACCUSED THE RUSSIAN SECRETARY OF TRYING TO RAILROAD THE DRAFT THROUGH WITHOUT CONSIDERING THE WISHES OF ANY OF THE BALKAN STATES.

Jerusalem, May 29-(a)-Foreign minister moshe sharett told the israeli knesset (parliament) tonight the united nation s security council esolution on the syrian-israeli dispute in the north was "morally harmful." The security council, acting after a series of armed border clashes between israeli and syrian troops on the northern frontier of isr ordered israel to stop portions of its drainage program in the huleh swamp area, focal point of the border dispute.

Sharett repeated that israel would abide by the security council decision, but he said that the sponsors of the resolution yielded to "aggression" and was seeking to appease it.

"Just as the policy of appeasement on an international scale did not bring about world peace, similarly the attempt to revive this poli in miniature in the middle east will not be able to create an atmosphere of compromise and will not bring about a desire on the part of the arabs for peace with israel," he said.

On the contrary, he told parliament, the resolution will "hinder peace between the arab world and israel and will also extend the area of controversy in the middle east."

He said the resolution resulted in a stiffened and dangerous attitude on behalf of the arab league, made up of seven arab neighbors of israel, and brought about "the largest troop movements that the middle east ever witnessed."

Sharett saidtension still exists on the syrian-israeli border, but he announced that israel is "firmly determined to bring the huleh reclamation project to a successful termination in spite of all difficulties and obstacles."

He added that israel hoped that the u.n. staff in the middle east could resolve the dispute soon so that the work could be resumed.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) TODAY URGED THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO TAKE ALL POSSIBLE ECONOMIC AND DIPLOMATIC STEPS TO KEEP BRITISH OFFICIALS FROM TURNING OVER 40 TRANSPORT PLANES TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

IN A LETTER TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, CAIN SAID:

"I HAVE READ WITH GREAT PERSONAL DISTRESS THE DECISION OF THE BRITISH AUTHORITIES IN HONG KONG TO TURN OVER TO THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME AIRPLANES BELONGING TO AN AMERICAN CITIZEN AND A VALIANT HERO OF WORLD WAR II, GENERAL CLAIRE CHENAULT.

UMT-DRAFT

BY JOE HALL

WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-ADVOCATES OF UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING WERE CONFIDENT TODAY THE NATION EVENTUALLY WILL GET A UMT PROGRAM OUT OF A COMPROMISE BILL AGREED UPON BY A SENATE-HOUSE COMMITTEE.

THE GROUP YESTERDAY WORKED OUT A DRAFT-UMT MEASURE UNDER WHICH CONGRESS HAS TO VOTE AGAIN ON SOME ASPECTS OF UMT BEFORE THE SIX-MONTH TRAINING PROGRAM COULD BE SET IN MOTION.

THE BILL ALSO WOULD EXTEND THE DRAFT LAW FOR FOUR YEARS AND LOWER THE INDUCTION AGE FROM 19 TO 18 1/2. THE PRESENT ACT EXPIRES JULY 9. THE NEW BILL SETS UP A 5,000,000 (M) MANPOWER CEILING ON THE ARMED FORCES, EXCLUSIVE OF THE COAST GUARD.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE SAID HE WAS CONFIDENT CONGRESS WILL APPROVE THE THREE MATTERS WHICH IT MUST PASS ON BEFORE UMT CAN BEGIN TO OPERATE.

CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE SAID THE MACHINERY FOR UMT SHOULD BE ALL READY BY THE END OF THIS YEAR.

HOWEVER, NONE OF THE LAWMAKERS EXPECT THE PRESIDENT OR DEFENSE DEPARTMENT TO TRY TO PUT THE TRAINING PROGRAM INTO EFFECT UNTIL AFTER THE KOREAN WAR, WHICH BROUGHT ON THE PRESENT EMERGENCY CALL-UP, ENDS.

THE SENATE PROBABLY WILL TAKE UP THE COMPROMISE BILL THURSDAY OR FRIDAY. THE HOUSE MAY ACT NEXT WEEK.

THE UMT ISSUE WAS THE PRINCIPAL POINT IN DISPUTE LEFT FOR THE CONFEREES YESTERDAY. THEY HAD BEEN STRUGGLINGQWITH SOME 20 POINTS OF DISAGREEMENT SINCE APRIL 17.

THE COMPROMISE REQUIRES LATER CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL, NOT ON THE TRAINING PROGRAM ITSELF, BUT ON THREE POINTS CONNECTED WITH THE OPERATION OF UMT. NO YOUTH COULD BE TAKEN FOR TRAINING UNTIL CONGRESS APPROVES PROPOSALS ON:

1. A CODE OF CONDUCT. THIS INVOLVES A SYSTEM OF MILITARY JUSTICE APPLYING TO TRAINEES; IT WOULD BE MILDER THAN IN THE REGULAR ARMED SERVICES.
2. DEATH AND DISABILITY BENEFITS.
3. RECOMMENDATIONS DEALING WITH THE SAFETY, HEALTH, WELFARE AND MORALS OF THE TRAINEES.

ALL OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS WOULD COME FROM A FIVE-MEMBER COMMISSION NAMED BY THE PRESIDENT, WITH SENATE CONFIRMATION, TO EXERCISE GENERAL SUPERVISION OVER THE TRAINING. THREE COMMISSIONERS WOULD BE CIVILIANS, TWO ACTIVE OR RETIRED MILITARY MEN. ACTUAL OPERATION WOULD BE UNDER THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT.

RUSSELL, LONG A UMT ADVOCATE, SAID HE COULD NOT IMAGINE CONGRESS VOTING DOWN ANY OF THE THREE POINTS.

MAY 30 1951

A15WX

OTHER CONFEREES AGREED THAT ACCEPTANCE OF THE CONFERENCE REPORT WOULD BRING UMT CLOSER THAN EVER BEFORE IN U.S. HISTORY. IT HAS BEEN URGED MANY TIMES, BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND OTHERS, ALL THE WAY BACK TO PRESIDENT GEORGE WASHINGTON.

SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX), ONE OF THE CONFEREES AND A UMT BACKER, SAID THE COMPROMISE VERSION "GIVES THE UNITED STATES THE ASSURANCE OF A UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING PROGRAM BUT RETAINS CERTAIN CONTRESSIONAL CONTROLS."

THE CONFEREES ALSO:

1. AGREED THAT MEMBERS OF THE INACTIVE AND VOLUNTEER RESERVE WHO HAVE SERVED A YEAR IN WORLD WAR TWO MUST BE LET OUT AFTER 17 MONTHS

OF A SECOND TOUR OF DUTY. THIS MIGHT BRING EARLIER RELEASE FROM ACTIVE DUTY TO ABOUT 200,000 RESERVISTS.

THE PROVISION DOES NOT APPLY TO ORGANIZED RESERVISTS OR NATIONAL GUARDSMEN.

2. ACCEPTED A HOUSE AMENDMENT AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE TO REGULATE THE SALE OF LIQUOR AND BEER AT ANY MILITARY INSTALLATION.

THE COMPROMISE BILL EXTENDS TO 24 MONTHS THE PRESENT 21-MONTH PERIOD OF SERVICE REQUIRED FOR INDUCTEES.

FEW IF ANY YOUTHS OF 18 1/2 YEARS ARE LIKELY TO BE DRAFTED IN THE NEAR FUTURE; THE MEASURE PROVIDES THE 19 THROUGH 25 GROUP MUST BE EXHAUSTED FIRST.

A TRAINEE UNDER UMT COULD GET HIS INSTRUCTION EITHER FROM THE ARMY, AIR FORCE OR NAVY.

INDUCTION OF YOUTHS FOR TRAINING WOULD BE HANDLED BY LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS. THEY COULD BE CALLED AT 18 BUT COULD APPLY FOR DEFERMENTS JUST AS DO REGISTRANTS NOW. THE ELIGIBILITY OF DEFERRED TRAINEES COULD EXTEND BEYOND AGE 19 TO AS LATE AS 35.

THE TRAINEES WOULD BE PAID $30 A MONTH DURING THEIR SIX MONTHS IN CAMP. AT THE END OF THE PERIOD, THEY WOULD GO INTO THE RESERVES FOR SEVEN AND ONE-HALF YEARS.

IN THE COMPROMISE, THE SENATE ACCEPTED ALL OF THE HOUSE PROVISIONS DEALING WITH DEFERMENT OF HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE STUDENTS.

THUS THE MEASURE GIVES DEFERMENT TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS UNTIL THEY GRADUATE OR REACH AGE 20.

COLLEGE STUDENTS ORDERED TO REPORT FOR INDUCTION DURING AN ACADEMIC YEAR WOULD GET A MANDATORY DEFERMENT UNTIL THE END OF THAT YEAR. ANY FURTHER DEFERMENTS WOULD BE UP TO THEIR LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS, WHICH WOULD TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION THE STUDENTS' STANDING IN SCHOOL, THEIR GRADES IN THE SELECTIVE SERVICE TEST RECENTLY GIVEN COLLEGE STUDENTS, OR OTHER FACTORS. THE RESULTS OF THAT TEST WOULD NOT BE BINDING ON THE DRAFT BOARDS, BUT WOULD BE USED AS GUIDANCE IN CONSIDERING A STUDENT'S DEFERMENT.

THE CONFEREES DROPPED A SENATE PROVISION FOR SELECTION OF 75,000 HIGHLY-QUALIFIED STUDENTS IN THE NEXT THREE YEARS TO RETURN TO SCHOOL AFTER COMPLETION OF THEIR BASIC TRAINING.

WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION SAID TODAY PAYMENTS IN THE SECOND SPECIAL LIFE INSURANCE DIVIDEND FOR WORLD WAR II VETERANS, WHICH STARTED APRIL 23, NOW TOTAL $55,000,000.

THE AGENCY SAID ABOUT 675,000 CHECKS HAVE BEEN ISSUED.

THE DIVIDEND WILL TAKE A YEAR TO COMPLETE, SINCE PAYMENTS ARE MADE AFTER THE ANNIVERSARY DATE OF EACH POLICY. BECAUSE OF THE VAST AMOUNT OF ACCOUNTING REQUIRED IN THE 3,000 DIFFERENT RATES INVOLVED, THE TIME LAG BETWEEN ANNIVERSARY AND PAYMENT IS ABOUT FOUR MONTHS.

THE TOTAL DIVIDEND IS $685,000,000, FOR THE THREE YEARS BETWEEN THE 1948 AND THE 1951 ANNIVERSARY DATES. IT WILL BE PAID TO HOLDERS OF 8,200,000 POLICIES.

THE FIRST DIVIDEND ON NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE WAS PAAID LAST YEAR, FOR THE PERIOD FROM THE START OF THE PROGRAM IN OCTOBER, 1940, THROUGH THE 1948 ANNIVERSARY OF EACH POLICY. IT TOTALED $2,800,000,000(B), PAID TO MORE THAN 16,000,000 VETERANS.

SOME VETERANS HAVE COMPLAINED THAT PAYMENTS ON THE SECOND DIVIDEND HAVE NOT YET STARTED IN THEIR AREAS.

VA SAID THIS IS AN ERRONEOUS ASSUMPTION BASED ON RECOLLECTIONS OF THE FLOOD OF CHECKS IN THE INITIAL DIVIDEND. SINCE THE TIMETABLE FOR THE SECOND DIVIDEND IS GEARED TO THE POLICY ANNIVERSARY, EACH VETERAN CAN CALCULATE ROUGHLY THE DATE HIS OWN CHECK WILL ARRIVE.

NEWBURGH, N.Y., MAY 29-(AP)-NIGHT TRAINING IN PLANE SPOTTING WILL BE GIVEN TO 210,000 CIVILIAN VOLUNTEER MEMBERS OF THE GROUND OBSERVER CORPS IN A 36-HOUR EXERCISE SET TO START SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 23.

TWENTY-THREE STATES WILL PARTICIPATE.

ABOUT 8,000 OBSERVATION POSTS AND 26 FILTER CENTERS WILL BE MANNED IN THE NORTHEAST, GREAT LAKES AND WEST COAST REGIONS. U.S. AIR FORCE PLANES WILL MAKE SPECIAL FLIGHTS THROUGHOUT THESE AREAS.

THE NIGHT TRAINING, ORDERED BY THE AIR DEFENSE COMMAND, IS THE FIRST FOR THE OBSERVERS SINCE SEPTEMBER, 1949.

THE PLANS WERE ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT BY THE EASTERN AIR DEFENSE FORCE, WITH HEADQUARTERS AT STEWART AIR FORCE BASE HERE.

THE BASE HERE WILL DIRECT THE EXERCISE IN 18 STATES. THE WESTERN AIR DEFENSE FORCE, WITH HEADQUARTERS AT HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, SAN RAFAEL, CALIF., WILL DIRECT OPERATIONS IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON AND WASHINGTON STATE. THE NEWLY-ORGANIZED CENTRAL AIR DEFENSE FORCE WILL DIRECT THE EXERCISE IN MINNESOTA AND WISCONSIN FROM ITS HEADQUARTERS AT KANSAS CITY, MO.

THESE THREE FORCES OPERATE UNDER THE AIR DEFENSE COMMAND, WHICH WILL HAVE ALL-OVER DIRECTION FROM ITS HEADQUARTERS AT ENT AIR FORCE BASE, COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.

THE EXERCISE WILL PROVIDE EXPERIENCE FOR CIVILIAN VOLUNTEERS WHO HELP THE AIR DEFENSE COMMAND IN DETECTING AND REPORTING THE MOVEMENTS OF LOW-FLYING AIRCRAFT.

"OPERATION LOOKOUT," CONDUCTED BY THE CONTINENTAL AIR COMMAND IN SEPTEMBER, 1949, WAS THE LAST OPPORTUNITY GIVEN THE GROUND OBSERVERS TO SPOT AIRCRAFT AT NIGHT. THE EASTERN AND WESTERN AIR DEFENSE FORCES HAVE HELD SEVERAL EXERCISES IN RECENT MONTHS, BUT THEY WERE NOT HELD SIMULTANEOUSLY AND THEY DID NOT INCLUDE NIGHT OPERATIONS.

STATES TO PARTICIPATE IN THE EXERCISE ARE:
MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE, VERMONT, MASSACHUSETTS, CONNECTICUT, RHODE ISLAND, NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY, DELAWARE, PENNSYLVANIA, MARYLAND, WEST VIRGINIA, VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, OHIO, INDIANA, ILLINOIS, MICHIGAN, WISCONSIN, MINNESOTA, WASHINGTON, OREGON AND CALIFORNIA.
THE FILTER CENTERS TO PARTICIPATE ARE: BANGOR, ME.; MANCHESTER, N.H.; NEW HAVEN, CONN.; SYRACUSE, N.Y.; ALBANY, N.Y.; WHITE PLAINS, N.Y.; BUFFALO, N.Y.; TRENTON, N.J.; BALTIMORE, MD.; HARRISBURG, PA.; PITTSBURGH, PA.; RICHMOND, VA.; CANTON, OHIO; COLUMBUS, OHIO; GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.; SOUTH BEND, IND.; CHICAGO, ILL.; GREEN BAY, WISC.; MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.; SEATTLE, WASH.; SPOKANE, WASH.; PORTLAND, ORE.; OAKLAND, CALIF.; PASADENA, CALIF., AND SANTA ANA, CALIF.
OBSERVATION POSTS, ABOUT EIGHT MILES APART, ARE MANNED BY A MINIMUM OF 25 CIVILIAN VOLUNTEERS. FILTER CENTERS, LOCATED IN CITIE WITH GOOD TELEPHONE CONNECTIONS, ARE OPERATED WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE AIR FORCE BY GROUPS OF ABOUT 500 VOLUNTEERS EACH.
WHENEVER A PLANE IS SEEN OR HEARD IN THE VICINITY OF AN OBSERVATION POST, THE OBSERVERS TELEPHONE TO THEIR FILTER CENTER WITH ALL INFORMATION AVAILABLE. THIS INFORMATION, ALONG WITH DATA FROM OTHER OBSERVATION POSTS, IS PLOTTED ON A MAP. AFTER SCREENING (FILTERING), THE UCFORMATION IS RELAYED TO AN AIR FORCE GROUND CONTROL VNTERCEPT UNIT, WHERE AIRCRAFT ARE IDENTIFIED AS EITHER "FRIENDLY" OR "UNKN

CONTROL INTERCEPT UNIT, WHERE AIRCRAFT ARE IDENTIFIED AS EITHER "FRIENDLY" OR "UNKNOWN."
IF THE AIRCRAFT CANNOT BE IDENTIFIED, FIGHTER-INTERCEPTORS ARE SENT TO MAKE POSITIVE IDENTIFICATION.
THE VOLUNTEERS IN THE GROUND OBSERVER CORPS ARE MEMBERS OF THE CIVIL DEFENSE ORGANIZATIONS IN THE VARIOUS STATES. THE OBSERVER CORP: IS SPONSORED AND DIRECTED BY THE AIR FORCE.
THE TRAINING IN THE NORTHEAST IS SCHEDULED FROM 8 A.M. (EST) SATURDAY, JUNE 23, TO 5 P.M. (EST) SUNDAY, JUNE 24.
IN THE GREAT LAKES REGION IT WILL BE FROM 6 A.M. (EST) JUNE 23 TO 3 P.M. (EST) JUNE 24.

FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT (330)
WASHINGTON,MAY 29-(AP)-THE FEDERAL CIVILIAN PAYROLL NOW PROBABLY EXCEEDS THE $8,300,000,000 (B) ANNUAL RATE REACHED AT THE WORLD WAR II PEAK, A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE REPORTED TODAY.
THE GROUP IS THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON REDUCTION OF NONESSENTIAL EXPENDITURES HEADED BY SENATOR BYRD (D-VA).
IT SAID THE PAYROLL COST IN MARCH, LATEST MONTH FOR WHICH FIGURES ARE AVAILABLE, WAS $693,235,000 (M). THIS CONVERTS TO AN ANNUAL RATE OF $8,300,000,000 WHICH WAS THE ALL-TIME RECORD SET IN THE WAR.
THE GOVERNMENT CONTINUED TO ADD EMPLOYES AT A RATE OF 1,500 A DAY IN APRIL, INDICATING THAT THE COST HAS EXCEEDED THE RECORD BY NOW, THE COMMITTEE SAID.
ON MAY 1, THERE WERE 2,409,121 EMPLOYES ON THE FEDERAL PAYROLL AS COMPARED WITH AN AVERAGE OF ABOUT 3,500,000 AT THE PEAK IN WORLD WAR II
THE HIGHER COST IS EXPLAINED BY FEDERAL PAY RAISES SINCE 1945, THE BYRD COMMITTEE SAID.
THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT, SPURRED BY THE DEFENSE MOBILIZATION PROGRAM, ADDED 32,349 CIVILIANS IN APRIL, BRINGING ITS TOTAL TO 1,182,423 ON MAY 1.
MEANWHILE, SENATOR OLIN JOHNSTON (D-SC) ANNOUNCED HE WILL OFFER LEGISLATION WHICH HE SAID WOULD BLOCK PLANS TO HIRE 400,000 ADDITIONAL FEDERAL EMPLOYES.
HE TOLD A MEETING OF EMPLOYES OF THE BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY THAT THE AMENDMENT WOULD ESTABLISH AN ABSOLUTE CEILING OF 2,500,000 ON FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT.
JOHNSON SAID FEDERAL AGENCIES NOW EXPECT TO HAVE 2,900,000 EMPLOYES BY JUNE, 1952.
THE SENATOR IS CHAIRMAN OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMITTEE AND HEADS A SPECIAL SUBCOMMITTEE INVESTIGATING THE EFFECTIVE UTILIZATION OF MANPOWER BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH.
HE SAID THE CEILING SHOULD BE IN EFFECT UNTIL A STUDY HAS BEEN MADE OF RECENT FEDERAL MANPOWER PRACTICES, ESPECIALLY THOSE OF THE MILITARY SERVICES SINCE THE KOREAN WAR BEGAN.
DURING WORLD WAR II THERE WERE 2,600,000 CIVILIAN WORKERS TO SUPPORT 14,000,000 MEN IN UNIFORM, JOHNSTON SAID. BUT HE ADDED THAT THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE NOW WANT 1,600,000 CIVILIANS TO SUPPORT 3,500,000 OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN.
HIS AMENDMENT WOULD FIX A CEILING OF 1,250,000 CIVILIAN WORKERS FOR THE ARMED FORCES.

DEFENSE SHIPMENTS
WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-MOBILIZATION CHIEF CHARLES E.WILSON TODAY ORDERED DEFENSE AGENCIES TO PROVIDE FOR "ADEQUATE" SHIPMENTS OF SCARCE SUPPLIES TO NATIONS ALLIED AGAINST THE THREAT OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.
IN A FORMAL POLICY DECLARATION, WILSON ALSO CALLED FOR EFFORTS TO PROMOTE THE ADOPTION OF SIMILAR MEASURES BY THE OTHER FREE COUNTRIES.
MANDATORY MEANS, SUCH AS PRIORITIES AND DELIVERY DIRECTIVES TO AMERICAN PRODUCERS, SHOULD BE USED WHEN NECESSARY TO MAKE CERTAIN THAT FRIENDLY POWERS RECEIVE MATERIALS NEEDED TO SUPPORT THEIR DEFENSE PROGRAMS AND BASIC DOMESTIC ECONOMIES, WILSON SAID.
IN MAKING SUCH ALLOCATIONS, HE DIRECTED, ALL PRECAUTIONS MUST BE TAKEN "TO PREVENT SHIPMENT OR TRANSSHIPMENT TO THE SOVIET BLOC OF WAR-POTENTIAL MATERIALS AND PRODUCTS."
THE STATEMENT FOLLOWS COMPLAINTS IN SOME FOREIGN COUNTRIES, ESPECIALLY IN BRITAIN, THAT AMERICA'S "EXTRAVAGANT" BUYING AND CONSUMPTION OF STRATEGIC DEFENSE MATERIALS WAS CHOKING OFF SUPPLIES SERIOUSLY NEEDED BY NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY NATIONS AND OTHER FRIENDLY COUNTRIES. THERE ALSO WERE COMPLAINTS THAT THIS WAS BOOSTING PRICES TO A LEVEL WHICH WESTERN EUROPE COULD ILL AFFORD TO PAY.
THE POLICY WAS TENTATIVELY DRAFTED SHORTLY BEFORE WILSON'S VISIT LAST MONTH AND GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER IN PARIS AND EUROPEAN DEFENSE LEADERS THERE AND IN LONDON. PRESIDENT TRUMAN EMPOWERED WILSON TO CONVEY ITS PRINCIPLES ORALLY TO THE OFFICIALS WITH WHOM HE TALKED.
THE GOALS OF MUTUAL AID AND SELF HELP IN THE MILITARY AND ECONOMIC REARMAMENT CANNOT BE MET, WILSON DECLARED, IF FOREIGN BUYERS CANNOT GET DELIVERY "BECAUSE UNITED STATES SUPPLIERS PREFER TO SATISFY THEIR DOMESTIC CUSTOMERS." HE WENT ON:
"COMMERCIAL CHANNELS OF TRADE SHOULD NORMALLY BE USED, BUT EXPORTS SHOULD BE ASSURED BY PRIORITIES AND/OR DIRECTIVES TO PRODUCERS WHENEVER NECESSARY.
"WHEN SUCH ASSISTANCE TO EXPORTS IS THUS GIVEN, CARE SHOULD BE EXERCISED THAT CORRESPONDING ASSISTANCE FOR DOMESTIC ORDERS OF SIMILAR ESSENTIALITY IS EXTENDED, IF NECESSARY."
THE ODM DECLARATION, WHICH HAS MANDATORY FORCE ON THE AGENCIES ADMINISTERING THE MOBILIZATION PROGRAM, LAID DOWN "SPECIFIC GUIDES" IN THE ALLOCATION OF AMERICAN RESOURCES FOR FOREIGN NEEDS.
WHEN THERE ARE COMPETING DEMANDS OF "SIMILAR HIGH ESSENTIALITY" ALLOCATIONS POLICY SHOULD BE GUIDED BY THE DEGREE TO WHICH THEY WILL

ACHIEVE THESE RESULTS, IT WAS DECLARED:

1. MILITARY PRODUCTION OF THE FREE WORLD AND DIRECT SUPPORT FOR THE EXPANSION OF SUCH OUTPUT.

2. PROMOTION OF IMPROVED SUPPLY OF ALL DEFENSE MATERIALS, ESPECIALLY THOSE NEEDED FOR THE MOBILIZATION EFFORT AND STOCKPILING PROGRAMS OF THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES.

3. MAINTENANCE AND EXPANSION OF ESSENTIAL SERVICES, SUCH AS TRANSPORT, AND PLANT FACILITIES, AND THE MAINTENANCE OF "MINIMUM ESSENTIAL CIVILIAN CONSUMPTION" IN THE FREE COUNTRIES AND THE AREAS WHICH THEY CONTROL.

4. "DIRECT PROGRESS" TOWARD REDUCED FUTURE RELIANCE ON AMERICAN HELP.

5. LESSENED DEPENDENCE OF THE FREE COUNTRIES ON SUPPLIES FROM THE SOVIET SPHERE.

6. THE PREVENTION OF "POLITICAL DETERIORATION"--MEANING THE ENCROACHMENT OF COMMUNISM--IN AREAS ESSENTIAL TO THE COMBINED STRENGTH OF THE FREE WORLD.

(600) NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS-ROUNDUP

BY ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL TOLD CONGRESS TODAY THAT INFLATION IS COSTING AMERICAN TAXPAYERS ABOUT $7,000,000,000 (B) A YEAR IN THE PURCHASE OF MILITARY SUPPLIES.

"THE LOSS OF GUNS AND TANKS AND PLANES TO CREEPING INFLATION IS JUST AS DAMAGING AS IF THEY HAD BEEN DESTROYED OR CAPTURED BY AN UNSEEN ENEMY," HE SAID.

MARSHALL MADE THE STATEMENT IN BACKING THE ADMINISTRATION'S PLEA FOR A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION AND BROADENING OF THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT AS A CURB AGAINST INFLATION.

THE ACT, WHICH GOVERNS THE FEDERAL CONTROLS PROGRAM, IS DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30 UNLESS CONGRESS AGREES TO PROLONG ITS LIFE. NUMEROUS CRITICS HAVE BLASTED THE LEGISLATION AT CURRENT SENATE AND HOUSE HEARINGS. OTHERS HAVE JUST AS STAUNCHLY DEFENDED IT.

MARSHALL'S $7-BILLION ESTIMATE FOR THE COST OF INFLATION--COVERING THE 12 MONTHS ENDING JUNE 30--JUST ABOUT MATCHED THE PROPOSED BOOST IN TAXES DRAWN UP BY THE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

THE HOUSE GROUP, AFTER 16 WEEKS OF SCRAPING AROUND IN THE TAX BARREL, TENTATIVELY APPROVED A $7,100,000,000 HIKE LAST FRIDAY.

TESTIFYING BEFORE THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE, MARSHALL DECLARED: "APPROXIMATELY $7,000,000,000 OUT OF THE $35,000,000,000 AUTHORIZED FOR (MILITARY) PROCUREMENT AND CONSTRUCTION DURING FISCAL YEAR 1951 (ENDING JUNE 30) CAN BE REGARDED AS THE COST OF INFLATION."

WITHOUT ANTI-INFLATION CONTROLS, HE SAID, "OUR MOBILIZATION EFFORTS WILL LARGELY BE BLOCKED" AND "MUCH OF OUR INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH WILL BE DISSIPATED."

REPORTING THAT THE RATE OF MILITARY DELIVERIES HAS INCREASED ABOUT 300 PER CENT SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR LAST JUNE, MARSHALL WARNED THAT THE FULL IMPACT OF THE GOVERNMENT'S HUGE BUYING PROGRAM HAS NOT YET BEEN FELT.

IT WILL COME NEXT YEAR AND IN THE WINTER OF 1953, HE SAID.

A33WX

TO ILLUSTRATE HIS POINT, MARSHALL SAID DELIVERIES IN THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR WILL TOTAL ABOUT $19,000,000,000. IN FISCAL 1952, HE SAID, THEY WILL TOTAL OVER $38,000,000,000.

WHILE MARSHALL TESTIFIED, THERE WERE THESE OTHER DEVELOPMENTS ON THE MOBILIZATION-CONTROLS FRONT:

1. THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION AUTHORIZED INCREASES OF 17 TO 31 CENTS A BARREL FOR RESIDUAL FUEL OILS, ON THE ATLANTIC SEABOARD. THESE OILS ARE USED FOR INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES AND FOR HEATING SOME COMMERCIAL AND RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS.

THE ORDER MARKED THE FIRST TIME THAT DOLLARS-AND-CENTS CEILINGS HAVE BEEN SET ON ANY PETROLEUM PRODUCTS.

2. THE GOVERNMENT GAVE THE 300,000 MEAT MARKETS ACROSS THE COUNTRY A TWO-WEEK EXTENSION -- UNTIL JUNE 18 -- TO POST OFFICIAL RETAIL CEILING PRICE LISTS ON BEEF.

3. FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT MONTH, THE GOVERNMENT REPORTED THAT FARM PRICES ARE TAPERING OFF FROM THE RECORD PEAK IN FEBRUARY.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE REPORTED A DROP OF JUST OVER ONE PER CENT DURING THE MONTH ENDING MAY 15. BUT IT SAID FARM PRICES WERE STILL ABOUT 27 PER CENT HIGHER THAN A YEAR AGO.

4. PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE'S AGENCY REMOVED WHISKEY AND WINES FROM UNDER THE GENERAL PRICE FREEZE, ALLOWING SOME PRICE INCREASES BY PERMITTING THE ADDITION OF HIGHER COSTS OF PRODUCTION.

BUT OFFICIALS SAID HIGHER RETAIL PRICES WILL NOT APPEAR FOR SOME TIME. THAT IS BECAUSE THE NEW REGULATION APPLIES TO WHISKEY ON WHICH PRODUCTION IS BEING STARTED. MOST WHISKEY IS AGED TWO YEARS OR MORE BEFORE BEING SOLD.

5. MOBILIZATION CHIEF CHARLES E.WILSON ORDERED DEFENSE AGENCIES TO PROVIDE FOR "ADEQUATE" SHIPMENTS OF SCARCE SUPPLIES TO AMERICA'S ALLIES AGAINST THE THREAT OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

THE ORDER FOLLOWS COMPLAINTS FROM SOME FOREIGN COUNTRIES, ESPECIALLY BRITAIN, THAT AMERICA'S "EXTRAVAGANT" BUYING AND CONSUMPTION OF STRATEGIC DEFENSE MATERIALS WAS CHOKING OFF SUPPLIES NEEDED BY FRIENDLY COUNTRIES.

6. THE DRY GOODS INDUSTRY COMPLAINED TO THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT PRICE CONTROLS ON NON-ESSENTIAL ITEMS ARE "UNDESIRABLE AND WASTEFUL."

IRWIN D.WOLF OF PITTSBURGH, AN OFFICIAL OF THE NATIONAL RETAIL DRY GOODS ASSOCIATION, SAID IT IS LITTLE HELP IN THE BATTLE AGAINST INFLATION TO CLAMP DOWN PRICE CONTROLS OVER SUCH THINGS AS SILVER CANDLE SNUFFERS, SHARK HOOKS, AND GADGETS TO GUARD LADIES' GLOVES WHILE THEY ARE PLAYING CARDS.

THE EXTENSION DOES NOT APPLY TO THE CEILING PRICE LISTS FOR KOSHER BEEF SOLD AT RETAIL. THE KOSHER LISTS WILL BE AVAILABLE IN AMPLE QUANTITY FOR POSTING ON THE SCHEDULED DATE, JUNE 11.

RETAIL CEILING PRICES FOR CUTS OF BEEF BY GRADES HAVE BEEN IN EFFECT SINCE MAY 14 AND DEALERS HAVE BEEN REQUIRED TO DISPLAY INDIVIDUAL PRICES.

THESE PRICES MUST NOT BE MORE THAN THE CEILING PRICES. THEY VARY ACCORDING TO THE SIZE OF THE STORE AND VOLUME OF BUSINESS AND THE ZONE IN WHICH THE RETAILER IS LOCATED.

THE OFFICIAL PRICE LISTS TO BE DISTRIBUTED BY JUNE 18 MUST BE POSTED IN THE STORE WHERE CUSTOMERS CAN READILY SEE THEM. AT LEAST ONE LIST MUST BE POSTED FOR EACH 20 FEET OF MEAT COUNTER SPACE.

THESE PRICE LISTS WILL REMAIN IN EFFECT UNTIL AUG.1 WHEN OPS HAS SCHEDULED A REDUCTION OF ABOUT 4 1/2 CENTS A POUND, ON THE AVERAGE, IN THE RETAIL CEILINGS ON BEEF. OPS SAID NEW LISTS WILL BE PROVIDED BY THAT TIME.

FUEL OIL

WASHINGTON,MAY 29-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TODAY AUTHORIZED INCREASES O 17 TO 31 CENTS A BARREL IN PRICES FOR RESIDUAL FUEL OILS ON THE ATLANTIC SEABOARD.

THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION ALLOWED THE INCREASES IN SETTIN DOLLARS AND CENTS CEILINGS FOR ALL GRADES OF RESIDUAL FUEL OILS. THE ORDER IS THE FIRST TO FIX DOLLARS AND CENTS CEILINGS FOR ANY PETROLEUM PRODUCTS.

A18WX

RESIDUAL FUEL OILS ARE USED FOR POWER GENERATION, BY MILITARY INSTALLATIONS AND INDUSTRIAL ESTABLISHMENTS, AS A BUNKER FUEL FOR SHIPS, AND AS A HED FUEL FOR SOV

INSTALLATIONS AND INDUSTRIAL ESTABLISHMENTS, AS A BUNKER FUEL FOR SHIPS, AND AS A HEATING FUEL FOR SOME COMMERCIAL AND RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS.

OPS SAID THE PRICE INCREASES WERE NECESSARY TO AVOID OPERATIONAL IMPAIRMENT OF DEFENSE FACILITIES.

THE NEW CEILINGS ARE EFFECTIVE JUNE 4. OPS SAID THEY "PARTLY REFLECT SUBSTANTIALLY HIGHER TANKER TRANSPORTATION COSTS." AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE PRICE INCREASES, OPS ANNOUNCED PRESENT PRICES WILL BE RAISED AS FOLLOWS:

NEW YORK CITY $2.15 TO $2.45 A BARREL; BOSTON $2.20 TO $2.51; MIAMI $2.05 TO $2.22; FLORIDA WEST COAST $1.99 TO $2.16; AND NORFOLK FROM ABOUT $2.16 TO $2.40.

OPS SAID THE RESIDUAL FUEL OIL SITUATION IS "TIGHT" ALL ALONG THE ATLANTIC SEABOARD, AND IT HOPES THAT AS A RESULT OF HIGHER PRICES MORE SUCH OIL WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE.

RESIDUAL FUEL OIL IS NORMALLY SUPPLIED BY TANKER TRANSPORTATION TO THE ATLANTIC SEABOARD FROM REFINERY CENTERS ON THE GULF COAST AND BY IMPORTS FROM VENEZUELA AND THE NETHERLANDS WEST INDIES.

THE DEMAND FOR SUCH OIL ON THE EAST COAST EXCEEDED 750,000 BARREL A DAY IN 1950, MORE THAN 20 PER CENT ABOVE 1949. OPS SAID THAT 1951 SHOWS A STILL FURTHER INCREASE OF ABOUT 7 AND ONE HALF PER CENT OVER 1950.

OPS SAID THE TANKER TRANSPORTATION RATE WAS 25 TO 30 CENTS A BARREL IN JULY 1950, AND REACHED $1.31 A BARREL IN JANUARY OF 1951 'O NEW YORK HARBOR. THE AGENCY SAID STUDIES ARE NOW BEING MADE OF E RAPID INCREASE IN THESE COSTS.

THE 17 TO 31 CENTS INCREASE APPLIES TO NUMBER SIX COMMERCIAL ARD SPECIFICATION OF RESIDUAL FUEL OIL. THE ORDER PROVIDES FOR ADJUSTMENTS IN THE CEILINGS OF ALL OTHER GRADES.

NIGHT LEAD PRICES (AMS BJT)

NEW YORK, MAY 29-(AP)-A FLURRY OF REDUCTIONS RANGING TO MORE THAN 10 PER CENT ON HITHERTO "PRICE-FIXED" MERCHANDISE GAVE NEW YORK'S RETAIL STORES ALL THE ATMOSPHERE OF A "PRICE WAR" TODAY.

BUT AN ASSOCIATED PRESS SURVEY ACROSS THE NATION FAILED TO DISCLOSE A GENERAL PRICE-CUTTING MOVEMENT.

MOST CITIES REPORTING INDICATED MERCHANTS PLANNED TO HOLD THE LINE ON PRICES IF POSSIBLE. AT THE SAME TIME THEY SAID THEY WERE PREPARED TO MEET COMPETITORS' PRICES.

TODAY'S PRICE CUTS STEM FROM A UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT DECISION THAT STORES WHICH HAVE NOT SIGNED "FAIR TRADE" AGREEMENTS ARE NOT OBLIGATED TO OBSERVE THE RETAIL PRICES FIXED BY MANUFACTURERS

ALONG NEW YORK'S BUSY 34TH STREET, DOMINATED BY R.H.MACY & CO. AND GIMBEL BROTHERS, PRICES WERE ALMOST ON AN HOUR-TO-HOUR BASIS.

MACY'S, WORLD'S LARGEST DEPARTMENT STORE, FIRED THE OPENING GUN WITH A DOUBLE-PAGE ADVERTISEMENT LISTING 6 PER CENT REDUCTIONS ON MANY OF THE 5,978 ITEMS OF BRAND NAME MERCHANDISE WHICH IT SAID HAD BEEN HELD AT FIXED PRICES BY THE "FAIR TRADE" LAW.

GIMBEL'S COUNTERED WITH A STATEMENT THAT "WE ARE MEETING ALL PRICES, AS WE HAVE IN THE PAST."

METEOROLOGICALLY IT WAS A POOR DAY FOR A PRICE WAR. RAINY WEATHER KEPT MANY SHOPPERS AT HOME.

BUT IT WAS A FIELD DAY FOR THE COMPARISON SHOPPERS. THESE ARE PEOPLE SENT OUT BY ONE STORE TO FIND OUT WHAT ANOTHER STORE IS SELLING AND FOR HOW MUCH. IN ONE DEPARTMENT STORE AN OBSERVER EXPRESSED BELIEF THERE WERE MORE COMPARISON SHOPPERS THAN CUSTOMERS.

REPORTS FROM THESE SHOPPERS WERE CREDITED WITH CAUSING MANY PRICES TO DROP AS THE DAY WENT ON. FOR INSTANCE:

A NEW NOVEL PRICE-FIXED AT $4.50 OPENED AT $4.23, THEN WAS MARKED DOWN SUCCESSIVELY TO $3.98 AND TO $3.74.

A VACUUM CLEANER PRICE-FIXED AT $89.95 WAS CUT TO $84.50 AND AGAIN TO $79.43.

THE STORE, A MACY SPOKESMAN SAID, WAS "FOLLOWING THE MACY POLICY OF UNDERSELLING COMPETITION BY SIX PER CENT."

GIMBEL'S MADE NO FORMAL STATEMENT, BUT A SPOKESMAN ASSERTED THAT "WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD."

ABRAHAM & STRAUS, LARGE BROOKLYN DEPARTMENT STORE, SAID THAT "OUR CUSTOMERS WILL IMMEDIATELY ENJOY SAVINGS OF UP TO 10 PER CENT."

MAY 30 1951

A220

STORES REPORTED SOMEWHAT LARGER CROWDS OF CUSTOMERS THAN USUAL. AND THERE WERE SOME REPORTS OF PERSONS WHO BOUGHT ARTICLES AT THIS MORNING'S PRICES RETURNING THE LATER TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SUBSEQUENT REDUCTIONS.

THIS WAS THE NEW YORK PICTURE. ELSEWHERE, THINGS WERE DIFFERENT, THE A.P. SURVEY SHOWED.

A FEW PRICE CUTS IN BRANDED LINES WERE REPORTED IN NEW HAVEN, CONN., NEWARK, N.J. AND LOS ANGELES.

BUT MERCHANTS IN MOST REPORTING CITIES SAID THEY WERE NOT PLANNING ANY REDUCTIONS. A MERCHANDISE MANAGER IN THE MINNEAPOLIS-ST.PAUL AREA PUT IT THIS WAY:

"WE'D BE FOOLISH TO CUT PRICES NOW; MARGINS (OF PROFIT) ARE NARROW ENOUGH NOW."

IN THE HIGHLY COMPETITIVE RETAIL FIELD, HOWEVER, ALL WERE WATCHING CLOSELY TO SEE WHAT OTHER STORES WERE DOING, AND INDICATED THEY WERE PREPARED TO TAKE WHATEVER ACTION WAS NECESSARY.

AMONG CITIES REPORTING NO EVIDENCE OF PRICE CUTTING WERE NEW ORLEANS, SAN FRANCISCO, MILWAUKEE, DALLAS, WASHINGTON, PHILADELPHIA, BOSTON, CLEVELAND AND CHARLOTTE, N.C.

WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD WAS ASKED TODAY TO APPROVE OVER-THE-CEILING WAGE INCREASES FOR SHIPYARD WORKERS TO HALT THE TRANSFER OF SKILLED EMPLOYEES TO HIGHER-PAYING JOBS.
VICE ADM.E.L.COCHRAN, MARITIME ADMINISTRATOR, AND J.H.MORSE, GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE BETHLEHEM STEEL COMPANY'S SHIPBUILDING OPERATIONS, SAID THERE WAS A CRITICAL NEED FOR SHIPS AND FOR HOLDING ON TO MEN NOW EMPLOYED.
COCHRAN SAID MANY YARDS HAD GONE OUT OF BUSINESS AFTER WORLD WAR TWO, CUTTING DOWN THE SOURCE OF NEW SHIPS AND REPAIRS ON OLD ONES.
BETHLEHEM AND SOME OTHER SHIPYARDS HAVE NEGOTIATED A 15 PERCENT INCREASE FOR EMPLOYES WHICH THE BOARD IS BEING ASKED TO APPROVE.
MORSE TOLD A SPECIAL WAGE BOARD PANEL HEADED BY PUBLIC MEMBER JOHN T.DUNLOP THAT SHIPYARD WORKERS HAD FALLEN FAR BEHIND OTHER SKILLED INDUSTRIAL WORKERS IN PAY.
HE SAID HIS COMPANY WAS FINDING IT DIFFICULT TO GET WORKERS AND THAT NAVY YARDS WERE PAYING MUCH HIGHER RATES. FOR EXAMPLE, HE SAID, BETHLEHEM'S TOP MECHANICS WERE GETTING $1.57 AN HOUR WHILE MACHINISTS IN THE NAVY YARDS WERE RECEIVING $1.93 AN HOUR.
MORSE SAID THAT IN ORDER TO STOP THE LOSS OF KEY PERSONNEL TO THE NAVY HIS COMPANY WAS FORCED TO PAY A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF OVERTIME PREMIUM WAGES.
JAMES BROWNLOW, HEAD OF THE AFL METAL TRADES DEPARTMENT, SAID THAT SHIPYARD WORKERS HAD RECEIVED APPROXIMATELY ONE HALF OF THE WAGE INCREASES OF OTHER WORKERS SINCE 1940.
CARL HUHNDORFF, RESEARCH DIRECTOR FOR THE AFL MACHINISTS UNION SAID IT WOULD BE MUCH MORE INFLATIONARY NOT TO ALLOW THE 15 PER CENT PAY INCREASE. HE ARGUED THAT SKILLED MECHANICS WOULD GO ELSEWHERE WITHOUT THE PAY INCREASE, LEAVING THE WORK TO BE DONE BY LESS SKILLED WORKERS AND THAT WOULD BE MORE EXPENSIVE.
THE CIO MARINE AND SHIPBUILDING WORKERS HAVE THREATENED TO CALL A STRIKE OF 50,000 WORKERS ON THE EAST, WEST AND GULF COASTS JUNE 3RD IF THE 15 PER CENT INCREASE IS NOT APPROVED.

NEW YORK,MAY 29-(AP)-SEN.ESTES KEFAUVER (D-TENN) SAID TODAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ADMINISTRATION "HAD NO VISION, NO STAR TO HITCH OUR WAGON TO" IN THE KOREAN WAR.
GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, ON THE OTHER HAND, MADE A DEEP IMPRESSION ON AMERICANS BECAUSE HE HAD GIVEN "A PLAN AND AIM" FOR PROSECUTING THE WAR, KEFAUVER SAID.
THE SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT, FORMER HEAD OF THE U.S.SENATE CRIME COMMITTEE, ADDRESSED MORE THAN 1,000 MEMBERS OF THE SALES EXECUTIVES CLUB OF NEW YORK AT A LUNCHEON MEETING IN THE HOTEL ROOSEVELT.
KEFAUVER SAID PUBLIC REACTION WAS NOT DUE TO THE GENERAL BEING "PARTIALLY RIGHT" IN HIS PROPOSALS BUT "BECAUSE HE WAS EVERLASTINGLY RIGHT IN THIS--THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THE FREE PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD LIKE TO HAVE A PLAN AND AIM, SOMETHING TO LOOK FORWARD TO."
KEFAUVER CONCEDED AMERICA WAS NOT ABLE TO DO CERTAIN THINGS IN PROSECUTING THE WAR, BUT HE SAID THE ADMINISTRATION HAD "GOTTEN BOGGED DOWN IN TECHNICAL ARGUMENTS--IT HAD NO VISION, NO STAR TO HITCH OUR WAGON TO."

"THERE MUST BE A BETTER AND GREATER VISION THAN THAT," SAID KEFAUVER.
THE SENATOR PROPOSED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALL A MEETING OF THE ORIGINAL SPONSORS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT TO DRAW UP A PLAN FOR LIMITED FEDERATION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THEIR GOVERNMENTS.
AS THINGS STAND NOW, HE SAID, GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, MILITARY HEAD OF THE PACT NATIONS, "HAS TO GO IN 12 DIRECTIONS AT ONCE IN FOREI POLICY."
HE SAID DIPLOMATS AT SUCH A MEETING AS HE PROPOSED SHOULD TRY TO ESTABLISH ECONOMIC STABILITY IN TRADE AMONG THE FREE WESTERN NATIONS, AND STABILITY OF CURRENCY.
HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT MILITARY AND POLITICAL AUTHORITY OF A UNIFIED NATURE MIGHT BE ENOUGH.
"MAY BE WE COULD NOT AGREE ON ANYTHING," KEFAUVER SAID, "BUT WE WOULD HAVE TRIED A METHOD WHICH HAS ALWAYS SUCCEEDED."
SUCH A MEETING, HE ADDED, WOULD NOT HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH A WORLD FEDERATION AS SUCH. IT WOULD, HE SAID, BE "GETTING TOGETHER THE PEOPLE WHO WOULD GET TOGETHER IN WAR EVENTUALLY, AND GETTING THOSE PEOPLE TOGETHER IN PEACE, SO AS TO PREVENT AN AGGRESSOR FROM PICKING US OFF ONE BY ONE."

KEFAUVER SPOKE AT AN ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE MEETING AT TOWN HALL. THIS GROUP, SUPPORTED BY KEFAUVER, PROPOSES A FEDERAL UNION OF ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS.
THE SENATOR STATED ONE REASON HE GAVE UP THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE U.S. SENATE CRIME COMMITTEE WAS TO DEVOTE MORE TIME TO THE ATLANTIC UNION PLAN.
A TRANSATLANTIC FEDERAL SYSTEM, PERHAPS LIKE THE 48-STATE AMERICAN FEDERATION, KEFAUVER SAID, IS NECESSARY "IF WE WANT TO KEEP WAR AWAY FROM OUR FAMILIES."
SUCH A SYSTEM WOULD HELP MEET THE IRANIAN CRISIS, KEFAUVER SAID, BY ACHIEVING BRITISH-AMERICAN UNITY FOR SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC REFORMS IN IRAN.
THE IRANIAN SITUATION, HE DECLARED, IS A DIRECT PRODUCT "OF ANGLO-AMERICAN DISUNITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST."
"WHILE WE DEBATE ABOUT THE BATTLE IN KOREA," HE SAID, "FEW OF US REALIZE HOW CLOSE WE ARE TO THE OUTBREAK OF TOTAL WAR IN THE MIDDLE EAST."
KEFAUVER ALSO CONTRASTED THE FREE WORLD'S LOOSELY-KNIT RELATIONSHIP, REQUIRING NEGOTIATION AND DELAY BEFORE ACTION, TO THE TIGHTLY-CONTROLLED SOVIET BLOC, IN WHICH STALIN "EXERCISES PUSH-BUTTON CONTROL."
THE SENATOR CALLED FOR THE ATLANTIC BLOC TO SET UP "A CENTRAL AUTHORITY WITH POWER TO ACT" RAPIDLY. SUCH A BODY, HE SAID, WOULD GIVE GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER "ONE BOSS INSTEAD OF TWELVE" IN HIS DUTIES AS ATLANTIC PACT COMMANDER.
KEFAUVER AND 26 OTHER SENATORS AND 99 CONGRESSMEN ARE SPONSORING A PENDING RESOLUTION ADVOCATING A MEETING OF FREE NATIONS TO STUDY A FEDERAL UNION.

(460) DULLES
(ADVANCE) (WX) TUCSON,ARIZ.,MAY 30-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES DECLARED TONIGHT THAT RUSSIA'S CAPACITY TO CARRY ON HALF-WAR INDEFINITELY CAN BE QUICKLY DESTROYED "BY SKILLFULLY APPLIED PRESSURES."
THE REPUBLICAN FOREIGN POLICY ADVISER, WITHOUT GOING INTO DETAILS ABOUT SUCH PRESSURES, CALLED ON THE FREE NATIONS TO PLAN "IN TERMS OF OUR STRENGTH AND OUR OPPONENT'S WEAKNESSES."
DESPOTIC SOCIETIES "ALWAYS LOOK MORE FORMIDABLE THAN THEY ARE," HE SAID IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA.
DULLES IS ONE OF SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S TOP ADVISORS. HE IS NOW ASSIGNED TO COMPLETING A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY THIS SUMMER IN THE FACE OF COMMUNIST OPPOSITION. NEXT WEEKEND HE GOES TO LONDON FOR TALKS WITH BRITISH OFFICIALS.
HE SAID THAT THE SOVIET UNION IS PUTTING ABOUT ONE-THIRD OF ITS TOTAL ECONOMIC PRODUCTIVITY INTO THE STRATEGY OF WAGING WHAT LEON TROTSKY, A RUSSIAN LEADER OF THE EARLY YEARS, CALLED "NOT WAR, NOT PEACE."
THE COST TO THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE IS A CRUEL ONE, DULLES CONTINUED, BUT AFTER CENTURIES OF TYRANNY THE RUSSIANS ARE SO "CALLOUSED" THAT "THE PRESENT GENERATION KNOWS ONLY COMPLETE REGIMENTATION."
THIS GIVES SOVIET LEADERS WAYS IN WHICH TO EXPLOIT THEIR PEOPLE WHICH ARE NOT AVAILABLE TO LEADERS OF NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS.
"IT SEEMS," DULLES SAID, "THAT THE SOVIET UNION, WHILE POSTURING AS A LOVER OF PEACE, CAN GO ON INDEFINITELY MAINTAINING A FORMIDABLE CAPACITY FOR SUDDEN ARMED AGGRESSION. IT SEEMS THAT THE SOVIETS CAN GO ON INDEFINITELY PUTTING SATELLITES INTO UNDECLARED WARS, FIRST HERE, THEN THERE.
"IT SEEMS THAT THE SOVIET COMMUNIST PARTY, THROUGH ITS FOREIGN AFFILIATES, CAN CONTINUE INDEFINITELY TO IMPAIR INTERNAL UNITY AND SECURITY WITHIN THE FREE NATIONS, AND, WHEREEVER CONVENIENT, USE STRIKES, SABOTAGE AND TERRORISM TO BREAK DOWN ORDERLY GOVERNMENT."
YET DULLES SAID HE WAS CONFIDENT "THAT WE SHALL FIND THE WAYS TO PARALYZE THE SLIMY, OCTUPUS-LIKE TENTACLES THAT REACH OUT FROM MOSCOW TO SUCK OUR LIFE BLOOD." HE SUGGESTED THREE PRINCIPLES AS BASIC TO A SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEM OF THE FREE WORLD:

MAY 30 1951

A115WX
1. THE FREE NATIONS "MUST HAVE PATIENCE AND STEADINESS OF WILL XXX MOST DEFEATS ARE INFLICTED UPON THOSE WHO HAVE FIRST SUFFERED THE SELF DEFEAT OF DISCOURAGEMENT."
2. DO NOT BE SATISFIED WITH PLANS "WHICH REFLECT MERELY A DEFENSIVE MOOD." WHEN AN OPPONENT IS MOUNTING A BIG OFFENSIVE IT IS NECESSARY TO THROW HIM OFF BALANCE, XXX DENY HIM "UNTROUBLED LEISURE TO CONSOLIDATE HIS GAINS."
DULLES ADDED THAT "WE MUST NOT AND WILL NOT TAKE THE MILITARY OFFENSIVE OF GENERAL WAR, IN WHICH THERE COULD BE NO VICTORY FOR ANYONE XXX. THE CAUSE OF HUMAN LIBERTY CAN FIND POSITIVE EXPRESSION "WITHOUT THE USE OF ATOM BOMBS.
3. THE PLANNING OF THE FREE NATIONS SHOULD BE "IN TERMS OF OUR STRENGTH AND OUR OPPONENT'S WEAKNESS, RATHER THAN IN TERMS OF OR OPPONENT'S STRENGTH."
"I HAVE SPOKEN OF WHAT, IT SEEMS, IS THE CAPACITY OF THE SOVIET LEADERS INDEFINITELY TO WAGE 'NOT WAR, NOT PEACE.' I AM CONFIDENT THAT THE APPARENT CAPACITY COULD, IN FACT, QUICKLY BE DISINTEGRATED BY SKILLFULLY APPLIED PRESSURES.
"WE NEED NOT DANCE TO THE TUNE OF RUSSIAN STRENGTH. WE ARE SUFFICIENTLY VERSATILE TO INVENT SOME TUNES OF OUR OWN."

WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-PHILIP J. JAFFE, 54, EDITOR OF THE DEFUNCT BUT STILL CONTROVERSIAL MAGAZINE AMERASIA, WAS ACQUITTED BY A FEDERAL JUDGE YESTERDAY ON A CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS CHARGE.
THAT BROUGHT TO 13 THE NUMBER OF PERSONS FREED HERE THIS YEAR ON SUCH CONTEMPT CHARGES. THERE HAVE BEEN FOUR CONVICTIONS AND ONE JURY DISAGREEMENT.
JAFFE, A NEW YORKER, WAS THE LAST OF THREE WITNESSES CITED FOR CONTEMPT IN THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE'S INVESTIGATION OF CHARGES BY SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS INFESTED WITH COMMUNISTS.
THE OTHERS, FREDERICK VANDERBILT FIELD, NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE, AND EARL BROWDER, FORMER BOSS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THIS COUNTRY, WERE FREED IN EARLIER TRIALS. A DIFFERENT JUDGE RULED IN EACH OF THE THREE CASES. CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS IS PUNISHABLE BY A MAXIMUM SENTENCE OF A YEAR IN JAIL AND A $1,000 FINE.
IN FREEING JAFFE YESTERDAY, U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE JAMES W. MORRIS UPHELD HIS REFUSAL TO ANSWER QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM BY THE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE ON THE GROUND ANSWERS MIGHT TEND TO INCRIMINATE HIM.
FIELD ALSO INVOKED HIS CONSTITUTIONAL PRIVILEGE AGAINST POSSIBLE SELF-INCRIMINATION IN DECLINING TO ANSWER.
BROWDER DID NOT RAISE THIS ISSUE. HE CLAIMED THE QUESTIONS HE DID NOT ANSWER WERE NOT PERTINENT TO THE INQUIRY AND THAT HE NEVER WAS SPECIFICALLY DIRECTED TO ANSWER.
JUDGE MORRIS, IN HIS WRITTEN DECISION IN THE JAFFE CASE, NOTED THAT LOUIS BUDENZ, AN ACKNOWLEDGED EX-COMMUNIST, CHARACTERIZED JAFFE AS A "SOVIET ESPIONAGE AGENT."
"IN THE LIGHT OF THE SETTING AND ALL OF THE FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THE QUESTIONING OF THE DEFENDANT, X X X IT DOES NOT SEEM IN THE SLIGHTEST UNREASONABLE THAT THE DEFENDANT WOULD HAVE A VERY GRAVE APPREHENSION THAT HE WAS IN DANGER OF PROSECUTION FOR AN OFFENSE AGAINST THE UNITED STATES," JUDGE MORRIS SAID.

CONSEQUENTLY, THE JUDGE SAID, "HE OUGHT NOT BE REQUIRED TO FURNISH INFORMATION UPON WHICH HE COULD BE PROSECUTED OR CONVICTED, OR WHICH WOULD REVEAL SOURCES FROM WHICH EVIDENCE COULD BE OBTAINED AND WOULD LEAD TO SUCH PROSECUTION AND VONVICTION."
OFFICERS OF THE MAGAZINE AMERASIA, NOW OUT OF BUSINESS, WERE RAIDED BY AGENTS OF THE OFFICE OF STRATEGIC SERVICES IN MARCH, 1945. HUNDREDS OF GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS CLASSIFIED AS SECRET WERE SEIZED.
JAFFE WAS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ESPIONAGE. HE PLEADED GUILTY TO THE LESSER CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY TO OBTAIN ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS AND PAID A $2,500 FINE. A NUMBER OF REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS HAVE COMPLAINED THE CASE WAS NOT VIGOROUSLY PROSECUTED.
WHEN HE APPEARED BEFORE THE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE, JAFFE REFUSED TO TALK ABOUT HIS CONNECTION WITH THE MAGAZINE OR HIS ARREST. HE ALSO DECLINED TO DISCUSS PERSONS WHO WORKED FOR THE MAGAZINE OR PERSONS WHO HAD FIGURED IN MCCARTHY'S COMMUNISTS-IN-GOVERNMENT CHARGES.

NIGHT LEAD U.N.-ARMS
BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 29-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS DECIDED TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE SLOWLY-FORMING U.N.ARMY FOR COLLECTIVE SECURITY ON THE BASIS OF THE NEED AT THE TIME OF A CRISIS. IT WILL NOT TURN IN A LIST OF SPECIFIC DIVISIONS, PLANES OR WARSHIPS EARMARKED FOR U.N.DUTY ON CALL.
THIS WAS DISCLOSED TODAY IN AUTHORITATIVE CIRCLES AS UNITED STATES DELEGATE WARREN R.AUSTIN PREPARED TO SUBMIT HIS COUNTRY'S OFFER TO SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE LATE THIS WEEK. AUSTIN SAID IN A SPEECH MONDAY NIGHT AT THE ROTARY CONVENTION IN ATLANTIC CITY THAT THIS GOVERNMENT SOON WOULD STATE THE TYPE AND STRENGTH OF ARMED FORCES THE U.S.WILL CHIP IN FOR COLLECTIVE SECURITY.
IT WAS SAID TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES' LETTER WILL BE MORE CONCERNED WITH THE CAPABILITIES OF THIS COUNTRY RATHER THAN THE SPECIFIC SIZES OF MILITARY FORCES. THIS HIGH LEVEL DECISION IN WASHINGTON APPEARS TO BE BASED ON THE IDEA THAT THIS COUNRY WILL DECIDE WHEN A CRISIS APPEARS HOW MUCH FORCE IT WILL CONTRIBUTE TO THE U.N.ARMY.
IT APPARENTLY MEANS THAT THE LOCALITY OF EACH CRISIS WILL HAVE A BEARING ON THE ARMED FORCE, AND THAT THE MILITARY MEN OF THIS COUNTRY DO NOT WANT TO BE PINNED DOWN TO A SPECIFID LIST.
AUSTIN WILL REPLY TO A LETTER FROM LIE ASKING EACH OF THE 60 MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS WHAT FORCES THEY WOULD SUBMIT TO THE COLLECTIVE SECURITY MACHINERY SET UP LAST FALL UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S PLAN FOR THE ASSEMBLY TO MEET A CRISIS WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS STYMIED BY VETO.
ONE INFORMED SOURCE SAID SEVERAL OTHER COUNTRIES HAVE MADE THEIR DECISIONS AFTER CONSULTATIONS AMONG THEMSELVES.
THE U.N. EXPECTS NO REPLY FROM THE SOVIET UNIION, WHICH REFUSED TO SUPPORT MOST OF THE ACHESON PLAN. THE RUSSIANS AGREED TO GO ALONG ONLY WITH THAT SECTION CREATING A PEACE OBSERVATION COMMITTEE. THIS GROUP IS EXPECTED TO GO TO TROUBLE AREAS AND REPORT BACK TO THE U.N. WHAT CAN BE DONE.
THE NEW COLLECTIVE SECURITY FORCE, WHEN AND IF FORMED, WILL HAVE NO CONNECTION WITH THE U.N. EFFORT IN KOREA. IT IS INTENDED FOR FUTURE TROUBLES.

NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR--SHERMAN
BY DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON, MAY 30-(AP)-ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN TODAY ADVOCATED A UNITED NATIONS NAVAL AND COMMERCIAL BLOCKADE TO STRANGLE COMMUNIST CHINA'S ECONOMIC LIFE AND CHOKE OFF THE FLOW OF WAR GOODS SHIPPED BY SEA TO THE RED ARMIES.

ON THIS SCORE, THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS SUPPORTED IN PART THE PROGRAM OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WHO CALLED FOR A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE RED COAST, BOMBING OF MANCHURIA AND THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS IN KOREA.

AND HE TOLD SENATORS STUDYING THE MACARTHUR OUSTER HE ONCE TRIED TO HEAD OFF THE DISMISSAL BY SUGGESTING THAT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL GO TO TOKYO AND TRY TO BRING MACARTHUR INTO LINE WITH ADMINISTRATION WAR POLICY.

THIS SUGGESTION WAS MADE AT A MEETING OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF LAST APRIL 5 BUT SHERMAN SAID NOTHING CAME OF IT AND HE DID NOT BRIN UP THE POINT AGAIN IN LATER MEETINGS WHICH LED TO THE OUSTER.

WHEN THE SHOWDOWN CAME, HE SAID, HE AGREED WITH OTHER CHIEFS MACARTHUR HAD TO GO BECAUSE HE FELT IT WOULD BE IN THE INTEREST OF NATIONAL SECURITY. HE ADDED THAT MACARTHUR AND THE AUTHORITIES IN WASHINGTON "WERE MORE OR LESS CONTINUOUSLY AT CROSS PURPOSES."

SHERMAN DISCLOSED THE NAVY ONCE WAS FACED WITH A SITUATION SIMILAR TO THE MACARTHUR CASE--AND IT WAS HANDLED BY A SENIOR OFFICER SENT OUT TO BRING THE RECALCITRANT OFFICER INTO LINE WITH THE VIEWS OF HIS SUPERIORS.

"IT WAS SO SUCCESSFUL," HE SAID, "THAT I DOUBT IF ANYONE KNOWS WHO I AM TALKING ABOUT. I HOPE THEY DON'T." HE DID NOT DISCLOSE FURTHER DETAILS OF THIS SITUATION OR THE NAME AND RANK OF THE NAVAL OFFICER INVOLVED.

SHERMAN WAS THE FIRST TOP-RANKING MILITARY CHIEF TO SPEAK OUT IN FAVOR OF A NAVAL BLOCKADE AT THIS TIME. THE OTHERS HAVE BEEN ASKED TO GIVE THEIR VIEWS ON THE MATTER BUT THEY HAVE OPPOSED THE MACARTHUR POLICY IN GENERAL AND HAVE REFERRED SENATORS TO SHERMAN AS THE EXPERT ON BLOCKADES.

MACARTHUR TESTIFIED THAT HE BELIEVES THE UNITED NATIONS ALLIES WOULD FALL IN LINE WITH HIS PROGRAM TO EXTEND THE WAR AGAINST RED CHINA IF IT WERE PUSHED BY THE UNITED STATES. AND IF THEY DIDN'T, HE PROPOSED THIS COUNTRY "GO IT ALONE."

BUT SHERMAN DECLARED ANY NAVAL BLOCKADE MUST BE A UNITED NATIONS EFFORT AND NOT AN INDEPENDENT OPERATION BY THE UNITED STATES.

THE ADMIRAL ALSO MADE IT CLEAR THAT FROM THE STANDPOINT OF SEA POWER HE BELIEVES THE DEFENSE OF EUROPE IS MORE IMPORTANT TO THE UNITED STATES THAN THE DEFENSE OF ASIA.

MAY 31 1951

A66WX
IN REPLY TO A QUESTION BY CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SHERMAN SAID:

"TO ME, IT IS VERY EASY TO DECIDE. I BELIEVE THAT IF WE LOSE WESTERN EUROPE, WE WILL HAVE GREAT DIFFICULTY IN PREVENTING A SUBSEQUENT BUILD-UP OF SOVIET POWER.

"WITH THE SHIPYARDS AND AIRPLANE FACTORIES, ALL OF THE PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY OF WESTERN EUROPE LOST, WE WOULD HAVE AN INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT TIME IN HOLDING OUR OWN. IF WE LOSE ALL OF THE ASIATIC MAINLAND, WE COULD STILL SURVIVE AND BUILD UP AND POSSIBLY GET IT BACK AGAIN."

HE SAID IT WOULD BE ADVISABLE TO HAVE "MORE FORCES IN ALASKA," BUT CONSIDERING THE WORLDWIDE DEMANDS FOR DEPLOYMENT OF FORCES, THE SITUATION IN ALASKA IS "A SOUND ONE."

BY INDIRECTION, SHERMAN TOOK ISSUE WITH AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG WHO TESTIFIED YESTERDAY THAT THE U.S. AIR FORCE IS THE GREATEST DETERRENT TO RUSSIA GOING TO WAR.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) ASKED SHERMAN ABOUT THIS VANDENBERG STATEMENT AND THE ADMIRAL REPLIED:

"I HAPPEN TO BELIEVE THAT THE DETERRENT TO WAR X X X IS THE REALIZATION ON THE OTHER (RUSSIAN) SIDE THAT IF A GENERAL WAR COMES, THEY WILL BE DEFEATED.

"I FIND DIFFICULTY IN ISOLATING THE ROLES THAT WOULD BE PLAYED BY ONE ELEMENT OF OUR ARMED FORCES IN ACCOMPLISHING THAT END."

HE REMINDED SENATORS RUSSIA WOULD BE VULNERABLE TO ATTACK BOTH BY THE AIR FORCE AND THE NAVY.

SHERMAN WAS QUESTIONED MOST OF THE DAY AND WILL RETURN TOMORROW (9 A.M.,EST) TO RESUME HIS TESTIMONY. HE WILL BE FOLLOWED TO THE STAND FRIDAY BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON--WHO HAS BEEN THE MAIN TARGET OF REPUBLICAN CRITICISM OF ADMINISTRATION POLICY IN THE FAR EAST.

ACHESON IS EXPECTED TO FACE A STIFF EXAMINATION PARTICULARLY ON HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD FORMOSA, THE ISLAND STRONGHOLD OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES.

LAST DECEMBER THE STATE DEPARTMENT SENT A DOCUMENT TO ITS CONSULAR OFFICERS, IT IS REPORTED, TELLING THEM TO EXPECT THE FALL OF FORMOSA TO THE REDS---AND SAYING THE ISLAND HAD NO REAL STRATEGIC VALUE TO THE UNITED STATES.

SECRETARY MARSHALL, GENERAL BRADLEY, AND ALL THE JOINT CHIEFS HAVE TESTIFIED THAT FORMOSA DOES HAVE STRATEGIC VALUE TO U.S. DEFENSES---ALTHOUGH THEY HAVE DISAGREED WITH MACARTHUR ON THE DEGREE OF VALUE.

MAY 31 1951

A67WX.
THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS KEPT A SECRECY LABEL ON THIS DOCUMENT BUT SENATOR KNOWLAND CONTENDS IT SHOULD BE STRIPPED AWAY AND MADE PUBLIC.

THE INQUIRY GROUP DECIDED TODAY TO KEEP IT SECRET UNTIL ACHESON HAS A CHANCE TO TELL HIS REASONS WHY IT SHOULD NOT BE MADE PUBLIC.

SHERMAN TESTIFIED HE IS AGAINST RED CONTROL OF FORMOSA AND HE QUOTED ADMIRAL CHESTER NIMITZ, RETIRED WAR-TIME HERO, AS SAYING THAT TO TURN FORMOSA OVER TO THE REDS "WOULD MEAN AN INTERVENTION IN THE CHINA CIVIL WAR" WHICH IS AGAINST U.S. POLICY.

SHERMAN READ FROM A LETTER WRITTEN BY NIMITZ:

"IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE YALTA AGREEMENT, FORMOSA WAS PROMPTLY TURNED OVER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA, AFTER THE SHOOTING ENDED IN 1945. THE PROPOSAL TO TURN FORMOSA OVER TO THE RED GOVERNMENT OF CHINA WOULD MEAN AN INTERVENTION IN THE CHINA CIVIL WAR."

IN OTHER HIGHLIGHTS OF HIS TESTIMONY, SHERMAN SAID:

1. HE BELIEVES THE UNITED STATES COULD WIN A WAR AGAINST RUSSIA---"A GENERAL WAR THAT WE DON'T WANT." HE REPORTED THE NAVY'S COMBAT READINESS AND MORALE AS EXCELLENT.

2. LIKE MACARTHUR AND THE OTHER JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, HE IS OPPOSED TO ADMITTING RED CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS "IN ANY EVENT."

3. HE IS "VERY FOND OF MACARTHUR" BUT FELT HE SHOULD BE DISMISSED BECAUSE THE GENERAL HAD "NOT BEEN SUFFICIENTLY RESPONSIVE TO THE DIRECTIVES AND POLICY GIVEN, AND THAT FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW HE SHOULD BE REPLACED X X X." SHERMAN SAID HE WOULD REACH THE SAME DECISION IF HE HAD TO DO IT OVER AGAIN.

THE ADMIRAL DECLARED THE UNITED STATES SHOULD NOT GO IT ALONE ON A NAVAL BLOCKADE BECAUSE RUSSIA MIGHT "OPPOSE IT BY FORCE". AND HE DISAGREED WITH MACARTHUR'S VIEW THAT THE RUSSIAN-HELD PORTS OF DAIREN AND PORT ARTHUR SHOULD BE INCLUDED IN ANY BLOCKADE.

SHERMAN TOLD THE SENATE ARMED FORCES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES---STUDYING THE MACARTHUR OUSTER---THAT TO BLOCKADE A RUSSIAN PORT WOULD BE AN ACT OF WAR UNDER INTERNATIONAL LAW. HE PROPOSED IT BE LIMITED TO RED CHINA.

SUCH A BLOCKADE," HE SAID, "WOULD BE A VERY SIMPLE PROBLEM IF ALL THE NATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS JOINED IN." HE ARGUED THE CHINESE CITIES AND MILITARY ECONOMY ARE "PARTICULARLY VULNERABLE" TO BLOCKADE BECAUSE THEY DEPEND LARGELY ON OVERSEAS TRADE.

A212WX

AND HE ADDED:

"I STILL HOPE THAT WE CAN PREVAIL UPON OUR ALLIES TO JOIN IN AN EFFECTIVE UNITED NATIONS COMMERCIAL AND NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE PORTS OF THE DECLARED AGGRESSOR (RED CHINA) AND AS A SANCTION SHORT OF WAR X X.

"I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT A UNILATERAL (GO IT ALONE) UNITED STATES NAVAL BLOCKADE IS ADVISABLE."

HE INSISTED THE U.N. SHOULD GO AHEAD WITH A BLOCKADE WHETHER RUSSIA APPROVED OR NOT.

SHERMAN INDICATED THE NAVAL BLOCKADE WOULD ALREADY BE IN FORCE IF THE U.N. ALLIES HAD NOT DISAPPROVED THE MOVE. THERE WAS AN IMPLICATION IN HIS TESTIMONY THAT BLOCKADE DISCUSSIONS HAVE BEEN HELD BETWEEN THE ADMINISTRATION LEADERS AND DIPLOMATS OF OTHER U.N. COUNTRIES.

THE ADMIRAL DECLARED THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAVE "VIEWED WITH ALARM" THE GROWING MILITARY AID RED CHINA HAS BEEN RECEIVING FROM NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES.

THE JOINT CHIEFS ON MARCH 28 TOLD SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, HE SAID, THAT "THE TRADE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA WAS ON THE INCREASE AND CONSTITUTED A DIRECT THREAT TO THE SECURITY INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES."

HE ADDED SOME PROGRESS HAD BEEN MADE IN GETTING U.N. NATIONS TO AGREE TO CUT DOWN SHIPMENTS TO RED CHINA--BUT HE MADE IT CLEAR THIS WAS NOT EFFECTIVE ENOUGH.

THE U.S. NAVY WOULD BE ABLE TO PROVIDE SHIPS FOR THE BLOCKADE WITH "ONLY MINOR EMBARRASSMENT," SHERMAN TESTIFIED, BY TAKING VESSELS OUT OF THE MOTH BALL FLEET.

AND HE ADDED THAT HE AGREED WITH MACARTHUR THAT RUSSIA COULDN'T DO MUCH ABOUT IT. "THEY COULD CONTEST IT," HE SAID, "BUT WE HAVE SUFFICIENT NAVAL POWER TO PREVENT ANY OTHER COUNTRY FROM CONTROLLING THE SEA AROUND JAPAN."

QUESTIONED BY CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP, SHERMAN SAID THE PROCEDURE IN A BLOCKADE WOULD BE TO ANNOUNCE A LIST OF WAR CONTRABAND--VITAL WAR SUPPLIES AND MATERIALS NEEDED BY THE CHINESE.

ONCE THE U.N. TOOK THIS ACTION, HE SAID, THEN SHIPS COULD BE STOPPED AND CONTRABAND REMOVED EVEN IF THE SHIPS WERE UNDER POLISH REGISTRY AND WERE HEADED FOR DAIREN OR PORT ARTHUR.

MAY 31 1951

A213WX

HE CONCEDED RED CHINA WOULD STILL BE ABLE TO GET SUPPLIES OVERLAND FROM RUSSIA OR OTHER NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES---BUT HE INSISTED THE LAND SUPPLY COULD NOT REPLACE "WHAT COULD BE STOPPED BY SEA."

SHERMAN DECLARED THE BLOCKADE ALSO WOULD MEAN CHINA WOULD HAVE TO TURN TO RUSSIA FOR MORE SUPPLIES "WITH CONSEQUENT INCREASED DRAIN ON RUSSIAN PRODUCTION."

THEN DISCUSSING THE EFFECT OF A BLOCKADE ON CHINA, SHERMAN SAID: THE CHINESE ARE "SUSCEPTIBLE TO PLAGUES AND CONTAGEOUS DISEASE" AND A BLOCKADE WOULD MEAN A STOPPAGE OF DRUG SUPPLIES WHICH IN TURN WOULD AFFECT THE MOBILITY OF THE CHINESE ARMIES.

"ALTHOUGH THE ECONOMY OF CHINA IS MAINLY RURAL," HE SAID, "AND OPERATES AT A BARE SUBSISTENCE LEVEL, THE URBAN AND MILITARY SEGMENTS OF THE ECONOMY ARE LARGELY DEPENDENT ON OVERSEAS TRADE, AND TO A LESSER EXTENT ON COASTAL TRADE. AND ARE, THEREFORE, PARTICULARLY VULNERABLE TO BLOCKADE.

"AS REGARDS URBAN CENTERS, CUTTING OFF THE TRADE ON WHICH THEIR SUBSISTENCE DEPENDS WOULD CREATE UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNREST, HINDER INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION AND CREATE SERIOUS FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES.

"X X X AS REGARDS HEAVY MILITARY EQUIPMENT, TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT, AUTOMOTIVE SPARE PARTS, AND SO FORTH, CHINA IS ALMOST ENTIRELY DEPENDENT UPON IMPORTS AND WOULD BE GREATLY HANDICAPPED IF THESE WERE CUT OFF.

"ALL MANUFACTURED MATERIAL FOR REPLACING OR CARRYING OR AUGMENTING HEAVY INDUSTRY IN CHINA MUST BE BROUGHT IN FROM ABROAD, SINCE NOTHING OF THAT NATURE IS PRODUCED LOCALLY."

SHERMAN LISTED THESE COMMODITIES AMONG THOSE THAT WOULD BE DENIED TO CHINA BY SEA IF THERE IS A BLOCKADE: RUBBER, PETROLEUM, PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, INDUSTRIAL CHEMICALS, PHARMACEUTICALS, MACHINE TOOLS, MACHINERY, INDUSTRIAL AND AUTOMOTIVE SPARE PARTS, METALS AND ELECTRICAL AND ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT.

RUSSELL ASKED ABOUT THE CHANCES OF THE UNITED NATIONS VOTING A NAVAL BLOCKADE.

SHERMAN REPLIED: "I WOULD SAY THAT IMMEDIATELY IT IS NOT LIKELY. IF THIS PRESENT CONDITION DRAGS ON LONG ENOUGH, IT WILL BECOME LIKELY."

THE ADMIRAL SAID HE BELIEVED THERE IS A "GOOD PROSPECT" THE CHINESE CAN BE DEFEATED IN KOREA AND THE WAR CAN END ON TERMS "ADVANTAGEOUS TO US."

GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS SAID THE PRESENT COURSE IN KOREA CAN LEAD ONLY TO A "BLOODY STALEMATE" WHICH HOLDS THE RISK OF ANOTHER WORLD WAR.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASKED SHERMAN IF HE WOULD FAVOR A DIFFERENT STRATEGY IN CASE THE PRESENT WAR POLICY DOESN'T WORK OUT.

"WELL, DEFINITELY," SHERMAN SAID. "IF WE ARE NOT SUCCESSFUL IN DEFEATING THE CHINESE ARMY, DESTROYING ITS POWER, OR, ALTERNATIVELY, CAUSING IT TO WITHDRAW, CEASE ITS ATTACK ON THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES, THEN OF COURSE SOME OTHER COURSE OF ACTION WILL HAVE TO BE TAKEN."

A216WX

AS FOR GOING IT ALONE WITH A BLOCKADE, SHERMAN SAID SUCH AN ACTION "WOULD SET US APART FROM OUR ALLIES AND PROMOTE THE FEELING THAT THE WAR WITH CHINA IS SIMPLY A UNITED STATES WAR."

HE ARGUED THAT FOR THIS REASON AMONG OTHERS IT IS NECESSARY THE U.N. ALLIES JOIN FORCES TO MAKE THE BLOCKADE EFFECTIVE MILITARILY AND POLITICALLY.

SHERMAN WAS TESTIFYING AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FOR PUBLICLY ADVOCATING A NAVAL BLOCKADE AND OTHER MEASURES TO HIT DIRECTLY AT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS FOR INTERVENING IN THE KOREAN FIGHTING.

30.24- 23539

THE NAVY CHIEF SAID HE SUPPORTS THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S KOREAN WAR POLICY, AS OPPOSED TO MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS, AND BELIEVES THERE IS A "GOOD PROSPECT" OF DEFEATING THE CHINESE RED ARMIES IN KOREA AND ENDING THE FIGHTING THERE ON TERMS "ADVANTAGEOUS TO US."

AS TO THE OUSTING OF MACARTHUR, SHERMAN SAID HE URGED THAT MACARTHUR BE VISITED BY A FIVE-STAR GENERAL IN THE FIELD BEFORE ANY MOVE WAS MADE TO REPLACE HIM. HE SAID HE DID NOT EXPECT SUCH SWIFT ACTION AS PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOOK.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASKED IF SHERMAN WOULD "FAVOR A DIFFERENT STRATEGY" IN KOREA "IF THE PRESENT PLAN DOESN'T WORK."

"WELL, DEFINITELY," SHERMAN SAID, "IF WE ARE NOT SUCCESSFUL IN DEFEATING THE CHINESE ARMY, DESTROYING ITS POWER, OR, ALTERNATIVELY, CAUSING IT TO WITHDRAW, CEASE ITS ATTACK ON THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES, THEN OF COURSE SOME OTHER COURSE OF ACTION WILL HAVE TO BE TAKEN."

BRIDGES SAID U.N. FORCES ARE FIGHTING WITH "ONE HAND TIED BEHIND OUR BACK," BY NOT FOLLOWING MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR BOMBING CHINESE SUPPLY BASES IN MANCHURIA.

SHERMAN REPLIED THAT HE BELIEVES "WE ARE NOW DOING THE CORRECT THING," AND THAT THE PRESENT POLICY "OFFERS THE BEST CHANCE OF ACHIEVING A LOCAL SUCCESS AND PERMITTING US TO TERMINATE THAT PARTICULAR FIGHT, WAR, OR WHATEVER IT IS."

SHERMAN TOLD THE SENATORS A BLOCKADE WOULD HURT CHINA.

A UNITED NATIONS NAVAL BLOCKADE, SHERMAN SAID, NOT ONLY WOULD CUT RED CHINA'S FIGHTING STRENGTH, BUT HAVE AN IMPORTANT PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECT.

"IT WOULD DEMONSTRATE TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND TO NEIGHBORING ASIAN PEOPLES THE POWER OF THE FORCES AGAINST COMMUNISM," HE SAID. "IT WOULD DEMONSTRATE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF SEA POWER, A POWER THAT CHINESE COMMUNISTS CAN DO LITTLE TO THWART."

AND, THE ADMIRAL DECLARED, A UN BLOCKADE "WOULD BE HIGHLY EFFECTIVE IN IMPEDING PREPARATIONS BY CHINA TO INVADE FORMOSA."

"CHINA," HE SAID, "IS NOT CAPABLE OF TAKING COUNTERMEASURES THAT COULD APPRECIABLY REDUCE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF SUCH A BLOCKADE."

HOWEVER, SHERMAN SAID THAT FROM A POLITICAL STANDPOINT, A BLOCKADE BY THE UNITED STATES ALONE "WOULD SET US APART FROM OUR ALLIES AND PROMOTE THE FEELING THAT THE WAR WITH CHINA IS SIMPLY A UNITED STATES WAR."

THUS FAR, THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS SAID, OTHER U.N. MEMBERS HAVE REFUSED TO JOIN IN THE NAVAL BLOCKADE ALTHOUGH THEY HAVE GIVEN EVIDENCE THEY WILL HELP MAKE AN ECONOMIC BLOCKADE MUCH MORE EFFECTIVE THAN IT HAS BEEN IN THE PAST.

"I STILL HOPE THAT WE CAN PREVAIL UPON OUR ALLIES TO JOIN IN AN EFFECTIVE UNITED NATIONS COMMERCIAL AND NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE PORTS OF THE DECLARED AGGRESSOR (RED CHINA) AND AS A SANCTION SHORT OF WAR AS CONTEMPLATED BY ARTICLES 41 AND 42 OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER," SHERMAN SAID, ADDING:

MAY 31 1951

A151WX

"I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT A UNILATERAL (BY ITSELF) UNITED STATES NAVAL BLOCKADE IS ADVISABLE."

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE COMBINED ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES TOLD SHERMAN HE HAD MADE "THE STRONGEST CASE HERE OF THE IMPORTANCE OF AN EFFECTIVE BLOCKADE ON CHINA THAT HAS BEEN MADE."

"I HAD NO IDEA THAT A BLOCKADE WOULD BE SO EFFECTIVE IN PARALYZING THE ECONOMY OF CHINA AND AFFECTING THE OPERATIONS OF ITS ARMED FORCES AS YOUR STATEMENT WOULD INDICATE," RUSSELL SAID.

SHERMAN ALSO TOLD THE SENATORS:

1. HE WOULD FAVOR IMPOSITION OF A UNITED NATIONS BLOCKADE WHETHER RUSSIA APPROVED IT IN THE U.N. OR DID NOT.

2. "THE GREATER PART OF THE SHIPPING GOING IN AND OUT OF CHINESE PORTS WOULD BE AUTOMATICALLY STOPPED BY THE VOTE WHICH ESTABLISHED--OR BY THE PROCEDURE WHICH ESTABLISHED--A UNITED NATIONS BLOCKADE." THIS WAS A WAY OF SAYING IT IS U.N. MEMBERS WHO ENGAGE NOW IN TRADE WITH CHINA.

3. IT WOULD BE A SIMPLE MATTER TO DEAL WITH SUCH "OTHER COUNTRIES AS DID NOT SUPPORT THE BLOCKADE."

4. IT WOULD INVOLVE ONLY "MINOR EMBARRASSMENT" TO ASSEMBLE THE SHIPS TO BLOCKADE RED CHINA, IF TIME WERE GIVEN FOR THE OPERATION. HE SAID HE WOULD ASK ACTIVATION OF RESERVE SHIPS TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THOSE ASSIGNED TO BLOCKADE DUTY.

5. HE AGREES WITH MACARTHUR THAT RUSSIA COULD NOT WREST CONTROL OF THE SEAS AROUND JAPAN FROM THE UNITED STATES. SHERMAN SAID: "THEY COULD CONTEST IT, BUT WE HAVE SUFFICIENT NAVAL POWER TO PREVENT ANY OTHER COUNTRY FROM CONTROLLING THE SEAS AROUND JAPAN," HE SAID.

6. THE RED CHINESE DO NOT HAVE ENOUGH SHIPS TO CONTEST SERIOUSLY A NAVAL BLOCKADE.

7. THERE HAS BEEN A RECENT TIGHTENING OF THE DRAWSTRINGS BY THE UNITED STATES' ALLIES, BUT THAT THEY "CAN STILL DO MUCH MORE TO MAKE AN ECONOMIC BLOCKADE EFFECTIVE."

RUSSELL ASKED WHAT WAS THE POSSIBILITY THE UNITED NATIONS WILL VOTE A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF COMMUNIST CHINA.

"I WOULD SAY THAT IMMEDIATELY IT IS NOT LIKELY," SHERMAN REPLIED. "IF THIS PRESENT CONDITION DRAGS ON LONG ENOUGH, IT WILL BECOME LIKELY."

SHERMAN SAID THAT IF THE UNITED NATIONS SHOULD DECLARE SUCH A BLOCKADE--RUSSIA PROBABLY WOULD RESPECT IT AS THE SOVIETS HAVE RESPECTED THE NAVAL BLOCKADE OF KOREA. HE ADDED:

"IF THE UNITED STATES SHOULD DECLARE A BLOCKADE UNILATERALLY (ALONE), THE RUSSIANS MIGHT NOT RESPECT IT, AND IT IS CONCEIVABLE THAT THEY MIGHT OPPOSE IT BY FORCE."

SHERMAN TESTIFIED U.S. NAVAL FORCES HAVE SWEPT UP "SEVERAL THOUSAND" RUSSIAN MINES IN KOREAN WATERS. HE SAID THE SOVIETS APPARENTLY CAN MAKE THE MINES ABOUT AS FAST AS THEY CAN BE DESTROYED.

WHEN THE QUESTION OF THE RUSSIAN MINES WAS FIRST RAISED, CENSORS CUT OUT ABOUT 140 WORDS OF HIS TESTIMONY.

THEN CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE JOINT COMMITTEES ASKED:

MAY 31 1951

A132WX

"WE HAVE SWEPT UP QUITE A FEW OF THESE RUSSIAN MINES?"

SHERMAN. "WE HAVE SWEPT SEVERAL THOUSAND OF THEM."

RUSSELL: "WE HAVE MADE SOME INROADS IN THE SUPPLY THEY PROBABLY HAD THERE FROM VLADIVOSTOK AND OTHER RUSSIAN PORTS."

SHERMAN: "WELL, SIR, I WOULD LIKE TO BE THAT OPTIMISTIC, BUT I AM AFRAID THEY CAN PROBABLY BE MANUFACTURED AT A RATE JUST AS FAST AS OUR RECOVERY OF THEM."

THE EXCHANGE APPARENTLY INDICATED SHERMAN'S BELIEF THAT THE MINES WERE LOOSED BY CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES AND NOT THE RUSSIANS THEMSELVES, ALTHOUGH THIS POINT WAS NOT MADE WHOLLY CLEAR.

WHEN SHERMAN TOOK THE WITNESS CHAIR, THE SENATORS ASKED HIM FOR THE LATEST REPORTS ON THE KOREAN WAR. HE TOLD THEM THE CHINESE REDS NOW ARE PUTTING UP "FIRM RESISTANCE" TO UNITED NATIONS ADVANCES.

HE CALLED THE PRESENT SITUATION ONE OF "REGROUPING AND PREPARING FOR FURTHER OPERATIONS."

"ON THE WHOLE," HE SAID, "I FEEL THAT WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED A GREAT DEAL IN THIS PERIOD THAT HAS JUST BEEN FINISHED, WE HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL THOUSAND PRISONERS. AND THE ESTIMATES OF ENEMY CASUALTIES RUN VERY HIGH, OUR OWN CASUALTY REPORTS RUNNING RATHER LOW."

WHILE DISCUSSING THE MINES, SHERMAN RELATED THAT NAVAL SHIPS HAVE ON OCCASION SENT MEN ASHORE TO GET AT SMALL ENEMY CRAFT USED FOR MINE-LAYING.
"WE HAD A LANDING DAY BEFORE YESTERDAY UP IN THE NORTHEAST COAST OF KOREA TO DESTROY SOME CRAFT THAT LOOKED AS IF THEY MIGHT BE BEING PREPARED FOR USE IN LAYING MINES--SAMPANS WITH STEEL DECKS," HE SAID.
"ONE OF OUR SHIPS LANDED A PARTY AND DESTROYED THEM AND TOOK THE LANDING PARTY BACK ABOARD."
SHERMAN SAID THAT DESPITE MINES AND OTHER OBSTACLES "WE ARE UNLOADING IN KOREA NOW ABOUT SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND TONS OF SUPPLIES EVERY MONTH."

MAY 31 1951

A135WX

HE SAID FOUR U.S. MINE SWEEPERS HAVE BEEN LOST AND TWO OR THREE ALLIED SWEEPERS HAVE BEEN DAMAGED BY MINES.
SHERMAN SAID THE NAVY IS CONTINUING TO BOMBARD THE PORT OF WONSAN, BECAUSE THAT IS ONE POINT WHERE THE CHINESE SUPPLY LINE FROM THE DIRECTION OF SIBERIA CAN BE INTERRUPTED.
HE SAID THE NAVY HAS BEEN ABLE TO CUT TWO COASTAL WATER SUPPLY ROUTES AND A COUPLE OF THE COASTAL LAND ROUTES, ADDING THAT THE "EFFECTIVENESS OF NAVAL GUNFIRE IN ASSISTING A LAND CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN UNUSUALLY GREAT, BECAUSE THE CAMPAIGN IS IN THIS NARROW PENINSULA."
SHERMAN SAID THE BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY HAS BEEN HIT BY FIRE FROM SHORE. THIS PREVIOUSLY WAS ANNOUNCED BY THE NAVY.
HE SAID THERE HAD BEEN "A GOOD DEAL OF GUNFIRE FROM SHORE, PARTICULARLY IN THE WONSAN AREA."
"THIS IS THE FIRST TIME FOR A CONSIDERABLE PERIOD THAT THERE HAS BEEN ANY DIRECT HIT ON ONE OF OUR SHIPS," HE ADDED. "THIS WAS A HIT ON THE NUMBER ONE TURRET OF THE NEW JERSEY THAT KILLED ONE MAN, PRESUMABLY WHO WAS IN AN EXPOSED POSITION."

THE QUESTIONING TURNED THEN TO THE QUESTION OF WHAT WOULD BE THE EFFECT OF A NAVAL BLOCKADE ON RED CHINA.
SHERMAN EXPLAINED THAT A BLOCKADE MUST BE LIMITED TO THE PORTS AND COAST BELONGING TO OR OCCUPIED BY AN ENEMY, MUST NOT BAR ACCESS TO NEUTRAL PORTS OR COASTS AND MUST BE APPLIED EQUALLY TO THE SHIPS OF ALL NATIONS.
HE SAID A BLOCKADE WOULD HURT CHINA, ADDING THAT THE COUNTRY'S ECONOMY ALREADY HAS BEEN "WEAKENED BY INTERNAL STRIFE."
"IT IS BASICALLY UNSTABLE, DEPENDING PARTICULARLY FOR MATERIALS OF WAR ON THE IMPORT OF MANY COMMODITIES AND UPON EXPORT TRADE FOR FOREIGN CREDIT," HE SAID.
SHERMAN LISTED AS COMMODITIES THAT WOULD BE SERIOUSLY INTERFERED WITH BY NAVAL BLOCKADE: RUBBER, PETROLEUM, PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, INDUSTRIAL CHEMICALS, PHARMACEUTICALS, MACHINE TOOLS, MACHINERY, INDUSTRIAL AND AUTOMOTIVE SPARE PARTS, METALS, AND ELECTRICAL AND ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT.
"CHINA WOULD BE FORCED TO TURN TO RUSSIA IF AN EFFECTIVE BLOCKADE WERE IMPOSED, WITH CONSEQUENT INCREASED DRAIN ON RUSSIAN PRODUCTION," THE ADMIRAL SAID.
SINCE "PRACTICALLY ALL MATERIAL" FROM RUSSIA TO CHINA MUST BE CARRIED BY THE TRANS-SIBERIAN RAILWAY, "WHICH IS KOWN TO BE ALREADY OVER-TAXED," HE WENT ON, "THIS WOULD HAVE AN ADDED ADVERSE EFFECT ON SOVIET WAR-MAKING POTENTIAL IN THE FAR EAST."
MACARTHUR, WHEN ADVOCATING SUCH A BLOCKADE, IN TESTIMONY TO THE SENATORS, SAID THE TRANSSIBERIAL RAILWAY ALREADY WAS TAXED TO CAPACITY. HE CONTENDED THE RUSSIANS COULDN'T SUPPLY MUCH ADDITIONAL EQUIPMENT TO THE CHINDSE REDS.
SHERMAN, SAYING THE CHINESE ARE "SUSCEPTIBLE TO PLAGUES AND CONTAGIOUS DISEASE," SAID THE STOPPAGE OF DRUG SUPPLIES WOULD HIT DIRECTLY AT THE MOBILITY OF THE CHINESE ARMIES.

A145WX

"ALTHOUGH THE ECONOMY OF CHINA IS MAINLY RURAL AND OPERATES AT A BARE SUBSISTENCE LEVEL," SHERMAN SAID, "THE URBAN AND MILITARY SEGMENTS OF THE ECONOMY ARE LARGELY DEPENDENT ON OVERSEAS TRADE, AND TO A LESSER EXTENT ON COASTAL TRADE, AND ARE, THEREFORE, PARTICULARLY VULNERABLE TO BLOCKADE.
"AS REGARDS URBAN CENTERS, CUTTING OFF THE TRADE ON WHICH THEIR SUBSISTENCE DEPENDS WOULD CREATE UNEMPLOYMENT AND UNREST, HINDER INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION AND CREATE SERIOUS FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES.
"SUCH DIFFICULTIES WOULD BE AUGMENTED IF AT THE SAME TIME THE TENUOUS INTERNAL LINES OF COMMUNICATION (CONSISTING IN THE MAIN OF WATERWAYS AND A VERY FEW RAIL LINES) WERE CUT EITHER BY AIR OR GUERRILLA ACTION.
"AS REGARDS HEAVY MILITARY EQUIPMENT, TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT, AUTOMOTIVE SPARE PARTS, AND SO FORTH, CHINA IS ALMOST ENTIRELY DEPENDENT UPON IMPORTS AND WOULD BE GREATLY HANDICAPPED IF THESE WERE CUT OFF.
"ALL MANUFACTURED MATERIAL FOR REPLACING OR CARRYING OR AUGMENTING HEAVY INDUSTRY IN CHINA MUST BE BROUGHT IN FROM ABROAD, SINCE NOTHING OF THAT NATURE IS PRODUCED LOCALLY."

ALTHOUGH THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF STUDIED THE NAVAL BLOCKADE QUESTION LAST JANUARY, SHERMAN SAID SUCH A MOVE THEN WOULD HAVE HAD "NUMEROUS COMPLICATIONS."
NOT THE LEAST OF THESE, HE SAID, WAS THE NECESSITY TO FURNISH NAVAL SUPPORT TO THE TROOPS IN KOREA AND TO CARRY OUT POSSIBLE EVACUATIONS SUCH AS THAT WHICH HAD OCCURRED AT HUNGNAM."
SHERMAN SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AS RECENTLY AS MARCH 28 TOLD SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL THEY "VIEWED WITH ALARM THE GROWING MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO COMMUNIST CHINA BY NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES OTHER THAN THE UNITED STATES."
THE CHIEFS, HE SAID, TOLD MARSHALL THAT "THE TRADE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA WAS ON THE INCREASE AND CONSTITUTED A DIRECT THREAT TO THE SECURITY INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES," DESPITE EFFORTS TO GET NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES TO CHOKE OFF THE FLOW OF ESSENTIAL GOODS TO THE REDS.
SHERMAN SAID EVEN A U.N. NAVAL BLOCKADE WOULD NOT CUT OFF THE OVERLAND FLOW OF SUPPLIES FROM RUSSIA TO RED CHINA.
HE SAID THAT FOR RUSSIA TO SUPPLY CHINA COMPLETELY "WOULD INVOLVE CONS DISLOCATION OF RUSSIAN ECONOMY, AND WOULD BE VERY C

MAY 31 1951

HE SAID THAT FOR RUSSIA TO SUPPLY CHINA COMPLETELY "WOULD INVOLVE CONSIDERABLE DISLOCATION OF RUSSIAN ECONOMY, AND WOULD BE VERY COSTLY."
BUT HE SAID THE BLOCKADE MIGHT BE EVADED IN PART BY WATER SHIPMENT TO NEUTRAL COUNTRIES IN BASE AREAS, PRIMARILY THROUGH PORT ARTHUR, DAIREN, HONG KONG, INDO CHINA, AND BURMA, AND THENCE OVERLAND.
HE SAID GREAT BRITAIN AND PORTUGAL MIGHT AID IN THE BLOCKADE BUT "RUSSIA WOULD VERY PROBABLY DEMAND UNIMPEDED ACCESS TO PORT ARTHUR AND DAIREN, OVER WHICH IT EXERCISES MILITARY RIGHTS AND OTHER PRIVILEGES UNDER THE SINO-SOVIET TREATIES."
BRITAIN CONTROLS HONG KONG, ISLAND PORT ADJACENT TO THE CHINESE MAINLAND. PORTUGAL CONTROLS MACAO, ISLAND AT THE ENTRANCE TO THE CANTON RIVER.

SHERMAN BEGAN HIS TESTIMONY BY REVIEWING THE PRESENT KOREAN WAR SITUATION.
"THE RESISTANCE SEEMS TO BE STIFFENING AS OF THIS MORNING AND ON THE 7:00 O'CLOCK TELECON THIS MORNING THE REPORT INDICATES THAT THE FIRST CORPS AND THE NINTH CORPS, WHICH ARE ON THE WESTERN END OF OUR LINE, ARE NOW MEETING VERY FIRM RESISTANCE," SHERMAN TESTIFIED.
"YESTERDAY THERE WERE SOME ATTACKS EVEN AGAINST UNITS OF THE TENTH CORPS, INCLUDING THE MARINE DIVISION, WHICH WERE BEATEN OFF."
SHERMAN SAID THE REPORTS INDICATED ALL U.N. UNITS WERE ACCOUNTED FOR, WHICH HE SAID "INDICATES NO FALLING BACK."

30.24- 23541

A125WX
SHERMAN SAID THAT THE TENTH CORPS, MOVING NORTH AND NORTHEAST, HAD TAKEN "A GREAT MANY PRISONERS." HE SAID COMMUNIST FORCES ON THAT PART OF THE FRONT "HAVE WITHDRAWN A CONSIDERABLE DISTANCE."

SHERMAN TOLD THE SENATORS THE BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND "TWO OR THRE OTHER SHIPS" HAVE ASSISTED WITH COVERING FIRE THE ADVANCE OF A SOUTH KOREAN DIVISION WHICH HAS PUSHED 26 MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL ON THE EAST COAST OF KOREA.

HE REPORTED ALSO THAT THE AIR ARM HAD FUNCTIONED "EXTENSIVELY ALL ACROSS THE FRONT AND IN THE REAR AREAS." HE SAID THAT YESTERDAY CARRIERS FLEW 199 COMBAT SORTIES, THE MARINES 153 AND THE AIR FORCE 471. A SORTIE IS ONE FLIGHT BY ONE PLANE.

IN GOING AHEAD WITH SHERMAN'S TESTIMONY, THE COMMITTEE PUT OFF FOR THE TIME BEING A DECISION ON WHETHER TO MAKE PUBLIC A 1949 STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENT DEALING WITH FORMOSA. THIS QUESTION HAD BEEN SLATED FOR DEBATE AT THE OPENING OF THE SESSION.

SHERMAN WAS ETC., 3RD GRAPH FIRST LEAD
SU1058AED

SHERMAN WAS THE SIXTH WITNESS IN THE INQUIRY BY THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES.

ONLY 10 OF THE 26 MEMBERS OF THE TWO COMMITTEES WERE ON HAND WHEN CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) BANGED HIS GAVEL TO OPEN THE SESSION.

IN ADDITION TO RUSSELL, SENATORS PRESENT AT THE START WERE KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), MORSE (R-ORE), CAIN (R-WASH), SPARKMAN (D-ALA), GREEN (D-RI), CONNALLY (D-TEX), GEORGE (D-GA), SMITH (R-NJ) AND HICKENLOOPER (R-IA).

SENATORS BYRD (D-VA) AND BRIDGES (R-NH) ARRIVED WITHIN A FEW MINUTES LATER.

MAY 31 1951

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) SAID THE GROUP HOPES TO WIND UP QUESTIONING OF SHERMAN BY NIGHTFALL AND CALL SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TOMORROW. SO FAR, HOWEVER, EXAMINATION OF NONE OF THE WITNESSES HAS BEEN COMPLETED IN A SINGLE DAY.

THE START OF THE QUIZZING OF SHERMAN WAS SLATED TO BE DELAYED BRIEFLY WHILE THE COMMITTEE DEBATES WHETHER TO MAKE PUBLIC A DECEMBER 1949 STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENT DEALING WITH THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA, NOW IN THE HANDS OF CHINESE NATIONALISTS. IN SUBSTANCE, THE DOCUMENT ADVISED THE DEPARTMENT'S CONSULAR OFFICIALS TO PREPARE THEN FOR THE FALL OF THAT PACIFIC ISLAND, SAYING IT WAS NOT VITAL TO U. S.DEFENSES.

THE DEPARTMENT HAS SUPPLIED THE DOCUMENT TO THE INQUIRY COMMITTEE, BUT HAS ASKED THAT IT BE KEPT SECRET. SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) SAID HE WANTS THE WRAPS REMOVED SO HE CAN QUESTION SHERMAN ABOUT IT WITHOUT ANY RESTRICTION. THE COMMITTEE ASKED THE DEPARTMENT TO HAVE A SPOKESMAN ON HAND TO OUTLINE ITS CASE FOR SECRECY.

MACARTHUR WAS FIRED FOR PUBLICLY ADVOCATING A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE RED CHINA COAST, AS WELL AS AN INTENSIFIED ECONOMIC BLOCKADE, BOMBING OF COMMUNIST CHINESE SUPPLY BASES, AND USE OF THE FORMOSA-BASED NATIONALIST FORCES UNDER CHIANG KAI SHEK.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S POSITION IS THAT SUCH A PROGRAM MIGHT BRING RUSSIA INTO THE KOREAN CONFLICT AND TOUCH OFF A THIRD WORLD WAR.

THE COMMITTEE ALREADY HAS BEEN TOLD BY GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, THAT SHERMAN CONCURRED IN MR.TRUMAN'S DECISION TO DISMISS MACARTHUR.

"WE ARE PARTICULARLY ANXIOUS NOW," SENATOR SPARKMAN (D-ALA) TOLD A REPORTER, "TO HAVE THE ADMIRAL'S VIEWS ON MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL TO SET UP A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF COMMUNIST CHINA. IT SEEMS APPARENT THAT SHERMAN WAS AGAINST THAT."

GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG, AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF, COMPLETED TWO DAYS OF TESTIMONY LATE YESTERDAY. JUST BEFORE HE LEFT THE WITNESS CHAIR HE TOLD THE COMMITTEE AMERICA WON'T EVEN BEGIN TO HAVE ADEQUATE MILITAR SECURITY UNTIL SOMETIME IN 1953.

THAT ASSERTION CAME AFTER SENATOR LONG (D-LA) NOTED THAT DEFENSE MOBILIZER CHARLES E.WILSON RECENTLY PREDICTED THAT, AS LONG PUT IT, "WE CAN EXPECT BY 1953, AT THE RATE WE ARE GOING, TO HAVE A REASONABLE MARGIN OF SECURITY."

LONG SAID HE SUPPOSED VANDENBERG AGREED WITH WILSON ON THAT.

A5WX
"NO EXACTLY

A5WX
"NOT EXACTLY, SENATOR," VANDENBERG REPLIED. "MY FEELING IS THAT THE DANGER PERIOD BEGINS FROM TODAY UNTIL ABOUT 1954, AND IN MY OPINION IN 1953 WE WILL BE BEGINNING TO HAVE AN ADEQUATE MILITARY POSTURE.

"I WOULD NOT SAY THAT IN 1953 EVERYTHING WILL BE LOVELY BY A LONG SHOT."

THIS NATION'S STOCKPILE OF ATOMIC BOMBS AND THE MEANS TO DELIVER THEM "IS THE ONE OVERCOMING FACTOR WHICH MAKES FOR OUR FAVOR," VANDENBERG SAID IN SIZING UP THE COMPARATIVE MILITARY STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

HE ADDED THAT THE U. S. IS RELATIVELY SAFE AT PRESENT FROM AN ATOMIC BOMB ATTACK, BUT HE REITERATED THAT "TOMORROW, I THINK WE ARE IN GREAT DANGER."

MAY 31 1951

THE AIR FORCE CHIEF HAD EXPLAINED THAT BY "TOMORROW" HE MEANS AN INDEFINITE DATE IN THE FUTURE WHEN RUSSIA MIGHT DECIDE TO ATTACK.

VANDENBERG HAMMERED AWAY AGAIN AT HIS THESIS THAT THIS COUNTRY MUST BUILD UP ITS AIR POWER ON A BIG SCALE IF RUSSIA IS TO BE KEPT AT BAY.

HE SAID FOR YEARS THE MIGHTY BRITISH NAVY KEPT THE PEACE, AND THEN ADDED:

"MY ONLY HOPE IS THAT THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE CAN BE BUILT TO A POINT WHERE IT CAN DO A SIMILAR JOB FOR THE FREE NATIONS OF THE WORLD."

VANDENBERG SAID THE AMERICAN AIR FORCE'S JOB "BECOMES ROUGHLY DOUBLED" AS RUSSIA'S AIR POWER AND STOCKPILE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS INCREASES.

THE AIR FORCE BOSS AGAIN BACKED MR.TRUMAN'S REMOVAL OF MACARTHUR. HE ALSO TOLD THE COMMITTEE:

1. WAR WITH RUSSIA IS NOT INEVITABLE, BUT "I MUST CONFESS THAT MY HOPE FOR A PEACEFUL WORLD SITUATION IS RATHER LIMITED."

2. HE IS AGAINST ADMITTING RED CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS "UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES." ALSO, HE IS EQUALLY OPPOSED TO CONSIDERING SEATING THE REDS IN THE U. N. AS A BARGAINING POINT IN ANY TALKS TOWARD A KOREAN WAR SETTLEMENT.

3. THERE IS "A CHANCE," BASED ON THE PRESENT MILITARY PROGRAM, TO ACHIEVE THE UNITED NATIONS GOAL OF A UNIFIED, PEACEFUL KOREA--BY DEALING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS SUCH PUNISHING BLOWS THEY WILL BE WILLING TO MAKE PEACE ON THAT BASIS.

4. THERE SHOULD BE GREAT CAUTION AGAINST "DEMOBILIZATION OR LOWERING OF OUR SIGHTS" IF THE KOREAN WAR IS SETTLED SATISFACTORILY.

VANDENBERG ALSO SAID HE PERSONALLY WOULD OPPOSE GIVING FORMOSA TO THE COMMUNISTS. HE SAID HE AGREES WITH THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THAT FORMOSA HAS STRATEGIC VALUE TO THE U. S.

MACARTHUR HAS SAID THE U.S. SHOULD NOT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT FORMOSA TO FALL TO THE REDS. IF THAT SHOULD HAPPEN, HE SAID, MTHE U.S. DEFENSE LINE MIGHT FALL BACK TO THE PACIFIC COAST.

AS FOR NEED TO BUILD AMERICAN AIR POWER, VANDENBERG SAID:

"AS THE POWER OF THE RUSSIAN AIR FORCE INCREASES, AND THEIR STOCK-PILE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS INCREASES, THE JOB OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE BECOMES ROUGHLY DOUBLED."

THIS COUNTRY, HE SAID, HAS THE OPPORTUNITY NOW TO FOLLOW PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S ADVICE TO "WALK SOFTLY, BUT CARRY A BIG STICK"---THE STICK BEING AIR FORCE OFFENSIVE POWER.

HE CONTENDED WHAT THE U.S. NOW HAS IS "A FAIRLY LARGE CLUB, BUT TOMORROW, IT IS LIABLE TO BE A WILLOW WAND" WHEN COMPARED WITH RUSSIA'S INCREASING MIGHT.

VANDENBERG SAID HE DID NOT INTEND TO IMPLY IN EARLIER TESTIMONY THAT "WHAT GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS ADVOCATED" FOR BOMBING COMMUNIST BASES IN MANCHURIA "IS SOMETHING THAT COULDN'T BE DONE WITH THE FORCE THAT HE ADVOCATED."

SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) TOLD HIM "YOU HAVE SAID THAT IN YOUR OPINION IT WOULD TAKE ABOUT DOUBLE THE STRATEGIC AIRPOWER THAT THE AIR FORCE NOW POSSESSES TO SATISFY GENERAL MACARTHUR'S BOMBING RECOMMENDATIONS."

MACARTHUR, VANDENBERG SAID, "ENVISAGED A SMALLER SCALE OPERATION THAN I ENVISAGE, BUT BECAUSE I HAVE X X X THE GLOBAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE U.S. AIR FORCE, I HAVE TO SEE HOW THAT SMALLER SCALE OPERATION WOULD AFFECT THE AIR FORCE IN TOTAL."

TO BE EFFECTIVE, VANDENBERG SAID, SUCH AN OPERATION AS MACARTHUR ADVOCATED WOULD HAVE TO BE ON A BIG SCALE AND MIGHT INVOLVE LOSS OF MORE PLANES THAN THE AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY CAN SUPPLY AT THIS TIME.

VANDENBERG SAID THE PRESENT GOAL OF A 95-GROUP AIR FORCE BY EARLY 1953 IS JUST "A WAY STATION" TOWARD THE TOTAL AIR POWER NEEDED TO BALANC OFF RUSSIA'S GROWING ATOMIC STOCKPILE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS. A GROUP VARIES FROM 18 TO 75 PLANES, DEPENDING ON THEIR TYPE.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL, HOWEVER, LATER TOLD A REPORTER HE CONSIDERED THAT ESTIMATE WAS "BASED ON THE GLOOMIEST OUTLOOK." HE SUGGESTED EASING OF THE EAST-WEST TENSION MIGHT PERMIT A SAFE REDUCTION IN THE COSTLY ARMS PROGRAM, BUT HE CAUTIONED THAT WITHOUT SUCH A RELAXING THE FREE NATIONS MUST FACE "A HEAVY BURDEN."

(350)

WASHINGTON,MAY 30-(AP)-A LIEUTENANT HAS BEEN FIRED FROM THE U.S. NAVY AFTER WRITING A LETTER CONTAINING "VERY NASTY" ANTI-ADMINISTRATION VIEWS, A NAVAL SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY.

THE LETTER WAS WRITTEN TO A NEW YORK IMPORTER OF CHINESE GOODS AND WAS "SUFFICIENTLY CRITICAL THAT WE REVOKED HIS COMMISSION," THE NAVY OFFICIAL TOLD NEWSMEN.

THE CASE OF THE LIEUTENANT, IDENTIFIED AS LIEUT. (JG) W.A.EVANS, WAS MENTIONED CRYTPICALLY DURING TODAY'S MACARTHUR HEARINGS. THE EXACT NATURE OF HIS LETTER WAS NOT BROUGHT OUT, BUT IT WAS STATED THAT HE WAS DISCHARGED "AS OF YESTERDAY" ON RECOMMENDATION OF A NAVAL BOARD OF INVESTIGATION, PRESUMABLY SOMEWHERE IN THE PACIFIC.

OUTSIDE THE HEARINGS, THE NAVAL SPOKESMAN SAID THAT, AS HE RECALLS, THE IMPORTER TO WHOM EVANNS WROTE WAS NAMED KOHLBERG. ALFRED KOHLBERG, OF NEW YORK, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF THE AMERICAN-CHINA POLICY ASSOCIATION, HAS BEEN A VEHEMENT CRITIC OF THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION. LAST SEPTEMBER HE CHARGED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD IN HIS POSSESSION A LIST OF 150 SOVIET ATOMIC SPIES BUT NONE HAD BEEN ARRESTED.

LATE TONIGHT ALFRED KOHLBERG, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF THE AMERICAN-CHINA POLICY ASSOCIATION, SAID IN WASHINGTON HE WAS THE IMPORTER WHO HAD RECEIVED EVANS' LETTER.

KOHLBERG, VEHEMENT CRITIC OF THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION, SAID THE LETTER REFERRED TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON AS "RED DEAN ACHESON," SPOKE IN UNCOMPLIMENTARY TERMS OF CONGRESS AND DECLARED "TO HELL WITH THE UNITED NATIONS."

KOHLBERG TOLD A REPORTER EVANS WROTE THE LETTER LAST MARCH WHILE SERVING ON THE DESTROYER ROGERS OFF KOREA BUT THAT EVANS NOW IS IN THE WASHINGTON AREA, WHERE HE WAS RECALLED FOR NAVY HEARINGS.

THE IMPORTER SAID EVANS AGREED IN "VERY UNRESTRAINED LANGUAGE" WITH THE BROADER STEPS ADVOCATED BY GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FOR PROSECUTING THE KOREAN WAR. HE SAID EVANS COMPLAINED THAT AMERICAN FORCES WERE FIGHTING WITH ONE HAND TIED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE OTHER HAND TIED BY THE UN.

EVANS WROTE THAT OTHER OFFICERS SHARED HIS VIEWS, KOHLBERG SAID. KOHLBERG SAID HE DID NOT HAVE A COPY OF THE LETTER WITH HIM BUT RECALLED POSITIVELY A FEW OF THE QUOTATIONS.

LAST SEPTEMBER KOHLBERG CHARGED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD IN HIS POSSESSION A LIST OF 150 SOVIET ATOMIC SPIES BUT NONE HAD BEEN ARRESTED.

IN APRIL OF LAST YEAR, KOHLBERG SAID HE HAD BEEN SUPPLYING "COMMUNIST DATA" TO SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) TO AID IN THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHICH MCCARTHY CHARGED WAS RIDDLED WITH RED INFLUENCE.

THE EVANS CASE WAS MENTIONED BRIEFLY TODAY IN QUESTIONING OF ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN, NAVAL CHIEF OF STAFF, BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS AND ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING THE OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASKED THE ADMIRAL IF HE WAS FAMILIAR WITH "A CASE WHICH THE NAVY HAS JUST HAD UNDER CONSIDERATION INVOLVING A LETTER WRITTEN" BY EVANS "WHO WAS DISCHARGED FROM THE NAVY, I BELIEVE, AS OF YESTERDAY."

MAY 31 1951

SHERMAN SAID HE KNEW ABOUT IT.

"I AM NOT GOING TO QUESTION THE PROPRIETY OF WHAT THE NAVY DID OR THE ACTION," BRIDGES SAID, "THE POINT IN RAISING IT IS--DOES THE SENTIMENT WHICH LIEUTENANT EVANS' LETTER REVEALED, DO YOU THINK THAT IS GENERALLY SHARED ALL OR IN PART OF OUR ARMED FORCES IN THE PACIFIC?"

SHERIAM, "NO, SIR, I DO NOT. A VERY THOROUGH BOARD OF INVES

SHERMAN. "NO, SIR, I DO NOT. A VERY THOROUGH BOARD OF INVESTIGATION REVEALED THAT IT WAS NOT SHARED BY HIS SHIPMATES, WHICH WAS THE PLACE THAT WE INVESTIGATED.

"I DIRECTED THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF PACIFIC FLEET TO CONVENE A BOARD OF INVESTIGATION AND TO DETERMINE WHAT THE STATE OF AFFAIRS WAS ON THAT SHIP. HIS RECOMMENDATION TO ME WAS TO DISCHARGE THE OFFICER AND, EXCEPT FOR HIS PRESENCE, THE DISCIPLINE OF THE SHIP WAS UNIMPAIRED."

NAVAL OFFICERS AT THE PENTAGON SAID PERSONNEL RECORD FILES WERE CLOSED FOR THE HOLIDAY AND DETAILED IDENTIFICATION OF LIEUT.EVANS WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE. THEY SAID, HOWEVER, THAT HE WAS A RESERVE OFFICER CALLED TO DUTY SINCE KOREA.

HIS LETTER TO KOHLBERG, THESE OFFICERS SAID, CONTAINED COMMENTS "AGAINST" PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON.

THE OFFICER, THE INFORMANTS REPORTED, ASKED KOHLBERG TO TELL MEMBERS OF CONGRESS ABOUT WHAT HE HAD WRITTEN.

JUST HOW THE COMMISSION WAS REVOKED, THE NAVY HEADQUARTERS OFFICERS DID NOT SAY. BUT SINCE IT WAS A TEMPORARY COMMISSION IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN TAKEN AWAY WITHOUT A GENERAL COURT MARTIAL, BY ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION.

BOSTON,MAY 30-(AP)-REP.KENNEDY (D-MASS) SAYS GEN.MACARTHUR APPARENTLY DOES NOT BELIEVE THE RUSSIANS WILL RESORT TO FORCE IN EUROPE BECAUSE THEY ARE MAKING PROGRESS IN ASIA "WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT OR LOSING A SOLDIER."

REPORTING YESTERDAY ON A TWO-HOUR CONFERENCE HE HAD WITH THE GENERAL IN NEW YORK, REP.KENNEDY SAID ALSO MACARTHUR BELIEVES RUSSIAN DISPOSITIONS IN SIBERIA ARE DEFENSIVE AND THAT OUR BOMBING OF MANCHURIA WOULD NOT AFFECT THEIR DECISION TO BEGIN AN AGGRESSIVE WAR.

HE QUOTED THE GENERAL AS SAYING THE PRESENT METHOD OF FIGHTING IN KOREA "CANNOT LEAD TO ANY FINAL DECISION REGARDLESS OF HOW MANY CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE KILLED.

"WE HAVE NOT HURT HIM (THE ENEMY) VITALLY, AND WE ARE LOSING HEAVILY OURSELVES. THE POOL OF AMERICAN BLOOD IS GETTING DEEPER."

KENNEDY FURTHER QUOTED MACARTHUR AS SAYING THAT OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE IN EUROPE "IS NOT THE ELBE OR RHINE RIVERS BUT THE YALU RIVER. IF WE DO NOT WIN IN KOREA, WE CAN LOSE IN EUROPE."

KENNEDY'S REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE WAS CONTAINED IN A STATEMENT ISSUED FROM HIS BOSTON OFFICE.

KENNEDY WAS THE FIRST CONGRESSMAN TO CONFER WITH THE GENERAL SINCE HIS APPEARANCE BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEES.

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD

TOKYO, THURSDAY, MAY 31-(AP)-ALLIED TROOPS AGAIN WON CONTROL OF HWACHON ELECTRIC POWER RESERVOIR IN CENTRAL KOREAN WEDNESDAY BY SEIZING THE 275-FOOT-HIGH DAM, EIGHTH ARMY REPORTED TODAY.

THE CAPTURE--AGAINST LIGHT RESISTANCE--PUT THE ALLIES RIGHT BACK WHERE THEY WERE WHEN THE COMMUNISTS OPENED THE FIRST OF TWO REVERSED SPRING OFFENSIVES IN LATE APRIL.

ALLIED PATROLS MOVED FREELY ALONG THE SOUTH RIM OF THE 11-MILE-LONG RESERVOIR AT POINTS MORE THAN FIVE MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 IN CENTRAL KOREA. THE REDS EARLY IN APRIL HAD OPENED SPILLWAY GATES OF THE DAM IN A VAIN EFFORT TO FLOOD THE PUKHAN RIVER VALLEY AHEAD OF THE THEN ADVANCING ALLIES.

. SEIZURE OF THE DAM WEDNESDAY FOLLOWED ALLIED OCCUPATION OF HWACHON TOWN NEAR THE WEST END LAST SUNDAY.

RED RESISTANCE STIFFENED WEST AND EAST OF THE RESERVOIR.

AN EIGHTH ARMY STAFF OFFICER SAID RED RESISTANCE APPEARED TO BE DELAYING ACTION, POSSIBLY TO SCREEN THE BUILDING OF A NEW COMMUNIST DEFENSE LINE.

COMMUNIST ARTILLERY AND DIE-HARD INFANTRY SLOWED THE ALLIED ADVANCE IN MANY SECTORS OF THE 125-MILE RAINSWEPT FRONT.

A QUICK WEST-TO-EAST LOOK ACROSS THE FRONT:

WEST--RED RESISTANCE SLACKENS; SOUTH KOREANS CROSS IMJIN RIVER NEAR 38TH PARALLEL NORTHWEST OF SEOUL; AMERICAN PATROLS DRIVE OFF REDS IN PLATOON-SIZE INSIDE NORTH KOREA NEAR YONCHON.

WEST-CENTRAL--A FIERCELY FIGHTING RED REGIMENT HALTS ALLIED PUSH NORTHEASTWARD UP THE UIJONGBU-YONGPYONG HIGHWAY TOWARD KUMHWA NEAR CHIPORI, 10 MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

CENTRAL--ALLIES MEET LITTLE OPPOSITION AROUND HWACHON RESERVOIR.

EAST-CENTRAL--THREE RED REGIMENTS ATTACK AROUND INJE AND SCORE LIMITED SUCCESSES.

EAST COAST--LITTLE ACTION AGAINST SOUTH KOREANS MORE THAN 25 MILES INSIDE RED KOREA UNDER PROTECTING GUNS OF ALLIED WARSHIPS.

THREE NORTH KOREAN RED REGIMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN TRYING TO ESCAPE ALLIED ENCIRCLEMENT LASHED OUT TODAY IN THE EAST-CENTRAL AREA AROUND INJE, IN NORTH KOREA ABOUT 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

THE REGIMENTS HAVE BEEN TRYING TO FIGHT THEIR WAY WEST TO YANGGU AT THE EAST END OF HWACHON RESERVOIR.

ELEMENTS OF ONE REGIMENT ATTACKED U.N. FORCES TODAY NORTHEAST OF INJE AND BROKE THROUGH ALLIED POSITIONS AT ONE POINT. THE HOLE WAS REPAIRED A FEW HOURS LATER, AFTER MORE THAN 300 REDS HAD BEEN KILLED.

ANOTHER NORTH KOREAN REGIMENT CUT THE ROAD FROM INJE LEADING TO HYON IN SOUTH KOREA. THE THIRD RED REGIMENT WAS BELIEVED IN POSITION WHERE IT COULD STRIKE SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS SOUTHEAST OF INJE ON THE INJE-HYON ROAD.

AN ALLIED DIVISION OFFICER, REPORTING THE ACTIONS AROUND INJE, SAID "ALL HELL BROKE LOOSE" AT 4 A.M. AND STILL CONTINUED FOUR HOURS LATER.

RAIN, FALLING STEADILY FOR 24 HOURS, CAUSED STREAMS TO RISE AND PLAY HAVOC WITH THE ALLIED ROAD NETWORK.

MAY 31 1951

ALLIED TROOPS WHO APPROACHED THE HWACHON RESERVOIR FROM THE SOUTH COUNTED 1,028 RED DEAD -- KILLED IN PREVIOUS ENGAGEMENTS.

WEST OF HWACHON, U.S. AND SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS CAPTURED 478 REDS TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY; A SINGLE U.S. ARMY UNIT BAGGED 250.

THE REDS APPARENTLY WERE EXERTING THEIR MAIN EFFORT TOWARD BARRING THE ALLIES FROM KUMHWA, A MAJOR SUPPLY POINT IN CENTRAL KOREA 20 MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

THE REDS MADE SEVERAL COUNTERATTACKS WEST OF HWACHON WEDNESDAY. ALLIED TROOPS CAPTURED ABANDONED MACHINEGUNS AND MORTARS IN THE HWACHON AREA, SOME OF U.S. MANUFACTURE. ANOTHER WAS A RUSSIAN-BUILT HEAVY MACHINEGUN.

IN WESTERN KOREA NORTH OF SEOUL, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS CROSSED THE IMJIN RIVER IN THREE PLACES--NEAR MUNSAN AND EAST AND SOUTH OF KORANGPO. ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO CROSS THE RIVER EAST OF KORANGPO WAS THROWN BACK. KORANGPO IS A MILE FROM THE 38TH PARALLEL.

FAR BEHIND THE BATTLEFRONT, AMERICAN SOLDIERS BOWED THEIR HEADS IN MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES IN A GREEN HILLSIDE CEMETERY NEAR PUSAN.

BUT ON THE FIGHTING FRONT, THE PHASE OF CHINESE REARGUARD ACTIONS APPEARED ENDED. THE ENEMY USED ARTILLERY, MORTARS, CAPTURED BAZOOKAS AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS TO KNOCK OUT ALLIED TANKS SLITHERING IN THE MID NORTH OF PARALLEL 38.

CANADIAN TROOPS REPORTED THE HEAVIEST RED ARTILLERY FIRE SINCE THE FAILURE OF THE COMMUNISTS' SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE IN MID-MAY.

HOWEVER, ONE ALLIED FORCE RAMMED WITHIN 12 MILES OF KUMHWA, STRATEGIC ROAD HUB 20 MILES NORTH OF THE RED BORDER ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. ANOTHER ARMORED COLUMN SMASHED TWO ROAD BLOCKS TO SEIZE AN IMPORTANT

ROAD JUNCTION SIX MILES NORTHEAST OF INJE ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. INJE IS FOUR MILES NORTH OF 38.

IN THE WEST ALLIED GAINS RANGED ONE TO THREE MILES AGAINST HEAVY COMMUNIST RESISTANCE, AN EIGHTH ARMY COMMUNIQUE SAID.

CARRIER PLANES POUNDED RED TROOPS AND SUPPLY LINES WEDNESDAY ON THE EASTERN COASTAL STRIP UNTIL THE WEATHER CLOSED IN. THE FAR EAST NAVAL SUMMARY SAID CARRIER PLANES KILLED MORE THAN 1,000 REDS TUESDAY.

THE NAVY SAID ALLIED TROOPS COUNTED THE DEAD WEDNESDAY AFTER ADVANCING INTO THE AREA PLASTERED BY CARRIER PLANES.

WARSHIPS CONTINUED HAMMERING NORTHEAST COAST CITIES AND ROADS.

IN TOKYO, GENERAL MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY SAID, IN A MEMORIAL DAY NEWS CONFERENCE, THE COMMUNISTS HAD SUFFERED A "MAJOR, SEVERE DEFEAT" IN THEIR FUTILE APRIL AND MAY OFFENSIVES.

THE SUPREME COMMANDER SAID NEARLY 10,000 CHINESE HAD SURRENDERED SINCE APRIL 22, AND THAT INCREASING DESERTIONS, CASUALTIES AND FOOD SHORTAGES WERE HURTING THE REDS.

THE NUMBER OF CHINESE SURRENDERING IN THE PAST FIVE WEEKS WAS MORE THAN THREE TIMES THE NUMBER BAGGED BETWEEN NOVEMBER, WHEN THE CHINESE FIRST ENTERED THE WAR, AND APRIL 22.

RIDGWAY WARNED, HOWEVER, THAT FIVE CHINESE ARMIES (CORPS) OF UNDETERMINED STRENGTH WERE CAPABLE OF STRIKING AGAIN. IF AT FULL STRENGTH FIVE CORPS WOULD MEAN ABOUT 120,000 CHINESE TROOPS. HE NOTED THAT THE REDS STILL HADN'T BACKED THEIR DRIVES WITH AIR POWER OR MANY TANKS.

COINCIDING WITH RIDGWAY'S COMMENT WAS A REPORT FROM FORMOSA THAT RUSSIA RECENTLY TURNED OVER MORE THAN 100 NEW T-34 TANKS TO THE CHINESE AT MUKDEN, MANCHURIA. SOME 1,200 RUSSIAN RED ARMY MEN WERE REPORTED ASSIGNED TO THE CHINESE REDS AS ADVISERS.

THE AMERICAN TANK-INFANTRY TEAM MOVING NORTHEAST OF INJE HAS HAD A SCRAP ON ITS HANDS SINCE CAPTURING THAT TOWN, SOME 25 AIR MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST, LAST SUNDAY.

MAY 31 1951

TWO TANKS AND FOUR VEHICLES WENT OVER THE SIDE OF A MOUNTAIN ROAD WHEN THE COLUMN RAN INTO HEAVY FIRE. ANOTHER TANK WAS KNOCKED OUT BY MINES PLANTED IN THE DEEP MUD.

ON THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE COLUMN, FRESH NORTH KOREAN COMMUNISTS COUNTERATTACKED SOUTH KOREAN UNITS. AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW REPORTED THE KOREAN REDS WERE ATTACKING IN COMPANY TO BATTALION STRENGTH.

THE ATTACKS WERE ON THE INJE-HYON ROAD. HYON IS 15 AIR MILES SOUTH EAST OF INJE.

ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, THE ALLIED TASK FORCE MOVING TOWARD KUMHWA WAS NOT PINPOINTED EXCEPT AS TO ITS DISTANCE FROM THE RED ASSEMBLY CENTER.

KUMHWA IS 19 MILES NORTHWEST OF HWACHON, FORMER RED STRONGPOINT NEAR KOREA'S THIRD LARGEST HYDRO-ELECTRIC DAM. OTHER ALLIED UNITS WERE FANNING OUT ON BOTH SIDES OF THE TOWN. THE CANADIAN BRIGADE RAN INTO STUFF OPPOSITION IN THAT AREA.

"THE CANADIANS BORE THE BRUNT OF THE ARTILLERY BARRAGE," SAID A FIELD DISPATCH. "THEY REPORTED CHINESE BIG GUNS WERE FIRING THE HEAVIEST VOLUME OF FIRE SINCE THEY WERE PUT TO FLIGHT."

ALLIED FORCES ON THE WESTERN FRONT, SOUTH OF YONCHON, AND NORTH OF YONGONG, ALSO CAME UNDER HEAVY RED ARTILLERY FIRE. THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY COMMUNIQUE REPORTED 7(ROUNDS OF BIG GUN FIRE WAS RECEIVED DURING WEDNESDAY MORNING IN THE YONCHON SECTOR.

U.N. ADVANCES IN THESE AREAS, ACROSS THE PARAL

ARMY PV
ARMY COMMUNIQUE REPORTED 78 ROUNDS OF BIG GUN FIRE WAS RECEIVED DURING WEDNESDAY MORNING IN THE YONCHON SECTOR.

U.N. ADVANCES IN THESE AREAS, ACROSS THE PARALLEL NORTH OF SEOUL, RANGED FROM ONE TO THREE MILES.

A DELAYED DISPATCH FROM AP CORRESPONDENT STAN CARTER REPORTED 597 REDS WERE COUNTED DEAD AND 150 PRISONERS TAKEN NORTHEAST OF YONGONG TUESDAY.

U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS WERE RESTRICTED TO 126 SORTIES BY THE HEAVY RAINS AND LOW CLOUDS. MOST OF THOSE FLIGHTS WERE IN PREDAWN DARKNESS WEDNESDAY BEFORE THE DOWNPOURS.

IN SOME SECTORS, DISPIRITED CHINESE REDS WERE OBSERVED WALKING DOWN ROADS INTO AMERICAN LINES TO SURRENDER. ONE POOLED FIELD DISPATCH SAID SCORES OF CHINESE WERE IN SOME GROUPS.

THE MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES AT PUSAN, IN FAR SOUTHEAST KOREA, WERE CONDUCTED IN A DRIVING RAIN. LT. GEN. JAMES A. VAN FLEET, EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER, WAS UNABLE TO ATTEND BUT A MESSAGE FROM HIM WAS READ:

"IT IS THE QUALITY OF THESE MEN LYING HERE WHICH MADE THEM GREAT. IT IS THE QUALITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA THAT MAKES THIS COMMAND GREAT."

PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE OF THE SOUTH KOREAN REPUBLIC ISSUED A STATEMENT IN HONOR OF THE WAR DEAD. SAID HE:

"THE PEOPLE OF KOREA WILL FOREVER REMEMBER AND REVERE THE HEROIC MEN OF EVERY NATION, LIVING AND DEAD, WHO CAME TO THIS FAR-OFF LAND OF OURS TO FIGHT THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSOR AND MAKE THE WORLD SAFE FOR FREE PEOPLES EVERYWHERE...."

FIRST LEAD WAR ROUNDUP (290)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO,MAY 30-(AP)-HEAVY RAINS AND DETERMINED REDS FIGHTING FROM WATER-FILLED DUGOUTS TODAY SLOWED ALLIED SPEARHEADS IN COMMUNIST KOREA.

NEVERTHELESS, FIELD DISPATCHES REPORTED UNITED NATIONS TROOPS HAD FOUGHT TO WITHIN 12 MILES OF KUMHWA, COMMUNIST BASE IN CENTRAL KOREA, AND SEIZED ANOTHER CROSSROADS ABOVE INJE ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

IN TOKYO, GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER, SAID THE REDS WERE SEVERELY DEFEATED IN THEIR SPRING OFFENSIVES BUT STILL WERE DETERMINED AND CAPABLE OF RENEWED ALL-OUT BATTLE.

HEAVY RAINS SWEPT MOST OF THE BATTLEFRONT THIS MEMORIAL DAY, USHERING IN KOREA'S TRADITIONAL RAINING SEASON. ZERO VISIBILITY CUT ALLIED AIR ATTACKS TO 126 SORTIES.

RED TROOPS, SEIZING THE WEATHER ADVANTAGE, LASHED BACK AT U.N. SUPPLY LINES ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. A COMMUNIST ATTACK CUT SOUTH KOREAN DEFENSES ON THE INJE-HYON ROAD. REDS SET UP ROAD BLOCKS BOTH SIDES OF INJE, COVERING MINED ROADS WITH BAZOOKA AND MACHINEGUN FIRE.

AN AMERICAN ARMORED FORCE FOUGHT THROUGH HEAVY FIRE AND THICK MUD BEFORE SEIZING A STRATEGIC ROAD JUNCTION SIX MILES NORTHEAST OF INJE. THE SEIZURE REPRESENTED A MILE AND ONE-HALF GAIN FOR THE DAY.

ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, A CANADIAN BATTALION CAPTURED A HILL FROM A RED BATTALION TUESDAY NIGHT ONLY TO LOSE IT TO A RED COUNTERATTACK AT DAWN. THE BATTLE WAS STILL UNDERWAY WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

CANADIAN TROOPS REPORTED THEY FOUGHT UNDER THE HEAVIEST CHINESE ARTILLERY BARRAGE SINCE THE ALLIED COUNTEROFFENSIVE OPENED.

ALSO ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, CHINESE HAMMERED UNSUCCESSFULLY AT THE U.S. SEVENTH DIVISION AND AMBUSHED A RECONNAISSANCE PATROL. BUT OTHER SURRENDERED TO AN AMERICAN COLUMN SLOGGING THREE QUARTERS OF A MILE THROUGH KNEE DEEP MUD.

IN SOME SECTORS ALLIES WERE REPORTED STALLED BY MUD AND REDS.

30.24- 23545

RED RESISTANCE MOUNTED STEADILY. THE COMMUNISTS APPARENTLY WERE DETERMINED TO MAKE UNITED NATIONS FORCES PAY HEAVILY FOR ANY FURTHER ADVANCE INTO NORTH KOREA, AP CORRESPONDENT STAN CARTER REPORTED FROM EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

U.N.TROOPS HAD LUNGED 26 MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL BORDER, CUTTING ALL MOTOR ESCAPE ROUTES FROM SOUTH KOREA. BUT FIELD DISPATCHES SAID APPARENTLY MOST REDS ALREADY HAD ESCAPED--OR DIED TRYING TO GET OUT.

DESPITE THE STIFFENING FIGHT NORTH OF 38, THERE WAS GROWING EVIDENCE OF WIDESPREAD DISCONTENT IN COMMUNIST RANKS.

GEN. MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY SAID 10,000 REDS HAVE BEEN CAPTURED SINCE THEY BEGAN THEIR ILL-FATED SPRING OFFENSIVES APRIL 22. HE ADDED:

"DESERTION HAS BECOMING A DEFINITE AND SERIOUS PROBLEM FOR THE COMMUNISTS WELL BACK INTO THEIR REAR AREAS."

RIDGWAY, BACK FROM A TWO DAY VISIT TO THE SODDEN FRONT, WARNED THAT COMMUNIST LEADERS WOULD NOT COMPROMISE. AND THEY STILL HAVE POWER TO STRIKE AGAIN, HE SAID, DESPITE "A MAJOR, SEVERE DEFEAT" IN THEIR SPRING OFFENSIVES. FIVE CHINESE ARMIES ARE STILL IN KOREA.

RAIN-DRENCH U.N.TROOPS HAD DRIVEN THE REDS BACK TO THE STARTING POINT OF THEIR FIRST SPRING OFFENSIVE.

FIELD DISPATCHES REPORTED COMMUNIST FORCES APPARENTLY REACHED A HOLDING STAGE AS ALLIES THREATENED THEIR STAGING BASES IN THE CHORWON-KUMHWA-HWACHON TRIANGLE.

ACROSS THE FRONT ON MEMORIAL DAY, MORNING FIELD DISPATCHES AND COMMUNIQUES GAVE THIS PICTURE FROM WEST TO EAST:

WEST--SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS ACROSS THE IMJIN RIVER NORTH OF SEOUL FOUGHT A RED BATTALION. REDS CAMOUFLAGED ON HIGH GROUND BLOCKED AMERICANS TRYING TO FIGHT THEIR WAY INTO YONCHON, SIX MILES NORTH OF THE PARALLEL.

WEST CENTRAL--AMERICAN TROOPS ADVANCED TO THE HANTAN RIVER NORTH OF YONGPYONG. THIS PUT THEM ABOUT FIVE MILES NORTH OF 38. U.N.TROOPS, HEADED TOWARD KUMHWA ON A NEARBY ROAD, DROVE TO "A POINT HIGH ABOVE THE PARALLEL," CARTER REPORTED.

CENTRAL--LARGE GROUPS OF REDS SPOTTED WEST OF HWACHON APPEARED TO BE DELAYING TROOPS RATHER THAN RETREATING COMMUNISTS, AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID. SOUTH KOREANS BATTLED TOWARD THEM. REDS STUBBORN LY RESISTED U.N.FORCES FIGHTING NORTH AND EAST FROM RECAPTURED HWACHON.

EAST-CENTRAL--SOUTH KOREANS PUSHED EASTWARD ALONG THE SOUTH BANKS OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR SEEKING TO JOIN AMERICANS OPERATING IN THE INJE AREA.

BIG ALLIED GUNS DOMINATED THE RESERVOIR. THEY DENIED ITS USE TO NORTH KOREANS FIGHTING FIERCELY AGAINST AMERICAN ARMOR. THE REDS APPEARED TO BE FRESH AND POSSIBLY DUG IN AT THEIR ORIGINAL LINE TO STOP THE BIG ALLIED ADVANCE.

MAY 31 1951

A44FX

ALLIED UNITS FOUGHT SEE-SAW BATTLES WITH THESE RED KOREANS AS THEY DROVE FROM INJE TOWARD YANGGU AT THE EASTERN END OF THE RESERVOIR, AND TOWARD THE EAST COAST.

EAST--SOUTH KOREANS REOCCUPIED KANSONG, COASTAL TOWN 26 MILES NORTH OF 38. THEY WERE UNOPPOSED. THE U.S.DESTROYER ARNOLD J.ISBELL SHELLED REDS NORTH OF THE TOWN. THE NAVY SAID THE DESTROYER'S GUNS SCORED "EXCELLENT COVERAGE" OF THE TARGET AREA.

CENSORS AT U.S.EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS BLUE PENCILED MUCH NEWS COPY. THIS IS USUALLY AN INDICATION HEAVY FIGHTING IS UNDERWAY.

MORE HEAVY FIGHTING CAN BE EXPECTED, RIDGWAY SAID, SINCE RED COMMANDERS HAVE DEMONSTRATED "THEIR UNCHANGING DETERMINATION TO CONTINUE THIS UTTERLY UNWARRANTED, WANTON USE OF ARMED FORCES TO ACHIEVE THEIR ENDS.

"WITH THEM THERE IS NO COMPROMISE," RIDGWAY SAID, "AND FOR US THERE IS NO CHOICE."

THE ALLIED SUPREME COMMANDER AGAIN EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THE REDS NEVER COULD DRIVE THE U.N.'S "BATTLE-HARDENED, SEASONED, SELF-RELIANT TROOPS" OUT OF KOREA.

HE SAID IN ADDITION TO THEIR "STAGGERING LOSSES," COMMUNISTS WERE SUFFERING SEVERE FOOD SHORTAGES.

WARPLANES ADDED TO THESE HARDSHIPS WEDNESDAY IN FLIGHTS THROUGH CLOUDY WEATHER.

THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES REPORTED FIGHTER-BOMBERS DESTROYED LARGE SUPPLIES OF AMMUNITION, FUEL AND FOOD HIDDEN IN TUNNELS. ALLIED PLANES STRUCK THE TUNNELS IN LOW LEVEL, SKIP BOMBING ATTACKS. FLAMES AND DENSE SMOKE GUSHED FROM THE ENTRANCES.

THE REDS' PYONGYANG RADIO SAID THE NORTH KOREAN AIR FORCE SHOT DOWN FIVE ALLIED PLANES TUESDAY. FEAF MADE NO MENTION OF RED PLANES. ONLY LOSS REPORTED FOR THE DAY WAS A MUSTANG SHOT DOWN BY RED GROUND FIRE. THE WOUNDED PILOT WAS RESCUED FROM BEHIND RED LINES.

FAR BEHIND ALLIED LINES, TROOPS GATHERED IN THE RAIN AT THE GREEN HILLSIDE U.N.CEMETERY NEAR PUSAN FOR A MEMORIAL DAY TRIBUTE TO THE WAR DEAD.

THOUSANDS OF WHITE CROSSES DOTTED THE HILLSIDE.

"THESE MEN LYING HERE ARE THE HEROES OF KOREA," LT.GEN.JAMES A. VAN FLEET SAID IN AN ADDRESS READ BY LT.GEN.JOHN B.COULTER. "WE WHO ARE STILL LIVING CAN NEVER THANK THEM ENOUGH BUT WE SHALL NEVER STOP TRYING."

RIDGWAY (450)

BY WILLIAM JORDEN

TOKYO,MAY 30-(AP)-GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY SAID TODAY ALLIED TROOPS HAD INFLICTED A "MAJOR, SEVERE DEFEAT" ON THE CHINESE AND RED KOREAN ARMIES.

THE SUPREME COMMANDER, BACK FROM A TWO-DAY TRIP TO THE WAR FRONT, SAID UNITED NATIONS TROOPS HAD CAPTURED 10,000 RED SOLDIERS SINCE THE COMMUNISTS OPENED THEIR FIRST SPRING OFFENSIVE APRIL 22.

HE PRAISED THE GALLANT U.S. SECOND DIVISION WITH ATTACHED FRENCH AND DUTCH UNITS FOR ITS GALLANT STAND IN EAST-CENTRAL KOREA WHICH TURNED THE MAIN COMMUNIST BLOW.

AND RIDGWAY WARNED THAT THE REDS HAVE THE POWER TO STRIKE AGAIN. BUT HE EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT HIS U.N. TROOPS AGAIN COULD STOP THEM.

STILL CLAD IN COMBAT BOOTS AND FATIGUE PANTS, THE SUPREME COMMANDER GRIMLY TOLD REPORTERS THERE IS NO REASON TO BELIEVE THE WAR IS NEAR AN END.

"WITH THEM (THE COMMUNISTS) THERE IS NO COMPROMISE, AND FOR US THERE IS NO CHOICE."

RIDGWAY SAID THE COMMUNIST LEADERS, "WITH A CYNICAL DISREGARD FOR THE LIVES OF THEIR OWN MEN," GAVE THE FREE WORLD A CLEAR VIEW "OF THE FATE THAT WOULD BEFALL US AND ALL OTHER FREE PEOPLES IF THEY ARE SUCCESSFUL."

ONLY A CHANGE OF POLICY ON THE HIGHEST COMMUNIST LEVELS IN MOSCOW OR PEIPING, HE SAID, CAN STOP THE BLOODSHED.
RIDGWAY SAID COMMUNIST MORALE WAS BREAKING UNDER THE TREMENDOUS ALLIED FIRE SUPERIORITY, THE STAGGERING LOSSES SUFFERED BY THE REDS, AND THE GROWING, SEVERE SHORTAGE OF FOOD IN COMMUNIST-HELD AREAS.
"WE HAVE LEARNED FROM PRISONER OF WAR REPORTS THAT DESERTION HAS BECOME A DEFINITE AND SERIOUS PROBLEM FOR THE COMMUNISTS, WELL BACK INTO THEIR REAR AREAS.
"THERE MUST BE A GROWING QUESTION IN THE MINDS OF THE CHINESE FORCES AS TO THE BENIFICENCE OF THEIR LEADERS' MOTIVES."
HE SAID THE RED COMMANDERS' CONDUCT OF THE KOREAN WAR INDICATED TO HIM "THEIR UNCHANGING DETERMINATION TO CONTINUE THIS UTTERLY UNWARRANTED AND WANTON USE OF ARMED FORCES TO ACHIEVE THEIR ENDS."
THE COMMUNISTS STILL COULD HURL INTO THE WAR FIVE CHINESE ARMIES "WHOSE EXACT STRENGTH WE DO NOT KNOW," RIDGWAY SAID.

A49FX
THE SUPREME COMMANDER MADE IT CLEAR THAT THE ALLIED COMMAND IS PUZZLED BY THE LACK OF ARMOR AND AIR POWER IN THE COMMUNIST DRIVES.
HE LEFT NO DOUBT THAT THE USE OF SUCH WEAPONS ON A LARGE SCALE WOULD CAUSE TROUBLE.
THUS FAR, HE SAID, THE RED GROUND FORCES HAD RECEIVED ONLY "PROLIFIC AND EMPTY PROMISES" OF AIR AND ARMORED SUPPORT.
WOULD THE REDS THROW SUCH WEAPONS INTO FUTURE OFFENSIVES?
"WE DON'T KNOW," RIDGWAY SAID.
BUT, HE ADDED, EVEN IF THEY USE ALL THE WEAPONS AT THEIR DISPOSAL, THE COMMUNISTS COULD NOT DRIVE THE ALLIES INTO THE SEA.
THEY WOULD BE STOPPED BY SUPERIOR MANEUVERABILITY, OVERWHELMING FIRE-POWER, AND THE QUALITY OF THE U.N.'S "BATTLE-HARDENED, SEASONED, SELF-RELIANT TROOPS."

BUT NEVER, IN ALL HIS FIVE YEARS AS TOP ARMY AND OCCUPATION COMMANDER, DID MACARTHUR MEET THE PRESS AT A FORMAL NEWS CONFERENCE.

BY STAN CARTER
EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, THURSDAY, MAY 31-(AP)-KOREA'S UNFORTUNATES OF WAR--20,000,000 OR MORE BATTERED CIVILIANS CROWDED SOUTH OF PARALLEL 38--HAVE ONE CONSOLATION. THEY WILL NOT STARVE.
WITH UNITED NATIONS HELP, THE THREAT OF FAMINE HAS BEEN AVERTED FOR THIS YEAR.
KIM, THE KOREAN MAN-IN-THE-STREET, MAY NOT HAVE THE GARLIC AND PORK HE LIKES. BUT HE SHOULD HAVE ENOUGH RICE AND STAPLE FOODS THIS YEAR.
ONLY LAST WINTER, WHEN U.N. FORCES FELL BACK ALL ALONG THE PENINSULA AND THERE EVEN WERE PROSPECTS OF FULL-SCALE EVACUATION, MASS STARVATION SEEMED INEVITABLE.
BUT NOW THE CHINESE THREAT HAS BEEN CHECKED, THE FOOD OUTLOOK IS GOOD SOUTH OF THE OLD PRE-WAR BOUNDARY.
GREEN FIELDS OF SPRING BARLEY ARE PROSPERING. RICE, THE OTHER STAPLE OF THE KOREAN DIET, IS IN THE SEEDLING STAGE. FRIENDLY NATIONS HAVE DONATED SHIPLOADS OF GRAIN TO HELP OUT UNTIL THE RICE HARVEST NEXT FALL.
OFFICERS OF THE EIGHTH ARMY CIVIL ASSISTANCE COMMAND, RESPONSIBLE FOR PREVENTING DISEASE AND STARVATION AMONG CIVILIANS SAY:
"WE CAN'T EXPECT TO GET A NORMAL ECONOMY HERE, BUT WE CAN PREVENT STARVATION. IF WE CAN GET THE KOREANS TO ENFORCE RATIONING STRICTLY AND SEE THAT THERE IS NO HOARDING, THERE WILL BE NO HUNGER."
A COMBINATION OF CIRCUMSTANCES PREVENTED THE FAMINE.
U.N. FORCES MANAGED TO KEEP THE COMMUNISTS FROM TAKING OVER THE FERTILE FARM LANDS AROUND SEOUL. WEATHER AND GROWING CONDITIONS HAVE BEEN SO GOOD THAT BARLEY, PLANTED HAPHAZARDLY WHERE THE BATTLE LINES WERE FLUID AND THEN IN MANY CASES LEFT TO GROW UNTENDED, HAS PROSPERED.
THE NATIONS OF THE U.N. HAVE OPENED THEIR GRANARIES TO PROVIDE FOODSTUFFS, SEED RICE AND FERTILIZER. THE TRANSPORTATION SITUATION HAS BEEN BETTER THAN EXPECTED FOR GRAIN DISTRIBUTION.
THERE HAS BEEN NO FAMINE IN KOREA FOR AT LEAST 25 YEARS. NORMALLY IT IS A RICE EXPORTING NATION.
CIVIL ASSISTANCE OFFICERS ESTIMATE THE SUMMER CROP OF GRAIN--MOSTLY BARLEY, BUT SOME WHEAT AND MILLET--WILL BE 465,000 TONS THIS YEAR. THAT IS 66 PER CENT OF THE 702,000 TONS PRODUCED IN 1947, WHICH THE OFFICERS SAY WAS A NORMAL PRE-WAR YEAR.
SIXTY THOUSAND TONS OF RICE, BARLEY AND WHEAT HAVE BEEN ARRANGED FOR IN THE UNITED STATES AND WILL ARRIVE DURING JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST. A GIFT OF 750 TONS OF RICE RECENTLY ARRIVED FROM MEXICO.
SOME IS ON THE WAY FROM BURMA. MORE IS COMING FROM THE PHILIPPINES. JAPAN HAS PROMISED 10,000 TONS AND 20,000 TONS OF THAILAND (SIAM) RICE ARE YET TO BE DISTRIBUTED.
IN ADDITION, WHEAT IS AVAILABLE IN AUSTRALIA FOR SHIPMENT HERE.
IN ALL, CIVIL ASSISTANCE OFFICERS FIGURE 185,000 TONS OF GRAIN WILL ARRIVE BEFORE THE FALL HARVEST IN KOREA.
SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR, 109,900 TONS OF GRAIN HAVE BEEN RECEIVED AS DONATIONS FROM U.N. MEMBERS.
QUITE A BIT OF IT HAS BEEN GIVEN AWAY TO REFUGEES. WHEN CIVILIANS ARE ABLE THEY PAY FOR IT. THE MONEY GOES INTO A RELIEF FUND.

GI MEMORIAL DAY (400)
BY NATE POLOWETZKY
PUSAN,KOREA,MAY 30-(AP)-SOLDIERS OF THIS NEWEST WAR BOWED THEIR HEADS IN A GREEN HILLSIDE CEMETERY IN A MEMORIAL DAY TRIBUTE TO THE AMERICANS WHO HAVE DIED AT BELLEAU WOOD, OKINAWA AND NOW--TAEJON AND HAGARU.
A MESSAGE FROM LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET, COMMANDER OF THE EIGHTH ARMY, TO THE SOLDIERS WHO GATHERED FOR THIS FIRST MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES AT THE NEW UNITED NATIONS CEMETERY HERE SAID:
"THESE MEN LYING HERE ARE THE HEROES OF KOREA. WE WHO ARE STILL LIVING CAN NEVER THANK THEM ENOUGH BUT WE SHALL NEVER STOP TRYING."
THOUSANDS OF WHITE CROSSES DOTTED THE CEMETERY, ON A HILLSIDE OVERLOOKING THE SEA.
ALL THE WHILE THE RAIN KEPT COMING DOWN.
LT.GEN.JOHN B.COULTER, DEPUTY COMMANDER OF THE EIGHTH ARMY, READ THE MEMORIAL DAY ADDRESS OF VAN FLEET, WHO WAS UNABLE TO ATTEND BECAUSE OF DUTIES AT THE FRONT.
"WE HAVE COME HERE TO THANK THE HEROIC SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND AIRMEN AND OUR GOD THAT WE ARE STILL ALIVE TO EMULATE THEM AND TO CONTINUE TO BE WARRIORS OF PEACE, LIKE THEM," THE MESSAGE SAID.
OF THE U.N. FORCES FIGHTING IN KOREA. THE GENERAL SAID:

30.24- 23547

"NEVER HAVE MILITARY FORCES BEEN MORÉ QUALIFIED, OR READY, AND MORE WILLING FOR BATTLE.

"NEVER HAVE FORCES BEEN IMBUED WITH A GREATER WORSHIP OF GOD AND COUNTRY, DUTY AND HONOR."

THE EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER SAID THE ALLIES IN KOREA ARE FIGHTING "TO STOP RUTHLESS AGGRESSION AND TO MAINTAIN THE PEACE.

"WE ARE FIGHTING FOR OUR VERY FREEDOM WHICH ALL FREE AND DECENT PEOPLE EVERYWHERE CHERISH SO HIGHLY.

"IN OUR DEMOCRACY WE EMPHASIZE EQUALITY, BUT IN OUR HOMES, OUR SCHOOLS AND OUR CHURCHES AND IN OUR MILITARY FORCES WE EMPHASIZE QUALITY.

"IT IS THE QUALITY OF THESE MEN LYING HERE WHICH MADE THEM GREAT. IT IS THE QUALITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA THAT MAKES THIS COMMAND GREAT."

A MARINE CORPS CHAPLAIN GAVE THE INVOCATION, AN ARMY CHAPLAIN READ THE MEMORIAL DAY ORDER, AN AIR FORCE CHAPLAIN OFFERED THE PRAYER AND A NAVY CHAPLAIN THE BENEDICTION.

REPRESENTATIVES OF NEARLY ALL THE ALLIED NATIONS WITH TROOPS IN KOREA ATTENDED.

SEVENTY-SIX YEAR OLD PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE OF KOREA STOOD BARE-HEADED IN THE POURING RAIN THROUGHOUT THE HALF-HOUR SERVICE.

WREATHS WERE LAID ON THE GRAVES.

AT THE END A NEGRO SOLDIER AND WHITE SOLDIER SOUNDED TAPS. THE FINAL NOTES WERE ECHOED BY A THIRD BUGLER 200 YARDS AWAY ACROSS THE RAIN-GLISTENING CROSSES.

A SOLDIER AND A SAILOR PLACED THE AMERICAN FLAG--ONE OF THE 15 NATIONAL COLORS FLYING OVER THE CEMETERY--AT HALF-MAST WHILE THE ARMY AND AIR FORCE BANDS PLAYED THE "STAR SPANGLED BANNER."

THE ARMY TODAY QUOTED LT.COL.HUBERT L.BINKLEY OF DENVER, TENTH CORPS SURGEON, AS SAYING THE REDS WERE BROUGHT IN "WITH A FOUR DAY HUNGER IN THEIR STOMACHS AND MAGGOTS SUCKING DEATH FROM THEIR WOUNDS."

MAJ.EDMUND D.BENNETT OF TAMPA, FLA., TOLD OF EXAMINING 153 BADLY WOUNDED CHINESE BROUGHT TO THE 8225TH MOBILE HOSPITAL UNIT:

"NEARLY ALL OF THEM, THEIR BODIES GASHED BY ARTILLERY FRAGMENTS, HAD MAGGOTS CRAWLING WITHIN THE WOUNDS. IT SAVED THEIR LIVES.

"IT'S A HORRIBLE SIGHT, BUT THE MAGGOTS KEEP THE WOUNDS CLEAN."

BINKLEY SAID ALL WOUNDED--ALLIED OR COMMUNIST--RECEIVE THE SAME TREATMENT. THE CHINESE WERE SUSPICIOUS, HE REPORTED, "ESPECIALLY WHEN GIVEN A RICE DIET INSTEAD OF CORN MEAL THEY HAD BEEN EATING FOR WEEKS."

THE COLONEL SAID THE CHINESE APPARENTLY ALSO TREAT ALL WOUNDED THE SAME.

"WHILE THEY DO NOT HAVE THE BEST OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES," BINKLEY SAID, "INFORMATION INDICATES THEY ARE GIVING OUR WOUNDED EQUAL TREATMENT WITH THEIR OWN, TO THE BEST OF THEIR ABILITY."

TOKYO,MAY 30-(AP)-STAFF SGT. WILLARD E.WYATT BOMBED NORTH KOREA THE HARD WAY.

WYATT IS A B-26 GUNNER.

ON A RECENT MISSION TWO SEGMENTS OF A BOMB FOULED ON THE BOMB BAY DOOR.

WYATT TOOK OFF HIS PARACHUTE TO GET THROUGH A NARROW PASSAGE TO THE BOMB BAY DOORS. THEN HE SWUNG OUT OVER THE DOORS AND CUT THE SEGMENTS FREE.

"ONE SEGMENT WAS LODGED IN THE DOOR AND WOULD HAVE BLOWN US TO BITS," HE SAID. "THE OTHER WAS CAUGHT IN THE WIRING."

WYATT'S HOME IS 9637 AVENUE M, CHICAGO.

HIS IRE WAS AROUSED BY JOHNSON'S RECENT PROPOSAL THAT A CEASE FIRE BE ORDERED ALONG KOREA'S 38TH PARALLEL JUNE 25, THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE OUTBREAK OF WAR.

THE AMBASSADOR, EX-PREMIER LEE BUM SUK, SAID JOHNSON'S PROPOSAL, IF CARRIED OUT, WOULD MEAN ALL THE UNITED NATIONS BLOOD SPILT IN KOREA HAD BEEN SHED IN VAIN.

"SENATOR JOHNSON," HE SAID, "WANTS TO SELL KOREA TO STALIN, THE NERVE CENTER OF WORLD AGGRESSION."

"LET IT GO," SWEETSER ANSWERED ALL QUESTIONS ABOUT HIS DISMISSAL AS HE ARRIVED LAST NIGHT FROM TOKYO.

HE SAID HE COULDN'T COMMENT ON A STATEMENT BY LT.GEN.EARLE E. PARTRIDGE, ACTING COMMANDER OF THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES, TOKYO, BECAUSE HE HADN'T READ IT. PARTRIDGE SAID:

"GENERAL SWEETSER WAS UNABLE TO ACHIEVE THE MAXIMUM COMBAT POTENTIAL FROM HIS 452ND LIGHT BOMB WING. I FELT X X X THAT UNDER DIFFERENT LEADERSHIP, THE 452ND'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE AIR WAR IN KOREA WOULD BE SUBSTANTIALLY ENHANCED."

SWEETSER SAID THE 452ND WAS SENT INTO COMBAT JUST 77 DAYS AFTER IT HAD BEEN ACTIVATED IN VICTORVILLE, CALIF., AND ITS PLANES COMPLETED 3,500 EFFECTIVE COMBAT SORTIES BETWEEN OCT. 27 AND MAY 10, WHEN HE WAS RELIEVED OF COMMAND.

"THE 452ND HAS DONE AN OUSTANDING COMBAT JOB," HE DECLARED.

SWEETSER, 43, SAID HE HAS BEEN ORDERED TO HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, SAN RAFAEL, CALIF., FOR UNSPECIFIED DUTIES.

AS A RESERVIST, HE WAS ORDERED TO DUTY FROM HIS LOS ANGELES CIVILIAN JOB AUG. 12 FOR 12 MONTHS. HE EXPECTS TO RETURN TO THAT JOB IN AUGUST.

MANILA, THURSDAY, MAY 31-(AP)-THE PHILIPPINES REPLY TO THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT REQUEST FOR ITS VIEWS ON THE PROPOSED PEACE TREATY FOR JAPAN WAS DISPATCHED TO WASHINGTON WEDNESDAY NIGHT FOR DELIVERY THROUGH THE EMBASSY.

FOREIGN SECRETARY CARLOS P. ROMULO REFUSED TO COMMENT ON THE CONTENTS, BUT MEMBERS OF A COMMITTEE OF 15 APPOINTED BY PRESIDENT ELPIDIO QUIRINO SAID THE SALIENT POINTS WERE:

1. THE PHILIPPINES DEMANDS $6,000,000,000 (B) IN REPARATIONS AND BELIEVES JAPAN IS ABLE TO PAY.

2. THE PHILIPPINES WANTS UNITED NATIONS CONTROL OF JAPAN FOR AT LEAST 20 YEARS MORE TO ASSURE DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES, BEGUN UNDER THE OCCUPATION, WILL BE CONTINUED.

3. THE PHILIPPINES WANTS STRICT CONTROL OVER JAPANESE REARMAMENT IN ORDER TO ENSURE THAT SHE WILL NOT AGAIN BECOME A MILITARY MENACE TO HER PACIFIC NEIGHBORS.

4. JAPAN MUST BE MADE TO ACKNOWLEDGE HER "WAR GUILT" IN THE TREATY.

5. FORMOSA, RETURNED TO CHINA BY JAPAN IN 1945, MUST REMAIN FOREVER IN "FRIENDLY HANDS."

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MAY 30-(AP)-REP.KEATING (R-NY) SAID TONIGHT COMMUNISTS IN THIS COUNTRY ARE PRAYING ON THE ANGUISH OF FAMILIES OF CAPTURED U.S. TROOPS IN KOREA IN AN ATTEMPT "TO SELL THEM RED PROPAGANDA."
KEATING TERMED IT "A NEW AND INSIDIOUS COMMUNIST TECHNIQUE FOR IMPAIRING MORALE ON THE HOME FRONT."
THE NEW YORK LEGISLATOR SAID IN A BROADCAST HE HAS RECEIVED INFORMATION THAT RED AGENTS ARE CONTACTING FAMILIES OF SERVICEMEN REPORTED MISSING IN ACTION AND ARRANGING FOR THEM TO RECEIVE LETTERS OR BROADCASTS FROM THEIR IMPRISONED HUSBANDS OR SONS.
AS ONE COUNTER-MEASURE HE SUGGESTED THE ARMED SERVICES MIGHT RELAX THEIR RULES TO RELAY EVEN UNOFFICIAL AND FRAGMENTARY INFORMATION ON CAPTURED MEN TO THEIR FAMILIES. AND HE WANTED ACTION AGAINST THE RED AGENTS WHO MAKE THE CONTACTS.
"THE MESSAGE WHICH THE HUSBAND INVARIABLY SENDS, NO DOUBT UNDER SOME FORM OF DURESS, URGES AMERICANS TO DO THEIR BEST TO CALL OFF THE FIGHTING, OR EXPRESSES HIS OPPOSITION TO ANY POLICY OF RESISTING COMMUNIST AGGRESSION," KEATING SAID.
THE NEW YORKER SAID DEFENSE AUTHORITIES TOLD HIM THAT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS BANNED FROM OPERATING IN RED CHINA, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO OBTAIN AUTHENTIC PRISONER-OF-WAR REPORTS AS WAS DONE IN WORLD WAR II.
BUT THAT EXPLANATION, HE SAID, IS "COLD COMFORT TO THE ANGUISHED WIVES AND PARENTS WHO SIT AT HOME WAITING FOR WORD ABOUT THEIR LOVED ONES."
"DEEPLY WORRIED AND CONCERNED, THEY CANNOT BE BLAMED FOR TURNING TO ANY AVAILABLE SOURCE FOR INFORMATION," KEATING CONTINUED.
"THE ARMY INSISTS IT CANNOT RELEASE ANY DATA RELATING TO THOSE REPORTED AS MISSING IN ACTION UNTIL IT HAS BEEN CHECKED AND VERIFIED, BUT, BECAUSE OF THE INHERENT NATURE OF THE FOE, IT MAY BE A VERY LONG TIME--AN AGE TO THOSE WHO WAIT--BEFORE ANY OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT CAN BE MADE."
TO CORRECT THAT SITUATION, KEATING URGED THAT THE ARMY FURNISH ALL FRAGMENTARY AND UNOFFICIAL INFORMATION TO NEXT-OF-KIN AS SOON AS IT BECOMES AVAILABLE "RATHER THAN FORCE THEM TO TURN TO COMMUNIST SOURCES.
IN SOME CASES, HE SAID, WIVES OF MISSING MEN HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED BY LETTER THAT IF THEY WILL WRITE TO A CERTAIN ADDRESS IN COMMUNIST CHINA THEY WILL BE FURNISHED WITH INFORMATION ABOUT THEIR HUSBANDS.
HE SAID ONE WIFE RECEIVED A LETTER FROM HER HUSBAND, WRITTEN 10 DAYS AFTER HE WAS REPORTED MISSING, ENCLOSED IN AN ENVELOPE WITH THE PRINGED NOTATION: "PRISONER OF WAR CAMP. DEMOCRATIC PEOPLES' REPUBLIC OF KOREA, CARE COMMITTEE FOR CHINESE CONGRESS OF DEFENDERS OF WORLD PEACE, PEIPING CHINA, WHO WILL ENDEAVOR TO FORWARD ONE LETTER A MONTH FROM NEXT-OF-KIN."
KEATING SAID THE WIFE IMMEDIATELY WROTE, AND HER LETTER "APPARENTLY GOT THROUGH." BUT HER SECOND LETTER WAS RETURNED BY THE FAR EAST COMMAND POST OFFICE IN SAN FRANCISCO, HE SAID, WITH WORD THAT NO PROCEDURE EXISTED FOR EXCHANGING MAIL WITH ENEMY FORCES.
IN OTHER CASES, HE SAID, RED AGENTS CONTACT THE WIFE AND SELL HER A FIVE-CENT COPY OF THE COMMUNIST DAILY WORKER WITH AN ITEM SAYING HER HUSBAND WILL BROADCAST FROM CHINA AT A CERTAIN TIME.
KEATING SUGGESTED THAT PERHAPS NEW LEGISLATION IS NEEDED "TO MEET THIS NOVEL THREAT, SINCE THESE CONTACTS REQUIRE THE EMPLOYMENT OF COMMUNIST AGENTS IN THIS COUNTRY."

RIFLEMEN
BY ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON,MAY 30-(AP)-BACK IN THE OLD DAYS WHEN EVERY AMERICAN WAS A SQUIRREL SHOOTER, ALL YOU HAD TO DO WAS TO HAND A SOLDIER A GUN AND YOU HAD A DANDY RIFLEMAN.
AT LEAST, THAT WAS THE ASSUMPTION.
NOW ALL THAT MAY BE CHANGED.
PAUL CARDINAL, STAFF WRITER FOR THE "AMERICAN RIFLEMAN," HAS MADE A TOUR OF ARMY AND MARINE CAMPS TO TALK WITH VETERANS OF THE KOREAN WAR.
HE GAVE HIS CONCLUSIONS IN AN ARTICLE FOR THE JUNE ISSUE OF THE MAGAZINE, AND LATER AMPLIFIED THEM FOR A REPORTER. THEY ARE PRETTY WELL SUMMED UP IN HIS FIRST SENTENCE:
"THE THEORY THAT AMERICA IS A NATION OF RIFLEMEN IS TAKING A BEATING IN KOREA."
HERE ARE SOME OF THE COMMENTS VETERANS MADE TO CARDINAL:
"THE AVERAGE RIFLEMAN IS NOT WELL TRAINED, AND WILL NOT FIRE IN COMBAT."
"THE RIFLEMAN DOESN'T FIRE HIS WEAPON ENOUGH IN TRAINING TO GAIN CONFIDENCE IN IT."
"HE'S AFRAID TO FIRE BECAUSE HE WILL DRAW FIRE."
"GOOD SHOOTING IS THE EXCEPTION."
THE ARMY PREVIOUSLY HAD TAKEN NOTICE OF THE NON-SHOOTING SOLDIER.
ELTON C.FAY, ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER, WROTE IN A STORY RECENTLY THAT THE ARMY REALIZES:
"A SIGNIFICANTNUMBER OF INFANTRYMEN WHEN ACTUALLY ENGAGED IN COMBAT FAIL TO EMPLOY THEIR INDIVIDUAL WEAPONS WHEN OBSERVED AND VULNERABLE TARGETS (THAT IS, SOMETHING YOU COULD HIT) ARE WITHIN EFFECTIVE RANGE."
THE ARMY LISTED A NUMBER OF REASONS FOR THIS FAILURE, INCLUDING THE PARALYSIS OF FEAR, LACK OF CONFIDENCE IN THE WEAPON, HOARDING OF AMMUNITION, ETC.
THE ARMY DIDN'T MENTION THE REASON CARDINAL STRESSES. HE THINKS THE RIFLEMAN DOESN'T GET ENOUGH TRAINING.

A197WX
IN JUNE, 1950, HE SAYS, THE ARMY LIMITED PRELIMINARY TRAINING WITH THE M-1 RIFLE TO 40 HOURS FOR THE ENTIRE BASIC TRAINING PERIOD OF 13

WEEKS.
HE SAYS THIS HAS BEEN STEPPED UP TO 60 HOURS, AND SOON WILL BE INCREASED TO 78.
"BUT," HE SAYS, "CONTRAST THIS WITH 154 HOURS ALLOTTED THE MARINE ROOKIE FOR LEARNING THE SAME THING."
CARDINAL, WHO STARTED OUT WORLD WAR II AS AN INFANTRY OFFICER BUT WOUND UP AS A MAJOR IN THE TANK CORPS, SAYS KOREA FOUND THE ARMY WITH THIS ATTITUDE:
"RESPECT FOR THE WELL-AIMED SHOT FROM THE LONELY M-1 RIFLE WAS GONE. INFANTRY PLATOON LEADERS WERE SPOILED WITH THE PROMISE OF SUPPORTING FIRE FROM NEW, ALL POWERFUL WEAPONS. THEY FORGOT THE FIRE-POWER THEY HELD IN THEIR OWN HANDS AND DID NOT BOTHER TO TRAIN IT PROPERLY."
AN ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID HE HAD NO COMMENT UNTIL HE HAD A CHANCE TO STUDY THE ARTICLE.

BY CARTER L. DAVIDSON
PARIS, MAY 30-(AP)-THE THREE WESTERN POWERS PLAN TO APPEAL TO THE KREMLIN TO BREAK A DEADLOCK AMONG BIG FOUR DEPUTIES WHO HAVE BEEN TRYING HERE FOR 12 WEEKS TO WRITE AN AGENDA FOR A FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE.
DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS DISCLOSED THAT DEPUTIES FROM THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE MET TODAY TO DRAFT THE NOTE TO THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT.
THE DEPUTIES CALLED OFF THEIR MEETING TODAY TO LET FRANCE'S ALEXANDRE PARODI CATCH UP ON HIS WORK AS DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY. THEIR 64TH MEETING IS SET FOR 4 P.M. TOMORROW.
THE DEPUTIES ARE DEADLOCKED NOW ON WHETHER THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS SHOULD DISCUSS THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND U.S. BASES OVERSEAS AMONG "CAUSES OF INTERNATIONAL TENSION."
SOVIET DEPUTY ANDREI GROMYKO IS BITTERLY INSISTING THEY SHOULD, CONTENDING "THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY IS A MILITARY GROUPING OF POWERS AIMED AT THE SOVIET UNION."
THE WESTERN DEPUTIES INSIST THAT SUCH A DISCUSSION SHOULD NOT BE HELD BETWEEN THE WEST AND RUSSIA BECAUSE RUSSIA IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE ATLANTIC PACT AND WOULD BE CONCERNED WITH IT ONLY IF SHE ATTACKED SOME MEMBER.
THE DEPUTIES ALREADY HAVE AGREED THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS DISCUSS SUCH TOPICS AS THE DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY, THE AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE, ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF PEACE TREATIES BY ITALY, ROMANIA, HUNGARY AND BULGARIA, THE FUTURE OF TRIESTE AND A PROGRAM OF ARMS REDUCTION.
IF THEY DECIDE WHETHER TO INCLUDE THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND U.S. BASES, THEY THEN WILL HAVE TO AGREE ON THE ORDER THE ITEMS WILL APPEAR ON THE AGENDA, AND SUGGEST A TIME AND PLACE FOR THE MINISTERIAL MEETING.

PARIS, MAY 30-(AP)-FRANCE APPARENTLY IS SLOWING DOWN HER PROGRAM TO REVISE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SAAR BECAUSE OF RISING OPPOSITION IN GERMANY.

FRANCE DENIES, HOWEVER, THAT HER POLICES IN THE SAAR ARE "PREJUDICIAL TO A FINAL TREATY," AS SOME GERMAN LEADERS HAVE CHARGED.

FRENCH LEADERS ARE ALARMED ABOUT THE GROWING OPPOSITION IN GERMANY TO FRANCE'S SAAR POLICIES.

BECAUSE OF THIS, CHANGES IN FRANCE'S ADMINISTRATION OF THE SAAR, UNDER PROVISIONS OF A FRANCO-SAAR TREATY WHICH WENT INTO EFFECT JAN.1, HAVE BEEN DELAYED.

MAY 31 1951

ONE MEASURE ALREADY HAS BEEN TO DELAY INDEFINITELY THE PROMOTION OF FRENCH HIGH COMMISSIONER GILBERT GRANDVAL TO THE ROLE OF AMBASSADOR, WITH DIPLOMATIC RATHER THAN ADMINISTRATIVE DUTIES.

OTHER MEASURES DUE UNDER THE TREATY ALSO ARE EXPECTED BE SHELVED FO THE TIME BEING. THESE INCLUDED SUCH STEPS AS TURNING THE SAAR'S INTERNAL SECURITY OVER TO A SAARLAND POLICE FORCE AND THE CREATION OF A SAAR CONSULAR SYSTEM ABROAD.

GERMANS HAVE BEEN ESPECIALLY BITTER ABOUT THE RECENT BANNING BY FRENCH AUTHORITIES OF THE SAAR POLITICAL ORGANIZATION, THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. FRANCE SAID THE PARTY, AN AVOWEDLY "BACK-TO-GERMANY" MOVEMENT, WAS IN VIOLATION OF FRENCH PROMISES TO THE OTHER ALLIES THAT NO FINAL DECISIONS WOULD BE MADE ON THE SAAR'S STATUS UNTIL A PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY IS WRITTEN.

GERMAN LEADERS DESCRIBE THE PARTY'S SUPPRESSION AS "POLICE STATE" MEANS OF ELIMINATING OPPOSITION TO FRANCE IN THE SAAR.

THE SAAR, A 900-SQUARE MILE INDUSTRIAL AREA WITH 1,000,000 GERMAN-SPEAKING PEOPLE, WAS GERMAN TERRITORY AFTER A 1935 PLEBISCITE. WHEN HITLER'S GERMANY FELL, THE SAAR WAS MADE A PART OF THE FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONE. LATER, WITH APPROVAL OF THE OTHER ALLIES, FRANCE SEPARATED THE VALLEY FROM THE REST OF THE ZONE AND GAVE IT A SPECIAL STATUS, WITH ITS OWN CONSTITUTION, PARLIAMENT AND GOVERNMENT.

FRANCE RETAINED CONTROL OF THE SAAR'S ECONOMY, DEFENSE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS, HOWEVER.

UNDER THE FRANCO-SAAR TREATY, SAAR COAL WAS GIVEN TO FRANCE ON A ROYALTY BASIS FOR 50 YEARS.

MAY 31 1951

AT BONN, THE WEST GERMAN REPUBLIC'S CAPITAL, CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER CHARGED THAT FRANCE WANTS THE SAAR BASIN TO BECOME A SEPARATE STATE, A SECOND LUXEMBOURG, POLITICALLY SEPARATED FROM GERMANY.

HE SAID WEST GERMANY REGARDS THE SAAR AS LEGALLY PART OF GERMANY. HE WAS OPENING A DEBATE ON THE SAAR QUESTION IN THE BUNDESTAG (LOWER HOUSE) OF THE WEST GERMAN FEDERAL PARLIAMENT.

BONN, GERMANY, MAY 30-(AP)-WEST GERMAN LEADERS HAMMERED ANEW TODAY

AT FRENCH MOVES TO SEPARATE THE COAL-RICH SAAR BASIN FROM GERMANY.

ADDRESSING THE LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT, CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER REJECTED UNCONDITIONALLY THE IDEA OF THE SAAR BEING SET UP INDEPENDENTLY AS A "SECOND LUXEMBOURG."

HE WAS SPEAKING IN A DEBATE ON THE SAAR, A CONTINUING PROBLEM WHICH CROPS UP FROM TIME TO TIME TO MAR FRANCO-GERMAN RELATIONS.

ADENAUER DECLARED THE SAAR WAS LEGALLY PART OF GERMANY. HE SAID THE WESTERN ALLIESLGNGO@@.8'3

ADENAUER DECLARED THE SAAR WAS LEGALLY PART OF GERMANY. HE SAID THE WESTERN ALLIES HAD PROMISED THAT NO FINAL DECISION ON THE TERRITORY'S ULTIMATE FATE WAS TO BE MADE BEFORE THE PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY.

"OUR GOAL IS A UNITED EUROPE IN WHICH THERE ARE NO FRONTIERS," SAID ADENAUER.

MAY 31 1951

"THE LESS WE HEAR OF THE DISCORDANT NOTE OF A SAAR STATE, THE BETTER WE SHOULD BE ABLE TO STRIKE A HARMONIOUS NOTE WITH FRANCE."

CARLO SCHMID, DEPUTY LEADER OF THE GERMAN SOCIALISTS, SUPPORTED THE GOVERNMENT'S STAND AND FLATLY CHARGED THAT THE FRENCH WERE TRYING TO PREJUDICE THE PEACE TREATY'S DECISION ON THE SAAR. HE CALLED FOR A PLEBISCITE IN THE REGION.

ADENAUER DIRECTED MOST OF HIS FIRE AT THE SAAR GOVERNMENT. HE PICTURED A REGIME THAT HAD OBTAINED POWER WHEN VOTERS WHERE INFLUENCED BY FEAR, HUNGER AND DESTITUTION.

HE READ A NOTE SENT TO THE ALLIED HIGH COMMISSION YESTERDAY URGING THAT THE BIG THREE INTERVENE IN THE SAAR TO ESTABLISH "UNRESTRICTED LIBERTY OF THE EXPRESSION OF OPINION AND OF THE POLITICAL WILL OF THE PEOPLE WITH REGARD TO THE ISSUES WHICH ARE TO FIND FINAL SETTLEMENT IN A PEACE TREATY."

THE NOTE SAID "BY MEANS OF NUMEROUS LAWS WHICH, TO A LARGE EXTENT, HAVE GONE UNNOTICED BY THE PUBLIC BECAUSE IN THE SAAR NO OPPOSITION PRESS IS TOLERATED, THE SAAR GOVERNMENT HAS CREATED THE MEAN OF SUPPRESSING ANY POLITICAL OPINION OF WHICH IT DOES NOT APPROVE.

"X X X THE POLITICAL PRESSURE TO WHICH THE POPULATION OF THE SAAR IS SUBMITTED FINDS PARTICULARLY UNFORTUNATE EXPRESSION IN THE POLICE CONTROL OF ALL MEETINGS AND IN THE VERY THOROUGH CENSORSHIP OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS AND LETTERS."

ADENAUER SAID THE SAAR GOVERNMENT HAD BEHAVED AS THOUGH THE REGION WERE ALREADY IRREVOCABLY CUT OFF FROM GERMANY.

HE ANNOUNCED THAT THE BONN REGIME WILL ACCUSE THE SAAR GOVERNMENT BEFORE THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE OF INFRINGING THE CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS, TO WHICH IT WAS A SIGNATORY.

WITH MEMORIAL DAY

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, MAY 30-(AP)-AMERICA'S FIGHTING MEN IN EUROPE TODAY MEMORIALIZED THEIR WAR DEAD AS FRESH TROOPS ROLLED TO POSTS ALONG THE WESTERN DEFENSE LINE.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES WERE HELD THROUGHOUT THE U.S. ARMY'S EUROPEAN COMMAND BUT THEY WERE BRIEF SO AS NOT TO HAMPER THE BULWARKING AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

TROOP TRAINS RUMBLED THROUGH A CHILLY GERMAN COUNTRYSIDE AS 1,300 SOLDIERS OF THE U.S. FOURTH DIVISION WENT TO BIVOUAC WITH OTHERS WHO ARRIVED LAST SUNDAY. THESE LATEST DOCKED LAST NIGHT AND MORE ARE ON THE HIGH SEAS.

WREATH-LAYING CEREMONIES AND PILGRIMAGES TO CEMETERIES TOOK A SHARP AND SOMBER SIGNIFICANCE AGAINST THE BACKDROP OF THE RUSSIAN THREAT AND FIGHTING IN KOREA.

SEASONED TROOPS WERE GIVEN THE DAY OFF, BUT TENTS MUSHROOMED AT MANNHEIM AS THE REPLACEMENTS SET UP HOUSEKEEPING.

OTHER UNITS SPRUCED UP FOR VISITS EXPECTED BY GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, U.S. ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, IN EUROPE TO INSPECT AMERICAN TROOPS.

TOUGH, TRAINING-WISE SOLDIERS CHECKED THEIR GEAR AT THE OLD WEHRMACHT GROUNDS AT GRAFENWOEHR IN PREPARATION FOR A COMBAT PROBLEM TONIGHT TO BE WATCHED BY COLLINS.

BUT AMERICAN DEAD OF THE TWO WORLD WARS WERE NOT FORGOTTEN.

LT. GEN. MANSTON S. EDDY, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. 7TH ARMY, LED AN AIR PILGRIMAGE OF OFFICERS TO AMERICAN WAR CEMETERIES IN LUXEMBOURG, BELGIUM, ITALY, THE NETHERLANDS, FRANCE AND ENGLAND.

AT LUXEMBOURG HE PLANNED A VISIT TO THE GRAVE OF LT. GEN. GEORGE S. PATTON, JR., AMERICA'S FIERY TANK SOLDIER.

IN EPINAL, FRANCE, MAJ.-GEN. JOHN L. MCKEE, EUROPEAN COMMAND PROVOST MARSHAL, WAS CHIEF SPEAKER AT SERVICES ATTENDED BY AMERICAN AND FRENCH OFFICIALS.

IN BERLIN, LAST OUTPOST IN THE COLD WAR, TROOPS TOOK A HOLIDAY. NO SPECIAL SERVICES WERE PLANNED.

AMERICAN LEGION POST NO. 1 IN LONDON LED U.S. OBSERVANCES IN ENGLAND'S CAPITAL. WREATH-LAYING CEREMONIES WERE CONDUCTED AT WHITEHALL'S CENOTAPH, BRITAIN'S MEMORIAL TO HER WAR DEAD; AND AT THE LINCOLN STATUE IN PARLIAMENT SQUARE.

SERVICES IN FRANCE WERE HELD AT SOME 15 CEMETERIES TO HONOR AMERICAN WAR DEAD.

MORNING OBSERVANCES WERE HIGHLIGHTED BY A SERVICE IN THE NEWLY-REFURBISHED CEMETERY NEAR CHERBOURG, RESTING PLACE FOR MEN KILLED IN A CIVIL WAR NAVAL BATTLE BETWEEN THE CONFEDERATE FRIGATE ALABAMA AND THE YANKEE FRIGATE KEARSARGE. THE ENGAGEMENT WAS FOUGHT OFF CHERBOURG IN 1864.

THERE ALSO WAS AN OBSERVANCE AT THE UTAH BEACH CEMETERY FOR SOLDIERS WHO DIED IN THE NORMANDY LANDINGS OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR. THE U.S. DESTROYER PURDY WAS KEPT FROM PARTICIPATING AS SCHEDULED BECAUSE OF STORMY WEATHER IN THE CHANNEL.

U.S. AMBASSADOR DAVID K. BRUCE PLACED A WREATH ON THE TOMB OF FRANCE'S UNKNOWN SOLDIER IN PARIS, BENEATH THE ARC DE TRIOMPHE. BEFORE THE CEREMONY, BRUCE AND LEADERS OF THE AMERICAN COMMUNITY ATTENDED A SERVICE IN THE AMERICAN PROCATHEDRAL.

HENRY SPARKMAN, MARSHALL PLAN CHIEF OF FRANCE, SPOKE AT THE WORLD WAR I CEMETERY OF AVRANCHES, AND MAJ.GEN. GEORGE J. RICHARDS ADDRESSED A GATHERING AT THE BELLEAU WOODS MEMORIAL.

GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, SUPREME COMMANDER OF THE ATLANTIC PACT FORCES IN EUROPE, WORKED AS USUAL AT HIS HEADQUARTERS.

AMERICANS IN OSLO GATHERED AT THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL IN FROGNER PARK TO LISTEN TO AN ADDRESS BY WILLIAM SNOW, CHARGE D'AFFAIRES AT THE U.S. EMBASSY.

IN BELGIUM, MAJ.GEN.GEORGE KORKAN ATTENDED MEMORIAL SERVICES AT NEUVILLE CEMETERY ORGANIZED BY THE BELGO-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

OVER EACH OF THE 5,800 GRAVES OF FALLEN G.I.'S FLUTTERED A SMALL AMERICAN FLAG. EACH GRAVE WAS DECORATED WITH A SMALL BOUQUET OF WILD FLOWERS.

WHILE BELGIAN AND AMERICAN MILITARY BANDS PLAYED HYMNS IN THE WARM SUN, THE GENERAL LAID A WREATH IN MEMORY OF ALL THE MEN INTERRED IN THE CEMETERY. AN HONOR GUARD FIREED THREE SALVOES.

A SIMILAR CEREMONY WAS HELD AT NEARBY HENRI-CHAPELLE CEMETERY. MRS.ARNOLD MOSER OF MONTCLAIR,N.J., WHOSE SON IS BURIED THERE, WAS AMONG THE ONLOOKERS.

CUXHAVEN, GERMANY, THURSDAY, MAY 31-(AP)-ONE HUNDRED HELGOLAND FISHERMEN SET OUT FOR THEIR ISLAND FROM VARIOUS POINTS ALONG THE GERMAN COAST LAST NIGHT IN ONE OF THE LARGEST DEMONSTRATIONS YET AGAINST USE OF HELGOLAND AS A BOMBING TARGET.

WITH LIGHTS DIMMED TO ESCAPE GERMAN AND BRITISH POLICE, 10 CUTTERS SAILED FROM HERE LOADED WITH FISHERMEN WHO SAID THEY INTENDED TO STAY ON THE ISLAND UNTIL THE BOMBING STOPS OR THEY ARE JAILED.

HELGOLAND WAS A NAZI SUBMARINE BASE DURING THE LAST WAR. IN 1945 ITS 2,500 INHABITANTS WERE TAKEN OFF AND THE ISLAND BECAME A PRACTICE TARGET FOR BRITISH AND AMERICAN BOMBER PILOTS.

THE BRITISH HAVE PROMISED TO RETURN THE ISLAND TO THE FISHERMEN NEXT YEAR. UNTIL THEN THEY THREATEN ANY TRESPASSERS WITH ARREST, AND ALREADY HAVE ARRESTED SCORES TRYING TO SNEAK BACK.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, MAY 30-(AP)-SEVEN MEN WENT ON TRIAL TODAY BEFORE THE PRAGUE STATE COURT ON CHARGES OF HIGH TREASON, SABOTAGE AND ESPIONAGE IN COOPERATION WITH AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE AGENTS, THE OFFICIAL CZECHOSLOVAK NEWS AGENCY REPORTED.

FOUR ARE ENGINEERS. THEIR LEADER WAS SAID TO BE AN EMPLOYE OF THE STANDARD ELECTRIC COMPANY NAMED PLOCEK (FIRST NAME NOT LISTED) WHO WAS MADE A DIRECTOR OF THAT FIRM AND REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INTERNATIONAL STANDARD ELECTRIC CORPORATION (I.S.E.C.) FOR CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN 1938.

THE OTHER ENGINEERS ARE MILOS HRADECNY, AN OFFICER OF THE PRE-MUNICH REPUBLIC; JAROSLAV PESKA, AND KAREL KOPPL. NAMES OF THE THREE OTHER DEFENDANTS WERE GIVEN AS FRANC, PRIBIK AND HANCL.

ALL ARE ACCUSED OF HELPING THE INTERNATIONAL STANDARD ELECTRIC CORPORATION SUBORDINATE CZECHOSLOVAK TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND MAKE THEM DEPENDENT ON THE SERVICES OF THE INTERNATIONAL FIRM.

THEY DID THIS, THE NEWS AGENCY REPORTED, AT THE ORDER OF THE AMERICAN ESPIONAGE SERVICE. THIS WAS A MANEUVER TO BUILD A WIDE ESPIONAGE NET INSIDE CZECHOSLOVAK INDUSTRY, THE AGENCY CONTINUED.

"UNDER THE CLOAK OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THIS FIRM (I.S.E.C.), IMPERIALIST AGENTS AND DIVERSANTS CAME TO THIS COUNTRY," THE AGENCY CONTINUED. "THIS IS PROVED BY THE FACTS THAT SUCH EXPONENTS OF THE I.S.E.C., AS FOR INSTANCE COLONEL BROWN OR THE SPY VOGELER, CONDEMNED LAST YEAR BY A HUNGARIAN COURT, WERE, AT THE SAME TIME, OFFICERS OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY ESPIONAGE SERVICE."

(ROBERT A.VOGELER, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY, WAS RELEASED FROM PRISON IN HUNGARY IN APRIL AFTER SERVING 17 MONTHS OF A 15-YEAR SENTENCE FOR ESPIONAGE. HE NOW IS BACK IN THE UNITED STATES. VOGELER SAID ON HIS RELEASE THAT THE HUNGARIANS OBTAINED A "CONFESSION" OF SPYING FROM HIM BY MENTAL AND PHYSICAL COERCION, BUT HE HAS NOT YET GIVEN A FULL PUBLIC ACCOUNT OF WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM AFTER HIS ARREST. THE COLONEL BROWN REFERRED TO BY THE AGENCY IS NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED.)

THE SEVEN MEN BEING TRIED ARE ACCUSED ALSO OF GATHERING AND FORWARDING TO THE AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE REGULAR ECONOMIC, POLITICAL AND MILITARY REPORTS.

NIGHT LEAD IRANIAN (430)

BY FRED ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 30-(AP)-IRAN ANNOUNCED TONIGHT A THREE-MAN GOVERNMENTAL BOARD IS GOING TO KHUZISTAN PROVINCE WITH AUTHORITY TO RUN THE NATIONALIZED OIL INDUSTRY.

AT THE SAME TIME PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, A KEY FIGURE IN THE FIGHT TO TAKE OVER THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW IRAN HAS NO INTENTION OF USING HER ARMY TO ENFORCE THE LAW.

"THERE WILL BE NO NEED OF CALLING ON THE ARMY," HE DECLARED.

MOSSADEGH DID NOT ELABORATE, THOUGH HE WAS ASKED TO.

HE WAS INTERVIEWED IN THE GARDEN OF THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING, WHERE HE HAS TAKEN REFUGE ALMOST CONTINUOUSLY SINCE MAY 13. HE AND OTHER OFFICIALS OF HIS MONTH-OLD GOVERNMENT POSED FOR NEWSREEL CAMERAMEN.

A SOLUTION OF THE OIL ISSUE AGREEABLE TO BOTH SIDES WILL BE POSSIBLE "IF THEY HAVE RESPECT FOR THE LAW PASSED BY BOTH HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT AND RESPECT FOR PUBLIC OPINION," MOSSADEGH SAID.

HE ASSERTED THE COMMUNIST DANGER IN IRAN COMES FROM THE PRESSURE OF POVERTY ON THE IRANIAN MASSES. HE HAS PROMISED THE PEOPLE THEY WILL LIVE IN "THE UTMOST COMFORT AND EASE" AFTER OIL IS NATIONALIZED "IF THIS HUGE WEALTH IS USED CORRECTLY."

THE GOVERNMENT RADIO IN TEHRAN MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PENDING TRIP OF THE THREE-MAN BOARD TO KHUZISTAN, WHERE THE $1,000,000,000 ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY HAS ITS RICHEST HOLDINGS.

IRAN IS "DUTY BOUND" TO PUT THE LAW INTO EFFECT, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

IT WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY CLEAR WHEN THE BOARD WAS GOING, BUT MIDNIGHT TONIGHT MARKS THE DEADLINE OF AN ORDER IRAN GAVE THE COMPANY A WEEK AGO TO ASSIST IN ITS LIQUIDATION.

THE RADIO ANNOUNCEMENT WAS CONTAINED IN A COMMUNIQUE GIVING THE TEXT OF A MEMORANDUM FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH HANDED EARLIER TO A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE COMPANY. N.R.SEDDON.

THE BROADCAST SAID THE MEMORANDUM ADVISED THE AIOC THAT THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT WANTS TO UTILIZE THE EXPERIENCE AND INFORMATION OF THE AIOC AND THAT IF THE COMPANY HAD ANY SUGGESTIONS WHICH ARE NOT CONTRARY TO THE NATIONALIZATION LAW THEY SHOULD BE SUBMITTED WITHIN FIVE DAYS.

MAY 31 1951

"DELAY WILL INCUR RESPONSIBILITY. THEREFORE, IF YOU HAVE ANY SUGGESTIONS, THEY SHOULD BE SENT WITHIN THE ABOVE PERIOD," THE BROADCAST QUOTED THE DOCUMENT AS SAYING.

THE THREE-MAN DELEGATION, THE MEMORANDUM CONTINUED, WILL HAVE "ALL AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO EXPLOITATION, PRODUCTION AND MARKETING OF OIL" AND WILL HAVE FULL POWER TO ACT UNTIL THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY (THE NEW NAME SPECIFIED IN THE NATIONALIZATION LAW) ARE LAID DOWN.

IT ADDED THAT THE TEMPORARY BOARD WILL NOTIFY ALL AIOC CUSTOMERS TO CONTACT IT FOR DISCUSSION OF REQUIREMENTS, BUT THEY MUST PRODUCE DOCUMENTS TO SEEK THE APPROVAL OF THE BOARD.

IT ALSO SAID THAT WORKERS IN THE AIOC INSTALLATIONS, "FROM THIS DATE WILL BE RECOGNIZED AS EMPLOYES OF THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY. EXPERT EMPLOYES, BOTH BRITISH AND IRANIAN, WILL CONTINUE IN THEIR JOBS AS EMPLOYES OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, IT SAID.

SEDDON AND VERASTEH MET MORE THAN AN HOUR IN THE FIRST SUCH CONFERENCE BETWEEN A COMPANY OFFICIAL AND A GOVERNMENT MINISTER SINCE PARLIAMENT PASSED THE NATIONALIZATION LAW A MONTH AGO. SEDDON SAID HE PLANNED TO COMMUNICATE EVERYTHING TO HIS LONDON OFFICE.

SEDDON IS THE COMPANY'S LIAISON MAN IN TEHRAN. HE SAID NO ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE FOR A SECOND MEETING.

EARLIER, AN IRANIAN FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN DECLARED "THE FORMER OIL COMPANY" IS THE PROPER PARTY TO DISCUSS THE OIL QUESTION WITH IRAN AND THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT--WHICH OWNS 53 PER CENT OF THE STOCK--"CAN ENTER INTO DISCUSSIONS WITH IRAN ONLY ON THE QUESTION OF ITS OIL NEEDS."

A SHOW OF STRENGTH TUESDAY BY THE UNDERGROUND TUDEH (COMMUNIST)

PARTY AGAINST "THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS" WAS FOLLOWED BY CALM. THE PARADE OF 100,000 DEMONSTRATORS IN TEHRAN PASSED WITHOUT INCIDENT. NO REPORTS OF VIOLENCE WERE RECEIVED FROM THE PROVINCES.

U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY GRADY, WHO HAS SLIPPED INTO THE ROLE OF MEDIATOR BETWEEN PREMIER MOSSADEGH AND THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, WENT TO THE AIRPORT TO MEET A PLANE BRINGING THE FIRST 20 TONS OF A TOTAL OF 200 TONS OF DDT THE UNITED STATES IS GIVING IRAN FOR AN ANTI-MALARIA CAMPAIGN.

THE CAMPAIGN IS AIMED TO GAIN IRAN'S CONFIDENCE AND SUPPORT. ANOTHER PROGRAM WITH SIMILAR AIMS BROUGHT PLANES AND POISON BAIT HERE TO FIGHT A SERIOUS INFESTATION OF LOCUSTS. THE RUSSIANS COUNTERED IN KIND WITH RUSSIAN PLANES AND BAIT.

B103 Q (710)

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 30-(AP)-THE TEXT OF THE MEMORANDUM DELIVERED TO N.R.SEDDON, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, BY FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH TODAY (710):

THE NATIONALIZATION LAW MADE THE GOVERNMENT DUTY BOUND TO ENFORCE THE LAW BY SUPERVISION OF A JOINT BOARD ELECTED BY BOTH HOUSES (OF PARLIAMENT).

THE LAW OF NATIONALIZATION OF OIL IS BASED ON IRAN'S NATIONAL SOVEREIGN RIGHT TO CHOOSE THE MEANS OF HOW TO USE ITS NATIONAL INDUSTRIES.

THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS NO VIEWS OTHER THAN TO SAFEGUARD THE COMFORT AND EASE OF ITS PEOPLE AND DOES NOT WANT IN ANY FASHION TO DESTROY ANYONE'S RIGHTS AND, BASED ON THIS FACT, ALL NECESSARY POINTS HAVE BEEN PROVIDED BY THE ABOVE LAW TO SAFEGUARD THE RIGHTS OF THOSE WHO POSSESS RIGHTS.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION HAS BEEN PAID TO TWO IMPORTANT MATTERS:

1. NATIONALIZATION OF THE OIL INDUSTRY SHOULD NOT INFLICT ANY LOSS UPON FORMER BUYERS AND USERS OF OIL AND, TO SAFEGUARD THIS AIM, THE SEVENTH ARTICLE (OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW) RECOGNIZED THE RIGHTS FOR FORMER BUYERS OF OIL AND HAS UNDERTAKEN TO MAKE CERTAIN THE RIGHTS OF THOSE BUYERS ARE PROTECTED.

2. IF IT BE PROVEN THAT FROM THE NATIONALIZATION OF OIL LOSSES HAVE BEEN INFLICTED ON THE FORMER OIL COMPANY, THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS AGREED TO COMPENSATE SUCH LOSSES AND IS PREPARED TO SET ASIDE UP TO 25 PER CENT OF THE NET PROFIT WITH BANKERS AS A GUARANTEE TO COVER SUCH POSSIBLE LOSSES.

BASED ON THESE PREFACES, YOU NOTE THAT THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT NEVER INTENDS TO EXPROPRIATE THE PROPERTIES OF THE FORMER OIL COMPANY AND NEVER INTENDS TO OBSTRUCT SALES OF OIL TO FORMER CUSTOMERS.

AFTER THESE EXPLANATORY REMARKS, I HEREBY NOTIFY YOU OF ARRANGEMENTS PREPARED BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT UNDER SUPERVISION OF THE JOINT BOARD (OF PARLIAMENT) TO ENFORCE THE LAW OF NATIONALIZATION OF OIL:

1. TO ENFORCE THE SECOND ARTICLE OF THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW AND TEMPORARILY ADMINISTER THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY, A BOARD OF THREE PERSONS WILL BE APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNMENT AS A TEMPORARY MANAGEMENT BOARD TO CARRY OUT DUTIES UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE JOINT OIL BOARD.

2. THE ABOVE BOARD WILL ENJOY FULL NECESSARY AUTHORITIES TO RUN THE AFFAIRS OF THE (IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL) COMPANY, INCLUDING EXPLORATION, EXPLOITATION, REFINING, DISTRIBUTION, SALES AND PROFIT-MAKING.

3. UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THE BY-LAWS OF THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY HAVE BEEN APPROVED, THE TEMPORARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BASE ITS ACTIONS ON THE REGULATIONS OF THE FORMER OIL COMPANY, EXCEPT THOSE CONTRARY TO THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW.

4. THE IRANIAN AND FOREIGN EXPERT EMPLOYES AND WORKERS OF THE FORMER OIL COMPANY WILL REMAIN AT THEIR JOBS AND FROM THIS DATE WILL BE RECOGNIZED AS EMPLOYES OF THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY.

MAY 31 1951

B04 Q

5. THE TEMPORARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS SHOULD EXERT THE UTMOST ATTENTION IN AN EFFORT TO CARRY OUT THE EXISTING PROGRAMS AND INCREASE OIL PRODUCTION IN SUCH A WAY THAT THE AMOUNT AND PROFITS WILL EXCEED THE PRESENT PRODUCTION AND PROFITS.

6. IN ORDER TO SET AN INTERNATIONAL PRICE AND, AT THE SAME TIME, TO AVOID SUSPENSION AND SHORTAGE OF OIL EXPORTS, THE TEMPORARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS IS DUTY BOUND TO ANNOUNCE IN IRAN AND ABROAD UPON ITS ARRIVAL IN KHUISTAN: THAT WITHIN ONE MONTH, BASED ON EXISTING PROGRAMS OF THE FORMER OIL COMPANY, AGAINST THE SIGNING OF RECEIPTS, OIL PRODUCTS WILL BE DELIVERED TO FORMER BUYERS. BUYERS ARE DUTY BOUND TO CONTACT THE TEMPORARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS WITHIN THAT PERIOD AND ARRANGE TO PAY THE PRICE OF THE AFOREMENTIONED PRODUCTS WHICH THEY HAVE TAKEN DURING THE ABOVE PERIOD AND, ALSO, IN ORDER TO ENJOY THE RIGHTS MENTIONED IN THE SEVENTH ARTICLE OF THE LAW, TO GAIN APPROVAL OF THE TEMPORARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS REGARDING FUTURE PURCHASE AND SALE OF OIL. THE TEMPORARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL PROPOSE PRINCIPLES OF AGREEMENT REACHED WITH PURCHASERS TO THE JOINT OIL BOARD FOR APPROVAL.

IN CONCLUSION, I MUST MAKE THESE TWO COMMENTS:

THE ARRANGEMENTS OUTLINED TO YOU ARE GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS WHICH HAVE SO FAR REACHED OUR ATTENTION TO ENFORCE THE LAW OF NATIONALIZATION. THE GOVERNMENT WISHES TO SEE THAT THIS IMPORTANT NATIONAL MATTER IS PUT INTO FORCE ABSOLUTELY CORRECTLY AND, ALSO, TO USE THE EXPERIENCES AND KNOWLEDGE OF THE FORMER OIL COMPANY.

THEREFORE, IF SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE BY YOU WHICH ARE NOT CONTRARY TO THE PRINCIPLE OF NATIONALIZATION OF OIL, THE GOVERNMENT WILL TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION THESE SUGGESTIONS.

SECONDLY, IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE FORMER OIL COMPANY WILL HAND OVER TO ME WITHIN FIVE DAYS FROM THIS DATE SUGGESTIONS BASED ON EXISTING LAWS TO BE STUDIED AND USED.

ACCORDING TO THE NATIONALIZATION LAW, THE GOVERNMENT IS DUTY BOUND TO ENFORCE THE LAW IMMEDIATELY. DELAY WILL INCUR RESPONSIBILITY. THEREFORE, IF YOU HAVE ANY SUGGESTIONS, THEY SHOULD BE SENT WITHIN THE ABOVE PERIOD.

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, MAY 30-(AP)-THE TOTAL MIDDLE EAST OIL RESERVES ARE ESTIMATED AT 200,000,000,000 (B) BARRELS, TWICE THE FIGURE OF THE U.S. ESTIMATED ULTIMATE PRODUCTION, DR. C.M.LEES TOLD THE THIRD WORLD PETROLEUM CONGRESS TODAY.

LEES, ASSOCIATED WITH THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO. LTD OF LONDON, SAID THAT PROVED RESERVES OF THE MIDDLE EAST WERE ESTIMATED AT SOME 5,300,000,000 (B) TONS (40,000,000,000 (B) BARRELS).

"IF THE FIGURE OF 40,000,000,000 (B) BARRELS IS RELATED TO THE AREA WHICH HAS BEEN ACTIVELY EXPLORED TO DATE (ABOUT 130,000 SQUARE MILES), THE PRODUCTIVITY FIGURE FOR PROVED OIL IS 300,000 BARRELS PER SQUARE MILE," LEES SAID.

"THIS PRODUCTIVITY FIGURE IS FOUR TIMES THE EQUIVALENT FIGURE FOR THE STATE OF TEXAS, AND A COMPARISON FOR PROVED PLUS POSSIBLE RESERVES WOULD PROBABLY BE STILL MORE IN THE FAVOR OF THE MIDDLE EAST."

"IT IS, OF COURSE, QUITE IMPOSSIBLE TO HAZARD A GUESS, WITH ANY PRETENSE OF ACCURACY, AT THE TOTAL ULTIMATE RESERVE OF THE MIDDLE EAST," LEES ADDED.

"EXPLORATION HAS BEEN CONFINED TO THE MOST PROMOSING ZONES AND HENCE THE INDICATED PRODUCTIVITY-FIGURE CANNOT BE APPLIED TO THE REMAINDER. IF ONE-FIFTH OF THE TOTAL OIL HAS ALREADY BEEN DISCOVERED, THE TOTAL RESERVE WOULD BE ON THE ORDER OF 200,000,000,000 (B) BARRELS."

THE OBSERVER, N.R. SEDDON, WILL NOT BE EMPOWERED TO PARTICIPATE IN PUTTING THE COMPANY TO DEATH AS IRAN ORDERED, BUT ONLY TO LISTEN AND REPORT BACK TO HIS DIRECTORS IN LONDON.

KARACHI, PAKISTAN, MAY 30-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER LIAQUAT ALI KHAN SAID TONIGHT THE CONSPIRACY TO OVERTHROW HIS GOVERNMENT WHICH RECENTLY WAS SMASHED BY A ROUNDUP OF RINGLEADERS HAD NOT SHAKEN THE STABILITY OF THE NATION.

NO ADVERSE REPERCUSSIONS FOLLOWED THE ARREST OF MORE THAN 10 PROMINENT PAKISTANIS, INCLUDING TWO TOP MILITARY LEADERS, FOR COMPLICITY IN THE PLOT, LIAQUAT DECLARED IN AN INTERVIEW.

THIS WAS IN REPLY TO RUMORS THAT MEMBERS OF THE PAKISTANI ARMED FORCES ARE UNHAPPY ABOUT THE ARREST OF TWO MAJOR GENERALS, A BRIGADIER AND SEVERAL LESSER OFFICERS CHARGED WITH PLOTTING AGAINST THE STATE "WITH THE HELP OF KNOWN COMMUNIST LEADERS AND THE ASSISTANCE OF AN UNNAMED FOREIGN STATE."

"THERE IS UNHAPPINESS IN THE ARMED FORCES," THE PRIME MINISTER SAID, "BUT IT IS UNHAPPINESS CAUSED BY THE FACT THAT SOME LEADERS OF THESE FORCES PARTICIPATED IN A CONSPIRACY AND NOT BECAUSE IT WAS DISCOVERED."

THE ACCUSED ARE TO BE TRIED IN CLOSED SESSION TWO WEEKS FROM NOW.

THE CONSPIRACY WAS REVEALED EARLY IN APRIL. THE RINGLEADERS WERE DESCRIBED AS PLOTTING A MILITARY DICTATORSHIP WITH POSSIBLE COMMUNIST ASSISTANCE. SINCE THEN, THE ARRESTS OF KNOWN COMMUNISTS HAS CONTINUED AND AN UNDISCLOSED NUMBER IS UNDER DETENTION.

LIAQUAT SAID THERE WOULD BE NO LETUP IN THE ARRESTS OF COMMUNISTS

WHO ATTEMPT TO WORK AGAINST PAKISTAN'S ESTABLISHED GOVERNMENT.
"THIS COUNTRY HAS NO OBJECTION TO THE ACTIVITIES OF ANY POLITICAL GROUP SO LONG AS THEY WORK BY NORMAL POLITICAL METHODS," HE SAID. "BUT COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN FORMING UNDERGROUND CELLS AND TRYING TO SPREAD UNREST AND TO CAUSE VIOLENCE. THEIR ARRESTS WILL CONTINUE."
(THIS IS MUCH THE SAME ATTITUDE TOWARD COMMUNISM AS THAT OF THE GOVERNMENT OF PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU IN NEIGHBORING INDIA, WHICH TOLERATES THE COMMUNIST PARTY SO LONG AS IT CONFINES ITSELF TO LEGITIMATE POLITICAL ACTIVITY AND DOES NOT ENGAGE IN SUBSERVION, SABOTAGE OR VIOLENCE.)

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, MAY 30-(AP)-THE DAMASCUS PRESS ASSOCIATION AND PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION VOTED TODAY TO BOYCOTT A DINNER BY THE U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE HONORING THE SYRIAN PRESS NEXT FRIDAY.
THEIR DECISION WAS PROMPTED BY UNITED STATES' "PERSISTENCE IN SUPPORTING ISRAEL'S AGGRESSION AND STRENGTHENING ISRAEL AGAINST ARABS IN GENERAL, AND SYRIA PARTICULARLY, WITH MONEY AND ARMS," THE ASSOCIATIONS SAID IN A NOTE TO U.S. MINISTER CAVENDISH CANNON.
SENTIMENT AGAINST THE U.S. WAS AROUSED BY REPORTS REACHING HERE OF A RECENT SPEECH BY VICE PRESIDENT ALBEN BARKLEY. HE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING ISRAEL WAS THE ONLY COUNTRY IN THE MIDDLE EAST THAT THE U.S. COULD TRUST.
CONTRIBUTING TO THE ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING IS WHAT IS CONSIDERED HERE AN UNFAIR ALLOTMENT OF AID UNDER THE MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM RECENTLY ASKED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRIES.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS--ROUNDUP
WASHINGTON, MAY 30-(AP)-THE U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TONIGHT ACCUSED THE CIO OF "A CHEAP TRICK ON THE PUBLIC." THE CHAMBER THUS DENOUNCED CIO CHARGES THAT BIG BUSINESS IS TRYING TO BRIBE LABOR TO HELP SCUTTLE GOVERNMENT WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS.
CIO SECRETARY-TREASURER JAMES B. CAREY TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE TODAY THAT IN THE CIO'S VIEW BUSINESS IS OFFERING THIS "SHARE THE LOOT" DEAL TO LABOR:
BOTH BUSINESS AND LABOR WOULD JOIN IN KILLING GOVERNMENT CONTROLS; THEN BUSINESS WOULD "GOUGE" CONSUMERS WITH HIGHER PRICES AND LABOR WOULD BE CUT IN FOR MUCH HIGHER WAGES.
THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, SPECIFICALLY CRITICIZED BY CAREY, SAID IN A STATEMENT LATE TONIGHT THAT CAREY'S TESTIMONY "IS TYPICAL OF THE INSIDIOUS TYPE OF REMARK HE MAKES. X X X
"THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO GROUND FOR THE INSINUATION IN HIS STATEMENT THAT THE NATIONAL CHAMBER PROPOSED ANY SUCH DEAL WITH ORGANIZED LABOR OR WITH ANYBODY ELSE. AND JIM CAREY KNOWS THAT TO BE A FACT. SUCH A STATEMENT DISCREDITS ANYTHING HE HAS TO SAY.
"BUSINESS KNOWS THAT WAGES DO NOT NEED TO BE CONTROLLED ANY MORE THAN PRICES NEED TO BE CONTROLLED. UNION LEADERS LIKE JIM CAREY ARE DOING A DISSERVICE TO THE AMERICAN WORKER BY ADVOCATING THAT HE ACCEPT FURTHER REGIMENTATION FROM THE GOVERNMENT."

THE STATEMENT WAS ISSUED BY HERMAN W. STEINKRAUS OF BRIDGEPORT, CONN., CHAIRMAN OF THE CHAMBER'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. STEINKRAUS WILL TESTIFY BEFORE THE SAME SENATE COMMITTEE FRIDAY.

THE COMMITTEE IS WORKING ON A BILL PROPOSED BY THE ADMINISTRATION TO BROADEN AND EXTEND THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT, CARRYING WAGE-PRICE AUTHORITY AND MOST OTHER PARTS OF THE DEFENSE EMERGENCY POWERS. THE PRESENT ACT EXPIRES AT THE END OF NEXT MONTH.

THE COTTON BUSINESS VIEW WAS PRESENTED BY WILLIAM R.BLAKE OF MEMPHIS, TENN., EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL, WHO TOLD THE SENATORS:

"IF WE CONTINUE PRICE CEILINGS WE WILL BE KEEPING IN FORCE A SYSTEM OF CONTROLS WHICH IS STRANGLING THE EFFICIENCY OF PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION THROUGHOUT THIS NATION AND IS THEREBY UNDERMINING THE VERY FORCE WHICH IS MOST IMPORTANT IN FIGHTING INFLATION."

UNDER QUESTIONING BY SENATOR DOUGLAS (D-ILL), BLAKE AGREED THAT THE COTTON CEILING OF 45.2 CENTS A POUND IS NOT TOO LOW. DOUGLAS BROUGHT OUT THAT THIS FIGURE IS NEAR THE ALL-TIME RECORD PRICE.

CHAIRMAN MAYBANK (D-SC) COMMENTED THAT COTTON FUTURES NOW ARE SELLING AROUND 35 TO 38 CENTS A POUND BECAUSE OF THE BIG 16,000,000-BALE CROP IN PROSPECT THIS YEAR. SPOT COTTON IS NEAR THE CEILING.

BLAKE SAID A SEVERE BREAK IN THE COTTON PRICE IS POSSIBLE BY NEXT FALL BECAUSE OF THE BIG CROP. HE SAID THE COTTON INDUSTRY FEELS THE GOVERNMENT HAD AN OBLIGATION TO SEE THAT THE PRICE DOES NOT FALL BELOW 40 CENTS BECAUSE THE BIG CROP IS BEING PRODUCED AT GOVERNMENT REQUEST. HE SAID THIS COULD BE DONE BY RELAXING EXPORT CONTROLS.

CIO SECRETARY-TREASURER JAMES B.CAREY SPECIFICALLY ACCUSED THE U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS OF DISPLAYING "COMPLETE IRRESPONSIBILITY AND A NARROW GREED THAT COULD WHOLLY WRECK OUR DEFENSE PROGRAM IF THEIR IDEAS WERE ADOPTED.

MAY 30 1951

CAREY ASSERTED THAT BIG BUSINESS WITH "UTTER GALL" IS TRYING TO SELL CONGRESS ON THE IDEA OF LETTING CONTROLS DIE.

HE SAID BUSINESS WANTS LABOR TO JOIN IN THE FIGHT AGAINST CONTROLS AND "BOTH OF US TOGETHER COULD THEN GOUGE THE CONSUMER, AND LABOR COULD GET ITS 'CUT' IN MUCH HIGHER WAGES."

"WE OF THE CIO REJECT EMPHATICALLY THIS OFFER OF A CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE PUBLIC INTEREST," CAREY SAID. "WE WILL HAVE NO PART IN THIS SHAMEFUL DEAL."

COMMITTEE MEMBERS ASKED CAREY IF HE COULD GIVE A SPECIFIC EXAMPLE OF ANY DEAL OFFERED TO LABOR BY BUSINESS TO "SHARE THE LOOT."

CAREY SAID ONE CASE INVOLVED THE WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRICAL MANUFACTURING CORPORATION.

HE SAID THE COMPANY OFFERED TO GIVE ITS WORKERS A NINE-CENT HOURLY WAGE INCREASE IF THE UNIONS INVOLVED WOULD HELP THE COMPANY PERSUADE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES TO LET THE WAGE BOOST BE REFLECTED IN HIGHER PRICES FOR WESTINGHOUSE PRODUCTS.

CAREY'S UNION, THE CIO INTERNATIONAL UNION OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, REPRESENTS MOST OF THE WESTINGHOUSE PRODUCTION WORKERS.

CAREY LEFT IMMEDIATELY AFTER HIS TESTIMONY TO RETURN TO PITTSBURGH. HIS UNION IS TO MEET THERE TOMORROW TO TAKE A STRIKE VOTE IN THE WESTINGHOUSE CASE.

A.J.MCKAY OF OCALA, FLA., PRESIDENT OF QUALITY COURTS UNITED, INC., URGED THAT RENT CONTROLS ON TOURIST COURTS BE ELIMINATED FROM THE BILL. IF THEY REMAIN IN, THE PRESIDENT SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO CONSIDER THE SEASONAL NATURE OF THE BUSINESS IN FIXING RENT CEILINGS, MCKAY TESTIFIED.

JOHN ROBINSON OF DALLAS, TEX., VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE BARBERS, HAIRDRESSERS AND COSMETOLOGISTS UNION, ASKED THAT THE BARBER AND BEAUTY INDUSTRIES BE EXEMPTED FROM PRICE CONTROL.

MEANWHILE, THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION PREDICTED ITS NEW CEILING PRICES ON CERTAIN CANNED GOODS WILL BRING A SMALL ROLL BACK IN THE PRICE OF CANNED SPINACH.

THE OPS SET CEILING PRICES FOR CANNERS' SALES OF THE SPRING PACK OF CANNED ASPARAGUS, GREEN BEANS, SPINACH AND OTHER VEGETABLE GREENS.

OFFICIALS SAID THE ORDER MIGHT CAUSE A SMALL INCREASE IN THE PRICE OF CANNED ASPARAGUS.

THE PRICE CONTROL AGENCY SOUNDED A REMINDER THAT TODAY MARKED IMPORTANT DEADLINES FOR SOME 200,000 RETAIL STORES SELLING HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND FOR ABOUT 300,000 RETAIL MEAT MARKETS.

BY MIDNIGHT TONIGHT, MOST RETAIL STORES WERE REQUIRED TO FILE CHARTS WITH OPS LISTING THEIR CEILING PRICES FOR SUCH ITEMS AS DRY GOODS, HOUSEWARES, RADIOS, TELEVISION SETS, HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

WASHINGTON, MAY 30-(AP)-ADM.FORREST P.SHERMAN SAID TODAY THE NUMBER OF PANAMA-REGISTERED SHIPS TRADING WITH COMMUNIST CHINA HAD "INCREASED THREEFOLD" SINCE NOVEMBER, 1950.

BUT THE NAVY CHIEF OF STAFF DISPUTED A POPULAR BELIEF THAT MOST OF THEM ARE OWNED BY UNITED STATES CAPITAL.

SHERMAN TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES HE HAD A STUDY MADE OF 37 VESSELS FLYING THE PANAMA FLAG WHICH HE SAID ARE "CURRENTLY OPERATING" INTO RED CHINESE PORTS.

THE BILL, NOW IN CONFERENCE TO IRON OUT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE HOUSE AND SENATE VERSIONS, WOULD DIRECT THE RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION TO ADVANCE $20,000,000(M) TO THE MARITIME ADMINISTRATION FOR SHIP RE-ACTIVATION.

WASHINGTON, MAY 29-(AP)-THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD WAS ASKED TODAY TO APPROVE OVER-THE-CEILING WAGE INCREASES FOR SHIPYARD WORKERS TO HALT THE TRANSFER OF SKILLED EMPLOYEES TO HIGHER-PAYING JOBS.
VICE ADM.E.L.COCHRAN, MARITIME ADMINISTRATOR, AND J.H.MORSE, GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE BETHLEHEM STEEL COMPANY'S SHIPBUILDING OPERATIONS, SAID THERE WAS A CRITICAL NEED FOR SHIPS AND FOR HOLDING ON TO MEN NOW EMPLOYED.
COCHRAN SAID MANY YARDS HAD GONE OUT OF BUSINESS AFTER WORLD WAR TWO, CUTTING DOWN THE SOURCE OF NEW SHIPS AND REPAIRS ON OLD ONES.
BETHLEHEM AND SOME OTHER SHIPYARDS HAVE NEGOTIATED A 15 PERCENT INCREASE FOR EMPLOYES WHICH THE BOARD IS BEING ASKED TO APPROVE.
MORSE TOLD A SPECIAL WAGE BOARD PANEL HEADED BY PUBLIC MEMBER JOHN T.DUNLOP THAT SHIPYARD WORKERS HAD FALLEN FAR BEHIND OTHER SKILLED INDUSTRIAL WORKERS IN PAY.
HE SAID HIS COMPANY WAS FINDING IT DIFFICULT TO GET WORKERS AND THAT NAVY YARDS WERE PAYING MUCH HIGHER RATES. FOR EXAMPLE, HE SAID, BETHLEHEM'S TOP MECHANICS WERE GETTING $1.57 AN HOUR WHILE MACHINISTS IN THE NAVY YARDS WERE RECEIVING $1.93 AN HOUR.
MORSE SAID THAT IN ORDER TO STOP THE LOSS OF KEY PERSONNEL TO THE NAVY HIS COMPANY WAS FORCED TO PAY A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF OVERTIME PREMIUM WAGES.
JAMES BROWNLOW, HEAD OF THE AFL METAL TRADES DEPARTMENT, SAID THAT SHIPYARD WORKERS HAD RECEIVED APPROXIMATELY ONE HALF OF THE WAGE INCREASES OF OTHER WORKERS SINCE 1940.
CARL HUHNDORFF, RESEARCH DIRECTOR FOR THE AFL MACHINISTS UNION SAID IT WOULD BE MUCH MORE INFLATIONARY NOT TO ALLOW THE 15 PER CENT PAY INCREASE. HE ARGUED THAT SKILLED MECHANICS WOULD GO ELSEWHERE WITHOUT THE PAY INCREASE, LEAVING THE WORK TO BE DONE BY LESS SKILLED WORKERS AND THAT WOULD BE MORE EXPENSIVE.
THE CIO MARINE AND SHIPBUILDING WORKERS HAVE THREATENED TO CALL A STRIKE OF 50,000 WORKERS ON THE EAST, WEST AND GULF COASTS JUNE 3RD IF THE 15 PER CENT INCREASE IS NOT APPROVED.

(300)WASHINGTON,MAY 30-(AP)-A 13-NATION RAW MATERIALS COMMITTEE HAS ALLOCATED 3,000 TONS OF AMERICAN AND CANADIAN NEWSPRINT TO FRANCE TO MEET "CONDITIONS OF EXCEPTIONAL URGENCY."
THE AWARD IS THE FIRST FIRM ACTION TAKEN BY A RAW MATERIALS CONFERENCE OF 26 WESTERN NATIONS SINCE IT BEGAN MEETING FEB. 26.
A CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT EXPLAIN WHAT THE "CONDITIONS OF EXCEPTIONAL URGENCY" WERE.
INFORMED OFFICIALS SAID, HOWEVER, THAT FRANCE NEEDS THE NEWSPRINT TO REPLY TO BITTER COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA ATTACKS BEFORE THE FRENCH NATIONAL ELECTIONS JUNE 17.
THE ALLOCATIONS TO FRANCE WERE RECOMMENDED BY THE CONFERENCE'S PULP-PAPER COMMITTEE WHICH HAS BEEN TRYING TO DECIDE HOW TO MEET A WORLD-WIDE SHORTAGE AND INCREASE SUPPLIES TO WESTERN NATIONS.
FURTHER EMERGENCY ALLOCATIONS WILL BE MADE LATER, THE STATEMENT INDICATED, AFTER THE COMMITTEE HAS SCREENED APPEALS FROM OTHER WESTERN COUNTRIES. THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID:
"THE COMMITTEE, HOWEVER, HAS DECIDED AS A GENERAL POLICY THAT IT WOULD BE IMPRACTICABLE TO DEAL WITH FURTHER INDIVIDUAL CASES INVOLVING SUBSTANTIAL QUANTITIES BEFORE THE OVER-ALL NEWSPRINT POSITION HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED FOLLOWING RECEIPT OF REPLIES TO QUESTIONNAIRES."
SIXTY "INTERESTED COUNTRIES" HAVE BEEN ASKED TO PROVIDE INFORMATION ON THEIR REQUIREMENT BY JUNE 22.
FRANCE WAS GIVEN THE RIGHT TO BUY THE AMERICAN AND CANADIAN NEWSPRINT IMMEDIATELY, OFFICIALS SAID, AT "NORMAL MARKET PRICES".
OFFICIALS SAID THE CONFERENCE MAY DECIDE TO SET ASIDE FROM 10,000 TO 12,000 TONS OF AMERICAN AND CANADIAN NEWSPRINT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO ABOUT A DOZEN COUNTRIES WHOSE NEED IS JUDGED CRITICAL.
A SUBCOMMITTEE ON EMERGENCY SUPPLIES OF NEWSPRINT, MADE UP OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, AND SWEDEN, HAS BEEN CREATED TO STUDY THE PROBLEM.

OTTAWA, MAY 29-(AP)-BRITISH AND CANADIAN NEWSPRINT OFFICIALS HAVE REACHED AGREEMENT ON INCREASED SUPPLIES FOR BRITAIN. OTHER NEWSPRINT-SHORT OVERSEAS COUNTRIES ARE EXPECTED TO OBTAIN SOME RELIEF FROM ANOTHER CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON TO ALLOCATE CANADA'S IMPORTANT PRODUCTION.
LORD LAYTON, CHAIRMAN OF THE BRITISH NEWSPRINT SUPPLY COMPANY, SAID YESTERDAY AN AGREEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED WITH CANADIAN NEWSPRINT MILLS.
WELL-INFORMED QUARTERS HERE ESTIMATE BRITAIN LIKELY WILL GET ABOUT FOUR OR FIVE TIMES THE 20,000 TONS OF NEWSPRINT SHE GOT FROM CANADA IN 1950, OR MORE THAN 10 PER CENT OF HER TOTAL CONSUMPTION.
SHE MAY GET EVEN MORE IN THE FOLLOWING TWO YEARS, DEPENDENT ON WORLD DEMAND FOR CANADIAN NEWSPRINT.
BUT OTHER OVERSEAS COUNTRIES--FRANCE, INDIA, ITALY, TURKEY--ALSO WANT NEWSPRINT FROM CANADA.
THEIR NEED MAY MEAN THAT EMERGENCY INTERNATIONAL ALLOCATION MAY BE JUST AROUND THE CORNER FOR CANADA'S PRECIOUS NEWSPRINT.
INFORMED OFFICIALS REPORT THIS MAY DEVELOP OUT OF THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCE OF 10 COUNTRIES, NOW STUDYING MEANS TO HELP OVERSEAS COUNTRIES FACE A CRIPPLING NEWSPRINT SHORTAGE.
ONE OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL MATERIALS CONFERENCE (CAPS IMC) COMMITTEE, INFORMANTS BELIEVE, WILL BE THAT A SMALL AMOUNT OF NEWSPRINT, TAKEN FROM "NORTH AMERICAN SUPPLIES," BE SET ASIDE TO MEET OVERSEAS SHORTAGES.
THE ALLOCATION IS NOT EXPECTED TO BE MORE THAN A SMALL PART OF THE 171,000-TON INCREASE EXPECTED IN CANADIAN NEWSPRINT PRODUCTION THIS YEAR--FROM 5,279,000 TONS OF 5,450,000.
IN 1950 BRITAIN CONSUMED ABOUT 681,000 TONS OF NEWSPRINT. OF THIS SHE IMPORTED 160,000 TONS, INCLUDING THE 20,000 FROM CANADA. SHE PRODUCED 633,000 TONS HERSELF, BUT EXPORTED 112,000 TONS.
ESTIMATES EARLIER THIS YEAR PUT HER 1951 NEEDS AT 750,000 TONS. OF THIS, 185,000 TONS WAS EXPECTED FROM IMPORTS. SHE WAS EXPECTED TO PRODUCE 640,000 TONS HERSELF, OF WHICH SHE WOULD EXPORT 110,000 TONS. THIS LEFT A DEFICIT OF 35,000 TONS.
IN COMPARISON, THE UNITED STATES WILL CONSUME THIS YEAR CLOSE TO 6,000,000 TONS AND CANADA AROUND 355,000 TONS.

B15 (ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 30-(AP)-A CENSUS OF AMERICAN DIRECT INVESTMENTS ABROAD IS BEING TAKEN FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR. OFFICIALS EXPECT IT TO SHOW THE VALUE OF THESE INVESTMENTS HAS NEARLY DOUBLED IN THE LAST EIGHT YEARS.
THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY RETURNS--WHICH ARE COMPULSORY--MUST BE FILED BY THE INVESTORS NOT LATER THAN JULY 31. THEY GO TO THE BALANCE OF PAYMENTS DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT'S OFFICE OF BUSINESS ECONOMICS. FORMS ARE AVAILABLE FROM THE DIVISION OR FROM COMMERCE DEPARTMENT FIELD OFFICES OVER THE COUNTRY.
THE QUESTIONNAIRES WERE DESIGNED, THE DEPARTMENT SAID, WITH A VIEW TO "THE NEEDS OF BUSINESS AND GOVERNMENT FOR STATISTICAL MATERIAL USEFUL IN PLANNING FOREIGN OPERATIONS--ESPECIALLY THOSE UNDER THE POINT FOUR PROGRAM."
THEY CALL FOR INFORMATION AS OF LAST DEC. 31 ON THE SIZE AND COMPOSITION OF DIRECT INVESTMENTS ABROAD, FOREIGN EARNINGS OF COMPANIES OPERATING OUTSIDE THE U.S., AND DATA ON VARIOUS TYPES OF TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN AMERICAN PARENT ORGANIZATIONS AND THEIR CONTROLLED ENTERPRISES.
"THE REPORTS WILL GIVE FOR THE FIRST TIME A DETAILED PICTURE OF HOW AMERICAN DIRECT INVESTMENTS ABROAD CHANGED UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THE WAR AND POSTWAR EXPANSION," THE DEPARTMENT SAID.
THE LATEST CENSUS OF THE KIND, CONDUCTED BY THE TREASURY, SHOWED THAT AMERICAN CONTROLLING INTERESTS IN ENTERPRISES ABROAD, EXCLUSIVE OF INVESTMENTS IN NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS SCHOOLS, MISSIONS AND CHURCHES, AMOUNTED TO ABOUT $7,200,000,000.
OF THAT TOTAL, NEARLY 30 PER CENT WAS INVESTED IN MANUFACTURING, 19 PER CENT IN OIL, 17 PER CENT IN PUBLIC UTILITIES, NINE PER CENT EACH IN MINING AND SMELTING AND TRADE, AND 16 PER CENT IN ALL OTHER INDUSTRIES.
SAMPLE DATA COLLECTED BY THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT IN RECENT YEARS INDICATE THAT THE NEW CENSUS WILL SHOW A VALUE OF MORE THAN $13,000,000,000. IT ALSO WILL SHOW CHANGES IN INDUSTRIAL COMPOSITION AND REGIONAL DISTRIBUTION.

B16WX
FOR CENSUS PURPOSES, DIRECT INVESTMENTS ARE DEFINED AS "BUSINESS ENTERPRISES OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES OR ITS POSSESSIONS SUBSTANTIALLY CONTROLLED BY UNITED STATES RESIDENTS."
THE CONTROL MAY BE THROUGH DIRECT PROPRIETORSHIPS, PARTNERSHIPS, DIRECT FOREIGN BRANCHES OF U.S. CORPORATIONS, FOREIGN-INCORPORATED SUBSIDIARIES, OR A "MINOR INTEREST IN A FOREIGN-INCORPORATED ENTERPRISE WHICH CONSTITUTES PART OF A CONTROLLING INTEREST EXERCISES BY ASSOCIATED AMERICAN INVESTORS."
ONE TEST OF A DIRECT INVESTMENT IS THAT "THE UNITED STATES OWNERSHIPS CONSIST OF 25 PER CENT OR MORE OF THE VOTING SECURITIES OF THE FOREIGN ENTERPRISE."

ABOARD VAGABONDIA III,MAY 31-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND ALL ABOARD THE PRESIDENTIAL YACHT WILLIAMSBURG JOINED AMERICANS EVERYWHERE TODAY IN PRAYERS FOR PERMANENT PEACE.
THE WILLIAMSBURG HOVE TO AT 10 A.M. (EST) OFF POINT LOOKOUT AT THE MOUTH OF THE POTOMAC RIVER FOR THE SILENT PRAYER MR.TRUMAN CALLED FOR IN HIS MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION. THE PROCLAMATION ITSELF WAS DISTRIBUTED THROUGHOUT THE SHIP IN EARLY MORNING ORDERS OF THE DAY BY REAR ADMIRAL ROBERT L.DENNISON, THE PRESIDENT'S NAVAL AIDE, AND CAPT.DONALD MACDONALD, THE WILLIAMSBURG'S SKIPPER.
THE ORDERS CALLED FOR ALL HANDS TO KNOCK OFF WORK FOR THE PRAYER.
MR.TRUMAN BOWED HIS HEAD AS HE SAT ON THE AFTERBOAT DECK WITH ADMIRAL DENNISON. OTHER MEMBERS OF THE WHITE HOUSE STAFF PARTY RETIRED TO THEIR QUARTERS FOR SIMILAR SILENT PRAYER, REPORTERS ABOARD THIS ACCOMPANYING YACHT WERE ADVISED BY TELEPHONE FROM THE PRESIDENTIAL SHIP.
THE WORD FROM THE WILLIAMSBURG WAS THAT EVERYTHING WAS GOING ACCORDING TO SCHEDULE FOR THE CRUISE, WHICH STARTED FROM WASHINGTON YESTERDAY. MR.TRUMAN WAS THE FIRST OUT OF BED THIS MORNING AMONG THE PARTY OF TEN.
THE WEATHER WARMED UP DURING THE DAY. OCCASIONAL STRONG SUNLIGHT THROUGH A HAZY OVERCAST ENABLED THE PRESIDENT TO ENJOY A SUN BATH ON THE AFTER DECK ADJOINING HIS STATEROOM.
MR.TRUMAN WORKED LATE IN THE MORNING ON OFFICIAL PAPERS AND PUT IN ANOTHER WORK SESSION AFTER A NAP. THE DOCUMENTS SENT FROM WASHINGTON WERE PUT ABOARD THIS MORNING BEFORE THE YACHT LEFT ITS OVERNIGHT ANCHORAGE OFF BLAKISTON ISLAND.
THE CRUISE ON THE POTOMAC RIVER AND CHESAPEAKE BAY, INTO WHICH THE RIVER EMPTIES AT POINT LOOKOUT, IS PLANNED TO END SATURDAY WHEN THE WILLIAMSBURG WILL TIE UP AGAIN AT WASHINGTON.

MCMAHON
(WX)...HYDE PARK, N.Y., MAY 30-(AP)-SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) CALLED TODAY FOR "A MASSIVE CRUSADE FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE" WHICH HE SAID IS "THE ONLY SANE ALTERNATIVE TO WORLD WAR III."
SPEAKING AT MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES AT THE GRAVE OF THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, HE EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT "IF GIVEN A CHANCE, THE LIGHT OF TRUTH WILL INEVITABLY MELT AWAY THE SHAMS AND FRAUDS UPON WHICH THE CLAIMS OF COMMUNISM ARE FOUNDED."
"BEHIND THE OMINOUS IRON CURTAIN," MCMAHON SAID IN A PREPARED ADDRESS, "THERE ARE COUNTLESS MILLIONS OF SECRET ALLIES WHO HATE WAR AS MUCH AS WE HATE WAR. X X X ALREADY THERE EXISTS ON A GIANT SCALE DISSATISFACTION, UNREST AND THE SULLEN SPIRIT OF REVOLT AMONG THESE IMPRISONED MILLIONS. X X X
"IF THIS SPARK IS FANNED AND FUELED BY THE WINDS OF TRUTH, I BELIEVE THIS MAY BE THE BEGINNING OF THE END OF SOVIET DESPOTISM."
HE PICTURED THE PRESENT SITUATION AGAINST A BACKDROP OF EVENTS OF THE LATE 1930'S, WHEN NAZIISM GREW TO POWER IN GERMANY.

THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, HE SAID, "WAS AMONG THE FIRST TO REALIZE THAT THE SPREAD OF THIS EVIL COULD ENGULF US ALL. X X X
FROM THE DAY THE ISSUE WAS DRAWN, HE LIFTED HIS VOICE ALWAYS IN DEFENSE OF PEACE AND FREEDOM."
IN THE FACE OF PRESENT-DAY COMMUNISM, MCMAHON CONTINUED, "WE NEED ELOQUENT TONGUES AND ELOQUENT VOICES TO SUMMON THE WEST

IN THE FACE OF PRESENT-DAY COMMUNISM, MCMAHON CONTINUED, "WE NEED ELOQUENT TONGUES AND ELOQUENT VOICES TO SUMMON THE WESTERN WORLD TO THE MIGHTY CRUSADE WHICH MUST BE WAGED TO PRESERVE ITS ETERNAL VALUES."

NIGHT LEAD REUNION
BY JOHN DAFFRON
NORFOLK, VA., MAY 30-(AP)-AN OLD MAN NODDED PEACEFULLY IN THE BACK SEAT OF A SHINY RED CONVERTIBLE IN ELMWOOD CEMETERY HERE TODAY.
TO HIS LEFT ON A FLAG-DRAPED PLATFORM A SPEAKER WAS SAYING "THERE IS NOT AN AMERICAN CITIZEN IN THIS YEAR OF 1951 WHO WOULD HESITATE TO PAY HOMAGE TO THE MEN WHO FOUGHT AND FELL UNDER LEE AND JACKSON."
THE OLD MAN SHIFTED IN HIS SEAT AND FIXED HIS CANE MORE FIRMLY ON THE CAR FLOOR. HE WAS THE ONLY ONE ON HAND TO REPRESENT HIS FALLEN COMRADES AND HEAR THEIR VALOR EXTOLLED.
AT THE AGE OF 105, WILLIAM ~~JOSHUA BUSH OF~~ GEORGIA, FLOWN HERE FROM JACKSONVILLE, FLA. FOR THE 61ST AND FINAL REUNION OF THE UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS, WAS DETERMINED TO BE ON HAND FOR THE MEMORIAL DAY SPEECHES.
THE ONLY OTHER MEMBER OF THE SURVIVING 12 VETERANS HERE FOR THE REUNION, WILLIAM D.TOWNSEND OF OLLA, LA., STUCK IT OUT THROUGH THE PARADE. BUT THE MUGGY HEAT WAS A BIT TOO MUCH FOR HIS 105 YEARS.
HE RETIRED TO HIS HOTEL JUST BEFORE THE CEREMONY IN THE CEMETERY GOT UNDER WAY.

BUT THE THE THINNING RANKS OF THE GRAY WERE FATTENED TONIGHT WITH THE ARRIVAL OF ANOTHER WISE-CRACKING 105-YEAR-OLDSTER---JOHN SALLING, OF SLANT, VIRGINIA'S SOLE SURVIVING CIVIL WAR VETERAN.
THE SELF-ADMITTED ONE-TIME MOONSHINER SAID HE FELT "QUITE CHIPPER" AFTER A 300-MILE FLIGHT HERE FROM BRISTOL, VA.-TENN., ABOARD A NAVY PLANE THAT MADE THE 600-MILE ROUND TRIP IN ABOUT FOUR HOURS.
SALLING SAID IT WAS THE FIRST TIME HE'D EVER SEEN A PLANE ON THE GROUND, "MUCH LESS FLOWN IN ONE." AND HE THOUGHT THE TRIP WAS PRETTY FINE.
ASKED IF HE'D CARE TO ADDRESS THE REUNION SOMETIME DURING HIS STAY HERE, SALLING REPLIED:
"I'LL MAKE A SPEECH, ALL RIGHT. I MIGHT EVEN DO A LITTLE PREACHING."
TAKEN TO CONVENTION HEADQUARTERS HERE, SALLING HAD HIS FIRST MEETING WITH BUSH. THE TWO OLD SOLDIERS CHATTED A FEW MINUTES, THEN DEPARTED FOR BED. TOWNSEND STILL WASN'T UP TO ANY PUBLIC CEREMONY.
THE VIRGINIA VETERAN HAD BEEN ORDERED TO MISS THE REUNION AFTER HE CONTRACTED A COLD SUNDAY WHILE ATTENDING A FUNERAL.

SALLING'S CONDITION IMPROVED, HOWEVER, AND HIS DOCTOR TODAY RELENTED AND SAID THE OLD MAN COULD ATTEND. THE NAVY CAME THROUGH WITH A TRANSPORT, PILOTED BY LT.MANUEL LUKE AND COMDR. W.F.BREWER.

"BUT "GENERAL" BUSH STUCK IT OUT AS A SOMEWHAT INDIRECT MEANS OF MAKING GOOD ON THE BOAST HE MADE ON ARRIVAL LAST NIGHT THAT "I HEAR WELL, SEE WELL, FEEL WELL AND AM PREPARED TO KISS ANY DAMN' WOMAN WHO COMES DOWN THE PIKE."
ERLE COCKE, JR., NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, A GEORGIAN, PAID HIS RESPECTS TO THE SOUTHERN CAUSE. BUT HE CAME UP TO THE PRESENT QUICKLY BY CALLING FOR A QUICK END TO THE GREAT POLICY DEBATE IN WASHINGTON.
"THE SOONER WE SETTLE THE POLICY DEBATE NOW IN PROGRESS AND GET TO WORK TOGETHER . . . THE BETTER OUR CHANCES WILL BE OF WINNING---OR DEFENDING---THE PEACE," COCKE SAID.
BERNARD M.BARUCH, THE FINANCIER-LEADER-STATEMEN, ALSO SPOKE TO THE BRASS-SPINKLED MEMORIAL DAY CROWD THAT SIFTED INTO THE CEMETERY AFTER THE PARADE. AND THE FREQUENT ADVISER TO FORMER PRESIDENTS HAD THIS TO OFFER IN HIS BRIEF OFF-THE-CUFF ADDRESS.
"WHAT SHOULD AMERICA BE FEARFUL OF NOW. WHY SHOULD WE BE FEARFUL OF LIVING TO FACE THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE DAY. THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US WERE NOT AFRAID TO DIE.
"WHEN WE HAVE SETTLED OUR DIFFERENCES OUR ENEMIES WILL FIND OUR PEOPLE WILL BE OF ONE MIND AND BEHIND THE PRESIDENT IN WHATEVER DECISION IS MADE."
THE NORFOLK FIREMEN'S BAND BROKE INTO DIXIE WHEN THERE WAS A LULL IN THE SPEAKING.
OLD SOLDIER BUSH SAT A BIT MORE ERECT AND WAVED HIS HAND IN TIME TO THE MUSIC.
THEN HE WENT BACK TO HIS HOTEL IN THE RED CONVERTIBLE WITH HIS 60-YEAR-OLD WIFE AND YOUNG STEPDAUGHTER--THERE TO JOIN "GENERAL" TOWNSEND AND REST A BIT IN THE SHADE OF HIS LODGINGS.
THREE DAYS MORE OF REUNION EVENTS FACE THE TWO OLD SOLDIERS.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (400)
BY DON HUTH
TOKYO, FRIDAY JUNE 1-(AP)-FIERCELY FIGHTING COMMUNISTS, AIDED BY SOME OF THE WORST WEATHER OF THE KOREAN WAR, TODAY BEAT BACK UNITED NATIONS FORCES AIMED AT THE SENSITIVE RED ASSEMBLY CENTERS IN NORTH KOREA.
STIFFENED RED RESISTANCE WAS FELT ALL ALONG THE LINE. AT SOME POINTS THE COMMUNISTS COUNTER-ATTACKED AND FORCED U.N. TROOPS INTO LIMITED WITHDRAWALS.
ARTILLERY FIRE DEFENDING THE MAJOR RED BASES AT CHORWON AND KUMWHA, 17 AND 20 MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38, WAS DESCRIBED IN FIELD DISPATCHES AS ONE OF THE HEAVIEST BARRAGES OF THE WAR.
AN EIGHTH ARMY STAFF OFFICER SAID A TANK-INFANTRY FORCE SLOGGED THROUGH KNEE-DEEP MUD TO REACH YANGGU ON THE EASTERN END OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR. BUT THE FORCE PULLED BACK TO ITS OWN LINES AFTER COMING UNDER HEAVY ENEMY FIRE IN THE TOWN. ALLIED FORCES TOOK HWACHON TOWN SUNDAY AND WON CONTROL OVER THE DAM WEDNESDAY.
DETAILED REPORTS FROM THE RAGING CENTRAL FRONT FIGHTING WERE HAMPERED BY POOR COMMUNICATIONS WITH FRONTLINE CORRESPONDENTS AND CENSORS WERE REPORTED HACKING HEAVILY ON ALL DISPATCHES.
AP CORRESPONDENT JIM BECKER REPORTED THE BITTER FIGHTING IN THE CENTRAL SECTOR WAS REARGUARD ACTION BY NORTH KOREANS. OF THE WEATHER HE WROTE:
"THE MUD IS KNEE DEEP AND WE ARE SOAKED TO THE SKIN AND IN HORRIBLE SHAPE FOR CLOTHES."
EVERY EFFORT OF THE ALLIES TO PUSH UP THE MOUNTAINOUS CENTER OF THE PENINSULA HAVE BEEN STOPPED EXCEPT FOR ISOLATED GAINS UP TO THREE MILES.
EAST AND SOUTH OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR FIGHTING, THE COMMUNISTS THREW SEVERAL HEAVY ATTACKS AGAINST SOUTH KOREAN FORCES. THE REDS STABBED TO THE ROAD RUNNING FROM HYON, SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, TO INJE 4 1/2 MILES NORTH OF THE BORDER.
THE EIGHTH ARMY COMMUNIQUE SAID "FRIENDLY FORCES WITHDREW APPROXIMATELY 1,500 YARDS TO ESTABLISH A NEW DEFENSIVE LINE."
ALL EFFORTS TO ADVANCE NORTHEAST OUT OF INJE WERE STALLED.
SKIES WERE CLEARING BY MID-DAY AND SUPPLY AND FIGHTER PLANES WENT BACK TO WORK.

A128KX
B-29'S AND THEIR COVERING U.S. SABRE JETS KNOCKED THREE RUSSIAN MADE MIG-15 JETS OUT OF THE SKY AND DAMAGED TWO OTHERS IN A FIGHT OVER NORTHWEST KOREA THURSDAY.
A DOZEN MIGS JUMPED SIX B-29S AND THEN THE SABRE JETS CAME IN FROM 19,000 FEET TO JOIN THE BATTLE. THE JET PILOTS WERE CREDITED WITH TWO KILLS AND DAMAGE TO ONE ENEMY PLANE. THE SUPERFORT GUNNERS KNOCKED ONE DOWN AND DAMAGED ANOTHER.
THE FAR EAST AIR FORCE SAID ALL ALLIED PLANES RETURNED TO THEIR BASES SAFELY. THE RED RADIO AT PYONGYANG CLAIMED FOUR U.S. PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN BY ANTI-AIRCRAFT FIRE WEDNESDAY AT HAMHUNG ON THE NORTHEAST COAST.

THE BIG U.S.CARRIER BON HOMME RICHARD JOINED FAST CARRIER TASK FORCE 77 OFF KOREA, THE NAVY ANNOUNCED, AND BLASTED ENEMY TROOPS CONCENTRATIONS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT WITH "EXCELLENT RESULTS." THE CARRIER LAUNCHED SEVEN YEARS AGO, WAS TAKEN OUT

CONCENTRATIONS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT WITH "EXCELLENT RESULTS."
THE CARRIER, LAUNCHED SEVEN YEARS AGO, WAS TAKEN OUT OF MOTHBALLS ONLY RECENTLY. IT CARRIES 2,900 MEN AND OFFICERS.
THE CARRIER FORCE REPORTED THAT IN 15 DAYS SINCE THE REDS OPENED THEIR ILL-FATED SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE, NAVY PLANES ALONE HAD KILLED OR WOUNDED 4,200 REDS.

AGAIN TODAY MIGS TRIED TO INTERCEPT B-29S, NEAR PYONGYANG, AND TWO MORE OF THE RUSSIAN-BUILT JETS WERE SHOT DOWN BY THE U.S. SABREJETS.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THE ARTILLERY BARRAGE WAS HURLED AGAINST ALLIED UNITS DRIVING ON THE MAJOR ENEMY BASES OF CHORWON AND KUMHWA, 17 AND 20 AIR MILES RESPECTIVELY NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. KUMHWA IS ABOUT 13 MILES NORTHEAST OF CHORWON. BY LAST REPORTS THE ALLIES WERE ABOUT 10 MILES SOUTH OF CHORWON AND 12 SOUTH OF KUMHWA.
ABOUT 600 SHELLS WERE PUMPED INTO ALLIED POSITIONS ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT IN 75 MINUTES. IT WAS SMALL BY U.N. ARTILLERY STANDARDS, BUT THE BIGGEST RED BARRAGE SINCE THE CHINESE BEGAN THEIR FIRST SPRING DRIVE APRIL 22.
A SHARP RED PROBING ATTACK FOLLOWED THE BARRAGE BUT WAS QUICKLY REPULSED. THERE WERE NO INDICATIONS OF A HEAVIER COUNTER-BLOW.
U.N. TROOPS SLITHERED OVER SODDEN HILLS AND MIRED ROADS TOWARD CHORWON FROM THE VINICITY OF YONCHON, SIX MILES NORTH OF 38.
YONCHON ITSELF WAS REPORTED A NO-MANS LAND. POSSIBLY TWO RED DIVISIONS HELD THE RIDGELINES TO THE NORTH. AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID THE DAYS OF "EASY PICKINGS" ON THIS FRONT WERE ENDED.
STRONG RED FORCES BLOCKED AN AMERICAN ADVANCE NEAR CHIPO, NINE MILES SOUTHEAST OF CHORWON. AT LEAST ONE RED REGIMENT LINED THE HILLS JUST SOUTH OF CHIPO TO GUARD A MOUNTAIN CORRIDOR THAT FUNNELS OUT TOWARD CHORWON AND KUMHWA.
U.S.MARINES AND OTHER ALLIED UNITS LAST WERE REPORTED ABOUT A DOZEN MILES SOUTH OF KUMHWA ON A HIGHWAY RUNNING NORTH FROM HWACHON. THEY BATTLED THROUGH ENEMY MORTAR AND ARTILLERY FIRE AND SHARP RED ATTACKS.

MAY 31 1951

THE ALLIES HACKED OUT THEIR ONLY CLEAR-CUT GAINS OF THE DAY IN THE YANGGU AREA, AT THE EAST TIP OF HWACHON RESERVOIR. AN EIGHTH ARMY COMMUNIQUE SAID THE ADVANCE NETTED 2,000 TO 3,000 YARDS--LESS THAN TWO MILES.
THE REDS THREW HEAVY MORTAR AND ARTILLERY FIRE INTO ADVANCING INFANTRYMEN AND STAGED A SMALL COUNTERATTACK BEFORE SUNDOWN.
THE COUNTERATTACK WAS CONTAINED AND THE ACTION COOLED OFF BY DARK, AN ALLIED BRIEFING OFFICER SAID, BUT NOT UNTIL ALLIED REINFORCEMENTS, ARTILLERY AND FIGHTER PLANES WERE CALLED IN TO HELP.
"THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS ARE TRYING TO KEEP US OFF BALANCE AND OFF HIGH GROUND AROUND THE EASTERN END OF THE RESERVOIR," ONE OFFICER EXPLAINED. "IT'S STILL A DELIBERATE DELAYING ACTION AND APPARENTLY NOT ANY KIND OF MAJOR SOUTHWARD PUSH."
ANOTHER ALLIED FORCE ADVANCED TO HIGH GROUND OVERLOOKING THE HWACHON RESERVOIR WEST OF YANGGU AGAINST ONLY SLIGHT RESISTANCE. LONG-RANGE RED MACHINEGUN FIRE FROM ACROSS THE RESERVOIR SOUGHT THEM OUT AFTER DARK.
MORE BITTER FIGHTING WAS UNDERWAY NORTHEAST AND SOUTHEAST OF INJE, THE ALLIED-HELD ROAD JUNCTION FOUR MILES ABOVE PARALLEL 38 WHICH HAS CLOGGED THE COMMUNIST ESCAPE ROUTE ON THE EAST-CENTRAL BATTLE FRONT. INJE IS ABOUT 10 MILES SOUTHEAST OF YANGGU.
THE REDS SMASHED REPEATEDLY AT THE ALLIED NORTH-SOUTH LINES A FEW MILES ABOVE THE BATTERED TOWN OF INJE. A U.S.SECOND DIVISION TASK FORCE LAST WAS REPORTED SIX MILES NORTHEAST OF INJE BUT THERE WAS NO LATE WORD OF ITS POSITIONS.
SOUTHEAST OF INJE A BOTTLED-UP ROAD TO HYON WAS UNDER HEAVY ENEMY PRESSURE. IT WAS CUT THURSDAY BY COMMUNISTS SLIPPING THROUGH THE MOUNTAINS. HYON IS ABOUT FOUR MILES SOUTH OF 38 AND 25 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST.

CENSORSHIP OBSCURED DETAILS OF FIGHTING THROUGHOUT THIS SECTOR AND AT KANSONG 26 MILES ABOVE 38 ON THE EAST COAST, OCCUPIED BY SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS. NAVY AND MARINE PLANES SLASHED AT RED BATTALIONS IN THE COASTAL SECTOR.

ON THE EXTREME WEST FLANK OF THE ALLIED LINE, AN AMERICAN PATROL ESTABLISHED A SMALL BRIDGEHEAD ACROSS THE HANTAN RIVER, SOME 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. THE EXACT POSITION WAS NOT DISCLOSED.

A DOZEN RED MIG JETS ATTEMPTED TO JUMP TWO U.S. B-29S ON A BOMBING RUN OVER CHONGJU IN NORTHWEST KOREA THURSDAY BUT WERE DRIVEN OFF BY U.S.SABRE JETS, DIVING FROM 19,000 FEET. TWO MIGS WERE SHOT DOWN AND ANOTHER DAMAGED WITHOUT LOSS OR DAMAGE TO THE SABRES OR SUPERFORTS. THE REMAINING MIGS FLED BACK TO THEIR BASE ON THE MANCHURIAN SIDE OF THE YALU RIVER. FIVE OTHER B-29S DROPPED 70 TONS OF BOMBS ON A RAIL BRIDGE AT HUICHON IN KOREA'S WILD NORTHWEST.

THE COMMUNIST RADIO AT PYONGYANG CLAIMED FOUR U.S.PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN BY ANTIAIRCRAFT FIRE WEDNESDAY AT HAMHUNG ON THE NORTHEAST COAST.

(IN WASHINGTON THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT'S LATEST COMBAT CASUALTY SUMMARY BROUGHT THE NUMBER OF DEAD, WOUNDED AND MISSING TO 67,427 SINCE THE FIGHTING BEGAN. THIS WAS AN INCREASE OF 611 OVER THE PREVIOUS WEEK AND COVERED NOTIFICATIONS TO RELATIVES THROUGH MAY 25.

SINCE NOTIFICATIONS LAG BEHIND BATTLE-FRONT DEVELOPMENTS, THIS DID NOT NECESSARILY INDICATE U.S. BATTLE CASUALTIES WERE THAT LIGHT DURING THE HEIGHT OF THE SECOND CHINESE SPRING OFFENSIVE WHICH FLAMED FROM MAY 16 TO 23.

THE TOTAL CASUALTIES INCLUDED 10,27 KILLED IN ACTION, 45,889 WOUNDED AND 11,411 MISSING.)

TOKYO, MAY 31-(AP)-RED TROOPS FIGHTING WITH RENEWED FURY HALTED AMERICAN ADVANCES TODAY 13 MILES FROM THE COMMUNIST KOREAN STRONGHOLDS OF CHORWON AND KUMHWA.

OTHER UNITED NATIONS FORCES REGAINED CONTROL OF THE 275 FOOT HIGH HWACHON DAM WITH COMPARATIVE EASE.

ACROSS THE 125 MILE KOREAN FRONT, ALLIED FORCES SLOGGED THROUGH THE MUD FOR SLOW GAINS OR FOUGHT OFF SHARP ATTACKS.

TWELVE RED JETS TRIED AN ATTACK OF THEIR OWN ON U.S. B-29 SUPERFORTS. EIGHT F-86 SABRE JETS CUT IN WITH THE USUAL RESULT--TWO RUSSIAN-TYPE JETS DOWNED AND ONE DAMAGED. THE B-29S, UNHARMED, WENT AHEAD WITH THEIR BOMB RUNS ON A NORTHWEST KOREA RAIL BRIDGE.

THE STIFFEST FIGHTING SWIRLED AGAINST AMERICAN SPEARHEADS ON THE WESTERN AND WEST-CENTRAL FRONTS POINTED AT CHORWON, AND AROUND INJE ON THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR.

CHINESE UNITS PITCHED A FANTASTIC COUNTERATTACK AT DUSK WEDNESDAY AGAINST AMERICANS IN THE HILLS AROUND YONCHON, 13 MILES SOUTHWEST OF CHORWON. IN A NIGHT-LONG BATTLE THE REDS PUSHED THE DOUGHBOYS OFF THE RIDGES AND SHOVED THEM BACK 1,000 YARDS.

AT DAWN THURSDAY THE AMERICANS LEAPED TO THE ATTACK. BY NOON THEY HAD REGAINED THEIR POSITIONS ON THE ROAD TO CHORWON.

FRONTLINE OFFICERS ESTIMATED AT LEAST TWO CHINESE DIVISIONS STOOD BETWEEN THE AMERICANS AND THAT RED STRONGHOLD, 60 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.

YONCHON ITSELF, SAID AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH, IS A NO-MAN'S-LAND. AMERICANS PATROL IT BY DAY, CHINESE BY NIGHT.

THE CHINESE STARTED THEIR FIRST SPRING OFFENSIVE PREMATURELY APRIL 22 TO KEEP THE ALLIES AWAY FROM CHORWON. AT THAT TIME U.N. FORCES WERE FOUR MILES AWAY.

ONE OF THE ANNOUNCED OBJECTIVES OF THE CURRENT ALLIED COUNTER-OFFENSIVE IS TO FORCE THE REDS INTO ANOTHER PREMATURE ATTACK.

DURING SUCH OFFENSIVES THE CHINESE HAVE BEEN CUT DOWN IN THE GREATEST NUMBERS.

THIRTEEN MILES EAST OF YONCHON ON A HIGHWAY LEADING TOWARD KUMHWA, A RED REGIMENT STOPPED AN AMERICAN ADVANCE SOUTH OF CHIPO.

CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS ARE SENSITIVE TO ANY APPROACH TO CHORWON AND KUMHWA. THESE POINTS HAVE BEEN THEIR MAIN ASSEMBLY AND SUPPLY CENTERS FOR MONTHS.

A41FX

BUT ALLIED TROOPS FOUND TOUGH GOING EVEN TO THE REAR OF THESE SPEARHEADS.

SOUTH KOREANS HAD TO FIGHT TO ENLARGE THEIR CROSSINGS OF THE IMJIN RIVER, SOUTHWEST OF THE YONCHON ACTION. HERETOFORE THEY HAD FACED COMPARATIVELY LIGHT OPPOSITION IN ADVANCES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

JUST NORTH OF THE BORDER AMERICAN TROOPS WERE FORCED TO WITHDRAW WEDNESDAY FROM POSITIONS NEAR YONGPYONG UNDER HEAVY MORTAR, RIFLE AND AUTOMATIC WEAPON FIRE. THE HIGHWAY TOWN IS IN THE SECTOR BETWEEN YONCHON AND CHIPO, AND ABOUT 10 MILES TO THE REAR.

ELSEWHERE ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT AN ALLIED TANK PATROL NEAR YONGGONG PULLED BACK FROM STRONG RED ARTILLERY FIRE.

IN THE GENERAL AREA WEST OF ALLIED-HELD HWACHON, 478 MORE HUNGRY REDS SURRENDERED TO SOUTH KOREAN AND AMERICAN TROOPS. THE U.N. COMMAND SAYS MORE THAN 10,000 REDS HAVE GIVEN UP IN THE LAST FIVE WEEKS.

ON THE SOUTH AND WESTERN SIDES OF HWACHON RESERVOIR ITSELF, SOUTH KOREANS FOUND FEW LIVE COMMUNISTS. THEY COUNTED 1,028 WHO HAD BEEN KILLED IN PREVIOUS ACTIONS.

BUT "ALL HELL BROKE LOOSE" AROUND INJE, EAST OF THE RESERVOIR, AN AMERICAN DIVISION SPOKESMAN SAID.

NORTH KOREANS CUT THE INJE-HYON ROAD IN A THURSDAY MORNING ATTACK. AN ESTIMATED 2,000 REDS WERE INVOLVED. THIS U.N. SUPPLY ROAD TO RUBBLED INJE IS CUT DAILY.

AND NORTHEAST OF INJE, 2,000 MORE NORTH KOREANS BROKE THROUGH UNITED NATIONS LINES. ALLIED UNITS FOUGHT FOUR HOURS BEFORE WINNING BACK THEIR POSITIONS. THE FIGHTING CONTINUED INTO THE DAY.

AN ESTIMATED THREE NORTH KOREAN REGIMENTS--UP TO 9,000 MEN---WERE TRYING TO FIGHT THEIR WAY NORTHWARD IN THE INJE AREA. THEY WERE BEHIND FORWARD U.N. POSITIONS AND EITHER HAD TO BATTLE ACROSS OPEN ROADS OR SLIP THROUGH FORESTED MOUNTAIN TRAILS BY NIGHT. AIR ATTACKS TAKE A DEADLY TOLL ON SUCH ISOLATED FORCES.

U.N. WARPLANES SWEPT OUT INTO CLEARING SKIES THURSDAY MORNING AFTER NEARLY 24 HOURS OF BAD WEATHER.

PRECEDE U.S.5TH AIR FORCE JETS (A65FX DAY)

TOKYO, FRIDAY, JUNE 1-(AP)-THREE RED MIG-15 JETS WERE DESTROYED AND TWO OTHERS DAMAGED BY ALLIED FLIERS IN A FIERCE BATTLE OVER NORTHWEST KOREA YESTERDAY, FAR EAST AIR FORCES (FEAF) HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

F-86 SABRE JET PILOTS OF THE 4TH FIGHTER INTERCEPTOR WING REPORTED TWO OF THE ENEMY DESTROYED AND ONE DAMAGED, WHILE B-29 SUPERFORT GUNNERS REPORTED ONE KNOCKED DOWN AND ONE DAMAGED.

THE BATTLE STARTED WHEN THE RUSSIAN-BUILT MIGS TRIED TO PREVENT SIX SUPERFORTS FROM BOMBING A KEY RAIL BRIDGE AT CHONGJU, 50 MILES SOUTHEAST OF SINANJU.

SUPERFORT CREWMEN SAID MORE THAN 30 MIGS PRESSED THE ATTACK BUT FAILED TO PREVENT THE B-29S FROM BOMCTNGLTHE TARGET.

XZV SUPERFORT CREWMEN SAID MORE THAN 30 MIGS PRESSED THE ATTACK BUT FAILED TO PREVENT THE B-29S FROM BOMBING THE TARGET.
ALL THE ALLIED PLANES RETURNED TO THEIR BASES SAFELY, FEAF SAID.
MORE THAN 600 SORTIES WERE MOUNTED BY FEAF PLANES YESTERDAY IN VARIABLE WEATHER. THEY ATTACKED ENEMY FRONTLINE TROOPS AND DESTROYED REAR AREA SUPPLY AND COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES.
IN THE AIR BATTLE YESTERDAY, THE MIGS SWOOPED DOWN IN THE VICINITY OF SINANJU AS THE ESCORTED BOMBERS APPROACHED THEIR TARGET. EIGHT SABREJETS QUICKLY COUNTER-ATTACKED. THEY PARTLY DISPERSED THE ENEMY JETS BUT SOME OF THE MIGS SWEPT ON UNTIL THEY CAME WITHIN RANGE OF THE B-29 GUNS.
ONE SUPERFORT CREWMAN SAID HE COUNTED AT LEAST 30 MIGS AND DESCRIBED THEM AS ATTACKING "IN WAVES."
ONE OF THE KILLS WAS CREDITED TO S/SGT.MICHAEL R.MARTOCCHIA OF (2152 E.47TH ST) BROOKLYN.
MARTOCCHIA SAID HE HITS ONE OF THE ATTACKERS BEHIND THE PILOT'S SEAT WITH BURSTS FROM HIS MACHINE GUNS AND THE ENEMY PLANE STARTED TRAILING SMOKE.

JET BATTLE (300)
BY NATE POLOWETZKY
U.S.5TH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS,KOREA,MAY 31-(AP)-ALLIED JET FIGHTER PILOTS TODAY DESTROYED TWO RUSSIAN-MADE MIG-15 JETS AND DAMAGED ANOTHER IN A CLASH OVER SINANJU, NORTHWEST KOREA.
THE AMERICAN JET PILOTS, IN F-86 SABRES, WERE FLYING COVER FOR TWO B-29 SUPERFORTS WHEN THEY WERE ATTACKED BY 12 RED JETS.
THE MIGS SWOOPED IN FROM ABOUT 19,000 FEET. THE SABRES ROUTED THEM BEFORE THEY COULD INFLICT ANY DAMAGE ON THE BOMBERS.
NO SABRES WERE DAMAGED.
THE SABRES WERE FROM THE FOURTH FIGHTER INTERCEPTOR WING WHICH NOW CLAIMS 22 MIGS DESTROYED, SIX PROBABLY DESTROYED AND 48 DAMAGED.
ONE OF THE DESTROYED MIGS WAS CREDITED TO LT.BOBBIE L.SMITH, OF DIAMOND, MO. HE ALSO SHARED CREDIT FOR THE OTHER KILL WITH HIS WING MAN, LT.OTIS (FLASH) GORDON, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.
GORDON PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN CREDITED WITH ONE MIG DAMAGED. SMITH'S BAG WAS HIS FIRST.
"WE BEAT OFF THE MIG ATTACK ON THE B-29 TWICE," SAID SMITH. "I SCORED FIRST AS I MADE A HEADON PASS, HITTING THE MIG WITH BURSTS IN THE LEFT WING. HE WAS SMOKING BADLY WHEN I TURNED AFTER A COUPLE MORE OF THEM THAT WERE ALSO TRYING TO GET IN AT THE BOMBERS.
"I FIRED AND HIT THE LEAD MIG. THEN FLASH REALLY PLASTERED THE WING MAN. THE DAMAGED MIG WING MAN BROKE AWAY AND HEADED TOWARD HOME AND WE BOTH TOOK AFTER THE LEADER. I HIT HIM SEVERAL TIMES AND THE MIG BEGAN TO SMOKE AND WOBBLE. I RAN OUT OF AMMUNITION AT THIS POINT AND FLASH MOVED IN AND SCORED ON THE GUY WITH HITS ALL OVER HIM."
GORDON SAID: "I HIT MY FIRST MIG IN BOTH WINGS, DAMAGING HIM, AND HE BROKE AWAY AND LEFT THE BATTLE.
"WHEN SMITH CALLED FOR ME TO TAKE OVER ON THE OTHER MIG, I USED ALL OF THE AMMO I HAD ON HIM. HE WAS OUT OF CONTROL AND BURNING WHEN WE LAST SAW HIM AT ABOUT 3,000 FEET."

WITH U.S.SECOND DIVISION, KOREA (DELAYED)-(AP)-A LONG LINE OF DUST-COVERED VEHICLES WAS PULLED UP BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD WAITING TO MOVE OVER A ONE-WAY MOUNTAIN PASS.
THERE ARE MANY SUCH TIRESOME WAITS FOR THE MEN WHO DRIVE THE SUPPLY TRUCKS, THE MESSENGER JEEPS AND THE AMBULANCES.
BECAUSE THE ROADS ARE TOO NARROW FOR TWO TRUCKS TO PASS SAFELY, MILITARY POLICE TEAMS USING FIELD TELEPHONES FOR COMMUNICATION DIRECT THE FLOW OF TRAFFIC--DIVERT IT IN ONE DIRECTION AND THEN THE OTHER. WHILE THEY WAIT, THE DRIVERS GATHER IN CLUSTERS AROUND THE FIRES BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD.
THOSE FIRES--KINDLED WITH DISCARDED AMMUNITION BOXES AND THE RUBBLE OF WARTORN VILLAGES--PROVIDE HEAT FOR MAKING COFFEE, WARMTH FOR COLD, WET BODIES AND A PLACE WHERE HOMESICK SOLDIERS CAN TALK OF THE THINGS THEY MISS.
BY ONE FIRE SQUATTED CPL.FLOYD CORTEZ, A DARK-HAIRED, EASY-SMILING TRUCK DRIVER WHO EXTENDED AN INVITATION TO SHARE HIS COFFEE. CORTEZ IS A LOUISIANAN--HIS HOME IS AT 614 AVENUE D, WESTWEGO, ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF NEW ORLEANS.
HE HANDED ME A C RATION CANFUL OF HOT COFFEE.
"WON'T TASTE LIKE THE GOOD CAJUN COFFEE I USED TO GET BACK HOME," HE SAID, "BUT AT LEAST IT'S HOT AND YOU LOOK LIKE YOU COULD USE IT."
WHILE I SIPPED THE WELCOME BEVERAGE, CORTEZ STIRRED UP ANOTHER CANFUL OF SOLUBLE COFFEE FOR HIMSELF, USING WATER FROM A FIVE-GALLON GASOLINE CAN HE BROUGHT FROM HIS TRUCK.
"EVER BEEN IN NEW ORLEANS?" HE ASKED. I NEVER HAD.
"IT'S THE BEST PLACE IN THE WORLD," CORTEZ SAID.
"WONDERFUL FOOD AND THE PEOPLE ARE AS FRIENDLY AS ANY I'VE EVER SEEN--ESPECIALLY AROUND MARDI GRAS TIME."
A PAIR OF MPS OVERHEARD THIS REMARK--PFC ROBERT WALSH OF 2720 DECATUR AVE, THE BRONX, NEW YORK, AND PFC JOSEPH ROMENICK OF 108 KUBBEN ST., BROOKLYN.

B27KX
"NEW ORLEANS IS ALL RIGHT," SAID ROMENICK, "BUT YOU HAVEN'T LIVED UNTIL YOU'VE BEEN IN BROOKLYN. WHAT A TOWN! IT'S GOT EVERYTHING."
"NUTS," SNORTED WALSH. "THE BRONX HAS THE WORLD CHAMPIONS." (APPARENTLY HE WAS TALKING ABOUT THE NEW YORK YANKEES BASEBALL TEAM). "YOU GUYS FROM KINGS COUNTY (BROOKLYN) GIVE ME A PAIN."
ROMENICK LOOKED PAINED.
"KINGS COUNTY," HE SAID, "I DON'T LIVE IN KINGS COUNTY. I AM STRICTLY FROM BROOKLYN, U.S.A."
WALSH THEN EXPLAINED WITH VERY APPARENT SATISFACTION THAT BROOKLYN WAS JUST THE NAME OF THE BOROUGH BUT UNDER THE NEW YORK STATE GOVERNMENT THE PLACE WAS LISTED AS KINGS COUNTY.
"HEAH," SAID ROMENICK. "I'VE BEEN LIVING THERE FOR 21 YEARS AND IT'S BROOKLYN, JUST PLAIN BROOKLYN."
AT THIS POINT WE HEARD FROM PVT.PAUL BRIEN, 7026 S. ST.LAWRENCE ST., CHICAGO.
"YOU CAN HAVE NEW ORLEANS, THE BRONX AND BROOKLYN," HE SAID. "I'LL TAKE CHICAGO. I USED TO DRIVE A CAB THERE AND MY BROTHER DRIVES A HACK AROUND THE LOOP RIGHT NOW."
I KEPT QUIET, BECAUSE I WAS TOO BUSY WITH ME COFFEE, BUT I DIDN'T AGREE WITH ANY OF THEM.
I AM FROM PHILADELPHIA.

WITH U.S. SECOND DIVISION,KOREA,MAY 31-(AP)-MOST OF THE DAYS ARE SUNNY AND PLEASANT NOW--THE SORT OF WEATHER THAT PROMPTS THE FOLKS BACK HOME TO TAKE A DRIVE IN THE COUNTRY ON A SUNDAY AFTERNOON.
YOU CAN TAKE A DRIVE IN KOREA ON A SUNNY SUNDAY AFTERNOON, TOO--BUT YOU BETTER HAVE WELL PADDED HIND QUARTERS AND A STRONG STOMACH. A JEEP OR TRUCK JOLTING OVER A RUTTED DIRT ROAD PLAYS HAVOC WITH THE HUMAN ANATOMY. AND THE SIGHTS ARE NOT FOR THE SQUEAMISH.
THE KOREAN HILLS ARE ALMOST BEAUTIFUL--VIEWED FROM A DISTANCE. THEY ARE COVERED WITH THE GREEN OF NEW SPRING GROWTH. HERE AND THERE WILD WISTERIA AND FORSYTHIA BLOSSOMS PROVIDE A TOUCH OF COLOR.
BUT THOSE HILLS ARE UGLY...PITTED WITH FOXHOLES, BUNKERS, TRENCHES AND SHELL CRATERS...TREES ARE TWISTED OR BROKEN BY ARTILLERY.
IN THE VALLEYS RICE PADDIES HAVE BEEN RIPPED AND TORN BY THE EBB AND FLOW OF WAR.
ROADS ARE LINED WITH CHARRED, TWISTED WRECKAGE OF TRUCKS, TANKS AND NATIVE CARTS. VILLAGES ARE PILES OF BLACKENED RUBBLE.
THE DESTRUCTION OF THINGS NATURAL AND INANIMATE IS APPALLING. BUT IT'S THE DESTRUCTION OF LIVING THINGS THAT STRIKES THE HEART.
YOU CAN GET USED TO BOMB BLASTED MUD HUTS. THEY CAN BE REBUILT.
BUT AMONG THE WRECKAGE ARE BROKEN AND TWISTED HUMANS AND ANIMALS--SIGHTS THAT MAKE YOU WANT TO CRY...SMELLS THAT MAKE YOU WANT TO VOMIT.
THERE ARE BODIES OF COMMUNIST SOLDIERS ON THE ROAD--BODIES FLATTENED BY TANKS...BODIES WITHOUT HEADS OR ARMS OR LEGS...BODIES BEGINNING TO DECAY IN THE WARM SPRING SUN.
THERE ARE BLOATED CARCASSES OF PACK ANIMALS, ADDING TO THE AWFUL STENCH.
THERE ARE THE WOUNDED, BOTH FRIEND AND FOE--QUIET FIGURES ON STRETCHERS BESIDE THE ROAD, MUFFLED IN THEIR RED-STAINED BANDAGES.

NIGHT LEAD BIG FOUR

BY CARTER L.DAVIDSON

PARIS, MAY 31-(AP)-THE WESTERN BIG THREE INVITED RUSSIA TODAY TO A FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON JULY 23 TO DISCUSS TENSIONS WHICH ARE THREATENING WORLD PEACE.

THE INVITATION WAS A CHALLENGE TO THE SOVIETS TO END THE 13 WEEKS OF QUIBBLING IN WHICH THE BIG FOUR DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS HAVE BEEN DEADLOCKED HERE ON WHAT SUBJECTS THEIR CHIEFS SHOULD DISCUSS AT SUCH A MEETING--A CONFERENCE ORIGINALLY SUGGESTED BY RUSSIA.

IN IDENTICAL NOTES TO THE KREMLIN, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES ASKED RUSSIA TO CHOOSE ONE OF THREE SUGGESTED AGENDA FOR THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING.

AGREEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED ON MOST OF THE ITEMS TO BE DISCUSSED, BUT RUSSIA INSISTS NONE OF THE AGENDA IS ACCEPTABLE UNLESS THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT AND AMERICAN BASES IN EUROPE ARE INCLUDED.

U.S. DEPUTY PHILLIP JESSUP, WHO WAS CHAIRMAN OF TODAY'S MEETING, READ THE TEXT OF THE 600-WORD AMERICAN NOTE TO SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI GROMYKO AT THE OPENING OF THE 64TH MEETING OF THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS.

THE NOTES, ADDRESSED TO SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY, ALSO WERE HANDED TO THE KREMLIN BY THE BRITISH, FRENCH AND AMERICAN EMBASSIES IN MOSCOW.

JESSUP SAID THE NOTES WERE NOT AN ULTIMATUM AND DID NOT INDICATE A RUPTURE IN THE TALKS WHICH BEGAN HERE MARCH 5.

THE ISSUE OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND AMERICAN BASES IN EUROPE IS THE BIG STUMBLING BLOCK IN BRINGING THE BIG FOUR TOGETHER. RUSSIA INSISTS THEY ARE A MAJOR CAUSE OF WORLD TENSION. JESSUP SAID IT WAS CLEAR THAT RUSSIA'S MAIN REASON FOR SUGGESTING THE CONFERENCE WAS TO DISRUPT THESE WESTERN DEFENSE MEASURES JUST AS THEY ARE BEGINNING TO TAKE SOLID FORM.

JESSUP SAID RUSSIA COULD BRING UP THIS DISPUTED SUBJECT AT THE PROPOSED WASHINGTON CONFERENCE, BUT THAT TO PUT IT SPECIFICALLY ON THE AGENDA MIGHT COMMIT THE THREE WESTERN POWERS TO DISCUSS MODIFICATIONS OR EVEN CANCELLATION OF THE ATLANTIC TREATY. THE WEST HAS DECLARED IT HAS NO INTENTION OF SCRAPPING ANY PART OF ITS SWEEPING DEFENSE PLANS.

DISCUSSION OF THAT SUBJECT, JESSUP SAID, COULD COME UNDER THE GENERAL HEADING IN THE AGENDA DEALING WITH THE CAUSES OF INTERNATIONAL TENSION IN EUROPE.

A10

GROMYKO SAID HE WOULD FORWARD THE NOTES TO MOSCOW, BUT ADDED THAT HE HAD DISCOVERED TWO "INACCURACIES OF FACT" AT A FIRST GLANCE.

ONE, HE SAID, WAS THAT THE WESTERN POWERS DECLARE THERE IS AGREEMENT ON SOME ITEMS IN THE PROPOSED AGENDA, BUT THE RUSSIAN POINT OF VIEW IS THERE IS NO AGREEMENT ON ANYTHING UNLESS THE ATLANTIC TREATY AND THE U.S. BASES ARE INCLUDED FOR DISCUSSION. HE SAID THE ATLANTIC PACT IS A "MILITARY GROUPING OF POWERS AIMED AT THE SOVIET UNION AND THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACIES."

THE SECOND INACCURACY, GROMYKO SAID, IS THAT THE NOTES REFERRED ONLY TO SOVIET INSISTENCE ON TALKING ABOUT THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY, BUT FAILED TO MENTION THE INCLUSION OF U.S. BASES OVERSEAS.

THE NOTES DECLARED THE WESTERN POWERS CONSIDER THAT "THE MEASURE OF ACCORD WHICH HAS BEEN OBTAINED ON THE AGENDA MAKES POSSIBLE A MEETING OF THE MINISTERS OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, PARTICULARLY AS IT PERMITS THE DISCUSSION OF ALL THE SUBJECTS PROPOSED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IN THE EXCHANGE OF NOTES WHICH PRECEDED THE PARIS CONFERENCE, AS WELL AS AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS CONFERENCE ON THE FIFTH AND SEVENTH OF MARCH." THEY ADDED THAT SUCH A MEETING IS CONSIDERED DESIRABLE "IN THE INTEREST OF STRENGTHENING PEACE."

THE DEPUTIES HAVE AGREED ON A NUMBER OF POINTS FOR A CONFERENCE AGENDA. ONE OF THE THREE PROPOSED AGENDA INCLUDES THE EAST AND WEST VERSIONS OF ITEMS ON GERMAN DEMILITARIZATIONNNKGON REDUCTION

AGENDA. ONE OF THE THREE PROPOSED AGENDA INCLUDES THE EAST AND WEST VERSIONS OF ITEMS ON GERMAN DEMILITARIZATION AND ON REDUCTION OF ARMS AND ARMIES, WITH A FOOTNOTE EXPLAINING THAT NO AGREEMENT COULD BE REACHED ON WHERE THESE SHOULD APPEAR ON THE PROGRAM OR HOW THEY SHOULD BE WORDED.

OTHER ITEMS AGREED UPON WERE AN AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE, ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE PEACE TREATIES BY ITALY, ROMANIA, HUNGARY AND BULGARIA, AND THE FUTURE OF THE FREE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE.

FIRST LEAD BIG FOUR

(ADVANCE) PARIS, MAY 31-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE CHALLENGED RUSSIA TODAY TO ACCEPT A FOUR-POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING IN WASHINGTON JULY 23 "IN THE INTERESTS OF STRENGTHENING PEACE."

THE THREE WESTERN POWERS SENT IDENTICAL NOTES AIMED AT BREAKING THE DEADLOCK OVER WHAT WORLD TENSIONS THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS SHOULD DISCUSS. THE FOUR POWER DEPUTIES HAVE BEEN TRYING TO DO THAT IN PARIS SINCE MARCH.

THE AMERICAN, FRENCH AND BRITISH DEPUTIES HERE HANDED THE NOTES TO SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI GROMYKO AT THEIR 64TH MEETING ON A TOP-LEVEL CONFERENCE AGENDA. COPIES ALSO WERE HANDED OVER AT THE KREMLIN IN MOSCOW BY THE WESTERN AMBASSADORS.

WHEN THE WESTERN DEPUTIES IN PARIS HANDED THE NOTE TO GROMYKO, HE SAID HE WOULD TRANSMIT IT TO SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY. HIS ONLY COMMENT WAS A BRIEF REMARK THAT THERE WERE "FACTUAL INACCURACIES" IN THE NOTE, READ TO HIM BY THE U.S. DEPUTY, AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE PHILIP JESSUP.

THE NOTES BLAMED LACK OF AGREEMENT ON AN AGENDA UPON THE SOVIET INSISTENCE THAT THE BIG FOUR SHOULD DISCUSS THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF U.S. BASES IN EUROPE.

THE SOVIET UNION CONTENDS THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT IS A MAJOR CAUSE OF INTERNATIONAL TENSION. THE WEST REJECTS THIS CLAIM.

THE NEW NOTES POINT OUT THAT THE WESTERN POWERS PROPOSED ON MAY 2 THAT THERE BE THREE ALTERNATIVE AGENDAS. ONE OF THESE HAS BECOME KNOWN AS THE "SPLIT AGENDA" BECAUSE IT CONTAINS BOTH THE WEST'S AND RUSSIA'S WORDINGS, SIDE BY SIDE, ON THE QUESTION OF ARMAMENTS AND ARMED FORCES.

THE NOTES CONTEND THAT AGREEMENT COULD HAVE BEEN REACHED ON THIS

'SPLIT AGENDA" EXCEPT FOR RUSSIA'S DEMAND THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT BE DISCUSSED. THE WEST HOLDS IT IS READY TO ATTEND A BIG FOUR MEETING ON THE BASIS OF THIS "SPLIT AGENDA" OR ON EITHER OF THE OTHER TWO ALTERNATIVE AGENDAS.

MAY 31 1951

A110

THE NOTES DECLARE IT HAS BEEN AND REMAINS THE VIEW OF THE THREE WESTERN GOVERNMENTS THAT SUCH A MEETING IS DESIRABLE IN THE INTEREST OF STRENGTHENING PEACE, DESCRIBED AS THE CONSTANT OBJECTIVE OF WESTERN FOREIGN POLICY.

IT ADDS:

THE WESTERN GOVERNMENTS FOR THEIR PART CONSIDER THAT THE MEASURE OF AGREEMENT ACHIEVED ON AN AGENDA MAKES POSSIBLE A MEETING OF THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS WHICH WOULD PERMIT DISCUSSION, AMONG OTHERS, OF ALL TOPICS PROPOSED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IN THE EXCHANGE OF NOTES PRECEDING THE PARIS CONFERENCE AND ON THE 5TH AND 7TH OF MARCH AT THE OUTSET OF THAT CONFERENCE.

THE WESTERN GOVERNMENTS ARE PREPARED TO ATTEND A MEETING OF THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS IN WASHINGTON BEGINNING ON 23RD JULY. THEY ARE PREPARED TO PARTICIPATE IN SUCH A CONFERENCE NOT ONLY ON THE SECOND AGENDA, BUT ALSO ON EITHER OF THE TWO OTHER AGENDAS. THE TEXTS OF THREE AGENDAS ARE ENCLOSED.

ALL THREE AGENDAS CALL FOR THE EXAMINATION BY THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF PRESENT INTERNATIONAL TENSIONS. TWO OF THE AGENDAS LIST QUESTIONS RELATING TO DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY, ARMS OF THE BIG FOUR, THE AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE AND GERMAN PEACE TREATIES AND FULFILMENT OF PEACE TREATIES WITH ITALY, ROMANIA, BULGARIA AND HUNGARY. ITALY'S OBLIGATIONS CONCERNING TRIESTE ALSO IS LISTED.

THE THIRD AGENDA BRIEFLY LISTS QUESTIONS CONCERNING ARMAMENTS ACD ARMED FORCES, AUSTRIA, GERMANY, AND FULFILMENT OF TREATIES. THE WORDING OF THE VARIOUS ITEMS AND THE ORDER IN WHICH THE ITEMS WOULD APPEAR ON THE AGENDA BROUGHT THE BITTER DISPUTE AMONG THE DEPUTIES IN PARIS THROUGH 64 MEETINGS.

PARIS, MAY 31-(AP)-THE WESTERN POWERS PROPOSED TODAY THAT THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS MEET IN WASHINGTON LATE IN JULY TO TRY TO EASE THE TENSION IN EUROPE.

A THREE-POWER NOTE, SIGNED BY THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE, WAS DISPATCHED TO MOSCOW, ACCORDING TO RELIABLE SOURCES. A COPY OF THE NOTE IS TO BE HANDED TO SOVIET DEPUTY ANDREI GROMYKO IN PARIS AT 4 P.M. (10 A.M. EST) TODAY, WHEN THE FOUR DEPUTIES MEET FOR THE 64TH TIME IN AN EFFORT TO FIX AN AGENDA FOR A FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING.

THE NEW NOTE WAS DRAFTED YESTERDAY AS A LAST-DITCH TRY TO BREAK THE DEADLOCK AMONG THE DEPUTIES, WHICH HAS PREVENTED THE ARRANGING OF A FOREIGN MINISTERS GET-TOGETHER.

TEXT OF THE NOTE HAS BEEN APPROVED BY U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON, AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN.

THE DEPUTIES, AFTER NEARLY 13 WEEKS OF CONFERENCES ON ITEMS FOR A FOREIGN MINISTERS' AGENDA, ARE NOW BOGGED DOWN OVER WHETHER TO INCLUDE A DISCUSSION OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND U.S. BASES OVERSEAS.

THE WEST INSISTS SUCH A DISCUSSION WOULD BE OUT OF PLACE IN THE BIG FOUR SINCE RUSSIA IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE ATLANTIC PACT.

RUSSIA CLAIMS THE ATLANTIC PACT IS A MAJOR CAUSE OF INTERNATIONAL TENSION.

SO FAR THE DEPUTIES HAVE AGREED ON EIGHT SUBJECTS FOR THE MINISTERS TO DISCUSS, ALTHOUGH THE WORDING OF ONE ITEM -- ARMS REDUCTION -- STILL IS AN ISSUE. THE ORDER IN WHICH THE ITEMS ARE TO APPEAR ALSO STILL HAS TO BE SETTLED.

THE WESTERN ATTITUDE IS THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS SHOULD MEET TO DISCUSS THE ITEMS WHICH HAVE BEEN AGREED AND PERHAPS DECIDE FOR THEMSELVES ON ANY ADDITIONAL SUBJECTS.

(ADVANCE) LONDON, MAY 31-(AP)-THE OFFICIAL TEXT OF A BRITISH NOTE TO RUSSIA TODAY ON THE PROPOSED FOUR-POWER CONFERENCE (ABOUT (1,000):

HIS MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS PRESENTS HIS COMPLIMENTS TO THE SOVIET MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND HAS THE HONOR TO REFER TO THE CURRENT FOUR POWER NEGOTIATIONS IN PARIS.

SINCE MARCH 5TH THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, TOGETHER WITH THE REPRESENTATIVES OF FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES, HAS BEEN ENGAGED IN DISCUSSIONS WITH THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SOVIET UNION IN A PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE IN PARIS. THIS PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE WAS AGREED UPON AS A RESULT OF AN EXCHANGE OF NOTES WHICH ENDED WITH A NOTE OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT DATED FEBRUARY 19TH, 1951, AND THE REPLY OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT DATED MARCH 1ST, 1951. AS INDICATED IN THAT EXCHANGE OF NOTES, THE PURPOSE OF THE CONFERENCE WAS TO REACH AGREEMENT ON A MUTUALLY ACCEPTABLE AGENDA FOR A MEETING OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, FRANCE, THE UNITED STATES AND THE U.S.S.R. SUCH AN AGREEMENT HAS NOT YET BEEN REACHED.

IN THE COURSE OF DISCUSSIONS, THE VIEWS OF THE FOUR DELEGATIONS WERE BROUGHT OUT AND CLARIFIED.

CONSIDERING THAT THE DISCUSSIONS HAD PROVIDED ALL THE ELEMENTS NECESSARY FOR AGREEMENT ON AN AGENDA, THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES PRESENTED TO THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE ON THE 2ND OF MAY A NEW PROPOSAL CONTAINING THREE ALTERNATIVE AGENDAS.

THE PURPOSE OF THESE THREE ALTERNATIVES WAS TO ASSURE THE POSSIBILITY OF THE MEETING OF THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS. IT HAS BEEN, AND REMAINS, THE VIEW OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT THAT SUCH A MEETING IS DESIRABLE IN THE INTEREST OF STRENGTHENING PEACE, WHICH IS THE CONSTANT OBJECTIVE OF BRITISH FOREIGN POLICY.

B64

IN THE COURSE OF THE EXAMINATION OF THESE THREE ALTERNATIVES, THE REPRESENTATIVES IN PARIS WERE UNABLE TO REACH FULL AGREEMENT. AS REGARDS THE FIRST ALATERNATIVE, THE ONLY DIFFICULTY WAS THAT THE WORDING PROPOSED BY THE THREE DELEGATIONS FOR THE SUB-ITEM CONCERNING ARMAMENTS WAS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO THE SOVIET DELEGATION. THE THIRD LATERNATIVE WAS NOT ACCEPTED BY THE SOVIET DELEGATION AS A BASIS FOR AGREEMENT IN THE SECOND ALTERNATIVE, HOWEVER, MODIFICATIONS WERE MADE IN ITEM ONE AND THREE IS NOW AGREEMENT AMONG THE FOUR DELEGATIONS ON THE PRESENTATION OF THIS ITEM AS WELL AS ON THE INCLUSION OF FOUR OTHER ITEMS IN THE AGENDA AND ON THEIR WORDING. APART FROM THE FINAL ORDER OF THESE FOUR ITEMS, WHICH REMAINS TO BE DETERMINED BUT OUGHT NOT TO PRESENT MAJOR DIFFICULTIES, AGREEMENT COULD HAVE BEEN REACHED ON THE SECOND ALTERNATIVE IF THE SOVIET DELEGATION HAD NOT INSISTED ON THE ACCEPTANCE OF THEIR PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY.

HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT FOR THEIR PART CONSIDER THAT THE MEASURE OF AGREEMENT ACHIEVED ON THE AGENDA MAKES POSSIBLE A MEETING OF THE FOUR

FOREIGN MINISTERS WHICH WOULD PERMIT DISCUSSION, AMONG OTHERS, OF ALL THE TOPICS PROPOSED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IN THE EXCHANGE OF NOTES PRECEDING THE PARIS CONFERENCE AND ON THE 5TH AND 7TH OF MARCH AT THE OUTSET OF THAT CONFERENCE. HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT ARE PREPARED TO ATTEND A MEETING OF THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS IN WASHINGTON BEGINNING ON 23RD JULY. HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT ARE PREPARED TO PARTICIPATE IN SUCH A CONFERENCE NOT ONLY ON THE SECOND AGENDA (ALTERNATIVE B) DESCRIBED ABOVE, BUT ALSOTGR OF TH

AGENDA (ALTERNATIVE B) DESCRIBED ABOVE, BUT ALSO ON EITHER OF THE TWO OTHER AGENDAS (ALTERNATIVES A AND C). THE TEXTS OF THESE THREE AGENDAS ARE ENCLOSED.

HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT HOPES TO RECEIVE AN EARLY REPLY FROM THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT, INDICATING THEIR READINESS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PROPOSED MEETING AND STATING WHICH OF THE THREE AGENDAS IT FINDS ACCEPTABLE FOR THE PURPOSE OF HOLDING A MEETING OF THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS. ANY FURTHER ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE MEETING COULD BE WORKED OUT ON THE RECEIPT OF A FAVORABLE REPLY FROM THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT.

ATTACHED TO THE NOTE WERE THREE ALTERNATIVE AGENDAS WHICH THE WESTERN NATIONS HAD PROPOSED. THE TEXTS AS FURNISHED BY THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE: (ABOUT 500):

ALTERNATIVE A.

1. EXAMINATION OF THE CAUSES AND EFFECTS OF PRESENT INTERNATIONAL TENSIONS IN EUROPE AND OF MEANS TO SECURE REAL AND LASTING IMPROVEMENT IN RELATIONS BETWEEN THE SOVIET UNION, THE UNITED STATES, THE UNITED KINGDOM AND FRANCE, INCLUDING THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS RELATING TO: DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY; EXISTING LEVEL OF ARMAMENTS AND ARMED FORCES AND MEASURES TO BE PROPOSED JOINTLY BY THE U.S.S.R., THE UNITED STATES, THE UNITED KINGDOM AND FRANCE FOR INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AND REDUCTION OF ARMAMENTS AND ARMED FORCES; FULFILMENT OF PRESENT TREATY OBLIGATIONS AND AGREEMENTS; ELIMINATION OF THE THREAT OF WAR AND THE FEAR OF AGGRESSION.
2. COMPLETION OF THE TREATY FOR THE RESTABLISHMENT OF AN INDEPENDENT AND DEMOCRATIC AUSTRIA.
3. PROBLEMS RELATING TO THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF GERMAN UNITY AND PREPARATION OF A TREATY OF PEACE.
4. FULFILMENT OF TREATIES OF PEACE WITH ITALY, ROMANIA, BULGARIA AND HUNGARY AND OF AGREEMENTS OF THE FOUR POWERS CONCERNING GERMANY AND AUSTRIA.
5. FULFILMENT OF A TREATY OF PEACE WITH ITALY IN THE PART CONCERNING TRIESTE.

(ADVANCE) LONDON, FRIDAY, JUNE 1-(AP)-BRITAIN SAID TODAY COMMONWEALTH DEFENSE TALKS WILL BE HELD HERE ~~NEXT~~ THIS MONTH, BUT WITHOUT INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON.

THE ASIAN NATIONS HAVE DECIDED TO STAY AWAY BECAUSE THEY ARE UNWILLING RIGHT NOW TO ASSUME ANY COMMITMENTS IN DEFENSE OF THE COMMON WEALTH BEYOND THEIR OWN FRONTIERS, INFORMED OFFICIALS SAID.

A MINISTRY OF DEFENSE STATEMENT ANNOUNCED SIMPLY THAT DEFENSE MINISTERS OF FIVE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES WILL MEET IN LONDON JUNE 21. THE NATIONS TO BE REPRESENTED: BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, SOUTH AFRICA, SOUTHERN RHODESIA. CANADA WILL SEND AN OBSERVER.

SOME SUBJECTS TO BE DISCUSSED:

THE COMMONWEALTH ROLE IN DEFENSE OF THE MIDDLE EAST AND AFRICA.

THE PROJECT OF AN AMERICAN-AUSTRALIAN-NEW ZEALAND PACIFIC SECURITY SYSTEM.

PROGRESS OF THE COMMONWEALTH REARMAMENT PROGRAM.

THE DOVETAILING OF COMMONWEALTH DEFENSE ARRANGEMENTS WITH THOSE OF THE ATLANTIC PACT PARTNERS.

THE ASIAN NATIONS' REFUSAL TO SEND EVEN OBSERVERS TO THE TALKS STEMS FROM THEIR DESIRE TO RETAIN INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION IN CASE OF WAR.

THE ASIAN COUNTRIES' REFUSAL POSES MAJOR MANPOWER PROBLEMS FOR BRITAIN AND THE REST OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

TROOPS FROM THE INDIAN SUBCONTINENT FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY HAVE HELPED GUARD THE JOINT IMPERIAL INTERESTS IN BOTH MIDEAST AND FAR EAST.

THE COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES NOW WILL HAVE TO GET ALONG AS BEST THEY CAN IN GUARDING THE MEDITERRANEAN AND SOUTHEAST ASIA WITH TROOPS THEY CAN SPARE FROM OTHER THEATERS AND WITH NEGRO TROOPS FROM AFRICA.

BRITAIN ALREADY HAS LAID PLANS FOR RAISING A NEGRO FORCE UP TO A MILLION STRONG IN HER AFRICAN TERRITORIES.

london, may 31-(ap)-the united states is seeking to block delivery to poland of two new oil tankers now being built in britain, informed sources said tonight.

the sources said the ~~american~~ american approach to britain so far has been informal.

a foreign office spokesman said the united states has made no official ~~representations~~ concerning the two tankers, but that the u.s. has been kept informed about them.

a board of trade official said the two 7,600-ton tankers now are under construction for poland in bertram's yard, sunderland. one will be ready to sail about mid-june, the other several weeks later.

"no steps have been taken to prevent the delivery of the ships," the foreign office spokesman said, adding that ~~they~~ they were ordered in 1948 by the polish ocean lines, a polish shipping concern. under the ~~xx~~ contract for the ships, ownership of the tankers passed to the polish ocean lines last december after about four-fifths of the purchase price had been paid.

the spokesman pointed out~~x~~ that ~~xx~~ the contract to build the ships was made before britain adopted a strict licensing policy for sale of critical and war potential items to iron curtain countries.

one source said american officials are discussing how delivery of the tankers to poland might be blocked. this source pointed out that non-delivery of the ships might bring retaliation by poland against british shipping.

american embassy officials declined to discuss the specific question of the two tankers. they would confirm only that the u.s. government policy is against furnishing oil tankers to any iron curtain country.

LONDON, MAY 31-(AP)-TEN NATIONS HAVE EXPRESSED DOUBTS ABOUT THE WISDOM OF BRINGING TURKEY AND GREECE INTO THE ATLANTIC PACT, INFORMED OFFICIALS REPORTED TODAY.

THEY SAID ONLY THE UNITED STATES AND ITALY FAVOR ADMITTING THE TWO EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN COUNTRIES INTO THE 12-NATION ALLIANCE.

TURKEY AND GREECE ARE ASSOCIATE MEMBERS OF THE PACT, BUT CAN BECOME FULL MEMBERS ONLY WITH THE CONSENT OF ALL 12 ALLIES.

THE U.S. FORMALLY PROPOSED ADMITTING THEM EARLY THIS MONTH, ARGUING THAT IT WOULD BE THE BEST WAY OF GUARDING THEIR SECURITY. SINCE THEN, THE QUESTION HAS BEEN CONSIDERED BY THE ATLANTIC COUNCIL OF DEPUTIES. ALL EXCEPT THE U.S. AND ITALY EXPRESSED RELUCTANCE TO ACCEPT THE AMERICAN PROPOSAL.

SOME REASONS GIVEN BY THE INFORMANTS FOR THE OPPOSITION:

THE PARTNERSHIP WOULD LOSE ITS "ATLANTIC" COMPLEXION IF MEDITERRANEAN NATIONS COME IN.

IT ALSO WOULD LOSE ITS DEFENSIVE CHARACTER IF THE U.S., FOR INSTANCE, WERE TO SET UP BOMBER BASES IN TURKEY ON THE BORDERS OF SOME OF RUSSIA'S MOST VITALLY STRATEGIC AREAS.

THE TWO COUNTRIES ARE GUARANTEED AGAINST ISOLATION IN THE EVENT OF ATTACK, ANYHOW, AND THE ATLANTIC ALLIES WOULD RUSH TO THEIR AID.

BOTH ARE GETTING SUBSTANTIAL AMERICAN MILITARY HELP AND WOULD NOT BE BENEFITTED MATERIALLY BY ENTERING THE PACT.

IF THEY WERE ADMITTED, IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT TO REJECT DEMANDS FOR THE ADMISSION OF SUCH COUNTRIES AS SPAIN AND EGYPT AND THAT WOULD GIVE THE ATLANTIC PACT THE POLITICAL CHARACTER OF AN ANTI-RUSSIAN COALITION.

SZAKASITS, WHO PREVIOUSLY HAD SERVED AS DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, VISITED GENERALISSIMO STALIN IN MOSCOW IN 1948. AFTER HIS RETURN, THE SOCIALIST-COMMUNIST MERGER WAS ARRANGED AND IN AUGUST OF THAT YEAR HE BECAME PRESIDENT.

WHEN THE NEW COMMUNIST-WRITTEN CONSTITUTION WENT INTO EFFECT IN 1949, THE POST OF PRESIDENT WAS ABOLISHED AND SZAKASITS BECAME CHAIRMAN OF THE SUBSTITUTE PRESIDENTIAL COUNCIL. IN APRIL, 1950, HE RETIRED.

SZAKASITS WAS REGARDED BY OBSERVERS AS AN OPPORTUNIST WITH LITTLE REAL POWER IN THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT. MATYAS RAKOSI, COMMUNIST DEPUTY PREMIER AND SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE WORKERS PARTY, IS CONSIDERED THE COUNTRY'S REAL BOSS.

AS FAR BACK AS 1949 THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS THAT SZAKASITS WAS UNDER ARREST, BUT THE HUNGARIAN FOREIGN OFFICE HAS DENIED THEM.

PREGEDE LONDON DAY (230)

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, MAY 31-(AP)-HUNGARY'S COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AND PARTY APPEAR TO BE IN THE THROES OF A PURGE OF TITOIST ELEMENTS, WESTERN DIPLOMATIC SOURCES HERE ASSERTED TONIGHT.

THEY SAID THEY BASED THEIR BELIEF THAT A WIDESPREAD HOUSECLEANING OF NATIONALIST, ANTI-MOSCOW ELEMENTS IS IN PROGRESS ON RECENT REPORTS OF THE DISMISSAL AND DISAPPEARANCE OF SEVERAL TOP GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND PARTY LEADERS.

THE LONDON DAILY TELEGRAPH SAID TODAY FORMER HUNGARIAN PRESIDENT ARPAD SZAKASITS HAS BEEN ARRESTED ON CHARGES OF SPYING FOR HOSTILE POWERS. THE SOURCES HERE SAID THEY COULD NOT CONFIRM THIS.

SZAKASITS IS A FORMER SOCIAL DEMOCRAT LEADER WHO MERGED HIS PARTY WITH THE COMMUNISTS IN 1948. HE RESIGNED LAST YEAR BECAUSE OF "ILL HEALTH."

BACK OF THE OPINION THAT A PURGE IS GOING ON IN HUNGARY IS THE RECENT RESIGNATION OF HUNGARIAN FOREIGN MINISTER GYULA KALLAI, THE DISMISSAL OF INTERIOR MINISTER SANDOR ZOLD AND THE DISAPPEARANCE OF A NUMBER OF PROMINENT COMMUNISTS CLOSE TO HUNGARY'S STRONG MAN, MATYAS RAKOSI.

AMONG THOSE WHO HAVEN'T BEEN HEARD FROM RECENTLY ARE FERENCZ DONATH, HEAD OF RAKOSI'S POLITICAL SECRETARIAT; GUYLA LOSONCI, UNDER-SECRETARY FOR EDUCATION; AND A GENERAL RATULOVSKY, FORMER CHIEF OF THE BUDAPEST POLICE, THE SOURCES SAID.

ANOTHER DEVELOPMENT POINTING TO A POSSIBLE PURGE WAS THE RECENT CALL FOR NEW COMMUNIST PARTY ELECTIONS "TO IMPROVE THE PARTY CADRES."

POLITBUREAU MEMBER ISTVAN KOVACS WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THE ELECTIONS WERE NECESSARY BECAUSE "LACK OF VIGILANCE AND IRRESPONSIBLE WORK OF THE PARTY CADRES HAS BECOME UNBEARABLE."

LONDON, MAY 31-(AP)-THE BRITISH ADMIRALTY ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT THAT THE 8,000 TON CRUISER MAURITIUS HAD BEEN ALERTED TO SAIL FOR IRAN IF NEEDED "FOR AN EVACUATION OR FOR ANY EVENTUALITY."

THE CRUISER, NOW AT THE BRITISH NAVAL BASE IN CEYLON, WAS ORDERED TO CANCEL A SCHEDULED CRUISE ALONG THE EAST AFRICAN COAST AND STAND BY FOR FURTHER ORDERS, THE ADMIRALTY SAID.

THE ADMIRALTY DESCRIBED THE STAND-BY ORDER AS A ROUTINE PRECAUTION.

london, may 31-(ap)-sir john slessor, marshal of the [redacted] royal air froce and britain's chief of air staff, said tonight that if it is properly inspired and managed british and american airpower can insure the peace of the world for 100 years.

he spoke at a dinner of british [illegible] aircraft technicians and builders marking the tenth anniversary of the first flight of a [illegible] plane powered by a gas turbine jet engine. the designer of that plane, sir frank whittle, was guest of honor.

slessor hinted at a fabulous secret list of aviation developments about to be made and said, "so long as we are not complacent and so long as we strive [illegible] with all out brain, nerve and sinew, british and american airpower can insure the peace for a century."

sir frank spriggs, managing director of the british hawker-siddeley aviation combine, called british-american collaboration in the aviation industry remarkable.

"there is no doubt that the americans have a genius for mass production and no doubt their country is a matchless arsenal of democracy," spriggs said. "also, there is no doubt that no combination on earth can equal us if britain and the commonwealth are fully prepared to do our part alongside the united states."

maj. gen. leon johnson, commander of american airforces in britain, spoke appreciatively of the british will to cooperate on a technical level with construction and research in american aviation.

LONDON, MAY 31-(AP)-THE UNITED KINGDOM OKAYED THE EXPORT OF 2,400 TONS OF RUBBER TO RUSSIA IN THE LAST THREE WEEKS OF APRIL, A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY.

SIR HARTLEY SHAWCROSS, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, GAVE THE FIGURE IN REPLY TO A QUESTION IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. HE SAID BRITAIN IS NOT IN A POSITION TO CUT OFF SUCH SHIPMENTS BECAUSE OF ITS DEPENDENCE ON RUSSIA FOR TIMBER AND GRAIN.

THIS COUNTRY IMPOSED LICENSING CONTROLS ON RAW RUBBER ON APRIL 9. IT ANNOUNCED THEN THAT IT WAS CUTTING OFF ALL SHIPMENTS OF THIS STRATEGIC MATERIAL TO RED CHINA FOR THE REST OF 1951.

THE COLONIAL GOVERNMENTS WERE REQUESTED TO FOLLOW SUIT.

LICENSES ALSO WERE ISSUED DURING THE FOLLOWING THREE WEEKS FOR THE EXPORT OF 115 TONS OF RUBBER TO COMMUNIST CZECHOSLOVAKIA, SHAWCROSS SAID.

DURING THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1951, SHAWCROSS TOLD THE HOUSE, THE UNITED KINGDOM SENT RUSSIA 4,061 TONS OF RAW RUBBER. IN THE SAME PERIOD, THE SOVIET UNION BOUGHT 4,425 TONS FROM MALAYA AND SOVIET SATELLITE NATIONS BOUGHT 4,917 TONS.

"OUR AVERAGE EXPORTS TO THESE COUNTRIES ARE NOT INCREASING, THEY ARE BEING MAINTAINED AT A LEVEL CORRESPONDING TO THAT EXISTING LAST YEAR," SHAWCROSS SAID.

"THIS IS A PROBLEM OF COMPLEXITY AND DIFFICULTY. A FIFTH OF OUR TOTAL IMPORTS OF TIMBER COME FROM THE SOVIET AND A THIRD OF OUR TOTAL IMPORTS OF COARSE GRAINS. THESE ARE MATTERS ONE CANNOT DISREGARD IN CONSIDERING WHAT ACTION TO TAKE."

LABORITE JAMES GLANVILLE, NOTING THAT WINSTON CHURCHILL'S CONSERVATIVES HAVE CRITICISED THE EXPORT OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS SUCH AS RUBBER TO COMMUNIST LANDS, ASKED SHAWCROSS:

"I WONDER IF THE TORIES WOULD PREFER TRADE WITH COMMUNIST COUNTRIES OR WAR?"

SHAWCROSS REPLIED THERE ARE "VARIOUS DEGREES OF FRIENDSHIP" BUT AGREED THAT "WE ARE NOT AT WAR WITH THE COMMUNIST COUNTRIES." HE SAID THE TIMBER AND GRAIN IMPORTS HE MENTIONED "HAVE LED OF NECESSITY TO CONTINUING TRADE RELATIONS WITH THEM.

IN REPLY TO ANOTHER QUESTION, SHAWCROSS SAID BRITISH EXPORTS OF ELECTRICAL GENERATING EQUIPMENT TO RUSSIA IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1951 TOTALED £389,685 ($1,091,129). THIS COMPARED WITH £6,078,159 ($17,018,745) WORTH DURING THE WHOLE OF 1950.

BY THOMAS A. REEDY
BERLIN, MAY 31-(AP)-EAST GERMANY'S COMMUNIST BOSSES TODAY DEMANDED A "100 PER CENT" TURNOUT FOR NEXT WEEK'S "PEACE PLEBISCITE" IN THE SOVIET ZONE.
THE EAST SECTOR GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED THE MACHINERY IS ALL SET TO POLL 12,000,000 (M) ELIGIBLE EAST GERMANS ON THE DOUBLE-BARRELLED QUESTION:
"ARE YOU AGAINST REMILITARIZATION AND ARE YOU FOR A PEACE TREATY FOR GERMANY IN 1951?"
BY SPECIAL DECREE, YOUTHS AS YOUNG AS 16 ARE PERMITTED TO CAST A VOTE IN THE POLL.
WEST GERMANY AND WEST BERLIN HAVE FORBIDDEN THE POLL IN THEIR TERRITORY AS PURE COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.
THE "VOTES" WILL BE TAKEN SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY IN THE SOVIET SECTOR OF THIS CITY AND THE SURROUNDING SOVIET ZONE.
IN PREVIOUS CONTROLLED ELECTIONS, THE EAST ZONE HAS PILED UP AS MUCH AS 99.7 PER CENT OF THE ELIGIBLE VOTE. IN DRIVING FOR "100 PER CENT" THIS TIME, THE COMMUNIST RULERS HAVE A POWERFUL WEAPON. TO ABSTAIN OR TO DECLARE ONESELF'S AGAINST A PEACE TREATY AND IN FAVOR OF REARMING BRANDS AN EAST GERMAN AS AN "ENEMY" OF THE STATE AND AN ENEMY OF THE SOVIET UNION--PUNISHABLE BY LONG JAIL SENTENCE OR EVEN DEATH.
SOME QUARTERS HAZARD A GUESS THAT THE EAST ZONE MAY BE PREPARING A NEW PROPAGANDA BLAST FOR A SEPARATE PEACE TREATY WITH THE RUSSIANS. THIS WOULD BE DONE ONLY WITH SOVIET CONSENT, OF COURSE.
THE PLEBISCITE HAS BEEN TOO CAREFULLY PREPARED, THESE CIRCLES POINT OUT, TO BE USED ONLY FOR A MEANINGLESS VOTE COLLECTION.
SOME AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THEY WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED IF THE OUTCOME OF THE PLEBISCITE IS REFLECTED IN THE BIG FOUR MEETINGS IN PARIS. THEY SUGGESTED SOVIET DELEGATE ANDREI GROMYKO MIGHT CALL THE "VOTE" TO THE ATTENTION OF THE WESTERN DELEGATES TO BACK UP HIS ANTI-REMILITARIZATION ARGUMENTS.

B10 (CSEG)
THE EAST ZONE GOVERNMENT HAS MARSHALLED ALL ITS FORCES FOR THE POLL. ALL POLICE LEAVES HAVE BEEN CANCELLED FOR THE THREE-DAY PERIOD.
YOUTH BRIGADES STAMP UP AND DOWN THE STREETS OF CITIES AND VILLAGES ALMOST DAILY TO ADVERTISE THE "PEACE PLEBISCITE." IN ONE AREA OF MECKLENBURG SCHOOL TEACHERS WERE ASSIGNED 10 FAMILES EACH TO DELIVER TO THE POLLS.
THE RULING SOCIALIST UNITY (COMMUNIST) PARTY HAS TURNED LOOSE A FORCE OF 10,000 HAND-PICKED FUNCTIONARIES TO DIRECT THE PROPAGANDA AND THE ACTUAL VOTING. TOP MEN IN THE PARTY HAVE BEEN RIDING THE ROADS AND RAILS ALL DAY AND NIGHT FOR ALMOST TWO WEEKS TO DRUM UP INTEREST. PARTY BOSS WALTER ULBRICHT HAS MADE 40 SPEECHES DURING THIS PERIOD.
AGITATORS HAVE BEEN SENT INTO WEST BERLIN TO STIR UP TROUBLE. POLICE HAVE ARRESTED MORE THAN 100 OF THEM, INCLUDING A 12-YEAR-OLD BOY.

GRAFENWOEHR, GERMANY, MAY 31-(AP)-GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, U.S. ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, BURROWED INTO A FOXHOLE BESIDE ENLISTED MEN DURING FIELD EXERCISES STAGED BY AMERICAN TROOPS AT THIS TRAINING GROUND TODAY.
COLLINS, HERE ON AN INSPECTION TOUR OF U.S. FORCES IN EUROPE, WITNESSED A MOCK ATTACK STAGED IN BATTALION SIZE WITH ARTILLERY AND AIR SUPPORT.
HE SLAMMED HIMSELF INTO A FOXHOLE AS F-84 THUNDERJETS ROARED OVERHEAD.
AT ANOTHER STAGE THE CHIEF OF STAFF LAY DOWN BESIDE A MACHINEGUNNER AND CORRECTED THE ENLISTED MAN'S POSITION.
COLLINS ALSO TOOK ASIDE A PLATOON LEADER AND CORRECTED HIS TACTICS, REMARKING "DON'T MIND MY CRITICISM. I'M JUST GIVING YOU MY OPINION."
HE LAUDED THE FACILITIES OF THIS FORMER GERMAN ARMY TRAINING GROUND AS "AMONG THE BEST I'VE SEEN."
STOPPING AT AN ENLISTED MEN'S MESS IN A WOODS, GEN.COLLINS ATE A PIECE OF CAKE.
TURNING TO CPL.SALVATOR DINUCCI, OF PROVIDENCE, R.I., WHO SERVED HIM, THE CHIEF OF STAFF JOKED: "DID YOU BAKE THIS CAKE YOURSELF CORPORAL? WHAT WAS YOUR CIVILIAN OCCUPATION--PLUMBER?"
DINUCCI REPLIED: "NO SIR, I WAS A WAITER IN A NEW YORK HOTEL."
COLLINS WAS ACCOMPANIED HERE BY GEN.THOMAS T.HANDY, COMMANDER OF U.S. TROOPS IN EUROPE, AND LT.GEN.ANTON S.EDDY, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. SEVENTH ARMY.
HE PLANS TO LEAVE FRIDAY FOR SALZBURG, AUSTRIA, AND WILL PROCEED FROM THERE TO TRIESTE ON SUNDAY, THEN RETURN TO WASHINGTON.

NIGHT LEAD PAPAGOS (420)
ATHENS, GREECE, MAY 31-(AP)-KING PAUL TOOK OVER TODAY AS COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES TO FILL THE GAP LEFT BY THE STARTLING RESIGNATION OF GREECE'S NO.1 MILITARY HERO, FIELD MARSHAL ALEXANDER PAPAGOS.

AN EMERGENCY MEETING OF THE CABINET TONIGHT APPROVED THE ACT ENTRUSTING THE KING WITH THE DUTIES OF SUPREME COMMANDER OF THE ARMED FORCES. IT ALSO APPROVED A MEASURE PROVIDING THAT IN THE CASE OF WAR OR EMERGENCY OR PARTIAL OR GENERAL MOBILIZATION, THE DUTIES OF SUPREME COMMANDER WILL BE ENTRUSTED TO THE CHIEF OF THE NATIONAL DEFENSE GENERAL STAFF.

THE LATTER STEP IS NECESSARY BECAUSE, BY TRADITION, THE KING COULD NOT TAKE ORDERS FROM A FOREIGN GENERAL. IN THE EVENT OF HOSTILITIES, IT IS POSSIBLE THAT GREEK FORCES WOULD BE UNDER THE COMMAND OF AN ALLIED SUPREME COMMANDER.

PAPAGOS' ANNOUNCEMENT LAST NIGHT THAT HE WAS RESIGNING BECAUSE OF ILL HEALTH WAS NOT ACCEPTED BY ANY ATHENS NEWSPAPERS AS HIS REAL REASON FOR BOWING OUT. THE FIELD MARSHAL, 68, HAS APPEARED TO BE IN EXCELLENT SHAPE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THEY BELIEVED THE RESIGNATION STEMMED FROM DIFFERENCES WITH THE KING. THEY SAID THE KING HAD EXPRESSED DISSATISFACTION OVER WHAT HE REGARDED AS EFFORTS OF PAPAGOS AND HIS POLITICAL SUPPORTERS TO INFLUENCE THE CROWN.

THE WALKOUT BY PAPAGOS WAS REPORTED TO HAVE TOUCHED OFF "MINOR INCIDENTS" WHICH BROUGHT AN EMERGENCY ARMY ALERT IN THE NIGHT.

IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE SUPREME MILITARY COMMANDER OF THE ATHENS AREA, THE ATHENS RADIO SAID THE EMERGENCY MEASURES WERE TAKEN BECAUSE THERE WERE REPORTS THAT AN ATTEMPT WOULD BE MADE "BY ANARCHIST ELEMENTS AT INFRACTION OF PUBLIC ORDER."

NO DETAILS WERE GIVEN AND THE ALERT WAS LIFTED THIS MORNING. BUT IT WAS REVEALED THAT A GROUP OF SOLDIERS HAD ORDERED OFFICIALS AT THE ATHENS RADIO STATION TO DELETE THE REPORT OF PAPAGOS' RESIGNATION FROM A NEWS BROADCAST.

THE OFFICIALS COMPLAINED TO PREMIER SOPHOCLES VENIZELOS, WHO PROMPTLY ISSUED ORDERS TO "PREVENT THE RECURRENCE OF MILITARY CENSORSHIP ON THE RADIO AND OTHER INFRACTIONS OF PUBLIC LAW."

THE RESIGNATION OF THE MARSHAL IS CONSIDERED THE MOST IMPORTANT MILITARY DEVELOPMENT IN GREECE SINCE THE CRUSHING OF THE COMMUNIST REVOLT IN THE FALL OF 1949. PAPAGOS WAS THE MASTERMIND BEHIND THE GOVERNMENT FORCES IN THAT CIVIL WAR.

KING PAUL SAID IN A STATEMENT HE ACCEPTED PAPAGOS' RESIGNATION "WITH PROFOUND REGRET."

PAPAGOS ONLY A FEW DAYS AGO COMPLETED AN EXTENSIVE INSPECTION OF MILITARY INSTALLATIONS IN THE PELOPONNESUS AND THE NORTHERN PROVINCES. HE WARNED THAT GREECE MUST BE ON THE ALERT, "WITH HER FINGER ON THE TRIGGER."

ATHENS, GREECE, MAY 31-(AP)-GREECE'S NO. ONE MILITARY HERO, 68-YEAR-OLD FIELD MARSHAL ALEXANDER PAPAGOS, QUIT AS CHIEF OF THE NATION'S ARMED FORCES YESTERDAY. HIS WALKOUT WAS FOLLOWED BY "MINOR INCIDENTS" AND AN ARMY ALERT IN ATHENS.

PAPAGOS BLAMED HIS RESIGNATION ON ILL HEALTH. OBSERVERS HERE SAID MAYBE IT WAS DUE TO POLITICAL DIFFERENCES WITH KING PAUL.

EMERGENCY MEASURES WERE PUT INTO EFFECT IN ATHENS LAST NIGHT, DUE--A GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENT ON THE ATHENS RADIO SAID TODAY--TO REPORTS THAT AN ATTEMPT WOULD BE MADE BY "ANARCHIST ELEMENTS AT INFRACTION OF PUBLIC ORDER." THE RADIO SAID THE EMERGENCY WAS LIFTED AT 8 A.M. TODAY.

OFFICIALS OF THE RADIO STATION LATER REVEALED AN ARMY OFFICER AND A GROUP OF SOLDIERS VISITED THE STATION THIS MORNING AND ORDERED THEM TO DELETE FROM A BROADCAST NEWS OF PAPAGOS' RESIGNATION.

THE ATHENS RADIO LATER ANNOUNCED ATTEMPTS AT INFRACTION OF PUBLIC ORDER HAD BEEN ISOLATED AND OF "NO IMPORTANCE."

PAPAGOS' RESIGNATION WAS THE CHIEF TOPIC OF THE DAY HERE. NEWSPAPERS CAME UP WITH ALL KINDS OF EXPLANATIONS AS TO WHAT REALLY INSPIRED THE MARSHAL TO MAKE SO MOMENTOUS A DECISION. NO PAPER ACCEPTED ILL HEALTH AS A PLAUSIBLE EXCUSE.

THE NEWS, WHICH WAS RECEIVED WITH MIXED EMOTIONS BY THE PUBLIC, WAS CONSIDERED THE MOST IMPORTANT MILITARY DEVELOPMENT SINCE THE SUPPRESSION OF THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS IN THE FALL OF 1949.

PRIME MINISTER SOPHOCLES VENIZELOS TOLD NEWSMEN PAPAGOS EARLY TODAY HAD ASSURED HIM "NOW THAT HE HAS RESIGNED, HE WILL NOT MIX HIMSELF IN POLITICS."

KING PAUL IN A PREVIOUS STATEMENT HAD SAID HE ACCEPTED PAPAGO'S RESIGNATION "WITH PROFOUND REGRET." IN A LETTER TO THE AGED COMMANDER, HE SAID HE REALIZED, HOWEVER, THAT THE MARSHAL'S DECISION WAS "IRREVOCABLE BECAUSE, AS YOU SAID, YOUR STATE OF HEALTH DOES NOT ALLOW YOU FOR THE TIME BEING TO CONTINUE TO EXERCISE YOUR DUTIES."

VENIZELOS SAID THAT PAPAGOS' POST WOULD BE ENTRUSTED TO THE KING, WHO IS COMMANDER OF THE ARMED FORCES UNDER THE GREEK CONSTITUTION.

THE RESIGNATION CAME AS A SURPRISE TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

INFORMED CIRCLES SAID THAT PAPAGOS HAS APPEARED IN EXCELLENT HEALTH OF LATE AND EXPRESSED BELIEF HIS RESIGNATION IS THE RESULT OF DIFFERENCES WITH THE KING DATING BACK TO LAST SUMMER. THE MONARCH REPORTEDLY RESENTED ALLEGED EFFORTS OF PAGAGOS AND POLITICIANS ASSOCIATED WITH HIM TO EXERCISE UNDUE INFLUENCE ON THE CROWN.

PAPAGOS' RESIGNATION COMES AFTER A LONG CAREER OF MILITARY SERVICE DATING BACK TO THE BALKAN WAR OF 1912-13, IN WHICH HE COMMANDED A BATTALION. IN 1940 PAPAGOS BECAME GENERALISSIMO OF THE GREEK ARMY AND IN THE RECENT GREEK CIVIL WAR HE WAS THE MASTER MIND BEHIND THE GRAMMOS CAMPAIGN THAT FINALLY ROUTED THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS.

HANOI, INDOCHINA, MAY 31-(AP)-FRENCH ARMY SOURCES SAID TODAY 45,000 COMMUNIST-LED VIET MINH ARE ATTACKING ON A FRONT 50 MILES SOUTH OF HANOI HELD BY ONLY 4,000 FRENCH TROOPS. FRENCH LOSSES WERE DESCRIBED AS SEVERE.

THE COMMUNISTS LAUNCHED THEIR ASSAULT ON MONDAY NIGHT. THE ARMY POST AT NINH BINH WAS HIT BY 10,000 OF THE COMMUNIST-LED VIET MINH, WHO USED MORTARS AND ARTILLERY IN THE ASSAULT. HARD FIGHTING RAGED FOR 48 HOURS AND ONE FRENCH NAVAL COMMANDO UNIT LOST 50 OF ITS 80 MEN.

THE OFFENSIVE WAS THE MOST POWERFUL LAUNCHED BY THE COMMUNISTS SINCE MARCH. IN APRIL THEY WERE TOLD BY THEIR MOSCOW-TRAINED LEADER HO CHI MINH THEY MUST RETURN TO HIT-AND-RUN WAR AND ABANDON TEMPORARILY ANY LARGE-SCALE EFFORT TO BREAK THROUGH FRENCH DEFENSES AND SEIZE HANOI AND HAIPHONG.

LIEUT.BERNARD DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, ONLY SON OF THE FRENCH COMMANDER IN THE FAR EAST, WAS KILLED YESTERDAY IN THE FIRST SHOCK OF THE RENEWED ATTACK IN THE NINH BINH AREA. HIS FATHER, GEN.JEAN DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT IN A SIMPLE COMMUNIQUE SAYING THE 23-YEAR OLD LAD HAD "FALLEN ON THE FIELD OF HONOR." THE GENERAL IS AT HANOI DIRECTING FRENCH OPERATIONS.

THE FRENCH SAID IT LOOKED AS IF THE VIET MINH AIM IS TO GET INTO THE RICH DELTA LANDS SOUTH OF HANOI AND SEIZE THE COMING RICE HARVEST. NINH BINH COMMANDS THE ROAD LEADING TO THE HEART OF THE DELTA.

FRENCH ARMY SOURCES SAID THAT DANGEROUS PRESSURE ON NINH BINH HAD BEEN EASED BUT WARNED OF POSSIBLE RENEWED BLOWS EITHER AT THIS TOWN OR IN ANOTHER SECTOR.

THE ATTACK, LED BY A VIET MINH ELITE UNIT, WAS CENTERED AGAINST THREE FRENCH FORTIFICATIONS DEFENDING NINH BINH. ONE OF THESE, PARTICULARLY HARD HIT, TOOK TWO DAYS TO REINFORCE. IT WAS ON HIS WAY TO THE RESCUE OF THIS GARRISON THAT YOUNG DE TASSIGNY WAS KILLED BY MORTAR FIRE.

NIGHT LEAD IRANIAN (280)

BY FRED ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 31-(AP)-A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID TONIGHT THE INTERNATIONAL COURT AT THE HAGUE HAD REJECTED THE BRITISH REQUEST FOR APPOINTMENT OF AN ARBITRATOR IN THE DISPUTE BETWEEN IRAN AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.

THE STATEMENT BY THE SPOKESMAN WAS NOT CLEAR, BUT HE APPEARED TO MEAN THAT THE COURT HELD IT COULD NOT NAME AN ARBITRATOR UNTIL AFTER IT HAD CONSIDERED BOTH THE BRITISH COMPLAINT AND THE REPLY OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT.

(IN THE HAGUE, JULES BASDEVANT, PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE, DECLINED COMMENT ON THE IRANIAN SPOKESMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT.)

BRITISH OBSERVERS HERE SAID TODAY THE GOVERNMENT'S APPARENT DETERMINATION TO TAKEWOVER THE ANGLO-IRANIAN INSTALLATIONS IMMEDIATELY LEFT LITTLE HOPE FOR ANY SETTLEMENT BY NEGOTIATION.

SOME PROFESSED TO SEE A RAY OF HOPE IN THE SECTION OF THE MEMORANDUM DELIVERED TO THE COMPANY LAST NIGHT BY THE FINANCE MINISTER. THE NOTE SAID ANY SUGGESTIONS FROM THE COMPANY "NOT CONTRARY TO THE PRINCIPLE OF NATIONALIZATION" WOULD BE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION.

HOWEVER, PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH HAS STATED REPEATEDLY THAT HIS CHIEF AIM IS TO KICK THE BRITISH OUT OF IRAN'S OIL INDUSTRY AND STOP THEIR "INTERFERING" IN IRAN'S POLITICS.

THE MEMORANDUM, OUTLINING THE STEPS BY WHICH THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW IS TO BE PUT INTO EFFECT, SAID A THREE-MAN BOARD WOULD BE SENT TO KHUZISTAN PROVINCE, SITE OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY'S OPERATIONS, TO TAKE OVER DIRECTION OF THE INDUSTRY UNDER SUPERVISION OF A GOVERNMENT BOARD.

AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES SAID THIS COMMISSION WOULD LEAVE TEHRAN WITHIN FIVE DAYS.

THE MEMORANDUM SAID ALL EMPLOYES OF ANGLO-IRANIAN WOULD BE CONSIDERED EMPLOYES OF THE GOVERNMENT-OWNED IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY FROM YESTERDAY (WEDNESDAY), INDICATING THE GOVERNMENT CONSIDERED THAT THE DATE OF TRANSFER OF THE COMPANY'S HOLDINGS TO IRAN.

BY FRED J.ZUSY

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 31-(AP)-IRAN'S CRITICAL OIL DISPUTE SNARLED ITSELF INTO A STILL TIGHTER KNOT TODAY AS THE GOVERNMENT TOLD BRITAIN IT PLANS TO GO AHEAD WITH NATIONALIZATION OF ITS GIANT BRITISH-CONTROLLED OIL INDUSTRY AT ONCE. IT GAVE THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY FIVE DAYS TO MAKE ANY SUGGESTIONS.

A MEMORANDUM TO THE GIANT BRITISH-CONTROLLED OIL COMPANY LAST NIGHT LEFT LITTLE HOPE OF ANY SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM, IN THE OPINION OF BRITISHH OBSERVERS HERE.

THE MEMORANDUM WAS HANDED THE OIL COMPANY'S LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE, N.R.SEDDON, BY FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH AT THE FIRST MEETING OF A COMPANY OFFICIAL AND A GOVERNMENT MINISTER SINCE IRAN PASSED THE NATIONALIZATION LAW A MONTH AGO.

THE NOTE, OUTLINING "REGULATIONS FOR EXECUTION" OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW,, SAID A THREE-MAN GOVERNMENT BOARD WAS GOING TO KHUZISTAN PROVINCE, SITE OF ANGLO-IRANIAN'S OPERATIONS, TO RUN THE NATIONALIZED INDUSTRY.

AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT IN TOP DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES SAID NATIONAL ECONOMY MINISTER AMIR ALAI WOULD BE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMISSION AND THATTHE GROUP WOULD GO TO KHUZISTAN WITHIN THE NEXT FIVE DAYS.

OBSERVERS NOTED THE MEMORANDUM SPECIFIED THAT ALL EMPLOYES OF THE "FORMER OIL COMPANY" WOULD "FROM THIS DATE (WEDNESDAY) BE RECOGNIZED AS EMPLOYES OF THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY"--A GOVERNMENT BODY.
APPARENTLY IRAN RECOGNIZES YESTERDAY AS THE DATE OF THE TURNOVER.
OTHER DEVELOPMENTS IN THE SWIFTLY CHANGING SCENE:
1. BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD DELIVERED A STRONG PROTEST THIS MORNING TO FOREIGN MINISTER BAGHER KAZEMI AGAINST EXPULSION ORDERS DELIVERED TO TWO BRITISH JOURNALISTS. it considers unreliable
THERE WERE RELIABLE REPORTS THAT IRAN HAS GOTTEN UP A LIST OF OTHER UNDESIRABLE JOURNALISTS AND MAY ISSUE MORE SUCH ORDERS.
2. THERE WERE ALSO REPORTS THAT IRAN MAY ASK BRITAIN TO WITHDRAW HER CONSUL GENERAL IN KHUZISTAN AS A PROTEST AGAINST HIM PERSONALLY.
3. RELIABLE INFORMANTS SAID THE AIOC MAY SEND HERE ONE OF ITS TWO DIRECTORS WHO REPRESENT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT ON THE AIOC BOARD, REPORTEDLY EITHER SIR THOMAS GARDINER OR VISCOUNT ALANBROOKE. THE REPORT WAS NOT CONFIRMED, BUT IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT EITHER OF THESE TWO WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH.
4. ABDUL GHADIR AZAD, NATIONAL FRONT DEPUTY WHO HAS SPLIT WITH MOSSADEGH, REPORTEDLY ATTACKED THE PREMIER AT A SECRET SESSION OF THE MAJLIS (LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT) THIS MORNING, DECLARING MOSSADEGH SHOULD CARRY OUT THE OIL LAW AT ONCE AND NOT GO AROUND EXPLAINING IT TO THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN AMBASSADORS. THIS REFERRED TO MOSSADEGH'S LUNCHEON MEETING TWO DAYS AGO WITH SHEPHERD AND U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY.

A81
MEANWHILE, IRAN'S HARASSING TACTICS AGAINST THE AIOC CONTINUED. THE GOVERNMENT IS REFUSING ENTRY VISAS TO ALL NON-TECHNICIANS, THUS KEEPING OTHER ANGLO-IRANIAN EMPLOYES FROM ENTERING THE COUNTRY.
THERE WAS A REPORT AFOOT THAT IRAN IS CONSIDERING RETIRING MORE INTO HER ISOLATION SHELL BE RESTRICTING THE NUMBER OF IRANIAN OFFICIALS PERMITTED TO ATTEND FOREIGN DIPLOMATIC FUNCTIONS HERE.

SEDDON SAID HE WOULD COMMUNICATE THE MEMORANDUM AND ALL OTHER INFORMATION TO HIS LONDON OFFICE. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, OWNER OF 53 PER CENT OF THE COMPANY'S STOCK, HAS SAID IT WOULD NOT ACCEPT CANCELLATION OF THE OIL CONCESSIONS WITHOUT NEGOTIATIONS.
MEANWHILE, PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, LEADER OF THE FIGHT TO NATIONALIZE THE VAST OIL INDUSTRY, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW IRAN WOULD NOT NEED TO USE HER ARMY TO ENFORCE THE LAW. HE DID NOT ELABORATE, HOWEVER.
THE GOVERNMENT'S MEMORANDUM TO THE OIL COMPANY SAID ANGLO-IRANIAN'S FOREIGN AND IRANIAN EMPLOYES "WILL REMAIN AT THEIR JOBS AND FROM THIS DATE WILL BE RECOGNIZED AS EMPLOYES OF THE IRANIAN NATIONAL OIL COMPANY."
(THE BRITISH ADMIRALTY ANNOUNCED IN LONDON LAST NIGHT THAT THE 8,000 TON CRUISER MAURITIUS HAD BEEN ALERTED TO SAIL FOR IRAN IF NEEDED "FOR AN EVACUATION OR FOR ANY EVENTUALITY." THE CRUISER NOW IN CEYLON. THE ADMIRALTY DESCRIBED THE STAND-BY ORDER AS A ROUTINE PRECAUTION.)
A THREE-MAN TEMPORARY MANAGEMENT BOARD OF IRANIANS WILL BE APPOINTED AND SENT TO KHUZISTAN PROVINCE, SITE OF THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS, TO RUN THE NATIONALIZED INDUSTRY. A GOVERNMENT RADIO ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE MEMORDANDUM DID NOT SPECIFY WHEN THE BOARD WOULD BE SENT.
REGULATIONS OF THE "FORMER OIL COMPANY" NOT CONTRARY TO THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW WOULD CONTINUE IN EFFECT UNTIL NEW BY-LAWS OF THE NATIONALIZED COMPANY ARE APPROVED, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.
THE MEMORANDUM REITERATED THE GOVERNMENT'S DESIRE TO MAINTAIN PRODUCTION AND TO CONTINUE TO SUPPLY FORMER CUSTOMERS. THE LATTER WERE GIVEN ONE MONTH FOLLOWING THE MANAGEMENT BOARD'S ARRIVAL IN KHUZISTAN TO ARRANGE WITH THE BOARD FOR FUTURE OIL PURCHASES.

tehran, iran, may 31-(ap)-the two british news correspondents being expelled from iran can wait for the first available plane and will not have to get out within 24 hours as ~~they~~ originally ~~were~~ ordered, it was announced today.

deputy prime minister hosseign fatemi told other correspondents of the reprieve for haig nicholson, middle east manager for the reuter news agency, and thomas sefton delmar, chief foreign correspondent for the london daily express, at a meeting this afternoo several correspondents pointed out the fatemi that the expulsion order was the type of censorship imposed ~~by~~ only by police states.

MAY 31 1951

"there is no question whatsoever about any censorship or police state," he replied, arguing that nicholson and delmar had violated their "professional consciences," by "violently insulting and abusing the iranian people" and nicholson by distorting the news.

fatemi said delmar's dispatches had called the iranians "oil bandits" and nicholson quoted a member of parliament, attributing to him statements which the member "never said."

"there are no restrictions on correspondents," he continued, "they can send out anything that is true."

MAY 31 1951

but, he added, iran would not permit anybody to "abuse, insult, intrigue, distort or lie."

when one correspondent asked if the government proposed to act against a local newspaper for printing cartoons "which openly incite bloodshed" and are insulting to the british and other governments, fatemi declared the question irrelevent.

however, he said, iran has press laws and, if a complaint is made, prosecution against such newspapers would follow.

neither nicholson nor delmar was invited to the conference with fatemi and said later thay had not heard of it until it was over.

said delmar, "they are cowardly fellows not to permit us to answer. I called them oil grabbers -- not oil bandits. I called them oil grabbers and they are oil grabbers. I called them contract breakers and they are contract breakers."

nicholson had no comment.

Tel Aviv, Israel, May 31--(AP)--An Israeli military spokesman denied tonight a dispatch from Damascus reporting that two Syrian air force planes shot down an Israeli plane in flames after it had flown four miles into Syria.

MAY 31 1951

"None of our planes has been over Syrian territory and none of our pilots is missing," the spokesman said.

He described the report as absolutely unfounded.

The governor of the deraa district of Syria was quoted in Damascus as the source of the report. The dispatch quoted him as saying the Syrian fighters attacked and felled the plane on Hashimite Jordan's soil at the point where the three national borders join southeast of the sea of galilee a fter the crew refused to identify itself.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 31-(AP)-THE SOVIET UNION AND RED CHINA APPARENTLY ARE BACKING AWAY FROM THEIR SPECTACULAR OFFERS OF FOOD GRAINS TO HUNGRY INDIA, OFFICIALS INDICATED TONIGHT.

A FOOD MINISTRY OFFICIAL SAID AN INDIAN NEGOTIATOR, K.R.DAMLE, ALREADY HAS LEFT PEIPING FOR INDIA AFTER CONCLUDING A PACT FOR IMPORT BEFORE OCTOBER OF 450,000 TONS OF MILO (GRAIN SORGHUM) AND 70,000 TONS OF RICE.

CHINA HAD OFFERED 1,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN. THE OFFICIAL SAID HE WAS UNABLE TO EXPLAIN WHAT HAPPENED TO THE REMAINING 480,000 TONS.

EXCEPT THAT IT WOULD "NOT BE NEGOTIATED NOW."

INDIAN NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION ARE CONTINUING WITHOUT ANY AGREEMENT IN SIGHT YET. THE RUSSIANS HAD OFFERED 500,000 TONS OF FOOD GRAINS AT FIRST, BUT THIS OFFER DWINDLED, FIRST TO 200,000 AND THEN TO 100,000 TONS. THE FOOD MINISTRY OFFICIAL SAID THE FIRST CONSIGNMENT OF 660 TONS OF RUSSIAN WHEAT ARRIVED IN BOMBAY TODAY AND ANOTHER 50,000 TONS WERE EN ROUTE AND SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE BEFORE THE END OF JUNE.

THE SIZE OF THE COMMUNIST OFFERS OF GRAIN HAD BEEN LOOKED UPON BY SOME OBSERVERS HERE AS DESIGNED FOR PROPAGANDA EFFTCT.

HANOI, INDOCHINA, MAY 31-(AP)-FRENCH TROOPS OUTNUMBERED TEN TO ONE HAVE BLOCKED AN OFFENSIVE BY 45,000 PRO-COMMUNIST VIETMINH REBELS ON THE RICE BOWL FRONT SOUTH OF HANOI, FRENCH ARMY SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THE FRONT IS STABILIZED, FOR THE MOMENT AT LEAST. BUT THE FRENCH, WITH 4,000 MEN IN THE LINE, ADMITTED SERIOUS LOSSES. A SINGLE COMMANDO UNIT OF 80 MEN LOST 50.

THE VIETMINH STRUCK MONDAY NIGHT FROM THE FOOTHILLS WEST OF THE DUY RIVER AGAINST A 20-MILE SECTOR EXTENDING FROM NINHBINH, 55 MILES SOUTH OF HANOI, UP TO PHYLY, ONLY 35 MILES SOUTH OF THIS PROVINCIAL CAPITAL. FRENCH HEADQUARTERS SAID THEY ATTACKED "EN MASSE AND WITH FANATICAL FURY."

SOME WITNESSES SAID FOREIGNERS EVIDENTLY WERE IN THE VIETMINH RANKS, BECAUSE THEY REPEATEDLY HEARD ORDERS GIVEN IN GERMAN, ENGLISH AND FRENCH. LIBERATED WAR PRISONERS HAVE REPORTED PREVIOUSLY THE VIETMINH TRIED TO RECRUIT THEM FOR AN INTERNATIONAL BRIGADE. A FRENCH SPOKESMAN SAID THE GENERAL STAFF LACKED ENOUGH INFORMATION TO SAY DEFINITELY WHETHER SUCH A BRIGADE WAS IN ACTION.

THE VIETMINH BLOW WAS THE HEAVIEST SINCE THE MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI MINH DIRECTED HIS CRIPPLED DIVISIONS BY RADIO APRIL 6 TO BREAK OFF FRONTAL WARFARE AND REVERT TO GUERRILLA TACTICS.

HO'S MAIN ATTACKS IN THE EARLY SPRING HAD BEEN DIRECTED AT THE NORTH FRONT OF THE RICE BOWL, THE RICH RED RIVER DELTA LANDS BETWEEN HANOI AND THE FRENCH-HELD PORT OF HAIPHONG. FRENCH TROOPS SPURRED BY A NEW FRENCH COMMANDER IN CHIEF, GEN.JEAN DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, STOPPED THEM COLD.

THE RICE IS RIPENING NOW AND IT LOOKS AS IF THE VIETMINH WANTED TO SEIZE THE HARVEST.

A MAJOR STRIKE WAS MADE AGAINST NINHBINH, WHICH COMMANDS A ROAD LEADING INTO THE RICE BOWL. AN ELITE VIETMINH FORCE OF 10,000 MEN, BACKED BY MORTARS AND ARTILLERY, HAMMERED THE THREE FRENCH FORTIFICATIONS DEFENDING THE TOWN.

IT WAS WHILE LEADING REINFORCEMENTS TO ONE OF THE FORTS THAT LT. BERNARD DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, 23-YEAR OLD SON OF THE GENERAL, WAS KILLED BY MORTAR FIRE WEDNESDAY. THE PRESSURE ON THE TOWN LATER EASED.

THE FRENCH ARMY SOURCES SAID TROOPS HAVE BEEN PARACHUTED INTO THE NINHBINH AREA AND MARINE AND NAVAL ASSAULT UNITS HAVE BEEN POURED INTO THE THREATENED SECTOR BY TRUCKS.

FRENCH AIR FORCE BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS ARE STRIKING AT VIETMINH CONCENTRATIONS AND REBEL TRAFFIC WEST OF THE DUY RIVER.

OTTAWA, CANADA, MAY 31-(AP)-INDIA HAS REJECTED A CANADIAN OFFER TO SUPPLY LOW-GRADE WHEAT FOR INDIA'S FAMINE-THREATENED AREAS AT NO COST.

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER LESTER B.PEARSON SAID YESTERDAY THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT IS NOW CONSIDERING OTHER METHODS OF HELPING INDIA. HE RECALLED THIS WAS THE SECOND TIME INDIA HAD TURNED DOWN A CANADIAN PROPOSAL OF AID.

PEARSON SAID HE UNDERSTANDS THERE ARE SOUND TECHNICAL REASONS WHY THE WHEAT--OFFERED FREE-- IS UNACCEPTABLE. ONE POSSIBLE REASON, HE SAID, IS AN INDIAN ARRANGEMENT "WITH A NEAR-BY COUNTRY" FOR QUANTITIES OF RICE WHICH THE INDIANS HOPE WILL TIDE THEM OVER THE PERIOD OF GREATEST DANGER.

THE INDIANS, IN THANKING CANADA FOR THE OFFER, SAID THEY PREFERRED TO AWAIT UNTIL NO. 1 GRADE WHEAT BECOMES AVAILABLE. THEY SAID THE USE IN RATIONS OF THE PARTICULAR TYPE OF WHEAT OFFERED BY CANADA MIGHT CAUSE MISUNDERSTANDING AMONG THE PEOPLE.

PEARSON SAID CANADA WAS TRYING TO FIND IF SOME OF CANADA'S NO. 1 WHEAT COULD BE DIVERTED FROM REGULAR CUSTOMERS TO INDIA. ALSO UNDER CONSIDERATION IS THE SENDING OF OTHER FOOD SUCH AS DRIED MILK.

MONTREAL, MAY 31-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA HAVE "AN IDENTITY OF INTERESTS" AND "A COMMONLY ACCEPTABLE COURSE OF ACTION" IN MATTERS THAT REALLY COUNT, JAMES E.WEBB, U.S. UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, SAID HERE TODAY.

MAY 31 1951

IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE KIWANIS CLUB OF MONTREAL, HE SAID THERE HAD NOT BEEN ANY IMPORTANT ENDEAVOR TO STRENGTH PEACE, TO BUILD INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION OR TO RESIST AGGRESSION ON WHICH CANADA AND THE U.S. HAD NOT STOOD TOGETHER.

WEBB CONCEDED THAT THE TWO COUNTRIES DID HAVE DIFFERENT OPINIONS

ON SOME MATTERS. HE SAID:

"IT WOULD BE ENTIRELY WRONG TO SAY THAT ANY TWO GREAT NATIONS LIVING IN CLOSE PROXIMITY, UNDER CONDITIONS OF MODERN CIVILIZATION, WITH MANY FRICTIONAL AREAS ARISING OUT OF EVEN NORMAL ACTIVITIES OF TRADE AND COMMERCE, WOULD ALWAYS TAKE THE SAME VIEW ON EVERY SUBJECT.

"DIVERSITY OF THOUGHT AND APPROACH IS THE VERY GERM OF DEMOCRACY AND I KNOW WE BOTH CHERISH IT. BUT THE IMPORTANT THING THAT STANDS OUT IN BOTH THE YEARS OF WAR AND THE YEARS SINCE IS THAT ON MATTERS THAT REALLY COUNT WE HAVE BOTH SEEN AN IDENTITY OF INTERESTS. WE HAVE FOUND A COMMONLY ACCEPTABLE COURSE OF ACTION."

WEBB SAID THAT TRADE BETWEEN CANADA AND THE U.S., AMOUNTED TO $4,000,000,000 LAST YEAR AND WAS THE LARGEST VOLUME OF COMMERCIAL INTERCHANGE THAT HAD EVER OCCURRED AT ANY TIME BETWEEN TWO NATIONS.

"WE HAVE LEARNED IN TIMES OF INTERNATIONAL CRISIS TO RELY HEAVILY ON EACH OTHER AND TO DEPEND ON EACH OTHER'S AID," HE SAID.

"WE IN THE UNITED STATES HAVE WATCHED WITH ADMIRATION CANADA'S TREMNDOUS INCREASE IN WEALTH AND INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH AND THE LARGE STATURE WHICH CANADA HAS GAINED AND MERITED IN THE UNITED NATIONS, IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION, AND IN FACT EVERY INTERNATIONAL FORUM. WE LOOK TO CANADA NOT ONLY AS A POWERFUL FRIEND AND ALLY, BUT WE RECOGNIZE HER AS A FORCE TO BE RESPECTED, A NATION OF INDEPENDENT IDEAL, AND INTERNATIONAL INTERESTS WHICH ARE CONSTANTLY EXPANDING."

NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR-SHERMAN
BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN DISCLOSED TODAY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WERE SO GRAVELY CONCERNED OVER THE KOREAN WAR SITUATION EARLY LAST DECEMBER THAT THEY ORDERED GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR TO GET HIS FORCES READY FOR A POSSIBLE WORLD WAR.

THIS ORDER WENT OUT. HE SAID. AFTER THE JOINT CHIEFS WERE TOLD THAT MACARTHUR FELT THE UNITED NATIONS SHOULD ACCEPT AN ARMISTICE "ON THE BEST TERMS AVAILABLE" AND THE ARMY WOULD HAVE TO QUIT KOREA UNLESS THE WAR COULD BE CARRIED AGAINST RED CHINA.

THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS GAVE THIS TESTIMONY TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN THEIR INQUIRY INTO THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL.

IT WAS THE FIRST REVELATION BY ANY OF THE TOP-RANKING MILITARY CHIEFS THAT THE WINTER RETREAT OF THE ALLIED FORCES HAD HELD THE PERIL OF WORLD WAR THREE--OR THAT MACARTHUR HAD SUGGESTED AN ARMISTICE.

THIS PERIOD OF DEEP GLOOM CAME TEN DAYS AFTER THE START OF THE GREAT ALLIED RETREAT BEFORE THE RED CHINESE' FIRST BIG OFFENSIVE.

SENATORS ENDED THEIR QUESTIONING OF SHERMAN SHORTLY AFTER NOON AND CLEARED THE WAY FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TO START HIS TESTIMONY TOMORROW (9 A.M., EST).

ACHESON IS EXPECTED TO BE ON THE WITNESS STAND FOR SEVERAL DAYS ANSWERING QUESTIONS BY REPUBLICAN LAWMAKERS WHO HAVE MADE HIM THEIR PRIME TARGET IN CRITICISM OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EAST POLICY.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP SAID THE COMMITTEES WILL BE FORCED TO HOLD BOTH DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS NEXT WEEK TO SPEED UP THE HEARING WHICH NOW HAS CONSUMED 23 DAYS.

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE), SHERMAN DECLARED: "THE PENTAGON FELT EARLY LAST DECEMBER THAT THE KOREAN CONFLICT MIGHT EXPLODE THEN INTO A WORLD WAR."

HE SAID THAT ON DEC. 6--JUST NINE DAYS AFTER THE U.N. RETREAT BEGAN --THE JOINT CHIEFS SENT MACARTHUR A MESSAGE WARNING HIM THE SITUATION "GREATLY INCREASED THE POSSIBILITY OF A GENERAL WAR." IN THIS TENSE PERIOD, HE ADDED, THE U.S. MEDITERRANEAN FLEET "GOT UNDERWAY AND WENT TO SEA."

AT THE SAME TIME, HE SAID, THE JOINT CHIEFS TOLD MACARTHUR AND OTHER U.N. COMMANDERS TO "INCREASE THEIR READINESS WITHOUT CREATING AN ATMOSPHERE OF ALARM."

THIS MESSAGE WAS SENT, SHERMAN ADDED, FOUR DAYS AFTER ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF J.LAWTON COLLINS GAVE A REPORT ON MACARTHUR'S VIEWS FROM TOKYO CONCERNING A POSSIBLE ARMISTICE. HE SAID COLLINS MESSAGED: "GENERAL MACARTHUR FEELS BEST SOLUTION WOULD BE TO ARRANGE ARMISTICE ON BEST TERMS AVAILABLE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."

MAY 31 1951

MORSE BROUGHT OUT THAT COLLINS, ON HIS RETURN TO WASHINGTON FROM TOKYO, REPORTED MACARTHUR FELT THAT BANS ON BOMBING MANCHURIA, ON A NAVAL BLOCKADE, AND ON THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS IN KOREA WOULD "REPRESENT ESSENTIALLY A SURRENDER."

COLLINS REPORTED MACARTHUR ALSO FELT THAT UNDER THESE WRAPS "OUR FORCES WOULD HAVE TO BE WITHDRAWN FROM KOREA BUT WE SHOULD NOT BE PRECIPITATE IN SEEKING AN ARMISTICE, SINCE CINCFE (MACARTHUR) AGREED WITH HIS FIELD COMMANDERS THAT THE EIGHTH ARMY AND THE 10TH CORPS COULD BE SAFELY WITHDRAWN, WITH OR WITHOUT AN ARMISTICE, FROM PUSAN AND HUNGNAM."

IN HIS TESTIMONY, SHERMAN QUALIFIED HIS CALL YESTERDAY FOR A TIGHT U.N. ECONOMIC AND NAVAL BLOCKADE OF RED CHINA AND SEIZURE OF SHIPS AT SEA CARRYING CONTRABAND WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST SEA PORTS.

HE SAID HE FELT SUCH A STEP SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN IMMEDIATELY WHILE THERE IS A CHANCE THAT ECONOMIC SANCTIONS BY U.N. MEMBERS WOULD EFFECTIVELY SHUT OFF WAR GOODS GOING TO RED CHINA.

AND AT ONE POINT SHERMAN LASHED OUT AT STATEMENTS MADE BY MACARTHUR'S AIDE AND SPOKESMAN, MAJOR GEN.COURTNEY WHITNEY. HE CALLED SOME OF THEM "UNWARRANTED" AND "UNJUSTIFIED."

SENATOR SPARKMAN (D-ALA) REFERRED TO A STATEMENT BY WHITNEY THAT MACARTHUR DID NOT KNOW UNTIL JAN. 13 THAT HE WAS EXPECTED TO HOLD ON IN KOREA. AND HE QUOTED WHITNEY AS SAYING "MACARTHUR AND HIS COMMAND HAD BEEN LED TO BELIEVE THE ADMINISTRATION WANTED TO EVACUATE THE EIGHTH ARMY FROM KOREA, PRETENDING THE ENEMY FORCED AN EVACUATION WHICH WOULD BE USED AS AN INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL WEAPON."

30.24- 23583

SHERMAN DECLARED: "I THINK THAT IS AN UNWARRANTED ACCUSATION AGAINST THE RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITIES IN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

SPARKMAN: "THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF NEVER DID ADVOCATE AN EVACUATION ON THE PRETENSE THAT THE ENEMY HAD PUSHED US OUT, DID THEY?"

SHERMAN: "SO FAR AS I KNOW, EVERY ACTION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF X X X HAVE BEEN MADE ON THE BASIS OF WHAT WE BELIEVED WAS FOR THE GOOD OF OUR COUNTRY."

SPARKMAN ASKED IF THE JOINT CHIEFS WANTED "TO MAKE THE EIGHTH ARMY A SCAPEGOAT" AS WHITNEY HAS SUGGESTED.

"NO, INDEED," SHERMAN REPLIED.

THERE HAS BEEN SOME DISPUTE IN THE HEARING OVER WHO MADE THE FIRST "GLOOMY" REPORT ABOUT A POSSIBLE EVACUATION OF KOREA--THE JOINT CHIEFS OR MACARTHUR.

MAY 31 1951

A4WX

ON THIS SUBJECT, SHERMAN SAID:

"NO PARTICULAR CREDIT OR DISCREDIT (IS) INVOLVED IN WHO TALKS ABOUT EVACUATION FIRST BECAUSE I BELIEVE THAT EVERY THINKING MILITARY MAN WHO WAS FOLLOWING THE COURSE OF THAT CAMPAIGN MUST HAVE GIVEN SOME THOUGHT TO IT."

THEN HE DISCLOSED THAT THE NAVAL COMMANDER IN THE FAR EAST AT THAT TIME QUIETLY BEGAN GATHERING HIS SHIPS TO BE IN READINESS FOR A POSSIBLE EVACUATION.

SHERMAN STATED HE WAS PROUD OF THE FORESIGHT SHOWN IN THIS CASE.

"I THINK THAT A COMMANDER WOULD BE NEGLIGENT IF HE DIDN'T HAVE SOMEONE, SOME PART OF HIS PLANNING STAFF, CONSIDERING HOW HE WOULD GO ABOUT IT (EVACUATION) IF HE WERE FORCED TO IT."

SHERMAN EMPHASIZED THAT HE STILL HAS A HIGH REGARD FOR MACARTHUR'S MILITARY ABILITY, ADDING: "I WOULD SAY THAT HE WAS IN THE FOREFRONT AMONG THE STRATEGISTS WITH RESPECT TO THE COORDINATED USE OF LAND, SEA AND AIR POWER."

MORSE REFERRED AGAIN TO COLLINS' DEC. 4 MESSAGE FROM TOKYO AND ASKED IF IT DID NOT INDICATE "A RATHER PERSISTENT POSITION" BY MACARTHUR THAT THE DANGER OF EVACUATION WOULD BE INCREASED IF HIS WAR PROGRAM WAS NOT ADOPTED.

SHERMAN SAID: "I THINK THAT IS PART OF THE BROAD PICTURE ONE GETS FROM A RE-EXAMINATION OF ALL THE DISPATCHES."

HE AGREED WITH MORSE THAT THE MESSAGE APPARENTLY LEFT NO DOUBT THERE WOULD BE AN EVACUATION "UNLESS HE GOT THE NECESSARY REINFORCEMENTS."

THEN HE TOLD OF A MEETING, APPARENTLY IN TOKYO, LAST DEC. 12 ATTENDED BY THE PACIFIC FLEET COMMANDER AT WHICH THERE WAS A THOROUGH DISCUSSION OF THE MILITARY SITUATION.

"I BELIEVE," SHERMAN SAID, "GENERAL MACARTHUR'S CHIEF OF STAFF FELT VERY STRONGLY ABOUT IT---THAT THEY WOULD HAVE TO FACE UP TO IT, THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS COULD DRIVE THEM OUT."

TURNING TO THE BEGINNING OF THE KOREAN WAR, SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) ASKED SHERMAN HIS ATTITUDE LAST JUNE TOWARD SENDING U.S. GROUND TROOPS INTO KOREA.

"THE DECISION HAD BEEN TAKEN ON THE RECOMMENDATION OF GENERAL MACARTHUR WHO WAS ON THE SPOT," SHERMAN SAID. "I HAD SOME APPREHENSION ABOUT IT, BUT IN THE FOLLOWING DAYS I FELT THAT THE DECISION WAS A SOUND ONE, IT WAS UNAVOIDABLE.

"BUT I WAS FULLY AWARE OF THE HAZARDS OF FIGHTING ASIATICS ON THE ASIATIC MAINLAND, WHICH IS SOMETHING THAT I AS A NAVAL OFFICER HAD GROWN UP TO BELIEVE SHOULD BE AVOIDED IF POSSIBLE."

HE SAID AT THAT TIME HE FELT "SOONER OR LATER WE SHOULD GET OUT OF THE BUSINESS OF FIGHTING ON THE ASIATIC MAINLAND."

HE ADDED: "AND IT WAS PERFECTLY OBVIOUS THAT IF WE WERE NOT GOING TO DRAIN OFF A GOOD MANY RESOURCES IN THE FAR EAST, WE WOULD HAVE TO FIND WAYS AND MEANS OF TERMINATING THAT TYPE OF OPERATION, WHICH--- IF INTERVENTION TOOK PLACE FROM EITHER RUSSIA OR CHINA---COULD GET TO BE A LONG PROCESS, ABSORBING A GREAT DEAL OF OUR MILITARY POTENTIAL."

A47WX

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) NOTED THAT ON APRIL 5 THE JOINT CHIEFS WERE CALLED TOGETHER TO TALK ABOUT A POSSIBLE MACARTHUR OUSTER---AND AT THE SAME TIME THEY CALLED FOR A STUDY OF "THE POLICIES AND OBJECTIVES OF OUR ALLIES TOWARD KOREA SPECIFICALLY, AND THE FAR EAST IN GENERAL; AND ALSO TO DISCOVER THE DEGREE AND NATURE OF SUPPORT WHICH WE COULD EXPECT FROM THEM UNDER CERTAIN CONTINGENCIES."

KNOWLAND SAID "THERE IS A GREAT COINCIDENCE, STRANGE COINCIDENCE, AND MAYBE IT IS ONLY A COINCIDENCE" (IN BOTH SITUATIONS HAPPENING THE SAME DAY).

KNOWLAND WONDERED WHETHER OTHER NATIONS HAD SENT WORD THEY FEARED AN ARMISTICE MOVE IN KOREA WOULD BE DENOUNCED BY MACARTHUR AS "APPEASEMENT".

SHERMAN REPLIED IT WAS A ROUTINE STOCK TAKING "AS WE HAD DONE MANY TIMES".

DISCUSSING THE CHANCES OF WAR WITH RUSSIA, SHERMAN SAID HE IS NOT CONVINCED THE RUSSIANS WANT A GENERAL WAR.

"I AM NOT CONVINCED THAT THEY DO NOT SEE A WAY TO ACHIEVE DOMINATION WITHOUT GENERAL WAR," HE ADDED. EARLIER HE HELD OUT THE HOPE THAT INCREASED AMERICAN MILITARY POWER MAY EVENTUALLY FORCE THE KREMLIN TO CALL A HALT IN THE KOREAN FIGHTING.

SHERMAN ALSO HAS SAID HE BELIEVES THE RUSSIANS KNOW THEY WOULD BE DEFEATED IF THEY GOT INTO A WAR WITH THE UNITED STATES.

SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME) COMPLIMENTED SHERMAN FOR PUTTING "EMPHASIS ON THE FACT THAT WE DO NOT NEED TO BE ENTIRELY AFRAID."

"I HAVE FELT," BREWSTER SAID, "AS THOUGH THAT NOTE (OF FEAR) HAD BEEN RECURRING A LITTLE TOO OFTEN. TO HEAR THE ADMIRAL EXPRESS CONFIDENCE THAT AMERICA DOES STILL POSSESS POWER AND CAN EXERCISE IT, I THINK, IS REASSURING TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

"I AGREE WITH YOU," SENATOR RUSSELL SAID.

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-ADM.FORREST SHERMAN SAID TODAY THE NAVY WILL HAVE BY THE END OF THIS YEAR CARRIER-BASED JET PLANES SURPASSING IN SPEED AND CLIMB THE RUSSIAN BUILT MIG-15S.

SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, MADE THE STATEMENT TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES DURING HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

THE COMMITTEES WERE TOLD EARLIER THIS WEEK BY GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG, AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF, THAT THE JET ENGINES IN THE MIG-15S USED BY THE COMMUNISTS IN KOREA ARE SUPERIOR TO ANYTHING THE UNITED STATES HAS.

AT TODAY'S SESSION, SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) ASKED SHERMAN WHETHER THE NAVY'S JET ENGINES ARE COMPARABLE TO THE RUSSIAN JET ENGINES.

SHERMAN REPLIED:

"I DO KNOW THAT THE FIGHTER THAT THEY (THE RUSSIANS) HAVE IN PRODUCTION, AND IN SERVICE, THE MIG 15, HAS A BETTER PERFORMANCE IN SO FAR AS SPEED AND RATE OF CLIMB IS CONCERNED, THAN THE JETS THAT WE HAVE IN SERVICE IN OUR AIRCRAFT CARRIERS.

"ON THE OTHER HAND, WE WILL GREATLY SURPASS THOSE TWO QUALITIES IN THE NEW TYPES THAT WILL BE GOING INTO SERVICE AT THE END OF THIS YEAR.

"AND OURS, AS OF NOW, HAVE BETTER GUN PLATFORMS, HAVE GREATER RANGE AND GREATER COMBAT EFFECTIVENESS, AS SHOWN BY THE FACT THAT OUR CARRIER JETS ARE CREDITED WITH DESTROYING THREEH

WASHINGTON, MAY 31-(AP)-ALTHOUGH IT IS A HUSH-HUSH PROJECT, THE UNITED STATES IS TRYING TO DEVELOP NEW POLITICAL WEAPONS TO STRIKE DIRECTLY AT THE SOURCES OF SOVIET POWER AMONG PEOPLES BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN.

THE LATEST ASSERTION THAT THIS LINE OF ATTACK OFFERS A WAY FOR THE FREE WORLD TO SEIZE THE INITIATIVE IN THE CONFLICT WITH COMMUNISM -- AND HOLDS THE KEY TO EVENTUAL VICTORY WITHOUT GLOBAL WAR -- COMES FROM JOHN FOSTER DULLES, REPUBLICAN FOREIGN POLICY ADVISER.

DULLES TOLD A UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA COMMENCEMENT AUDIENCE AT TUCSON LAST NIGHT THAT "DESPOTIC SOCIETIES X X X SEEM HARD AND INVULNERABLE; IN REALITY. THEIR INNER LIFE IS CORRUPTED BY THE EXCESSIVE POWER OF A FEW, BY FEAR AND JEALOUSY, AND BY THE STIFLING OF INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE AND RESPONSIBILITY."

DULLES, ONE OF SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S TOP ADVISERS, SAID IT MAYY APPEAR RUSSIA'S LEADERS HAVE THE CAPACITY TO CARRY ON THE PRESENT STATE OF HALF-WAR INDEFINITELY. ACTUALLY, HE SAID, HE IS CONFIDENT THEIR ABILITY TO DO SO COULD "QUICKLY BE DISINTEGRATED BY SKILLFULLY APPLIED PRESSURES."

A SOMEWHAT SIMILAR VIEW WAS EXPRESSED LAST WEEK BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN HIS FOREIGN AID MESSAGE TO CONGRESS. MR. TRUMAN PICTURED THE ULTIMATE COLLAPSE OF COMMUNIST POWER UNDER INCREASING ECONOMIC, POLITICAL AND DEFENSIVE FORCES OF THE FREE NATIONS.

OFFICIALS HERE ARE EXTREMELY RELUCTANT TO TALK ABOUT MEASURES WHICH ARE BEING OR MAY BE TAKEN TO BRING ABOUT THE DISINTEGRATION OF SOVIET POWER OF WHICH DULLES SPOKE.

DULLES HIMSELF IS KNOWN TO FEEL THE FREE NATIONS NEED A SORT OF COUNTERPART OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST PARTY -- THAT IS, SOME INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL MOVEMENT TO WORK IN THEIR INTEREST AND PROMOTE THEIR CAUSE.

HOW SUCH AN AGENCY MIGHT BE CREATED, OR WHETHER THE SAME PURPOSE COULD BE ACHIEVED BY CLOSER ORGANIZATION OF ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCES IN THE FREE NATIONS AND THEIR UNDERGROUND AFFILIATES APPARENTLY IS STILL AN OPEN QUESTION.

EXAMPLES OF OPERATIONS ALREADY UNDER WAY WITH THE GENERAL AIM OF EXPLOITING THE INTERNAL WEAKNESSES AND TENSIONS OF COMMUNISM INCLUDE:

A35WX

1. THE "VOICE OF AMERICA" RADIO BROADCASTS OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHICH THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN ATTEMPTING TO JAM FOR MORE THAN A YEAR. THE GOAL OF THESE BROADCASTS IS TO TELL THE RUSSIANS AND PEOPLES UNDER RED RULE IN EASTERN EUROPE AND THE FAR EAST THE TRUTH NOT ONLY ABOUT THE OUTSIDE WORLD BUT ALSO ABOUT THEIR OWN COUNTRIES.

2. SOMEWHAT LESS WELL KNOWN BUT REPORTEDLY OCCURRING ON A LARGE SCALE IS THE DEFECTION OF PEOPLE FROM COUNTRIES BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN. THEY HAVE BEEN ESCAPING TO WESTERN GERMANY IN LARGE NUMBERS FOR SEVERAL YEARS; THE U.S. GOVERNMENT EVIDENTLY IS DOING EVERYTHING IT REASONABLY CAN TO FACILITATE THEIR ESCAPE. THEIR DESIRE TO JUMP THE FENCE IS REGARDED AS PROOF OF DISSATISFACTION WITH COMMUNIST RULE.

3. IN THE FAR EAST, THE U.S. IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE ENCOURAGED OR DIRECTLY ASSISTED GUERILLA MOVEMENTS ON THE CHINESE MAINLAND. MONTHS AGO AN AID AGREEMENT BETWEEN THIS GOVERNMENT AND CHINESE NATIONALIST LEADER CHIANG KAI SHEK WAS QUIETLY REVISED TO EASE THE RELEASE BY CHIANG OF GUERILLA LEADERS INSIDE RED CHINA. IN ADDITION, IT WOULD NOT SURPRISE MANY OBSERVERS IF AMERICAN DOLLARS AND TECHNICAL ADVICE SHOULD FIND THEIR WAY INTO THE STILL DISORGANIZED BUT INTENSE RESISTANCE WHICH EXISTS IN SOME AREAS OF THE CHINESE MAINLAND.

DULLES SAID IN HIS SPEECH THAT "WE MUST NOT AND WILL NOT TAKE THE MILITARY OFFENSIVE OF GENERAL WAR, IN WHICH THERE COULD BE NO VICTORY FOR ANYONE."

"BUT THERE ARE MANY OTHER TYPES OF OFFENSIVE," HE SAID. "ATOM BOMBS HAVE, NO DOUBT, A DETERRENT POWER. BUT THE CAUSE OF HUMAN LIBERTY CAN FIND POSITIVE EXPRESSION WITHOUT THEIR USE.

"OUR DYNAMIC FAITH IN FREEDOM HAS ALWAYS BEEN THE NEMESIS OF DESPOTS. THEREFORE, LET US NOT BE SATISFIED WITH PLANS WHICH REFLECT MERELY A DEFENSIVE MOOD."

NIGHT LEAD EVANS

BY ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-AN INTENSE YOUNG MARYLANDER STRIPPED OF HIS NAVY COMMISSION FOR BRANDING THE TRUMAN FOREIGN POLICY "PRO-RED" SAID TODAY HIS VIEWS ARE SHARED BY "AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY" OF AMERICAN FIGHTING MEN IN THE FAR EAST.

WILLIAM H.EVANS,JR., A LIEUTENANT (J.G.) UNTIL DAY BEFORE YESTERDAY, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE MOST OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN AGREE WITH HIM THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS "THE ENEMY BEHIND THE ENEMY" AND THAT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S WIN-THE-WAR PROGRAM SHOULD BE FOLLOWED.

A NAVY STATEMENT MADE PUBLIC TODAY, GAVE A DIFFERENT VIEW. IT SAID A NAVAL BOARD HAD FOUND THAT OFFICERS AND MEN ON EVANS' OWN SHIP "DID NOT CONFIRM NOR WERE THEY AFFECTED BY HIS VIEWS."

"MORALE ON THE SHIP WAS FOUND TO BE GOOD," THE INQUIRY BOARD SAID.

EVANS,27, WAS PLUCKED OFF THE DESTROYER ROGERS IN KOREAN WATERS LAST MONTH, AND WAS DISCHARGED LAST TUESDAY, AFTER WRITING AN OPEN LETTER BLASTING WHAT HE CALLED "THAT PRO-SOVIET, ONE-WORLD ADMINISTRATION OF OURS AND OUR SENILE, IGNORANT CONGRESS."

THE LETTER REFERRED TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AS "RED DEAN" AND DENOUNCED THE YALTA AGREEMENT MADE BY "THE INSANE OR COMMUNIST ROOSEVELT (ALGER HISS)." IT STRONGLY FAVORED THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS, AS PROPOSED BY MACARTHUR.

EVANS' DISMISSAL CAME TO LIGHT YESTERDAY IN TESTIMONY BY ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, BEFORE SENATORS INVESTIGATING MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.

SHERMAN SAID HE DID NOT BELIEVE EVANS' SENTIMENTS WERE SHARED BY MANY MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES IN THE PACIFIC. THE ADMIRAL SAID A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION SHOWED THEY ARE NOT SHARED BY EVANS' SHIPMATES.

THE NAVY SAID IN A STATEMENT TODAY THAT EVANS "WAS AFFORDED EVERY HEARING PROVIDED BY LAW."

THE ORDER REVOKING THE COMMISSION OF THE BOYISH-APPEARING ANNAPOLIS GRADUATE SAID HIS "HIGHLY INTEMPERATE CRITICISM" OF FOREIGN POLICY AND ITS MAKERS TENDED TO "PROMOTE DISUNITY AND DISAFFECTION AMONG OTHER PERSONS IN AND OUTSIDE THE ARMED FORCES."

EVANS WROTE HIS LETTER MARCH 16 TO ALFRED KOHLBERG, CHAIRMAN OF THE AMERICAN-CHINA POLICY ASSOCIATION, NEW YORK, AND INVITED KOHLBERG TO MAKE IT PUBLIC. KOHLBERG IS A LONGTIME CRITIC OF U.S. FOREIGN POLICY. HE SAYS HE HAS SUPPLIED SOME OF THE MATERIAL FOR COMMUNISM-IN-GOVERNMENT CHARGES MADE BY SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WISC).

A203WX
KOHLBERG TOLD NEWSMEN TODAY HE WAS SORRY THAT, BY DISTRIBUTING COPIES OF EVANS' LETTER, HE HAD GOT THE YOUNG MAN IN TROUBLE WITH THE NAVY. "I FEEL ALSO," HE SAID, "THAT MAYBE THE MEN SERVING IN THE ORIENT HAVE A RIGHT TO SAY SOMETHING, JUST AS GENERAL MACARTHUR FELT THAT HE DID."

EVANS, MEETING REPORTERS IN KOHLBERG'S HOTEL SUITE, SAID HE HAD SHOWN THE LETTER TO AT LEAST 200 MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES IN THE ORIENT AND THAT THE GREAT MAJORITY ASSURED HIM HE WAS RIGHT.

HE SAID ONE ENLISTED MAN TOLD HIM: "MR.EVANS, I WANT TO SHAKE YOUR HAND. WHAT YOU SAID GOES DOUBLE FOR ALL OF US."

THE NAVY SAID EVANS VIOLATED A DIRECTIVE REQUIRING ADVANCE CLEARANCE OF STATEMENTS CONCERNING FOREIGN POLICY. EVANS SAID HE NEVER SAW THIS DIRECTIVE UNTIL THE LETTER HAD BEEN WRITTEN AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS HAD BEEN STARTED AGAINST HIM.

HE SAID HE WAS "WELL TREATED" THROUGHOUT THESE PROCEEDINGS UNTIL SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS PERSONALLY DRESSED HIM DOWN IN "A RATHER HOT INTERVIEW" AND ASKED IF HE DIDN'T HAVE LOYALTY TO THE PRESIDENT.

"I TOOK THE POSITION," EVANS SAID, "THAT MY OATH REQUIRED ME TO DEFEND MY COUNTRY AGAINST ALL ENEMIES, AND I FELT IT WAS MY DUTY TO WRITE THAT LETTER."

EVANS WAS GRADUATED FROM THE U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY IN 1948. HE RESIGNED HIS COMMISSION THE FOLLOWING YEAR, BECAME A GRADUATE STUDENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, AND VOLUNTEERED FOR A COMMISSION IN THE NAVAL RESERVE IN FEBRUARY OF THIS YEAR. HIS HOME IS IN EDGEWATER, MD.

HIS CLASS YEARBOOK AT ANNAPOLIS SAID OF EVANS: "GOLD BRAID NEVER PHASES HIM."

CHICAGO, MAY 30-(AP)-THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE SAID TONIGHT IN A SPECIAL DISPATCH FROM WASHINGTON THAT THE FOLLOWING LETTER WAS WRITTEN BY LT. (JG) W.A.EVANS, AND THAT EVANS WAS FIRED FROM THE NAVY FOR WRITING IT:

"MARCH 16, 1951, FIGHTING ZONE, EAST COAST OF NORTH KOREA: KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK. I JUST RECEIVED YOUR QUESTIONS TO--DEAN ACHESON. I POST YOUR OPEN LETTERS FOR ALL THE OFFICERS ON THE SHIP TO READ, AND THEY FEEL THE SAME WAY AS I DO.

"NOW THAT THE TIME FOR A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY IS NEARING, FOR THE LOVE OF GOD, LET'S KEEP OUR PRO-COMMUNIST AND PRO-SOVIET STATE DEPARTMENT FROM AGAIN PUTTING THE INTERESTS OF SOCIET RUSSIA OR THE PRO-SOVIET UNITED NATIONS ABOVE THE WELFARE OF THE UNITED STATES.

"I GREATLY FEAR THAT THE --DEAN ACHESON CLIQUE WILL ALLOW SOVIET RUSSIA TO RETAIN SOUTHERN SAKHALIN AND THE KURILE ISLANDS BECAUSE THE--OR--ROOSEVELT (ALGER HISS) GAVE THEM TO RUSSIA. TO HELL WITH THE YALTA BETRAYAL. THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY SHOULD BE SIGNED ON AMERICAN TERMS, AS WE DID DEFEAT JAPAN BY OURSELVES.

"HERE IS THE ESSENCE OF A SENSIBLE AND PRO-AMERICAN JAPANESE PEACE TREATY:

"1. JAPAN STILL OWNS KURILE ISLANDS.

"2. SOUTHERN SAKHALIN TO BE RETURNED TO JAPAN . (EVENTUALLY ALL OF SAKHALIN WHEN THE OPPORTUNITY PRESENTS ITSELF.)

3. NO REPARATIONS FROM JAPAN TO ANYONE (BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES WILL HAVE TO FOOT THE BILL, AS USUAL.)

"4. A FULLY REARMED AND INDUSTRIALIZED JAPAN IN ALLIANCE WITH THE UNITED STATES TO REGAIN THE BALANCE OF POWER IN THE FAR EAST.

"5. A JAPANESE NATIONALIST CHINESE, AMERICAN ALLIANCE AGAINST COMMUNISM IN ASIA.

"WE ARE OUT HERE WAITING FOR 'ACHESON'S AGRARIAN REFORMERS' TO ATTEMHT AN INVASION OF FORMOSA. NOW, INSTEAD OF ALLOWING THE NATIONALIST CHINESE AND THE 7TH FLEET TO ATTACK THE MAINLAND TO BREAK UP ANY SUCH PLANS BEFORE THEY START, WE HAVE TO FIGHT WITH BOTH HANDS TIED BEHIND OUR BACK, ONE HAND BOUND BY ACHESON AND HIS----GANG AND THE OTHER HAND BY THE PRO-SOVIET UNITED NATIONS. WHEN ARE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE GOING TO WAKE UP? WHEN IS IT TOO LATE.

"THAT PRO-SOVIET ONE WORLD ADMINISTRATION OF OURS AND OUR SENILE, IGNORNANT CONGRESS WOULD RATHER HAVE AMERICANS SLAUGHTERED THAN ATTACK RED CHINA EVERYWHERE. IN THE HISTORY OF WARFARE, WAS ANY NATION SO RESTRICTED EVEN THO IT COULD DESTROY ITS ENEMY READILY IF ITS HANDS WERE FREED?

"DAMN THE UNITED NATIONS. LONG LIVE THE UNITED STATES.

"THE ROOSEVELT-TRUMAN-ACHESON-UNITED NATIONS FOLLOWERS IN THE UNITED STATES SHOULD BE LOADED ONTO SHIPS AND USED AS SHOCK TROOPS IN KOREA, INSTEAD OF AMERICA'S BEST CITIZENS. AMERICANS ARE DYING BY THE THOUSANDS, THANKS TO THE PRO-RED ADMINISTRATION.

"IF YOU DESIRE, YOU MAY REPRODUCE ANY PORTIONS OF THIS LETTER AND SEND AN OPEN LETTER TO CONGRESS IN ANOTHER APPEAL. I WISH THAT YOU WOULD, BECAUSE IT IS NO FUN GETTING SHOT AT AND EXPOSED TO MINES WITHOUT BEING ABLE TO DESTROY THE SOURCE OF ATTACK."

NEW YORK, MAY 31-(AP)-JOHN E.PEURIFOY, UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO GREECE, LEFT TONIGHT BY PLANE FOR ATHENS AFTER HE WAS ABRUPTLY CALLED OFF THE ITALIAN LINER SATURNIA AT ITS PIER AS THE SHIP WAS PREPARING TO SAIL AT NOON.
PEURIFOY REFUSED TO REVEAL THE REASON WHY HE WAS TOLD TO FLY TO GREECE, STATING: "I AM SORRY I HAVE TO REFER ALL QUERIES TO ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE (GEORGE) MC GHEE IN WASHINGTON."
IT WAS BELIEVED PEURIFOY WAS TOLD TO FLY TO GREECE BECAUSE OF THE RESIGNATION WEDNESDAY OF THE GREEK CHIEF OF THE ARMED SERVICES, FIELD MARSHAL ALEXANDER PAPAGOS.

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-AMBASSADOR JOHN E.PEURIFOY TODAY ABANDONED HIS PLANS TO RETURN TO HIS POST AT ATHENS BY SHIP AND ARRANGED INSTEAD TO FLY BECAUSE OF A POSSIBLE POLITICAL CRISIS OVER THE RESIGNATION OF FIELD MARSHAL ALEXANDER PAPAGOS.
PAPAGOS, 68, RESIGNED AS CHIEF OF THE GREEK ARMED FORCES BECAUSE OF "ILL HEALTH." BUT NEITHER IN ATHENS NOR IN WASHINGTON WAS THIS CONSIDERED AN ADEQUATE EXPLANATION.
POLITICAL CAUSES WHICH OFFICIALS HERE SAID WERE NOT YET CLEAR WERE ASSUMED TO BE AT THE ROOT OF THE RESIGNATION.
PEURIFOY, WHO HAS BEEN HOME FOR A MONTH'S CONSULTATION, HAD BOARDED THE S.S. SATURNIA IN NEW YORK WHEN HIS PLANS WERE SUDDENLY CHANGED BY THE NEWS FROM ATHENS.
OFFICIALS SAID HIS DECISION TO FLY WAS PROMPTED BY HIS DESIRE TO BE ON THE SCENE IF THERE SHOULD BE ANY CRISIS AS A RESULT OF THE PAPAGOS RESIGNATION AND NOT BECAUSE OF ANY BELIEF THAT THERE WOULD NECESSARILY BE A CRISIS.
PAPAGOS IS REGARDED HERE AS A "NON-POLITICAL FIGURE" BECAUSE HE HAS DEVOTED HIMSELF STRICTLY TO MILITARY MATTERS AND HAS CLEARED THE GREEK ARMY OF POLITICS.
NEVERTHELESS, ABOUT TWO YEARS AGO HE WAS WIDELY REGARDED AS THE ONE MAN WHO MIGHT UNIFY ALL NON-COMMUNIST PARTIES IN GREECE. WHAT CAME TO BE KNOWN AS THE "PAPAGOS SOLUTION" FOR THE PROBLEM GREEK FACTIONALISM MADE HIM A FIGURE GREATLY RESPECTED BY SOME POLITICIANS AND FEARED BY OTHERS.
WHETHER THIS HAS ANY BEARING ON HIS RESIGNATION WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY APPARENT HERE, SINCE HE HAS NOT FIGURED IN THIS KIND OF POLITICAL PLANNING FOR MONTHS. FROM TIME TO TIME THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS THAT PAPAGOS MIGHT ENTER POLITICS. HE HAS ALWAYS DENIED IT, ACCORDING TO DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS HERE.

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-TO PROTECT SUPPLIES NEEDED IN THIS COUNTRY, GOVERNMENT CONTROLS WERE TIGHTENED TODAY ON SUGAR EXPORTS.
THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT ACTING JOINTLY WITH THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT, ORDERED EXPORTERS OF MORE THAN 135 TONS OF SUGAR TO CERTIFY THE SHIPMENT DID NOT ORIGINATE FROM DOMESTIC SUPPLIES. THIS WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE AN EXPORT LICENSE WILL BE APPROVED. ON APRIL 30 A SIMILAR ORDER WAS ISSUED BUT THEN IT APPLIED ONLY TO EXPORT SHIPMENTS OF MORE THAN 1,000 TONS. TODAY'S ACTION, OFFICIALS SAID, WAS TAKEN BECAUSE LAST MONTH'S ORDER "HAS NOT BEEN SUFFICIENTLY EFFECTIVE."
EXPORTS OF MORE THAN 135 TONS WILL BE RESTRICTED TO SUGAR IMPORTED UNDER BOND FOR REFINING AND RE-EXPORT.
AMERICAN SUGAR PRICES ARE SUBSTANTIALLY BELOW WORLD PRICES SO, OFFICIALS SAID, DOMESTICALLY REFINED SUGAR IS BEING PUSHED ON THE WORLD MARKET AT A DISCOUNT.

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-A LAST-MINUTE OBJECTION TODAY CAUSED AN OVERNIGHT DELAY IN SENATE ACTION ON THE DRAFT-UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING COMPROMISE.
SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, HAD PLANNED TO PUSH THE BILL THROUGH TO APPROVAL LATE TODAY. HOWEVER, SENATOR CASE (R-SD) OBJECTED TO VOTING IMMEDIATELY ON A MEASURE OF "SUCH FAR-REACHING SCOPE" AND RUSSELL AGREED TO WAIT UNTIL TOMORROW.
COMMITTEES REPRESENTING THE HOUSE AND SENATE AGREED ON MONDAY ON TERMS OF THE LONG-DEBATED LEGISLATION. IT WOULD EXTEND THE DRAFT LAW FOUR YEARS, LOWER THE MINIMUM DRAFT AGE TO 18 1/2 YEARS AND LAY THE FOUNDATION OF A FUTURE UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING SYSTEM.
SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SUPPORTED CASE IN HIS OBJECTION, SAYING THAT THERE WAS NO HURRY SINCE THE HOUSE COULDN'T ACT ON THE BILL UNTIL JUNE 6 OR 7.
AFTER RUSSELL SAID HE WOULD RESPECT CASE'S PROTEST, SENATOR MCFARLAND (D-ARIZ), THE DEMOCRATIC LEADER, ANNOUNCED THAT THE DRAFT-UMT MEASURE WOULD BE FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS FOR THE SENATE WHEN IT MEETS AT 11 A.M. EST TOMORROW.
DURING THE DISCUSSION, SENATOR WHERRY (R-NEB), GOP FLOOR LEADER, RAISED SOME QUESTIONS ABOUT DEFERMENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS ON THE BASIS OF APTITUDE TESTS SPONSORED BY SELECTIVE SERVICE.
WHERRY SAID HE THOUGHT LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS SHOULD HAVE FULL AUTHORITY OVER ALL DEFERMENTS.

RUSSELL AND SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX) QUICKLY AGREED AND SAID THAT IS EXACTLY WHAT THE DRAFT ACT EXTENSION PROVIDES.

THEY SAID LOCAL BOARDS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO DEFER YOUNG MEN WHO QUALIFY UNDER THESE TESTS OR RANK HIGH IN THEIR CLASSES.

THE TESTS ARE MERELY FOR GUIDANCE OF THE LOCAL BOARDS, JOHNSON SAID, ADDING THAT THEY COULD USE THEM OR IGNORE THEM.

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-SENATOR KEFAUVER (D-TENN) SAID TODAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S WORLD PROGRAM IS MOVING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION, "BUT WE NEED A BIGGER, MORE FAR-REACHING PLAN."

KEFAUVER SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION "THE ATLANTIC UNION IS THE BEST AND MOST WORKABLE PLAN YET PRESENTED TO FOSTER THE UNITY EVERYONE AGREES IS NEEDED AMONG OUR NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIES.

"WE MIGHT NOT GET ALL WE ASKED IN A CONVENTION TO DISCUSS THE ATLANTIC UNION," HE TOLD A REPORTER, "BUT IT WOULD AT LEAST GIVE US SOMETHING TO WORK FOR AND LOOK FORWARD TO.

KEFAUVER IS THE AUTHOR OF A RESOLUTION, INTRODUCED IN JANUARY, CALLING FOR A CONFERENCE OF ATLANTIC POWERS TO MOVE TOWARD CREATION OF A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC UNION WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS.

"THERE MUST BE SOME GREATER VISION THAN THE 30-YEAR PROGRAM OF PREPARATION AND FIGHTING PROPOSED BY DEFENSE SECRETARY GEORGE C. MARSHALL," HE SAID.

"I PERSONALLY THINK GEN.MACARTHUR WAS WRONG IN HIS PROPOSALS--WRONG IN GIVING WORLD ADVICE ON A THEATER BASIS.

"MARSHALL WAS CORRECT IN HIS GLOBAL POSITION, BUT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE LIKE SOMEONE WHO HAS A PLAN AND A GOAL.

"THAT, I BELIEVE, IS THE REASON FOR MUCH OF THE ACCLAIM MACARTHUR RECEIVED.

"THE TRUMAN PLAN IS MOVING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION, BUT IT SHOULD GO FARTHER. IT DOESN'T GIVE US A DEFINITE GOAL TO WHICH WE CAN LOOK FORWARD."

KEFAUVER'S STATEMENT WAS MADE IN ANSWER TO A REPORTER'S QUESTION REGARDING A SPEECH HE MADE IN NEW YORK TWO DAYS AGO. KEFAUVER FELT SOME ACCOUNTS OF THE SPEECH LEFT THE POSSIBLE IMPLICATION THAT HE AGREED WITH MACARTHUR.

"I SAID," KEFAUVER EXPLAINED, "THE ADMINISTRATION 'HAD NO VISION, NO STAR TO HITCH OUR WAGON TO,' BUT I DID NOT SAY THE TRUMAN PROGRAM WAS WRONG--ONLY THAT IT PROVIDES NO ULTIMATE GOAL.

"THE DIFFERENCE IS THAT MACARTHUR PRESENTED A CONCRETE PROGRAM OF ACTION, SUCH AS IT WAS."

BRADLEY
BY ELTON C. FAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON, MAY 31-(AP)-GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF CHAIRMAN, WILL PERSONALLY POLL OPINIONS AND INTENTIONS AMONG THE TOP MILITARY LEADERS IN WESTERN EUROPE ON THE TRIP HE STARTS TOMORROW. HIS POLL WILL COVER AMERICANS AND ALLIES ALIKE.

THORNY PROBLEMS HAVE DEVELOPED IN RECENT MONTHS. ALTHOUGH SOME OF THEM ARE ESSENTIALLY DIPLOMATIC, THEY ALSO HAVE SUCH STRONG MILITARY COMPLICATIONS AS TO BE OF DIRECT CONCERN TO THE PLANNING OF THE UNIFORMED CHIEFS LIKE BRADLEY.

THUS IT MAY BE ASSUMED BRADLEY WILL WANT TO KNOW HOW HIS OPPOSITES FEEL ABOUT SUCH QUESTIONS AS:

1. THE GEOGRAPHICAL EXTENSION OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION (NATO) AREA TO EMBRACE GREECE AND TURKEY.
2. THE COMMANDS OF THE NAVAL FORCES IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC AND IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.
3. THE OVERALL AND COMPLEX PROBLEMS CONNECTED WITH HUSTLING UP THE MILITARY ORGANIZATION UNDER THE NATO TREATY.
4. PROGRESS (AND DELAYS, IF ANY) IN THE OVERSEAS OPERATION OF THE UNITED STATES' PART IN THE MUTUAL DEFENSE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (MDAP).

WHAT BRADLEY LEARNS IN A BUSY TEN DAYS TRIP TO PARIS AND LONDON PROBABLY WILL INFLUENCE HEAVILY WHAT HE WILL TELL CONGRESS WHEN THE MDAP BILL COMES UP AND HELP SHAPE HIS TESTIMONY ON THE 1952 FISCAL YEAR BUDGET, COMMITTEE HEARINGS ON WHICH ARE JUST STARTING.

HE THEN WILL BE SPEAKING AGAINST THE BACKGROUND OF WHATEVER HOPES OR DISAPPOINTMENTS HE HAS FOUND FROM HIS ROUND OF TALKS WITH MILITARY CHIE
O

HE THEN WILL BE SPEAKING AGAINST THE BACKGROUND OF WHATEVER HOPES OR DISAPPOINTMENTS HE HAS FOUND FROM HIS ROUND OF TALKS WITH MILITARY CHIEFS OF BRITAIN AND FRANCE AND WITH GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, SUPREME COMMANDER OF NATO FORCES ON THE CONTINENT.

SOME SEEMINGLY UNRELATED QUESTIONS MAY HAVE DIRECT BEARING ON EACH OTHER IN THE INTRICATE EUROPEAN SITUATION--FOR INSTANCE THE GREECE-TURKEY NATO MEMBERSHIP PROPOSAL AND THE DELICATE QUESTION OF THE NATIONALITY OF THE COMMANDER OF ALLIED FORCES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

IF THE U.S.-ENDORSED IDEA OF MAKING GREECE AND TURKEY MEMBERS OF NATO SHOULD CARRY, EISENHOWER'S COMMAND MIGHT EMBRACE THE WHOLE MEDITERRANEAN RATHER THAN TERMINATE AT THE SOUTHERN SHORES OF FRANCE.

A7WX

IN THAT EVENT, THE BEHIND-SCENES MANEUVERING OF BRITAIN AND FRANCE OVER THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA COMMAND MIGHT BE SETTLED BY PUTTING THE COMMAND UNDER THE TOP LEVEL DIRECTION OF EISENHOWER'S HEADQUARTERS.

THE POLITE BUT NONETHELESS SERIOUS WRANGLE OVER WHETHER AMERICANS OR OTHERS SHOULD BE THE HIGH COMMANDERS OF THE ALLIED NAVAL FORCES IN THE MEDITERRANEAN AND NORTH ATLANTIC HAS BEEN A MAJOR FACTOR IN DELAYING COMPLETION OF PLANS FOR DEFENDING THE FLANKS AND THE SEA SUPPLY ROUTES FOR THE COMBINED EUROPEAN DEFENSE FORCE ON THE CONTINENT.

AMERICAN LEADERS HAVE NOT BEEN ADAMANT IN THIS SITUATION. BUT THERE ARE REASONS TO BELIEVE THEY ARE BECOMING IMPATIENT OVER THE PROLONGED DELAY.

MONTHS AGO -- ON THE REPORTED PROPOSAL OF FRANCE, NORWAY, THE NETHERLANDS AND PERHAPS OTHER NATIONS -- ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE TO NAME AN AMERICAN ADMIRAL, WILLIAM M. FECHTELER, TO SUPREME COMMAND IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC. UNDER THE NATO TREATY, THAT COMMAND WOULD BE SEPARATE FROM EISENHOWER'S.

PUBLICATION OF THIS DECISION PRODUCED VIGOROUS REACTION IN BRITAIN, WHERE WINSTON CHURCHILL LEVELED COMPLAINTS AT THE LABOR GOVERNMENT FOR LETTING THE SEA COMMAND SLIP FROM BRITTANIA'S FINGERS.

ALMOST IMMEDIATELY THERE CAME RUMBLINGS OF DISSATISFACTION ABOUT THE MEDITERRANEAN SET-UP. THE MEDITERRANEAN IS A CURIOUS SITUATION: BY FAR, THE WEIGHT OF SEAPOWER THERE NOW IS AMERICAN -- THE 6TH FLEET. THAT FLEET NOW IS UNDER DUAL COMMAND -- TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF IN WASHINGTON; TO EISENHOWER IN PARIS.

THE NATIONS WITH INTERESTS IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, PRIMARILY BRITAIN AND FRANCE, HAVE LET IT BE KNOWN THEY FEEL ALLIED COMMAND IN THE SEA SHOULD BE VESTED IN A NATION WITH SOMEWHAT MORE GEOGRAPHICAL INTEREST THAN THE UNITED STATES. BUT BEHIND THIS THERE IS AN INTERPLAY OF EFFORTS BETWEEN EUROPEAN NATIONS JOCKEYING FOR THE COMMAND.

ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, WENT TO EUROPE EARLY THIS YEAR TO FIND OUT WHAT HE COULD ABOUT THESE ATLANTIC-MEDITERRANEAN COMMAND DIFFICULTIES. HE APPARENTLY COUNSELED AMERICAN OFFICIAL SILENCE, AT LEAST FOR A WHILE. THAT TIME MAY BE RUNNING OUT.

BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,MAY 31-(AP)-A TOP OFFICIAL OF THE U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TOLD CONGRESS TODAY THAT IF FEDERAL WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS ARE CONTINUED FOR TWO YEARS, THE NATION'S ECONOMY WILL BE "IN A HELL OF A MESS."

HERMAN W.STEINKRAUS OF BRIDGEPORT, CONN., CHAIRMAN OF THE CHAMBER'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, ALSO CHARGED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICIES HAVE BEEN "DELIBERATELY ENCOURAGING" INFLATION. THIS BROUGHT AN OBJECTION FROM REP.BROWN (D-GA), WHO SAID THE REMARK "DOESN'T MAKE SENSE TO ME."

STEINKRAUS SCOFFED AT THE GOVERNMENT'S WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD AS A "WAGE STIMULATION BOARD," CONTENDING IT HAS SHOWN NO CAPACITY TO RESIST WAGE DEMANDS.

STEINKRAUS' BLAST CAME AS ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON MET WITH WAGE BOARD TO DISCUSS THE COMPLETE OVERHAUL OF THE PRESENT 10 PER CENT CEILING ON WAGE INCREASES.

JOHNSTON TOLD NEWMEN THE BOARD WILL ATTEMPT TO WORK OUT A POLICY WHICH WILL BE "FAIR AND EQUITABLE AND STILL HOLD THE LINE ON WAGES."

GEORGE W. TAYLOR, CHAIRMAN OF THE WAGE BOARD, NOTED THAT A MAJOR ISSUE BEFORE THE BOARD IS WHETHER TO APPROVE A FOUR-CENT HOURLY BONUS TO 1,000,000 AUTO WORKERS FOR IMPROVING PRODUCTIVITY IN THE PAST YEAR.

TAYLOR TOLD REPORTERS HE HOPES THE PEOPLE INVOLVED WILL BE "PATIENT."

MEANWHILE, THE FEDERAL CONTROLS PROGRAM CAME UNDER FIRE ON SEVERAL FRONTS:

1. PRESIDENT ROWLAND JONES, JR., OF THE AMERICAN RETAIL FEDERATION TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT BUSINESS IS "ALARMED" OVER THE ADMINISTRATION'S PROFIT-CONTROL FORMULA.

"RETAILERS BELIEVE ANY ATTEMPT BY GOVERNMENT TO LIMIT PROFITS BY AN ARBITRARY FORMULA OF CONTROLS SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED AS REVOLUTIONARY, DESTRUCTIVE AND SELF-DEFEATING," JONES SAID.

HE DENOUNCED A RULING BY ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON WHICH BARS ANY PRICE CEILING INCREASES WITHIN AN INDUSTRY IF THE PROFITS OF THE

30.24- 23589

INDUSTRY AS A WHOLE ARE ABOVE A CERTAIN LEVEL. THIS LEVEL IS: 85 PER CENT OF THE AVERAGE PROFITS THE INDUSTRY MADE IN THE THREE BEST YEARS OF THE PERIOD 1945-49.

"SUCH A FORMULA INTRODUCES A CONCEPT OF GOVERNMENT REGULATION WHICH COULD THREATEN OUR FREE ENTERPRISE SYSTEM," JONES TOLD THE SENATORS.

2. SENATOR BRICKER (R-OHIO) QUESTIONED WHETHER THE JOHNSTON FORMULA IS LEGAL. HE RECALLED THAT THE SENATE DEFEATED A SPECIFIC AMENDMENT LAST YEAR WHICH WOULD HAVE ALLOWED PROFIT REGULATION AS PART OF THE GOVERNMENT'S STABILIZATION POWERS.

3. TWO TEXAS DEMOCRATS--REPS.GOSSETT AND WALTER E.ROGERS--SPOKE OUT ON THE HOUSE FLOOR IN ATTACKING SEPARATE PHASES OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTROL POLICIES.

GOSSETT SAID HE WAS "SHOCKED AND AMAZED" TO SEE FEDERAL OFFICIALS WERE ADVOCATING THAT U.S. GOVERNMENT LICENSES BE REQUIRED FOR ALL BUSINESS CONCERNS.

MAY 31 1951

A205WX

HE SAID IT WOULD MEAN GIVING THE GOVERNMENT "UNPRECEDENTED POWER OF LIFE AND DEATH OVER AMERICAN BUSINESS."

THE PROPOSAL FOR LICENSING BUSINESS CAME FROM PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE, WHO SUGGESTED RECENTLY THAT THE LICENSE OF A BUSINESS FIRM COULD BE REVOKED IF IT WAS FOUND TO BE VIOLATING CONTROLS.

REP.ROGERS TOLD THE HOUSE THAT DISALLE'S RECENT ORDER FOR A ROLLBACK ON BEEF CATTLE PRICES HAD PRECIPITATED A "FIGHT FOR SURVIVAL" AMONG SMALL CATTLEMEN.

ROGERS BLASTED THE POWERS GRANTED TO THE ADMINISTRATION UNDER THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT AS JEOPARDIZING THE AMERICAN TRADITION OF "FREE ECONOMY AND FREE ENTERPRISE."

ACROSS THE CAPITOL, CHAIRMAN STEINKRAUS OF THE U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TOLD THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT CONGRESS SHOULD LET THE CONTROLS LAW DIE AND SUBSTITUTE AN INDIRECT PROGRAM TO COMBAT INFLATION.

BOTH THE HOUSE AND SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE ARE HEARING WITNESSES GIVE THEIR VIEWS ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST FOR A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE GOVERNMENT'S AUTHORITY TO CLAMP DOWN CONTROLS.

THE LEGISLATION, PASSED AS AN EMERGENCY MEASURE LAST YEAR, IS DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30 UNLESS CONGRESS AGREES TO EXTEND IT.

AMONG OTHER THINGS, STEINKRAUS PROPOSED PAY-AS-YOU-GO TAXATION AS A CURB TO INFLATION AND A SUBSTITUTE FOR CONTROLS.

REP.BROWN (D-GA), ACTING CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE, CALLED THAT "A LOT OF NONSENSE--ONE OF THE MOST FOOLISH SUGGESTIONS EVER MADE."

DECLARING THAT DEFENSE EXPENDITURES WOULD RUN TOO HIGH TO PAY FOR THEM OUT OF CURRENT TAXATION, BROWN TOLD STEINKRAUS:

"I WISH YOU CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOLKS WOULD GO BACK, HAVE ANOTHER MEETING, AND SEE IF YOU CAN'T HELP US OUT ON THIS (STUDY OF CONTROLS)."

BROWN ALSO TOOK STEINKRAUS TO TASK FOR ACCUSING THE ADMINISTRATION OF "DELIBERATELY ENCOURAGING" INFLATION.

"THAT JUST DOESN'T MAKE SENSE TO ME," BROWN SNAPPED.

BUT STEINKRAUS INSISTED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ECONOMIC ADVISORY COUNCIL HAS BEEN SPONSORING INFLATIONARY PROGRAMS "FOR YEARS" BY APPROVING DEFICIT (RED-INK) FINANCING BY THE GOVERNMENT.

THE CHAMBER OFFICIAL CONTENDED THAT FEDERAL PRICE CONTROLS CAN ONLY AGGRAVATE INFLATION, AND CHARGED THAT THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD IS ENCOURAGING WAGE BOOSTS RATHER THAN CONTROLLING THEM.

"BUSINESS KNOWS THAT WAGES DO NOT NEED TO BE CONTROLLED ANY MORE THAN PRICES NEED TO BE CONTROLLED," STEINKRAUS SAID.

CONTROLS

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 31-(AP)-THE U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE URGED CONGRESS TODAY TO WIPE OUT THE GOVERNMENT'S AUTHORITY TO CONTROL WAGES AND PRICES AND ADOPT IN THEIR STEAD AN INDIRECT PROGRAM TO COMBAT INFLATION.

HERMAN W. STEINKRAUS OF BRIDGEPORT, CONN., PRESIDENT OF THE CHAMBER'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SAID IN A STATEMENT PREPARED FOR THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT PRICE CONTROLS CAN ONLY AGGRAVATE THE INFLATION PROBLEM BY STIFLING PRODUCTION AND THAT THE PRESENT WAGE BOARD IS ENCOURAGING WAGE BOOSTS RATHER THAN CONTROLLING THEM.

IN ADVANCE OF HIS APPEARANCE (9 A.M. EST) BEFORE THE HOUSE COMMITTEE STEINKRAUS SAID IN ANOTHER STATEMENT "IT WAS A CHEAP TRICK ON THE PUBLIC" FOR JAMES CAREY OF THE CIO TO ACCUSE BUSINESS OF TRYING TO BRIBE ORGANIZED LABOR TO END PRICE AND WAGE CONTROLS.

CAREY, THE CIO'S SECRETARY-TREASURER, TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE YESTERDAY THAT BIG BUSINESS IN EFFECT HAS URGED UNIONS TO JOIN IN THE EFFORT TO SCUTTLE WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS AND THEN "SHARE THE LOOT." HE NAMED THE CHAMBER AND THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS.

CAREY SAID SPECIFICALLY THAT THE WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRICAL MANUFACTURING CORP. OFFERED TO GIVE ITS WORKERS A NINE CENT AN HOUR WAGE BOOST IF THE UNIONS INVOLVED WOULD HELP PERSUADE THE GOVERNMENT TO LET THE WAGE HIKE BE REFLECTED IN HIGHER PRICES FOR WESTINGHOUSE PRODUCTS.

STEINKRAUS CALLED CAREY'S TESTIMONY "INSIDIOUS" AND SAID THERE IS "ABSOLUTELY NO GROUND" FOR SAYING THE CHAMBER "PROPOSED ANY SUCH DEAL WITH ORGANIZED LABOR OR ANYBODY ELSE." STEINKRAUS ADDED: "AND JIM CAREY KNOWS THAT TO BE A FACT."

THE CHAMBER OFFICIAL, IN HIS TESTIMONY FOR THE HOUSE COMMITTEE, URGED THAT INFLATION BE CONTROLLED BY SIX STEPS: (1) MAXIMUM PRODUCTION, (2) REDUCED GOVERNMENT SPENDING, (3) PAY-AS-WE-GO TAXES CONSISTENT "WITH MAINTAINING INCENTIVES TO WORK AND PRODUCE," (4) FISCAL POLICIES TO NEUTRALIZE THE FEDERAL DEBT AS A SOURCE OF INFLATION, (5) CREDIT CURBS, AND (6) STIMULATION OF PERSONAL SAVINGS.

BOTH THE HOUSE AND SENATE BANKING COMMITTEES ARE CONSIDERING AN ADMINISTRATION REQUEST FOR EXTENSION AND TIGHTENING OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT, WHICH AUTHORIZES WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS. IT IS DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30.

STEINKRAUS SAID PRICE CONTROLS "SLOW DOWN CHANGES" AND "DIVERT MANAGERIAL, SUPERVISORY AND ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS TALENT AND TIME FROM PRODUCTION TO ATTEMPTS TO FIND OUT WHAT THE RULES AND REGULATIONS ARE AND HOW TO COMPLY WITH THEM."

MAY 31 1951

A10WX

OF WAGE CONTROLS, HE SAID THE NEW STABILIZATION BOARD HAS SHOWN NO CAPACITY TO RESIST WAGE DEMANDS. HE SAID IT PROBABLY SHOULD BE CALLED A "WAGE STIMULATION BOARD."

A DRIVE TO LIMIT THE WAGE BOARD'S AUTHORITY TO MONEY MATTERS WAS STARTED TODAY WITH THE BACKING OF REP. MCCONNELL OF PENNSYLVANIA, NO. 1 REPUBLICAN ON THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE.

UNDER THE PRESENT SET-UP, THE 18-MEMBER BOARD CAN ENTER INTO DISPUTES INVOLVING NON-ECONOMIC MATTERS, PROVIDED THE PRESIDENT DECIDES

THE DISPUTE ENDANGERS THE DEFENSE EFFORT AND BOTH SIDES AGREE TO LET THE BOARD TRY TO FIND A SETTLEMENT OF THE QUESTION.

MCCONNELL SAID THE FACT THE BOARD HAS POWER TO GO INTO SUCH NON-WAGE DISPUTES OFFERS AN INVITATION TO THE DISPUTANTS TO BY-PASS THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD AND THE FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE. HE SAID HE SAW NO REASON WHY THE BOARD'S FUNCTION COULD NOT BE LIMITED TO WAGES ALONE.

ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON WAS INVITED TO TESTIFY TODAY (9 A.M.) ON THE QUESTION.

JOHNSTON ALSO PROMISED TO SIT DOWN WITH THE WAGE BOARD, SOMETIME DURING AN ALL-DAY MEETING STARTING THIS MORNING (9 A.M., EST) AND TALK OVER THE PROBLEM OF IMMEDIATE WAGE BOOSTS AND A NEW WAGE CEILING.

THE BOARD IS CONFRONTED WITH THE PROBLEM OF WHAT TO DO ABOUT A FOUR-CENT AN HOUR WAGE HIKE DUE THE CIO UNITED AUTO WORKERS FOR INCREASED PRODUCTIVITY. UNDER THE UNION'S CONTRACT WITH GENERAL MOTORS, THE HIKE WAS DUE MAY 29, BUT IT REQUIRES BOARD APPROVAL FIRST.

MANY OTHER UNIONS HAVE SOMEWHAT SIMILAR "DEFERRED" INCREASES COMING UNDER CONTRACTS WHICH GRANTED ONE RAISE AT THE TIME OF SIGNING AND ONE OR MORE LATER.

THE WAGE BOARD IS ALSO CONSIDERING WHAT TO DO WITH ABOUT THE OVERALL WAGE CEILING OF TEN PER CENT ABOVE LEVELS OF JAN. 15, 1950. IT IS PLEDGED TO REVIEW THE WHOLE SITUATION BEFORE JUNE 30.

UNION LEADERS HAVE SERVED NOTICE THEY WILL ASK AN INCREASE, PROBABLY TO 14 OR 15 PER CENT ABOVE EARLY 1950 LEVELS.

WASHINGTON, MAY 31-(AP)-ATOMIC SCIENTIST DAVID JOSEPH BOHM WAS ACQUITTED TODAY OF CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS CHARGES.

DISTRICT JUDGE ALEXANDER HOLTZOFF RULED THAT BOHM WAS WITHIN HIS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS IN REFUSING TO ANSWER QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM BY THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES. BOHM HAD CONTENDED HIS ANSWERS MIGHT INCRIMINATE HIM.

THE 33-YEAR-OLD BOHM, WHO WORKED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA'S WARTIME RADIATION LABORATORY, WAS CALLED BEFORE THE HOUSE COMMITTEE IN MAY, 1949, DURING THE GROUP'S INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED COMMUNIST INFILTRATION AT THE LABORATORY.

AMONG QUESTIONS BOHM REFUSED TO ANSWER WAS WHETHER HE KNEW STEVE NELSON, A COMMUNIST PARTY ORGANIZER; AND WHETHER DR.JOSEPH W.WEINBERG WAS A KNOWN MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

DR.WEINBERG, KNOWN AS "SCIENTIST X", HAS FIGURED IN AN ATOMIC SPYING INVESTIGATION.

BOHM'S ACQUITTAL RAISED TO 14 THE NUMBER OF PERSONS--INCLUDING WEINBERG--FREED OF CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS CHARGES. FOUR HAVE BEEN CONVICTED AND IN ONE CASE A JURY WAS UNABLE TO AGREE.

WASHINGTON, MAY 31-(AP)-REP. KEATING (R-NY) SAYS U.S. COMMUNISTS ARE TRYING "TO SELL RED PROPAGANDA" TO THE FAMILIES OF MEN CAPTURED IN KOREA.

KEATING SAID ON A BROADCAST LAST NIGHT HE HAS LEARNED RED AGENTS ARE CONTACTING FAMILIES OF SERVICEMEN REPORTED MISSING IN ACTION AND ARRANGING FOR THEM TO RECEIVE MESSAGES FROM THEIR IMPRISONED HUSBANDS OR SONS.

"THE MESSAGE WHICH THE HUSBAND INVARIABLE SENDS, NO DOUBT UNDER SOME FORM OF DURESS," HE CONTINUED, "URGES AMERICANS TO DO THEIR BEST TO CALL OFF THE FIGHTING, OR EXPRESSES HIS OPPOSITION TO ANY POLICY OF RESISTING COMMUNIST AGGRESSION."

HE SAID BECAUSE THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS IS BARRED FROM RED CHINA, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO OBTAIN AUTHENTIC PRISONER-OF-WAR INFORMATION.

AS A COUNTER MEASURE, KEATING URGED THAT THE ARMY FURNISH TO FAMILIES ALL FRAGMENTARY AND UNOFFICIAL INFORMATION "RATHER THAN FORCE THEM TO TURN TO COMMUNIST SOURCES."

GUIDED MISSILES

BY ELTON C. FAY

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 31-(AP)-THE ARMY IS HASTENING TO CATCH UP WITH THE NAVY IN GETTING GUIDED MISSILES TO KNOCK DOWN HIGH ALTITUDE, HIGH SPEED ENEMY PLANES.

IT DISCLOSED TODAY -- THROUGH ISSUANCE OF A PICTURE AND A BRIEF CAPTION -- THAT TWO COMPANIES ARE DEVELOPING JOINTLY FOR THE ARMY ORDNANCE CORPS SOME FORM OF MISSILE. THE ARMY ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWED BY SEVERAL DAYS A NAVY STATEMENT SAYING A NAVY ANTIAIRCRAFT GUIDED MISSILE ALREADY IS IN PRODUCTION.

WORKING ON THE ARMY PROJECT ARE THE BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES AND THE DOUGLAS AIRCRAFT COMPANY. BEYOND THAT FACT, THE ARMY SAID ONLY THE WEAPON IS AN "ARMY SURFACE-TO-AIR GUIDED MISSILE."

HOWEVER, THE PHOTOGRAPH INDICATES THE MISSILE IS EITHER OF BOOSTER OR TWO-STAGE TYPE. IT APPEARS TO BE COMPOSED OF TWO PARTS -- THE TRUE MISSILE AND A BASE SECTION DESIGNED EITHER TO GET THE MISSILE STARTED FROM THE EARTH (A BOOSTER) OR TO CONTINUE PROPELLING IT HIGH ALOFT UNTIL THE ROCKET FUEL IS EXHAUSTED AND THE MISSILE'S OWN POWER PLANT STARTS (A TWO-STAGE DEVICE.) IN A TWO-STAGE MISSILE, THE FIRST STAGE SEPARATES AND FALLS OFF THE MISSILE AT THE INSTANT THE INITIAL FUEL SOURCE IS EXHAUSTED.

APPARENTLY TO PRODUCE BETTER HORIZONTAL FLIGHT, THE MISSILE IS EQUIPPED WITH SMALL DART-SHAPED FINS OR WINGS FORWARD AND LARGER CONTROL AND STABILIZING FINS AFT.

THE PICTURE GIVES NO CLUE AS TO ITS "HOMING" OR "TARGET-SEEKING" MECHANISM, ALTHOUGH IT MAY INCLUDE SOME SUCH GEAR IN VIEW OF ITS DESIGNATION AS A GUIDED MISSILE.

RUDIMENTARY FORMS OF GUIDED MISSILES DO NOT NECESSARILY INCLUDE THE AUTOMATIC DEVICES WHICH ENABLE THEM TO "HOME IN" ON A TARGET BY FOLLOWING TO THEIR SOURCE HEAT, SOUND OR OTHER WAVES. SOME GUIDED MISSILES ARE GUIDED VISUALLY OR BY RADAR FROM THE LAUNCHING SITE. BUT AT THE HIGH ALTITUDES OF MODERN BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS -- ABOVE 20,000 FEET -- TRACKING AND STEERING A MISSILE BY GROUND CONTROL WOULD BE A DIFFICULT FEAT.

IT IS NOT CLEAR WHY THE ARMY AND NAVY NEED DIFFERENT MISSILES TO HIT THE SAME TYPE OF TARGET. ONE EXPLANATION MAY BE THAT A MISSILE LAUNCHED FROM THE COMPARATIVELY UNSTABLE PLATFORM OF A SHIP MAY REQUIRE DIFFERENT CHARACTERISTICS THAN ONE FIRED FROM THE FIRM, FIXED POSITION OF A LAUNCHER MOUNTED ON THE GROUND.

(ADVANCE)...(WX)...MINNEAPOLIS, MAY 31-(AO-MOST OF THE U.S. AIR FORCE'S TACTICAL UNITS, NOW NUMBERING MORE THAN 50 GROUPS, WIL AVAILABLE TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY DEFENSE FORCE, SECRETARY THOMAS K. FINLETTER SAID TODAY.
IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING HERE, THE SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE ALSO:
1. EXPRESSED OPPOSITION TO ANY IDEA OF "FRITTERING AWAY" PARTS OF THE STRATEGIC BOMBER FORCE IN EXTENSION OF THE KOREAN WAR TO CHINA--A POSITION ALSO EXPRESSED BY THE AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF, GEN. HOYT VANDENBERG, I HIS RECENT TESTIMONY TO SENATORS INVESTIGATING GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.
2. SAID THAT DESPITE PROGRESS IN BUILDING A LONG-RANGE BOMBER FORCE AROUND THE B-36 AND STILL NEWER TYPES OF INTERNTENTAL HEAVY BOMBERS THE U.S. MUST CONTINUE TO HAVE OVEESEAD BASES FOR STRATEGIC ATTACK WITH ITS MEDIUM BOMBERS.
3. SAID "WE ARE MAKING SUBSTANSTIAL ADVANCES IN THE FILE OF GUIDED MISSLES AND OTHER METHODS OF IMPROVING OUR AIR DEFENSE SYSTEM" BUT U.S. AIR DEFENSE NOW AND "FOR THE FUTURE INSOFAR AS WE CAN PREDICT WITH REASONABLE CERTAINTY, IS INCAPABLE BY ITSELF OF GUARANTEEING US IMMUNITY FROM ENEMY ATOMIC ATTACK."
4. WARNED THAT "UNLESS OUR ESTIMATES ARE INCORRECT, THE COMMUNISTS HAVE A VERY SUBSTANTIAL TACTICAL AIR FORCE" BEING CONVERTED FROM OLD PISTON-ENGINED PLANES TO JETS.)
(A TACTICAL AIR FORCE IS COMPOSED OF LIGHT BOMBERS AND FIGHER-BOMBERS, USED TO GIVE SUPPORT TO GROUND FORCES AND TO ATTACK TARGETS CLOSE TO THE BATTLEFRONT. IT DOES NOT INCLUDE THE INTERCEPTOR FIGHTER PLANES OF THE AIR FEDEFENSE COMMAND NOR THE MEDIUM AND HEAVY BMBERS OF THE STRTEGIC AIR COMMAND, ALTHOUGH SUCH PLANES ARE SOMETIMES USED ON SPECIAL TACTICAL MISSIONS.)
"WHEN WE ARE TALKING OF TACTICAL AIR," FINLETTER SAID, "WE ARE TALKING ABOUT THE BATTLE OF EUROPE, BECAUSE OUR PRESNET PLANS CONTEMPLA THAT MOST OF THE AIR FORCE'S TACTICAL AIR WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE FORCE, UNDER THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY.
"SOME TACTICAL PLANES MAY BE USED, EVEN AFTER THE KOREAN WAR IS OVER FOR A WHILE IN OCCUPATION OR STATIONMENT IN JAPAN. BUT THE BULK WILL BE EARMARKED FOR THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA."
FINLETTER DID NOT MENTION MACARTHUR BY NAME BUT HE SPOKE OF "VARIOUS PROOSALS FOR SOMETHING LESS THA ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST CHINA." (MACARTHUR'S RECOMMENDATIONS INCLUDED BOMBING OF RED BASES IN MANCHURIA.)
"I SUGGEST EXTREME CAUTION BE USED IN EXAMINGING THESE PROPOSALS," FINLETTER SAID. "IN THE FIRST PLACE. WE MUST NOT BE MISLED BY THE IDEA THAT WE CAN GO JUST A LITTLE BIT FURTHER AND STOP EXACTLY WHERE WE WANT TO.

"IF YOU EXTEND A WAR YOU ARE APT TO REALLY EXTEND IT AND TO EXTEND IT FAR BEYOND WHERE YOU MAY WANT TO GO. THINGS OFTEN JUST GET OUT OF CONTROL."

HE ASSERTED ALSO THAT IT WOULD BE A GREAT MISTAKE "TO PERMIT NIBBLING AT THE STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND" EVEN FOR USE IN THE FAR EAST UNLESS COMPELLED TO DO SO. FINLETTER SAID:

"THS, I BELIEVE, IS THE ONE COMMAND ABOVE ALL THAT MUST BE KEPT AS A UNIT AND MUST NOT HEAVE ITS RESOURCES FRITTERED AWY IN SECONDARY OPERATIONS. IT MUST AT ALL TIMES BE A FORCE-IN-BEING, READY TO GO AS A UNIT THE MOMENT ANY ENEMY SHOULD TAKE IT INTO HIS HEAD TO ATTACK US OR THE FREE SOCIETY OF WHICH WE ARE A PART. SECOND NIGHT LEAD PRICE WAR (180)

NEW YORK, MAY 31-(AP)-MACY'S AND GIMBEL'S LOCKED AGAIN IN A RED-HOT PRICE-CUTTING WAR TODAY, DRAWING OTHER BIG NEW YORK STORES ALONG IN THE PENNY-FOR-PENNY BATTLE.

PRICES ON SOME NATIONALLY ADVERTISED GOODS TUMBLED AS MUCH AS 40 PER CENT.

TENS OF THOUSANDS OF GLEEFUL SHOPPERS--MOSTLY WOMEN--SURGED WILDLY THROUGH BARGAIN BASEMENTS LIKE A SUBWAY CROWD IN THE RUSH HOUR. SOME WAVED MONEY IN THEIR HANDS.

JITTERY RETAILERS ACROSS THE NATION WATCHED FOR ANY SIGN THAT THE WILD PRICE CUTTING MIGHT SPREAD. THEY FOUND NONE, SO FAR.

PRICE TAGS WERE MARKED DOWN AGAIN AND AGAIN. GIMBEL'S DISCARDED PEN AND INK AND CRUDELY RECORDED TUMBLING PRICES IN CHARCOAL TO GAIN SPEED.

TELETYPES FLASHED THE DOWNTOWN PRICES TO BRANCH STORES IN THE

'BRONX. THERE THEY WERE CALLED OUT LIKE STOCK QUOTATIONS. THEN THE BRANCHES SLASHED THEIR OWN PRICES IN LINE WITH THE PARENT STORES.
THE MAD BUYERS' PARADISE CONTINUED RIGHT UP TO 8 P.M. (EST)--THE THURSDAY NIGHT CLOSING TIME IN MOST OF THE BIG DEPARTMENT STORES.
SO EFFICIENTLY WERE THE BIG STORES GEARED FOR THE WAR THAT THEIR PRICES NEVER WERE MORE THAN A FEW CENTS APART DURING THE DAY, ALTHOUGH SOME ARTICLES WERE REDUCED HALF A DOZEN TIMES.

SMALL ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES, SUMMER WEIGHT SUITS, COSMETIC ITEMS, EST-SELLING NOVELS, SHEETS, PILLOW CASES, NYLON HOSE AND GIRDLES WERE MONG ITEMS SUBJECTED TO PRICE CUTS.
PRICES TUMBLED SO FAST THAT IN MANY CASES SALES PERSONNEL HAD O CHECK THE LATEST QUOTATION BEFORE EACH SALE.
HOUSEWARES DEPARTMENTS ESPECIALLY WERE CRAMMED WITH CUSTOMERS. T WAS "CHRISTMAS AND MORE," ONE HARRIED FLOOR OFFICIAL SAID.
IN MACY'S BASEMENT, AREAS WERE ROPED OFF AND PATRONS WERE ERDED INTO WAITING LINES TO BUY APPLIANCES. ONE-WAY TRAFFIC WAS ET UP TO PREVENT FURTHER CONFUSION.
AT TIMES AS MANY AS 100 PERSONS WERE WAITING TO HAND THEIR MONEY O AN ORDER-TAKER. THE PURCHASED ARTICLES WERE TO BE DELIVERED.
HERE ARE SOME REDUCTIONS FROM MONDAY'S PRICES THAT DREW CROWDS 'ODAY:
LEWYT VACUUM CLEANER, DOWN TO $62.39 FROM $89.95; MIXMASTER, 'O $29.64 FROM $46.50; TOASTMASTER, TO $14.72 FROM $23.00; PALM BEACH IEN'S SUITS, TO $19.38 FROM $29.95; SPRINGWEAVE SUITS, TO $30.17 'ROM $49.50.
"THESE CUTS ARE LONG OVERDUE," ONE CUSTOMER SAID. "THIS CROWD SHOWS THAT IF YOU GIVE PEOPLE THE RIGHT PRICE, THEY'LL COME OUT AND BUY."
MACY'S STARTED THE PRICE WAR TUESDAY, REDUCING NEARLY 6,000 ITEMS FORMERLY PRICE-FIXED UNDER SO-CALLED "FAIR TRADE" LAWS. ITS ACTION FOLLOWED A UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT RULING THAT STORES WHICH DID NOT SIGN FAIR TRADE AGREEMENTS COULDN'T BE REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN RETAIL PRICES SET BY MANUFACTURERS.

MAY 31 1951

A26
COMPETITORS WHO ASSERT THAT "NOBODY UNDERSELLS US" MET OR UNDERCUT THE NEW PRICES, AND THE SCRAMBLE WAS ON. AS FAST AS PRICES IN ONE STORE WERE REPORTED TO OTHERS, NEW CUTS WERE PUT IN EFFECT.
WHERE WILL IT END?
TRADE SOURCES SAID PRICES OF SOME ITEMS ALREADY HAVE REACHED PERILOUSLY CLOSE TO DEALERS' COST LEVELS. ONE DEALER POINTED OUT THAT "IF THIS THING GETS OUT OF HAND, IT'S LIKE A PIT WITH NO BOTTOM."
THUS FAR, RETAILERS ELSEWHERE ACROSS THE NATION APPARENTLY REGARD THE WAR AS A NEW YORK PHENOMENON. FEW WERE INCLINED TO START A SIMILAR PRICE TOBOGGAN IN THEIR CITIES, NOT EVEN IN NEW ORLEANS, WHICH WAS THE ORIGINAL BATTLEGROUND IN THE "FAIR TRADE" FIGHT THAT LED TO THE SUPREME COURT DECISION.
OBVIOUSLY, A HALT IN THE LOCAL PRICE WAR IS DUE SOMETIME. IF ARTICLES SHOULD BE SOLD AT A LOSS, SUCH A DEFICIT COULD NOT BE CONTINUED INDEFINITELY.
MACY'S, WORLD'S LARGEST DEPARTMENT STORE WHICH SAYS ITS POLICY IS TO SELL FOR CASH AT 6 PER CENT LESS THAN CHARGE-ACCOUNT COMPETITION, SAID THIS DIDMMOOCTKMKAVTMOOVCMM

TO SELL FOR CASH AT 6 PER CENT LESS THAN CHARGE-ACCOUNT COMPETITION, SAID THIS DID NOT APPLY TO SALES BELOW COST.
ONE TRADE GUESS AT THE FINAL LEVELING-OFF POINT IN THE PRICE WAR WAS THAT IT WOULD BE FROM 8 TO 15 PER CENT BELOW THE FORMER FIXED-PRICE LEVELS. FOR MANY ARTICLES, THIS WOULD BE WELL ABOVE TODAY'S SELLING PRICES.
BUT THIS DIDN'T WORRY THE SHOPPERS WHO JAMMED THREE-DEEP ABOUT MANY SALES COUNTERS TODAY. THEY WERE GRABBING FOR THE LOWER PRICES CURRENTLY IN EVIDENCE.
"I JUST CAME DOWN TO LOOK AROUND," SAID ONE GIRL. "BUT I'M GOING TO BUY A MIXER."
"IT'S WONDERFUL," SAID A WOMAN CUSTOMER. "IT'S GOOD FOR US AND GOOD FOR BUSINESS BECAUSE THEY'LL UNLOAD A LOT OF MERCHANDISE THAT'S BEEN SITTING AROUND THE SHELVES."
THIS POINTS UP ONE SITUATION THAT SOME TRADE SOURCES SAID COULD SET OFF PRICE CUTTING IN OTHER BIG RETAIL CENTERS. MANY STORES ARE REPORTED HOLDING HEAVY INVENTORIES OF MANUFACTURED ARTICLES. AND BUYING RECENTLY HAS NOT BEEN BRISK IN MANY LINES.

A27
BUSINESS IN HOUSEWIARES, FOR EXAMPLE, HAS BEEN REPORTED DULL IN RECENT WEEKS. BUT IT CAME TO LIFE WITH A BANG HERE TODAY UNDER THE IMPETUS OF PRICE CUTS.
ALTHOUGH THE PRICE WAR CENTERED AROUND THE 34TH STREET AREA WHERE MACY'S AND ITS BIG COMPETITOR, GIMBEL BROTHERS, HAVE THEIR PRINCIPAL STORES, OTHER LARGE STORES WERE MEETING THE NEW PRICES.
AMONG THEM WERE BLOOMINGDALE'S, A BIT FARTHER UPTOWN, AND ABRAHAM & STRAUS, ACROSS THE RIVER IN BROOKLYN.
IT WAS STILL A LIMITED WAR HERE TODAY. THE FORMER PRICE-FIXED MERCHANDISE ON WHICH NEARLY ALL THE SHOOTING CENTERED REPRESENTS ONLY A SMALL PORTION OF THE TOTAL STOCKS OF ANY STORE. BUT THE PRICE COMPETITION SPREAD OUTSIDE THAT LIMITED FIELD; NYLON HOSE WAS AN EXAMPLE OF AN ITEM WHICH HAD NOT BEEN PRICE-FIXED, BUT WHICH DREW PRICE-CUTTING TODAY.
SEVERAL OF THE STORES ENLARGED THEIR SALES STAFFS FOR THE BIG PRICE COMPETITION. AND STAFFS OF COMPARISON SHOPPERS, THE "SCOUTS" IN A PRICE WAR, ALSO WERE EXPECTED.
THESE SHOPPERS, HIRED BY ONE STORE, WATCH PRICE TRENDS IN OTHER STORES AND REPORT ANY CHANGE SO THAT THEIR EMPLOYER CAN MATCH IT.
ALTHOUGH LARGE CROWDS OF CUSTOMERS APPEARED AT THE STORES DURING THE MORNING, THERE WAS NO GREAT OPENING-HOUR RUSH.
SOME PATRONS APPARENTLY FIGURED THAT WITH PRICES DROPPING ALMOST HOURLY, A LATE COMER COULD FIND A BETTER BARGAIN THAN THE EARLY BIRD. AND THE STORES REMAINED OPEN UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK DAYLIGHT TIME TONIGHT.
BUT THERE WERE MANY WHO RUSHED TO BUY FOR FEAR STOCKS OF THE DESIRED ARTICLES WOULD BE EXHAUSTED DURING THE DAY.

NEW YORK, MAY 31-(AP)-DAVID BEN-GURION, PRIME MINISTER OF ISRAEL, SAILED FOR HOME TODAY AFTER TELLING REPORTERS THAT THE UNITED NATIONS COULD, IF IT WOULD, STOP HIS COUNTRY'S CONFLICT WITH SYRIA.

BEFORE BEN-GURION BOARDED THE BRITISH LINER, QUEEN MARY, HE HELD A NEWS CONFERENCE AT WHICH HE SAID THE CONFLICT WOULD STOP IF THE U.N. WOULD "WATCH OVER DISAGREEMENTS ON THE ARMISTICE" BETWEEN ISRAEL AND SYRIA.

"WE ARE READY ANY DAY FOR PEACE WITH THE ARABS," HE SAID. "PEACE WILL COME WHEN THE ARABS REALIZE ISRAEL CAN BE ECONOMICALLY INDEPENDENT AS WELL AS STRONG MILITARILY AND POLITICALLY."

NIGHT LEAD U. N.-KOREA

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 31-(AP)-AN AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE OFFICER SAID TODAY THERE WERE BETWEEN 60 AND 70 RUSSIAN ARMY OBSERVERS WITH NORTH KOREAN FORCES WHEN THE KOREAN WAR BEGAN LAST YEAR AND THAT THEY WERE WITHDRAWN BY THE RUSSIANS IN OCTOBER.

THE OFFICER, COL. EDWARD R. OTT, A SPECIALIST ON KOREA ATTACHED TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT AS AN ADVISOR, GAVE THESE FIGURES AT A NEWS CONFERENCE CALLED BY THE U. S. DELEGATION. THE DELEGATION MADE PUBLIC A LETTER FROM U. S. DELEGATE ERNEST A. GROSS TO THE U.N. PRESENTING WHAT THE U. S. CALLED "CONCLUSIVE PROOF" OF THE AUTHENTICITY OF TWO DOCUMENTS SHOWING THE NORTH KOREANS STARTED THE KOREAN WAR UNDER A CAREFULLY-PREPARED PLAN.

PORTER MCKEEVER, INFORMATION OFFICER OF THE DELEGATION, SAID THE DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED TO THE U. N. ON MAY 2 AND DENOUNCED BY THE NORTH KOREANS AS FORGERIES WERE CAPTURED. HE ADDED THAT THE ARMY IS CAPTURING A LOT OF SIMILAR MATERIAL AND IT IS BEING EXAMINED THOROUGHLY.

THE NORTH KOREANS SAID IN A STATEMENT TO THE U. N. THAT THE DOCUMENTS WERE FORGED.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 31-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES TODAY SENT TO THE UNITED NATIONS WHAT IT CALLED "CONCLUSIVE PROOF" AS TO THE AUTHENTICITY OF TWO DOCUMENTS SHOWING THE NORTH KOREANS STARTED THE KOREAN CONFLICT ACCORDING TO A CAREFULLY PREPARED PLAN.

THE EVIDENCE WAS SUBMITTED BY ERNEST A.GROSS, DEPUTY CHIEF OF THE U.S. DELEGATION, IN REPLY TO NORTH KOREAN CHARGES THAT THE DOCUMENTS CIRCULATED HERE EARLIER THIS MONTH BY THE UNITED STATES WERE FORGERIES

THE TWO MAJOR POINTS OFFERED BY THE NORTH KOREANS TO PROVE THE ALLEGED FORGERY WERE THAT THE DOCUMENTS USED JAPANESE PLACE NAMES INSTEAD OF KOREAN NAMES AND THAT THEY REFERRED TO THE "NORTH KOREAN ARMY INSTEAD OF THE "KOREAN PEOPLE'S ARMY."

GROSS SENT THE SECURITY COUNCIL AN ANALYSIS OF THE NORTH KOREAN CHARGES, EXPLAINING THAT THE USE OF THE PHRASE NORTH KOREAN ARMY WAS DUE TO AN INCORRECT TRANSLATION. THE USE OF JAPANESE PLACE NAMES, HE SAID, ACTUALLY OCCURRED IN ONE OF THE CAPTURED DOCUMENTS, WHICH HAD BEEN TRANSLATED IN RUSSIAN.

COL.EDWARD R. OTT, U.S. INTELLIGENCE OFFICER, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE DOCUMENT HAD BEEN TRANSLATED FOR USE BY A SOVIET MILITARY ADVISER OR OBSERVER WITH THE NORTH KOREAN FOURTH DIVISION. RUSSIAN MAPS, HE SAID, USED JAPANESE PLACE NAMES.

GROSS ALSO MADE AVAILABLE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL PHOTOSTATIC COPIES OF THE DOCUMENTS. ONE WAS AN ATTACK PLAN FOR THE FOURTH DIVISION AND THE OTHER WAS A RECONNAISSANCE ORDER.
